DEATH TUESDAY ENDS CAREER OF ONE OF OLD WEST'S PIONEER RANGE RIDERS

Was Associated With Chas. Goodnight Back In 80's In Operating JA Ranch. Merchant of Claude And Civic Leader of Clarendon

Funeral services for J. W. "Uncle Johnnie" Martin, who died from a heart attack at his home here in Clarendon about 8:15 Tuesday evening, will be held here on Friday at 10 a. m. A short service will be held at the family home, with a Masonic funeral at the Claude cemetery.

Mr. Martin is survived by three daughters, Misses Helen and Mildred Martin of Clarendon, Mrs. Fred Wewerka of Elreño, Oklahoma and a grandson, Fred Wewerka Jr. A brother, Jeff Martin resides at Rodeo, N. M. Mrs. John Trainer of San Antonio is the only sister living.

J. W. Martin, known as "Uncle Johnnie" to hundreds of friends in the Panhandle, was born in San Antonio in 1867. He came to the JA ranch in 1887 working there until Goodnight and Adair dissolved partnership.

When Goodnight established the Cross J outfit on Salt Fork, Johnnie Martin became foreman of the large ranch. About the same time, or soon afterwards, he owned and operated a ranch of his own on McClellan creek.

In 1895, the Cross J and TA cattle were sold, and Johnnie Martin became a partner with Goodnight in importing cattle from old Mexico.

It was in 1895 that he married Miss Viola McLaren, a niece of Chas. Goodnight, taking his bride to his Salt Fork ranch northwest of Clarendon.

When the Goodnight-Thayer ranch interests were sold to Bugbee and Knorpp in 1901, Martin and his brother became partners in a mercantile business in Goodnight. Four years later the business was moved to Claude becoming the Claude Mercantile company which Mr. Martin owned until 1916.

Coming to Clarendon in 1916, Mr. Martin formed a partnership with J. T. Patman in operating the Ford Motor company for several years, during which time the large building now occupied by the Clarendon Motor company was erected. G. G. Kemp and associates purchased the Martin and Patman interests in February, 1926.

Owning extensive property interests here and elsewhere, Mr. Martin gave up active business interests to look after his property. During this time he served Clarendon as city commissioner, as mayor, and for many years was a valued member of the school board.

A born optimist, few men have the varied assortment of talents that were possessed by Uncle Johnnie Martin, the small, friendly, positive spoken fellow respected and admired through all the years.

Successful ranch operator, he was equally adept in performing menial tasks on that ranch in the capacity of blacksmith, windmill, fence builder or anything that had to be done, and done right. He fitted into the business world of mercantile pursuits with equal facility. There he performed every detail involving method and extreme accuracy.

"Uncle Johnny" was the tried and trusted friend of many. He met every situation calmly just as he met death. Shortly before he expired, he shaved himself, ate supper and calmly laid down to rest.

Few men in passing through the reconstruction period of the old west will ever leave a more indelible impression on his people and country than that beloved character, "Uncle Johnnie" Martin.

Poultry Producers To Meet Saturday

Plans Will Be Completed For Poultry Show In December

All poultry breeders of Donley County are invited to a meeting next Saturday at 3:30 P. M. at the Clarendon Hatchery, according to an announcement by J. M. Hill, chamber of commerce secretary. At this meeting a county poultry association will be formed and definite plans made for the coming poultry show at Clarendon.

The dates for the poultry show have been moved up one week earlier to December 3, 4, and 5, in order to avoid a conflict in dates with the Hereford poultry show. All exhibitors should begin now to select their best birds and get them in shape for the show.

The chamber of commerce has recently purchased ten new double exhibition coops, to help take care of the expected increase in birds entered in the show this year.

The Vocational Agriculture poultry judging contest will be held on Saturday, December 5, at 10:00 a. m. Teams from about fifteen schools are expected to compete for a chamber of commerce trophy.

Large Crowd Enjoys "Sky High" Comedy

Little Tot Contestants Are Center of Attraction In Stage Review

The first presentation of "Sky High", an American Legion presentation at the college auditorium last night, went over with a bang. The crowd filled the auditorium. A larger crowd is expected out tonight now that the public is convinced of the merits of the play and the ability of the actors.

This play being sponsored by the local Post of the Legion, is being directed by Miss Peggy Jean Mitchell, a skilled woman of years of experience.

The baby popularity contest received an added impetus last night as the "flower of fairland" paraded across the stage. The audience was very responsive in applauding favorites while dotting mothers breathlessly awaited behind the scene.

Chorus girls, beauty, glamour, thrills, comedy all included in a play that is being ably presented by home talent, more than one hundred individuals, being included in the cast.

Tonight is the last opportunity to see the play.

Mrs. Teer is active in church work and her place will not be filled soon. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Teer regret the going of this popular young couple, and their best wishes go with them to their new home.

Merchant Feeds Finger Into Sausage Grinder

He might as well be playing football, or one of the many other sports in which the player is subjected to physical damage, thinks Ed I. Fox, grocer and meat market proprietor, with the end of a finger missing.

Today he is carrying around the second finger on his left hand taped up until it resembles a sour dough biscuit, in which Mr. Fox qualified as an expert manufacturer way back in cupwuncher days. It all came about by his finger coming in contact with the blades of a sausage grinder. Hard luck, old boy, hard luck.

Bronchos Will Meet McLean Tigers In Last Battle of the Season

The Clarendon Bronchos will meet the McLean Tigers in their last game of the season at McLean Friday night at 7:30.

After last week's defeat by the Memphis Cyclones the Bronchos will try a comeback to win from the Tigers. Both teams have about the same standing in the conference and a good tussle is expected by both teams.

All the Bronchos except one seem to be in good shape. Cook who was injured two weeks ago will not get to play. The Bronchos have put in a hard week of training on blocking and tackling and on new plays.

In the past three years a rivalry has been built up between these two teams, similar to the rivalry between Clarendon and Memphis, so from every standpoint this game should be good. Remember this is the last game for the Bronchos so come out and give them your support.

Students Put Over Stunt That Nets $21.50

When students riding in the Ashtola school bus sensed the coming of cold weather, their minds naturally turned to heating equipment. They asked little help from the outside, and got busy with a "play" which was presented at the Ashtola school Friday night under the direction of Lu McClellan Jr.

PALMER TO SHOW FORDS SATURDAY

1937 Streamlined Models Will Be On Display Saturday

The Ford Motor company announces the first 1937 model Fords will be on display at the Palmer Motor company here Saturday.

