$12914 AID FOR DONLEY COUNTY RURAL SCHOOLS

Hedley and Lelia Lake Are Recipients of Greatest Appropriations

Visits were made to a number of the rural schools of the county by Deputy State Supt. Bryan Dickson and County Supt. Sloan Baker the past week. "A great improvement was noted in the general condition of the schools visited," Mr. Baker said Monday.

The interest of the trustees and patrons was shown by their attendance at the schools during the survey.

Rural aid totaling $12,914 was granted the school eligible, or those applying for aid.

The following schools received salary aid allotments: Sunnyview, $173; Giles $335; Windy Valley $681; Goldston $629; Jericho $353; Bray $846; Midway $87.

The Skillet school will receive $308 on salary, $525 bus aid.

Ashtola will receive for salary aid $723, bus aid $670 and industrial aid $100.

Other schools to receive salary aid are: Chamberlain $454; McKnight $786; Lelia Lake $1,702.

Hedley has been allotted $3,082 for salary, $1260 for bus and $200 for industrial aid.

Aid for Sunnyview, Windy Valley, Goldston, Jericho, Bray, Skillet, McKnight, and Lelia Lake will not be allowed until the seventy percent attendance requirement is met. But this requirement will be easily reached as soon as the pupils who are helping to gather the crop are back in school. All the schools are better equipped for teaching than they were last year.

Every aid grant includes allowance for a victrola and records to teach music to the pupils which is part of the State-wide program of music training planned by State Superintendent L. A. Woods.

The superintendents, principals, and teachers in the schools are attempting to do everything possible to make the schools of Donley County the best possible for the pupil. Donley County schools are off to a good start for the best school year in their history.

"THE WEDDING" WILL BE EVENT AT CHAMBERLAIN

Varied Program Will Include Play, Pie Supper, Select String Music

"Watch for details in next week's paper and plan to be there," we are advised by our informer telling of the varied program that is to be presented at the Chamberlain school.

The eventful date is Friday night, November 23rd. The Chamberlain school building is one of the nicest in the county, and the commodious auditorium will be ample to take care of the crowd.

"The Wedding" is a community play in which the high school pupils of that community attending school in Clarendon will take a leading part. Others will be on the program and also take a part in the play.

This is another of those wholesome community programs that brings together the folks in a friendly spirit of neighborliness, and gives the pupils and other young folks an opportunity to expand their talents.

Principal Cooper and his able assistants are doing their utmost to put the school work over in a big way that really means much to the community. In their efforts, they have the cooperation of the school board and the good citizens of the community who believe in harmless methods of entertainment.

The proceeds of the event will be used in purchasing much needed athletic and playground equipment.

Mrs. O. W. Latson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robbins, at Dallas.

RENTAL PLANS OF GOVERNMENT PROVIDES HOMES

Representative A. Monroe Has Charge of Rentals in Donley County

Rural Rehabilitation for Donley County is the latest program in connection with the Texas Relief organization in this county. A Monroe, representative, who has charge of District 72 including Collingsworth, Donley and Hall Counties, visited here Tuesday and laid plans for the program.

Mr. Monroe stated that the commission desired to rent tracts of land over the county, in 10 to 20 acres and that he will have his headquarters at the local relief office. He also stated that he was especially looking for tracts of land which had houses on them. Where no houses are located on the land the Government will assist in building them, he said.

Actual lease value will be paid for all land rented and the government will make the lease payment direct to the owner. All houses in dilapidated condition will be repaired.

A select few persons on the relief rolls, who have been farmers and wish to again get a start, will be allowed to rent the lands direct from the government and pay their lease money from their crops and labor. The farmers placed on the tracts will also be required to keep the houses and property in good condition.

At the present time Mr. Monroe said that he was interested in meeting the land owners and making contracts for the leases which will be necessary before any of the relief roll selections can be placed on the tracts.

Relief clients placed on farms will be continued on the relief rolls until they become self sustaining. They may also secure additional land from the land owners on a share crop basis, or third-and-fourth basis, or they may work for land owner or others at the prevailing wage scale paid in that locality and will be expected and required to do so when they are not busy with their own plots.

Relief clients who assist in finding places will be given preference, other conditions being equal. Likewise the suggestions or recommendations of land owners will be considered in selecting clients to be placed on land leased from them.

Infant of Transients Dies Here Sunday Morning

Services were conducted at the Buntin funeral parlor Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. by Rev. J. Perry King for D. A. Cox, an infant of four months.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cox of Eldorado, Oklahoma were on their way to Las Vegas, Nevada where they hoped the climate would benefit their babe and had stopped at the local tourist camp over Saturday night.

The infant died about 8 a. m. Sunday. Many were the flowers and acts of christian kindness shown the strangers as the little babe was laid away here.

