Clarendon Sales Pavilion Will Open Market For Farmers In Several Lines

The newly organized company of local business men experienced in handling stock, has left nothing undone to make of the Clarendon Sales Pavilion a complete success.

Harry Blair is president of the new organization, O. R. Castleberry is secretary and O. A. Castleberry is treasurer.

Mr. Blair is well known over North Texas, New Mexico and Louisiana as a horse and mule dealer. He maintains a headquarters here and at Carthage, Texas where his stock is properly cared for and held for sale.

The Castleberry brothers are well known in this section, operating a meat market and dealing in cattle for the markets. They have facilities for caring for a large number of cattle at any time.

All three of these are responsible business men and have been making a better market possible for local producers for some time. The new organization is designed to enlarge that market.

Col. J. B. Chambers of Wellington will cry the sales. Col. Chambers at this time conducts sales for the County Board of Development at Wellington each Thursday, and sales at Vernon each Friday. He will cry sales for the Clarendon Sales Pavilion here each Saturday.

Next Saturday, the 23rd, beginning at 12:30 will be the opening date. In addition to local buyers, outside buyers are urged to be present. A number have signified their intention of attending the sales here.

Mr. Blair has remodeled his mule barn and arranged a sales pavilion, and auction ring. He has added plenty of stall room for the care of any number of stock that may be brought in.

The sales will be made at public auction every Saturday, and all sales made on a commission basis. The market will afford farmers an opportunity of selling implements and other chattels as well as live stock.

"You can tell the people that we can handle any number of stock," Mr. Blair stated Wednesday, "and we propose to sell anything of value that is brought in to the Pavilion," he said.

Col. Chambers had several years experience as an auctioneer in New Mexico as well as North Texas, and his ability and reputation for a square deal is well known.

Donley County Schools To Contribute To Will Rogers Memorial Fund Friday

Bray To Entertain Singers All Sunday

The next meeting of the Donley County Singing Convention will be held at Bray the first Sunday in December, according to an announcement of the secretary, L. H. Earthman.

He wants the public to know that the sessions will last all day. Those attending will have baskets, boxes or tubs and plenty to eat packed in them. It will be one of those old-fashioned neighborly affairs when one may sing as much as possible, eat the best food in the land, and engage in that scarce brand of wholesome neighborly contact.

Of course all the public is invited. Leaders in the movement have always insisted that lovers of vocal music get out for every meeting. Some of the best talent in this section of the state is always on hand to entertain and train others.

Don't forget the date and the place. Bray school north of Hedley, the first Sunday in December. The meetings are held monthly, and always on the first Sunday in each month.

Cleaning Plant Installs New Pressure Filter

The firm of Shaver & Whitlock announce this week in their advertising in the Leader, a filter of the pressure type that passes white naptha through the clothing.

The firm calls attention again to the fact that this process restores the original luster to wools and silks making them look like new. The silks are hand finished.

"We are constantly on the lookout for modern machinery and other processes by which we keep our plant equipped equal to any in the Panhandle," Mr. Shaver stated today.

Every pupil of the public schools in Donley county will have the privilege of contributing to the Will Rogers Memorial Fund Friday of this week. In those schools where this arrangement might interfere with previous plans of regular school work, any day next week before Thursday will be suitable.

The funds collected from the school children will be sent to either of the four banks in the county. Pupils over the nation in the main are contributing five cents each. Those who wish to give less, or give more, may do so, but the amount of the gift to the fund is left wholly up to the individual whether it be a pupil or any one else.

The amount of such collections should be reported to J. C. Estlack chairman of the Memorial Fund for Donley county. Do not send him the collection. Place the collection on deposit in either of the four banks of Donley county and report to him the amount deposited.

The banks are reporting a satisfactory receipt of funds even before the drive gets into full swing. Special committees are:

Rural Schools—Supt. Sloan Baker.

Clarendon Public Schools—Dean R. E. Drennan.

Clarendon Seniors—Jimmie Bourland.

Clarendon Junior College—Frank Holtzclaw.

Men's Clubs—J. T. Patman.

Hedley—Zeb Mitchell, chairman.

