Ashtola Leads Rural Schools of Donley County In Standardization Requirements

School Correspondent Calls Attention to Factors Upon Which Claims Are Based, and Cites Major Activities With Results Enumerated

The following interesting story of the progress of the public school of Ashtola is contributed by the Leader's school correspondent there. Publication is given to lend further encouragement to the good citizens of the Ashtola community, and to furnish information and inspiration for the other rural schools.

"With the beginning of the Ashtola public school in August, 1934 under the responsibility of Robert G. Dillard, a great project—"Standardization"—came into view. As the school was not what it could be, we decided to build it up, to extend, to regulate, to make it more valuable and become the first standardized rural school in Donley county.

This year we feel that we were extraordinarily fortunate in receiving Robert Dillard, Pauline Shelton, Mary Lee Garland and Hazel Cole as our instructors. They have proved to be dependable and just, and at the same time, working to the best of their ability for the improvement of this school, and its pupils.

Aside from the teachers, there are two other groups that have contributed tremendously in making it possible for us to score 912 points on our score card. We failed to get recognition this year, but will be the first without fail next year. These points were made possible only by the combined cooperation of the teachers, trustees and pupils. Our trustees are Mes-

Oil Geologist Killed Near Swinburn Home Sunday

John W. McGee of Victor, Colorado was killed instantly, and J. G. Ward of Amarillo was slightly injured Sunday night while on their way to Amarillo when the right hub of their car struck a concrete culvert in front of the R. S. Swinburn home near Ashtola.

The car turned over and the right front door was smashed in the impact. Ward was driving.

McGee's body was brought to Clarendon. It was found that his neck was broken. Mr. Swinburn hearing the noise rushed out and reached the men about the time McGee died.

Ward was brought to Adair hospital where his injuries were pronounced as not serious. The families of both men came down later in the night.

COMEDY PLAY AT ANTELOPE SCHOOL WEDNESDAY NITE

Public Invited to Enjoy Three Act Comedy By Pupils and Elders

If the name has anything to do with indicating the character of the play, the comedy show in the three acts to be shown at the Antelope school south of Brice next Wednesday night, the 16th, will be what may rightly be termed a "humdinger."

"The Little Clothopper", is the undignified title of the play in which seven main characters are to appear. Others will enter the program period from a specialty standpoint.

Along with the show, good music of the mountain variety is said to be scheduled for a prominent place.

That community has a large auditorium, stage and curtains for properly staging most any kind of a play. This is the first play of the season. The public is cordially invited to enjoy the efforts of pupils and teachers of the Antelope school and will find a royal welcome awaiting them.

Ansel Burton is principal and Mrs. Carrie Bullock has charge of the primary grades.

Mosley Says People Have Money for Necessities

"Sure the people have money with which to buy good live stock, farm tools, furniture and other things they need at an auction sale," said M. W. Mosley, auctioneer of Hedley and former sheriff for two terms and tax collector the past two years until January 1st.

"The folks up at the Wiley sale near Goodnight Wednesday snapped up over $800 worth of stock, plow tools and miscellaneous items in a little over two hours", was the report of Mosley when he came back through town.

He also conducted a fine sale at Hedley last Saturday and expects to duplicate it again this coming Saturday, he says.

Donley County Singing Convention Elects

A large crowd was present for the session held at Chamberlain Sunday. Newt Waldron was elected president of the Convention for the year 1935. Mr. Waldron has taken an active interest in the organization since it was started.

L. H. Earthman was elected secretary-treasurer, and R. W. Alewine chaplain.

The convention will convene at the Goldston schoolhouse the first Sunday in February as the next meeting.

Rehabilitation Measures Become Active Here

Out of 174 applications for rehabilitation relief from Donley county, 74 were approved and 75 definitely turned down. Then 25 more are being held up pending further information.

On these small rural farms that are to be leased by the government and sub-rented to tenants, the acreage ranges from 10 to 40 acres. Seventeen such plots of land have been submitted. Six new houses are to be built and 11 more repaired in order that they may be made more habitable.

Find Coupe Stripped, Burned and Abandoned

The Sheriff's department found a gray 1930 Model A Ford abandoned on the Sawyer land east of the Salt Fork bridge and it was brought to town for further identification.

The coupe had been stripped, license plates removed, engine number disfigured and set on fire. Sheriff Pierce is seeking the owner through the identification bureau at Dallas.

District Judge Fires Gave Charge From Bed

District Judge A. J. Fires, who is confined to his bed by orders of his physician, delivered his charge to the grand jury Monday at his residence in Childress. The jurymen visited the Judge at his bedside, received his charge and then returned to the courthouse to begin work in the January term of the District Court.

Judge Fires has appointed Judge R. H. Cocke of Wellington to fill his place on the bench during his illness after being advised that he must remain in bed six weeks. His condition is not serious, it is said.

County Commissioners Will Discuss County Agent

Monday of next week has been set as the day to determine the status of a county agent for Donley county, if one shall be employed and whom.

Present commissioners who have expressed their opinions, desire to leave the matter wholly up to the public as to what shall be done about the matter. Various recommendations have been made them, and many more are expected between this date and next Monday.

BIBLE HISTORY PROGRAM WILL BE HEARD SUNDAY

Celebration of Translation By Martin Luther Main Topic of Observance

Arrangements are about complete for the unified services of the churches of Clarendon to join in celebrating the 400th anniversary of the translation of the Bible by Martin Luther. The people of Clarendon have been looking forward for this service for some time.

Several ministers of the city will have a part on this program bringing addresses on the Bible. Its various translations and how the English Bible has been brought down to us of this age. The American Bible Society has furnished "Responsive Readings" advertisements, cards and an illustrated lecture for this occasion. The lecture consists of 52 slides dealing with the Bible and how it is printed and delivered to every race of people. The title of this lecture is: "The Old Book Among New Friends."

The American Bible Society serves the world in the distribution of Bibles and portions of the Bible and this work is carried on by contributions from the friends of the "Book of Books." A special offering will be received at the services Sunday night for this work.

Services will be held in the First Christian Church and will begin at seven o'clock. A pleasing program has been arranged and the public is invited to attend.

The revival at the Methodist church will take care of any overflow crowd. The arrangements for both gatherings were agreed upon among the pastors in a ministerial meeting held Monday.

Special Lecture Thursday Night at Church of Christ

"The Tabernacle a Type of the New Testament Church" will be the subject of a special lecture at the church of Christ Thursday night, January 10th (tonight). A blackboard chart will be used in connection with the lecture in order that the lesson may be easily understood by all. James L. Standridge has been delivering a series of lectures on the book of Hebrews, studying one chapter each Thursday night. All the lessons have been interesting, but the lesson Thursday night promises to be the most interesting of the series. The public is invited. Service begins at 7:30.

"We have always had the thorough cooperation of the law-abiding citizens of the county, and we thank them most heartily, but we need this assistance now more than ever as thieving increases with the coming of winter months," Sheriff Pierce states.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of safety," and "shoot to kill when occasion demands and when one is within his legal rights" is the challenge from the law enforcement officers of Donley county.

