County Annual Interscholastic League Meet Will Be Held In Clarendon Soon

Plans are going forward for the county meet of the Interscholastic League, which will be held here Friday and Saturday, March 23-24. Sloan Baker, county superintendent of schools, is director-general and has the cooperation of the business men of the town.

The following schedules and other information has been furnished the Leader by Mr. Baker:

All Donley county schools are members of the Interscholastic League this year. This one hundred percent membership entitles the contestants who win in the county, the District at Pampa and the Regional at Canyon a one hundred percent rebate on expenses to Austin. The Interscholastic League Bulletin for 1933 will be followed as to eligibility and rules. There have been a few changes. Typing is a district event under a late ruling instead of a county event. Essay writing is done the time of the contest and not before. Three R contest winners enter the State meet direct from the district meet, also first place winners in Rural Pentathlon. Tiny Tot Story Telling entries shall be eight years or younger, their story shall be from their readers, and shall be not longer than three minutes. The Story-Telling as outlined in the bulletin will be a separate event for third graders. Sub-junior declamation will follow the general rules of junior declamation. New events for Donley are the One Act Play and Choral Singing. State Meet in Track and Field Events for Class B Schools will be held at Denton, Texas, May 4th and 5th, 1934. All Donley county Class B Winners are eligible for entry.

Let us all pull together as contestants, coaches, teachers, patrons and directors to make the Donley County Meet this year a success. A bulletin board will be placed in the Hall of the College Building, and an information committee of Boy Scouts, instructed by Scoutmaster Day will be there to help everyone to find the place of the contests, and to give any information needed. Judges for debate and other literary events will be secured by a trade with McLean. Judges for the Athletic Events will be furnished from the Clarendon Junior College by Coach Stocking. A Director-Generals Committee composed of Elbert Bowen, Chairman, Dave Waldron and E. V. Cooper will receive reports of winners and work out All-Round Championship points so that the individual and school may receive exactly what they win. In this way Donley county expects to send a number of winners to the State this year.

CROWDED HOUSE GREET SINGERS AT CHAMBERLAIN

Goldston Wins Convention Next to Meet First Sunday in April

Eleven communities were represented at the singing convention held at the Chamberlain school house Sunday, besides a number from outside the county.

Communities represented were Martin, Goldston, Hudgins, Windy Valley, Hedley, Lelia Lake, Bray, Naylor, Midway, Brice and Clarendon.

Several communities staged select music by their own particular singers, this being a time-honored custom, and one followed at the Martin convention.

The Todd quartet from Brice rendered especially pleasing selections, and a quartet from Bray headed by Col Stiles is said to have found much favor in the estimation of the large crowd present that filled the house.

Preparations are already being made to exceed all previous efforts when the convention meets at the Goldston school on the first Sunday in April. This is also Easter Sunday, and a much larger crowd is expected to be present.

STUMPING THE LEADER

Short Nap Cost Local Man $250 Tuesday

While returning from Amarillo Tuesday afternoon, G. J. Teel fell asleep at a point between Washburn and Claude. His new Ford struck a road grader and turned over three times according to the grazer driver.

When Mr. Teel awoke, he and his Ford were on their backs, the Ford badly damaged and its owner unhurt even to a scratch. He purchased a new car after his damage to the old one being assessed at $250. Speaking of luck, who can match this one?

Clarendon Once Market For Kaffir at $525 a Ton

The reader may be skeptical when reading that headline, but it is a fact. At the same time hen eggs were going readily at $5 each. Turkey eggs ran as high as $25 each.

Those who kick at the price of 19 cents a gallon for gasoline may recall that it once sold here for 'only' $1.50 a gallon.

The above prices were actually paid here at a Red Cross auction following a speech by Senator Wadsworth on November 24, 1917 relates Mrs. Lona Shawver in her Texas Centennial column in a Wichita Falls daily.

Mrs. Shawver, well known in this section and a large ranch owner, announces that the total proceeds from the sale above referred to amounted to $1,695.75. This was during the World War when patriotism was at its peak in Texas.

Tims Opens Grocery Store Here This Week

Clarendon has a new grocery store this week when J. L. Tims opens for business next door to the Headrick hardware store. He has been conducting a general grocery business at Ashtola for the past several years, and was engaged in the same line of business at Hedley prior to moving to Ashtola.

Mr. Tims states that he will stock a complete line of groceries and buy all kinds of produce. Since he found that Leader advertising paid while at Ashtola, he will continue here with an advertisement each week telling Donley county folks what he has to induce them to give him a share of their business.

ASHTOLA SCHOOL GIVES PRACTICAL SHOP TRAINING

Principal Sid Thomas Has Secured State Aid For Better Equipment

Visitors to the Ashtola school on Tuesday or Thursday may be asked to step into the "barrel" while their pants are cleaned or pressed at the nominal sum of a dime. Ladies if so disposed, may have a dress cleaned for twice that amount.

While the cleaning and pressing department is busy, one may get a hair cut, pupils doing the work as a part of their vocational training similar to the cleaning department.

If, perchance, the visitor uses an auto, the boys will give it a paint job while you wait—provided you wait longer than is necessary for the cutting of the average head of hair.

