ALLRED GREETED BY LARGE CROWD HERE SATURDAY

Band Entertained Audience When Speaker Was Held Up by Rain

In filling his appointment here at 4 Saturday afternoon, Attorney General Allred was almost an hour late being delayed by a heavy rain in the Memphis area where he spoke at 2 before coming here.

The Clarendon band directed by Gus B. Stephenson thirty minutes before the hour for the speaker to arrive, struck up lively tunes attracting a large crowd. When the speaker failed to show up, the band boys staid on the job and entertained the crowd with delightful music of a peppy nature. A crowd estimated at more than two thousand gathered on the street on the north side of the Antro hotel, and cars were filled within hearing distance.

W. P. Cagle presided and the speaker was introduced by J. C. Estlack of the Donley County Leader who detailed the political rise of Allred and related bits of his boyhood history.

"The present lobby law is not worth the paper that it is written on," Allred stated.

In his furious attack on lobbying, he said that no relief is forthcoming for the common people of Texas until the lobbyists are hobbled so that they cannot intimidate legislators.

Dealing Cards Wrong Way

"A lot of high powered lobbyists have been dealing the cards, with the jokers in the wrong direction for the people of Texas," he said. "The lobby law is not worth the paper it was printed on."

In order for a law to be effective, he explained, it must apply to all the people alike. The lobby law provides "that no person shall attempt to unduly influence members of the legislature." But it also provides "that the terms of this law shall not apply to the governor nor members of the legislature."

"The legislature can do it, but we can't," Allred stated.

Demands Rigid Law

In conclusion on this point, Allred stated that "common decency demands that rigid lobby laws be passed."

In speaking of retiring of legislators as law representatives of big companies, Allred said, "A man in the house or senate cannot serve two masters."

There will be no relief for the common people until legislators are stopped being retained by corporations, Allred declared.

Applaud Assertions

He attacked this practice viciously and his assertions brought much applause from his audience. No legislator has a right to receive pay from both sides, he stated. "If he gets paid by corporations, he has no right to receive money from the peoples' treasury."

The candidates also stated that court reforms that are being urged in order to speed up action could never be effective while there is a law that says a case must be continued until after the legislative session if a representative or senator, appearing as defense counsel, signs an affidavit showing that he represents the defense.

Hits Utility Company

Reading from a questionnaire sent out "by one of the biggest utility corporations in this State just before the special session of the Legislature last fall," the Attorney General said the division managers of the corporation had been instructed to get hold of explicit and intimate information about Texas legislators and Senators.

"This company is no worse than, and perhaps not so bad as, some of them," Allred said, "but here we have the written evidence of some of the methods employed by many others."

Allred said if elected Governor he would demand immediate passage of the strictest lobby regulation law that can be placed on the books.

Regarding the practice of the retaining of members of the Legis-

MORE RAIN PUTS EARLY CROPS IN FINE CONDITION

County Covered by General Rainfall Sunday Night To Help Crop Stand

Rain measuring 1.44 fell in and around Clarendon Sunday night. The fall to the east was somewhat lighter, but measured a half inch or better over the entire country. This additional moisture with the fall during May of over nine inches insures a better ground season than for many years.

Thousands of acres of wash field land has been terraced during the past two years, most of the older terraces being rebuilt the past winter. Donley county farmers are fully aware of the value of terracing after studying the yield increase on terraced land made to produce where a crop was not worth planting two years ago.

Donley county has been allotted approximately 15,000 bales of cotton tax free under the Bankhead law. Though the crop has been reduced 25 percent, the increased price, it is explained, will take care of the reduction in volume. The time and expense of gathering the excess may be put to other uses, the cream production route being the favorite.

Cotton, one of the best money crops in this section, is up to a good stand uniform over the county growing the staple. Wheat bids a fair yield despite the early fall and winter dry months. With prices soaring now at harvest time, the decreased yield will mean more profit, it is claimed by wheat growers.

With a large volume of cotton land taken out of the scheme, more feed is to be planted. It is also noted this season that more food crops are being planted this season. Donley county citizens are said to have canned in excess of one hundred thousand cans the past season.

