Democrats In Most Sweeping Victory Since Election of James Munroe In 1820

Donley county turned out fairly well Tuesday to poll a total of 1,442 for President Roosevelt. The republicans tallied 132 for Gov. Landon.

The Union Labor party garnered in 19 votes in the county, the Prohibition party one vote and the Socialist candidate was honored with one vote.

Over the nation, the democrats swept the field almost clean in capturing the electoral votes of 46 of the 48 states. Maine and Vermont "just couldn't take it."

Up until 10 a. m. today, the total popular vote stood at 21,978,456 for Roosevelt, and 13,654,123 for Landon according to radio report.

All amendments in Texas carried by a big majority except the first on the list, the liquor amendment. The state won't get into the liquor game by the votes of the people.

Roosevelt led in Landon's home county.

Texas gave Roosevelt 420,484 and Landon 57,212.

Amendment votes:
Liquor Control, for 135,772, against 174,672.

Teacher's Retirement Pensions, for 168,051, against 150,910.

Workman's Compensation for State Employees, for 187,853, against 122,387.

Revision of Pardoning System, for 225,268, against 88,767.

Salary Increase State Officers, for 172,960, against 141,053.

Limitation of Representatives in County, for 187,766, against 115,255.

Norris of Nebraska, and Borah of Idaho, both independent republicans, held their senatorial seats in the democratic landslide. Norris had the Roosevelt endorsement.

The next congress will have 316 democrats and 87 republicans. The senate lost 10 democrats and gained 22. It will be a democratic senate.

TRAXLER TAKEN TO STATE PRISON

Is Under Indictment Here For Highjacking On Highway 66

Given 99 years on a confessed robbery charge at Lipscomb, Texas recently, Pete Traxler was taken to the state prison at Huntsville Friday to begin his sentence. Traxler was one of four to rob Christian Babitzke near Lipscomb in January about the time that the series of highjackings were taking place on Highway 66 between Groom and Jericho.

"Traxler will not be brought here to answer to an indictment of highway robbery at this time," district attorney John Deaver stated, "because it would be an added expense to the taxpayers of Donley county."

Traxler has been identified as one of two men to rob at least two couples in Donley county, for one of which, Arthur Spencer, a half brother of Traxler, was given twenty-five years here Wednesday of last week.

Traxler was captured at the Canadian bridge May 1st, but was so badly shot up in arms and legs that he could not be transferred to prison after his conviction. He was perched on a cot during his trial which took place after he spent some time in a hospital.

TOO MUCH BOOZE GETS MAN JAILED

Three Indictments Follow Escapade at Hedley Late Monday

Having imbibed too freely late Monday afternoon, Bill Jones of Hedley made a number of calls in the business section of the town, most of which turned out unsatisfactory.

One fellow had his glasses slapped off his face and broken. A minister was cursed and manhandled to some extent. Jones is said to have driven an auto while intoxicated.

After the performance reached an acute stage, constable Jack Peabody took Bill Jones in charge and brought him to Clarendon where he spent Monday night in the county hoosegow.

Taken before Judge W. A. Davis Tuesday morning, Jones was a different man when sober. He wanted to square up for his misdeeds. Later in the day he was billed by the grand jury on three counts.

He made bond of $1,000 on a charge of driving while drunk. His bond in the two misdemeanor cases in which he was charged with being drunk in a public place, and simple assault on the minister, was set at $200. He made bond on each of the charges and was liberated.

Bronchos To Play Memphis Cyclones

Old rivals for many years, the Clarendon Bronchos and the Memphis Cyclones will meet again Friday night at Memphis. Both teams are underdogs in the conference but are pretty well matched by their previous showings.

The Broncs are in fine shape for the game and will have that old fighting spirit that they have attained in the last three games.

They have been working on new plays, blocking and tackling all week and it is believed that they will have more to show the Cyclones than the Lakeview Eagles in last weeks game.

If you want to see a game filled with sparks of rivalry and spirit to win, just make the trip with the Bronchos to Memphis Friday night and you will get to see what you have been wanting to see. The game will start promptly at 7:30 at the Cyclone stadium.

