MURDER CHARGE FOLLOWS DEATH TOM COOKE SUN.

Wife is Arrested and Bond Set at $6,000 On Charge Of Poisoning

Following an analysis of the stomach of Tom Cooke by a state authority at Austin, Mrs. Tom Cooke was arrested Wednesday charged with murder. Len Irwin, sheriff of Bailey county made the arrest at her home six miles south of Sudan.

Mrs. Cooke is said to have been the only one present at the time of death. It is further alleged that both strychnine and arsenic were found in the home by the sheriff. Mrs. Cooke is said to have stated that the strychnine was purchased at the request of Mr. Cooke who wanted to poison dogs that were destroying his poultry.

The body was shipped to Clarendon by rail, and it is said that Mrs. Cooke was not present at the funeral service here Tuesday.

Funeral services were conducted for Tom Cooke aged about 45, at the home of his mother, Mrs. W. H. Cooke Tuesday morning with Rev. L. L. Swan, rector of the Episcopal church in charge.

Old friends of the deceased attended the casket. They were Jack Killough, Bill Patman, Dude Gentry, Jerome Stocking, Dr. T. H. Ellis, Roy Beverly, T. M. Shaver, Gene Noland.

Surviving him are two sons, Eric and Burch, the first named having made his home here with his grandmother for several years. Mrs. W. H. Cooke is his mother. Other relatives are sisters Misses Julia, Frances and Helen Cooke of El Paso; Mary of Clarendon.

The brothers surviving are Allen Cooke of Lubbock, and Bill and Dick of Clarendon. The deceased spent his boyhood days in Clarendon and was identified with various business interests here before going to the Sudan country.

Residence Fire Destroys Home and Effects

A disastrous fire occurred here Tuesday night about 9 p.m. when the W. H. Rodgers residence next to the John Clark home burned.

The McWhorter family occupied the home at the time, and the origin of the fire is unknown. The residence carried no insurance protection so far as can be learned, neither were the household effects insured, both being a total loss.

Due to the slowness in which the alarm was turned in, the fire department was unable to save more than the shell of the building. There was no neglect on the part of any one in making the fire report, it being due to a scarcity of telephones which is further due to having to pay a rate higher than war time prices.

Ragland Has Model Fence Constructed

Being of that disposition to believe that anything worth doing at all is worth doing well, Geo. E. Ragland, manager of the Shamburger lumber interests here, had a fence constructed recently near his home in the west part of town that is said to be chicken high, rabbit tight and bull strong.

Mr. Ragland purchased the extra lots near his home measuring 100 by 200 feet. Around this he had placed substantial posts and strong net wire five feet high. "I wanted a real place to keep rabbits, chickens or dogs", he said, "and to show the folks what a real fence could be worth to any man." C. L. McCrary of the Watters & McCrary firm did the job.

Popular Young Lady Leaves On Extended Trip

Miss Theyva Salmon of the Model Department store left Saturday night for Ft. Worth where she will join a party of friends for outing at Galveston.

Following her vacation, she will visit the eastern markets for late summer and early fall buying. She expects to return here within thirty days.

Screw Worms Causing More Trouble Than Usual

Reports have it that the Good-night ranch people will not brand at this season due to the prevalence of screw worm flies. There has been much complaint of worm damage to young calves, and especially do the worms attack fresh brands or wherever fresh blood or flesh is exposed.

Cowmen state that this is an unusual situation since screw worm flies are not so bad during a dry period such as has prevailed in the Panhandle for several months.

COLORFUL PALO DURO CANYON TO OPEN JULY 4

Several views taken in the colorful Palo Duro Park, during a recent horseback expedition into the depths of the gorge are shown above. (1) Archaeologists declare these rocks to be primitive Indian grinding mills. The holes, which can be seen in the top of the stones are smooth and perfectly round. Several such primeval relics are found in the canyon. (2) This balanced rock formation is known as the "Devil's Tomstones." Centuries of erosion have left the large stone balanced in mid-air. The formation under this rock is a veritable rainbow of beautifully blended colors. (3) Horseback parties under the direction of an experienced guide are able to ride over 30 miles of bridge trails built by the National Park Service and see many formations not visible from the road or the rim of the canyon. (4) Imposing peaks, easily accessible from the canyon drive, are a delight to hikers and students of geology.

The new Palo Duro Park, developed by the National Park Service and the Texas State Park Board, located in the Texas Panhandle 33 miles southeast of Amarillo over a paved highway via Canyon will be formally opened to the public with an elaborate 5-day celebration on July 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8.

Chambers of Commerce throughout West Texas are joining with Amarillo and Canyon to assist the State Park Board in promoting the event. D. E. Colp, chairman of the Board, who will participate in the opening ceremonies, said that high state and National Park Service officials will attend.

