SHOW OF MAGIC SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT AT 7:30

One of Leading Magicians Of World Performs For Crippled Fund

While the show is primarily for the benefit of the Crippled Children Fund of the Lions Club so far as local backers are concerned, the show in the main is something out of the ordinary.

Birch, the man who performs illusions that thrill, shows at towns much larger than Clarendon, and makes all the larger cities. His skill is said to be second to none.

Among the illusions that astounded where he cuts a beautiful girl in pieces without harm to her. Another is the vanishing horse in mid air. Many other stunts will be shown that could not be seen except where Birch is putting on the show.

Miss Mabel Sperry, little musical star, and known as the world's most skilled xylophone artist, is well worth hearing.

The performance begins at 7:30 this evening at the College Auditorium. A matinee in the afternoon at 2:30 was shown as a special favor for those who could not be present tonight.

Tools Arrive For Transient Bureau Workers

A complement of tools arrived Monday from El Paso to be used by the workers of the local transient bureau, and just as soon as the new roof of the Denver hotel is completed assuring them of comfortable quarters for the winter, they will begin work on the flood control project.

The tools consist of wheelbarrows, picks, shovels crowbars and such other hand tools as may be needed to construct earthen work. In addition to the above named tools, a full set of blacksmith tools including a forge, has been received.

The next job will be the construction of dams in the draw southwest of town, Commissioner Connolly said Tuesday. For the past several days crews have been cleaning out ditches in town. The dams are expected to help during flood time.

Homer Fortenberry of McKnight was in town Tuesday.

T. R. ADKINS DIES SUDDENLY SATURDAY NITE

Had Attended Football Game Here Saturday Afternoon In Normal Health

Donley county lost another of her best citizens, and his relatives, friends and community were grievously shocked Saturday night when T. R. Adkins suddenly passed away about 9:30.

He had attended the football game in Clarendon that afternoon apparently in normal health, and had been reading a newspaper at the time he was stricken, his death following within about forty minutes.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Presbyterian church here by the pastor Rev. Robt. F. McKee at 3 p. m. Sunday. Buntin mortuary had charge of funeral arrangements.

Thomas Roach Adkins was a native of Louisiana but came to Texas while quite young. He served with the Texas cavalry in the Spanish-American war in 1898. For the past twenty or more years he has been a highly respected resident of Donley county, residing on his farm in the Martin community. His age is given at 57 years, 9 months and 9 days at the time of his death.

Besides his widow, he is survived by the following children: Glenn of Washburn; Jake C. and Byrd of Amarillo; Mrs. Carl Pitman of Clarendon, and T. R. Jr. who is yet at home.

HIGHWAY BIDS TO BE AWARDED ON NEXT MONDAY

Grade and Drainage From Clarendon East Soon To Materialize

The State Highway Commission at Austin Monday will award contracts for construction on three highway projects in Donley county.

Three-tenths of a mile will be in Clarendon within the city limits connecting the street pavement with the highway proper.

Twelve miles of grade and drainage is included in the second project from Clarendon to Hedley.

The third contract to be let Monday is for grade and drainage on 9.8 miles from Hedley to connect with the pavement two miles this side of Memphis.

While these contracts are only for grade and drainage which includes bridges, etc., appropriations have been made for topping or paving during 1935, it is learned from headquarters.

With the completion of this gap, and some that are now in process of construction in Hartley and Dallam county, the continuous highway from Denver to the Gulf will have been completed.

In other words, it will be possible to leave Donley county and reach any section of the nation over a highway that is of the "all weather" type.

Sons of American Legion Making Toys

A report coming to the Leader from C. B. (Cap) Morris states that the Sons of the Legion have gathered quite a number of toys for repair for the benefit of the underprivileged children this Christmas.

The toys are being repaired and new ones made so far as the material will permit. The lads are greatly in need of soft pine. Pieces of drygoods boxes will answer. Doll beds are being made of orange crates. Cans are used in the making of some toys.

In the long list of names given the Leader for publication last week, the name of Sullivan Cooper Jr. was inadvertently left off. Sullivan Jr. is rightly in the swim and we regret that the error crept in.

The toy factory is located in the kitchen department of the college dormitory building.

Blairs Market Good Mules At Ft. Worth Saturday

Ft. Worth affords a good mule market according to R. E. Blair and his son Harry Blair, local mule buyers. The mules are taken down by truck.

Fourteen head of choice mules were purchased from a party at Quitaque this week and some from Lon Rundell.

SIDELIGHTS

Windy Valley to Improve School Property

The relief application of the Windy Valley school to the amount of $329 has been approved, states Sloan Baker, county superintendent.

This sum will be spent for labor. The district will expend $160 for materials needed to complete the plans of improvement. Work outlined includes repairs to the roof of the school building. Woodwork of the building will be repaired inside and out. The garage at the teacherage will be enlarged. The citizens of that district propose to take every advantage of the offer to get their school property in first-class condition while the opportunity is at hand.

Union Services at Baptist Church Thursday

Union Thanksgiving services will be conducted at the First Baptist church Thursday morning at 10:30. Rev. J. Perry King, the pastor, first selected to preach the sermon has an engagement at Lubbock for that day. An effort is being made to secure Rev. E. D. Landreth, new pastor of the First Methodist church, to preach the special Thanksgiving sermon should he arrive on his new charge in time.

DR. COLLINS IS BANQUET SPEAKER MONDAY EVENING

Claremore Physician Came To Rescue Boy Scouts Last August

Possibly few of the Boy Scout party last August thought they would ever again see Dr. Collins who led the party of doctors and nurses who administered to them when suddenly attacked with what is said to have been a form of ptomaine poisoning on an Oklahoma hillside near Claremore.

As a slight token of gratitude, the boys and men of that party, and other appreciative citizens of Clarendon, have asked Dr. Collins to become principal speaker at the Fathers-Sons banquet here next Monday night. The Doctor has kindly accepted the invitation.

The Scout party will have another opportunity of seeing the man who came to their rescue on the return trip from the Chicago Fair. They will likely hear a dandy good talk by a man who has shown by his actions that he respects his profession and has a deep feeling for suffering humanity.

Harrison Simpson as president of the organization, will preside as toastmaster according to custom. This is the twelfth annual banquet of the fathers and sons, the first being held in the old Denver hotel at the call of Dr. B. L. Jenkins twelve years ago.

