OVER THOUSAND ATTEND SIXTH ANNUAL OLD SETTLERS PICNIC AT TATE GROVE

The Clarendon High School band directed by Ray Robbins opened the program of the Donley County Old Settlers Association at Tate Grove, six miles northeast of Hedley Friday at 10 a. m.

Old timers registered in a book in charge of Frank Jones. Mr. Fortenberry had a continuous record of county residence covering a period of 46 years, and was high man. Mrs. A. M. Bailey, mother of Mrs. John Mann, aged 90, was the oldest person present. She graciously came to the platform and said a few words through the loud speaker.

Homer Mulkey of Clarendon presided over the "mike" in making announcements, and was assisted by several others. W. C. Bridges and others assisted with the program.

Speakers during the morning session were Judge S. W. Lowe and J. C. Estlack.

Founders Complimented.

Mrs. W. I. Rains and Aunt Josie Adamson, who planned the first meeting of the Association, came to the platform upon the urgent request of Mr. Mulkey and other friends. They were paid a special tribute by J. C. Estlack at the close of which the ladies were given three rousing cheers by the large crowd.

Little Miss Sammie Jo Lowe sang a number of cowboy songs and was widely encored. Miss Rosalyn Bass, Donley county's "sweetheart", dressed in Centennial attire, sang a number of western songs accompanying herself on the guitar.

Great Picnic Dinner.

The picnic "feed" was up to par. The good ladies vied with each other in providing everything that was good to eat. The men folks had provided beef which was barbecued by Frank Whitlock, he of barbecue fame of Clarendon, bringing it to the right pitch. Coffee and ice tea was made in pots and tubs a plenty. No better meal was ever seen on a similar occasion.

Entertainers during the afternoon were Betty Hooker, Hedley; Billie Marvin Land, Clarendon; Sarah Ann Rains, Hedley; Mary Ann Bromley, Clarendon; Edwards Family Trio, Hedley; Hedley and Lelia Lake stringed bands; Will Walling in tap dance; Adrian Tate of Strawn, Okla. and B. F. Tarver, Estelline; Mrs. Eulit Swinney and the Misses Opal Monroe and Sylean Sharp of Hedley and Miss Helen Davis of Memphis.

Honor Will Rogers' Memory.

This being the first anniversary of the death of the beloved humorist, songs that he loved were sung in his honor by Bud Hefner, J. Les Hawkins, Vernon and Ralph Davis of Hedley, and O. L. Barham of Memphis. This quintet did much toward making the program a success.

Little Tots In Doll Contest.

A doll contest was held for the first time, this being presided over by the talented McCants sisters, Misses Pauleen and Aileen, of Giles. The little lady winning first, Wanda Lee Shaw, is a wee lady member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Jap Shaw of Hedley. Little Mary Ann Bromley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bromley of near Clarendon was second, and little Miss Annabel Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bailey of Hedley, won third place.

Radio Musicians Present.

Hugh Rodin with his violin of strong tones as sweet as a bell, and Buck Shirey, of silver voice and a guitar picker a-plus, played and sang several numbers. These boys are in demand as radio performers, and are frequently heard over broadcasting station KGNC of Amarillo. They got a big hand and were highly appreciated.

Rains Elected President.

W. I. Rains was elected to serve his third term though he asked for a change. W. M. Mosley went back on the job as vice president, and Mrs. O. R. Culwell was choice of the majority as secretary.

Candidates Are Heard.

Without mentioning the fact that they were opposing candidates for the judgeship, A. S. Moss of Memphis invited all the folks down to Memphis for their four-county celebration Wednesday of this week. Judge A. J. Fires confined his remarks to pioneer history, he having resided in this section some 48 years.

Reed Wins Fat Man's Race.

C. H. Reed, weight 210, of Hedley, was given first place in the fat man's race. Walter Bozeman second, and O. L. Barham of Memphis third.

Alvin Cooper of Hedley won the boy's sack race.

The loud speaker provided by Mr. Mulkey was a big hit with the musicians and the crowd in general. The large crowd declared it to be the best program and the best attendance yet by far, and pledged themselves for more improvement in the seventh annual convention in August of 1937.

Castleberry Brothers Find Public Appreciative

Opening the first place of business of the kind in Clarendon, the owners had some misgivings as to just what kind of a reception would be given their new line.

They planned an exclusive meat market featuring fresh meats in variety, cooked meats in general, and a "quick meal" service for the tired housewife, the woman who has "sudden" company, and the woman who wants to escape the heat of the kitchen. Then choice bits of meat are collected, properly seasoned, barbecued and sold at a fair price. "Little as you think about it, this is one of the best business builders we have. The quality is high and the price is low," Mr. Castleberry states.

Drouth To End With Big Floods Late In September, Says Long-Range Forecaster

Drouth conditions for this season are to end with a wet fall beginning in late September, according to observations of Selby Maxwell, long-range weather forecaster of Chicago.

Maxwell predicted the dry year of 1934 more than 12 months ahead. This year's dry spell was predicted by him in December, 1935. He predicted the storm that tore up buildings at the Centennial, and the Gulf storm that recently wrought havoc in Florida. On this last storm, Maxwell warned the public 90 days ahead, and the Weather Bureau 48 hours ahead of the storm.

Maxwell predicts big floods in parts of the nation through September, October and November, and a general rainfall over the drouth area. He sees a better year in 1937, with the rainfall most abundant through July and August after a light fall through the months of April, May and June.