Presenting definite advances in modern streamlined design, the new Ford V-8 for 1937 can be powered either with the 85 horsepower V-8 engine now in use in more than 3,000,000 motor cars, or with a brand new 60 horsepower V-8 "economy" engine, a smaller counterpart of the larger motor.

Besides the new appearance and the two engine sizes, two other important features mark the new 1937 cars. One is a new all-steel body, with new one-piece steel top, as well as steel structure, panels and floor. The other is a new braking system, designed by Ford to give "soft" easy-action control. The brakes are actuated through a cable-and-conduit system, and have controlled self-energizing action, providing the safety of steel throughout the entire mechanism.

For the first time, bodies are all steel, including a new steel top, as well as structure, panels and floor. Windshields are V-shaped, are hinged at the top and can be opened. Windshield and all windows are of safety glass as standard equipment. Improvements in body arrangements include a large new luggage compartment.

Mr. Doss Palmer, owner of the Palmer Motor company, returned from Oklahoma City the first of the week very enthusiastic over the new models that he is to put on display here Saturday. Read his page advertisement in this issue.

GHOSTS OF OUR CIVILIZATION.

From the President down the American people are admonished to aid in the war against human misery in which the community welfare agencies are the shock troops.

But why so much poverty in the most resourceful nation on the globe? Why so many idle workmen in "the most highly civilized nation on the globe?"

Human misery in the form of deserted wives and children, helpless aged, cripples, and even the strong who are unable to secure employment haunt us as they are washed upon the shores of a boasted civilization. They are the ghosts of a hysterical age of money grabbing.

While it is true that we may expect a small number of needy in any community, there is no sane reason for hundreds, and in the larger cities thousands who must endure this mad orgy in rags while hunger haunts their footsteps.

The community chest is the service of supply to forces of our welfare agencies that must make up for a decrepit civilization. In one instance we read about millions in dividends. Possibly in an adjoining column we read of hundreds going hungry, without fuel or clothing.

Is there no way to reconcile these two dominant factors in our boasted civilization?

On the other hand, it may be noted that those least able to give, contribute most liberally to a community chest fund. Human sympathy is not extinct among the great middle classes, but it appears to be a relic of a past age among the financial leaders of the nation.

What will those in authority do about the matter during the next few years, or perhaps months? That is the big question uppermost within the minds of the big middle class that make up the back bone of the nation.

FEDERAL PENSION PLAN EXPLAINED

Postmaster Forest Taylor To Handle Papers Under Social Security Act

Your local postmaster becomes the "goat" in starting off the federal security pension matter.

Starting on Nov. 16, post offices from Maine to California will deliver to employers the necessary blanks which when filled out will provide the Social Security Board with the information on which the delivery of account numbers to employers and employees will be based.

Under the compulsory old-age benefit section of the Social Security Act as passed by Congress last year employers and employees will be taxed 1 per cent of their pay rolls and earnings beginning January 1, 1937, with the tax rate eventually rising to 3 per cent in 1949.

The only workers not required to file the application are those whose work falls in one of the following excepted classifications or groups:

- 1—Self-employment;
- 2—Employees of the railroad industry who are subject to the Carrier's Taxing Act, approved Aug. 29, 1935;
- 3—Agricultural labor;
- 4—Domestic service in a private home;
- 5—Casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business;
- 6—Service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel documented under the laws of the United States or any foreign country;
- 7—Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States.
- 8—Service performed in the employ of a State, a political subdivision thereof, or an instrumentality of one or more States or political subdivisions.

A fund designated as the "Old Age Reserve Fund" has been created in the United States Treasury. Into this fund will go the taxes collected from employers and their workers. The law provides that 3 fund by the Government. In effect, this means that for every dollar in the fund the Government will add three cents every year. per cent interest be added to this

The American Spirit Endures
 By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
 National Chairman
 Sentinels of the Republic

During the past few months, newspapers report, there has been a great and revived interest in the national shrines of America.

Visitors have crowded them as seldom before, eager to learn more of their history and significance.

What does it all indicate?

The answer probably lies in the distinctive nature of America's patriotic monuments.

In the Old World, national shrines are usually the honored graves of military glory. Probably the most famous of them commemorate the conquests of strong captains, and the power of stern kings.

In America the greatest national shrines are, in contrast, birthplaces of liberty—whether Independence Hall, Bunker Hill or the Alamo. They glorify the freedom and the power of the common man—the ideal established by our Founders, and preserved by generations of valiant citizens.

For a brief while, it would seem, many Americans forgot the message of those shrines, as they listened to a loud chorus of despair lifted in what was represented as the swansong of the American idea.

For a brief while they ignored those tributes to the courage and faith of our fathers, as they were asked to share the fears of social and economic and political astrologers, suddenly lifted to prominence or power.

But the American spirit endures. It endures not only in our shrines to courage and to freedom, but in our people as well. And against that strong shield all the quivering fears and desperate counsels of academic and political soothsayers beat in vain.

The American patriotic monument is not a wall against which we weep for glories that have fled. It is, instead, a sturdy storehouse of national recollections, where our people renew their faith in the future of the nation.

With such inspiration, America is prepared to reject the prophets of despair who insist that the American ideals of courage and strength and self-reliance are things of the past. It is prepared, instead, to repeat with the poet:

"The Glory of the Present is to make the Future free.
 We love our land for what she is and what she is to be."

RED CROSS AID TO MORE THAN 500,000 DISASTER VICTIMS

Large Urban Areas Devastated As Elements Hit 20 States East of Mississippi

"The number of disaster victims assisted by the Red Cross during the fiscal year ended June 30 was more than four times the number aided in the previous twelve month period," Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman, said in commenting on highlights of the annual report just issued. "Over 13,000 families were given food, clothing, shelter and medical care, and thousands of homes were rebuilt or repaired by the Red Cross to enable them to carry on."

Pointing to the many-sided problems created by the wide variety of types of disasters which occurred during the year, Admiral Grayson said, "The Red Cross sent hundreds of trained workers into 39 states to meet the many exigencies of catastrophes which included earthquake, epidemic, explosion, fire, hurricane, ice lock, landslide, refugee relief, shipwreck, tornado and typhoon. The Red Cross took charge at the scenes of 105 domestic disasters of major severity."

The report emphasized the marked value of Government-Red Cross cooperation when disaster strikes giving as example the flight of Army bombing planes which dropped Red Cross food to marooned refugees at Renovo, Pennsylvania, during the Spring floods. More than 10,000 persons were rescued from the second floors of homes in Wilkes-Barre and Kingston through Coast Guard-Red Cross cooperation at the height of these same floods.

