Museum To Be Open Monday Afternoons

Free Admission on Monday Afternoons From 2 to 5

More gifts have been added to the museum collection the past week reports Mrs. L. S. Bagby, a member of the museum board and an enthusiastic worker for this worthy institution.

"We want some old-time branding irons," she said. Quite a few such branding irons are to be found in this section. The museum needs them, will keep them secure and no doubt the museum will have some of these old irons within a short time.

The exhibit room is taking on a definite museum air with the large number of items on display at this time. More than three hundred articles are said to be on display at this time.

Visit the Museum any Monday afternoon between 2 and 5 without charge. It is the Donley County Museum, open to everybody. It is also "your" Museum—help build it by gifts or contributions as loans in the form of old articles.

Highway Surfacing Bids To Be Read March 24th

Bids for the contract to surface Highway 5 from the west Donley county line to Hedley, are to be opened in Austin the 24th of this month. The specifications call for an asphalt and gravel topping.

Highway 5 is now temporarily open to traffic from Claude to Hedley.

Work continues on No. 66 across the north end of the county. It is said that some thirty more days will be required in which to complete the clay topping on that stretch of highway, more commonly known as the Jericho gap.

Attend Grand Lodge Meeting At San Angelo

Members of the local Odd Fellows lodge to attend the Grand Lodge meeting at San Angelo Monday and Tuesday were Homer Bones, C. L. Cook, Jack Bailey.

HIGHWAY 5 MEET TO BE HELD 23rd

Sessions Will be Held in Amarillo by Delegates From Three States

The meeting of the Colorado to Gulf Highway Association at this time is to devise plans to route Centennial visitors from the middle and northwestern states to Texas over Highway 5.

Delegates and others will be there to represent Colorado and New Mexico as well as Texas towns on Highway 5 as far east as Wichita Falls, it is said.

With the completion of paving on Highway 5 from Amarillo to Memphis, and further improvement on the same route to the west state line, a heavy traffic is expected over this route this summer, principally because it is the most direct route. Another inducement is the opportunity to see the famous Palo Duro State Park on this route by making a short side trip out of Amarillo.

Several from Clarendon have signified their intentions to meet with the C-G Association. A. L. Chase has long been an official member, and Odos Caraway and Homer Mulkey have been active in the work of the Association for some fifteen years.

Mrs. Morgan Improves After Serious Operation

Latest information is to the effect that Mrs. Arthur E. Morgan is recovering nicely from a major operation at Adair hospital Saturday morning.

Mr. Morgan is employed on the highway work in this district under foreman Bob Rankin.

Schell Bros. Bring 4-Ring Circus Here

Lovers of the out-of-the-ordinary amusement will be interested in the announcement that Schell Bros. Big 4-Ring Circus and Trained Animal Circus will be seen at Clarendon, Texas on Thursday, March 26, presenting decidedly the largest and greatest program of original, unique and thrilling feature acts known today. To the show world this vast tented amusement enterprise is alone in a class by itself without a rival. Nothing like the performance provided by Schell Bros. Circus was ever before dreamed or dared by the boldest managers. Whatever your preference, you will find plenty to interest, astonish and edify you. There are thrilling aerial acts, during every moment of which are expected to see the intrepid performers hurled into eternity; artistic and sensational equestrianism; incredible and bewildering athletic and acrobatic numbers; and the phenomenal exhibition by trained animals. In fact, so numerous and varied are the novelties offered in the four rings and upon the hippodrome track by these shows, lack of space will not permit each of these to be mentioned. The wonderful growth of this circus is that the owners have always aimed to present all and more than they advertise.

The faithful trio, a title given three men in that early day was earned by their ability and willingness to give more to any worthy cause than was expected of them. These men were Rev. Emanuel Dubbs, Theo Crabtree and Moris Rosenfield.

Family Effects Destroyed By Fire Saturday Night

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the C. C. May home on the Brice highway at the southeast corner of the townsite about 9 p. m. Saturday.

Members of the family were away and all the household effects were destroyed with the exception of a washing machine.