SHOTGUN BEST THEFT REMEDY AT PRESENT TIME

Sheriff Pierce Suggests Rigid Measures Against Lawlessness

In view of the increase in petty thefts within the county the past week, Sheriff Guy Pierce asks the cooperation of the public in tracking down the thieves. He also suggests prevention measures that, if followed, will save some of our people a lot of trouble.

"No one should leave their car or truck on the streets or highways over night, or leave their homes without some one to keep watch," the Sheriff suggests in a warning Monday. Many times homes are robbed when all the occupants are in town, a fact that may account for some of the rural thefts reported.

The Sheriff suggests stringent measures for protection. "Any citizen has a right to arrest a lawbreaker when caught in the act, or he has a right to shoot a thief when the thief is caught in the act of stealing at night," he says. No shooting may be done legally during the day time according to our law regulating personal satisfaction, but darkness is a license to do one's full duty.

If the owner sees fit, he may shoot the thief in the lower limbs. If he prefers to do a thorough job of it, and establish a reputation for being a safe person to "be let alone," he may direct the shooting to the head. He would be within his legal rights in either instance if the thief were to be caught in the act, and the demand arose during what is termed night time.

"Watch all strange cars, or cars or trucks bearing a foreign license tag," is another suggestion of the Sheriff. "Write down the numbers," he says, "as they might be needed some time, and perhaps sooner than the average person would ordinarily think." A neighbor may have been robbed, and these very numbers may prove a clue to the catching of the thieves.

"We have always had the thorough cooperation of the law-abiding citizens of the county, and we thank them most heartily, but we need this assistance now more than ever as thieving increases with the coming of winter months," Sheriff Pierce states.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of safety," and "shoot to kill when occasion demands and when one is within his legal rights" is the challenge from the law enforcement officers of Donley county.

"FUNMAKERS" IN MYSTERY COMEDY FRIDAY NIGHT

Rural Organization in New Type of Play at Goldston School

Several plays presented by the "Funmakers" of Goldston have attracted county-wide attention. The players have been asked and have presented plays in other communities to full houses. The play at the Goldston school this Friday night promises to be better than any other from a comical standpoint.

The play is a three-act comedy of the first water, we hear from those who are to be held responsible for any damage resulting from explosive laughter. The play begins at 7:30.

The nine characters in the cast and the part each is to play. Betty Kay—Bera Lambert. Detective Wimple—Jimmy Mill-sap.

Ted Bronson—Amos Yates. Cora Kipper—Mary Sue Waters. Jane Bronson—Willie Mae Blanks.

Mickey—Howard Rhodes. John—Clyde Hudson. Mrs. Benlow—Mrs. Clyde Hudson.

Tom Randall—J. D. Hendrix.

A small charge for admission is made possible because of the extra quality in the play. They need the money for school equipment purposes.

Judge Davis Performs First Marriage Ceremony

There is more an air of determination than one of dignity in the official role assumed by Judge W. A. Davis, justice of the peace of this precinct and former sheriff of Armstrong county. His office is in the basement of the courthouse where he may be found most any time.

Judge Davis performed his first marriage ceremony on January 3rd, the participants being Dewey A. Heath and Mrs. Gladys Heath.

Public Sale Date is Moved Forward a Week

M. L. Putman announces that the public sale to be held on the vacant lot east of the trading pens will be held all day next Saturday, the 12th instead of the 19th as he first announced.

He asks all those having anything of any nature for sale, to bring it in as it is his intention that every citizen shall have a share in these bi-monthly public sales.

LANDRETH WILL CONDUCT REVIVAL TO BEGIN SUNDAY

Methodist Pastor of Dimmitt Church to Have Charge Young People

The plans are all made for the beginning of the revival meeting at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning. Rev. Joe S. Strother, musician and worker with young people and children will assist the pastor and people in the meeting. Mr. Strother will play the organ and piano, being assisted by Miss Delphia Bones, and whatever orchestra he may arrange. Mr. Strother is one of the greatest organists in the state, having charmed audiences everywhere he has ever appeared. He is a graduate of Southern Methodist University and is at present pastor of the First Methodist Church at Dimmitt. Before entering the active ministry he served as organist and pastor's assistant at First Methodist Church Pampa, and Polk Street Church Amarillo. Children and young people's meetings will be held by Mr. Strother, the exact time to be announced Sunday.

The singing will be in charge of Mr. S. M. Braswell, director of music at the Methodist Church. Singers of the town are invited to sing with us, Mr. Braswell said.

The preaching will be done by the pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth, who has held one or more revivals in every church he has served as pastor. No morning services are being announced at present. Evening services will begin at 7 o'clock.

Some of the subjects announced by the pastor, to be discussed during the meeting are as follows:

"The Selective Draft".
"A Boneyard Revival".
"Fire Hazards".
"The Devil's Masquerade".
"What about Hell?"
"What about Heaven?"
"The Unwelcome Christ".
"The Plan of Salvation".
"The Cheapest Thing in the World".
"The Greatest Sin".

All the people of the community, regardless of church affiliation, are invited to attend these services, and receive the blessings that may come of them. We invite the co-operation of all the churches of the community. Rev. Landreth said in announcing the meeting.

Interesting Exhibit Being Shown Amarillo Hotel

Visitors to Amarillo interested in relics of pioneer and prehistoric days of the Panhandle should see the wonderful exhibit on display at the Amarillo hotel.

Among the more modern articles is an Indian tomahawk of iron made by the French, sabers and swords of early Spanish explorers, saddle ornaments, Indian arrow and spear points and various other articles picked up in and near Palo Duro canyon.

A stone hammer of prehistoric man and several varieties of sea fossils and water lizards make up most of the interesting exhibit of prehistorics.

The exhibit may be viewed from the sidewalk in front of the hotel.

School Bond Election At Hudgins Next Saturday

Voters of the Hudgins school district expect to vote a $1500 bond issue Saturday next. This bond issue will not increase taxes, it is said, for the reason that it will be used to take up a former issue that will be due in February.

The board of trustees will have charge of the election. O. L. Jacobs is president of the board.

What Soldier Pay Would Mean to Donley

If adjusted service certificates are paid in full at this time, World War veterans residing in Donley county will receive $151,651.84, according to Van W. Stewart of Perryton, and commander of the district of the American Legion.

DEPOSITS LOCAL BANKS IS DOUBLE AMOUNT OF LOANS

Plenty of Loan Money When Possible to Meet Federal Requirements

Time was when bankers in most instances gauged their loans according to the ability and past record of an individual rather than what he had. Good bankers under anything like normal conditions were successful.

Today, Uncle Sam dictates the policy of the banks from afar. He prescribes the metes and bounds, as it were, and leaves little for the local banker to worry about since loan risks are few and far between according to Uncle Sam's financial measuring rule.

