The closing chapter in a long useful life came to Mr. Cook at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. P. Holly at Ashtola where he, with Mrs. Cook, had made his home since becoming a helpless invalid.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church in Clarendon Friday afternoon. His former pastor, Rev. B. N. Shepherd, conducted the service. The Hodges funeral home of Memphis (See COOK Page 8)

Highway Work Held Up By Cold Weather

Work on Highway 5 was ahead of schedule until the recent cold weather period covering several days. Clay topping is being placed from Lelia Lake to the end of the pavement near Memphis.

The topping job is completed from Lelia to Goodnight. It is said that the highway will be ready for traffic from Memphis to Claude within 45 days barring bad weather.

Work continues on that stretch from Claude to Amarillo. The concrete portion is being torn up and will be widened when the new roadbed is completed.

Contractors Coke & Braden have rushed the work with all dispatch commensurate with thoroughness. With the present warm weather, the workmen expect to regain the lost time and complete the job ahead of the schedule which is said to mean a premium price.

MUSEUM EXHIBIT TO OPEN MONDAY

Success of This Project Due to Ladies of Town And Country

The beginning of a real museum is now on exhibit in the library room in the basement of the Administration Building of the Coliseum. The date of opening is 10 a. m. Monday, March 2nd.

The hundreds who will be here Monday for the Independence Day celebration will have the first opportunity of seeing the exhibit. There is no admission charge.

This exhibit was begun by the ladies of the Les Beaux Arts club, in which they have been assisted by members of the other ladies clubs of Clarendon. A number of ladies as individuals helped with the idea of starting a museum movement here that will be a credit to any section.

In discussing the matter Wednesday, Mrs. Stocking said: "A very creditable collection of curios and articles of historical interest have been assembled, and will be on display Monday. The people of both town and country are invited to share in the enjoyment of this exhibit which is to be a permanent establishment for the benefit of the school children especially, and the people in general of this part of the Panhandle."

If you have anything of value to add to this collection, please see or phone Mrs. L. S. Bagby at 295. If you do not care to contribute the article, the ladies will appreciate your lending them the specimen.

Cowboy Program Is Friday Night

Songs and Music Redolent of Cowboy Domain Will Recall Days of Open Range

The program of the troupe from the T-Anchor ranch to be put on here at 7:30 Friday evening, the 25th, will recall to mind for elders the days when the country was a ranch domain.

It will remind the younger generation that they have been cheated in listening to the alleged cowboy songs and music over the radio.

This troupe of young men live at the old T-Anchor headquarters in the suburbs of Canyon. They work their way through school. Putting on these programs is one way they have of getting funds together to pay their expenses through State College at Canyon.

Old-time cowboy melodies in a big variety just as they were sung in the long ago will be a big feature. The stage "camp fire" stunt is especially pleasing. Fancy rope throwing is patterned after the late lamented Will Rogers.

It requires a full hour and a half for these young men to present their features. The entertainment is clean and of a high class nature. They've "gone over big" at banquets, on the lyceum course and at special community affairs. They frequently put on a radio program over KGNC of Amarillo.

This presentation is being sponsored by the Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion here. The admission price is ten and twenty-five cents. Don't forget the date—tomorrow night. Place—College Auditorium.

Colonel Wood Clarendon's Newest Traffic Cop

Armed with nothing more disastrous than a tin whistle, A. N. Wood gets on the job of directing traffic, and stays late. He was appointed to the position by the city officials last week.

F. Leck Goldston continues as chief of police, this title being preferred since a city marshal is an elective position.

The City Commissioners are very appreciative of the cooperation given them and Mr. Wood as traffic officer, believing that property damage and injury to citizens will be greatly lessened by the new plan.

Holcomb To Assist With Parole Boards

Former Panhandle Publisher Formerly With Planning Board at Washington

Austin, Feb. 26.—Detail work of assisting in the organization of County Parole Boards throughout Texas will be in charge of W. W. (Hick) Holcomb, Head of the Executive Department of the office of Secretary of State, it was announced this week from Austin. County Parole Boards, voluntary organizations, appointed by Governor James V. Allred, who imitated the plan, have as their purpose the reclamation and rehabilitation of delinquent persons convicted of crime. Holcomb recently returned from Washington where he served as Gerald C. Mann, Representative of the Texas Planning Board.