88 HIGHWAY TO BECOME WINTER RELIEF PROJECT

Plan Employment for Large Number While Doing Worth While Public Service

Plans are being made by state relief and highway officials, it is said, whereby a large number of men may be employed on Highway 88 from Clarendon to Jericho throughout the winter.

According to information given the Leader, the right-of-way would be widened to one hundred feet all the way, and wider than that at specific points where fills are to be made.

It is further said that the highway will be routed straight into Clarendon from the Johnson corner across a corner of the Thompson farm straight into town entering about where it is now at the Smith-Hudson filling station.

Christmas shopping will be a matter of pleasure with many since the arrival of $53,496.70 in cotton checks this week.

Cotton growers state that they favor the government plan with drought conditions on if nothing more. Had they been forced to depend on actual production this season, cotton farmers would have been in a hard position.

SEE BIRCH WITH SHOW OF WONDERS THURSDAY NIGHT

"You Ain't Seen Nothing Yet" Until You Have Seen Birch Perform

"The appeal of magic and magicians is genuine and universal. It is not confined to any nation or people, and is as powerfully exerted upon "grown-ups" as upon children. Children derive pleasure from a magical entertainment that can only be equaled by the glamour of the circus." So asserted Birch, the Famous Magician, who will present his mystifying array of tricks and illusions to Clarendon audiences next Thursday, November 22nd.

"I have been interested in magic and its manifestations since I entered high school, and I hope I shall always maintain this engrossing study," the young magician declared.

"I believe that magic appeals to both young and old—at least to those between the ages of six and ninety-six! I do not feel any lack of enthusiasm after more than fifteen years of entertaining the public. But I find it necessary to be 'on my toes' every minute of the time to keep my performance new and different."

During these years Birch and Company have toured throughout the United States and Canada. Several months each year are spent in creating new effects and building spectacular illusions in a magical work shop which is completely equipped with the finest, most modern electrical machinery. Perhaps his two greatest achievements are "The Vanishing Pony" and "Scimitar" slicing a young lady into four separate parts.

Birch has gained a proficiency of such complete merit that Thurston, world's greatest magician, recently pronounced him his logical successor.

Proceeds for the local entertainment will go to Crippled Childrens Fund of Clarendon Lions Club, who are sponsoring Birch and Company.

Don't forget the date—Thursday, November 22nd, at the College Auditorium.

WOMAN OUTRUNS COUNTY ATTORNEY IN STILL RAID

Still is Brought Here And Man Makes $1000 Bond Sunday Morning

A copper still of fifty-gallon capacity, thirty gallons of corn tinker and five barrels of mash were hauled in and deposited under safe keeping of Sheriff Pierce after he, Deputy Guy Wright and County Attorney R. Y. King made an investigation Thursday.

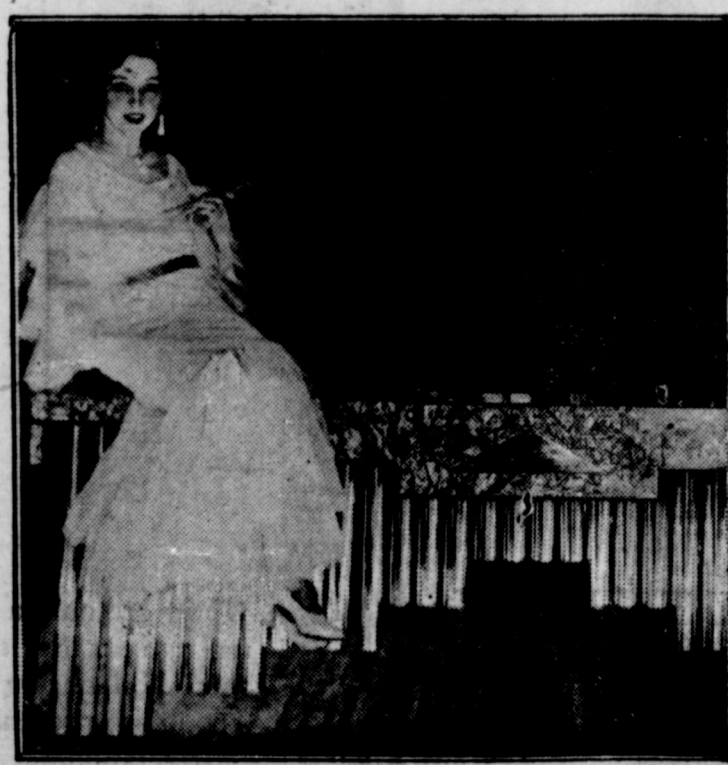

In connection with the affair, W. R. Tucker, alias H. F. Huggins, was arrested near the still and held in jail until Sunday morning when he was liberated on a bond of $1,000.

The officers state they found the still in an old building on a hill on what is known as the old Lambertson farm about three miles northwest of the Bray school and near Salt Fork of Red river.