Conditions of the banks of Donley county on December 31st according to a statement supplied the government banking department, shows a very healthy condition. The deposits totaling $980,516.85 as compared with the loans totaling $417,007.15 shows the deposits in the four county banks to be more than double the loans.

This condition has not existed here for some time, and certainly not within recent years.

Except for the short crop this year due to dry weather, Donley county would have been a long way toward assuming her normal status of former years as one of the very best diversified sections of the state.

Metes and Bounds of Shelter Belt is Changed

Randall county has been included in the Plains Shelterbelt Project of the United States Government as a result of a recent extension of the original termination of this protective project.

The western border line of the new set up slashes down through the Panhandle, taking in Sherman, Moore, Potter, Randall, the eastern edge of Deaf Smith, Castro and Lamb counties, with Levelland as the southern edge. From there it extends east through Lubbock into Crosby county, north to the south edge of Briscoe county, then east through Hall county, taking in most of Childress, and then northeast through Oklahoma.

Farmers of Randall county expressed great pleasure upon receiving word of the extension. It is felt by agricultural enthusiasts here that much benefit should be derived from the projects and its result.

CONTRACT LET ON HOUSE MOVING HIGHWAY ROUTE

Relief Labor Will be Used On County Jobs Where Practicable

At a meeting of the county commissioners Monday, a contract was made with Dennis R. Head of Clarendon for the prompt removal of five buildings now occupying positions designated as the route of new right-of-way for Highway 5 between Clarendon and Hedley.

Mr. Head will be paid $150 for the use of his house moving equipment, and will be paid five dollars per day to supervise the work.

The local relief office will supply the labor necessary for moving the buildings. The same labor will be used in setting back the fences along the new highway routing.

New Aggie Teacher Moves Here Wednesday

J. M. Hill, aggie teacher in the Claude schools for the past seven years, arrived Wednesday with his family to make Clarendon their home. He succeeds to the position formerly held by G. L. Boykin for many years.

Mr. Hill will also become secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

New Legislature Convenes For Vital Session

Bills already introduced in the present session among other things would appropriate $3,000,000 for a Texas Centennial; create a commission to regulate public utilities; repeal horse racing; authorize municipalities to operate under the Federal Bankruptcy Act.

Other bills would require a license for all auto drivers; regulate and license dentistry (we thought we already had that); require courts to place injunction suits on taxes first on dockets.

Another bill introduced would, if passed, provide a legal course to compel a husband to support his wife and children. (At present, he has a choice of being prosecuted for desertion, or stay on the job. The new bill is said to be directed against husbands who may be classed as healthy invalids, concrete curb pressers and sitters, or those born so unlucky they cannot find a job for themselves but find plenty for the wife.)

Another of a domestic nature would compel a husband to support the children for a whole year, after a divorce is granted.

Bills considering old age pensions, and another that would repeal state wide prohibition and provide a local option law have been thrown into the legislative mill.

Coke Stevenson Monday was declared speaker of the House over Bob Calvert after a bitter fight. The vote stood 82 to 68 favoring the Ferguson candidate.

CONDITIONS ARE BETTER—FOR SOME

According to the annual report of the U. S. Department of Commerce, the nation today boasts of the greatest number of pleasure vessels in the history of American yachting.

The government report shows 3,776 registered seagoing yachts ranging in cost from several thousands of dollars up past millions. The Morgan and Astor yachts lead since they cost millions each and it takes a million a year each to run 'em.

These palatial castles float the seas for the select few while millions of the land-lubbers own no homes of any kind and live on charity, more commonly dubbed "government relief."

ARE 16 STATE SENATORS CROOKS?

In an article appearing in Collier's Weekly under date of January 12, 1935 under the title of "Piping Hot," of which Owen P. White, a former Texan is author, we quote the first two paragraphs:

"I met him at Kilgore in the East Texas oil fields. He was a big, swarthy man with a happy disposition, apparently no conscience and an amazing frankness. "Why, sure," he said, "I'm running hot oil. Plenty of it. I've got a hundred thousand barrels in storage above ground right now and I'll move every drop of it."

He continued talking. He told me a great deal about crookedness and corruption in connection with the control of the East Texas oil field; asserted he could prove that one state official had made at least a million dollars in graft and then, returning to a discussion of his own movements, he added this: "And when I found that I had to do it I lined up sixteen state senators at five hundred dollars apiece to kill House Bill 99. And believe me," he concluded, "I never pay 'em until they deliver the goods."

That is a strong indictment to bring against a branch of the lawmaking body of the great state of Texas. If true, these senators ought to be punished. If false, prompt action should be taken to disprove the charge. Collier's Weekly is a national publication financially responsible.

It will be recalled that about this number of senators blocked a bill that would have compelled each senator to make a sworn statement as to who or what company or corporation had him employed while he was alleged to be working for and drawing pay from the state.

Some years ago Collier's published an article by Owen P. White under the title of "Hi-Handed and Hell Bent." It was alleged to be an exposure of the crooked political ring of one H. Y. Baker in the Rio Grande Valley. Suit was brought and Collier's won out.

The question naturally arises at this time: Can Collier's drag into open view 16 crooked senators? Will the accused senators give Collier's Weekly an opportunity to prove it in open court?

WELL, YOU CAN'T

(Dallas Journal)

Judge Noland G. Williams told a discharged jury what he thought of their having been unable to agree. "You can't stop hijacking this way," he told them when he found out they were deadlocked nine to three. He continued:

"Often juries hesitate to convict a man because he is so young. Most of the offenders tried now are in their early twenties and many of them have been convicted before, but, because the defendant didn't take the stand, this can't be brought out. Neither can the prosecuting attorney comment upon the failure of the defendant to take the stand. This is one point on which I have always said the law was wrong.

"I am not making these remarks to you as criticism, but simply to show you what we are up against. We do all we can to enforce the law and then it is up to the juries. If they don't enforce it, it won't be enforced.

"The State can never make out a better case than it made out in this case yesterday, and I regret that you did not make a decision."

Of course the Judge could not have made such remarks to the jury before they reached their verdict,—if he had the defense would have clear ground for reversal and the Judge knew this perfectly well. Yet there is not a single item in his address which would not be conducive to justice if delivered to the jury before they retired for deliberation. In a Federal Court the Judge is free to discuss the evidence and to indicate in a general way what he thinks about the case. In Texas State courts we stop the mouth of the Judge and tie his hands. It is high time we revised our system of criminal trials so as to permit our courts to function properly and efficiently. The Judge is right. We can't stop hijacking if we go on as we are going.

THOSE CRAZY SPEEDERS

He drove his automobile thru the street,

Cutting the air like a knife; To see the fellow you'd have thought

He was fleeing for his life. He passed all cars and reached a spot

As far as he could get, And then he stopped—and parked, And lit a cigarette.

Emmett M. Christie is moving his place of residence from the Hudgins community to six miles south of Alanreed.