Mr. Holcomb was associated with R. W. Miller in the publication of the Moore County News at Dumas for several years, and was later publisher of the Castro County News at Dimmitt. He was a leader in the Panhandle Press Association deliberations.

He was chief executive clerk in the office of the Secretary of State under Gerald C. Mann. When Mann resigned, he took Holcomb with him to Washington last year as secretary.

Few men in Texas are better and more favorably known than W. W. (Hick) Holcomb, a Panhandle product by traing if not in fact.

Hedley 4-H Club Boys Hold Session Wednesday

President Frank Spaulding presided at an interesting session of the Hedley 4-H Club Wednesday morning in the High School auditorium at 10:30.

Two topics discussed were "How to treat screw worms," and "Culling hens for egg production."

An hour and a half was consumed in the talks made. Twenty-five members were present at this meeting.

Early Lion Club History Is Related Tuesday

Filling engagements on a program at their Tuesday luncheon were Homer Mulkey and J. R. Porter.

Mr. Mulkey detailed the beginning of the Club in a humorous vein at times, and injected somewhat of the serious side through the years. Speaking as 'another' lawyer, he grew declamatic in his oration which was not confined to any mees or bounds. It was a great talk and loudly applauded.

Mr. Porter summed up the few points overlooked by the first speaker, and by his references, had some of the older members guessing just who would fall a next victim to the cunning of the speaker who took apparent delight in embarrassing the helpless victims

Missionary To China Speaks In Clarendon

Will Fill Pulpit at Baptist Church Both Morning And Evening Next Sunday

At the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, an interested audience gathered to hear Rev. Rex Ray speak on conditions in China. The speaker's headquarters is centered at Wu Chin where this Texas man has had a varied experience in the missionary field of his church.

Perhaps the most attentive listeners were the "Rex Rays," the circle of the W.M.S. that is named in honor of Rex Ray.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Louie E. Thompson, a former classmate of Rev. Rex Ray while they were students of Decatur Baptist college.

Mrs. Steagall Dies Thursday Afternoon

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church at 3 p. m. Friday for Mrs. R. L. Steagall. Rev. Robt. S. McKee, pastor of the Presbyterian church conducted the service. Campfire girls acted as flower bearers.

Attending the casket were C. C. Powell, W. W. Taylor, Tom Goldston, C. J. Douglas, H. T. Burton and Odos Caraway.

The Buntin mortuary had charge of funeral arrangements, and interment was made in Citizens cemetery.

Besides her husband she is survived by the following children: Miss Lorena Steagall, public school teacher in El Paso; Mrs. Thelma Gorman of Borger; Rayburn Steagall of Borger.

Mrs. M. E. Zeigler of Frederick, Okla. is her mother.

Mrs. C. N. Dozier is her only sister. Her brothers are Tom Zeigler of Canyon, Sayle Zeigler of Frederick, Okla.; Earl Zeigler, Chautauqua, Kansas; Hubert Zeigler of the Goldston community near Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Steagall moved to Clarendon from Goodnight some eighteen years ago. For the past several years they have been living at the Country Club lake where Mr. Steagall has had charge of the property as caretaker.

Groom Youth Wins First In Shamrock Baby Beef Show

Some five thousand attended the second annual Eastern Panhandle Livestock show at Shamrock Saturday.

Out of about 40 entries of blue-blooded baby beef calves, fed by 4-H club boys from five counties, the calf fed by Troy Whatley of Groom was adjudged grand champion and first prize winner in the junior class. The calf was bred by Red Moore of White Deer. Whatley was awarded the silver cup offered by the West Texas Cottonoil company.

Drives From Snow to Garden Spot in 15 Hours

Leaving here last week at 2:30, I. J. Pierce made the trip in a V-8 to the Medina Valley by 5 that afternoon. He stated that his party was within 20 miles of San Antonio by noon, and spent some time along the highway at several towns.

Snow and ice covered the streets as he left here, but upon reaching the Valley some 18 miles from San Antonio, he found cabbage, beets and spinach growing beautifully, he said.