"Government agencies and relief groups were of invaluable assistance to Red Cross relief forces at all times," Admiral Grayson stated.

The complete resources of Red Cross leadership, training and disaster experience were brought into play by the Spring floods and tornadoes which took so heavy a toll of life and property in eastern and southern states this year, the annual report reveals. The Red Cross aided 77,000 families in 14 flooded states east of the Mississippi and 6,000 families in 6 tornado hit states south of the Mason-Dixon line in this one operation.

"Never before have as many metropolitan centers borne the brunt of attack by wind and water within a single year, challenging Red Cross preparedness and efficiency by so wide a variety of pressing human problems," Chairman Grayson said.

In its work of relief to disaster sufferers the Red Cross expended in excess of $5,200,000 for the year. The report points out that this figure does not include assistance given in 27 lesser disasters with a total of 2,000 persons aided, and adds that additional millions will be used to "clean up" Spring floods and tornadoes.

"Numerous local disaster situations occurring during the year were met by Red Cross chapter funds and manpower," Admiral Grayson said. "In each major relief operation undertaken the great army of Red Cross volunteers aided trained workers with the task of rehabilitating those without resources who had suffered losses."

"The Red Cross disaster relief service is one of many Red Cross activities supported by the American people through membership at the time of Roll Call, held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving."

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

"Sally" luncheons have become quite the thing in elite society. Since "Rand" is omitted, it may be inferred that the guests tolerate clothing.

A fellow publisher in the north writes asking about the citrus fruit crop. He envies me the pleasure of knocking the fruit off the trees with a cane pole while fishing. That brother needs enlightenment! He doesn't know that old Donley is 800 miles or so from the sub-tropical citrus belt, though both points are in Texas.

A unique but with it all eccentric preacher out west conducted a service, a funeral service for a dead church member. It was a nameless funeral. The crowd assembled. The casket was placed before the chancel rail. A few flowers lent fragrance to the occasion. After a very powerful appeal for backsliding Israel to return to the fear and favor of God, the undertaker, whose services had been secured, came forward and opened the casket.

The minister rose to his feet and directed the congregation to pass by the casket and view the remains. As they passed and paused for a moment all were effected. Some cried aloud. Some fainted. A few closed their eyes and screamed, then ran out of the church. Such conduct had never been witnessed before, dear reader, and would you like to hear the concluding chapter in this story? Well, the pastor and the undertaker had placed a mirror in the casket so that each church member as he looked into the casket, saw none other than himself in the mirror. It's difficult to say what the western preacher expected from his sensational funeral. Probably he was going on the assumption a sinner can be scared into heaven--or out of hell, as you will.

This writer is on the "lift" this week suffering from flu and remedies. You may expect most any old thing should you read to the end of the column.

Mrs. W. D. Van Eaton, who is visiting her daughter at 3107 Stonewall Avenue, Richmond, Virginia, is not enjoying the good health that her friends would like for her to. Her address is given here that her many, many friends at home may write her a card or letter. No one will appreciate this remembrance more than she, and here's wishing for this good woman an early recovery.

And in comes our good friend V. V. Johnston who hands in two subscriptions. A lot of folks are taking advantage of that special rate right now. The Leader a full year for only one dollar in Donley County, or $1.50 outside the county.

And one fellow said that he had been told that Roosevelt would bring back everything. He voted for Landon because he was afraid his wife would be brought back. No, he didn't have amnesia, either.

Rural teachers in England are required to know how to draw up a will, select wall paper and play a church organ. She must also cut the hair for old people of her district. There may be some connection between cutting hair and a will. Well, Texas rural teachers have a lot of liberty as measured by English standards.

Borrowing money may have meant borrowing trouble at some time, but you can't borrow anything but trouble now.

A story was recently printed to the effect that a child of three in attempting to connect something with a milk bottle cap, fell three stories and had no use for a milk bottle. How much more fortunate are they who have access to a cow way out in the country.

Jackson, Ohio citizens last election day voted $14,000 in bonds to be used in paying off a judgment five years old. The money was due a tot of seven who had fallen into a pit and burned her feet so that she could not walk. In a damage suit, she was awarded judgement, but could not collect until the bonds were voted to raise the money. Fine, fine spirit in Jackson.

The last election was necessary to prove which straw vote was right.

An education that makes a man slave to social functions, a two-pant suit and a motor car, hasn't done much for that boy.

A library is said to do more toward keeping kids off the street than any other one thing outside of school hours. Good books are wonderful. Help your library to help the parents in the mad struggle for amusement.

A professional gossip is like a pill--they work while you sleep.

Time for turnip greens and buttermilk, the two best remedies for the flu. Be seeing you next week, at the same time and place.

CARPENTER BEGINS NEW INVESTIGATION TEXAS PENSIONERS

Austin, Nov. 9.—Orville S. Carpenter, acting state director of old-age assistance, announced today that re-investigation of each recipient whose eligibility under the new law was doubtful already had begun.

The new law, approved at the recent session of the legislature, made need the only basis of eligibility, removing property and cash ownership and income qualifications.

"At present we are busy segregating cases in which recipients show no cash in the bank, no property owned and no other income except that from the commission," Carpenter said.

"These cases will not be re-investigated until later because the old people would evidently be in need if they were off the rolls."

Of the cases being re-investigated it must be determined if the old person in question is in necessitous circumstances, Carpenter declared.

The new pension law has no eligibility, loopholes, he pointed out. November's $7,000 pension checks will be mailed about Nov. 20, when the new assistance statute probably will have been approved by the federal social security board.

The new statute may hold eligibles to an estimated $0,000 maximum, with a $640,000 monthly expense to the state.

Mrs. Allene Skinner is visiting her mother Mrs. George at Tyler, after a visit at the Centennial at Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Seewald and son Jimmy of Amarillo spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Karl Adams.

SUCCESS

(Elizabeth Gordon.)
If success you would win, you must think it,
You must keep it in sight all the way;
You must dream it, and eat it, and drink it,
You must live with the thought every day.
The thing you had hoped for—no less,
If the demon of Greed hasn't caught you
Why take it from me—that's success.

If you trust God with all His tomorrows
Knowing well He'll send sunshine and rain;
If your heart's still in tune with the sorrows
Of those who have striven in vain;
If, after the fullness of living,
You are eager to help and to bless,
If you're modest and kind and forgiving,
Why, take it from me—that's success.

