Local Canning Plant Now In Operation

The first of three community canning plants opened at Clarendon this morning under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Humphrey. She reported a busy day was scheduled as several parties had already made reservations for time. The plants are a part of a program sponsored by the Clarendon Vocational Agriculture Department. At each plant canning facilities including cookers, sealers, heat, lights, water, and the supervision and help of two ladies are available. Contrary to rumors no charge of any kind is made for this service as it is the aim of the government to assist and encourage people to preserve every possible bit of foodstuffs.

The opening of the plants at Lelia Lake and Hedley have been delayed until Thursday, June 24th. The plants at each of the places will be located in the home economics rooms of the schools through the cooperation of the school boards in those locations. The local plant is located at the Junior High School. All three plants will operate Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Hudson & Taylor Open New Store Here This Week

A. M. (Dusty) Taylor and Wilber Hudson announce the opening of their new Paint, Wallpaper and Furniture store this week across the street from the post office. They advertise this week, a complete line of Paints, Wallpaper and other supplies along with a full line of linoleum. Due to war conditions their furniture stock has not arrived, but is due to be here in the near future. They will do contracting work in addition to their regular retail business.

Mr. Taylor is a native of Donley County and has been around Clarendon for the past 49 years. Mr. Hudson was raised here also. He is not with the firm at the present time as he is employed as an engineer at the McLean Internment camp, but will take an active part in the business as soon as he is released from his present job. They invite their friends to come in and see their new display of merchandise and visit with them any time.

Service Men Talk To Lions Club

Members of the Lions Club and their pianist were given a treat at the Tuesday luncheon period.

Two men in the service were speakers on the program. Capt. Sam H. Barrow, recently completing his four years at West Point, gave a summary of his experiences. In his talk he stated that it was his private opinion that the war would last much longer.

Pvt. Ernest "Tunny" Kent of the M. P. was an interesting speaker in detailing his recent trip across to Africa where his boat loaded back with German prisoners. In describing the trip, Kent said:

"On the way over, our ship was convoyed by American warships and other protection as well as a British plane carrier vessel. I was sea sick about three days of the twelve going over. We did not see any subs. On the return trip, we had no such protection. The German officer prisoners brought from Africa assured the Americans that subs would not attack the ship since they were aboard. Just how the subs knew Germans were aboard, was not learned. But no subs showed up. The Germans told me that they would win the war yet. I found out they had heard nothing about their army losses, though they said they were glad that they were not headed for Russian battle service. They dread the Russians. These same fellows were surprised to find New York City intact. They had been told, among many other lies, that Germany had bombed New York City off the map."

Kent returned on the same ship with Capt. Speir of Lakeview. He was the only acquaintance that he met on the whole trip, he said. After a few days more, Kent will report for duty at a camp in Alabama. His talk was extended by the question and answer method, and brought out a lot of details little known to his listeners.

MRS. JOE RITTER IS APPOINTED ACTING SECY. FOR ACA

Mrs. Joe Ritter was appointed acting secretary for the local ACA office this week to succeed Walter Flynt. Mrs. Ritter has been connected with this type of work for the past five years, and has been employed in the local office for that time.

Mr. Flynt has resigned his position in order to take a vacation before he will enter Uncle Sam's military service.

Episcopal Church of St. John Baptist To Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary June 24

By Rev. Frank H. Hutchins

A week from today, June 24th, the Episcopal Church of St. John Baptist will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of the church grounds and building. The celebration will consist of a Communion Service at eleven o'clock, at which the Rt. Rev. E. Cecil Seaman, D. D., Bishop of the Missionary District of North Texas, will be the preacher, and an evening service at 8:30, at which the local ministers will bring their felicitations, and it is hoped that the entire community will be with us to rejoice with us on our happy association with all the people of Clarendon in furthering the kingdom of God. The Bishop will preach at this service also.

The first Episcopal Church service in the Texas Panhandle was held in November, 1887, at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McClelland in Old Clarendon by the Rev. Mr. Townsend, who had been sent by Bishop Garrett of Dallas to look over the field. It was a Communion service, and ten people were present. Thereafter the Rev. Edwin Wickens was sent to Clarendon occasionally for services, and in September, 1889, the Woman's Guild was organized

Pressure Cookers Available On Ration Basis

Many West Texas housewives are asking Rationing Committees just what their chances are to obtain pressure cookers for canning fruits and vegetables. In answer to this question the District OPA Office pointed out today that organized groups, such as neighborhood pools, garden clubs, home demonstration clubs, etc. will have the better chance of obtaining cookers than single family groups.