Hedley Public Schools—Supt. W. C. Payne.

Lelia Lake Public School—Supt. B. F. Kirk.

Special Gifts Committee, Homer Mulkey, chairman.

Women's Committee—Mrs. John T. Sims, chairman.

County Executive Committee: Wesley Knorpp, chairman. Other members are J. W. Noel of Hedley, Dr. O. L. Jenkins, Odos Caraway, G. G. Kemp, W. T. Link, Doss Palmer, Nathan Cox, Joe Holland, G. E. Norwood, Ira Merchant, Bill Ray.

Either of the committeemen will assist wherever needed. Mr. Knorpp, chairman, is a former school mate of Will Rogers at Kemper Military Institute.

Remember that the number of contributions is just as important as the amount contributed. So far as possible, please report the approximate number contributing in each unit. Will Rogers always had a warm place in his heart for old Donley county and her people. This is our last time to remember Will Rogers with our appreciation in a manner that means a lasting memorial to his memory.

Again, the memorial, whether one or many, will depend upon the amount of funds contributed. The national committee has already stated that hospitals were uppermost in the mind of Will Rogers. His sympathy for common humanity will no doubt be given due consideration in the building of memorials. In that respect, hospitals will have first preference.

During his last years, Will Rogers contributed liberally to schools and hospitals. He helped poor boys and girls get an education. He helped the helpless to get well; the crippled to walk. It was a source of his greatest pleasure. The nation will remember him.

Will Rogers memorial drives are being made in practically every civilized nation on the globe at this time according to reports. Other nations seek to honor America's greatest optimist.

Rev. Geo. Manford Gutzke At Presbyterian Church

V-8 LEADERSHIP

ON OCTOBER 31 of last year, Henry Ford announced his intention to build a million Ford V-8s in 1935. We are pleased to report that this goal was reached in exactly ten months instead of a full year.

One million cars and trucks is an impressive total. But figures by themselves mean nothing. It is what they represent that counts. Selling a V-8 at a low price has brought a new kind of automobile within reach of the people. Producing it has provided steady work for hundreds of thousands of men in the Ford plants, in associated industries and on the farm.

These million Ford V-8 cars and trucks have helped to make things better all around. In the first ten months of 1935 the Ford Motor Company paid out in the United States alone, $140,119,326.00 in wages and $523,111,389.00 for materials.

Folks the great secret is out as sure as you are alive. Nobody but Jim Ferguson spilled the beans either. He says that both branches of the Legislature have been making a "real" candidate for the governorship next term.

Seldom ever do we ever call attention to a radio program, but if you will tune in on a national chain at 7 p. m. each Sunday and listen to Major Bowe's amateur hour, you will never regret it.

An old cowhand cook says that beans are always better if cooked over two or more times. The idea is to put on a big pot of beans and warm them up at several meals until they are all eaten.

Representative Eugene Worley is trying to do all he can for the folks in his district. When a bill finally gets through the legislative mill, Gene sends us a copy so that all the folks can read about it in the Donley County Leader.

Some of our folks like to talk about the time it rained in this section, the fall of '25 for instance. Bill Barker tells about a hen on his farm that died when her eggs hatched out ducks.

Rev. Ferrell modestly owns up that he attended a Methodist layman's meeting in San Antonio recently where he went as a delegate to a convention of Churches of Christ. He roomed in the "Y" building, and knowing that his church was to have a layman's meeting, he wandered into the first opening. After sitting for some time, he discovered his error when they baptized a fellow.

The best lesson in careless driving is to view a batch of battered wrecks of human bodies. But who wants to wait until it is forced on them?

Religion is about the cheapest thing on the market. Some times a man will belong to a church for 25 years for only 25c.

Success as a rule, does not come as a result of any particular brilliance or from some outstanding accomplishment which may never be followed by others, but from a careful and continuous building along a definite line.

The Press—Guardian of Liberty
By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

Steadily the dark stain of censorship is spreading over the newspapers of Europe.

What is the result? The headlines tell. Let's see what dispatches from the nations that have shackled their Press describe:

War—imperialistic war . . . religious intolerance . . . the red blight of Communism!