Wednesday, February 19, Mr. Frank S. Peterson, District Supervisor of the Tax and Land Survey Project, spoke before the Commissioners Court of Donley County.

Mr. Peterson told briefly of the history of the project, the idea conceived by Mr. R. V. Anderson, State Tax Commissioner, who is now in charge of the project; he immediately applied to the Federal Government for funds and by the following November Texas was allotted six million and six hundred and forty four dollars. Workers started with very little information, without any idea of method of procedure, later qualified people were selected for this work and forty five hundred men and women are now working on the Tax and Land Survey throughout the State of Texas.

It is estimated that three-fourths billion dollars worth of unknown property in Texas, has never been assessed. The land now taxed is short fifteen million acres of representing the actual acres in the state; less than one hundred counties pay almost the whole burden of taxes while the other one hundred and fifty four counties pay a minority of taxes by getting back more from the state than they are paying for taxes. The Panhandle is included in the first category.

Little Tot Painfully Burned By Gas Stove Flames

Alma Regena, aged nineteen months and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey A. Herndon, was quite painfully burned Monday when the little tot backed up to and sat down on a gas stove.

Screams of the babe brought its mother from an adjoining room who extinguished the flaming dress. A physician was called immediately and the patient is improving from her painful experience as rapidly as could be expected.

Farmers Interested In Terracing

"Farmers of this county are taking more interest in terracing than I ever before saw in any county," county agent H. M. Breedlove stated Wednesday.

Hundreds of acres have been terraced the past month under the direction of the county agent.

Attention has been directed to farms in the Hedley country this week, where the roughest farm area of the county exists. A large number of farmers are going ahead with the terracing program on their own account after getting directions sufficient to get started.

An hour and a half was consumed in the talks made. Twenty-five members were present at this meeting.

Early Lion Club History Is Related Tuesday

Filling engagements on a program at their Tuesday luncheon were Homer Mulkey and J. R. Porter.
Mr. Mulkey detailed the beginning of the Club in a humorous vein at times, and injected somewhat of the serious side through the years. Speaking as "another" lawyer, he grew declamatory in his oration which was not confined to any notes or bounds. It was a great talk and loudly applauded.
Mr. Porter summed up the few points overlooked by the first speaker, and by his references, had some of the older members guessing just who would fall a next victim to the cunning of the speaker who took apparent delight in embarrassing the helpless victims.

Peterson Explains Value State Tax Survey

Survey Designed to Equalize State Taxes. Part of State Paying Unjust Burden of Expense of State Government Will be Shown Up

Missionary To China Speaks In Clarendon

Will Fill Pulpit at Baptist Church Both Morning And Evening Next Sunday

Wednesday, February 19, Mr. Frank S. Peterson, District Supervisor of the Tax and Land Survey Project, spoke before the Commissioners Court of Donley County.
Mr. Peterson told briefly of the history of the project, the idea conceived by Mr. R. V. Anderson, State Tax Commissioner, who is now in charge of the project; he immediately applied to the Federal Government for funds and by the following November Texas was allotted six million and six hundred and forty four dollars. Workers started with very little information, without any idea of method of procedure, later qualified people were selected for this work and forty five hundred men and women are now working on the Tax and Land Survey throughout the State of Texas.
It is estimated that three-fourths billion dollars worth of unknown property in Texas, has never been assessed. The land now taxed is short fifteen million acres of representing the actual acres in the state; less than one hundred counties pay almost the whole burden of taxes while the other one hundred and fifty four counties pay a minority of taxes by getting back more from the state than they are paying for taxes. The Panhandle is included in the first category.

Little Tot Painfully Burned By Gas Stove Flames

Alma Regena, aged nineteen months and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey A. Herndon, was quite painfully burned Monday when the little tot backed up to and sat down on a gas stove.
Screams of the babe brought its mother from an adjoining room who extinguished the flaming dress. A physician was called immediately and the patient is improving from her painful experience as rapidly as could be expected.

