BANKHEAD COTTON CONTROL LAW.

Cotton producers over the nation are to vote upon the Bankhead cotton law this month. There is some speculation as to whether the growers want to continue the plan. Those of the heavier producing sections are said to oppose the plan, while those of the west where acreage production is somewhat limited because of climatic conditions, are said to favor the idea of continuing the Bankhead plan.

The compress trust is against it. Gin associations in the main are also against the Bankhead plan. Cotton speculators are against it. Cotton exporters are against it. They all want volume rather than price because they make the most on volume. In other words, their profit in the main, is made by the pound and have no interest in the price since the profit per pound is what counts.

Growers are pleased to note that the price is better than before the Bankhead law went into action. They will likely vote to continue the law rather than see cotton drop down to three to five cents again.

BALLYHOO AND BUNCOMB BAMFOOZLES.

"Ulm is down in the Pacific", the daily paper headlines tell us. Who is Ulm, anyway. Why, Flight Lieutenant Charles T. P. Ulm and two other men left Oakland, California in an attempted flight from that city to Honolulu. What for? Oh, just to show the rest of the folks that it could be done.

The only difference in this attempt and several others lies in the fact that no life boat was taken along. They even refused life belts. It had to be quite a different flight to any other yet made.

They are said to have missed the island. Their SOS call for help came from "somewhere in the Pacific" since they radioed that the gasoline had given out.

Thousands of dollars will be spent trying to locate them.

Only recently, two bodies were found on a lonely island in the south seas. Thousands of dollars have been spent trying to find out "who they were."

These are but puny instances in the big world of affairs, but they get a big play because the human animal likes ballyhoo and buncomb until it bamfoozles. Then it is dropped.

According to insurance statistics, during the past twelve months more people have been killed by autos in America than were killed during the World War. That is restricted to American soldiers in action, of course. While this is accepted as a fact, nothing is being done about it because the outrage gets little publicity. We prefer to confine our actions to the "big things" even though they exist mainly in big headlines only. We like ballyhoo—big noise.

But after all is said and done, why not spend more time and money on the sick and afflicted, and strive to remove the cause so far as possible? Why not spend more of our surplus time and money making this a better place in which to live rather than paying so much attention to fanatics who want to pull off unusual stunts that mean nothing after they have succeeded?

Farm Pond Organization Meet at Perryton

Perryton, Texas, Dec. 5.—Farmers, business men, civic organizations and public officials from every town and county in the great Southwest drought area are invited and urged to be present at the organization meeting of the Great Plains Farm Pond Association which will be held in Perryton, Texas, on Tuesday, December 11, starting at 10:00 o'clock in the morning and lasting throughout the day.

The idea of the association originated at a meeting held at Beaver, Ohio, recently in which a group of far-sighted farmers and business men banded together to start the movement which it is hoped will ultimately result in small ponds and lakes being built on every farm in the southwest and the terracing of all rolling lands now in cultivation, to conserve every drop of moisture where it will actually do some good, on the farm, and in this way tend to prevent the reoccurrence of this section has undergone in rence of such a devastating drouth the immediate past.

If a representative organization can be perfected at the Perryton meeting on December 11, work will be started at once to obtain a Federal appropriation when Congress convenes next month, to carry on this work in every county in the Southwest. An attempt is being made to have every congressman and senator in the area affected present for the meeting. This area includes the entire Texas Panhandle, eastern New Mexico, western Oklahoma and western Kansas.

It is understood that the present administration is favorably inclined toward such movements and while a number of water conservation measures are now being considered it is thought that they will tend more toward damming streams and creating large lakes and reservoirs instead of holding the flood waters on the farm where it can be utilized in crop production, in raising the level of the water table throughout this section, and at the same time prevent erosion and soil blowing.