January will be mild, he says, but much snow the third week in February. Maxwell's predictions months in advance have been so accurate for the past few years that he has been given world-wide attention through scientific magazines and newspapers.

Maxwell has been predicting the weather since graduating from the astronomy department of Northwestern University of Chicago some 15 years ago. The weather, he insists, is something the earth goes through, much as an auto goes through valleys and over mountains. The magnetic attraction of the earth, sun and moon, with the latter chiefly responsible, make our weather conditions.

According to his observations, the moon affects the earth's atmosphere as it affects the tides of the sea, except that air is more fluid than water and the atmosphere surrounds the earth loosely like an envelope.

Memphis Entertains Many Old Settlers

Four Counties Celebrate Three Anniversaries Wednesday

Thousands of people from Hall, Donley, Collingsworth and Childress county were in attendance on the Old Settlers Round-Up and enjoyed the varied program throughout the day.

The famous Gold Medal band opened the program with J. Claude Wells, editor of the Memphis Democrat as master of ceremonies and announcer using a loud speaker.

Rev. Orion W. Carter, pastor of the First Methodist church of Memphis delivered the address of welcome. J. C. Estlack, editor of the Donley County Leader of Clarendon made the response in behalf of the three counties coordinating.

Judge L. Gough of Amarillo delivered the principal address of the forenoon, his talk being along typical pioneer lines.

A free barbecue with beans, onions, pickles and other trimmings was served those who had resided in either of the four counties for 25 years or longer. The number served ran well into the hundreds.

The afternoon was taken up with speaking, musical numbers of a large variety and a business meeting of the Old Settlers Association. The floor show, square dance and a wide variety of amusements and music in variety was provided for the night entertainment.

The affair was held under an arbor to the east of the courthouse on the courthouse lawn. It is estimated that approximately five thousand were in attendance during the day. A large number had resided in this section more than fifty years, a fact noted when Mr. Wells asked for raised hands on the half century resident request. More than a hundred held up their hands on the forty year record.

Commissioners Build Bridge On Sand Creek

Citizens in the Hudgins community are appreciative of the bridge being constructed over Sand creek at the north line of the Perdue farm.

The bridge will be 96 feet in length, and will be completed by Friday, Com. G. G. Reeves stated Wednesday. Messrs. Reeves and J. Les Hawkins of precincts Two and Three are jointly building this bridge on the new school bus route for Hudgins.

Edinburg Editor and Family Visits Relatives Here

On their return from a family reunion at Appleton, Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jeffreys and children, Bobbie and Shirley, stopped over a few days at the J. F. Jones home in the Sunnyview community. Mrs. Jones is an aunt of Mr. Jeffreys.

Mr. Jeffreys, publisher of the Hidalgo County News at Edinburg, had not seen any of the relatives here since 1897. He reported crops practically a failure from Wisconsin this way. Rains had fallen in some of the upper states the past week, he said, but came too late to be of benefit to crops.

Mrs. Yates is Stricken Early This Morning

Mrs. A. O. Yates, wife of the caretaker at the courthouse, is said to have suffered a stroke about 8:30 this morning which left her in a serious condition.

A report of her condition about noon indicated that she was showing improvement.

Jim Burkett on Buying Trip In Eastern Markets

Announcement of the opening of the new drygoods store in the Pope building second door north of the Little mercantile is expected soon.

Manager Jim Burkett has been buying stock in the east for several days. Mrs. Burkett stated Monday that he was expected home by the last of the week. The Burketts were formerly in business in Buffalo, Oklahoma.

REVIVAL CLOSES SUNDAY EVENING

Baptist Church Has Thirty Six Additions; Baptismal Service Wednesday Night

When asked for a report of the result of the Baptist revival closing here Sunday night, Rev. J. Perry King, pastor of the local church said:

"One of the most successful and constructive revivals held in Clarendon in recent years under the leadership of Dr. E. D. Head, pastor of the First Baptist Church Houston, and Rev. C. B. Stephenson, pastor of Magnolia Park Baptist Church Houston, came to a close Sunday night, August 16th.

"Dr. Head, who was for many years teacher of Bible in Baylor University, endeared himself to the entire citizenship by his great gospel sermons. He lifted high the standards of christian living in a way that made them attractive to all who heard him. His love for people immediately won their hearts and made them want to be better and do better. He was magnanimous and generous in his attitude toward people of other churches, which is after all the christian spirit.

"The singing of Rev. Stephenson was one of the attractive features of the meeting. His solo work was unusually good, and there was always on hand a large choir made up of singers from the different churches to help him in devotional work. One of the inspirations of the meeting was the Junior choir which numbered from fifty to one hundred each night. These boys and girls were faithful and diligent in their efforts to excel in making the meeting what it ought to be. A picnic was given Monday evening as an appreciation for the work they did, and was attended by more than a hundred.

"There were thirty six additions to the Baptist Church, most of whom came for baptism. The baptismal service was held Wednesday evening of this week at the Prayer Meeting hour, witnessed by hundreds of people who had loved ones submit to the sacred ordinance."

Lions Hear Talented Program At Tuesday Luncheon

MOSS, FIRES AND THOMPSON RACES ARE EXPECTED TO GET OUT VOTE SATURDAY

Clarendon Youth Graduating From State University

J. C. Rolls who has been attending the University of Texas for the past 2½ years will receive his B. S. degree in Petroleum Production Engineering August 31, having finished the requirements for this degree the first term in the summer session. Besides taking a full course this past year, Mr. Rolls was employed by the Bureau of Economic Geology and helped prepare models showing the underground structure of several of the best known oil fields for the University Centennial Exposition.

