WAR BOND RALLY WILL BE STAGED HERE FRIDAY MORNING

Italy Capitulates To Allied Commander

Meager details of Italy's surrender came over the radio at noon this Wednesday. The Wops threw the sponge into the ring last Friday, but no announcement could be made until today when Gen. Eisenhower made the fact public information. Gen. Eisenhower is a native of Denison, Texas.

Whether there will be an immediate exchange of prisoners is not now known. It is presumed that Italy will not want her thousands sent back home to be supported by a nation that is already bankrupt, thanks to the treachery of Mussolini.

Allied tanks, men and every form of war material is streaming across the straits of Messina, it is said.

The Germans apparently are to make a stand on the river Po, scouting planes report, judging from the preparations being made. The Brenner Pass between Germany and Italy, and through which the Axis war material must be brought, has been continually bombed the past ten days.

Leading into Brenner pass is a long tunnel which, by agreement, passes under a corner of Switzerland. This tunnel entrance has also been bombed despite heavy enemy protection.

The fighting being done by both American and English the past few days has merely been mopping up of Italian soldiers wishing to surrender, and a concerted move against rear guard action by the Germans in their retreat to the north. The Germans have destroyed all bridges, railroads and tunnels in their mad haste to get from under Allied fire.

LEADER PUBLISHED ONE DAY EARLY THIS WEEK

The Leader forced brings you the Leader one day early this week due to a request from the War Bond Committee.

The purpose of our publishing early is to inform everyone of the coming Bond rally which will take place Friday morning, and if we waited until our regular time on Thursday, the papers going to subscribers on rural routes would not have time to reach their readers in time to come to the rally.

S/Sgt. Gene Putman of Florence, S. C. is home on furlough visiting his wife and other relatives.

Farmers To Receive Higher Loan Rates On 1943 Cotton

Donley County farmers will receive higher loan rates on this year's cotton than they did under the 1942 loan program, Mr. Simmons, chairman, county AAA committee, announced this week.

Based on 90 percent of parity as of August 1, the county loan rate this year is 19.89 cents per pound compared to 16.75 cents per pound last year. Premiums and discounts for grade and staple will be calculated in relation to the loan rate of 15/16 Middling cotton.

As in previous years, loans will be made directly by the Commodity Credit Corporation or through lending agencies approved by the Corporation. Cotton producers' notes will bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum and will mature July 31, 1944, but will be callable on demand. Loans will be available until May 1, 1944.

Appointment of clerks to assist county producers in executing loan papers already has been at-

Due to the fact that the engravers were unable to finish their part of the work on schedule, The Leader Victory Edition will come off the press a little later than at first planned.

Those who brought pictures may call for same after September 10th.

CHRISTMAS PARCELS FOR OVERSEAS

More than 10 million individual Christmas parcels for overseas soldiers are expected in the mailing period, September 15 to October 15. The public is asked to be sure to put the correct overseas mailing addresses on the packages and to wrap them securely, but in such a manner as to permit inspection prior to their dispatch. Every overseas package must be opened, inspected, and re-wrapped at the port of embarkation. The Army Postal Service and the U. S. Post Office Department strongly urge that packages be mailed September 15 or immediately thereafter.

Two Movie Stars To Highlight County's 3rd War Loan Drive

The Third War Loan Drive for Donley County will get off to a big start here Friday morning at 10 o'clock when a Bond Rally, highlighted by movie stars, band music and military personnel, will usher in the first bond buying, preliminary to a drive which ultimately must reach a set quota of $460,500 by the end of September.

FINE OLD LADY COMES BACK

Visiting here at this time is Mrs. Emma Dozier of Lefors. She has a legion of friends here as well as relatives. She never tires of spending time with other pioneers and always has a welcome awaiting her.

"I want to get some quilting cotton while here," she said, "because I am old-fashioned enough to like to quilt and can't get cotton at Lefors now."

All business firms will close from 10:15 a. m. until 12:15, and all school students will be turned loose in order to take part during these hours.

