FACTS ABOUT PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

By Gerald C. Mann, Secretary of State

Proposed Amendment No. 3

Repeal of Liquor Prohibition

Probably chief interest in the August 24th election on the seven proposed Constitutional Amendments will center on Proposition Number 3 on the ballot—the repeal of Prohibition, according to Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann.

The Constitution, at present, prohibits the sale, manufacture and transportation of alcoholic liquors (except 3.2 beer). This prohibition would be stricken out by adoption of the Repeal Amendment.

The proposed amendment specifically prohibits the return of the open saloon—and it would be up to the Legislature to define the term "open saloon."

No machinery is set up for the sale of liquor. The Legislature would have the authority to determine just who and just how liquor is to be sold. This could be done by State monopoly or through private channels. The Legislature would have the authority to pass laws regulating local option elections.

If the amendment is adopted all counties, cities and precincts that were dry in 1919 when statewide prohibition was adopted would be dry now—at least until local option elections were held to determine otherwise.

It is well to remember, Secretary Mann points out, that there will be an election next year in November to determine whether the State shall sell liquor through a State monopoly system. If the repeal amendment is adopted in August the State MAY establish a state control and monopoly system. If the repeal amendment is defeated in August, it will in effect be submitted again in November 1936, in the State Monopoly Amendment which says the State SHALL have a liquor monopoly. To retain the present dry status both the August 24th Amendment and the November, 1936 Amendment must be defeated. Passage of either will repeal the present prohibition section of the Constitution.

Cagle Brothers in Family Reunion at Abilene

The four Cagle brothers, W. P. of Clarendon, H. I. of Quail, John A. of Greenville and T. V. of Abilene gathered at the home of Mrs. W. R. Snow at Abilene, a daughter of T. V. Cagle for a family reunion Thursday, the 25th of July.

Others from here attending were Mrs. Van Kennedy, daughter of W. P. Cagle, and her two children Dorothy Ann and Richard Van, and Mrs. John M. Bass.

More than fifty relatives and friends were present to share in the reunion and feast prepared for the four honored guests.

Soft Ball Tournament With Cash Prizes in Sept.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Wichita Falls is offering $500 in cash prizes during their third annual southwestern softball championship tournament to be held there September 7 to 14.

Prizes: First place winner, $150; Runner-up $100; Losers $75; Sorriest losers $25. Any team winning the first two games is eligible for entering the prize contest. Entry fee, $15.

CHEVROLETS TO PARADE HERE ON STREETS AT 3:30

Local Agency Takes Part In National Drug Company's Free Car Drive

Announcement is made that the Clarendon Motor company will have new and used cars in a parade on the streets this afternoon at 3:30 in connection with an advertising drive by the Rexall stores in which the company is giving away ten Chevrolet cars.

The new cars in stock at this time at the local agency is very limited due to the fact that sales are ahead of factory production. The parade will include what few cars are now in stock together with used cars since the Chevrolet company is making a special drive on used cars this month, it is announced.

50 Cent Rate To Expire 10th

The special rate on the Leader from now until January first for only 50 cents will expire at midnight on Saturday, August 10th. All those wishing to take advantage of this special rate, should do so at once.

This rate applies to both new and renewals. No extension of this rate will be made after the 10th. A large number have already given the idea their approval by handing in the 50 cents. This is the first "get acquainted" offer of the year.

Toothless Grandfather Bows To Youthful Golfer

That old maestro of the fairways, A. N. Wood, toothless grandfather who has been a thorn in the flesh of the Panhandle's most competent pounders of cow pasture pool for months, bowed to defeat Sunday, "Pinkie" Korbow defeated him for the championship of the president's cup tournament, 2-1.

The second flight match between J. T. Patman and Joe Jackson was postponed.

In the third flight, U. J. Boston defeated Paul Greene, 3-1.

J. P. Rhode defeated Reagan Bain for championship in the fourth flight.

Large Congregation Present At Baptist Church

When it was learned that an extra large number greeted the pastor with their presence at the Baptist church Sunday evening, the pastor was asked the reason.

"The regulars were as much astounded as their pastor," he said. Practically all seating capacity was filled in the main auditorium and the balconies.

Rev. J. Perry King, the pastor, came here little more than a year ago, and has constantly built up the attendance through his excellent manner of presenting his subjects. His affable disposition and that of Mrs. King, is said to have had much to do with making the general public feel at home at the church.

Trades Farm for Portales Irrigation Property

E. M. Hott has traded his farm near Chamberlain for an irrigated farm near Portales. A photo mailed the Leader shows Mr. Hott proudly standing beside a stream of water pouring from a shallow depth by the aid of the centrifugal pump, a method found successful in the famed vegetable district.

Mr. Hott states that the family is located permanently and well pleased with prospects for a bumper crop rain or shine.

With two good wells and a fine orchard, Mr. Hott will have something to show prospective immigrants who want to locate. He is in the realty business and proves his faith in the country by his own works.

Teachers to Attend Adult Training School

Donley county teachers in the government adult training schools of the past winter are to attend a special training course at Lubbock beginning this week for a month's session.

Those attending from Donley county are Mrs. J. B. Millsap, Mrs. Carlton Hall, Misses Nina and Maude Crawford, Mrs. W. T. Lacey, Miss Leona Merritt and Earl Jones.

SMITH BROTHERS WILL CELEBRATE WITH BARBECUE

First Anniversary Refining Company Owned by Four Brothers

The Smith Refining company of McLean will celebrate its first anniversary this Thursday evening at 6 p. m. Senator Clint Small and other well known speakers will be present.

In addition to the speaking, a barbecue served in cowpuncher style with the trimmings as an evidence of appreciation, will be enjoyed by a large number of personal friends of the members of the firm, and their customers.

Local employees of the Smith Bros. gin are expected to be numbered among the crowd. "Preparations have been made to entertain five hundred," Bert Smith stated yesterday.

The refinery that distills gasoline for practically all the major companies of this district, is owned by Bert Smith of Clarendon, Vester Smith of McLean who is general manager, and Porter and Ruel Smith of Shamrock.

In addition to their refinery and oil interests, the Smith brothers own extensive gin and land interests in this section of the Panhandle. They have been foremost developers of the Panhandle for almost twenty years.

Anglers Chase Finney Tribe Up Colorado Way

Just like an old gander leading the geese south each fall is Supt. H. T. Burton, except that he leads a bunch to Antonita, Colorado then out on a small stream said to abound in speckled and rainbow trout.

Last week there followed him a number of men, a part of whom had no earthly excuse, and were forced to take their families. In this list is the leader, Mrs. Burton and little Nelda Sue going along—note the first time either. Then Clyde J. Douglas took his family, possibly for the first time. Louie E. Thompson took his family to bask in the odor of fish wafted by refreshing snow breezes from white cap mountains.

Meredith Gentry and Ira Merchant went along presumably to dig bait for that "professor of pices" and old playmate, Supt. Harley True Burton. He has a way with both fish and men. The bait diggers hope to learn how to lure the fish to a safe landing on the bank, not having had any luck on other occasions.

SINGERS WILL MEET SUNDAY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Donley County Singers To Hold Sixteenth Monthly Convention

Secretary L. H. Earthman of the Donley County Singing Convention calls attention to the meeting here next Sunday at 2 p. m. The session will be held in the First Baptist church.

"This will be the sixteenth meeting of the organization, and every first Sunday of the past sixteen months has been a clear weather day, with the exception of the first Sunday in March when a shower came late in the afternoon," says Secretary Earthman.