Being located in the midst of a farming section, blacksmithing is an essential element to the success of the man who stirs the soil. Sharpening plow tools is included in the training of the younger generation taking pride in showing elders that all things are possible for those who try.

The furniture repair department yet in the experimental stage, has developed some talent that bids fair to turn out jobs that are a credit to the only rural school in the county giving practical instruction along the lines of vocational training.

Plant growing will be attempted as the season advances. Just what kind will be grown is not known at this time. This project will give the 'aggie' class ample opportunity to put to practical use some of the training received in their regular classes.

The state has contributed one hundred dollars for the purchases of more equipment for the vocational department of the school. Sid Thomas, farm raised principal of the Ashtola school, is receiving quite a lot of encouragement for his ability and interest in his pupils.

Supt. H. T. Burton attended a meeting of the National Superintendents' Association in Cleveland, Ohio the past week.

Denver Agricultural Agent Talks Canteloupe Deal

M. B. Oates, aggie man for the Denver road has been here the past few days in an effort to interest producers to enter upon the canteloupe production on a more extensive scale.

After California markets her melons, south Texas and then Wise county follows in regular order. The next crop is marketed from Colorado. It is to fill the gap between Wise county, Texas and Colorado over a three week period that local men are asked to supply.

Clarendon Band Broadcast Tuesday Afternoon

Quite a number here listened in on the Clarendon band broadcast about 5 p. m. Tuesday. The reception was good and the program highly appreciated.

Those assisting the band boys to reach Amarillo were Mrs. U. J. Boston, Mrs. Led Jay, Mrs. Claude McGowan, Homer Mulkey and Denis Davis.

The Parent-Teachers Association is sponsoring the Clarendon band, and members of that Association accompanied the band to Amarillo. Gus B. Stephenson as director led his gaily uniformed lads about the streets playing pep music which attracted attention from the large crowd calling attention to the fact that it was Clarendon Day at the Fat Stock Show.

Corn-Hog Contract Deadline Set at March 15th

The Committee having in charge the signing of corn-hog contracts are very desirous of getting all contracts signed up as soon as possible. This Committee has been notified by the Department that March 15th is the deadline for signing such contracts.

Local Boys Paid High Price For Baby Bees

At the auction of the baby bees at Amarillo this a. m., local boys received the following for their calves:

George Wayne Estlack 9 1/4 c a pound, Aubrey Brady 10c, John Howard Gilbert 10 1/4 c, and Walter Brady 10 1/2 c. This information came from Mrs. Brady who had the information from her husband, H. L. Brady by telephone from Amarillo.

VETERANS POST STAGES PROGRAM FRIDAY NIGHT

Varied Program Holds Large Crowd Until Late Hour With Merrymaking

Somehow the Legion boys have a knack of putting things over in their own original way. The annual smokeless smoker Friday night was another one of those affairs in which they excel.

Post Commander G. L. Boykin led the program with a carefully prepared speech on the "American Legion", its aims and objects. The speaker more particularly directed his remarks to the guests of the Post who were not familiar with the work of the Legion. His remarks were informative in the main and the information appreciated.

Judge W. T. Link was called upon for an impromptu talk. The Judge countered with pertinent jokes of an illustrative nature. His talk was for the entertainment of the audience and frequently brought forth applause.

Capt. Chas. B. Trent, reserve officer of the National Guard, explained the many technical details in case of an unexpected attack, etc. His talk was of a nature seldom heard by those without military training, and he was given rapt attention during his talk, the longest period of the evening.

Joe Holland as master of ceremonies, carried his program from the "sublime to the ridiculous" in keeping the boys on their toes. Legionaires were asked to introduce their guests in turn, and the guests were asked to tell at least one joke, most every one of which complied.

G. L. Boykin, G. G. Reeves, Dude Gentry and R. E. Drennon regaled the audience with "Sweet Adeline" as well as other numbers. The quartet was called on for an encore number but time was too pressing.

Excellent string music was supplied in copious quantities by Reid Aycock, Floyd Griffin and Joe David. These boys held the audience until the last man took his departure, and was one of the very most enjoyable features of the evening.

Doughnuts and coffee were served cafeteria style.

Sachse Infant is Buried Here Friday

After an illness of several weeks, the life of little Shirley Star Sachse aged 3 and a half-years, came to a close Thursday, March 1st. Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor of the First Methodist church conducted the funeral service at 3:30 p. m. Friday.

The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Star Sachse well known here and at Brice. All that medical skill and loving hands could do for little Shirley are now but a sweet remembrance. The Leader joins with the many friends of the bereaved family in expressing deepest sympathy.

Miss Anna Moores was an Amarillo visitor Tuesday.

* * * * * CWA BULLETIN * * * * *

Taking another reduction of 27 men, which is the smallest cut that has been given Donley County since discontinuation of CWA work has been started, this county's original quota of men is steadily declining. This office has received no information regarding any further plans for relief work of any nature; and, as stated above, reductions are still being authorized, carrying out the plan of discontinuing the CWA.

Direct relief will be continued to the needy as long as funds and surplus commodities are available; and there is apparently no reason for any suffering resulting from lack of food or other necessities.