It has been announced that Johnny Mack Brown and Raymond Hatton, popular western stars of moviedom, will make their appearance here at the Bond Rally, lending their talents in helping to stage one of the greatest war bond rallies ever held in Donley County. The two stars will appear here only at the Bond Rally which will last for a period of three hours, and during which time they will auction off merchandise donated by local merchants. The auction bidding will be in terms of Bonds, such as a shirt might be auctioned off for a $100 bond or maybe a bid of a $500 bond. The buying is expected to be spirited with plenty of buyers on hand.

JOHNNY MACK BROWN—Popular cowboy star of screen and former "All American" football star from Alabama, who will take a big part in the War Bond Rally here Friday morning. Mr. Brown receives no pay for the great work he is doing in helping Uncle Sam raise billions through bond sales.

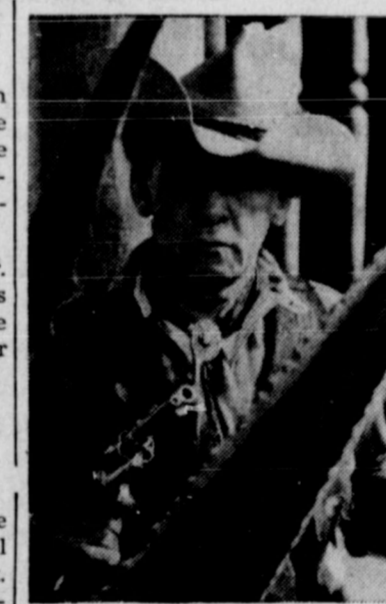

CLARENCE F. WHITLOCK PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

Clarence F. Whitlock has been promoted to a sergeant at the Lubbock Army Air Field, where he is a supply clerk, and he resides in Lubbock with Mrs. Whitlock at 2316 Broadway.

RATIONING BOARD TO CLOSE EACH WEDNESDAY

The Donley County War Price & Rationing Board will close all day on Wednesday of each week. This is being done so that the personnel of the office will be able to take care of all necessary clerical work on this day and will be able to help the public to a better advantage on the other five days of the week.

RAYMOND HATTON—Popular cowboy actor who will be here in person with Johnny Mack Brown for the big Bond Rally. Hatton has been with motion pictures for over thirty years and will be remembered when he was co-starred with Wallace Berry in past years.

JUNE McMURTRY RECEIVES BACHELOR DEGREE

Degrees were conferred upon 327 University of Texas students at the first combined commencement-baccalaureate exercises in the institution's history, held at Austin, Aug. 29th.

Among those receiving degrees was Miss Dorothy June McMurtry of Clarendon who received her Bachelor of Arts Degree. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry of this city.

Mrs. Tommy Mandril is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren, this week.

The two screen stars will be in Texas for approximately ten days during the September Bond Drive, and will work during this period at no salary, devoting their entire time and energy toward selling bonds for Uncle Sam. In addition to Clarendon they will appear in approximately twenty-five other towns in the state. Besides Brown and Hatton, there will be six other units of two stars each working various sections of the state, making it possible for almost every town of any size in Texas to have Hollywood stars at their major bond rallies.

These stars will come to Clarendon through the cooperation of the local chamber of commerce and Lee Bell, manager of the Pastime Theatre, who is local chairman of the War Activities committee of the motion picture industry, and of the Texas Theatre Owners Association, under whose sponsorship the "Stars Over Texas" tours have been planned. The tours have the backing of the War Finance Committee, in charge of all bond sales in the State for the Treasury Department.

Twenty-five young ladies, members of the Kappa Kappa Sorority, will mingle through the crowd, during the rally with pledge cards. You can make your pledge and then later go to one of the banks or other bond selling agents and make the actual purchase of the bond or bonds.

County Chairman, J. R. Porter, appointed various committees to prepare for the rally with John R. Gillham in charge of procuring additional entertainment in the way of military personnel and equipment. H. T. Burton, R. E. Drennan and D. Lowry will be in charge of the local schools' part in the rally. Ralph Andis will have charge of placing a platform on main street. Lee Bell, chairman of the reception committee, will have charge of the speaker system. Jno. Knorrp, L. T. Whitlock and G. W. Estlack are to see that all business firms are informed to close on the designated hours. Alvin Landers, Fred Cook and Rayburn Smith will have charge of the collection of articles to be auctioned.

