CLARENDON BOY CROSSES NATION IN RECORD TIME

Vice President TWA Flying Mail Service Formerly Resided Here

Back in February when the contracts with the airways mail service was discontinued, Jack Frye made the last transcontinental trip Los Angeles to Newark in 13 hours and 2 minutes elapsed time.

Sunday that contract was resumed and again Jack Frye was at the controls to make the same trip—Los Angeles to Newark. He clipped off part of his former record and established a new record in mail flying time of 11 hours and 27 minutes.

A Northrup Gamma plane was used Sunday. The February record was made with a Douglas airliner. The plane Sunday carried 355 pounds of mail and 85 pounds of express leaving Los Angeles at 2 a. m. and landing at Newark, N. J. at 4:33 p. m.

Jack is a son of Dr. W. H. Frye of Sulphur, Oklahoma and formerly resided here. He early had a penchant for flying and went to California several years ago with that intention. He was hostler for the first company and gradually worked his way up. When TWA was organized, Jack was made a vice president stockholder and placed in charge of operations. He crossed a part of the Panhandle in his flight Sunday.

His many friends in Clarendon are proud of his record and wish him continued success in the furtherance of economical mail service for the government for which his company has recently taken a new contract.

Old Time Denver Employee Died Sunday Afternoon

Few employees on the Denver had a wider acquaintance than did Dan Bell who passed away at Amarillo Sunday. For a long number of years he plied his trade as a bridge carpenter and made his headquarters in Clarendon. He had been retired on a pension for a number of years, and recently made his home in Amarillo when failing health compelled him to be near his children.

Surviving him are four daughters, Pauline, Louise, Ray and Mabel, the last named being married. Funeral services were conducted at Amarillo Monday.

AMPLE RAINFALL MAKES FOR IDEAL CROP PLANTING

Donley County Has Best Planting Season In Many Years

Farmers the past week have declared conditions ideal for planting following the rainfall of Sunday night that averaged a half inch over most of the county except north and northwest portions in the wheat belt.

The five inches of moisture earlier put a 'ground' season into the soil making the moisture meet for the first time in many months.

First plantings of corn is now up to a good stand. Hundreds of acres of cotton are to be planted this week. Sudan pastures were planted following the big rain of several days ago, and will soon insure milk cow pasture and more cream sales.

In addition to crop plantings, more attention is to be given the planting of food crops this season for home canning. Hundreds and thousands of tomatoes alone have been sold by local plant growers the past ten days. Most all of this planting is being made for home canning.

The canning now is largely done by the pressure cooker process, large numbers owning the combination machine that permits them to use tin cans, most of them using the cans a second and third time. The machine cuts off the top of the old can, makes a new flange and is easily sealed again. Meats are canned by the same process.

Hugh Eldridge Buys Poultry & Egg Company

A deal was made this week whereby Hugh Eldridge becomes owner of the stock and equipment of the Clarendon Poultry & Egg company being operated by Judge Hubert P. Day in the Buntin building.

Mr. Eldridge has had previous experience in this line while an employee of the Dunn produce company. He states that the grocery stock will be enlarged and an appeal made to the trade by buying poultry, eggs, cream, hides, etc.

Farmers Take More Kindly To Produce Line

With higher prices, more producers of cream and eggs are finding a ready market for their products locally. A number of farmers state that all family expenses are being paid, and some even more than that, with cream and eggs.

The Farmers Exchange here reports to have paid out $256.84 for cream and $72.60 for eggs last week alone. A meeting will be held in Childress the 24th instructing buyers of cream to grade cream closer in order to bring up the price. The care of the cream has a lot to do with the selling price, and will play a more important part after the 24th.

Highway Bids Open May 28th

Bids on eleven state highway projects estimated to cost $410,000, and three NRA jobs to cost approximately $265,000 are to be let the 28th of this month. The projects are located in fourteen counties, most of them said to be in the north and northwestern part of the state.

It is not definitely known at this time if Donley county will be included as all right-of-way must be paid for before bids can be let. Warrants are being paid out this week on right-of-way on Highway 370 from Clarendon east to the Hall county line.

OUR NEW PROBLEM

Smith Brothers Get Many Signed Up For Company Contracts

Armed with one thousand blank contracts, County Attorney R. Y. King and T. M. Pyle started out the first of the week securing signers on gas contracts for Smith Brothers Gas company, recently granted a franchise in Clarendon.

Both men state that they find very few who refuse to sign up for their employers, several of whom sign after giving the matter deliberate thought.

The franchise calls for work to begin on the project within ninety days from date of signing last week, and that service must be supplied here within six months. The gas supply is to come from wells owned by the company north-east of McLean and approximately seventy miles distant, according to Bert Smith, local representative of his company.

A supply by the same company is receiving favorable consideration from Hedley, Memphis, Childress and intermediate points, it is said. Reports are that the same main that supplies Clarendon will supply the other towns along the Denver.

Ft. Worth & Denver Changes Schedule May 20th

Through trains Nos. 7 and 8 will run through to Houston. Train No. 8 will leave Clarendon 11:01 p. m. This train will arrive at Houston at 1:50 p. m. next day. Train No. 7 will leave Houston at 4 p. m. and arrive here 6:32 a. m. the following morning.

The soft ball fans of the city have been entertained with some real fast ball playing during the past week, and the interest manifested in the teams has been very keen.

Thursday evening the Methodist and Highway boys played a fast and interesting game in which the Methodists won by a score of 12 to 10. Summary: Methodist, 12 runs, 18 hits. Highway 10 runs and 15 hits.

Friday afternoon the Presbyterian and Baptist No. 6 had the field and the Presbyterians carried away the big end of the score. Summary, Presbyterians, 12 runs, 18 hits. Baptist No. 6, 3 runs and 7 hits.

Monday was the day of action. The Baptist No. 7 and Highway were to play but due to some unforeseen circumstances the Baptist boys failed to appear and just a few of them picked players from the crowd and played the Highway boys a practice game which resulted in a tie. The score being 16 to 16. By a mistake on the part of the score keeper the game closed and the Baptist thought they had one run to the good.

Tuesday afternoon the Methodist and Christian teams met in a battle. For awhile the Methodist had the lead, the Christians made a rally in the 5th inning and run in 8 runs but the Methodist boys came back with blood in their eyes and won the game by a score of 18 to 12.

Wednesday evening the fans witnessed one of the fastest and hardest fought games of the season. The Presbyterians and Highway boys put up a hard battle and not until the last inning could one decide who were winning. The final score at the close of the 7th inning was Presbyterians 8, Highway 9.

Charley A. Crow and B. Frank Jackson of the Smith country had business here Monday.

