Judge R. L. Bobbitt Is Principal Speaker In Citizen Conference With Highway Officials Visiting Panhandle

"The Pampa - Borger - Dumas highway improvement is Project No. 1," Robert Lee Bobbitt, Chairman of the state highway commission told over 150 highway enthusiasts at a banquet here Friday night which gave little encouragement to members of the 88-18 Highway organization.

Bobbitt made no tangible promises at the highway hearing following the dinner.

The proposed 88-18 highway would run from Perryton to the Gulf with the major local objective pavement from Pampa to Clarendon to Turkey. Representatives were here from Amarillo, Pampa, Sweetwater, Turkey, Jericho, Memphis and other towns.

Grocer Leaders Lead In Leader

More than two thousand buyers of groceries read the Leader every week. The grocers advertising in the Donley County Leader offer you the best bargains in the main, and prices that will compare with those found in any town or city. In presenting the offers of your home merchants, the Leader management hopes to do you a neighborly favor, ever mindful of the fact that it owes a duty to its great army of readers each week.

In addition to the grocers advertising, you will find many other lines of leading merchants who are enabled to offer you better bargains by reason of their stocks, to test their service and learn their prices.

In bringing the seller and buyer together, the Leader serves a most worthy purpose in the Clarendon trade territory. The merchant who advertises sells more, has a quicker "turn-over" and consequently can offer you the best prices. All advertising is paid for by the merchant who does not advertise.

George M. Chambers, 65, the man who started the first taxi service in Clarendon, was in the Potter County jail yesterday for the alleged knife murder of his son-in-law, Fred L. Ross, 35, who died early Wednesday after an altercation Monday night.

The fight in which Ross was fatally wounded was reported to have taken place in the D. V. Ross Boot Shop in Amarillo. The Ross brothers were formerly bootmakers in Clarendon.

Chambers left Clarendon about 1923 after 10-years of residence. He operated a service car in the city and made trips to near-by towns. At one time he also served as night watchman.

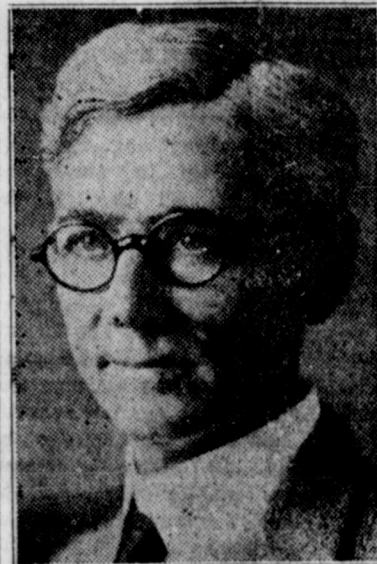

Ross was cut along his left side from about four inches under his left armpit to his abdomen. The knife slipped between his sixth and seventh ribs.

At 5 a. m., after hearing of his son-in-law's death, Chambers went to the county jail. A justice of the peace set bond at $3,500.

Chambers had a cut over his left eye, and bruises about his head. He said he picked up a shoe-knife to defend himself after Ross had twice struck him with a mallet.

Local Coyote Ranch Ends As Spectators Jam Yard

It's nothing for Frank Bourland to come home with coyotes but eleven in his back yard attracted too much attention, yesterday they were sentenced to die.

Bourland, who annually digs small coyotes from their burrows, on his place north west of town, dug seven from one hole and 4 from another this week. Bringing them home he soon found his yard not only full of coyotes but curious spectators.

All the children asked for pets and the owner joyously consented. They were, however, all returned by nightfall.

Overlooking the possibilities of a coyote ranch or perhaps becoming exasperated, Bourland decided the creatures must die—and they did.

In the city the month's moisture measures an even inch. Ten one hundredths fell May 3, with .50 Sunday and .40 Monday.

MEMBER OF PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

HEREFORD PIONEERS CELEBRATE.

Publisher Mrs. Seth Holman and Editor Jimmie Gillentine and their staff are to be congratulated on the issue of a 38-page Pioneer edition of the Hereford Brand last week.

The subject matter contained therein was replete with a pleasant memory of the day long gone and the names and history of sturdy pioneers who blazed the way for the Hereford country of today. They pulled off their big show Monday.

