ALLRED DRAWS LARGER CROWDS EAST TEXAS TOUR

Beaumont, June 27.—His barbed criticism of the evils extant in Texas government winning increased applause everywhere he goes, James V. Allred, the candidate for governor whose 600,000 friends elected him Attorney General, spoke here Wednesday night.

This was the 69th campaign address Allred has made since the first of June, and the 93rd since he began his speaking tour. His fifth week of active "Road Work" started at Nacogdoches Monday and took him in quick succession to Lufkin, Woodville, Port Arthur and Orange. From there he will go to Kirbyville, Jasper and San Augustine Thursday; Center, Carthage and Marshall, Friday; and Gilmer, Pittsburg, Mount Pleasant and Sulphur Springs Saturday.

The success of the candidate's whirlwind tour of West Texas, where he covered more than 2000 miles in less than three weeks, has been duplicated in East Texas. His audiences have numbered in the thousands. Without exception his listeners have shown intense interest in his platform and have received enthusiastically his proposals.

Civic leaders and plain people have come to him after his speeches and promised wholehearted support, offering to help in any way possible "to get you in the Governor's chair where Texas needs just such a man as you."

Despite the fact that other candidates are devoting most of every speech to an attack on Allred, the attorney general is steadily growing more popular with the voters. In towns where a rival has preceded him, Allred is told that "the other candidates seem to be gangling up on you; they are not jumping on anybody else. But don't let that worry you. The people are not going to be taken in by tactics like that."

Allred also has remained unruffled by the remarks of his rivals. "I have never entered into a mud-slinging campaign and I'm not going to start now," he said. "While I could say some things for political purposes that would embarrass the other candidates, I refuse to do it because I don't believe in it. The people don't want to hear things like that; they want to be told of what they, and the candidates should be interested in—the problems of the state government."

Neither unbridled attacks by his opponents nor the rigors of traveling over the state in the summer's heat have dampened the enthusiasm of the attorney general for the job which oldline politicians term "the toughest of them all—campaigning for governor in Texas."

"I feel as though I could carry on like this for months. If I had the time I'd go to every single town in Texas and tell the people what they deserve to know—about the real issues in this race."

Stanton Scare Draws Many Officers to Canyon

Reports were rife Tuesday night that a strange auto was headed toward Palo Duro canyon from Tulla, and that the fences were being cut to admit of free access across the country.

Officers began to surround the canyon Tuesday night, and others came from over the Panhandle Wednesday morning including Sheriff Guy Pierce and Deputy Guy Wright. After searching until noon Wednesday, the idea was abandoned as a false alarm.

Martin Folks Get All Set For Entertainment

Again the candidates will have an opportunity to meet a gathering in new territory when they gather at the Martin schoolhouse Friday night of this week.

An ice cream social has been arranged and music will accompany the festivities. The candidates will be given an opportunity to present their claims, it is announced. The public is invited to meet in this neighborly affair.

DONLEY COUNTY SINGERS TO MEET HERE ON SUNDAY

Visitors From Wide Section Are Expected to Take Part on Program

The regular monthly meeting of the Donley County Singing Convention will convene here next Sunday at 2 p. m. at the First Baptist church, according to President Alewine.

The attendance at other meetings was made up from several counties, some coming from the plains country as well as south Hall and Childress county. Similar meetings has attracted some of the very best talent to be heard in northwest Texas.

The programs are varied and include, solos, duets, trios, quartets and group singing as well as singing by the assembly at large. Special numbers have been arranged to make this program different, and if possible, better than any preceding program.

The public has a cordial invitation to attend. Singers from any community are most welcome. While the convention is limited to Donley county as to membership, groups from outside the county find a ready welcome and are extended every courtesy in presenting any special program they may wish.

Tax Free Bale Allotments Under Bankhead Law

The county quotas of tax-exempt cotton under the provisions of the Bankhead act affecting this and surrounding counties has been announced.

Donley county 14,811; Armstrong 952; Briscoe 5,472; Folyd 10,536; Gray 2,798; Childress 18,718; Wheeler 19,636; Hall 31,556; Collingsworth 26,760.

It may be surprising to learn that some of the upper Panhandle counties are now growing cotton. Allotment for Lipscomb is 145; Hemphill 3,773; Hutchinson 59.

Nueces county down near Corpus Christi leads the state with 67,030. Navarro is second with 51,255. McLennan is third with a total of 47,559.

Local Laundry Branches Out To North Carolina

Because of the superior facilities and workmanship, a Newbern, North Carolina lady sent an order to the local laundry the past week. The order consisted of a number of bags used for sacking feed, the bags were to be bleached, a service that is not obtainable in the Tarheel state.

Bleached bags are being used quite extensively for making ladies suits, it is said, in many parts of the nation. Tow or gunny sacks are also used for the same purpose.

President to Broadcast Speech Tonight

President Roosevelt will give an account of his stewardship over the radio at 8:30 this evening. It has been announced that he will discuss measures that have become laws within recent months, and national issues that confront us through the summer.

Allred Supporters To Sign Saturday

Supporters of James V. Allred for Governor are requested to come to the Leader office and sign a "pledge of faith" Saturday. No obligation is entailed and no campaign funds are asked. This is a measure merely to determine his strength in the county and takes the place of an "Allred-for-Governor club, and has been suggested by ardent supporters over the county.

If you wish to encourage Mr. Allred and his other supporters, come in and sign the pledge of support between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

ROAD IS CONSTRUCTED INTO FAMOUS GORGE

(1) Over a route that once was impassable, even on horseback, visitors to the new Palo Duro Park can now drive leisurely and safely on a smooth, winding road, built by the National Park Service, into the very heart of the famous gorge. (2) The "Lighthouse", most massive and historical of the many colorful and impressive erosive formations found in Palo Duro Canyon. (3) More than 30 miles of exciting horse paths, also built by the National Park Service, wind around the canyon walls, across the mesas, over the peaks and down the gulches, visiting the most interesting formations, beauty spots of the Park.

With the details of an elaborate entertainment program already worked out, through the assistance of chambers of commerce in scores of towns throughout the Panhandle-Plains, everything is in readiness for the formal opening celebration July 4 of the Palo Duro Park, which is being developed by the National Parks Service. The park is located only 33 miles southeast of Amarillo and is reached over a paved highway via Canyon.

Due to the distinctively different type of scenic beauty offered only by the new park, it is attracting attention throughout the entire Southwest. D. E. Colp, chairman of the State Park Board, predicts that as many as 100,000 people will visit the project during the opening event.

Can Stay Overnight
Although the lodge is still under construction, and cottages are yet to be built, inviting camp sites, with abundant fresh water, are available at no extra cost to those desiring to stay over night in the canyon.

Little Girl Returns From Orthopedic Hospital

There is joy among her relatives and friends upon the return of little June, aged 4, a daughter of Mrs. Eva Atteberry from an Oklahoma City hospital Wednesday. She returns in a plaster cast after her legs were made straight, and will have to endure the cast about thirty days long for best effect according to the specialist who has her case in charge.

Her uncle, Fred Buntin, returned her here Wednesday in an ambulance where she has hopes and best wishes of a large number who are especially interested in the entire recovery of the little girl.

One feature of the varied five-day entertainment which will appeal to all true westerners is the rodeo which is to be staged daily under the supervision of the veteran Leonard Stroud. According to Mr. Stroud, some of the country's wildest horses and best riders will be in the show.

Special Programs
Each day of the celebration has been set aside for a special type of program, and religious, civic and fraternal organizations throughout the Panhandle-Plains area are planning to participate.

July 4: Dedication and citizenship day. The State Park Board will dedicate the Park. Following will be political speeches, all candidates are invited and each will be permitted his own rally—the park is big enough for all; band concerts, National Guard, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars activities.

July 5: Church-Sunday School Day. A one-day combination of Chautauqua, convention and picnic. A massed chorus selected from the entire territory will be a feature of the day's program. A full orchestra will be presented along with other entertaining features. Program under direction of John Josey.

