GENERAL RAINS COVER ALL OF WHEAT SECTION OF PANHANDLE MONDAY NIGHT

The rainfall in Clarendon Monday night amounted to 2.1 inches according to a government gauge maintained under supervision of Joe Goldstot. The slow, soaking rain was general over the county.

Radio and newspaper reports indicate that the fall was ample over the entire wheat belt of Texas. Rain began falling Sunday night in a number of sections, and continued more or less for twenty-four hours to Tuesday morning.

Dalhart considered the driest point in Texas for more than four years, received a half inch. Dumas, Moore county, another dry section for some years, received about the same amount of moisture.

Reports show the fall was general from Big Springs on the south to Canadian on the north. Drifting in on a fog from the east, the rain area extended over eastern New Mexico and in some places as far west as Albuquerque, reports state.

After having made three crops without a 'bottom' season, Donley county farmers are jubilant over the prospects of a bottom season for farming operations next season.

Wheat men state that with warm sunshine following the present wet spell, wheat will be at the grazing stage soon and save a big feed bill this winter.

Wheat suffering for moisture will be revived and make rapid growth from here out, and there will be far less likelihood of freezing out and thinning the stand, wheat men state.

The first general rain at this time of the year since 1930, as some term it, operations in all lines will become more active. Not in years has a winter rain had so much effect on the spirits of the people in general.

Old Resident in Hospital With Pneumonia

Joe Horn, well known railroad man in his young days here, and for many years identified with the cattle business in Donley county, was brought in from the ranch Friday suffering from what is said to be pneumonia infection in both lungs.

He is a patient at Adair Hospital since Friday. Hospital reports today indicate that Mr. Horn is making good headway toward recovery.

Saddle Stolen Monday Night From Harry Blair

Being a bit choicy is but one of the many angles to the nature of a thief. Breaking a window and entering the office of Harry Blair at the Sales Pavilion some time Monday night, the best saddle of three was taken.

The blanket and bridle were omitted by the thief. At this time there is no clew to the identity of the thief.

Fund Drive Date Expires 14th

The time for closing the Will Rogers Memorial Fund contributions has been extended to December 14th. The time originally set was Thanksgiving Day.

Donley county committees are kindly requested to deposit all funds in either of the four banks of the county by that date, and notify J. C. Estlack, county vice-chairman, of the amount so deposited.

If at all possible, give the number of contributors in making a report.

At this time Donley county is making a fine showing as compared with other sections of the nation. Since it has been definitely determined that the funds are to be used in helping physically handicapped children thru the building of hospitals, the public will be more liberal.

Since hospitals are the goal of the national committee, this means that Texas will share largely in the fund contributed to the cause of building lasting memorials to Will Rogers.

Irish And Tigers To Battle At Pampa

District Championship Game Will Be Played at Pampa Friday 3 p. m.

The play-off game to decide the football championship of District 3 will be played at Pampa at 3 o'clock Friday, according to an announcement following a conference of district interscholastic officials which lasted most all day at McLean.

District committee members decided to rule last Friday's game at McLean, which ended in a 7-7 score, a tie on account of the pre-game agreement between the Irish and Tiger coaches that 20-yard penetrations and first downs would not be used in determining the winner in the event of a tie score.

The morning services, held daily from Tuesday to Friday at ten o'clock, will be less formal and especially interesting. The evening services will begin each evening at 7:30 p. m.

Burglars Piffer Teacheage At Chamberlain School

Upon returning to their home in the teacheage early Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Todd found that miscreants had been in their home misplacing furniture and that some articles had been carried away.

Missing were an Aladdin lamp, flash light, lip stick, cold cream, two ink bottles and a bouquet of flowers, evidently the work of youngsters.

Some of the smaller articles were found near the building strewn along a barrow pit.

Sheriff Pierce secured prints of the intruders. He offers a liberal reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

While returning from Muskogee, Oklahoma Sunday, J. R. (Dick) Bain, Mrs. Tom Bain of Hedley, Miss Minnie Naylor, and two sons of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Naylor, T. E. Jr. and Dwayne reached Erick, Oklahoma about midnight.

Mrs. Tom Bain was seriously injured and was taken to a hospital where it was found that she suffered broken ribs and internal injuries. She was the only one of the party to receive injuries of consequence.

The small boys were asleep at the time of the crash.

Tommy Bain Jr. was called from Hedley and went to Erick accompanied by his father. They remained with Mrs. Bain, and Dick Bain returned in the same car bringing the members of his party with him.

The wrecked car was owned by T. E. Naylor, now a patient in the Veteran's Hospital at Muskogee. He is said to not be making the improvement that relatives and friends would like to see.

Mothers Score At Athletic Banquet

Monday night was a gala one for the members of both the College and the High School football teams and pep squads.

The mothers of these students entertained with a banquet in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. It was certainly obvious that the boys and girls still had their pep, and appetites too.

Music was furnished by Arthur Chase, Hubert Reavis and Nickey Stewart.

In appreciation of their loyalty and hard work, lovely gifts were given to Mr. Stults, Mr. Kerby, Mrs. Kerby, and the three high school pep leaders from members of the squads.

Mr. Drennon acted as toast master, and a very interesting program was carried out.

Coaches Stults and Kerby made interesting talks, and toasts and response were given to both squads by the leaders and captains.

A number of yells were given, but the one which was so outstanding and loud was the one given for the mothers.