When the officers approached the building, a man said to be repairing a car suddenly remembered unfinished business elsewhere and the chase was on with Pierce leading the pursuit. He captured the man after a chase of about a mile.

During the man chase, Wright and King were attempting to capture a woman who was seen to take to a ravine partly secluded by shinnery brush. After some distance Wright slackened his speed but it required more than a mile of running to convince the County Attorney that he had found one woman who could outrun him in "nothing flat." No report of her capture has been turned in to date.

WORLD'S FAIR ARTIST featured with BIRCH, MAGICIAN

MABEL SPERRY

When Birch, the Famous Magician, appears at the Clarendon College next Thursday evening, he will present not only startling feats of spectacular magic, but also brings a sparkling program that is varied with several distinct features.

Heading the Birch staff of assisting artists is Mabel Sperry, brilliant young musical star and danseuse. This charming young lady comes to our city direct from her appearance as xylophone soloist with the 100-piece Marimba Band at the Century of Progress, Chicago.

Her special built Marimba-Xylophone, which was planned by an expert designer is without question the most beautiful instrument of its kind ever produced. It is not only a triumph of tone and tuning, but an artistic achievement as well.

Miss Sperry is known in the concert and radio world as an artist of unusual ability, and critics hail her as the world's greatest girl xylophonist. Her artistry, coupled with her sparkling personality, makes her a favorite wherever she appears.

Don't fail to hear this talented musician and her "Marvelous Melodies" at the Birch performance on November 22nd. Matinee at 2:30, night 7:30.

NO WORKS WITHOUT FAITH.

A man must have a certain measure of faith in himself if he is to succeed, and the same thing is true of a town. And the measure of a town's faith in itself, of course, is but the sum of the faith that its individuals have. It follows that the faith of every individual has a very practical value, as we realize as often as we observe the achievements of a progressive community. For find a community that is progressing, and you find, every time, one that is blessed with a citizenship of abundant faith.

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE.

To cope with conditions, solve the problems, and live with a degree of satisfaction in the future, every boy and girl should be provided with educational facilities that will enable them to learn how to think, to compare, how to analyze and how to interpret. Education of our youth in this time of great changes, should be engaging the major thoughts of adults now, as well as the leaders. It is one of our gravest problems. This problem is being recognized by the national government in the education of adults by the night school method in thousands of towns and cities.

PROGRESS IN THE WORLD OF THOUGHT.

Sir William Berkeley, governor of the province of Virginia, said in 1661: "I thank God we have no free schools nor printing in Virginia, and I hope we shall not have these for hundreds of years; for learning has brought heresy and disobedience and sects into the world, and printing has divulged them and libels against the government."

In 1861, just two hundred years later, the immortal Gibson wrote: "Newspapers are compelled to be critics of business, morals, education, the drama, government, etc. Newspapers should be edited and managed by critics possessing character, intelligence and education."

SOUNDING THE ALARM.

During the Methodist Conference at Dallas, Rev. A. J. Weeks is quoted as saying "Methodism is going to lose its crown to the holy rollers, snake-charmers and hot lamp chimney holders, if it does not get back to its early position as a witnessing church."

During the same week down at Alice in Jim Wells county, Rev. Curl and his flock in planning the erection of a new church, propose to install comfortable seats, washed air and other conveniences equal to a picture show.

Editor Charley Tanner of the Alice News approves the idea by saying "if God's business is to successfully compete with the picture show, the house of God must be made just as inviting."

JIM FERGUSON CROWS.

Like a school boy with his first long pants, Jim Ferguson in his dotage crows over the defeat of all of the amendments. He might have influenced a few, but the main reason is credited to the fact that the public has been suspicious of the lawmakers ever since they voted an amendment to double the salaries of the lawmakers and got nothing for it in return.

We all know that we have some honest members in both the House and the Senate, but we also know that a few crooks have apparently crept in, and these boys with the lobbyists, are trying to run the state.

Old Farmer Jim shows his true colors by trying to get the lawmakers to chunk in a few million for a Dallas Centennial. Wonder who paid old Jim to make that effort?

Again old Farmer Jim keeps harping about his sales tax that would work a hardship on everybody unless the other taxes were knocked out the day the sales tax went into effect.

In the main, it is hard to tell what Farmer Jim Ferguson will be "for" next unless you know who he was talking with the night before. No, Farmer Jim did not defeat the amendments.

CENTENNIAL 'LOBBYING'

It is seldom that we find it necessary to disagree with the policy of the Texas Press Association, for whose membership, individually and collectively, we have the highest regard and the friendliest feeling; but it seems to us its attitude and activities with respect to the Texas Centennial are a bit unusual. The association has not only pledged its assistance to the Centennial but an Association committee has opened an office in Austin and has started publication of a Centennial organ, the Texas Press Association Centennial News, through which it attacks opponents of the Centennial as unpatriotic and selfish, and announces its purpose of "showing up" the "lobbyists" upon whom it blames the failure of the Legislature to act.