This past long session, he was listed among the upper 5% of those who made the honor roll in the School of Engineering.

Young Rolls worked his way through school largely, or until he got to the point that he could exchange his training for an instructor's salary.

Highjacking Existed More Than 40 Years Ago

And here is the proof in an article taken from the "Forty Years Ago" column of the Henrietta Independent. The article has a special significance because of the fact that Mr. Grogan resided here for years and is well known all over the aPanhandle. The article:

"Tuesday night Ben Duffield, clerk in E. W. Grogan's store at Benvaauue (Clay county) was held up and robbed by three masked men, who got $130 in cash, a lot of sardines, silk handkerchiefs and bridles. They were on foot and forced Mr. Duffield to walk with them to the Oklahoma side of Red river, where they told him he might walk back home."

About the only difference today is, that they discard the mask idea, and silk handkerchiefs, and bridles are little in demand.

Hubert Brown Thanks All For Kindness Shown Him

After being laid up for all these weeks with a broken leg that had to be rebroken and reset the third time, Hubert Brown was out Wednesday driving around. In his conversation, Hubert said "I want to thank all my friends for all the many acts of kindness shown me while I have been laid up." Hubert is just that kind of a fellow.

He is now getting along nicely, and will, in due course of time, be able to assume his regular routine of work.

Three Young Oklahoma Outlaws Escape Capture By Possee In Salt Fork Roughs

Three youths escaped a large posse of officers and citizens after a man hunt of three days between Groom and Claude, after fleeing from their wrecked car in a race Friday to escape from Groom officers.

Following a near accident in Groom, the youths were chased by Constable Ruel Smith and W. S. Boyton but were outdistanced. After a short time, the car again passed back through Groom at a high rate of speed. The same officers again gave chase after Ruel Smith had fired two shots into the car in an effort to stop them.

Two miles west of Groom the car overturned on a curve. The officers captured one and three made their way into the roughs of Salt Fork.

The prisoner gave his name as

With no county candidates in the run-off Saturday, and only one precinct contest, there has been some speculation as to whether Donley county voters would turn out to the polls next Saturday, August 22nd.

The only state-wide race attracting much attention is that of Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Railroad Commission. His opponent, Frank S. Morris of Dallas is the opponent. It is expected that the Panhandle voters will stand solidly back of their home man. Thompson lacked only a small vote of getting a majority over all of his opponents in the first primary.

The only other state race is between J. E. McDonald of Ellis county and Geo. B. Terrell of Cherokee county. The office of State Commissioner of Agriculture is the bone of contention in this race.

Little interest was being taken in the race for the district judgeship in this county until this week. A. J. Fires, present incumbent, has pitted against him Judge A. S. Moss of Memphis. Moss had a lead in the first primary with R. H. Cocke of Wellington following Judge Fires closely. Just who will be able to garner the Cocke vote this time is the enigma. Both men and their friends are shelling the woods in a dignified campaign.

In precinct Three the race for county commissioner is on between Claude Nash and J. A. Tollett, both new men. J. Les Hawkins, present commissioner, refused to become a candidate this time. Nash led in the July primary by a small margin, and there are very few votes to divide of the number received by Ayers, the third man in the first primary.

Home Destroyed by Fire Of Mystery Origin

A residence owned by a loan company on East First street known as the Kennedy place for some years, was destroyed by fire about 11 a. m. Monday.

The residence had been occupied by the family of Joe Lamb for some years. A few days ago a Williams family of Plainview stopped there, and the effects of each family went up in smoke with the exception of some clothing.

The fire was discovered between the walls of the front room and a bedroom by a small girl of the Lambs.

Dry Goods Merchant Returns Here Monday

Isadore Mellinger, manager and buyer for the new Mellinger-Rosenwasser drygoods firm that is to open here soon, returned from eastern markets Monday. Large shipments have been arriving during the week.

Mr. Mellinger formerly resided in Livingston, Texas where he grew up in a similar mercantile business. Announcement of the opening of this store will appear in the Leader in due time.

James Smith of Morris, Okla., and admitted that the car in which they were riding had been stolen in Oklahoma City the day previous. Smith was taken to Amarillo and held for Oklahoma officers who took him back to Oklahoma City Sunday.

In addition to local peace officers, officers from surrounding counties and citizens to the number of more than fifty were engaged in the hunt Friday and Saturday, and many of them Sunday. The captured youth stated that the young outlaws were heavily armed with guns he stated had been stolen in Oklahoma.

One youth was traced into Amarillo. The other two had not been traced up to last accounts. All highways were under guard two days and nights in the Groom sector.

MISLEADING THE HELPLESS NEEDY.

Tuesday the Star-Telegram carried a news item on front page stating in bold headlines "Need 150,000 to Pick Cotton." Reading down farther to determine just where this bountiful crop had been made possible, one is astounded to learn that it is in "West Texas."

"In northwest Texas, cotton picking will begin September 5 and close Oct. 10," the article states. Reading further "Demand for agricultural labor is heavy in Wichita, Wilbarger, Hardeman, Foard counties." At the same time, these are the counties that are crying the loudest for government relief from drouth devastation.

The article in question is said to be based on reports to the Texas State Employment Service and National Re-employment Service.