BAKED BEANS OR BEER?

Isn't this a queer law? One can sell beer on Sunday in Boston but he cannot sell baked beans; one is on the order of a necessity a food, and the other on the order of a luxury.—Cordele Dispatch.

CROSSING THE BAR.

The piteous fact that crime can be turned into a paying proposition when protected by shoddy lawyers is one of the main reasons J. Edgar Hoover and his G-men still have plenty of work to do.

Unethical members of the bar have double-crossed the law officers on numerous occasions in cases of national importance. The time has now come for the law to cross the bad boys of the bar.—Athens Times.

ANCIENT OR MODERN—SAME OLD STUFF.

Archaeologists of today digging about the ruins of Athens bring to light clay ballots used in sundry elections by the Athenians more than two thousand years ago. Yet these ballots bear mute evidence of the political struggles of that age, a fact that might be considered by those who get all "het up" over present day elections.

For instance, several of these old clay ballots reveal the bitterness in the balloting on the banishment of one Aristides, a scholar known only today to those of higher education. The world wagged right on as though he had not been a victim of the wrath of the populace. Many other momentous questions were settled by the Greeks with these slabs of clay. Despite the fights that occurred on election day, and the bitter controversies that endured from one election day to the next, we of today are not in the least interested. So will it be in our affairs after two thousand centuries have elapsed.

After all, what's the use of getting all riled up about an election!

THE WAR LORD'S PRAYER.

At this time when all Europe is held in a tense grip in fear of another world war, one is reminded of an article written by Mark Twain many years ago.

Mark Twain was a delightful humorist, but he so hated war that there is no humor in this one of the few bitter articles that he gave to the world for sober thought. Here is the article:

"O, Lord our God, help us to tear their soldiers to bloody shreds with out shells; help us to cover their smiling fields with the pale forms of their patriot dead; help us to drown the thunder of the guns with the wounded, writhing in pain; help us to lay waste their humble homes with a hurricane of fire; help us to wring the hearts of their unoffending widows with unavailing grief; help us to turn them out roofless with their little children to wander unfriended through wastes of their desolated land in rags and hunger and thirst, sport of the sun flames of summer and the icy winds of winter, broken in spirit, worn with travail, imploring Thee for the refuge of the grave and denied it—for our sakes, who adore Thee Lord, blast their hopes, blight their lives, protract their bitter pilgrimage, make heavy their steps, water their way with their tears, stain the white snow with the blood of their wounded feet!"

THE OLDEST PAPER

It is claimed that the Virginia Gazette, Williamsburg, Va., is the oldest newspaper in continuous publication in America, and celebrated its 200 anniversary on August 7, 1936. The first newspaper in the United States was established in 1690 in Boston, and the Virginia Gazette was founded in 1736, more than forty years afterward, by William Parks. It is also claimed this paper has the distinction of having had the first woman editor, the wife of William Rhyne, the editor, having succeeded to this position on the death of her husband in 1775. However, this is not the first woman editor in America. South Carolina has that distinction. The first newspaper in South Carolina, The Weekly Journal, was established in 1730 at Charleston, and in 1781 changed to the South Carolina Gazette, edited by Louis Timothy, and financed by Benjamin Franklin. Timothy died in 1783, and his wife, Elizabeth Timothy, succeeded to the editorship, and held this position for many years, eliciting high commendation from Benjamin Franklin, from whom she later purchased the paper, and with her sons continued to operate it in Charleston until 1775. South Carolina can claim the first woman editor in America, and possibly in the world.—The Baptist Courier.

A MAN'S CREED

Let me live, O Mighty Master. Such a life as men should know; Tasting triumph and disaster— Joy—but not too much of woe. Let me run the gamut over. Let me fight and love and laugh. And when I'm beneath the clover, Let this be my epitaph. Here lies one who took his chances In this busy world of men; Battled luck and circumstances; Fought and fell and fought again Won sometimes but no crowning Lost sometimes but did not wall; Took his beating but kept going; Never let his courage fall. —Kipling.