Small Supporters Take Band To Amarillo Rally

Those accompanying the band to the Clint C. Small rally at Amarillo Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Odus Caraway and children, Mrs. Fred Russell, Mrs. T. D. Nored, Frank and Heavy Whitlock, Mrs. Homer Mulkey, W. C. Stewart, T. D. Nored, Andrew Jay, Ira Merchant, Mr. and Mrs. Barcus Antrobus, Elmer Palmer, Henry D. Tomb and others.

In addition to the Clarendon band, bands from Wellington and Hereford were present to take part in the welcome of the Panhandle candidate to his home town.

July 6: Goodnight Trail Dedication, Pioneers' Day, Boy and Girl Scouts gathering.

July 7: Civic Clubs Day. All civic clubs, Federated Women's Clubs, Business and Professional Clubs of the area are invited to meet at the Park on this day.

July 8: Palo Duro Canyon State Park Day. A day filled with interesting events and especially set aside for picnic parties.

The State Park Board is making provisions for amusement and refreshment concessions and, according to Mr. Colp, prices will be most reasonable. No charge will be made for the rim drive or for a visit to the lodge site on the brink of the canyon. Admission to the canyon drive is 35 cents per car of five persons or less, and 5 cents each for additional passengers. Admission for motorcycles, 25 cents each. Admission to the rodeo will be 35 cents for children and 75 cents for adults.

North River Country May Have Road Improvement

The county commissioners authorized the purchase of a 9-foot Russell grader for Precinct 4 at their meeting Saturday. The price paid was $450. This is G. W. Beck's precinct in which citizens have registered much concern about road conditions since pioneer days due to the erosion of heavy rains which invariably left the roadbed badly gullied.

The purchase of a Chevrolet truck was authorized for Precinct 3 at a price of $782.05. It is said that the truck was delivered by a Memphis firm the first of the week.

4 RURAL ROUTE CARRIER CHANGES EFFECTIVE SAT.

New Contracts Are Made Far Below That of Former Compensation

Four mail route carriers out of Clarendon will make their last runs on present contracts Saturday. Some of the new contracts were bid in at several hundred dollars less than those effective now. New contracts are for one year.

The Silverton route operated by C. B. Wilkerson will be relinquished to John W. Smithy. The route is 57.5 miles one way on a daily and Sunday schedule. The route will pay $1688.11 per year.

Palo Duro route now operated by Doc Robinson will be taken over by Geo. L. Green. This route pays $616.20 and has a length of 22.5 miles one way. The mail is carried three times a week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Naylor route carried by B. W. Webb will be taken over by John F. Harlan after Saturday. The route is 16.75 miles in length and has a daily mail except Sunday. The new contract was made at a price of $889.30 per year.

Jericho route operated by Major B. Hudson for several years was bid in by Elmer Lee Carpenter for $2660. The route has been paying approximately $3200. Mail is carried every day in the week over this route. In connection with this contract, a mail line is operated from Clarendon to Pampa direct. The two contracts are covered by the $2660. The rural route is 42.5 miles in length—besides the distance from here to Pampa.

Baptists Lose Ball Game To Legionists

The soft ball game between the Legion and the Baptist players Wednesday was both rapid and destructive. While the Baptists are credited with taking the "hide off" they lost 6 to 7.

Fred Buntin, ex-league (Epworth) player was caught between an immovable object and an impenetrable substance during the melee resulting in the loss of about an acre of cuticle, hide or bark from the side of his face. The less sympathetic state that Fred used his face as a grader in leveling the ball diamond. Others more friendly to him claim that he made a high dive for a "pop-out" landing on his face. He was brought to town and a quart of arnica applied which apparently relieved him of most of his misery and the victory restoring restoring his customary pep and fighting spirit.

Cotton Contracts Forwarded To Washington

Latest information has it that all the cotton contracts have been approved by the State Board at A & M and have been forwarded to Washington.

Payments are expected here within a short time, or just as soon as the papers can be given attention at headquarters.

Caraway Boosts Small For Governor

Senator Clint Small is not without his ardent supporters in Donley county, Odus Caraway being among the leading, he having been president of the Small-for-Governor club here two years ago.

In speaking of his favorite candidate for the governorship, Mr. Caraway is quoted in the Amarillo News as follows: "Donley county will go for Small in a big way. Folks there are turning to him as reports reach us of his strong support down state."

Mr. Caraway attended the Small rally at Amarillo Monday, and it was at this gathering that he voiced his opinion of the political status of Donley county.

CELEBRATE 4TH AT LELIA LAKE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Old-Fashioned Dinner With Plenty of Free Barbecue Is Promised Public

The glorious 4th is to be celebrated at Lelia Lake all day next Wednesday according to John Howard, merchant of that fair city who enumerates the advantages that are offered those who wish to enjoy side issues while visiting with the neighbors.

The free barbecue is an assured fact and plenty of it. "Tell the folks to bring well filled baskets," Mr. Howard stated Tuesday. There will be plenty of ice water free and no limit on the time to eat and drink.

A state speaker will be engaged for the celebration if at all possible. An effort is being made to get the best talent to be had. Candidates in the county races will be given an opportunity to address the gathering in defense of their personal platforms and past records.

Baseball games, foot races and other amusement has been arranged for so that there will not be a dry moment. The fats may gather courage by Wednesday to enter for a prize in a mad scramble down the track where youngsters set a rapid pace.

The 4th has not been celebrated in this county for several years. There will be no other attempt made in the county on that day. This being the case, a large crowd is expected to show up early and stay late.

The big show will center under the shade of the grove at the Lelia school building. Stands dispensing eats and drinks will satisfy the curious as well as the hungry and dry. "This is everybody's picnic," Mr. Howard said, "and we want to see all the county there as well as the outsiders who want to help us celebrate."

Hudson Buys Interest With Rayburn Smith

Closing his contract as mail carrier Saturday, Major B. Hudson has purchased a half interest in the popular filling station and grocery of Rayburn Smith on the north side at the junction of the Jericho and Amarillo highways. The firm also owns the public scales which has been operated by Smith for several years.

Mr. Hudson has carried mail on different routes in Donley county for eight years, five years of that time on the Jericho route and has a wide acquaintance.

Minister's Father Dies In Virginia

Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian church here, received a telegram Wednesday stating that his father, L. J. Ferrell, aged 63, had died at his home in South Norwalk, Virginia.

Chamberlain Expects You Out Tonight

This Thursday night is the date set to entertain candidates and the public in general at the Chamberlain school house.

An ice cream supper, the first in the schedule of the candidates, will supplant the noted pie supper affair that is getting over run.

A stringed orchestra band or whatever you might term it will get there with the music. The general public as well as the candidates are cordially invited to be present.

School Election to be Held in Whitfish District

Judge Lowe has ordered the holding of an election in school district No. 15 to determine by majority vote if Whitfish school district shall be consolidated with that of the Alanreed Independent School District.

F. R. Crisp has been designated presiding officer with authority to select two judges and two clerks to assist him in holding the election.

ALLRED'S RECORD AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

On page six of this issue of the Leader appears evidence of the record of Jimmie Allred as attorney general in safeguarding the interests of the public school system of Texas. This record should interest every pupil, teacher and friend of the children of the state. Turn to page six and read it as it was taken from the court records.

FUTURE AUTO TRANSPORTATION.

Improvement in auto motors has slow sledding. With each new model we see only slight improvement of doo-dads and gewgaws with little if any lessening of fuel consumption or road expense.

In the July issue of Popular Mechanics one may read of the Diesel engine powered auto making a run of 500 miles with a fuel and oil expense of only $1.78. In another instance an auto powered with a Cummins-Diesel engine traveled from Indianapolis to New York, a distance of 792 miles at an actual fuel and oil expense of $1.38. In 1931 a Cummins motor propelled a 17,000 ton truck from New York to Los Angeles, a distance of 3,214 miles at a fuel-oil cost of $11.22, or one-tenth of a cent per ton mile of pay load.