THAT PUBLIC SERVANT COMPLEX.

The attitude of public servants toward their needs when they get into office seems to take on an appearance of delusions of grandeur. They guard their rank and its symbols as jealously as do any royalty of the old world. All of which looks extremely silly to the rank and file in a nation where one man is presumed to be as good as the other.

Nebraska's unicameral or one house legislative family, operates on a yearly salary basis. This appealed to our Texas lawmakers who voted to submit an amendment to the voters changing from a $10 a day job during the session, to a yearly salary basis of $3,000.

So far so good, but our Legislature turned down Nebraska's plan of reducing the membership. One legislator proposed a bill cutting down the number from 181 to 42. The rest of the bunch refused to agree to a reduction evidently having in mind the possibility that the voters would welcome the opportunity to cut down inefficiency and bolster economy.

There is a growing sentiment favoring cutting down the number of lawmakers. Along with this goes the idea that a daily wage should be paid, and a time limit for action set. This will cut out the 'horse play' and induce men of intelligence to get the job done without delay.

Apparently, from all accounts, our citizens are more disgusted with the tactics of the majority in both houses of the Legislature this session than for many, many years. The Governor has been trying to get the job done down there, but he can't do it with the help of only a minority of the legislative membership.

WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

It was away back there in 1896 that Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilbert came to the plains country and to Armstrong county. They moved from Grayson county. They were here Monday visiting their son Clyde and his family. In speaking of the old times, Mr. Gilbert is positive that more snow fell and that the winters were colder than now. He likewise backed up the statement of other old-timers here in that more rain fell, as a rule, in the summer than it has for several years.

to accomplish anything. They are stock-farmers up in Armstrong and have been all through the years.

J. N. 'Nels' Riley was in town Monday talking black locust blossom rain signs again. The locusts nearly ruined his rain forecasting social standing last season, and Nels is a bit shy about prognosticating this season. Anyhow, he tells of his big peach crop coming on and several other varieties of fruit. The Riley home is one of the best farm homes in the county, and they really have something to eat out there, growing most of it at home. They reared a fine bunch of men and women and Mr. and Mrs. Riley are fine citizens.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE FROM THE CHURCH OF CHRIST W. Wallace Layton, Minister

'WATCH'
Christ said to His disciples "and what I say unto you I say unto all, watch." (Mark 13:37) Here is a challenging statement. The Christian is not only called upon to watch for the second coming of Christ, but in anticipation of His return we are to watch the way we live here below. Following are a few of the things Christians should watch.

We should watch our worship. "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and Him only shalt thou serve." (Matt. 4:10) But it is not enough to worship God only, because there is a way in which He should be worshiped. "God is spirit and they that worship Him MUST worship in spirit and in TRUTH." (Jno. 4:24) The truth is God's word, (Jno. 17:17) therefore the worship offered unto God must be according to the revealed word of God, the Bible. Let us therefore watch that we offer up no sacrifice of praise other than that which we plainly read in the enduring word.

Then again we should watch our affections. There is a place where our affections are to be centered. "If ye have been raised together with Christ seek the things that are above. Set your AFFECTIONS on things above and not on the things of earth." (Col. 3:1-3) There are so many things of the world seeking to woo our affections away from God, therefore keep a watch upon them.

The next letter in the word watch is "T". May I suggest here that we watch our Time. Paul said in (Eph. 5:15, 16) "Look (watch) therefore carefully how ye walk not as unwise but as wise redeeming the time." Christians should be alert to every opportunity to swell the borders of the Kingdom, thus redeeming the time.

But again we should watch the Company we keep. One usually knows a man by the company he keeps. Christians with their moral ideals are to guard or watch that moral standard that it becomes not polluted. But the warning is "that evil companionships corrupts good morals" (1 Cor. 15:33) therefore watch it.

And last of all we come to the letter in the word Watch. Under this letter "H" we invite you to watch your heart. The heart is the seat of all endeavors. If the heart is right the life will be right. In fact all things will rightly adjust themselves if only the heart is right. This is true because "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." And again "Out of the heart are the issues of life." So friend let us keep a close watch on our hearts, and with such watchfulness we can therefore look forward with gladness to the coming of our Lord.