Judge S. W. Lowe will deliver the father's address in representing the fathers present. The Judge is said to have been rehearsing that speech this week in the wilds of New Mexico under the tutelage of county attorney R. Y. King. Those who hear him will no doubt hear a mighty good talk.

Nickey Stewart, member of the band and a thorough-going school boy will represent the boys in a talk that is going to take the folks by surprise.

Local Pastor Conducting Lecturship at Lella

Elder J. L. Standridge, pastor of the local Church of Christ, is conducting a lecturship on the Book of Acts at the Church of Christ at Lella Lake each Wednesday evening beginning at 7:30.

He also holds services for the same church at 3 p. m. each Sunday.

MANY EAGERLY SIGN PENSION PETITION HERE

Two Petitions Circulated Bear 453 Names at Close Wednesday Night

Petitions were continued in circulation here this week, several taking a turn in passing them around. J. A. Hewitt had petitions bearing four hundred and fifty-three names up to Wednesday. A petition is also being circulated in the Hedley section this week.

Petitions are being circulated for signatures all over the nation with a view of asking congress to endorse the Townsend plan of old age pensions at the next session in January.

Several thousand names are signed to petitions circulated over the Panhandle the past week. These petitions will be collected at some central point and sent to Congressman Marvin Jones, it is said.

D. Wylie Chapman of Dallas, executive secretary, and E. T. Wall of Berger, district organizer of the Texas Association of Old Age Pensions were here Wednesday.

"There are many reasons why the pensions should be granted, and no reason why they should not," Mr. Chapman said.

The Texas organization is affiliated with a national organization, that has for its purpose the securing of pensions for men and women over the age of sixty. The Townsend plan, as explained in the Leader recently, provides for a pension of $200 per month, all of which must be spent each month.

Sunnyview Community Plans School Improvement

Principal Dave Waldron presided at a community meeting held recently at the Sunnyview school for the purpose of discussing the issuance of bonds in the sum of $1,000 for school improvement, the matter to be definitely decided soon.

The improvements are said to include a new roof to the school building, painting of woodwork inside and out and such other repairs as may be necessary to put the building in first-class condition.

By way of enjoyment, a short program was had and a wicker roast helped to make the meeting much more agreeable.

LANDRETH TO FILL METHODIST PASTORATE HERE

During Past Few Years Has Served Churches Hedley, Wheeler And Memphis

Quite a number of changes were made in locations of ministers of the Methodist church at the close of the West Texas conference Sunday.

Rev. E. D. Landreth, who has filled the Methodist pastorate at Memphis for more than a year, becomes pastor of the First Methodist church of Clarendon.

He succeeded at Memphis by Dr. Geo. S. Slover, former president of old Clarendon College.

Few men have enjoyed the experience of such a sudden rise in the ministry as has Rev. Landreth, and few pastors are so popular with his people as he.

Only a few years ago he began his ministry in this section at Hedley where he served four years. Wheeler was his next station from where he was appointed to the pastorate of the Memphis church. Besides Mrs. Landreth, the family consists of two sons of school age. The family has occupied a popular position at Memphis and it is freely predicted that the present work will be a stepping stone to higher and more responsible positions in Methodism.

Rev. E. B. Bowen, who served the local church for four years, becomes pastor of the Lamesa church.

Rev. T. S. Barcus becomes presiding elder of this district after last filling a pastorate at Sweetwater, and where he is succeeded by Rev. M. M. Beavers, former presiding elder here.

The Barcus name is a household word in Methodist homes in Texas. Rev. T. S. Barcus being the youngest of five brothers, four of whom are ministers. He is a brother of Rev. J. Sam Barcus, first president of old Clarendon College here.

Rev. W. T. Lackey will continue on the local circuit where he has faithfully served for some years. Rev. Lackey is a hard worker, very earnest and one of those whole-souled kind of fellows whom every one respects and likes.

Hedley will continue with Rev. E. V. Hendrix, one of the very ablest pastors ever to fill that station, a likeable fellow in whom the public places much confidence. His efforts have met with success and it looks like he will fill out the four year allotted term for Methodist pastors without disappointment.

Other pastors of the Clarendon district are: Lakeview G. H. Gattis; Lefors L. H. Jones; McLean, N. U. Stout; Mobeetie, G. T. Keever; Quitaque, W. W. Riley; Shamrock, C. E. Jameson; Turkey, H. W. Barnett; Wellington, T. M. Johnston, circuit C. D. Dameron; Wheeler, J. E. Kirby; Skellytown, H. H. Bratcher; Missionary to Japan, Sam Hilburn. Conference evangelist, B. L. Lance. Student in McMurry college, Dennis Lawson.

Mrs. J. C. Estlack and son Homer made a trip to Hobbs, New Mexico the last of the week. A. Estlack, father of the editor returned with them Sunday for an indefinite visit.

Leader Day Earlier Next Week

Thursday of next week being Thanksgiving Day, the Leader will come out on Wednesday. Correspondents will please send in items a day earlier that their readers will not be disappointed.

Advertisers will please take note of the advance date and have copy ready a day earlier.

We will appreciate the cooperation of all those who help make the Leader the most widely read weekly in the Panhandle. Phone or write in your news items, but please remember that the paper will be printed and mailed Wednesday instead of Thursday next week.

BADGE SALE FOR LEGION MEET TO BEGIN DEC. 7TH

Badge Will Entitle Wearer To Share in Dance, Show And Barbecue

Citizens who are not legionaires will have the privilege of participating in festivities of the American Legion Convention here December 8th and 9th.

The local Post has unanimously voted to sell registration badges to all local people who wish to enjoy the fun and frolic of the district convention.

You will be solicited to buy a registration badge either on Friday December 7th or on Saturday morning of the 8th. The fee is $1.00. With the badge will be given tickets to the official dance, the picture show, and the barbecue dinner.

Hudgins Community to Issue Bonds for School

A bond issue to the amount of $1,500 is proposed in the Hudgins district following a community meeting at the school building recently, and over which O. L. Jacobs presided.

An additional room will be built on the west side of the present building. A stage will be built as the one now in use is said to be entirely too small to meet the demands of the present school population.

New school equipment of several kinds will also be added. It is said that a paint job is included bringing the building up to the appearance of the other better rural schools of the county.