The project for the moving of a 6 inch water line off the new Highway 5 right of way, near the Hall County Line, is being rushed to completion before CWA labor is discontinued entirely.

BASKETBALL TO FEATURE PROGRAM HERE TONIGHT

Boxing Matches Will Follow Ball Games Adding Spice To Entertainment

Basketball fans have something to look forward tonight at the local gym at the South Ward school when an all tournament team will play the independents. The game begins promptly at 7:30.

There has grown up a magnitude of friendly rivalry between the independents and the regular players. This promises to be a grand opportunity to even old scores as well as new.

In addition to the ball games, there will be staged two 3-round boxing bouts.

"Horseshoe" Moss will meet "Corridoe" Holtzclaw in what is alleged to be a flistic classic seldom seen this side of the city, for only a city will tolerate them.

Those who do not get their fill of gore in the above bout, will be pleased to see the "Masked Marvel" step into the ring to defy the onslaught of none other than old "Buggar Red Rogers" himself.

Pugs who follow the game have been hanging around the training camps for several days, according to "Pee-Wee" Stargel, promoter of the fisticuffs. Men of money and influence have been much in evidence and guards have stood over the gladiators day and night.

"Dempsey" Hudson will referee the games. Having gained valuable experience in refereeing other bouts in the larger cities of the county, referee Hudson will add zest to the mauling extravaganza with nothing more than his presence.

The admission charge alone would convince any one that the whole thing is on the level. A price of a dime—10 cents—will be charged to see the marvel of the ages, and one of the best bouts held here since the first of March.

Resident of Antelope Flat Died Last Night

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Bullard of Antelope Flat will be held here Friday according to meager advices learned this morning.

Funeral arrangements will be in charge of the Buntin Mortuary.

C. W. A. HEALTH ACTIVITIES IN DONLEY COUNTY

Mrs. Jerome D. Stocking As County Health Nurse Gets Cooperation

Although C. W. A. Nursing has only been available since January 1st much has been accomplished according to the monthly bulletin issued by the State Health Department. Approximately 180 counties in Texas have the service and more are being added weekly.

During the six-week period ending February 15th, 115,525 persons had heard health talks delivered by registered nurses, 7,274 home visits were made and 12,000 individual conferences were held.

The immunizing program has been outstanding in its results and its benefits can not be estimated. During the six weeks period 35,368 children have been immunized against diphtheria, 7,085 against typhoid fever and 9,555 received small pox vaccinations.

In Donley County alone, where the nursing activities did not begin until January 26th, Mrs. Jerome Stocking, C. W. A. Health Nurse reports 178 home visits, 74 individual conferences held and 69 nutrition programs outlined. In addition other health activities including home demonstrations have been carried on. Several group lectures were made throughout the county to large audiences.

The enthusiasm that has greeted the efforts of C. W. A. nursing on the part of the government for health protection indicates that the public is well aware of its benefits, according to the Bulletin printed at Austin.

HIGH BATTING AVERAGE.

Oklahoma has had three strikes and put out two governors since statehood. Murray now at the bat has high hopes of making a home run, while his enemies claim he is knocking only fouls.

THE IMPENDING CRISIS.

Corporations supplying raw material to publishers and printing plants have adopted a code. With this adoption, higher prices are being quoted of from 25 to 50 percent.

A COMMUNITY ASSET WORTH WHILE.

Silverton for many years was served with a weekly publication of little or no value. Finally R. B. Boyle sold his plant at Vega and took up residence at Silverton.

Very few of the smaller towns fall heir to newspaper ability. Still fewer express any sense of appreciation of newspaper efforts. Silverton is a town of enterprising citizens.

AUCTION BLOCK CENTENNIAL.

Starting out right from the beginning, Texas is going to show the world something new in the way of big exhibitions. Instead of selecting a spot made sacred by the heroism of the state's defenders of liberty way back yonder, the central point will be offered at auction—both public and private.

In other words, the town putting up the most money will get the Centennial headquarters. This is the plan of those taking charge of the effort in its beginning.

Logically, San Antonio with her Alamo, is the only place. Next would come Houston with her San Jacinto battlefield. Many other spots over the grand state are just as deserving but have no large towns near them.

As the matter now stands, Dallas, San Antonio, Houston and El Paso have an even break with possibly Ft. Worth taking the place of El Paso.

With Dallas we have no quarrel. Any town that will spend $125 in an attempt to prove the navigability of the Trinity when they have nothing more available than a span of mules and a "mud scow" to do it with, are entitled to some consideration.

Those who prefer to look upon a Centennial with reverence, might as well cast aside that sentimental attitude. Unless present plans are changed, she's going to be sold from the auction block to the highest bidder.

DESPERADOES DO DESPERATE DEEDS.

John Dillinger, captured in Tucson, Arizona recently by those whom he termed "hick" cops, escaped from an "escapeless" jail in Crown Point, Indiana Saturday.

John was permitted a knife with which he whittled away weary hours of planning. With his whittling, he is alleged to have fashioned a pistol with which he scared an unarmed guard into handing over the keys to his cell.

His next act was to take charge of the sheriff's sedan equipped with a short wave radio set, pronounced as the fastest car in the garage by the tenant.

Accompanied by a mechanic, John set out to 'go places and see things' again.