Rooster Mothers Eighty Plymouth Rock Chicks

Once more Donley county scores as a poultry production section. The rooster owned by Mrs. Lena Dilli not only mothers the chicks but scratches for them and fights dogs that happen around.

He, she or it also "clucks" to them, for the rooster is a capon, hatched in July of 1933. Mrs. Dilli resides east of Goldston and makes somewhat of a specialty of a fine grade of plymouth Rocks.

The order was passed by the County Commissioners at their meeting Monday, and is in accordance with an agreement between the Commissioners and the land owners made several months back.

The warrants will be issued against the Road & Bridge fund of Precinct 1, 2 and 3 only as Precinct 4 does not share in the highway directly.

Bumper Fruit Crop Prospects Over Donley County

According to general information, Donley county fruit growers have the best fruit prospect in years at this time. Apricots and other fruits that seldom bear due to late frosts, are loaded this year in most every instance.

Peaches, seldom bearing a fruit crop and failing entirely most of the time, will be one of the most profitable early market crops this season barring hail storms. Major Hudson brought a small limb of a peach to the Leader office Monday that had twenty peaches on a limb measuring twenty-six inches in length.

Cherries and grapes, the surest crops, are loaded this season. Apples and other fruits bid well to make a record yield.

REMISSION OF PENALTIES MADE ON BACK TAXES

Limited Time For Payment Is Prescribed by City Authorities

The remission of interest and other penalties on delinquent taxes by the City Commissioners appears to have met with popular approval the past week according to expressions of property owners.

The time limit expires July 15th, 1934 according to Mr. Connelly who states that the city authorities are making every effort to cooperate with taxpayers in getting back to a sound basis. He states that it is necessary that collections be made in order for the City to meet obligations now pressing.

Not only that, but partial payments will be accepted, Mr. Connelly states. With more than $49,000 in delinquent taxes on the rolls, every reasonable effort must be made to secure collections, he says.

THE RECKLESS ELEMENT.

Except for a few things, we have a great state of wonderful resources, and except for a certain element, as fine a lot of people as ever lived. We pay out about $40,000,000.00 annually in gas tax a large proportion of which is burned coming away from "some place headed for nowhere." But this is nobody's business except the folks directly affected by the expense. One cent for every gallon of gasoline sold goes into the school fund, and another cent goes to pay bonded indebtedness. The remainder is spent on the highways after salaries have been provided which does not leave much over half for road construction.

If more people would behave themselves, what a difference it would make in our tax burdens. The crime tax amounts to over a million dollars a year in Texas, or about $17 per man, woman and child if each had to pay the bill directly. Many think the crime wave would be greatly lessened if juries did their duty after obsolete laws were culled out of the statute book.

QUESTIONABLE JURYMEN.

However hard law enforcement officials may try to stem the tide of wholesale crime, it must become at times disgusting when the matter is finally left to a jury decision. Courts often come in for censure and rightly so in some instances. Judges, prosecutors and peace officers also are entitled to blame for a lack of proper prosecution of some cases, the censure coming from the general public. It is also a well known fact that juries are selected from the general public.

In the recent trial of the Hamilton case at Dallas, two jurors deadlocked the death penalty agreement because, as they are alleged to have said, Hamilton was not given the death penalty in a similar robbery case months previous. The ten men who stood solidly for the death penalty for a habitual criminal who already has 263 years stacked against him, is to be commended. Those two men held no regard for human life because they had to deal with a killer already adjudged a habitual criminal. He qualified for the death penalty by robbing a bank. The state has already spent several fortunes prosecuting him with prison sentences as a result. He escaped and will likely escape again.

Crooked jurors often base their decisions on flimsy excuses. A juror who fails in his duty is as guilty as the accused simply because he places his stamp of approval on the crime committed.

There is but one penalty for professional robbers and killers—the electric chair. Hamilton had voluntarily forfeited his right to live regardless of what the two jurors thought about the matter.

WHAT THE MOTOR CAR PAYS

We wonder if the people who drive cars realize how much they contribute to the greasing of the government's wheels? The Texas Tax Journal in a recent issue gives the sources from which the state derives its revenues. It will be a surprise to know that the gasoline and license tax largely exceed the entire tax received from all ad valorem taxes. For 1932 the state taxes received from all sources of property (ad valorem) amounted to $24,175,000. That same year the gasoline tax brought into the state treasury $28,213,020 and the car license tax brought in an additional $3,639,619, making a total of $31,852,639. In other words the owners of motor cars paid $7,644,639 more to run the state than all the lands, houses, railroads, factories and every other kind of real estate. And in addition to this, more than two million dollars were collected on oil royalties owned by the state and from taxes on crude oil. Then Uncle Sam came in last year with a tax of 1 1/2 cents a gallon, and while we do not have the figures on what this amounted to, it was certainly more than $10,000,000 from Texas alone. And then the national government puts a heavy tax on new cars and the state makes you render your old car for taxation.

It would appear that motor vehicles pay more than their part of the burden of government. But heaven only knows what would become of us if we didn't have this source of taxation. And the driver of a car very often gets the idea that the rich contribute the money to carry on the government, whereas the figures show that the owner of a car, on an average, pays $47.18 in all the forms of taxation he has to pay.

It is right and logical that the motor vehicle should pay for the keeping up of the highways but here in Texas one-fourth of the gasoline tax goes to the school fund. The schools, of course, must be maintained but it's hardly fair to impose this burden on only a part of our citizens.

candidate for county office filed the following statement of his campaign expenses and expenditures:

"Lost 1,349 hours of sleep thinking about the election—which should be worth $1,349. Lost my two best front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter over the tariff—worth say $45. Donated one beef critter, four shoats and five sheep to a barbecue—say $36. Gave away 14 pairs of suspensives, 18 dresses and 46 gingham aprons—worth about $87. Also $5 in cash and 14 baby rattles—total $6.40.

Kissed 157 babies—no charge for this but would never do it again. Tried to kiss the mother in one case—and also will never do this again. Kindled 14 kitchen fires and 18 fires in rural schoolmarm's—say $32. Put up seven stoves—say $7.

"Walked 4,067 miles—say $100 for the shoe leather and wear and tear. Shook hands with 9,456 persons—and wouldn't do it again for a dollar apiece. Told 10,899 lies—no charge for this as I am a lawyer by profession.

Attended 17 revival meetings, was converted 14 times and baptized three times by immersion and four times some other way—moderate charge for this would be $38, at an average rate of $1 each. Contributed $78 to foreign missions and 15 cents to home missions—total $78.15.