West Texas was Labeled As Indian Country in 1873

While West Texans, in preparing to participate in the Centennial celebrations of 1936 in commemoration of Texas' 100th birthday, realize that their section of the State shares with the remainder its antiquity, it is of the achievements of West Texas and its people within the last fifty years that they are justly proud.

An able sketch, prepared by R. C. Crane of this city, President of the West Texas Historical Association, recalls that as late as 1873 more than one-half of the State, comprising the major portion of what is known as West Texas, was recognized by the Legislature as being subject to incursions by wild Indians. Then, the Legislature, on account of continual depredations by the tribesmen upon settlers, exempted for two years from payment of poll taxes all that part of Texas west of a line running along the east side of Montague and Wise Counties, along the west lines of Tarrant, Johnson, Bosque, Williamson, Travis, Hays and Bexar Counties, and thence southward to the Rio Grande.

About 138 of the present-day 254 Texas counties were located in the "Indian country," although as a matter of fact at least 76 of those 138 counties have been created since 1873. In that year there were only 32 counties organized west of the line, the balance of the region consisting of unorganized territory not created into counties.

The progress of West Texas in aiding in the upbuilding of the State perhaps is indicated best by the fact that in 1932 the fifteen counties of Potter, Taylor, Lubbock, El Paso, Val Verde, Nolan, Brown, Tom Green, Pecos, Reagan, Hutchinson, Jones, Runnels, Stephens and Wilbarger, paid more taxes than the entire State did in 1873, in which year the aggregate taxable values, according to the tax rolls, amounted to $159,058,000 while in 1932, the taxable values of these counties, which were west of the Indian line, amounted to $366,626,000.

In 1932, the taxable values in the fifteen counties of Armstrong, Childress, Concho, Cottle, Crosby, Dickens, Donley, Fisher, Floyd, Hall, Hardeman, Knox, Martin, Oldham and Scurry, all West of the line, aggregated $176,428,436, and therefore paid more taxes that year than did the entire State in 1873. If the taxable values of the two groups be added together, it will be seen that the total is about $543,054,436, or just a little less than the entire State's taxable wealth amounted to in 1883, about 50 years ago, which was $603,060,917.

In 1887 there were 114,754,508 acres of land on the tax rolls of the State at a valuation of a little more than $2.61 per acre. In 1932, here were 166,628,381 acres, valued at slightly in excess of $9 per acre. The difference of more than 50,000,000 acres added to the tax rolls in that period was due almost wholly to the purchase by citizens of lands in West Texas belonging to the various school funds, which previously had not been subject to taxation.

Incidentally, over 4,000 miles of railroad have been constructed in the last 50 years in West Texas largely by the co-operative efforts of its people and without the aid of any of the 32,000,000 acres of lands, located mainly in West Texas and donated by the State to aid and promote railroad construction.

tion, the public domain having been exhausted before West Texas' day arrived.

Ed Wheeler has moved to the Pete Engle farm near Ashtola and abandoned all idea of leaving old Donley for another year. We need such citizens as Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, and their many friends will be glad to hear of their decision.

BANK LOANS-----

Banks make money by making loans. Making sound loans implies periodic reductions according to promise, and complete repayment within a reasonably short period.

This is necessary because the bank has a three-fold obligation: to depositors he promises a safe return of funds; to borrowers accommodation in turn; to stockholders a reasonable return on their investment.

The WEST TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY is duly appreciative for the patronage and co-operation received from its customers and friends the past year.

Our aim has been to render a superior service at constantly reduced rates. In expression of our gratefulness for the patronage received, we have continued our policy of rate reductions. Our customers are now able to enjoy a dependable electric service at rates below the state's average.

Our hope of reward is in YOUR INCREASED USE of service. Your continued increase in patronage and your co-operative influence in obtaining full information so as to understand your power company's problems will combine our efforts in the future development of West Texas and reduced cost of electric service.

We feel that we have established a foundation by our past experiences and achievements for a greater public service. As we close out the year of 1934 and make our plans for service in the future, we pledge our entire organization—to the 160 towns and communities we serve—in a continued improvement of our service.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Well here it goes the first thing of the new year. A lady complains that a neighbor lady borrows her Donley County Leader each week hardy before she can get time to read it. She says that she often wants to reread something, or show something to her daughter when she comes in from the country, but the neighbor lady has the paper. She does not want to offend the borrower, and thinks the mention of the inconvenience here will cause every woman to get a paper of her own. Here's hoping.

Every once in a while we learn of some one who does a lot of good in the world. Others perform a service for humanity at large. Some make sacrifices in the interests of aged relatives, etc. One of the best men I know is a big fellow living north of Hedley. He has a heart in him big as a ham because he acts that way and he is a big fellow all-round as well as in size. His name is Frank Jones. Frank resides on the farm with his sister and aged mother. They keep cows and chickens and get along nicely. Frank was in to see me recently and in discussing the feed question, he said he always kept a year's supply ahead. Volumes could be written about real men of the Frank Jones type but the world little knows of them because they are naturally reserved. His neighbors say there never was a better man than Frank. That ought to make him feel good.

My good old republican friend C. R. Skinner was in a few days ago and I found out that he has never used spectacles. He is 82 years old and going strong. There is not a better citizen anywhere, or more level-headed than he is when it comes down to bare-faced facts based on common sense. We discuss everything except politics, religion, fist fights, family rackets or neighborhood gossip, and still have plenty to talk about.

Gob? A sailor.
Gobhobin? A drunken sailor.
Hobgoblin? Sailor gathering in stuff while on shore leave.
Mogoblin? A gang fight.
Goblin? Language of a drunken sailor in the jug.

Bachelor Bill says they must teach "slot machining" at A & M college as most of the aggie boys are experts at it.

Your education in this life is a matter of mileage. If you have been parked in a good position for years, you ain't been nowhere and can't prove a thing.

There was a time when there was nothing sure but death and taxes. Now the only fellow who plays a sure thing is the undertaker.

The farmer who buys "shorts" for his pigs would not think of buying brassieres for his cows.

Then there is the story of the old-fashioned bachelor way out in the country where they struck oil on his holdings. Among the first things he did was to go to town and "get acquainted." The girls had heard about his good luck already, and the old boy needed no formal introduction. His first evening out went something like this: "Darling may I kiss your fair hand?" as the old bachelor who didn't like the smell of gin. "Sure, hop to it old kid! But don't rub off my red nail polish or burn your nose on my cigarette."

If you don't think clothes make the man, take a look at a department store Santa Claus the next day after Christmas.

Patient: "Oh, doctor, something is the matter with me, but I don't know what. I feel terrible, but I don't know how. And I have the most awful pains, but I don't know where."

Doctor: "Well, I will prescribe something for you, but I don't know what. You will use it three times a day, but I don't know how. I will cure you, but don't know when."
(P. S. Some doctors are said to have patients who naturally enjoy ill health.)

Sheeza Fizzle says "there is no place like home—when home is the place where you want to be. But when you have the wanderlust, home is only a filling station in a handy spot."