"Cotton-Eyed Joe" Will Pep Fairview Pie Supper

If there is anything that the Fairview folks dote on in a way of public amusement, it is stringed instruments in the hands of boys who make 'em talk' until you can feel it in your bones.

Friday night, June 15th they will be "all set" for a pie supper and general good time to which everyone and the candidates are invited. This information comes from a leading citizen out there and there is no question but what she knows what she is talking about. Fairview is also known as the Naylor school house. Anyway, you are invited.

Court of Honor Tonight At Methodist Church

C. A. Clark will be in Clarendon and present a charter to Boy Scout troop No. 38 and hold a Court of Honor in the basement of the Methodist church at 8 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to attend this interesting ceremony and lend encouragement to the boys who have taken up Scout study and practice.

ature by privileged corporations, the Attorney General proposed a plan of pitiless publicity as a method of solution.

Get Away From 'Ism's'

"Texas needs leadership," he stated. "It needs to get away from the 'isms' that have held power for many years. It needs to elect a governor rather than to defeat a candidate."

"It looks like we're in for another hectic campaign," he stated, "with candidates dealing with personalities rather than issues."

"I have been accused of being a 'little boy with big breeches.' I plead guilty—I am ambitious, but is there a law against ambition? The boy that made that remark is broader than he is tall."

When through speaking, Allred jumped from the truck and mixed with his hearers shaking hands with people of all ages as they eagerly rushed toward him for an opportunity to assure him of their support.

This sum will be used to further the singing school to begin soon.

Mrs. Neely Hudson, secretary of the singing school asks the Leader to print the following expression of appreciation:

"The people of the Chamberlain community extends their thanks to every one who helped make the pie supper a success Friday night, June 1st. Especially do we thank the candidates, the merchants of Clarendon and Mr. Estlack."

NEEDY IMPLORE OFFICIAL HELP IN DONLEY COUNTY

Second Petition is Being Prepared From Hedley This Week

Believing that a direct appeal would receive favorable consideration, eighty six signatures were attached to a petition asking assistance of Congressman Joe Bailey Jr., which has acknowledged in a letter printed below. Herschell Johnson, local man who was formerly employed under CWA was instrumental in furthering petitions and protest.

It is said that another petition is being circulated in the Hedley district this week which has a much larger list of signers than that sent in from Clarendon. Those protesting at this time formerly were employed in the main under the CWA, and feel keenly the loss of employment at this time.

The letter from Mr. Bailey:

June 6th, 1934.

Mr. Herschell Johnson,

Clarendon, Texas.

Dear Mr. Johnson:-

I am informed by the authorities in charge of relief work, with whom I conferred in behalf of Congressman Joseph W. Bailey, Jr., that work relief for Donley County families under the new drought regulations will be in the sum of $40 a month per family. I understand that this increase is to be put into immediate effect.

We were very glad to have rendered any service to you in this matter, and will be glad to have you call upon us for anything that we may be able to do further at any later date.

Very truly yours,
W. H. Kittrell, Jr.,
Campaign Manager.

Joe Bailey Jr. Spoke Here Friday Afternoon

Quite a crowd besides the avowed supporters of Joe Bailey Jr. heard him make a logical talk on the street near the M System grocery.

Bailey declared that a combination of wealth in the formation of holding companies had put more men out of jobs than any other one thing. He denounced the chain stores of all kinds including chain banks as being un-American in principle.

His talk throughout was well received and he is said to have gained a number of votes by appearing here. He refrained from the use of abuse in his remarks which appealed to his audience.

Mother of Judge Bishop Dies Saturday

OLD TIMERS ATTEND PRE-CENTENNIAL HELD AT PAMPA THURSDAY and FRIDAY

Never before in the history of the Panhandle have so many pioneers been gathered in one body as at Pampa during the two-day Pre-Centennial celebration, the first of the kind in the state and a prelude to the big state show in 1936.

The honors for having traveled the greatest distance went to "Lengthy" Sutton of Stacey, Montana, an old U-Bar boy 40 years ago.

