Panhandle Feed Crop Outlook Better Since Widespread Rainfall

The heaviest fall was at Lelia Lake and, as might be expected, caught some growers with alfalfa cut and on the ground. Fields were washed in places by a fall estimated at approximately three inches or better.

Hedley came in for a big rain of more than two inches. The west side of the county got a soaking. It is in that section where the best crops are being grown this year. A fine cotton yield is predicted by a number of farmers consulted the past few days.

Friday's cloud that swung across the north west and north end of the county gave the wheat and row crop belt a thorough soaking. Many are sowing wheat this week in the famous wheat belt, though the production was slim this season due to a lack of rainfall.

Reports from over Donley county indicate a fall over the week of from seven-tenths in Clarendon to three and a half inches at Lelia Lake as the extreme over the entire county are summed up.

This assures a plentiful supply of feed. In this respect, growers look to the plains area for a ready cash market as was the case in 1934. Cotton not yet matured will be greatly helped, is the prediction of cotton growers.

All of west and northwest Texas has received copious rains over the past ten days with the exception of the extreme northwest section. Hall county reports plenty of rain. Childress county, hard hit by the drought, reports three to five inches at Kirklind, Childress, Tennessee Valley and Community Center sections. The rain is said to have covered the drought belt too late for crops to be grown on the bare land, but plenty for sowing of winter wheat.

Thousands of acres of wheat already had been sown on the Plains, according to reports of farmers from that section down this week to contract for bundle feed.

Mulkey Addresses Lions On Parole Board Plan

Having recently returned from Galveston where a convention of Texas County Parole Boards were in convention, Homer Mulkey was asked to explain some of the features. Time being all too short for this interesting experience, the Club allotted him the entire program period next Tuesday.

Another feature of the program Tuesday was a vocal trio composed of Perkins, Rankin and Gentry.

Parent-Teachers in First Meeting Thursday

An unusually good attendance was noted at the first meeting of the Sims-Parent Teacher Association Thursday, the first of the season.

Mrs. O. L. Jenkins is president of the Association.

Besides her husband, she is survived by three sons and five daughters. The daughters are Lora Marie, Frances Pauline, Ora, Ruby and Mary Lou Bain. The sons are Elbert, William and Claude. All of the children reside at Lelia Lake.

Mrs. Bain was a member of the Baptist church of Lelia Lake. Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon, and burial made in the Wellington cemetery, near the old home.

Send in Rural News On Tuesday

Our rural correspondents are kindly requested to see that their news items reach us on Tuesday. This is made necessary because of the rush later in the week. News that does not reach us on that day, may be left out because of a lack of time to set the type for the Leader. We don't want to leave anything out, so please help us in this matter.

Thompson Family Attend Palo Duro Hardware Men's Picnic

The hardware dealers of the Panhandle Association observed their second annual reunion picnic in Palo Duro State Park Sunday. They served barbecue and the trimmings, not hardware, as some might suspect.

L. E. Thompson of the Thompson Bros. firm here was present. With him were Mrs. Thompson and their two children, Joan and Ernest. Also Mrs. J. E. Neel, mother of Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson states that the fraternity had a royal good time, plenty of fellowship and plenty to eat, all in the most beautiful park of the state.

Mulkey Finds Interesting Topics at Parole Meet

Seldom does one find a more enthusiastic official than Homer Mulkey, president of the County Parole Board after his visit to the four-state meeting at Galveston last week.

Mr. Mulkey states that the officials of four states in number were present, among them the attorneys general of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and Louisiana. Talks were made by many and the banquets were tri-daily. In other words, one for each meal, try to eat every day in every way.

"The best speech of the whole works was that of Gov. Allred," Mr. Mulkey stated upon his return. The convention voted to have the speech printed and passed to every newspaper of the four states represented in the convention.

Duncans Will Take Time Out For Centennial

Feeling the urge to take a long deserved rest while walking, riding and standing around, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duncan are to leave here Sunday bound for the Ft. Worth Frontier. One day will suffice there.

Several days will be spent in Dallas where Mrs. Duncan has a sister living within about two blocks of the big show. He expects no accommodations, is willing to stand, sit or lie down or most anything except being run over in, out and around the Centennial grounds.

Mrs. Lena Melear of Memphis, a sister of Mrs. Duncan, will have charge of the M System grocery during the absence of the Duncans. She has had several years experience in the grocery business.

Tourists Report Earthquake In Yellowstone Park

Tourists passing through here Wednesday reported a "shiver" of the earth around Mammoth hot springs in Yellowstone National Park about 4:30 Monday afternoon. No damage was done, though the tremor was plainly noticeable when dishes rattled in the tourists' camps, one man reported. This man said his car appeared to "rear up and drop" with him in a split second. He left with his family Louisiana bound 15 minutes later.

MARY S. COLVIN BURIED MONDAY

Member of Baptist Church 64 Years; Resident of Clarendon 16 Years

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church at 3 p. m. Monday by the pastor, Rev. J. Perry King, who was assisted by Rev. E. D. Landreth, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Colvin passed away at 7 a. m. Sunday, the 6th, at the home of her only daughter, Mrs. M. Elmo Lane with whom she had made her home for 16 years. She was born in Tarrant county, Texas June 26, 1859 where she resided for 14 years. Her next home was in Jack county for 41 years. She married J. E. Colvin in 1880, he having passed on in 1892. She was converted at the age of 13, united with the Baptist church and led a consecrated christian life to her death.

Her only daughter is Mrs. M. E. Lane of Clarendon. The four sons are J. N. Colvin, Memphis; G. J. and T. L. Colvin of Turkey, and J. A. Colvin of Healey, Alaska. All her children were present at the last rites except the last named.

Her only sister, Miss Joanana Rogers, is survived by thirteen grand children and six great grand children.

Those in charge of the flowers were Mesdames Harless McMann, Harve Smith, Clarence Pipes, Cecil Combest, Chester Talley, Howard Moore, H. H. Rape, Howard Stewart.

Those attending the casket were Harve Smith, Henry Rape, Harless McMann, C. W. Taylor, O. C. Watson, Howard Stewart.

The Hodges funeral home of Memphis had charge of the funeral arrangements, and interment was made in the Clarendon cemetery.

Work On Salt Fork Highway Begins Wed.

Two Miles on Highway 88 To Be Made Straight When Job is Done

Crooks and turns near Salt Fork on Highway 88 has been a menace to public safety for years, highway officials note, and the present NRS project is designed to correct the matter.