The Complete Car - Completely New

Performance, Beauty and Safety Mark Chevrolet's Completely New Cars

Chevrolet's 1937 engine is completely new, but adheres closely to time-proved Chevrolet engineering principles. It is of six-cylinder valve-in-head type, smoother, more powerful, more economical, and lighter.

A representative model from Chevrolet's new line, typifying its beauty and grace—the Master De Luxe Sport Sedan with trunk. Note the distinctive "speed line" extending back from the side of the hood.

Unisteel construction joins the floor, cowl assembly, panels, and Turret Top of Chevrolet's all-silent, all-steel body, to form one integral structure, welded in all joints, and reinforced and braced for permanent silence and safety.

Beauty and utility mark the new Chevrolet instrument panel. The windshield is of greater area, with narrow corner posts, affording better vision.

Luggage capacity in Chevrolet's new trunk models has been greatly increased, as has interior luggage space in other models.

New power, economy, durability, safety and comfort, coupled with striking new beauty, characterize Chevrolet's new models for 1937. They are offered in two series, Master and Master De Luxe, virtually identical in appearance.

Chevrolet's fully-enclosed Knee-Action is furnished at no extra cost on the Master De Luxe models; and new Syncro-Mesh transmission, and safety plate glass all around at no extra cost, feature all models of both series.

FORECAST PREDICTS MANY PROBLEMS FACING NEXT SESSION OF CONGRESS

The United States News, published in Washington, this week outlines the problems facing the next session of our national lawmakers. The statements are based on information presumed to be reliable.

Count on the President in his new term to insist on:

Building of WPA into established government machinery as a shock absorber for unemployment.

Addition of new federal aids to farmers with half a billion dollars a year accepted as the regular bounty.

Some plan to establish minimum wages and to limit maximum hours in private industry, whether through a new NRA or through some other method.

Definite protections of old people from want, whether through the machinery about to get under way or through other machinery.

Use of federal taxing power to level the national income more than it has been leveled.

Federal protection of labor in its right to bargain collectively with its employers.

Look for agitation in next Congress to eliminate the capital gains and loss provisions of income tax law. Law taxing undistributed corporation earnings will stay on statute books.

Look for moves to curtail activities of government lending agencies. Already private bankers are preparing to make such requests. Congress, however, will probably adhere to advice of Administration that lending agencies be retained to cope with any unexpected demands for loans in the future.

Look for a major assault on Congress on the whole relief program. Approach is likely to center on provision of better educational program for youth to reduce the number of youths seeking industrial re-employment and an effort to in-

Donley Schools To Study Fossil Bones

Exhibit Loans Are Possible From Museum Collection Of Canyon

Canyon, October 30.—The fossil fields of Donley and Randall Counties will be the first to be excavated for a new Paleontological project which will cover the entire Panhandle of Texas. This is a WPA project sponsored by the West Texas State Teachers College with Professor C. Stuart Johnston of the department of Archaeology and Paleontology of the college in charge.

The valuable materials which are collected through this project will become the property of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum and three students who are attending college through NYA aid will help prepare them for exhibition. These students are Wayne Christian of Memphis, Malcolm Bull of Canyon, and Carl Goettsche of Higgins.

Mr. Johnston states that it is a part of his plan to exchange duplicate materials with other museums thus adding to the value of local collection. Small loan exhibits to be placed in schools interested in paleontology are also included in plans of the Museum.

RED CROSS HIGHWAY POSTS AID INJURED

1,000 Function At Key Points To Give Emergency Care To Traffic Hurt

Highway first aid stations, set up by the Red Cross to give emergency care to victims of traffic accidents, are saving lives, according to James L. Fieser, vice-chairman in charge of domestic operations.

"More than 1,000 of our emergency posts are already operating in 47 states and thousands of others will soon be established at key points along America's highways," Mr. Fieser stated.

The Red Cross highway posts are concentrated at danger spots in rural areas where medical aid is not readily available. The importance of this coverage of the open road, the Red Cross holds, is given sharper emphasis by the fact that there has been a 150 per cent increase in rural traffic fatalities during the past twelve years.

The project was initiated last year on a national scale as a practical approach to the highway accident problem. The Red Cross felt that it could best apply its strength by securing those who continue to be injured pending a reduction in the highway accident rate through legislation and safety education.

"Our program brings first aid skill to the scene of accident in an effort to reduce the number of persons killed and maimed in automobile mishaps," Mr. Fieser said. "Our highway first aiders are not medical men in any sense, but it is their job to turn the injured over to the medical profession in the best shape possible."

The Red Cross highway posts are established at gasoline service stations, tourist homes, rural police and fire departments. The personnel of the posts are trained by the Red Cross in first aid, standard first aid equipment is installed at each station, and identifying signs for the benefit of motorists are erected beside the highway at both approaches to the station.

The attendants of these roadside units who qualify as first aiders volunteer their services through the Red Cross and may under no circumstances accept pay for caring for the injured.

To complement the highway first aid stations, the Red Cross has announced formation of mobile units. Several thousand trucks which regularly ply the highway in the course of routine work will be equipped with first aid kits. Drivers and crews will take courses in both standard and advanced first aid, and each truck will be identified as a Red Cross mobile unit. More than a hundred trucks are already operating.

"The highway police of eight states who have finished first aid training will join this army mobilized to cut accident fatalities and prevent complication of minor injuries through mishandling at the scene of accident," Mr. Fieser said.

"We receive reports from our first aid stations daily, telling of essential care given to traffic casualties on the spot and of lives actually saved."

This and many other Red Cross programs of equal value are supported by the people of America during the annual Roll Call for members. This year the Roll Call will be held from November 11 to 26.

Red Cross Potential Life Savers Number Nearly 2,000,000

First aid and life saving certificates issued by the American Red Cross since the start of the service 26 years ago now number 1,888,702. During the past year the Red Cross qualified 222,693 persons in first aid and taught water safety and rescue methods to 80,961.

This army of First Aiders and Life Savers is one of the great safety factors in the nation. They are trained to give immediate first aid at the scene of accident, thus saving many lives and preventing permanent injury. Red Cross training includes skill in treating for shock, splinting fractures, checking arterial bleeding, applying artificial respiration, towing drowning persons to safety, and in the safe handling of boat and canoe.

Last year the Red Cross reached 10,000,000 homes with check lists of accident hazards in a nation-wide program to reduce the incidence of home and farm accidents. This year home accident fatalities were cut by several thousand according to statistics. A similar campaign has been launched this year through Red Cross chapters.