THAT LITTLE CHAP O' MINE

"I know that I am just an easy-going sort of cuss, 'Bout like the common run of men, no better, no worse; I can't lay claim to anything so far as looks may go, And when it comes to learning I don't seem to have a show, But there must be something in me more than some can see, 'Cause there is a little chap at my house who thinks heaps o' me. 'I have my ups and downs in life like other folks, I guess, And count it all in all, I can't lay claim to much success, But it helps a fellow and buoys him up to know That someone takes stock in him matters not how things go; And when I get the worst of it, I am proud as I can be To know that little chap still thinks heaps of me. 'I would not disappoint that trust for anything on earth, Nor let that chap know how little I really am worth; It seems so much easier the better road to climb, With that little hand in yours all the time— I reckon that I must be a better man than I used to be. Since I have that little chap who thinks so much of me." —B. L. Wood, Lumpkin, Ga.

Miss Letha Warren spent the week-end with Miss Dorris Mace in Amarillo, attending some of the High School Exercises.

Sunday visitors in the J. A. Warren home were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore and little daughter, Bobby Jean, and Miss Evelyn Warren of Amarillo.

What is the "Low-price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it.

So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low — with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service — for parts — and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the "60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

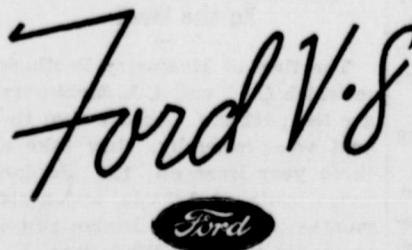

Check and see how much Ford saves you.

There is good in everything is proven by the fact that if our ancient ancestors hadn't neglected bathing, perfume would have not been found for centuries.

Do you know that the words "recipe" and "receipt" mean the same thing? And that back in 1888 in reading a cook book "receipt," it refers to the "yoke" of an egg?

Old timers in riding a bucking horse never could figure out how a thing so full of hay could be so hard.

Some people have such a natural friendly disposition that it takes the place of air conditioning in the summer, and central heating in the winter. Not many, but occasionally one comes along just the same.

Of all jobs the pound man must have the hardest. He is compelled to carry away a dog—the pet of little folks who are left crying—and shoot the dog because no tax has been paid on the dog.

Please don't forget that only during this month can you get the Leader eight months for seventy-five cents. Better attend to it now. If your subscription expires along in the spring, this will move the expiration date up to a full month.

Unusual talent bobs up in the most unexpected manner. Take, for instance, Tibor Molnar, state president of Georgia's Rotary clubs. The man came from Hungary in 1922, learned the English language, passed the bar examination later, and is a successful lawyer.

The world is full of self-starters who jam on the brakes when competition gets in their way.

There is an old saying that "any man who does anything and succeeds, will make enemies." Some men envy a neighbor's success. Women may become jealous, but she can never sink to the level of a man's envy.

Just for a change, wouldn't it be great to some time read of where the bride carried a potted lily in each hand?

Probably the first scandal that came to your ears had to do with some of the "best" people of your town living on the "rent" from buildings in the "red light" district. Of course you recall it now that the subject has been brought up!

Then there was the man who was always 'rustling' washin' jobs for his wife. He merely solicited the work and the wife brought in the clothing, washed 'em and returned them to the owner. Her husband did all the collecting. That was your old-time town scandal No. 2.

Every town has a half-wit. So every town also has one or more husbands subject to criticism. They appear to be town assets—so to speak.

Ima Fizzle thinks that "if Lady Astor and Wally Simpson can get by with it, so can she."

This is the time of the year when we shed 'long handles', look for colored drinks and read about shot gun weddings.

Autos may depreciate a lot the first and second years, but how about husbands or wives when you check up on the divorce list? The 1936 model husband might have been classed as "the most wonderful thing in the world," but in 1937 he ain't worth a thin dime.

Probably the reason that so many women get into the business world is, that they can marry out of it if they don't like it.

Flash! Flash! The city's clean-up drive this week has been seriously handicapped by rain—the first in months. No dry-lander is expected to get his feet wet, much less muddy.