"With an estimated demand for 500,000 pressure cookers and an authorized production up-to-date of only 150,000 compared to 250,000 in pre-war days annually, it means that many, many persons will have to share the same cooker," OPA Officials said. About 12,000 pressure cookers have already been made and sent into the South and West where the canning season is early.

Applications should be made to the County Farm Rationing Committee, usually located in the County Agricultural Agent's Office. After filling out the application forms, the applicant should submit it to the Farm Rationing Committee and, if approved, he will be issued a certificate. It is to be assumed that the applicant has already made inquiries and found out if cookers are available. He will then present his certificate with the purchase price to the dealer.

Rev. G. T. Palmer left Tuesday for Dallas where he will attend a pastor's school at S.M.U.

Some Gardening Problems

Many Victory gardeners are inquiring why tomato plants are shedding blossoms and developing blossom-end rot—and housewives are asking why pinto beans do not always cook soft.

H. M. Breedlove for the A&M College Extension Service, has the answers and the remedies:

"In areas where hot, dry weather prevailed at blossoming time, incomplete pollination resulted in shedding of tomato blooms. Later blooms no doubt will result in setting fruit on healthy plants. Blossom-end rot usually is detected when the fruit is about the size of a marble or a 50-cent piece. The fruit should be removed from the vine. As spraying does little, if any, good the most practical remedy is to keep the soil well supplied with moisture for the remainder of the fruiting season. This disease usually develops under hot-and-dry-to-day-rainy-to-morrow weather conditions. Gardeners shouldn't give way to discouragement under these troubles, but should help the plants by providing uniform moisture for the remainder of the growing season.

Now the beans: It has been discovered that the way pinto beans are handled in the field is responsible for the way they cook. If left on the plants until the plants mature and die they will be tough and hard when cooked. The beans should be left on the plants until the pods begin to turn brown, but with the plant foliage still green. Plants then should be pulled and placed in small stacks for three or four days to dry. The beans then can be picked off or run through a thresher. After shelling they may be placed in 50-pound cans or tight paper bags to prevent weevil damage.

Renewing of Gas 'A' Coupon Books Begins June 22

West Texas farmers and others living at a distance from their local War Price and Rationing Boards may renew their "A" gasoline coupon books by mail, the District OPA office pointed out today, in an effort to save gasoline and prevent loss of hours from work. This plan will go into effect on June 22 and after that time, both motorists and bicyclists should begin picking up their application forms. Local Boards will publicize the names of filling stations at which the forms can be secured, the OPA said.

Due to the fact that "A" rations expire on July 21, applications should start coming in immediately after June 22 in order that the boards will have time to process them and mail them back before expiration date. This mail renewal plan also includes renewal of the basic "D" motorcycle rations and eliminates the school-house registration that was necessary when basic rations were issued, the OPA said.

Steps pointed out in the procedure to follow include (1) on June 22 pick up application forms from designated service stations; (2) fill out forms according to instructions and mail them back immediately to the boards. Accompanying these forms should be (a) the back cover of the present "A" or "D" book (properly filled out) and (b) the current tire inspection record showing that proper inspections have been made. New applications should show serial number of tires now on a car and if there has been any change since the last tire inspection, a note of explanation and evidence of purchase should accompany the application form.

In the new establishment he will remain open both day and night in order to offer the best of service to everyone.

According to a statement of county agent H. M. Breedlove, all persons living in town or the country who wish to work on farms are asked to register in his office so that they can be placed on farms.

"If the available labor in the county will register in my office," the county agent stated, "we can contact the farmers and advise them where the labor can be located as well as advising the people seeking farm labor where they can find work. We are asking that all persons, men, women, boys and girls who wish this kind of work to come to the county agent's office at once and register."

Farmers all over the county are being mailed labor questionnaires in regard to the kind of labor needed and when they will need the labor. This information will also be on file in the county office and available for the persons seeking farm labor in an effort to help them get located on farms and ranches with the least possible trouble. The registering of farm laborers and farmers wanting labor is taking place all over Texas and labor can be moved from one county to another—that is to the places where the shortage of labor is more serious than in other sections of the state. Harvest and farm work in some parts of the state will be finished and the laborers will migrate to this part of the country and the placement of this labor will be much easier if all farmers have their request for labor on file in the county agent's office.

Breedlove states that the Department of agriculture is going to do all that is in their power to see that the farmers have labor to harvest and make the present crops. In this time of war, it is very necessary that all farm laborers give their immediate attention and register in the county agent's office. This does not apply to those farm laborers who already have jobs on the farm, but only to those people who wish to find farm work.