"This banquet will surely be remembered, and we hope that our mother's will remember us again this time next year," stated a number of the football boys.

WILL ROGERS

Anderson M. Baten

Will Rogers made me feel that I was not doing my best. When I heard him over the radio, I seemed to be aware of all my weaknesses. His domestic life, which is the only life after all, proved that it is possible for a man to receive world-wide fame, honor and glory, and at the same time be himself, and true to his family.

He has proven that virtue and character can go hand-in-hand with fame.

He was the advance guard of the Twentieth Century. He was put here to teach the world that there is nothing to pomp, display, outward show, veneer, enamel and deceptive appearance.

He has proven that truth is common sense. Centuries of tradition, genealogy, custom, fashion, rule, habit and precedent fell before this cowboy, because he was himself.

The ultra-conservative classes, the so-called polite societies, dropped their fictitious manners, shams, and little childish idiosyncrasies full of foolishness and senselessness, when the humorist, with repartee, punster, joker, comedian and philosopher met them.

He told the world that, "We are just common ordinary human beings, striving for good."

He was the prodigious horizon of the masses.

He was a millionaire, but lived the life of an average man.

He treated his brother brotherly.

He was the Chamber of Commerce of America.

He was the Apostle of the world spreading good will.

In him was that something that is in all of us which tries to express itself, but in him it was accomplished.

He met kings standing on their dignity, but when he left them they stood stripped of fictitious mannerisms.

The scholar in Rogers' presence realized that Rogers had that something not found in books, of which he was minus.

The infidel, agnostic, and skeptic met this brother of brothers. When he left them they were doubting their theories.

Customs, manners, etiquette, ultra-fashionable ideals stood spell-bound in the presence of this man who was always himself.

Rogers' philosophy was being WILL ROGERS.

This giant wielded the battle-axe of Common Sense. This battle-axe cut to pieces egotism, arrogance, selfishness, self-flattery, self-praise, self-conceit, vanity, cheap, vulgar extravagance and over-estimation.

Day before yesterday Rogers was not known—yesterday he was brother to the world—today he is immortal.

He died moving on.

His death affected the world as if a member of each family had passed away.

He left a void in every heart which cannot be filled.

Pension Blanks Ready In February

Every one is invited to a pie supper at Sunnyview Friday night, November 29th.

Those interested in the school will appreciate your presence on this occasion, and promise you plenty of amusement along with the pie supper.

Thousands breathed a sigh of relief Saturday night when a definite announcement was made as to the disposition of the Will Rogers Memorial funds.

Over two national chains there was broadcasted the statement that the funds were to be used to aid physically handicapped children. Members of the national directorate board were of the opinion that a definite statement should be made at this time, and made it.

"Will loved children, especially the unfortunate," Eddie Rickenbacker of the national commission said over the radio, "and I think I can see the smile that lights Will's face when he hears this announcement."

Rickenbacker and Will Rogers flew many thousands of miles together on missions of mercy in making charitable drives.

At Saranac, New York, a hospital costing a million dollars has been given to the Memorial Fund. It will be maintained by a half million dollars as an endowment contributed by moving picture and theatrical actors.

In speaking over WBAP Saturday night, Amos G. Carter, state chairman of the Memorial Fund drive said: "In receiving his first $50,000 from a series of radio broadcasts, Will Rogers gave $25,000 to the Salvation army, and $25,000 to the Red Cross." This was at the time Will borrowed a hundred thousand dollars to make his last payment on his ranch interests in California.

Major Bowes, possibly the best and most universally known radio announcer in the nation today, said: "We who enjoyed the richness of the gifts of Will Rogers, must see that the flag of our affection is kept flying. It has been said that people live as long as other people think of them. We must provide a symbol that will cause future generations to think of Will Rogers."

Donley county admirers of Will Rogers are doing their part nobly. School children and individuals are depositing money to the Memorial Fund in the banks almost daily.

The time limit has been extended to December 14th. Thursday of this week had been agreed upon as the last date of the drive. See any member of any of the committees announced for this county last week, and hand them your contribution if you do not have time to take it to a bank.

Donley County Boy Makes Boll Pulling Record

What is believed to be a record for pulling cotton bolls in this county was established Friday when Milton Mayo, aged 18, pulled four hundred and fifty pounds in two hundred and ten minutes.

He is said to have pulled only mature bolls in cotton not any too good, and emptied his sack five times during the 210 minutes. He made this record on his father's place west of town.

THE CANADIAN TREATY.

That the new trade treaty with Canada represents a step in the right direction most Texans will agree offhand. Particularly will port cities such as Houston hail the step to increase international trade.

That is the direction in which we should be going.

A full evaluation of the possible effects of the treaty must, of course, await a full study of the various rates and quota limitations. Word that cattle duties have been lowered will not meet with high favor in some sections of the state, and non-cattle men can sense an inconsistency in paying producers to kill stock and limit replacements, in order to strengthen prices, while, at the same time, lowering tariff barriers so more supplies can come in from outside.

Nor does there seem much point in lowering barriers while establishing quotas. Unless the quota is liberal, the actual increase in importation will be small, while an increase in imports is necessary if we are to have any material increase in exports. A tariff cut plus a quota restriction which merely reduce prices in this country, or enable the foreign producer to get a higher price for his commodity at the expense of our federal treasury (by escaping duty payments) is hardly in keeping with our price-raising experiments, or with the welfare of the American taxpayer.

