CANNING PLANT REQUIREMENTS ARE GIVEN TO PUBLIC

Facilities Are Such That Nothing of Food Value Need be Wasted

Arrangements are now being completed for the opening of the canning plant in Donley county, and operations will probably start next week. The following regulations will apply to all producers who are interested in having meat and vegetables canned:

Appointment must be made with the canning supervisor before any product is brought in for canning, and delivery of products must be made at the time designated.

All meat products must be frozen before canning. Arrangements have been made with the Clarendon Cold Storage Company to freeze meat at twenty five cents per quarter, this charge to be paid by the producer.

Products must not be gathered more than two hours before they are delivered to the plant.

All vegetables must be young and tender, must be kept clean while being transported to the canning center, and must be packed so as to avoid bruises, wilting, and heating. Old or wilted products will not be accepted.

Beans or field peas to be canned as "snaps" must be crisp and tender, and the peas in the pod must not be more than half matured.

Beans and peas to be canned as "shells" must shell easily, but not be so matured that they have lost their green color.

Greens should be young and tender, both in leaf and stem.

Corn-cobs should be well filled with plump and milky kernels, well developed but not over matured.

Beets must be young and tender, and usually not more than one and one fourth to one and one half inches in diameter.

Carrots must be young and tender and not more than one and one half inches in diameter.

If the supervisor wishes products partially prepared for canning before being brought to the canning center, such as shelling of peas or strapping of beans, arrangements will be made with the producer.

All canning will be done according to specifications from the Extension service of A&M College and will be done on the following percentage:

With Relief Commission furnishing the equipment, cans, and labor and the producer furnishing the products, the Relief will receive on vegetables fifty five per cent of the canned products and the producer will receive forty five percent. On meats the Relief will receive forty per cent of the canned products and the producer will receive sixty per cent.

Grandmother Haile Passes To Reward Wednesday

The many friends of Grandmother Haile, and her estimable family will be grieved at her passing about 4:45 Wednesday afternoon at the home of her son, W. B. Haile here with whom she made her home for many years.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 p. m. this afternoon at the First Baptist church by her pastor, Rev. J. Perry King.

Grandmother Haile was past 86 years of age at the time of her passing and had been in declining health for several months.

The Buntin mortuary had charge of funeral arrangements, and interment was made in the Citizens cemetery.

Hunter's Amarillo Boosters To Hold Rally

A rally in interest of Hunter's campaign will be held in Amarillo, Tuesday night, August 21, it was announced here today. Judge John C. Kay of Wichita Falls, will be the principal speaker at the rally being sponsored by the Panhandle supporters of Mr. Hunter's candidacy.

REVIVAL BEGINS SUNDAY, AUGUST 19th.

C. Y. DOSSEY, Evangelist

We are happy to announce the beginning of a revival which we hope will touch the life of every home in Clarendon, and be beneficial to every home in Donley county. We are arranging for the evening services to be in open air and are confidently expecting from a thousand to fifteen hundred in attendance at each of these services. The morning services will be held at the church. Surely this is a time when we should seek a great spiritual awakening on the part of the entire citizenship of our community. We want YOU in this meeting, whoever you are, and wherever you live, and whatever your relationship is to the town and community. It matters not whether you are rich or poor, learned or illiterate, wise or foolish, saint or sinner, righteous or wicked, good or bad, we want you in this meeting. There is a place for you and you are most cordially welcomed to attend. It matters not whether you wear your coat or come without it, whether you wear broadcloth or overalls, a house apron or the most expensive frock, whether you come with shoes on or barefooted, walk or ride, we want you to come.

In Romans 3:22-23. The God of all the earth says, "For there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Every one of us get hungry

Notice To Donley County Farmers

A telegram has been received from the State Allotment Board setting August 25th as a date limit, the time for which every person in Donley County who has a cotton crop, no matter if it be one half acre or more, must have his application, for the Tax Exemption Certificates in the County Agent's office. This is of utmost importance to every cotton farmer for if he fails to make his application for his exemption certificate he will, by law, be required to pay in tax 50% of the Central market price of cotton.

August the 25th has been set as a date limit in order that the County may receive their exemption certificates by the time ginning begins.

Assistant in Cotton Adjustment.

Three Boys Join Army And Are Sent to Wyoming

Walter and Clarence Marshall of Clarendon and James L. Brewer of Pliska are the latest army recruits from this section.

The boys enlisted at Amarillo the last of the week and were sent to Fort Francis E. Warren, near Cheyenne, Wyoming.

and grow tired, and become thirsty, and eat the bread of sorrow, and live in the house of pain. We are just human beings standing in the need of a Savior, and longing for the leadership of a higher power. We breathe the same air, walk the same streets, travel the same highways, are subject to the same diseases and death, and have the same longing for a better life in the great beyond. We want this to be your meeting. The one that will make life more attractive and worthwhile. We are looking for you, whoever you are, and fully expecting that you shall be blessed when you come.

Rev. C. Y. Dossey, State Evangelist for the Texas Baptist Convention is to do the preaching. The singing is to be under the direction of Mr. Earthman and a local choir. If you sing we want you to join the choir and help to make up the greatest chorus ever heard in Clarendon. You will learn for yourself what kind of preacher Bro. Dossey is when he comes. I have had him with me in two meetings before and was delighted with his preaching and the results. He will be here Monday evening for his first service with us. Regular services Sunday morning and evening with the pastor preaching.

J. Perry King, pastor.

Corn And Hog Contracts Are Being Rushed To Finish

Those who expect to profit from the hog and corn reduction contracts are being asked to sign up with all haste this week in order that the contracts may be sent to A & M college.

Some few have not signed as yet. This few are said to be holding up the entire lot of contracts which will delay payments from the government.

The allotment committee of which Bert Mayfield is chairman, is being assisted in the office by Miss Lou Naylor, Claude Bain and Ernest Land.

Revival Will Close Friday First Christian Church

The Evangelistic services at the First Christian Church, conducted by Chas. A. Chasteen and Billie Reeves will close Friday night. Rev. Chasteen has presented some inspiring lessons that will long be remembered and all who have attended have enjoyed them. The singing led by Rev. Reeves has added much to the meeting as "Billie" knows how to make every body sing. The Evangelist promises two great lessons for the closing messages and all are invited to attend.

Death Is Narrowly Averted By Quick Action of Doctors

Doctors And Nurses Show Local Scouts And Men Every Courtesy

Camping near the Verdigris river Friday night on their return from a visit to the Century of Progress, 63 men and boys from here and nearby communities were suddenly taken ill soon after eating supper with what is supposed to be ptomaine poisoning. Infection is said to have been from a lemonade drink mixed in a gasoline can.

So suddenly were they seized with cramps and vomiting that no one was left to get word out of the camp for help. Sloan Baker made his way to a filling station and asked that calls be sent for doctors. To this call Drs. B. F. Collins of Claremore, H. Lee Farris of Tulsa, H. R. Hall of Catoosa, O. Frankston of Broken Arrow, M. H. Gordon of Claremore responded.

A hospital ambulance was rushed from Claremore. Nurses were on hand quickly in the persons of John Musgrove and Maurice Burgess of Claremore, and Bob Marshall, Jack Whitten, Dorothy Gwynne, Vivian Wilson of Tulsa.

Writing in agony and delirious, Frank Whitlock tore the pants from the ambulance driver as he was being taken to the hospital where he remained all night.

Doctors and nurses gave to the Scouts and their escorts free service. The Musgrove Funeral Home would make no charge for the ambulance service. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, in charge of the phone exchange at Catoosa secured the needed help and then volunteered as nurses.

Sloan Baker, county supt. of schools, Ed Speed, Henry Toomb, T. D. Nored, Frank Whitlock, Judge Hubert P. Day and the large number of boys are indeed grateful for the many courtesies extended them in a time when death came near to spoiling a very happy Scout trip.

The only members of the party not affected were Odell Ballard and Marvin Salmon. All of the troopers arrived in Clarendon near midnight Saturday night.

Reading an account of the trouble in a Wichita paper Saturday afternoon, consternation seized parents of the boys here. Autos were quickly on the highway headed toward Tulsa. The trucks bearing the Scouts were met near Alanreed. There was general rejoicing when it became known that all of the party were returning safely home.

First Bale Cotton Ginned Here Tuesday

Breaking what is said to be all records for earliness, G. W. Sneed on the H. C. Brumley farm in the Naylor community nine miles northeast of Clarendon, brought the first bale in to be ginned Tuesday.

The cotton was planted April 15th and bids fair to make a good yield despite the dry weather. Mr. Sneed also has maize maturing that was planted on the same date, it is said.