The oldest pioneer in point of advent of discovery, and not age of the individual went to Morris Rosefield who came from Germany to Dallas in 1865 and to the Panhandle about 1879 in time to establish the first store in Old Town. He was first to move his store to the present Clarendon townsite, financed the first phone and electric light systems here. He is to prepare early day history of the

PALO DURO PARK TO BE FORMALLY OPENED JULY 4TH

Five Day Celebration Will Mark Opening of Most Famous Canyon

Palo Duro canyon, nationally famous for its beauty and historical interest both modern and prehistoric, will be formally opened to the public on the morning of July 4th. The celebration will continue for five days.

D. E. Colp, chairman of the state park board and other officials will be in attendance. Preparations are being made to care for ten thousand visitors over the five day period.

A rodeo in the natural amphitheatre immediately below the "lodge" building now in process of construction, will be one of the typical western amusement. Twenty thousand can be seated around this natural amphitheatre.

Roads for auto travel have been constructed by CCC boys to the bottom of the canyon and for several miles beyond. Trails have been made for horseback riding along the narrow ledges and near the brim of the canyon.

"The Baby Grand", as the canyon is termed in comparison with Grand Canyon of Arizona fame, affords all the beauties of its famous namesake, and more in colorings and floral scenery.

Photographs and moving pictures fall in properly and adequately portraying the details of the beauty spots, some of which rival Colorado's "garden of the gods." Other buildings are to be constructed. Among them a museum building at the sight of the Goodnight dugout, the first human habitation in the canyon dating from 1879.

CODE EXEMPTED ONE BUNCH.

All lines of business effort and activity are taken care of under the codes, that is, all except just the rank and file of our citizenship, and it's open season on them.

THAT SETTLES IT.

Wilbur Glen Voliva, an Illinois religious fanatic, makes bold to announce that Satan will take over the world in September, 1934. We've had a feeling for some time that eventually something would happen to our kidnapers and murderers.

INGRATITUDE AND GALL.

Newspapers of Texas at this time receiving appeals and almost commands for free publicity in the interests of Walter Woodward, candidate for attorney general, should recall that Walter Woodward in 1929 introduced and secured the passage of Senate Bill No. 30 repealing the law requiring the printing of notices in probate matters. Besides denying to the public the right of information, the bill cost the newspaper profession thousands of dollars.

THAT BANKHEAD BILL.

The majority of objectors to the Bankhead cotton law are blaming the "windshield farmers" for it at this time. The confiscation of half the cotton above a certain number of bales, does not appeal to a lot of fellows. An Alabama exchange states that small cotton growers in the south will be up against the real thing this fall when other nations supply the foreign market.

Although the natives have begun to raise a howl about the foreigners gobbling up everything in sight, Japs continue to pour into Brazil and Argentina. Most of the Japs are raising cotton on plantations owned by large Jap syndicates, according to our own department of Commerce and Labor. Add this to the nations already growing cotton and what will make a cotton market for America this fall?

It would appear to be a better plan to make it possible for the Americans in rags to buy all the cotton goods needed, and permit the growers to raise all that was possible.

COTTON BY-PRODUCT MARKET.

Gins in many places in west Texas annually burn tons of burrs, that variety of fuel accumulating due to the ginning of "bollies" in more recent years. The ash from the bollies has been found to contain valuable fertilizing elements, used in the growing of tobacco.

The Sumatra Tobacco company of Griffins, Connecticut purchased twenty-three cars of the ash at Post the past season. A hammer mill has been installed to break up the clinkers before shipping.

Other corporations buying the cotton ash in west Texas the past few months made shipments to Amsterdam, Georgia, Quincy, Florida and Bridgeport, Connecticut. The ash has been regarded merely as waste until this new market voluntarily developed. While tobacco growers are the principal buyers of the fertilizer at present, experiments are being made in many other lines in which it is believed the demand will be such this fall as to double the price of this by-product.

REWARD OF OFFICIAL COURTESY.

Through the years enforcement officers of the better class have shown those charged with crime a certain degree of courtesy which the public has been taught to respect and appreciate. Developments in 1933 and 1934 hardly justify a continuance, and especially in dealing with strangers. While this is true, some officers continue to take a risk all to their detriment, and often their lives.