Glenn Churchman to Become Assistant Tax Collector

After serving his people as principal of the Churchman rural school in Hall county for the past three years, Glenn Churchman has resigned to accept a position with Joe Bownds as assistant tax assessor-collector. He will begin work here January 1st.

Mrs. Ruby Lee Henry becomes principal of the Churchman school. She has been a grade teacher in the school for some time.

Glenn is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Churchman of this city, grew up in the Brice country and received much of his education in the Clarendon schools.

Lad of 11 Suffers Injury To Eye Saturday

While playing Saturday, Ernest aged 11 and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eudy, ran into a barbed wire fence. A barb cut the lid of the left eye necessitating three stitches to close the wound. Except for losing time from school, the lad is doing nicely.

REPORTS SHOW RAINFALL VARIES OVER PANHANDLE

Sleet and Snow is Reported From Muleshoe Section To Levelland

The rainfall over Donley county Tuesday night averaged approximately a half inch. This was followed by freezing temperatures Wednesday night.

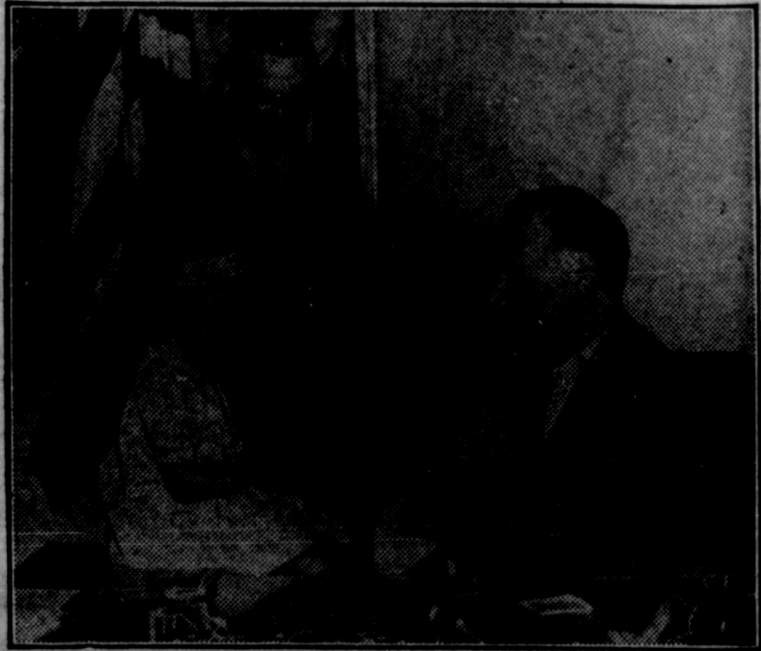

Snow and sleet was reported Wednesday morning at Muleshoe and south to Levelland with flurries at Brownfield and Plainview as the out edges of the cold wave.

Groom got the second good rain within ten days putting winter pastures in good condition. A general rain extended from Texline to Wichita Falls, but varied in several places being lightest from Memphis to Quanah.

Moore county received a half inch according to reports and Dalhart was included as gradually getting back to normal moisture.

The heaviest fall yet reported was in Erisco county where a two inch fall was noted rendering highways almost impassable.

Enrolling the President

Five-year-old Phyllis Smith patches on President Roosevelt's desk to hand to the Chief Executive his annual membership card in the American Red Cross as that organization's annual Roll Call gets under way throughout the nation. Acting Chairman James L. Flesher of the Red Cross looks on as the President renews his membership.

Hire one man to kill another, and you hang. Hire a million men to kill tens of thousands, and you finally get a monument after leaving to your heirs millions of dollars in war profits.

MENTAL CONGLOMERATIONS.

The average American condemns his government in times of peace for the wicked waste of armament. In times of crisis, the same people will condemn the government for a lack of protection.

China had made little or no preparation for defense. Japan scuffed her around and over and finally took Manchuria with some smaller additional territory.

In all history, the weak nations have been imposed upon. America will have far less trouble with her neighbors if she will prepare for any eventuality, and above all, have an air force that will cope with anything.

MENTAL QUALMS BEFORE THE STORM.

John Garner, hunter of Uvalde county, fell out of a tree while deer hunting last week. He is expected to have quite a bit to say when he gets to Washington soon after the first of the new year. Besides being a deer hunter, Garner happens to be vice president of these United States.

Whether the fall from the tree imparted a mental light to the man of the hill country, we are unable to say, but he is expected to secede from his cataleptic state at this session and tell the folks a few things.

Sensing this, we have no lesser mental giant than the redoubtable Senator Wm. E. Borah who rises up to say as how "more has been spent in administering relief than the amount of relief administered." All along we had been under the impression that this had been the rule rather than the exception. This conclusion, however, had been based upon public opinion rather than on first-hand knowledge.

Borah has been in public eye since his district attorneyship back in 1906 when he honestly prosecuted Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, prominent leader officials of the American Federation of Labor for the alleged murder of Governor Schulenburg. The officials were not directly connected with any crime, and Borah refused to stoop to any "high pressure" to secure their conviction.

No one has seen fit to question the honesty or ability of Wm. E. Borah except a few of his republican friends who question his mental status for having become independent of the party lash. In fact Borah "speaks right out in Meetin'" when he gets good and ready, and has something on which to base his opinion.

Borah tells us over the radio that in one western county, it cost $572 to hand $4 worth of relief to the needy. In another county it cost $76 to administer relief and the amount administered was $6.

Borah thinks that is a one-sided affair, and demands that something be done about it. He has submitted enough to national administrator Hopkins to set Hopkins running around in circles.

To have Borah telling facts to the 'cockeyed' world is no little problem to cope with.

"In another middle western city 806 officials administer relief at a salary expense of $1,500,000 a year," he tells the people.

You would think that was a plenty to worry some one, but the next charge is even worse.

"In another city of the middle west they have 1,506 employees administering relief at a cost of $2,000,000 a year in the central office."

Then to cap the climax, Senator Borah winds up by saying:

"It is an unpleasant duty, but there is no higher duty resting upon a public official than to give voice to the millions in distress who can not speak effectively for themselves."

Yep, there will be plenty of fireworks when the national law-making bodies meet in January.