Long Period Readjustments in Farming Predicted

Dallas, Dec. 6.—Predicting that agriculture will be readjusting itself for many years to come, Frank W. Peck, Cooperative Bank Commissioner of the Farm Credit Administration, today told 1,800 delegates of the Texas Agricultural Association gathered here for their annual meeting that farmers must be prepared to meet changing conditions. Many experiments will be tried, he declared, and efforts made to place agriculture on a parity with other industries and to maintain it in such a position.

Without discussing the exact types of readjustment that will be necessary, Mr. Peck pointed out three broad lines of preparation. Farmers must organize into effective association with each other, he said. Education must go beyond the schoolroom and academic training of the young, and continue into objective forms of adult education and training. There must be the development of co-operative business enterprises designed to bring distribution of farm products and purchasing of farm supplies into the control of and for the benefit of agricultural producers. Mr. Peck paid tribute to the work of the Texas Agricultural Association and urged the delegates to continue their cooperation with educational institutions in an effort to promote education among the young people on farms, as well as adults.

"There is no substitute for understanding," declared Mr. Peck. "There is nothing as destructive as organized ignorance; nothing more futile than attempting to deal with important economic and social forces without facts or with misinformation and consequent prejudice."

Discussing the work of the Farm Credit Administration, Mr. Peck said "there has been no attempt in history comparable to it as a complete cooperative enterprise with its major elements controlled by farmers and eventually to be owned by the borrowers of the system. The motive underlying the system is that of permitting good farmers to work themselves out of debt."

"This credit system," he continued, "represents the first attempt by any country to develop a cooperative system of farm credit adapted to the varying needs of agriculture operated on a business basis and supplying credit at the lowest possible cost to farm producers."

Ablene Voters Give West Texas Utilities Hearty Endorsement

In no uncertain terms the voters of Abilene, on Saturday, November 24, gave their approval and vote of confidence to the West Texas Utilities Company in a special election to determine the attitude of the citizens toward (1) the building of a municipal plant, (2) the granting of another franchise to an individual, and (3) the attitude of the people toward their present electric rates for service furnished by the West Texas Utilities Company. The question of municipal ownership was defeated by a majority of over 3 to 1 with 1269 voting against a municipal oil engine plant and only 397 voting for same. The vote on the granting of another franchise to an individual O. D. Dillingham, who proposed to lower rates, was defeated 4 to 1. On the third question, the citizens voted they were satisfied with present rates by a majority of 2 1/2 to 1.

The vote clearly indicated the public sentiment in Abilene and gave a splendid endorsement to the West Texas Utilities Company's policies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren had as their guests Sunday, H. R. Jones, Miss Ruby Merriman, Mrs. Harry Moore and baby of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mace of Leila Lake.

Mrs. W. H. Martin spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Bob Younger in Amarillo.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Why worry about getting poor and hard-up? The poorer you are, the more relief you get.

Bachelor Bill says that next to becoming a domino fiend, fiddlin' will ruin a man's business quicker than anything.

There is an attorney in Pampa by the name of "Godwin." In other words, when you have seen the other boys fail to win your case, you can always let Godwin.

Large families are not always the drawback that we are led to believe. There was a time when GW cut down my pants for the boys. Now that I am the runt of the family, she's cutting down their pants for me.

Ancient "hog jowls" have become picnic hams. Speaking of this old-time delicacy in which millions have been engulfed in juice of turnip greens, there is a hog jowl left in old Donley county. Lest my veracity be questioned, I cite you to none other than my old friend M. V. Harvey of this city. He brought the jowl from Childress county in 1923. Has any other hog jowls of the farm-spun variety been imported into our county? We all know that we have no native material, but occasionally we have a resourceful importer.

People who ordinarily would not tell a lie except in self-defense, will lie like the dickens about Santa Claus. In this age, by the time a child gets old enough to talk, they have already heard all the facts about this Santa Claus business. They are more interested in a coupe and a streak of pavement these days.

Now that the football season is over, schools could all start up—except that the basketball season has just opened.

The only excuse for not being a man is to be born a lady.