Spokesmen for agriculture understood they had been promised that the proposed reciprocity treaties would not include a sacrifice of protection on agricultural products. Now, it appears, we are told that the sacrifice, while imposed, is not important. To the extent that this is true the new trade treaty may be unimportant.

A question is raised as to whether we can promote true neutrality by further linking our prosperity with that of a foreign country.

A further question is raised as to whether this treaty procedure is the proper method of readjustment; whether the welfare of so many industries and sections should thus be put at stake, behind closed doors, and with neither the industries nor sections able to make themselves heard on matters that are important if not vital to them.

These are the issues which frankly must be faced. A trade rebuilding program is not all asset. There are liabilities to be offset against the assets. We must be careful that our program has a heavier weigh benefit than of losses.

There must be reduction some pla there must be changes which will bring inconvenience and even loss in some sections. A mere lowering of esive tariff barriers, so as to readjust high prices in thuntry, will not serve our foreign trade program at alle must so cut tariffs as to allow for a flow of goods, this country; otherwise we do not give the foreign cories the means with which to buy from us.

Needless to say we can't do this cutt all at once; it must be a slow and careful process, ley a trickle of trade in here and a trickle there, until tharious trickles gather into a great stream.

Whether the new Canada treaty is sq in detail remains to be seen, but the cotton exporters Houston and the Port of Houston will strongly hope tha accomplishes all that is expected of it; that here we h a long step forward in an effective policy to reestab our foreign trade.—Houston Chronicle.

Director Old Age Pensions Makes Statement

Austin, Nov. 26.—"We are going to be fair to the old people of Texas," said the new pension chief this week.

Orville S. Carpenter, 36-year-old State Auditor, was named executive director of the old-age assistance board, November 20, by the new three-member commission. He will resign as Auditor and take up his new duties when the pension law becomes effective February 14.

"We are going into the matter carefully. I am studying the pension systems of other states that have pension laws," he said.

Mr. Carpenter probably knows more about pensions than any other man in the State. At request of Governor Alfred, Mr. Carpenter made a survey in September on the "Cost and General Plan for Old-age Pensions." This was prepared for the Legislature, and the new law reflects his survey in many ways.

The Dallas businessman was appointed last August by the Governor to reorganize the Office of the State Auditor. To the Legislature, he made reports on pensions, liquor and fees. Other surveys were on taxation, bank deposit insurance, and a number of lesser subjects. He is now conducting audits of the Treasury and Banking Department.

He estimated that there were 283,199 people in this State 65 years of age or older. Considering the experiences of other states, he calculated that there would probably qualify for old-age assistance in Texas 62,933 people.

"As there are 41,787 persons 65 years of age and over on the Texas relief rolls, thibparently is the minimum num able to qualify for old-age pens," Mr. Carpenter stated.

"I am not subout the reducing effect of thgulations passed by the 44th legislature. My calculations were made in September before the new law had been passed," he said.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
 By the Apostle

Had you ever stopped to think that tobacco rolled into a cigarette will give an athlete or a delicate woman "a lift," but in powder form, it's simply h-l on bugs and worms?

Comes now the news from alphabetical headquarters that hog growing must be increased. There may be a shortage of hogs in some places, but not on highways of the Texas Panhandle.

A lot of folks seem to think the government ought to help them right along. As a matter of fact, the government owns nothing except the authority to tax its citizens.

A gal breaking into the movies from the sassafras belt of old Arkansas, expects to put her state on the map by assuming the name of "Sassafras An."

Arrested while trying to climb a signboard picturing a girl in summer frock holding a coke, a man in Amarillo offered a judge the alibi that "he was trying to climb up there and spike her coke to keep her from freezing."

In Canyon they now refer to him as "Shootmouth Johnson." But his talk cost them $500 berries just the same.

Surgeons announce that they can repair or remake "goozles." Go ahead and drink it.

I see by the papers where the Mayor of Pittsburg, Penn. has 'gone actor' putting on plays to get money with which to repair the municipal gas system. There's an idea for any mayor!!

Here's one from a national writer on conjugal affairs:

"A man admires a woman who makes him think, but he stays away from her. He likes the woman who makes him laugh. He loves the woman who hurts him. But he marries the woman who flatters him."

Society reporter deluxe: "—and as a bride, she was the split image of Greta Garbo." She could have said Mae West—remember.

Raccoon overcoat with a bottle of gin in the pocket wishes to contact youth with a loud voice. Object: football.

GW are simply wallowing in luxury. "Are" because she is as big as two. She puts sugar and cream on those delicious, mellow, aromatic Jap persimmons sent us by J. E. Fitzgerald of Stephenville, Texas. He sells them for $2 a bushel if you rush your order right in. We will have plenty left until Christmas. The grandbabies eat them without persuasion. In fact their mothers are giving them castor oil without their knowing it.

O. L. Jacobs of Hudgins wants all the folks to know that his community appreciates the way the merchants helped them to get a school curtain. He said just that Saturday. Contrary to general opinion, Mr. Jacobs is an American, and a dandy good farmer at that. (P. S. Don't overlook the sausage, Mr. Jacobs.)

L. R. Bates is moving this year after being on the same farm 8 years. He wants to farm up to 200 acres. Has plenty of good mules and farm tools, and can finance himself. He refers those interested to the Farmers State Bank here, or invites them to look at his crop returns where he is now living. Any one wanting a good farm tenant should see him. He lives on Route 1 out of Clarendon near the Chamberlain school.