Two race cars established speed records with Diesel engines in the Indianapolis races this season. The engine has no spark plugs, ignition system or carburetor. The engine weighs about the same as a gasoline motor of a like horsepower and capacity. Pistons, connecting rods, crankshafts, cams and valves and all the standard parts are like those used in a high-grade gasoline motor. It is entirely a matter of burning fuel rapidly and completely that enables astounding performances for the high-speed Diesel, Mr. Cummins, the inventor of late improvements, claims for the auto equipment that he says is bound to supersede those of the present day within five years.

A cheap fuel oil is used which is converted into gasoline power under heat and pressure, making it possible to get forty miles to the gallon of fuel costing five cents, according to the statement of the inventor in the mechanical magazine article.

ANOTHER UNSATISFACTORY JAIL.

All the southwest was aroused Sunday morning when news spread of the escape of Perchmouth Stanton and two other prisoners from the Lubbock jail. Perchmouth was kept in the Amarillo jail in solitary confinement for some time awaiting trial for the slaying of sheriff Mosley of Tulia, for which he was later convicted and given the death penalty.

The sheriff was on vacation at the time these outlaws became most disgusted with the Lubbock county jail. It was Sunday morning. A deputy walked into the cell and, though armed, was alleged to have been hit with an iron bar and told to hand over his gun which he did without any argument, according to news dispatches from the "seat of disgust."

The outlaws were not molested by any one except a negro trusty who was not aware apparently of the "lay of the land" and landed on Perchmouth and pinned him to the floor. An outlaw with the deputy sheriff's gun made the negro get off and up. The outlaws are said to have walked down the stairs, secured the guns and ammunition stocked in a case especially prepared for their keeping. It was an easy matter from then on to take two innocent men as protection against bullets from a posse.

When bad men walk out, it generally appears that good luck attends their ways and that the good Lord is on their side. No account is given of them drawing blood when they overpowered the deputy by hitting him over the head and getting the first gun. The fact that they knew just how, when and where to secure all the arms and ammunition in the jail is another queer quirk of fate, mindreading, intuition or something else.

Despite the fact that improvised guns had been taken from them a few days before, the bad men were permitted to miserize in the same cell together. Visitors are said to have kept the trail hot visiting them, and Perchmouth's sweetie was said to have shown up near the jail soon after their release.

There is something about the escape of desperate men that should arouse a deep feeling of sympathy for the mentality of the keeper. If the keeper alone were killed it would not be quite so bad, but once on the outside, the lives of several are generally snuffed out without cause or chance of escape. Then too, officers attempt to recapture the bad men and several brave men have fallen in the line of duty in that respect in the nation within recent months.

The methods of the Amarillo jailer will have to be put into effect to hold bloodthirsty outlaws. Keep them in solitary confinement and permit no visiting—postively none except an attorney and then only after he has been thoroughly searched.

CAMPAIGN A FAMILY AFFAIR.

With all due respect to those who read this, it happens that seldom ever does a family of grown-ups hang together. It appears in most instances that after maturity, the trials of life and personal affairs causes them to drift apart. Seldom ever do they agree on any one point if they continue to live in the same community.

That is one remarkable thing about the Allreds—children of Mr. and Mrs. Rene Allred of Bowie. Recently when the writer walked into Allred campaign headquarters at Austin, the first to meet him was Mrs. Ben Allred. There were plenty Allreds in that office to get the job done. They were "hanging together" fighting a common cause in which each of them were deeply interested. Jimmie's interests were at stake and he needed them.

Then up at Ft. Worth the most interested worker in the campaign office of Jimmie Allred is Mrs. Maurine Christian—Jimmie Allred's sister.

In their fight to rise in the world, there has always been team work. In working their way through school, a part of them were forced to skip a year earning funds to keep the others in school, but they all got through.

There is a something about that affection—that keen interest of one in the other—that wins admiration of their friends and even casual acquaintances. They believe in each other—they know no such word as fail.

Recently when Tom Hunter saw fit to refer to some of the Allred boys as liars in a Williamson county speech, Rene (Judge Rene Allred of Henderson county) and Ben were in the audience having been apprized of what was to happen. After Hunter got through with his speech, Judge Rene Allred, the younger of the boys, went on the platform and explained the issues as they applied to the Allreds. He showed wherein Hunter was mistaken but did it in a gentlemanly manner. Following this explanation, he spoke in behalf of Jimmie's campaign for the governorship. He spoke for his brother but not against Hunter. He went over big with his crowd and made more votes by being fair with no attempt to mislead or vilify another man or men simply because they happen to want the same office to which Jimmie Allred, present attorney general, aspires.

Jimmie Allred is working night and day. His brothers and sister are working. The wives of each of the boys are working. Their friends are working and it looks more like a landslide for Jimmie Allred every day. Texas needs another governor of the Jim Hogg type now more than at any other time since Hogg filled the office himself. It's up to the people of Texas to say whether they will reward a man who has filled the office of district attorney and attorney general with distinction by voting for Jimmie Allred.

Jack Weston, Senus Cloyd and Hubert Moree are making the harvest in the wheat section this week.

Mrs. Will Johnson and children, Billie and Mabel will leave for San Angelo Sunday for a month's visit.

Miss Lois Certain, Howard Zimmerman and David Whiteburg of Pampa were guests in the Karl Adams home Sunday.

ROUT OIL BOOTLEGGERS

Sinclair Dealers defeat motor oil substitution with new TAMPER-PROOF can

Motor oil bootleggers are clever! By hook or by crook they've managed here and elsewhere to substitute inferior oils—even "reclaimed" crankcase drainings—for motor oils of honest reputation. Some authorities estimate that as much as 25% of all motor oil sold in America today is "bootleg."

But Sinclair dealers here have met this menace. They serve you from the new Sinclair 1-quart or 5-quart Tamper-Proof can—a can that can't be opened for serving you without smashing it beyond all repair. And it's smashed before your very eyes.

These cans come to the dealer straight from the Sinclair refinery where they are filled (and sealed) with Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, mellowed 80 million years, or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil, "mellowed a hundred million years". They're dirt-proof, contamination-proof—and an absolute guarantee against motor oil substitution. Protect yourself—get your money's worth—ask for Sinclair Motor Oil in the Tamper-Proof can. This service costs you nothing extra.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

The Apostle is in a quandary as to whether he should become egotistical or dignified since exactly 29 "colyume" conductors have stolen his thunder since May 1st of this year. After making a disguised entry into the weekly class, we bobbed up in John Gould's column down at Wichita. Recently we landed with a wallop right into "Old Tack's" colyum and nobody's else when he quoted the "lost Arkansas girl" episode. The story originated in this column. Push 'em up boys! This silly bit of squib is designed to minimize the large quantity of fist fights, family rackets and neighborhood gossip (mostly in smallish towns) and must cover the territory regardless of when and by whom. It's free without engendering any obligation, even without credit.

One of the best childhood stories is where the little girl was visiting in the country. While visiting the barnyard the little lady was heard to scream "come quickly, Auntie, some little pigs have thrown a big pig down and are chewing off the vest buttons."

The reason we are given credit for being more tolerant as we grow older is that "we stand for a little more and fall for a little less."

A dietitian declares that "mush is wholesome." We've had generous samples of two kinds—commodious and verbal—and didn't like either.

After reading that New York story, one is likely to wonder how a $150 anonymous youngster will celebrate Father's Day.

The Bellevue News headlines "Montague lady gives sauer kraut" which is the first real excuse for "bottle babies" on record.

Laundrymen still cling to the old ad copy of "why wash at home?" If it's our duty to answer the age-old query, it is merely to say that washing in the street is not yet considered good form, though wearing a bathing suit may be permitted.

There are far more auto accidents than train accidents, statistics tell us. The reason for this is plain. Whoever saw a fireman hugging an engineer while the train was in motion?

Some young couples who spent their honeymoon on the sands of the beach, are spending their first anniversary on the rocks of depression.

In some homes Dad's day is every day that Ma is away from home. (And vice-versa.)

It's not worth while to complain of heat until after you have tried hell or southern Arizona. With all the sincerity of his position, the new minister read his sermon text as follows: "Man looketh on the outward appearance, but God looketh on the heart." Raising his head, the minister counted 34 women of his congregation powdering their noses.