A large crowd is always present at these conventions, and it will be necessary to come early in order to get a seat.

Singers come from all over the county, and some good talent comes from surrounding counties.

Sometimes a community puts on a program using their own singers. Specialty numbers intersperse the regular program. South Hall county has some excellent singers who most always make it a point to be present.

A cordial invitation is given the general public to share in the singing, or be present to enjoy vocal music made by others.

YOUNG LADY IS BADLY INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Three Are Crippled and Two Cars Smashed in Collision Saturday Night

Escaping death as if by a miracle, occupants of two cars that struck "head-on" about 10:30 Saturday night on Highway 5 just south of the section house, are slowly improving from wounds, one being confined to the hospital.

Erskin Butler was in the act of going up the incline when John Bruce Riley, accompanied by Miss Nodema Mason of Ashtola seated in a Chevrolet, attempted to pass the Butler car. When almost even with the car, another car said to be coming at high speed was upon them in a cloud of dust. Riley switched back to get behind the Butler car but not before the V-8 driven by Alex Cooke had attempted to pass between the two cars as the safest course.

With Cooke were Bill Greene Jr. and Miss Frances Fowler. This car and the Chevrolet driven by John Bruce Riley came together with terrific speed a moment after the Cooke car had bent the fender of the Butler car.

From the appearance of the Chevrolet, which is owned by L. M. Marshall who resides on the W. K. Davis farm near Sunnyview, the V-8 ran up over a portion of the car scattering the top and a portion of the car body over the highway. The front was driven in with the radiator bradded to the motor. Apparently the only parts intact were the two hind wheels.

Miracles are yet possible, say those who have looked at the Chevrolet which is now stored at the Palmer Motor company. From out of this wreckage Miss Mason came with but a few scratches and bruises. Young Riley has a bad gash above the eyes, cuts on the arm and leg besides numerous body lacerations and bruises. Neither suffered broken bones.

The V-8 driven by young Cooke is owned by his uncle, Bill Cooke. This car is badly damaged on the driver's side with the front axle driven back underneath the motor. Glass is broken and the body crushed and twisted. Out of the V-8 Miss Frances Fowler, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Fowler, was taken unconscious to Adair hospital. She suffered few cuts and bruises, but a lick above the eyes appears to be serious.

The young lady remained unconscious for several hours. In fact she was not conscious until Tuesday, and then only momentarily. Physicians believe that she is improving and has a good chance to recover.

Alex Cooke sustained a broken arm, gashes and bruises. Bill Green Jr. has a number of scratches and a cut on the head.

All of the victims today are able to get about with the exception of Miss Fowler who remains a patient in the hospital. Her father is employed in highway work, residing in Clarendon.

The accident is said to have been unavoidable due to the dust obstructing the vision of at least two of the car drivers.

School Officials to Have Conference at Canyon

Speakers at the school officials' conference to be held at Canyon August 8th will include Dr. J. A. Hill, President of W. T. S. T. College; Dr. L. A. Woods, State Supt. Public Instruction; C. M. Elwell and S. O. Murdock of the State Dept. of Education.

The subjects will include Classification, standardization, transportation of schools. Also new school laws and the matter of high school tuition.

County school boards, county superintendents, parent-teacher associations and others interested in school progress are invited to her the lectures.

Mr. Poovey, president of the Donley county Board of Education urgently requests that Donley county be well represented.

COTTON GROWERS FACE GIN TIE-UP BY COURT RULE

Growers of Donley Co. Are In Lucky Class Having Received Tags Early

A federal court decision paralyzing the movement of a fourth of the nation's cotton crop this season. Although tags for an estimated four of the expected three million bale crop in Texas have been mailed out of Washington, a delay in sending out the other 75 percent will mean a complete gin tie-up as cotton cannot be moved without a tag.

The Texas Ginner's Association has secured a federal injunction in this state preventing the internal revenue bureau from collecting the AAA ginner's tax. The U. S. Supreme Court is expected to make a ruling on the matter before September 1st.

Donley county farmers received their allotment of tags just before the order went into effect stopping shipment of tags from Washington. This means that local cotton growers need pay no further attention to the matter.

A late dispatch states that the U. S. Senate has passed a bill allowing the payment of the AAA tax for the 1935-36 season regardless of what the supreme court might do in ruling on the ginner's controversy.

Successful Revival Closes At Hedley Wednesday

Closing what he termed to be the most successful meeting that he has ever conducted, James L. Standridge baptized ten people into Christ early Wednesday morning. A large crowd gathered for this early morning service.

Standridge began the meeting on July 21st and the meeting was to have closed Tuesday night. At the Tuesday night service nine came forward, seven of them asking to put on Christ in Baptism. Their baptismal service was arranged for Wednesday morning. Another invitation was extended at the water's edge with six coming forward. Three of that number came for baptism.

During the meeting 46 people accepted the invitations: 17 were baptized, and 29 were restored. Some of this latter group placed membership with the Hedley congregation. The church asked Standridge to return next year for another meeting which invitation he accepted.

LOWE TO MAKE WELCOME ADDRESS OLD SETTLERS

Old Settlers' Picnic Will Be Held at Tate Park August 16th

Tate Park is located about six miles northeast of Hedley and is the regular rally ground of the old-timers each year in observing their annual get-together.

With each succeeding year, the crowd grows and grows until it is a problem to care for them except for the greater preparations that are made. Those eligible are citizens who have been residents of Donley county for 20 years or more, it is said.

The following program is announced by E. H. Watt, chairman of the program committee:

- Band Music—10 a. m.
- Prayer—Rev. E. V. Hendricks.
- Welcome Address—Judge S. W. Lowe.
- America—By Audience.
- Quartet—Arranged by Mrs. Joe Crawford.
- Band Music.
- Business Meeting.
- Duet—Arranged by Robert Watkins.
- Noon.
- Band Music—1:30.
- Quartet—Arranged by L. H. Earthman.
- String Music—Arranged by M. W. Mosley.

Secretary Wallace To Speak In Amarillo Next Monday Explaining Present Farm Status

WORKMEN BEGIN REMODELING OF NEW SHOW HOUSE

Historic Old Borchers Saloon Building to Become Modern Picture Show Theatre

The Borchers building, said to have been constructed about 45 years ago, is now undergoing a changed face to make way for a modern picture show building. The property was recently purchased by Homer Mulkey.

Rubbish from the second story is being trucked to the dump north of town. The second floor will be removed and a balcony will take its place. "Nothing but a portion of the outer walls will be included in the new building," Mr. Mulkey stated in discussing his plans for a modern show house.

The old two story rock building could tell of some stirring events within her walls if she could only talk. Under the new change, the ghosts of other days in Clarendon's pioneer period when the six-gun was the law, will be superseded by childhood's happy laughter as "Mickey Mouse" appears on the screen.

Years bring changing customs and appeals. From a gathering place of men, the average crowd of the 80's, one could hardly think that the old building would frown upon her new audience of quiet law-abiding picture show fans. Not that all who entered saloons were wild, not at all, but the change in custom is 'sompin' when older heads of today compare the average pioneer saloon crowd with a present day picture show audience.

Wildcat Test Going Down Northeast of Turkey

Hall county sees as her next test in a new oil play the Knorpp No. 1 twelve miles northeast of Turkey. The contract depth is 6,000 feet. It is a Kemnitz-Johnson contract with W. T. Davis in charge of operations.