The Ethiopians claim Italian tanks are a failure in warfare. The blacks pour gasoline on them and set them on fire burning up the men inside. That may look reasonable in a daily paper, but what do they pour on the guy to get him up to the "pouring" point?

Some fellows would have better luck collecting accounts if they quit sending out statements and merely gave the culprit credit for three cents each month.

Some of your neighbors treat you swell because they don't know how soon they will need you. And you tolerate them simply because you don't know how soon you will need your neighbors.

Add-a-line: "My cook is fine when she's sober."

Why in heck did I ever buy that set of Harvard Classics anyway? Just 51 books in the lot and not even soiled as I merely peeped into the pages of five of the books before becoming disgusted. H. T. Burton is the only other man that I know who pulled the same stunt. Anybody want some "good" books cheap. Or will swap for what have you. I got mine in 1928, but I think that Mr. Burton got his in 1934. To be soaked like that during the depression is ten times worse.

Many thanks to the S. H. Manning family of Brownfield for that tow sack of monster pea-goobers raised this year. Also the popcorn from the J. T. Hahn family of Bowie. That's grazing over a lot of territory, I'll admit, but when it comes to getting the job done, GW can beat the world. I believe she would rob a bank to feed her hungry grandbabies. Women are like that. And two batches of sausage brought in by L. R. Bates and Ed Wheeler begins to make Thanksgiving dinner a reality. The quality is great. Our dad is fond of eating anything that won't bite him first, and the progeny inherited the instinct that is anything but conciliatory. The way we will attack that grub at noon Thursday will make the charge of the light brigade look like a sham battle of Boy Scouts. Dad always comes down mopping up the right and left flank of the table, and the other members of the family mop up the center. Dad is in command of the shock troops, but GW is the whole "board of strategy."

Not forgetting Chas. Bebee of Amarillo who brought us a 'punkin that turned out to be a Pikes Peak squash. It made fine pies except it took some time to pick the rind out of it to avoid breaking any teeth.

The way to a man's heart may be through his stomach, but the way to a woman's heart is through an automobile, Bachelor Bill stated Tuesday after a trip to Okla.

The greatest menace to any so-called civilized nation today is the growing sentiment among their nationals that their government should support them through giving a position, job or a mere dole.

Thanksgiving. We can be thankful for:
 Wheat allotment.
 Corn-Hog allotment.
 More bureaus.
 HOLC mortgage.
 Townsend pension 200 bucks—nearly.

Restored war pensions.
 During the coming year we will likely have reason to be thankful for Vocational Training and Free Hospitalization.

If you haven't been run over by an auto, better add that to the list. More Americans were killed by autos the past year than were killed during the World War. A lot of them happened to be aged and children, and that softens the shock in the estimation of the more heartless.

We need a licensed auto driver law with teeth in it. That thing handed us in the last session of the Legislature is worse than a joke. It's an insult.

The reason they dispensed with harems in Turkey after taking on western ways was that a Turk could not manage one woman on the American plan.

Dodge that Dodge. Sidestep that Buick. Handspring from in front of that Chevrolet. Good lord, man, skin up a pole. Here comes a Ford at 90-to-nothing!! Yeh, that's a highway discussion on the main street where No. 5 passes through town.

Here's hoping that you have the best Thanksgiving in all your life. I mean every word of it.

J. T. Mayo is to spend the week in Jack county where he owns a farm near Truce. This is his first trip down that way during the year, and the rounding up of business matters demands it at this time, he says.

THANK YOU, AMERICA, for more than a Million cars in 1935

This year Chevrolet has two very good reasons for saying, "Thank you, America."
 One reason is that people have bought so many Chevrolet cars that production for the year will reach 1,040,000.
 And the other reason is that they have placed a record number of orders for new 1936 Chevrolets during the first few weeks they have been on display.

Chevrolet is indeed happy to say, "Thank you, America," and to pledge continued adherence to the manufacturing and service policies which have won and held the friendship of the nation.

A simple and beautiful wedding was that of Miss Julia Mae Caraway and Mr. Bob C. Land Sunday morning at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odos Caraway.

To low strains of Wagner's bridal march, Lohengrin, the bridal couple was preceded to the altar by Miss Mary Frances Caraway, sister of the bride, and Mr. Winford Gattis.

The marriage rites were read by Father Schindler. Miss Mantie Graves at the piano played "I Love You Truly," during the ceremony. The bride was costumed in black suit, white blouse and white accessories and carried a crystal rosary, gift of Father Schindler.

Miss Mary Frances Caraway was gowned in black crepe with silver trimmings.

The house was artistically decorated with white chrysanthemums in crystal bowls, and white tapers in crystal holders.

COMPLIMENTING BRIDE-ELECT

One of the lovely parties honoring Miss Julia Mae Caraway, bride-elect of Mr. Bob Land, was a kitchen shower, given by Mrs. W. H. Martin last Thursday afternoon.

The rooms of Mrs. Martin's artistic home were beautifully arranged with large bowls of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Lively conversation engaged the guests for some time after which the hostess Mrs. Martin brought in packages for Miss Caraway who opened and displayed many beautiful and useful gifts for her kitchen.