The daily papers carried a story Saturday that was very, very short and attracted little attention, but carried volumes of human interest. The police radio broadcasted the statement that a young lady of 19 was missing. Every blue coat was instantly at attention until a further description killed the effect. Here's the description as printed in the daily papers: "Age 19. Hair blond and scraggly with a permanent wave that is almost gone. Has habit of biting finger nails and digging with her toe nails. Talks loud and is subject to asthma. Ears large and very protruding. Teeth separated in front with many fillings. Chickenpox scars on body and some on chest. Also has butcher knife scar on left hand." Not even the cops were interested and she's still running at large.

The Apostle thought he heard thunder early Tuesday morning, but he found out it was only GW in the next room trying to rattle herself into a girdle.

The latest from Ed Bull's section of Jack county is to the effect that

"a Jack county officer here today looking for stolen auto tires was shown a picture of them in a catalog, and left immediately for Ft. Worth to question Sears & Roebuck."

The Leader will be sent for a full year free to the first lady who will come in wearing a slat bonnet. No foolin' folks, we have an inert craving to view scenes of our childhood at little expense, and are willing to pay for the trip.

Some enjoy matrimony to its fullest discord.

Among the many things to come down during the depression, are noses.

About the time that young girls develop a craze for rouge and frizzed hair, boys of about the same age develop a mania for a stripped down Ford.

The College Hill Widow says that "some separations are caused when the wife runs with the cocktail set while her husband is barely able to keep up with the kokykola bunch."

It will be a great day when the bootleggers learn how to take the knock out of corn so that a customer will not feel like he has been hit over the head with a flat iron next morning every time a fly lights on the table.

Speaking of the good old days of sulphur and molasses, passing the contribution hat at church was no little job when they used whiskey, fish and skunk hides for money

The three most popular phrases of our present-day politicians are: "I am an honest man; I never did a crooked thing in my life; all I ask is a chance." This squib appeared in this column once before recently, and was blue-marked and mailed to several of the boys on the "firing line", one of whom took exception and dared a repeat. Well here it is again, and just because he uses the phrases and dared us to tell on him.

If you are interested in beautifying your yard with something that will not require a lot of water and attention, take a look at that beautiful cactus display in front of the W. H. Corbin home south of town. Those responsible for it were kind enough to place it outside the front gate where the public could enjoy it. Thanks a lot, folks.

Back in the days of old-fashioned editors, one fellow in writing up the various candidates who visited his town always wound up his hiatus with the expression, "Mr. So-And-So is a personal friend of the editor." One devil-mented citizen of that town who had become disgusted with this personal egotistical bouquet stuff fell into the shop early one morning and announced the arrival of Booker T. Washington. The editor assumed a self-satisfied air and remarked, "well I declare, I must take him up to the house since he was kind enough to entertain my wife and I in his home several days last summer."

Then there is the story of the county agent who wound the cat's tail and pitched the clock out the back door.

A young couple married a few months had the following conversation at the picture show. "You are a cute little devil. I wish I wasn't married to you." Then she gave her head a "kocketish" fling and replied, "oh, don't let that stop you."

Some folks say that you can't buy friendship, loyalty or love of the lasting kind, but you can. Simply buy a dog!

Truly things are not like they used to be. A Sunday school teacher was playing a slot machine Tuesday. Bachelor Bill is mean enough to believe that the fellow has to teach a Sunday school class to hold his job.

A waitress in this town knocked a home run recently when she went to a table where the customer had tucked his napkin under his chin. She smiled and he smiled right back (of course) and then she said, "do you want a shave or a hair cut?"

No. 9842%. And we laughed and laughed at the surprised look on grandpa's face as the alligator pulled him under the water.

It is announced that church attendance has increased 14 percent the past year. Judging from the congested golf courses, the increase must have come from foreign countries.

There's this about it. After acquiring a wonderful tan while making a tour of West Texas, candidates can go back down in the piney woods and claim to be a dirt farmer or most anything else and prove it by personal appearance.

"On mules we find 2 legs B-hind, And 2 we find B-4; But we stand B-hind B-4 we find What those B-hind B-4."

Women drivers are on the increase, insurance companies tell us. At the same time a new compressed air tool has been invented for taking dents out of fenders. Truly, "necessity is the mammy of invention."

Those who have peaches or apricots can get the Leader without any cash argument. Bring in the fruit. Several have asked for an exchange of this nature and can get more details by calling 386.

The writer spent the week end visiting the profession over the Panhandle. Another such trip will be taken in July. After seeing much of the upper stretches, old Donley county looks like a paradise.

Folks, come in to see us some time!

There was a fair attendance at Sunday school Sunday.

W. H. Morgan who has been real sick for some three weeks is some better at this writing.

School closed Friday with an old time picnic dinner. We were glad to have the candidates as our guests for the entire day. The candidates and school girls played an interesting game of soft base ball, candidates winning by a neck.

With the closing of school Mr. Gatewood and family moved to Lela, Wheeler County where Mr. Gatewood will teach the coming term. Miss Bera Lambert teacher of the sixth and seventh grade has returned to her home at Alba Wood County to spend the vacation. Miss Willie Mae Blanks entered school at Canyon. Mrs. Orval Smith returned to her home at Shamrock.

Murphy Brock says the blossoming part of his crop has got itself all mixed up for he avers there are blooms in his corn and tassels in his cotton.

R. V. Hatley has gone to the wheat fields near Claude to assist his uncle in harvesting the golden grain. Mr. McAdams is combining his wheat this week. It's making about fifteen bushels per acre.

Mr. P. M. Haggard and family returned last week from a visit to Okla. City, while there Mr. Haggard purchased an artificial foot in lieu of the one he lost while working at the gin last fall. Mr. Haggard is one of our best citizens and it's a pleasure to his friends to know that he now has a better way of getting around.

CHAMBERLAIN H. D. CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

Mrs. Roy Beverly was hostess to the Chamberlain H. D. Club at her country home south of Clarendon Thursday afternoon. Club was opened with prayer by Mrs. Harley Skinner. Roll call—What I like best on farm. The minutes were read by secretary, Mrs. Loyd Reid. Business session presided over by president, Mrs. R. P. Wilson. Program leader, Mrs. Roy Beverly. Lesson—Clothes, hand crocheted dresses and suits were most interesting topic.

Two dresses were shown by Floria Wilson. Orchid sport suit, blue lace evening gown, the latest pattern in crochet and knitting were shown around. Mrs. Harley Skinner gave talk on rose cuttings. Floria Wilson gave talk on brides trousseau.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Will Barbee, Thursday, July 5th. A lovely ice course refreshment was served to members and visitors.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

Mrs. Harley Skinner charmingly entertained the Friendship Club at her country home Tuesday afternoon. Lovely pot plants were used to decorate the guest rooms. 10 members and 3 visitors were present. The Club was opened with prayer. Scripture lesson by Mrs. Thornton. Several good readings were given by Mrs. Ballew. Fancy needle work and pleasant conversation were the main feature of the afternoon. This was the first time the club ladies had met with Mrs. Skinner, she having just recently joined the club and they enjoyed the afternoon very much. The club decided to dismiss the Club meetings until Sept. 11.

A lovely ice course refreshment was served to club members, Mmes. C. R. Skinner, J. E. Mongole, L. Ballew, G. J. Teal, H. Tyree, M. E. Thornton, J. L. Allison, W. T. Hayter, J. D. Stocking, Mrs. Skinner, hostess. Visitors, Mrs. U. S. Absher and Mrs. H. M. Reid and daughter.

1922 BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mrs. L. S. Bagby entertained with an 8 o'clock breakfast Tuesday complimenting the members of her bridge club.

Bridge was played at two tables. Mrs. Geo. Ryan won high score prize. Mrs. Bugbee low score, while Mrs. Caraway won consolation.

Those playing were Mmes. James Trent, John Sims, Sella Gentry, McClellan, Chas. Bugbee, Odos Caraway and Geo. Ryan.

