County Agent Urges Pure Seed Planting

Election For School Trustees And College Tax Is Set

SCHOOL TRUSTEE ELECTION CALLED

THREE PLACES EXPIRE ON SCHOOL BOARD. ARE NOMINATED TO REMAIN.

The Clarendon School Board met in their regular session on Saturday evening of last week and attended to their usual routine of business. In addition to the handling of these items, they voted to hold the annual election for trustees on April 5th, for the purpose of voting on three trustees whose terms expire with this year. In addition to this, they authorized the election at the same time for the adding of a tax of 20 cents on the State and County valuation to assist in the financing of Clarendon Junior College. The two elections will be handled by the same set of judges.

This week, there has been a petition circulated among the business men of the city asking that the retiring members of the board namely F. E. Chamberlain, J. R. Porter and W. W. Taylor, be nominated to fill the places they are vacating by reason of the expiration of their several terms. Mr. Chamberlain is at present the Chairman of the Board and Mr. Taylor is the Secretary. The petition is asking that the names of these three be placed on the ballots for consideration by the people when they go to the polls on Saturday, April 5th.

The place for holding the election and the judges in charge will be carried in a later edition of the News.

PATHFINDER MAKE MEETING PLACE CHANGE

The Pathfinder Club will meet Friday, March 14th, 3:30 p. m. with Mrs. Wm. Gray at her residence and with Mrs. Floyd Keener as assistant hostess. This announcement is in correction of one previously made that the meeting would be held at the club rooms at that hour. All members are urged to take notice of this change.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Kemp and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, spent the past Sunday with friends at Chillicothe.

OIL WELL DOWN CONTRACT DEPTH

OPERATIONS HALTED PENDING DEVELOPMENT OF FURTHER INTEREST.

Contract depth on the Marine Test well was reached the fore part of this week, a total footage having been recorded to 4,006 feet when the bit last rested on the bottom of the hole. Mr. J. F. Downey, contractor in charge of the well stated Tuesday that they had concluded operations insofar as he was able to see at this time. It is understood that some negotiations have been under way for the well to be taken over by some outside company with sufficient financing to extend the well to 5,000 or more feet to secure a real test in this location. Mr. Downey is especially anxious that the well be put to 4,500 feet, believing that something will be encountered in the next 500 feet to make the well a paying proposition.

Jules Vogel, treasurer for the Marine Oil Company, the original owners of the well, states that they are in no position to continue operations further than they have already gone. This leaves the matter directly up to the present owners of the well and it is understood that a meeting has been called to make some decision as to whether the hole is to be plugged or if operations will be continued.

When stopped, the bit was standing in a grey, sandy lime formation similar to that drilled through for almost the entire past 500 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood, Mrs. W. S. Bagby and Mrs. M. P. Gentry moved to Fort Worth Monday to attend the Fat Stock Show. Mrs. Bagby and Mrs. Gentry will visit in the homes of their parents while away.

IMPRESSIVE PRO- GRAM IS GIVEN

BATTLE OF THE ALAMO IS RECOUNTED AT CHAM-
BERLAIN SCHOOL FRIDAY

Coming at a time when all native Texans are thinking of the fights that freed this state from the tyranny of Mexican rulers, the Chamberlain school presented a play on last Friday evening recounting the battle of the Alamo. Witnesses to the skit state that the scenes were realistically drawn and that the entire audience was thrilled beyond words by the pictures that were painted during the entertainment of the evening. The final scene in the play was a climactic showing the victory at San Jacinto and the capture of Santa Anna.

A prologue to the play of the evening and the other entertainment was a presentation of a school of the time of Sam Houston, showing the methods used in that time to secure an education. This was presented by the teachers and pupils of the sixth grade of the Chamberlain school. The following day, the same sort of a ceremony was carried to completion by the planting of a number of pecans sent the school by Bennie Clark of Cooper, Texas. The nuts planted were gathered from a tree planted by General Sam Houston and it is hoped that the trees will stand as a monument to the general who freed Texas in her struggle for freedom.

Preachers Of District Here

The ministers of the Clarendon District and a number of the interested laymen met in a session at the Methodist Church on Monday of this week. Rev. W. M. Murrell, Presiding Elder of the District presided at all the business sessions. The problems facing the District and the individual ministers were fully discussed and suggestions were offered by those who had seen the same problems in their ministry. The visitors to the number of 25 were regaled with a royal luncheon at the noon hour by the ladies of the Methodist Church.

The gathering was especially favored in the number of distinguished guests for the occasion, with Rev. Ed Morgan, General Evangelist; Dr. G. S. Hardy, in charge of the superannuate endowment and Dr. Geo. S. Slover, all addressing the gathering on their various parts of the work.

Big Barn Dance Benefits Room

An old-fashioned Barn Dance benefitting the Women's Club Room is planned for the evening of March 21st. This announcement was issued the fore part of this week by Mrs. O. T. Smith, head of the Finance Committee for the room.

It will be remembered that the clubs took this room over last year without any furnishings of any sort. By a number of ways, they have furnished it as they now see it and are now planning the installation of a set of silverware and glassware to meet the demands placed on the place when entertainment is desired.

This Barn Dance will be the first of a series of entertainments for this purpose and is to be absolutely complete in all its details. Old-time music will be had in plenty and the dance calls will be heard as in years past. Hold a date for the event on the evening of March 21st at the Opera House.

Mrs. Houston Miller of Canadian, visited with her daughter, Mrs. Otis Jackson the fore part of the week. She returned to her home Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Jackson and her two children.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain left Monday for Wichita Falls, where they went for Mr. Chamberlain to attend a Director's meeting of the National Security Life Insurance Company. From there, they went to Dallas for a short visit.

Second Play Is Set for March 25

The second production of the Little Theater in Clarendon has been set for production on the evening of March 25th. A totally different type of play is to be given at this time, with an entirely different cast of characters in the roles chosen. This play will not have a minute in it, but will be filled to overflowing with fun and frolic for those who are more turned to this direction.

The situations found in this play are to be found in almost every home in the nation and as such will draw much interest from those who will attend. The match-making, the scheming and the final outcome of marriages of this nature will be shown in all their fine features on the evening of March 25th. The following is the list of characters and their players:

Ruth Bence, Mrs. Meade Haile.
"Dad" Bence, Tom P. Connolly.
"Ma" Bence, Miss Wiedeman.
Jane Wade, Lynn LaFon.
Katherine Bence, Betty Weatherly.
Ben Wade, Ernie Hardin.
"Kempy" James, Bill Dillard.
"Duke" Merrill, Frank Heath.

EXTENSION OF DITCH STARTED

TO BE RUN TO RIGHT-OF-
WAY FOR PRESENT TWO BRIDGES PLANNED.

Work was started Monday of this week on the extension of the ditch through the business part of the city to put the water to the right-of-way of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railroad. The level lines were run Monday, following which the work of leveling the bottom and cutting out the sidewalls of the present ditch was started and carried to as near completion as possible in three days time.

A complete plan for the completion of the ditch would include two bridges. One of Gorst Street running North and South and another on First Street, running East and West. The present plans for the bridge call for only one of these, that on Gorst Street, and this is to be made a double affair with a spillway in the center to allow the water from Gorst Street to enter this without too much stoppage. The other bridge will not be put in place at this time, as the plans for the extension of the ditch past First Street are not yet complete.

The same general form will be used to complete the last few feet of the ditch, to conform with that portion which has already been completed and in use for some time. The two bridges on Gorst Street will be each one one-way bridges and will have a sidewalk on either side of them to allow access in this manner to that portion of the city. The same general plan of construction will be used as is found in the bridge on Second Street, to allow buildings to be placed on the bridge itself if the demand should arise for an extension of the business section of the city in that direction.

The work will be rushed to an early completion, and as many men will be used as is practical in finishing the project. Mayor Taylor states that there is quite an army of unemployed in the city at this time and it is the plan of the city to put as many of these to work as may easily be done. It is the plan of the city to have the ditch completed and ready for use in time to care for the spring rains.

G. W. ANTROBUS PLANS TRIP TO SAN ANTONIO

Friends of G. W. Antrobus will be glad to learn that he is sufficiently recovered to be up and about after a siege of very serious illness. Mr. Antrobus was down town Tuesday for the first time since the first of the year and was very well pleased to be able to be out. Mr. Antrobus states that he is planning to make a trip to San Antonio in the very near future to complete his recuperation. Mrs. Antrobus will accompany him on this trip. They will leave the latter part of this week or early next week.

EASTER CANTATA AT M. E. CHURCH

METHODIST CHOR WILL PRE-SENT CANTATA EASTER
SUNDAY EVENING.

The annual Easter Cantata of the Methodist Choir will be presented Easter Sunday evening, April 20th, at eight o'clock, according to announcement of Sam M. Braswell, director. A new work by Fred B. Holton, "Life Eternal" will be the vehicle and a scanning of the libretto and music just received here proves it to be one of the most musical and effective ever from the pen of this well-known composer of sacred lyrics. Besides some very colorful choruses the cantata encompasses bass, tenor, alto and soprano solo, as well as noteworthy two-part choruses for men and women. As yet the solo parts have not been assigned, but work will begin on the cantata at the regular Friday evening rehearsal this week at seven o'clock.

The choir will be augmented by several well-known local singers who do not belong to the organization, but who will assist in the presentation of the cantata for Easter 1930.

For a number of years the Methodist Choir has rendered a sacred cantata on Easter and the organization is looking forward to Sunday, April 20th, as one of the best they have enjoyed. G. L. Boykin is president and treasurer of the choir and Miss Fray Stallings is organist.

New Angle Seen In Yard Contest

A cash prize for the club of the city of Clarendon with the largest enrollment of entrants is seen as a new feature for the 1930 Yard Beautiful Contest for Clarendon. This feature was added by the committee meeting the latter part of last week in completion of the plans for the year just ahead. Three of the clubs of the city have already signified their intention of entering and there are others who will be entered by the time the contest entries close.

Clubs who are interested in the contest and in the work are invited to make any suggestions they deem advisable to some member of the committee. Clubs who desire to take part in this contest will notify Rev. Robt. McKee of their intention and receive the necessary blanks to enroll them in the contest.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Leisberg, Mrs. R. B. Robinson and Mrs. E. A. Thompson were in Amarillo last Sunday afternoon for a visit with Mrs. Bob Lynch and daughter, Bobbie. They also visited in the home of Mrs. Henry Sugg. Mrs. Thompson spent some time in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Blackwell.

PRE-EASTER MEET- ING AT M.E. CHURCH

ANNUAL EVANGELISTIC SER-VICES BEGIN WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 9TH.

Dr. E. E. Robinson, pastor of the Methodist Church at Memphis, will be here for the annual pre-Easter meeting at the Clarendon Methodist Church which is scheduled to begin on Wednesday evening, April 9th. Dr. Robinson is rated as one of the greatest preachers in the Northwest Texas conference and Rev. S. E. Allison, pastor of the church here is very happy over having secured his services as it assures a series of sermons of unusual interest and power.

The evangelical services will come to a close on Easter Sunday morning, April 20th at the eleven o'clock hour. Evening services will be held at 7:30. The people of this community are urged to join with the membership in this pre-Easter campaign and a cordial welcome is assured, according to Rev. Allison.

Many Clarendon Folk at Hedley

The Clarendon Baptist Church was especially well represented at the Panhandle Baptist Association Workers Conference held Tuesday of this week in the First Baptist Church at Hedley. The program was carried to completion as carried in the last issue of the News with a very few exceptions. The morning devotional service was led by R. W. Moore of this city; the subject of "Prayer and Christian Growth" was discussed by R. C. Baker of Memphis in the place of Rev. I. W. Fulgham of Turkey; Bob Watkins of Hedley filled the place left in the morning service for special music.