Drives From Snow to Garden Spot in 15 Hours

Leaving here last week at 2:30, I. J. Pierce made the trip in a V-8 to the Medina Valley by 5 that afternoon. He stated that his party was within 20 miles of San Antonio by noon, and spent some time along the highway at several towns.
Snow and ice covered the streets as he left here, but upon reaching the Valley some 18 miles from San Antonio, he found cabbage, beets and spinach growing beautifully, he said.

Farmers Interested In Terracing

"Farmers of this county are taking more interest in terracing than I ever before saw in any county," county agent H. M. Breedlove stated Wednesday.
Hundreds of acres have been terraced the past month under the direction of the county agent.
Attention has been directed to farms in the Hedley country this week, where the roughest farm area of the county exists. A large number of farmers are going ahead with the terracing program on their own account after getting directions sufficient to get started.

TOWNS DON'T DIE—THEY SUICIDE.

The heading is an apt phrase used over the nation to apply to those towns where fault-finding is being practised instead of cooperative upbuilding.

One of the strangest phenomena witnessed in most small towns such as we have here, is the apparent eagerness with which many otherwise good citizens contribute to the tendency to commit community suicide.

The writer, for instance, has often been accused of using more space in the Leader for the benefit of the rural district than in the town proper.

This is a fact which I do not care to deny, and for which I offer no apology.

The only explanation is, that if we build our country around us, the town will take care of itself. We as a whole should cultivate more of a friendly, cooperative feeling with our entire trade territory. It is hardly worth while to invite the folks into town only when we want to sell them something.

Next Monday thousands of people will be here for the Independence Day celebration. The schools will take the lead. This is a celebration and not a commercial scheme. It is a goodwill builder. Business men and individuals are working together to make a big day of it. And it will be a big day.

The only difference between a rut and a grave is a small dimension. The town that continues in a rut will eventually reach the grave—a suicide victim.

It shall be the policy of the Leader to continue to build good will between Clarendon and the trade territory. We have school advantages here not to be found in any other town of a like size in the state. It is a strong drawing card for the better class of citizens.

Business men who adopt modern methods of merchandising need not fear the highways leading to larger towns. Clarendon will continue to be a good town and get better if we want it that way. No one will come here and do the job for us. It's plainly up to us to make just such a town as we want it to be. What do you say, Mr. Business Man?

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY W. Wallace Layton, Minister

IDENTITY OF THE N. T. CHURCH Article VIII

Again, all the "dioceses" of a Province were placed under the authority of an "Archbishop" or "Metropolitan", whose bishopric was in the chief city of the Province. The office of "Cardinal" was also created, and the Cardinal had charge of all the provinces of a country. The only step now lacking in a fully graded, ecclesiastical, hierarchial system was an officer over the Cardinals—(also known as Patriarchs)—to be a universal ruler. Through battles and contentions, this step was taken and completed in the year 606 A. D. by Boniface III, Bishop of Rome. He assumed this title, and had the Roman Emperor to bestow upon him the title of "universal Bishop" or "Pope". He was the first Pope of Rome in the sense that we think of the title today. He claims to be the vicegerent of God; but hear some quotations from church historians, relative to this destructive change of Government: "No change, perhaps in the whole history of Church government, can be specified more destructive to the primitive constitution of the church, or more disastrous to its spiritual interests. This entire perversion of the original government of the Church of Christ, was itself the origin of the whole system of the Roman Catholic Religion, the germ from which sprang the popery of the dark ages. (Ancient Christianity Exemplified, pages 97,99). It was during the progress of the struggle between the church and the empire, which we will notice later, that the papal power may be said to have culminated. In the eighteen years (1198-1216) in which Innocent III reigned, the papal institution shone forth in full splendor. The office being thus lifted up, the pope said—"Jesus Christ wills that the Kingdom should be priestly and the priesthood Kingly. Over all he has set me as His vicar on earth, so that as before Jesus—every knee shall bow—in like manner to His Vicar all shall be obedient." (Prof. Fisher in Shepherds History pages 58-59). Not only did they assert the necessity of obedience to the Pope, but they actually claimed power to forgive sins, and to bestow eternal life. This is a striking fulfillment of what Paul said to the Thessalonians: "He opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God,

Helping Mothers to Cut Down On Family's Colds

Unique Formula for Nose and Throat Helps to Prevent Colds—And to Throw Off Head Colds at the Start.