Made love to nine grass widows—charge say $1 each. Hugged 78 old maids—$2 each—total $156. Got bit by dogs 18 times—charge $8 as damage to pants and nothing for wounds to myself. Was defeated by two votes because my opponent hugged 80 old maids."

THE COUNTRY NEWSPAPER

Turning from city newspapers to small town press exchanges that come to the editor's desk is like stepping from the slums, full of vice into an old-fashioned garden sweet with lavender and rhyme and the scent of perennial flowers. The pages of big dailies are so full of murder, thievery, immorality and selfishness that the better news is obscured by these glaring shatterings of the decalogue. One puts the papers aside with a feeling of depression and heartache that the world is so full of terrible and unhappy things.

Then picking up the papers that record the happenings of the little towns around us, one gains renewed faith in life. Here are set forth, only that which uplifts a community—the activities of the business men, the church items, the happy social gatherings of the people, the marriages, births and deaths, farmers' items, and all the thousand and one daily occurrences that make up the simple annals of the great common people, who are really the foundation of this broad country of ours.

of the country newspaper, but it is one of the most potent and uplifting factors in our national existence.

A NEW BUSINESS ERA

In this day of complete change, the man who is alert and watchful for new opportunities, as well as new dangers, is the one who will profit from the new conditions.

We are undoubtedly arriving at a period of re-viving business, and this bank recognizes the fact that the welfare of its institution is closely identified with the welfare of its customers. It is now more thoroughly necessary than ever before for people to identify themselves with a strong conservatively-managed bank with ample resources.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Some men distinguish themselves by long and faithful service. J. S. Talley of Ochiltree county has served his people for 26 years as sheriff.

Over at Panhandle, Frank A. Paul is president of two banks—the Panhandle bank and the First National. The first was founded 46 years ago by his father and associates, the latter began business 7 years ago.

Come to think about it, there is little difference between a "high-hat" and a "dunce cap."

Now comes something new in the political line. Down at Newport, which is located on the line of Jack county, the candidates of Jack and Clay counties meet and play baseball. We know it is true because we have Col. Ed Bull's word for it. If a candidate fails to show up, he is required to bring a doctor's certificate. The boys are working hard before the monster crowds that are to select officials because of their ability to entertain, evidently, rather than their ability to fill the position to which they aspire.

Speaking of candidates, have you ever heard of a sock supper? We've been around a bit, but this escaped notice until recently. Some are bold enough to say that it is as old as politics. Anyway, the women folks put eatables into socks (new ones) and the filled socks are auctioned off. It is said candidates will bid better if they can get something to wear. Most of them bid in two socks in order to have a pair when the scramble ends. Good socks should be used, of course, in fairness to the candidates who naturally have a lot of expense, and most of them will meet with disaster at the polls in the final wind-up.

We hear a lot about economics these days. It may apply to foods, government policies or most anything. In fact it is becoming about as over-worked as the word "service" which we have been hearing so much about for the past several years. Summing it all up, economics is just a combination of science, philosophy and magic and blamed hard to put over.

Every Saturday afternoon a great pushing, showing conglomeration mob gathers in front of a picture show where a lottery is in progress. The lucky ticket draws several hundred dollars sometimes. Every one has a gambling bug of some sort. The women folks realize that when they sell tickets in a prize quilt contest to raise money for a church treasury. Some play poker, others shoot craps and the more dignified gamble on stock futures or whole hog it by investing in oil stock, royalty and leases. We each have the "bug" in some form.

Did you ever hear of a dog that fished? I mean a dog that caught the fish out of the water. Never did! After the recent flood, George McCleskey noticed a dog playing with a fish in their front yard. He went out, took it away from the dog, the fish being several inches in length. A few moments later, the dog returned with another fish. Amused at the strange incident, George followed the dog and found him grabbing at fish in a small pond under the foot bridge north of the McCleskey home. George took 16 catfish from the pond disregarding the rights of the dog altogether.

Listening to a sermon recently, the preacher said: "Some folks are converted and join the church; some join for influence and sell their character to the devil; others simply want to be entertained."

Shorty Oller has blossomed into a full-fledged financier since moving to Mountain Home, Arkansas.

He traded a dollar for a heating stove and enough wood cut to stove length to last him all winter. It was said that the party he bargained with had not seen a silver dollar since 1886, and traded out of curiosity.

Closing the obituary notice of a miser, an exchange paper had the following to say: "We knew him as old Ten Percent—the more he made the less he spent—the more he got the less he lent—He's dead, we don't know where he went—but if to heaven his soul was sent—he'll own the harps and charge them rent."

A style book lists what they call "cocktail capes" and they are made to wear to dances, but could be found appropriate at bridge parties—says the book.

When you feel gloomy, and think the world is going to the dogs, remember that Gracchi believed it in Rome ages ago and had quite a bit to say about it among the witch burning brethren of his age. Adam and Eve evidently thought the same thing when they were kicked out of the Garden of Eden. The world has always been going to the dogs—and yet getting better all the time.

Harry Montgomery was just a plain old country boy a few years ago. He moved to Amarillo to attend school. When he got through, reporting for the Associated Press, the great news-gathering organization of the dailies, was open to him. He took the job and held it for about three years. Last week he left for New York city, a raise in pay and greater opportunities working for the same outfit. The Press bunch gave him a send-off by adopting resolutions to be sent his boss in New York City. Harry is in his early 20's and has great promise. There is nothing quite like watching a worthy boy or girl climb to the top.

On my desk is a beautiful bouquet of mixed flowers. Except for one, she is the best looking girl in Texas or the whole world as for that matter. Her name is Ira Jean, aged 2½ years. The other young lady is Margaret Rochelle, aged 9 months. Both are granddaughters, and they know I like flowers. Ira Jean's arm is about well where it ran through a clothes wringer. Margaret Rochelle's head and face is getting better after being stood on her head in a steamer of boiling water. Is anyone's granddaughters treated any worse than mine?

Over at the Club Room recently, the Junior Les Beaux Arts club members composed of our larger school girls principally, or who were schools girls just within recent years, entertained a large crowd while Floyd V. Studer made a talk about the "first human inhabitants of the panhandle. Those girls got off in a great way and they would be surprised how delighted the older folks were to see how they handled their affair. A fine bunch of girls and are they smart? As one of the guests, let me say thanks, and thanks a lot, girls. We sure are proud of you.

Folks do not begin to get old until they become "panicky" about their age.

Modern Burbanks of California are the lawyers who 'graft' on 'nuts' who live around Hollywood and get married a half a dozen times or more.