THAT PRINTER'S CODE

"Consistency, thou are a jewel," is still as true today as when first uttered. The government sought to "code" the printers, some joining in the movement, while some never have "paid their dues," while at the same time the government sought "the lowest bids" on all its work done outside the government printing offices and going into business against the private printing concerns and printing envelopes at a price of about half of what the "code" says the private concern can do it at. Really, it is more than amusing how things have developed under the various "codes." And while making it "look like" they are seeking to save all the money possible, they continue to "dole" out unnecessary and wasteful funds in the way of salaries to many who need no relief at all, while those in actual need go unaided, though all this unknown to our President.

—Clay County Leader.

Relief Sewing Rooms Will Make Comforters

Austin, Nov. 20.—Sewing rooms operated by the Texas Relief Commission shortly will begin the manufacture of 168,000 comforters for the state's needy families, it has been announced by A. C. Allen, director of production, who said 1,225,000 yards of comforter covering already have been delivered to sewing rooms over the state.
Comforter bats are being delivered at the rate of three carloads daily, the first having been distributed in the vicinity of Lamar county, where manufacture of comforters has been started.
In addition to comforters, sewing rooms have received 143,500 yards of toweling and nearly 200,000 yards of sheeting for manufacture and later distribution to relief roll families. Also, 182,500 yards of 45-inch sheeting have been delivered for manufacture into pillow cases.

All of these commodities will be delivered to relief clients UNpriced and will not be charged against their budgets.

Allen reminded clients, however, that PRICED commodities, made up largely of meats, vegetables, fruits and miscellaneous foods canned at local canning plants and many items of wearing apparel made in the sewing rooms from material purchased by the Texas Relief Commission WILL be charged against budgets as issued.
All items made from surplus commodities furnished by the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation are issued UNpriced, not changeable against budgets of clients.

Pigs Play Big Part In Texas Independence

Austin, Texas, Nov. 18.—Texas possibly might have been celebrating the hundredth year of her independence from Mexico in 1936 as a Republic rather than as one of the forty-eight States of the Union, had it not been for pigs—the pigs of Innkeeper Bullock of Austin, which ate up the corn in the barnyard of the French Minister, M. Alphonse de Saligny, who reported the lamentable incident to his brother-in-law, the French Minister of Finance, M. Humann, who in turn influenced the French banking house of J. Lafitte & Co. to refuse a loan to Texas, which would have relieved the financial embarrassment of the young Republic and doubtless have enabled it to remain an independent nation.

The financial affair of Texas, in 1840 were going from bad to worse. Already the Republic's paper money amounted to $7,000,000. There was no gold or silver in her treasury with which to pay, and her credit was getting much below par. President Lamar dispatched Col. James Hamilton to Paris to attempt to secure a loan, which would have made possible the organization of a national bank. J. Lafitte & Co. eventually opened negotiations with Hamilton regarding the loan, and prospects looked so favorable that Texas imported an English financier and a former official of the United States bank to work out plans for a banking system.

But Mr. Bullock's pigs still were in the offing. His neighbor, M. de Saligny, had a number of horses, which he fed on corn. Mr. Bullock's pigs ran wild, intruded into the stables and ate as much corn as they could pick up. A servant of M. de Saligny killed one of the pigs and Mr. Bullock whipped the servant. This enraged M.

de Saligny, who had Bullock arrested.
The citizens of Austin ranged themselves staunchly on the side of the innkeeper, while M. de Saligny's complaints echoed to a far off France. He passed along to his brother-in-law, the Minister of Finance, his very low opinion of Texans and Texas in general. J. Lafitte & Co. shortly afterward had the inside story from the Minister of Finance, who frowned upon the proposed loan to Texas and Hamilton's efforts were thwarted. So Texas joined the Union and saved herself from bankruptcy.

Mrs. J. B. Baird and daughter, Mrs. Allen Beville and her daughter, Allene, returned home from a five weeks visit at San Antonio Monday.

GOOD BANKING BENEFITS THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

A very large part of the wealth of any community is entrusted to or handled through its banks. For that reason the security and dispatch that obtains in the varied business transactions of its citizens, is measured by the safety of the community's financial institutions and the character of the services they render.

Even those who are not bank depositors are affected by policies of bank management, and that is why a soundly managed bank receives the support of constructive public opinion. While the primary obligation of the Farmers State Bank is to its own depositors, it serves Clarendon and vicinity by providing good banking facilities to all who can make use of them.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Had you ever stopped to think how many thousands have been made habitual laxative "takers," or drug fiends by listening to a lot of high-powered rot over the radio?

An eastern college tired of criticism boasts of a star quarter back on their football team who knows how many times six times anything is up to the 12's. Some colleges are accused of trading credits, and even degrees, for football skill. This disproves the whole mess—one way or another.

The laziest man in the world has been located in Alabama. After he had lain in the park nine days, a committee from the "Lazy Man's Club" went out to see him. The spokesman opened up by saying: "Honored brother, you have been awarded the grand prize for being adjudged the laziest man in the world." The man lying down took little interest in the great honors suddenly thrust upon him, and simply said, "well turn me over and stick it in my hip pocket."

Bachelor Bill says that "listening to suggestions is cheaper than going to college, and about as valuable when it comes to changing it for bread and meat."

In speaking of a movie actor romance, a writer wrote up the wedding in which she said: "The romance jelled on Friday and they were clergy'd on Saturday." (P. S. Suggestion to society editors.)

Every time I hear of a 'kitchen shower,' I just wonder if two of the most important gifts were overlooked—a can opener and a charge account.

A down state editor when told that some who borrowed his paper knocked on him said: "Well, they have no right to criticise the dull edge of a borrowed tool."

Love or politics can make people do and say more fool things than any other two things in the English or any other language.

A fellow showing his friend around Austin last week took him past the new highway building. "What is that stately affair used for," he asked. "Oh, that is the Texas steal works" the witty escort replied.

Often within a month after the elopement, the old boy sits down and wonders what all the rush was about.

Nothing can happen to you or me that has not already happened to hundreds. Write down your worst fears. After six months you will be surprised how few of them have been actually realized.

Take as much "pains" as you please with a cucumber salad, you can't take any more than those who eat it.

Since there is quite a bit of talk of junking the old parties, we suggest that two new ones be started out right now in plenty of time. We could call one Ford and the other General Motors. They already have plenty of rivalry conflict and suspicion and think what a political platform some of the car salesmen could write!