Goal of Coronado's Explorations Was Located In Panhandle, Says Historian

Austin, Oct. 25.—Evidence pushing the date of the first visit of white men to the shores of Texas back eight years before the coming of Cabeza de Vaca in 1528 has been brought forward by Dr. Carlos E. Castaneda, Latin-American librarian at the University of Texas. There has recently been published by an Austin publishing house the first two volumes of his projected seven-volume history of the Catholic Church in this region. "Our Catholic Heritage in Texas." Instead of being purely an outline of the activities of a religious denomination, these first two volumes present a wealth of well-documented data which throw new light on hitherto uncharted period of Texas history.

In fact, Dr. Castaneda pointed out, the material in these volumes is taken almost entirely from unpublished manuscripts in the archives of Spain, France, Mexico, and in the Library of Congress and the University of Texas Library. No history has ever before been written of the period prior to the establishment of the first white civil settlement in Texas in 1731, at San Antonio de Bexar, he added. In fact, he vouchsafed, there are less than one hundred pages in print concerning this period.

He has submitted in these two volumes at least a half dozen major discoveries concerning the early history of Texas, as well as many minor facts heretofore unknown.

First Attempt in 1520

The first European attempt to settle Texas was made in 1520, at the mouth of the Rio Grande, when Alonso Alvarez de Pineda sailed along the Gulf Coast, making a remarkably accurate map of that region. He designated the territory now known as Texas "Amichel," Dr. Castaneda declared.

The region now known as Texas had a royal governor, under appointment of the king of Spain, as early as 1828, it is Dr. Castaneda's contention. Evidence is presented which Dr. Castaneda believes definitely places Quivira, from which Coronado sought, in the Texas Panhandle, in the northeast corner, and further proves that Coronado never left the boundaries of Texas in his search for the seven cities of the Cibola.

The route of Moscosa, who took charge of De Soto's followers after the latter's death in 1542, from the Mississippi westward has been traced for the first time. This route Dr. Castaneda pointed out, passed through the present site of Dallas and continued westward by way of the present Wichita Falls. He cited that this is the sole claim of the city of Dallas to a place in the history of old Texas.

The first missions in Texas were officially settled, not in East Texas, but in what is now El Paso, Dr. Castaneda said. A mission was established at Ysleta in 1680 and three others in the immediate vicinity before 1682. The Tigua Indians of Ysleta are the oldest settlers in Texas, he added, and some of the descendants of the original inhabitants still reside in that little town.

Other portions of the two volumes throw new light on the early history of the Big Bend section, and in one chapter is presented what is believed to be the best and most detailed account of the actual founding of the city of San Antonio.

Billion-Years-Ago Scenes to Be Viewed In Giant Telescope

New York, Oct. 23.—The plans of the 200-inch telescope, which will make this world's largest "eyepiece" a structure resembling three five-story buildings fitted together like sticks crossed to make a kite, were announced here.

It was announced also that the astronomer who "ride" this telescope will have a flying field on top of Mt. Palomar in California so that they can fly to work.

The plans were described at a meeting of the American Institute by Capt. C. S. McDowell, U. S. N., who has been lent by the navy to be supervising engineer of the erection of the $6,000,000 telescope.

The 200-inch "eye", the huge glass mirror which the telescope will carry, is already at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena being ground. It should be finished in 1940. Captain McDowell said.

But the unique new structure which will form the body of the telescope is expected to be fabricated by next July. It is being built by the Westinghouse Company in South Philadelphia, Penna. This telescope, Captain McDowell said, will see a billion light years out into space, more than twice the distance now plumbed. When an astronomer sees the object of a billion light years away, he is also looking at a scene that occurred a billion years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Adams and daughters Rachel, Margaret and Ruth returned home Sunday from a visit at the Centennial in Fort Worth and Dallas.

Deer Hunting Deaths Mount to 36 Dead

Salt Lake City, Oct. 28.—Western America's deer hunting season approached its peak tonight with 36 hunters known dead and at least four missing.

Only half of the hunters killed were the victims of other men's guns.

Ten accidentally shot themselves. Four were drowned—and four found the going too tough, the excitement too great. They dropped dead.