B. & P. W. CLUB

The Business & Professional Womens Club met at the Club Rooms Tuesday, June 26th, in regular business session. The following officers for the year beginning July 1st were installed: Mantie Graves, president; Mildred Martin first vice president; Lotta Bourland, second vice president; Norma Rhode, secretary; Layma Taylor, treasurer; Zell Rogers, corresponding secretary.

Norma Rhode and Carrie Davis were hostesses and there were sixteen members present.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Katherine Stark was the honor guest on Monday evening at a party and shower given at the home of Mrs. W. A. Clark with Mrs. G. L. Boykin as co-hostess. The bride-elect's chosen colors, yellow and green, were used as the decorative motif carried out with lilies, marigolds and nasturtiums.

Games were played, with Norma Rhode, receiving high score, and Myrtle Ingram, low. Each presented her gift to the honoree who received the third in a set of "kitchen weapons."

An ice course was served, after which an alarm clock rang to notify the guests that somewhere in the house a large package of gifts was hidden for the bride-elect. Finding, opening the gifts and admiring them filled the remainder of the pleasant evening.

The guests were Katherine Stark, honoree, Opal Pyle, Norma Rhode, Lorraine Patrick, Odell Ozier, Betty Walker, Lois Alexander, Julia Mae Caraway, Dorothy White, Herloise Burrell, Estelle Alexander, Luree Cornelius, Julia, Helen and Rhoda Wiedman, Myrtle Ingram, Jennie Dale Porter, Evadne Cox, Penelope Ellis, Mantie Graves, Mary Howren, Mmes. J. T. Patman, D. O. Stallings, John Blocker, E. B. Bowen, Ruth Teat.

1912 NEEDLE CLUB ENTERTAINED

A delightful time was had Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Baird when the members of the 1912 Needle Club met for a few hours of needle work and visiting. Yard flowers and roses, sweet peas and lace vine were used for decorating the guest rooms. In the late afternoon, Mrs. Baird hostess, served a delightful refreshment plate to:

Club members, Mmes. Patman, Chase, Jenkins, Bagby, Mayes, Gentry, Chamberlain, Hall. Guest for the afternoon, Miss Josephine Browder.

KATHERINE STARK TO WED SUNDAY MORNING

The marriage of Mrs. Katherine Stark and Clyde (Doc) Naylor will be solemnized at the First Methodist church here at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. Rev. E. B. Bowen, father of the bride and pastor, will officiate.

Bridesmaids will be Miss Rhoda Wiedman, Miss Bettie Walker and Mrs. Penelope Blocker Ellis. The groomsmen will be Ellis Locke of Miami, Loran Naylor of Panhandle and L. E. Mason of Pampa.

GOODWILL CLUB

Mrs. Will Johnson was a charming hostess to the 1930 Good Will Club last Thursday. Mrs. Melvin Cook conducted the games and contests. The program seemingly had come to an end and the hostess disappeared supposedly to serve the refreshments accompanied by Mrs. Earthman and Cook who returned shortly and in a very unique manner presented a lovely shower to Mrs. Harlo Stephenson. The prizes were also tendered the honoree.

A lovely salad course was served to the club members and special guests, Mrs. Gus Stephenson and Mrs. Gamblin of Dallas.

LAWN PARTY ENJOYED

Anna Moore Swift entertained with a Lawn Party at her home Tuesday evening. The girls and boys came dressed as small children and when they came in each one was given a lolly pop. Games of jumping the rope, ring around Rosy and played Mother Goose rhymes on victrola, also some played with their dolls. All was very comic and caused lots of fun and laughter. Animal crackers and lemonade were served to Willie Maud Pratt, Laverne McMurtry, Avis Lee McElvany, Helen Green, Peggy Word, Dortha Watson, Francis Sanford, Anna Moore Swift, Vivian Taylor, Sarah Virginia McGowan, and Messrs. David McCleskey, Chas. Murphy, Robert Nichols, Billie Walker, Arthur Chase, Price Whitlock, Willard Hudson, Harold Gattis, Bobbie Boston, Nicky Stewart, J. R. Bartlett and John Henry O'Neal of Lubbock.

Had it occurred to you that wickedness has the habit of running past the red signals before it stops? That the drouth and depression has not affected the crop nor the price of wild oats? That the wages of sin have not been decreased since the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment? I am sure if you read even the headlines on your paper you will agree that it is even so.

Give your child a chance to be somebody that will do something worthwhile for the world. Put them under the influence of the Teaching Service of the church. If your task is an up-hill job, remember that it is the path that reaches the heights. You can well afford to go out of the way a little, and spend some extra time and effort to give your children the teaching they will receive in your church school.

Lewis L. Fawcett, Judge of the Supreme Court of the state of N. Y. says that during his experience on the bench, over 4,000 boys under 21 years of age were convicted of crime, and only three of them were members of Sunday School. Says he, "Society carries the heavy burden of criminality to-day chiefly because of the lack of religious training of the youth."

Your church helps the young to acquire a moral background upon which to build a successful future. She aids in the protection of your home, and helps the moral tone of your community. Are you helping your church and fortifying your children against the evils of the time, by being present each Lord's day and giving them the benefit of the wholesome teaching and training, and association which only the church can give? If not start next Sunday. The close-up view of Christ, and the high ideals of His teachings, are not reserved for the far-off followers. GO TO CHURCH!

Mrs. J. B. Baird is at Pampa attending to business this week.

Interesting Report Made Of Vacation Trip

Leaving Clarendon about eight thirty in the morning we started for Springfield, Mo. and the Ozark region. We reached highway 66 at Jericho and followed it into Springfield.

Crops thru this part of Oklahoma are good, and those around Sapulpa and Tulsa are extra good. Far from being barren and burned as some picture Oklahoma this part of the state is full of winding creeks and is heavily timbered.

The Pecan trees are loaded with nuts, and wild roses were in full bloom.

The Zinc mines were very interesting to us and we saw oil wells without number, or so it seemed, many of them pumping. We only touched a little of Kansas. In this part it was drier and crops not quite so good as in Oklahoma. However we saw lots of wheat in the shocks. The bundles are placed in a shock and one bundle placed over the top in such a way that it sheds the rain.

As we traveled toward Springfield, the land was again heavily timbered. Wild roses, trumpet vine, and grape vines grew thickly among the timber. Walnuts, hickory nuts, butter nuts and hazel nuts, all grow in countless numbers. We saw red oak, black oak, white oak and burr oak. The crops here are fair, the rains having come a little late, and planting is not all finished. Blackberries are growing wild every where, also gooseberries. We saw May apples, and persimmons, and paw paws none of which are ripe.

There are many fine springs and branches in this part of Missouri. You see many large dairy barns, pasture, pure water, and shade; all combine to make ideal dairy farms. There are many milk routes.

From Seymour, eight miles from Springfield we started for the White river to fish. We passed through a very fine farming country around Ozark. Corn, wheat and some oats are raised there. We began climbing the Ozarks through the famous "Shepherd of the Mills" country. We saw some "straight up and down farms", or nearly so. Lovely baskets and pottery was of fered for sale in road side stands. Soon we came to Lake Laney Coma. It is impossible to tell in words how beautiful it is. This is a resort and after feasting our eyes on the lake, its trees and bathing beach, we turned thru the timber to the White River. Here we made our camp for two days and nights, catching some large four pounders, and some smaller, but pretty large fish at that.

From White River our way led on to the Ozarks. To us who were reared in a timbered country there is a never ending beauty in the heavily wooded hills, with climbing vines, and blooming flowers. In places where there is a little level, or at least partially level, land, there are apples, grapes and peach orchards. Apple cider and grape juice are offered for sale at the road side stands. Some have red and black raspberries too. At one place we passed an old log cabin called "the Castle," a relic of Civil War days.

All this region is full of springs and caves. We went thru Old Spanish or Marvel Cave. The entrance to this cave was discovered in 1860. It was closed by a large stone. When opened a wagon load of human bones was found in the big room. Many initials had been burned on the rocks of the roof. There is a stream in here, very fast flowing, and the air seems bitter cold.