Approximately seventy five thousand dollars will be spent on the work, it is said, and employment is to be given to seventy-five men, and more if necessary.

WPA workmen of Hedley were brought to the job Wednesday, according to County Commissioner G. G. Reeves. The work is expected to continue without intermission until completed.

Two problems are holding up the work from the Sawyer corner to town, it is stated. One is the fact that the highway will cross good farm land that must be paid for to secure a right-of-way. The other problem is one of securing an underpass point at the Denver tracks. Highway inspectors have turned down the suggestion that the present underpass west of the depot would suffice. They claim high water at times precludes the possibility of using that point for a national highway, since 88 will extend from Canada to Del Rio.

NUTS AND BOLTS

"You Always Said You Got the 'Breaks'"

Happy is the cock-sure driver who feels that Lady Luck rides with him and that he will always get the breaks. Happy, that is, until the inevitable emergency arises and the fickle Lady ducks out on him.

At high speeds, it doesn't take much to make a car leave the roadway. A moment's inattention, a badly banked curve, a hole in the pavement, a sudden swerve—any of these may prove fatal to the driver who depends on his luck. Almost 3,400 persons were killed in that way last year, according to Travelers Insurance Company records. Nearly 65,000 others were injured. In nearly every case the driver had only himself to blame, for no other cars were involved.

Good drivers don't depend on luck. They depend on skill, and everlasting alertness.

Many Donley Students Leave for Colleges

Donley county as a student center of the Panhandle retains her reputation again this term with more than half a hundred students entering colleges located in the several states of their choice.

Colleges of Texas are given a decided preference, with the State University leading.

Students to enter the State University this week are John and Laverne Lott, Geraldine Pratt, William Walker, George McCleskey, Clyde Slavin, Elyer Watson, Emmett Simmons, J. R. Bartlett, Jr., Jack Draffin, Thayer Acord, Hollis Leathers, Arthur Chase, Sarah Virginia McGowan, Jimmie Bourland, Robert Nichols, George Chamberlain, James Headrick, Charles Walker.

Practically all of the above are graduates of the local Municipal Junior College. Many of them attended the State University last year, and a few the year before.

Robert McKee of Clarendon and Ivan Jones, the star athlete of Hedley, are to enter Rice Institute of Houston.

Paul Greene and Bob Boston will matriculate at the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell again.

William Green will resume his forestry course at the State University of Washington state.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer Cottingham, recently married, will pursue courses at Oklahoma's state A&M College at Stillwater.

Alfred McMurtry, resumes his studies as a senior in the Kansas A&M College at Manhattan.

Rosalyn Bass has entered Tech at Lubbock. Joyce Link and Wanda Mayfield are again students in ACC of Abilene, Texas. Sam Barrow is in West Point.

Ruth Warren will attend a business college at Fort Worth.

Are You Ready For Inspection

Meaning your car, of course. A squad of highway patrolmen are scheduled to reach here about the 21st for the purpose of inspecting all cars traveling the highways and byways of the state in and through this point.

It might not be a bad idea to see about your brakes, lights, horn, steering and such other parts of your car as concerns the safety of yourself and others when you leave home.

Inspections are being made in a number of towns of the Panhandle at this time. Squads have been inspecting at Pampa and Dalhart the past few days.

11,121,000-Bale Crop Is Forecast for Nation

Donley is Termed Garden of Eden

It may shock some of our readers to know that Louisiana and east Texas truck merchants have been hauling canteloupes, water melons, peas and roasting ears right from old Donley county into that former favored section of bountiful crops. Yes sir, several of them, too.

But we have—and are now.

Only recently, Frank Hardin, farmer northeast of Clarendon, loaded out a Louisiana truck with 150 bushels of canteloupes, melons, corn and what not that the folks in the land of alligators, ticks, chiggers, and mosquitoes might enjoy the best flavored products in America.

Why, those easterners refer to Donley county as the garden of Eden since it is the only section that withstood the drought to assure the growers any semblance of a normal crop this greatest of all drought years.

Great is old Donley!

Hedley Lady Dies Wednesday In Amarillo Hospital

Mrs. Margaret L. Hall, aged 22, wife of H. H. Hall of Hedley, passed away in an Amarillo hospital at 3 p. m. Wednesday. The Buntin mortuary here brought the body to Clarendon and prepared it for shipment to Sildell, Texas, the old home.

Mr. Hall operates a service station in Hedley where the family has a wide acquaintance and many friends who regret this most unfortunate occurrence.

Radio and Electric Shop Is Opened Here

General Electric Repairing Work Will Be Made A Specialty

Announcement is made through the advertising columns of the Leader this issue of the opening of a new radio and electric shop. The store is located next door to the Home bakery, two doors north of the postoffice. The owners have been engaged in this line of business in Wellington for the past three years, it being one of the leading stores of the kind in the Panhandle.

V. L. Taylor, a brother-in-law of Elyer and Tony Watson, formerly of Clarendon, and a radio engineer of several years experience, is one of the men interested in the firm. Oran Starkey, a refrigeration and electrical engineer, is the other partner. He was in the employ of the West Texas Utilities company on refrigeration repair and servicing for nine years.

With them will be associated L. V. Childress, an electrician and general repair man of several years experience.

The firm will stock a line of radios of two brands, Philco and Zenith, and the new Zenith wind charger for providing electricity in the rural homes. A complete stock of electrical parts will be maintained.

The new firm asks the public to inspect their stock and figure with them on any kind of electrical work that is to be done.

Undergoes Serious Operation In Ft. Worth Sunday

Following an illness of several weeks here, Mrs. John Bass was removed to Harris Sanitarium at Ft. Worth. After remaining there several days, it was deemed advisable to operate.

The serious operation was performed with apparent success Sunday, Mr. Bass and her children, Rosalyn and John Jr., and her father, W. P. Cagle were present pending the critical period. Mrs. Bass is reported as improving at this time.

The Agricultural Department announced Tuesday a 11,121,000 bale cotton crop based on conditions of September 1st. The estimate a month ago was 12,481,000. The Census Bureau reported 1,373,868 bales ginned up to September 1, 1936.

The announcement immediately affected the stock market sending cotton prices up 75 points, or approximately $3.75 a bale.

Buying orders poured into the futures market driving the price above 12 cents. October is quoted at 12.22; December 12.25; March 12.31 and May 12.35.