Mrs. Joe Holland Sr., who has been critically ill recently, asks the Leader to convey to her friends and well-wishers her appreciation for the many beautiful flowers brought to her sick room. One never knows what a difference a few flowers can make. Gratitude is fragrance from the flowers of love, and such flowers cannot grow in barren soil. Their pretty petals cannot find in it material for their tints and colors. The gratitude of this sainted old mother whom we picture in a wheel chair as she sits today and views the expressions of love from those who were deeply concerned in her welfare, puts a song in the heart and brings contentment to the mind of those who did a noble deed. The givers have accomplished more with the bits of brightness of God's noblest inanimate creation than they who draw from the unthinking multitude cheers for deeds that are designed to appeal to the dramatic and spectacular. It's the little deeds that count most in everyday life, and "God bless you" is the noblest acceptance speech ever made by human tongue. Gratitude is the sweetest incense ever wafted heavenward from the altar of love, and Mrs. Holland wants her friends to know that she feels more than mere words can describe. She is

NOTICE—DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS

Comptroller of Public Accounts State of Texas Austin

To The Tax Collector: You will recall that from time to time since 1930, the Legislature has been suspending interest and penalties on Delinquent Taxes. Last May, the last measure of this kind was enacted, which provided a 2% penalty on all ad valorem taxes delinquent on February 1, 1933, (later they included the split tax payments which became delinquent on July 1, 1933), if paid by December 30, 1933, and 4% penalty, if paid by March 31, 1934; and 6%, if paid by June 30, 1934. After this June 30, 1934, expiration date, the old law prescribing 10% penalties and 6% interest per year, will again be in force.

This means that on and after July 1, 1934, this year, the penalty and interest you will be required to charge will not be 6%, but will include 6% interest per annum from the date it was first delinquent, plus 10% penalty. For example: 30% will be added to 1930 Delinquent Taxes. 24% will be added to 1931 Delinquent Taxes. 18% will be added to 1932 Delinquent Taxes. (A delinquent cost will also accrue in addition to the above)

Yours very truly, Geo. H. Sheppard Comptroller of Public Accounts. (3-13-c)

The Secret of Feeding Cows! FEED is "milk in a bag." Your cow takes the feed you give her and gets the milk out of it. WIFE WAS FAT No Longer Attractive

LOST HUSBAND'S LOVE

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you. *But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all. Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your legs. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores. Refuse "something just as good" for it may grip, loosen teeth or scald. Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. ©1933, C.M.Co.

GOLDSTON SCHOOL NEWS

The faculty for another year has been completed. There will be two new teachers in the system another year. Mr. Jimmie Millsap has been chosen principal to fill Mr. Gatewood's place and Miss Bera Lambert of Alba, Texas has been selected for the sixth and seventh grade teacher. The teachers who are staying are Miss Willie Mae Blanks, the primary teacher, and Mrs. Orville Smith, the intermediate teacher.

Mr. Gatewood was re-elected but he received a larger school; therefore, he will not teach here another year. His school is in Wheeler county.

On Monday morning at the chapel period Miss Blanks and her pupils gave a very interesting health program. Miss Blanks seems to be teaching her pupils the proper health habits through play and as many other avenues of approach that she has available. Next Monday morning Mrs. Smith and her pupils will present a program of some type that will be beneficial to the participants and the hearers. We cordially invite the patrons to be present at each of these chapel programs.

Oh! Boy! but did Ashtola beat us in baseball last Friday. Well, the score was 4 to 1 in their favor; however, at that it was a good game. We don't have any alibi other than that they just beat us. They are coming here Friday of this week. We are looking forward to a wonderful game with them. You patrons come out and see the boys play and give them some encouragement. Don't think just because we have lost one game that we do not have a good team. Remember that we were playing against a good team last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blocker returned home Tuesday after spending a few days in Wichita Falls.

Clarence Merrick of Boydston attended Sunday school here Sunday.

Walter Goldston avers it keeps him busy changing from short to long handle wearing apparel and vice-versa, during all this changing weather.

Jimmie Millsap of Pampa has recently been elected as principal of the Goldston school. Mr. Gatewood who has been at the head of this school for four years has accepted first place in the Lela school, Wheeler county.

Answering a request of Old Tack for a mess of poke-salad, Ed Wheeler was very generous in sending the Amarillo editor a good supply of this cherished wild salad. Ed guarantees that if one will eat poke salad three hundred and sixty five days in the year they will never get old, grouchy or run down at the heel. Mr. Wheeler has at all times had a listening ear to the wants of editors. It will be recalled a few years ago the editor of the Donley County Leader was anxious to exchange one year's subscription for ten dozen eggs. Well at that particular time Eds hens were on a strike, but being of a resourceful nature he would not let a hand-cap like that bar him from making a trade, so there happened to be a Gin house near by and in that building there were a few hundred thousand english sparrows working over-time in preparation for the rearing of large families. Well Ed hiked himself away to the said gin and there willfully and stealthily robbed the innocent little sparrows of enough eggs to make the required ten dozen which he brought to the hungry editor. Well being a good sport, Mr. Estlack accepted the eggs after carefully counting them and moved Eds subscription up for a full twelve months. Now Mr. Wheeler did not mean to work a hardship on the rest of us, yet he did that very thing, for the editor swore by all that's high and holy that hereafter nothing but hen eggs would be accepted on subscriptions, and the hen must weigh at least six pounds.

Professor Meek and Woodrow Millsap of Pampa passed through here Saturday on their way to the Lelia Lake fishing grounds. On returning they reported a good catch. The only unusual thing about their report was they failed to say the large ones got away, truthful boys we suspect.

FOUNDRY POURS 2,152 TONS IN ONE DAY'S WORK

Saginaw, Mich., May 8.—The Chevrolet gray iron foundry, largest in America, has set a new all-time record by pouring in a single day 2,152 tons of molten metal in the making of castings for Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks, it was announced here today.

During the last month, the average daily tonnage poured has been 1,787, and the hourly tonnage is being further stepped up to meet the increasing demands of car and truck production, which totaled over 110,000 in April.

Shipments of castings for cylinder blocks, pistons, clutch and transmission housings, carburetors, and other foundry products, in March alone, totaled 32,752 tons. The castings are shipped from Saginaw to be machined into finished units at the Chevrolet axle plant at Detroit, the motor plant at Flint, the transmission plant at Toledo, and the Bay City (Mich.) plant, where castings for carburetors and other small units are finished.

The foundry is now working day and night, with two batteries of 12 cupolas in action. The heavy duty machinery, such as the conveyor lines on which the moulds progress from start to pouring and on through the cooling period, is installed in duplicate to provide for continuous pouring; this arrangement permits full production to be kept going constantly, since the maintenance and care of each set of machinery can be carried out while the duplicate equipment is in use.