Both the men and women of the church were present at this meeting, which is reported to have been one of the most enjoyable ever held by this association. The following are listed as coming from Clarendon: Rev. and Mrs. B. N. Shepherd, R. W. Moore, Mrs. W. R. Sims, Mrs. A. W. Simpson, Mrs. T. M. Couch, Mrs. James Kimbell, Mrs. G. G. Kemp, Mrs. Hugh Lusk, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sibley, E. A. Sibley, H. E. Sibley and Mrs. J. T. Warren.

BUILDING TAKES ON ADDED LIFE

TWO NEW RESIDENCES TO ADD MUCH TO DIFFER-ENT SECTIONS OF CITY.

A remodeled home and a new duplex apartment will soon house three happy families in the city of Clarendon. The remodeled home is the one owned by Joe Holland in the Eastern side of the city at the old home being torn down and ready for the work of reconstruction. The basement was dug the fore part of this week and the other work will be started soon. The home is to be of a face-brick construction and will contain all the most modern features to be found in any residence at this time.

The duplex is being erected by R. L. Steagall and Homer Garmon in the South central part of the city and will be occupied by these men when it is completed. The residence has been under way for some weeks and is nearing a stage when the new owners will be ready to move into their new home.

In the business section, the new building to be completed is that one just South of the newly finished Latson Block. This building is being occupied by the Clarendon Drug Store, who are moving into the location this week. There are a few small items that remain to be completed on the structure before it is absolutely complete, but these may be handled after the new occupants are in their place and doing business, so the move is being made.

Another building that is immediately in the offing is that one to be erected by the Phillips Petroleum Company on their lately acquired property just across the street from the jail. Henry Tomb, the local agent for this company, states that he is not in possession of the information as to when the work of erection is to start, but that he will not be surprised to see workmen on the lot at any time in the near future.

These items, with the work on the ditch and a number of changes in the fronts of buildings on Kearney Street, will bring much building activity to the city during the coming spring and summer months. A number of plans are being considered by some of the residents of the city and a few of these are expected to materialize to bring forth the usual amount of building for the spring months of 1930.

Misses Fannie Florence and Nettie Sims of Pampa, spent the week-end in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sims.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brady and boys returned last Monday from Fort Worth, where they had been to attend the Fat Stock Show over the week-end. They report an excellent trip with not too much sand as they neared their home Monday evening.

ROTARY MEET HAS ONE MEMBER OUT

ORGANIZATION GETTING WELL UNDER WAY FOR ACTIVE LIFE HERE.

The Clarendon Rotary Club met Friday of last week in their regular luncheon meeting. One member was out of the club to prevent their attendance from being perfect, but this was offset by the presence of Edward C. Throop of Memphis, a member of the Rotarians of that city.

The organization has its committees appointed and at work and they are promising to do many things once they get into full swing. A matter that has had the serious attention of the organization is the selection of a luncheon place that is satisfactory and easy of access to all members. A proposition is before the club at this time and will also be presented to the Lions in the immediate future. To work toward this end, a committee composed of Rotarians C. W. Bennett, J. C. Estlack and Jack Jones was appointed to confer with the Lions on the matter and report at the next meeting.

For the first few meetings, the club has met in different locations attempting to find a place that will be most satisfactory to all concerned. The findings of this committee will have a great deal to do with the final location for the luncheon place.

Dr. B. L. Jenkins presided at the luncheon.

Clarendon Men in Meeting at Hedley

Three citizens of the city of Clarendon were the invited guests of the Hedley Commercial Club at their regular meeting held on last Tuesday evening. There was nothing very striking discussed at the gathering, the regular routine of business being handled as it was brought to the attention of the organization. The principal features for discussion probably had to do with the clean-up that closed on Tuesday evening and the consequent awarding of the prizes for the cleanest premises. Lateral roads, the highway question and the school situation were all discussed with a great deal of satisfaction.

The Clarendon visitors; Messrs. G. L. Boykin, T. D. Norrd and T. R. Brown, all were called to the floor and spoke briefly. Mr. Brown, in his capacity as County Agent, stressed the idea of terracing their land and the planting of better seed.

Local Artist To Show Paintings

The Sunday issue of the Amarillo Daily News-Globe carried the statement of the showing of Harold Bugbee's paintings that is to be held in the immediate future in the Herring Hotel in Amarillo. The following is an excerpt from the story and will be of more than passing interest to local people since a great many of the subjects are local in their character.

The story:

This exhibit follows the recent showing of the work of the Taos artist, Herbert Dunton. Several years ago Harold Bugbee sought the advice of the older artist but Mr. Dunton was frankly uninterested in the Panhandle painter.

Bert Phillips, one of the founders of the Taos colony, advised Bugbee to study with Charles A. Cumming. When Herbert Dunton saw the work of Harold Bugbee again he admitted a change of opinion in regard to the talent of the young artist.

The exhibit will include paintings of ranch life and the portrait of the late Colonel Goodnight.

The Fine Arts department of the Amarillo public schools is sponsoring the exhibit. It is under the direction of Miss Annie L. McDonald, Miss Ventura Smith and Chas. M. Rogers.

Miss Angeline Dubbs of Clarendon was one of the hostesses when the Los Hualeros, Spanish club of Texas Christian University, entertained the faculty recently.

COUNTY AGENT GOES TO BIBLE

POINTS TO SCRIPTURES AS ARGUMENT FOR PLANT-ING PURE SEED.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying: "Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled grain." The above quotation is the middle clause of the 19th verse of Leviticus, Chapter 19 and was pointed out to the News Tuesday of this week by T. R. Brown, County Agent for Donley County when he was in the office.

Mr. Brown has been very busy since he started his work in the county with the work of getting the farms of Donley County terraced and ready to receive the seed at the proper time. He states that he hopes to have as many as five thousand acres of Donley County farm lands under terrace by the time the planting season is at hand, but that this amount is a mere drop in the bucket when compared with the remainder of the land that is to be worked up in this manner.

At the proper time, and that is not far distant, Mr. Brown is planning to put into effect a campaign for the planting of pure bred seed. A ten per cent increase is promised if this program is followed out, according to a further statement of Mr. Brown, and he has facts at hand to prove his statement. Further work along the pure seed line will be done in the very near future.

CHRISTIANSON DAUGHTER FOUND IN MISSOURI TOWN

The News is in receipt of the information that Miss Vera Verene Christianson, the daughter of H. M. Christianson, has been found in a town in Missouri. The young lady is past eighteen years of age and is living at present with her grand mother, the father of her mother. The young lady was discovered quite by accident, and only through considerable search on the part of C. C. Powell the administrator for the estate.

Mrs. O. T. Smith spent the past week-end with relatives in Amarillo.

CITY LIBRARY ADDS NEW LIST

MRS. BURTON, LIBRARIAN,

WE CAN'T AFFORD THE RISK

In the discussion relating to the proposed twenty-cent tax for the maintenance of the Clarendon Junior College, there is one very important fact that must be given very careful consideration by the voters of this independent district. That is that Clarendon Junior College owes its present existence to a specially prepared rider to the Texas Junior College law passed by the last legislature. According to the terms of the law without that rider, Clarendon, Donley County, nor any other city or county in Texas with such a small population and with so few scholastic enrollments in the high school grades could possibly launch and operate a junior college. Therefore, Clarendon Junior College enjoys a position not equalled by any of the other dozen such institutions in the state. We have a junior college not bound by the limitations—and they are wise ones—of taxable wealth and population such as all other such colleges must meet, and under which every new school of such rank must hereafter qualify. The limitations will be maintained and even strengthened.

Now, with those facts in mind, the tax payers of this independent school district are facing the problem of either making financial provision for the operation of the school through the twenty-cent tax, or else the final abandonment of the school.

Under the tax if it is provided, it will be possible to eliminate the tuition fee of one hundred dollars per junior college student for all who live in the district. Since the tax will be collected on the state valuation and NOT the school valuation, the cost will be a small matter to all but the very heaviest tax payers, many of whom will save many times over the amount in the reduction in tuition fees.

The failure to provide the tax means a final abandonment of the school for the mounting costs of operation will create a deficit which the school district cannot afford to accumulate nor absorb. If we abandon the school then we lose our favorable position through the special rider to the junior college law and would be forced to wait the very great growth in population and wealth before we could again open the school, however great the demand might become.

Texas, like every other state in the Union, is facing an irresistible growth in demands of education. The junior college is recognized as the solution to peak loads at the universities while it fills a need which mounts up yearly for two years' college work at home and while the pupil is in adolescence. Already some states have provided huge sums to augment the operating funds of such junior colleges and without doubt Texas will soon come to some basis of liberal support.

As much as most of us dislike to add to our taxes, there comes times when we must count the cost of refusing to add a little. This is one of those times. If we will carry the burden for a few years now, it will be lightened for us later, by the increase in taxable wealth, the increase in population and very likely by state aid in an annual subsidy for each pupil of junior college standing.

Clarendon cannot afford to do other than vote the tax.

PUT MONEY IN THE BANK

One of the mythical phrases in accounting is called Surplus and Undivided Profits.

Cash in the bank is the best stimulus in the world. It enables a man to hold his head up instead of holding his creditors up. It brings him the best propositions being offered, at the best prices under most favorable terms. The ability to pay one's bills is the final proof of business ability; inability to pay one's bills is humiliating, destructive of one's courage and conducive to melancholy.

Money in the bank puts a smile on one's face and a spring in one's step.—"Spinal Colyums."

Dr. Frederick Cook sent to federal prison in the celebrated Fort Worth oil fraud case, when many others as guilty and more guilty went scot free, has been paroled after having served five years of his fourteen year sentence. The arctic explorer is now a broken and penniless old man deserving of sympathy in his latter days, and in the opinion of many, is the victim of the powerful army and navy lobby at Washington who marked him as prey in the Cook-Peary controversy over the discovery of the North Pole over two decades ago. His claims of discovery have been questioned but never disproved.

No man achieves enough to be beyond the shafts of the critical gentlemen who go digging in the archives and imaginations of the past for actions derogatory to his reputation. After they got through acclaiming the Apostle Paul as a silly pervert hating all women, they made George Washington out as a swaggering, swearing braggart. They now commence to tell us that Christopher Columbus was a blood-thirsty pirate. Who's next?

Just because the new motor patrol of the highway department is out on our highways with instructions to render aid and assistance with courtesy it should not be forgotten that they also have a sterner duty. Their presence on the roads mean safer driving conditions in Texas.

April 7th to 12th has been proclaimed by Mayor H. W. Taylor as Clarendon's Annual Clean-Up-Week, and local citizens are asked to begin now to give unusual attention to the removal of all trash and rubbish from their premises. As usual the city will haul away all such trash collected in accessible places. This gives Clarendon citizens another and better opportunity to keep our town at the top of the list of clean, attractive cities of the Southwest. Make your plans now.

GETTING A BIG JOB

As a young fellow, you may be complaining because of difficulty in landing a good job. You excuse yourself by saying, "There are so many for every place." You make yourself believe that you don't really get a chance.

But there never were so many high-salaried jobs for men who are capable of filling them.

If you have not fitted yourself to take a leading position, why should you complain because you can't find a job.

There are always more poor or indifferent workers than there are places for them.

You want to start near the top.

It can't be done and held there unless you have begun at the bottom of the ladder to learn your business. You don't want to put the time, energy and study necessary to begin at the bottom in your preparation. That is the trouble with you.

This is the day of large salaries, but you must deliver the goods.

Personal pleasure is a minor consideration to the man who holds the highest position with commensurate salary.—Houston Chronicle.