Headline in Amarillo Globe Monday:

"LOST GIRL FOUND SAFE" That will be some relief to the police department if reference is made to the safe that burglars dragged out on the sidewalk one Sunday morning some months ago and allegedly disturbed public worship in a church across the street. The safe was loaded on a truck and had not been heard from since. But where did she find it?

'Thwarter Catches Red-Hand!' News item in an exchange paper:

"The quick action of Sheriff Jason thwarted the action of a car thief on Main street late Saturday when he was caught red-handed, etc." Thwarters and red-hands never did make an agreeable combination anyhow.

The biggest trouble with a soft job is that it is hard to hold, and still harder to get in the first place.

Adios Amigos, until this same time next week.

SHAMROCK IRISH
AND EXES IN TIE

All '37 Squad Show Up Well In Hard Battle

SHAMROCK, May 5.—The football boys of yesterday and tomorrow from Shamrock High School fought to a scoreless tie on Denver field Friday night. The boys who will represent S. H. S. in 1937 had a little the best of the situation, penetrating the enemy 20-yard line on three different occasions, while the exes pushed to a scoring position only once.

Wells and Rook, the two captains from '35 and '36 respectively were the outstanding ground gainers for the Exes.

For the '37 team there were no particular standouts, with all the boys playing for the good of the entire team. Some of the most promising are Ox Blake, who will be one of the slipperest backs in the entire district despite the fact that he is rather light; Jimmie Braxton and Roy Holmes also look good.

MEMBERS OF HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF '37 FUTURES FORETOLD BY PROPHET

By Maxine Oller

It seems almost too much to expect that anybody can prophesy with any reliability at all what anyone graduating in the Senior Class of 1937 is likely to be doing ten, twenty, or thirty years from now. If there is any way to tell what some one of us is going to be doing at some time in the future, that method will necessarily have to take into account the capability, desires, interests, and ambitions of those whose futures are to be foretold.

It is said people do in life whatever opportunity presents in the way of employment and what they want to do has very little to do with it. I do not believe this. I believe that in the United States a person can plan his life and carry it out to a large extent as he desires, the main thing necessary being that he really have a definite desire about what he or she would like to do.

There are many different kinds of opportunities available in this country today. Different people want to do different things in life and any individual has a definite set of requirements which he must meet in order that he may prepare himself for the thing he wants to do. It should be ever kept in mind that a person must know what he wants to do.

Suppose we think of all the professions or trades as roads on which people travel through life. Let us suppose further that all these roads start from the same point and the starting point is high school graduation. Then we could say as we graduate in this Senior Class of 1937 we are confronted with all these roads leading out into different directions. We must decide upon which road we expect to go through life. Naturally we want to be successful at whatever we spend our lives. If these roads are to be Roads to Success, it seems necessary that we start now to make them that, and the word comes to us from many sources that we should decide which way we are going and then put the whole work of life into going that way successfully.

It appears certain any person will make his greatest success in life if he chooses work in which he is deeply interested personally. I have gone to the members of my class and have asked them on which road they would like to go through life. I asked them what kind of work there is that each could name which would be so interesting to him that he would enjoy working at it all through life. If a person follows that kind of work, I prophesy his road through life will be one of the Roads To Success.

Arthur DeHart wants to be a preacher, and I prophesy that he will be a missionary to Africa. Otis Rolls wants to be a baby specialist.

Ruby Tucker would like to be a radio announcer.

Shirley Mae West wants to be a nurse, and I prophesy that she will be the superintendent of some large hospital.

I'm not running a matrimonial agency, but Jeanne McDonald wants to get married.

Bill Peden wants to be a public speaker, and I prophesy that he will be Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Charlie Murphy wants to be a brain specialist.

Margaret Easterling's ambition is to marry a good looking millionaire.

Laura Belle Birchfield wants to be a good housewife.

Imogene Endsley wants to be a woman scientist and help carry on the battle against microbes. Madalyn Taylor wants to be an aviatrix, and I prophesy that she will be president of a great Trans-

Pacific Airway.

Earl Eudy will be a radio engineer, directing the research work of a great American Radio Corporation.