The condition of the general cotton crop September 1st was given as 59.1 percent, which is slightly above a half crop. The Texas crop is estimated at 52 percent of normal.

Drouth conditions in western Oklahoma and Northwest Texas is said to have indicated a sharp decline in production according to government investigators. Much of this territory was reported as "barren" by the middle of August.

Douglas Attends Druggists Convention Tuesday

Druggists of the 31st senatorial district were in convention in Amarillo Tuesday. The body went on record as endorsing a movement to have enacted at the next session of the legislature laws designed to prevent unfair trade practices on the part of manufacturers, jobbers and dealers.

Clyde J. Douglas of Clarendon was appointed on the district legislative committee. Clyde Holtzclaw, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Holtzclaw here, was made chairman of the entertainment committee.

The visitors were welcomed by Roy Pool, a former pupil of the Leader editor when he taught school in Ft. Worth in 1906. Roy, a regular old farm boy, is one of the leading drug store owners of Amarillo, and has been for a number of years. He is a self-made man along with it, so far as his financing is concerned.

Creamery Man Sees Bright Future for Dairymen

Visiting here Monday was O. S. Reed, representative of the chain of Hollywood creameries, who has charge of their business in six states. He sees in the late rains a more plentiful supply of dairy feed, and with the constant scarcity of cream products, a higher market for cream.

Hugh S. Eldridge has charge of the local plant.

Chamberlain Club Picnic Friday Night

Members of the Chamberlain Home Demonstration club entertained their families with a picnic at the school building Friday night. Besides the appropriate program, the neighborly gathering was quite an enjoyable affair.

No charges will be made to transport workmen to Amarillo and return. The only requirement is to be on hand at the appointed hour and place.

MEMBER OF PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

HEDLEY SLAMS UP THE BARS.

Citizens of Hedley have grown tired of third and fourth rate tent shows and carnivals. They have decided to dispense with all kinds of such nuisances in order to enjoy more peace of mind, and further, to protect the interests of their citizens.

The City Dads have passed an ordinance prohibiting a carnival or tent show from operating within three hundred feet of any business house, residence, school or church. They even have to ask the mayor before they can stage a parade. Any business that cannot operate without requiring the continuous presence of one or more peace officers, is a blamed nuisance and ought to be stopped.

WARWICK ISSUES ANOTHER BULLETIN.

Members of the Panhandle Press Association look forward to receiving the "Panhandle Publisher," press bulletin of the Association. Secretary Clyde W. Warwick, publisher of the Canyon News, is responsible for the collection of material and the printing of the editions.

In view of the fact that Mr. Warwick's Canyon News takes the lead in civic pride and community helpfulness in the Panhandle, he naturally just lets nature take its course when he gets ready to issue a press bulletin. His logic is well worthy of emulation.

The fact that a number of different writers are represented in the reader interest of the publication, helps a lot. The best copy is written by laymen who believe in, and have an interest in, the betterment of the Panhandle people and their environment.

Each Bulletin gets a little bit better. May each member be ready to assist when called upon. More power to you, Secretary Warwick. You are doing your fellow men a noble service.

UNDERGROUND SILOS WINNING FAVOR.

Rains of the past week falling in sufficient quantity to benefit growing crops in practically all of the county, means plenty of feed stuff. Since several have tried the pit silo method of saving and bettering roughage feed, more will be prepared than ever before.

The pit silo has several advantages. It costs next to nothing to dig. The feed keeps all winter without loss by spoilage, while the weight and quality is improved. Stock eat it readily without any stalk loss. Feeds that stock would not otherwise eat, is greedily taken when put through the silo process. On the south plains, farmers put bear grass, Russian thistle and other material in with the kaffir, cane, corn, feterita, hegaria and other stalk material. Stock consumed the whole matter readily after it went through the process of silage.

Those in this county who tried the method last year, are more enthusiastic than ever now. County agent H. M. Breedlove is doing a good work in pushing the silo advantages.

WITH OUR EXCHANGES

SAID A MOUTHFUL! There is nothing new about the announcement that the Dallas Centennial is going to have a bull fight. That has been going on with Fort Worth since the Frontier show opened.

WILL THAT FIX IT? IF I AIN'T THE MOST absent-minded guy in town, then I'm next. My mother, brother and sister were visiting at our house for several days last week and I plumb forgot it till after the paper was out.

YEE, WHY DON'T THEY? The Wheeler city dads took nearly a page advertisement in their town paper to explain the financial situation of the city, following a petition to cut the tax rate, and said that many of the signers of the petition might have not given the facts due consideration.

JUST LIKE HOMEFOLKS Drive a car around Henrietta long and the chickens and dogs will force you to go round them. It is unlawful, to let a milk cow run loose in Henrietta, but a car driver encounters them tied with a good long rope, and he has to get out and drive her off the roadway before he can pass.

Yes, the speed maniac, the fellow who mixes whiskey with gasoline, the road hog, the sap who thinks he owns the whole world when he gets on a paved highway with a car and toots his horn a quarter of a mile away whether he has the right of way or not, warning everybody that he is coming; they are all public menaces. But these pedestrians we have been stalking about, they are some menaces, too.—Independent.

GOOD COMMON SENSE President Roosevelt is the first President who has ever given the farmer a square deal, and has made a scientific study of farm problems. During the past two weeks the President devoted his time to the study of two great forces which are working against the interest of the farmers—flood and drouth. After touring the flood area of the east, he comes to the drouth area of the west. He is conferring with local citizens who have studied these problems. For the first time in the history of this nation a President is seeking to control the ravages of erosion, which are rapidly devastating the soil of the nation.

AND MOTHER BEAT THEM Every large flour mill has a laboratory in which it tests each batch of flour before it goes out. If it is below a certain standard it is corrected by adding a type of flour that brings it up to the standard set. The laboratory tests the flour by baking a loaf of bread. Each loaf is tested for color of crumb volume, absorption, crust color and character, evenness of bake, break and shred, symmetry, aroma, taste, texture and fermenting time. The color qualities of the bread are tested in a specially equipped room by cutting a loaf in half and testing its light reflecting qualities.—Lefors News.

MCKNIGHT SCHOOL NEWS C. W. Howard

The McKnight school is now in its third week of school work, it having begun August 24 concurrently with the beginning of the Hedley and the Bray schools. The school opened with an enrollment of thirty-one, but the number has since increased until the present number is thirty-five.