After the gifts were opened and enjoyed the guests were asked to come to the dining room where a dainty buffet luncheon was served in lovely Dresden china plates. The table was covered with an exquisite handmade cloth of Normandy lace over green. A huge cluster of white and yellow chrysanthemums were used as a center piece. On either side of this were Dresden candlesticks with green candles. The beautifully appointed silver coffee and tea service were presided over by Misses Norma Rhode and Mantie Graves.

PATHFINDER CLUB

The Pathfinder Club enjoyed one of the liveliest sessions of the year Friday afternoon when Mrs. C. T. McMurtry and Mrs. Fred Buntin met in spirited debate on the question resolved: That tasting is more important in the art of cooking than the other four senses.

In taking the affirmative Mrs. McMurtry resorted to rhyme and proved herself no mean rhymster. For the negative Mrs. Buntin presented a very realistic argument in the form of two tables of food, one prepared with only taste in mind, the other dainty, colorful and appealing, arguing that the first would never be tasted as it did not appeal to any of the senses. Mrs. McMurtry's rebuttal, still expressed in rhyme, assured every one it did not have to offend the other senses to taste good, which after all was the important thing, adding wait twenty-four hours, neither sight, hearing, smell, nor feeling would be their guide, but taste alone.

The debate was followed, by a poem "Kitchen Kingdom" given by Mrs. C. J. Douglas, and a most interesting and inspiring talk on "Health In Life" by Mrs. U. J. Boston.

During the business session, the Club adopted a resolution asking the local merchants to handle and feature Texas grown and manufactured goods.

The Club also made a contribution to the local hospital and voted to contribute to the Will Rogers memorial fund.

After the program the hostesses, Mrs. J. W. Evans and Mrs. A. T. Cole served a tempting refreshment plate to twenty seven Club members.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

ing were also enjoyed. Those present were guests, Mrs. Ben Andis, Mrs. Elba Ballew and Miss Cleo Eanes. Members Mesdames C. R. Skinner, J. E. Mongole, H. Tyree, J. D. Stocking, J. L. Chevrolet Improves Knee Action on All Cars

Motorists will welcome the news, contained in Chevrolet's 1936 announcement that fully-enclosed knee action is being continued as a feature of the new Master deluxe models, according to W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, who declares that knee action has registered with the motor-car buying public as one of the most important refinements ever incorporated in motor cars.

tering upon its third year", said Mr. Holler. "Refinements have been made in the unit, but its design and the purpose behind it remain basically the same as when it was introduced, while the riding comfort and driving ease which it ushered in have been carried to new heights.

"Now that knee action and the resultant fine riding and steering qualities have become acknowledged essentials, there will be an increasing wave of orders from those who have heretofore been hesitant. Their friends have reported favorably and even enthusiastically; but the thought that the feature might not be retained in the 1936 product has doubtless held back thousands who would otherwise have bought long before this. With that final question dispelled, and knee action established as an unqualified success, they will cast aside their hesitancy and gratify that desire to own and drive the most comfortable car we have ever created."

Mr. Holler also pointed out that knee action had undergone hundreds of thousands of miles of development work and testing, both at the General Motors proving ground and on the road, before its introduction; and the thoroughness of this preliminary work, so characteristic of Chevrolet engineering operations, was reflected in the

The proper treatment for a bilious child

THREE STEPS TO RELIEVING CONSTIPATION

A cleansing dose today; a smaller quantity tomorrow; less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

ANY mother knows the reason when her child stops playing, eats little, is hard to manage. Constipation. But what a pity so few know the sensible way to set things right!

The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, destroy all hopes of restoring regularity. A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult. Doctors use a liquid laxative. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. The liquid laxative they generally use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

public's instant acceptance of knee action as a major improvement, and in the long trouble-free service which it has given in the hands of owners. Official figures for the year to date show that 98 per cent of all Master deluxe models sold were equipped with knee action, offered as optional equipment.

Who Pays The Federal Payroll?
By FREDERICK PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

Maybe he doesn't realize it, but the average American citizen and taxpayer today is footing the bill for one of the largest payrolls in history. Moreover he is increasing it at a rate seldom, if ever, equalled in days of peace.

For evidence of this, consider the growing list of Federal job-holders—whose pay checks come out of taxes charged ultimately to the American citizen and worker and earner. Here are some official statistics from Washington:

In June 1933, there were approximately 565,000 job-holders on the Federal payroll—exclusive, of course, of the Army and Navy.

By June 1934, the total had been boosted to more than 661,000.

By June 30, 1935, it had soared to a total of 717,000.

The climb continued. By September of this year it had reached a peak of 794,000—all paid out of taxes.

That's a lot of job-holders. There are at least ten states in the Union that can't count as many heads in their entire population. And they are costing the taxpayers more than $100,000,000 a month.

But these figures tell only half the story. Add to the list of Federal job-holders the various public employees of states, cities and smaller political divisions, and your total will run into millions—also paid out of taxes, direct and indirect, clipped from the average citizen's earnings or savings. And remember, these totals include only the regular job-holders. They don't include the numerous relief beneficiaries. That's an entirely separate list.

Expensive? Of course it's expensive! No farmer, no merchant, no industrial concern, could succeed with such padded payrolls. But in government it's different. The politicians who pad the payroll don't have to foot the bill. They leave that detail to the people—and arrange for it through taxes.