Clarendon business men and individuals contributed liberally to a premium fund to reward Mr. Sneed for his ingenuity in producing cotton of fine quality at such an early date. The cotton had not yet been sold this morning.

Body of Tom Cook Exhumed Here Friday Night

The body of Tom B. Cook, who died near Littlefield June 17, was exhumed here last night and part of the viscera was sent to Austin for analysis, under direction of Meade F. Griffin of Plainview, district attorney.

Mrs. Bera Cook, wife of Tom Cook, was charged by complaint in Lamb County with murder early last month and was released on bond.

HEDLEY SCHOOL GOES AFTER MORE STUDENT NUMBER

School Facilities Are Ample To Care For Needs Of Much Larger Number

School authorities in charge of Hedley's public school system some years ago envisioned a great future for her student asset by constructing large, modern buildings equipped with every modern convenience.

Today that spirit still lives with a school board that continues to build upon that excellent foundation of fact laid down by their predecessors.

With buildings that will compare with any of a town of that size in the state, and a gymnasium that is not excelled in Donley county, prospective students carefully consider the advantages the Hedley school has to offer for a well-rounded high school education after the grades are completed there.

On Wednesday night of this week another long step forward was taken when the school board voted to purchase a bus for the transportation of high school pupils from the Ring community in Collingsworth county, and the McKnight community.

The Ring bus will bring pupils to McKnight where they will be transferred to the McKnight-Hedley school bus. This facility coupled with the fact that a strong corps of teachers will be in charge the coming term, speaks well for the Board and offers encouragement to the loyal patrons not excelled in any section.

The president of the school board is J. A. Tollett. Zeb Mitchell is secretary. The other members of the Board are S. G. Adamson, Roscoe Land, W. H. Holland, Rainey Westberry, O. R. Culwell. C. W. Paine will be superintendent next session, and Lee Nowlin will be principal.

Old Settlers in Readiness For Annual Picnic

Plans have been completed to back the statement that this will be the most interesting session of the old settlers of all years when they gather at Tate park the 25th.

Food in larger quantities will be in evidence with each visitor bringing well-filled baskets, boxes or tubs. Special features will be sprung as a surprise, it has been intimated.

A rostrum on a larger scale will be provided this season. A well on the ground affords plenty of pure, cool water. Tate park is about six miles northeast of Hedley.

RODEO OPENED THIS AFTERNOON WITH A WALLOP

Gay Sports of Western Life Due to Attract Those Who Admire Highest Skill

"We are giving the folks the biggest show of its kind that ever came this way," is the opinion of Cleo Wood, one of the master minds in helping put the big Stroud rodeo over here.

Wire, lumber and other building material was supplied by the Shamburger lumber company, the manager, Geo. Ragland being somewhat of a rodeo fan himself.

Seating capacity and other conveniences to make the visitors comfortable, has been arranged with careful precision without losing sight of protection for any who may be present at any of the performances.

Leonard Stroud, he of wild west fame and a rodeo man of more than 20 years experience, owns the rodeo stock, trick and trained horses and will personally put on the skilled stunts that have won applause all over the nation.

The performances start promptly at 2:30 each afternoon for the three days this week—today, Friday and Saturday.

CATTLE BEING KILLED DUE TO DROUTH SCOURGE

Jones-Connally Bill is Only Relief Afforded Stockmen Of the West

Drouth relief for stockmen in the west has reached Donley county. The government pays for the cattle shot or shipped according to age and weight of the brute.

R. H. Muir of Amarillo will appraise the values in both Donley and Armstrong counties. Dr. C. H. Cherry, a licensed veterinarian will inspect each carcass to determine its fitness for food.

Three days out of each week will be spent in each of the two counties in charge of these men.

As the stock is killed on the range, that which is fit for food will be given to those who desire to can the meat for future use, it is said. It is understood that killing will begin in Donley county any day, but that shipments of government purchased cattle will not begin until the packinghouse yards are cleared of the thousands of cattle shipped in from other sections.

With cattle starving for the want of anything to eat, and no feed scarcely being grown this season, the stockmen are facing a bitter battle due to take a big loss even with government help.

This plan was worked out by Congressman Marvin Jones who is due the major credit for stock relief. He was assisted by Senator Connally in getting through the measure known as the Jones-Connally bill.

W. P. Cagle Says Allred Gaining at Lubbock

Returning home Monday from Lubbock where he visited a daughter and other relatives, Mr. Cagle spoke very optimistically of the political outlook in behalf of Attorney General James V. Allred in that section.

He noted that former Hunter supporters in the first primary, and those who supported other candidates as well, had either changed to the Allred element, or were seriously considering making a change.

"If every Allred voter will secure one vote for him, Texas will have been assured of a good governor," Mr. Cagle suggested.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Clarendon Independent School District will be held in the office of the First National Bank at 8 p. m. Saturday, August 25th 1934 for the purpose of adopting a budget for the School year 1934-1935. All interested taxpayers are invited to be present and participate in said meeting.

W. W. Taylor, Secretary.

Allred Speaker Will Be Here Sat.

Hon. E. A. Simpson of Amarillo will speak on the streets here next Saturday at 4 p. m. in the interests of James V. Allred.

Mr. Simpson joined the Allred ranks early in the campaign and has covered practically all of the Panhandle section speaking at every town of any size.

He is a gifted speaker, a former resident of Clarendon, and will discuss many interesting phases of the campaign never before brought to the attention of the voters. He will be armed with photographic proof of the leading points at issue.

No man in the state is more thoroughly informed or better prepared to represent Allred's interests, or the interests of the people, than Major Simpson. His coming means a treat for those who will hear him.

B. & P. WOMEN HOLD BUSINESS SESSION TUESDAY

Four New Members Given Formal Instructions In Assuming New Role

The main highlights of the meeting of the Business & Professional Women's club at the Antro Tuesday evening were the splendid talks made by two of the visitors.

Mrs. Keen, case supervisor of relief work in Donley county, spoke interestingly of her phase of the relief work now going on here. Her minute description of the work was informative bringing to the attention of the club members new ideas relative to government projects of this kind.

The mere mention of Alaska was refreshing since most people very erroneously picture a cold, bleak section at the mere mention of the name. The subject of Mrs. Cooper fitted in very nicely when she gave a history of the happenings during her sojourn in the land of the midnight sun.

Mr. Cooper will be the new principal of the Chamberlain school this session. He and Mrs. Cooper were former residents of Alaska. Her talk to the Club covered the resources of that territory, habits and customs of her varied nationalities and other interesting data about which we know so little. Her exhibit of Alaskan products was most interesting.

New members assuming obligations at the Tuesday luncheon hour were Nadine Tucker, Ruth Hartzog, Mrs. C. Huffman and Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. Keen and Mrs. Cooper were especially invited guests.

Rodeo Dancers to Swing Partners Every Night

Announcement is made that a rodeo dance at the south end of Kearney on the old Grammar School lot will be at the option of those who delight in tripping the light fantastic every night of the rodeo.

A hardwood floor forty by eighty feet has been arranged and music will be supplied by an orchestra.

Revival Lelia Lake Church Of Christ Begins Friday

Announcement is made of the beginning of a revival at the Church of Christ at Lelia Lake Friday with Elder Thos. E. Millholland conducting the services.

The revival is advertised to extend over a period of ten days. The revivalist formerly resided in this section and is well known as an ardent student of the Bible and a teacher of exceptional ability. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

MASTERSON WILL HOLD NAZARENE REVIVAL HERE

Services Beginning Tuesday Will Continue Daily Through the Week

The Church of the Nazarene is now conducting a revival meeting on the grounds of the Denver hotel, the first service being held Tuesday night.

The public is invited to hear Rev. J. M. Masterson of New Haven, Kentucky, an ex-Catholic, speak at each service which begins at 8 p. m. daily.

Mrs. Agnes Jones of Amarillo will have charge of the song service. Special features are announced for the revival period such as services conducted by Mrs. Masterson.

Special singing and special music will be interesting to those who will accept the cordial invitation to attend any or all of the services which are being announced by the local pastor.

COMMON SENSE PEACE PLAN.

At the world conference of Baptists in Berlin, a plan for world-wide peace was adopted in the form of a resolution that beats anything yet evolved by the minds of man, and certainly more logical than the alleged League of Nations.

These christian people first recognize the rights of the people who must bear the blunt of the conflict. That never has before been done. The Baptists resolved to the effect that "no nation go to war unless and until its voters have been to the polls and voted in favor of it."

BUGS, NATURE AND THE BRAIN TRUST.

If crop shortage bears any relationship to prosperity, we have certainly turned the long lost corner. The federal government pays a high-powered agricultural administration for playing at a job the boll weevils and drouth beat them to.