LADIES' BANQUET IS MONDAY NIGHT

Business and Professional Women to Observe Annual Affair

A banquet honoring their "bosses" will be held in the basement of the Christian church Monday evening of the 23rd by the B&P Women. Mrs. Ruth Teat, president of the Club, will preside.

Each year this event is regarded as the most interesting in civic club work of the town. Only one man is privileged to fill a position of honor on the program. He responds to the welcome address. All the other numbers on the program are filled by women especially chosen according to their talent.

The program for Monday night: Toastmistress—Mrs. Ruth Teat. Club Collect—Fanny Perry.

Clarendon Merchant Of 80'S Dies Sunday

Came With Railroad in 1888 And Established First Drygoods Business

With the death of Moris Rosenfield in Dallas Sunday the life of one of West Texas' most colorful characters became history. Coming to Clarendon when the Denver railway built into here in 1888, Rosenfield established his drygoods business on the north side of the track where the main part of town was located for several years.

Later his business was moved to where the J. Ray building is now located, and occupied by the Salmon drygoods company at present. "Moris Rosenfield was a Jew, but he was most liberal in his beliefs, and dearly loved ham," said a life-long friend Tuesday. He was most liberal in donations, gave of his time and was a builder in every sense of the word. He was declared to be the best 'mixer' in town, frequently taking parts in plays and home talent shows of various kinds.

"The faithful trio," a title given three men in that early day was earned by their ability and willingness to give more to any worthy cause than was expected of them. These men were Rev. Emanuel Dubbs, Theo Crabtree and Moris Rosenfield.

The hardware and implement firm of Watson and Antrobus will be represented in the Leader through advertising space for the remainder of the year. Mr. Watson made arrangements for the weekly message of the firm to buyers Wednesday.

Besides a general hardware business, the firm features implements, cream separators and other farm necessities. A general line of light hardware is kept in stock.

Ashtola Farmer Sells Out And Moves to Clarendon

Elsie Gregg, who has been farming with modern equipment on the Geo. Bagby farm north of Ashtola for some years, has sold his equipment to P. M. Marshall of Ashtola.

Mr. Gregg has not announced his plans for the future other than to move to Clarendon for school purposes for the present.

Local Meat Market Features Prize Baby Beef

The Castleberry meat market is this week featuring prize winning Donley county baby beef, according to an advertisement in the Leader. The beef is being sold at no advance in price, they state.

This beef comes from calves formerly owned by Pat Slavin and shown at Amarillo Fat Stock Show, and a calf grown by Carroll Monroe and shown in the contest here.

Bottled Chicks Are Doing Well, Thank You

Chicks put into a bottle when three days old are nearing frying size at the Clarendon Hatchery. One is white and the other black. They appear to be thrifty and of normal size for their ages.

Whether this stunt was done for scientific purposes or merely out of curiosity, no one seems to be willing to take the responsibility of an explanation. The next question is, who will eat the chickens when they fill the bottle? Something ought to be done about it.

LESS THAN TWO CENTS A WEEK

That's what the Donley County Leader costs you now—less than 2 cents a week. $1 for a full year if you pay up before May 1st. This rate applies to both new and renewal subscriptions. Better attend to the matter today before you forget it.

College Banquet Held Tuesday Nite

Wit and Wisdom is Dispensed In Reunion at First Baptist Church

It is characteristic of a college student body to be so preoccupied that they know little of "student psychology" under the hilarious influence of a college student banquet affair. Their vision is confined for the present to embryo politics with the campaign in full swing. The conversation was akin to the din in a boiler factory, with out casualties, of course.

It was a great night for the student body—and exes. Quite a number of the graduates of Clarendon Municipal Junior College in years past, and who are now occupying positions of dignity and trust, attempted to 'steal the whole show,' and did with more or less success. They at least thrust honors upon their Alma Mater, it is announced by the selsame student body.

"Slick" Naylor of Panhandle and Bill Dillard of Alameed, each public school principals, created an uproar with sparks of wit snapping at the mental kites of a host of others. This round was given the "exes" by referee Robert Nichols, who also acted as toastmaster, if not ringmaster.