BODY ARMOR

The use of body armor in battle, usually associated with medieval knights, has been successfully revived in time for the all-out invasion of Europe.

Lt. Colonel R. M. Bacher, commanding Pantex Ordnance Plant, near Amarillo, Texas, revealed today that the Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces, is now in mass production on body armor for American airmen.

"Many lives will be saved," he said, "by the use of this new protection for aircraft personnel."

Information received in Washington some months ago, particularly from the American Eighth Air Force in England, indicated that a considerable proportion of the wounds suffered by members of bomber crews was caused by high velocity machine gun and cannon fire. Injuries were also caused by enemy ground flak.

Col. Bacher stated that, by agreement between the Air Forces and Army Ordnance, the procurement of body armor, to counteract the greater percentage of these wound causes, was turned over to Ordnance.

Early development of body armor was carried on by our Air Forces in England. The armor, according to present specifications, can be worn by bomber crews while performing their regular duties. Armor will vary with the protection needed in the several types of combat aircraft.

The new life-saving defense equipment is comparatively light in weight and, as proved by exhaustive Army Ordnance tests, gives excellent protection. The armor can be put on and taken off quite easily.

All Army Ordnance speed records were broken in getting the armor into mass production. Body armor is being supplied our Air Forces in all theatres of operation.

SPAAF Play Host With 'Open House'

More than 5,000 South Plains citizens were guests at South Plains Army Air Field the past Thursday as the field played host with an "open house" climaxed observance of "South Plains Army Air Field Day" in Texas.

The occasion also marked the field's first birthday. The visitors, who daily see the big cargo and troop-carrying gliders soaring over the South Plains area, were given an unusual treat. Following an incendiary demonstration, the "Winged Commandos" put on an exhibition of formation flying, obstacle landings, "blitz" landings, spot landings and the double tow, in which one of the big twin engine towplanes pulls two big gliders at the same time.

Heading the list of visitors was Brig. Gen. Aubrey Hornsby, commanding general of the 32nd Flying Training Wing. Invitation to the event was extended by Col. Norman B. Olsen, commanding officer.

The exhibition was especially a thrill for the young men in the crowd who have now reached or soon will reach 17-years-of-age. Young men in that group, may choose the Air Corps now and enlist in the reserve to be called when they are 18 merely by contacting their nearest Aviation Cadet examining board, or by addressing letters to the Public Relations Office at SPAAF, Lubbock, Texas.

H. T. Warner of Channing was home for the week end.

Invasion Grenades

American invasion troops are being supplied with increased quantities of hand and rifle grenade equipment, according to Lt. Colonel R. M. Bacher, commanding Pantex Ordnance Plant, near Amarillo, Texas.

"This means more firepower for our combat teams in close-in fighting," Col. Bacher said. "Both hand and rifle grenades are very effective auxiliary weapons in trench or foxhole warfare, or on missions where the enemy may be encountered close at hand."

While it is customary to think of to-day in terms of long range, highly mechanized warfare, considerable close combat and hand-to-hand fighting is going on in all battle areas. While particularly true of jungle fighting, close combat tactics are also employed by the infantry in consolidating ground already gained by the armored forces.

Hand grenades are of two types. Fragmentation grenades contain an explosive charge in a body designed to fragment with the action of the bursting charge. They are used principally against enemy personnel. Offensive grenades contain a high explosive charge in a paper body, designed for demolition effect against pill boxes and similar enemy installations.

Hand grenades usually have a five-second delayed fuse. They are thrown by a combination of a shot put and a baseball catcher's peg motion. Troops in training throw 30 or 40 grenades a day for 3 or more days. Hand grenade accuracy on Attu was particularly good.

Modern rifle grenades are filled with high explosive and detonate on impact. The launcher is affixed to the rifle by a clamp, forming an extension to the rifle barrel. The grenade itself, which weighs about 1 1/2 pounds, is fired by a special blank cartridge. Rifle grenades proved their battle worth against tanks and armored vehicles in North Africa.