SOON CLEARS "STUFFY HEAD"

Mothers are often worried about their families' colds that they find special comfort in this unique aid for preventing colds—Vicks Va-tro-nol.

Especially designed for nose and upper throat, where most colds start, Va-tro-nol stimulates the functions provided by Nature—in the nose—to prevent colds, and to throw off head colds in the early stages.

Used in time—at the first sniffle, sneeze or nasal irritation—just a few drops each nostril—Va-tro-nol helps to avoid many colds.

Where irritation has led to a clogged-up nose (a stuffy head cold or nasal catarrh) Va-tro-nol spreads through the nasal passages—reduces swollen membranes—clears clogging mucus—brings comforting relief.

A Practical Guide for Mothers Each year, more and more families are being helped to fewer colds, shorter colds and milder colds by following Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. Vicks Plan has been clinically tested by practicing physicians, and further proved in everyday home use throughout the country. Full details of the Plan come in each package of Vicks Va-tro-nol.

NO UPSETS

The proper treatment for a bilious child

A cleansing dose today; a smaller quantity tomorrow; less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

ANY mother knows the reason when her child stops playing, eats little, is hard to manage, Constipation. But what a pity so few know the sensible way to set things right!

The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, destroy all hopes of restoring regularity.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult. Doctors use a liquid laxative. Hospitals use the liquid form. It is best for their use, it is best for home use. The liquid laxative they generally use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

A lady asked me Monday if I tried to please every one in editing the Leader. I told the good woman that if I tried that, I would just as soon be a minister's wife. You know a preacher's wife has to put up with all kinds of technical social details, and must please every other woman in the flock while she does it. Some job, believe me.

I do try to follow my conscience, and then let nature take its course. Please every one? She can't be did, folks, she can't be did.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. Perry King, Pastor

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

There is one thing in life that is self evident. It needs no argument. It needs no proof. It is an innate tendency. As surely as spring follows winter the soul turns toward God. Do what you will, say what you may, act as you please, there is deep down in the heart of every human being a longing after God and a life after this life. God has not placed that inborn feeling in our hearts to mock and torment us in this life. It is a reality, and this world is the place for us to prepare for life here and hereafter. The life that is associated with God in this world is more satisfactory to the individual and those about him, than the life that leaves God out. We can't explain away God. We can accept him. If God has a contract faith gets it. Faith will turn the power of God into our lives. There is no rest on the road that take us away from our duty toward God. There is no place where it is easier to find God than in worship, and fellowship, and service, in your church. If at all possible be in your place at your church Sunday morning and commune with God, regardless of what anybody else does.

Regular services at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening. We will be glad to have you in all of the services.

MIDWAY

(Mrs. John Goldston)

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis, Kennedy, Arthur and Clarence Davis were dinner guests of Mrs. Johnnie Riley Sunday.

A wave of sadness came to our community the past week with the passing of our neighbor, Mr. Homer Beach. He has lived among us for the past four years. While handicapped physically, he was ever eager to promote anything for the good of our community and people.

He was loved and trusted by all who knew him, and we like to think of him as he "himself expressed it," a few days before his passing, when asked how he was, he said "alright". We are now happy to think that all is right for him. There will be no more suffering, pain or sorrow, for all are happy and beautiful with him now.

The banquet sponsored by the Midway literary society proved to be a howling success. There were ninety-three plates served. The menu was chicken, dressing and gravy mashed potatoes, pickles, cranberry sauce, english pea, salad on lettuce, rolls and coffee and cherry pie with ice cream.

The tables were prettily, with small red hatchets with date for plate flavors and place cards with the U. S. flag on each and a verse representing some special trait of the person named, created quite a bit of merriment when they were asked to be read by the toast master, Mr. Millsap. We were glad to have the new Mr. and Mrs. Seaton and son with us.

Mr. Tinkle is staying in the W. K. Davis home caring for Kennedy Davis.

J. A. Meaders and Miss Katie made a business trip to Wellington last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meaders were called to Quannah the past week. A nephew was seriously sick. They returned the later part of the week and reported the child as some better.