The way to grow old gracefully is to be able to change one's mind—that is, don't be a mule.

Etiquet suggestion: Dorothy Dix or some other female writer says "when the dance period closes, never leave the lady standing on the dance floor." Yeah, that's it, trip her up and run!

It is learned that bridge clubs serving cocktails are relying mostly on Lydia Pimkham's.

Ever try going out and shooting at somebody before breakfast? It's great sport.

Record Eclipses in line For The Year 1935

The sun in 1935 will present its greatest show of eclipses witnessed on the earth in 130 years.

Prof. Alfred H. Joy, secretary of the Carnegie Institution's Mount Wilson Observatory, said yesterday the sun and moon together will offer seven eclipses, the largest number possible in any one year.

The moon will pass between the sun and the earth five times and the moon will be in the earth's shadow twice.

Not since 1805 has the sun's rays been partly blotted from the earth so many times. It will be the second time of five solar eclipses in one year since 1255 and there will not be another such number until 2485.

COUGHING, WEAK AND THIN AFTER FLU

"I nearly died from 'flu' last October, and it left me with a terrible cough."
"I saw Milks Emulsion advertised and started using it. It helped me right from the start. I had no appetite and my stomach was in bad shape. But 12 bottles have straightened me out entirely. I eat anything without distress, my cough is gone and I have gained back my strength and flesh."—Emma Withers, Box 50, Belmont, N. C.

Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action. Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children. You are urged to try Milks Emulsion. Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

New Chevrolet Models Are Displayed Here Saturday

Chevrolet's prices for the 1935 New Standard and Master DeLuxe models were announced by William E. Holler, general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co., just before the opening of the New York automobile show. The prices are as follows:
New Standard models—Coupe, $475; coach, $485; sedan, $550; phaeton, $495; sport roadster, $465 sedan delivery $515.

Master De Luxe models—Coupe, $560; coach, $580; sedan, $640; sport coupe, $600; town sedan, $615; sport sedan, $675; commercial panel, $560; de luxe panel, $580.

The prices on the New Standard coupe, coach and phaeton are $10 under those of the corresponding 1934 models. On the Master De Luxe, prices are exactly the same as in 1934.

Knee-action continues as one of the outstanding features of the Master De Luxe. Mr. Holler stated, and is available to any customer on order at slight additional cost. Master De Luxe cars also feature the new Fisher turret top all steel roof construction, and a much larger body with corresponding increase in interior dimensions.
"Chevrolet was able to reduce its Standard model prices and to maintain its price levels on the Master De Luxe series in the face of substantially increased material and manufacturing costs because of the greatly increased volume scheduled for 1935, as indicated by the thousands of orders we now have on hand for the immediate delivery of the 1935 lines of cars from our organization of 10,000 dealers," Mr. Holler said in announcing the prices. "Last year Chevrolet built 870,000 passenger cars and trucks, which made it the leading manufacturer of motor cars in the world for the sixth time in the last eight years. With the establishing of our 1935 prices, we are in a position to secure our share of the low-priced car business this year.

"Both lines of cars are greatly improved. The New Standard is now powered with the Master motor, and has an entirely new X-type frame which is 15 times more rigid than its predecessor. The Master De Luxe is a completely new and much larger car than the 1934 Master. To increase the comfort of passengers, and procure more body room, the wheelbase has been increased to 113 inches. This line now features, in addition to the new Fisher turret top all steel roof construction, the latest in 'tear drop' design, with dual windshield, no-draft ventilation, and all the comfort and convenience features found in much higher priced cars."

BANKS A PARTNERSHIP

A bank properly serving a community is, strictly speaking, a co-partnership composed of borrowers, depositors and stockholders.

Borrowers are those who merit consideration because of an established credit standing in the community. Depositors are those who prefer a safe place to keep their funds, and a prompt return of their funds when needed. Stockholders have every reason to expect a reasonable return on their investment.

Local Citizens Visit Scenes Of Childhood Days

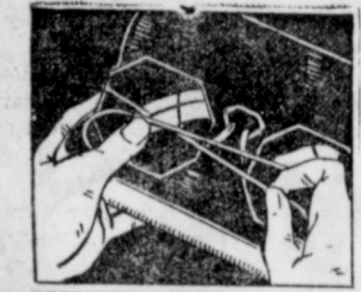

Going back to one's old home place always carries thrills and a feeling of veneration that cannot be experienced under any other circumstances. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bulls and sons Woodrow, Ray and Roy of Clarendon, and their married daughter, Mrs. Ross Adamson of near Hedley, recently made a trip "back east" as we commonly term it here.

They visited friends and relatives at Newport the first time in several years. Col. Ed R. Bulls of Newport and J. R. being brothers. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Bransford and Mr. and Mrs. Felix M. Bransford of Ft. Worth. Mrs. Bulls is a native of Jack county and Mr. Bulls claims to have seen the first light of day right on the Jack-Clay line. Anyway, they had a good time visiting in both counties where they spent their childhood days.

Mrs. Maggie Hopkins and son Jim of Pampa attended to business matters here Monday.

Geo. E. Ragland, manager of the Shamburger lumber interests here, had business in Altus, Oklahoma Wednesday. He also took over some of his pedigreed hounds to leave with a party for training.
County clerk W. G. Word is in Dallas this week on a matter of business.

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

In the seventh chapter of Judges we have the story of a victory that is unparalleled in all history. The reason for such victory is given in the 21st verse, "And they stood every man in his place round about the camp." 248,000 of the enemies of Israel were defeated by Gideon and an army of 300 men who dared to put their faith in God and do what he said. We have an illustration here of what a church can do when she goes into partnership with God. If you haven't made a New Year's resolution, will not you resolve now, to be in your place in your church every Lord's day, contributing your part to making your town a better place in which to live? If you would make your town better help to make your church life better. If you would make your church life better make your home life better. Let's be better and do better than we have ever done before in our lives. God is on the side of right. Get on his side and the victory is yours.

There will be no preaching at the Baptist church Sunday night. All other services as usual including the Training Service at 6:15 in the evening. We join with the Methodist church in their revival and the First Christian church in the celebration of the Martin Luther's translation of the Bible, at the evening preaching hour.

ALLEGED SEER OF FT. WORTH PEERS INTO COMING YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

Once More Forecaster of Events Dons His Rose-Colored Glasses and Peers Into the Future Seeing Return of Prosperity in Full Force

Utility rates here will be reduced. There will be few business failures and less crime.

Recovery codes will be discontinued because business will be so good they will not be needed.

Per capita money circulation will reach pre-war levels.

Prosperity will return full force, with factories reopening and good prices for everything.

The above are predictions of Dr. C. L. Sharp, who donned his rose-colored glasses last night, peered into 1935 and gave his congregation at the Fort Worth Spiritualist Church, 311 1/2 Main St., a picture of what he saw.