Rifle grenades have proved so successful in various theatres of operation that the Army decided to extend their use. The Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces, has therefore developed grenade launchers to fit, not only the Springfield rifle, but the Garand and carbine as well.

RATION POINT CHANGES

Reflecting an improvement in civilian meat supplies, the ration cost of most lamb and bacon cuts, sirloin steak, and rib roasts has been reduced from one to two points for September. In addition, several variety meats also have lower point values. Creamery butter increased two points to 12 points per pound. Country butter, however, has been assigned a value of six points per pound. The purchasing power of meats-fats stamps in September will be a little larger than in August because the decrease in meat point values more than cancels the higher ration cost of creamery butter.

FARM ITEMS UNDER PRICE CONTROL

Used hay loaders, side delivery rakes, and manure spreaders were recently placed under specific price control by OPA. This ruling applies when these items are sold by any persons, such as farmers or auctioneers. Maximum prices will be determined on the following basis: 85 percent of the price of the machine when new, if the equipment is less than one year old, and 70 percent of the price of the item when new, if the equipment is one year old or more.

TEXAS' TUMMYACHE.
Texans are a peculiar people in this day and time. They rather cling to democratic ideas and principles regardless of politics.

They appear to crave plenty when there is plenty. Right now the beef producers note that there is more beef on the farms and ranches than ever before. They also note that there is less feed on the production this year than for several years. The meat producers would prefer to sell their animals on the hoof now rather than wait until cold weather creates a greater demand for feed that does not exist. They want the point system regulated to the point. They want a market for their meat production right now at a fair price. Then right along at the same time when oil production is being curtailed to the great detriment of tax income for schools and highways, along comes an order to reduce consumption of gasoline by reducing the ration stamp value from 4 to 3 gallons. Up jumps Lt. Gov. John Lee Smith to "allow as how it ort not to be did." Smith points out that oil refinery production has been pegged at 73 percent for some time. Smith also asks the Hon. Harold Ickes, the big boy in charge, why over a hundred refineries of the small companies have been closed down the past 18 months. Ickes says the oil is getting scarce. How he or any one else knows what is under the ground, considering that already located and the immense territory yet unexplored, no one seems to know.

But Texans have never been content to suffer for a lack of anything when a bit of energy, mental or physical, will remedy the shortage. Yep, Texans are unhappy.

Ever think about Running a Factory?

If you've ever run a farm or dairy or store, there are a lot of things about running a factory that you'd find pretty familiar. Things like working any and all hours, training green help, planning for months ahead without letting the planning interfere with the job of the moment.

These are the responsibilities of management. And the peculiar American ability to meet and lick these problems means a lot today, both on the food-producing and weapon-producing fronts.

Ability to manage isn't picked up overnight. For good management is a skill just as much as good workmanship—learned the hard way.

It won't be forgotten overnight, either. For it is these men who, on farm and in factory, have actually produced the things from which our high living standard is derived, who can and will, by working together, give every American a more abundant life in the peacetime years to come. *General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. can't afford to let our boys and girls down in the most disastrous war of all history. They look to us for equipment with which to win the war. They look to us now with more earnestness than they looked to us as parents when the simple request of a child had to be met.

BACK IN 1937
"Japan is getting ready to try to whip the world. They have been buying war supplies of oil, iron and technical instruments in this nation for several years. Just last week over 800 tons of scrap iron was shipped from Houston to Japan. Ain't it a good idea for part of us at least, to get ready for war here while the part of us are selling future lives of Americans for the almighty dollar of profit?"

The above paragraph is a reprint from this column under date of March 14, 1937.

"THANK GOODNESS!
Here's one thing that hasn't changed!"

Reddy: You're exactly right, Lady! Every other civilian service has been affected because of the war, but not electricity! It's still on hand every moment to make life easier and more pleasant for you!

Lady: Did you say, "easier"?

Reddy: Yes, that's what I said. You see, Lady, we realize what an important and patriotic person you are, with your Red Cross work, the Motor Corps, besides that very vital job out in the kitchen.

Lady: But it's the least I can do for the war effort.