More Than a Million Was Gained by New Tax Law

Austin, Texas, May 16.—The new Texas gasoline tax enforcement law rounded out its first full year of operation with a smashing 20 per cent increase in revenue to the state during the first quarter of 1934, the Texas Good Roads Association announced today from quarterly figures of Comptroller George H. Sheppard.

Combined gasoline tax collections for the months of January, February and March exceeded the total for the same period last year by $1,269,872, the comptroller reported. This brought the full 12 months' recoveries to more than $4,250,000 above the previous period.

It was on March 21, 1933 that the potent new law was written into the statute books as an emergency measure. Scores of remote refineries were humming day and night, turning out motor fuel of which the taxing authorities had no knowledge. Thousands of tank trucks were radiating out on the very highways whose income they were stealing, carrying bootleg, tax-free gasoline to every corner of Texas.

Every gallon of it which was sold deprived the common school fund of one cent, the bond-refunding fund of one cent and the highway fund of two cents.

A new law was proposed making bootlegging a felony and giving the comptroller adequate funds for enforcement. The Texas Good Roads Association and the Texas Gasoline Tax Committee, which backed it, voiced the belief that this lawless traffic was robbing the taxpayers of at least $4,000,000 yearly. Actual recoveries have exceeded this figure. During the nine months it operated in 1933, the law "picked up" more than $3,000,000.

Lelia Lake High School's motto might well be called "Onward", as this year has been such an improvement over past years. We can only hope that in years to come this school will carry on its work as well as it has this year, if not better. We wish to express our appreciation to the teachers who have so readily helped us when we needed it. There has been times that were very discouraging but in years to come we will have forgotten all the bad things and will remember only the good. We regret that some of our teachers will not be with us another year, but we all hope that those who take their places will fill them as well as they have.

I wish to thank all the pupils and teachers who have greatly helped me by contributing to the school paper.

—The Editor.

In this our last issue of the school paper for 1933-34, it is fitting that we should say a few words of farewell. The four years of our stay in Lelia have brought many pleasant associations and friendships of many whom we will always remember among those whom we love. Of course there have been thorns among the roses; there have been those who were unappreciative and even unfair. But we realize that is a part of life, and not something which happens to us alone.

To those who have so faithfully and loyally worked on all the tasks assigned, who have done their best to make the years of training really count in developing themselves and making a school worth while; who have, in fact, been all that students and friends should be, we wish you again all success and happiness. We shall expect to hear great things of some of you, and our sincerest wish is that, though fame and worldly success may pass some of you by, you may all be better and nobler christian men and women because of our associations in old Lelia High.

Surprise on Mr. Cooper

Last Saturday evening a group of the students of Lelia Lake High School and their friends met at the Cooper home for an evening of gaiety. The immediate purpose of the party was to surprise Mr. Cooper and give him a handkerchief shower. To say that he was surprised would be expressing it mildly. He was so surprised that he himself said he "could have fallen through a knot hole."

After Mr. Cooper had expressed his appreciation the evening was given over to games and merry-making in general. At a late hour lunch was served and all departed amid best wishes for all concerned.

—oOo—

Thanks!

I wish to take this opportunity to thank those of the students and their friends who tendered the handkerchief shower and party last week. It all came as a complete surprise to me and I appreciated it more than words can express.

Now that the school year is drawing to a close and we look back at it as from afar off, I realize what a source of inspiration and help the student body of the Lelia Lake High school has been all year. We were strangers in your midst and you made us welcome. We were a long way from home—from our relatives at least—yet you cheered us. I was glad to be one of you, to share your joys and sorrows, to help you along life's road in my humble capacity.

In leaving you I wish for each and all of you the best life has in store. May success crown your efforts and may all your days be happy ones.

"What's the Matter With Sally?" The fourth, fifth and sixth grades are practicing on an operetta, "What's the Matter With Sally?", for their closing day program, May 24.

A very rich and very "spoiled" little girl, Sally Donnelly, has, due to her environment, become sulky and discontented. Hoping to discourage these traits Sally's mother plans with an old friend and schoolmate Miss Jeffries who teaches at St. Thomas' Orphanage, to leave her there as "an orphan for a few weeks. Under the influence of the new surroundings of those less fortunate than herself Sally soon realizes that her sense of superiority is a natural development of selfishness. The plot is full of interesting situations, finally developing into a characterization of friendship, love and loyalty.

The cast is:
 Sally Donnelly—Margaret Jean Leathers.

- Mrs. Donnelly—Melba Bullock.
- Miss Jeffries—Leota McKee.
- Mrs. Blount—Mary aJne Cook.

Peter—Jack Espey.
 Prudence—Mary Jo Johnston.
 Betsy—Billie Ruth Grimsley.
 Agnes—Justene Gregg.
 The operetta is sponsored by Loree Hamm and Vera Garland. Billy Admire is playing the piano.

Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Grade Have Picnic

The intermediate grades had a very enjoyable picnic Thursday, May 10, from three to six. No better place could be found in the vicinity of Lelia Lake than Mr. Gee Leathers' pasture. We waded in the creek, played baseball, jumped the rope and played games in the shade of some very pretty trees. Most every pupil in the three grades was present. Those enjoying the picnic lunch along with the pupils were Mrs. Glenn Williams, Mrs. Cecil Cook, Mr. W. V. Thomasson and the sponsors, Miss Vera Garland and Mrs. W. V. Thomasson.

Oh me! Oh my!

Oh me! Oh my! what a happy group of youngsters met at Mr. Cooper's last Tuesday evening at six o'clock about six thirty. We started out to hike down the highway to the railroad bridge. When we got to town, Mr. Cooper treated us all with a bar of candy. We then walked on down the highway, having much fun as we went. When we arrived we played some games before eating our weiners, marshmallows, pickles and mustard and drinking our lemonade. It is reported that some of the boys ate thirteen weiners. When we arrived after our tramp back to town, we were a very happy lot. Those reporting a good time were Erma Lee Penninger, Frances Johnston, Mary Jo Johnston, Laura Mae Gerner, Madeline Cruse, Millard Cruse, Edward McDaniel, Richard Davis, Ernest Gerner, Jack Espey, E. J. Meyers, Radell Sanders, Laird Reeves and sponsor Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Cooper and son Lyle.

I bet you didn't think you'd hear from us again this year but you did. The next time you hear from us, you will hear from the "new Sophs of 34-35."

Juniors
 Always look to the Juniors to do something unusual. Guess what we are planning now? A theatre party to entertain the Seniors. We are going to see Bing Crosby in "We are not Dressing" of course.

After seeing such a show we will naturally be hungry so to Lelia we will return to have ice cream and cake.

We are inviting the Seniors but are not going to do until we are ready to start. What a surprise party!