In each of those nations the Press is in chains. In each of them free speech and free presentation of the news is forbidden. The papers print, and the people read, only what a dictator permits.

That's how despotism is created and preserved. That's why Napoleon admitted that if he allowed freedom of the Press his power could not last six weeks. That's why the autocrats of Europe have hand-cuffed their nations' newspapers.

Such things aren't happening in America today. The newspaper on which you rely for knowledge of what goes on—in the world and in your home town alike—gives you the facts unadorned by the hand of a Dictator. Here the Press is free—and with it the people.

Who kept it that way? It was the newspapers and the men who make them—supported of course by the public. Throughout our history they have fought to retain the freedom of speech and of the Press that was written into the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Their fight was not dominated by self-interest—for newspapers, as Europe has proved, can survive under a Dictator's thumb and profit by his favors. It was, instead, a fight for all the people.

The newspapers knew—and know today—that an enslaved Press means an enslaved populace. They realize that so long as the Press remains free, and its editors courageous, America can never fall under the iron hand of despotism or dictatorship.

They remain, as always, the shock troops of our liberty.

To them is due our appreciation—and our support. Freedom of speech and freedom of the Press are every citizen's concern.

TEXAS.

I followed dim trails of a day long forgotten, Waded through parairie grass, lush with the dew, Skirted the patches of green corn and cotton

Seeking the primitive—shunning the new.

Fair were the hills in their beautiful splendor, Standing like sentinels, stately and old,

Silence o'er all inexpressibly tender Out where the blue clouds shaded to gold.

Knee deep in blue bonnets, a riot of color, Spread like a rug at the feet of a guest, Romping o'er the meadow-land, leaping the ditches, Drinking the sun as it sank in the West.

Texas! Grand Texas! How thrilling your story, Born of our tragedies, gruesome and red, Grass covered prairies unfurled to your glory, Blue bonnets guard where you buried your dead.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
J. Perry King, Pastor
 There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

The time has come when you promised yourself to quit visiting week-ends and go to church instead. As you already know a week-end makes a weak beginning for a strong week. Start next week off well with a strong beginning on the Lord's Day. Why go to church? Because the church is the mightiest agency on earth for human help and progress. That fact cannot be successfully contradicted. Go next Sunday with the entire family to Sunday School and the preaching service of your church and see how delightfully pleased every one will be. One life showing the way is better than ten tongues trying to tell it to one. Your presence at church will speak louder than anything you might say about going. First class ambition and third rate effort is one of the most useless things on earth. A good intention that is not made to get up an hustle for a living will not get anywhere nor do any good. Translate your intentions and ambitions into living effort by being present for all the services of your church.

Regular services at the Baptist Church Sunday morning as usual. The time for the evening services is 6:00 o'clock for the Training Service, and 7:00 for the preaching service. Our hearts are always made glad with your presence.

WHY WE EXIST
 Article II

We have been very commonly called "reformers", and our movement is often generalized under the title of the "Reformation". But this title is inadequate. While we seek to reform both ourselves and others, and might from this consideration be properly styled "reformers", yet this does not distinguish us from others. Our distinctive work is that of restoration rather than reformation. We seek to restore that which has been lost, rather than to reform that which is. We "aim" to restore all that has been lost of Christianity as it was left by the apostles. I say "all that was lost", because not all of primitive New Testament Christianity has been lost; and when we speak of any part having been lost, we mean that it has been lost from the practice of the churches and not from the Divine Record.

Our aim is to pass back through all the intervening centuries, back beyond the origin of all existing ecclesiastical bodies, and taking our stand among the apostolic churches to adopt all the items of faith and practice which existed among them with Divine approval; to adopt all these and not others, as the rule of our faith and practice. Of course our ultimate aim is to meet the approval of Christ when He comes in Judgement; but he who aims most successfully at this is he who most scrupulously observes His precepts and ordinances in this life.