Reddy: Of course, it is, and your electric company is now serving Army Training Camps and war-time industries, but it has also pledged itself to go right on serving you. Electric refrigeration keeps the food for your family safe and healthful; electric cookery retains vitamins and other valuable food elements essential to good health. Then there is your sweeper, iron, washer, and many other electric appliances, all at your finger tips to save your time and lessen the labor.

Lady: Whee, that's a big job!

Reddy: You bet it is, but it's our contribution to the War and to you. All of it adds up to friendly, dependable service at low cost.

Lady: And that sounds mighty good to me and my budget—and it's more than you can say about most items, since the war began.

LOKKEN—JACKSON

On August 14th at 8 p. m., before an altar built of flowers, the marriage of Miss Signe Lokken and Joe B. Jackson took place at the home of Mrs. O. H. Jackson of Hawthorne, Calif., formerly of Clarendon, with the Rev. Carl Pike pronouncing the vows.

Attending the couple were Fred Jackson, brother of the groom, and his wife Joyce. The bride was lovely in a blue silk suit, with white accessories. She carried a bouquet of cream rose buds and orchids.

The matron of honor wore a floral silk suit and her shoulder corsage was of gardenias and yellow rose buds.

At the reception following the ceremony the wedding cake was cut and toasts were drunk to the bride and groom. They left immediately to spend their honeymoon at Big Bear Lake in the mountains. On their return they will be at home to their friends at 428 E. 139th St., Hawthorne, Calif.

The 1926 Book Club began the new club year with a Bookland Characters Tea Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Allen Bryan who was assisted by Mrs. Bill Thornberry.

Dickens' Madame La Farge rubbed elbows with Mrs. Miniver, while Alice in Wonderland gazed wonderingly at Pocahontas. The three March sisters of "Little Women" fame met Belle Watling of "Gone With the Wind" while the cowgirls of "When a Man's a Man" visited with the women of "There is Today."

The program leader was Mrs. Bill Bromley who, as the Goddess of Literature, presented the characters in a short skit from their respective book.

Refreshments were served to twenty members and six guests: Mrs. Oscar Thomas, Mrs. Louie Thompson, Mrs. Myrtle Reeves, Miss Chloe Darden, Mrs. A. L. Thornberry and Mrs. Hoggett.

Navy Needs Chaplains

If the religious needs of the expanding United States Naval forces are to be adequately served, the size of the Navy Chaplain's Corps must be greatly increased in the next 18 months, Lieutenant Commander Edward C. Lawson of the Eighth Naval District Branch Office of Naval Officer Procurement declared today.

Applicants for the Chaplain's Corps must have completed the required college and seminary courses, must be ordained by their denominations and must have their denomination's endorsement for appointment to the Navy chaplaincy, Comdr. Lawson said.

Though July shipments of Texas livestock to interstate markets and to Fort Worth stockyards sagged below those of a year ago, this state's total shipments for the first seven months of 1943 are still about 10 percent above the like period of 1942, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Livestock Shipments Increase

A total of 5,937 cars moved in July, compared with 6,136 in July a year ago. Cattle and calf shipments declined, while those of hogs and sheep rose.

For the first seven months of 1943 shipments totaled 56,838 cars compared with 51,846 for the same period of 1942. Cattle and hogs accounted for their entire gain, since sheep shipments remained the same and those of calves declined more than a thousand carloads.

Farm Youths Study Food Distribution

While city boys and girls assisting Texas farmers with wartime crops this year are learning firsthand where food comes from, other youngsters who are "old-timers" in farm work are studying where food goes, according to Professor Grant B. Snyder, department of olericulture, Massachusetts State College.

Increasing numbers of Texas youthful vegetable producers are learning modern methods of food distribution by participating in the scholarship program of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association, Professor Snyder, advisory chairman of the association, reported this week.

They are competing with young farmers in 35 other states for the $500 grand national award, four regional awards of $200, and 33 sectional awards of $100, from a scholarship fund provided by the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company for the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association.

"Most of the entrants plan to make a career of farming," Professor Snyder said, "and through this work they are becoming better acquainted with efficient methods of distribution. This is important, because supplying food in war or peace depends upon moving it rapidly and economically to the right place, at the right time, and in the right condition."

Awards to winners will be announced this fall, and will be based upon reports of project work completed during the year and upon grades achieved in a five-unit extension course on farm production and marketing.