That's one reason why, as economists have computed, more than 20 per cent of our national income goes into taxes—national, state and local. That's what statisticians have in mind when they tell us that the citizen who hasn't got a political job labors one day out of five to help support those who have.

COTTON PROGRAM BENEFITS SPREAD TO ALL SECTIONS

College Station—Discussing the necessity for the continuation of a cotton adjustment program, W. B. Camp of the AAA Cotton Division told State Agricultural Commissioners at their recent meeting in Washington, D. C., that the benefits of the cotton program are not confined to the South but extend to all sections of the country through the purchasing power of the cotton grower.

In demonstrating this he said, "Cotton furnishes directly the livelihood for 14,500,000 people in the United States. Eleven million of these people on the 2,200,000 cotton farms in the South and Southwest are dependent upon cotton for the major part of their incomes. Three million more individuals are supported by cotton textile manufacturing in all its branches. Another 500,000 people are dependent upon the miscellaneous uses of cotton. Others are indirectly affected by the merchandizing and the financing of the finished cotton products."

Camp went on to say that, "A volume production system, as formerly practiced, often resulted in double loss to the grower because every acre used to produce surplus cotton could have been put into needed food and feed crops. Big yields, large exports and ruinous prices have been the history, with but few exceptions of unadjusted production of cotton."

He showed by actual figures that the cotton adjustment program had practically doubled the prices of cotton, raising them from about 6 cents per pound in 1932 to twelve and one-half cents in 1934, and increasing the farmer's cash income from $465,000,000 in 1932 to $895,000,000, including compensation for adjustment of cotton acreage, in 1933, and $822,000,000, including benefit payments in 1934.

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

W. Wallace Layton, Minister

"WHY WE EXIST"

Article III
"Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths where is the good way, and walk therein. . . (Jer.6:16)

Jeremiah the prophet, lived in the degenerate days of the Kingdom of Judah, when, on account of many and long continued departures from the Word of God, the house of David was about to go into captivity. Jeremiah pointed out their duty under such circumstances, in these striking words. "Thus sayeth Jehovah, stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths where is the good way and walk therein and ye shall find rest for your souls." (Jer.6:16)

The paths of safety at that time, and the only safe paths, were those which had been marked out by Moses, when God through him first gave the "law" to Israel. Had Judah returned to the old paths even at that late hour, she would have been delivered from her foes; but because she would not, she was driven away out of Gods sight, like her sister Israel, and made to dwell as a captive among the heathen. This points to our own safety and our danger. It shows that the only hope for us today is to be found in going back to the old paths marked out by Jesus and the apostles. While these paths were yet new the disciples were earnestly entreated to walk in them. Says Paul to the Philippians, "Those things, which ye have both learned and received, heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you." (Phil.4:9) And the apostle Peter, when he was nearing the time of putting off his mortal tabernacle and was watching for the future safety of his brethren in Christ, solemnly says, "This is now beloved the second epistle that I write unto you; that in both of them I stir up your sincere minds putting you in remembrance. That you should remember the words that were spoken unto you before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of the Lord and Savior through your apostles." (II Pet. 3:1-2).

If such were the exhortations of the apostles in their day, and if no new revelation has come from God since their lips were closed in death, how can we be safe if we fail to do the things which we have "learned and received, heard and seen" in them? and how, when we shall have done these things, shall we add to them, and "thus launch our boats on undiscovered seas where inspired explorers ventured not to sail?"

GOLDSTON SCHOOL NEWS

We are all glad to get back to school after seven weeks vacation of cotton picking. We intend to work very hard and have a most successful school year.

We regret very much that Miss Oakley can not be with us. We are sure we are going to like Miss Skinner also. She is now substituting for Miss Oakley.

Miss Milam's pupils are busy decorating for Thanksgiving. Miss Wisdom came back to school with a long list of sentences for English. We think she must have spent a good part of her vacation thinking of more work for us poor pupils.

Mr. Smith is still speaking Spanish so we know he didn't get too much of his tongue twisted up in all that big lot of cotton he picked. We have new tennis and Basketball equipment, and we feel sure that we shall have some good teams to use them.

And we are counting on that Negro Minstrel from Ashtola on Dec. 6. We are looking for you, Ashtola.

What would happen if: Three of our high-school students hadn't joined the realms of Matrimony?

Elizabeth should study? Lloyd didn't read all the time? Odell could sit still? Clyde didn't wear cowboy boots to school?

Sibyl were not so quiet? Mary Lou had reduced during cotton picking?

Cora Lee had not turned curly headed?

Viola wasn't full of fun? Johnnie didn't know her algebra?

James had come to school the first day? Herman should start an argument?

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

OUR WEEKLY CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL

Minister First Christian Church

"GIVING THANKS"

"Oh, praise the Lord all ye nations." Psa. 117,1,2.

The words of the sweet singer of Israel should be our National Doxology at this time of the year. Thanksgiving time is here again. It brings to us as a nation another beautiful opportunity to express our gratitude to God for His goodness towards us. "Giving thanks to God" is not alone a religious duty, it is rather a spiritual privilege. The person who has nothing to be thankful for is to be pitied.

Gratitude is interest we owe to God for the life he has lent to us and for the blessings that He has so lovingly bestowed upon us.

I. Giving thanks to God is a privilege. There is a great evil in regarding thanksgiving only as a duty. It is a pleasure to possess a thankful heart. Someone has beautifully said, "A thankful heart is not only the greatest virtue, but it is the parent of all other virtues." Let us appreciate and exercise this God given privilege. Let us not neglect or forget to thank God for the blessings we are enjoying as we make progress along life's highway.