A couple nearly killed each other on the dance floor of a popular Amarillo resort Saturday night, by choking, beating, pulling hair and kicking shins. Instead of stopping the ruckus, the crowd looked on wildly and cheered thinking it was the "carioca" or some other new dance.

A public policy is considered to merit the o. k. if it will put money into private pockets.

Next to a song leader who wobbles his head and swings a chair rung until he works himself into a lather, the announcer of a football game over the radio has the world skinned.

"What's your idea of civilization?" Fanny Failyure was asked Monday. "It's a good thing, and somebody ought to start it," she replied.

Babes may now be made into a college professor or given the strength of a football full-back over night. Injections of thymus gland fluid will do it over night, according to reports of the unbounded success of one Dr. Leonard G. Rowntree. A two-year-old "injected" in the morning walked to the door at 6:15 the same day to meet his proud father. Throwing out his manly chest, arranging his chin according to military fashion, he swatted the old man on the beizer in such manner that the proud father was only stopped by the proximity of the front gate. A smaller dose would have made the son a lawyer in the same length of time. Children treated with a very small injection are said to "sprout" teeth at the age of ten hours and show a head of curly hair at three days. Barbers are eager to secure supplies to speed up hair cutting requirements. Customers injected properly will require three haircuts a week. In rubbing some of the fluid on a doorknob to test the proverbial growth of hair, the good doctor was astounded to see the knob expand into a china shop. The possibilities are unbounded, says the doctor who will likely be offering stock of the company for sale next week.

Some men learn the value of truth by going to Sunday school, others by doing business with liars.

Not altogether because they believe so much in the moon perhaps, but because they know a lot of their customers do, the Rexall drug store is giving away birthday almanacs. A Ladies Birthday

Almanac gives you the dope on how to plant by the moon. Some are moon planters and grow good crops and have good gardens every year. Others plant when the pain hits 'em and some times they have good stuff and sometimes not. It just depends on luck. Get there in a hurry if you want an almanac and a calendar.

Hotel customers forced to endure the bowl and pitcher generally can't appreciate Chic Sales reminding them of cold weather features of pioneer days.

Hooray! Hooray! I am in receipt of a letter from my good friend Joe E. Fitzgerald telling me that he will soon ship me a bushel of persimmons in a few days. If he comes up to par, that means those big juicy fellows, yellow and some red, both Chinese and Japanese. What a time we will have fighting over them. I don't care anything more about Santa Claus.

These persimmons are a gift just the same as other persimmon gifts from Joe E. Fitzgerald. In case you don't happen to know him, he is the one honest nurseryman who sells you the best stock of fruits, flowers, bulbs and such like at a fair price. His nursery is the Fitzgerald Nursery, Stephenville, Texas. He's been there about thirty years or more and going stronger every year. Get his catalog by writing him a postal card. It's worth $5 to know some of the things about growing fruit in the west which he tells you about in his catalog.

Except for the gas being off Friday night and Saturday, the past week has been luck, all lucky.

M. W. Mosley sent me a fine batch of juicy spare ribs from a tender shoat. None better ever hit a skillet in no man's country. After we ate up the ribs, we drew lots to see who would get to sop the skillet. Yeh, I said it was a luck week.

Then Harry Hartzog comes along with a big batch of legal tender in the form of backbones—I mean the hog type. They were cooked on a camp stove in the kitchen the day the gas staid off—way off, too. but the backbones got done to a tender climax and we had cornbread to go with them.

Thanks a lot, folks, for these gifts to the inmates of the Poor Farm. No body lives fat up there except GW, and she's down to 218 now.

This week end we have the Legionnaire s and the Auxillary ladies with us for Saturday and Sunday. It will be a big day, a night and next day. Let's all help the home Post boys put it over in a big way—just a bit better than it has ever been done before. After that, let's see that all the visitors have a royal welcome. Strangers, and folks from another sections, like to be made feel welcome. Let's make a special effort to welcome them properly. Glad hand them in one good way. Tell all the stale jokes you can think of. I say stale because they have already heard all that you ever heard—then some. It won't be a bad idea to carry some extra smoking and a little chewing around with you. A few might like chewing gum. Above all things, don't offer any of the boys any strong drinks—they got enough of that in France.