The committee has the authority of the Association to conduct a centennial educational campaign but, in establishing an office in Austin and issuing a paper to further its cause, it is engaging in lobbying just as much as the hired "lobbyists" it condemns. Its declaration to "show up" through its organ the "lobbyists" who have opposed extra taxation for the companies or interests they represent is nothing more or less than a threat to coerce these interests into paying the bill, through publicity. In both, we think the committee has gone far beyond its proper functions and has placed the press of Texas in an embarrassing position.

The interests singled out to pay the Centennial bill—the oil, soft drink, mineral water, beer, amusement, hotels and utilities—have just as much right to oppose the tax suggested for them as the Texas Press Association has to urge it, and in doing so they have the logical argument that since the benefits of the Centennial are pictured as statewide the tax should be levied upon the many, not the few. They have the right likewise to employ attorneys to present their views at the hearings, just as the advocates of it are doing, and whether such attorneys do so for a fee or as part of their regular employment does not justify the attack made upon them nor the threat to coerce their employers into paying the bill. Whether lobbying is sinister or not depends upon the method employed; frequently it depends upon the cause and who is doing the lobbying.

The Centennial is a public matter, open to free discussion, and any citizen should be privileged to express his views without having his patriotism attacked or himself subjected to threats. Certainly, the Centennial plan itself and the method of financing it are open to serious question. For, if the Centennial is to be statewide in benefit, there must be exhibitions at cities other than Dallas—such as Houston, with its San Jacinto battleground; San Antonio, with its Alamo, and others of real historical significance. They must be exhibition of size and worth while character, in order to attract the visitors, and unless such are provided most of the visitors likely would visit the exposition at Dallas, possibly come to Fort Worth, and return home. The chances are few would see the other cities of Texas or the scenes of Texas' fight for freedom. The Centennial, instead of being statewide in benefit—would thus be sectional—of chief benefit to North Texas. There is a question, too, of the effect upon the main exposition in not having adequate positions at the other cities. Without such, the main exposition would be commercial rather than historical, and of doubtful drawing power, in view of the Century of Progress just closed.

When Shesa Fizzle went down to Matador with her new boy friend Sunday, she described the trip as one where "you just go along and watch the terrapins whiz by." Miss Shesa likes fast driving, boys, at say about 80 per.

Good old Dennis Smith, popular superintendent out at the Midway school. He brought in some free tickets for the play to repay us in part for publicity—the first on record this season. Not two hours later, a local organization did the same thing. Now I wonder if either will be kind enough to tell us what happened, so that we can follow up the news item this week?

Bachelor Bill says he is looking for a lady between the ages of 18 and 80 who does not chew or brew, cuss or fuss—except socially. Object—curiosity!

U. Z. Patterson holds the record for killing the other fellow's decoy ducks this season. He killed three at one shot at six-bits each.

Dr. Mark L. Putman had a call from a patient hailing from Hog Jaw, down in the Jack end of Briscoe county Saturday. This party captured a catfish in the summer while it was on the bank with a mouse stuck on its dorsal or top fin. It was found later when the fish was taken to the barr that it would charm mice and capture them by flipping out of the pan of water and spear them with its fin. Now the mammy fish has had kittenfish and the party (who dared us to print his name) does not know how to get them to drink milk. Dr. Putman prescribed pigeon milk as a beginner, to be inserted through an eye dropper into their eyes. Yeh, the young ones meow all the time making sleep impossible.

Speaking of reptiles, Bennett Kerbow tells of an unusual experience he had back in the days of high pressure tires when flivvers were new and few. Driving the flivver behind the chicken house one hot day Bennett was chagrined if not dumb-founded to see his pet black snake and rat-catcher attack the tire which it punctured and let out the 60 pounds of air. Luckily, the air passed right into the snake and inflated the reptile. This gave Bennett an idea. After patching his tube, he inserted the snake's head over the valve stem, tickled the snake's belly and the "old boy coiled up and blew that 60 pounds of air right back into the tire", as Bennett relates. Later the snake performed road service for his master. Taking the snake along inflated, saved his master many a hot job pumping up tires on the highway. The snake was finally stolen in Amarillo. Bennett always thought it was served as rattlesnake meat at some popular social function when the fad first came to the Panhandle some years ago.

Highballs and cocktails are now being served in colors to match the wall paper or plaster. Just thought you would like to know, etc.

Alright, alright, then let it alone!!

The Jacksboro Bugle puts it this way: "Due to the rush of job work this week, several births, deaths and marriages will have to wait until next week."

A woman must have something to "wear and eat." A man must have something to "eat and wear."

Is the "Vanishing Frontier" a picture show or a reducing remedy? Or just a show picture fit to look at?

"Keep Donley county dry for Clarendon", was an expression heard here Monday. Down state they are saying "Keep Texas dry for Dallas and the Centennial."