Unless rain falls within a few days, there will not be a fifth of a normal crop over the area mentioned above. Northwest Texas perhaps will make a fourth of a normal crop without further moisture, cotton growers estimate.

Under present conditions, the home labor will be plenty able to gather all the cotton that is made in this section. In fact home labor needs and wants the job.

Such articles as was printed in the Star-Telegram is what unloads helpless humanity on west Texas towns for the winter. Donley county's commissioners are already feeding helpless. Any further influx will be a burden to the taxpayers. Central and east Texas should take care of their own helpless humanity, and not dump them on west Texas through false hopes such as is expressed in the article in the Star-Telegram.

VISITING WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

Speaking of big times, more people enjoyed the day Friday at Tate Park than for many a year. It was just one of these wholesome, old-time western displays of hospitality where you are more than welcome.

The eats were great. Both that fixed up by the women and the meat that was barbecued by Frank Whitlock. This man Whitlock never does anything by pieces. He does the full job or not at all.

In 1930 Mrs. W. I. Rains and Mrs. Josie Adamson talked about how nice it would be for the old-timers to get together once a year. These good women saw the results of the idea growing by leaps and bounds Friday.

As a radio announcer with that loud speaker, Homer Mulkey backs all the boys off the map. And did he put pep into the thing and keep interest growing, and how!!

The doll show was great, limited as it was, and we hope a whole lot of the mothers will have their little folks in the contest next year. Misses Pauleen and Aleen McCants, the Giles school marm twins, had charge of the little folks. These two school teachers look alike, are the same size and dress alike. A lot of folks said they were the best looking and had the best manners of any modern-day young ladies they had seen in a long time. And they have a very fine, fine reputation as school marms, too.

That Hugh Rodin can do a plenty with a violin. He is the only man in West Texas who can run circles around Eck Robertson, it is said. Hugh is a great fiddler, alright, and Buck Shirey, his man Friday, can tickle a guitar like nobody's business. Listen to them over KQNC.

A tribute was paid the deceased members of the Association, and the thring stood at attention in their memory. About 20 have passed on to the last round-up during the past six years.

Grandma Bailey, aged 90, was a spritely old lady. She took an active interest in all that was going on, too, talking over the mike to the crowd.

The most impressive, and the most beautiful part of the program was the tribute in song by the quartet to the memory of Will Rogers.

J. F. Jones has had relatives out his way the past few days, or at least his wife has had. Read the special article elsewhere.

Thank you, Mrs. O. C. Hill for all the compliments. You are one of the uncrowned queens of God's great universe. Women like Mrs. Hill spend a lifetime within a small circle, but they do a wonderful lot of good while they journey on this earth, and far more than they are ever given credit for doing. There is no woman living who can compare with our pioneer women in the well-rounded characteristics of loyalty, patience, courage, originality, hospitality and endurance.

Oh yes, you recall J. C. Rolls who used to go to school here! He went down to Austin to work his way through the University school of petroleum engineering—and did. He graduates this month. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira R. Rolla, farmer folks near Clarendon.

Thanks to the lucky farm friends, we have been having corn on the cob at our house quite a bit the past two weeks. We say lucky because that is about all you can say about it during a year like this.

Thanks for the way subscriptions are being paid. Get in ahead of the blue mark, folks, because we don't like the blue mark on your paper either.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hays and family motored down to Newlin, Texas Monday night on business.

Throngs of Motorists Entering Texas During Year of Celebration

Austin, August 16.—Approximately 45,000 out-of-state vacationists' cars enter Texas each month to travel an average of 540 miles in the State, according to statistics gathered by 13 information offices located at border points and maintained by the State Highway Department.

It is estimated that one car in every seven stops at one of the 13 highway information huts for assistance and an average of 1,600 cars stop weekly at the border line stations according to reports from the station attendants.

With the Texas Centennial by far the outstanding attraction, every state in the Union has been represented by tourists entering Texas. J. B. Early, maintenance engineer, said that practically every visitor who stopped for information indicated his intention to visit other parts of the state as well as the Exposition at Dallas, the Frontier Centennial at Fort Worth and the exhibition at Austin.

Based on information received by the State Department of Information with offices at Dallas, thousands of the nation's vacationists are deferring their visit to Texas until fall months, an indication that the tremendous out-of-state travel in Texas will be swelled with the coming of fall.

It is interesting to note that California sends more visiting motorists to Texas than any other state with the exception of the neighboring states of Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Surface Burial Vaults Overcomes the Horrors of Underground Burials

The burying of our dead is the last loving tribute of respect that we can show them, and our mind goes beyond the mere formality of the occasion. The separation that death brings, the vacant place in the home that can not be filled, the voice that is hushed, the kindly eyes that are closed for all time, and the last unselfish deed has been performed, is not all that remains in our memory, there is the falling of the clouds on the box or the casket encasement, the ugly mound above ground, the watery grave when the rains begin to fall, and the rodents that make their bed from the shroud and linings of the casket, there is the disintegration of the body hastened by the ravages of the under-ground insects. You have not been satisfied and I have not been satisfied but until recent years we have done the best that was possible.

Since the introduction of the SURFACE BURIAL VAULT we may overcome all of the under-ground horrors of burial. For those who have an abhorrence of the under-ground grave, the SURFACE BURIAL VAULT with its security, sanitation and beauty provides a perfect tomb. It is the most perfect tribute to be paid the memory of those who are gone.

Before making final arrangements investigate this outstanding burial receptacle and give it your serious consideration.