After arresting an alleged escaped convict near Weatherford Tuesday, a policeman had his pistol taken from him by his prisoner, after which the officer was beaten over the head and rendered unconscious. Our cemeteries are rapidly being filled with officers who fall in the line of duty, shot down without a chance.

It has about reached the point where officers must, in protection of their lives, take no chances whatever and at the slightest provocation "shoot and ask questions afterwards."

Carelessness of peace officers also endangers the lives of innocent parties. In the Weatherford instance referred to here, two innocent farmers were badly wounded. Since peace officers have no assurance of the manner in which the case will terminate, it appears that they are now forced to take summary action themselves.

New Fair Opens May 26

Here is the famous Avenue of Flags which will again be an outstanding feature of the new World's Fair which opens in Chicago May 26. The colors on the standards have been changed and new flags provided to thrill the pleasure seekers through which will visit the new Fair. There will be 84 miles of free exhibits and a series of fifteen foreign villages. The villages will provide a world tour for Fair visitors this summer. Low cost will be the watchword. Meals will be as low as fifteen cents. The average visitor spent only $1.17 inside the fair grounds last summer. Fourteen major highways lead into Chicago. There are ample tourist accommodations and parking space.

W. W. Buck was in from the Morris ranch Tuesday. He is growing a turkey-guinea crop this season, he says.

PUBLIC OPINION
AND THE BANKS

By F. N. SHEPHERD
Executive Manager American Bankers Association

WHILE banking today appears in a wholly distorted light in the eyes of some, the more reasoning elements in our population undoubtedly have a less jaundiced view than would appear from certain irresponsible orators, often posing as spokesmen for that indefinite quantity called "the mass" of our people.

Anti-social acts on the part of some bankers formerly have been the subject of spectacular exposures, but I can say without reservation that they were in no way typical of the acts and attitudes of the vast majority of their fellow bankers. The public mind was shocked into the belief that these unrepresentative instances were far more representative than they really were, and this belief has been encouraged by political and demagogic elements.

The bankers who are in charge of our banks today represent men who withstood the temptations and avoided the economic pitfalls of the great boom. If they had not they would not have been able to survive the rack and ruin of the economic hurricane by which even many banks and bankers, whose conduct was above reproach, have been destroyed. The other types of bankers, those that fell below the high standards of professional ethics and business prudence that characterized those that remain, have passed out of the picture. But they have left for those that remain a difficult heritage of suspicion.

How irrational this is, when we reflect that not more than three or four per cent of our entire population suffered personal loss because of what any banker did or neglected to do, whereas literally millions of bank depositors did not lose a single cent as a result of banking difficulties and really owe a vote of confidence and thanks to their own bankers who were true to the highest conceptions of their stewardship and brought their institutions and their customers safely through the greatest business disaster the world has ever seen. It has been a peculiar feature of the psychological distortion of the times that many who owe nothing but gratitude to their bankers joined in blaming the banker far out of proportion with rational consideration of the facts.

EXAMINATIONS FOR TRUST INSTITUTIONS

New Move by Federal Banking Authorities Welcomed by Banks and Trust Companies, Says Bankers' Organization

FEDERAL examination of trust departments is the latest development in banking supervision and trust companies and banks operating trust departments are welcoming this development because it fills a long-felt want. It is stated by the Trust Division of the American Bankers Association.

Despite the growing importance of American trust business in recent years examining officials have never given to trust departments the attention paid to commercial banking departments, this authority points out. Now the Federal Reserve System, in conjunction with the Comptroller of the Currency, has undertaken to bring the examination of trust departments up to the level of commercial bank examinations, it says.

Experts in trust work are being employed by the various Federal Reserve Banks. These experts will head the special staffs of trust examiners in the twelve Federal Reserve Districts. Special staffs are already at work in some of the Reserve Districts, including Boston, Atlanta, Richmond and Chicago. The Federal Reserve will examine the trust departments of state-chartered members of the System.