Such being our aim, we inquire whether the pursuit of it is a matter of mere taste and preference or a necessity laid on us which we cannot shake off? If it were the former we would be bound by the law of love to abandon it rather than allow it to disturb the peace of Zion by causing strife between us and others. But the voice of reason and the voice of conscience both demand that when God seeks to govern our activity, human presumptions are forever set aside and are given no voice whatsoever in the matter, God says "his ways are not our ways, that his ways are better ways", therefore it ill behooves man to be guided other than by that revelation which expresses to us those magnificent ways. Such is the demand of the inspired writers. (I Cor. 4:6)

Chevrolet Cars Make Record On 100,000 Test Run
 "Two Chevrolet cars used by us as part of a fleet for a protracted road test at Toms River, New Jersey, have paid honor to your engineering," said W. M. Irish, president of the Atlantic Refining Company, in a telegram to M. E. Coyle, president of Chevrolet Motor Company, at the close of a 100,000-mile grind completed in five months.

The test ended October 30, at Philadelphia, where the cars were received with special ceremonies by officials of the Atlantic Refining Company, which conducted the long run to demonstrate the value of its lubricating oils.
 According to the report to Chevrolet by the president of the oil company, each of the Chevrolets completed its 100,000 mile run "without one cent of repairs to any lubricated part, without carbon removal, or a bearing tightened or a piston ring changed."

 The course of the test run was over an 80-mile measured route of varied road surfaces between Toms River and Medford, New Jersey. Cars averaged 40 miles an hour, making more than 900 miles each day, operating day and night except on Sundays.

BRONCHOS LOSE AGAINST TIGERS
 Before a crowd of several hundred fans last Friday night, the Clarendon Bronchos met defeat at the hands of the McLean Tigers to the tune of 33-0. The Broncos put up a stubborn and determined defense, but were unable to hold the Tigers.
 For the first three quarters, the Bronchos turned in the best game that they have played this year. The score may be a little big, but the game was packed with thrills and excitement from the start to the end. There was none of the sluggishness that had been noticeable on the team in the past games. Everyone of the Bronchos played ball as if he was fighting for a championship game. The Tigers were held to a much smaller score than they had expected.
 The Tigers scored once in the first quarter and once in the second quarter, skipped the third quarter and scored three times in the fourth period. The Tigers converted three out of the five tries

INTERESTING FACTS REGARDING TEXAS HISTORY IN AN EARLY EXCITING EPOCH

Austin's colonizing scheme met with difficulties from the outset. In October, after having written from Natchitoches to Governor Martinez that over fifty families were on their way to Texas, Austin arrangements for the transportation of men and supplies to Texas. In New Orleans he purchased a ship, the "Lively," and arranged for supplies and men to be landed at New Orleans to complete at the mouth of the Colorado. He then set out from New Orleans, probably on November 25, 1821. By December 17, he was in Nacogdoches, and early in March he reached San Antonio. He had spent the months of January and February awaiting the arrival of the "Lively" at the mouth of the Colorado. The "Lively" never reached the Colorado. It was shipwrecked on Galveston Island.

Of the "fifty or more" families that he had reported to Governor Martinez on their way to Texas only four had moved to the Brazos by November, records in the Bexar Archives and the Austin Papers in the University of Texas Library show. The first family to arrive was that of Andrew Robinson. Then came those of three Kuykendall brothers. About Christmas, Robert and Joseph Kuykendall and Daniel Gilleland moved to the Colorado, establishing the first settlement there. By January, however, the immigration movement had become quite brisk. But this acceleration of the colonization movement only made matters worse.

When Austin reached San Antonio a fresh disappointment awaited him. Governor Martinez, it seems, had exceeded his authority in approving Austin's detailed plan for the colonization of Texas. The Provincial Council at Monterrey ordered him not to allow Austin to distribute lands, appoint judges, or assume any authority whatever. Austin was to make known his wishes to the superior government and await its decision.

However, the new government of Mexico had begun to consider a general colonization policy for Texas and the Californias. But, knowing the dilatoriness of the Mexican government in arriving at any definite conclusions, Governor Martinez advised Austin to go to Mexico City and present his case in person before the heads of the government. Therefore, on March 13, 1822, Austin received his passport for the trip to Mexico City.