HATS OFF TO WISCONSIN

Texans are always ready to acknowledge merit wherever found and here is where Wisconsin has it over us. Wisconsin has the lowest per capita crime rate of any state in the Union and the lowest burglary insurance rate and that's something to be proud of.

Criminals avoid Wisconsin because its prompt dealings with criminals has become known throughout the underworld. Criminals fight shy of a place where immediate trials prevail and where an insanity plea gets only an examination by five alienists employed and paid by the state.

Here are a few examples of speedy justice and law enforcement as reported in a recent magazine article:

"One morning an angry gentleman stabbed his wife at breakfast. At two o'clock that same day he was on his way to the penitentiary. A natty young bandit was captured one evening; the next afternoon he was greeted by the warden at Waupun for a twenty-five year stay. One morning a group of three bandits dropped off a train; at noon they poked guns in the ribs of a jeweler; at one o'clock they were pulled off an out-going train; by five o'clock they were on their way to prison.

We need speedier justice in Texas and if our lawmakers do not know how to get it for us, they might find out how Wisconsin gets it.—Mission Enterprise.

ARLSON IS GRANDFATHER TO NEW PAIR OF TWINS

Edward Carlson, genial manager of the Antro Coffee Shop, is receiving the congratulations of his friends on the birth of a set of twins to his daughter, Mrs. Lillian Sever, on Saturday evening, March 8th. The youngsters came into the world between the hours of 11:00 and 12:00 p. m. and almost had separate birthdays. They have been named Nalia Christine and Edward Carlson, respectively and are reported to be a husky set of babes. The young lady weighed in at six pounds and the young man tipped the scales at seven pounds. Mrs. Sever is here from Phoenix, Arizona.

Mrs. E. M. Staggs of Yuma, Arizona, is visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. O. Noble. This is Mrs. Staggs' first visit to the Panhandle of Texas.

Miss Lelia Clifford of Wichita Falls, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. W. T. Clifford.

Junior College Solves Educational Congestion Says Corsicana Man Who Fathered Texas Junior College Law

The following article is a part of an address delivered in Dallas last spring at the meeting of the Junior College Association. Honorable A. A. Allison, farmer and layman of Corsicana, Texas, delivered this address. It is interesting to know that Mr. Allison worked for four years as a layman to get the Junior College bill passed and did more than any other layman in the state to get the bill made a law. Furthermore, Mr. Allison has put four boys and three girls through Senior College and has helped twenty-five others. None of these students were his own children.

"I am not an educator. I am a business man, farmer, and get real joy out of the fact that I belong to that great throng among whom is found the average man. If, therefore, I may say anything of merit on the subject assigned to me, you may safely apply it in your profession as having the sanction of thousands of average citizens who are vitally concerned in educational matters and who are coming more and more to analyze our educational structure, in the hope that the mounting cost of education may be made to bring greater returns, and that its blessings may be more generally diffused; education in all its phases, but with special reference to the increasing demand for two years' college education.

As a basis for discussing the "Possibilities of Public Junior Colleges in Texas," let us first inquire if there is a growing demand for two years' college training. If classed as a commodity, does such demand justify increased production and stocking the article nearer the consumer? Will such increase and distribution accelerate consumption? If so, what means of distribution would more nearly meet the demand and enhance it, by fairly pricing the article?

I need not remind you how high-school enrollment increased from 203,000 in 1890 to 3,500,000 in 1924, or 1700 per cent, in the United States, against an increase in population of only 80 per cent. The early approaching decade will undoubtedly enroll 5,000,000 high school students to further aggravate the present congestion, notwithstanding there have been built annually in the last few years 800 new and better high school buildings to accommodate the growing throngs. High school enrollment will reach eight millions, if not more, before noonday of this century.

In orderly sequence to this increased high school enrollment, attendance in colleges, normals and universities, by men only, in the period of 1910-15, showed an increase of 35,000 over the preceding five-year period. This increase in college enrollment was followed by another increase of 70,000 men, in the five-year period 1915-20, over the preceding five years.

This was the World-war period, and the only benevolent sequel to the strain out participation involved, that I now remember was the marvelous increase in the demand for extended educational advantages in the hearts of American youths.

Imagine, if you can, the gloom, remorse even, felt by the uneducated soldier, no less patriotic or heroic of heart than his college pal whose capacity for training and leadership at once promoted him to places for signal service, of honor, and pointed the way for many to fame. The tumult stirred in the soul of the uneducated soldier from this essential discrimination fired the folk back home.

Word came back that education had new values, offered un-dreamed-of opportunities; meant everything. New birth, new zeal, quickened appreciation for education generated a movement, a renaissance so deep in the hearts of our people that its swell, though almost imperceptible, is carrying obstacles before it.

In the following two-year period, 1920-22, increase in enrollment in higher educational institutions in the United States, by men only, reached 50,000 above the preceding five-year period. But this is not all. The heart of America's youth literally burst for higher educational attainments when the enrollment in the two-year period, 1922-24, towered by 155,000 men and 105,000 women the preceding two-year enrollment, registering an increase for higher educational pursuit of 700 per cent against an increase in population, from 1900 to 1925, of only 50 per cent.

These figures by Miss Adams of the New York Times picture the youth seeking college and university from every stratum of our national life, happily disposing of the false philosophy that higher education is meant for the well-to-do and men only who seek the clergy and the law. They come in swelling multitudes from poverty and wealth; from hovel and mansion; from farm and factory. The din, the clamor along the march of progress of these millions have planted hope in even the hearts of the humble the lowly, the orphan, the neglected, they are raising their eyes upon citadels of learning.

Who will venture an estimate on the force of the movement when to a fast perfecting system of urban high schools that shall more and more drive home the boon of college preparation to 40 per cent of our Texas population, we shall add the multitudes of youth from the 60 per cent of our rural population, just now conceiving their own power and resources under the plan for consolidation and their advantage under the high school free tuition law?

Conclusive proof of the growing demand for college training is found in the fact that numbers enrolled in college grow in even greater progression than the rapid rise in the cost of college education. Contrary to all industrial records showing a slackening demand for a commodity whose cost is continuously and materially advanced, education above high school has attracted an ever enlarging host of followers in the face of an ever mounting cost to both tax payer and parent; and while expense of college training in the past fifteen years has doubled, or even trebled, attendance at college has almost or quite quadrupled.

Go before high school assemblies; go among even the country schools; everywhere is convincing expression of the yearning in the hearts of our boys and girls for extended educational opportunity. Go into our homes and devoted mothers will divulge the fondest hope that lingers among the beauties of maternal love—higher educational attainment for their daughters. The father in his office, or with the sweat-cemented grime of the shop, the factory or foundry; the tenant no less than his landlord; ambition stirs the souls of all of them for the education of their homes.

But the facilities for college training, founded upon conditions now long superseded, if they have heretofore met the needs of a sparsely settled state whose people were preponderantly engaged in agriculture, and whose students largely sought the professions, are now not only strained to the snapping point to meet the demands that knock at their doors but are so far removed from the masses by a chasm separating different surroundings, hazards to the youth and the prohibitive expense of their enjoyment, that thousands of our youth are now, and tens of thousands later will be denied the fulfillment of aspirations for preparation for the fullest measure of service in life for which they are endowed. I can conceive of no greater loss to mankind than this, except the withdrawal of the opportunity for salvation itself. But, as the need for promoting the cotton growing industry produced Whitney's cotton gin; as the expansion and intensifying of our activities brought Bell's telephone; as the adoption of his first labor saving devices spurred Edison to the invention of a catalog of electric conveniences; and as modern demand for annihilation of time and space is an urge to Ford and Durant and others to answer for land travel, and Wright, Lindberg and others to respond for the air; just so the exigencies of an appalling failure in our higher educational structure to meet modern demands, not fitting in with the public mood; beyond the reach of aspiring masses; and headed for downright oppression of tax payers; if the plan is further pyramided, as it will be necessary to do, if no alternative is found and adapted that will relieve the strain on overburdened parts of its machinery; this situation too, will find relief, urged by popular appeal.

The movement toward public Junior Colleges, of which many of you are pioneers in Texas, in my opinion, offers the unit in our educational machinery that will function toward a harmonious relationship and cohesiveness between its parts that have therefore appeared lacking. The cost of operation per student year; its proximity to its patrons; its pull on local school pride; its drawing power on its prospects; its suitability for present youthful college students; its proven superior instructional features; it fills the wide gap between high school and college holds out the only hope of the masses of our youths for college contact and culture.

The Junior College will likely pre-empt the freshman and sophomore grades of work in State and other universities in Texas, and divide responsibilities of these grades with teachers and other colleges in the state. Education in its very nature is not self-supporting and must be promoted largely by taxation, gifts, bequests, etc. Extra territorial students have a right to seek the benefits of the Junior College, if accessible to them. Hence the territory served should be included in underwriting the cost; for tuition equal to the cost of college education would withdraw the blessings of higher education from all but the well-to-do and be the rankst violation of educational ethics.

The inclusion of the territory fairly served would weld public interest more generally in the enterprise. Human interest in affairs is created and enhanced by their money investment and ownership and control. Education in not a commodity for barter-sale and purchase. Education is a doctrine, a condition, a religion, an enthronement of truth and justice over ignorance and vice and superstition. Favored communities with vision to discern the essentials of progress toward the destiny of the human race have the solemn obligation to lead and help and inspire all those within their sphere of contact.

Rural territory can never, from its very nature of agriculture in our state and its resulting sparseness of settlement develop facilities for education above the high-school, great credit is due rurals for attempting that much—and the stronger centers cannot shirk consistently or wisely an interest in rural progress on civic as well as sound business grounds. Gain is made by both town and country in including both sufficient patronage and taxable values in order that the privileges of the Junior College may be afforded all those having access to it with the least possible tax burden. The mission of the Junior College is to reduce the cost of the work it proposes to do, no less than multiply the number of youths now the beneficiaries of such educational advantages. Let me say, finally, that pioneering a movement is heroic work. You who have shown the way in Texas to a more nearly perfected system of education—a system of natural progression throughout its several phases—by the adoption of the Junior College unit that promises to democratize our higher educational structure, deserve the public gratitude. The valiant only are found foremost in the vanguard carrying the colors of an army. Stout hearts only accept the championship for the worthiest cause, where the battle is long and the issue is in doubt. "Then to side with truth is noble. When we share her wretched crust, "For her cause brings fame and profit. And 'tis prosperous to be just. Then it is the brave man chooses. While the coward stands aside, Doubting to his abject spirit. Till his Lord is crucified."

NAYLOR

Every one busy, all fixing up for the best farming ever. W. M. Pickering improving around his corners, new fences and gates which adds much to the looks of his place. Who will be next?

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carnes came from Shamrock to visit Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow. J. W. sold his place here one year ago and bought near Shamrock. He now has sold out at Shamrock and is on his way to Clovis, New Mexico. We hope he will find something at Naylor. We would be glad to have them among us.

Bray basketball team came over Friday afternoon to play our boys. A very interesting game we had, altho our boys lost. Naylor team is a very young team, but in time we predict a good team.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey at Hedley.

Misses Rachel and Louise Tidrow and Miss Lucille Johnson, also Leroy Tidrow attended a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson at Lelia Lake, Saturday night. They report a most splendid time.

Mr. and Mrs. French Proctor of Memphis, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow.

Mrs. Tom Bain and sons, Clyde and Kenneth, of Hedley, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Naylor. Mrs. Naylor is a daughter of Mrs. Bain.

Rev. Knox preached Sunday afternoon, after services he held church conference. We are always glad to have Bro. Knox with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carnes and children of Shamrock, spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow. They went to Hedley before returning to Shamrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bain are visiting at Amarillo this week, also looking after business.