William Sullivan will teach business arithmetic.

Vera Barker wants to teach dancing in the Home for the Feeble Minded.

Warren Hardin wants to find a wife that will support him, or to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Lamar Stewart wants to be a History teacher.

Pauline O'Neal wants to be a lady bouncer and bounce people out of night clubs, and Claudine Pearson will be her assistant.

Geraldine Howard wants to be a school teacher and major in English.

Lola Bryant will be the first woman president.

Willie Poovey will be court reporter of the Supreme Court.

Sloan Baker wants to be a columnist and radio speaker like Walter Winchell, but I prophesy that he will take Ed Wynn's place.

James Bartlett wants to go into the field of Commercial Advertising.

Jane Williams would like to be a stewardess on an airplane.

Joan Thompson will be private secretary to an oil magnate.

Pat Slavin's greatest ambition is to be a first class bootlegger.

Led Jay wants to be a Sea Captain and spend his life commanding the Atlantic Fleet.

Mary Derrick will be Dean of Women of Texas State College for women.

Ruth Cornell will still be living on the farm. In 1950 she will win the prize for raising the biggest onion.

Ralph Grady will win high honors in the olympics.

Louise Patterson will major in Home Economics.

Donald Harlan wants to marry a millionaire.

Edna Thomas wants to "have plenty of money and you," but she didn't say who the "who" was.

Lillie Jewel Barnes would like to be a nurse without having to do any of the work that goes along with nursing.

Martie Kelly will be a speed demon.

Gerald Noble will be taking Clark Gable's place.

John Howard Gilbert wants to go back to Dallas.

Jack Robinson will be the tight rope walker in a circus.

Emmett McClenny will be a mechanical engineer, designing diesel engines for railroads.

Marian McCormick will be a journalist acting as chief news reporter for a great daily.

Christeen Seaton will be an artist making paintings of famous people.

Rebecca Welch will be taking Sally Rand's place.

Billie Jo Wilson wants to teach tap dancing.

Gene Butler will be washing dishes in a great New York hotel.

Jean Piercy will be starring in the Metropolitan Opera.

Lodema Mason will be matron in an orphanage.

Jesse Cornell will be street cleaner in Clarendon.

Edith Vinson will be a commercial artist drawing illustrations for magazine stories.

Fannie Sachse will be modeling clothes in Paris.

Mildred Talley will be a dress designer.

Margaret Kelly will be a school teacher.

Reba Nichols will be the champion woman heavy weight boxer.

Popular Couple Together Again

Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea, the romantic pair of many previous hit films, head the cast of "Internes Can't Take Money," the powerful drama of a young doctor's devotion to the sanctity of a student oath, which opens at the Saturday night Prevue and continues through Sunday and Monday, May 15-16-17th.

ROMANTIC PAIR TEAMED AGAIN FOR NEW DRAMA

A young doctor's dilemma, whether to accept a fee from a patient, forbidden by his oath, or lose the woman he loves, is the story of "Internes Can't Take Money," the drama with Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea which opens at the Saturday night prevue and continues Sunday and Monday at the Pastime Theatre.

McCrea, an interne, is offered money by a grateful patient. With it McCrea would be able to marry Miss Stanwyck, whom he loves, and she would be able to find her child by a previous marriage which had been taken from her. Miss Stanwyck is unable to reconcile McCrea's apparent love for her and the fact that he refuses to help her, and they part.

Their destinies are worked out by Lloyd Nolan, a gangleader, who applies underworld tactics to the ironing out of a difficult problem and does it most effectively.

"Internes Can't Take Money" is the third film in which Miss Stanwyck and McCrea appear as the romantic couple. The others were "Gambling Lady" and "Banjo on My Knee." Nolan is best remembered for his portrayal of the "heavy" role in "The Texas Rangers." The cast also includes Stanley Ridges, Lee Bowman, Barry Macollum, Irving Bacon, Anthony Nace, Fay Holden and many others. The picture was directed by Alfred Santell.

THE OLD MAILBOX

Each day I make a pilgrimage Down past the hollyhocks, To where for many years has stood A battered rusty box.