We have a complete stock of Elberton Blue Granite Monuments and can give quick service on erection of the stones as all work is done here.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

What we need is more farm income so that the farmers will have money to buy gasoline so that they can get to the meetings held by government agents and learn of how they are to receive more farm income.

When you get ready to condemn the short-comings of leaders of either political party, it might be well to stop and try to think of some christian who carries out all the planks in the Ten Commandments. Human nature is pretty much the same in all forms of human endeavor.

There used to be a story going the rounds about an old Panhandle boy who finally got married after he had run along as a matrimonial maverick until he was up in the forties. Well, as happen it will, the first baby came along in due time. Old Bill had moved his wife off the ranch into Amarillo, consequently, he bought a baby buggy. (Some of the smart alecks called them "matrimonial fruit-baskets.") Before they had time to get moved back to the ranch, the second baby came and old Bill had rubber tires put on the baby buggy. After making the spring shipment of calves and rounding up the fence, Bill found the third baby had arrived which prompted him to add four wheel brakes to the baby buggy. Imagine his surprise to be called from a domino game at the old courthouse only to learn of the arrival of the fourth baby. Bill didn't do a thing but add a rumble seat to the old baby buggy because dry weather and low cattle prices would not permit of the purchase of a "double seater." As time rocked on, conditions got better and the Missus and Bill talked of buying a flivver in the spring if they shipped a good crop of calves. But about shipping time, the Missus presented Bill with twins. They abandoned the idea of buying a flivver, but Mrs. Bill did order a "stop light."

A smart person is said to be a good listener. At that, we hate to sit around and wonder how much they know about what.

Young man, it is great to be well descended, but the glory still belongs to that old grandpappy way back there in the days when men demanded their rights.

And if he were living today, he'd probably say you were not worth the trouble of shooting.

Believe it or not, there is a mother in this town who is teaching a tot of the patty-cake age to smoke cigarettes. Without wishing to offend any one, it might be well to say that any mother who would commit a crime of that nature through ignorance, is plain dumb. In other words, if her brains were dynamite, she wouldn't have enough to blow her nose.

Many a man strives to succeed merely to show some one he can. He does not care a hang about the work, but he does struggle to appease the ego.

When you see two old heads together, wildly gesticulating with arms and stamping of feet, it is likely an animated discussion over the pension question. Naw! They ain't gonna fight!

A sign in an Amarillo store Saturday reads: "These pants will look better on your legs before September 1st, than on my hands."

in your home? (With apologies to Fairy's soap.)

Speaking of heat, during the day that it got to 117 here, a lady put a pie in her refrigerator to cool. She said that pie got so hot that she had to put it back in the oven 10 minutes before the kids could bite it.

Other reporters of the casual type, found some interesting things in the way of heat. Many of the women were using the "cold" faucet for water to scald dishes at the noon hour.

"Take me and leave the towels," is the request printed on hotel soap wrappers used in Lubbock.

Here comes a freak "misunderstanding" from A. L. Millsap who is getting rich down at Fairbanks, Texas. This story did not happen in West Texas, but a way, way back east somewhere.

A newly married couple out looking for a quiet home in the rural section, found what they believed suited them. Upon returning to the city, they remembered that they noticed no water closet in the house being considered as the new home, and the lady decided to write the owner about it. Being a very modest bride, the lady decided to write "W.C." instead of water closet. When the owner of the house got her letter, he thought she had reference to Westminster Church, and replied accordingly. "Dear Madam: I regret very much the delay in replying to your question, and now take pleasure in informing you that the W.C. is located about nine miles from your new home, and is capable of seating 1,250 people. This is unfortunate indeed if you are in the habit of going regular, but you may be interested to know that some folks take lunch and make a day of it. Others go by auto usually arriving just in time, but generally in too big a hurry if the house is crowded, and leave at once.

The last time wife and I went was about 6 years ago, and we had to stand up. A bazaar is being planned to raise funds to plush seat W.C. which we feel is a long felt need. It pains us not to be able to go regularly, it is not through any lack of desire on our part, but as we grow older, it requires more effort, and especially in cold weather.

Hoping that these explanations will give you the desired information, and that we shall see you there next time we go, I am, etc, etc."

"They don't go crazy with the heat in Dallas county, but when it's hot they go to court and ask the Judge to divorce them from that horrid other half of the marriage agreement," we are advised by the sage old Dallas News of Sunday's edition. On the hottest day down there, of the 36 suits filed in the District court, 25 were divorce cases states the News, but across the street in the Lunacy Court, however, business went on as usual, we are further advised. Frankly, we did not know that they had a lunacy court. We thought it was the Bonehead Club.

But back to the other point at issue, are not the air-conditioned buildings in the Centennial grounds cutting in on the divorce crop and thus interfering with the rights of the legal profession? A farmer cannot "cash in" on hot dry weather to any great extent, but the lawyers can. Nature keeps an even balance, as we have stated many times before.

Accept this Advice!
before you buy ANY Refrigerator!

BASE YOUR CHOICE on PERFORMANCE!

A Good Refrigerator

must . . .

- Keep Foods Safely!
- Freeze Ice Quickly!
- Operate at Low Cost!

FOR TRUE VALUE . . . BUY AN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR!

• All refrigerators are not alike. All do not offer the same value or provide the same performance. Neither price nor appearance determine true refrigerator worth. The basic test of any refrigerator is its ability to provide satisfactory trouble-free performance all the time. Many buyers overlook this fact.