Mid-season reports indicate the accuracy of the prediction of western game wardens, in an Associated Press survey two weeks ago that judging from figures for recent years at least 50 hunters would be killed and more than 100 injured this fall.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
 By the Apostle

Farmers in Alaska are said to have killed mosquitoes this fall just like they did crows in Oklahoma last spring. With dynamite.

Missus Simpson's lead with the King of England is running the women folks of several nations nutty. Now that she shows a picture of herself as wearing a monocle while attending a select school near Baltimore several years ago, is further proof that she has had the King in mind for some time.

The modern day youth of the west prefers a cigarette lighter to a sixshooter.

Strange that an alleged amnesia victim forgets everything except his language. Amnesia is another thing brought on by getting into a "jam." Having a wife and a half, for instance.

Next to cutting out static, it will be a great day when the listener can reach in and pull out the singer and give him a little bit of what he needs a lot of.

Hastoon Yazzie's half-wit son, Scobie, got into the high school spelling contest at the fair by mistake and carried off first honors.

"Dear Apostle: I am 84 and want to marry. Recently I began going with my childhood sweetheart of 92, but after the third trip, he never came back. Do you think he really loves me?"

Answer: Ask Rip (ley) Van Winkle!

In the cities, the autos run 'em down, and in the smaller towns, the gossipers do it.

Son off at college had written father and mother he had found the ONE and ONLY girl and would marry her immediately after graduation. Beth Williams quotes "Dad's" letter in answer. Papa said:

"Dear Son:
 Your mother and I have indeed been surprised to learn of your decision to get married this summer. We do not know your girl but we will have no objections if you can feel certain she is as fine a woman as your mother. Will she be as faithful and devoted to her husband as your mother is to me? Will she be as loving and tender to her children as is your mother? If these questions can be favorably answered, then you make no mistake.
 Affectionately yours,
 DAD.

P. S. Your mother has just left the room—don't be a damn fool!"

"Why don't you call a physician?" "Not me. I want a horse doctor. They don't ask questions because they HAVE to know."

And don't forget, folks, that the Leader has a special rate of $1 a year within the first zone. Beyond the first zone, it is $1.50. The offer is for a very limited time. Rush in your subscription, or renewal right now. This will be a mighty good time to send the Leader to some one for a Christmas present, too.

The Leader at the special rate is less than 2 cents a week in the first zone of 50 miles. You get 52 issues for only $1. Better hurry!

There was a time not so long ago when English walnuts could be grown only in a semi-tropical climate. New varieties of choice nuts are now produced from large orchards as far north as New York state. An effort is being made to produce grapefruit and other varieties of citrus fruits that will bear above the freezing line. And some day the idea will be a suc-

No more tramping over the country seeking a treasure, thanks to the ingenuity of an oyster canner down on the gulf coast of old Alabama. Treasures of the sea can be had right over the counter at your favorite grocery, preferably one who advertises in the Leader. An oyster, packed in a can with its shell on and containing a cultivated pearl is the latest novelty. Open the can, drain off the liquid, then begin the search for the treasure that the cannery guarantees is worth more than the price you paid for the can. Some are said to be found that are worth many times more than the price paid for the can. What a lucky bridge prize this idea will become!

Of all the darn things! Down in east Texas a young man wanted to see his sweetie, but she was serving a jail sentence for bootlegging. He finally broke into the jail. Now he is serving several months for destroying public property while she has completed her sentence. The thing that gets his goat is to see her and another boy friend drive by the jail and wave to him.

Do you ever stop to think of the "adages" that made up the copy in the old Spencerian copy books that we used in school long, long ago? Many of them were lines taken from the "Psalms of Life," but we did not know it at the time, and cared little about it.

Then there came a time when you actually got "mail" with your own name on the letter or package. It was a great day.

In those days one would not think of making even a short trip without a trunk or suitcase. Now a handbag may carry the necessary "over night" things. Yet we live just the same.

A lock was not considered worth while unless it was large. Some of them weighed a half pound, and had a corresponding weight in the form of a key. Our forefathers had big ideas about everything. Just recall the size of the watches and chains, for instance. Silver watches of what seemed a half pound weight could be used to drive nails and not disturb them. The "key" had to be inserted in the back of the watch after the lid was raised. A watch key was harder to keep up with than a collar button. There was vastly more of the watch keys.