All we need now is to let nature take its course. Supply and demand will take care of any alleged overproduction. Can all the boys from county agent to national AAA administrators. Sick the federal sleuths after the greedy profiteers that will naturally bob up, as they always have, in times of calamity, sending them to prison until such time as we have returned to prosperity. Take the money saved from these fat jobs and build highways, irrigation projects and such things as will benefit all the people.

TOM AND JIM—THEN WHAT?

Ferguson appointments during the present administration have not been altogether successful. "Farmer Jim" sees in the next governor the power to appoint members on the board of control, highway commission, insurance commission, board of education, university and college regents. A portion of the membership of each of the above are Ferguson appointees.

Since Ferguson has aligned himself and his "Crown Prince" with the cause of Tom Hunter, is it not possible that Ferguson will have quite a bit of influence with the next governor if Hunter happens to win? Or would it merely stop at "Farmer Jim" totin' wood and water in handing out the pardons as he is now doing?

Allred advocates placing the pardon power with a board, taking all the authority out of the hands of the governor. "Farmer Jim" never did like that Jimmie Allred, nohow.

CUSTOMERS LIKE COURTESIES.

The White Deer Review has the following editorial in last issue:

"A politician can't get elected without stating the reasons why he should get the votes. How can a business expect to be elected to success, unless sit tells the people the reasons why it should be patronized?"

Two classes of merchants more than all others fall victims to a reaction against advertising. One is the manager who falls heir to his business. Since the business has already been built up through advertising, and never having invested anything in it, the heir naturally settles down to let the business do nothing but make him money. Looking over your town, how many strong mercantile firms have you seen go down to nothing after it was "turned over to the boys?"

Another class of failing merchants are those who advertise a new business until it gets on its feet, then "rest on their oars," as the saying goes, while the business goes down. In the meantime, the public sometimes wonders why so-and-so let his stock run down and prepare to go broke.

Panhandle Museum Receives More Attention

The Board of Regents met today with the board of directors of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and Judge H. E. Hoover, president of the Society, professor L. F. Sheffy, secretary of the Society, and Floyd V. Studer, curator of archaeology and paleontology were leaders in presenting the great resources of northwest Texas in the building of what may become a world-famous museum. The entire Board of Regents carefully inspected the museum and gave their approval to the projects which are under way. Professor C. Stuart Johnston, recently elected to the department of archaeology and paleontology which the Regents have created at the Canyon college, was presented to both governing boards.

Judge J. D. Hamlin of Farwell, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and member of the Historical Society board of directors, outlined the relations which exist between the Canyon teachers college, the Historical Society, and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Geo. B. Bagby left Wednesday for Galveston to attend a meeting of a life insurance fraternity, of which organization he is secretary.

GOVERNOR RACE IS BEING VIEWED WITH MUCH ALARM

Editorial Picture Facts As Appearing to Writers Of Mature Reflection

T. E. Johnson, an ardent supporter of Senator Clint Small in the first primary, and apparently neutral until recently in the second primary, has the following to say Sunday in "Plains Speaking" in the Amarillo News:

The governor's race is now taking shape. Tom Hunter was the recipient of a large swing of votes following the first primary but there is now a marked trend in favor of James V. Allred. Mr. Hunter's tax plan is getting him into trouble. He favors abolishing the ad valorem tax and substituting income or earnings taxes. All recognize that changes must be made in the tax system in line with changing economic conditions, but Mr. Hunter's plan to do away with the property tax altogether is too drastic and too radical to please most citizens who will analyze it.

Homes and small rental properties have been carrying too much of the tax burden in recent years. But, the recent $3,000 exemption on homes has given considerable relief in that direction. To remove the tax entirely would also permit the large interests such as railroads, pipelines, oil companies and the like to escape their just share of the tax load. To make up the losses in this direction, it would be necessary to impose more special taxes upon the masses. Mr. Hunter's blended tax plan has many points deserving of consideration but when he proposes to take the tax off property owned by the big corporations he isn't offering the relief that the majority of tax-payers want.

Mr. Hunter's tax plan is likely to be the turning point in the campaign. In all probability it will react against him in a drastic manner. Mr. Hunter owns considerable oil properties in his own right. Railroad commission officials report that Mr. Hunter is producing from 37 wells of his own and from 32 wells by a company of which he is president. They say he produced 285,000 barrels of oil from his own wells from January to July this year and 334,000 barrels from the company wells. The argument can be used against Mr. Hunter that in abolishing the ad valorem tax he is escaping taxation on these 69 oil wells which he and his company own. The argument is apt to be one of the most telling arguments used in the campaign and very easily could turn an avalanche of votes from Hunter to Allred.

LETTER DEMANDS HUNTER CLARIFY TAX VIEW

A challenge to Tom Hunter, candidate for Governor, "with no equivocation to repudiate the sales tax" was made by the Citizens' Antisales Tax Association in an open letter Saturday.

The letter is being carried in newspaper advertisements and is signed by F. E. Morris of Dallas. It charges that Hunter is "flirting with the sales tax."

"You are telling the people you would have a sales tax and relieve them of property taxes," one paragraph said. "This talk might certainly be encouraging to the great corporate interests, but notice how discouraging to the wage and salary earners of Texas."

"Ninety per cent of our people are such and 75 per cent earn $2,000 a year or less. If you could relieve, which you certainly can not, the people of State property taxes, it would mean that every wage and salary earner would have added to them, if a 1 per cent sales tax were imposed, twice as much taxes as any man is paying in property tax.

"It would look as if to get the McDonald vote, which Jim Ferguson calls his vest pocket vote, you would sacrifice the wage and salary earners of Texas to a consumers' sales tax."

FORMER SMALL SUPPORTER SPEAKS HIS VIEWS

Mr. Strickland attacked what he termed a Hunter-Ferguson combination attempting to get control of Texas and Hunter's plan to substitute a "blended tax" for the ad valorem tax. He said Hunter's plan was a "bid for votes of the major oil companies, the utilizing companies and all the big interests."

"If we ever get any relief in the closing of our highway gaps in this territory, it will certainly not come by the selection of a Ferguson-picked man to place on that commission with John Wood from deep East Texas," said Mr. Strickland.

Turner Nichols is confined to his bed this week with illness.

Ralph Cornelius, wife and son of Amarillo visited over Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Mos returned home Tuesday from a trip through Central Texas.

THE SMALL CITY... A Pacemaker of Progress

More and more the signs point to the greater importance of the small and medium-sized community.

We are proud of the part electric power is playing in laying the groundwork for this greater progress and prosperity.

Gone is the day when the larger metropolitan centers had a monopoly of power supply, the first essential of industrial growth and development.

Widespread networks of transmission lines have given the smaller communities the same high-grade electric service as the larger cities have

On this firm basis, industries are increasingly recognizing the advantages of location in small communities.

This trend will react most favorably to West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity"—efficiently, dependably and inexpensively served by the West Texas Utilities Company.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

TEMPLE OF TRUTH By the Apostle

The heat is something terrible on us human animals. One of my very best friends just told me that it would be better to elect an oil millionaire governor of Texas without a bit of experience, than to elect a man who, through the years had proven himself to be capable, honest and the people's friend. The heat and the drought together are just about to ruin us.

Then Col T. H. Peebles, former county attorney here, comes in and tells me that a team like Tom Foolery Hunter and James Evil Ferguson should be watched both in office and out. Brother Peebles is a smart man and not easily fooled. His suggestion has been taken under advisement because a lot of well-meaning people think that Hunter and Ferguson either would make a good governor, and certainly both working together would be better. Col Peebles' principal objection to them is that they have promised him everything in exchange for his vote from salvation to drought busting. We want to know what he expects for his vote, anyhow.

Well we pick up the trusty old Amarillo news, scan down a line or two and find where a hen in Chambersburg, Pa. laid an egg with a dime in it. It really happened out in the Dry Run community near Chambersburg. Good old Dry Run hen, N. B. McVitty is the name of the owner in case you want to write him. Well now it's up to Hollowbore to beat that record made by Dry Run. It's the heat, folks, it's the heat!!!

Good old Amarillo News! In the same issue of Sunday there appeared a story of where Winford Kilgore, aged 14, of Guest River community near Big Laurel, Va. fell out of the corn field where he was hoeing. The fall did not hurt Winford, but when he landed on a stump after a drop of about 40 feet, they had to take him to a hospital and sew him up some places. The heat had affected his balance is what made him fall. Izzard county, Arkansas was please back off or tell a bigger one.