Farmers and ranchers are asked to execute the questionnaire mailed to them and return to the county office so that their names and labor needs can be filed and filled from the available laborers registered. This can be done by returning the questionnaire by mail or bringing it to the office the first time that you are in town. "This is very serious to the handling of labor for the farmers and ranchers," Breedlove said, "so all interested persons are asked to give their immediate attention. When the labor is available it will go to those persons who have registered as needing labor. With the transporting of labor from all parts of the state and the possibility of working men in the concentration camps, it might be a big help to farmers and ranchers in this section where harvest is always later than in other parts of the state. This is a war time measure and we should all give it serious consideration."

Engineer Corps
Wants Craftsmen

The Corps of Engineers is seeking men, 18 to 50, experienced in mechanical construction and allied trades, for immediate service, according to Lieut. Col. B. Durette, commanding, West Texas Recruiting & Induction District.

Craftsmen desired cover practically every type of skilled worker, eligible for military service, including blastmen or powdermen, carpenter construction, construction foremen, topographical draftsmen, electricians, operating enginemen, machine shop foremen, utility repairmen, printer-general, painters-sign, radio operators, topographic surveyors, tool-room keepers, tractor drivers, heavy and light truck drivers, balloon gas handlers, motor transportation, highway construction machinery operation, structural steel workers, woodworking machine operators, power shovel and crane operators, bridge builders and blacksmiths, Col. Durette said.

Those in the 18 to 37 age group, inclusive, may present themselves at the Engineer office at any Army airfield, camp or post for interview. In this area, Engineer offices may be contacted at the Amarillo Army Technical School, Amarillo; Childress Bombardier School, Childress; Dalhart Army Air Base, Dalhart; Lubbock Army Flying Field, Lubbock. Men found qualified will be furnished with a letter to Selective Service Boards authorizing induction.

Public Warned To Take Care Of Ration Books

"Ration books can be more valuable to the individual than money," the District OPA office said today in issuing a warning against the careless handling of their books by many consumers. Advising that local War Price and Rationing Boards will have to become more severe in re-issuing books, the OPA pointed out that persons should keep their books in a safe but accessible place.

When the consumer appears before a ration board and reports that his ration book has been lost, he must wait ten days or longer before he can obtain another. A few days of going without coffee, sugar and other food often tends to sharpen the memory and individuals in many cases appear before the Board and explain that their books have been found. Carelessness and disregard for the importance of their ration coupons were found to be two of the chief causes for losing books.

DATA GIVEN ON PRISONERS

American soldiers officially reported as prisoners of war in enemy countries to date total 17,083, the War Department has announced. Of these, 11,307 are held by Japan; 3,312 by Germany and 2,464 by Italy. However, these reports are incomplete. Information in the hands of the War Department indicates that the basic diet of an American soldier in German prison camps is largely potatoes, cabbage, fish and an indefinite amount of meat.

More WAAC
Enlistments
Needed

Seven out of a group of 12 West Texas women joining the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps this past week have relatives in the armed services.

Without exception, every one of them declared that her main object in joining the Corps was to help "speed them back." The other five were similarly emphatic in expressing their desire to share the job in winning the war.

"Every woman who joins the WAAC releases a man for more important fighting duty," according to Lt. Col. Marvin B. Durette, commanding, West Texas Recruiting & Induction District. "Already the Army Air Forces and Service of Supply both have requested upwards of 250,000 Waacs each to take over non-combatant duties. Due to the seriousness of the nation's manpower problem, the Army is in the midst of a sweeping survey of its military and civilian personnel in an effort to release more men for duty with combat units." Personnel of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps will be employed to replace service personnel but will not be utilized to replace civilian workers, the Colonel added.

The War Department expects the women's army to have an enlisted strength of 150,000 by the first of July. "We are, however, far from meeting that goal," Col. Durette declared. The lack of "war-mindedness" in women and Axis inspired propaganda designed to discredit the WAACs as an efficient military right arm, plus the attitude of "non-acceptance" by men, are all partly blamed for the trouble by Army and WAAC officials.

Selective Service boards have indicated that the greatest drain on national manpower is expected to come this year. Thousands of Waacs will be imperatively needed to free fighting men from clerical and secondary jobs both here and abroad.

Warns Against Influenza

The unusually high incidence of pneumonia in Texas at this time, being over twice that of the seven year median is undoubtedly one of the dangerous and disabling sequelae of the current epidemic of influenza according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Pneumonia is a killing disease and a contagious one," Dr. Cox warns. "It is definitely transmitted from one person to another in the same manner as other contagious diseases. The pneumonia patient should be isolated with the exception of the attendant, and all paper tissues used for receiving nose and throat discharges should be immediately burned."

Dr. Cox advises all persons suspecting the presence of influenza to place themselves immediately under the care of the family physician and abide implicitly by his instructions. Bed rest, liquid diet and proper nursing will play a major part in the safe recovery of the influenza patient.