The well was spudded in Sunday afternoon, a number from here going down for the show. This test is believed by geologists to be an extension of the Donley county field. A test east of Goldston some years ago showed a gas test most favorable, but was abandoned just as prospects were most promising.

Walter Wilson Says Western Country Looks Hard

Despite the temporary dry spell here where crops are looking their best in years, Walter Wilson thinks this is an oasis as compared with what he saw on a recent trip to Phoenix, Arizona from where he returned Tuesday.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitlock. Mrs. Dooley Bradford, a daughter of Mrs. Wilson, and her babe returned with them.

Harry Brumley Entertains Visiting Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Brumley are this week keeping open house and otherwise enjoying what might be termed a sort of family reunion. Three of Mr. Brumley's sisters are visiting him.

The sisters are Mrs. Minnie McCarty of Yukon, Oklahoma; Mrs. Charley Love of Vaughan, New Mexico, and Mrs. Alta Clark of Cisco. Mr. Clark and his son Charles came along with Mrs. Clark.

Stephenson Again Directs Clarendon Band

Acceding to the wishes of a large number of friends who admire his skill and the results obtained by him in times past, Gus B. Stephenson again takes charge of the Clarendon band this week. Practice periods are being held twice a week—Monday and Thursday at 8 p. m.

Henry Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, in coming to the Panhandle at this time will be the first of the New Deal cabinet to visit this section. Coming at a time when the AAA plan is in jeopardy because of a question of its legality, his announcements will be watched with interest among farmers and stockmen all over the nation.

Secretary Wallace will speak at the Municipal Auditorium at 3 p. m., Monday, August 5th. Congressman Marvin Jones, chairman of the House Agricultural Committee, will likely make an address following Mr. Wallace.

"Not only agriculture leaders, but also any others interested are invited to greet this distinguished visitor," declared Grover Hill, who is chairman of the general committee making arrangements to entertain Secretary Wallace.

"Agriculture is facing many difficulties and it is important to know what our Secretary has in mind," he continued. "People will want to see and hear the man under whose management they have received wheat and cotton allotment checks, feed and seed loans." "There will be a tremendous interest throughout the country in this address," said Mr. Hill, "because the Department of Agriculture has become most important in government and its policies affect 40,000,000 persons."

The visiting cabinet member is a real dirt farmer and developed Wallace corn, one of the popular varieties in Iowa. He also operates a dairy, feeding out Panhandle cattle every year in his lots.

This true friend of the farmer, the man to whom farmers pin their faith, is coming to Amarillo and the Panhandle on a tour of inspection and as a compliment to Congressman Marvin Jones.

Between the Amarillo congressman and the Secretary of Agriculture a warm friendship has developed.

Congressman Jones was the author of a major portion of AAA acts, such as the wheat allotment and the cattle program, which saved the livestock industry, and it was under Wallace that all of the triple A activities were developed and directed.

"The AAA is the most far-reaching program ever undertaken by the government for rehabilitation of agricultural interests," Mr. Hill declared.

"The Wallaces have been pioneers, working for the interests of the farmers," continued Mr. Hill. "For three generations the family has published a farm magazine in the corn belt. The present Secretary's father also served as Secretary of Agriculture. And since Henry Wallace became a member of the cabinet he has written three books, devoted to agricultural interests. All of them have been read widely."

Congressman Marvin Jones has advised friends he will make every effort to be in Amarillo when Secretary Wallace is a visitor.

"This visit from a member of the President's cabinet is not just an Amarillo affair, but an event of importance for all of the Panhandle, eastern New Mexico and Oklahoma," observed Mr. Hill.

Gulf Service Station Sells Interests to Jackson

The Gulf service station operated by the Jacksons on East First street for the past six years, changed hands this week when the Gulf company disposed of interests to Otis Jackson.

The station will be operated as an individual independent station, but will continue to dispense Gulf products, it is said.

Revival to Begin Sunday At Church of Christ

Elder G. K. Wallace of Wichita, Kansas will begin a revival at the local Church of Christ Sunday morning.

It is said that the revival will be conducted over a ten day period. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of the services.

KILLER GETS THREE LIFE SENTENCES.

Wonders never cease. Down at Angleton last week Clyde Thompson was given his third life term on a murder charge, the last committed while in the penitentiary. He started out in Eastland county by killing Leon Shook "just to see him kick", as he testified in court.

Somehow it appears to be an awful shock to drag a man out of state prison and soak him with the third life term. The jury must have thought they were trying a cat!

PLANNING BOARDS MOST IMPORTANT.

Never before in the history of Donley county will a small body of men have as much responsibility as the County Planning Board for the next few months. All the money to be spent under the PWA in this county must first have the approval of the local board. Requests made of the District Board will mean nothing except through the local board. In fact the time is ripe for the local board to take the "bull by the horns" and see that our section gets every dollar for improvements and labor to which it is entitled.

CARS AND CATTLE COLLISIONS.

After August 10th it shall become permissible for an autoist to wreck his machine by running into a herd of cattle on the highway, under the new law. In other words, the cow owner is not liable if the stock are under herd. If a rushing car tops the hill and runs smack into a cow, her pedigree makes no difference—the owner is not responsible if he or his representative herder is present to see the fun.

Until that date, no herder is required in grazing the highways. The new law will afford quite a bit of native amusement when the Centennial visitors from other states come over Texas borders. Those not accustomed to highway pastures may also get thrills by dodging through a herd of bossies.

*** **

MEDICAL TRUST ASKS FREE SPACE.

The average ethical medical practitioner may or may not know that the taxpayers of Texas are paying for his advertising. Sending out circular letters from the state Department of Health advising the "deer pepul" to go to the doctor for this and that is paid for by the taxpayers.

If publishers give space to such articles, the space should be paid for just the same as other advertising.

The "ethics" of the profession will not permit the family physician to do his own advertising in his own way, if he wishes, but compels him to become a party to an agency of free space graft, through the state department maintained at state expense to boost a particular system or school.

This publication is more than willing to publish articles of general value to its readers, but articles that are instantly recognized as veiled advertising, are just as promptly consigned to the waste basket.

CENTENNIAL RUNS AFOUL OF POLITICS.

Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul, who is said to aspire to the attorney generalship of Texas, dealt the Centennial a crushing blow last week in Austin when he allotted Ft. Worth's stock yards $250,000.00. This sum was taken from the amount allotted the Historical Committee, two members of which promptly resigned when politics superseded their first instructions.

Woodul promptly explained that he made the Ft. Worth allocation in compliance with a promise "made senators to get them to vote for the Centennial bill" long before the present commission was created.

So far as Donley county is concerned, we can have an "Old Settlers Reunion" one day, and all visit the Palo Duro State Park the next, and forget all about the political graft second state. That is if the cows are not using the highway the second day.

OFFERED WITHOUT COMMENT

COUNTY OF TARRANT)

STATE OF TEXAS) SS.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared G. W. Wood, known by me to be the person whose name is subscribed hereto, by me being duly sworn, upon his oath deposes and says:

My name is G. W. Wood; I am 78 years of age and reside at the Masonic Old People's Home located near Arlington, Texas. During the earlier years of my life I lived at Whitesboro, Texas where I was engaged in the farming and cattle business. During these years, and as a result of endless toil, I was able to accumulate an estate that would have in my declining years supplied myself and my family a comfortable income. I lived under the code of the soil, with faith in my State and its laws, and firm in the belief that its citizens would be protected from the activities of unscrupulous swindlers. I understood the simple economic law that money well invested would yield greater returns than tiresome toil of the farm.