Mrs. Stone and son J. T. who have been confined to their beds with flu, for the past ten days are able to be up now.

Mrs. Stone's landlord has put up a badly needed new wind mill for her.

The J. A. Meaders family are enjoying a radio, which they purchased at Wellington last week.

RECREATING 18th CENTURY PARIS FOR "A TALE OF TWO CITIES" INVOLVED THE SERVICES 5,000 NON-ACTING EMPLOYEES

Problems of bringing to the screen Dicken's "A Tale of Two Cities," the spectacular David O. Selznick production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer which will be shown at the Pastime Theatre, Sunday and Monday, March 1-2nd with Ronald Colman starred, involved the services of approximately 5,000 individuals in three nations before a camera turned!

In England, France and the United States, regular employees and special retainers of the motion picture company started work on "A Tale of Two Cities" on September 11, 1934, although the first scene was filmed almost a year later.

Departments involved in the preliminary work included legal, accounting, research, property, wardrobe, architectural, executive, production, casting, foreign research, scenario, publicity, music, camera, drapery drafting, engineering, hair-dressing, location, makeup, paint, personnel, planning, sound story, telephone, telegraph and art.

These do not include foreign representatives of the company, both in France and England, who had special agents at work for many months.

Back of these matter-of-fact statements in a production report recently completed in Hollywood is a dramatic story of the unifying of thousands of individual efforts into the picture that now reaches the screen—a picture that for magnitude and importance has seldom been equalled in Hollywood's history.

"A Tale of Two Cities," as every one familiar with the Dickens masterpiece knows, is the story of events in the lives of a little group of men and women in London and Paris during the period between 1765 and 1789, a period in which occurred the French Revolution, the fall of the Bastille and the birth of the French Republic.

It was simple enough for Dickens, sitting in his study, to visualize these events and to write about them. He needed no more material tools than a pen, ink and paper. But to the motion picture makers, who had to bring these scenes and these people to life upon the screen there were problems which would completely confound a less competent industry.

First, what did the Bastille look like? It is gone now, torn stone from stone; only a modest plaque marks the spot where it stood. And then, in bewildering confusion, thousands upon thousands of other questions: What did Paris look like in that day? What did the people wear, eat, drink? Of what material were their clothes, and how were they cut? Did the rooms have wallpaper or were the walls bare? What pictures, if any, decorated the rooms? There are authentic answers to most of these in so far as they concerned the royalty and nobility, but to find the answers as they concerned the peasants was a task that involved the work of thousands of earnest researchers, poring through reference books in the libraries of the three nations.

Was the guillotine of 1789 different in construction from the guillotine of today? How were the tumbrils built, that carried the unfortunates to the place of execution; did they have two wheels or four, and were the wheels solid or spoked? What sort of pavement was on the streets? What sort of shoes did the people wear?

Thus question upon question piled up—questions that could be answered only by earnest delving into books which most people do not know are in existence, books written by long-dead historians who sought to perpetuate the knowledge of those times for generations to follow.

The five thousand who contributed to the making of "A Tale of Two Cities" never will be known to history. They are the "little people" without whom the studios could not exist, who go about their business entirely outside the brilliant spotlight which illumines the stars and the featured players.

It is due directly to their earnest efforts that Ronald Colman was able to step correctly and interestingly garbed into a setting which fairly breathed the authentic spirit of the days of which Dickens wrote.

With Colman in "A Tale of Two Cities" is an astounding group of players among them Elizabeth Allan, Edna May Oliver, Reginald Owen, Basil Rathbone, Blanche Yurka, Henry B. Walthall, Donald Woods, Walter Catlett, Fritz Leiber, H. B. Warner, Mitchell Lewis, Claude Gillingwater, Billy Bevan, Isabel Jewell, Lucille Laverne, and Tully Marshall.

Jack Conway, who directed "Viva Villa!" for M-G-M, is the director of this new spectacle.

Health Suggestions Includes Winter Ailments

"Keep your body in good condition," advised Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. While colds, influenza, and pneumonia are different conditions, all three may be brought on or made worse by lowered bodily resistance, and all three may often be prevented in the same ways.