"Pneumonia is the most frequent complication resulting from influenza and is certainly one of the most dangerous. The death rate in pneumonia remains high in spite of medical efforts to control it and when it follows so debilitating a disease as influenza, the patient naturally has less resistance and vitality with which to combat it," Dr. Cox declares.

CIVIL SERVICE
ANNOUNCEMENT

The United States Civil Service Commission now answers letters received from blind persons seeking employment with replies written in Braille, Elmer G. Hayes, local civil service secretary announced today.

The Commission's Medical Division employs a highly competent blind stenographer who is qualified to write Braille and who prepares the letters.

Recently, a young blind woman in Ohio who had received such an answer wrote expressing her appreciation and her satisfaction at being able to read, herself, an official letter from the Government in Washington.

This procedure is in line with numerous steps which have been taken in recent months in emphasizing the personal interest of the Federal Government in analyzing the qualifications of the physically handicapped and arranging for their judicious placement in appropriate positions. The experience of Federal agencies in employing the physically handicapped is reported to be highly satisfactory and it is said that the percentage of absenteeism in this group is among the lowest in the Federal service.

NEW PIPELINE APPROVED

A 383-mile, 16-inch pipeline from Sundown, Texas to Drumright, Oklahoma, having an initial capacity of 54,000 barrels of crude oil daily, has been approved by the War Production Board upon the recommendation of the Petroleum Administrator for War Construction is expected to begin early in October, 1943, and should be in operation sometime in March, 1944, the administrator added, providing that materials and workmen are available on schedule. The pipeline will serve to provide middle western refineries with additional supplies of West Texas crude oil, thus helping to relieve the national oil shortage.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

DELUSION.
A soldier boy home for a few days tells me that often a girl will inform him that she will be free for the evening. He says there is nothing so misleading as that statement because some have cost him plumb plenty before he got away from her. Yep, our boys are learning a lot about war—on and off the field of actual battle.

FORTUNE TELLING.
When the old boy dropped into the Dirty Spoon cafe for a cup and a hamburger, he found a fly in the bottom of his cup of coffee. It was so weak that it was clear as water, but he did not complain. He meekly asked the waiter gal "what does this mean? There is a fly in this cup." The girl probably had been told the same thing before because she up and says, "don't ask me, I ain't no fortune teller!"

SENSATION.
Old Haston Yazzie, often quoted in this column, has gone to spending quite a bit of time at the Wild Owl resort since his son in the army sends him enough every month to live on. He tried dominoes for a time but that got too slow. In fact he has in an order for a "zoot suit." When asked what caused all the commotion down at the Wild Owl about one o'clock this morning, the old man smiled a weary smile and said:

"Yew jest ert to a bin thar. A old gal was a playing a lectric yook-laley in her pajamas, and the string broke!"

MEMBER WHEN?
Round twenty years ago the bootleggers were so thick in this section that they had to wear badges to avoid waste of time trying to sell to each other.

PROMISING.
I've got a grandson that is bound to make a politician. He says more things that sound well and mean nothing than most any kid in the world.

DIES AIN'T DEAD.
You have probably been disgusted with so much talk about the Dies investigating committee and such little results. Well sir, the old boy and his crew have moved into virgin territory right now. They are investigating the Jap concentration camps. They have already given out enough information to the newspapers to make an honest citizen blush with shame and bite himself with indignation. And it has just started. Now is the time for the Dies bunch to startle America with facts. More mention will be made in this column as time goes on.

CRY FROM THE JUNGLE.
That's what I mean. There is a cry for help from the jungle of weeds in my war garden. Dad blame it if them goatheds ain't about to swamp the whole works. About all that can be done is to put a chicken fence around the garden and let the pullets manage the weed crop. At that, beans, peas, beets and other stuff is being canned from that garden most every day. The rush is on before it gets to be agin the law.

What To Write To Servicemen

The Office of War Information offers these pointers for home-folks writing to soldiers, sailors, and marines—based on suggestions gathered in a survey among servicemen at home and overseas, in cooperation with the Special Service Division of the Army Service Forces:

Tell Him:
1. How the family is doing everything possible to help in the war.

2. How anxious the family is for the boy's return.

3. How well and busy the family is. Give details.

4. How the family is getting along financially.

5. What's doing in the community: news about girls (single) he knows, doings of friends, who's marrying whom, exploits of the home team and other sports events, social doings, effects of the war on the home town. Reminisce a little about past events and places the boy used to visit. Enclose clippings from the hometown paper.

Don't Tell Him:
1. Your troubles: He has troubles of his own.