Among other things which will make those affected welcome the New Year, he predicts:

The soldiers bonus will be paid. Child labor amendment will be passed.

A national plan to lower utility rates will be adopted.

Manufacture of more cotton than in any year since 1930.

Increased sales in every line.

A spring and summer business boom.

Announcement of cures for infantile paralysis, diabetes, cancer and other supposedly "incurable" diseases.

Extension of the public works program.

Success to Governor James V. Allred and the adoption of a state bond retirement plan.

Adoption of a League of Nations arms pact "acceptable to all."

No open hostilities in Europe.

Russia to pay U. S. in goods and money through a trade agreement.

Other things which the spiritualist minister foresees:

Another revolution in Mexico.

Many revolutions in Cuba.

A Nicaraguan canal.

Italy will go Fascist.

End of the Chaco war.

All present old-age pension plans will fail.

Unemployment insurance may be deferred.

Discontinuance of the National Recovery Act, Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Home Owners Loan Corporation and Citizens Conservation Corps.

A new Diesel auto engine will revolutionize the industry.

Railways will replace steam with Diesel power.

A sales tax for Texas.

Texas Independence Signed In Blacksmith Shop

Baptists in Texas have a particular interest in the historical aspects of the approaching celebrations of the Centennial of Independence in 1936 as it was in the blacksmith shop of a Baptist preacher that the Texas Declaration of Independence was signed March 2, 1836. The convention met in Washington, a small community on the Brazos River, and the best convention hall available to the delegates was the shop of the Rev. N. T. Byars.

Two Baptist preachers were among the men who met death with Fannin in the tragedy at Goliad.

Many of the early colonists were Baptists although, previous to the establishment of the Republic, all settlers were presumed to be Catholics, the official religion. Among Austin's famous first colony of 300 families in 1821-22, there were at least eleven Baptist families. Between 1822 and 1836, there were some twenty Baptist preachers in Texas and three Sunday Schools and two churches.

Clad in buckskin and driving a team of oxen, the Rev. Joseph Bays, a hasty North Carolinian, in 1820 was the first Baptist preacher to appear in Texas. A few months later he held the first Baptist services in Texas at a two-story log house of Joseph Hinds, near San Augustine. In 1822, Freeman Smalley, another Baptist minister, carrying a rifle and a Bible, made his way on foot from New Orleans to the Red River settlement of Jonesboro, near the present town of Clarksville.

In a dirt-floored log hut with hewn logs for pews, in San Felipe, in 1829, Thomas J. Pilgrim, a young college graduate, organized the first Baptist Sunday School in Texas.

Most unusual was Texas' first Baptist Church, which actually migrated into Texas. The Rev. Daniel Parker of Illinois, while on a visit to Texas in 1832 construed the Mexican colonization laws as forbidding the "organizing" of any other than a Catholic Church, but as not forbidding the "immigration" of one. He returned to Illinois, there organized his followers into a church and set out with them for Texas in wagons, holding services en route. In Claiborne Parish, La., seven additions were made to the wagon train church.

In Texas, the itinerants held services for over a year in Austin's colony, but with the gathering of war clouds of the Texas Revolution, this "Pilgrim church," as it was known, moved to East Texas. There services were held in a territory embracing twenty counties, and nine churches eventually grew out of the organization.

In 1837, the famous Missionary Baptist Church was organized in Washington-on-the-Brazos. The Old North Church, near Nacogdoches, had its beginning when Elder Isaac Reed preached under a spreading oak tree there in 1834. Other early churches were the Independence Church, 1839; the Plum Grove Church, near La Grange, 1839; the Travis Church, 1839; and the First Baptist Church Houston, 1841.

Among the pioneer Baptist preachers of Texas were: R. E. B. Baylor, James Huckins, William M. Tryon, Hosea Garrett, Z. N. Morrell and Isaac Crouch.

Pastor Reports Increased Attendance

James L. Standridge, minister, reports that large crowds are attending the services at the church of Christ. Two splendid audiences heard his sermons last Sunday on the subjects: "Childish Folks" and "The Change of Heart." There were five additions to the church. Two were baptized, and the other three were restored. Standridge states that nearly half of his audience is made up of those who are not members of the church of Christ, and that they have told him that they enjoy the plain, straight-from-the-shoulder gospel preaching. The subjects for Sunday, January 13th are as follows: 11 a. m. "Saints in the Wrong Place", and 7 p. m. "Is Conversion Mysterious?"

Eight More Donley County Boys to CC Camp

Boys going to Amarillo Monday to stand examination for CC Camp work were Clovis Bible, Guy Patterson, J. R. Sparkman, James Thompson, Virgil Martin, J. B. Yates, Jap Hodges and Albert Ward as regulars.

Alternates in case any of those first named could not pass the physical requirements: Roy Carille, George Simmons, Paul Pierce, Buster Sims.

The boys reported to the army recruiting station at 8 a. m. Monday. They expected to be sent to Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson Sr. went to Dallas Monday to take their son George to the Shriner hospital for further treatment.

Dick Powell Heads Talented Cast In "Happiness Ahead"

Dick Powell, with his inimitable singing voice, heads a cast of unusually talented players in the new First National production, "Happiness Ahead" which is scheduled as the feature attraction at the Pastime Theatre beginning Sunday, January 13th, and also showing Monday 14th.

Although the story is straight comedy drama there are four special songs, catchy airs written by three of the most famous song writing teams, Allie Wrubel and Mort Dixon, Sammy Fain and Irving Kahal and Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby.

Powell sings two of the songs alone, "Pop Goes My Heart" and "Beauty Must Be Love" and also joins with Frank McHugh in a duet, "Massaging Window Panes." A fourth song, "All on Account of a Strawberry Sundae," is sung by Dorothy Dare, the famous Broadway musical comedy star who makes her screen bow in this production.

DICK POWELL

Josephine Hutchinson, the famous New York and London stage star who made such a hit last season as Alice in the Eva Le Gallienne Civic Repertory Company's production of "Alice in Wonderland" also makes her first screen appearance in this picture, playing the leading feminine role opposite Dick Powell.

Miss Hutchinson as the daughter of a wealthy and socially prominent family, runs away from her engagement party, in search of adventure. She runs into Dick and his pal, Frank McHugh, in a Chinese chop suey palace where the happy throng are celebrating New Year's Eve. She is attracted to Dick but wishing him to love her for herself she poses as a working girl out of a job.

Dick, who is in the window washing business sees the girl getting a check from one of the town's wealthiest citizens, in return for which she throws her arms about his neck and kisses him.

The youth is crushed, thinking that his girl is double-crossing himself and her sugar daddy also. Then the fireworks start which end in one of the most amusing and thrilling climaxes imaginable. Dorothy Dare is Frank McHugh's girl, Majorie Gateson, is the ambitious and aristocratic mother while others in the cast include John Halliday, who has the role of Josephine's father; Gavin Gordon as the jilted fiancee, Russell Hicks, Mary Forbes, J. M. Kerrigan, Mary Treen, Mary Russell and Jane Darwell.