II. Giving thanks to God should be a Christian permanent attitude. "I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth." It is a good thing to have a national day of Thanksgiving once a year. But it is far more beautiful to celebrate Thanksgiving every day of the year. Is it not true today, that we are ever ready to pray for things we want, but too often we forget to thank the Giver after we receive the blessings.

Thanksgiving is not an artificial pump, it is a spontaneous spring, bubbling over with gladness and cheer. It is the very essence of religion expressed in gratitude. Let us therefore make known our religion by expressing our gratitude. When the world begins to echo and re-echo with the song of Thanksgiving, we shall be on the verge of the greatest revival the world has ever known. May the day hasten when the beautiful spirit of Thanksgiving shall girdle the world and make glad the heart of our Heavenly Father.

BANKERS ACTIVE IN SOIL SAVING MOVE

Issue Book Describing Causes, Ravages and Means of Prevention of Erosion

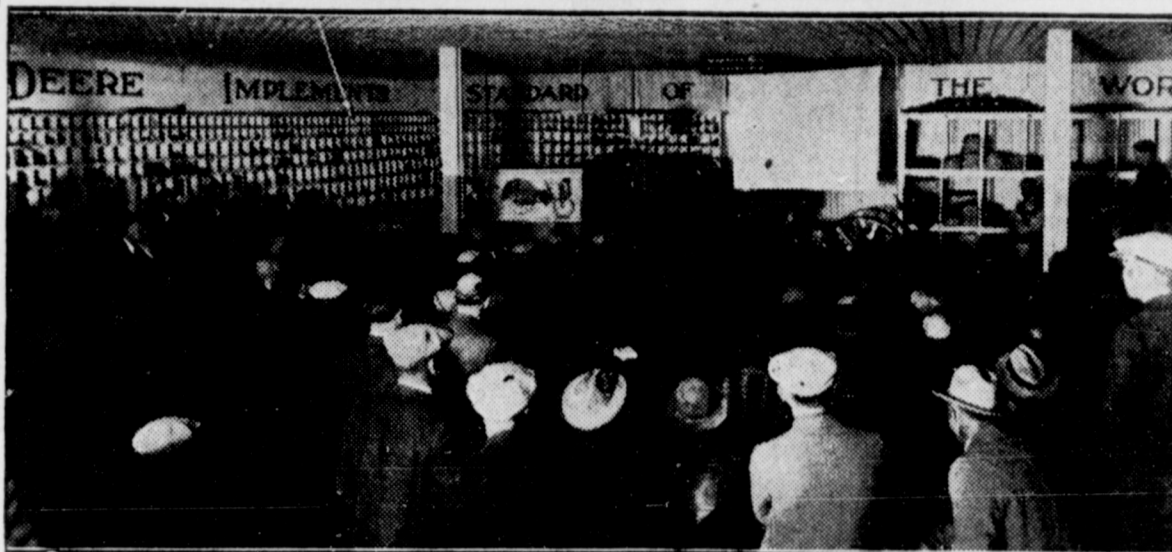

MADISON, Wis.—Under the title "Protecting Investment Values in Land," the American Bankers Association Agricultural Commission has published a booklet dealing with the conservation of soil resources as a pressing national problem.

"Careful estimates indicate that 750,000,000 tons of soil, suspended and dissolved, are carried off to the sea each year by running water," the commission's book declares. "An equal amount removed from its source is left on route. This means a total of 1,500,000,000 tons, equal to approximately one ton for each acre of land in this country. The Soil Conservation Service estimates that already 35,000,000 acres have been practically ruined."

"There are 125,000,000 more acres that have lost the valuable topsoil, and it is estimated that still another 100 million acres are being converted into marginal or sub-marginal land, bringing disaster to those trying to eek out a living from erosion enfeebled soil, and threatening ruin to the next generation, since these destructive forces are going on at an ever increasing rate."

In a chapter devoted to control and preventive measures for soil losses it describes terracing, strip cropping, wind erosion control, gully control and the control of losses from leaching. Other chapters are devoted to soil resources, the toll exacted by soil erosion, methods for keeping soils productive, state and national uses for non-agricultural land, forestry in a soil conservation program and wild life in a land use program. The booklet describes in detail the marshalling of many forces which is being brought about under the leadership of the Soil Erosion Service to meet this national problem.

D. E. Leathers of Lelia Lake is on the sick list this week.

NEW TALKING PICTURE TO BE SHOWN

Clarendon Grain Co., local farm equipment dealer will hold open house for the farmers of this vicinity to see the new talking motion picture, "Sheppard & Son", a sequel to "Partners", shown last year. He will be aided by representatives of the John Deere organization.

Farmers in other localities, who have seen the picture, declare it to be a short course in modern farming, with new and better ways of doing things, new ways of saving money, new methods to increase crop yields.

The picture is a continuation of the story of Mr. Sheppard and his son, Dick, who made such a hit last year. A feature of the picture is the trip through the ten great John Deere Factories and shows you how modern agricultural implements are made. The picture also takes you out into the fields to see how each of these machines operate and what it will do.