2. Your complaints: He can't do anything about them.

3. About things you are deprived of: He can't supply them.

4. Doleful predictions about the future: He's fighting for that future—now.

5. Unnecessary details about financial troubles: If there are things he should know about family finances, and he is in a position to do something about the situation, tell him. But don't string it out.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hefner of the Naylor Community were business visitors here Tuesday.

Good Cheer For Soldier Patients

Home demonstration club women in 19 central and west Texas counties have been helping meet the recreational needs of service men in their vicinity. These 4,000 club women pooled their efforts through their local county home demonstration councils to assist men who are patients at the Camp Bowie Army base hospital near Brownwood.

In this program they successfully have followed the recommendation of their state organization, the Texas Home Demonstration Association, says Maurine Hearn, district agent for the A&M College Extension Service, who supervises home demonstration work in District 7. All gifts were sent to the American Red Cross for distribution.

From club women, the recreation center of the Camp Bowie hospital has received eight card tables, two divans, four end tables, three smoking stands, two magazine racks, a floor lamp, three serving trays, 13 pairs of book-ends, flower vases, 26 waste baskets, and 413 ash trays. To provide reading matter, the women furnished 118 books, plus two Bibles, and gave subscriptions to 15 magazines.

Supplies contributed for use during parties and other entertainment included 682 water glasses, 305 cup towels, 153 candy

America Salutes Food Producers

THIS IS DAIRY MONTH!

NO inspiring bands and no glamour of uniforms and decorations cheer these unsung heroes of World War II. With patriotic determination dairymen toil long hours under serious handicaps of labor and material shortages to produce food so vital to the winning of the war.

Dairy foods are of front-rank importance in keeping fighters and workers fit, says the National Dairy Council. Food production is the nation's most critical problem. Fighters on the farm are as essential to the war effort as those in munition plants or on the firing line.

and bon bon dishes, and a variety of other utensils. Other recreational gifts were 50 decks of playing cards, a radio, 135 phonograph records, and 136 games including checkers, dominoes, jig-saw puzzles, chess, Chinese checkers, bingo, and croquet.

For the comfort of the patients, the women provided 58 lap robes, 77 pillows, 87 pillow cases, and 816 individual gifts, varying from sewing kits to hair tonic.

RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICE

The total number of garments shipped to the American Red Cross from Donley County this month was 1591. These consisted of children's pajamas, women's and girl's blouses, women's slips, men's shirts, men's pajamas, and men's night shirts. In this shipment were sent 36 quilts, made from the scraps of materials. We consider this a great amount of work done by all the women who took part in the sewing. The cooperation with this work has been splendid, and if we all realized the great amount of good we were doing we would be doubly repaid.

Sewing

We have on hand 40 men's bath robes, which are to be made for the Army Hospital in Amarillo. Ashtola has taken 20 of these robes to complete. They are also making bed slippers and pillow covers for the convalescent soldiers. Anyone interested in this work, please call Miss Molesworth, Production Chairman, at 365.

The Legion Auxiliary is making hot water bottle covers for the Amarillo Hospital.

Soldier's Kits

Private Ernest Kent, PFC, who has just returned from Oran, Africa, told us how much the soldiers appreciated the Soldier's Kits given to them by the Red Cross on leaving this country. He also stated that wherever they went, the Red Cross was always there and were of great aid to the soldiers.

Mrs. Henry Tatum turned in 154 Kits, 154 housewives, 123 soap containers, and 150 shoeshine cloths. These were made by the following ladies of the 1930 Needle Club: Maybn Andis, Emma Ayers, Alice Bain, Marguerite Carpenter, Nora Decker, Maggie

Hunt, Glyn Kirby, Hattie Palmer, Edna Russell, Ona Tatum, Mozelle Wright, Jackie Phelps, Del Lane, Marie Bell, and Bettie Keys.

The very young children of Mrs. Glascoe's Kindergarten Class worked very hard gathering and assorting the tinfol which they gave to the Red Cross. Members of this class are: Vanetta McClellan, Janice Benson, Dorothy Jo Knorpp, Billy Wayman Noblet, Gene Alderson, Bernie Benson, Wesley Knorpp, and Frankie White.

We want to thank Mrs. J. F. Elmore for putting button-holes in the garments that came in without them.

HOME SERVICE

By Mrs. C. A. Burton

Another letter from the Texas State Board of Health in regard to the government program for hospital care for wives and children of servicemen brings the information that this fund is still not available because the revised plan for administering the fund has not yet been approved by the necessary Federal and State agencies. It was stated that the plan is in the hands of these agencies at this time, but no estimate was given as to the length of time before the program may be put into effect.