On March 23, 1822, Austin was in Laredo on his way to the source of Mexican government. On that day he wrote a letter to his brother, James, in which he gave an account of the journey from San Antonio to Laredo. The original letter is kept in the Archives of The University of Texas. A copy, taken from "The Austin Papers," published by Dr. E. C. Barker, follows:

"We arrived here on the 21 and finding that a considerable company were going on to La Punta, on Sunday afternoon I thought it most prudent to wait for them, on account of the Indians, who are very numerous on all these roads.

About six miles this side of the river Nueces 50 Camanches charged upon us a little before sun rise. The Doctor and Waters were out after the horses and I was alone at camp. They surrounded me in an instant and took possession of every article we had—resistance was useless for against so many it would have been ineffectual. The Doctor and Waters and the horses were soon brought up by the Indians and I then expostulated with them for treating their Friends the Americans in such a manner. When they found there was no Spaniards with me, they gave us back our saddle bags, saddles, and everything else except 4 blankets, a bridle, my Grammar and several other little things and all our provisions. Nothing saved our lives but being Americans, and as the next party might not be so polite I have waited for the company that is going on tomorrow. Two men were taken prisoners, the day before yesterday, within a few miles of this place, one of whom escaped and got in this morning. He says the Indians are waylaying the road between this and Punta, (the road I am going). About 3 miles this side of where the Indians charged upon us, we met another party of 34 who were encamped behind a hill watching the road. Only two of them came to us. They said their captain knew us to be Americans and ordered his men to let us alone

"The Country from the River Medina to this place is the poorest I ever saw in my life, it is generally nothing but sand, entirely void of timber, covered with scrubby thorn bushes and Prickly Pear. This place is on the bank of the Rio Grande—and as poor as sand banks, and drought, and indolence can make it. The river is about the size of the Arkansas, if anything a little larger.

"I hope you are applying yourself closely to study—get the first volume of Duffies Grammar from the Doctor and study the familiar phrases and lessons, and write them, also after committing a verb write it from memory and then compare it with the book to see that the spelling is correct—also repeat your verbs as you learn them to Francisco or some other who can correct your pronunciation. A bad pronunciation at the start will be difficult to correct, therefore take no lesson from any but those who are capable of giving them. Remember that it is all important to learn to write the language.

"Pray be particular in taking care of your things—the tent, blankets, kittle, pack saddle, the two bridles, and every other article however trifling it may seem to be.

"Write me directed to Mexico, 'Your affc Brother S. F. Austin.'

After Austin arrived in Mexico City he had a difficult time of it. The new Mexican government was undergoing many changes. Austin presented his petition to the Imperial Mexican government, addressing his communications to the Secretary of State and then to Emperor Iturbide himself, but it was not until several months after Austin entered Mexico City that his mission began to bear fruit.

IT WORKED FOR ME

Women should take only liquid laxatives

MORE people could feel fine, be fit and regular, if they would only follow the rule of doctors and hospitals in relieving constipation.

Never take any laxative that is harsh in action. Or one, the dose of which can't be exactly measured. Doctors know the danger if this rule is violated. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why it should be a liquid like Syrup Pepsin.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if it doesn't give you absolute relief, if it isn't a joy and comfort in the way it overcomes any sluggishness or biliousness, your money back.

Puratene New Discovery.

"It may be argued that this same effect could be brought about by feeding more 'ordinary green feed' through the fall and winter—more cabbage, mangels, clover leaves, etc. That is not so. To get sufficient Vitamin A from stored vegetables and dried leaves, the birds have to eat so much of these materials that they aren't able to eat the required amount of mash and grain for sustained, heavy production.

"With a problem like that before the poultry world, scientists now come through with a new, concentrated source of Vitamin A, called Puratene. It gives hens a 'spring-time supply' of Vitamin A without interfering with their consumption of egg producing feeds. In fact, it promotes an increased consumption of feed, because it stimulates the appetite as it improves health. It is made by converting the carotene extracted from plants.

With this new product, feed manufacturers are now able to step up the Vitamin A in their poultry mashes two and one-half times. It is predicted that the discovery of Puratene will mean almost as much to the poultry world as the discovery of cod liver oil.