One day during 1918 I received and believed alluring information that assured me great wealth through an oil investment. From that time, and over a period of years, I continued to invest my savings in various oil lease and royalty enterprises, but each proving a hoax and a swindle, but with my faith still unshaken I hoped that each new venture would retrieve my former loss. During the period of 1918 and until about 1933 I purchased oil lease royalties and stock offerings of such promoters as:

- Chester R. Bunker's (Wildcats)
- La Rue Oil Association
- Jack Schultz
- Revere Oil Company
- Texas Oil Reclamation Company
- Ranger Rock Island Oil Co.
- White Point Oil Company
- Wichita Clay Oil Company
- Iowa Park Oil Lease Development Company
- Mammoth Oil Production Co.
- The Ligon Company
- Eastern Oil and Gas Company

Early Bird Oil Company and others, whose names I have forgotten. In these, my investments were approximately $40,000.00, from which I received a total return of not to exceed $300.00.

I saw my cash, my cattle and my home transformed into high-powered automobiles, persian rugs and mink coats in the hands of unscrupulous promoters, and only then was my faith shaken in the protection that I might expect from my State government.

The "Texas Securities Act" has been explained to me, and I understand that it is for the purpose of protecting credulous investors from unscrupulous oil promoters, and it is my firm belief that such a law is and has been a necessity for the protection of Texas people and the oil investing public. Had such a law been effective I would have been today a prosperous and respected farmer and cattle raiser in or near Whitesboro, Texas, and had it not been for the haven offered me by the Masonic Lodge I would be without any means of livelihood for myself and invalid wife during the declining years of my life.

May God speed the efforts of those in whom the success of this very necessary law reposes.

Further, the proponent saith not.

(Signed) G. W. Wood

Did you ever see a man who was married to a mule? One kind of a fellow who never gave his alleged wife any consideration though she might lay ill for days.

Mules were more valuable than women in the days when parents looked upon each addition to their family as just one more cotton picker—when boys and girls were mere chattels.

Many a mother laid her babe on a quilt at the end of a cotton row because she lived under the iron heel of a cotton speculator.

Somehow, folks, it never did seem right. Through the years we have gradually gotten away from that to some extent.

Many a young man who insisted on living his own life, is now known by a number.

CHURCH RECEPTION IS HELD FRIDAY NIGHT

A reception was held at the Methodist church Friday night honoring the organist, Miss Delphia Bones, bride-elect who was leaving for Indiana, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Braswell, song leader and Sunday school teacher respectively. A large number was present and an interesting program of a varied nature was presented. The highlight of the evening is said to have been a song by little Master Manley Bryan.

The affair was held on the church lawn which was arranged in the form of a flower garden with a rustic well in the center.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cauthen and Arthur Chase furnished music. A Tom Thumb wedding after which the "bride" presented her bouquet to Miss Bones.

Gifts were presented by the pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth. A chest of flat silver was presented Miss Bones and an electric dripulator to Mr. and Mrs. Braswell.

Punch was served from the rustic well by Ardis Patman and Sam Barrow while Avis Lee McElvany served cookies.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Drennon and daughter, Ethlyn, left Monday for Colorado on a vacation trip.

DRY LEADER SAYS REPEAL HAS FAILED

Bootlegging And Crime Show Steady Increase Rather Than Decrease

"If on August 24th Texas votes to legalize liquor, and on August 25th each citizen in Texas should begin to drink and drink it daily for five years, Texas Democracy would degenerate into a drunken Mobocracy. Drunkenness and Democracy do not go hand in hand," according to Rev. E. A. Maness, Panhandle District Chairman, of the Texas League Against Whiskey, who is leading in a vigorous campaign against repeal in Texas on August 24th.

Mr. Maness says: "The Call of the Hour is a call to vote against repeal because repeal has failed. Three years ago the wets said vote for national repeal, and that national repeal would decrease taxes. But Congress is now voting to raise taxes higher than at any time since the close of the World War.

"The wets said vote for the repeal of the 18th amendment in order to decrease our national indebtedness. But in three years after national repeal the national debt has been increased to the amount of $14,000,000,000.

"The wets said vote for repeal and bring about real temperance and decrease drunkenness. But drinking and drunkenness has doubled since we voted to repeal the 18th amendment.

"The wets said vote for repeal and decrease bootlegging. We voted for repeal all right but the treasury department of the U. S. says that bootlegging has increased. A statement was recently given to the press of the nation that more bootleg liquor is being sold in America at this time than legal liquor. More than half of the liquor being drunk in America today is being illegally sold, according to the report of the Federal Government. Just to the extent that a state licenses the sale of liquor it increases bootlegging, because where liquor is legally sold it is well nigh impossible to catch and convict a bootlegger for selling it.

"The wets said vote for repeal and save the boys and girls from drink. But in place of saving our boys and girls from drink, repeal has made bar tenders and bar maids out of them." Half of the wine, and beer and liquor that is being sold in America today, it is said, is being sold by boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 21. Under the regime of repeal, liquor taverns are becoming more damning in their environment than the old time saloon bar.

"Do not be misled by the pleas of the wets, like that made by C. L. Wakefield, chairman of the Dallas county repeal forces, in the Dallas News of Sunday, July 21st. He says: 'Revenue to be gained from the millions of dollars worth of liquor now being sold in the state would enable us to have our tax burdens eased.' National repeal has not eased any body's tax burden. Any man or woman who is bootlegging liquor in Texas today, will bootleg it after the election.

If Texas votes for repeal and raises $10,000,000 as a liquor tax, it will then take $20,000,000 in taxes to enforce the new liquor laws and pay for the added increase in the crime bill of the state, and for the accidental loss of life and property. Repeal means to increase taxes in place of decreasing them. An illustration of this is seen in the states of New York and Kansas. New York collects more liquor tax than any state in the nation and yet it has at this time a $90,000,000 deficit. Kansas, a dry state, the driest in the union, has balanced its state budget and lowered its taxes.

"Vote against repeal, for repeal has failed to decrease automobile accidents. 5000 more people are now killed annually in automobile accidents than when we had the 18th amendment," said Maness.

LATEST ROGERS COMEDY TERMED LAUGH HOLIDAY, TO BE SHOWN WED. AND THURS.

Will Rogers' fans all over the country are waiting for the laugh holiday that will give them their favorite star in "Doubting Thomas," coming Wednesday and Thursday to the Pastime Theatre, in which Will portrays the funniest role he has yet attempted, in a picture that is a laugh cyclone by itself, and one which the whole family will enjoy.

Advance reports have it that this Fox Film, produced by B. G. DeSylva and directed by David Butler from the play "The Torch Bearers," by George Kelly, has had a rib-rocking effect on all the audiences of the theatres in which it has played.

Skipworth (who played the same role on the stage) persuades his wife, Billie Burke, that she has been suppressed all of her married life and that she really belongs to the stage and her public.

Rogers' son, Frank Albertson, finds that his sweetie, Frances Grant, has also become stage-struck. Father and son have their troubles after wife and fiancée appear in an amateur charity show which will force Pastime Theatre audiences to hold on to their seats.

Rogers finally effects a cure that will make America's ace humorist more loved than ever.

Sterling Holloway is a scream as the bungling sound-effects man for the amateur play and the rest of the supporting cast, including Gail Patrick, John Qualen, Johnny Arthur, Helen Flint, Fred Wallace and T. Roy Barnes, are more than adequate in their roles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wynn of Pampa were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Merchant.