Miss Beatrice Drew of Pampa visited here with her sisters, Mrs. Lalar Wilkerson and Mrs. Chas. B. Trent over Thanksgiving.

HEDLEY

The "good old hog killing time" is here again and many are killing their hogs and filling up lard cans and eating "brown gravy." The farmers are practically thru gathering their crops around Hedley—getting through much earlier than usual.

The Conference and Assemblies are over and our preachers are getting settled for the years work. Our beloved Methodist pastor, Rev. A. V. Hendrix was sent back to Hedley, starting on his fourth year here and we hope he comes back for four more. Bro. Wells, our much loved Baptist pastor is still with us and we hope he stays as long as the folks will pay him, and of course they will for fear of losing him. The Nazarene folks have a new pastor or pastors, Rev. Robinson and wife, both preachers who come to us from Okla., well recommended and we predict for them a successful year.

HUDGINS NEWS

After a lapse of several months, we will again try to give you an account of the daily happenings and progress of our little community.

Friends, when you miss our singings each Sunday night you really miss something. Last Sunday night we had with us several fine singers, among them Mr. Eaghman and Mr. Chenault, and also a group of fine singers from Chamberlain and Windy Valley. It's really a pleasure to hear these folks sing.

The intermediate Sunday school class rendered a very interesting and informational program Sunday December 2nd on the subject of Thanksgiving.

Immediately following the program, an old-fashioned feast consisting of pies, cakes, puddings, salads, fresh pork and sausage and many other wholesome foods too numerous to mention was served.

Mrs. O. L. Jacobs has gone to visit her mother at Whiteright.

We regret very much to lose Mr. Wallace and his family who are moving to Clarendon, but welcome Mr. Nelson Seago and family, who has rented the Garrison farm.

Most of the people are busy stacking the bundle feed and finishing up this years cotton crop.

Most everyone has been killing hogs since the cold spell. This comes in very handy especially since you pay ninety-five cents for "Mrs. Tuckers Shortening."

T. J. Talley and family, John Perdue, and Frank Behringer and family enjoyed a 42 game with L. M. Putman and family Saturday night.

John Fowlkes and family of near Hedley took supper Sunday night with Mr. Tom Perdue and family.

This is to certify that I took treatments from Dr. H. H. Milling for my eyes. I had to quit work on account of my eyes as they bothered me all the time. I had tried the best doctors I could find, and my eyes became worse all the time. One of my friends had gone to Dr. Milling and was cured, so I thought I would give him a trial. If you need treatments go to Dr. Milling and he will cure you.

Social Suggestions From Nudist Magazine

"A hostess does encounter difficulties. With no rules of etiquette for the Nudists in the home she often has her trials and tribulations. She has only her natural inborn courtesy to guide her. Should she offer the mohair or the leather chair to a guest? She must make her own momentous decisions. Would it be more annoying to be stuck to the chair or stuck by the chair? Should she slap at the coals that fall on Mr. Guest's leg from his lighted cigar? If she is humane she will decide in the affirmative, but she must make her slap a healthy one so that the guest will not, under any circumstances, think she is fooling.

"Novices should attempt no parties at first. They will do well to apply themselves to the task of moving about unclad with grace and nonchalance. Graceful carriage is an attribute that most people lack with clothes on. With apparel in the discard, humped backs and protuberant abdomens shine out in all their splendor.

"Bow-legs, an abomination to the owners at any time, show off to far worse advantage when unskirted and untrousered. Perhaps a would-be Nudist, upon closer study of self, will decide against the pleasures of Nudism and replace the clothing with a sigh. Persons who love beauty hope so!"