There was quite an interest manifested in the beginning of the present school term, judging by the number present for the opening program and by the way the pupils got into their school work. Many economic and social, as well as religious problems were brought to the attention of the people in the opening talks and people were caused to understand that their solution was to an extent a responsibility of the school and the community.

In an effort to contribute toward the social improvement of the community, and to help toward the improvement of the school, whose responsibility it is to do what it can to help toward the solution of all problems, the people have given their approval of the organization of a Parent-Teacher Association, and it is hoped that every effort will be made to make it a success. Then too, almost all present at the opening program seemed to feel a need of community entertainment, and their hearty approval was given to a plan to hold an amateur program some time in the near future. Though it was hoped it might be held earlier, it was decided that Friday Sept. 18 would be the best time for such. Therefore the McKnight community is inviting any person or group of persons who is truly an amateur to enter the contest with music, singing, speaking, or dramatics, in competition for prizes in money to be paid out of fees to be charged for admission. Talent from other communities is especially invited to participate. Come and entertain, and be entertained, and at the same time take a chance to win a cash prize. Any person may participate individually in only one number, but he may also be a member of one or more group contests. It is not a plan to raise money, but solely to encourage those with talent to make use of it and furnish the public with such entertainment that will please and exault. Be sure to come, Friday evening, Sept. 18th.

Farm News HEREFORD — Ted Rohrbach, wheat farmer in Deaf Smith county, harvested 2,400 bushels of wheat on 300 acres of a dry land farm, according to C. E. Marcum, county agricultural agent. Rohrbach states that strip cropping, border planting, and contour farming made this harvest possible. Rohrbach planted alternate strips of grain sorghum with wheat and along the borders of the field he planted grain sorghum as a protection against dirt that would blow from the neighboring field. He states that his land has in reality been enriched rather than eroded during the last 12 months. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dillard were in Canyon Tuesday on business. They will enter college there next week. Donley Co. Leader—$1.50 a Year.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH By the Apostle

Another thing about a vacation is that a fellow can feel how little he amounts to in his community when he finds out that nobody knew he was gone.

About the only thing a modern girl has, that her grandmother did not have, is the courage to look into a mirror and face the facts.

Strange how some folks will assume the roll of advisor for the young just because the advisor messed up his life with a lot of experiences in his young days before he reached an age of sanity and reason.

Deuteronomy 28:24. In view of recent experiences, you will find this passage of scripture most interesting.

Speaking of school days, many of us can recall our first experience with the Board of Education was when the red-haired school marm caught us in the act of placing a crooked pin where it did not belong. The Board was about two inches wide and an inch thick.

The fellow who said the saddest spectacle of his experience was a horse fly trying to bite a tractor radiator, had never observed a blind man in a nudist colony. "Of all sad words, of tongue or pen, etc."

It is estimated that 90% of the stock of rye on hand in the U. S. today is in bottles. (It ought to be cut.)

It is lucky for a lot of folks that the highway cops are not traveling Highway 5 at night.

Now, dear readers, we shall tell you a fable. Some day you may need it, so remember the moral; the facts are unimportant. Once upon a time the citizens of a town built sidewalks in front of their places of business. The city made the property owners keep the sidewalks in repair. Then there came a time when bus companies came into being. They did not care to invest in stations, so they just stuck up "no parking" signs at certain places along the privately owned sidewalks, and proceeded to take on and discharge passengers over the protest of the owner who had built the sidewalk. And remember, this usurped "station" could be in either resident or business district just the same.

Scheming politicians of today had nothing on those old codgers back in the days of Julius Caesar. Why those birds falsified the calendar in order to prolong their terms of office—and got by with it.

Social Games: In the game of horse shoes, it is always advisable to first detach the horse.

She may be bow-legged, but they reach the ground. That's what counts.

The man who thinks in terms of millions may be a "bugologist" instead of a financier. You never can tell about some fellows.

Columbus in 1492, when he had run into the East Indies, thought it was America. (Spain never discovered America until 1898.) His project was financed by the queen who had hocked her jewels. That's probably the trouble over there now. They are trying to "un-hock" the queen's jewels.

For centuries people believed that sickness and pain were punishments for the original sin of Adam and Eve. The body of the sick was regarded as vile and unspeakable. The originators of chloroform and listerine were regarded by thousands as "imps of the devil" because their knowledge of medicine defeated the "aims" of the religious beliefs of the multitude. And yet, you hear a lot of folks say the world is not getting better.

A lady friend just phoned in and said: "Tell the readers of your column to sprinkle a bit of cinnamon on their bread as they toast it, and see how much better the breakfast will be." Thanks a lot, lady, and a number will try your suggestion.

You know back there the mule-footed hogs got a play. Most every man wanted a mule foot right now. Then about the same time a new breed of chickens was foisted upon the public. The fowl had a dark color and differed from all others in that it had a crossed bill and the feathers appeared to be put on backwards. J. S. Cook of near Ashtola was in Saturday and he told me about a "broad" breed of chickens owned by a neighbor lady. You, know, the chickens with big hips. They are called "buffs." From what friend Cook had to say about it, there is some fine poultry in his neighborhood.

The only excuse for not being a man, is to be born a lady.

A lot of us are getting tired of attempts being made to prove to us that a democracy is better than a dictatorship. We know that from experiences with the infamous Blue Eagle episode of a few years ago. What most of us would like to see, is a restoration of a true democracy something like our grand daddies left to us but which we didn't have sense enough to appreciate.

Twenty-five years ago it was said that half of Texas was "on wheels" because so many families were moving west in prairie schooners. The trailer fad of today bids fair to put many millions to living in trailers within a few years in order to avoid the high tax rate on stationary homes.

Panhandle to Cavalcade

Early in the 80's the Bonners and the Isbelle pioneered from the lush valleys of Mississippi to the plains of the Panhandle. In 1890 J. M. Isbelle was the first judge ever appointed in Collingsworth County, and 16-year-old A. Q. (Smoky) Bonner was a cowhand on the Rocking Chair Ranch. Above, The Isbelle Bonner, daughter of A. Q. Bonner, now veteran ranchman of Dalhart, dons makeup and costume at Dallas in the dressing room of Cavalcade of Texas, the Texas Centennial Exposition's greatest show, in order to portray the era of which her father was a vital part. Assisting her in the process is Jan Isbelle Fortune, author of the Cavalcade and daughter of the late Judge J. M. Isbelle, Wellington, Texas.