Sweet potato bedding is now the order of the day at Naylor. We expect to fill our dry plants this fall. Naylor is the home of good farming, truck growing, poultry raising, dairy cows and hogs. Our orchards this year will not be so much as the zero weather in January killed the peach crop. So far plums, apples, cherries and apricots are OK.

Corned meat kept over into the next summer should be watched closely in the spring, as the brine is likely to spoil. If the brine appears to be "ropy", remove the pieces of meat and scrub them thoroughly with a stiff brush and hot water. Then repack and cover with new brine. The brine should be kept in a cool place, as the sugar in it has a tendency to ferment.

Mrs. J. W. Cooper of Fort Worth, arrived here Saturday of last week for a visit of a week in the home of her brother, G. L. Povkin and family. Her daughter, Miss Nedra, came up from Quanah, with her for the week-end, returning Sunday evening.

THINK OF YOUR AUTOMOBILE IN TERMS OF TOMORROW

Ultimate cost is as important as first cost in the purchase of an automobile

WHEN you purchase an automobile you are making an investment of a considerable amount of money. It is essential, therefore, that you give careful thought to the best selection and know what you are getting for your automobile dollars.

The first cost is important because it may mean an immediate, satisfactory saving. Of equal importance is the ultimate cost after thousands of miles of service. This ultimate cost is the true measure of automobile value.

THE first cost of the new Ford is unusually low not only because of economies in manufacturing, but because the same principles that inspire these savings are extended to every other step that means greater service to the public. It is easy to see that economies in production would be of little value if they were sacrificed later through high charges for distribution, selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, does business on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company. His discount or commission is twenty-five to fifty per cent lower than that of any other automobile dealer. You gain because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

The difference in selling cost, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, amounts to at least $50 to $75 on each car. This is as important as economies in production in keeping down the price you pay for the new Ford.

THE low ultimate cost of the new Ford is the result of sound design, quality of material and unusual care in manufacturing. Friction and wear are reduced by the accuracy with which each part is made and assembled.

These factors combine to decrease the cost of operation and add months and years to the useful life of the car. The good performance and low yearly depreciation of the new Ford are indicative of the enduring quality built into it at the factory.

SERVICE charges are on the same fair, economical basis as the making and selling of the car and replacement parts are always available at low prices through all Ford dealers. In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost.

Think in terms of tomorrow, therefore, when you purchase an automobile. For tomorrow will reveal its true worth.

Bringing Health To China's Little Ones

CHINESE high school girls are learning how to look after their younger brothers and sisters according to the most approved methods of child hygiene.

Mrs. John Allan Dougherty of Washington, D. C., a director of China Child Welfare Inc., has just returned from China where she was instrumental in starting courses in child hygiene and child care in the high schools of fifteen cities selected by the Chinese Minister of Education.

The course of lessons was prepared by Dr. S. Josephine Baker of New York, and translated into Chinese by the alumnae of Ginling College, Nanking. While in China, Mrs. Dougherty formulated the working program between China Child Welfare Inc., and its affiliated organization in China, the National Child Welfare Association of China, and secured from the National Government a gift of forty mow, or seven acres, of land just outside the wall of Nanking as a site for a model child welfare demonstration center. Committees are being formed throughout the United States now to raise funds for building and maintaining this center as one of the most effective methods of educating China in modern, scientific child care. Mrs. Dougherty found everywhere in China, from the highest government officials down to the poorest families, interested in child care and anxious to learn how best to preserve the health of the children. There are literally millions of children in China who need care, Mrs. Dougherty said, and as fast as clinics are opened they are overcrowded with parents bringing sick children to be cured and well children to be examined that they may learn from doctors and nurses how to keep their children healthy and happy. The work in clinics and in the proposed child welfare demonstration center will be done entirely by Chinese doctors and nurses according to a program which has been outlined by Dr. Baker. Funds for this educational and preventive work in improving health conditions of one-fourth of the world's children are being raised by China Child Welfare Inc., 156 Fifth Avenue, New York, under the direction of Owen Roberts, chairman of the committee, and J. Stewart Nagle, executive secretary. Thirty dollars will provide adequate care for one child for a year.

$2,000,000 IS DONLEY INCOME

CLARENDON SHIPS CATTLE, GRAIN, COTTON, DAIRY, POULTRY PRODUCTS.

Clarendon, Texas, Feb. 25—During the last season 250 cars of fat cattle were shipped from Clarendon, as well as 200 cars of grain, consisting of wheat, grain sorghums and corn, and 100 cars of cotton seed. Besides 8,000 bales of cotton were loaded at Clarendon, 3,500 ten-gallon cans of cream, forty cars of hogs, fifty cars of poultry, ten cars of eggs and a large quantity of these and other products left by truck.

Donley County is an example of successful diversification. The section produces all the crops adapted to this area. It is estimated that last season's agricultural commodities here brought farmers nearly $2,000,000. There are 40,000 Hereford cattle in the immediate area surrounding Clarendon. The J. A. Ranch, the largest shipper of cattle, will ship many more head.

The prosperity of Donley County is reflected in the statement by the local Denver Railroad agent, whose records show that 100 cars of automobiles were unloaded here, fifty cars of gasoline, fifty cars of lumber and building materials and cottonseed cake, each.

Conditions are good and the farming outlook is improving with the advent of good weather and field work resumed.

KONJOLA WINS TRIUMPHS EVERY DAY EVERYWHERE

MR. RAYMOND SCHMIDT Results are what count; mere words and promises mean nothing. Konjola has won fame and friends just by making good, and that is the medicine sufferers want and should have. Imagine the joy of Mr. Raymond Schmidt, A. F. D. No. 1, Sedalia, Mo., when he was able to say: "Though I know it to be true I find it hard to believe Konjola in just three months, ended my sufferings of nine years duration. For that long time I suffered

MOTOR PATROL IS STATIONED ON HIGHWAYS

DUTIES OVER TWENTY COUNTIES, TO INVESTIGATE VEHICLE DIMENSIONS.

When you see two gray-uniformed officers on aluminum painted motorcycles far out on a highway, you are likely to assume that they are there merely to chase those persons who exceed the highway speed limit of 45 miles per hour.

But their duties are not nearly so simple as that. One of the other things they have to look out for is the weight of vehicles operating on highways, and also the width of trucks and other motors.

With the advent of Lee Miller and Jack Reeves as motor patrol for the highways in Division 4, the north 20 counties in the Panhandle the state is for the first time in a position to enforce the numerous regulations relative to operation of cars, trucks and tractors on the highways.

According to the revised statutes regarding this matter, "No vehicle shall exceed a total outside width, including any load from indigestion, constipation, kidney trouble and catarrh. No food agreed with me; every night I had to get up numerous times, and the catarrh certainly added to my misery. In those nine years I tried no end of medicine and treatments and everyone was a miserable failure. But how different with Konjola! Week by week I grew better, and in three months I was my old self again. To me Konjola is the most wonderful medicine in the world, and I recommend it with all my heart.

Konjola is sold in Clarendon at Douglas & Goldston Drug Co. and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

thereon, of 96 inches, except that the width of a farm tractor shall not exceed nine feet, and excepting further, that the limitations as to size of vehicle stated in this section shall not apply to implements of husbandry and highway building and maintenance machinery temporarily propelled or moved upon the public highway.

"No vehicle unloaded or with load shall exceed a height of 14 feet and six inches, including load. "No vehicle shall exceed a length of 35 feet, and no combination of vehicles coupled together shall exceed a total length of 65 feet, unless said combination is operated exclusively within the limits of an incorporated city or town.

"No train of vehicles or vehicle operated alone shall carry any load extending more than three feet beyond the front thereof.

"No vehicle with four wheels or less, whose gross weight, including load is more than 22,000 pounds; no vehicle with six wheels whose gross weight, including load is more than 30,000 pounds; no vehicle having a greater weight than 16,000 on any one axle; and no vehicle having a greater weight than 700 pounds per inch width of tire upon any wheel concentrated upon the surface of the highway, shall be permitted or operated on the public highways of the state."

Regulation of the size and weight of all vehicles of all sorts will be part of the duties of the new motor patrolmen. They are authorized to direct any driver of any vehicle to drive to the nearest scales and weigh his loaded truck or other car, provided they believe that the vehicle is too heavy.

This regulation is calculated to protect the highways from the excessive pounding that overloaded vehicles would produce. The highways will last longer with fewer repairs if reasonable loads are permitted on them.—Amarillo Daily News.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

By Edson R. Waite, Shawnee, Okla.

Col. E. S. Gorrell, President of the Stutz Motor Car Company, Says:

That there should be no place in the great American system of publicly owned highways for privately owned bridges.

The existence of a great number of toll bridges at key points on the great national and state highways creates an anomalous situation. Through the expenditure of public funds, great highways are constructed leading from metropolis to metropolis. The users of these roads have paid for them through taxation direct and indirect. At some vital point on the road private enterprise reaches out to demand its tribute. The leech at the throat of travel is the ubiquitous toll bridge.

In the past toll bridges, just as toll roads, have been necessary for the development of the country. The opportunity for private gain was necessary to advance our frontiers. But now that our economic development has practically freed us from the toll rate on the post road, why shouldn't the toll bridge follow into oblivion?

The Bridge Is An Integral Part of The Road. The People Own The Roads—Why Shouldn't They Own The Bridges? The Roads Are Free. Is There Any Logical Reason Why The Bridges Should Not Also Be?

That the democracy of American business is proven again and again by the conspicuous success of men who started their careers at the foot of the ladder and climbed to success by sheer force of character and determination. An outstanding example of this has just occurred in the election of Herbert D. Ivey to the presidency of the $135,000,000 Citizens National Trust & Savings Bank of Los Angeles.

A little more than twenty-six years ago, Herbert D. Ivey began to work for the Citizens National Bank as a messenger. He was seventeen years old and had just come to the city from San Antonio, Texas.

He brought with him no special advantages or family pull, but both he and his two brothers entered banks in Los Angeles, and all three have risen to high positions.

In the intervening years H. D. Ivey worked his way up, becoming successively bookkeeper, teller, cashier, vice president and president.

In his spare time he studied and graduated in the American Institute of Banking and helped the men under him to learn more about banking.

When in June the president of the bank died suddenly, the directors without delay turned to the man who had been loyally working for the best interests of the institution for twenty-six years and entrusted him with the responsibilities of the high position.

There is always plenty of room at the top for those who have brains and determination. The Elevation of H. D. Ivey To The Presidency Of This Large And Influential Bank is Another Outstanding Example Of How A Country Bred Boy Can Start At The Bottom And Rise To The Top.

W. J. Patterson, General Manager of the Scranton (Pa.) Sun, Says:

Why do most advertisers, as business conditions slump and become depressed, immediately curtail their advertising appropriation?

The man who thinks matters through and looks ahead will at such times either increase his appropriation, or at least will not cut it.

Advertising at all times is good, but it is more effective when competitors are inactive.

The business of a man who advertises liberally during a depressed period is better during a flush period because of it, and when business conditions begin to improve he usually comes back two or three months in advance of his non, or curtailed, advertising competitor.

A False Premise The theory on the part of many merchants that when business falls off it is useless to advertise is false. The engineer, when the engine is running at full speed does not put on more fuel until it shows signs of slowing up, and so it is with advertising.

If an advertising appropriation must be cut, do it when business is booming, but never cut it when business is dull.

All Publications Should Preach This Doctrine. Not For The Benefit In Dollars and Cents Which May Come to Them, But For The Benefit To The Merchant and The Community at Large.