Skyvue is the highest point on highway 71. There is a large observation tower here.

Near Ft. Smith the farming country is exceptionally good. Corn is five feet high, and cotton fine. The Oklahoma line runs thru a part of Ft. Smith, and for many miles fine crops are the rule. Then comes land which shows lack of moisture. All along highway 64 the crops are needing rain.

We had a car radio with us and were much interested in K. A. S. A. at Elk City; K. V. O. O. at Tulsa; W. K. Y. at Oklahoma City, and K. W. T. O. at Springfield. Reaching Oklahoma City at 5 o'clock we decided not to make camp again, so came on home to Clarendon, tired but happy—having made a fifteen hundred mile trip with out even a "flat" to mar our pleasure.

Mrs. W. M. Pickering.

DIRGE

By Stella V. Jones

Goodbye, dear heart, I've loved so long—
One kiss, before you go.
Don't grieve to think of me,
Sweetheart,
Leave God to heal my woe.

I'll keep the treasures that were yours
Locked deep within my breast,
Till someday tender hands will come
And lay my heart to rest.

The poppy seed that would not grow
Upon another's mound,
Will then take root and fall in bloom
Like blood upon the ground.

You will not see the flowers there
For you will be too far,
God will have mercy, for my sake,
And leave you where you are!

Mrs. Doss Palmer and children are visiting relatives at Lamesa and Post City.

Homer Mulkey is confined to his home suffering from stomach trouble said to be in a measure a recurrence of a chronic condition.

Misses Dorrace and Clairenne Allensworth returned home Wednesday. The young ladies have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Raymond Touchstone, and friends at Chillicothe.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and snaky and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 66c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

BLOWOUT DANGERS INCREASE WITH SUMMER DRIVING

Dealer Warns Motorists of Risks Involved When Tires Are Worn Thin

Squeezing the last mile out of that badly worn tire is a costly and hazardous practice, according to Joe Holland, Goodyear dealer here.

"Especially is this true in the summer months," Mr. Holland says. "The danger of blowouts increases with the rise in road temperatures. Hot roads sap the elasticity and life from the fatigued cords in old tires. Cuts and bruises that have escaped notice are very likely to announce their presence with a loud bang at the most inopportune moment."

"The Supertwist cord used in construction of the Goodyear G-3, Air-wheel, Pathfinder and Speedway lines, is the best protection against blowouts that has yet been devised. This cord has up to 61 per cent more elasticity than ordinary tire cords and will stand terrific abuse.

"The tread of a tire must provide traction and protect the cord carcass or body, but it is this cord body that gives protection against blowouts. The tread may appear in excellent condition, but it will not keep a tire from blowing out if the carcass is cut inside or if the cords are badly fatigued from long use. "Goodyear's new G-3 tire was designed especially to provide long wear for modern high speed automobiles and it has a Supertwist body of the strongest and most elastic tire cords that will give maximum protection against blowouts.

"A set of new tires put on an automobile now will eliminate the probability of tire trouble for the rest of the summer. It is no pleasant job to change tires on a hot dusty road—and that is the midwest consequence of a blowout," says Mr. Holland.

WHAT JAMES V. ALLRED HAS DONE FOR THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF TEXAS

During the eighty-nine years of its existence the Permanent School Fund of Texas has accumulated approximately $41,000,000.00 in cash and bonds and $31,000,000.00 in land notes, making a total in all of $72,000,000.00.

Allred, during his first three years as Attorney General has collected in cash and deposited to the credit of the Permanent School Fund $1,600,000.00. This collection is eight times as great as that of any other Attorney General in the history of Texas.

1. WHITESIDE CASE. This case involved what are known as the two Yates vacancies, containing approximately 3,700 acres of land in the Yates oil field in Pecos County. These two vacancies were sold to Mr. Yates by the State in 1919, with a reservation of the minerals to the State. Under the Relinquishment Act the State Permanent School Fund obtains half of the bonus, rentals and royalties under that lease. The royalty is the one-sixteenth of the oil produced. The biggest oil well in the world, with a potential production of 160,000 barrels per day, is located upon the big Yates vacancy, and the State Permanent School Fund obtains royalty therefrom. In the Whiteside case the Whiteside heirs who owned sections of land west of the Yates vacancies, which had originally called for river surveys to the east of the Yates vacancies, sought to move those sections of land to cover up the Yates vacancies. Title to the Yates vacancies was saved for the State in this suit and the right of the State Permanent School Fund to receive royalties under said lands was affirmed. This question was decided by the Supreme Court in May of 1933 after having been in the courts for six years. The case was tried in the trial court by Attorney General Allred and was carried through both courts by him. The Land Commissioner has estimated the value of the State's royalty in this field to be $20,000,000.00.

2. On the same day that the Whiteside case was decided in favor of the State by the Supreme Court (May 13, 1933), the Supreme Court also held in the Smith-Turner case that there was approximately 560 acres of additional vacant land in the Yates oil field which belonged to the Permanent School Fund. This land had been sold by the State in 1928 for $3.00 per acre and the purchaser had executed a lease upon the same for a recited bonus of $14,000.00. Attorney General Allred filed suit for this land in the District Court of Travis County, suing for possession of the land, for royalties, damages and for an adequate bonus. On September 23, 1933, just two months after the suit was filed, a judgment was entered for the State for the sum of $1,073,500 for damages and for additional bonus on the lease which had recited a $14,000.00 bonus, and in addition the State recovered title to the minerals, including a one-sixteenth free royalty in all oil hereafter produced. This judgment was paid by the defendant Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas Company, was deposited to the credit of the Permanent School Fund of Texas, and now constitutes a part of the Permanent School Fund of Texas. This was the biggest money judgment ever recovered by the State in a land case and is the second largest judgment recovered by the Attorney General in the history of the State.

3. In the Empire Case the Supreme Court of Texas held that the State was entitled to one-half of the bonus, rentals and royalties on school lands sold with a reservation of title to all the minerals in the State and leased by the landowners as agents of the State under the permission given to the landowners to lease these mineral lands as agents of the State under the Relinquishment Act. The State Auditor made an audit of the sums claimed to be due to the State. The audit showed $1,854,000.00 in past due bonus and rentals to be due at that time. The Attorney General immediately started filing suits against oil companies who had leased these Permanent School lands and has collected up to June 1, 1934, approximately $550,000.00 of these past due bonuses and rentals. Suits are pending in the District Courts of Travis County for more than $400,000.00 in addition, and other suits are being prepared rapidly. The largest single recovery was from the Shell Petroleum Company, a judgment being entered in that case in favor of the State in the sum of $81,734.08. That judgment has been paid. The largest bonus suit now pending is that against the Humble Oil & Refining Company, in which the State is seeking to recover approximately $160,000.00 as additional bonuses owned by that company.

All of this money collected goes into the Permanent School Fund of the State and becomes a part of the permanent educational endowment for the benefit of the public free schools of Texas.

4. THE UNIVERSITY ROYALTY SUIT. In December, 1931,

Attorney General Allred filed suit against the Reagan County Purchasing Company and eight other oil companies for $575,000.00 claimed by the State to be due as additional royalties on the University lands in the Big Lake oil field in Reagan County. The suit covered a three year period and the State is suing to enforce a contract which lasts during the life of the leases and as long as there is production from the deep wells in the Big Lake oil field. These wells are over 8,000 feet deep, one of the deepest oil fields in the world, and it is estimated that there will be production from this land for many years in the future. The case has been bitterly contested by the defendants, who contend that the State had no right to maintain the suit. The court's rulings on the defendant's pleas of privilege were appealed to the Austin Court of Civil Appeals, which affirmed the ruling of the trial court and fixed venue of this suit in Travis county. A review of the Austin Court of Civil Appeals' opinion was refused by the Supreme Court of Texas on December 30, 1933, and the judgment in favor of the State on the venue questions became final. This case is now ready for trial on its merits and any recoveries which may be obtained in this case will become a part of the Permanent University Fund.