A similar stunt was pulled by Harvey Bailey at Dallas, since condemned for the kidnapping of Urschel, and given a life sentence.

Mind readers with plenty of members of his gang on the outside armed with real money, are always a menace to the peace and dignity of the nation, and a menace to the lives of honest peace officers.

Even before this appears in print, perhaps some peace officer who cannot be cowed with an imitation pistol, will have faced Dillinger. Officers in Tucson are said to have been offered fabulous sums to permit him to escape.

Officers of the law continue to be of two kinds—honest and otherwise.

ASHTOLA SCHOOL NEWS

THE LOG OF A PIRATE

The 1933-34 basketball season has closed, and from the point of view of the Ashtola Pirates it has been quite a success. We fought hard and we have won. During the present season out of 28 games played we have lost only 4, and only one of those was to a school in our class.

Our complete schedule for the entire season follows:

Table with 2 columns: Ashtola and Opposing team. Lists games and scores for various teams like Clarendon Jr. High, Lelia Lake, Goodnight, etc.

As was predicted last week our Pirate and Pirata crews did give a good account of themselves in the tournament this past week end at Hedley. The Pirates were crowned 1934 Donley County Class B Champions.

The scores in the tournament were:

Table with 2 columns: Ashtola and Opposing team. Lists final scores for Ashtola vs Lelia Lake, Windy Valley, and Chamberlain.

Foster Gregg, forward, and C. P. Jones, guard, were given places on the all-county class B team. Gregg is the leading forward in the county, and he is certainly deserving of the honor bestowed upon him by the coaches of the county.

substitute guard, saw much service also, and gave a splendid account of himself.

But while recounting the events of the tournament, we must not fail to give our sister Piratas the praise due them. Chamberlain and Skillet forfeited games to them, and they went to the finals with Lelia Lake.

A high-light of the game was a stunt between halves by the Pirates. After answering the call of their grand captain, Richard Hatley, the crew arranged themselves in line, with interlocked hands and did a dance step forward to center of the court where they halted and rendered "I'm a Pirate Bold." The stanza was sung by Richard Hatley, with the entire Crew joining in the chorus.

Our Junior girls acquitted themselves admirably and we are justly proud of them for bringing back the championship in their division. They showed speed, accuracy in passing and team work, unusual for juniors.

Now, since basketball is a thing of the past, we turn our attention to tennis, Volley ball, track, and baseball. The basketball goals have been taken down and the court converted into a tennis court.

Six-week exams are over and the instructors report better grades and a better brand of work done than in any previous six-week period of the year.

The Home Economics department is progressing nicely and the girls all seem interested in this new phase of work.

The Farm Mechanics class continues to do things. The following was accomplished last week: About 16 hair cuts given.

A leaky radiator soldered. A home-ec table made. All the basketball suits cleaned. Several other dresses, trousers, etc. cleaned.

The T-Anchor cowboys from W.T.S.T.C. at Canyon will entertain with a program at Ashtola Thursday evening. Their songs and rope tricks and jokes will amuse and delight the audience.

The Operetta "The Pastry Cook and the Pirates," will be staged on Friday March 17. This is something entirely different from programs usually seen in rural schools.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH

That sandstorm Saturday was almost a flop due to the rain. It held on until drouded out by Col. Flop Pyle's rain. There may be very few sandstorms during March due to the rain that has been predicted. Far be it from me to spoil the prognostications of Mr. Pyle. He started when rains were unpopular and made a success of it. Luck to him.

A lawyer from this section who was in Austin recently, was reminded by the Chairman of the Highway Commission that he was well acquainted with the Donley County Leader. Without inquiring into what was said, we naturally think that Judge Ely told Mr. Wood about the Leader. Judge Ely used to maintain a voluntary clipping bureau here during the bond issue scrap in old Donley county. In fact Ely was encouraged to bring suit "or sompin" to stop the Leader from raising so much cain about the bonds being saddled off on us. Anyway, we kept right up with the clipping bureau all the time.

Col. E. L. Kennedy down near Ft. Worth renews his subscription writing a letter on perfumed stationery. That's what picture shows in a city will do for a man.

A dandy goon grade of overalls were sold here the past week for 98c. Any man who can do that ought to tell the whole trade territory about it. They have been going as high as $1.98.

The first pinon (pinyone) nuts were placed on sale here the last of the week by Ed Fox at the City Grocery. They are parched and marketed in a glassine package. If you want something extra good, here's your chance. These nuts grow on native trees only to be found in northwest New Mexico and northeast Arizona.

L. W. Chase, young man residing on East First street, has the first garden of 1934 in sight. He has not lived these 84 years for nothing, and among the things he has learned, is gardening.

Bachelor Bill says that a woman will either fight for her man, or with him. She never stands for any outside interference in either case.

What we would like to hear is a program made up of first-class novelty numbers. For instance a whistling duet by Mrs. Virginia Schull and Thomas Perkins, and a yodeling solo by Miss Lovie Beavers. All are extra good in their line and we want to right here express the appreciation of a large number who have heard them in times past.