When the minister arose to preach he chanced to notice that the rats had destroyed the first four pages of his notes. In his opening remarks he announced that he had a dandy sermon outlined but would have to begin "where the rats left off."

Many a preacher felt lost when corsets went out of style. Some of them had the dandiest corset sermons I ever listened too and they were right about it too. As a mere suggestion why can't they take to preaching on the subject of women trying to "outstrip" each other?

Member way back when some folks got so high-toned they had cups and saucers to match?

And it used to be gin and bit- ters and now it is gin and jitters.

Europeans come over here to lecture, and our folks go over there to see ruins. Funny, ain't it?

Fanny Fallyure in discussing Bachelor Bill with Sheza Fizzal Sunday, could not understand why whiskers got gray when the hair did, when the whiskers are twenty years younger. (P. S. This is a problem for the Home Ec. class.)

Next Monday night is the annual occasion of the Father-Son banquet. It is in a sense a time set apart when we drag out our latent sense of appreciation that has lain dormant perhaps all the remainder of the year. Gratitude is a wonderful faculty in the human mind. There is such a small amount that, like radium, it is considered very valuable. On this night we will have with us Dr. B. F. Collins of Claremore, Oklahoma. That is Will Roger's old home town made great because of both Will and the Doctor. Will makes us laugh after the doctors get us in shape to function for a laugh.

You will recall back there in the summer when a bunch of boys and a few of our men made a trip to the big Chicago fair in a truck. Well, fate stepped in to hand them a dirty deal on a hill side over in Oklahoma near Claremore. They drank lemonade from a cream can or something and got ptomaine poisoning or something. Anyhow, they all got in a bad way almost to a man—or boy—and needed help. Dr. Collins responded to the call. Not only did he come but he got other doctors and nurses to help. All of them worked just like they were hired to mend the broken bodies of millionaires and would not accept a penny from this Boy Scout bunch. What a noble deed!

There is mighty little of that kind of stuff left in any one, but these professional folks got the job done while my boy and yours needed 'em and needed 'em badly. While we were sleeping here at home serenely expecting to see our bunch get in next day they were stretched out over that hillside—well more than stretched out.

A lot of us wrote letters to those doctors and nurses and poured out our gratitude, the least that one could do for a big favor.

Now Dr. Collins is to come in person and talk to us next Monday night. It will be a big night for the doctor when we gang up around him to thank him in a body. Won't he be proud of his job? Wish all those doctors and nurses could be here to see our folks and hear us tell 'em how much we appreciate what they did for us when we were helpless.

Come out folks, come out! No matter where you live in old Donley, bring at least one son and come. If you do not have a son, bring a'long some son who has no father to bring him. But come! It's a mighty good time to play the part of "big brother" to some boy who would get a great kick out of a big show. Then Dr. Collins will be the main speaker and tell us what he thinks about our crowd as he saw them on the hill side.

Early Spanish Explorations In North Texas

Wichita Falls, Nov. 14.—Wichita Falls in planning its observance of the Centennial of Texas' independence in 1936, when celebrations are to be held in San Antonio, Houston, Goliad, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, Gonzales, Galveston, Dallas and other cities of the State, bases its claims to recognition as the gateway of the Santa Fe expeditions and explorations in the Sixteenth century, offering nearly four centuries of history as an incentive of its commemoration of the hundredth birthday of Texas.

On the premise that it was entirely possible that Coronado, in 1541, was near the present location of this city at the confluence of the Wichita and Red Rivers, it is recalled that this was 79 years before the Pilgrim Fathers landed at Plymouth Rock and 144 years before La Salle landed on Texas soil.

Parilla, in 1759, starting from a point on the Camino Real, at where Menard today is located, moved up to the site of the present Wichita Falls, while in 1774, Gagnard went up the Red River from the Caddo reservation in Arkansas or Louisiana to the mouth of the Wichita. To the same spot, in 1778, De Mezieres proceeded from old Nacogdoches.

Also to this spot, in 1786, came Vial from what is now San Antonio, going on, in 1787 to Santa Fe. In 1788, he returned, accompanied by Frago and Fernandez, stopping at the site of Wichita Falls, before proceeding to the Natchitoches settlement in Louisiana. Mares came here in 1787, traveling eastward from Santa Fe and, in 1789, returned on his way back to the West.

Located in the river valleys of this section, those early explorers found the Taovayas Indians and in later years Doan's crossing of the Red River became a famous Texas landmark as the Texas end of the famous Chisholm Trail.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Another of those delightful affairs was a birthday party given Thursday night by Mrs. Chester Martin honoring her daughter, Fern at their home near Lella Lake.

A galaxy of Thanksgiving decorations were used giving the rooms an appearance of the gay festive season of harvest time and turkey.

Guests of the young lady completely taken by surprise were her junior high school classmates and several other friends. New games never before tried out were an innovation and a delight.

E. V. Cooper sang an "improvised" birthday song as the birthday cake was being brought to the table, much to the delight of his audience.

A copious plate luncheon was served the guests. At a late hour, the guests departed wishing for their popular young friend many another such happy birthdays.

How do you regard the Sabbath? To many people it is just another day wasted away. A Holy Day is meaningless to an unholy life. Of all the days of the year our Lord regards the Sabbath day the most significant. He says, "Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy." We remember many other days with a great deal more reverence than we do Sunday. Let's reverse our attitude and begin next Lord's Day to give it pre-eminence above all days and take a full Sabbath day's journey toward the better land. Be in your place in your church and be partaker of the mutual benefits derived. You will be helped, your family will be happy, and the community will be benefitted.

We welcome with a great deal of joy and enthusiasm the coming of the new Methodist pastor. On every hand and from every source we hear good things about him, his work, and splendid family. The splendid little city in the foot-hills of the Plains, better known as Clarendon, is to be congratulated upon securing such an addition to her citizenship. We wish for and predict, for the old historic First Methodist Church a great year under the leadership of this splendid young pastor and his wife.

You are cordially invited to worship in any or all of the services at the Baptist Church, which convene at the following hours:

Sunday School—9:45 a. m.
Judge S. W. Lowe, Supt.
Preaching at 11:00 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. by the pastor.
Training Service—6:15 p. m.
Miss Vada Waldron, Director.