W. P. Cagle Jr. and children, Rosene and W. P. III of San Prede California are visiting in the Van Kennedy home.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Merchant and son, Calvin, and John Blackburn visited their sister Mrs. Harrison at Stratford Saturday.

Rogers portrays the role of a simple, home-loving sausage manufacturer, whose home-life is suddenly tossed into a turmoil when an amateur impresario, Alison

INTERESTING FACTS REGARDING TEXAS HISTORY IN AN EARLY EXCITING EPOCH

Claims against the Government for losses suffered on the Texas frontier from Indian depredations must have been numerous during the years that followed the Civil War, for this subject occupied Congress' attention many times in the last two decades of the nineteenth century. In the James Buckner Barry papers, now deposited in the archives of the University of Texas library, there are dozens of documents and communications concerning this problem. Barry himself was one of the victims of Indian violence and thievery, and these letters and legal papers reveal his long drawn out efforts to obtain some recompense for his losses.

It was early in 1888 that Colonel Barry wrote to Washington seeking information as to how to present his claims. He received a reply from J. W. Throckmorton, evidently a member of the committee on pensions, as follows:

"In answer to your letter I have to say that claims for depredations committed (by Indians having treaties with the United States) prior to Dec. 1st 1873 were required to be filed with the authorities of the government within three years after the time the depredation was committed, and if not so filed within the three years were barred by the statute.

"Claims for depredations committed by treaty Indians since Dec. 1st 1873 if not heretofore presented may be hereafter filed.

"If the claims you speak of are of the latter class, and you can prove the tribe or tribes of Indians committing the offense, the time, the character & value of the property stolen or destroyed, and the locality when it occurred by the oath of the claimant two or more witnesses we will, upon request, send you blanks & instructions.

"If any action of congress is had that will remove the bar to claims incurred prior to Dec. 1st 1873 that were not presented in time, you will as notified. There is an effort to get legislation to let in the barred claims & to create a tribunal before which all these claims can be tried.

"There is no law to pay any of these claims—Only measures authorizing their investigation after they are established they have to go to congress for appropriations to pay them.

"There is no use to get up testimony for the claims that are barred—If congress relieves the bar then will be time enough for that.

"I have made an arrangement with one excellent atty. living here to attend to these matters—His fees are 25 per cent on amount of recovery."

Eleven months later, Colonel Barry received a communication from Isaac R. Hitt, Illinois State Agent, dated February 5, 1899, stating:

"The Indian depredation bill which passed the House last session has just been favorably reported in the Senate with some amendments.

"This bill provides that all Indian depredation claims go to a special Court for adjustment. If you have no attorney in Washington to look after your interests we would offer our services for a fee of 25 per cent charging nothing if we fail—

"Reference given if desired—"

Barry evidently did not accept Hitt's offer until some months later, but he did submit his claims, attested to by a Bosque County notary. On April 6, 1889, he made the following affidavit:

"Before me D. R. Mitchell Justice of the Peace and exofficio notary Public in and for Bosque County Texas, on this day personally appeared James B. Barry of said County and State to me well known who after being duly sworn Deposeeth and Says that on or about the twenty ninth day of December 1857 the Comanche Indians made a raid through his settlement in the day time Killed one Mr. Bean and his negro fellow Killed one Mr. Johnson and Caried his son Peter Johnson off Captive that they taken off seventy eight head of his horses from where he had them herded seventy of which he never recovered or received any anumeration for from any person whatever, that said horses was well worth fifty dollars per head on an average, making in the aggregate $3500 that he knew them to be Comanches Indians from the following Circumstances, that himself and one John Walker followed after them 140 miles to near the Comanche agency on the Clear fork of the Brasos River near Camp Cooper they went to said Comanche agency seen some theirs and neighbors horses there that the sub agent one Coln Leeper made them give up ali he and Walker could recognize amongst them were eight of his own, that he talked to one the friend by Comanche Chiefs through the Government interperter. One Jim Shaw he understood from him to be a Deliware Indian who told him his the Chiefs wild brothers Came there to the agency and persuaded his young off to depredate on his white brothers that in the division of Capturd horses his young men brought in those he recovered. Further one Shawnee Indian who followed the trail while fresh said he knew from the sign found on trail that they were Comanches, That he Barry is now sixty seven years old and lives on the same place he did in 1857 that his P.O. is Walnut that he was induced to move where he now lives by the Indian agents reporting all the Indians friendly on then frontier. That the damage of said loss was at least ten per centum per annum since 57 making 31 years amounting to ten thousand eight hundred and fifty dollars both loss and damage."

(Signed) James B. Barry

Barry's testament was accompanied by the sworn statements of several other Texans whose story of the depredations collaborated his. The matter was caught up in a mass of red tape.

That Barry's claim was by no means an isolated one is clearly dicated in the letter which his friend Jo Abbott, a member of the United States House of Representatives, wrote him from Washington, April 26, 1890:

"I am in receipt of yours of the 16th addressed to ol. Stewart and myself enclosing the affidavits of several gentlemen as to the loss sustained by you from Indian depredations.

"The Secretary of the Interior who has to pass upon such claims will not act on your papers because the same are barred by limitations—The only chance for you is through a special relief bill, and candor compels me to say, this is a 'Slim Chance'.

"There are new between six and seven thousand bills asking for similar relief said claims aggregating over nineteen millions of dollars. Some of these claims perhaps half of them have been before Congress for many years some of them for twenty years.

"The committee on Indian Depredation claims have before the House a bill which has for its object the creation of Court of Indian Depredation Claims, and providing for the transfer of all these Claims, without regard to the age of the claim, to said Court.

"Of course, I can't tell whether this bill will pass or not. If it does, you may in the course of time get your money. But if congress refuses to create this court and take the claims out of the Statute of limitations, I see no chance in the world ever to secure what is due you—The Chairman of the Committee tells me that the Committee is sover-run with these claims, they have quit reporting any of them, and have concluded to make a general law referring all these Claims to a Court as before stated. In order to preserve your claim, I have introduced a bill for your relief, and sent the same with the affidavits to the Committee—Committees never give receipts and therefore I can't send you one, but every Committee has a clerk whose duty it is to reserve all papers, records &c—I shall vote for the bill creating the Court to pass on these claims, as I regard it as the only way by which any of these claims will ever be paid."

Your responsibility will be increased at the Baptist Church next Sunday in the absence of the pastor who is away in a revival meeting. The greatness of a church is known by the faithfulness and devotion of her membership who bears the burden of the load in the heat of the day continually throughout the years. I feel it in my heart that you will not let down in your enthusiasm for your church at a time when she needs you.

There will be services as usual with the exception of the Sunday evening service. We are arranging for a speaker to bring a message on temperance Sunday morning. You will be interested to hear this message in view of the coming election August 24th. There will be no preaching service Sunday evening due to the revival in progress at The First Christian Church. There is also an open air meeting beginning at Lelia Lake, Sunday, Rev. Clint Lankester of Pampa doing the preaching. Attend one of these services Sunday evening. The Training Service will begin promptly at 7:15 and close at 8:00 o'clock, giving you plenty of time to attend preaching elsewhere.

Our Associational year closes with August. We have had a great year, with one exception, that of soul winning. We have not been as diligent as we ought in soul winning. May we determine, every one of us, in our hearts, that we will win somebody to a knowledge of Christ as their Savior before or during our meeting which begins August 18th.

John Nash, son of Claude Nash, and Miss Zell Biffle were married at Memphis recently. The bride is a graduate of the Wheatland, N. M. high school, and Mr. Nash is a graduate of the Hedley high school. They will reside on the large Nash farm east of Hedley.