Buy your refrigerator this way!

First, and most important, demand that it maintain temperatures below 50 degrees. Many refrigerators cannot. Yet in temperatures over 50 degrees, food spoils quickly and endangers health.

Second, demand that your refrigerator freeze ice quickly. If it cannot, you are not receiving true refrigerator value. You must have fast-freezing ability in summer when ice needs are many and when frozen desserts are an important part of menus.

Third, look for low operating cost. But remember, low operating cost is worthwhile only when the above performance is maintained.

Demand evidence of such performance when you buy. If you do, you will choose a modern electric refrigerator and receive the utmost for your money!

★ MORERNIZE . . . CHOOSE AN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR ★

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

The best heat story so far is one about Milt Moley's thermos jug at the picnic Saturday. It is claimed that when the shade moved around, the ice in the jug melted and the steam caused the jug to explode.

And Texas ain't so hot either. A. C. Bahr of Waseca, Minn. tells about his family going in the house and starting a fire so they can cool off. Bahr is a mail carrier and ought to know what he is talking about.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. Perry King, Pastor

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

Now that the vacation season is approximately over and the summer season is rapidly drawing to a close, and we give ourselves again to the regular services of our church, may we do so with renewed energy and enthusiasm. The time seems to demand that we give our best whole heartedly unto the Lord. The funds will be low and the debts will be high, we will want to smile but may have to sigh through the coming days immediately ahead of us, but now is exactly the time for Christian people to be strong in the Lord and the power of his might. We have no where else to go. We can turn in no other direction and find relief mentally, morally, physically, financially, materially or spiritually. God who is the giver of every good gift and every perfect gift is our only hope. We must commit our ways unto the Lord, and trust also in him, and fret not ourselves because of evil doers and times and conditions that obtain, if we are to be pioneers in this the greatest of all times for Christian people to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. The most we can do now is to give ourselves unto the Lord, but we can do that, and if we do that, we have the promise that all things will work together for our good.

Regular services at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening. You are most cordially invited to worship with us.

SHAMROCK TEXAN LEADS FIGHT AGAINST WPA DISCRIMINATION IN THREE COUNTIES

Albert Cooper, publisher of the Shamrock Texan, voices his protest and makes explanation for action in securing a fair deal for WPA workers in Donley, Wheeler and Collingsworth counties. Here is what he has to say about the matter in the Texan:

"Not easy to get 'ried up,' County Judge W. O. Puett is fighting mad about the unfair discrimination being shown WPA employees in Wheeler, Collingsworth and Donley counties. Employees in these counties are allowed a maximum of 76 hours per month, which at the rate of 30c an hour means $22.80 per month, while employees in Hemphill, Gray and other counties are permitted to work 97 to 105 hours per month and earn from $29.10 to $31.50, the wage scale, of course, being the same.

"Diversification of farm crops" is the explanation given by E. E. Meridith of Amarillo, district supervisor, who points out the cotton and feed crops in Wheeler, Collingsworth and Donley counties are supposed to furnish enough additional labor over other Panhandle counties to make up the difference. Judge Puett admits this looks logical on paper but points out that actually there are no diversified crops, if any crops at all, in the three counties being discriminated against.

The aid of Collingsworth and Donley counties is asked in removing this discrimination, and if Mr. Meridith can't be made to lend his help, why we'll have to try and go over his head. Judge Puett, we're starting today to bring a little pressure on Mr. Meridith, and we're asking Deskins Wells at Wellington, and J. C. Estlack and Fred Williams of Clarendon, the newspaper boys there, to help us.

We understand WPA laborers in Gray and Hutchinson counties are permitted to work 105 hours monthly. In Hemphill the maximum is 97 hours, while Potter and Randall have schedules of 105 hours. This is most unfair to our local laborers and we must put up a fight to try and correct it. The chamber of commerce, Boosters club, and city officials are behind you Judge Puett. Our people need this money and we must help them get it."

Donley County Leader, $1.50 a year.

COLORADOANS RAISE OLD GLORY OVER FORGOTTEN TERRITORY

Breckenridge, Colo., August 8.—The American flag rippled over "new territory" today as the conquest of the West was completed. Thirteen hundred square miles—bought from Napoleon Bonaparte for approximately 3 cents an acre—in the heart of Colorado was formally annexed with flag-raising ceremonies and an address by Gov. Ed C. Johnson.

The land, rich in mineral and timber, lies between the region acquired through the Louisiana Purchase of 1803 and the area north of the Rio Grande River which Mexico ceded to the United States after the War of 1846-48.

Scant knowledge of western geography was responsible for the oversight by which the area was not included in other formal additions to American territory.

Discovering that old government maps designate the area as "no man's land," residents of this mountain mining town made inquiry at the land office in Washington and were assured their land titles are secure.

HEAVY BUT SOFT

The champion soft drinker of the world was recently unearthed at the Texas Centennial Exposition—but his name remains a mystery. Guest of an oil corporation for a day of special events, waiters announced that in eight hours he consumed two cases of a nationally famous beverage.

Miss Lorraine Hays spent the week end with home folks.

Mrs. Joe Rady of Ft. Worth spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. John Clark, leaving Wednesday for her home.

Mrs. O. L. Pink and daughter, Mrs. Brittain and son Terry were in Memphis for the reunion Wednesday.

Mrs. Massengale and son Truett of Brownfield visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. John Eudy and family here over the week end.