Right when we thought John Garner had been lost in the shuffle, he hobs right up in the middle of his granddaughter's birthday party.

The College Hill widow says "the poorest sport in the world is a husband who will raise hell with his family for years and then make a death bed repentance."

When the women folks broke into politics, we had to quit saying that two certain candidates were runnin' "neck and neck."

Up in Moore county they refer to baled Russian thistle stock feed merely as so many "baleski."

Lady Survivor Alamo Battle Died at Austin

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 12.—To the casual participant in the Texas Centennial celebrations of 1936, who stands in muted reverence within the musty walls of the little chapel of the Alamo, pregnant with memories of Travis and his dauntless band, doubtless will come an indescribable feeling of awe, which the lapse of a century since that heroic sacrifice fails to dispel. What then, on returning to the scene nearly half a century later, were the emotions of one who had lived through those tragic days in 1836 to achieve a crescendo of horror when the supreme moment came and the Alamo fell?

Probably the last of those able to give first-hand an account of the happenings in the fated fortress, during the harrowing week before it was taken by Santa Anna's troops by storm, died in Austin in October, 1884. She was Mrs. Susan B. Hannig, wife of an Austin merchant, when in the spring of 1831 she last visited the fortress, where in 1836 she, with her husband, Almaron Dickerson, who fell in its defense, and his comrades, was besieged. Mrs. Hannig, with her infant daughter, was in the Alamo during that entire week, before March 6, 1836, and she was sent to Gonzales by Santa Anna after its fall.

The San Antonio Express of April 26, 1881, says that "after a long absence indeed after a lapse of 45 years Mrs. Hannig yesterday returned to the old scene. She is a Tennessean by birth, is now 85 years of age, and when the Alamo fell lost her husband, Lieutenant Dickerson.

"Just before the Mexicans arrived, headed by Santa Anna, she was, together with her child, at the Musquiz House, near Main Plaza. The enemy appeared first in swarms early in the morning in the southwestern suburbs of the city. As soon as they were announced to be coming, her husband rode up to the door of her abode and called to her to seize her child and take refuge in the Alamo.

"She mounted the bare back of the horse he rode, behind his saddle, and holding her child between her left arm and breast, soon reached the old church. An apartment was assigned to her, while her husband turned away to meet his obligations to his fellow men and his country."

Mrs. Hannig, according to the reporter, could give but little account of the final struggle, as she was in a little dark room in the rear of the building. But on her visit on this occasion she recognized almost every stone and showed the reporter where her couch had stood and the window through which she peeped in an attempt to witness the progress of the siege and could perceive "the bodies of heroes, lying cold in death."

"It was in this room", she related, "that she saw the last man fall, and he was a man named Walker, who had fired the cannon at the enemy. Wounded he rushed into the room and took refuge in a corner opposite her own. By this time, the Alamo had fallen and the hordes of Santa Anna were pouring over its ramparts, through its trenches and its vaults."

Walker was slain, she said, in her presence, being first shot and then bayoneted. Mrs. Hannig said that for a while she feared for her own life, but soon was assured by an English colonel of the Mexican army that they had not come to kill women, but to fight men. Through the intervention of Col. Juan N. Almonte, natural son of the patriot priest Morelos who not only was Santa Anna's trusted aide but also the friend of many Texans, she was permitted to leave the city on a horse and to carry her child with her. After proceeding a short distance beyond the Salado, she met with Travis' servant, who had escaped from the guard and was lurking in the brush, and made her way to Gonzales in safety.

Mrs. Tatum of Wichita Falls is visiting her daughter and family, Mrs. Clyde Douglas and son Henry Tatum and family.

WINDY VALLEY SCHOOL NEWS

On the last Wednesday night in November the boys of Windy Valley will put on a play showing what our citizenship club is doing.

Our basketball arrived Friday. We are going to have a Junior team.

The new song books have arrived. They are from Stamps Music Co. There will be community singing at the Windy Valley school house Sunday, November 18th at 3:00 o'clock. Mr. Earthman will be here to help with our new song books. Every one is invited.

The pupils of this school are beginning to sing very well. We are going to continue singing and are going to improve ourselves.

We have enrolled now about forty-seven pupils, but when they all start we will have about fifty-five.

On September 1, 1934 we organized a club. We decided to call it the Kokernot Klub. The president Alvis Darnell; vice president Leola Hudson, secretary and treasurer, Jimmie Jewel Nichols and reporter Ethal Skinner.

We voted to see whether or not we should have a meeting every month or every week. We decided on every Tuesday in every week. We voted to see what colors we should use. We decided on brown and green.

INTERMEDIATE INCIDENTS When the reporter asked what had happened this week that would make a good newspaper item Maschil Cole looked wearily from his outlining, heaved a sigh and said, "Tell 'em how hard we've worked."

You may say, "Shake hands often with your neighbor;" but our health poster says, "Shake hands often with soap."

