City Clean-Up Week Is May 9th To 14th

Bankers And County Agents Make Plans For Market

MAYOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

"CLEANLINESS NEXT TO GODLINESS" STATES MAYOR CAGLE AS WORK BEGINS

Plans have been completed and Mayor W. P. Cagle has proclaimed that the week of May 9 to 14 be Annual Clean-Up Week in the city of Clarendon. In the past few months the high winds have scattered rubbish of all description over town and the city does not present a very attractive appearance to any one passing through it limits. Clarendon has long been noted throughout the Panhandle and West Texas as one of the cleanest and most beautiful little cities in the state and it behooves every citizen to do his or her part in seeing that this is kept intact throughout another year.

With possibly a greater job before each of us this year the Mayor and city officials are asking that every one enter into the spirit of Clean-Up Week with extra effort and energy and make Clarendon a cleaner and healthier city than ever before in its history.

The city garbage wagons will haul off all the trash free of charge if citizens will pile their refuse in a place convenient to the alleyways of each block. Vacant lots are especially repulsive to the well groomed appearance of a city and it is these the Mayor wishes to be cleaned up spick and span, and such may be the case if everyone will co-operate along this line whether the lot belongs to you or someone else.

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness," stated the Mayor to the News representative Tuesday afternoon while conversing about the scheduled Clean-Up, and he asks every citizen as a personal favor to help with the work.

CHAS. DEAN TO PRESENT CHOIR OVER RADIO SUNDAY

The News has been informed that Chas. H. Dean, formerly of Clarendon, will present his Dimmitt Methodist Church choir in a Mother's Day program next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock over Radio Station KGRS in a thirty minute presentation. Mr. Dean formerly directed the Methodist Choir in this city and is one of the outstanding directors in the Panhandle. Mrs. Dean will accompany the choir at the piano and will add no little to the worth of the program.

Mr. Dean invites all his friends to tune in on the program at the above hours on next Sunday afternoon.

GRAIN EXPERT IN TALK TO ROTARY

MISS CHRISTINE STRODER ENTERTAINS CLUB WITH PIANO NUMBERS

Only two members were absent last Friday at the regular luncheon of the Clarendon Rotary Club at the Clarendon Hotel where a most entertaining and constructive program was presented. Rotarian C. C. Powell was chairman of the program committee for the day and offered one of the best balanced programs ever enjoyed by the local group.

Miss Christine Stroder, piano instructor in the local schools, was introduced to the Rotarians and then offered a number of delightful and thoroughly enjoyable piano solos. That Miss Stroder is one of the most talented pianists ever to be in the city was demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Rotarians who received her efforts with much enthusiasm. Tom F. Connally, one of the

CLEAN-UP WEEK PROCLAMATION

It has been a custom from time immemorial for the American people to scrub and clean up their premises once a year.

Now I, as Mayor of the City of Clarendon, Texas, wish to designate the week from May 9 to May 14th as Clean-Up Week for this City—and ask the people all over the City to co-operate with us and let us have one of the cleanest Cities in the Panhandle of Texas.

Baptist Revival To Start This Evening

Rev. B. B. Crimm, Baptist evangelist, will begin a series of Spring Revival Services this evening at the First Baptist church which will last until May 22nd. Rev. Crimm comes to the city from successful revival campaigns at Wellington and in Oklahoma. His home is in Marshall, Texas.

After Sunday's services the meeting will be held in a mammoth tent, the location to be named in the next few days. Officials of the local church are enthusiastic over the appearance of Rev. Crimm in the city and state that he is one of the most thoroughly entertaining and far reaching evangelists to visit Clarendon. All the churches in the city have been asked to co-operate with the Baptist congregation in the meeting and all musicians and singers in the city are asked to join in and do their part in making this revival one of old-time proportions. Rev. Crimm is reputed to be a very strong and forceful speaker and capable of holding the interest of his hearers.

The local program committee has thrown off the time limit and given a free rein to the visitors.