HEART-NEED

O, for the shooting peace of purpling hills
When mellow moon lets fall a silver spray
And bathes away the carking cares of day;
When silence drops a golden veil and stills
The din save for the call of whip-poor-wills,
The whispering trees, as zephyrs softly sway,
And crystal brooks in rippling roundelay
That stirs my heart to kindred ecstasy.

O, cruel stroke of fate, to cast my life
Adrift upon the restless speeding tide
Of city paths, where waves of selfish strife
Engulf; where peace and silence are denied.
Eternally my heart—my weary heart
Cries out for peace—that peace the hills impart.
—Sarah Mizelle Morgan.

Farm News

PERRYTON—To irrigate her garden, Mrs. Frank Martin of the Booker home demonstration club has put down 100 feet of tile, according to Marie Ludwick, Ochiltree county home demonstration agent.

The tile, which is placed in rows three feet apart, is irrigating a garden of 13 varieties of vegetables. Her garden is made up of beans, radishes, beets, English and black-eyed peas, carrots, Swiss chard, lettuce, cucumbers, parsley, peppers, parsnips and turnips.

MCKINNEY—Sixty flour sacks were used in canvassing the room of Marie Ann Drain, bedroom demonstrator of the Clear Lake 4-H club in Collin county, thus cutting the expense of her bedroom improvement.

CENTERVILLE—Russell Long, farmer in the Nineveh community in Leon county, recently came to the decision that more money can be made out of farming by raising feed and marketing it through livestock than by raising cotton.

J. B. Short, county agricultural agent, who is helping Long to rearrange his farm, reports that this former cotton raiser intends to dig trench silos and fix feeding pens on the hill. He is arranging his fences so that all four of his pastures will be connected with the feeding lot. He expects to put in at least 40 acres in permanent pastures, 50 acres in temporary pastures, and 60 acres in feed for the livestock.

"Long will alternate the temporary pasture and feed land from year to year," the county agricultural agent stated, "and he is going to raise both hogs and cattle

To the Citizens OF THE 100th JUDICIAL DISTRICT:

August 19th, 1936.

I am now, as I have been since the first primary election, of the opinion that those who supported me in my race for District Judge are fully capable of determining for whom they will vote in the second primary, and I have not and will not try to influence their vote, and have not and will not take any stock in the race, other than to vote, and not only this but I want my friends to know that I do and will always appreciate their support, and frankly, I do not think my friends would or should appreciate me, after they had helped me in this race, trying to influence their vote in the coming primary.

Magnolia's Daughter, Grown Up Completes "Show Boat" Cycle in 1936 Screen Version

In the Universal 1936 version of "Show Boat," which opens at The Pastime Theatre on Wednesday August 26, the story of Kim, Magnolia's daughter, is presented, completing the cycle of Captain Andy Hawk's show boat family.

While the stage play revealed Kim only as a child, the film shows her as a grownup girl who has inherited her mother's talent for singing and dancing. Magnolia finds renewed happiness in the triumph scored by her daughter in a musical revue. Irene Dunne is starred as Magnolia and Sannie O'Dea portrays the matured Kim.

The daughter makes her hit on the stage singing the same song, "Gallivantin' Around," that her mother did on the show boat. This film sequence emphasizes the contrast between the settings, customs and clothes of different generations.

The blossoming of Kim rounds out the career of her mother; makes the flame of Magnolia's existence burn brightly again. It wipes out the troubled memories the mother has of Ravenal who loved her once; permits her to think of her youth with a tinge of the gladness she knew in the days when the Mississippi seemed to flow with romance at flood tide.

There is a final meeting between Magnolia and Ravenal, while Kim dances to stardom in the show within a show. The wife still holds her beauty, glowing and tranquil. The husband is weary; worn threadbare from unrest and battering against the world. He is ready to lay down the struggle. Kim, vibrant and fresh, picks up the golden threads that weave the web of life.

Allan Jones, as Ravenal, sings three romantic duets with Irene Dunne in the earlier sequences of "Show Boat."

VOTE FOR

A. S. MOSS

Candidate for DISTRICT JUDGE 100th Judicial District

Born in Fayette County, Texas, 55 years ago, of parents who were also native Texans. Educated in public schools of Fayette County, Teacher's College at Huntsville, Texas. Received legal education in law office and University of Texas. 30 years experience in practice of law in Texas Courts, 25 years of which have been spent in our district.

To the Citizens of the 100th Judicial District

We respectfully refer the citizens of the 100th Judicial District to the unequalled endorsement of the citizens of this district of Judge A. S. Moss by the splendid vote given him in the first primary. This endorsement was given him for the reason his record in the courts is unequalled by any lawyer in this section of Texas and it is the opinion of those who are acquainted with him as a man and as a lawyer that he is well qualified and will make a most efficient judge as well as a fair and honest officer. It was solely upon the merits of Judge Moss as a man and his qualifications as a lawyer that the citizenship of this district gave him the total of 4003 votes to enable him to lead his opponent in the first primary.

The citizens over the district generally have complimented Judge Moss for the clean, fair manner in which he conducted his campaign in the first primary. He was not a party either directly or indirectly to an attack upon the character or ability of either of his opponents. He does not believe in that kind of politics and insofar as he is able to control, has not permitted and will not permit an attack upon any opponent.

For further recommendation of Judge Moss, we submit the following endorsements:

Pastors' Endorsement
We, the undersigned pastors of Memphis, hereby certify that we know Judge A. S. Moss to be a clean, upright, honorable citizen and believe that he stands for the upholding of the highest moral standards of living.