The revival continues in Jack county with excellent results with only one small accident to mar the situation the past week. The following account appeared in the Bellevue News: "Mrs. Corintha Reeves barely escaped being seriously injured Sunday morning when she was knocked down by an auto. She was on her way to church when a car driven by Bonnie D. Faulkner caught up with her and as the car was brought to a stop to offer her a ride, Bonnie D. lost control of the car and ran into Corintha. She was knocked to the ground and received bruises and was so nervous when she reached the church that she was unable to play the piano." Personally, that is no way to

She is one of the best looking widows in that county, an educated musician and if they don't afford her protection on the highways, she can come out here any old time. Besides, that girl that ran over her may be some kin to GW because GW or her nine brothers and sisters are mixed up with that Faulkner delegation. Bonnie is a swell girl, but she ought to practice up on a wheelbarrow for awhile. Any car that will misbehave like that one did "after being brought to a stop," is positively dangerous while running. POSTMASTER'S MEMORY GOOD ON OLD FACTS

Letter To T. D. Hobart Says Sweetwater Gets Credit As First Town

Mobeetie was not the first town in the Panhandle, as most people believe.

The town's first postmaster, in a letter to T. D. Hobart, interestingly tells how the name of Mobeetie originated from the original name of Sweetwater. The old townsite, in section 37, block A-5, Wheeler county, was not the same as the later town of Mobeetie. A bottle of whiskey was plowed up a few years ago at the old site.

The letter, from George A. Montgomery, first postmaster, follows:

KISSIMEE, FLA.,
June 28, 1931.

T. D. Hobart,
Pampa, Texas.

Dear Mr. Hobart:
In looking through my trunk a few days ago, I found part of a newspaper, the News-Globe of Amarillo, where a writer to the paper, Mr. Raymond Bland, told about the monument you and Mrs. Dixon are using in an effort to establish at Mobeetie or Fort Elliott.

Now, he said that Mobeetie was the first town in the Panhandle. He is mistaken about that. Sweetwater was the first town in the Panhandle. It was built on Sweetwater creek 2 miles from Mobeetie. It was built the same year that Fort Elliott started to build—1874. There were about 150 persons living there, also three saloons, a dance hall, Chinese laundry, and a restaurant. The saloon men were Henry Fleming, Joe Mason and W. H. Weed. The dance hall man was Bill Thompson, brother to the noted Ben Thompson, gunman of Austin who was killed in San Antonio.

The restaurant was run by Tom O'Loughlin, and his wife, Helen, the only virtuous woman in the town at that time. There were about 15 dance hall girls there then. There also was a barber shop and a big store that sold goods to the buffalo hunters. The store was owned by Bob Wright, Charles Rath, and a man by the name of Reynolds. They claimed they bought 150,000 buffalo hides.

Also in the town lived bullwhackers, mule skinner, buffalo hunters and gamblers galore. Now this was the first town in the Panhandle.

W. L. R. Dickson was wagon master of a bull train—ten 7-oxen teams of three wagons to the team. I think he was running it for Lee Reynolds and company. I am not sure of this. His outfit brought lots of goods to Sweetwater and took back loads of buffalo hides to Dodge City, Kansas.

Bat Masterson was one of the gamblers at Sweetwater. He was only 19 years at this time. He was the faro dealer for Henry Fleming, but he would play poker at times. This got him into trouble. A soldier from Fort Sill came with a company to Sweetwater and got in a game with Bat. They played all night. Next morning about day light, King—that was the soldier's name—jumped up and pulled his gun and shot Bat in the stomach. Bat got his gun out and shot King in the breast. King died in about an hour, but before he died he asked the boys to carry him out of the saloon and pull his boots off. He did not want to die in the saloon or with his boots on, he said, for his mother's sake.

Bat was taken to Fort Elliott hospital and they pulled him through. That was in the latter part of 1875. He afterward became marshal at Dodge City. His brother, Ed was a deputy and was killed by a cowboy. Bat killed the man that killed his brother. Joe Mason killed a man by the name of O'Brien in 1876 in Sweetwater. They fell out about something and went after their guns. Mason went to his saloon and got his gun and O'Brien got his gun and followed him to the saloon. Mason, on the inside, was ready for him and shot him through the heart. O'Brien walked three blocks to Fleming's saloon before he fell.

About this time the town of Sweetwater was moved up to within a mile of Fort Elliott. It was still called Sweetwater. Now as to how Mobeetie got the name: I got up a petition to get a post-office and got it signed up all right and sent it to the government—I, as postmaster of Sweetwater. This was in 1878. But they could not grant the postoffice in the name of Sweetwater because there was already a Sweetwater in Nolan county. So we had to decide on another name, so I called a meeting of the people of the town. There was Henry Fleming, Joe Mason, Hark Huselby, W. H. Weed, W. L. R. Dickson, Tom O'Loughlin, Newt Locke, and others.

We could not decide on a name, for some of them wanted one name and some another. Then W. L. R. Dickson suggested that we send to the fort and get one of the Indian scouts to come down to the town and give us an Indian name. So two Indians came with Billy Dixon as interpreter. They said "Mobeetie" was sweet water in Indian. So that is how the town was named. I sent in this name and got the first postoffice in the Panhandle. I was postmaster for about 8 years.

The following are names of persons who lived at Mobeetie then: Henry Fleming, Joe Mason, Mark Huselby, W. L. R. Dickson, W. H. Weed, Tom O'Loughlin, Bat Masterson, George Curry, Judge Dubbs, A. J. Montgomery, J. E. Montgomery, Newt Locke, Chas. Rath, Henry Hamburg, Tom Riley, John Long, Dr. Fields, Frank Clamper, Frank Perry, Jim Goodwin, Gus Babitzel, John Richardson, Gus Simpson, J. E. Oaks, Geo. Smith, Johnny Stokes, Bill Thompson, Cap Arrington. These are old-timers who were in the Panhandle before 1878.

George Curry could tell you more about old Sweetwater than I can for he was there as long as his store was. He was some relation to Bob Wright. Curry was the last governor of New Mexico before it was made a state and before he was governor of the Philippine Islands. He was appointed to both places by President Ted Roosevelt. He now lives at Hot Springs, N. M.

You must excuse my writing with pencil for I can't write with a pen and I have forgotten how to spell. I doubt if I have spelled half of the names I have sent you right.

I forgot to tell you that when Bat Masterson and King were shooting at each other a girl by the name of Mollie Bennon was killed. She was living with Bat and had stayed up all night as his mascot. King claimed that Bat robbed him.

Hoping this finds you and yours well and happy.

Ever yours truly,
GEO. A. MONTGOMERY.

P. S. You must excuse the bungled letter for I am 83 years old.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile—Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get them two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, herb-based, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. Get it at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

STOCKING—McCONNELL

In a simple but impressive ring ceremony read by the Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Clarendon, Mary Alice Stocking of this city became the bride of William Louis McConnell of Panhandle on August 11th. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. McConnell is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah M. and the late Dr. J. D. Stocking, a pioneer physician of the Panhandle Plains country. Mrs. McConnell was educated at Clarendon College and the State University at Austin and for the past few years has been variously connected with the public school system of this section having taught at Clarendon, Panhandle and Whittenburg.

Mr. McConnell is a well known attorney who was reared at San Saba, Texas where his father was engaged in the Mercantile business and where he was otherwise interested in ranching and the cattle industry. Mr. McConnell received his law degree at the University of Texas and soon after graduation entered the practice of law at Waco. Later he established a law office at Panhandle and was subsequently elected to the position of District Attorney of the 84th. Judicial district, a position which he still fills having been re-elected in the recent primaries.

The bride was attractive in a travelling dress of black with white trimmings and other harmonious accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for an extended honeymoon trip to San Saba and will later go to Eagle Nest Dam, New Mexico. They plan to make their home in Panhandle after September 1st.

Eugene Worley Adopts Novel Method of Campaigning

Gene Worley, dynamic young law student of Shamrock, and candidate for the office of legislative representative from this district, has adopted a novel method of campaigning.

Spending two days in Donley county the fore part of the week, young Worley armed himself with the records of the last Legislature showing how the members voted on various questions.

He has cited prospective voters to "chapter and verse" showing, as candidate Worley explains, how his opponent voted on various questions affecting the welfare of citizens of this district.

Worley responded hastily to a long distance call to Pampa early Wednesday where he stated his presence was necessary to put a stop to some "more rumors."

McCraw Continues His Lead in Battle of Ballots

Austin, August 15.—Armed with a 27,000-vote lead over his nearest rival in the first primary and with the pledged support of the leading supporters of the third man in the race, William McCraw, candidate for attorney general, moved rapidly through the second lap of his runoff campaign this week and was accorded enthusiastic receptions at every stop.