It seems a long way down the road, Wish I could climb the fence! Oh, will there be some word from you? How thrilling the suspense!

The homeward walk takes twice as long

For we must read the news; And from the latest catalogue Perchance a bargain choose.

Though often too it holds the bills, (Of which there seems no end!) I can't help feeling our mailbox Is an old faithful friend. —Gertrude Warchow.

Legion Auxiliary And Clubs To Distribute Poppies May, 29

An appeal for workers on Poppy Day, May 29, is meeting with enthusiastic response, according to Mrs. C. Huffman, chairman of the local American Legion unit. All members of the auxiliary, and members of other organizations, able to serve, have volunteered to distribute the memorial poppies.

"Successful observance of Poppy Day, when we honor the World War dead by wearing their memorial flower and aid the disabled veterans, the widows and fatherless children of veterans, depends entirely upon the volunteer workers," Mrs. Huffman said.

Below is a submitted Poppy Day poem:

Poppies grow,
Sway and toss
On each grave;
Kiss each cross.

At the dusk
Fall asleep
Friendly stars
Vigil keep.

At the dawn
Petals spread
Scarlet covers
O'er our dead.

Bright sweet sleep
Poppies bright
Till they see
Morning light.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY COMPARED TO RIVERS OF DESTINY BY STUDENT

By Ruby Tucker

While gathering material for the preparation of the history of the senior class of 1937, I came upon the suggestion that the making of history is much like the formation of a river. The idea was interesting and as I think of more I can see more reasons for making the comparison. History is an accumulation of experiences of people and a river is an accumulation of tiny little streams of water. The accumulation of experiences of people followed down through time finally comes to tell the destiny of nations and races. The accumulation of little streams if followed long enough finally gets to be the great river which seems like time itself. They move on quietly and with certainty and no man seems to be able to do very much about it. Suppose then that we speak of the masses of human experiences as "Rivers of Destiny."

If we went out to study the formation of history we would likewise have to go away back up to the beginning of things, almost back to the birth of the individual, almost back to the origin of human experiences. In the beginning every experience amounts to a very little in itself but this tiny set of experiences comes under the spell of a persistent ray of influence from a mother or father. The little person has new experiences added from time to time and always the new set of experiences moves on as an individual just as did the little stream. The individual is joined by other individuals and becomes a class in the public school and a class grows and gains strength, as the stream dashed against cliffs which turned its course so do human beings dash against obstacles which are rules of conduct and on account of the rules of conduct have to change the course of their action.

Now into the stream of life comes your sons and daughters and for this occasion we have made a record of recent experiences of interest to us and perhaps for the amusement of some.

To start our events the Senior girls were honored with a tea given by the Business and Professional women's club which was much appreciated by all the girls.

The most amusing, perhaps, was Kids day when we all came to school dressed as kids with our dolls, tops and marbles. And then to end the day we had a kid party at the Parish house.

Next of interest was another tea, given in honor of the Senior girls, by the Pathfinder club at the Ladies club room.

Last Friday night we gave our senior play, "The Man in the Green Shirt," which we all looked forward to and enjoyed.

Miss Berry and H. E. Girls gave a tea in honor of both boys and girls of the Senior class.

Tomorrow we plan to celebrate Senior day at C. T. McMurry's ranch with an all day picnic.

We have met for the Class night of the Senior class of 1937 and as I have written the class history I have been perplexed at the endlessness of the task and the fact that it will be possible for me to say only a few words about each teacher we have had during our Senior year. We have decided to point out what we consider the finest characteristic of each teacher, reflect upon it and write it down, for in time to come those fine characteristics of the teachers will no doubt stand foremost in the memory we have of our high school days.

I will start with Mr. Burton. I have heard him discussed many different times by various members of the Senior Class, and just recently I have asked what we should write down as his finest characteristic. We have agreed he will undoubtedly be remembered best because of his good nature and his helpful advice to the Senior High School, and you should see those fish he brings home.

Mr. Drennan—favorite of the student body and great athletic fan and booster for Clarendon Junior College, well known as "Pa" Drennan.

Miss Howren—will be remembered by her ability as a math teacher, willingness to aid any student, and very best of Senior sponsors.