Refreshments were served to one guest, Mrs. W. L. Crane of Amarillo, and to members, Mesdames Karl Adams, G. A. Anderson, A. H. Baker, Sloan Baker, C. L. Benson, A. L. Chase, J. H. Clark, H. J. Mr. and Mrs. John Harlan who were married Saturday at Clarendon, were honored Sunday at a four course six o'clock dinner given by the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott of Naylor.

A beautiful three tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink bows and a tiny bride and groom, centered the table, while at either end were tall venetian vases filled with sweet peas which gave the final touch to a most elaborate table.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Harlan and Miss Marjorie Harlan, mother and sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Potter, grandparents of the groom, all of Midway; also the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hefner of Clarendon, Chester Lee Scott and Inez Scott, brother and sister of the bride, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. Perry King, Pastor
There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

Come along, let's all go to church, where we belong on Sunday. The church going habit helps the habit of serious thought. Indulge your intellectual self-respect, go to church. Make it a habit on Sunday morning to turn your tracks toward the church steps. You will find that they lead toward happiness. Save your Sundays for the better, higher, holier things of life. Of course a Holy day means nothing to an unholy life. That may be the reason so many of us disregard the command of God to "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." An hour spent in your church on Sunday will greatly help in the problems of the other six days of the week.

Regular services at The First Baptist Church Sunday. Superintendent Burton will be in charge of the Sunday School. Let's make him happy by having 300 in attendance the first Sunday of his administration.

The Training Service meets at 7:00 o'clock. Miss Jessie Cook is the newly elected Director and will be in charge to assist in the organization for another year's work.

The evening preaching service will be at 8:00 o'clock. We will administer the ordinance of baptism at the close of the service.

A $33,000,000,000 Millstone

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

If a farmer or a business man finds himself deep in debt his first aim is to find some method of reducing it. That goes for the housewife, too! All recognize a heavy burden of debt as a millstone around the neck of any individual, or firm, or family that is attempting to keep its affairs on a successful basis.

Moreover, they all know the effective method of solving their problem. It is Economy.

But the politicians, during recent years, seem to think they have found a happier solution. Instead of trying to turn to a program of increased expenditures, increased extravagance, deeper plunges into the spreading pool of red ink.

This is indicated by the way they have been boosting the Public Debt. It probably explains why the Federal Debt alone has risen steadily from approximately $19,000,000,000 in 1932, to $27,000,000,000 in 1934, and to an all-time high of more than $33,000,000,000 for 1936.

It's an alluring method — to the politicians. But it's less attractive to the farmer and the business man and the housewife, who know that they must pay the debts which politicians create.

And it becomes still less attractive when they realize that public debt is actually an obscured method of adding to our taxes — with the bills marked for a later date — or of piling up a heritage of liens against the future earnings of our children.

But the mere realization of these facts on the part of the public isn't enough. If the farmer and the business man and the housewife want to stop the piling up of bills for added labor and added sacrifice and higher prices, they must make the politicians face the facts, too.

A $33,000,000,000 millstone is a heavy handicap for the workers and earners and taxpayers of America to carry along the hard road to recovery.

CHICKEN SALAD RECIPE

Draw the birds as for baking. Place on a rack in a kettle, half covered with hot water, add one teaspoonful of salt per bird and simmer until tender. Avoid overcooking. Then remove the skin and bones, cut the chicken into small pieces.

4 pounds of chicken, cooked and cut into small pieces.

1/2 pound olives, chopped.

1 teaspoonful white pepper.

1 cupful chicken fat.

2 cupfuls vinegar.

Salt to taste.

Few drops Tabasco sauce.

Remove one cupful of chicken fat from the cold broth, combine with the vinegar and pour over the chicken. Add salt, Tabasco sauce and more vinegar, if necessary, to season it well. Let this stand for a few hours for the best results. Then prepare the pimientos and olives. Add a small quantity of the chicken broth and heat to boiling. Add the marinated chicken and heat to boiling. Pack at once in sterilized cans. Process pint glass jars and No. 2 cans 110 minutes at 10 1/2 pounds pressure.

At the time of serving, mix the salad with thick, well seasoned mayonnaise and freshly chopped celery or diced cucumbers. Serve in nests of crisp lettuce leaves. What a treat for the family or unexpected guests!

THE BIBLE AS A TEXTBOOK

Bible students have found references therein which may be used in the everyday life of each and every person. Men and women are allowed a free range in this nation to read the Bible and to place their own interpretation upon the passages.

The following references have been found useful in times of difficulty:

When "things look 'blue,'" read Isaiah, chapter 40.

When tempted to do wrong, read the 139th Psalm.

If you are facing a crisis, read the 46th Psalm.

When you are discouraged, think over Psalm 23.

If you are "bored," read Psalms 103 and 104 or Job, chapters 38-40.

When business is poor, read Psalm 37.

When you are lonely or fearful, read over Psalm 27.

When you are anxious for dear ones, read the 107th Psalm.

When you plan your budget, read St. Luke's Gospel, chapter 19.

To live successfully with your fellowmen, follow Romans, chapter 12.

When everything seems to be going from bad to worse, try II Timothy 3.

The best investment is described in St. Matthew's Gospel, chapter 6. Does God figure in our national life? Read Deuteronomy 8.

When your friends seem to go back on you, hold fast to I Corinthians 13.

For inward peace, consider the 14th chapter of St. John's Gospel.

Have you been placed in a position of great responsibility? Read Joshua, chapter 1.

If you have been bereaved, there is a message for you in I Corinthians 15, and Revelation 21.

For a stirring record of what trust in God can do, turn to the 11th chapter of Hebrews.

If you are satisfied with being "well-to-do" read chapters 15 and 16 of St. Luke's Gospel.

If you have experienced severe losses, read the past paragraphs of chapter 8 of Romans.

If you are having to put up a stiff fight there is a fine equipment listed at the end of Ephesians.

When you have sinned, read I John, 1, St. John 3:1-21, Isaiah 53, and make Psalm 51 your prayer.

The way of prayer—I Kings 8; Psalms 42, 51; St. Luke's Gospel, chapters 11:1-13; 18:1-14; St. John's Gospel, chapter 17; Ephesians, 3.

If you have a fear of death, read St. John, chapters 11, 17, and 20; Corinthians, chapters 4, 5; Romans, chapter 8; Revelation, chapters 7, 21, and 22.

Forced to Buy New Car on Vacation Trip

Bound for the Centennial last week, and a trip to Houston and other points south, Mrs. F. A. Cooper of the greenhouse here, was forced to buy a new car this side of Ft. Worth.