The recent rain was the biggest event since the school debate held at Crooked Creek down in Jack county several years ago. The subject of the debate was: "Resolved that Jack county will be the richest county in the state when the rocks rot." The affirmative easily won amid applauses that knocked shingles off the roof.

Cub Hedgpath looking at the Intertype machine in the shop Friday inquired how many hand type setters it displaced. "It took at least six off the job," the operator replied. "Well, that is the thing my wife should have married," Cub commented.

There are plenty of signs everywhere. But some wont "go", some wont "stop", some never use any "caution", and some don't believe in signs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hott and grandson Athal Royce were pleasant callers in the Leader office Saturday. E. M. has been listing since the rains and states that a number of others of the Chamberlain community have been doing the same to take advantage of the moisture for early planting.

Honorary degrees don't mean a blamed thing. They are a lot of 'hoovey' staged for the egotistical. For instance, the LLB when conferred as an honorary measure, does not entitle the recipient to practice law without further preparation. A DD after a fellow's name does not make him a better preacher. It just means that he has been somewhere. Honorary degrees, leather medals and soap coupons come along in about the same class. Yes, and loving cups might be added. Neither of them will get a man a job, or buy a biscuit.

Going over to visit with the veterans Friday night as a guest of R. W. Moore was more than an enjoyable affair. The program was great, especially the jokes. Everybody staid on the reservation until one Nelson Robinson defied mob law and made a verbal attack while "not an ex-soldier discharged his farewell shot." Disdaining to joke, but being a man strongly impregnated with undefiled truths, this unsullied orator of Midway trained his verbal barrage on his innocent victims for the second onslaught before he exacted his "pound of flesh." Insofar as the alleged joke of Nelson Robinson afforded his hearers a horrible example to point a moral or adorn a tale, to clinch an argument where not even the "slander held" is barred, no exception is taken save in behalf of truth. Jeff Davis of Arkansas cannot be compared with Nels in any language except the slanderous.

The Legion boys put on a great show. Great because every one felt at ease and enjoyed everything to be seen or heard. Thank you boys, thank you!

And didn't Joe Holland get over big with his toastmaster stuff? While he appeared to be floored at times, he came up from the mat a bit groggy and continued to perform his duty. The fact that he went down for the count of eight during the decapitating process upon the person of Pat Longan is no reflection on his ability as a toastmaster, but is largely due to the fact that he has never functioned as one of the principals in a private domestic battle. Joe is a bachelor, also a toastmaster, master of ceremonies, umpire, mediator and dispenser of good cheer.

To my mind there is no greater tragedy in life than for a mother to grasp to her bosom her little one as it enters the valley of the shadow of death, and return with empty arms. For her there is a divine hope in eternity, but to continue this life with but the sweet memory of her babe's image pictured in her mind, is humanity's greatest tragedy. Divine Providence arranged for time to heal wounds, and it does to a great extent, but that love-hunger of a mother lives on through the years. Unconsciously she listens for little footsteps, and worships imprinted soiled stains in the home made with hands that can no longer grasp her round the neck and speak a language that only mothers understand. Fathers, too, grasp the significance of the statements above in many instances. Home never is the same again. There is a missing link in the family chain and the mind refuses to forget. Having experienced that tragedy, my sympathy naturally goes out to the parents of little Shirley Star Sachse, the little girl of three and a half years who passed to that "home not made with hands" Thursday. The interest "over there," changes the world "here."

Poke salad days are right 'round the corner. That is if a raw north-er doesn't follow these balmy spring days. Our best gardeners are planting English peas, snap beans and setting out onions already. My plan in planting English peas is to plant them in a furrow or trench about eight inches deep, covering the seed to a depth of about two inches. Draw the dirt to the vines as they grow and when the ground is level the vines will have a fine root system that will carry them along until the hot winds kill them in mid-summer. Otherwise, if planted shallow, you get about one good picking and they turn yellow and quit. There may be better plans, but this has worked out nicely for me.

Another thing! Since the yard at the Dr. J. W. Evans home has been pretty and green all winter, and will look even better in warm weather, why couldn't we have more such pretty yards?

Health of Children Demands Milk Tuberculin Test

Austin, Texas, March 6.—Pure milk is Nature's most nearly perfect food, according to the Texas State Department of Health, and persons should be sure that the cows which produce the milk they use are in a healthy condition.

It is estimated that 2 per cent of all milk cattle have bovine type tuberculosis. Tuberculin testing of cattle will definitely prove whether the cow has tuberculosis. If a person owns their own cow, she should be tested, and if milk is being purchased, the purchaser should make sure that the cattle in the dairy he patronizes are free of this disease. These tests should be made each year, and if milk stock is to be purchased, they should be tested before completion of the sale.

About twenty-five per cent of all tuberculosis in children is of the bovine type—fatal bovine tuberculosis after the fifth year is rare. It generally attacks the lymph glands and bones. When not fatal, this disease, when it attacks the joints or bones, usually leaves the child crippled for life.

The C. W. A. has created a fund to pay for the destruction of each tuberculin cow. Of course, the disease must be certified by an accredited veterinarian. The State Live Stock Sanitary Commission and State Department of Health are very anxious to control this disease. The former to improve the dairy herds and the Health Department to protect the public health. Every one can help by demanding that the cows where they purchase milk be tuberculin tested.