Use Protein Efficiently

Since the most effective conservation of limited protein supplies ultimately must be left with the producer, it is important that protein concentrate feeds in their unmixed form be available at all times to ranchers and farmers.

Guides to efficient use of protein feeds issued by the A&M College Extension Service point out that any individual stockman's need for protein concentrates will depend on the kind of livestock being produced, the amount and condition of available pasture and roughage, and the amount and type of home or locally grown grain available.

And, in any event, the producer should use protein feeds only as they are necessary to meet the basic requirements of digestible protein according to feed standards in common use, livestock specialists say. Present and probable future shortages of protein concentrates will not permit their use freely as a source of energy.

To aid farmers and ranchmen in the best possible use of protein feeds, the Extension Service has issued four free printed leaflets related to the feeding of beef cattle, sheep and goats, dairy cattle, hogs, and poultry. These are available from county agricultural agents throughout the state.

Army Acquires Readymade Soldiers

Uncle Sam's Army of the United States last month acquired some 65,000 readymade soldiers, all of them women, when members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps were transformed from an auxiliary unit into the Women's Army Corps.

Signing of enlistment papers and administering of oaths were completed on September 1st, making former WAACs members of the army.

High ranking army officers stated that performance of members of the WAAC had brought about a full army status. It was said that if their work had not been of the highest quality that members of the Corps would not have been given the privilege of becoming members of the Army of the United States.

Lieutenant Colonel Marvin B. Durette, commander of the West Texas Recruiting and Induction District, said that soldier edited newspapers throughout the United States tell of the good work being performed by members of the Women's Army Corps. He said that the "army girls" have won their place in the army.

Colonel Durette states that more women are becoming interested since the WACs now have a full army status, are eligible for Government Insurance and are accorded free mailing privileges.

Women between the ages of 20 and 50, inclusive, are now eligible for enlistment. Women 20 years of age must have parents' consent. Full information concerning enlistment in the Women's Army Corps may be obtained by contacting any U. S. Army Recruiting Station or by writing the U. S. Army Recruiting office in Lubbock.

Farmers Urged To Provide Farm Storage

A place to store this year's cotton crop was the paramount problem facing many Texas cotton farmers this week as picking season got underway in most parts of the state.

"Cotton is opening up in volume and as production reaches a peak the storage problem will become far more serious than it is now," County Agent H. M. Breedlove of the Texas A&M Extension Service, said in asking farmers to plan far enough ahead this year to provide for their own storage facilities.

Citing $15 per bale losses in South Texas where farmers have been unable to get Government loans because warehouses already are filled with cotton, the county agent urged farmers in later producing areas to make immediate plans for storing their crop. In cases where farmers are not equipped to store cotton on the farm, he urged their renting or obtaining use of empty buildings to get cotton under cover and take advantage of ninety per cent of parity loans.

The farm-storage phase of the cotton loan program is administered by county AAA committees and buildings in which cotton is stored must meet minimum specifications before they can be approved, he said. Principal requirements are that buildings must protect the cotton from rain, snow, flood, ground water, poultry and livestock.

The loan rate for cotton stored on the farm is the same as for cotton stored in warehouses. The average loan rate in Texas is 19.90 cents per pound, which is higher than the open market price.

In addition to the regular loan rate, producers storing cotton on the farm also are entitled to 10 cents per bale per month storage allowance provided the cotton is delivered to Commodity Credit Corporation in satisfaction of the loan. If the cotton is repossessed by the producer, the storage allowance will not be paid.

CIVIL SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

The War Production Board needs a labor representative to assist in the execution of programs for stimulating individual and group production in war plants in this region, Elmer G. Hayes, local civil service secretary, said today, announcing a civil service examination for this $3800 a year job with the Dallas regional headquarters of the War Production Board.

"Applicants must have had at least five years experience in a labor organization of industrial concern providing the applicant with a clear knowledge of labor and production problems," Mr. Hayes said. "Two years of this experience must have been in an administrative nature."

Persons not engaged in war work of equal skill and who are interested in this position should file an application on or before September 17, 1943 with the director, tenth civil service region, 210 S. Harwood, Dallas, Texas.