SEES INFLATION A SLOW PROCESS

A Real Danger for the Future, Col. Ayres Tells Banking Groups.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—Present prospects do not indicate that inflation severe enough to cause further dollar devaluation will come soon in this country, but as an ultimate development it seems to be a very real danger, Leonard P. Ayres, Vice President Cleveland Trust Company, said here tonight in an address before the Graduate School of Banking. He believed this statement to be true "unless the government enters frankly upon a policy of issuing fiat money with which to meet its expenses." At present that does not seem to be in sight, he said.

The Graduate School is operated jointly by the American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University to offer advanced studies for bank officers.

"We have so enormously increased the capacity of our banking system for credit expansion that it is difficult to see how we could have a vigorous business revival without having it develop into a credit inflation," Colonel Ayres declared.

Inflation a Slow Process

If inflation does come it will be a slow process, he said, pointing out that in Germany, France, Belgium and Italy it took about five years to develop from the time when the governments entered upon policies of financing large peace-time deficits by bank credit up to the time when the public generally began to spend money rapidly because of fear that it would still further depreciate.

"If we are to go through such a period here it would seem likely that it might last rather longer than the corresponding periods did abroad," he said. "Its beginning would date from the spring of 1933 when we left the old gold basis for our money and entered upon the policy of financing large governmental deficits by the sale of Federal securities mainly to banks rather than to private investors.

"The method that we are following is the one that proved disastrous in Europe for in all those countries including Germany, the increasing issues of money that caused the inflations were not mere printing press issues of fiat currency, but were secured by government bonds and notes discounted at the banks."

Among the clearest lessons taught by the European experience, Colonel Ayres asserted, is that there are "no good hedges against inflation." He added:

Did Not Lighten Debt Burdens

"One of the strange facts about these inflations is that while they destroyed the values of most existing debts, they did not succeed in lightening the debt burdens of either the people as a whole, or of the corporations.

"Inflation destroys the value of bonds and mortgages and so confiscates the property of these holders of obligations and hands it over to the shareholders and the equity owners. However, it introduces so many new economic difficulties that these share and equity holders are at once forced to incur new indebtedness so that when stabilization comes the problems of debt are about as troublesome as they were before, or even more so."

The five requisites of inflation were listed by Colonel Ayres as first, a period of sustained active business; second, a rising stock market; third, real credit expansion; fourth, greater out-flow of gold "than we can tolerate which would force us to cut our currency entirely free from gold"; and fifth, continued large budget deficits in government operation.

MARTIN
Mrs. Jim Baker

There were fifty four present at Sunday school Sunday morning which shows a little gain over the attendance the preceding Sunday. We hope to have our entire enrollment attending again soon.

Miss Lodema Mason was one of the victims in the bad car wreck that took place in the west edge of town Saturday night. Fortunately she was not so seriously injured as some of the others and considers herself very lucky to get out with only small cuts and bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. Vestal Mosley and children of Amarillo visited in the C. J. Talley home Friday night and Saturday.

Mrs. W. O. Butler and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McAdams have been very sick this week with something like cholera morbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rundell are visiting relatives at Glenrose this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Arnold of Naylor were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon of Clarendon spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cannon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood and son, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Roberts and daughter of Lelia Lake and Mr. and Mrs. George Bain and children of Dumas spent the day Sunday with the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hodges.

We are very glad to report that Mrs. Claude Easterling's eyes are improving some.

NAYLOR
(Mrs. R. Bowlin)

Rev. Eugene Brister, preached for us Sunday, filling his brother's appointment. His timely message was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. W. D. Van Eaton of Clarendon and her daughter, Mrs. James of Va. visited with Misses Minnie, Lou and Ava Naylor Friday bringing with them Mrs. Jo Naylor and daughter of Portales, N. Mex. who will spend some time as their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mann were Sunday dinner guests of their daughter Mrs. Tommy Bain and Mr. Bain.

Mrs. Richmond Bowlin was hostess to the Birthday Club Thursday. Mmes. T. L. Naylor, Eugene Estlack and George Kettle, honorees of July.

THE MILLING SANATORIUM

MINERAL WELLS, TEXAS

Five years ago I took treatment from H. H. Milling for gall stone. He entirely cured me and I have not been bothered since. I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Milling and his Sanatorium to any who are sick. I know that he effects cures of all kinds where all others fail. The fact that I have had no further trouble convinces me that his cures are permanent. Any inquiries addressed to me will be answered promptly.

"RELIGION IN ACTION"

Text: "Pure religion and undefiled before God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world." James 1:27.

James was a practical man. He believed in the statement of Jesus, that by their fruits, ye shall know them. There are certain religious qualifications names in his writings. One should be swift to hear—and slow to speak. It is very important that there be hearers. It is also important that the hearers listen to the right thing. God, said, "This is my beloved Son, Hear ye him." The disciples of Pythagoras were not permitted to speak in his presence for five years. He wanted them to listen to him for a while before attempting to talk. Much talking is not a sign of religion. We are also warned by James to be, "Slow to anger." Loss of temper is too easily excused. James also tells us, "Put away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness." Cut off old habits. Cease doing evil things. Again we are advised, "To receive with meekness the engrafted word which is able to save the soul." The words of Christ are words of life and must be heeded and obeyed.

Certain results will be seen when men obey the voice of God's Son. Religion will be put into action and men will know that we are Christians by what we do and say. James does not name all of the results but in our text two outstanding things are mentioned. First, the care for the needy. "Visit the fatherless and widows." We serve Christ by working for and serving others in His name. Second, personal purity is taught. Keep yourself unspotted from the world. This does not mean that we must cut ourselves off from contact with the world. Christ prayed concerning his disciples, "Not that thou would take them out of the world, but keep them." We mean more to Christ and His church when we live for him daily, when we put our religion or Christianity into action. We are in the world, but not of the world. We must not disgrace Christ by doing things that would bring shame and disgrace upon Him and His church.

SOFT BALL GAMES

Many rapid and starting changes have taken place in the soft ball league during the last few days. All of the teams have made changes in the line up and all are striving hard for first place. The Lions and Methodist boys being tied for that coveted position at this time.

Last Thursday's game proved to be a very interesting one. The Oilers and Transients entertained the fans on the local sand lot. The Oilers walked off with the big end of the score. Summary, Oilers 16 hits, 9 runs. Transients, 10 hits, and 2 runs. Reed of the Oilers made a home run to start the game off.

Friday the Methodist and Highway teams clashed against each other with much blood in their eyes. The Methodist did not take any chance of there being any slip ups and made all the runs possible early in the game. In the third inning they ran in 8 runs. The highway boys taken by surprise, were handicapped and were on the defensive most of the time. Summary, Methodist, 22 hits, 14 runs. Highway, 1 run and 7 hits. High point in game, the 100 per cent batting average of Clayton of the Methodist. In four trips to the bat he made three home runs and one two-bagger.

Monday, the F.A.A.'s dropped another game to the Lions. This was one of the fastest and best games of the second schedule. More strike outs were witnessed in this game than in any other game played up to date. Summary, Lions, 4 runs, 10 hits. F.A.A.'s, 2 runs, 8 hits. High points. Home run by Cobb of the F.A.A.'s.

Tuesday, the F.A.A. and Transient teams crossed bats, and the F.A.A.'s showed but little mercy for the pitcher and fielders of the Transients. It was a slugging match with them from the very start. The Transient boys showed good sportsmanship and took the whipping like real sports. The summary: F.A.A., 21 runs, 32 hits. Transients, 2 runs, 10 hits.