The cow catcher may be on the front end of the train, but the bull is thrown from the back end in a political campaign.

There was a time in this Panhandle country when we could turn the horse loose and he would take us home. But we ain't using horses any more. We just have to depend on our own resources and take the consequences. Perhaps that is the reason we have so many auto wrecks.

What has become of our odd-job man in this town. A fellow who will do ea little hauling, a littl plowing, fixing fence and other odd jobs that in the aggregate would keep him busy? We need just that sort of a fellow often. If he will come around, and prove that he will do a decent job at fair pay, we'll advertise him to the whole county free.

Father was doing scout duty during the time that Generals Crook and Custer and Major Shilvington were fighting Indians in the west about civil war times. When he read about that squabble down at Dallas in which Bill Cody was accused of being a northern spy, he got a real kick out of it. Father says Cody was not a fighter in any sense. He simply killed buffalo for the army meat supply, and later bought cattle and resold them to the government to be fed to the Indians that had been "cooped up" on reservations.

Chevrolet Dealers Meet In Conventions

Hundreds of Salesmen Gather To Learn of Superior New Models

What is said to be the largest schedule of meetings in the annals of American industry,—a convention held simultaneously in 50 cities from coast to coast, with more than 35,000 in attendance—is being held this week by the Chevrolet Motor Co., in preparation for announcement of its new 1937 cars on Nov. 7.

The sessions are being directed from Detroit by W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager, who recently acted as host to 1,000 Chevrolet wholesale field executives, at a four-day convention here and at the General Motors Proving Ground. Mr. Holler himself is officiating at many of the meetings in the field.

Exhaustive surveys of the market, coupled with a knowledge of the product it will offer, and the organization it will put behind that product, have led Chevrolet to project its 1937 sales as 1,200,000 units, Mr. Holler explained. The purpose of the present conventions throughout the field is to lay before the company's 10,000 dealers, 5,000 retail sales managers, and 20,000 retail salesmen the details of the program whereby it expects to achieve that end. Special emphasis, he said, will be laid upon plans for announcing the new models, which make their bow November 7th.

"The nine regional managers and 47 zone managers who saw and drove the new car during the recent sales convention, and who after seeing it enthusiastically accepted the challenge to break all previous records during the coming year, are now relaying to the retail selling organization all the product information and sales plans they received here," said Mr. Holler.

"Although business and industry in general stand to benefit through increased automotive sales, Detroit and Michigan have an even greater stake in the outcome of the present meetings, for the stimulus of increased tonnage for Michigan railroads, and intensified activity for the many hundreds engaged in administrative and office capacities right here."

Even prior to the new car announcement, Mr. Holler said, advance orders from dealers all over the country have reached a volume unprecedented at this period, making it necessary to swing into production as fast as the manufacturing and assembly plants, recently re-tooled at a cost of $26,000,000, can be placed in operation. The large plants located here are now running at capacity, he said.

Wilson Rites Held At McLean Sunday

Bunk Wilson is Suddenly Killed Friday When Arm Caught in Machine

Funeral services for W. W. (Bunk) Wilson were held at the Methodist church in McLean Sunday at 2:30 with Rev. J. A. Crow speaking the last words.
Mr. Wilson was killed late Friday when his arm was caught beneath a belt of a hay baler in such a manner as to throw him against the gas engine with great force. His head was crushed, death resulting almost instantly.
He was owner of irrigated projects and a leading citizen of that section where he formerly served as a county commissioner. He was well known in Donley and other adjoining counties. A number from this section attended the last rites.
He is survived by his widow and one son, Wilbur Lee Wilson of McLean. Homer and Taylor Wilson of McLean are his brothers.

Miss Pauline Sanford attended the homecoming of West Texas College at Canyon Saturday.

Mrs. Roberts of Panhandle is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Cal Merchant.