HIGHWAY MATTER MAY BE DECIDED

MAY TERM OF COMMISSIONERS COURT LIKELY TO SETTLE HIGHWAY FATE

With County Judge Alexander back home from his recuperation at Marlin and Mineral Wells, there is strong probability that the offer of the State highway Department to construct and drain Highway 5 through Donley County on its own expense, if the county will only furnish right-of-way, will be either accepted or rejected at the May session of the Commissioners Court which convenes here next Monday. Other county business may defer it until a later session in the week, but a definite answer seems likely to be made on the proposition before the court adjourns.

The department asked that the matter be settled one way or another in thirty days from the visit of the State Engineer to Clarendon, which was two weeks ago today, and they have written for a copy of the court order calling the election on the warrants for right-of-way purchase, which of course must await the action of the court.

There is a growing feeling that the county is losing its last opportunity of securing a route as favorable as the one offered, unless it accepts the offer of the department, for there is growing impatience over the state and in Austin circles over delays in closing the gap of unpaved road on Highway 5 in Donley and Armstrong counties, with the blame resting on Donley, since Armstrong is ready to accept the state's offer when Donley is ready to go.

The action of the court will be awaited with keen interest on the part of citizens of all views on the desirability of the state's offer of a road in Donley County.

MARKET FOR PRODUCE DISCUSSED

BANKERS, COUNTY AGENTS PLAN WIDER MARKET FOR PRODUCE SURPLUS

Called together by W. H. Patrick, key banker for Donley County on the agricultural extension plan of Texas, Donley County Bankers, Commissioners Court members and county home and agricultural agents met Wednesday morning at the city hall to discuss "live at home" methods and to lay plans to market the surplus of farm and garden produce which seems likely to be made this year in the county. Newspaper men of the county were also invited to the meeting.

After reports from Miss Martha Buttrill, county home demonstrator, and T. R. Brown, county farm agent, which showed that much progress had been made over the period of the past two years in the fine art of living at home by the people of Donley County, with greater interest and adherence to the plan in 1932 than ever before, there was general discussion of ways and means to provide a wider and better market for the surplus of corn, beans, peas, tomatoes, onions, cucumbers, melons, etc., and a market ready and waiting so that no loss might accrue by the perishable nature of such products.

A plan of advertising in neighboring counties along about the time these products come on the market, with a follow up from the home demonstration clubs to sister clubs in the neighboring plains counties, was deemed as probably the best available plan, with especial emphasis, of course, on the wisdom of each community providing a truck where possible for the transportation of community surplus to nearby markets. Details will be worked out and announced at a later date with the chamber of commerce and bankers of the county co-operating.

One feature of the meeting was the launching of a county-wide contest in canning with a steam pressure canner and sealer as the prize, which was guaranteed on the part of the bankers by Mr. Patrick. Miss Buttrill will work out the rules of the contest.

Although over sixty thousand quarts of vegetables and meats were canned in the county last year, the growth in interest and this contest will probably add greatly to the gigantic total of last year in 1932.

BOYS CLUB HAS FINE MEET SAT.

BASEBALL LEAGUE ORGANIZED AND BOYS HEAR STORY BY JUDGE PORTER

At one of the most interesting meetings to date of the newly organized Boy's Club of Clarendon over one hundred boys organized an eight team baseball league for the coming summer months and heard an interesting Indian yarn told in a most entertaining manner by Judge J. R. Porter. After the meeting was called to order by Judge Porter who was in charge of the meet for the American Legion, G. L. Boykin selected eight captains who then selected their baseball teams to compete in the boys league schedule this summer.

Sam Braswell, Jr. announced that the first games of the schedule would be played Tuesday afternoon at the South Ward grounds at 4 o'clock and thereafter each Friday and Tuesday until the schedule was complete.