Miss Harris—by being able to put over the main thought in History and Latin and for her kindness and helpfulness as Senior Sponsor.

Miss Headrick—will be remembered by the students, for her ability as an English teacher and the poetry everyone was supposed to have memorized.

Mr. Kerby—will be remembered by his ability as a commercial teacher and a great sport with the students along with his charming personality.

Mr. Stults—is one among the many favorites of the Senior class and an excellent biology teacher because he knows his bugs.

Miss Berry—will be remembered by her ability to teach students to sew and cook, with her way of making friends.

Mr. Jones—remembered by his efficiency in coaching football and those winning smiles.

Mrs. Goodner—will be remembered by her sweet motherly affections to the student body.

Miss Blair—with her smile for everyone will be remembered for her dry wit and cheerfulness.

Mr. Allison—will be remembered by his ability as a tennis coach and math instructor, and his bright blushing face.

Mrs. White—will be remembered by the many conscientious hours spent in providing interesting reading material for students.

Mr. Gillham—though he is a recent addition to the faculty has steadily gained friends among the students.

As we have traveled thus far in the stream of human experience we have been privileged to come frequently to our teachers for advice. Now as we graduate from high school, we can see ahead of us the "Rivers of Destiny," and for each of us the stream of life may go in a different direction. I hope this history of the Senior Class of 1937 may stand as a pleasant reminder of the things we cherished most in Clarendon High School.

TESTING CREAM

Oh, the job of testing cream
Is a job that's mighty bad,
You can make a body happy,
You can make a body sad.

If their cream is number one
And the test is always high,
They knock about the price a little
But will never breathe a sigh.

If their cream is not so fancy
And you grade it number two
They take their can and tell you
That they are through with you.

If the test is sometimes lower,
All the blame is laid on you,
Claimed they turned the separator
And they never touched the screw.

They most always blame the tester
For the law the State has made.
And they do not understand it
If their cream is not first grade.

And there are some that always tell you
When they step inside the door
Of a few cents more they were offered
Just a day or two before.

There are some that understand it
If their cream is thick or thin
They take their check and tell you
That they will be seeing you again.

And here is sincerely hoping
When their work on earth is done
That St. Peter's test will suit them,
And they will all grade number one.

This Is Year To Raise Chickens, Says Authority

STEPHENVILLE, May 5.—A. H. Demke, executive director of the International Baby Chick association, said last week fried chicken and eggs stand a good chance to approach an all-time high price level by next fall.

A national survey showed the poultry crop in the United States was the smallest in 20 years, he said. He blamed it largely on the high prices of feed.

Demke, for many years a national figure in the chicken business, said the promised extremely high price would "injure the poultry industry for years." He urged poultrymen to guard against such a possibility, saying: "This is the year to raise chicks. Hatch them under a hen, in your own incubator or buy them from a hatchery."

Everyone at school is now thinking of the closing exercise and our final exams.

Demke said a national survey by executives of the Texas Baby Chick association, of which he is president, shows that to date the nation's hatcheries have not disposed of 50 per cent of their normal output this year. He added there is no chance for normal production, since capacity production of hatcheries the rest of the year could not approach the usual number of chicks raised annually.

Demke said the poultry business of the nation averages between $600,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 annually.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Parker and Thomas Perkins visited in Quanah last week end.

MIDWAY

Mrs. John Goldston

Sunday was Mother's Day, and what a day! Children coming home bringing mother presents and flowers. Then the picnic trip with all kinds of good things to eat, and coffee made cowboy fashion. Included was the grandbaby on our trip who calls everything "dog" from the cattle to pigs and the incubator chicks at his granddad's, his vocabulary is limited to a mere tot. Yes, it was a big day. Every mother has the nicest children in the world, but do they have the nicest "inlaws" like mine?