Chamberlain Juniors Take Game From Bray

In a fast game of basketball between the Chamberlain Juniors and Bray Juniors Saturday, Chamberlain won by a narrow margin by a score of 8 to 10 when "Tick" Barber made a goal in the last three minute play-off following a tie of 8-8.

Chamberlain played a tie game with Giles the same afternoon, the score being minus for each side. Another match with Martin was lost by one point, this game being played the night of the same day.

"CRADLE OF TEXAS LIBERTY"

Peaceful now, its supreme sacrifice to posterity enshrined down the columns of time, the Alamo rests in the San Antonio sun, steeped in the traditions of the Lone Star State it bore. Never forgotten by Texans the shrine to Texas liberty will ever live in the hearts of Centennial visitors.

Pie Auction is Scheduled For Midway School

Those in charge of the affair want to be fair with the public. A number of other things will attract the prospective customer, among them being one-act plays.

The invitation is extended the general public. Anyone with the price may bid on the pies without being "pie-eyed." Enthusiasm and a normal appetite are the only requisites after becoming the successful bidder.

The pie circus is scheduled for Friday evening of this week. The plays are guaranteed not to mar the feelings of the most fastidious. No, Neils Robison will not speak, so far as can be learned at this time.

Cotton Sales Certificates Are Ready to be Signed

Cotton sales certificates are now ready to be signed in the county agents office. These sales certificates are for the producer to obtain the difference between the average of the ten spot markets and twelve cent cotton on the day that he sold his cotton. Approximately half of the producers in the county have signed their cotton sales certificates but the producers who have not are urged to come to the county agents office and sign their papers as soon as possible so they might be mailed to Washington and not delay the checks in arriving. Producers are urged to give their immediate attention and sign their sales certificates as soon as possible.

To date there has been no information received on the new farm program but as soon as this office receives instruction from the Washington office it will be given to the farmers of this county.

Hubert Heatherly Continues To Improve at Hospital

Following an auto wreck some two weeks ago, young Heatherly has been a patient at Adair hospital where his life hung in the balance for several days, it is said, due to head injuries.

At present he is greatly improved. A blood clot over the left eye is clearing until he can see a bit out of that eye. A large scar back of the left ear marks the place where the skull was broken.

Local Debating Team Takes Part in Amarillo Meet

Misses Jean McDonald, Nell Cook representing the girl's debating team of the high school, and John Lott and Jimmie Bourland of the boys' team debated in the invitation tournament in Amarillo Saturday.

These two teams will enter the Interscholastic League contests for this county March 27th, in representing the Clarendon High School.

Flower And Shrub Exchange Next Sat.

The Les Beaux Arts club will sponsor the annual flower and shrub exchange here next Saturday at the Club Room. The doors will be open at 10 a. m.

Ladies all over Donley county are urged to take advantage of the opportunity to exchange their excess for something they want or need. If you have either flowers or shrubs that you do not need or want, bring them to the Club room Saturday. Others will be glad to exchange with you. If you have nothing more than the old 'stand-bys', remember that they do the best here, and others will want them.

Each year a large amount of flower garden and yard ornaments are exchanged in this manner, many of them of choice varieties. As one lady stated recently, "I have from year to year acquired a wonderful variety of flowers without cost by the exchange method."

Since this is Centennial year, and greater efforts will be made to beautify yards in every section in observance of the event, a larger number of patrons is expected to share in the flower exchange this year.

Methodist Announce Summer Revival in July

Arrangements have been completed for an open air revival to be conducted under the auspices of the Methodist Church this summer, according to announcements by the pastor Rev. E. D. Landreth. The date of the meeting is to be July 5 to 19. The preacher for the meeting is to be the Rev. Ray N. Johnson of San Antonio, who is the pastor of the Government Hill Methodist Church of that city. Rev. Johnson is a young man about thirty years of age, a graduate of McMurry College and of Southern Methodist University, and is known as one of the most attractive and brilliant young ministers in the state. All of the people of the community, regardless of church affiliation will be invited to participate in this meeting, the Rev. Landreth said.