On the same program will also be a picture, "Murphy Delivers the Goods", a service picture which shows you how to get the most from your John Deere Tractor, with animated drawings of the working of the motor and cooling system. This picture is declared to be decidedly worth while, and suggests many helpful hints in adding to the economy and satisfaction to be derived from a tractor.

The meeting will be in session from 1:30 p. m. to 2:30 p. m. on Tuesday, December 3rd in the Cozy Theatre building in Clarendon.

"We invite every farmer in this section to be our guests and we particularly want the boys to come," says Mr. Bennett.

"We are planning to make this a sociable affair, but at the same time a very worth while one to farmers and their families. We are counting on a big crowd coming in to enjoy the big day with us."

John Deere Day is proving exceptionally popular with farmers as evidenced by the picture above which shows an interested group at one of these meetings.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE CONTINUES TO GAIN

Bankers Report Nation-Wide Improvement in Goodwill Toward Banks

NEW YORK.—Ninety-six per cent of over 300 reporting clearinghouses throughout the United States find concrete evidence of favorable turns in public opinion regarding banks, it is shown in the results of a survey made by "Banking," the monthly publication of the American Bankers Association. City and country districts in every state are represented in the survey, it points out.

"The outstanding conclusion is that there has been a genuine nationwide improvement the last few months in the attitude of the public toward its banking institutions," the publication says. Statistical evidence on which the bankers base their conclusions which warrant this statement is described as follows: "How do bankers know there has been an improvement in the public attitude? They have certain statistical evidence. They have seen their deposits increase substantially in nearly all the cases reported, and tremendously in some cases. "For another thing, they know that fewer people are using safe deposit boxes for their savings. "However, many express the view that they could throw out the statistical evidence and still realize that the public is in a better mood where the banks are concerned than before. The best evidence offered on this point, numerous bankers say, is to be found in the acceptance by the public of service charges and reduced deposit interest."

A Summary of the Returns The statement presents the following summary of the survey: "We find on breaking up the general classifications of replies to the poll that the 65 per cent of those answering with an unqualified 'yes' represent only a partial measure of the optimistic feeling. Adding the favorable replies included in other groups, (i. e. 'yes' with qualifications, 'no change,' and 'mixed') we find that the vote shows a definitely healthy situation in 84 per cent of the localities reporting; at least some signs of improvement in another 12 per cent; a continuance of unfavorable conditions in 2 per cent, and a change for the worse in another 2 per cent."

As to reasons for the changes in public opinion regarding banks reported by the clearinghouses "more than one organization has a word to say about the American Bankers Association advertising and educational material," the magazine says. It mentions in addition the benefits of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in the emergency, improvement in the general business situation, the weeding out of weak banks and the banking moratorium.

"The response to the survey can be put down as encouraging and informative," the magazine concludes. "It holds out the definite hope that with a continuance of a cooperative, educational attitude on the part of the bankers the rest of the journey back to normal may well be completed in the not too distant future."

LIQUOR LAW HAS SEVERAL ANGLES

A quart in the possession of an individual in dry territory, is the limit under the new liquor control law. The bottle must bear both state and federal stamps. The quart must have been purchased in wet territory.

This quart cannot be brought in to and delivered in dry territory by an individual, common carrier or by any means other than by the original purchaser, Sheriff Pierce announces.

One having in excess of a quart of liquor, or unstamped liquor in possession while in dry territory, is subject to a fine of $100 to $1,000, or a jail sentence of one day to one year or both such fine and imprisonment.

For the second and subsequent offense, the lowest jail term is thirty days under the new law.

If one should buy a quart of bonded whiskey, pour a portion into another unstamped bottle, and be caught so doing, the above fines and imprisonment would apply in case of conviction.

Common carriers may start from a point in wet territory and transport any amount through dry territory under a permit, but cannot make any deliveries legally in dry territory.

Then in case of doubt, and you feel certain of taking some form of chance under the new law, it is suggested that you read the law before hunting trouble, the Sheriff suggests.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. Perry King, Pastor

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

We are happy to announce that Rev. Jas. A. Howard, Missionary for District Ten will preach at the Baptist Church Sunday morning. I have no hesitancy in recommending this man and yielding my time from your pulpit to him for that hour. He is to bring a message on Missions, which will be supremely interesting from start to finish.

I am sure by this time you have heard about the services last Sunday. There is coming up out of the radiant east a new day for the old historic First Baptist Church of Clarendon. We started a movement which is to rid her of every dime indebtedness against her. That out of the way we are to turn our attention to the first business of every christian, that of winning the lost to Christ in revival effort. We feel sure that every member of the church will want to have a part in this signal victory of your churches history, therefore we are giving you a chance, whether it be large or small. We knew you would feel slighted, or overlooked or left out if we did not give you a chance to make it unanimous, hence our solicitations this week and next. If the committee does not see you bring your offering to the church Sunday morning or evening which will be far better. We had rather have you without your offering than to have your offering without you. Both will be a happy combination.

Remember the time for the evening services is 6:00 o'clock for the Training Service, and 7:00 o'clock for the preaching service. Your presence will be an inspiration to the service.

Morrison Lad of Hedley Located in Chicago

Sheriff Pierce has been notified of the detention of James Morrison by probation officers in Chicago. James left Hedley some two weeks ago and his widowed mother asked the sheriff to help locate the lad.

Radio broadcasts from Amarillo failed to locate him. He told Chicago's probation officer that he was on his way to Detroit to visit an uncle who is a traveling salesman, and a brother of his mother.