For some reason a gasket leak caused the motor head to crack. Although her car was about as good as new when she left home, she could not let a little thing like that stand between her and a vacation. So she bought a new car, and the trip was continued on to Houston.

With Mrs. Cooper were her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Johnson and son, and Coy Radney. Mrs. Radney, who had been visiting at Houston, returned home with them.

G. W. Antrobus has been confined to his home for several days, being afflicted with intestinal flu.

Masonic Day Fete At Frontier Show

Fort Worth, September 8.—Masons from all parts of Texas will throng the grounds of the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial next Friday, September 11. John B. Davis, general manager of the exposition, announced today that the occasion had been specially designated in honor of the fraternal organization.

A number of the uniformed bodies plan to attend and local officials of the order will be on hand to extend a welcome.

Masonic Day will round out perhaps the best seven consecutive days of attendance since the Frontier Centennial gates opened. Beginning last Saturday when 500 members of the First Officers Training Camp Association formed the nucleus of a great throng, the week continued with Sunday as Houston Day, Monday as a rallying day for organized labor as well as for special trains from Galveston and Houston, with a host of Democrats due Tuesday because of the State convention and delegations from half a dozen West Texas cities during the crowded days.

Among the number to spend a delightful day at Palo Duro State Park Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitlock and Nicky Stewart of Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simmons of Dallas joined the party here. Mrs. Simmons is a daughter of the Stewarts.

Visitors to the Park are united in pronouncing it a most wonderful spectacle of scenery in variety. The highway down the canyon is now open to traffic for some twelve miles, it has been announced.

Dean to visit her recently were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith and children of Wichita Falls, a Mr. Youngblood of Oklahoma City, and a Mr. Pierson of Dallas Center, Iowa, both of the men being her nephews. Rieger Dry Goods Company
Consistent Advertiser

Among the Leader's most consistent advertisers is the Rieger drygoods company owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Rieger who resided in Decatur before coming to Clarendon.

Mr. Rieger received his training in drygoods stores of the better class in Decatur, Bowie and Dallas beginning when quite a young man. In discussing his business recently, he left the impression that his greatest thrill or experience was recently when some Amarillo ladies of exacting knowledge came into his place of business and each purchased shoes. They had seen samples in the show window, and knowing them to be ahead of their town's latest style offerings, as they stated, entered and purchased.

"With the small margin of profit, we are forced to make quick turn-overs and depend on volume of sales," Mr. Rieger stated. Prices are quoted almost every week in the Leader giving our readers an advantage not excelled in economy and quality in any town or city in the state. Special bargains are being offered in advertisements in this issue. Read them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patrick and family enjoyed a family reunion last week. Their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morris of Chandler, Oklahoma and Miss Elgin Patrick of Long Beach California were present.

Prairie Chickens To Get More Protection

Only Sixty Birds Are Found In a Thousand Mile Trip Over Favored Section

College Station, Texas, Sept 8.—The Texas prairie chickens are threatened with extinction unless drastic steps are taken immediately to save them, the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Service, with headquarters at Texas A&M College, reports.

"It is inevitable," said Dr. W. P. Taylor, in charge of the Service, "that the numbers of prairie chickens, both in the Panhandle country and in the coastal region, should have been reduced by farming, ranching, and grazing operations. This year the situation has been further complicated by floods in the coastal country and drought in the Panhandle. Recent advices from Austin O'Neil, state game warden, Wellington, are that prairie chickens in the Panhandle drouth area are subsisting on grass hoppers and are so weak that they cannot successfully be moved to more favorable situations."

Valgene Lehmann, field biologist, in cooperation with T. T. Waddell of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, covered 75 per cent of the best prairie chicken country in Colorado county and 25 per cent in Austin county. In 1000 miles of travel by car and on horseback, using good bird dogs to check on their census work, these observers located not over 60 birds altogether.

The prairie chicken crop both this year and last was almost a failure as a result of the torrential floods that descended on the young birds just as they were hatching or beginning to get about.

Extinction of the species is imminent, it is feared, unless sportsmen adopt a voluntary closed season in counties which are not closed to prairie chicken hunting.

The following counties are closed to all prairie chicken hunting: Brazoria, Collingsworth, Donley, Gray, Hemphill, Lipscomb, Matagorda, and Wheeler.

"The prairie chicken, in its habits and sporting qualities, is one of the most attractive species of upland game in Texas," Dr. Taylor pointed out. "It attains a weight of one and a half pounds. Its drumming or booming antics during the period of courting and mating are among the most fascinating among American game birds."

A PARABLE

"And in those days, behold, there came through the gates of the city a salesman from afar off, and it came to pass as the day went by, he sold plenty. They that were the grouchers smiled on him and gave him the hand that is glad. The tightwads opened up their purses to him."

"And in that city were they that were undertakers, and they that spent their days adding to the all-bys sheets. Mightily were they astonished. They said one to the other, 'What the Hell, how doth he get away with it?' And it came to pass that many were gathered in the back of the office and a soothsayer came among them. And he was one wise guy. And they spoke and questioned him saying, 'How is it that this stranger accomplisheth the impossible?'"

"Whereupon the soothsayer made answer: 'He of whom you speak is one hustler. He ariseth very early in the morning and goeth forth full of pep. He complaineth not, neither doth he knock. He is arrayed in purple and fine linen, while ye go forth with faces unshaven and pants not pressed."

"While ye gather here and say one to another, Verily this is a terrible day to work, he is already abroad. And when the eleventh hour cometh he needeth no all-bys. He saith not to the boss, 'Behold they that are in this town are a bunch of boneheads'. Nor doth he report that they can not be sold!"

"He knoweth his line, and they that would stave him off they giveth him orders. Men say unto him, 'nay, nay!' when he cometh in; yet when he goeth forth from thence, he hath their names on the line that is dotted."

"He taketh with him two angels—'Aspiration' and 'Perspiration'. He knoweth whereof he speaketh and he worketh to beat Hell. Verily I say unto you, go thou and do likewise."

Farm News

NEW BRAUNFELS—After using his trench silo for four consecutive years, Herman Mitten-dorf, farmer from the Watson community in Comal county, is of the opinion that the trench silo is the best thing a farmer can have, according to a report of George B. Ehlinger, county agricultural agent.

Mitten-dorf constructed the first trench silo in Comal county four years ago after an inspection of one at the Luling Foundation Farm.