It was the Manhattan judging team that won first place in judging both cattle and hogs at the Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show Saturday. Victors in two tests is a new record set by any school.

Alfred was recently elected president of his Greek letter society, the Sigma Phi Epsilon chapter of Kansas' state agricultural college. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry of Clarendon.

Identity of the N. T. Church Article XI

The Roman Catholic Church, as we have already seen, had reached such a degree of corruption in doctrine and practice, so deep and widespread, that it would seem quite impossible for it to reach further degradation. Apostolic order and ordinances had given place to those of the "man of sin." "The mystery of lawlessness" stood out in full proportions. At the council of Toulouse in 1229 A. D. the bible was forbidden to the laity. One of the papal dupe's reads thus—"We also forbids the laity to possess any books of the Old, or New Testaments, except, perhaps, the Psalter (Psalms) or Breviary for the Divine offices—which some out of devotion wish to have; but having any of these books translated into the vulgar tongue, (i.e. their own language), we strictly forbid."

Among the first whose eyes were opened to such intolerant corruptions was John Wickliffe, who through much opposition began the translation of the Bible into English in the year 1379. Encouraged by Wickliffe's rebellion to popery, others began to be influenced to open rebellion. In 1401 William Sawtre a devout seceder, was burnt as a heretic at Snithfield, England. A Mr. J. Badby, was burned in a barrel; John Oldcastle, was roasted over a slow fire at the command of one of the papal dupe's. Catholics today deny these charges but the pages of history literally seethe with the blood of Christian Martyr's of the 15th century.

The year 1500 A. D. was a period of great interest to all the world. Four men, Le Fevre in France; Zwingli, in Switzerland; Luther, in Germany, and Tyndale, in England—were destined to make a great impression on the world for all time. Tyndale, however, looms larger than the rest in that he like Wickliffe, translates the Bible into English. He finished the New Testament by 1525, and his friends completed his work after his death of the rest of the Bible. Tyndale was strangled at the stake, and his body burned to ashes on Oct. 6, 1536.

Misses Margaret and Rachel Melton of Miami visited their mother Mrs. Karl Adams over the week end.

Mesdames L. M. Reeves, John Davidson and Mosley of Memphis were guests of Mrs. John Lott Sunday.

T. Lott Kimbriel of Estancia, N. Mex. was here Saturday on a matter of business. He is operating a service station and repair shop there.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
 By the Apostle

A fellow never feels so silly as while having his picture made.

Dallas certainly has some clear-thinking men. They are going to have each Centennial visitor to turn a shovel of dirt. By that means they expect to make the Trinity navigable.

A few years ago Admiral Hatfield hitched six yoke of oxen to a mud scow and made a safe trip down the Trinity from Dallas to the Gulf. In some places, the mud was so deep that the oxen could hardly make it.

The Fordson still is having its day. At least Harry Fordson of Canyon is doing that very thing.

Speaking of odd names, how about Frances Goostree of Sayre, Okla.? Besides all that, she makes a specialty of raising pedigreed hogs.

Hitch-hiking hens already have the garden located. But the old hen-boy in the lead makes the most trouble. Just like people—a man can lead a woman into any form of devilment.

Don't forget to pay your subscription while the rate is only a dollar a year. Seven different people came into the office and paid their subscriptions Saturday between the hours of 2 and 3, not to mention those paid during other hours since the announcement of rate reduction was made. The reduced rate closes May 1st. Do it now before you forget.

A budding graduate of journalism would probably write his feelings thusly:

I'm telling you—
 That man who trails along with you
 Is better off than the Governor of New Mexico.

He sits close and
 Hears you laughing—a giggler,
 God knows, a giggler—
 And the past is a scuttle of ashes.

That's what I hanker after—
 But when I get one slant at you I can't speak.

Dust gets into my throat;
 My tongue breaks down in jabberings;

The flame in my right wrist, and the fires in the left wrist run along my arms and legs.

My ears ring; I go blind; drops of sweat come to my forehead;
 I shake all over. I may be going nuts.

Get this:
 I want to dare anything.