BRONCHOS LOSE TO CYCLONES 18-6

In a thrilling and decisive football game last Friday night the Memphis Cyclones took the Clarendon Bronchos for a cleaning to the tune of 18-6. Before the game last Friday night the Bronchos were doped to win, but the tide turned during the first quarter when the Cyclones pushed over two touchdowns within the first five minutes of play. The Bronchos put their only touchdown over just as the first quarter ended. The Cyclones' winning was attributed to the old rival feeling and fighting spirit between the two teams for many years.

Both teams played bangup football on the offensive and defensive, and the Bronchos were on the defense most of the game. A cold norther blew up just before the game started and slowed up both teams to a certain extent.

Cornell, Grady and Holtzclaw showed up good in the backfield, and Slaven made several good off tackle and end plays. Butler, Rolls and Cole were the outstanding players in the line. Cole, Cornell and Holtzclaw got the most tackles for the Bronchos.

Hall, Pounds and Walker were the outstanding players in the Memphis backfield with Clark and Sanders showing up in the line getting the most of the tackles.

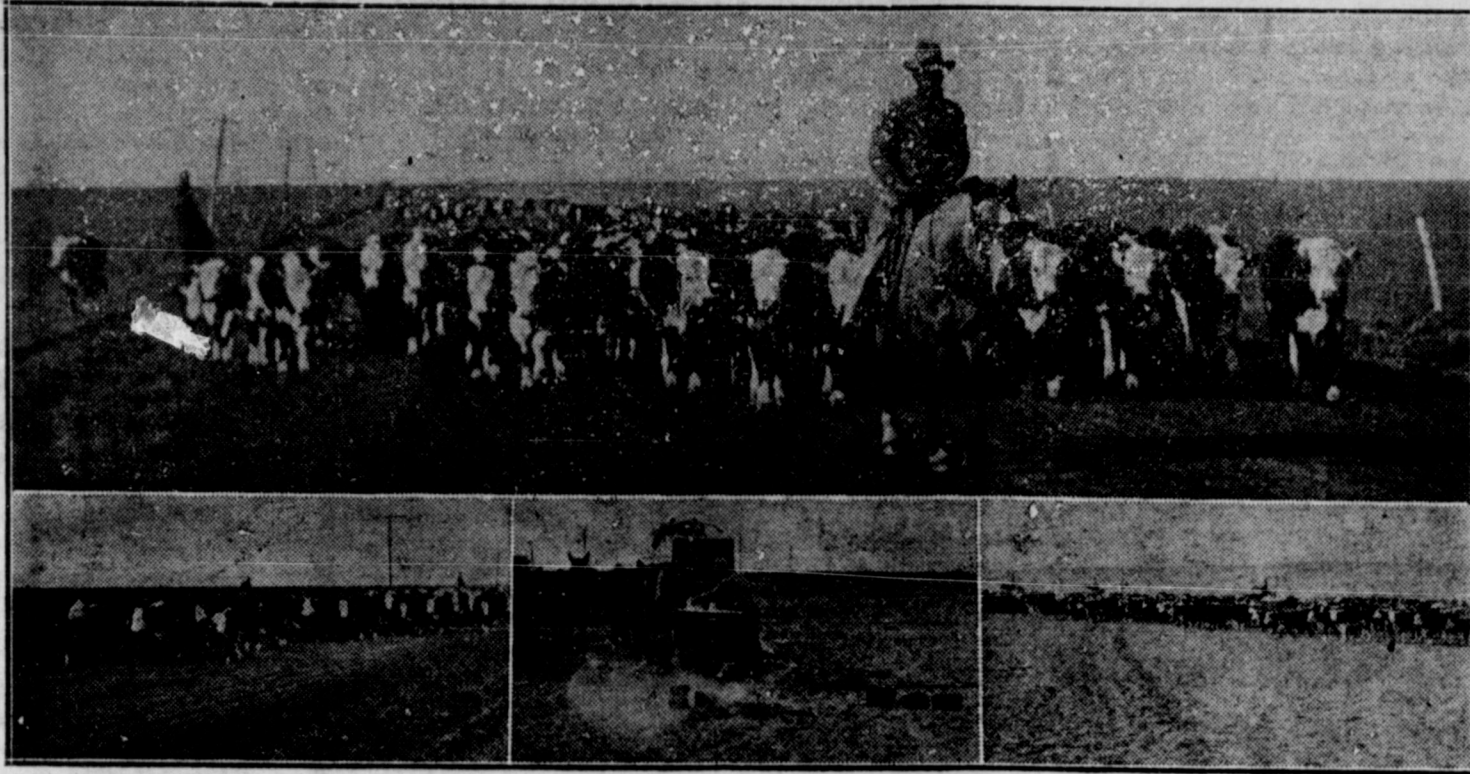

The first score of the game came in the first minute of the game when the Memphis squad took the ball on their own 46 yd. line and marched straight down the field for the touchdown. Their second score was made when the Bronchos had the ball on their own 35 yd. line and the fourth down. Watters pass from center was high and over Cornell's head, but he recovered on the 7 yd. line and the ball went to Memphis on downs. Hall went over again for the second score, but the kick for extra point was no good. Then late in the first quarter Clarendon took the ball and marched down the field to the Memphis 30 yd. line, and Cornell's pass was intercepted by Memphis but was fumbled and Clarendon recovered on 10 yd. line. After several short gains, Cornell went over for the touchdown. Cole's kick for extra point was no good, and the first quarter ended.

The ball rocked back and forth, up and down the field with neither team making much headway during the second and third quarters, but the Cyclones regained their spirit in the first of the fourth and marched down the field to make another tally with Walker lugging the pigskin. The try for point was no good.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Whitlock left Monday to make their home in California.

While in San Antonio this week, Mrs. L. N. Cox was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phifer I. Estlack. The ladies are cousins.

HERDS STILL TRAVERSE PANHANDLE CATTLE COUNTRY

Nations Prosper As They Are Free

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN

National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

"Countries are well cultivated, not as they are fertile, but as they are free."

That axiom, pronounced many years ago, remains true today. Now, as then, it applies not only to the soil, but to every form of productive activity — whether at the farm, the factory, the store, the office or the laboratory.

It was through the freedom of her workers — not political liberty alone, but the freedom of unfettered energy — that America became great.

It was largely because of this freedom that the standard of living for all Americans became the highest in history, while the workers of Europe — hampered by government edicts and restrictions — lagged far behind.

It was this freedom of enterprise that converted our central plains into earth's greatest granary, that released our hidden mineral wealth for world-wide utility; that transformed the experiments of the scientific laboratory into the realities of every-day life and use.