SOCIETY

Mother's Study Club Met Friday

On Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. T. H. Ellis, the Mother's Study Club met for the purpose of studying the "Ethical value of the amusements of young people." This topic was generally discussed in a paper by Dr. Belle which was read by the leader, Mrs. Wm. Patman. How to Teach Fair Play, How to Teach Generous Play and How to be Losers were called for in a round table discussion.

Mrs. Paul Shelton discussed, "The Necessity of Games and Exercise," "Keep Your Temper" was very interestingly given by Mrs. John Bass and "Quotations" by Mrs. Eva Draffen. A lovely two-course luncheon was served by the hostess to Mrs. T. T. Burton, Mrs. Paul Shelton, Mrs. Lloyd Stallings, Mrs. C. W. Bennett, Jr., Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. U. J. Boston, Mrs. John Bass, Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mrs. R. Wilkerson, Mrs. Wm. Patman, Mrs. Fred Buntin and Mrs. Eva Draffen.

During the business session Mrs. Lank Thornberry was voted into the club. Mrs. Porter will be hostess to the club on March 21st. A large attendance is urged as Mr. Burton will address the club on "Free Co-operation as a method learned by Teamwork."

Mrs. H. R. Kerbow Is Hostess

Among the many enjoyable and congenial social events of the week here was the St. Patrick bridge party given by Mrs. H. R. Kerbow, Saturday afternoon at her home.

The color motif of green and white was carried out in the tally cards and dainty refreshments course, which followed a number of games of bridge.

Mrs. Sam Dyer held high score when the games closed and received a lovely gift as well as Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, second high and Mrs. Ira Merchant, low.

Those enjoying this event were: Mesdames Seldon Bagby, Chas. Bell, Sam Dyer, C. E. Miller, Forest Taylor, O. L. Jenkins, H. B. Kerbow, Don Grady, Forest Sawyer, Fred Buntin, J. L. McMurry, J. H. Porter, Clyde Price, Meredith Gentry, Ira Merchant, E. L. Jenkins, Sr., P. L. Chamberlain, B. L. Jenkins, Jr., Bill Bromley, C. G. Stricklin, Paul Smithy and D. B. Wilson of Claude.

Friday Bridge Club Entertained

St. Patrick held sway in the home of Mrs. P. L. Chamberlain, Friday afternoon, when she was hostess to the members of the Friday Bridge Club and a few invited guests.

Green and white tallies were passed to Mesdames O. L. Jenkins, Forest Taylor, C. E. Miller, Chas. Trent, B. L. Jenkins, Jr., Floyd Lumpkin and Forest Sawyer, club members.

Mesdames Kelly Chamberlain, C. G. Stricklin, Ira Merchant, Chas. Bell and Miss Christine Stroder invited guests, who enjoyed the games of bridge which were brought to a close of the presentation of the high score gift to Mrs. Chas. Bell and consolation to Mrs. Forest Taylor. Attractive luncheon plates with desirable edibles which embodied the color scheme of green and white were passed and enjoyed by the guests before departing for their homes.

Mrs. James Patman Hostess to Class

The Sunday School class taught by Mrs. James Patman were the guests at a picnic held Wednesday of last week on the banks of Salt Fork to the North of this city. The youngsters were first regaled with a profusion of sandwiches on their arrival at the appointed places, later toasting marshmallows as the evening shadows lengthened and the blaze from the fire was welcome by its warmth. The class is a part of the Intermediate department of the Baptist Sunday School and is looking forward to a repetition of other events of this sort.

Enjoying the outing are: Misses Marie Carile, Stella Reid, Goldie Tierer, Ila Deal, Gwendolyn Fielder, and the teacher, Mrs. James Patman.

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ferrell Surprised

A number of the members of the Christian Church met at the church Wednesday evening and went to the parsonage where they showed Rev. and Mrs. Ferrell what a real Texas poundin' is.

Those who could not attend sent gifts and a nice assortment was presented to the fortunate couple, who were almost speechless with amazement as it was so unexpected. A jolly time was had by all and they are very grateful to Mrs. C. R. Skinner and Mrs. J. R. Cox for their clever managing.

Jr.-Hi P. T. A. To Meet

The Jr.-Hi P. T. A. will meet on Thursday, March 21, 1930 in the auditorium of the Jr.-Hi building, 3:30 o'clock. A splendid program on child welfare has been prepared and it is hoped that every parent will be present.

Home Economics Club Meets

"Diet for Convalescing from Illness" was the topic discussed Friday afternoon when the members of the Home Economics Club met in the home of Mrs. S. B. Arnold for their regular meeting.

Miss Harvey Thompson gave an interesting talk on the above mentioned subject for a convalescent. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the program.

Mrs. J. O. Thompson of Lelia Lake, was an invited guest for the afternoon. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. C. L. Benson.

Kongential Kard Klub Meets

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Taylor delightfully entertained the members of the Kongential Kard Klub with a dinner-bridge party at their beautiful home Wednesday evening.

An elaborate two course chicken dinner was served at the small tables. Cards passed and the playing of auction bridge begun.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Price were high score winners. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Merchant cut high for ladies and gentlemen prizes.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trent, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Price, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Merchant.

Miss Wilma King Is Honored

On Friday evening Miss Wilma King was the charming honoree of a delightful party by Mrs. Lloyd Stallings, commemorating the birthday of Miss King.

A lovely dinner was served by the hostess after which the game of 42 was enjoyed until a late hour. Miss Jessie Swinburn and Mr. Ray Allred were high score winners. Miss King also received a lovely gift.

Those present to celebrate this birthday festival were: Misses Jessie Swinburn, Hazel Gilbert, Helen Bailey and Fray Stallings, Messrs. Ray and Delbert Allred, William Wilder, Phifer Estiack and Batton.

Mrs. Mayes Hostess to 1912 Needle Club

Needles and tongues moved briskly at the home of Mrs. A. A. Mayes, West 2nd Street, Thursday afternoon, when the members of the 1912 Needle Club met there for a few hours of pleasant needle work and conversation.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close to: Mrs. Hasty, Mrs. Homer Glascoe, Mrs. R. F. Morris, Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Mrs. J. T. Patman, Mrs. A. L. Chase, Mrs. C. W. Taylor, Mrs. Minnie Dyer, club members, Mrs. O. T. Smith, Mrs. D. O. Stallings and Mrs. John Watts, invited guests.

Friendship Club Guest of Mrs. Stocking

The friendly members of the Friendship Club met for a few hours of pleasure in the home of Mrs. J. D. Stocking, Tuesday afternoon.

Idle bits of conversation and fancy needle work helped to make the afternoon meeting more pleasant. The hostess served a lovely plate lunch to Mrs. L. Ballew, Mrs. C. E. Lindsey, Mrs. C. R. Skinner, Mrs. R. Thomas, Mrs. G. J. Teel, Mrs. M. E. Thornton, Mrs. H. Tyree and Mrs. Carl Tyree, club members.

Mrs. Royce Hall of Gruver, Texas, and little Miss Bertha Maye Thomas were guests.

Busy Women In Business Session

The Busy Women's Sunday School class dispensed with their regular social meeting on last Friday, due to the union service held at the Baptist Church, and instead held a short business session in the parlors of the church on Monday afternoon.

Reports from the s'anding committees were good and many money making plans were discussed for having since pledged $500.00 to the new proposed annex this class is now devising ways in which to raise that amount.

Their first project being to serve lunch to the visiting ministers on that day. Mrs. I. L. Taylor and Mrs. Will Lott acted as hostesses and served dainty refreshments.

Business Men's Bible Class Honored

The members of the Business Men's Bible Class were honored by the T. E. L. Sunday School Class of the Baptist Church with a banquet in the parlors of the church on Tuesday evening.

The guests were greeted at the entrance by Mrs. W. A. Land and Mrs. Geo. Reed, who ushered them up the stairs where they were met by Mrs. W. B. Sims and Mrs. A. W. Simpson. After disposing of wraps they were invited into the dining room by Mrs. Eva Draffen and Mrs. W. A. Massie. The dining room in which the banquet was held was a bower of loveliness in St. Patrick decorations and colors of green and white, which are also the class colors.

Pot plants and ferns were used to the best of advantage on the long banquet table which fairly groaned under its load of delicacies. Three courses were served with turkey being the central dish. Green minis and nut cups added to the attractiveness of the table.

Eighty-five guests were present to enjoy this festive evening as well as the following program which was nicely rendered during the course of the evening: Prayer—Rev. Shepherd. Class song—"My Faith Looks up to Thee"—Members of the T. E. L. Class.

Piano Solo—Pauline Sanford. Illustrated song—Mesdames Rolle and Harry Brumley. Music—Miss Stallings and Mr. Stephenson.

Reading—Gertrude Reed. Vocal solo—Bobbie Leathers. Music—Miss Stallings and Mr. Stephenson. Building an Adult Bible Class—H. T. Burton.

Reading—Mrs. W. B. Sims. Piano solo—Mrs. Allen Bryan. Music—Miss Stallings and Mr. Stephenson. Deepening the spiritual life—Rev. Shepherd.

Song—"Bless Be the Tie That Binds." ***

Bridge and Forty-two Enjoyed

Mr. and Mrs. Heckle Starks assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Luther Butler, charmingly entertained in their home Saturday evening. An enjoyable time was spent over the games of bridge and 42, while music was had by Mr. Sam Roberts, James Roberts, Brownie Roberts and the victrola. Refreshments of hot coffee and sandwiches were served at a late hour to the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Butler, all of Amarillo, also Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bogard and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Heckle Starks. On Sunday all were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Butler with a delicious 3 o'clock dinner. All had a very pleasant and enjoyable time.

Slumber Party Greatly Enjoyed

A party of much interest and pleasure to the younger folk of the city was that given by Marjorie White on Saturday evening at her home.

The girls arrived for an early dinner and were then off to the Theatre for a few thrills from the all talking and all singing picture. After the show the girls returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White where a slumberous happy night was spent.

Those participating in the affair were: Vera Noland, Berkley Ryan, Evelyn Murphy, Jo Ella Stewart, Eleanor Morris and the hostess, Marjorie White.

Senior B. Y. P. U. Enjoys St. Patrick Social

The members of the Senior Department of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed a social occasion in the parlors of the First Baptist Church Thursday night. The rooms were festively decorated in green and white, with Shamrock leaves much in evidence.

On arriving the guests were assigned to an Irish family and given the material with which to make an appropriate insignia to be worn during the party. Through the remainder of the evening, good natured but keen rivalry was manifested by the Mulligans, McCarneys, Murphys, and Maloneys, as they pitted their wits and skill in the various games.

A delicious plate lunch, featuring the color scheme of green and white, was served the sixty-six guests.

The following special numbers added to the enjoyment of the occasion: Vocal duet—Miss Anna Moores and Mrs. G. H. McCleskey. Irish readings—Mrs. H. L. Givnes. Vocal solo—Mrs. Frank Simons.

No music—Mr. I. B. Pierce. Irish music was featured, both in the special numbers and in the victrola music.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Don Martin, president; Mrs. L. D. Carlile, vice president; Mrs. Melvin W. Cook, secretary; Mrs. Elmer Jones, treasurer; Mrs. Chas. F. Carlson, reporter; Mrs. S. G. Phelps, Mrs. A. O. Yates and Mrs. J. R. Martin enjoyed the hospitality of this charming hostess. Dainty refreshments were served at the close and the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. L. D. Carlile, Monday, March 17.

Thursday Bridge Club Entertained

Members of the Thursday Bridge Club enjoyed a delightful meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. B. Trent.

Many expressions of delight were heard when the clever hand-made score cards were passed, which was a sign for the playing to begin, which continued until five games had been played.

Upon adding the score it was found that Mrs. Clyde Price was high for club members and Miss Elgin Patrick for invited guests.