I want to say there's a place on these ballies where potato blossoms and frogs are not calling, and nobody on the job but the sun.

I want to sing "Shine all over God's heaven"

But something chokes me.
 I can't act like I used to.

I go yellow as grass after no rain for three years.

All in—Ab-so-lutely all in—no use, girl, no use.

I must be in love—I'm telling you.

And while we are on the subject, it might be well to state that scientists are always busting tradition, habit and custom. Comes now one Dr. Frederick W. Brown, professor of speech correction in the Floral Park, N. Y. public schools. He deducts thusly: "If your 'honey bun' rolls her eyes and calls you her 'itsy-bitsy honey-boo', have her tonsils examined. Because it's not your powerful personality that is affecting her, its emotional instability or some other form of insanity." Now I ask you, how many will believe him?

The pictures used in a dress advertisement seldom resemble the lady who writes the copy.

Often the girl who writes up the menus for the daily paper, eats off a stool and must content herself with hot dogs with garlic in 'em.

It's amusing how particular men are these days about the label on the bottle. A year ago he did not care what kind of a jug, jar or bottle it was wrapped up in. Most of it smelled like soured cane and tasted worse, but he drank it and appeared to enjoy his personal liberty to the fullest.

For one thing, this depression has taught us the necessity for birth control. A local family on starvation includes 11 children, most all of whom are sick or diseased in some form.

All my life I've regarded books of fiction as a punk asset. Cute expressions? Yes, just listen to this pathetic situation: "As they held hands and talked, he had his eyes glued to the floor." Served him right. He should have been under a tree.

WHEN A BANK ACCEPTS DEPOSITS

—IT ENTERS INTO HUMAN RELATIONSHIPS THAT MAKE IT UNIQUE IN BUSINESS LIFE.

It assumes toward its depositors an obligation to safeguard the funds placed in its keeping, with all humanly possible diligence. It assumes toward its community the obligation to employ those funds, through good business loans and advances for sound public financial requirements to serve the vital needs and broadest welfare of the community. It assumes toward its stockholders the obligation to protect their capital and earn a fair return.

Sound, honest management offers the only way to meet these three obligations. There are no substitutes for them in banking laws or financial practices.

"Voice of Bugle Ann" Story of Man Turned Murderer for Love of a Dog, Showing 25-26

Lionel Barrymore and Eric Linden Again Play Father and Son, with Maureen O'Sullivan as Heroine in Filmization of MacKinlay Kantor's Dramatic Novel, Based on Actual Courtroom Case in Missouri

Can a man be so loyal to a dog as to commit murder for it?

This strange trick in human psychology is the crux of one of the most amazing human documents ever to come to the screen, "The Voice of Bugle Ann," with Lionel Barrymore in the principal role, coming Wednesday and Thurs March 25-26th to the Pastime Theatre.

Based on MacKinlay Kantor's novel, which in turn was based on an actual court case in Missouri, it tells the story of a veteran Missouri fox hunter and his favorite dog, to avenge which he kills a man and goes to prison. It is held the greatest tribute to a dog since Senator Vest's famous speech which figures in the trial scene.

The man and dog episode is set in a romance of young love, feuds and other interesting angles. A complete pack of Missouri hounds was taken to the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, and actual fox hunts staged, just as is done in the hill country of the Mid-Western state.

Several members of the cast of "Ah Wilderness!" again appear with Barrymore. Eric Linden is his son, Benjy, a Missouri farm boy, and Spring Byington is again in the mother role. Maureen O'Sullivan lives has the feminine lead opposite Linden, and Dudley Digges, Charles Grapewin, James Macklin, Billy Newell, Henry Wadsworth and others are in the cast.

Richard Thorpe, who filmed "Last of the Pagans," directed, and John W. Considine, Jr., produced the new picture. Thorpe traveled to Missouri for exteriors and locale details.

The dogs brought back are the property of Sheriff Tom Bash, of Kansas City, a noted sportsman. Among them are the champion hounds of the state of Missouri.