It was this freedom that gave the American workers more and better farms, more and better homes, more and better food, more automobiles, more telephones, more radios, more comforts of all kinds, than any people on earth.

Let's remember these things through the months immediately ahead. Let's remind those in whose hands we have placed the reins of government that it was freedom of opportunity and of labor that made America what it is.

Let's ask them — with our help — to sweep away all the barriers that block the road to recovery, and to let the American people press forward as they did during the period of their greatest development, free from the handicap of bureaucratic edicts, whether past or present or future.

Let's impress on them anew that countries are well cultivated, not as they are fertile, but as they are free.

And that means freedom of our intelligence, our energies, and our spirit, as well as of our persons.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

The annual Roll Call for the Clarendon Chapter of the American Red Cross was begun on Armistice Day, November 11, and will end on Thanksgiving Day.

There is little need for me to remind citizens of our community how vital the Red Cross is in the life of our country. During the past year, both from actual observation and from the accounts of work done which were carried in daily newspapers, we have seen just how important it is that we have an active agency of the American people to administer assistance when the need arises.

The frequency with which this need does arise has been demonstrated during the past twelve months when we recall the floods, the tornadoes, the hurricanes, and the epidemics that have been suffered in various parts of this great country, and the work that the Red Cross has done to relieve distress, and actual suffering as a result of these catastrophes. Other but less spectacular work carried on by the Red Cross has been just as important.

The Red Cross comes to us now with another appeal for membership dues that will finance the work during the year ahead. Our Red Cross asks little from the community, yet contributes much to the general welfare of our people.

For this reason, I sincerely urge those who are asked to participate in this great program by paying the relatively small membership to respond in a spirit of good neighborliness. I hope all will take part in the work by becoming members of the society.

It gives me great pleasure, therefore, as mayor of the City of Clarendon, to hereby set aside the designated period as the time when all past members will be asked to renew their membership and for those who have not enrolled before to add their names to the ranks of Red Cross members in our community.

JOHN T. SIMS, Mayor,
City of Clarendon.

Miss America Learns to Cook

The above picture shows little Miss Barbara Jenkins in "action" at Amarillo the past week. Known as the "Shirley Temple" of the kitchen, Barbara is only 6 years of age.

This culinary prodigy was discovered by Frank R. Jameson, former newspaper man of Canadian and Amarillo. After a bit of training, she became a valued employee of a large utility company of which Mr. Jameson is head man.

Barbara was met at the train when she arrived in Amarillo by the band and hundreds of citizens, half of them school girls under 15, eager to do homage to the genius of the Rockies.

The little mistress acquitted herself admirably giving instructions in cooking more than 100 tested recipes of practical dishes used in the average home. And what's more, she demonstrated every lesson by cooking before the very eyes of the student body.

Mrs. R. L. Bigger had business in Amarillo Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Muri Cayton spent Sunday in Claude.

National Red Cross Aids Flood Victims

The American Red Cross early this week completed rehabilitation work among the 9,000 victims of the Concho valley and Brazos river floods of late September. This announcement was made today by Wm. M. Baxter, Jr., the agency's midwestern area manager, who placed total Red Cross expenditures at $141,915. Of this amount $47,277 was subscribed by Texas citizens, the remainder being appropriated by the National Red Cross.

Driving thousands of families from their homes when it left its banks on September 17, the Concho river seriously flooded parts of five counties. Two-thirds of the damage, however, was confined to San Angelo, where 800 homes were demolished or damaged by the flood. At Lampasas 200 residences were struck. Altogether 1,098 families turned to the Red Cross for assistance in this disaster, Baxter said.

Waco bore the brunt of the Brazos river flood of September 27. Falls county also felt the effects of this overflow, but damage was not heavy. The Red Cross helped 1,057 families, most of who resided in Waco. Since only 170 homes were seriously damaged, the task of rehabilitation was not as heavy as in the Brazos river flood, Baxter pointed out. Here the relief agency cooperated with the State Health Department in an immunization program.

In a statement to the 236 Red Cross chapters in Texas, Gov. James V. Allred last week called upon the citizenship to support the national organization in its November 11 to 26 Roll Call. His office cooperated closely with the Red Cross throughout both disaster operations.

"As you know," said Gov. Allred, "the existence of the Red Cross is dependent upon individual membership, enrolled annually during the organization's Roll Call. The objective this fall for Texas is 154,000 members. Attainment of this goal calls for a substantial increase over last year's enrollment, which totaled 120,426. Not only as governor of our state, but also as an individual citizen, I sincerely hope that no effort will be spared in keeping the Red Cross at full strength by the achievement of our state membership objective."

Mrs. J. L. McMurtry returned Tuesday after a visit with her daughter, Miss Laverne, who is a student in Ward-Belmont college for ladies.

Menhaden, a salt water fish which abounds in the Gulf of Mexico, is exceedingly valuable for its oil yet there is little fishing for menhaden by Texans, according to the Texas Planning Board which discovered that fishing boats are sent into Texas Gulf waters for menhaden from Florida where the oil is extracted and the remnants of the fish made into fertilizer. These two products are then shipped to Texas markets from Florida.

Although there are 56 plants in the United States making poultry feed and agricultural lime from oyster shells only two of the plants are in Texas, a state with a coast line of 624 miles, according to data compiled by the Texas Planning Board.

Texas Centennial To Open Next June

Bigger and Better in 1937 Is Announcement

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 10.—Reopening of the Texas Centennial Exposition for a five month's period in 1937 was assured today. The Exposition, through its president, Fred F. Florence, served formal notice on the City of Dallas it would exercise its option for the use of the Exposition grounds during the coming year.

Tentative plans for the 1937 World's Fair are for its opening June 12 with closing set for October 31.

The decision of the Board of Directors of the Texas Centennial Exposition to reopen next year is the result of a general demand by the business interests of Dallas and Texas that the Exposition should carry on during 1937.

It is the plan of the Exposition management to make many drastic changes at the Exposition grounds. Only in its general layout will the 1937 World's Fair resemble that of 1936. There will be new shows, new concessions, new exhibits and new buildings. A majority of the large exhibitors are anxious to continue through the coming year. They point out that during the year 1937 there will not be any major Exposition in the United States with the exception of the Exposition at Dallas.

"We are going to reopen in 1937 with a better and more extensive World's Fair," said Director General, Harry Olmsted. "It will be an entirely new show, better and more smoothly run by virtue of experience gained through the operation of 1936. Immediately after the close of the Texas Centennial Exposition November 29 full plans for the 1937 World's Fair will be announced."