Those making this party were: Mrs. Mary Cooke, Miss Beulah Baird, Miss Anna Moores, Miss Catherine Cole and Miss Elgin Patrick. Mrs. Chas. Bell, Mrs. Clyde Price, Mrs. P. L. Chamberlain, Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain, Mrs. Earl Alexander, Mrs. Frank Stocking and Mrs. R. Wilkerson.

Mrs. Chas. Bell Hostess

Mrs. Chas. Bell entertained a few friends with the game of contract bridge at her home Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies all finding this game very fascinating and Miss Beulah Baird felt very fortunate when presented with high score prize.

Cake and coffee were served to Mrs. Charles Trent, Miss Loraine Patrick, Miss Mary Cooke, Miss Beulah Baird, Mrs. T. H. Ellis, Mrs. Ira Merchant and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain.

Belle Bennett Circle Meets

Mrs. H. Johnson was hostess to the Belle Bennett Circle Wednesday afternoon, when 15 members and three guests were present. One new name was added to the roll. Mrs. Naylor was leader of the lesson, with Mrs. Lillian Brady and Mrs. John Goldston taking part. Mrs. Elba Ballew gave one chapter from the life of Belle Bennett.

L. Ballew Celebrates Birthday

Mr. L. Ballew, a pioneer of West Texas, and a long time resident of Donley County, passed his 72nd milestone, Sunday, March 9th, and was gloriously surprised by his children, who planned a family reunion in his honor.

The meeting was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ballew of Amarillo and marked a day of feasting as well as pleasure. Turkey and all its trimmings were served at the noon hour and the picture was completed with a large white frosted cake on which rested seventy-two brightly lighted candles.

All the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Ballew were present and included: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ballew, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ballew and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ballew and two children, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ballew and son and Donald Ballew of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Gilliam and daughter of Hereford.

During the business session Mrs. T. H. Ellis was elected president to fill the place of Mrs. J. W. Evans, resigned and Mrs. Holman Kennedy vice president. Mrs. T. H. Ellis was also elected as a delegate to the Federated Club Meeting to be held in Pampa next month and Mrs. Holman Kennedy as alternate.

Les Beaux Arts Club Meets

Mrs. Brice Kennedy was the efficient leader of the lesson on Michael Angelo when the members of the Les Beaux Arts Club met in the home of Mrs. A. L. Chase, Friday afternoon. Mrs. C. B. Trent was assistant hostess.

Miss Helen Beck gave the "Sculptures of Michael Angelo" and Mrs. Kennedy the leader, discussed "Paintings of the Sistine Chapel."

During the business session Mrs. T. H. Ellis was elected president to fill the place of Mrs. J. W. Evans, resigned and Mrs. Holman Kennedy vice president. Mrs. T. H. C. R. MITCHELL BURIED HERE WEDNESDAY 12TH

Funeral services for the mortal remains of Charles R. Mitchell were held Wednesday afternoon of this week from the First Baptist Church of this city. Revs. S. R. McClung and B. N. Shepherd officiated in the ceremony. The ser-vices at the cemetery were in charge of the Masonic Lodge. In-terment was had in the Citizens Cemetery.

Charles Mitchell was born Sep-tember 7th, 1886 near Princeton, Kentucky. He came to Texas when quite a youth and first settled with his parents near Abilene, later removing to Mabank, Texas, where his people lived for the past thirty years. In 1913 he moved to Goodnight with his fam-ily, staying there until he came to Clarendon to stay on September 3rd, 1927. He and his family came to Clarendon and stayed for about nine months in the latter part of 1918 and the early part of 1919, it being here that their son was born. Since 1927 the Mitchell fam-ily had made their home in Clare-ndon, Mr. Mitchell first working in the Whitlock Barber Shop and later establishing a place of busi-ness of his own here on March 19, 1928. The first shop was moved to its present location shortly before the first of February of his year and a very short time before he was stricken with what finally proved to be his final ill-ness. Stricken on February 28th, 1930, he lingered between life and death for more than two weeks before answering the final sum-mons. At the time of his death he was 43 years, 6 months and 4 days of age.

Charles Mitchell was married to Miss Irene Dowdy of Kaufman County, on August 19, 1906, and is survived by his widow and one son, Marvin Richard, aged 11 years.

During the time Mr. Mitchell lived in Goodnight he took two boys and financed their way through the Goodnight Baptist College that was then in full operation. On the death of his wife's mother in January 1916, Mr. and Mrs. Mit-chell took her two sisters, now Mrs. Laverne Shuford and Mrs. Jo Inez Reid and completed Mrs. Reid's education for her putting her through college and giving them all the advantages possible for them to receive.

In 1905, Mr. Mitchell was con-verted and united with the Bap-tist Church, adhering to this orga-nization until his death. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge and took a great part in the work of this organization.

In addition to his widow and son, the deceased is survived by his father, H. K. Mitchell of Ma-bank; five sisters, Mrs. Dora Pool and Mrs. Oda Mangon of Mabank, Mrs. Della Wheeler of Mulhall, Oklahoma; Mrs. Lena Stephens of Conway and Mrs. Bessie Posey of Goodnight; three brothers, J. C. Mitchell of Moorpark, California; S. H. Mitchell of Corona, Cali-fornia, and E. B. Mitchell of Con-way.

Pall bearers are: Dr. C. W. Gal-laway, W. A. Walters, Van Ken-nedy, Walter Wilson, R. L. Bain and Hugh B. Lusk.

FORMER CLARENDON WOMAN IS BURIED HERE TUESDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. H. W. Kelley, resident of Clarendon a number of years past, were held from the First Baptist Church on last Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Rev. B. N. Shepherd, pas-tor of that church officiated at the last rites. Interment was had in the Citizens Cemetery.

Mrs. H. W. Kelley was at her home at Memphis at the time of her death, having recently moved to that city from Altus, Oklahoma. At the time of her death, she was 61 years, 8 months and 12 days of age.

The deceased was well known in Clarendon, having lived here a number of years past.

Mr. Kelley was formerly owner of the Clarendon Planing Mill, oper-ating this business to the time he left here and moved to Mem-phis, Oklahoma. Since that time they have lived at Vernon, Altus, Clarendon and Memphis for the past three years.

Mrs. Kelley is survived by her husband, H. W. Kelley of Mem-phis, a brother, Mr. B. W. Taylor of Levelland; a brother, Walter Taylor of Lubbock; a niece, Mrs. John Snyder of Amarillo and a great host of friends. A grand daughter, Miss Mildred Sparks, lives in Clarendon.

Those from out of the city who came to pay their last respects to the mourning family are: Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Taylor of Levelland; Mr. Walter Taylor of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder of Am-arillo and Mrs. Irby Eddings of Amarillo.

D. P. DONNELL DIED IN HOME OF DAUGHTER TUES.

The last rites for the mortal remains of D. P. Donnell, fami-liar figure on the streets of the city for the past several years, were said this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. L. A. Reavis and Leon O. Lewis conducted the last rites from the Methodist Church. Interment was had in the Citizens Cemetery, where he was laid be-side his wife, buried there some years past.

Mr. Donnell was visiting in the home of a daughter, Mrs. A. R. Harris, in Savre, Oklahoma, at the time of his death. He con-tracted pneumonia and had been seriously ill for the past three weeks, death coming to relieve him from his suffering.

Mr. Donnell had lived his allot-ted days some and ten years span of life and would have been 88 years of age on June 2nd of this year had he lived to that date.

To the time he left this city for his last visit, Mr. Donnell was a familiar figure to all the busi-

Our Weekly Church Chat

"Building up the Church of Jesus Christ or advancing His cause here on earth is the great-est business in the world. Christ gave His life to establish it and has invited, "Whatsoever will" to help Him carry to the ends of the earth, the "gospel story". Through Jesus Christ is offered, salvation, soul freedom, immortali-ty, a heavenly home, perpetual peace and eternal happiness. The church is the only organization in the world that has for its def-inite purpose the over-throw of sin and as a Christian you are a co-laborer in this great task. Your influence is being used for or against Christ and His church, now where do you stand? The church stands for the best things, so line up with the churching.

Next Lord's Day, morning our subject will be, "Border-land Christians." In this message we will try to show the dangers of trying to remain neutral in the great war fare against sin. In the evening message, "The Modern Church," the characteristics of the New Testament Church will be presented and proof sub-mitted to show that they meet the demands of the "Twentieth Cen-tury People." You are invited to attend both services.

ness men of the city. His always cheerful smile was to be seen on almost all the days of the year, his activity belying his years. He was an active member of the Methodist Church and was a con-stant attendant on all rites of that organization. He has many friends who will miss him and who will be certain to find him on the Heavenly shore when their final passage is made.

KNIGHT TRIES NEW VEN-TURE FOR CLARENDON USE

Bulgarian buttermilk is a new venture for Clarendon and as such is manufactured here for local consumption. Mr. Knight is the manufacturer of this product, putting it into active operation rather as an experiment to fill the orders for buttermilk that frequently came into his place of business when he was out of the other variety. In the manufacture of this product, fresh skimmed milk is placed in a cooker and raised to a temperature of 180 degrees. From this heat, the milk is cooled to 68 degrees or a very few above this and a half pint of buttermilk is added. The con-tainer is then set aside and the product sets and is ready for bot-tling some hours later.

There has been a great demand and this venture is expected to remedy the situation insofar as for buttermilk here in the past the consumers are concerned. Lo-cal confectioners state their will-ingness to install the necessary equipment to care for the demand for this product and local drink-ers of this beverage are planning to be able to enjoy their favorite drink as often as they want it.

NICE FOR THE JUDGES

One woman in the nation's capital has cooked 2,400 meat cuts within four years; but not one of them for her own consumption. It was cooking with a purpose, however. To study various factors affecting the tastefulness of cooked meats, the Bureau of Home Economics experimented with the roastability, shrinking proclivities, required temperatures, and similar culinary attributes of more than 2,000 animals.

Every piece of meat was roasted in a well regulated oven, cooked to a definite stage of "doneness", and turned over to five judges for scoring on qualities of flavor, tenderness and juiciness. The mass of conclusions reached concerning methods of meat cookery are being passed on to housewives and cooking teachers in the form of illustrated food leaflets. More than 600 rib roasts of beef, 1,600 legs of lamb and 200 pork cuts were subjected to the test.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE AMERICAN FARMER

Why does the American farmer produce more every year with less labor and on fewer acres? Hearken to the answer of the Federal Department of Agriculture: He knows more about his soils and plants and animals. He is in a better position to combat pests. He knows how to apply his labor more efficiently. He is using more fertilizer. He is feeding his livestock better. He selects and plants better seed, breeds and feeds better. He is, in fact, a more efficient person than he was last year and the year before, and he seems likely to be more efficient every year from now on. Why? Because that's just the kind of farmers this country has.

FOR THOSE WHO LIKE FIGURES

If a nation's consumption of world products were strictly in proportion to her population, the United States would absorb only seven per cent of these products. If production were proportionate to area, we would supply only six per cent of the world's output. How tremendously we deviate from any such procedure is illustrated by some bare figures. Uncle Sam, representing 7 per cent of the world's population, consumes 42 per cent of the world's iron production, 47 per cent of the copper, 69 per cent of the crude petroleum, 56 per cent of the crude rubber, 38 per cent of the coal, 59 per cent of the tin, 48 per cent of the coffee, 21 per cent of the sugar, 72 per cent of the silk and upward of 80 per cent of the automobiles. With six per cent of the world's area, we supply the gigantic mass of universal demand with 39 per cent of its coal, 35 per cent of its ation by the fact that manufactured goods are foremost in our export trade. Industrialization of the south seems to be proceeding more rapidly than even its advocates realize.