THE REAL FORGOTTEN MAN

The man at the very bottom of the heap of forgotten men and institutions has been discovered by the Gibson City Courier, of Gibson City, Ill. Says the Courier:

"It is now time for the Government to give its attention to the FCE, meaning the forgotten country editor. He has been forgotten by the forgotten merchant, who for three years forgot to advertise, by the subscriber who forgot to pay his subscription renewals, and by the forgetful Government which has used the FCE for vast columns of free publicity and propaganda, without which the grand old NRA, AAA, CWA, et cetera, would have been dismal duds. The problems and perplexities of these three or four years have just about disqualified the county editor for his time-honored claim to a complimentary ticket at St. Peter's gate. Perhaps, when better times finally arrive, however, his temper will improve and bring forth fruits for repentance which will reinstate him in the place where good editors go; where he can exchange his harp for an old typewriter and sit on a white cloud writing reams of copy with spicy items from the other region for the edification of the saved."

But even then, he probably will be trying to remind his readers of things they have "forgotten."

ROUT OIL BOOTLEGGERS

Sinclair Dealers defeat motor oil substitution with new TAMPER-PROOF can Motor oil bootleggers are clever! By hook or by crook they've managed here and elsewhere to substitute inferior oils—even "reclaimed" crankcase drainings—for motor oils of honest reputation. Some authorities estimate that as much as 25% of all motor oil sold in America today is "bootleg".

But Sinclair dealers here have met this menace. They serve you from the new Sinclair 1-quart or 5-quart Tamper-Proof can—a can that can't be opened for serving you without smashing it beyond all repair. And it's smashed before your very eyes.

These cans come to the dealer straight from the Sinclair refinery where they are filled (and sealed) with Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, mellowed 80 million years, or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil, "mellowed a hundred million years". They're dirt-proof, contamination-proof—and an absolute guarantee against motor oil substitution.

Protect yourself—get your money's worth—ask for Sinclair Motor Oil in the Tamper-Proof can. This service costs you nothing extra.

KEMP-CAUTHEN

At seven o'clock Thursday evening, at the First Baptist church, a beautiful and impressive wedding was solemnized when Miss Elizabeth Kemp became the bride of Mr. Sam Cauthen with Rev. B. N. Shepherd officiating.

The church was banked with green pot plants and trailing ferns over which a soft glow of light was shed from tall white gleaming tapers.

Cut flowers on the piano and in a large floor basket placed near the altar gave a touch of color to the lovely setting.

For the pre-nuptial music, with Mrs. Allen Bryan accompanying at the piano, Miss Anna Moores sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life." And Mrs. G. L. Boykin played Schubert's "Ava Maria" on the violin after which Mrs. J. L. McMurtry sang "I Love You Truly."

To the strains of Lohengrin wedding march played by Mrs. Allen Bryan, Messrs. Byrum Haile, Johnny Blocker, Carol Hudson and Tony Watson as ushers, preceded the brides maids, Meses Jean Bourland, Pauline Sanford, Dorothy Joe Taylor and Jo Ella Stewart. Miss Carol Holder, maid of honor was followed by Mrs. Byrum Haile as matron of honor. The bride entered on her father's arm and was met at the altar by the groom, with the best man, Mr. Glen Allison.

The brides maids wore soft clinging dresses of crepe in the pastel shades with hats to match and carried bouquets of sweet peas, baby breath, and fern. The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin with hat of the same and carried a colonial bouquet of pink rose buds.

A covering of white muslin for the floor was unrolled preceding the bride, and a white silk pillow on which the bridal couple knelt, was placed at the chancel rail. Mendelshonn wedding march was used for the recessional.

After the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. The host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Kemp, and Mrs. Linnie Cauthen, mother of the groom, received the guests at the door.

Blooming pot plants and green ferns together with cut flowers were used about the rooms.

A beautiful decorated wedding cake on which stood a miniature bride and groom was used for the centerpiece on the table. Sprays of green fern and sweet peas were banked around the cake and tall pink tapers in silver holders were used at either end. Small bits of Lilly of the Valley was tied to streamers of narrow white ribbon which hung from the chandelier above the table.

After congratulations, the wedding cake was cut and served with ice cream and coffee.

"ONE STOP SERVICE"

* CHAMBERLAIN * * SCHOOL NEWS *

Well, the basketball meet is over and Ashtola took the title away from us. Chamberlain had no girls team in the tournament. The boys won three games but lost the fourth to Ashtola by eight points. We are glad Ashtola won the tournament; they are known by us to be good, clean sports. Several of the Chamberlain boys were sick with the measles and we didn't have all our first-string out.

The Chamberlain school hopes to be represented by a great number of entrants in the Interscholastic League this time. Among the literary events we will enter the One-Act play contest and the Choral Club contest for singers. We should place in both events.

The Donley County Singers' Convention met at Chamberlain Sunday with a large attendance. There were certainly some good singers here.

From now on watch in the paper for our school news and read about what we are doing.

Seventh Grade News
All of us got eliminated in spelling except three. They are Mary Katherine Hardin, June Harrison and Carl Webb. The rest of us have to take spelling out of the book.

A few of the seventh grade boys are entering in the track meet.