Yes, we are entertaining the Seniors this year but next year we will get entertained. (we hope)

Seniors

We leave the good old Lelia Lake High school days with a feeling of sadness. As we embark upon the beginning of a new life, we will take with us memories of these days so dear to us, days of struggle and hard work intermingled with joy and happiness.

We are finishing a prescribed course of work, to enter into a greater work, life's work perhaps or into a higher institution of learning, but what ever we do, we will never forget the influence and high ideals that this school has set before us. We'll never forget the patience that our teachers have had with us and how much they helped us through these years. At times we may have seemed ungrateful for their willingness to help us and for their patience, but we would like for them to know that we really do appreciate every thing that they have done for us.

We hope that in the future each one of us "will do with all our might" to keep the principles that have been upheld in this school and that we may be good, upright, honest citizens that Lelia Lake will be proud of.

—Seniors.

Senior Advice to Juniors
 All ye that are young in experience, premature in intellectual development harken to one whose wisdom, knowledge and judgment is firmly established.

If you wish to escape the pitfalls and snares in which so many find themselves entangled you will take advice from "those who know."

Our advice is this, we warn you to study, constant and continuous study is your only recourse for safety. Always appear interested in class room discussions, even though you may be miserably bored. Sit erect and don't slouch down in your seat and deform your spine and shoulders for you'll need them in the form that nature intended to bear your dignity as a Senior.

Be attentive in class, quiet and sensible in the halls and above all be respectful to the Seniors.

Be diligent and be patient for when your time comes to reign you will profit by your former sacrifices.

We hope that the Juniors will take this as a friendly tip, as it was intended, for it is because of our interest in your well-being that we impart this advice.

—Seniors.

"A Little Shaking."

"I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance." II. Pet. 1:13.

Not long ago, I wound my watch before retiring, as most men do; but to my astonishment, when I looked at it the next morning it had stopped. When I put it to my ear, there was no sound. Doing the next thing one usually does, I shook it and immediately it began to tick, the hands moved and it ran until the main spring was exhausted. What was the trouble? I had wound the spring too tight, and all it needed was a little shaking. As soon as the master wheel received momentum it started the mechanism and the watch fulfilled the purpose for which it was made—it kept time.

Is it not true that frequently in life we become so "wound up" in our self-seeking, so engrossed in getting, that we fail to fulfill the real mission of our life, and it takes a little shaking to arouse us?

Shakings come in various forms and in many ways.

I. Sometimes it is a spell of sickness. Bent on gaining our goal, whatever it may be, we neglect our bodies, and sickness comes to remind us that should we achieve our ambition and lose our health so that we cannot enjoy what we have attained, we have gained nothing, but rather lost.

II. Sometimes it is financial reverses. In our eagerness to acquire gold, at times we resort to practices which dull the voice of conscience, then comes disaster to remind us that though we, "gain the whole world and lose our soul, it profiteth us nothing."

III. Sometimes it is sorrow. Blinded by selfishness and having lost sympathy and understanding, we close our eyes to the needs of those around us; then comes sorrow to soften our hearts and stir the better self to action.

So should it be your lot to pass through a period of unpleasant experience, interpret them as being friendly counselors, stirring you so that you will be aware of the true mission of your life. Do not grumble at a little shaking. Thank God for it.

CITY OIL SALESMEN SEE CONOCO MOVIES

Adventures of a typical American family on a motor vacation trip under the guidance of the Conoco Travel Bureau and unusual views of some of the nation's top-notch scenic regions were highlights of a motion picture program Monday night which attracted approximately 40 members of Continental Oil Company's local marketing group to a special meeting at the Antro Hotel.

A number of the city's leading businessmen, not connected with this Company's activities, were also on hand as a result of an invitation by A. L. Chase, local representative for Conoco, and Chas. S. Ritchie, commander of the huge Travel Bureau bus which rolled in Monday afternoon carrying the new Conoco talking pictures and a number of officers of the marketing division covering this area.

Although the main purpose behind the arrival of the big red, green and white bus and the showing of the new films is to better acquaint the public with the free services offered the tourist by the Conoco Travel Bureau, considerable time is also being spent in explaining a number of new merchandising methods which Continental has recently adopted.

The Conoco Travel Bureau, Ritchie explained, has grown, in four years' time, from a small branch serving a few hundred people to the largest free travel service in America. It was founded by Continental in response to the demands of motor vacationists and everyday travelers who wish to be certain they are taking direct, trouble-free routes to their destinations and yet see the most interesting sights found in the country they journey through.

The Bureau's second major aim is to increase tourist travel to all of the nation's scenic regions. Through approximately 18,000 Company and dealer service stations, and hundreds of newspapers, hotels and chambers of commerce, the Bureau is distributing attractive maps and literature featuring this city and its surroundings as well as numberless other interesting points in America.

This unusual service, to which every motorist is entitled without spending a cent—even for postage—goes far beyond literature distribution. In the Bureau's central offices in Denver, more than a hundred carefully trained employes consult daily road reports from every state in the Union; note even the shortest detours, and incorporate this information into the routes they mark on all maps sent out.

Motorists who apply for free Travel Bureau service also receive a special "Passport" which helps them keep a careful expense record of their trips, identifies them wherever they may be and secures additional privileges for them at all Conoco stations. Each station acts as a field branch of the Bureau and is prepared to furnish valuable local information to all tourists. All cottage camps and hotels throughout the country have been catalogued and described in free literature now being sent out by the Bureau.

Some idea of the popularity the Bureau has attained may be secured from the number of motorists served during 1933. During this period 196,415 groups of Travel Bureau tourists drove more than 665 million miles. These groups represented every state, as well as Mexico and every Canadian province. Of the total, 59,000 groups were routed into or through Texas, and in addition, 16,500 groups living within the state were given assistance. Included in the latter figure were groups from this city.

Conoco division officers accompanying Ritchie were T. H. Joyce, Divisional Representative; Ed Fleming, District Superintendent; M. A. Naylor, District Superintendent and R. H. Robinson, Operator.

The Conoco bus is equipped with special loud speakers which make it possible to broadcast radio and phonograph music, as well as announcements made by the bus commander, for almost a mile in any direction.

Free Conoco Travel Bureau service is available to all readers of Donley County Leader and may be secured by writing direct to the Conoco Travel Bureau, Denver, Colorado, or filling out special application cards distributed by all Conoco service stations and dealers.

AUNT HET ON SCHOOL TEACHING

"One o' my girls had her heart set on bein' a school teacher, but I talked her out of it. Teachin' school is too much like bein' a preacher's wife. It's a high callin', but people expect you to give more'n they pay for."