The story is by Harry Sauber. Mervyn LeRoy directed the picture from the screen play in which Sauber collaborated with Brian Marlow.

Palo Duro Canyon is Million Years Young

Canyon, Texas, Jan. 4.—A recently opened thirteen-mile highway will enable Texas Centennial visitors in 1936 readily to proceed from Canyon to what is considered one of the most beautiful and geologically interesting parks in America. The Palo Duro Canyon State Park embraces 15,103, which have been improved by CCC workers co-operating with the State. A 100-foot highway now leads down the rim into the former inaccessible depths about 700 feet and bears the name of Goodnight Trail in commemoration of the first cattleman in that part of Texas, who developed the great ranch on which still roam not only vast cattle herds but also one of the few remaining herds of buffalo in the world.

This canyon, the age of which is placed at some 100,000,000 years presents a series of massed beauty spots, which will draw the admiration of the tourists. Its reds, greens, yellows and mauves rival the inspiring color tones of the Grand Canyon.

Tom Messer of McKnight was over to pay his taxes Tuesday.

NEWS OF THE ADULT SCHOOLS

Attendance has been picking up these last few nights, as by now people who ever read the local papers have come to the conclusion that there really is an adult school here and no fooling. One man, now attending, made the statement that he hadn't come before because no one had asked him to. Folks, this isn't an invitation affair exactly. Just come if you feel your education needs dusting up a bit. You'll be welcome and you won't get bawled out if you don't know your lessons.

We've been wondering what kind of class will be requested next. Anyway, the following classes have been organized lately: Advanced English Grammar at the special request of the Business and Professional Women's Club and taught by Mrs. Cleo Hall; a needle work class taught by Gladys Wright and Leone Merritt; a new math class in charge of Lucy Garrison; a combination of English and etiquette and business arithmetic by Earle Jones, and a class in charcoal drawing by Maude Crawford and Mrs. Jones.

It isn't exactly in his line, but I. B. Pierce is liable to find himself a teacher before he knows it. Ever since he performed last Thursday night on his steel guitar, people have been going around wishing out loud that he would start a class. We enjoyed Mr. "Dad" Clark's fiddle playing, too. People just couldn't keep their feet still when he played those breakdowns. We are kinda proud of our guitar player, Walter Turner, too altho by now he has worn blisters on his hands playing for us. Howard Stewart, we're so sorry you got there too late to play. Your mandolin music would have set off things to perfection. We'll try to get the whole bunch there again this Thursday night. Come and listen Thursday at seven o'clock.

"Good morning, Teacher." I'm not quoting for our classes come later than that. This merely happens to be the name of a one act comedy Mrs. Lackey's dramatic class is getting up. It ought to be good and funny.

This is telling things out of school, but two of our adult pupils are going to have a fight soon right in the courthouse. No, no, don't call the sheriff; it's a scene from "Bertie's Cave Woman". The two so far have been practicing in the privacy of their boudoirs until they can learn to knock each other down gracefully—and not too hard. This play will make its first appearance Wednesday the 16th at Giles.

Here is a good place to do a lot of thanking in behalf of the school: to the Lion's Club and the Womens Clubs for footing those bills, to the new commissioners for letting us use the courthouse and to all those individuals who have been helping us every way they can. Taken as a whole, Clarendon has some pretty nice people in it; Don't you agree?

Maude Crawford.

GOLDSTON

The Fossil hunters moved Saturday to some point in Okla. They made quite a few important discoveries and may return for a more extensive excavation.

They estimate that the bones of animals discovered roamed the plains here some fifty thousand to one million years ago.

In the next million years wonder if the people who are to follow us will be unearthing some of our old Fords, Chevrolets, Cadillacs, etc., and wonder how in the world we managed to mope along for long before that time we should be using Buck Rodgers plan of transportation. That is touch off an air ship in the form of a rocket and easily glide over to Mars, the moon and other planets.

Ben Hill of Clarendon has taken over the management of the Hill-Mixon grocery. A young Mr. Baten of Brice will assist him.

Goldston has one of the most beautiful school grounds in Donley county. Under a CWA project some four hundred loads of caliche has been placed on the grounds, then the water system has been greatly improved, out-buildings overhauled, and quite a bit of work on the interior of the building. About eight hundred dollars has been spent on the property. The community is pleased and teachers elated over the improvement.

(Too late for last week's issue)

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Earthman and daughters Julia, Mary and Edith of Clarendon and Wilford Hott and Fred Reid of Chamberlain attended singing here Sunday night.

Otes Speare and lady are entertaining a new girl.

School opened Wednesday after two weeks vacation for the holidays.

John Rhodes is on the sick list. He says the trouble is in his back but his neighbors think the trouble is in his feet caused from founder as it's so near Christmas.

Carl Dilli who is attending school at Amarillo spent the holidays with home folks and returned for his work Tuesday.

The moving vans have been rather busy of late, the Ed Wheeler family moved to Ashtola last week, and Bill and John Sanders of Chamberlain moved to the vacated Wheeler home. Now girls take this tip, these Sanders lads are batchelors, so get your caps ready.

The Claud Mixon family will move this week to Shamrock. They will truck farm, raise poultry and run a dairy business. Mr. Mixon has successfully run a grocery business here for the past four years and his many friends are wishing him success in his new field of work.

Granville and (Sell Kirk) McAneara attended to unfinished business at Brice Saturday night.

Audley Rhodes and family of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Rosco White of Colo. visited Sunday in the Mixon home.

Howard Stewart and his better half attended singing here Sunday night.

The Rhodes girls played the Chamberlain basket ball girls a close game Wednesday of last week, resulting in a score of 10-12 in favor of the former.

Jimmie Millsap and lady and little son, and Amos Yates drove to McKinney, Texas last Friday and after visiting a few days returned home Tuesday. When asked if it was raining down there they said no, it's pouring and that rain coats and boots were in great demand. If we could get the rain we would not bother about the boots and slickers, we would just take it on the chin.

Mrs. Talmage Smallwood and daughters, Misses Claudine and Frankie and Bill Todd of Brice visited in this community Friday.

Miss Bera Lamberth, eighth grade teacher, returned from her home in Alba which is rather deep into East Texas. Now as we lived in that section of country for a long time, we naturally like the delicacies that are grown over there, and made a special request that she bring back a sack of persimmons, a large stalk of ribbon cane and a nice live fat Opossum.

Now can you imagine our disappointment when she arrived Tuesday empty handed with the explanation that the persimmons were all gone, the ribbon cane had been converted into licks, and that Billie Possum was just so wild she could not catch him. Well maybe so, but it's our opinion that most of her time was spent in luring a William who was not so wild. At any rate we will forgive her this time, but it must never happen again.

Miss Myrtle Boles of Hedley returned to her home Tuesday after spending a few days in the home of her sister, Mrs. T. Jack Morgan. The Morgans are entertaining a new baby girl.