A Boy's Essay on Editors

"I don't know how newspapers and magazines got into the world and I don't think God does, for he ain't got nothing to say about them in the Bible. I think the editor is the missing link we read of, and that he stayed in business until after the flood, came out and wrote things up, and has been kept busy ever since. If the editor makes a mistake, folks say he ought to be hung; but if the doctor makes mistakes, he buries them and people don't say nothing because they can't read Latin. When the editor makes a mistake, there is a big lawsuit and swearing and a big fuss; but if the doctor makes one, there is a funeral with flowers and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anyone else knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one, he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife, he charges for the visit, but if the editor goes, he gets a charge of buckshot. Any college can make doctors to order, but editors have to be born."—Ex.

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church

"What is Baptism." Part V.

In concluding our study on Baptism we wish first to refer you to Gal. 3:27. To be saved, to be sanctified, to be justified, to enjoy the remission of sins, one must be in Christ. Baptism puts the unsaved person into Christ. It is the last step in the plan of salvation. And just as many as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. Since baptism is a burial, followed by a resurrection, just as many as have been buried with Him by baptism unto death, and risen to walk in newness of life, are in Christ. How then, can one be sure that he is in Christ, until he has been immersed.

Col. 2:12. This passage substantiates the fact that baptism symbolizes the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ.

I. Pet. 3:20, 21. Here the Apostle Peter states explicitly that baptism saves us, but not Baptism alone. Baptism is the answer of a good conscience towards God. A good conscience is one that is trained in accordance with the word of God, or the conscience of God. We are saved by baptism as the consummation of the divine plan which put us into Christ, or the church, which is His body.

WE SUMMARIZE. The penitent believer comes to a certain water, goes down into the water, is buried with His Lord in baptism, arises to walk in newness of life, comes up out of the water, and goes on his way rejoicing.

The questions dividing the religious world of today, are not questions of interpretations, but questions of authority. The controversy over baptism is a fair example of this assertion. Theologians and religious leaders of all ages, including Luther, Calvin and Westley, are agreed that the action of baptism practiced by the apostles was immersion. History is very positive in station that the substitution of sprinkling and pouring for baptism was made by the authority of the Roman Catholic church, in the Council of Ravenna in 1311. The Greek Catholic church has always practiced immersion; and it has preserved the Greek language, in which the New Testament was written. No well informed minister of any religious denomination will maintain that any other action than immersion can be gotten out of the New Testament. Any Roman Catholic priest will inform you that the change was made by the authority of the Pope, but he will also add that since the Pope is the personal representative of Jesus Christ on earth, and has the authority to make the substitution. So it is a question of authority, and we should stand ready to affirm under any and all circumstances that no one has the authority to alter a plain positive institution of our Master, as well as destroy altogether the symbolical meaning of the ordinance.

Baptism is a positive command of Christ. It is an ordinance placed at the entrance of the kingdom to test the loyalty of the unconverted. Are you ready to do what the Master commands, just because He commands it. We have studied every reference in the New Testament on the subject of Baptism.

are you now ready to abide by the decision of God? It is better to obey God than to obey man.

WINDY VALLEY SCHOOL NEWS

Mr. Jackson was cleaning the paint off the floors and desks this morning and got his eyes full of turpentine. He cried all morning.

There are still many pupils out picking cotton yet. There are five pupils in our room this morning.

We are working on a Christmas program at the present time and hope to have a good one.

It will not be long until the seventh and eighth grades will have a mid-term theme. It will consist of 1200 words.

Mr. Jackson's room put on a play Thanksgiving. The title, "Henry's Mail-ordered Wife," the characters were Henry Gubbons, Pete Giles, Jim Jones, Wallace Riffle, Becky Simpson, Alvis Darnell, Abe Smithers, Lester Walker, Mrs. Tucker II, Jimmie Jewel Nichols, and The Minister, Jack Simmons.

Candy was sold, and we cleared two dollars. We are going to buy some song books with it.

Everyone went home saying he enjoyed the program very much.

There sure are a lot of noise and excitement because we are re-shingling and painting the school house and putting in new doors.

We are working out for basketball. We would like to get in touch with all the schools of the county.