Until the necessary approval is secured, no applications will be authorized, nor any application forms sent out. And still more important was the statement that there will be no pay for any care given before the program goes into effect. That will preclude any help being given up to that time. Only those applications received after the official statement that the program is in effect will be considered.

Again we are assured that notification will be sent as soon as the program is put into effect.

This letter came from the Acting Director of the Division of Maternal and Child Health, a Division of the State Board of Health.

GARDEN GLANCES

"America beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners."

Recent rains have surely helped the yards and gardens.

The lilies are in the height of their beauty at the homes of Mrs. Carrie Wiedman and Mrs. John Potts.

The landscape at the John Blocker home is bright with various flowers and the lace vine draped over the porch is also an asset to the surroundings.

Bright colored petunias in a round bed produce an attractive setting in the back yard at the O. D. Skelton home.

The City Park, City Hall and the county courthouse each have very attractive lawns, shrubs and trees.

A white flowered shrub is very beautiful at the James Trent home.

Day lilies of orange hue are blossoming gayly at the home of Mrs. Bertha Benson.

Victory gardens are fine and many are canning their vegetables for their winter use.

THESE ZEPHYRS ARE CERTAINLY DOING A JOB THESE DAYS, TOM.

YEP, THEY'RE GIVING US SPEED WHERE IT REALLY COUNTS

Bill—Take those two Zephyrs right there, for example. Both of them make a trip of 835 miles every day.

Tom—That's between Dallas, Fort Worth and Denver isn't it?

Bill—Yep. They make that trip every day, and that means more than 25,000 miles a month for each one of them.

Tom—That really means something when Uncle Sam's got so many men to keep moving.

Bill—Means a lot in handling important civilian travel, too.

Tom—I understand the Burlington's got a lot of Zephyrs running around the country. I'll bet they're all plenty busy, these days.

YOU'RE RIGHT, TOM—every one of our 14 diesel-powered Zephyrs is dedicated to one objective—to handle as MUCH vital traffic as possible, as FAST as possible. That goes for Burlington Lines' entire fleet of steam-powered trains, too—both passenger and freight. More than 35,000 Burlington workers are dedicated to the same cause.

FORT WORTH AND DENVER CITY RT. * COLORADO AND SOUTHERN RT. * CHICAGO, BURLINGTON AND QUINCY RR. AN ESSENTIAL LINK IN TRANSCONTINENTAL TRANSPORTATION

THESE HORSES HAVE JOINED THE CAVALRY!

The merry-go-round has gone to war!

Like the plants that made refrigerators, stoves, furniture, and many other familiar household items, a plant that made merry-go-rounds is now turning out vital equipment for our fighting forces.

It was the biggest job ever performed by American industry to change over from washing machines to guns, from automobiles to planes and tanks. A job that demanded more machinery, more equipment, more men—and more electric power!

That's part of the story why America clicks, of our amazing ability to get things done. Let's feel proud of our achievement... proud that we have more electric power here in America than all the rest of the world combined, and we are using it.

Yes, we have built up in this country more kilowatt-hour output than all the Axis dominated countries combined.

The electric power line is another line the Axis cannot hold.

Lines have been extended to new factories and military training camps ahead of schedule.

It was not an accident that America was power-full.

Electric companies, under business management like the West Texas Utilities, had planned ahead. Knowing their business, schooled in emergencies, they saw to it that Uncle Sam had plenty of electric power—wherever and whenever needed!

It's on tap for all civilian needs too—no shortages, no rationing, no increase in cost.

It's an outstanding wartime example of what free men can do. Free enterprise works!

We're fighting this war to hold this freedom. Government bureaucracies should place full emphasis on winning the war and desist from their political endeavors to permanently change our system of government.

3 1/2 Million Extra Farm Workers Are Needed

Schenectady, N. Y. —About 3,500,000 crop corps workers will be needed this year to help American farmers "to produce the greatest crops in history," Earl J. Cooper of Chicago, livestock representative of the Country Gentleman magazine, declared in a General Electric Farm Forum address here.

Mr. Cooper said that "the goals for 1943 have been increased to a great degree, and it is figured that at least 25 per cent of our food this year must go for our own fighting forces and for Lend-Lease." He asserted each of our fighting men consumes 5 1/2 lbs. of food a day.

"It takes the food from 155 acres to feed the workers who build one bomber and requires 55 acres for the men who build one medium tank," he continued. "Workers who build a 35,000-ton battleship consume the food products of 42,000 acres.

"Now add to these figures the millions of us who are engaged in the regular duties of life, and we have a picture of what our farmers must accomplish this year."

Many thousands of boys from the cities and small towns have agreed to help the farmers this summer, according to Mr. Cooper. "This year more than one million organized Boy Scouts will join the United States Crop Corps as volunteers," he said.