And did you know that Donley county has some of the most picturesque places? Across the river into canyons graced with large trees, one a cedar as large as a house and many of them shading a place large as a front yard. Red birds were making merry in the trees. And flowers! No section has more wild flowers than we have here, masses of them for miles and miles. Purple carpet blending with shades of pink and orchid and white snapdragons. Then into another canyon and among the bluebonnet field! Gorgeous and beautiful beyond description with spikes 26 inches high on some of which we counted 41 blossoms to the spike. Our bluebonnets refuse to be transplanted, and planting the seed has been equally disappointing. Mrs. J. A. Meaders has the only plant from seed. She has many of the smaller type in blossom in her yard. The patches of bluebonnets extend from the river through the McMurtry ranch to near McLean. They are real bluebonnets because Mrs. Milt Allen received a box of the same thing from her daughter at Tyler on Mother's day. The Geographic magazine describes 70 varieties of bluebonnets in Texas, the largest and most beautiful being those of the Panhandle. It is the state flower because it has never been found in any other state.

The rains Sunday and Monday nights brought cheer, and especially to those who had already planted. Wisteria, roses, tulips, Johnnie-Jump-Ups, phlox. The mocking bird that has nested for several

POETS, TURN TO MASH

I wrote a poem; wrote it with care, I sent it here—I sent it there— To editors o'er land and sea, But always it returned to me.

I wrote a check I scarce could read, Sent to the mill for chicken feed; And was my poor handwriting spurned? The answer: Check did NOT return!

Long years ago, beneath an oak, I lost the poem—blue, and "broke"; But found the check I wrote that day— For—"Mash", you know, makes chickens lay!

—Verla G. Mauck.

NOTED DAKOTA INDIAN

"Oscar One Bull and his daughter Margaret were in the city Friday from Little Eagle, on business with Judge Berry in connection with making application for automobile license for a car One Bull bought this fall. Oscar One Bull is a cousin of Sitting Bull, noted Indian chieftain who was killed in the battle with the Indian police force in December 1890, in his camp on the banks of the Grand river seven miles south of McLaughlin. He is 85 years old and very active for a man his age. One Bull is also a survivor of the Custer Massacre on the Little Big Horn in the 70's and his report of the battle is accepted by historians as authentic. He furnished much of the information Stanley Vestal drew on when he wrote his book on Sitting Bull."—South Dak. News Era.

WPA Wage Increase Is Being Sought Here

Donley, Hall, Wheeler and Collingsworth Counties in Move to Hike Pay

From $7.20 to $9.30 increase in WPA wages in Donley, Wheeler, Collingsworth and Hall counties, to correspond with other counties in the Panhandle, is being sought, Albert Cooper, publisher of the Shamrock Texan said while here Tuesday afternoon to meet with Judge S. W. Lowe, representing the county commissioners court and J. T. Patman and J. R. Gillham, Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

Cooper, with Bedford Harrison Shamrock Chamber of Commerce and Judge W. O. Puett, were in Clarendon as part of a tour of the included counties, to urge county leaders to wire or write congressman Marvin Jones before the new WPA schedule is drawn up which will be put in operation in July.

"The maximum number of hours allowed a man to work in these four counties is 74, while in some other Panhandle counties they are allowed a maximum of 98. In still other counties the maximum is 105 hours per month," Cooper said.

"The rate of pay, under the WPA, is 30 cents an hour, making the family differential between these counties from $7.20 to $9.30 per month."

The situation is costing our county about $12,000 or $15,000 yearly, Cooper pointed out, and a hardship is being worked on all families living on WPA wages."

Donley County officials adopted the suggestion and will write Marvin Jones immediately, it was announced.

Frank S. Peterson, District Supervisor of the State wide tax survey, with offices in Amarillo, was a Clarendon visitor Monday.

 There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

Christ gave the church the most colossal undertaking that has ever been given to any group, institution, nation, or people. The task is the conquest of the world for righteousness for God. The church's weapon is a message: the message of Jesus Christ. It is a dynamic message; it is an imperial message; it is a saving message.

The only real possession of the church is its message. That was all it had in the beginning. It had no creeds, no rituals, no systems, no money, no schools, no books, no press, no buildings, no machinery. All it had was a message. That message was a crucified, buried and risen Lord. That is the only vital, fundamental, lasting message of the church for today. No church fails when it sticks to its message. Christ has commanded, we are to obey, and he has promised power.

Regular services at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and the Training Service at 7:00 o'clock in the evening. We will join the community in worship at The Methodist Church at 8:00 o'clock for the Baccalaureate sermon.