Uniform Supervision
Meanwhile, the Comptroller of the Currency has built up over the past two years a staff of special examiners for the trust departments of national banks. All national banks are members of the Federal Reserve System. Since nearly all state-chartered trust institutions are members the new plan will bring about what amounts to Federal examination for the trust business.

State examining authorities probably will follow Federal supervisory policies to a considerable extent. Hence, coordination of the procedure of the national banking system and the Federal Reserve System is expected to result in a uniform system of examinations for trust departments in all banks. This in turn should produce considerable standardization in the operation of trust departments.

The Weekly Pay Check

Towns prosper in proportion to the people living within the trade territory of that town. Since Clarendon has no payroll, the next best thing is the "weekly pay check."

Weekly pay checks come mostly from dairy and poultry products. Cream is selling at a fair price, plenty of rain makes feed and grass an assured fact permitting the cream production to reach its highest point.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all.

Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores.

Refuse "something just as good" for it may gripe, loosen teeth or send rectum. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. ©1933, C.M.Co.

MUSICIANS ENTERTAIN

Miss Agatha Taylor, pianist, Miss Joyce Link and Mrs. Sam Cauthen, violinists, assisted by Miss Eunice Johnson, reader, entertained a group of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crockett Taylor on Wednesday, May 30th, at 6 o'clock.

Miss Taylor opened the musicale with the beautiful Valcik by Morjek. Her playing showed unusual talent and expression.

Mrs. Cauthen played the Adagio and Rondo Allegretto movements of the Concerto in A Minor by de Beriot with a clearness and sweetness of tone well worthy of mention.

Miss Johnson read Longfellow's story Robert of Sicily, in her usual charming manner.

The Concerto in G by de Beriot with its three brilliant movements was played by Miss Link. Her performance was not only a feat of memory, but the composition was handled with an ease that would have been a credit to a much more advanced pupil.

Mrs. Allen Bryan played the difficult and brilliant piano accompaniments to both violin concertos, adding fresh laurels to her ability as pianist.

The Taylor home was attractively arranged with red India roses and blue larkspur.

After the program the guests were invited into the garden, where a refreshing salad course was served. Those invited to this lovely musicale were as follows:

Mmes. W. H. Martin, L. S. Bagby, Bill Patman, J. T. Patman, H. W. Taylor, Jim Headrick, W. A. Massie, A. T. Cole, John Bass, Sam Braswell, D. O. Stallings, W. A. Clark, C. G. Stricklin, Wm. Friday marked the closing of another school year and a most interesting one. "By their works ye shall know them." applies fittingly to our teachers, E. H. Estlack and Mrs. Edwin Eanes. We are glad to know they will be with us another year. A picnic was enjoyed at the K. C. Reed grove and Mrs. Eanes presented her pupils in short program. Little Miss Margaret Beach gave welcome and little Miss Betty Lou Naylor said good bye. After this open air program, E. H. Estlack presented 7th grade diplomas to four of his boys: Willard Sneed, J. D. Tidrow, J. R. Naylor and Lloyd Hefner. Lloyd was not present, being detained at home by a good case of chicken pox. After the presentation, the ladies gave a picnic spread. Quiet reigned but all were busy. When all were finished, the fragments would have fed another crowd. Good-byes were said. K. C. Reed invited all to come again for a 4th of July picnic. Answers "We Will" were heard from all present.

I had enlarged liver and gall bladder trouble. Had run a temperature for two years. Was operated on and wore a tube in my gall bladder for four months, but got no relief. My doctor and surgeon told me there was no cure for me, and could only give me temporary relief. I went to Dr. Milling Mineral Wells, Texas, April 2, 1925, took treatment six weeks and went home well and haven't had a sick day since, and I now weigh more than I ever did. I think he is wonderful. "How Jesus Helps"

"I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not." Luke 22:32.

We are thinking of a Christ who lives with His own today, as really as in the days of Galilee. This is the glorified and triumphant Lord whose spirit is among us in power and glory.