We are going to work over the ball court and put caliche on it to make it smooth.

We are having Sunday school at the Windy Valley school house every Sunday morning, starting at 10:00 o'clock. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

We are having a contest in cutting clippings out of the newspaper, on all the countries of the world. The 8th grade is about five hundred in the lead. It will end in about two more weeks. The losers will have to entertain the other.

The club will meet again to-day. We have a fine club. The president Alvis Darnell; secretary and treasurer, Jeny Jewel Nichols.

Last we answered the roll call with for which we are thankful. This week we will have riddles.

We are learning to write letters in English. We are going to write the Seventh grade at Memphis. We hope to be successful. We have a bulletin board and we will put clippings on it to read so we will know what the other countries are doing.

PRIMARY ROOM

J. A. Josey spent Thanksgiving Day with his grandmother, who lives in Ring.

Ben Simmons visited with his sister in Turkey Thanksgiving day.

We have removed all signs of Thanksgiving and the Pilgrims. Now our chief interest is Santa Claus. We are doing everything to please him, for it won't be long until he will visit us. We are learning a song about him. The song says if the boys are naughty he will pass them by and give the girls a present, leaving the boys to cry. We hope all of our boys will be good.

INTERMEDIATE INCIDENTS

If Santa Claus wants to buy Jack Simmons a pair of new shoes for Christmas he can get the correct size from the foot print Jack left when he kicked our clean, newly painted door.

The main question in our room now is, "Where is Leo?"

We hope the person who took our United States flag will treat it with all due respect.

A little blond in our room was relating an incident about a child who was quite ticklish. With growing enthusiasm and all seriousness she added, "Why, one day some kids tickled her until she turned 'orchid'!"

MARTIN

Most of the Martin folks took advantage of the cold weather last week to do their butchering and put away their meat supply. We were all very thankful indeed for having this nice lot of meat to store away.

The County Singing Convention which met at Martin Sunday afternoon was a huge success and well attended.

Anyone who doesn't believe Donley county has some really good singers should attend one of these conventions. It will meet at Naylor the next first Sunday.

Several of school patrons came in to hear the children in a Thanksgiving program Wednesday afternoon. The school was then adjourned for two days holiday.

Mrs. J. E. Baker is very happy to be entertaining her three sisters for a short visit. They are Mrs. T. J. Kelly of Dallas, Mrs. Zack Leatherwood of Cleburne and Eliza McGowan of Alvarado.

Mr. Will Peabody is able to be home again.

Ina Fay Pittman, Mrs. Tom Adkins and son T. R. and Mrs. Roberta Pittman and children spent Thanksgiving in the Alvin Pittman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sullivan had as their guests Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McClenny, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tucker and son and Mrs. Charley McClenny and children, all from Amarillo and Miss Louise and Mildred Ruth Gardner. They all enjoyed a big Turkey.

Freeman Helton was thrown from a horse Saturday afternoon and pretty badly bruised. We hope he will soon be back in school.

Harry Hartzog and wife of Canyon and Miss Ruth Hartzog of Clarendon spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hartzog.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Patterson and son of Borger and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Patterson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cannon.

T. M. Shaver is "laid up" this week with what is said to be an infected tooth.

Miss Hogan of the school faculty, spent Thanksgiving in Abilene.

Chevrolet Cars Reach New High in November

Detroit, Dec. 6.—Domestic sales of the Chevrolet Motor Co., based on reports for the first twenty days of November, are the highest for this period since 1926, officials of the company announced today. Sales for November, 1926, were the highest for that month in the history of the company.

Reports from dealers indicated that the demand for Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks had remained consistently firm throughout October and the early part of November in spite of the usual downward trend inherent at this season of the year. Sales for the second ten days of November were on a par with the sales for the first ten-day period but the figure represented an increase over the same period of the previous month.

The November 20-day total surpasses the October total for the same period by approximately 1200 units.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wewerka returned to their home at Elreno Monday after spending the holidays in the J. W. Martin home.