Garner Is Assured 90 Electoral Votes

Results in California primaries yesterday bring Garner's total up to 90 votes for the National Democratic convention in Chicago, and give new inspiration to those who believe that the Texan can be nominated in July. The following telegram received this morning urges action among Donley Democrats:

"Speaker Garner's clear cut victory in California should solidify sentiment of every loyal Texan behind his case at the Chicago convention. I will appreciate it if you will print this telegram in your columns urging all good Democrats to attend the precinct and county conventions and see that loyal Texas supporters of Mr. Garner are sent to the State Convention. John Garner's record is all the platform Texans should desire and I urgently request that no platform demands be adopted and that no second choice instructions be given to embarrass this opportunity.

PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT AUTHORITY UPHELD

Several days ago the authority of the state highway department to change location of any state highway was upheld by the Supreme Court of Texas. The test case was carried up from Lubbock County with the result noted above.

The day of "spite injunctions" in Texas is at an end in this regard, and no longer will District Judges grant injunctions to those whose spleen has shown itself against the march of progress through this route of delay and annoyance.

This brings us to another phase of the situation in Donley County. Some have threatened if the department attempts to run a highway location through the county if the present generous offer to the county on a fairly satisfactory location is spurned, they will delay and snipe at it through the injunction methods so well known in the past. This cannot now be done.

Donley's only safe plan is to trade with the department by agreeing to purchase right-of-way on a location that at least goes through Clarendon, Lelia Lake and Helley, and on a plan that will never cost the people a thin dime more than they are already paying in gas tax and car license.

If this offer is turned down, our Donley towns will all probably lose the road, and it isn't going to be pleasant for those responsible for such loss.

The News repeats—the road is going to be built. Where, depends on the Commissioners Court of Donley County.

THE ADVANTAGE MAY ACCURE TO GARNER

Had former Governor Smith succeeded in Pennsylvania, the strength of the delegation added to that which Massachusetts voted him by a sweeping majority would have made of him such a formidable contender for the Democratic nomination that Roosevelt might be "stopped" before the balloting gets very far. That assured, however, there would be little certainty that Smith could be nominated, so such advantage as may come of the decisions in these two important States may be taken over eventually by some third possibility.

The gains by the nominee of 1928 will be construed by many as strengthening the chances of Speaker Garner. If Roosevelt is blocked, the votes of his supporters would hardly be thrown to Smith. The votes of Texas alone will put Garner well in the running. If Texas stands firm and plays the game well at Chicago she may be able to put a favorite son in the White House.—Dallas Journal.

EARLY PLANS FOR MARKETING SURPLUS PRODUCE

At a meeting this week of bankers, county officials, home and agricultural agents plans were laid for the proper marketing of the surplus of garden truck and farm produce Donley County seems she is going to raise this season.

It may seem a little early to some to be talking surplus until a crop is assured, but The News would call attention to the fact that unless thought is given to the matter now, when the crop is made and surplus is on hands the time element will be against much success then, for most all such surplus is perishable.

Several forms of meeting the situation were adopted and the indications are now that when Donley's surplus of corn, peas, tomatoes, beans, cucumbers, melons, etc., mounts up in succulent array, there will be trucks here from the plains and neighboring counties to carry it away.

The News believes the bankers and county agents are right—while the stuff is growing, arrange for a market of all that part the people can't consume on their own tables.

ONE GOOD THING THE ILL WIND HAS BLOWN

A Book-Selling firm in New York that specializes in new and used educational works will shortly move from its old to new quarters where double the present space will be utilized. The expansion is due, an official of the firm has explained, to the fact that the demand of serious and thought-provoking books has greatly increased during the present economic crisis.

The report of this concern might be matched by similar report from all book stores and libraries in the Nation. If so, that development should be set down to the credit of the depression and listed as at least one good thing the ill winds have blown to the Country. Sound reading makes for sound thinking. And sound thinking is the thing most needed today. It is all that will lead the world forward to a sounder footing than it has ever known.—Dallas Journal.