Rodeo Planned One of the highlights of the program is a wild west rodeo to be staged daily under the direction of Leonard Stroud. Other features will include the following special days in which citizens of hundreds of towns throughout the Panhandle-Plains area will participate: July 4: Dedication and citizenship day. The State Park Board will dedicate the Park. Following will be political speeches, all candidates are invited and each will be permitted his own rally—the park is big enough for all; band concerts, National Guard, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars activities. Rodeo. July 5: Church-Sunday School Day. A one-day combination of Chautauqua, convention and picnic. A massed chorus selected from the entire territory will be a feature of the day's program. A full orchestra will be presented along with other entertaining features. Program under direction of John Josey. Rodeo. July 6: Goodnight Trail Dedication, Pioneers' Day, Boy and Girl Scouts gathering. Rodeo. July 7: Civic Clubs Day. All civic clubs, Federated Women's Clubs, Business and Professional Clubs of the area are invited to meet at the Park on this day. Rodeo. July 8: Palo Duro Canyon State Park Day. A day filled with interesting events and especially set aside for picnic parties. Rodeo.

Provide Amusement Naturally most interesting to all visitors will be a drive into the heart of the Canyon over the new road which has recently been constructed by the National Park Service. The rugged vastness, the unsurpassed natural beauty of the canyon walls, and the interesting formations, the like of which can be found nowhere else in the world, join to make Palo Duro Canyon one of the show places of the nation.

According to the D. E. Colp, preparations are being made to accommodate 100,000 visitors during the formal opening. The State Park Board is making provision for amusement and refreshment concessions, and, according to Mr. Colp, prices will be most reasonable.

No charge will be made for the rim drive or for a visit to the lodge site on the brink of the canyon. Admission to the canyon drive is 35 cents per car of five persons or less, and 5 cents each for additional passengers. Admission for motorcycles, 25 cents each. Admission to the rodeo will be 35 cents for children and 75 cents for adults.

Chamberlain to Have Ice Cream Social

Announcement was made Monday by Wilford Hott that the Chamberlain community would have an ice cream social on Thursday night, June 28th.

Stringed instruments will supply plenty of music. This is a benefit affair, an effort is being made to stage a singing school out there.

Chamberlain also invites any candidates who wish to again meet the voters of that section. Some expressed a desire to be present, and this invitation is made that there be no favoritism shown.

Kennedy Davis Is Improving In Dallas Hospital

The many friends of the young man will be glad to learn that Kennedy is showing a decided improvement the past week in Dallas. Unable to move his lower limbs following the auto wreck near Jericho some time ago, he was taken to Dallas after several days spent in a local hospital.

Reports from Dallas state that he has regained a sense of touch in his right leg and in the left to his knee. He is in a plaster cast where severest injury to his spinal column occurred. It is now believed that he will continue to make rapid progress, it is said.

Minister And Family Attends State Convention

W. E. Ferrell and family returned this week from Temple Texas where they have been attending the 49th. Annual Convention of the Christian Churches of Texas. Rev. Ferrell reports that this was one of the best conventions ever attended and that the program was excellent from start to finish. The outstanding address of the convention was delivered by Dr. Edwin A. Elliott of Houston. Dr. Elliott is assistant deputy NRA administrator, and teacher in the T. C. U. He made a plea for the elimination of creed and self interest and for Christian living to be practiced by all who profess to be Christians.

Many programs were outlined in the convention whereby the strong churches will cooperate and assist the weaker churches in the program of evangelizing. To assist in this program, Rev. Ferrell stayed over and preached for the Christian church at Taylor last Sunday.

Rev. Ferrell reports that the crops in that part of Texas were in need of rain and that everything was burning up with the extreme heat of the past few weeks.

Clampitt Reports Fine Crop Prospects Out West

Returning here the last of the week D. W. Clampitt had quite a bit to say about the fine crop prospects in that section east of Farwell, and especially around Lariat Switch where the holdings of the Clampitts, D. W. and son Roy are located. Both men made the trip of inspection.

Mr. Clampitt stated that harvesting had begun but that they would hold their wheat for a better price. The market offer there was seventy-one cents a bushel and the wheat weighed 61 pounds. The production was estimated at 12 bushels an acre.

They saw plenty of wet dirt, copious rains having fallen the past several days and crops in general were looking their best.

Plum Exhibit Presages Big Fruit Crop Here

Wednesday Mrs. R. W. Fowlkes of the Chamberlain community brought to the Leader office a branch taken from a plum tree that measured exactly a foot. A careful count showed the plum crop to be exactly 43 to the foot after several had fallen off while being brought to town.