Making from four to six appearances every day, McCraw is gaining unprecedented response to his appeal for election as a lawyer against a politician.

While stressing his own platform aims, McCraw continued to chide his Coleman opponent for "inconsistency and insincerity."

"Those two things are the outstanding characteristics of the politician," McCraw said. "You watch Walter Woodward and you will see that his every move is marked with them."

"Your attorney general's office demands a man free from any shadow of suspicion McCraw continued. "I have been a lawyer representing my clients to the best of my ability as a lawyer, while my opponent represents his clients as a member of the state senate. He practices influence, not law."

McCraw detailed his opponent's connections with the Lone Star Gas Co., the West Texas Utilities Co., a unit of the chain which was built by Samuel Insull with money of the poor.

"How can a man represent the people when he is allied with scoundrels like Insull?" McCraw asked. "He is the Insull attorney, the Lone Star Gas attorney and the hireling of the special interest."

"Sir Walter would like to deny these things, but he can't," McCraw declared. "He wants you to forget that he, a state senator, is serving two masters, so he has fanned up a smoke screen of petty and dead issues."

Woodward's insincerity in declaring that he proposed to fight the chain stores was pointed out by McCraw. "Woodward, a state senator for the past 10 years, has fought every piece of legislation designed to curb the power of the chain stores. Three times in recent sessions of the legislature he was the man who directly caused the chain store tax bill to die," McCraw charged.

McCraw warned that his opponent and the special interests were desperate and will in the next week attempt anything to discredit him.

"I don't say that in a plea for your sympathy," McCraw said, "because there is no doubt about my winning, but I want you to know what to expect."

Reviewing his own record, McCraw pointed out that he was the only man ever elected to the office of district attorney of Dallas county for three successive terms, and had secured more 99-year robbery convictions than any other district attorney.

He also read letters of recommendation from Judge Royal Watkins, presiding judge of the five civil district courts in Dallas county, and Judge Claude McCallum, judge of the One Hundred and First district court.

The letters said McCraw had distinguished himself in the practice of both civil and criminal law before the courts of his land.

As further evidence of his ability, McCraw pointed out that more than 300 members of the Dallas bar had endorsed him.

Thirty-Nine Enjoy Family Reunion of Cooks

The Coog reunion has become an annual affair.

Rev. J. H. Patterson of Hastings, Nebraska arrived here Monday accompanied by his family and his mother, Mrs. J. S. Patterson of Stephenville, Texas, whom he has been visiting.

The relatives were soon notified and Tuesday they stormed D. M. Cook and family who reside on the old home place 1 1/2 miles north of Lelia Lake. It seems impossible to think such a feed could have been gotten up in so short a time in a drouth stricken country. Thirty nine were present for this happy occasion.

John F. Cook and family from Borger; Judson F. Cook of Brownfield; Mrs. J. S. Patterson of Stephenville; Rev. J. H. Patterson and family of Hastings, Neb.; and the Donley county Cooks made a jolly party.

Mr. and Mrs. Elven Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fink of Childress spent the week end as guests of Mrs. Fink at the Country Club.

Speakers Cover Panhandle For Allred This Week

The speakers' bureau to cover the entire Panhandle in behalf of the candidacy of James V. Allred for governor has been selected by the Potter County Allred-for-Governor Club, which is working in co-operation with the Panhandle-wide Allred organization.

Tom W. Cotten, vice-chairman of the Potter County organization in charge of the Amarillo Allred headquarters, has requested the Allred clubs in Panhandle counties to get in touch with Amarillo headquarters to arrange for speaking engagements.

The speakers bureau selected Friday includes the following Allred supporters:

Riley Strickland, chairman of the Potter County Allred-for-Governor Club; Judge S. A. L. Morgan, L. M. Fischer, Herman Wright, Emmett Galloway, L. McNeill, W. S. Birge, Charles E. Bates and Lee Fischer, all of Amarillo.

Judge H. E. Hoover, Canadian; E. J. Pickens, district judge of Canadian; Frank Tatum, Dalhart attorney; Judge Newton P. Willis, Pampa; W. W. (Hick) Halcomb, Dimmitt newspaper man; Marion Reynolds, Shamrock lawyer; Judge W. T. Link, Clarendon; Judge Dave Shanks, Perryton; Walter Allen, Perryton; Jack Allen, Perryton; District Judge C. E. Cary, Pampa; C. C. Fillmore, county attorney of Wheeler; Dr. F. N. Reynolds, Wheeler; and C. A.

Hatchery Man Attends Big Poultry Convention

Frank White Jr. a member of the board of directors, is one of more than 300 hatchery and poultry men to attend the big convention at Lubbock this week ending today in a three-day session.

A banquet of the old-fashioned 'chuck' variety was spread at the Hotel Lubbock Tuesday evening. Amarillo will likely be host to the Baby Chick Association in 1935, the city making no bid for the session in 1935 that East Texas might alternate with West Texas.

Mr. White will attend school in Canyon a short time before returning home. He expects to complete the requirements for his A. B. degree this month. He attended school there in former years, and the summer session last year.

Rev. J. A. Scoggins of Cross Plains was here Wednesday visiting relatives. He was accompanied by Rev. P. E. Yarbrough of Sweetwater.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Norwood and daughter Elise returned from an extended vacation trip in New Mex. Wednesday. They visited her parents near Springer. In covering most of the northern part of the state, Mr. Norwood states that this section is greener than anything he saw.

Wood, Kress. Other speakers will be added to this list next week.

EXAGGERATED CLAIMS VS. FACTS..

BARNUM, MASTER SHOWMAN OF THE AGES, COULD HAVE BUILT THE GREATEST AUTOMOBILE TIRE IN THE WORLD — ON PAPER.

Undoubtedly the renowned "P. T." would have proclaimed it burst-proof and guaranteed to outwear all other tires. He would have used all the magic of color and big type and trick phrases to give some minor engineering development the importance of a great event.

But the Barnum tire would still have been a poor tire to ride upon. Exaggerated claims cannot take the place of rubber and cotton and experience in tire manufacturing. Nobody knows that better than F. A. Seiberling who has made good tires since 1898 and who has more major tire inventions to his credit than any other man. That is why Seiberling tires are fact tires and not claim tires.

And that is why we invite car owners to come in and see for themselves the facts about Seiberling AIR-COOLED Tires.

They are built by tire men, not advertising men.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 14

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That there be added to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas a new section to be numbered Section 2-A and to have five (5) lettered subdivisions and which section shall read as follows:

"Section 2-A.

(a) General management and control of the affairs of the County shall hereafter be vested in the Commissioners Court, provided that in the exercise of powers not specifically granted to the Commissioners Court by the Constitution and Amendments thereto, the Court shall be subject to the authority of the Legislature of the State, and the Court shall also be subject to all general laws of the State now in force not in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment until such laws are modified or repealed.

(b) All duties heretofore performed by the Clerk of the District Court and the County Clerk shall hereafter be performed by an officer to be known as Record Clerk; all duties heretofore performed by the County Tax Assessor and the County Tax Collector shall hereafter be performed by one officer known as Tax Clerk; and in the counties where the sheriff performs the duties of the Tax Collector he may hereafter perform the duties of the Tax Clerk. The Record Clerk and the Tax Clerk shall be elected to hold office for a term of two (2) years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to combine the office of County Treasurer and the office of County Surveyor, or to combine either, or both, of said offices with any county office. Within the maximum and minimum limits prescribed by the Legislature the Commissioners Court shall have authority to fix the compensation of all county and precinct officers except County Auditor, County Judge and County Commissioners. The Legislature shall fix the compensation of District Judges, District Attorneys, County Judges and the County Commissioners and may provide for a County Auditor and prescribe his duties and fix his compensation and the number and compensation of his assistants. The Commissioners Court shall fix the compensation of and determine the number of deputy assistants and clerical personnel of all precinct officers and county officers except the county auditor.

(c) City and county officers and employees may, in addition to their duties as such city and county officers or employees, be required to perform such other similar duties for cities, towns and districts within the county, or for the county, as may be mutually agreed upon and contracted for between the Commissioners Court of said county and the governing board, or boards, of such cities, towns and districts; and the cost of such service shall be provided for in said contracts and paid by such county, cities, towns or districts into the Treasury of the county or city, town or district, as provided for in said contract. All such contracts shall be approved by the Attorney General of this State and such contracts shall not cover a period longer than two (2) years.