NEWS ALASKAN RESERVATIONS STEADILY GROW

30 DAYS LEFT TO SIGN UP FOR CHARTERING OF STEAMER, MAY 15

With only 30 days remaining until May 15, plans for the News-Globe second annual goodwill tour rapidly are taking shape. Wilbur C. Hawk, sponsor, announced last night. The trip this year from June 3 to 21 is by far the most attractive ever planned from the Southwest including thousands of miles by special trains in the United States and Western Canada and more than 2000 miles by special steamer from Vancouver to Alaska and return.

In order to charter a giant ocean-going steamer from the Canadian Steamship line exclusively for the News-Globe party, Mr. Hawk must have 200 reservations by May 15. He requires only one-fourth of the $300, entire cost of the trip, or $75 as a deposit by May 15 for a reservation.

Reservations Coming In Fifteen cash reservations already have been turned in and 135 more have definitely promised to make their reservations within the next eight days. One hundred more prospects for the trip also are expected to sign up either with Mr. Hawk by letter to the News-Globe or get in touch with Mason King at the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

Although the tour is sponsored by the News-Globe and will mean untold goodwill and publicity for Amarillo's trade territory, anyone, anywhere, is eligible. Mr. Hawk said last night, after he had received queries from as far away as Dallas and Houston and Kansas and Missouri. The $300 cost will be the same regardless of where the party is joined but the start may be made either from Amarillo or points en route, he said.

The first list of names of those who have made reservations will be printed at intervals thereafter until the start on June 1.

Juneau Point of Interest One of the principal points of interest on the entire trip is Juneau, capital of Alaska which is a stop on the trip north toward Skagway. Here the party will be officially greeted by the governor of Alaska and visit his mansion along with other interesting features such as the world's greatest quartz gold mine, the museum of the ancient Alaskan civilization, the curio shops and the new Federal building. Juneau will be reached at 8 o'clock the evening of June 11 and at 1 a. m. the following morning the steamer will proceed onward toward Skagway. However, virtually the entire stop at this city, nestling beneath towering peaks on Gastineau Channel, will be spent in daylight as the party will be far into the "Land of the Midnight Sun" by that date.

Mr. Ed. Teer spent from Tuesday to Friday of last week with her parents in Memphis.

Recent Court Saves County Half of Previous Court Costs, Statistics Show

A ray of hope shown through the clouds of depression upon the despairing tax payers of Donley County at the conclusion of the recent March Term of District Court here, when District Clerk, A. H. Baker, issued a statistical comparison sheet of last October's District Court costs with the session just ended. Less than one half of the cost was expended by the court this term than that of the October court session, thus saving the tax payers of the county $886.60.

This comes as an optimistic note to the citizens of this section and shows that the officials are attempting to curb as many expenses as possible to the county. A large part of the saving was made possible by the advantage of the new law allowing the accused to plead guilty and be tried before the District Judge without the use of a jury. Further saving to the county was the teamwork by the district officers in handling the docket and the witnesses to appear before the grand jury. It was this method which saved a large jury fee during the last term of court.

The expenses and work of the courts of October, 1931, and March, 1932 are tabulated below:

Cyclones, Panthers, Broncs, Longhorns Win Initial Ball Tilts

CLOSE GAMES FEATURE PLAY

INTEREST IS HIGH AS SECOND GAMES OF SUM-MER SCHEDULE NEAR

Close, hotly contested games marked the opening tilts of the Boys Club playground Ball League Tuesday afternoon at the South Ward diamonds as eight teams began their quest for the pennant. Only in one game did the score show a marked difference in the power of the clubs, and plenty of punch was shown in this game by the losing team to warrant anxiety by the other members of the league. The winning teams are the Cyclones, Bronchos, Panthers and Longhorns while the losers are the Bulldogs, Tornados, Wildcats and Tigers.

In the Bulldog-Cyclone clash it was a nip-and-tuck affair with the lead switching back and forth until the ninth inning when the Cyclones broke the tie with a two run rally giving Jack Yates' team its first victory of the year.