Lady Teacher Finds Arkansas Interesting State

Miss Lucile Polk, popular teacher in the Martin school, and her father, C. L. Polk, made a trip to Mena, Arkansas recently. The trip meant a number of interesting surprises to the lady teacher who will make use of that information in her school room.
Relating the resources of that section, Miss Polk stated that "nuts of many kinds abound in the forest." It really is a children's paradise in the fall of the year. Yes, she included persimmons, but failed to note any black haws, but they are there too.
She tells as the most interesting thing, the large hotel on the mountain top at Mena, named after Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, who, as a girl, visited that section many years ago.

TUNG OIL RAPIDLY TAKING ITS PLACE IN THE AGRICULTURAL SETUP IN U. S.

Pensacola—Out of the Gulf coast chemurgic conference comes word that tung oil this year will cast off its swaddling clothes and appear as a lusty infant—a 2,000,000-pound infant—ready to take its place in the new agricultural-industrial alliance.

Speakers at the conference told pioneer tung orchardists their efforts will produce 2,000,000 pounds of domestic tung oil for the year, supplanting importation of that amount from China in the face of an estimated demand of 125,000,000 pounds.

Oil from the black-brown tung nuts, now dropping to the ground from mature trees planted on approximately 35,000 acres in Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas will bring to their owners an estimated $300,000. It is an infant industry, but there are some 65,000 acres of tung trees, planted within the last five years, which have yet to bear a crop of commercial proportions.

The story of the tung tree is similar to that of the soy bean. Grown and used in the Far East, particularly in China, for hundreds of years, it is comparatively new in this country. Early in this century the first tung nuts were brought to the United States and planted. The trees thrived in the Gulf states, but it has been only within recent years that commercial possibilities were given serious consideration.

Although more than 500 soil types have been found in Texas, making possible widely diversified crops, the State sticks to cotton as its chief crop in the face of loss of foreign markets and a steadily decreasing yield per acre and a loss in quality, according to experts advising the Texas Planning Board in its study of land uses in the State.

The Carnival at Sunnyview was a grand success. We cleared $32.63 which will pay all debts. We want to thank the following business, who helped in our carnival.
The Farmers' Exchange, The Clarendon Food Store, Douglas and Goldston Drug Co., Greene Dry Goods Co., Little Mercantile Co., Parker's Variety Store, Thompson Hardware, Norwood Pharmacy, Alderson's Studio, Piggy Wiggy, Scotty's Service.

We also appreciated the music, which was furnished by Mr. Donald Harlan, H. L. Riley, and Lawrence Heckman.
I suppose everyone had too much carnival, as we only had 30 present at Sunday school. That will never do.

Sunday night is singing night at Sunnyview so make arrangements to be present. We are expecting quite a few visitors. If you enjoy good singing, you must come to Sunnyview.

Believe it or not, we have some new lights, which we are very proud.
Sad, sad, but true school will open Monday, November 9, after four weeks of hard work. We hope all students will be able to start Monday.

M. W. Mosley was up from his farm near Hedley Monday stating that while his crops were nothing extra, he would make enough feed to run his stock another year.

WORK

(By Edgar A. Guest.)
Work will not rob you of self-respect.
Work will not ask you to sell your pride.
Work and you'll walk with your head erect,
At no man's bidding to step aside.
Work, and all that your chief will ask
Is that you come fit to your daily task.
Work and your freedom you'll still maintain.
Work will not force you to change your views.
Work, and whatever reward you gain,
Unquestioned, unhampered is yours to use.
Work and the whole world you can face,
For at no man's favor you hold your place.
Work and you'll rest with a conscience clear.
Work and you speak as you think to all.
Work, and you've no one on earth to fear,
No one to flatter for favors small.
Work and you'll live with your head held high
And your soul will be yours till the day you die.

Although Texas is the nation's largest beef cattle producing state with approximately 7,222,369 beef animals on the ranges in the state, Texas ships cattle to the corn belt for fattening and slaughtering and imports much of the beef consumed in the state, data compiled by the Texas Planning Board discloses.

A LITTLE PRAYER

That I may not in blindness grope,
But that I may with vision clear
Know when to speak a word of hope
Or add a little wholesome cheer.
That tempered winds may softly blow
Where little children, thinly clad,
Sit dreaming, when the flame is low,
Of comforts they have never had.
That through the year that lies ahead
No heart shall ache, no cheek be wet,
For any word that I have said
Or profit I have tried to get.