(d) The Legislature shall have authority, by general law, to provide for complete forms of county government and organizations different from that provided for in this Constitution to become effective in any county when submitted in such manner as may be prescribed by the Legislature to the qualified voters of such county in an election held for such purpose and approved by a majority of the qualified voters vote in said election. Provided, however, that no such law shall impair the of the Commissioners Court to determine the compensation of county and precinct officers other than the County Auditor, to fix the number of assistants, deputies, and clerical personnel which said officers may employ; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations as to particular and total tax levies for any or all county purposes; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations as to counties to incur public debts.

(e) In any and all cases where provisions of the Constitution of this State are in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment, the provisions of this Amendment (Section 2-A, Article IX) shall control; provided, however, should any county adopt a Home Rule Charter under authority of any provisions of the State Constitution or Amendment thereto, this Amendment shall not be applicable to such county.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State, qualified to vote on Constitutional Amendments, at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon the words:

"For the Amendment of Article IX of the State Constitution by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commissioners Court general management and control of county affairs, and authorizing the Legislature to provide more economical forms of county government and different than as now provided by law."

"Against the Amendment of Article IX of the State Constitution by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commissioners Court general management and control of county affairs, and authorizing the Legislature to provide more economical forms of county government, and different than as now provided by law."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That the Constitution of the State of Texas, Article 16, be amended by adding thereto another Section, Section 61, which shall read as follows:

"Section 61. All district officers in the State and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000), or more, according to the then last preceding Federal census, shall hereafter be compensated on a salary basis. In all counties of this State the Commissioners' Court shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) according to the then last preceding Federal census, the Commissioners' Court shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis. All fees earned by district, county or precinct officers shall be paid into the County Treasury where earned, for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the State, county and any municipality, or in case where pauper's oath is filed, shall be paid to the County Treasury, when collected, and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis, such fees may be retained by such officer, or paid into the Treasury of the county as the Commissioners' Court may direct. All Notaries Public, County Surveyors and Public Weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of this State and the next general election to be held on Tuesday, after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this State to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 41

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 5, of Article XI, of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 5. Cities having more than five thousand (5000) inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, and providing that no charter or any ordinance passed under said charter shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Constitution of the State, or of the general laws enacted by the Legislature of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year, which shall exceed two and one-half per cent (2½%) of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city, unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund for at least two per cent (2%) thereon; provided further, that no city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every twelve (12) months."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the next general election, to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934; at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every twelve (12) months."

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 42

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 30, Article 16 of the Constitution of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 30. The duration of all offices not fixed by this Constitution shall never exceed two (2) years, except that the elected officials of a city that has adopted and amended its Charter as provided in Section 5, Article XI of the Constitution of Texas may, by amendment to such city's charter, hold office not to exceed four (4) years; provided, that when a Railroad Commission is created by law it shall be composed of three (3) Commissioners who shall be elected by the people at a general election for State officers, and their term of office shall be six (6) years; provided, Railroad Commissioners first elected after this Amendment goes into effect shall hold office as follows: One shall serve two (2) years, and one four (4) years and one six (6) years; their terms to be decided by lot immediately after they shall have qualified. And one Railroad Commissioner shall be elected every two (2) years thereafter. In case of vacancy in said office the Governor of the State shall fill said vacancy by appointment until the next General Election."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State on the next General election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 13

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereinafter read as follows:

"Section 3. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws and for public purposes only; and the total amount of revenue which the State shall be authorized to collect during such biennium from taxes, licenses, permits and fees, (except fees paid by students to state educational institutions, and except rentals, bonuses and royalties obtained from public lands and other public property) shall not exceed a sum reasonably estimated to equal the product obtained by multiplying the number of the inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 ($22.50) Dollars; provided, however, the total amount of such revenue which may be so collected, shall be reduced by the amount of any surplus funds or unexpended appropriations remaining at the close of the preceding biennium. The expenditures of the State government of funds derived from the sources above referred to shall never exceed during any biennium, a sum equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 ($22.50) Dollars, provided however, that the population of the State (in determining the amount of revenue which may be collected from taxes, licenses, permits and fees expended from the revenue thus obtained) shall be determined by the then last preceding Federal census, to which population shall be added or deducted, as the case may be, for each year that has lapsed since the last preceding Federal census, the average yearly increase or decrease of the population as shown by said Federal census when compared with the Federal census which immediately preceded said last Federal census. Provided, further, that in case of war, riots, or insurrection, or a statewide calamity caused by earthquake, fire, flood or an epidemic which seriously threatens the health of the citizens of this State, the Legislature shall have authority, by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, to suspend for a definite period this constitution limitation as to the amount of money which may be collected and expended during the biennium."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed the words:

"For the Amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 16

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 1. TAXATION TO BE EQUAL AND UNIFORM AS TO REAL ESTATE AND TO BE EQUAL AND UNIFORM AS TO ALL REASONABLE CLASSIFICATIONS OF PROPERTY; AND OCCUPATION AND INCOME TAXES; EXEMPTIONS; LIMITATIONS UPON COUNTIES, CITIES, ETC.

"Taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform. All property in this State, whether owned by natural persons or corporations, other than municipal, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, which shall be ascertained as may be provided by law. The Legislature may by general laws make reasonable classifications of all property other than real property for the purpose of taxation, and may impose different rates thereon; provided that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform. The Legislature may impose a poll tax. It may also impose occupation taxes, both upon natural persons and upon corporations, other than municipal, doing business in this State. It may also tax incomes of both natural persons and corporations other than municipal, except that persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits shall never be required to pay an occupation tax; provided that Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture, belonging to each family in the State, shall be exempt from taxation, and provided further that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town for any year on persons or corporations pursuing any profession or business, shall not exceed one-half of the tax levied by the State for the same period of such profession or business."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution of Texas shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election, all voters favoring said amendment shall write, or have printed, on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation, and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legilature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; and exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

Those voters opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation; and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax, and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family, and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 21

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1. The Legislature shall have the power to create counties for the convenience of the people subject to the following provisions: First. In the territory of the State exterior to all counties now existing, no new counties shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles, in a square form, unless prevented by the pre-existing boundary lines. Should the state lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less. The territory referred to may, at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population and attached, for judicial and land surveying purposes, to the most convenient organized county or counties."

A true copy. W. W. HEATH, SECRETARY OF STATE. (25-c)

Second. Within the territory of any county or counties now existing, the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, create new counties, combine existing counties and parts of counties and abolish existing counties and change county boundaries at will, provided that no new county shall be created with an area of less than nine hundred square miles nor shall any existing county be reduced in area so as to contain less than nine hundred square miles, unless such new county or such remaining county, and both shall have a population of not less than fifty thousand according to the last United States census prior to the date of the creation or change of such county. When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into another county, the part stricken off shall be holden for and obliged to pay its proportion of all liabilities then existing, of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Third. No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change shall have been submitted in such a manner as may be provided by law, to a vote of the electors of both counties and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed in that ballot the words:

"For the amendment to Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of Texas, providing that the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses create new counties and change the boundaries of existing counties."

Those voters opposing said proposed amendment shall write, or have printed on their ballot the words:

"Against the amendment to Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of Texas, providing that the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses create new counties and change the boundaries of existing counties."

"CONDITIONS OF SALVATION"
 No. 1 Introduction

This is a crucial subject, one that is being considered from many angles by the people of this generation. We want salvation, spiritual, physical, mental and financial. Many of us believe that if the people will seek the salvation offered by the heavenly Father, through His Son Jesus Christ that we will receive the deliverance or salvation that our hearts desire. In our next series of Church Chats, of which this is the first, we hope to present to our readers a way out of the chaos and confusion that surrounds us today.

We must clearly understand that this salvation is a gift of God, but we must also understand that God requires us to obey his plans and instruction that we might receive this gift. Our obtaining this salvation depends on how we accept and obey God's commands. By disobedience to God's commands man fell and by obedience he is restored. This salvation is offered to the whole human family. Perfect provision has been made by God to save to the uttermost, but man has the power to accept and obey God or refuse and reject God's terms and condi-

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL
 And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative sandy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. You bleed up your stomach. You have a headache, bad taste and your breath is foul. This often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of substitutes. See all drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Prize-Winning Diary of Boy Scout Trip To Chicago Covering Ten-Day History

Nickey Stewart is Awarded the Prize For Having Written The Most Interesting History of Events Passing as Recorded Daily

The prize was contributed by Judge Hubert P. Day and Ed Speed, both men being members of the party of sixty-three to make the journey with Clarendon Scouts.

The diary:

Thursday, August 2nd
 Started on trip at 6:20 a. m. Cross Oklahoma and Texas line at 7:15 a. m. Were making good time. Reached Oklahoma City at 12:55 noon. Didn't pass through business section but has a good sky-line. Got some road maps at Stroud Oklahoma. Putrid town.
 Reached Tulsa at 5:20 p. m. Camped just outside of Tulsa. Loyd Risley, George and I peeled a peck of potatoes.