"You take teachers here in town. The only difference between them an' Christian martyrs is the date an' the lack of a bonfire."

"They was hired to teach an' they do it. They teach the younguns that can learn, and entertain the younguns that fell on their heads when they was little. But that ain't enough. They're supposed to make obedient little angels out o' spoiled brats that never minded nobody, an' wetnurse little wildcats so their mothers can get rest, an' make geniuses out o' children that couldn't have no sense with parents they've got."

"But that ain't the worst. They've got to get up plays an' things to work the school out o' debt; an' sing in the choir an' teach a Sunday school class, an' when they ain't doing nothin' else they're supposed to be good examples."

"Then they don't get no pay for six months an' can't pay their board or buy decent clothes an' on top of ever'thing else they can't hold hands comin' home from prayer meetin' without some plous old sister with a dirty mind startin' a scandal as soon.

"I'd just be a plowmule. A mule works just as hard but it can relieve its soul by kickin' up its heels after quittin' time without startin' any talk."

Chevrolet Sales Now Top 3-Year Record

Detroit, Mich., May 10.—For the first time in three years, sales of an automobile manufacturer for a single month topped the one hundred thousand mark. This was brought out today in a statement issued by William E. Holler, general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor Company, announcing retail sales of Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks during April of 100,046 units. This figure includes Canadian, export and domestic deliveries.

This compares with 59,193 units in April, 1933, and 96,893 units in March of this year, according to the statement.

Retail sales the first four months of this year totaled 281,033 as compared to 184,138 in the same period a year ago, an increase of 52 per cent.

Chevrolet's April retail sales record is considered significant in view of the fact that this company has suffered an acute car shortage, practically since the new 1934 models were introduced and only now is catching up in a small measure with the thousands of unfilled orders on its books. Retail sales were higher than for any similar period in 35 months, since April 1931, to be exact, and this tremendous retail volume, according to Mr. Holler, is the direct result of the modern features and many unusual improvements incorporated in the new 1934 knee-action models.

A RAT STORY

Today 500,000 farmers and their families are sitting down to dinner in Texas. The wholesome viands on most of their tables are rich in food values; fats, carbohydrates, proteins, and incidentally the necessary minerals and vitamins. The wise mother should know from experience the foods on which her family thrives and only a calamity prevent their inclusion on her table. She probably does not know that vitamin A is the anti ophthalmic or anti infective vitamin and is necessary for a good appetite, health and vigor, prevents infections especially of the eyes and lungs, and is essential for normal reproduction and lactation; but she does know that spinach, mustard, carrots and tomatoes are good for the family and father knows that green grass is good for the chickens, cows and pigs. Mother knows the deep yellow yolks are in the best eggs and rich yellow butter is best; but that all of these ordinary foods supply vitamin A has not occurred to her.

She may not know that vitamin B protects the body from such nervous diseases as beri-beri or polyneuritis, but she knows that whole cereals, peas, wheat bran, rice bran and egg yolks are necessary for the health of her family and the fact that vitamin B is supplied by these is only of incidental importance to her.

That vitamin C is the anti scorbutic vitamin and protects the body from scurvy and keeps the bones and teeth in good condition, does not mean so much to her as being sure the family have plenty of oranges and lemons and plenty of other fruits and salads; but with these she unconsciously supplies the needed vitamin C.

If the children or the young animals have rickets or poor bone development she does not charge it to lack of vitamin D, the anti rachitic vitamin, but the prudent

Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives?

Doctors have always recognized the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be thus regulated to suit individual need.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is at all druggists. Member N. R. A.

well informed mother hustles the sufferers into the sunshine and buys some salmon and feeds them yeast and cod liver oil until relief is noted.

That barley, beans, corn, peas, rice and oats for the table and alfalfa added for the feedlot, supply the vitamin E that prevents sterility is interesting to her of course, but at any rate she knows that such items are desirable in the diet.

She also provides plenty of yeast, liver, kidneys, sweetbreads, and lean meat, as well as milk, eggs, cheese, turnip greens and potatoes, and the fact that these supply vitamin G that prevents pellagra is only of secondary importance to her.

Mother knows that an abundance of all sorts of wholesome foods will keep off ailments and keep the family strong and happy. She may not know that every day in the Experiment Station laboratory nearly four hundred rats, carefully bred for uniformity, are measuring to the minutest degree the vitamin potency of the feeds and foodstuffs on which our people and our animals must subsist and that they are measuring the quantities of each various item of food needed to supply the body requirements, not only for maintenance but for proper growth and production and reproduction; but she does know that somebody has figured out some mighty good menus for the table and some mighty good rations for the feedlot and she is not too prejudiced to use them for of all things she desires the health and happiness of her family and the thrill of successful livestock production is pleasing to her.

Vitamin C is measured by feeding guinea pigs and the other vitamins are measured by feeding rats. No other method so satisfactory is known for evaluating the vitamin potency of feeds and foodstuffs. From Bulletin 477, one learns that a human being needs at least 1000 units per day of vitamin A and that foods carrying this amount can be provided for 1/4c or less; that milk cows and hens require green feed in the regular ration in order to continue in good health and be able to produce milk and eggs of high vitamin A potency, and that hays and fodders and even sorghum silage do not supply enough vitamin A for cows to produce milk in normal amounts.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes, your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 45c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

Improper Cream Handling Condemned by Govt.

Under the new code, cream is to be graded as first, second and third grade. The third grade will bring less than three cents than No. 1 grade, it is announced.

A government official will be at Childress on May 24th where cream buyers of this district are to meet for final instructions in the purchase and handling of cream.

Cream marketed in the future is to be kept in clean, sanitary vessels and marketed in the same manner. "The product is for human consumption and must be better safeguarded," a government inspector of this district states.

In the near future, buyers of cream will be instructed to refuse the purchase of cream not properly kept by sanitary methods. More than that, they will be prosecuted if they do. Buyers will also be instructed under penalty to maintain cream stations in a strict sanitary condition.

Midway School Closes Today With Picnic Tomorrow

Principal Dennis Smith and his assistants are closing the Midway school this (Thursday), they having reached the end of the allotted term. They propose a very interesting program tonight.

Tomorrow, the 18th, the community will have an all-day picnic. Mr. Smith states that the folks in general are responsible for the Friday affair, plenty to eat and other attractions. While this is only a community affair, those who feel an urge to 'drop in' will be given a royal welcome as on all other occasions.

The community has had a real good school session and naturally feel proud of the first term of the consolidated school.

The approaching marriage of Miss Mary Maud Tittle of Childress to Carl Denny of Memphis has been announced. Both parties are well known in Clarendon.