These plums are of the compass-cherry type better defined as the Sapa. This and a large number of kindred varieties was originated in South Dakota when a horticulturist crossed the wild sand cherry with the Miner plum some twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowlkes have a nice home orchard in which they grow a big variety of fruit

COUNTY CAPITOL ADJUSTMENT.

In this issue of the Leader a map of the state is printed showing how it is proposed to reduce the county capitols or county seats from 254 to seven. It is clearly shown on this map how the larger cities would use such an arrangement to their advantage.

That there is cause for county government consolidation cannot be disputed, but how is this arrangement to be made that the majority may share in such advantages? The map in this issue is merely for the information of the reader, and is not being endorsed by this publication as the proper arrangement by any means.

OPENING THE "BABY GRAND" PLAYGROUND.

Notables and others high in official position will look over Palo Duro canyon opening days, July 4th to the 8th. It will require several days to do the subject justice.

Eager humanity will visit the canyon where ancient tribes made homes centuries ago, and where Spanish explorers spent some time in the 15th century. The canyon is not new by any means, but the idea of a playground for the southwest is new.

Geologically speaking, the canyon is said to have been formed by erosion some fifteen millions of years ago, with the process of enlargement going on daily. The present plains level was brought down by an ice age glacial formation burying marshes and remains of prehistoric animals. These remains are to be found in the Palo Duro canyon, the lower strata having been a part of a marsh that extended as far west as Clovis.

Preparations have been made to care for an attendance of 100,000. The number that will attend is a guess at this time, but it is sure to be the biggest that has ever been recorded in the Panhandle to date.

STATE POLITICS WARMS UP.

The latest joke is that a 2x4 down state has challenged Jimmy Allred for a debate. Wonder if he really thought he could handicap Allred by getting him to fall for that kind of a racket?

Forecasters over the state are of the opinion that Allred will be in the run-off without fail. His running mate is a matter of conjecture with a strong possibility that it will be either Hunter or McDonald.

McDonald is not getting the Ferguson support of former years it is said, and that makes it look more like Hunter will be second man up. Hunter and Allred will lead in the Panhandle. This fact has already been conceded by leaders of the booster movement for each of the other candidates, though some of them refuse to admit it openly.

Senator Small has the backing of most of the daily papers of the state, but he is getting a reaction on this score. The rank and file in Texas never follow the dictates of a large daily. The Dallas News always fought Jim Hogg teeth and toenail, and he was elected to every state office for which he offered himself.

Those conversant with Hogg political history in Texas liken Jimmie Allred as being another man of the Hogg type. His honesty, aggressiveness, sincerity and sympathy for the rights of the masses is said to be right along the lines that Jim Hogg fought through a fiery period in Texas political history leaving a record to posterity as the state's greatest governor up to the present time.

LOBBYING AND LAW-MAKING.

No egg-sucking dog was ever able to hide all the shells. Thinking voters have finally discovered what sort of minds are in control of their lives and destinies. A government of the people, by the people, and for the people, is never safe in the hands of a high-powered, expensive lobby such as we have had at Austin during the late legislative sessions.

When the lobby bill came up for action, our state senate voted 12 members for the protection of the citizens. Fourteen voted against the people. The enemy was in the majority and it is not too late to stop that form of crime at the first primary.

Senator Clint Small, candidate for governor, is going over the state right now howling about "stopping the crime wave." Why didn't he vote to stop at least some of it when he had an opportunity? That is just one of the many reasons why he is getting very little support in the Panhandle this time. Panhandle citizens know that Small will run a poor fifth in the present race. Glowing reports put out down state about his carrying West Texas is pure bunk. Citizens of his home county are organizing the county by precincts to keep him from losing it. Small will reap as he has sown. The above statement will not change any votes. It is not being printed for that purpose. There are two other reasons why it is being printed. First, merely to show that the day of the double-crosser has passed. Second, it merely goes to show to what ends campaign managers with plenty of corporation money will go in order to fool the folks residing in another section of the state.

RICKETS, JITTERS AND COD LIVER OIL.

Have you a little cod liver oil in your home? We make haste to inquire with apologies to Fairy soap and explanations to Texans who might have possibly been 'short-potted' in the deal.

Texas owns and operates 14,232 gallons of cod liver oil under the relief administration as compared with 28 gallons under the board of control of former times. The state board paid $1.25 a gallon for what they got to be fed to the 20,000 wards of state institutions.

The relief administration made a much larger purchase and paid $2.885 per gallon with which they are said to be making great onslaughts upon the dreaded rickets in children.

While the board of control which does the buying for the state institutions was buying cod liver oil at $1.25 a gallon the relief administration refused to waste time on that grade which is alleged to be minus several million vitamins, both "A" and "D". Since several million vitamins can parade around on the point of a pin, counting the vitamins was no little task, and separating them was still more of an accomplishment.