When these communicable diseases are prevalent, avoid crowds as much as possible and plan your work and recreation so that you will not over tax your strength and get tired out. Be sure that the room where you are is always well ventilated. Drink plenty of water and don't let your system get clogged up.

Sufficient rest, cleanliness of hands, mouth and teeth, fresh air while at work and at sleep, regu-latica of meals and bodily functions, wholesome food and freedom from anxiety will increase bodily resistance and avoid contracting the disease.

One attack of cold or influenza does not as a rule confer immunity. Individuals have been known to have several attacks during an epidemic. Segregation of the patient is desirable to avoid giving the disease to others.

Cocke Announces For District Judge

The following announcement has been received from Hon. R. H. Cocke of Wellington:

To the Citizenship of Childress, Hall, Donley and Collingsworth Counties:

This is announcing to you that I am offering myself for judge of your District Court. In becoming a candidate for this office I am not unmindful of the responsibilities connected with the office, or of the honor of being a judge in whom the citizenship finds ability, fairness, integrity and a prompt disposition of matters before the court—this not only to save expenses and conduct the court in an orderly and business like manner, but that justice be promptly had in all matters before the court.

Born in Texas, I have resided in Collingsworth County for forty-six years; Practiced law since 1907—after having graduated from Clarendon College and Cumberland University—served as County Attorney and County Judge, and have had considerable experience as District Judge. Many citizens of Childress County, of Hall County, of Donley County, and of Collingsworth county have had opportunity to see and observe my manner of holding and presiding as District Judge, and, having practiced law in the courts of all the counties of the district, most of you have had opportunity to know the character of man I am, and likewise, having, as a boy freighted to Memphis and Childress, and as a young man having attended school in Clarendon for four years, every citizen of the district can, if desired, learn my life from boyhood to this date. I am now fifty two years of age.

Those who have offered for this office to this date are my friends, and will be when this campaign is over for the reason that this office, honorable though it is,—if held with honor,—is not to me, worth the sacrifice of friendships.

Courts should be tribunals of justice,—and without delay,—where every human and property right is settled with fairness and in accordance with the law which fixes our relations each with the other, and with the commonwealth, and this justice should be had with the most possible dispatch, and with economy. It is my firm belief that when you have elected me your district judge, the court will be able to make such a record for fairness, economy and prompt dispatch of business, that you will feel with me, THAT THE HONOR OF BEING YOUR OFFICER LIES IN DOING WELL THE DUTIES IMPOSED, for to me there would be no honor in being your judge unless therein I could be such an officer as will do well the duties of such position.

I most deeply appreciate the many friends over the district who, believing in me, have expressed their wish that I should offer for this office, and to all alike I hope for your thoughtful consideration, and then your active support, and will endeavor to see you personally, that you may know the manner of man I am to offer for this important and honorable office.

Prominent Men to Speak At Presbyterian Church

Two distinguished speakers will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and night.

At the morning service, Mr. Paul Baker, graduate of the Yale School of Speech Arts, a student in European Schools, and now a professor of Speech Arts in Baylor University, will give a religious lecture. Mr. Baker is a brother of Mr. Sloan Baker.

At the night service, at 7:30, Mr. J. M. Allerdice, well known throughout the Church as a layman with a vision and a message, will be the speaker. Mr. Allerdice is a retired business man of San Antonio, who is giving his life and his means in a unique service for the church. During the last ten years he has studied first hand the work of the church at home and abroad, worked in city missions, penitentiaries, jails, among the Indians, Mexicans and mountaineers, and has spoken in over 2000 churches over the nation. All of this has been at his own expense, not allowing anyone to pay any part of his expenses. He is in demand everywhere, and Clarendon is fortunate to have this opportunity of hearing his unusual message. Please note the changed hour of this evening service.

The public is cordially invited to these two services.

Miss Elon Alken was called to Lipan Monday to be with her father who is quite ill.

Mrs. Emma McConnell and son Edward of Ft. Worth spent the week end here with her father, Mr. P. A. Buntin and other relatives.

CONNER—

Los Angeles, where he made his home, to Tucson, Arizona. Acquainted here some years before, Reece and Stewart Hamblin renewed a boyhood acquaintance in Los Angeles, and became fast friends.