A preliminary report filed with the Texas Planning Board by the experts who are surveying the wool scouring industry of the nation indicates that wool scouring is feasible in Texas and that it can be made a paying venture.

More than 100 non-metallic minerals have been tentatively located by the Texas Planning Board's mineral resources committee and efforts now are being made to determine the size and value of the larger deposits.

WASHINGTON OF JACKSONIAN ERA COMES TO LIFE

2,000 Photographs Guided "Gorgeous Hussy" Scenic Designers

In a corner of the Metro-Gold at the Culver City studios, is a shelf marked "919" on which stand, by actual count, 218 books. Nearby, a steel file holds more than 1,000 pages of correspondence and 2,000 photographs and photostats. Without these records, which took several months to collect, it would have been impossible to bring to the screen with any degree of authenticity of background "The Gorgeous Hussy."

For this film, based on the novel of the same title by Samuel Hopkins Adams, concerns itself with the period of 1823-39 and such historical personages as Andrew Jackson, John Randolph, Daniel Webster and Henry Clay, and many myths and legends, obscuring reliable fact, have sprung up around both the period and these statesmen. Hence the voluminous library.

The books were indispensable as reference guides in building settings, designing costumes and wigs, moulding candlesticks, and countless other details that attend turning back the clock one hundred years.

And from these works, under the supervision of Nathalie Bucknell, research head, M-G-M engineers were able to reproduce Clay's Decatur House, Lord Baltimore's Dangerfield House, O'Neale's Inn, in Washington, and numerous other houses of the day. Reconstructing Andrew Jackson's Hermitage which still stands in Tennessee, was a comparatively simple problem. Photographs and sketches of the place were brought to the studio and there translated in the necessary background.

Joan Crawford plays Peggy O'Neal in "The Gorgeous Hussy," which opens Sunday and Monday 15th and 16th at the Pastime Theatre. Lionel Barrymore is the film's Andrew Jackson, and the cast includes Robert Taylor, Franchot Tone, Melvyn Douglas, James Stewart, Alison Skipworth and many others. Clarence Brown is the director.

Mr. and Mrs. Doss Palmer were in Oklahoma City Monday.

Mrs. E. P. Shelton and Mrs. E. D. Landreth are visiting relatives in Dallas.

Mrs. J. B. McClelland left Friday to see the Centennial, after which she will visit her daughter in New York.

Mrs. W. M. Baker of Waxahachie Texas who has been visiting her son and family Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker, left Tuesday to visit her daughter at Miami.

SEED CORN LOAN PLAN ANNOUNCED

The Federal seed corn loan program announced by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in September will soon be under way, officials said this week. The necessary forms have been prepared and will be available for distribution within a very short time.

Through the operation of the new loan program and the publicity given to it, AAA officials are of the opinion that seed corn supplies next spring will be adequate in all areas except where no corn was produced this year. In the latter areas, it is probable that farmers will need from 500,000 to 1,000,000 bushels from outside sources. The new loan program assures producers that supplies of corn adaptable for seed will remain on the farm where it is needed and will prevent the skyrocketing of seed prices next spring.

The program consists of two types of loans on farm-stored seed corn. (1) a loan of $1.75 a bushel on field selected corn which meets proper germination and storage requirements, and (2) a loan of 55 cents a bushel on good quality gibbered corn which can be sorted for seed at a later date. Each loan agreement carries with it an option of right of purchase by the Government at a rate considerably above the loan value rate.

Though the 55-cent loan is designed as an emergency drought measure, it will be conducted in much the same manner as the corn loan programs of the past three years which provided low-cost credit to thousands of farmers throughout the Midwest. Though a number of States had warehouse laws and the means for financing commodity loans prior to 1933, it was not until the advent of the Roosevelt administration that farmers were provided with the use of these facilities.

Provides Low-Cost Credit

Farmers long held that they could market their crops more effectively, could iron out to some extent the wide fluctuations in price and could more adequately protect the country against shortage, if adequate low-cost credit were available on their commodities in storage at or near the farm. It was not until 1933, however, that the commodity loan was initiated by the Government when loans were made on warehoused cotton at 10 cents a pound and on farm-stored corn at the rate of 45 cents a bushel. If similar facilities had been provided a few years earlier, thousands of farmers would not have been forced by low prices to burn their corn and wheat as fuel.

Loans to corn farmers on their 1933 crop totalled about $120,500,000. It is estimated that producers taking advantage of this loan on 267,540,000 bushels of corn realized a net gain of nearly $82,000,000 over the value of their corn and the costs of the loan. The amount placed under seal, approximating one-tenth of the average annual corn crop, made it possible for farmers to carry their corn through to the 1934-35 feeding season when it was greatly needed as a result of the unprecedented drought in 1934.

A 55-cent a bushel loan on the 1934 crop totalled $11,041,500. The 213,000 farmers taking advantage of these two loans have repaid them in full.

The Government loans to producers on their 1935 crop amounted to nearly $15,500,000. Practically all of these loans have now been paid. Though they matured on July 1, 1936, liquidation was not pushed after the drought developed, thus enabling farmers to dispose of their supplies in orderly fashion. Some farmers had to release their corn prior to this date because of the need for feed and financial assistance or because their stored corn had been damaged or was threatened by damage as a result of high moisture content.

Farm to Market Road Program Goes Ahead

Greater progress has been made in the construction of farm to market roads since the beginning of the Roosevelt Administration than ever before. In the last three and a half years, under the supervision of the Bureau of Public Roads, of the United States Department of Agriculture, 18,078 miles of secondary or feeder roads have been completed; 4,616 miles are under construction, and projects for the construction of 866 miles have been approved, making a total of 23,560 miles. Congress has authorized the expenditure of $25,000,000 for each of the fiscal years, 1936 and 1937, to carry on the work. Federal expenditures to be matched by the States.

In June of 1933, an appropriation of $400,000,000 was provided by Congress for a highway-construction program, and the Hayden-Carwright Act of 1934 supplied another $200,000,000. One-fourth of both appropriations was apportioned for farm to market roads. Those are in addition to roads built under supervision of the Bureau of Public Roads.