A 54 year-old Wisconsin farmer whose two marine sons gave their lives in the war against Japan, is now a marine private doing guard duty somewhere with his companion sentry, a powerful Doberman-Pinscher dog. Private Frank W. Winterling said it was only natural for him to enlist in the branch of the service in which his sons died in order that his daughters, Jane and Kate, might continue to enjoy "the advantages that were guaranteed to me under our system of government." One of Private Winterling's sons, Marine Corporal Joe N. Winterling, died at Bataan, and the other, Marine Sergeant Frank E. Winterling, died at Guadalcanal.

THESE ARE AMERICAN SOLDIERS GOING INTO ACTION. You need not worry about their flinching or failing—no matter what tough going they may meet. You can count on them to do what we're asking of them—to pay, with their lives if need be, the price of victory. But victory cannot be bought by these men alone. We've got to pay our share of the cost too. This month, that share is at least $100 EXTRA—over and above all other buying—in U. S. War Bonds, for every man and woman in this country. BLUNDER WILL NOT BE REPEATED

"In spite of a 1944 program designed to achieve the greatest food production in U. S. history, good soil conservation practice can be followed," recently declared Judge Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator. "Thus," Judge Jones said, "the U. S. can avoid the tragic blunder of the other war when land was plowed up without regard to its fitness and the soil was allowed to wash and blow away without any adequate means to prevent it. That blunder," Judge Jones promised, "will not be repeated."

the enemy's just over the hill!

MAYBE I'm your boy—or the boy next door. You know, Mary's sweetheart. Joan's husband, Timmy's daddy. Your son, Father! Your boy, Mother!

Anyway, I've got something to say to you. I've got to make you understand.

This is it. This is zero. This is INVASION!

I'm here, with a million other boys just like me. We're your INVASION forces. And we're going to stay. It wasn't easy getting here, and it is going to be a lot harder before we're through.

WE'RE GIVING ALL WE'VE GOT

I said we were going to stay. I promise that, even if it means the thing—well, the thing we don't like to talk about. Because we're giving all we've got: Our minds, our strength, our blood.

But you see, this isn't going to be enough. Not unless those planes we need snarl down out of the sky on the enemy just over there. Unless those tanks get here. Unless the supply ships get through. Unless there are enough bullets for this rifle.

YOU'RE ON THE INVASION FRONT NOW!

It's that extra $100 War Bond, all of them together, making up the $15 billion worth they're asking you to buy in September, that will prove that you are on the INVASION front with him.

Your part is at least one extra $100 Bond during the Drive—at least $100. Of course, that's in addition to your regular bond buying. A $100 Bond is the rock bottom figure. Some of you will have to invest thousands to put this Drive across. Take it out of your pay check—or out of that nest egg you were saving for a rainy day.

All you can spare is too little, all you've got is just going to be enough.

Look at it this way: You won't be giving anything. You will be investing in VICTORY—and your future.

Things like safety for your family and money after the war to buy a new home, or to educate your children.

You're buying a stake in VICTORY—and that means America, yours and mine!

I guess that's all I've got time to tell you now. The enemy is waiting, just over the hill. Don't keep us waiting for you!

Red Cross Home Nursing Course Classes Are Filling Rapidly

Realizing the importance of knowing what to do and how to do it during times of emergency and sickness in the home, Donley County ladies are enrolling for the Red Cross Nurses' courses which are to be held in the near future. Since a registered and highly trained nurse will teach the classes, it behooves every woman in Donley County to take advantage of this opportunity.

The Ashtola class was the first organized, and these ladies have been ready for several weeks. On August 27th, the Hedley ladies met at the High School auditorium and signed up for a large class.

Word comes that there is much activity at Lelia Lake, Windy Valley and vicinity, and that the ladies of these places will have a complete class by the end of the week.

Two classes have been filled to date in Clarendon and a third class is being organized, and the signing of enrollees is now going on at this time.

The National Red Cross sets the number to be enrolled in these classes at twenty or close to that number. Classes will meet twice a week for two hour sessions for six weeks duration. Exact time for each class will be worked out by instructor, Mrs. Frey of St. Louis, when she arrives on or near the 16th of September.