Most of us are back to school from measles. There are a few that can't come yet.

In English our teacher reads us some stories and we have to write them in our own words.

We have a lot of fun with the new play ground ball. Mr. Jackson bought for us.

In history we are studying about Andrew Jackson. In Government we are studying about the Senate, Representatives and Congress. In Geography we are studying with the sixth grade.

Mrs. Mosley has a list of mistakes that we make in English. If she catches us making them again we have to write a theme or make a speech.

Sixth Grade News
There are seven in the sixth grade and only three are present. The rest have the measles. Those measles are making this school pretty poor. Frances Hott, James Heathington, Joe Frank Heathington, and Rebecca are the ones that are absent and Ray Isham, Tick Barbee and Alice Russell are the ones present.

Some of the sixth grade pupils are going to enter in track. Ray Isham in broad jump and Tick Barbee in the one-half mile.

Chamberlain is going to have a junior ball team.

We will be glad when the rest of our grade gets over the measles so we can put on a play. The name of it is, "Going to Carterville." It is just a one-act play.

All of the boys in the sixth and seventh grade got a whipping for playing keeps with marbles. Max Wilson a seventh grade boy told on us and he played himself.

We are glad our school has started back again. It has been out eight days but it seems like eight weeks.

Carl Webb spent Sunday night with Ray Isham.

Jack Hayes is in Wichita Falls on personal business.

KNEE-ACTION MANUFACTURING IS EXPLAINED

A red-hot steel bar is threaded into the jaws of a massive machine that winds the 93-inch length into a glowing coil 10 inches long—and another knee-action spring is born.
Strips of heavy-gauge steel are fed through gigantic stamping machines, and two of the resulting oddly shaped shells are clamped together for an instant in a spluttering, flashing electric welder—to emerge as armored housings for knee-action spring assemblies.

A LIVE TOWN

A Grayson County lady asks, "What constitutes a live town?" State Press isn't sure, for sure. But his general idea is that a live town is one populated by citizens who are not dead on their feet, men and women who love their own streets and houses, who are familiar with local problems and confident of the future. Furthermore, a live town has a wide-awake newspaper, which in turn, contacts enterprising business men and intelligent readers. A live town has stocks of goods adequate to demand, and merchants who are not afraid of competition. A live town contains good schools and supports its churches and its laws. A live town, we take it, doesn't decorate with crepe, encourage cobwebs or choose pessimists for its spokesmen.—State Press, in Dallas News.

termination to revolutionize motoring by changing the roughness of the ride to the smoothness of a glide. First came the decision that, to attain the utmost in riding qualities, the conventional stiff front spring must give place to a construction in which the spring should have no other duty than easing the ride.
When the engineers had arrived at their final design, there was still another great task to be done—that of devising and procuring the machines and tools to produce the parts, and creating in the Detroit plant the organization and system needed for quantity production. It meant new machines, new methods, new man-power.
The quantity manufacture of precision-built heavy-duty coil springs, the most exacting unit of the new device, had never been attempted before in any industry, and it was necessary for Chevrolet to make the first production set-up to turn out large coil springs accurate to standards undreamed of in previous practice.

Housing Protects Spring

In the Chevrolet type of independent spring suspension, the entire mechanism is built into a housing which turns with the wheel on the king pin in steering. Besides serving as a mounting for the mechanism, the housing provides an air-tight reservoir for the oil that serves both as lubricant and as shock-absorber fluid; and it safeguards the springs from accidental damage that might result from flying stones or workers' tools if the springs were left exposed.
The housing is made from two stampings from steel 5-32 inch thick, but welded in a battery of four electric welding machines. Each half is clamped in a fixture, and held firmly against the other under hydraulic pressure to insure close contact during the welding. Three air-pressure tests are made to insure against leaks.
Chevrolet's springs are made of round bars of spring steel having a tensile strength of 190,000 lbs. A section cut to 93 1/2 inches forms a single spring of 10 1/2 to 11 coils. The finished spring has a compression rate of one inch for each 1520 pounds load.

Colling Springs at 1600 Degrees

The bars are heated to 1600 degrees, then fed directly to the coiling machines. Jaws grip the end and draw it around a revolving arbor. In front of the arbor is a deeply-grooved spiral guide roller. The rod, running in the grooves, is given the proper feed to space the coil correctly. After heat treating, the coil is finally a spring, having been given the temper that insures its elasticity and its ability to withstand repeated compression and shocks.
The spring passes twice through a grinder, each end in turn being ground smooth and flat. This operation reduces the length to 9 11-16 inches, and insures that the ends are parallel to within .005 inch. A final minute inspection checks the springs for size and defects; a spring that is scratched or dented is rejected.
Two unusually difficult operations mark the fabrication in the Chevrolet forge shop, which is the largest in the world in number of hammers and in output, of the king-pin yoke and the steering knuckle, both made of chrome-nickel steel. Chevrolet resorted to the extruding process to form on the forgings deep flanges to correspond to the pressed steel units to which they are to be welded. It is believed that this is one of the heaviest extrusion operations in regular use.