This Comal county farmer finds that silage is valuable not only for his cattle but for his horses and mules. He uses some cottonseed meal in addition to the silage in feeding his work stock.

DICKENS—From seed sowed in February, Mrs. J. J. Griffin of Dickens county has nearly a solid turf of Bermuda grass on her lawn, according to Miss Clara Pratt, home demonstration agent. The grass has been moved regularly and that has helped it to spread.

The lawn was plowed and leveled before the grass seed was sowed. As another part of her yard improvement program, Mrs. Griffin planted native shrubs and trees and these are growing nicely.

CONROE—"Cleo Callaway of the Willis 4-H club in Montgomery county has found it pays to grow vegetables at home", says Miss Lela Mae Fortenberry, home demonstration agent.

One bushel of certified Irish potatoes costing $3.28 planted on one-half acre brought $32. Fifty pounds of onions were grown for home use. Garden seed and plants costing $3 furnished vegetables to fill 160 containers which are valued at $30.

MASON—"In order to make my new linoleum wear better, I have built up the surface with several coats of wax," says Mrs. Henry Kettner, kitchen demonstrator for the Grossville home demonstration club in Mason county.

"Old linoleum can be made to look like new by applying two coats of floor enamel and then waxing in the same manner as for new linoleum," she added.

WIFE'S AGIN HIM, BUT 'PINK' LISTS HIS POINTS IN RACE FOR JUSTICE

Stuttgart, Ark.—There's no doubt about "Pink Kennedy's" platform for justice of the peace of Gum Pond township in Stuttgart. Here is what Kennedy published in a local daily paper:

"To the voters of Gum Pond township—and nowhere else: "It is customary for all candidates to give those who scratch their names at the polls some idea of their platform, and I, "Pink" Kennedy, do hereby and hereon give you folks an earful of what to expect.

"I am agin holes in the streets. "I am agin beer glasses that have an artificial bottom about half way up, as well as agin short half pints.

"I'm agin long skirts. "I don't believe in fish stories. "I am strong for weddings.

"I have hooked up more couples in the last two years than any other man in the country, and if they don't stay hooked, it's not my fault, as I don't give guarantees with a wedding like they do automobile tires.

"I have settled shotgun weddings without a shot being fired. "I have extended credit to more people getting married than any other man in the township. If I collect on these I could get enough B.V.D.'s to last me all winter and buy the Missus a suit of green tедies.

"I supported the 4-H boys and girls, which is more than I did for my own family. I intend to continue to do so, even if they add a couple more H's.

"I am for the old folks, but I still like young girls best.

"I am for the demonstrators, though they never bring in any home-made pies or preserves.

"I am for all the rices that grow in Arkansas, but I think Edith is the prettiest name.

"I don't approve of the rice named after me—"Red Rice."

"I think every family is entitled to as many children as they can raise. I like twins when they are in the other fellow's family.

"I like to sing 'Sweet Adeline' when the occasion demands.

"I can't go wrong on the 'Share-the-Wealth' plan, as I have none to share—therefore, I'm for it.

"The only loudspeaker I have in my campaign is my wife—and she's agin me, so we won't take up space for that.

"One of my opponents is an old man and the other might as well be. They are for the same things I am, but they haven't got a newspaper to tell you about it. One sells suds, which is mostly foam, so you see his correct measure is questionable. The other sells automobiles and who on earth would believe an automobile salesman!

"Respectfully—and then some, "Pink" Kennedy."

Business Conditions Reported To Department Commerce

Washington, Sept. 7.—The break in the heat wave and widely scattered rains resulted in noticeable business improvement over the previous week and a better margin of gain over last year, although there were some isolated exceptions, according to reports to the Department of Commerce from all parts of the country. Final Summer promotions stimulated the retail volume in many sections and added to this, was the growing interest in Fall merchandise that was expressed more liberally with the prevalence of cooler weather. Wholesale lines were also generally better.

Rains, followed by cooler weather, improved the crop situation in the mid-West, although moisture was still far below normal. The first showers since May 25 fell in the Kansas City area and the St. Louis report said farmers who had been hauling water for two months were relieved. The Kentucky tobacco crop was damaged by the intense heat, according to the Louisville report and other crops were curtailed. The improved agricultural outlook was reflected in the record-breaking attendance at the Wisconsin State Fair where exhibitors reported heavy sales of farm machinery. In Portland, the export of pears started with one exporter loading 57 cars in one consignment, while the Idaho prune crop was estimated at 1,000 carloads. The Jacksonville report said Florida's 1936-37 citrus and vegetable crops were estimated at $84,284,000. July cash income from the sale of farm products were estimated at $711,000,000, compared with $582,000,000 in June and $451,000,000 in July of last year. Marketing income was highest for that month since 1929. United States exports for the first

And to you folks who contributed to the Will Rogers fund. While down at Ft. Worth for the Rogers Day, I found out that all the money collected in Texas is yet being held in the First National Bank at Ft. Worth until such time as more funds can be raised to build a hospital for crippled children.

The Indians used to say that 60 days after the first fall north wind, the first frost would fall. Counting from our first "norther" Saturday a week ago, it will be around October 25th when we get our first frost.

Mr. Cornell, the corn was fine and we sure had her on the cob. We want to remind you that we don't need any Christmas weather until February.

And old Sam Tankersly, the water melons were great. How they grew with no rain beats me, but they had a fine, fine, sweet flavor just like they had grown on the sand. Bet they did, too. Yeh, we can use some more.

And all of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parker's children got their feet under the parental table at the Parker home near Ashtola Saturday. The oldest girl, Helen, came from California for the family reunion.

CARD OF THANKS

Because of the impossibility of meeting all of our many friends, and personally thanking them for their kindness during the last sickness and death of our mother and grandmother, we are taking this method of trying to express our gratitude for their kind and loyal help.

We want each of you to know that we feel a debt of gratitude to you for your services which can only be paid by reciprocal acts of kindness.

We extend our sincere thanks. May God bless you.

Miss Ina Naylor of Hobbs will return home Friday after spending a vacation period here. She is employed by the telephone company of Hobbs.

And Mrs. Dean, that melon had a very fine flavor. GW made preserves out of the rind. There is nothing better than water melon rind preserves, and more especially if they are candied.

Along comes R. L. Brazille talking fruit trees. When a man sells you a real quality fruit tree, such as he has, he has done you a real favor. More power to him. We need more fruit trees, grapes and we ought to find a black berry that would grow here. Berries are a stubborn thing in our section.