Vitamin A is said to be a general body builder from a food standpoint, while D merely builds bone structure. Children suffering from "rickets" are said to flourish on the oil that is destined to make Texas famous, not wishing to disprove the reputation of the of the black oil of east Texas in the 'hot' oil belt.

Adults are generally credited with having the 'jitters' when rickets are most noticeable. The jitters is found to attack those who owe, can and won't pay. The first symptom is a yellow streak extending the length of the backbone.

Cod liver oil has a more salutary effect upon children than adults, but with the purchase of 14,232 gallons, or 14,573,568 doses, there is approximately two and a half doses for every inhabitant of the state.

Doctors tell us that sunshine and milk are far more beneficial in treating undernourished children and rickets, but under the new deal we get the cod liver oil. Let's take it. Again, "have you a little cod liver oil in your home?"

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

"Do you like to sit around the campfire and harmonize on all those familiar melodies that are dear to us all?" reads the beginning of a financial invitation to spend a vacation up in the mountains. Frankly we do. "You will like our mountain camp and make many new friends as the embers burn low", the story continues. "The crooning of the pines (no croonin' please, and besides pines whisper) and the delicate crescendo of the coyotes (we wondered what was the matter with the critters) lulled to sleep by the rhythm of a mountain breeze, etc."

That's good dope on paper. How about a cow chip fire, or cedar, high on the plains where the cowardly coyote sings tenor, the screech owl alto and the lobo brings up the bass in a trio that has the crooners backed off the map. Being lulled to sleep by the mosquitoes and awakened by buffalo gnats is a part of the great scheme in camping. The bitter always goes along with the sweet.

"Friends are our greatest assets and it's so much fun to do things together" the descriptive writer tells us in the folder. Picture two friends trying to hold a tent on a 40 acre space during a midnight gust of 80 mile wind, for instance. Or you might recall a smoke smudge in a tent, both friends busily engaged in feeding the smudge to rid the space of pests that make sleep impossible. That is the time when one has a strong inclination to take up deep sea diving. Then there is the pleasant experience of getting off on the wrong road, each friend accusing the other of being minus any sense of judgment as to time, distance or direction and comparing the mental status of the other with that of the common road lizard. You know how it is when we get farther west on a trip "coming away from some place headed for anywhere." At that it is a great life while it lasts.

A young lady writes in to inquire if the ladies "way back yonder" used cosmetics. We hasten to assure her that they did. Some of the cosmetic jars of solid gold being unearthed in the land of the ancient Medes last week would put to shame any effort of the modern goldsmith.

The use of various methods of personal adornment is recorded in several passages of Biblical history, among them read II Kings 9:30. The painting of the eyes developed in Ezekiel's time which he recorded in Chapter 23:40. Some of the girls went so far as to go barefoot and wear bells on their toes. Gosh! but they wanted some attention! Modern day girls have it over them in that they ride in autos as compared with the two-wheeled cart of ancient lineage drawn by a yoke of bulls. That's history as she is writ. It won't be long until we shall see faces painted in colors to harmonize with the color of the car. There is nothing like harmony in art, for without harmony there is no art. Study your color chart, gals, study your color chart which may be obtained at any lumber yard.

The writer gets called down for referring to "an operation for appendicitis." She writes in to say it would have shown far more refinement to have said "she experienced an appendectomy." We offer apologies but we still don't believe the prehistoric animal bit her.

A lady whose husband sits around on the curb every day while she 'takes in washing' asks that the following be printed:
"I wish I was a little rock,
A-sitting on a hill;
A-doing nothing all day long
But just a sitting still.
I wouldn't eat, I wouldn't sleep,

I wouldn't even wash;
I'd sit and sit a thousand years,
And rest myself, by gosh!

"I never closed my eyes all night" is said to be the biggest lie most frequently told in the language of this or any other nation. Some call it insomnia, others conscience.

The editor of the Egeland, North Dakota forgot the drought long enough to run the following announcement recently:

Have you met the new Baptist minister, J. Perry King. He is a most affable sort of fellow who appears to like his work, takes time to meet all the folks with an easy air. Rev. King will find plenty of cooperation here among the folks in general as well as in his church because he will deserve it.

Did you ever see any one go to the expense of installing a fly screen? Did you know that they are designed to keep flies out? A local man wants some one to side with him on an important issue. He says that folks—all too many—have a habit of standing in the doorway with the screen half open thereby letting in a bunch of flies. He thinks it ought to be stopped by educating the folks to the necessity of stopping a bad habit. He also says that in many of the home, women will stand with the screen half open and talk for an hour. Perhaps this man is right. Let's all think it over and stop holding open screen doors. It sounds foolish to mention this here, but when you come to notice it, you will see a lot of folks holding open screen doors just the same.