Welds Heavily Tested

Severe tests are applied to the welds. The king-pin weld receives a torsional test, equivalent to the load of a 200 pound weight on a 10-foot radius. The knuckle weld is subjected to a shock test.
Twenty-four steam hammers and 400 men are constantly engaged in the forging of knee-action parts.
To provide bearings of the utmost smoothness and hardness,

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

Minister First Christian Church

"The Three Looks."
Text: "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth, for I am God and there is none else." Isa. 45:22.

There are three great facts in redemption, namely, atonement, advocacy, and advent; and there are three looks corresponding to these three facts.

I. THE BACKWARD LOOK.
"Look unto me and be ye saved all ye ends of the earth. The eye is first carried back to the cross and to Christ's finished work thereon accomplished. Before one can be saved from past sins they must look back to Jesus as the World's Saviour who paid the price of the atonement for the sins of mankind.

"There is life for a look at the Crucified One.
There is life at this moment for thee."

II. THE UPWARD LOOK.
"Looking unto Jesus as the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." (Heb. 12:2). There we see Christ as the advocate, pleading sinner's cases before God. The lawyer must be in court if he would conduct the suit of his client, and therefore Christ has gone "to appear in the presence of God for us." He is the advocate of all who will accept Him and obey Him. We all need an advocate in God's presence.

III. THE ONWARD LOOK.
"Looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great and blessed God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." (Tit. 2:13). This is the true expectation of the believer who waits for full salvation. Our Lord compares Himself to a nobleman gone into a far country to receive for Himself a kingdom and return. It is for us to work and wait for that return, that we may share that kingdom forever with Him.

Jesus is coming back again, to receive His own, to crown and bless them eternally. Have we looked back to Him as He gave His life for us, and accepted Him and His Gospel? Are we looking upward and trusting Him to plead our case? Are we looking forward to His returning, and witnessing for Him with our words, lives and daily practices? He is coming back, let's work and strive to hasten that great day. Let's be ready for Him when He comes.

BASKETBALL IS BIG ATTRACTION OVER TWO DAYS

Ashtola Boys And Lelia Lake Girls Win Championships In County Contests

Director Dave Waldron reports a full account of the basketball tournament as follows:

"The annual rural basketball tournament was staged in Hedley last Friday and Saturday with the following schools competing in various divisions: Ashtola, Martin, Goldston, Chamberlain, Hudgins, Windy Valley, Lelia Lake, Sunnyview, Midway, Bray, McKnight and Giles. A few schools failed to enter in each division due to measles and other epidemics in community.

Each session was attended to a capacity of enthusiastic fans. Schools and patrons gave much interest and support toward their respective school. To the last round the coaches and fans were satisfied, and appreciation is for those coaches who tried to cooperate and those who did cooperate in the general routine schedule of the meet. With this cooperation the officials kept the schedule clicking throughout tournament even to a few dissatisfied "hitches."

Hedley school officials received due thanks of appreciation and their hospitalities given to tournament and the use of gym.

There were several thrillers throughout the elimination. The greatest came Saturday morn between senior boys of Ashtola and Windy Valley. Ashtola survived after forty minutes tit-for-tat of hair-raising excitement by 30 to 29. Windy Valley led the last few minutes until Gregg of Ashtola tied score with free toss and immediately sunk a field goal to take lead that was never overcome. It is opinion Gregg of Ashtola was the star of the tournament. There was an all-star cast selected for first and second teams of which names at present are not available.

Ashtola senior boys eliminated the strong team from Chamberlain in the finals. Lelia Lake girls held the champ's crown by defeating Ashtola. Ashtola's junior girls took final from the snappy Goldston girls. A dark horse galloped forth in junior boy's division from Giles to win over Windy Valley's "scrapers."

Gregg of Ashtola was easily high pointer with 45. J. B. Duckett and Reid of Chamberlain followed with 31 and 27 respectively. Hughes of Windy Valley trailed with 21 points turned in from only two games. Of Senior girls, M. Cruse of Lelia Lake was high point girl to register 26, followed by M. Gerner of Lelia Lake for 22, and Gregg of Ashtola for 18. Other high points: Jr. boys, Thomas, Giles 28; E. Hughes, W. Valley 23; W. Grimmsley of Lelia Lake 14. Junior girls of Ashtola: Gregg, Tomlinson and Knox, respectively.

Roy Stargel refereed tournament in the usual first class manner of his officiating. He was assisted, after a misunderstanding, by Arnold White of McKnight in the girl's final game.

Coach Lee Nowlin's Owlettes took the big end of an exhibition game Saturday night from Wellington high sextet.

Another exhibition game was played Saturday night by the coaches and "pedagogues." Teams and fans look forward to such scrimmages and they were not disappointed when "Mr. America" opened clash with one of his favorite long goals of unwinding activity. Anyway old Geo. can be depended upon in a game and amusing the fans. The Blacks: Bowen, Sloan Baker, Kavanaugh, Thomas, Nowlin, and Jonesie were too much for the Reds, especially since Bowen was not on the Red's lineup. The Reds boosted Jackson and Behringer for their team with Waldron, and assisted by Swinney and Mann of Windy Valley school. Each school participated was muchly benefitted and each student enjoyed the meet as well as they do regulation school days. Besides schools were brought together in form of organization."