If you want to know anything about "The Star Spangled Banner" just ask some of us. We know who wrote it; why, when, and where it was written; and we might even sing it for you.

The ex-sponsor of the All American Girls wishes for them huge dividends in their candy sale Friday night.

PRIMARY ROOM

Romaine came to this sentence while reading, "A beautiful blue bowl." She stumbled over beautiful and ended by saying "a prettful blue bowl."

Bobby showed me two inflamed places on his hand and said, "See, Mrs. Batson, I have two stickers in my hand and they have already petrified."

MY NEED FOR YOU

By Helen Welshimer

Regret dear heart, is pain I need not measure. I filled the cup with sacrament for you.

I walked the second mile, heart high, courageous, If I grew faint, faith warped, you never knew.

I bathed your wounds with balm gleaned from heart's aching, Love knows no faltering, it gives its strength

And gladly mine became a shining ointment To mend your grief, to make you well at length

That you might ride again a fearless warrior, To seek the sun in brave, blue-armed steel,

While I, who loved the tall mail's weakest places, Have come to know the way that women feel

When they are left alone with books and candles, With aid to give when aid is sought no more;

How they must wait, remembering too clearly The singing sound of footsteps at the door.

I pray, dear one, that you are strong in battle As valiant as I whispered you would be.

But oh beloved my need for you, swift-growing, Fills all the days, the weeks—God, could it be—

That he might have a wound, brief, quick of healing, To bring him back some little night to me?

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

Are you one who calls the world dirty because you forgot to clean your glasses? Don't do it anymore. Let's vacate the basement of our being and live in the upper stories of our better selves for a while.

Now is exactly the time for us to be sane and sensible and self-sacrificing and sober in our thinking and talking and living.

God always said to his disciples when they were confronted with the seeming impossible, "have faith in God".

Doubt digs the grave of faith. Let's renew our faith in God and resurrect our faith in our fellowman.

Faith is the starter that turns the power of God into our lives. If your starter is out of order get some one to push you off to your church next Lord's day and see if it is not a place to find God, gladness and good friends. Brighten up the life of someone else and see if it does not put a fresh shine on your own.

Cheerfulness may sometimes be difficult, but it always pays dividends. It is well to let a little sunshine out as well as in.

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you is the golden rule of life.

You are cordially invited and always welcomed to worship at the First Baptist Church.

Winter Proof Service Offered By Magnolia

"Every fall shows an increasing number of people preparing their cars for winter driving, according to information coming through our dealers and service stations," said E. P. Angus, Vice President in charge of sales of the Magnolia Petroleum Company.

"These people," Mr. Angus explained, "know that much of the pleasure and economy of winter driving is lost with a car lubricated for summer driving." With the first chill mornings comes hard starting. Motors warm up slowly. Batteries get their hardest use.

It was for the purpose of making cold weather driving more economical and more pleasant that Magnolia's Winter-Proof Service was first offered.

"This seven-point winter-proof service," Mr. Angus explained, "thoroughly prepares the car against the hazards of cold weather driving. The crankcase is flushed and filled with quick flowing winter Mobiloil. The chassis is lubricated with Mobilgrease for winter performance. The differential and transmission are cleaned out and freshly lubricated with Mobilgear lubricants that do not harden in cold weather. The radiator is cleaned and flushed and if necessary the correct amount of anti-freeze put in. The battery is examined and refilled for the heavier load it must pull in cold weather. The tank is filled with winter grade Mobilgas. Autoists in the Southwest are rapidly being educated to Mobilize for Winter."

Lee Holland represents the Magnolia petroleum in Clarendon and surrounding territory.

Rehabilitation Tenants May Remain Three Years

Austin, Nov. 14.—All land leased for rehabilitation clients henceforth will be taken for a period of not less than three years, it has been announced by J. E. Stanford, head of the rural rehabilitation department of the Texas Relief Commission.

Stanford today notified rural supervisors, who lease the land, that all one and two-year leases arriving at the state office after November 10, will be returned to them for conversion into three-year leases.

The new arrangement was adopted to insure permanency of the rehabilitation program and to prevent landlords forcing rehabilitated clients off property after a year's residence during which time they will have made considerable improvements to the property.

"It is impossible to make more than just a beginning in a year's time," Stanford said. "We think we understand the aims and program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to the extent that we can undertake rehabilitation now on the long-term scale. We will now take only three-year leases and give each client larger tracts of land out of which to make his living."

Under the one-year lease agreements, in which the clients was expected to work only small sustenance plots, the average place contained slightly less than 10 acres per client. Under the new plan, it is hoped to give each client 20 acres or more according to the section of the state in which he is

This land is owned by heirs and they want to sell. See me if interested.