THE WILD WILD ROSE

Sombody in this country can always manage to spoil things for his 119,999,999 brethren. Here, after the nation has spent months working itself into a fever over the selection of a natural flower—and after the great majority have happily settled on the wild rose—some impertinent person rises to inquire, "Which wild rose?"

Rushing to consult horticultural authorities, the ordinary citizen is confronted by a regular army of wild roses. Did he vote for the sweetbrier, the scented eglantine, the dog rose, the cherokee, the pasture rose, the marsh rose, the prairie rose or the damask? It is safe to say that he doesn't know and that it probably would have made little difference if he had. Maybe it shouldn't make any difference now, but it undoubtedly will. What a lot of muddy water one inquiring mind can stir up in the clear pools of contentment.

WAS COMPELLED TO QUIT BUSINESS

"Two years ago I had to give up business on account of bad health, but I feel so well after taking Sargon it's hard to realize I was ever in such bad health."

HERMAN PFEIFFER

"Acute pains like rheumatism caused me lots of suffering and I could hardly eat anything without having the worst kind of indigestion. My whole system seemed clogged with noisens and I was awful weak with mighty little vitality. Nothing seemed to help me until I started Sargon. I eat with a hearty appetite now without the least touch of indigestion and there isn't a pain in my body. I sleep well, have gained 5 pounds in weight and feel like a different man. Sargon Pills overcame my constipation and rid my system of poisons."—Herman Pfeiffer, 734 E. Cincinnati Ave., San Antonio.

DAIRY SHOW ENTRIES MUST BE MADE TO M. HOPKINS

Plainview, March 12—Entries for the annual auction sale of pure bred registered dairy cattle at the Texas Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show must be made to manager Maury Hopkins, at Plainview, not later than March 15th. This announcement was made by S. J. Payne of Tulsa, who is vice-president of the Texas Panhandle Plains Dairy Association and chairman of the sales committee. Other members of this committee are D. F. Eaton, county agent of Lubbock County and F. R. Phillips, of the West Texas State Teachers College. Chairman Payne is stressing the importance of all entries being in the hands of the manager on or before March 15 because a catalog must be prepared and the sale advertised. The committee also must pass on the prospective entries before they are allowed in the sale ring. The sale is one of the outstanding features of the show and will be held on Thursday, April 10, the final day of the exposition.

NEW YORK-PARIS FASHIONS

TRIMMINGS this season are of almost importance, and buttons and buckles have a way of dressing up a frock or suit that few other trimmings can do. Always, as waitlines are now definitely accepted, whenever there is a belt there is a buckle. They are truly delightful additions nowadays as simulated semi-precious stones are often used and lend great charm to an otherwise plain costume. The costume illustrated combines an egg-shell satin blouse with a dull surfaced black satin coat and skirt. The blouse has many tiny simulated ivory buttons down the front and on the cuffs. The coat has a large round button-hole on either side of the front which permits a loop to cross, holding it closed by two large ball-buttons matching those on the blouse. The sleeves of the jacket are of the new three-quarter length. The skirt is cut on the circular to flare in the front, and has a belt accentuating the waistline with a large ivory colored buckle. This ensemble is just a hint of the evening mode for the silk suit is promised a more popular vogue than ever this year.

BUSINESS RECESSION IS SHOWING EFFECT SHARPLY

Austin, Texas, March 11—Increase in the number of commercial failures in Texas was noted in February, indicating that the business recession, which began about the middle of last year, is having a far reaching effect, according to Bernard Nichols, editor of the Texas Business Review issued monthly by the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas. A gain in the number of bankruptcies at this time is not surprising when it is remembered that failures are a reflection of business conditions during the past few months rather than an

DAIRY SUCCESS WILL AID COTTON WARD BELIEVES

LOOKS FOR FUTURE OF COTTONSEED CROP IN FEEDING VALUE.

Digestible nutrients in the annual Texas cottonseed crop of the South are equal to the nutrients to be found in the combined crops of Texas corn, grain sorghum, wheat, oats and barley, according to statistics compiled here recently by A. L. Ward, educational director of the cottonseed industry in the South. Mr. Ward was elected recently as head of the Texas Agricultural Workers Association, is head of the live stock department of The State Fair of Texas and is widely known as an expert in the care of cattle.

Believing that the future of the Texas cottonseed crop lies in the feeding value of this one time waste product of the farms, Mr. Ward has maintained close watch of the development of the new industries founded upon cottonseed. "For further comparison," he said, "it may be mentioned that the digestible protein content of our cottonseed meal crop is annually equal to the corn crop of either Illinois or Nebraska and is greater than the combined values of the corn crop of Ohio and Missouri. It is equal to 40 per cent of the wheat crop of the United States and 33 per cent of the oat crop.

Discovery of new uses for the by product of the cotton fields, according to Mr. Ward, has raised the price of seed paid to the farmer from $4.00 a ton in 1880 to as high as $40.00 a ton a year ago.

"Even more than that," he said "the annual production 1,500,000 tons of cottonseed hulls and 2,500,000 tons of cottonseed meal is making possible, today, the livestock development now going on in the entire South.

"This live stock development particularly the dairy development is the greatest and most impor-indication of the future trend," Mr. Nichols said.

During February, there were 60 failures having liabilities of $1,626,000 in Texas against 35 bankruptcies with liabilities $573,000 in February, 1929. In January, 59 insolventcies with liabilities involving $777,000 were reported. Normally there is a decrease in the number of failures from January to February, whereas a gain was recorded this year between the two months. A similar situation occurred in 1927. Failing companies were fewer in February, the average liabilities per failure amounting to $27,100, compared to $13,000 in January.

Two Texas banks failed in February, the first bank failures reported since March 1929.

tant economic force in the South today.

"The success of this dairy movement will do more than anything else to stabilize cotton production and bring about a system of production that will result in economic independence of the cotton grower.

"As late as 1880, only 182,000 tons of seed were crushed and farmers received but $4.00 a ton for their seed. In the beginning of the cotton oil industry, seed were crushed primarily for the oil. There was a very limited use for the cake and hulls as cattle feed and fertilizer, with the result that tons of hulls were burned each year.

"With the development of the improved methods of farming, however, cottonseed meal was generally recognized as an important source of nitrogen so much needed in the growing of crops. Its extensive use as a fertilizer gave an added value to the seed and the farmers were paid more and more for their seed as the demand for the products of the cotton fields were increased," he said.

Mr. Ward said that the farmers of the South are now receiving $15,000,000 to $200,000,000 for cottonseed which was once the bane of the farmers' existence.

LELIA LAKE STORE STARTS CAMPAIGN OF ADVERTISING

This week's issue of the News carries the first of a series of advertisements for the Morton & Son Store of Lelia Lake. The advertising campaign is something of a test, to see what effect may be gained from advertising a store like this one as the larger stores do in larger towns. Mr. Morton states that it has been done in other towns no larger than Lelia Lake and that he believes that it will do a great deal of good in his instance. The Morton Store at Lelia Lake is as complete a store as may be found in any town. The lines of merchandise handled are standard and nationally advertised brands and will be found to carry the same prices as are in effect in other stores. Read the advertisement for this store and then act in accord with the dictates of your pocketbook in this connection.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Womack of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Montgomery of Childress, A. Womack and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wherry and Mrs. Lloyd all of Memphis, were callers in the E. R. Andis home last Sunday.

Miss Evers of Childress, spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Altha Evers.

THE COUNTRY DOCTOR DEFINED

If you can change tires at four below at four a. m.

If you can set a fractured femur with a piece of string and a flat iron and get as good results as the mechanical engineering staff of a City Hospital at 10 per cent of their fee;

If you can drive through ten miles of mud to ease the little child of a deadbeat—

If you can do a podalic version on the kitchen table of a farmhouse with husband holding legs and grandma giving chloroform—

If you can diagnose tonsillitis from diphtheria with a laboratory forty-eight hours away.

If you can pull the three-pronged fish-hook molar of the 250 pound hired man—

If you can maintain your equilibrium when the lordly Specialist, unceremoniously refers to the General Practitioner—

Then you are a real Country Doctor!

The most profitable pig is the one that never stops growing till it goes to market. Pigs are less likely to be fed irregularly and to lose weight if they and the sows are fed in self-feeders where several days' or even a week's supply of feed may be stored. At the U. S. Department of Agriculture experiment farm in Maryland sows and pigs on self-feeders have proved more thrifty than those that were hand-fed. In tests comparing the two methods of feeding, No. 2 yellow corn, commercial gray middlings of good quality and 60 per cent tankage were the chief feeds. The pigs ate when they pleased and as much as they pleased. The outstanding results of the tests were that in the self-fed lots the feed cost per 100 pounds of gain was materially less and the sows and pigs were in better condition at weaning time.

Cowpeas for hay are better if grown with other crops than alone. The sorghums (sorghos and Kafirs), Sudan grass, Johnson grass, soybeans, and millet are suitable. Sorghos or kafirs, when grown with cowpeas, make a good hay or silage. This mixture cures more easily than cowpeas alone, makes a well-balanced ration, and is relished by all kinds of livestock.

Friends of D. B. Pope will be glad to learn that he is recovering nicely following an infection in his mouth. His condition was such Sunday that his brother, Lee of Memphis, and his father from Quannah, were here with him.

Acidity

The common cause of digestive difficulties is excess acid. Soda can not alter this condition, and it burns the stomach. Something that will neutralize the acidity is the sensible thing to take. That is why physical chemists tell the public to use Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

One spoonful of this delightful preparation can neutralize many times its volume in acid. It acts instantly; relief is quick, and very permanent. All gas is dispelled; all sourness is soon gone; the whole system is sweetened. Do try this perfect anti-acid, and remember it is just as good for children, too, and pleasant to take. CLEAN UP TIME IN TEXAS

"Clean-up time" is the tune of the busy housekeeper's spring song, and when she goes to the different clubs where she is looked upon as a leader in civic work she advises:

"Everybody, clean up," "when clean, keep clean," make your neighbor's front yard jealous of your back yard." "plant flower seed in your yard where the seeds of disease are now planted," don't forget the vacant lot next door.

If left dirty it will reflect upon your habits of cleanliness; it will continue a menace to your health.

"If your good example and good advice will not move your dirty neighbors to have more cleanly

An Unpleasant Subject

All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. You can get White's Cream Vermifuge for 35 cents per bottle from habits, perhaps the law can, invoke its aid." Some states have laws requiring, "Premises must be kept clean and sanitary; privy vaults be fly proof and screened; no garbage, rubbish or filth of any kind be deposited on any street or vacant lot; manure must be kept in fly proof bins, properly screened and frequently cleaned and kept free from foul odors." Keep these things in mind with the approach of warm weather.

Watercress fine chopped and creamed with butter, makes a delicious spread for graham bread sandwiches for club meetings, and other social occasions. Mincéd parsley, flavored with a few drops of lemon juice, and mixed with butter, is another appropriate spread for sandwiches that are to be cut into fancy shapes with cookie cutters.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Noble and daughter, Miss Peggy Jean, returned to their home here Thursday of last week after an absence of some four weeks on a vacation trip to the Rio Grande valley and intermediate points.

Doctors Disagree

When children are irritable and peevish, grind their teeth and sleep restlessly, have digestive pains and disturbances, lack of appetite, and have itching eyes, nose and fingers, doctors will not always agree that they are suffering from worms. Many mothers, too, will not believe that their carefully brought up children can have worms. The fact remains that these symptoms will yield, in a great majority of cases, to a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the sure expellant of round and pin worms. If your child has any of these symptoms, try this harmless, old fashioned remedy, which you can get at 35¢ per bottle from

Douglas & Goldston Drug Co.

It May Be Urgent

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.