Clarendon Dealers
Attend Amarillo
Firestone Meeting

Firestone dealers of the Panhandle gathered at the Herring hotel in Amarillo Monday night for a sales conference, this being an annual affair. About eighty were in attendance. A banquet was served.

A three-reel talking picture of the Firestone plant at the Century of Progress at Chicago was shown and several sales talks were made. Pictures were also shown of the last five hundred mile classic race at Indianapolis.

W. Ollie Hommel and "Cat" Armstrong of the firm of Hommel Bros. here were in attendance and report a very instructive meet aside from the social side of it.

Interest on Production
Loans is Reduced

Marvin P. Bryan, secretary-treasurer of the Memphis Production Credit Association has just received word from Governor W. I. Myers of the Farm Credit Administration in Washington, D. C., that the interest rate on new loans has been reduced from 5 1/2 to 5 per cent.

According to Mr. Bryan the new 5 per cent interest rate becomes effective immediately on all new loans and advances made by the association and will be applicable until further notice.

"The new interest rate of 5 per cent will not affect loans already advanced in full," Mr. Bryan said. "These will continue to bear the rate of interest prevailing at the time the loan was closed. The interest charges on loans from the association are collected when the loans mature. The Memphis Production Credit association is now making loans on acceptable crop and chattel security to farmers in Donley, Collingsworth, Childress and Hall counties.

"The reduction of the interest to 5 per cent on new loans," Mr. Bryan continued, "is made possible by a recent sale of Federal intermediate credit bank debentures to investors at an unusually low rate of interest. The association gets money to lend farmers from the Federal intermediate credit bank of Houston, Texas.

"The lowering of the interest rate on new loans to 5 per cent is the second reduction in two months, the rate having been reduced from 6 to 5 1/2 per cent on March 16.

"According to Governor Myers," said Mr. Bryan, the Federal intermediate credit bank is passing on immediately to farmer-borrowers from production credit associations the saving made possible by lower cost of getting money. The confidence of investors in the security of the intermediate credit banks has been such that the banks are able to get money to lend at the lowest discount rate in their history. Governor Myers says that the resulting low rate of interest on production credit association loans is enabling farmer-borrowers to save thousands of dollars on the cost of their farming operations this year. If the associations make sound loans, and loans that are collectible, an adequate supply of low cost money will continue to be available."

That Haunted "40" Lying North of The Track

For several years different tenants have complained that roasting ears, cane bundles, melons and other products grown on the 40-acre plot surrounding the "Y", have had a habit of disappearing both daily and nightly.

These uncanny reports were turned in by Tom Parker several years ago, and later by F. M. Lynn. Now W. H. Burnam on the second year appears to have a strong desire to put a stop to it. He does not think that the "low paths" across the field at various angles are necessary. When he makes the crop, he does not feel like it is necessary to have it hauled or carried away without his permission. Mr. Burnam is a man 75 years old, works hard for what he gets. He asks the public to keep off that 40, is running a notice in the Leader this week. This article is being printed in the belief that it will avoid some one annoyance. Better stay off that 40, haunted or not haunted.

Local Musicians Included On Shamrock Program

Directed by Robt. O. Sandusky, the musical recital at Shamrock Friday night is said to have been the best ever given there according to the Daily Texan.

Many visiting musicians from the Panhandle and Oklahoma took a part on the program. Director Gus B. Stephenson of the Clarendon band appeared in clarinet and saxophone numbers. Miss Delphia Bones gave especially pleasing numbers on the piano.

The five inch rain recently, left some of the streets in a bad condition from washes and chugholes. City employees F. L. Goldston and C. R. Gamblin with the city owned tractor and grader have done some very effective work in the way of repairs.

A portion of the streets were regraded where the dump was washed down. Crossings have been filled in and other repairs made that bring a ready response of high appreciation from the general public.

Double Pneumonia Follows
Appendix Operation

Grave fears were felt for the life of Miss Pauline Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Riley who underwent an appendix operation at Adair hospital Tuesday of last week when she developed pneumonia in both lungs.

She had been in poor health for some time according to Mr. Riley. Her condition at this time is said to be for the better which will be good news to the many friends of the patient and her family.

Trades Day Draws Larger Crowd Wednesday

A much larger crowd attended the Trades Day affair here Wednesday than the preceding month. The decisions were drawn at the south end of Kerney street instead of in front of the City Hall as that street is regulated by the state highway department now.

Awards were distributed over a large section, one in which Groom territory was represented. Those interested appeared to enjoy the sport leaving in a thoroughly good humor. The next Trades Day event will be held at the same time next month.

Music Week Programs End With Sunday Concert

An audience that filled the Pastime Theatre Sunday afternoon heard the last program in observance of Music Week here.

Thirty members of the Clarendon band furnished excellent music under the direction of Gus B. Stephenson. Robt. O. Sandusky, band director of Shamrock took part in the program.

C. A. Crow and B. Frank Jackson of Smith were here Tuesday.

Sheriff Receives Machine Gun This Week

Sheriff Guy Pierce is naturally elated over the receipt of the Thompson sub-machine gun, and has been out for practice. The drum and clips hold 120 shells, but the full capacity of the gun is 600 shots per minute.

T. E. Trostle was over from Shamrock Monday. He paid his subscription to the Leader two years in advance in order to keep up with the happenings in Donley county.

W. E. Davis, rancher of the Brice country, was in town Saturday. W. E. continues to look prosperous after having weathered the financial storm of the past three years in far better shape than the average.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Holley of Brice were here Saturday. After the close of their school work there, they will make their home in Ft. Worth where Mr. Holley expects to enter business. Mrs. Holley also wishes to be near her mother, Mrs. John Watts.

Visitors Return From East Texas Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Veazey and Mrs. N. D. Hudson returned Tuesday from a visit in east Texas where they have spent the past three months, most of the time in grand old Hopkins county, the stamping ground of the noted Cyclone Davis.

Aside from various other descriptions of a grand and glorious good visit, Mr. Veazey waxed eloquent in his description of the pawpaw crop in the making, not overlooking black haws and other succulent fruits and vegetables redolent of the portion of the state where it rains almost continuously except during a drouth.

Literary Digest Checking Up On President

Ballot postal cards have been received here this week from the publishers of the Literary Digest asking for a vote on the policies of the President. Voters will be asked for an expression on two points.

The first question is, "Do you approve on the whole the acts and policies of Roosevelt's first year?" The second question is, "For whom did you vote in 1932?" The first announcement will begin in the issue of the 19th. The Digest has correctly interpreted the national vote for a number of years in this manner, and the results of the Roosevelt vote at this time will be most interesting, it is believed.

Mrs. Harry Moore and Miss Doris Mace of Amarillo spent Sunday here visiting Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren.