Those ladies wishing to enroll are asked to call Mrs. Jefferies, 102 or Mrs. Elba Ballew 925-F3.

Sgt. and Mrs. C. L. Smith of Camp Howze, Texas visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Weatherly over the week end.

Guests in the J. A. Warren home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones of Amarillo.

Mrs. J. A. Warren returned home Sunday from Amarillo where she has been visiting her daughters.

COMPOSED BY A SOLDIER AND ADDRESSED TO DRAFT DODGERS

I'm writing this short letter, And every word is true; Don't look away, Draft Dodger, For it is addressed to you.

You feel at ease and in no danger, Back in the old home town; You cooked up your pitiful story, So the draft board will turn you down.

You never think of the real men Who leave there day by day; You just think of the girl friends Whom you get while they are away.

You sit at home and read your paper, And jump and yell, "We'll win!" Just where do you get that we stuff?

The war will be won by men.

Just what do you think, Draft Dodger,

That this free nation would do, If all the men were slackers And afraid to fight like you?

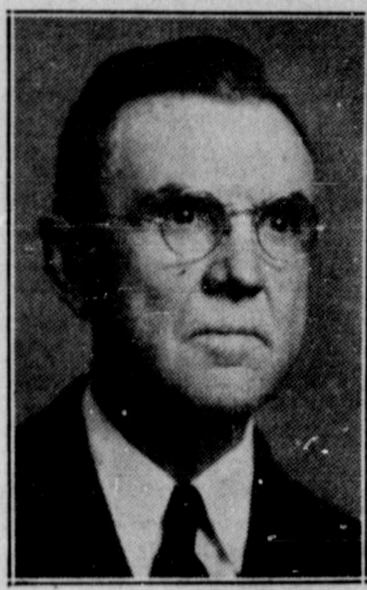

Well, I guess that's all, Mr. Dodger;

For I suppose your face is red; America's no place for your kind, And I mean every word I said.

So in closing this letter, Draft Dodger,

Just remember what I say— Keep away from my girl, you bum,

For I'm coming back some day! —Quannah Tribune-Chief.

FARMERS' WAR BOND QUOTA SET FOR OVER BILLION DOLLARS

Farmers have a war bond quota of 1 1/2 billion dollars in the 15 billion dollar third war loan drive which begins September 9 and continues through the month. During the campaign, canvassers expect to call upon at least 3,600,000 of the nation's 6 million farm homes. Farmers' income figures point to big bond subscriptions. It is estimated that their cash income from marketings will be 19 billion dollars this year.

Planting The Fall Garden

Scattered showers over Texas forecast the turn of the season and the time to begin fall garden work in earnest.

H. M. Breedlove County Agent for the A&M College Extension Service, recommends planting mustard greens with the first good rain because this vegetable grows quickly and should be ready for the table in four weeks. Fall beans require about 45 days to mature, and if planted in August or early September in most parts of the state a good supply should be available before cold weather. The Stringless Green Pod variety is high in quality and somewhat heat resistant.

Leaf lettuce should receive special consideration because it is more tolerant to heat than the head variety. Black Seeded Simpson or Grand Rapids are good varieties. When the weather cools head lettuce may be planted.

PEACE TO REPAY FOR LEND-LEASE

"The Congress in passing and extending to Lend-Lease Act made it plain that the United States wants no new war debts to jeopardize the coming peace." President Roosevelt declared in his letter transmitting to Congress the eleventh report on Lend-Lease operations for the period ended July 31, 1943. "Victory and a secure peace," the President added, "are the only coin in which we can be repaid."

HOG-CHOLERA SERUM OUTPUT HIGH

The serum used in combating hog cholera is now being made in record-breaking quantities, according to the Department of Agriculture. Output of the protective serum between July 1, and June 30, 1943, was 25 percent above last year's high output. The current supply represents large scale protection against hog cholera, the most formidable swine disease, for the vast number of hogs now being raised in the U. S.

Two of Clarendon Future Farmer members were among the twenty in the 28,000 members of Texas, to be approved by the National F.F.A.