I. Peter was the object of Christ's sympathy. There is a significant passage in John's gospel which reads, "having loved his own which were in the world, He loved them unto the end." To Jesus the word means all that it signifies, suffering with one another. Human sympathy is sometimes very cheap, but it says of our Lord that he "carried our sorrows." It is a sweet thought in the days of need that somebody cares.

II. Jesus understood His fickle disciples. He saw where Peter could not see. The latter meant well, but he was going in the wrong way about it. There was too much of self in his proud assertion of loyalty. Faith may fail in a variety of ways; by overconfidence, for example, when the struggle is discounted; by misdirection, when the objective is not sufficiently honored, and by arrested development through lack of contact between principles. Perhaps Peter, erred in all three directions, but His Lord understood.

III. Encouragement is sounded in Christ's words; "I have prayed for thee." It is one thing to pity people and another to pray for them. Then you take them into your life. "Your trial is coming, Peter" he seems to say "but don't be discouraged, do not succumb to it. I shall remember you, and shall be with you." Do not lose this faith and you will win a victory. How much value do you set on the prayers of your friends? They mean much, but think of the power of Christ's prayer. Well he still prays for the children of faith.

IV. Jesus offered wise counsel to his weak disciple. "Thy faith" Not thy speech, learning or worldly treasures, but thy faith. When we lose faith the battle is over. Faith in God, faith in one's fellow men, faith in oneself—these are the three great lights of truth. Believe that he cares and go on to victory.

II. Jesus understood His fickle disciples. He saw where Peter could not see. The latter meant well, but he was going in the wrong way about it. There was too much of self in his proud assertion of loyalty. Faith may fail in a variety of ways; by overconfidence, for example, when the struggle is discounted; by misdirection, when the objective is not sufficiently honored, and by arrested development through lack of contact between principles. WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and snaky and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in pimples. Your head aches and you feel drowsy and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. Sold at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

CHEVROLET KNEE ACTION CARS ARE IN BIG DEMAND

Detroit, June 1. — Chevrolet dealers delivered 43,311 units during the first twenty days of May, according to William E. Holler, general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor Company.

Retail deliveries during the year to May 20 totaled 324,344 against 223,857 units for the same period of 1933, 145 per cent of the same time last year.

Retail deliveries of commercial cars and trucks continued to gain. Dealers delivered 7,943 commercial units during this twenty-day period against 5,470 for the same period a year ago.

"Because of the tremendous public demand for the new 1934 model knee action cars, production has not yet been able to keep pace with sales requirements," said Mr. Holler. "The May 20 report shows that Chevrolet dealers have on hand 30,000 unfilled orders for knee action models. This, together with the sales activities of the dealers, assures a very satisfactory last 10-day period in May.

"Unquestionably, fully enclosed knee action, shock-proof steering, cable-controlled brakes, eighty-horsepower engine, and Fisher body have definitely met with public acceptance and have established an outlook for increased activity during the summer months."

Cecil Ray and Bill Carroll went whaling in Childress lake Tuesday night. The size of the minnows caught is a deep, dark secret.

AL COOKE WINS HILLCROFT TROPHY SUNDAY EVENING

Wesley Knorpp Wins Second Flight From Jackson In Close Contest

Al Cooke, the elongated wrong side shooter, won the Eighth Annual City Golf Tournament Sunday when he defeated his brother Dick on the 38th hole of a scheduled 36 hole match. The victory Sunday gave Al his third win and permanent possession of the Hillcroft trophy.

The play of both contestants was consistent and at times brilliant. Dick gained a one hole advantage on the first round Sunday morning when he was on 7 of the 9 greens for birdies and his lead was held to only one hole due to his inability to run down putts. The putting jinx continued to trail Dick and his lead was soon erased as Al was sinking his putts from all distances. The half-way mark found Al two up and both players near perfect figures.

Al held his two hole advantage through the third round and until the 32nd hole when Dick birdied to reduce the lead. Dick promptly squared the match by taking the 33rd but again went one down as Al birdied 34. The 35th was halved but the match was again squared and forced into extra holes as Dick won the long 36th due to Al's failure to run down a long putt. Both players putted for birdies on 37 but missed and the match ended when Dick's third shot on 38 run through the green and out of bounds while Al was dead to the pin for a par. A large gallery followed the play and was rewarded with thrills galore.