Mrs. Hatley and son R. V. spent Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wheeler of Ashtola.

And now as we are entering the new year, let's not make too many resolutions and then we will not have so many to break. And yet as we only pass this way one time let's count it a day lost if we fail to render some kind act, or scatter sunshine in the pathway of those we meet. It may be only a smile or word of cheer, and yet that may be the very thing that our friend is hungry and longing for. These little acts of kindness will cost us nothing but they will pay a wonderful dividend in bringing happiness into the lives of the human family.

We had splendid attendance at Sunday school Sunday morning and we studied our first lesson in the new quarterly for the next months, Jan., Feb., and March. Our new lessons are based on the life of Peter; how Jesus laying hold on a rough, undisciplined, ambitious man and transforming him into a noble character and a most useful servant of God. The most interesting and wonderful part of this transformation was the changing of Peter's greatest liabilities of character into his finest assets. In our first lesson we studied of his first meeting with the Savior and later we will study of his call to christian discipleship.

New officers were elected for the coming year and before adjourning it was decided that the singing convention would be held at Goldston the first Sunday in February.

Sunday, (January 13th) is the regular singing day at Chamberlain but last Sunday it was decided by the community that the singing would be called off and everyone would attend singing at Brice.

Mrs. Guy Jones of Martin was the luncheon guest of her aunt and uncle Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Estes.

HERE IT IS - THE CAR THAT MADE 175 EXPERTS Guess Wrong!

Four small portraits of men and women, each with a testimonial quote about the 1935 Dodge. The quotes praise the car's appearance, value, and performance.

So Much Luxury, Style and Value in the New 1935 DODGE, Experts Overguessed its Price... Couldn't Believe It Would Sell for So Little.

175 experts—authorities in style, value, engineering—guessed too high when asked to estimate the price of the New-Value Dodge for 1935. But no wonder they guessed wrong! Never before has any car so low-priced been so smartly designed, so sturdily built, so luxurious... with 95 basic advancements for new comfort, new economy, new high speed with safety. And "Synchronomatic Control," which makes driving unbelievably easy and effortless... the new "Airglide Ride," which gives Dodge a steadiness, smoothness and roadability never before ever approached by other cars.

The New-Value Dodge is powered with the Dodge "Red Ram" engine. It's silky smooth, with traditional Dodge dependability. Develops 85 miles an hour and up! Built to last, to save money, no matter how fast you drive. A saving of 15¢ to 20¢ on every dollar you spend for gas is now possible—with even more astonishing oil economy! Compare delivered prices of this 1935 Dodge against other cars! You'll be surprised to learn how low they are. Only the genius of a manufacturing organization like Dodge—with 20 years' experience building fine motor cars—could create such outstanding dollar-for-dollar value.

FOUR CLARENDON PUPILS CONTEST PRIZE WINNERS

Junior High School Pupils Enter Better Housing Contest

Clarendon Junior High School students distinguished themselves and brought honor to their school in the News-Globe Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Better Housing Essay Contest held in December. Out of the twenty-five entrants from the junior high school, four pupils won cash prizes. Darcy Lassiter and Dorothy Nell Baker, both members of the eighth grade, won five dollar prizes. Nell Sachse, a seventh grade pupil won a fifteen dollar prize while Billy Yates, also from the seventh grade, was awarded five dollars. The fact that these young writers competed with high school students makes their work the more creditable.

Other Clarendon participants in the contest were three Senior high school pupils and one college sophomore, Wanda Mayfield, who won first place with a prize of fifteen dollars, in the college division.

In addition to these individual prizes the Clarendon Public School, as one of the five schools in the Panhandle that tied for a share of the grand prize for the school sending in the largest number of essays in this contest, was awarded a cash prize of fifteen dollars.

The following comment is quoted from a letter from Carl Hinton, Secretary of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, to Superintendent H. T. Burton of the local schools: "The essays submitted by your schools were so good that it was very difficult for the judges to come to a decision. We regret that each and every one could not receive a prize. We feel that your school, as well as the other schools in the Panhandle, rendered a great service in spirit and intelligence by entering in this contest."

ASHTOLA LEADS—

srs. M. S. Swinburne, C. C. Barker and Ben Lovell.

To start the year with a bang, the school purchased a new bus, the first one in Donley county for rural schools, and a route was mapped out for it so that no child has to walk to or from school, and at the same time, takes 22 pupils to school at Clarendon. Mr. Tyndall Gregg is the driver, and a more capable one would be hard to find.

The bus has been used to take the children to the Tri-State Fair, ball games, picnics, and other school functions.

The repairs to the plant include new locks, doors, windows, adjustable shades for all windows, new paint job on the stage, and in the laboratory together with numerous improvements on the out buildings.

The new equipment includes a first-class general science laboratory valued at about $325. Across the hall is to be found a manual training department that was installed this year at a cost of about $200. Aside from miscellaneous articles running into hundreds of dollars. We have a school, and community kitchen, and dining room including stoves, running water, sink, plates, cups, knives and forks to serve about 80 people at one time.

Along the line of health and cleanliness, we have put in paper towels and liquid soap. This year has brought new sand tables, work benches, study tables, bulletin boards for every room. Maps, charts, globes, books and everything necessary to make school work a pleasure.

On the play ground one will find new swings and seesaws, together with ball courts of various kinds.

Another addition of which we are very proud is a standard "ditto" machine on which we print our school paper. The paper is a six page paper, published every week, and is more than paid for by advertising from merchants in Clarendon and Ashtola.

New curtains for the stage with a change lighting effects, has improved dramatics.

With nine grades, and four teachers, the classes have all been lengthened, all high school classes are 45 minutes in length, with 90-minute periods for science. The manual training periods is also 90 minutes, and is being extended so as to take care of a group of sixth and seventh grade children. We also have a fire drill which enables us to clear the building in 40 seconds.

Within the school we also have many organizations that are serving a good purpose. The literary society meets twice each month at which time an excellent program is rendered. The officers are: Christine Knox, president; Frank Hardie, secretary-treas.; Vera Barker, reporter. The faculty will render the next program which is looked forward to with great interest.

Each of the high school classes have organized, and are laying plans for the coming of spring and commentements. The senior class has as officers: Alma Gregg, president; Ruth Warrick, secretary-treas.; with Mr. Dillard as sponsor. The freshman class organized with Inetha Collier as president, Mildred Barker, secretary-treas.; with Mr. Dillard as sponsor.

Several other organizations play a large part in the school and community life. They are: "The All American Girls Club," with Miss Shelton as sponsor, and the Allred and Lieutenant Governor Walter F. Woodul. In view of the fact the invitation committee for this affair has placed restrictions upon the number of invitations issued and the supplies limited the possibility of mailing invitations to the people of the 122nd District is precluded. Each representative is allowed ten invitations, plus several admittance cards. To those of you who are planning to attend this function, or who would like to attend, I should appreciate your advising me at your earliest possible convenience so that I may arrange for invitations.