HENS NEED MORE VITAMIN A FOR WINTER MONTHS

"Every poultry-keeper knows how hens pick up in health and vitality when they are let out in the spring and given free range of the farm," says C. S. Johnson, Manager of the Poultry Department of the Purina Mills. "Combs get redder; plumage gets brighter and glossier; egg production increases to the highest point for the year. Not many birds are lost in early spring, either. Colds and roup are as scarce as hens' teeth.

"Some folks say it is due to something the hens get from scratching in the earth. Others say it is due to sunshine. Others, again, argue that spring is the 'natural' season for a hen to lay eggs and hatch or brood, and that Nature provides some mysterious stimulant to build up her health and vitality at that season.

"All of these answers, in part, are right," says Johnson, "but there is a further explanation which scientific research has discovered. Research has proven one of the causes of this springtime pick-up to be carotene (or Vitamin A) that mysterious element in green plants.

Springtime Improves Health.

"This is what happens. The hens are confined all winter in closed quarters—on a ration which, at best, contains only a limited amount of carotene. Then, suddenly, they are allowed outside, with young green grass and tender green shoots of all descriptions growing up all around. Every poultry owner knows how they go for it. And every particle of this tender, young, green stuff is rich in carotene.

"From the extra supply of carotene which they take into their bodies, the birds manufacture Vitamin A. The effects soon show in reddening combs, glossier feathers, more pep and vitality, keener appetites, higher production, and improved hatchability. This lasts but a few weeks. Only for a short time does nature supply young, tender shoots of green stuff rich in Vitamin A.

"Puratene New Discovery. It may be argued that this same effect could be brought about by feeding more 'ordinary green feed' through the fall and winter—more cabbage, mangels, clover leaves, etc. That is not so. To get sufficient Vitamin A from stored vegetables and dried leaves, the birds have to eat so much of these materials that they aren't able to eat the required amount of mash and grain for sustained, heavy production.

Tests recently made over the country show the necessity for year 'round refrigeration. The Government Weather Bureau reports show that there are only nineteen days in the average winter, when temperatures remain throughout the day at "safety zone temperatures"—below 50 degrees and above 32 degrees.

Natural refrigeration is not dependable. It is always summer in the kitchen. Tests in various cities during the winter season, show an average temperature of 76 degrees (26 degrees above the danger-line).

Electric refrigeration is dependable. It makes possible your planned program of saving.

"Daytime Mercies, and Nighttime Songs."

"Yet the Lord will command his loving kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life." Psa. 42:8.

As we approach the harvest season, our minds and hearts are reminded of God's kindness throughout the year. It is estimated by experts that ninety per-cent of the productiveness of the soil is due to elements God has put into the soil, and to the sunshine and rain from heaven, and only about ten per cent is due to good farming.

Day time mercies and nighttime songs, cover all the scope of life, health and sickness, youth and age, success and failure, wealth and poverty, birth and death.

I. God is in it all. We are never left alone. We cannot prosper without His help, and do not suffer without His pity. His loving-kindness makes possible the day, and His comfort in the nighttime makes the darkness radiant with hope.

II. There never was a life in which were not some dark nights. It saves us from despair to know that there may be "songs in the night." Paul and Silas sang at mid-night in the prison. Jesus and His disciples after the institution of the Memorial Supper sang a song.

III. Perhaps the darkest night any of us ever pass through is when we become conscious of failing health. Yet there may be a song in this nighttime, such a song as that of Paul's, "Thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

IV. Our prayer to God. Atheism excludes God from life. Pantheism confuses God with all life, de-personalizes Him. Christianity makes God the God of life. What else can mean so much to us, as this? To think that our lives as frail as they are belong to God. From Him, for Him and to Him. If He be the God of our lives, then life is something more than a "barren peak between the shoreless seas of two eternities." Let us sing songs to our God and remember Him in our prayers.

The Big Broadcast of 1936

STAR STUDED COMEDY, TUNEFUL AND DIVERTING, COMING NOVEMBER 27-28th

Tune ful, brisk and gay, "The Big Broadcast of 1936", which opens at the Pastime Theatre, Wednesday, combines a diverting comedy plot with an impressive collection of stars garnered from the top ranks of radio, stage and screen.