Geo. B. Bagby spent the first of the week in Dallas attending a life insurance convention.

Mrs. R. H. Smith, wife of a pioneer physician of Palo Pinto, and Mrs. Webb Harris of the same town, visited their sister, Mrs. G. L. Green here over the week.

Anthology of Panhandle Poetry Published

One hundred and two verse makers and embryo poets are represented in the anthology ranging in age from 11 to 80 years of age. The title of the book is "Prairie Nights and Yucca", and the subject matter was collected and arranged by John McCarty, editor of the Dalhart Texan.

H. H. Lawrence of the Texan staff assisted in the compiling and printing of the book in the Texan office. The binding was done in the plant of the Russell printing company of Amarillo.

The cover design is a product of the artistic drawing and wood-carving skill of George Auntry of the Russell company.

The entire edition had been sold out before publication was completed it was learned Monday. Mr. McCarty plans a more extensive effort in 1935 to meet the demand.

Contributors to the book from this section are: Clarendon, Mrs. W. T. Lowe, Homer Charles Speed, Sarah Sewell Hall; McLean, John B. Vannoy; Hedley, Miss Peggy Caldwell; Mobeetie, W. A. Strickland; Memphis, William Russell Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Combest and children of McLean spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Couch.

W. L. Boyles, owner of the Universal Oil company, and Ralph Randall, both of Panhandle, had business here Wednesday.

MEMPHIS BABE IS CLAIMED BY ITS MOTHER SATURDAY

Claims Babe is Born Underneath Building Deserted When Thought Dead

An 18-year-old mother, Saturday afternoon sobbed out the details of the strangest birth ever recorded in Memphis and pleaded with the sheriff's department and county officials for her six-day old son.

The broken, crying girl said, "I don't care what you do to me; I just want my child."

The mother told how the child was born under a house here and how she deserted it for dead, planning to go back later and secretly bury the body in order to prevent discovery.

Later, charges of child-desertion were filed against the girl. The charge was made in Justice court by Deputy Fee Posey, who was called when the baby was found and will be bound over to the action of the district grand jury in February.

In the meantime, the child continues to enjoy life in a local hospital. He probably will be returned to his mother early this week, after the mother receives an order from the county judge.

The strange circumstances which surround the birth of the child and action of the mother have never been equaled here, it is believed.

The young mother stated that she assisted in washing clothes all day last Saturday and then came to Memphis, attending a picture show that night with her sister.

After the show she went to her sister's home and retired. At 1:30 o'clock she got out of bed and went outside. She was in such pain she could not return to the house and efforts to attract her sister's attention failed.

Frightened and sick, the girl crawled under the house, where the baby was born. She held it in her arms a few minutes, but it did not stir and she believed it was dead. Laying it on the ground, she returned to the house and lay down on her bed.

A short time later the baby was found, after attracting attention by its weak crying. According to the mother, she intended to claim the child then, but officers were called, and she became too frightened to confess.

Later Sunday she returned to her home and told her story to her mother. Word was sent to local officers that she would come here and make a confession, claiming her child, but attending physicians did not allow her to leave her home until yesterday.

The story of Memphis' "mystery baby" was told between heart-rending sobs that shook the mother's entire body. But she was not afraid. She was anxious to reclaim her baby regardless of consequences to herself. The boy probably will be given to his mother early this week, and only the charge of child-desertion will remain.—Memphis Democrat.

Thanksgiving Services Held at Baptist Church

Rev. E. D. Landreth preached the union service sermon Thursday morning at 10:30 at the Baptist church. His principal theme was "peace" and much stress was placed on the many reasons for giving thanks to God at this time. Rev. Landreth is the new pastor of the First Methodist church.

The President's Thanksgiving proclamation was read by O. C. Watson.

A collection was taken and the proceeds contributed to the Adair hospital as the most befitting asset of the community of general interest.

Pastors of the Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian churches shared in the union service. The Baptist pastor, Rev. J. Perry King was in Lubbock in attendance on the State B. T. S. convention.