5. Approximately three hundred acres of public school lands have been recovered by the Attorney General in the East Texas oil field. These recoveries have been in small suits, some of the tracts recovered being as small as one acre, the largest containing seventy-seven acres. There are now approximately 100 producing oil wells on these tracts of land and the State Permanent School Fund is obtaining royalties from the production of oil from these wells, ranging from one-sixteenth to one-sixth, depending upon the type of sale and the type of lease executed under the laws governing different types of land. It has been estimated that this three hundred acres of producing lands recovered by the State in the East Texas oil field in various actions and adjustments (which does not include the approximately six hundred acres of the river bed leased under separate laws) has a value, conservatively estimated, of approximately $3,000,000.00.

6. Title to one hundred forty-four acres of land in the heart of the Conroe Oil Field has been settled with a reservation of a one-sixteenth free royalty for the Permanent School Fund of Texas. Royalty from this lease is now paying more than $1,000.00 per month to the Permanent School Fund. Suits are pending seeking the establishment of the State's title to a total of approximately 1,000 acres of producing land in the Conroe Field. This is land claimed by the State to have been illegally held by lumber companies for a number of years which the State claims has never been sold, patented, fenced, farmed or cultivated by any person. It is of incalculable value.

7. By letting opinion of July, 1931, Attorney General Allred advised the State Auditor that two per cent deduction from the volume of oil before payment of royalties on school land leases was unauthorized. Royalties have heretofore been paid upon ninety-eight per cent of the oil produced, the oil companies contending that the two per cent deduction is customary and that in paying for ninety-eight per cent of the oil they are following custom. Since Allred's opinion was written, the Secretary of the Interior of the United States, in 1932 and 1933, has ruled that deductions are not permissible on United States leases. Then Allred filed a test case against the Texas Company on the Landreth lease on school lands in Crane County. It is now pending, and a final decision will govern all royalties heretofore paid on other school land leases, as well as on other State leases, and millions of dollars will go to the school funds which have heretofore been retained by the oil companies.

It will thus be seen that in the short space of three years Attorney General Allred has instituted actions which, if prosecuted to successful completion, will result in a recovery of more than $37,600,000.00 for the Permanent School Fund of this State. Necessarily, actions such as these, involving as they do properties worth millions of dollars, will be hard fought and long drawn out. Nevertheless, the prize will be a rich one for the Permanent School Fund. Allred has pursued a policy of sparing no efforts to recover every penny which rightfully belongs to the school children of Texas. There is fair prospect that Allred, by his efforts, will, in a period of four years, by court judgments and decrees, recover for the Permanent School Fund a sum of money equal to more than half of that recovered over a period of eighty-nine years.

Donley County Singing Convention Committee Submits Constitution And By-Laws

The following is the proposed constitution, prepared by a committee of the Donley County Singing Convention, to be submitted for ratification at its next regular session to be held at the First Baptist church, Clarendon, Texas, beginning at 2 p. m. Sunday, July 1, 1934.

Constitution of Donley County Singing Convention Preamble

We, the singing classes of Donley county, appreciating the advantages to be derived from an association which will give us a pleasant and uplifting recreation, as well as our improvement in the science and art of music, do hereby organize ourselves into a county singing association, and agree to be governed by the following constitution:

Article I Name

This association shall be known as the Donley County Singing Convention.

Article II Membership

Sec. 1. Its membership shall consist of the various singing classes of the county and those classes in communities contiguous to the county.

Sec. 2. To become a member the singing class in each community shall organize by electing a president, a vice-president and a secretary-treasurer.

Sec. 3. Membership may be honorary; and any person or class may become such honorary member at any regular meeting, provided three votes do not appear against him, and he shall be entitled to all the privileges of actual members except voting and officiating.

Article III Officers

Sec. 1. The officers of this convention shall be a president and secretary-treasurer, elected by a majority vote of the delegates at the first meeting of each year.

Sec. 2. The president of the local class shall be the active vice-president when the convention meets with his class.

Sec. 3. The president, the vice-president, and the secretary-treasurer of each local class shall be the official delegates to the convention.

"Joys We May All Share"

"Be of good comfort, rise: he calleth thee." Mark. 10:49.

We cannot all be rich in this world's goods. To be highly educated is not possible for every one, even if desirable. To be famous is the reward or punishment of the few. This, of course, means that there is an unequal distribution of the means to happiness—explain it as you may. There are certain joys, however, which we all may share with the capacity for which nature has endowed us.

1. WE ALL MAY SEE. This does not mean to stare or gape like the cows over the pasture gate. Lots of people see no more than the lowing herds. "They have eyes but see not." Moses endured, we are told, as seeing him who is invisible. "I, John, saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem." That is vision. Men are sightless when material things are ends in themselves. Vision makes everything a means to an end. To Bartimaeus sight was not only a privilege; it was a responsibility. To see was to follow. Such vision makes life divine, and thus we all may see.

2. WE ALL MAY HEAR. A traveler recently returned from the mountains. With glowing eyes he told about the echoes of a thunderstorm among the canyons. Did this mean that he had good ears? No he had the soul of an artist. So we may develop the power to hear the voice of God. Bartimaeus heard that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. Do you hear the right things, the call of duty, the whisper of the Spirit? To hear like this is to make obedience a joy.

3. WE ALL MAY LOVE. Sweet is the response of love to pain, but fairer still is the healing that she brings. Sentiment is painful and makes many shrink for contact with human suffering and need. Jesus had such a sensitive heart, but he did the right thing. He brought relief. Sacrifice is good for the heart. It blesses him that gives and him that takes.

4. WE ALL MAY KNOW. There is little excuse for ignorance in such an age as ours. Yet there are many still sitting by the wayside blind. Their knowledge does not inspire. It leaves them unchanged. Truth, to Jesus, was something that makes men free. Bartimaeus found it when he looked upon His Lord, and followed Him in the way. To know Christ in all his saving power is joy unspeakable and full of glory.

BUYING LOYALTY

You can't buy loyalty, they say, I bought it, though, this very day; You can't buy friendship, firm and true, I bought sincerest friendship too; And truth and kindness I got, And happiness, Oh, such a lot! So many joyous hours to be Were sold with that commodity. I bought a life of simple faith, And love that will be mine till death, And two brown eyes that I could see Would not be long in knowing me. I bought protection. Bought a guard Right now and ever afterward. Buy human friendship? maybe not! You see it was a dog I bought.

—Anne Campbell.

Every Conceivable Force WORKED TO TEAR THESE TIRES TO PIECES

But NOT ONE CORD LOOSENED! NOT ONE TREAD SEPARATED! Not one Blowout!

AS thirty-three speed demons careened and slid around the steep banked curves of the hot brick track, tires shrieked and smoked . . . break-neck speeds, 150 miles and more down the straightaway—tremendous centrifugal force tugging to rip the tread from the body of the tire. In fact, every conceivable force worked to tear the tire to pieces, but not one cord loosened—not one tread separated—and not a single blowout. What amazing proof of Tire Strength—Safety—Quality and Dependability!

Every one of the thirty-three drivers at the Indianapolis 500-mile sweepstakes chose and bought Firestone High Speed Tires. The fact that not one of the 132 tires failed is your greatest guarantee of the Extra Safety—Strength—and Dependability built into Firestone Tires.

The New Firestone High Speed Tire for 1934 is Safety-Protected on the outside by a wider tread of flatter contour, deeper non-skid, more and tougher rubber, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage—Safety-Protected on the inside by eight additional pounds of pure rubber absorbed by every 100 pounds of cords. This additional rubber surrounds every cotton fiber inside every cord in every ply. This is accomplished by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping, which soaks the cords in liquid rubber, counteracting damaging frictional heat, the greatest enemy of tire life.

Greatest Guarantee of All

Get the protection of the Firestone Triple Guarantee—for unequalled performance records—for life against all defects—for twelve months against all road hazards. Call on the nearest Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store today and equip your car with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934—and REMEMBER, you will save money at present prices, because crude rubber has advanced 442% and cotton 190%—and tire prices cannot remain at present low levels.