Friday 3rd
 Red Estlack got some short pieces of rope for souvenirs at Claremore, old stomping grounds and home of Will Rogers. Classy hotel named for Will Rogers. Saw lots of lead and zinc mines near Commerce, Oklahoma. Just look like large piles of dirt.
 Crossed Kansas and Oklahoma line at 7:15 a. m.
 Crossed Missouri and Kansas line at 7:42 a. m. Didn't see much of Kansas.
 Reached Joplin, Missouri at 9:55 a. m. Some berg.
 Reached Springfield, Missouri at 1:20 p. m. Another big town.

Jesus said to those who were rejecting Him, "Ye will not come to me that ye might have life."

This is indeed a theme of great importance, it deals with the most awful and most splendid facts of life, that after man's ill-use of will has brought ruin and shame, even God's power to save, the gospel, can be refused by him.

If we are interested in Salvation we must turn to the Bible, the only book in the world that contains the expressed will and desire of God and see what it has to say on this all important subject. In our "Chats" that are to follow, we hope you will study with us the great subject as it is treated in God's word, as the Bible will be our text book and we will consider what God and the inspired writers have to say and not what the great thinkers of this age or any other age have to say or offer on the subject. Our next lesson will be: "The Inspiration of the Bible." Clip these lessons and save them for future references.

St. James, Missouri is not much town.
 Pacific, Missouri is a peculiar town. Silicia mountain right in town. Had two blowouts. Stopped at garage where a '34 V-8 was held for fingerprints—it had been stolen and had assisted in the robbing of 3 banks.
 Crossed Missouri and Illinois line at 11:40 p. m.
 St. Louis is some big nasty place.
 The Mississippi is some creek—cost us $4.90 to cross on McKinley toll bridge.

Saturday 4th
 At breakfast about 14 miles from Springfield Illinois.
 Springfield is the prettiest place we've seen. Reached here at 9:30 a. m.
 Saw Abraham Lincoln's home in Springfield. Stopped on oldest Bois-darc street in Springfield. Got a piece of one of the blocks.
 Lincoln is no small place.
 Saw large coal mine—one of central Illinois' largest.
 Bloomington is a nice town. Hall had damaged everything 2 days before. Also had big rain.
 Passed through Joliet, Illinois. Stomping grounds of Al Capone and John Dillinger.
 Saw Illinois state penitentiary. Bigger than whole business section of Clarendon—may have as many inhabitants.

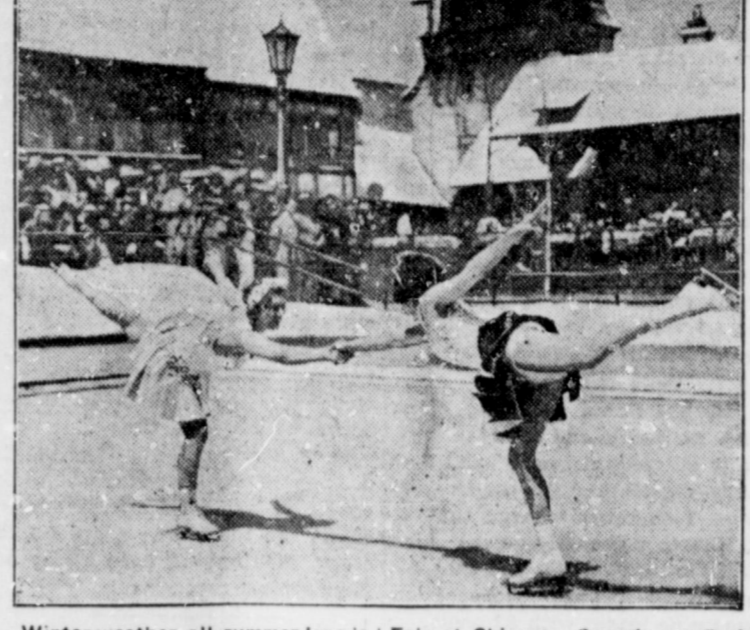

Sunday 5th
 Saw large Stevens hotel 15,000 rooms—made of red brick.
 John G. Shedd aquarium—lots of native Texas fish.
 Field Museum of natural history building covers about 5 acres of ground—built of pure granite. Institution founded in 1893.
 Saw whale measuring about 30 feet long. Saw my first auto-gyro and seaplane. The first cost on the Field Museum is 7 million dollars. Contains 48 million dollars worth of exhibits.
 Saw giant dinosaur, sloths, mastodons, and pre-historic mammals. Passed on the outside of fair—looks great. Swam in lake Michigan. Swell!

Monday 6th
 Saw Firestone bldg. Saw rubber from raw material made to tires. Saw Firestone plugs, batteries and brake linings.
 Animals in Sinclair breathe, roar and move.
 The Standard bldg. is the most air conditioned building of all.
 Hall of Religion is beautiful.
 Saw Ipana tooth paste being made.
 Saw the picture "The Doctor"—shown in chalk characters. The flat canvas picture was painted by John Paulding.
 Saw Crane Plumbing Co.'s largest shower in the world.

Tuesday 7th
 Our boat is a small craft—The Kittanning.
 Little tugs are pulling loads 4 or 5 times their size.
 We are now passing the coast guard house—past the breaker the speed limit is 5 miles per hour.
 Saw two Goodyear blimps over lake.
 Saw largest lump of aluminum ore ever mined, weighed 3,115 lbs.
 Met scout from Ohio—I like him.

Wednesday 8th
 Since we don't have but 3 hrs. today, Mr. Day, 2 boys and I are going downtown.
 Saw home of Warner Brothers and Vitaphone Pictures.
 The Chicago Coliseum is really a large building. Went to the Davis store. Mr. Day bought lots of stuff and so did I. Rode up

Summer Ice Skating at Fair

Winter weather all summer long is the novelty that is attracting thousands daily to the German Black Forest village in the new World's Fair at Chicago. Crowds are flocking to the new Street of Villages, for a "tour of the world" in a single day.

about 5 stories on escalator steps. When we returned from town, Mr. Powers, "The Skipper" had a delicious supper fixed. After supper several Lions came out and Mr. French, director of a Chicago band and also a Lion, brought his cornet and we boys sang Texas songs and others. Mr. French was very amusing and was continually pulling some joke. He accompanied us in all songs. Nored was out for bass singer—Baker out for no reason at all.

Thursday 9th
 Leaving camp Harrison for home at 7:20 a. m. Just passed 2nd largest quarry in world. Ate lunch at a tavern near Springfield, Illinois.
 Reached Springfield at 12:55 noon.
 Crossed Mississippi on municipal bridge at 4:30 p. m. Just cost us a total of 50c.
 Just passed a large convent. Had an 8 ft. wall all around it.
 Camped first night by a river. Water was real swift. There were lots of clams in the water.

Friday 10th
 Got off early today.
 Our camp was in the Ozark mountains.
 Ate breakfast about 2 miles from Sullivan, Mo. Saw two real girl hobos.
 Reached Springfield, Mo. at 1:00 p. m.
 Reached Joplin, Mo. at 4:40 p. m.
 Crossed Kansas and Missouri line at 5:00 p. m.
 Just passed Galena, Kansas, lead smelter.
 Crossed Kansas and Oklahoma line at 6:00 p. m.
 Stopped at same place we stopped the first night going.
 We all were poisoned—6 doctors and 4 nurses were kept busy nearly all night.

Saturday 11th
 All woke up feeling better. Mr. Whitlock was sent to the hospital last night. Mr. Day was really sick.
 Crossed Texas and Oklahoma line at 7:20 p. m.
 Good old hot Texas.
 Dad and mother met Price and me at 9:20 p. m. at Alanreed.
 Reached home about 10:30 p. m. Drank about a tub of ice cold sweet milk.
 No place like home (when it comes to eats).

THE MILLING SANATORIUM

MINERAL WELLS, TEXAS

Abilene, Texas.

The rheumatism hit me during the 1929 Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth, Texas. I went to the Doctor and he said it was caused by my teeth. I had the teeth pulled that were bad. Went to Hot Springs, New Mexico, took a course of baths, went home and got worse. Then I went to Marlin, Texas, and went through the Clinic. They said it was my tonsils, so I had them removed for the second time; took a course of baths, went home and got worse than I ever was. I then heard of the Milling Sanatorium at Mineral Wells, Texas. I took treatment for eight weeks. Went from there to the Cheyenne Frontier Days Celebration, where I took part in the roping, bulldogging and bronco riding, and have been doing it ever since and still feeling fine.