Noah had a lot of self-control to refrain from using the two fish worms for bait. We know a lot of folks who would have fallen for the opportunity to do a little fishing to kill time if nothing else during that 40 days or so.

After all the discussions about the "doggy" over the radios, a fellow has finally found out what a doggy really is when he says it is nothing more than "a motherless calf whose papa has run off with another cow."

Choice home grown fruit is coming on the market now. No special advice to offer since the writer takes on peaches by the gallon smeared over with rich Jersey cream and a sprinkling of sugar. After that, nature just naturally takes its course.

A woman will forgive a man's past if he will come home with a present.

And another thing, these Hitler shoe-dauber mustaches are not growing popular.

They're making cigars out of shavings, and food out of hay. It may be alright buddy, it may be the New Deal way.

Aufwiedersehn until next week. Also au revoir, adios and what have you? Not to mention "Ichni shichi gouroko hishi ayshi" of the Imperial Nippon. Anyway, it's too blamed hot for limited brains to function.

ALLRED INVADES THICKLY SETTLED SECTION OF TEXAS

Crocket, Texas, June 20.—Eastern Texas beckoned Attorney General James V. Allred, campaign for Governor, as he sped past the 50-speech mark in exactly three weeks of a vibrant, challenging crusade for a progressive government.

He was a guest here Wednesday night, the climax of a day's schedule featuring public rallies at Centerville and Madisonville. His address here was the ninth speech of the week. He will speak at Dallas Friday night.

Allred's straight-forward manner of discussing "the fundamental truths about the people's government" enabled him to score consistently in his campaign tour of West Texas.

Political observers in the plains-prairie section of the state declared his program to be "full of common-sense, rational and practical".

The Attorney General has confined his verbal fire to what he declares are the important issues, the major problems, confronting the people of Texas today.

His refusal to stoop to "mud-slinging" has proved an impetus to a rapidly rising tide of his popularity.

ing campaign in West Texas is being repeated this week in the eastern half of the state.

He opened the third week of his speaking tour at Marlin, then appeared in quick succession at Franklin, Bryan, Groesbeck, Mexia and Palestine. At Bryan he was honor guest at a banquet.

Thursday he will speak at Oakwood, Fairfield, and Corsicana. After the Dallas engagement, the Attorney General will visit Kaufman, Athens and Jacksonville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Christie and Mrs. John Gerner were visitors in the Leader office Tuesday. Come again neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Norwood and little daughter Elise returned from a Dallas business trip Monday.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned. It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. Buy at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

FAT GIRLS! HERE'S A TIP FOR YOU

All over the world Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free from fat figure that cannot fail to win admiration.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses and does it SAFELY and HARMLESSLY.

In the morning take one half-teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar. "It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat" and "brings that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

But be sure for your health's sake that you get Kruschen. A bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but little. You can always get Kruschen at Douglas & Goldston and money back if not satisfied with results after first bottle.

Misses Clarine and Doris Allensworth attended the double funeral of Miss Trixie Tabor and Dude Kennedy, who were drowned in Lake Pauline, at Chillicothe Saturday.

HIGH COST OF NEGLECT

Clothing during hot weather naturally absorbs perspiration. This moisture collects a fine dust. The moisture stains the cloth and the dust rots the fiber. This is best illustrated on collars around the neck. Clothing should be cleaned as often as necessary because neglect is expensive.

THIN, WORN-OUT TIRES UNSAFE FOR HOLIDAY DRIVING

Highway Accidents Likely If Flats or Blowouts Occur in Traffic

Local tire dealers are taking an active part in the national effort being made to insure a safe and sane Fourth of July in their home towns by urging tire inspection that will remedy or eliminate doubtful tires which may mar the holiday.

"There are undoubtedly more cars in operation now than there were at the same time last year," said Mr. Joe Holland, local Good-year dealer, commenting upon the situation, "which means that in the case of holiday travel highway accidents are more likely to happen if a great many of these cars have to stop to repair tires or, worse, if tires go flat or blow out when traveling in heavy traffic."

"It is now pretty generally known that tires that are thin and well worn can't stand the gaff of summer driving on hot pavements. It is only natural that more tires 'let go' in warm weather than in cold because hot days expand their air pressure and the thin casings won't stand the added strain."

About the best insurance for trouble free driving, Mr. Holland pointed out, is to take a few minutes for a careful checkup at a reliable service station. The Holland Bros. Service Station will make this inspection, no charge and without obligation.