DRY INK

By E. D. Landreth

Yes, the people are awakening. Over at McLean where they have had beer for some time and where some tragic incidents have alarmed the good citizens, they had a beer election a few days ago and voted beer out by a vote of almost four to one. Allenreed was the place we mentioned last week where they recently voted beer out almost twenty to one. Whiskey and gasoline do not mix well, as the people are hurriedly learning. We must burn gasoline but we do not have to have the liquor. Repeat our state prohibition law and a condition ten times worse than now will prevail. Gasoline, liquor, and the blood of the mangled will flow together. If we can retain our state prohibition with a large majority vote, conditions will improve, enforcement will improve, and before long the people will vote legal beer out of this state. Texas must be dried up. Our nation must be dried up. Our people must be sober in this complicated age of machinery. Liquor must go. There was never an age when it could do so much harm as it can do to-day. To retain our state prohibition laws on August 24th will be a beginning.

Let us not be fooled by the promises that dry counties and precincts will be protected and that the saloon is forbidden. These same promises were made by the National Democratic party concerning state protection. I quote from the platform,—"We demand that the Federal government effectively exercise its power to enable the states to effectually protect themselves against importation of intoxicating liquors in violation of their state laws."

The president in his acceptance speech said,—"We as Democrats must and will rightly and morally enable the states to protect themselves against the importation of intoxicants where such importation may violate their state laws. We must rightly and morally prevent the return of the saloon."

The people believed these promises, turned Washington over to these leaders, and permitted the 18th Amendment to be repealed. Are the dry states being protected? Is the return of the saloon being prevented? Last year, according to information coming from the headquarters of the Texas Repeal Forces,—"More than 1700 licenses to sell hard liquor were issued by Federal authorities to dealers in sixty-six counties in Texas. The saloon as defined by the extreme dries is already here." So this is the kind of protection our dry state is getting from wet politicians, and it is the same kind that dry counties and precincts will get when we repeal our Texas Dry Law. The local option clause and the promise that the saloon will not return is worth exactly nothing. (Dry Ink will be cont. next week)

Late Cherries Out-Yields Early Cherries

According to Hugh Thomson, Horticulturist of the Panhandle Agricultural Experiment Station, the late maturing cherries, such as Suda Hardy and Wragg yielded three times as many cherries as the early varieties such as Early Richmond and Dyehouse or the much planted Montmorency Strains.

The Suda Hardy variety of cherries yielded an average of over 14 pounds per tree and the Wragg yielded an average of over 8 pounds per tree, while the Early Richmond and Dyehouse and Montmorency varieties yielded on the average of only three and one-half, one, and one and three-fourth pounds respectively.

The data, of any consequence, of the six year old orchard has been collected only the last two seasons, but the data that we have available indicates that Suda Hardy and Wragg cherries are the varieties that should be planted in the High Plains area of the Panhandle. The peaches and plums were about all killed this year because of the low temperature in the late spring.

The data indicates that peaches and early blooming plums will not produce often enough to pay even in the home orchard.

Apples seem to suffer more from the hot dry winds and lack of moisture than the other fruits. They, likely will not be profitable without irrigation.

Chevrolet Finds Namesake In Kentucky Town

There are plenty of instances in which an automobile has been named after a town; but when a town is named after an automobile—well, that's news.

At least, so thought a tourist who, bowling over a fine stretch of new highway a few miles from Harlan, Ky. found himself in a small coal-mining settlement and noted a modest frame building bearing the sign: "Post Office—Chevrolet, Ky."

Scouting a story, he explored the place, which did not take long, and then sought out the postmaster, who obligingly gave him the facts.

Up to a few years ago, his informant explained, the Blue Diamond Coal Company camp, which is now the town of Chevrolet, was inaccessible except on mule-back. Though only five miles from Harlan, it might as well have been 5,000, so far as automobiles was concerned. Mountaineers came in on foot or aboard their long-eared mounts to report "another auto stuck, trying to get up here."

Then the town grew large enough to need a postoffice. The subject of a name came up, and it was agreed that the place would be named after the first car seen on its streets. And that is just what was done.

Chevrolet now has 800 residents. There are some 60 cars in town. And, as might be expected, fully half of them are Chevrolets.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen limbs, feel nervous, miserable—all upset. Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

FOOTBALL BACK IN 1901 WAS THRILLING EVENT TO CLARENDON AND GOODNIGHT

(By Wanda Mayfield)

It was a husky, hearty bunch of boys from West Texas farms and ranches that started football in Clarendon College back in 1901. News from other colleges that football was the most sensational game of the century made these ambitious young men eager to have a team for their Alma Mater.

But the boys could not play football without a coach. A canvass of the faculty was made, but not one knew anything about the rules of the game. There chanced to be a visitor in Clarendon who had played on the Weatherford College team in former seasons, and he volunteered his services. He also was willing to play on the team to add strength to the group of inexperienced fellows.

The coach found that he could not be on the team unless he was a student in the college, so he dutifully signed up for a course of penmanship and gym. For his entrance examination, the pretty young instructor of penmanship assigned him to write the sentence, "I love you" fifty times. A minute later he handed in a neat paper with the single sentence, "I love you fifty times." The teacher said he was qualified to take the course and accepted his enrollment.

The eleven fastest, heaviest, most capable boys were worked out thoroughly for the first game, which was played with the Goodnight College team at the Goodnight field. Neither team was familiar with the game, but both sides were enthusiastic, and a large crowd composed of rooters from both towns were present for the first battle.

Clarendon was not able to buy regulation suits for the team at that time, so the boys turned up their jeans for knee pads and fastened them securely with elastic. The most amusing incident of the game was seeing a big, overgrown boy (who later became a presiding elder in the North Texas Conference) with his one breeches leg flopping around his knee. He was so absorbed in his first game of football that he was unaware of anything amiss in his costume.

Scientific passes and spectacular punts were unknown to the players. They tossed the ball clumsily, ran awkwardly, and succumbed to tackling easily. Neither side had gained a score, but the Clarendon coach, wishing desperately to win, conferred hurriedly with the fullback.

"If I'm knocked out, watch my feet, and if nothing serious has happened to me, my right toes will wriggle. That will give you a chance to rest up, study the line, so you can plunge through with the ball when play is resumed. If I'm really knocked out, of course my foot won't move. We've got to win this game!"

When the Clarendonites were just ten yards from the goal, the young coach was found motionless under a heap of players. Goodnight thought they had effectively put out Clarendon's light, but the back grinned to see a foot wriggle. Time out was called, and the groaning coach insisted on finishing the game after a drink of water. The fullback obediently bucked through to victory; last minute strategy won the first official game for Clarendon.

Mrs. C. A. Burton, an instructor in the college at that time, witnessed this thrilling encounter and relates it in her own interesting manner.

Alleged Robbers Outdistance Sheriff in Mad Race

Early Saturday morning Sheriff Pierce was called by officers of Childress asking him to look out for three men in a V-8 who had allegedly robbed a service station at Shamrock and another at Childress.

In company with his deputy, Marion Quisenberry, the two officers spotted the parties for whom they were looking in the second car to pass. The race began at the east end of town.

As they crossed the track headed north, Sheriff Pierce noted that it was then seven minutes past six o'clock. Following their parties in a trail of dust which did not permit them to gain on the 200 yard advantage of distance at the start, local officers arrived at Pampa just thirty-seven minutes after leaving Clarendon.