YOU HAVE A DOCTOR'S WORD FOR THIS LAXATIVE

In 1875, an earnest young man began to practice medicine. As a family doctor, he saw the harm in harsh purgatives for constipation and began to search for something harmless to the sensitive bowels. Out of his experience was born a famous prescription. He wrote it thousands of times. It proved an ideal laxative for old and young. As people saw how marvelously the most sluggish bowels are started and had breath, headaches, feverishness, nausea, gas, poor appetite, and such disorders, are relieved by the prescription, it became necessary to put it up ready for use. Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. It never varies from Dr. Caldwell's original effective and harmless formula. All drugstores have it.

To Identify Genuine Aspirin

The increasing use of Bayer Aspirin every year is proof that it has no ill effects. It is the accepted antidote for pain. It always helps; never harms; is safe to use freely as often as it is needed. Quick relief whenever you've a headache, or cold; or are suffering from neuralgia or neuritis. The distressing pains of rheumatism yield, too, if you'll only give these tablets a chance. But be sure to get genuine Aspirin. It has the Bayer Cross on every tablet. Look for the name Bayer on the box, and the word "genuine" printed in red. Proven directions inside.

Just Like An Ostrich

A medical authority says that a person who tries to cover up skin blemishes and pimples with toilet creams and powders is just as foolish as an ostrich that buries its head in the sand to avoid danger. Skin eruptions are nature's warning that constipation is throwing poisons into your blood stream and weakening your whole constitution. Remove the constipated condition and you will strengthen your system against disease and clear up your disfigured skin. The best way to do this is with a course of Herbine, the vegetable medicine that acts naturally and easily, which you can get at Douglas & Goldston Drug Co.

The Eyes of Texas

At the Round-Up sponsored by the Ex-Students' Association, the new auditorium-gymnasium will be formally dedicated.

The reunion of former University students and parents and friends of University students which will last for three days, April 11, 12 and 13, will be filled with group reunion, dances, baseball games, special exhibits in all campus libraries and collections, and the dedication of the new gymnasium.

Every member of the University extends a cordial invitation to his parents, friends and relatives, to visit the University at that time.

The Longhorn Band, the Ben Hur Shrine Band and the Austin High School Band plan to give the largest massed band concert ever presented in this part of Texas about April 15 in the new auditorium-gymnasium. About two hundred and twenty-five pieces will be in the combined group.

When Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, former president and First Lady of the Land, respectively, came through Austin on their return to the East, they were met by the Longhorn Band which played the "Eyes of Texas" for them at the station. Mr. Coolidge retained his sphinx-like attitude but Mrs. Coolidge was very gracious and affable.

With the Junior-Senior Prom approaching, there is a mad scramble to get tuxedos for the event. The boy friend has been called upon to loan his tuxedo or if he does not have one to borrow from a friend of his—so that his sweetie may have a tuxedo.

Florence Fink, who has been ill for about two weeks upon the advice of the University physician withdrew from the University last week. She will be under the doctor's orders for about three weeks at her home in Clarendon.

Rhodin Chase will accompany on the piano the soloist at the American Institute of Electrical Engineers' Banquet at the Driskill Hotel Tuesday night.

A figure in blue and white striped overalls, white shirt, and a red necktie strolled across the campus Friday. He was carrying books, too. He was no campus workman.

"People stared. Just what was little Willie from the old farm doing on the University campus? He might have passed without investigation but for the fact that he did not wear the necessary straw hat. A hatless boy could mean but one thing; he was a University student." And that is the way new fads start according to the Daily Texan.

And here is another fish story—A fish has been found near Dallas which authorities say is at least 37,500,000 years old. This fossil which is broken in only one place is in the possession of the department of geology of the University.

WHEN WILL YOU BEGIN USING THIS NEW OIL?

It is being rumored (and truthfully) that no other American motor oil has been so speedily accepted by motorists. Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil has smashed all precedents by its amazing reception... And this oil is as unusual as its introduction. Its superiorities are so apparent, that even before its announcement was well under way, literally thousands of new users were appearing at Red Triangle stations.

CONOCO GERM PROCESSED PARAFFIN BASE MOTOR OIL

Its name seems to intrigue motorists and much conversation has dwelt on the Germ Process, and the whys and wherefores... the story is this: Under exclusive Conoco-owned patent rights, a precious oily essence is added to a superbly fine paraffin base oil. This essence is lacking in all other oils, including the one you are now using. The Germ Process makes possible the metal-penetrating safety factor that we call "penetrative lubricity." And this oil, of all on the market, provides a safer, more positive motor protection, from the time you start the motor until you turn off the ignition. So... when will you begin using this new oil? ... at the sign of the Red Triangle.

Shall We Vote the Junior College Tax?

Letters From Local Tax Payers

Mr. Editor:

I have been asked to give my view on the proposed 20 cent tax to support our Junior College. I understand that unless we do vote this tax, that the college will have to close. I never favor a bond issue or an increase in tax, just to have it said of me, that I am a progressive or a "booster", unless after careful study of the proposition, I am fully convinced that the proposed issue is a good one and will be of material benefit to the community. My children are grown and should I look at this from a selfish standpoint, I would be against the proposition. I consider our schools the biggest drawing card we have to induce people to move here and if for no other reason being a business man, I would favor the tax.

standpoint. We all preach, spending your money at home and patronize home industries. My experience is that it costs $1,000.00 a year to send a child away to college. If you can send them to college at home for $200.00 a year, then the $800.00 is kept here in the county.

So many of our bright boys and girls will not be able to go away to college and will be deprived of a college education unless we provide it at home for them. I think it will only be a short time until the Junior Colleges will be taken over and supported by the state and I believe that the town that already has a college will be lucky indeed. For these reasons, I am very much in favor of the tax and shall vote for it.

NEW MUTUAL COMPANY IS FORMED IN CLARENDON

A new mutual insurance company came into being in Clarendon just this week, being named, "The Baby Birth Insurance Association." The company is something new to Clarendon although there are numbers of them operating in other parts of the state. The company is a small one, paying $150.00 on proof of birth of a baby to the insured. Full details may be secured by writing to the association or by filling out the coupon found in their advertisement in another part of the News.

Two Churches Improve Yards

Two of the churches of the city of Clarendon have been very busily engaged for the past few weeks in getting their yards in condition to receive attention from the hands of workmen later in the season. Probably the biggest change that is being effected is that one on the yard of the Baptist Church. A large part of the lawn has been plowed and is to be hauled away, to be later replaced with a richer soil to allow for the growth of flowers and shrubs that will be placed where they will add materially to the appearance of the building. A row of shrubs is also to be placed along the alley in the rear of the church to help in cutting off the view from across the alley. In addition to this, the space between the curb and the sidewalk is to be plowed and a part of the soil removed to allow for the planting of other soil and for the watering of the trees.

The Presbyterians have not been content with such a serious problem as their yard is comparatively new and there was little to be done save for leveling it off and planting shrubs and trees. The space immediately adjoining the church has been planted to bushes of a small size to hide the discoloration effected by the drip of water from the eaves of the building. The front of the building received two shrubs just at the steps and will later receive an evergreen of some sort to add dignity to the entrance. The space between the sidewalk and the curb was leveled off and a number of Chinese Elm trees were planted in this space. Later in the year some decorative trees are to be added to the rear part of the lot and the entire yard will be set to grass.

AN OMISSION CORRECTED

Through oversight on the part of the News, the name of Mrs. Genevieve Bauer was left off the list of those appended to the Card of Thanks as appearing in the last issue of the paper. This name should have headed the list, and we call the attention of our readers to this omission, at the same time asking pardon of Mrs. Bauer for the oversight.

GROOM COUPLE MARRIED IN LEWIS OFFICE LAST WEEK

Legion Planning to Secure Grave Markers

Markers for the graves of all veterans of wars, going back to the Civil War, will be provided those who are sufficiently interested in them to make the necessary application. These stones are made of marble, are uniform in height and width and are nicely lettered. They are made up and shipped to the nearest railroad point free of charge to the persons asking them and from there are cared for by the members of the family or some other interested persons.

At the Legion meeting Tuesday of this week this matter was brought up for discussion and it was learned that there are numerous graves without these markers in the Clarendon and Rowe cemeteries. There also may be others that are not known about at this time. These stones are best secured through the offices of the American Legion and every person interested in securing one of these markers is asked to discuss the matter with any member of the Legion. In case they do not know, they will point the interested person to some one who will be in possession of the necessary information.

The Jericho-Boydston Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ashmead Wednesday and had a dairy demonstration in which they learned standards by which to judge butter. Selection of a dairy cow and how to feed her. Cleanliness in methods of handling milk utensils and approved methods of handling milk, cream and butter before selling, were demonstrated. Thirteen members were present.

The Chamberlain Home Demonstration Club met with Miss Mamie Dingler, March 6th for an all day meeting. Regardless of the severe sandstorm most of the members were present. One new member, and six visitors. Miss Mamie has entered the living room contest. The room was neatly papered. Each member was enthused over assisting in the undertaking. Miss Thompson gave an interesting talk on proper food for the sick. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. A. Hughes, March 20th.

LEGION MEMBERS PURCHASE CAPS

FINAL REPORT IS MADE ON LEGION MINSTREL. OTHER BUSINESS HANDLED.

Opening and closing the American Legion with the paper ceremony was probably the most important item attended at the sessions of the Post in their meeting here Tuesday evening. If nothing more is done than this single item during this year, the work of Commander Andis will have been well worth while for this is an important feature and as such should be known by every Legionnaire.

A feature planned for the evening but not carried to completion was the initiation of candidates in the manner prescribed by the Manual of Ceremonies. Two candidates were presumed to have been at the meeting, but were not there and so this portion of the work was not attended.

In view of the coming summer months, when there will be any number of meetings to which the Legionnaires are invited, the local Post is ordering a number of caps. These are to be the property of the member purchasing them and will not belong to the Post. A committee composed of Messrs. Nathan Cox, Richard Chunn and Clifford Decker, are asked to see every member of the local post and ascertain if they desire these caps and will report at the next regular meeting, the first Tuesday in April.

The social committee reports that they are to meet with the Auxiliary on next Monday and plan for a social meeting. This seemed to meet with the approval of the entire gathering. A suggestion was made that those who assisted in the minstrel be asked to attend if they cared to do so.

A resolutions committee was named of C. J. Douglas, Phillip Gentry and Loyd S'allings. This committee to write resolutions expressing the thanks of the Post for the assistance given by outsiders in the Minstrel.

Report was received that a sum slightly under $120.00 was cleared from the minstrel after all expenses had been paid. The adjutant was instructed to pay all the bills and have a final report ready at the next meeting. The matter of carrying the show to other towns was discussed and the Post held that this should be done if any good could come of the venture.

Markers were authorized for all ex-service men in the local cemetery not already provided and some of them had on the coming Memorial Day plans.

Dog Poisoning Popular Sport

This time, the poisoning of dogs is a matter meeting with the approval of everyone concerned, for the rodents thus concerned have been causing great loss to the young crops in infested areas of Donley and other counties. The first batch of 500 pounds of poison that was mixed in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce was disposed of in a manner that indicated the wide-spread interest of residents of the county in ridding their premises of the prairie dog.

A second batch of 500 pounds was prepared and one order took 300 pounds of this mix at one time. This was taken by the Rowe ranch and will be used to exterminate as many of the dogs as are found on this large place.

Secretary Boykin states that the Chamber of Commerce will continue to prepare the poison and retail it to farmers at cost just as long as there is any demand for it. If you are bothered with the presence of any prairie dogs on your farm, get in touch with G. L. Boykin, at the Chamber of Commerce office and he will give full instructions as to how best handle them with the poison.