Mail Man Discovers Druth Absolutely Broken

Gusts of dust that have plagued John Smithy, transporter of mail from Clarendon to Silverton and "viceversa" all the summer, is no more. This information is given out from no other authentic source than Mr. Smithy himself.

His scheduled hour of arrival on the return trip is about three p. m. but he "wadded" in about seven Wednesday evening. It took him three and a half hours to use that stretch of highway from Silverton to the Caprock. He placed special emphasis on the "use" phase of his description. His narration of actual experiences have been deleted by the national board of newspaper censors. The rainfall over there is said to have been two inches.

Jericho Pie Supper Nets School $78.50

While the above amount is credited to the sale of pies, about $18 of that amount came through the sale of votes in attempting to determine the best looking lady present.

Miss Doris Rogers, teacher of the school there, was adjudged the prettiest lady present. Not being in a position to determine on any "ugliest" man present, the blame was laid on Paul Reeves who was honored by ballot with being the "laziest" man present.

Not the least by any means in making the collector collect, was the juvenile rhythm band in costume putting on an Armistice program. The youngsters certainly got on the map from all accounts.

Mrs. Lee Morrison is on the sick list this week.

John Simmons of the Windy Valley community was in town Tuesday.

The Fairview school again resumed sessions Monday. E. H. Estlack is principal and Mrs. Edwin Eanes is assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Kemp and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cauthen visited relatives in Chillicothe Sunday.

Mesdames U. J. Boston, Tom Goldston, Rayburn Smith, A. A. Mayes and Joe Ella Stewart returned from Austin Saturday evening. They attended the State Federation of Women Club while there.

WINDY VALLEY SCHOOL NEWS

There was a community singing at the school house Sunday, Nov. 18th. There was some good singing from Bray, Hedley, Lelia Lake and Chamberlain. We hope everyone enjoyed the singing and will come back and practice with us from ten till eleven o'clock next Sunday morning.

On Monday November 26th, we are going to repair the school house, paint the inside of the building, put in new doors and windows.

The seventh grade are making a health and other note books. In English they organized a G. E. C. Good English Club. They had to read three library books before they could join.

The eighth grade is going along very nicely. We have had several oral reports in English and other studies. We have to read four books a month and the ones that read the most besides the others gets a prize.

U. G. and Jearl Swiney came back to school after being absent for quite awhile.

We are sorry to lose George Starks, who turned in his books Friday. He is moving to East Texas. Good luck George.

We have been studying about Robert Louis Stevenson, who wrote so many pretty poems for us. For third grade English, we wrote a story about his life and memorized "The Land of Counterpane." Ara Paulk had the best story and Mrs. Batson put it on the bulletin board. We are learning to write letters.

We want all of our parents to come to our program next Wednesday night, November 28th. We will show you what we can do and tell you a number of things about Thanksgiving.

INTERMEDIATE INCIDENTS
Mrs. A. A. Russell visited with us Friday afternoon. We hope she will come again and often.

Prizes for the month in reading classes were given in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades to Robie Lee Russell, Paul Sargent and Clela Riffle, respectively.

It was so dark Monday morning that we had to turn on the lights in our room to even play like we were studying.

The reason so many fifth and sixth grade students have gone around with long faces this week is supposed to be a secret, but it has been rumored that they had to write some parts of their English over, and over, and over until it was done exactly.

Interest and Crowds Increase At Church of Christ

Each service of the Church of Christ is well attended, according to a report from James L. Standridge, local minister. There have been three baptised and two restored since he began work with this congregation. More than one hundred are attending his lectures each Thursday night at 7:30 on the book of Hebrews. Twenty-eight were present last Thursday morning at 9:45 for that Bible class. The congregation also meets each Tuesday night for song practice. Those who love good singing enjoy this service.

Last Sunday morning the minister's subject was "Son, Remember." At the evening service he discussed the question "Is one church just as good as another?"

The subjects announced for next Sunday, November 25th at 11 a. m. are "Crossing the Sea," and at 7:30 p. m., "Is There Anything in a Name?" Standridge invites his hearers to bring note paper and pencil as he will give book, chapter, and verse from the Bible on these important questions.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duncan visited her sisters, Mrs. M. M. Pounds and Mrs. J. W. Vallance in Memphis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chunn of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Chunn of Groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chunn and children of Amarillo, and L. B. Chunn and children of Hedley visited Mrs. R. A. Chunn and son Dick here Tuesday.

ROUT OIL BOOTLEGGERS

Sinclair Dealers defeat motor oil substitution with new TAMPER-PROOF can

Motor oil bootleggers are clever! By hook or by crook they've managed here and elsewhere to substitute inferior oils—even "reclaimed" crankcase drainings—for motor oils of honest reputation. Some authorities estimate that as much as 25% of all motor oil sold in America today is "bootleg".

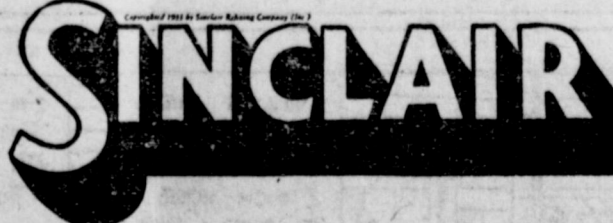

But Sinclair dealers here have met this menace. They serve you from the new Sinclair 1-quart or 5-quart Tamper-Proof can—a can that can't be opened for serving you without smashing it beyond all repair. And it's smashed before your very eyes.

These cans come to the dealer straight from the Sinclair refinery where they are filled (and sealed) with Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, mellowed 80 million years, or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil, "mellowed a hundred million years". They're dirt-proof, contamination-proof—and an absolute guarantee against motor oil substitution.

Protect yourself—get your money's worth—ask for Sinclair Motor Oil in the Tamper-Proof can. This service costs you nothing extra.

America Suffers Eighty Times Each Year From Major Disasters, Red Cross Reports

RECORDS which date back a quarter of a century listing the disaster relief operations of the American Red Cross show that an average of eighty major catastrophes, menacing life and property, occur each year in the United States.

The type of disaster hazard of greatest frequency is the tornado. Red Cross records show that these dangerous windstorms, originating largely in the hills and mountains of the Middle West, occur most often in the spring months, but also may wreak havoc in southern states in winter months.