"We have a complete new line of Goodyear's new G-3 All-Weather tires which will give 43 per cent more mileage by actual test," concluded Mr. Holland. In addition this tire provides increased protection against skidding when traveling over wet roads."

JUDGE JOHN H. SHARP

Judge John H. Sharp is a candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed Judge Thomas B. Greenwood, who will not run for reelection. He was born in Robertson County and educated in the public schools of this State, and Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas, where he graduated.

Judge Sharp moved to Ellis County and for more than twenty-five years was actively engaged in the practice of law, and by reason of his marked success as a lawyer in the private practice, he was first appointed a member of the Commission of Appeals by the Governor in 1929. When the law was amended in 1930, so as to make the judges of the Commission appointive by the Supreme Court, Judge Sharp was reappointed by the Court for a term of six years. He still holds that position. There is no branch of work coming before the Supreme Court with which he is not familiar from actual daily experience.

Based upon his long and varied experience as a practicing lawyer, and his service as a member of the Supreme Court Commission he asks the people of this State for the promotion.

Chevrolet Wire Wheels Are Made 600 Per Hour

Chevrolet, the only car manufacturer that makes its own wire wheels, is transforming steel plate and steel wire into wheels for Master models at the rate of 600 an hour, from raw material to finished product in 10 minutes, by an efficient set-up of special machinery and gravity conveyors at its Holbrook avenue plant, Detroit.

Actually, the wheel begins rolling before it bears any resemblance to the finished product. Once the steel has been put through the first machine operations, the stampings roll by gravity from one machine to the next until they arrive as finished rims or hub shells, to be linked together by 48 spokes. Then, for the first time, they roll as completed wheels from an overhead conveyor into box cars, for shipment to the nine car assembly plants.

Two kinds of steel stock-strip and wire-are used. The one-piece rim and the inner and outer hub shells are formed from strips. The spokes are formed from .220-inch wire, and total 162 inches of wire per wheel.

The rim and the two parts of the hub shell are stamped and formed, then punched for spoke holes, in a series of machines specially adapted to handle their specific jobs with the highest degree of precision. Spokes are cut, headed and bent in automatic high-speed machines into which the wire is fed from 1200-foot coils, to emerge ready for insertion through the rim and the hub. Finally, the spokes are riveted, 24 long and 24 short at a time, in machines that insure even tension in the spokes and perfect roundness in the wheel. A single strand of the steel wire has a tensile strength of 4400 pounds (70,000 lbs. per square inch).

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church

"A Castaway."

"Lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway." I. Cor. 9:27

Paul was too eager and too practical a man to dally with a boggy dread. After he had founded so many churches, written so many Epistles, and exercised so widespread an influence, in his quiet moments he was perpetually face to face with this awful nightmare, that the day may come when he would be a castaway. This thought almost drove him to madness. Have you ever feared this? I am not sure that a man ever reaches his highest development without something of the element of fear.

I. Reverently, humble, but most searchingly, I ask you whether it may not be possible that at this very moment you are already a castaway. "A castaway" in what sense? You must know that Paul lived to save men. It was the passion of his life, but he feared that unless he took good care, the hour might come in his life when Christ would say: Thou hast served me well, but thou shalt serve me no more. Of late thou hast become indolent, and choked with pride, and I have not secured thy whole obedience. I am now compelled to call upon some soul more alert, more obedient than thee, and that man

WILLIAM McCRAW

Further regulation of public utilities is inevitable, and therefore the next attorney general must be both willing and able to make such regulations effective, William McCraw of Dallas county, candidate for attorney general, told Clarendon citizens Friday.

McCraw outlined his program. I will use to do the work which thou mightest have done, but which thou didst fail to accomplish."

II. The pages of Scripture are filled with accounts of people who have failed to obey God and have become castaways. The case of Esau stands as a warning. Are there not many Christians, who have bartered away their birthrights for a mess of pottage. Left the things eternal for things of this world. The case of King Saul, who thought he could neglect his duty and then please God with a sacrifice. It is for you to determine if under the profession of obedience there are some flocks and herds, that you have reserved for yourselves. Saul professes obedience, but kept back some thing for himself and God rejected him.

III. This is very stern work. We must begin at the bottom, we must begin at the root of our self confidence. The prime cause of all failures in private life as well as in public ministry is the assertion of self.

including the further regulation of utilities; adequate safeguards for the public interests involved in banking and insurance; iron-clad protection for the permanent school fund so that Texas' 1,500,000 school children will have every opportunity; and general enforcement and administration of the law.

"I'm not going to engage in personal attacks, nor allow sectionalism or Nazi-like prejudices to sway me in my campaign," he declared.

"I ask for votes on the constructive basis of ability and integrity. I think it is high time Texans quit voting 'against' public men and voted 'for' them.