Mr. Pierson, who came down here from Dallas Center, Iowa to visit in the L. R. Dean home stated that he never saw anything green from the time he left home until he got to Ashtola. Old Donley is hard to beat.

GW and I have been "wrangling" grand daughters over the week end while a bunch of the family members went to Colorado fishing. The old man staid on the job and had a busy time Friday and Saturday doing job work, operating the line casting machine, waiting on the public and a hundred other things. It is a good idea to take turn about and let some of the family off on a vacation. This statement is made here with the hopes that I will get off. GW went down east and visited her ten brothers and sisters and 68 nephews and nieces in June. What did I get? "One day" and had to be awake two nights to get that. Is one day a vacation for even an old codger? No! I'm bound for the mountains some of these days and I may never come back until I kill a deer. If the turnips planted Saturday do well, I'm going to stay home and fill up on turnip greens and butter milk and let the deer live another year.

BRILLIANT CAST MAKES "SUZY" NOTABLE EVENT

Jean Harlow, Franchot Tone Cary Grant in Sensitive, Stirring Romance

There is deceiving simplicity in the title of the picture, "Suzy," which opens at the Pastime Theatre next Wednesday, Sept. 16th.

Under any other name Jean Harlow, in the title role, would typify the woman who, through their love and courage, build empires, cause wars and sometimes, avert them.

The story is based on the novel by Herbert Gorman and George Fitzmaurice directed the picture for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Franchot Tone and Cary Grant appear in the unique narrative as the two husbands of an American show girl stranded in London just before the war.

Miss Harlow unquestionably reaches the high note in her glamorous career as a star. In spy-invented London she meets a young inventor interested in aviation and marries him. He is shot under peculiar circumstances which point to her guilt. Terrified in the belief that he is dead, she escapes to Paris and there, after the war is raging, marries again.

The first husband appears and her life is more deeply involved than ever, because he was her real love and still is.

This reviewer will not reveal the story, but reports that the audience last night was deeply impressed and thoroughly entertained. While the war serves as a background for the plot, it is the sensitive, emotional girl who holds the stage as she solves her bewildering problem of love and intrigue.

In Open Range Days, State Land Leased At Six Cents An Acre In Donley County

Showers of the Past Week Followed the General Rain Over The County Late Thursday Brought Needed Moisture To All Parts of Donley County

Ladies Appreciate Lounging Room at Grocery

One would have to only take a look at the ladies lounging room at the Farmers Exchange grocery to appreciate the attitude of the ladies toward the only convenience of the kind in town.

Numbers enjoy the room provided with comfortable seats, reading matter on the center table and every modern facility placed at the disposal of lady patrons and children merely as a gesture of appreciation.

A paragraph from the "50 Years Ago" column of the Dallas News of Tuesday's issue, recalls to minds of old-timers the day of cheap grass in old Donley county. Not only that, but it recalls a great expanse of mesquite and buffalo grass, varieties that are now almost extinct.

From 1878 to 1886 L. H. Carhart received state patent title to a number of sections of land on both sides of Salt Fork. In fencing his land, he also included a number of other sections of land to which he had no title as was the custom of the days of land plenty.

The Carhart pasture enclosed "Old Clarendon" which was located at or near the mouth of Carroll creek just above the bridge crossing Salt Fork on Highway 88 today.

The paragraph in the Dallas News reads: "The Carhart Cattle Company, whose wires enclose the town of Clarendon, have asked the Land Board at Austin to appoint an agent for that district, as the company wants to make a lease of all the State lands enclosed at 6c."

There is nothing of record here to indicate how many sections, if any, were so leased to the Carhart interests. L. H. Carhart owned a number of sections of land, and was the prime mover in the cattle company which bore his name. He was also instrumental in establishing the first settlement in Donley county. With him was associated E. E. Carhart, a nephew, who has resided at Panhandle for a long number of years.

Hedley Bans Carnivals From Her City Limits

Acceding to the wishes of a major portion of the population of the little city, the officials of Hedley have passed an ordinance that will abate the nuisance of tent shows and carnivals.

The new ordinance is said to make it unlawful for a tent show or carnival to operate within 300 feet of any business house, residence, school or church building within the city limits. It also forbids street parades without the permission of the mayor.

Hollis Leathers Spends His Vacation in Donley

Among the few to make top-notch records in the department of journalism in the State University is Hollis Leathers, whose parents reside near Lelia Lake. Hollis spent his vacation period with his parents and friends in Donley county, returning to Austin this week.

Not only does he make good grades, but he fills a position of authority in the department of the Liquor Control Board at Austin, working half days through the school period. Luck to you, Hollis.

Parker Family Have Reunion Near Ashtola Saturday

Saturday was a happy occasion for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Jim F. Parker, who have resided on their beautifully improved farm a few miles northwest of Ashtola for a long number of years.

In the family reunion, all of the children were at home including the "in-laws." Mr. and Mrs. John Parker came from Yuma, Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benson and daughter came from Atwater, California.

As a fitting climax, the family came to Clarendon and had a group picture taken late in the afternoon.

Food Store's New Location Being Made Ready

Workmen have been making a number of changes in the building recently purchased by the Clarendon Food store at the corner of Second and Sully street west of the City Hall.

A new front is one feature that is being changed. The interior will be made over and a cream and produce department arranged in the rear. The firm expects to get moved into the new location within the next two weeks.

Hearing Granted Old Age Pension

Appeals in This District Will be Heard Sept. 15 In Amarillo

Those not satisfied with the amount of their old age assistance payments, or have other grievances, may be heard at 9 a. m. in the Oliver-Eagle building in Amarillo, September 15th, according to information received by the Leader from Judge A. W. Cunningham, chairman of the Old Age Assistance Commission in Austin.

Procedure as explained by Judge A. W. Cunningham, chairman of the Commission is as follows:

"When the applicant writes us that he is dissatisfied with the decision of the investigator, we order an immediate re-investigation to be conducted by a different investigator.

"However, if the old person still feels that he should receive assistance when same has been denied or that he is entitled to a larger allowance than granted after re-investigation, we set the case for hearing and mail the applicant a notice telling the time and place when and where the members of the Commission will hear his appeal.

Written Notices

"No case can be heard on appeal until the foregoing details have been gone through," Judge Cunningham added.

The law provides that a written notice of hearing of an appeal shall be sent the applicant ten days before such hearing and that the notice shall show the time and place of the hearing.