During the past year 25 such storms occurred. For the first time in decades the frequency of the tornado was equalled by another type of catastrophe—forest fires. Due to the drought stricken condition of the west, 25 grave forest fires occurred and but for the vigilance of various agencies, including the forest rangers, the Red Cross and the work of the Civilian Conservation Corps, vast acreage of forests would have been denuded by the flames.

Red Cross records show, however, that the two most devastating disasters of the year resulted from a hurricane and tidal wave which struck the Gulf Coast of Texas, taking 36 lives and a freak flood which washed down from the mountains in Los Angeles County sweeping 44 persons to death.

The tornado is the most frequent catastrophe causing loss of life and property. These remarkable photographs show three stages of one of these storms which struck in Oklahoma.

A new record for frequency of hurricanes was established during the year when the Weather Bureau recorded 21 of these tropical cyclones. Five reached the United States mainland, striking between August 4 and September 16, 1933. For the first time in many years one of these tropical disturbances caused devastation as far up the Atlantic Coast as Maryland. In the latter storm the Red Cross aided 1,564 families, of whom 1,069 were in the Chesapeake Bay region.

In all, 32 states suffered some type of disaster during the year. The Red Cross aided 119,000 persons in these states and expended $1,567,048 in relief to them. Of this sum $647,300 was appropriated from the treasury of the national organization.

Serious floods in Idaho, Washington and in Iowa; a malarial epidemic in Louisiana; typhoid in Vermont; a school bus crash in Florida, which killed eleven children; and two explosions—one of oil tanks in Rhode Island and another of a sawmill boiler in Missouri—all required their measures of Red Cross assistance.

An important task undertaken by the Disaster Relief Service of the Red Cross during the year was development of broader preventive measures against catastrophes, through holding 28 training schools in which were assembled more than two thousand persons. They discussed particular hazards of the areas represented, and plans for meeting calls should disaster strike.

All of the Red Cross disaster work is supported through the annual roll call, held from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving. By joining the Red Cross as a member every adult citizen participates in this vital humanitarian work of relief.

Pieces of Plank Wanted By Toy Builders

A request comes from the boys who are making toys in the Dormitory building. This request asks for pieces of soft plank with which the boys will fashion toys for the children who will need toys at Christmas time, and have no other method of getting them.

Odds and ends will be most acceptable. If you have any old toys, or any material, call C. B. Morris or any of the boys whose names were published in the Leader last week and some one will be glad to call for the materials.

A. L. Fisk was down from Groom Monday reporting a big rain of more than two inches and the wheat looking fine.

They stop the chariot, and both go down into the water, the one who has been commissioned to baptise, baptises the one who needs to be baptised for remission of sin. They come up out of the water and both go on their respective ways. This is indeed very plain. The only thing we must yet ascertain is just what did the preacher do when he baptised the sinner. In other words what was the specific action?

Mr. and Mrs. Meaders and Miss Katie Meaders, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meaders and children, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Williams and children and the two Mr. Seaton and wives, left immediately for Wellington. THE EGG FACTORY diagram showing egg components and text: Scratch grains build the yolks, laying mash the whites and shell membranes. With only one day to build whites and shell membranes, and no method of storing them, it's absolutely necessary that the hen get laying mash every day. Too, the mash must contain white and shell membrane building material.

Hens Need White-Making Material to Lay Eggs

White, yolk, shell—that seems to be about all there is to an egg. But the job of building, of putting together is not so simple. It is started by nature but helped or hindered by man, states Mr. E. B. Powell of the Research Division of Purina Mills, Gray Summit, Missouri.

Take the yolks. They are in the chick the day it is hatched. That is the way breeding fixes a hen's lifetime laying ability.

Broadly speaking, egg yolks are developed from scratch feeds or grain. Scratch feed alone contains little white-making material. But, eggs can't be turned out containing yolks alone. A hen can't lay half an egg. The Missouri state poultry experiment station says that hens fed grain alone lay an average of only five eggs a month.

The Texas experiment station says, "Actual feeding trials have shown that the best of hens cannot eat enough grain to produce more than 80 eggs a year. The common grains contain more fat producing elements but not enough of the principal egg-forming element called protein for most economical production."

It takes 14 days for a hen to develop yolks to full size but only one day to develop white and shell. That is why you find a cluster of yolks of varying sizes in a hen but no whites or shells. The hen must build the white and shell each day.

The laying mash for the most part makes the whites. There is some yolk making material in the mash feed but, fundamentally, mash is the part of the ration that makes the whites. The hen cannot store surplus white-making material in her body and draw on it later as she can the yolk-making material. She must get it day by day.

And when she does receive ample white-making material, what a difference it makes in the rate the hen puts the finished eggs together! The Missouri experiment station shows that hens fed a laying mash with scratch feed laid an average of 128 eggs per month. That is 12.8 more eggs per month than those fed grain alone. At the Oklahoma experiment station, hens fed on a balanced ration of mash and grain laid over three times as many eggs during the fall and winter months when egg prices are highest as an equal number of hens fed on grain alone. The hens fed on mash and grain also laid larger eggs, and their hatchability was increased.

Fourteen days to make yolks, but only one day for whites. A reserve stored in the body for yolks, but no reserve for whites. Every day, the hen must get the white-making material, mostly from the mash. No white, no egg is the way she performs. The mash, therefore, controls her laying.

A hen can only eat about a cupful of feed, both grain and mash, a day. Three-fourths of this goes to keep up her body and only one-fourth for building the eggs. With so little of the feed going for eggs, it is easy to see why it is so important that every mouthful of the mash contain plenty of white-making material.

When Wheeler County Was Frontier Settlement

Mobeetie, Texas, November 5.—The history of old Mobeetie and Wheeler County are being recalled in connection with plans for celebration of Texas' Centennial of independence in 1936 and the movement for the reconstruction of old Fort Elliott as a historical shrine.

The tearing down of Fort Elliott in 1900 destroyed one of the last of the series of posts constructed for the protection of settlers against Indians. Established in 1876, it was situated two miles west of old Mobeetie on Sweetwater Creek, and only a marker now designates the spot.