The Oil-Plating was left on last night, all over each part, from bottom bearings to topmost piston. This complete oiling IN ADVANCE that kills starting risk, comes only from the Germ Process—patented.

For in addition to just enough of the most approved modern refining this oil is alloyed! Or speaking still more scientifically, a patented "hyper-oily essence" is added. Nothing else lets oil join up direct with metal, to Oil-Plate your engine, pep your starter, and keep every quart hoarded.

Heading the list is Jack Benny, recently acclaimed by America in its own poll of radio favorites as among the top notchers. Jack is not a newcomer to the movies, having scored several hits in the past. He carries the role of a radio station master in "The Big Broadcast of 1937," similar to the one he played in another radio film last year.

A close second to Benny in the ranks of popularity are the imitable George Burns and Gracie Allen. This pair also are not new to the movies, having appeared in Paramount short subjects about five years ago. This was before they were on the air, having come to Hollywood via the vaudeville route. They also were starred in other big pictures, notably "The Big Broadcast of 1936," by the same producers, last year.

Bob Burns, "Bazooka" virtuoso and spinner of homespun philosophy, comes to the screen for the second time in "The Big Broadcast of 1937," after having scored a hit in a featured role he was given in "Rhythm on the Range" with Bing Crosby. Burns has skyrocketed to fame over the radio waves within the past year. With him is Martha Raye, the vivacious youngster who appeared with him and Crosby in "The Music Hall of the Air." She, too, went to fame in her first motion picture effort "Rhythm on the Range." Before recognition came to Miss Raye she was a night club singer in Chicago.

Benny Goodman, "King of Swing" and his Orchestra are other radio favorites who appear in this picture. Leopold Stokowski, internationally famous concert conductor, makes his screen debut in this picture. He has a large following among classical fans on the air. Benny Fields, the popular singer, also makes his debut in this picture. Another newcomer of note is Frank Forest, famed concert singer. He is an American but has only been heard in this country twice. Stan Kavanagh, the internationally famous comic juggler, who has entertained a whole generation on the Beautiful Shirley Ross, a comparative newcomer to films, plays the feminine lead in "The Big Broadcast of 1937," the all-star comedy spectacle, which comes to the Pastime Theatre, November 11-12th. vaudeville stage and in the circus, also appears before the cameras for the first time in this picture.

Beautiful Shirley Ross, an exquisite dancer and an unusual singer, gets her first stellar assignment in "The Big Broadcast of 1937," supplying the love interest opposite Ray Milland, English actor who is already on his way to stardom. Miss Ross has been in pictures only a short time but has already scored great successes. She is regarded in Hollywood as a certain "comer."

Preachers To Meet Here November 30

Church of Christ Leaders Will Preach on Many Interesting Themes

In speaking of the special meeting of preachers of the Church of Christ that is to be held here from November 30th to December 4th inclusive, W. Wallace Layton, local pastor, stated that a large number had signified their intention to be here.

"This special meeting has been arranged to call together the largest assembly of preachers that heretofore have ever assembled in Clarendon at the Church of Christ," Mr. Layton said.

Many vital and interesting Bible themes will be discussed by capable men.

"Three services are planned each day, and there will be something worth while in your coming else we would not extend this invitation to

Leonard Burford is head of the voice department and the singers who participated in this recital are his students. Two of these students sing over radio station KRBC Abilene regularly, and several others have been heard in programs over the station.

Fifteen students sang in the first recital, and the college quartet and women's sextet for this session made their first appearance.

BIG CROWD SEES DOG SHOW FRIDAY

Dude Gentry is Announcer As Seven Breeds Are Put on Parade

The second annual dog show sponsored by the Sims Parent-Teacher Association got out a large crowd Friday afternoon. The attendance was much better than that of a year ago in September.

Aristocrats of the canine world acquitted themselves nobly, their actions being such as to not mar the pleasure of the most fastidious. This blast applies to the "miscellaneous" as well as to the nobility of the dog exhibit.