Wesley Knorpp was crowned champion of the Second Flight when he defeated Otis Jackson 3-2. Knorpp won his way to the finals with a 2-1 win over Hank Bagby and Jackson had previously won from Alex Cooke 5-4. Tom F. Connally won consolation honors by defeating Homer Parsons 3-1.

The Third Flight was won by Joe Jackson who defeated Bennett Kerbow 5-4. Joe won the right to meet Kerbow by trimming Milas Little 6-4 as Kerbow had eliminated George Carter 1 up 19 holes. Consolation prize was won by J. T. Patman who defeated C. Huffman 4-3.

The Fourth Flight presented a battle of youth when Garland woods won from Billie Cooke 3-2. Garland earned the right to contest in the finals by eliminating Jack Goldston 4-3 and Billie had erased Carroll Knorpp 3-2. Tom Murphy won consolation by downing Bert Smith.

Prizes were awarded to the winners, runners-up, and winners of consolation in each flight.

Team Standings

The first half of the Twilight League schedule came to a close this week with game that was played between the Legion and Christian teams. This game was well attended and interest ran high throughout the game. It was filled with thrills and excitement from start to finish and the Legion boys surprised all the fans by winning the game, which happened to be their first win of the season. The final score was Legion 12, Christian 4.

All of the teams were some what handicapped in the first series, but all are planning for a tight race in the last half of the schedule.

Several of the teams did not play their required number of games, and it worked for an advantage to some teams to pull their averages up.

Fate Makes Appointment In Famous Cavern

By a queer quirk of fate, two ladies met in Carlsbad cavern—shall we say by accident—Saturday last. Both had a desire to meet but never expected such a pleasure since they resided some five hundred miles apart.

In making the journey through the Cavern with her sons and friends, Mrs. J. C. Estlack sat down for a rest in the spacious dining room. Soon a strange lady sat down beside her, when the following conversation ensued Mrs. Estlack opening the conversation:

"Where do you live?"
"Austin, Texas."
"I have a son in school there."
"Where do you live?"
"Clarendon, Texas."

"Yes, and I bet you are Phifer's mother!" This was the exclamation of Mrs. Hamilton with whom Phifer Estlack has made his home in Austin for the past two years. Of course the facial resemblance helped Mrs. Hamilton to decide instantly, but since the ladies were not expecting to meet, and more than five hundred people were in the Cavern at the time, it does appear a bit strange that fate should arrange a meeting. Both ladies were happy and spent some time talking as if they had been acquainted always. Yes, fate is a wonderful "what'sit."

Boy Scouts Return Home Happy Friday

Judge Hubert P. Day returned with his Scout charges Friday. The boys spent several days at Dripping Springs, famous Scout resort south of Claude.

Only one mishap dampened the ardor of the Scouts. During the first day, Eddie, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hedgpeh swung out on a rope and dropped into the pool, his foot coming in contact with a tin can cutting his foot badly. "Doctor" Bobbie Godson took charge of the patient, administered first aid and saw him through the camp period. Eddie vehemently protested when it was suggested by Judge Day that he return home the first day. He is improving daily.

Orchardist Complains That Fruit is Being Wasted

The Leader is requested to carry an article here suggesting a plan whereby E. V. Quattlebaum may be enabled to grow to maturity a peach crop on his farm west of town. He would like to market the crop since peach crops are about five years apart in this section.

Two years ago the orchard froze back. He carefully trimmed the trees and they put out a wonderful growth considering the dry weather. The trees are full of green fruit at this time.

He complains that boys and young men unthoughtedly enter his orchard—even in day time—pull and throw at one another the green peaches. He thinks that he should be allowed to have some authority over the matter which is a very sane view since the fruit is being rapidly wasted. Should this suggestion not be heeded, it is more than likely that something will be done about the matter, and less talking from here out.

Rit Morris is in Austin for the state bar examination. He spent a year in the law department of the State University and has been studying law in the office of Judge Porter for the past year. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Morris.