MAKE THIS TEST YOURSELF

Note how the rubber in a Firestone Tire clings to the high stretch Gum-Dipped cords. This greater adhesion and strength is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Note how the rubber pulls away from cords that have not been Gum-Dipped. Regardless of the number of cord plies in tires not built with Gum-Dipped cords, friction will develop plies—very often causing blowouts. Only in Firestone Tires are friction and heat counteracted by Gum-Dipping.

Your Firestone Dealer is prepared to let you make, for yourself, the amazing test illustrated above.

Invalid Lady is Enabled To Walk Again

A letter to Joe Holland received today states that his mother, Mrs. Joe Holland Sr. who has been a patient at Milling's sanatorium at Mineral Wells the past three weeks, was able to walk unassisted the first time in several months, she being confined to a wheel chair.

Favorable reports are made on the several other patients from Donley county. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Estlack and babe are expected home Sunday since they expect to be discharged by the doctors as normal Thursday. They will visit relatives on the way home.

Editor Boliver of the Hedley Informer was a Clarendon visitor Monday on a matter of business.

Hawaiian Family Visits Relatives Here

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Chilton and children have been enjoying a visit of her brother and family who, until recently, were residents of Hawaii. Mr. and Mrs. Winford G. Shown and babe left the first of the week for San Antonio where they are to reside in the future. Mrs. Chilton had not seen her brother for 15 years.

The Showns formerly resided in San Antonio, he being in army service in which he continued until six years ago when he transferred to the aviation branch. They expressed a keen appreciation of again taking up residence in San Antonio giving that city a decided preference over Hawaii.

HEDLEYITE GOES FOR SWEETHEART OF 53 YEARS AGO

Love Survives Ravages Of Times And Marriage Is The Result

The following interesting account appeared in the daily press of the nation Saturday concerning W. J. O'Neal of Hedley, well known over the county. The Missouri lady lives near Purdy, a suburb of Monett. The story:

A man and woman with silvered hair, who were engaged to be married 53 years ago but drifted apart, saw their youthful dreams come true when they were married Thursday evening at Purdy.

They were W. J. O'Neil, 73 years old, of Hedley, Texas, and Mrs. J. W. Henderson, 72, living on a farm southeast of here.

When a young man, O'Neil became engaged to Mary Marbut and went to Texas to make a home for his intended bride. Scarcity of work and small wages made the quest a futile one, and after several months of waiting the couple broke their engagement.

For many years the couple became lost to each other. During those years both had married and their respective mates had died. Miss Marbut became the wife of Mr. Henderson, who died 10 years ago. O'Neil's wife died two years ago.

The former sweethearts were brought together by friends and relatives. O'Neil came to Monett about two months ago to visit relatives, en route to Arizona to visit his children. While here he learned his former sweetheart was a widow.

The couple were married by the brother of Mrs. O'Neil first husband, the Rev. Calvin Henderson of Purdy.

Old, but still sweethearts, the couple will make their home on Mrs. O'Neil's farm. They were both reared in the Monett community and it was here the romance of a half century ago was begun as was the one which culminated in their marriage 50 years later.

Mrs. Marie Drake who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Moss has gone to Childress to visit her grandparents.

Mrs. Doss Palmer and son Ray are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hart and sister, Mrs. Prince at Post City and her two brothers at Lamesa.

CANDIDATES IN SCHOOL CLOSING GAME CONTESTS

Goldston School Closing Brought Out Large Crowd

The teachers, board and patrons of the Goldston school were paid a special compliment Friday at closing by a large number of visitors and candidates on business bent who lent their presence in making up the largest crowd ever to assemble for school closing in that estimable community of good citizens.

The boys and young men of the community anxious to show off their 'hoss' flesh, staged some real races according to Milt W. Mosley who saw the whole thing through.

A matched game of soft ball between the girls and the candidates affording a laughable exhibition of hilarity. In the final showdown, the girls were cheated out of the honors of winning to the tune of 18 to 6. But it was worth the money and office seekers never worked harder to win in any campaign.

The dinner was served at noon in regular form with chicken stacked up knee high and plenty left for supper. Other eats were in plentiful evidence along with copious amounts of ice water.

In the afternoon the community men and boys took the candidates a round in a fast ball game that gave every player plenty of exercise and then some. After the smoke of battle cleared, the score stood 13 to 8 in favor of the candidates.

In speaking of the matter as late as Tuesday, Mr. Mosley said he never yelled louder, had more fun or enjoyed anything any better in his whole life.

Shamrock Wins Golf Match From Hillcroffers

The Hillcroft golfers dropped their third straight inter-city match Sunday afternoon when they were defeated by the crack Shamrock team over the local course. The score was 6 to 5 with one match halved. A high south wind made scoring low difficult for many of the players but not so for O. T. Nicholson, the King Fish of the visiting players and newly elected president of the Green Belt Golf Association, who defeated U. J. Boston to the humiliating tune of 6-5. Boston is rated as one of the local hot shots and his decisive defeat at the hands of Nicholson registered as the major upset of the current season.

Another Shamrock player, B. F. Holmes, threw a monkey wrench into the local winning machine, as he defeated the almost invincible, A. N. Woods. Woods is the iron hand ruler in the Senior Division of the Green Belt Association, conquerer of the ex-Mayor of Jacksboro, and a recent winner at the Borger Tournament. Woods loss to B. F. Holmes, great grand father of Billie Holmes who is rated as the ace of the Panhandle golfers, was another major upset.

Results of the other individual matches:

Dude Gentry was defeated by Billie Holmes 1 up; Ira Merchant won from Jim Smith 2-1; Meredith Gentry dropped to Noel Woodley 3-2; Hank Bagby lost to Cabot Brannon 1 up; Bennett Kerbow won from Claude Shelton 1 up; Joe Jackson lost to Clyff Hoffman 5-4; George Carter defeated Jimmie Douglas 3-2; Tom F. Connally won from Flake George 1 up 19 holes; Doss Palmer trounced R. H. Dennis 6-5; Homer Parsons and W. S. Pendleton finished all square.

A return match will be played at Shamrock in the near future.

Marie Dresden Discharged As State Relief Head

By a vote of 5 to 4, Miss Marie Dresden of Wisconsin was discharged as head of the State Relief department in Texas Wednesday. She has held the post since her appointment April 9th.

Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls and former president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been offered the position as state director, it is announced.

7 MORE DONLEY COUNTY MEN ARE WANTED FOR CCC

Unmarried Men Registered On Relief Rolls Will Be Selected

Application for CCC enrollment will be received at the Donley County relief office up to and including July second, seven of which will be selected for actual enrollment. Unmarried men between the ages of 18 and 25 who have dependents are eligible provided they are on relief rolls or prove to be needy.

Those who have already served in the CCC and who have a discharge will not be eligible for re-selection.

Each man receives $30 per month cash allowance, $25 of which he must send to his dependents. The enrollment is for a period of six months and each person should understand that he enters into a contract with the United States Government to work for six months.

Men selected will report to the Army Recruiting station at Amarillo on a designated date. Detailed instructions will be given at the local office. Physical examinations will be necessary before reporting to the recruiting station. Transportation must be arranged by the men themselves to the recruiting station and baggage should consist of no more than one suit case, men being furnished at camp with subsistence, clothing, shelter, medical service, ect.

The greater part of the improvement in Palo Duro Park was done by CCC boys. Hundreds visited their camp and many who would like the work are familiar with all the camp requirements.

John Henry O'Neal of Lubbock is visiting in the Meredith Gentry home.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Evans returned home from Dallas Wednesday night and Miss Katherine Ross returned home with them for a visit.

Mrs. R. S. Moss and son Jack returned from Childress Sunday where they had been visiting her parents for several days.

Bill Word is Recovering In New Mex. Hospital

A late report to his parents states that Bill Word Jr. is recovering in a Silver City, New Mexico hospital. His leg became infected from a small sore several days ago from which he steadily grew worse until taken to the hospital last Friday when an operation brought relief.

At the closing of school Bill was accompanied to New Mexico mountains by George Chamberlain and Mike Stricklin for an outing and to do some mining claim work. The other lads are said to be hale and hearty.