"The attorney generalship to me is a real job to make good in, not a soft berth to be used for political trading. I'll enter the office without favorites and without enemies save when the public's rights are menaced. This is the most important office in the state, created by the constitution as the bulwark for the people's rights against special, selfish interests. It is an office which should never be prostituted to sectionalism or private interests."

McCraw went from Clarendon to Amarillo. He is waging an intensive campaign which has already taken him into most sections of the state, but his energy is so great that he has been able to engage in that strenuous activity and yet gain eight pounds in the last two months. He stressed the fact he is in the prime of life, capable of meeting the responsibilities of the attorney generalship.

McCraw, who was born at Arlington 37 years ago, has had an interesting career. As a boy he did not find life a bed of roses. He worked as a "devil" in his father's printing shop and sold newspapers. When he finished high school he went to work on a newspaper as a pressman and studied law at night. He was admitted to the bar at the early age of 19, his disabilities being removed by the courts.

He was a lieutenant in the 132nd Machine Gun Battalion in the 36th Division in France. He was promoted there from second to first lieutenant. Always interested in aviation, he took flying lessons while serving as district attorney. Last year he resigned his commission as a captain in the National Guard and took an examination for a reserve commission in the Air Corps, which he passed, and was given a captaincy.

As a prosecutor he rid Texas permanently of six bad criminals by putting them on the electric chair. In one year, 1927, his office got penitentiary sentences that totaled more than 2,600 years, including 14 life sentences. The next year, out of 272 criminal cases tried, there were only 10 acquittals, and of the cases appealed, only three were reversed. One of his death penalty cases went to the U. S. Supreme Court, and was affirmed.

In Dallas the district attorney is also the civil attorney for the county. In that capacity McCraw defended 100 percent successfully several dozen damage suits brought against the county because of a large highway improvement program. He was the first official who was successful in making the large wholesalers pay ad valorem taxes on the millions of dollars worth of merchandise stored in Dallas for distribution in Texas.

McCraw served three terms as president of the District and County Attorneys' Association, and made a number of recommendations for bettering the criminal laws and complicated procedure, few of which the Legislature, represented by one of his opponents, chose to adopt, so that criminals might be put, and kept, where they belong.

For several months he has been the speaker on a radio program sponsored by a Dallas newspaper (Times-Herald) to tell the people something about the laws of their state.

In his campaign he is stressing the point that, because of the vast amount of work the Attorney General is required to handle, only a vigorous man in the prime of life should be elected to that office. "It is no place for an old time political who would use it as a political trading post," he declared. "There can be no back door in that office for special interests if the people are going to get a square deal. No one should be elected Attorney General who, because of past political or business connections, has obligations to vested interests that would embarrass him in doing his duty to the people—the ones he must represent."

Ever Known!

WORLD RECORD BROKEN!

THE NEW FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRE FOR 1934

Greatest Tire Firestone Has Ever Made

IT IS almost inconceivable that human ingenuity could build tires that would withstand the terrific punishment of the 500-mile grind at Indianapolis, May 30.

'Round and 'round the blistering track they streaked, hour after hour, under the blazing sun... the low moan of powerful motors rose to a terrific roar as they hit the straightaways at 150 miles or better—grinding, pulling, pounding around treacherous tire-destroying curves faster than they ever dared before. Sliding into the turns at these terrific speeds, there was nothing to hold the car to the track except the tire.

Mile after mile, lap after lap, greater and greater heat and increased centrifugal force developed to separate the tread from the body of the tire. Every conceivable force known was working to tear the tires to pieces—yet Firestone High Speed Tires, with Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords, withstood this most grueling test.

Thirty-three demons of speed—thirty-three cars equipped with Firestone High Speed Tires—all protected by Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords—entered the Annual Speed Classic. Every tire was bought by the driver or owner of the car.

In all the heat—in all the grinding—in all the straining and pulling—not one cotton strand loosened—not one life was endangered by tire failure—not one car was forced out of the race by tire trouble. Six of the winners finished without a tire change.

What a tribute to the Extra Strength—Safety and Durability built into Firestone High Speed Tires.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

The amazing record of Firestone dependability at Indianapolis was made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping. This Gum-Dipping process is used only by Firestone. Every fiber of every cord in every ply of the tire is saturated and coated with pure liquid rubber; there are eight extra pounds of rubber to every 100 pounds of cotton cords. This is the most valuable rubber that goes into the tire, but you pay no more for it. It is your assurance of extra safety, extra blowout protection.

Firestone High Speed Tires withstand the terrific racing speeds because they are built with Gum-Dipped high stretch cords which provide an extra margin of safety. This extra margin of safety is built into the Firestone High Speed Tires that you buy from your Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store.