Ashtola School News

Wednesday, Nov. 7, 1934 Deputy State Supt. Bryan Dickson, visited Ashtola school for the purpose of granting aid and grading the school for Standardization. He had many very fine things to say about the plant and corps of teachers. Although scoring 918 points out of a possible 1000, he was unable to grant standardization, for all the items on the score card that are starred must be met in full and we were unable to meet two of them. He left us though with the assurance that he thought we would be the first school in Donley county to Standardize.

Mr. Dillard bought a "Ditto" Machine and we are now editing

Administrators and rural supervisors were again reminded of the necessity of having leased and repaired houses occupied at least by the time repairs to the houses have been completed. When possible, families should move into the houses and take a hand in their remodeling, thus receiving credit for work done.

"This is especially important," Stanford said, "in view of the fact that it will be impossible to have all leased property improved or in process of improvement by January 1, but it is going to be necessary to have the families who are going to take part in the rural rehabilitation program next year housed by that time."

Sanford also notified county representatives that the time allotted for employing assistant supervisors will expire soon and that services of such assistants will not be continued except in emergencies. He added that leases have been executed at such a rapid rate during the past few weeks that this phase of the work may have to be halted to allow construction work to catch up.

Mothers Have Found Way To Keep Family's Colds Under Better Control

Millions of mothers are helping their families to greater freedom from colds—fewer colds, shorter colds, milder colds—by following Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds.

The helpfulness of Vicks Plan in reducing the number, duration and dangers of colds has been proved in thousands of clinical tests supervised by practicing physicians—as well as in every day use in millions of homes. The Plan provides proper care—and proper medication—for different types and stages of colds.

To Help Avoid Many Colds—At the first sneeze or nasal irritation, apply the unique aid in preventing colds—Vicks Va-tro-nol. Just a few drops up each nostril. Timely use of Va-tro-nol helps to prevent many colds—and to throw off colds in their early stages. (Va-tro-nol now comes in two generous sizes, 30c and 50c.)

To End a Cold Sooner—If a cold has already developed, apply Vicks VapoRub on throat and chest. It fights a cold direct—two ways at once. The combined effect of VapoRub's double direct action—by stimulation and inhalation—loosens phlegm—soothes irritated membranes—eases difficult breathing—helps break congestion. Sure relief and with safety. No "dosing."

Full details and proof of the effectiveness of Vicks Plan come in each Vicks package.

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church

"What is Baptism?" Part II.
Last week we learned that John baptised Jesus in the river Jordan, but what did John do to Jesus? We want to find out about the action.

2. Matt. 28:19, is the next place we find the word baptise. Here the apostles are given a most solemn command to teach all nations and to baptise them. This act of baptism was to be done in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. We note that this is not a "promise" but a specific command, which the apostles are to obey. We also note that teaching must precede baptism.

3. Mark 1. Here we find testimony similar to that of Matthew. John is baptising in the wilderness (v.4), or in that part of the Jordan which penetrates the wilderness (v.5). The remainder of the testimony agrees in all particulars with that of Matthew.

4. Mark 16:16. This contains a remarkable statement. It conveys the same meaning as the statement of our Lord in Matt. 28:10. He commands the apostles to preach the gospel to every creature, those who believe and are baptised will be saved. If my Master says that I must be baptised before I am saved, I certainly am going to obey Him. This makes baptism important.

5. Luke 3:1-22. This language merely corroborates the testimony of Matthew and Mark. But it also adds some information. In verse 3 we are informed that John preached, "the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins." That is he required people to repent, to turn from their evil ways before submitting to baptism. He did not baptise them for the remission of sins because Jesus had not yet made atonement.

6. John 3:22,23;4:1,2. Luke having given us no more information we now turn to the gospel of John. John corroborates the testimony of Matthew, Mark, and Luke concerning John the Baptist in the very opening of his narrative. However he throws no additional light on the subject until we reach the third chapter. Here we are informed that John was baptising in Aeron near Salem, because "there was much water there." Evidently it required a considerable amount of water for baptising as John needed much water.

As yet we have information concerning the action, but we want to know all about baptism, and we will find some startling facts next week.

HELP KIDNEYS

IF your kidneys function badly and you have a lame, aching back, with attacks of dizziness, burning, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains... use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. Millions of boxes are used every year. They are recommended the country over. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

THE SECOND QUESTION A DOCTOR ASKS

Here is some information that has relieved whole families from Constipation

When anyone is "out of sorts" the doctor's first question is about the bowels. And the second, what is being taken to help them. Doctors use laxatives, and expect you to use them. But they prefer a liquid laxative. Do you know why?

Doctors and hospitals use liquid laxatives because they've seen the damage sometimes done by highly concentrated drugs in the form of pills or tablets! They know that a properly made liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative) does not do this harm. And they use liquid laxatives to relieve the bowels, because the dose can be easily regulated.

What to Use

There is a preparation of fine herbs, pure pepsin, cascara, and senna which does away with all need of harsh cathartics. The active senna in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is laxative enough for any adult, mild enough for any child. And there are other valuable ingredients in this delightful syrup.