The contest over which Mrs. G. E. Norwood presided as chairman, was close on many points causing the judges to ponder thoroughly before awarding a decision to the pet of any particular child.

The winners, names given in the order of classification:

- Spitz—Jimmie Douglas, Charlsie Ann Whitt, Mary Ann Bromley.
- Collies—Margaret Ann Jenkins, Bobbie Jo Jones.
- Terriers—Billie Ralph Andis, Jimmie Reed, Billie Lowe.
- Bull Dogs—June Gibbs, Elise Norwood, George Rieger.
- Cocker Spaniels—Jerry Kerbow, Billy Milton Bromley, Calvin Merchant.
- Scotties—Dewey Tom Heath.
- German Police—Betty Ann Craft.
- Miscellaneous—Tommy Saye, James Morris, Johnny Lorene Johnson.

Dude Gentry, master hog caller of yester-years, was announcer at the dog show, a fact which the dogs appreciated since dogs readily recognize a friend.

The biggest job of all in making the final decisions was an admirable service rendered by R. E. Dreunan, M. P. Gentry, Cap E. Morris and Ed Phelin, every one a friend to the only animal known that is a friend to man under any and all circumstances.

Brothers Cultivate Big Farm At Brice

Modern Machinery Employed In Growing Varied Crops On Nearly Two Sections

Back somewhere nearly forty years ago, Benson brothers, Custis L. and Arthur E., pitched camp in Brice valley some twenty miles south of Clarendon. The brothers "took up" school land, batched in a dugout and made the most of conditions as they found them.

"We had a lot of dry weather and crops would not seem to do any good except in the valleys where the water would run down off the hills," said C. L. Benson recently in speaking of early conditions in the settlement of Brice valley.

Times were hard, he says, forcing them to often work for wages in order to "get by" during the strenuous period.

Today, a thousand and fifty acres of the C. L. Benson farm is being cultivated with modern tractors and other machinery that means the last word in economy.

The second generation of Bensons is in charge. Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Benson, C. L. Jr. and Lloyd, are making a success having profited by past experience of their elder, and by close observation.

These two young men have about five hundred acres in cotton that is expected to make approximately a third of a bale to the acre this year, the elder Mr. Benson stated Saturday.

The remainder of the thousand and fifty acres is planted in a varied assortment of crops, but mostly feed stuff.

The seasons are closely watched as well as conditions. At this time roasting ears are plentiful on the Benson farm. A plentiful supply of products are grown for home consumption, most of which is put up for winter use.

Mother Mrs. Willie Donnell Had Made Her Home Here For Nine Years

In normal health for one of her age until she fell in her room and broke her hip October 10th, Mrs. Powers' health gradually declined from that date until her passing October 29th. She suffered from the agony of pain and prayed frequently that she might pass on to the better world.

She was a native of Jacksonville, Alabama where she was born October 25, 1845, and was therefore 91 years and 4 days old at her death.

Her body was prepared for burial and taken to Pilot Point, Texas to be laid beside her loved ones who had passed on many years before. The funeral was held Friday at 2:30. With the exception of one brother, she was the last member of her family. The surviving brother is W. T. Tatum, aged 96, who resides at Aubrey, Texas near Pilot Point.

All of her children were present. The only son is W. T. Powers of Clovis, N. M. The daughters are Mrs. Minnie Beason, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. W. T. Cook, Farmersville, Texas; Mrs. Willie Donnell, Clarendon.

Mrs. Powers was a devoted christian, having united with the Methodist church in 1858. For the past nine years she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Donnell, in Clarendon.

Is Youngest Choir Director Clarendon Ever Had

Those attending the First Christian church are of the opinion that they have the youngest choir director the town ever had in the person of Wilford Hott, aged 18. Since early childhood, he has shown a remarkable talent for singing. His sister, Frances Hott, aged 16, is talented in music, and assists at the piano often when her brother is leading the singing.

These talented youngsters are children of Mr. and Mrs. Orion Hott of the Chamberlain community.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wright were visitors here Tuesday from the J. A. Ranch.

Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Barcus left Sunday to visit their daughter in Ft. Worth before going to the Conference at Houston.