"In many sections of the country, twilight armies consisting of businessmen will join the crop corps in the evenings."

Good Neighbor Policy For Food

College Station—It's a custom in rural communities when a home is destroyed by fire or flood for neighbors to come to the assistance of the family, regardless of whether the folks are well-liked in the community. This same type of assistance must be given to starved and impoverished nations at the end of the war, whether they are on "our side" or lined up with the Axis, believes Jennie Camp, specialist in home production planning for the A&M College Extension Service.

In a recent talk to several hundred home demonstration club women Miss Camp pictured the near-starvation existence of people in Axis-held territories. In April, 1942, the Society of Friends reported that the French rations allowed by the Germans totaled 1116 calories per day. About 1250 calories per day are required for a man to exist over a protracted period, and 2500 to 3000 daily are required for a man to live at normal activity, she explains.

"Establishing an enlightened world policy with reference to food will mean that we will plan and produce the food needed for a good diet for every body in the world," Miss Camp says. "If the United States is to overcome its dietary deficiencies, we will have to produce and consume 10 to 20 per cent more milk, 10 to 25 per cent more butter, 25 to 70 per cent more citrus and tomatoes, 100 per cent more green and yellow vegetables than were produced and consumed in the late 1930's."

She urged the club women to keep informed and help their neighbors keep informed on the food situation and the need for increased production, to abide patriotically by the rationing programs, to continue their efforts toward maximum production and save all they produce, to support sound legislation affecting food, and to promote educational activities on the intelligent use of food.

Dairy Cows Need Temporary Pastures

Dairymen should exert every effort to provide temporary pastures for their milk cows.

According to H. M. Breedlove, County Agent for the A&M College Extension Service, cows on pasture save the labor and expense of harvesting, hauling and grinding of feed crops. The dairyman has little responsibility beyond taking the milk twice daily. Meanwhile, permanent pastures should not be neglected, notwithstanding that over most of the state they cannot be depended upon to furnish good green grazing for more than three months out of the year. Accordingly, temporary pastures should be provided to supply this grazing when permanent pastures fail from drought or cold.

Crops most universally used for temporary pasture are sudan and Johnson grasses for late spring, summer and early fall, and oats, barley or wheat for late fall, winter and early spring. There still is time to plant sudan - - and it may even be planted on stubble land after oats, barley or wheat has been harvested. Moisture, of course, is a governing factor. A dry summer means no pasture. "Regardless," says Breedlove, "if we don't sow we cannot reap."

Good pasture should enable a cow to get her fill within two hours. The grass should be young and green because it is higher in protein, minerals and vitamins than mature grass. Such pasture will pay a good dairyman more net profit per acre than any other crop he can grow, Breedlove declares. Good pasture should support one cow per acre, which means that it is worth from $9 to $12 an acre monthly. Sudan grass usually can be depended upon to furnish good grazing for three months out of 12, if properly managed. This means that a sudan pasture is worth from $27 to $36 an acre for the season. And since the cow does the harvesting most of the income is net. Mowed sudan can be conserved as hay or silage. Oats, barley and wheat pasture will pay as much per acre as sudan.

41 Southwest Cities Win Red Star Rating

Forty-one cities and towns in the Southwest have been awarded the U. S. Department of Commerce "Red Star Community" rating for local community betterment activities, Frank Stevens, general manager of Ideal Company, sponsor of the "Ideal Home Town Betterment Project," announced today. This list includes thirty-six places in Texas, one in Oklahoma, and four in Louisiana. This "Red Star" rating is awarded by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the U. S. Department of Commerce in recognition of outstanding local community service activities, using the "Small Town Manual for Community Action" as a manual for the planning and guidance of the work.

Civic leaders in any community may obtain without cost a complete set of the "Ideal Home Town Betterment Project Kit," including the "Small Town Manual for Community Action" and several different "working tools" for organizing and carrying out all kinds of community improvement activities. Requests should be addressed to IDEAL Company, Waco, Texas.

Cheap Vegetables For Canning Must Be Processed Now For Winter Use

By Miss Maurice Berry
Teacher of Home Economics

Unless women can beans, beets, squash and greens with fury now while they are in the gardens, their families will be vegetable hungry in the lean months to come.

Today's plenty makes women forget the Texas canneries are working only for the soldier and sailor consumption. Almost all commercially canned vegetables will sell to the government, and if women are to have vegetables on their winter menus they must stock their pantries now with home canning.

Housewives who do not have their own pressure cookers needed to can these non-acid foods safely, may take their vegetables to the canning center, located in Junior High School in Clarendon, and in the Home Economics department in Lelia Lake and Hedley, where trained supervision is available.