Dramatic highlights in the picture include the fox hunt, the birth of the puppy amid the thunderstorm and its rescue, the coming of the stranger from the North who built barbed wire fences, the loss of "Bugle Ann," the desperate efforts of the heroine to prevent trouble as the infuriated farmers gather, the murder, the trial with Barrymore's dramatic tribute to the dog, and the denouement in which the case of Bugle Ann is settled in the hills to which the old fox-hunter returns.

Samuel Hoffenstein and Harvey Gates wrote the screen play. The original story is based on a case tried some time ago in the Springfield courts.

WHEN BLADDER IRRITATION WAKES YOU UP

Strike at the cause. It's nature's way of saying "Danger Ahead." Make this 25c test. Use Buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., to flush out excess acids, and impurities. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. You are bound to feel better after this flushing and you get your regular sleep. Get buchu, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called Bukets. In four days if not pleased, your druggist will refund your 25c.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH: J. Perry King, Pastor. There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

As truly as a parent delights to be sought for by a child when he is cold or hungry, or ill, or in need of protection so it is with our Heavenly Father. He is our Father and tells us plainly that all the resources of heaven are at our command if we will but seek Him and ask of them at his hands. He has promised to be in his temple of worship perpetually and see every one who goes there, and hear their requests attentively, and supply all their needs according to His riches in glory. How can one so dependant and helpless within himself fail to keep an appointment with one who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think? Let next Lord's day find you in His house asking for the things you need. It will be a great day for you and for your house when you and the heavenly Father get together.

The First Baptist Church will be happy to greet you and give you a place in her pew for one hour of delightful worship both morning and evening.

 * * * * MARTIN SCHOOL NEWS * * * * ***

The Junior basketball team of Martin was the proud winner of the tournament played at Lelia Lake last week. We experienced some stiff competition in these games having to play off two ties to determine the winner. We are looking forward to the final with expectations of being victorious again but we know that most any of the splendid Junior teams of Donley county might win that however.

Our attendance at Sunday school Sunday morning was slightly lower than usual. There were only 49 members present. However, we had a splendid lesson and everyone seemed to take a deep interest in class discussion. The subject matter was taken from the 11th chapter of St. Luke. The greater part of this chapter deals with Jesus' controversies with his enemies, who were, at this time attacking him more boldly than ever. But our chief interest in the first part of the chapter where Jesus teaches his disciples to pray. Already, again and again, he had taught them this by precept and example; and on one occasion he had given them, in slightly fuller form, the prayer he now repeated. Though the disciples did not yet realize how much this future ministry was to depend on prayer, but they did see that Jesus found something in it that they had not discussed and they longed for the same experience. So today, we find that we need to pray more; to pray a prayer that is not selfish, and above all, we must learn to carry out the golden rule of "Love thy neighbor as thy self."

We want to invite every one who is not already attending some Sunday school regularly to come out and worship with us. Spring time is coming, the days are getting warmer, and we are expecting to have a larger attendance each Sunday morning.

were played and every one had a nice time.

There was a singing at the Chamberlain school auditorium last Sunday afternoon. We didn't have a very large crowd of home folks but we did have lots of visitors from surrounding communities. We want to thank you all for your presence and invite you back again.

The Man Who Knows
 Whether the Remedy You are taking for Headaches, Neuralgia or Rheumatism Pains is SAFE is Your Doctor. Ask Him
 Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.
 We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.
 Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.
 •Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.
 You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

CLARENDON—

Rosenfield—a minister, a saloon man and the drygoods merchant. And these three were warm friends despite their calling or professions.

It was through the generosity and energy of Rosenfield that Clarendon got her first telephone system, electric lights and water system an old resident stated to the writer Tuesday.

Rosenfield spent the last years of his life visiting old friends of his younger days. He visited here last summer and spent several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. White, the same friends who went to Dallas Monday for the funeral of their friend of many, many years.

Selling his drygoods business here to T. M. Little about 1906, Rosenfield moved to Dallas where he continued in business and made his home until his death. He was one of Clarendon's most beloved citizens, and our old-timers will regret to hear of the death of their friend back through the years when friendship meant most to the sparsely settled west.