JIMMY ASSURES PANHANDLE HE'LL ELIMINATE GAPS

Delegates From Forty-Seven West Texas Towns Grace Speaker's Platform

Speaking at Amarillo Monday night, West Texans were promised a "square deal" by Attorney General James V. Allred if elected governor.

"By the eternal gods," Allred shouted, "when I am your governor West Texas will get what is coming to it."

Chief among his promises was the unpaved gaps in this area's highway network would be closed "by 1938—Centennial year," and that the delegations from the Panhandle to the capital would be given a "sympathetic hearing."

Allred spoke to what he described as one of the largest audiences that has greeted him during the runoff campaign. Several Panhandle cities were represented.

He opened his address with apologies for his personal appearance, explaining that "my clothes are in another car which hasn't arrived."

Met By Wife
He drove here from Lubbock and Plainview where he spoke during the afternoon, arriving only a few minutes before the hour scheduled for his address.

His clothes were wrinkled and there was a stubble-growth of beard on his face.

Mrs. Allred came here today to meet her husband. She was seated with him on the speaker's platform, and was given a big ovation when introduced early in the evening.

While Allred's opponent, Tom Hunter, Wichita Falls attorney, was assuring a Tyler audience that he was running "on my own," Allred declared that "old Jim Ferguson has been invited in to the Hunter camp and has accepted."

"Bury Fergusonism"
"It is now up to the people to decide if Jim Ferguson is to continue in control of the highway department," Allred said.

"When Mr. Hunter organized his corporation he did not take out a Texas charter, but for the purpose of evading some of the tax laws of this state he went to Delaware and got himself a charter for a corporation with a capital value of more than $700,000."

Office in Chicago
"Mr. Hunter's foreign oil corporation has an office at 1400 First National Bank building, Chicago, Ill."

This is the office of Mr. Thomas I. Underwood, secretary of Hunter's Delaware corporation, and Mr. Underwood is a member of the law firm of Winston, Strawn and Shaw of Chicago.

"Strange as it may seem, the home office of Hunter's Delaware corporation is situated in this law office. Most significant of all, however, is the fact that Hunter's Chicago business associates in this firm of lawyers have been representing the Texas company and the Standard Oil company in anti-trust cases. Yet this oil man opponent of mine prates of being interested in the masses of the people," said Allred.

"Mr. Hunter demands the abolition of the state ad valorem tax, but his plan would not relieve the average home owner and farmer in Texas in whom he professes such an interest. The average home owner and farmer already has secured a homestead exemption of $3,000. I have repeatedly demanded that Mr. Hunter tell the people how much he would profit personally if he could get the ad valorem tax taken off his home and his oil wells."

Tells of Properties
"He has failed to come clean with the people and tell them how many oil wells he owns and how many the Hunter Oil corporation owns. I therefore charge that T. F. Hunter personally owns nine leases with 37 wells, and that his foreign Delaware corporation owns nine leases with 32 wells."

I charge that Mr. Hunter personally has received more than $270,000 in the last three and one-half years from his own oil wells, and that his Delaware corporation, of which he is the vice president, has received more than $325,000. In other words, Mr. Hunter and his oil corporation own 70 oil wells and have received more than half a million dollars in the last three and one-half years. Yet Mr. Hunter has made a demagogic appeal that he wants to help the poor man by taking the ad valorem taxes off his own oil wells, and those of his Delaware corporation.

"When we understand just what Mr. Hunter's proposal to abolish the ad valorem tax means, it is not hard to appreciate just why he and his big oil company associates want to put this scheme over."

Urges Amendment
Allred declared he favored reducing the property tax so as to help those who need it. "This can be done by adopting the constitutional amendment in November authorizing the legislature to classify property and to place upon the tax rolls millions of dollars worth of property now escaping taxation. This has been done in Kentucky, Ohio and other progressive states, and we can do it in Texas."

"The people deserve tax relief," Allred said, "but it must be by constructive measures and not by increasing the tax burdens. It certainly cannot be accomplished by completely abolishing all of the ad valorem taxes on property owned by the big oil companies and by Mr. Hunter and his foreign corporation."

"Certainly there can be no improvement by what Mr. Hunter terms a 'blended tax system.' He frankly admits that a part of this blended tax would be what he calls a selective sales tax. What articles does he propose to select for a sales tax, the people of Texas would like to know."

"He started out for a general sales tax and has changed the name of it to a 'blended tax.' When he spoke before the legislative committees, he urged them to put the tax on the 'last turnover.' That means on the last sale to the customer. It would make tax-collecting agencies out of our merchants, and would bear most heavily upon the common people whom Tom says he wants to help the most."

Carson county was represented at the Allred rally by a string of cars a mile long headed by the Panhandle band. A crowd estimated at 8,000 heard Allred's impassioned plea in his continued fight for a square deal in politics for all of Texas.

Allred was introduced by Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian. Other speakers preceding Allred were John L. McCarty publisher of the Dalhart daily Texan, Riley Strickland and E. A. Simpson, both Amarillo attorneys.

Killoughs Tour New Mexico On Vacation Trip
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. (Jack) Killough returned home Saturday after taking an extensive travel trip over the greater part of New Mexico. They visited Taos, the art center of the southwest. Several days were spent in Santa Fe where they devoted interesting hours to the southwest's greatest museum.

The trip was not yet complete as they came down out of the northern mountains, for Roswell was next visited. Many interesting sights were seen in and near the "Salt Lake City" of the Pecos Valley.

R. H. Thomas of Dimmitt moved his family back to Clarendon Monday to make their home.

Rev. Chasteen of Quanah and Rev. Reeves of Sharrock who are conducting a revival at the First Christian church, were speakers at the Lions club Tuesday noon at the Anstro hotel.

Scoutmaster H. P. Day gave an interesting account of the Boy Scout trip to Chicago. His report was supplemented by T. D. Nored who had the same experience.

The Lions clubs of Chicago were given a vote of thanks for the many courtesies extended the Scouts. The secretary was instructed to write them as to the action of the local club.

H. T. Burton, G. L. Boykin, C. J. Douglas and Ira Merchant took up considerable time in a heroic effort to tell the biggest fish story, each having been guilty of fishing trips recently.

Beloved Mother Passes Away At Hedley Saturday

Mrs. Sarah Bruton Adamson died Aug. 11, 1934. The funeral services were held in her home and were conducted by Rev. V. A. Hansford and Rev. A. V. Hepdricks.

In the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends, she was lovingly laid to rest in the Rowe Cemetery. The pall bearers were: P. L. Dishman, Branch Watkins, Bill Harris, Ray Doherty, Earl Reeves and Ike Rains and the flower girls were Jessie Mildred Cuiwell, Lillie Ballard, and Mrs. Elsie Shaw.

The deceased was born June 20, 1870 near Norwood, Missouri. At the age of five she came to West Texas.

Home And Contents Burned Monday Forenoon

A residence occupied by the family of O. H. Tidwell was consumed by fire here about 11 a. m. Monday.

The contents were a total loss except for a radio and a small quantity of clothing so quickly did the flames spread from an oil stove explosion that is said to have caused the blaze.

The fire department made a quick response and saved a shell of the building, the customary inventory of a fire.

One pathetic incident in connection with the fire was the burning of the family collie dog. It could be seen on the inside of the building running from window to window in an effort to escape, but the flames are said to have been too hot to permit of help reaching the faithful canine.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. (Jack) Killough returned home Saturday after taking an extensive travel trip over the greater part of New Mexico. They visited Taos, the art center of the southwest. Several days were spent in Santa Fe where they devoted interesting hours to the southwest's greatest museum.

The trip was not yet complete as they came down out of the northern mountains, for Roswell was next visited. Many interesting sights were seen in and near the "Salt Lake City" of the Pecos Valley.

R. H. Thomas of Dimmitt moved his family back to Clarendon Monday to make their home.

Amarillo Man Put on Bid Draft Body

T. E. Johnson, managing editor of the Amarillo News Globe, was named by Mayor Oscar Holcombe today as a member of a special committee of nine to meet at Austin Wednesday to draft resolutions asking the State Legislature to issue the remaining $9,500,000 in relief bonds.

Mayor Holcombe, instructed to appoint the committee in resolutions passed at Austin Aug. 4 by representatives of 25 counties carrying the larger relief loads, appointed others on the committee Friday. They are County Judge Robert Ogden of Dallas, Mayor Clarence Scott of Denison, County Judge Joseph McGill of El Paso, Mayor Frank Davis of Marshall and W. S. Strauss of Houston.

Mr. Cagle returned home Tuesday from a visit at Lubbock.