O. K. Webb, Pastor First Baptist Church; Orion W. Carter, Pastor First Methodist Church; C. L. Feinberg, Pastor First Presbyterian Church; O. A. Brown, Pastor Church of the Nazarene; Hayes O. Luna, Pastor First Christian Church; Drwain Jones, Minister Church of Christ.

Fort Worth, Texas, June 24, 1936.

To My Many Friends and the General Public:

Permit me to call attention to the candidacy of Judge A. S. Moss of Memphis, Texas, for District Judge.

I have known Judge Moss for 25 years and respect him in every way as a good citizen, a capable lawyer and a most conscientious man fully worthy of the office he seeks.

He has rendered service to me both as an attorney and as a friend and I have never found him unfaithful in either capacity. If you are not already pledged to some other candidate I will appreciate your support and vote for Judge Moss in the coming primary.

With best personal regards I am very truly,
R. B. MORGAN,
Former pastor 1st Baptist Church, Memphis, Texas.

To The Voters of The 100th Judicial District

BAR ENDORSEMENT
We, the undersigned, constituting the entire membership of the Hall County Bar, hereby take pleasure in endorsing unqualifiedly the candidacy of Judge A. S. Moss for the office of Judge of said District. From years of intimate acquaintance and association with Judge Moss we feel that we have the best opportunity of knowing his qualities, both as a man and as a lawyer. He is a man of deep convictions and of high principles and is loyal to them above consideration of self interest. He is also an experienced and successful lawyer of mature judgment and of untiring energy. We recommend him to the voters of the District as a Judge who will preside over the court with ability, courage and dignity. Every litigant will be assured of a fair and impartial trial in his court.

We earnestly solicit the voters of our district to support Judge Moss in the Run-off Election to be held on the 22nd of August.

SIGNED
Allen C. Grundy, John O. Fitzjarrald, J. M. Elliott, C. Land, Sam J. Hamilton, David Fitzgerald, W. J. Bragg, S. A. Bryant, Carl Periman.

CITIZENSHIP ENDORSEMENT
For a citizenship endorsement we offer the vote of 2282 ballots cast in behalf of Judge Moss by the citizens of his home county, where he has practiced law for 25 years and is well known as a man and as a lawyer.

To the Citizens of the 100th Judicial District

In closing my campaign for the office of District Judge, I desire to make this last appeal to the citizens of our district that you go to the polls August 22nd and exercise your choice for the man who shall serve you as District Judge for the next four years. I feel confident that if each and every voter of the district will exercise this privilege, I will be nominated by an overwhelmingly majority. The citizens in the portion of the district where I am well known as a man and as a lawyer gave me a wonderful vote and expression of confidence in the first primary. Based upon this vote of confidence, I here and now appeal to the citizens of the district generally to give me your vote and influence that I may serve you as your next District Judge and I here pledge you that I will serve you faithfully and with honor to myself and to the district.

Sincerely yours,
A. S. MOSS.

City Tax Rate Has Been Cut Almost a Third

Attention has been called to the fact that the city tax rate was $1.45 a hundred, three years ago. The present tax rate has been set at $1.20 according to information given the Leader by Commissioner T. M. Pyle.

A reduced tax rate at this time will no doubt be most welcome so far as the taxpayers are concerned, and thanks given the present city administration for the economy practiced making a reduction possible.

Women Bank Executives To Hold Annual Convention

According to Grace S. Stoermer, Assistant Vice President, Bank of America National Trust & Savings Association, Los Angeles, a Past President of The Association of Bank Women and Chairman of their General Convention Committee, no more important meeting ever confronted women bank executives than the forthcoming fourteenth annual convention to be held in San Francisco, September 18 to 22 inclusive.

Miss Stoermer calls attention to the history of the Association of Bank Women which has been one of development and growth. When organized in New York in 1921 there were only five members. The constructive work of this small group soon became nationally known, and today there are approximately three hundred names on the membership roster. The Association is represented in every state in the Union, including the Hawaiian Islands, and in practically every important city.

MISS ANNIE L. BOURLAND

When asked how she happened to become a banker, Miss Bourland said:

"Strange to say, but reverses made a banker of me. A forerunner of depressions, born on the right side of the bank ledger and reared on the opposite created a desire to learn how to develop a credit rating with the business world, hence my present position—secretary in the loan department of The Donley County State Bank. Yes, I am still trying to get on the other side of the ledger and can sympathize greatly with the borrowing customers."

Miss Bourland is a member of a convention committee, and has held various official positions, and presided at luncheons for the Association of Bank Women.

The purpose of The Association of Bank Women is to bring together women bank executives for mutual exchange of ideas and experiences, and to forward the interests of all women in the banking profession. Membership includes women holding executive positions in national, state and savings banks, and trust companies. Their work is diversified and their responsibility vary from junior officers to presidents of banks.

In order to better co-ordinate the work, membership is divided into seven regions—New England, Middle-Atlantic, Lake, Mid-Western, Southern, Southwestern and Western. Each division is under the supervision of a regional vice-president. This plan of operation binds each division more closely to the central organization.

The convention this year offers the members double advantages. In the past the conventions of The Association of Bank Women have been held in conjunction with those of the American Bankers' Association. This year their conferences are scheduled three days in advance of the official opening of the A. B. A. so that their members may have the privilege of attending sessions of both organizations.