Officers at Pampa informed Pierce that they knew the parties well, that they had done time there for petty infractions of the law, and would soon be in the toils of justice.

Young nimrods to ply their skill at the Bell ranch the past few days were Harold McDaniel, Ardis Patman, "Stopper" Powell, and Nickey Stewart. The boys returned home Tuesday reporting plenty of fishing luck.

Pastime Theatre Installs New Sound Equipment

The Pastime Theatre will be closed today, to reopen Friday night with the latest RCA Victor Sound Equipment. In line with Mr. Homer Mulkey's plans to always present the best possible entertainment values to the theatre goers of this territory, he has completed the modernizing of the Pastime Theatre with the installation of one of the very latest of sound equipments furnished by the RCA Victor Co. of Camden, New Jersey.

When sound pictures first came out, Mr. Mulkey chose RCA equipment, which has been used the past four years, so it was only natural that RCA would be his choice again. The new equipment is said to be the very finest that money can buy, and will bring to Clarendon sound pictures with realism second only to the artists on the stage in person. The programs that have been selected for this fall will now be all the finer, when heard thru the RCA Victor Phonophone equipment.

We wish to congratulate Mr. Mulkey for making this forward step in finishing the improvement of the Pastime Theatre here in Clarendon.

Standridge Delivers Farewell Sermon

Delivering his farewell sermon to the Clarendon church of Christ, James L. Standridge used the words of Paul as his text: "And now I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all them that are sanctified."

Standridge, who has served the church here since last November, expressed his appreciation to members of the church for their support of the work. He said that he looked forward to a greater work of the church here. Mr. Standridge has accepted an invitation from the Plainview church of Christ to become their minister beginning his work there September 1st. Until that time he will be engaged in evangelistic work.

JOE BOY HILL SPEAKS TONIGHT ON POLAR TRIP

Youngest and Only Texan In Byrd's Expedition To Explore Antarctic

Citizens of this section will be permitted to learn first hand of the intricate preparations for polar explorations, and the scientific discoveries through one of Admiral Byrd's personal orderlies tonight. This young man is Joe Boy Hill, a son of Dr. Hill, president of the big state teacher training school of Canyon.

Joe Boy was the youngest of the expedition. His tasks were many and varied, measured in experiences that thrill and interest his audiences in every place he has spoken.

All Texas is proud of Joe Boy—yes, even the nation. His reputation is world-wide. He, with the aid of a crawling-type tractor rescued Byrd from what is most certain to have been a death trap in the frozen regions of the Antarctic. But hear Joe Boy tell these experiences at the College Auditorium beginning at 8:30 this evening.

The most noted speaker in Texas, is coming here under the auspices of the local Lions Club. The admission charge will be 10 cents for children and 35 cents for adults. A portion of the receipts will accrue to the Crippled Children's fund of the Lions Club.

Revival at First Christian Church Continues

In spite of the hot weather the crowds have been increasing nightly, at the Evangelistic services being conducted at the First Christian Church. Rev. Leslie Moore, minister of the First Christian Church of Claude is conducting the services, and all who have attended the services have greatly impressed with his messages and the easy manner in which he presents the great truths of the Bible.

Services will continue this week and next week, and the public is invited to come out for an hour's worship and lesson period. Services begin promptly at 8:30 and close by 9:30. We feel this will be an hour well spent and that the people of Clarendon should take advantage of the programs that are being rendered, Rev. Ferrell stated today.

Another Relic is Added To Stocking Collection

A regulation whiskey bottle, such as was used here 40 years ago, was picked up on the JA ranch recently by Herman Percival who contributed the relic to the Stocking collection.

As proof that it is not a liniment bottle, the wording blown in the side of the bottle reads: "Frank Borchers, Straight Whiskies", Clarendon, Texas.

Borchers had his saloon in the two story rock building now owned by Homer Mulkey and which is soon to be remodeled for a picture show building.

Jerome D. Stocking, one skilled in passing judgment upon the approximate age of the relics in his collection, estimates the bottle to have been lost at least 40 years.

Doc Shoffitt Begins Term Of Two Years in Pen

"It won't seem so very long if they let me look after the cows and work stock down there," was the statement of Doc Shoffitt as penitentiary agent W. R. Crane took him from the Memphis jail bound for Huntsville one day last week.

Shoffitt engaged in a gun play with Sheriff Pierce and Deputy Guy Wright on the north side on December 31, 1934. He has spent the time in jails in Donley and Hall counties since that night.

Murder Mystery Suspected Near Lefors

Whether the man was killed near where his head was found in a clump of brush near Lefors on McClellan creek late Saturday evening, or was slain and dismembered and the head brought there from a distance, is a problem the officers are trying to fathom.

The head was discovered by tourists, and the matter reported to officers. Ants had eaten off practically all the flesh. A physician is said to have stated that the head had been cut from the body, and that the time was probably two days previous to Saturday.

No missing local men had been reported, and it is presumed that the dead man was a traveler or else the head had been brought there from a distance.

Three Lawyers Denver Bound Stop Over Night

Many were the compliments paid Clarendon, the water and abundance of cool air Tuesday morning as three young lawyers made ready to depart on their way for Denver after spending the night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Estlack.

The party traveling by auto included Chas. Krueger, of Austin and a son of a member of the commission of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Eric Eades of the law firm of Eades & Eades of Dallas, and Chas. Waldmann, law student of the State University who has employment in Dallas. The young men are fraternity brothers of Phifer Estlack who is a student of the Firestone school in Akron, Ohio at present.

Mrs. Joe Eudy of Brownfield is visiting in the home of her brother-in-law, John Eudy. She says Terry county, of which Brownfield is the county seat, is getting too much rain.

Moss Becomes Distributor For Federal Tires

"Federal tires and tubes have always been a popular product in this territory. I know for I sold them here for nine years straight time," R. S. Moss of the Moss Battery & Electric stated Tuesday.

He again becomes distributor for this well known line of auto needs this week. In preparation for the demand, he has stocked up with a wide variety of popular sizes in both tires and tubes for autos and trucks.

Mr. Moss says he can supply any need for tires on short notice, and that his product carries the federal bond guarantee as well as the lowest prices at which tires are sold in any market.

"My stock of tires were bought before the recent rise in tire prices, and my customers will get the benefit," he says. Read his advertisement in the Leader this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patton and son Bobby Jr. of Long Beach are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baker.

Rev. W. E. Ferrell, minister of the First Christian Church will speak at the First Christian church of Claude, Sunday August the Fourth, at both the morning and evening services.

Oleta Wood accompanied her brother-in-law, Warren Lott, to his home at Shreveport to visit her sister, Mrs. Lott.

Mrs. Carrie SoRelle returned home Friday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Jordan at Vigo Park.

Meredith Gentry and Ira Merchant returned from Antonita, Colorado Tuesday evening where they have been fishing.

Mrs. J. W. Evans left for Dallas today to be with her sister who is confined to a hospital following an auto wreck.

The Farmers gin of Wellington was destroyed by fire Tuesday night with but a small amount of insurance. A. D. Cocke is manager of the gin that has been in operation about 15 years.

The first Panhandle roasting ears came on the market at Memphis today. The corn was produced on the government relief farms under the direction of A. N. Crandall.

Mrs. Thomas Hanks and children of Corsicana, who have been visiting Mrs. Hank's mother, Mrs. L. D. Perry and sister, Miss Fannie Perry, returned home Wednesday.