There is greater adhesion between the plies of the Gum-Dipped Cord body and between the body and the tread. As a result of this patented process of Gum-Dipping Firestone engineers have been able to build a wider tread of flatter contour, with more and tougher rubber and deeper non-skid, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Don't delay! Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store in your community today and equip your car with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934. Drive with security and peace of mind. Choose the Tires that Champions Buy!

MAKE THIS TEST YOURSELF

Note how the rubber in a Firestone Tire clings to the high stretch Gum-Dipped Cords. This greater adhesion and strength is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Note how the rubber in an ordinary tire pulls away from the cords that have not been soaked and insulated with rubber. This causes friction and heat within the cords, resulting in separation.

Allred Advocates Repeal Laws That Halt Court Action

Franklin, Texas, June 18.—Repeal of what he called one of the "most pernicious" laws on the statute books was advocated as urgent by James V. Allred when he spoke here Monday afternoon in his campaign for governor.

"Some of the candidates," Allred said, "are coming around and telling you they are in favor of judicial reforms and speeding up the work of the courts. Well, did you know this—we have a law now which says that any case must be automatically postponed if a member of the legislature is an attorney for either side.

"All he has to do if the legislature is in session," the attorney general explained, "is to ask for a continuance and it will be granted immediately. That's the law!"

Mr. Allred said there were records of cases being postponed and delayed for as long a period as two years on account of this statute.

"Some of these candidates—and they have been in a position to work for reform if they had really wanted them—have been making you high-sounding promises, but they've never done anything about this law which thwarts the ends of justice," he declared.

He said it was a favorite practice of large corporations and privileged interests to employ the tactics possible under this statute

Bain Knew Lawton's Chief Several Years

When he read about the chief of police of Lawton shooting and capturing outlaws near there Sunday, R. L. Bain announced "that is the kind of an officer he is. I know him because I lived neighbor to him several years." When questioned further, Mr. Bain says he is a kind sort of a fellow but gets the law enforced at the same time and faces anything that comes along. Replanting Follows Heavy Hail Damage Thursday

Had the hail storm of Thursday afternoon happened along three weeks later it would have meant disaster to cotton growers. Planters are of the opinion that with a late frost line, a good staple can yet be produced. Hundreds of acres have been replanted this week following the rain that prevented entry to the fields earlier after the hail.

The hail streak is said to have been about three miles in width and began west of the Lon Rundell farm southwest of town. It passed east toward the Chamberlain school veering to the northeast at that point taking only the cotton crop of R. W. Moore, and damaging his wheat slightly.

Crops on the Calhoun, Karl Adams and John Clark farms were a total loss, and those in the path of the storm as indicated above.

and so cause "unreasonable delays and an added burden to the taxpayers who often have to foot the bill."

Subscribers Pay Leader For Real Value

New readers are constantly being added to the long list of Leader readers every week. Seldom does one quit reading the paper once they begin, and that only when they drop off for a time as a matter of economy. They decide later that the paper was really worth more than they suspected, miss the contact with the people and happenings of the county, and pay up and start in new again.

We value the interests of the readers and advertisers to the extent of giving the public the very best weekly paper of which the management is capable. If at any time there is an opportunity for improvement, please let the Leader family know of it.

American Legionists Propose Candidates for Post

This being political year, perhaps that phase will enter the races for official position in the Legion Post here. Anyway, Clyde I. (Pinky) Price is pitted against Cecil E. Beach, both veteran campaigners, for the post of commander.

Cliff Decker and Dick Chunn are up for 1st vice and Barcus Antrobus and Bill Meader are the candidates out to cop the office of 2nd vice commander. T. M. Shaver is slated for adjutant without opposition. The selection of service officer lies between Clyde Douglas and Dr. Guy Stricklin.

Tom Tucker and Floyd (Lump) Lumpkin offer plenty of good material for a selection of sergeant-at-arms. Ralph Andis and Charley Trent will be competitors for the office of liaison officer.

Historians are always necessary. They play an important part in moulding ideas for the future and judgment of the past. H. T. Burton and F. E. Caraway are forced into this race.

Chaplains are few and far between but Nathan Cox and Cap B. Morris will offer a safe selection in either case so far as that office is concerned.

Three are to be selected from six nominees for the executive committee. The material for this selection is T. R. Broun, Dr. M. L. Stricklin, Gus B. Stephenson, Joe Holland, Frank Hommel and Walter Clifford.

The voting comes off at the meeting to be held on the night of the first Tuesday in July. The nominations above were made Tuesday night of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lovell are besieged with the presence of three grandsons, Gordon Lynn, Kenneth Ray and Bobbie Gene of Lubbock. The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lovell, and the grandparents are enjoying the visit to the fullest measure.