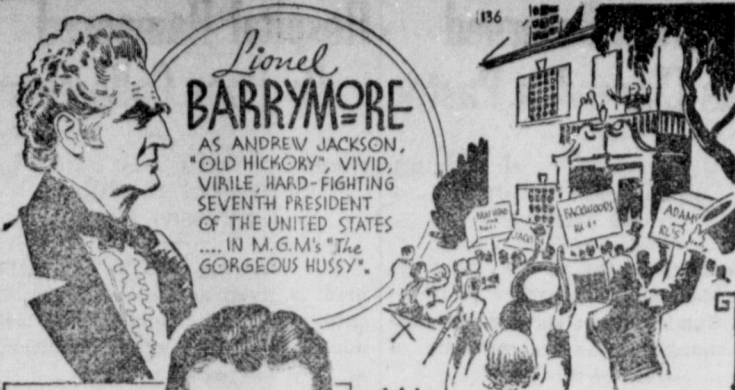

Construction of farm to market roads under these appropriations is under the supervision of the Works Progress Administration. When completed, more than 130,000 miles of all-weather rural roads will have been built. If added to this, roads constructed by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration and the Civil Works Administration the grand total would be nearly 400,000 miles, or about one-sixth of all the dirt roads in the country. The mileage of farm-to-market roads improved by WPA workers if laid in transcontinental highways would stretch nearly 44 times across the widest dimension of the United States, or five times around the world.

In addition to WPA's 12,000 secondary road projects, the Bureau of Public Roads has placed 200,000 emergency workers on a $500,000,000 highway and grade-crossing elimination program, let by contract through State Highway Departments.

More than half the Nation's farms are located on roads not usable in all seasons. In addition to releasing farm families from weather-bondage, all-weather roads actually increase land values, and their construction is an investment which would otherwise have to be financed by local taxes.

FOUR MILLIONS IN HIGHWAY WORK

This Sum to Be Expended On Texas Highways During November

Austin, November 10.—With the threat of highway fund diversion thrust, at least temporarily, into the background, the Texas Highway Department is making plans to place $4,000,000 in federal aid projects under contract in November. Notice that bids would be received followed closely on approval of the federal aid program by the federal bureau of public roads.

Present indications are that another heavy letting will be held in January or December and that the average letting for the next 12 months will be about $2,000,000. Had the diversion plan proposed in the legislature been carried out it is doubtful if the department could have made any substantial contract awards until March, when its revenues will be swelled by payment of motor vehicle registration fees.

In addition to escaping fund diversion at the recent special session, friends of an efficient highway system turned back another effort that would have caused considerable confusion. This was the novel proposal that rights-of-way of state highways be prospected for oil, the revenues to be paid to old age assistance funds. The travelers can readily imagine the difficulties he would encounter in a tour of the East Texas oil field, or any other major producing area, had this scheme been authorized. The motorist would have been forced to dodge guy wires, slush pits, drilling rigs and other impediments that attaches to drilling and producing an oil well.

The plan to authorize this type of oil development was ruled out of order by Speaker Coke Stevenson in the house after it had been added as an amendment in the senate.

Armistice Day—1936

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

For almost twenty years our nation has observed Armistice Day—with its eloquent reminder that the spirit of America is peace.

It is one of the most solemn of our national holidays—born of a period when America had reached a flood-tide of idealism.

Originally this observance expressed a spirit of thanksgiving for the ending of a grim and tragic war fought far beyond our national boundaries. But, with the years, it has developed a further meaning. It has become also a reminder of the need for peace and tranquility within the nation, and for the spirit of patriotic citizenship which we honor at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

At this time, as always, the American people can re-dedicate themselves to that spirit, and to the high concept of citizenship it demands.

At this time they can determine to submerge differences based on conflicting aims and interests, and to think instead in terms of the welfare of the entire country. It is a time to remember that America was not built by one or by many separate groups, but by the people as a whole; a time to recall that public office remains a public trust, and that good citizenship entails responsibilities no less significant.

For America, as has been said, was a great land when Columbus discovered it. It became a great nation when the American people made it one.

Armistice Day, 1936, reminds us again of that solemn and inspiring truth.

DEER KILLER GETS THREE FIRST SHOT

Championship is Claimed By Man of 85 Who Used Shot Gun

Dropping a buck and two does at the first shot with a double-barrel shotgun loaded with buckshot is no little feat. One was dropped with the second shot making four before time to reload, stated C. A. Bryan, aged 85 today, and who will be 86 on the 29th of this month.

He claims the championship, and would like to hear from any one who can beat that record.

It happened down in Shelby county. Leaning against a post oak, he waited for the dog to chase the deer out. As two came near, he fired. He knew he got them with that old splatter gun. A few minutes later he found a buck, running the number up to three killed with the first shot.

That was about 55 years ago, he said with a twinkle in his eye, as he dropped into the Leader office walking without cane, apparently hale and hearty this morning.

Hospital Hampered By Poor Collections

Commissioners Court In Statement to Public Expresses Need

The following explanatory statement is given the Leader for publication that the public may be made acquainted with conditions as they now exist.

"To the Citizens of Donley County: A few times only has the condition of our local hospital been called to the attention of the public through local papers. The Commissioners Court of Donley County believes this matter should be mentioned again.

There was set aside from county funds, as set up in the county budget, the sum of $2400.00 for the hospital during this year 1936. To this date $2675.00 has been advanced to the hospital and a call for $225.00 more is needed in order to pay bills for the month of Oct.

The court does not grow weary with calls from the hospital for financial help but it has no funds on hand upon which to draw. As soon as funds are provided through the channel of tax collections additional money will be advanced but this is, of course, conditional. In other words the court has borrowed funds from Peter to pay Paul until now Peter has run out of funds.

This court feels that there are accounts due the hospital by some citizens of the county who could, although by sacrifice, pay what they owe said institution. There are many who may owe bills who could pay a part of their obligation and there are those who cannot pay any amount at this time.

The court further feels that this is a time when every one should do his or her best to keep the hospital in operation. It feels that everyone should pay what they can at this time. It is much desired that collections be made in a spirit of interest in the institution, but in the event collections cannot be made this way, this court feels that collections should be carried through the same process as is provided by law, in the collection of accounts and notes.

This is an unpleasant statement but rather than see the hospital close we feel that such steps should be taken.

In the hope that this statement will do some good coming from the Commissioners Court, the County Judge is requested to hand this notice to the two local papers in Clarendon for publication.

Signed Commissioners Court."

Commissioners Change Road Joining Peebles Farm

At a meeting of the Commissioners' court Monday, an order for certain highway changes were voted.

A road of the first class is to be opened on the east side of the T. H. Peebles farm approximately 250 yards in length beginning at the southeast corner of the farm, and extending north to intersect with Highway 5.

At the same time it was voted to close that portion of old Highway 5 along the south side of the T. H. Peebles farm, the distance being approximately one mile.