Packed with rich comedy moments, handsomely produced, this highly entertaining production is headed by a cast that can be depended upon to lead the way when it comes to cutting crazy capers. Such comedians as Jack Oakie, Burns and Allen and Lyda Roberti are sure-fire stand bys for light hearted humor and laugh-provoking antics.

In addition, an imposing array of famous personalities such as Bing Crosby, Amos 'n' Andy, Ethel Merman, Bill Robinson, Ray Noble and his orchestra, Willie, West and McGinty, Mary Boland and Charles Ruggles contribute specialty numbers that shouldn't be missed.

The story centers around the hilarious adventures of two radio entertainers when they fall into the hands of a young Countess. Jack Oakie and Henry Wadsworth own and operate their own radio station. Air fans believe that the romantic singer, "Lochinvar" is one man whereas it is Oakie who does the announcing and Wadsworth the singing. To avert bankruptcy the boys decide to compete in an international radio contest. Burns and Allen bring their television invention, the Radio Eye, to the studio.

Lyda Roberti, rich, romantic-minded Countess, and her social secretary, Wendy Barrie, meet the boys. Miss Roberti kidaaps Oakie and Wadsworth on her private yacht and takes them to her Cuban island estate to decide which one she wants to marry. In their frantic effort to escape, including a thrilling chase, Oakie, in calling Burns and Allen for help with the Radio Eye, unwittingly takes part in the broadcasting contest. An uproarious finale closes the fun film.

As a background to the main theme, different specialties are offered as high lights of the production. Amos 'n' Andy, beloved black face comics, are seen in a typically familiar skit. Bing Crosby warbles his "I Wish on the Moon" number, while Ethel Merman sings "It's The Animal In Me" with an elaborately staged chorus ensemble background. Bill Robinson, world-famed negro tap dancer, presents his sensational dance routine, the Nicholas Brothers, two sepien singers and dancers, are seen in "The Miss Brown to You" musical presentation, while Ray Noble and his band render other of the comedy's song hits, while Miss Roberti does the "Double Trouble" number. Mary Boland and Charles Ruggles appear in a mirth-provoking sketch. Norman Taurog did a fine directorial job.

"The Big Broadcast of 1936" is indeed a merry melange of music, mirth and amusement with comedy and acting honors equally divided among all participants.

Mrs. B. F. Kirtley and son Basil Jr., Mrs. Floyd Lumpkin, Mrs. Paul Slaton and Mrs. U. J. Boston returned home Tuesday from a visit with relatives at Temple, Hubbard City and Wichita Falls.

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Ask Your Doctor and Find Out

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN. He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

Many Dairies Cut Cow Costs With New Plan

Bulletin Presents Method of Preventing Common Herd Ailments.

Rapid changes are taking place in the dairy industry. For a long time costly cow troubles such as breeding, calving, and udder difficulties have been looked upon as necessary evils in a dairy barn. But recent intensive research and experimental work both in the laboratory and on the farm, have made it possible to almost entirely eliminate them. Many herd owners following the methods recommended by these research workers, have had marked success in the control of calving, udder, and breeding troubles.

In a bulletin, "What's Going on Inside Your Cows," released by Purina Mills, St. Louis, Mo., detailed instructions are given for the feeding and management of cows during the eight weeks before calving, the four weeks after freshening, and the forty weeks of milk production. The bulletin points out that by recognizing the definite requirements of cows during these three distinct periods and following a proven program that's adapted to each of the periods, the cows will keep in better condition, inside and out. They'll produce milk more efficiently and will have the resistance to ward off ordinary diseases and infections so common in many herds.

The bulletin can be obtained without cost at any store handling Checkerboard feeds, or by writing the Dairy Department, Purina Mills, St. Louis, Mo.

Beware The Cough From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

CURED OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS:

This is to certify that I took my little boy to Dr. H. H. Milling for infantile paralysis. The child was so limber that he could not hold his head up and his eyes crossed. It did not take Dr. Milling long before he had him walking and he also straightened his eyes. Dr. Milling cured my boy sound and well. At present it is impossible to tell there was ever anything wrong with the child. Would advise everyone to go to Dr. Milling and be cured.