During the time Reece was ill, Stewart was "the best friend we ever had," as Mrs. Reece Conner stated to the writer Tuesday. Stewart Hamblin was, and is, frequently heard over KMTR broadcasting station of Los Angeles. He often referred to "Tex" Conner, as he renamed his friend in the Pacific coast home of these two Donley county boys.

Then came the time for Stewart Hamblin to sing in the 1935-36 Jubilee Contest over the radio station. It was with a heavy heart that young Hamblin entered the studio that morning of February 16th, because Reece Conner had passed away but a few minutes before. Stewart put all his will power into his efforts and won.

Before his death, Reece had asked that he be buried beside his father at Lelia Lake. When he passed away, his funds had been largely spent in an effort to get well. The comely young widow wanted to grant the last request, but the great financial barrier stared her in the face until her desires seemed hopeless.

It was then that the friend of Reece Conner proved his greatest value to the young couple. He supplied the means whereby the body was brought back here and laid beside that of his father. "It was Stewart's money that enabled me to bring Reece's body back here," Mrs. Conner told the writer.

Truly, grateful hearts yet exist to appreciate friendship dedicated to a grateful remembrance of those who have passed on. The noble deed, and that beautiful expression of worthy manhood found a just cause when sorrow overwhelmed the widow of his best friend. Reece Conner was a most worthy young man. His benefactor proved his own worthiness by his fidelity.

MISSIONARY—

With a clear, forceful delivery, the speaker's theme was centered on the words from the 126th Psalm: "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy." "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him," the speaker said.

Habits and customs of the people with whom he labored gave his listeners an insight into China conditions of today, and the difficulties experienced in reaching them.

Questions were pled the speaker as eager ones sought further information, and these questions were explained fully in his replies. Wednesday evening the speaker faced a large congregation at the church. Pictures of scenes in China was among the high lights of the talk that evening.

Rev. Rex Ray will preach at the local Baptist church at the 11 o'clock hour next Sunday, and again in the evening at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to hear this gifted man and learn more of the cause to which his life is dedicated.

solves from all blame Mr. and Mrs. M. E. (Sandy) Tyler who were arrested here February 10th on a murder charge, and returned to that county.

The letter reads: "Dear Mr. Pierce: I wish to thank you for what you did in helping me when I was there to get the Tylers.

I have statements from both Sandy and his wife, that are invaluable in the case.

I have found that the Tylers are good, dependable people, and I know that if you had personal dealings with them you would verify this. They are coming back to your county, free people, and I wish to ask you to stand up for them because they are innocent of the accused murder.

If I may give you further information, I will be glad to do so.

Thanking you in advance for this favor, I am,

Most sincerely yours,

Frank Mills, Sheriff.

By Annie Stiles, Office Deputy." The Tylers, having cleared themselves of all suspicion, will again take up their residence in Donley county where they have relatives, and where the good citizens of this section will accord them every respectful consideration and welcome as "good citizens as vouched for by Sheriff Mills who made a thorough investigation of their characters."

PETERSON—

One of the purposes of this survey is to equalize the tax burden among different sections of the state. Another is to discover land which has been escaping taxation. It is estimated that taxes can be reduced twenty five percent if this unknown land is discovered and assessed, then too, the survey will eliminate duplicate assessments where the boundary lines overlap and land is taxed twice. The final result of the survey will probably be some uniform tax system for all two hundred and fifty four counties of Texas.

The survey will secure complete information about all Texas land as to the acres in cultivation, waste land, land affected by erosion, pasture land, improvements on the land, boundary lines, lien holders (if any), delinquent taxes and value of the land.

One copy of this information will remain in the county for future reference and the other will be sent to the State Tax Board. Eight thousand and twenty three dollars has been allotted to Donley County to carry out the project. Seven thousand and seven hundred of this will be paid for payrolls. The Commissioners Court of each county usually furnishes the incidentals needed in the way of equipment.

Mr. Anderson makes the statement, "If the survey is accurately and completely carried out, eighty percent of the tax payers will pay fifteen to twenty percent less, and ten or fifteen percent more will start paying taxes who have never paid before."