The town of Mobeetie dates back into history farther than the fort itself, for in 1875 when the wagons loaded with lumber and other materials came down from Dodge City, Kan., they stopped at a settlement called Hidetown, a supply point for buffalo hunters, which grew and finally was renamed Mobeetie, the Indian name for sweet water. Between 400 and 500 soldiers were stationed at the fort during the few years it was maintained as a military establishment, and settlers moved in from other locations to seek their protection. Billy Dixon, the scout, of whom it is said "he shot and killed an Indian a mile away," visited the fort as did many other men prominent in Texas history.

Of the early-day Mobeetie, a part of the old-time west ruled its outskirts, while the culture of the section centered in the town itself.

Among the earlier residents were Gov. J. N. Browning, Coe Grigsby, Temple Houston (a son of Sam Houston), L. D. Miller and Judge Willis. J. J. Long, who died in 1925, came to the county with Gen. Nelson A. Miles on an expedition against the Indians in 1874 and later drove the mail here from Dodge City. It was Long who purchased the Fort Elliott flagpole, which today stands on Mobeetie's main street, when the fort was torn down.

WASHINGTON'S ADVICE

Be courteous to all, but intimate with few; and let those few be well tried before you give them your confidence.

True friendship is a plant of slow growth, and must undergo and withstand the shocks of adversity before it is entitled to the appellation.

Let your heart feel for the affection and distresses of every one, and let your hand give in proportion to your purse; remembering always the estimation of the widow's mite, that it is not every one that asketh that deserveth charity; all however, are worthy of the inquiry, or the deserving may suffer.

Do not conceive that fine clothes make fine men, any more than fine feathers make fine birds. A plain, genteel dress is more admired, obtains more credit, than lace and embroidery, in the eyes of the judicious and sensible.

LUCKY GIRL

Her mother felt that family physicians and child specialists, and the hospitals must be right. A simple test that proves they are.

If anyone in your family is occasionally sluggish or constipated; especially any child, you should know this medical truth:

You cannot get safe relief with any medicine if you cannot regulate the dose. And to regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. With a liquid laxative, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition.

Why Doctors Use Liquid Laxatives

A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of natural laxative elements like senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves, not make matters worse.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drug-store. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better than you have in a long time.

If you will risk sixty cents to discover the natural, comfortable action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

Acting, Eating and Plenty Of Enervating Old-Time Music is Listed

As announced in last week's Leader, there will be a pie supper and program at the Chamberlain school four miles southeast of town tomorrow night, Friday, November the 23rd.

A large crowd of Chamberlain folks is expected and a cordial invitation is extended to those of surrounding communities and towns to be present. "A fine program and a good time is assured every one," Prof. Cooper tells the public.

A one-act play, "The Wedding," is being rehearsed for the occasion. The cast of the play includes several prominent Clarendon high school students and ex-Clarendon college students.

Included in the cast are Filora Wilson, Florine Bullard, Ella Mae Estes, J. B. Duckett, Wilfred Hott, Bobbie Wilson and J. Estes.

The Lelia Lake string band playing old-time tunes that you can feel "in your bones" is one of the pleasing attractions.

In addition to all the above, it is said that Supt. Kirk of the Lelia Lake school will auction off the pies. This may turn out to be the biggest attraction of the lot.

Ladies are requested to bring pies which will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. The funds will be used to purchase athletic and school ground equipment that has been sorely needed for some time. Again—don't forget the date, Friday night of this week.

Sons of any age will be eligible to join it is said.

Judge J. R. Porter will explain the aims and objects of the organization explaining fully to the youngsters the duties joining will entail.

Games in variety will help entertain and eat of a quantity and quality that satisfies will be there to show the boys a real lively time.

With the possible exception of slight variations, the program is outlined as follows by the Program Committee:

Invocation—Rev. J. Perry King. Orchestra—Billy Walker, Hubert Reavis, Nickey Stewart, Homer Taylor, Louise Smith.

Dinner—Served by Christian Church ladies.

Male Quartet.

Father's Address—Judge S. W. Lowe.

Response—Nickey Stewart.

Piano Solo—Bobby Leathers.

Duet—Tom Perkins, E. O. Bone.

Speaker of the Evening—Dr. B. F. Collins.

Then the "show down" comes off, as our old friend J. J. Goldston would say. The father having the most sons present will be given a chance to stand up and be seen with his flock.

According to past custom, the youngest father, the oldest father, and the greatest number of generations of male descendants each come in for a hearing. The youngest son is not overlooked and the proud father who can exhibit the youngest son present always gets plenty of applause.

The election of officers occasions quite a bit of interest.

Dean R. E. Drennon will lead the closing song, "God be with us till we meet again."

The big show starts promptly at 7 p. m. next Monday night in the basement of the First Christian church. Fathers and sons from all over the county are welcome, and they are urged to be present.

The ladies of the Christian church will serve the banquet meal. If you want to call it "dinner," that is your privilege. It will be up to par with anything in the past and those women folks never disappoint.

Tickets may be had of the special committee—Frank Whitlock and Homer Mulkey. If you fail to see them, you can get tickets at the Norwood Pharmacy or the Rexall drug store of Douglas & Goldston. The tickets will cost only fifty cents.

This break came when Frank Holtzclaw intercepted a Lefors pass on the Bronchos 30-yard line, racing the 70 yards, crossing the goal line standing up. Paul Greene added the extra point with a beautiful place kick.

The team as a whole played one of the best games of the season, much of the credit being due to the excellent coaching of J. L. Kerby, mentor of the Broncho squad.

The Northwest Texas conference now has a total membership of 68,894 and has 319 church buildings valued at approximately $4,000,000. The past year, presiding elders were paid a total of nearly $34,000, and preachers $234,000. The conference raised $724,000, an increase of slightly over $20,000 as compared with last year. The benevolences this year exceeded those of 1933 by more than $700.

Motorist Exploded!

When you have accepted your car from a garage after a repair job has been done, how often have you been disappointed. You have heard the expression, "I exploded." Some men almost explode at the charges, but oftener at the quality of job they get.

We make a close estimate of the cost of the repair job so that the owner will know in advance what he is expected to pay. Then we guarantee the job to stand up after we turn the car back to the owner. We even keep up with it for several days to see that the customer is satisfied.

We have skilled mechanics—plenty of machinery for doing a good job—know you will be satisfied and send us more business. Bring in your car now—today. The charges will be within your means and we need you for a booster.