The National Nutrition Program, in its efforts to conserve the essential mineral and vitamins, has brought about many new developments in the canning of foods.

One of the factors encouraged most in the canning now is speed. By speed we mean:

1. Do not gather vegetables and allow to set exposed to air and heat.
2. Do not prepare vegetables and leave in water.
3. Do not blanch by cooking too long before putting in jar.
4. Do not peel, but scrape all foods possible or heat for few minutes, cool quickly, and slip the skin off.

More food value is left in the vegetables if they are gathered early in the morning and canned immediately, because after the vegetables are gathered, oxidation and heat destroy several of our essential vitamins.

Charts for blanching and pressuring will be placed in each of the canning centers. The time of pressuring on the chart is based on the altitude at Clarendon, and not on the altitude at sea level as most commercial charts are, that come with your pressure cookers. This factor makes a difference of from five to ten minutes at ten pounds pressure which is an important item in pressuring food.

Try canning your beets, where you can use them as a vegetable or as an appetizer in the winter. By doing so you will save food value, your lids will not corrode, it helps to retain color, you will save time while the weather is warm, and your beets will taste fresh when you open them to serve your favorite way.

Do your part on the home front by canning and preserving all surplus foods. The point cast of canned foods now which mark a quart of beans at twenty-eight, beets at twenty-one, will further hamper vitamin content unless housewives stock up point free now.

Memphis Cotton Oil Mill Destroyed By Fire

Reports from Memphis this morning revealed that the Memphis Cotton Oil Mill was leveled to the ground by fire last night.

The cause of the fire could not be learned but it started about 7 p. m. Wednesday evening and destroyed all cake and meal in the plant as well as the equipment.

It was reported that the firm had acquired enough feed to supply their customers for the remainder of the summer, but since it was all lost in the fire, a problem of feeding confronts our ranchers and stock farmers who have been depending on this source of supply.

TO THE PRODUCERS OF DONLEY COUNTY:

Mrs. Joe Ritter, Acting Secy.
Donley County ACA

Farmers in the county have been taking advantage of the pre-measurement program offered by the AAA in order to advise them where to plant their 1943 crops, and meet War Goals, and not overplant their allotted acreage. Practically two-thirds of all the farmers in the county have already had their farms pre-measured. The remainder of the farmers should come into the county office to take advantage of this program before July 1st. If a farm is pre-measured before the date stated above, then the operator can make any change necessary before that date in order to be in compliance. If the operator waits until Performance begins, then any measurements made of the acreage of his crops are final.

It is necessary that all operators sign a Farm Plan Sheet in order to be eligible for Payments. It is estimated that all of these Farm Plan Sheets have been signed with the exception of twenty-five or thirty. The Operators who have not signed these Sheets are asked to do so at once. Notices have been mailed to all the operators who have not yet signed a Farm Plan Sheet that these Forms are in the county office and ready for their attention. This is vitally important so that the checks will not be delayed this fall.

Any Insured Producer who has suffered a total or partial loss in cotton during the recent bad weather should report this loss, however small, to the county office at once. The county adjuster is doing his work as fast as possible so that all producers who have lost cotton can put the land to some other use immediately.

Vegetable Seed May Be Saved

Seed may be saved from vegetables harvested during June for planting this fall or next spring.

H. M. Breedlove, County Agent for the A&M College Extension Service, says that plants from which seed are saved should be unusually healthy and vigorous, and the seed selected only from choice, well-matured fruits. Such plants may be specially marked by staking off or tying with string or piece of cloth and allowed to remain until fully matured for seed.

All vegetables do not yield seed, but tomatoes, beans, peas, cantaloupes and watermelons can be saved by the average home gardener. If there is a special type of squash, cucumber, cantaloupe or tomato which you think is outstanding, try and save the seed. Be careful not to mix varieties, Breedlove warns. For example, only the type of squash seed which has the same blooming period should be planted.

In saving beans, both bush and pole varieties, allow the seed to mature thoroughly on the plant, then pull up the entire plant in the early morning and place in the shade to dry. This will prevent the pods splitting. English peas may be left on plants until thoroughly matured, then picked when the Pods turn brown and placed in storage. For tomato seed, place the jelly-like material containing the seed in a wire screener and wash it until only the seed remains. Another method is to scrape the seed on a piece of paper and place in the sun to dry.

Vegetable seed may be placed in paper containers, but it is important that all seed must be thoroughly dry. Generally, high temperature and humidity shorten the time vegetable seed can be kept. Extension Service publication MS-509, gives full information on seed saving, storing and testing, and may be obtained free by writing to the Extension Service, College Station.