Syrup Pepsin will usually relieve a case of constipation overnight. If a further dose is necessary, you give a smaller dose, each time less, until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all!

If you have a youngster who

My husband, who is a druggist, first recommended Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to me. It has always helped me and made me feel better. I have used it as a laxative for the entire family for 22 years.
Mrs. M. McMaster, Peoria, Ill.

doesn't eat, doesn't gain, gets upset and bilious no matter how careful you are about the diet—don't resort to strong cathartics which may only make matters worse.

Make this Test!

If you are "not yourself" because of a constipated condition, don't blame it on your blood condition, or your age. Try the help of Syrup Pepsin until you are relieved and nature restores your regularity. When your bowels continue then to move regularly, comfortably, and completely every day—you'll know why most doctors favor a liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

LEGION SERVICE BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING

Minister Confines Remarks To "Peace" in Very Able Sermon

Most all of the churches having given way for the service, the Baptist church was filled Sunday evening with those who chose to honor the 16th Armistice Day observance. After the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and "America," Rev. Robt. S. McKee, pastor of the Presbyterian church offered prayer. Miss Doris Cassle gave a reading, "In Flanders Fields." Misses Dorothy Phelps and Frances Fowler sang a duet, "America the Beautiful," which was followed by the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" by the congregation. Pastor J. Perry King took his text from the 6th Chapter of Eph. basing his talk on "Peace", using at times statistics to better enable his hearers to comprehend the horrible aspects of war. Rev. King made a very able talk, a number crowding round him and offering their hands in congratulation by way of approval at the close of the services. During the course of his remarks he stated that 81 World War veterans were passing out each day in America. To further clinch this statement, he asked that Spanish-American veterans or Confederate veterans rise to their feet. There was no response. Only one Gold Star mother was present, Mrs. John H. Clark, after whose son the local Legion Post is named. Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian Church said the closing prayer of dismissal.

Mining Interests Cause Two To Head For New Mexico

Lure of the metal made valuable by the "New Deal" caused Fred Buntin and I. B. Pierce to leave here hastily late Tuesday evening. They are but two of several local men who have mining interests northwest of Roswell and near Nogal, New Mexico in the White mountains. Several promising specimens have been brought back from that section recently. Geo. A. Ryan spent a portion of the summer there. S. A. Pierce also did some prospecting there until the snow flurries started this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Dean and daughter of Dimmitt visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lane Thursday.

Clarendon Man is Killed in Washington Monday

Word has been received here of the death of Charles Goodnight Taylor in Olympia, Washington Monday as a result of a car accident. C. G. is a brother of Homer Taylor and a son of the late Eph A. Taylor. He graduated from the local high school in the class of 1908, and was the class poet. He was an artist of more than average ability with both brush and pen. His cartoons found favor in the consideration of dailies, and his paintings in a commercial way brought him many a good job.

Suspect is Jailed Here Over Night Tuesday

A young man giving his name as "Tolar" and claiming to be a finger print man of the Amarillo police department picked up a suspect from a local box car Tuesday afternoon and escorted him to the sheriff's office. The suspect giving his name as "Jack Lancy" was finger-printed by I. B. Pierce. Tolar and Pierce both agreed that the suspects finger prints corresponded with some taken from an auto in Amarillo. The suspect was jailed over night here but liberated upon the request of the Amarillo police Wednesday morning. Soon after he had been turned loose, the police department in Amarillo awoke to the fact that they wanted a "Edwin Kell" of the same finger print specifications for breaking into a drummer's truck and stealing hats. But the request to hold was too late. Ed Kell had vanished and "Jack Lancy" had vanished into thin air.

Booze Question Enters Into Relief Measures

The following instructions have been received from Adam R. Johnson, state Director of the Texas Relief Commission: In instances where either the County Administrator or the Case Work Supervisor has first had personal knowledge that the head of the relief family is expending his funds for alcoholic liquors; that family thereafter shall receive relief in KIND ONLY. Regardless of the fact that relief is being extended in kind only, it shall and must be WORK RELIEF. The same rules apply in respect to gambling and similar derelictions on the part of relief clients. Conviction in police court or frequent arraignment before any local court immediately brings the client within the scope of these instructions. If the head of the family steadfastly refuses to perform work when he is not paid in cash, you are instructed to confer with local public officials and prefer charges of vagrancy against the client. This information is being printed at the request of the local relief office.

AVOID EYE STRAIN

EYE-STRAIN uses up energy—This is especially true with youth more than with those older, who can recognize the importance of guarding health—Children again in school should be given every chance to carry their studies without eye-strain through imperfect vision—It is well to have eyes examined regularly, especially those of growing children—We are most reasonable in all of our service rates—Glasses, when needed, can be had at a price to fit any pocket book.