The score by inning of the game:

Bulldogs 0 1 0 2 2 1 1 2 1-10

Cyclones 1 0 2 0 3 3 0 1 2-12

Taylor's Bronchos lambasted Cooke's Tornados under a barrage of base hits to the tune of 17 to 9 in the worst played contest of the day. Power and plenty of it was featured in the Broncs' attack upon the high winds which included four 4-run innings and 19 hits. After a slow start the Tornados came to life and scored nine runs on nine hits to make the game interesting.

Bronchos 4 0 4 4 0 4 1 0-17

Tornados 1 0 1 0 4 0 3 0-9

Pitchers received little respect in the all-animal clash between the Panthers and the Wildcats as Martin's crew out-clawed the Wildcats of Noble for a 22 to 21 win by virtue of a six-run spurge in the last half of the ninth. Home runs poured from the bats of the batsmen and kept the spectators on their feet throughout the game.

Wildcats 3 5 0 6 0 4 0 1-22

Panthers 3 3 2 2 2 2 0 6-21

The best played and best pitched game of the group was the thrilling Longhorn-Tiger battle with Barney Fielder's Steers trampling Mayo's Bengals to defeat with a 6-run spurge in the eighth inning after trailing until the uprising. The Longhorns jumped off to a lead in the first with a run and then added two more in the second for a three run lead as Fielder was knocking the stripes off the big yellow cats with a no-hit performance for four innings. However the Tigers took to the offensive when Fielder retired and scored four runs to take the lead and added another in the next inning to hold the lead until the eighth when the big rally netted six runs. A counter-attack by the tigers netted three scores but failed by a pair to knot the count.

A small storekeeper to the surprise of his brethren, suddenly decorated his window with a gorgeous new blind.
"Nice blind of yours, Isaac," quoth his neighbor.
"Yes, Aaron."
"Who paid for it, Isaac?"
"The customers paid, Aaron."
"What! The customers paid for it, Isaac?"
"Yes, Aaron. I put a leedle box on my counter 'For the Blind.' And they paid for it."—Sunshine.

The Boys' Club ball league started off with a bang Tuesday afternoon, folks, and those youngsters can certainly play ball with that over-stuffed baseball. I was certainly surprised, and so were all the other sponsors of the teams and spectators. All the teams are about evenly matched and it is certain nobody is going to make a run-away of the race for the pennant. All the boys are interested in the games and the teams that lost their first go Tuesday are anxiously awaiting tomorrow's contest to break into the winning column.

At present the strong teams appear to be the Bronchos, Panthers and Wildcats. However the Longhorns appear a capable club with the Bulldogs, Tigers, Cyclones and Tornados showing strength at times. The best defensive club in the loop is the Longhorns while the most potent with the willow happens to be the Panthers.

Come out to tomorrow's games and watch an interesting set of diamond classics. It's worth your time and we know you'll enjoy the youngsters play. It takes just about an hour for these players to hustle through nine innings of peppy ball.

We have long heard of the old saying "Truth Will Out" and so it has finally through the big state newspapers. We refer to the facts concerning the disputed Green Belt Golf Association championship between L. S. (City) Walker of Quanah and Ira Merchant here last June. Here are two articles published in the Sunday editions of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram on April 24th and May 1st. Amos Melton, sports writer for that great newspaper, is the person due the thanks of the Association for the publication of the facts and decision of the U. S. G. A. Rules Committee. Amos' column, "Chips and Chatter", is a valuable asset to the Telegram and all the readers will find it always interesting and filled with interesting facts concerning the golfing world and its various players. Many thanks, Amos, we feel that Clarendon has been exonerated in the eyes of the golfing public.

April 12th's paper stated: "Also comes a note from Sam Braswell, Jr., of Clarendon anent the much disputed matter which occurred in the finals of the Green Belt last year. It will be remembered that this department has asked for a ruling from the U. S. G. A. recently after the question has been reopened by a local dispute.

The same mail included a letter from Prescott S. Bush, secretary of the association, stating that the question had been referred to Innis Brown, secretary of the rules committee, and that a final decision would be handed down in a few days.

Braswell inclosed a page from The Clarendon News of last July 16 in which was printed a ruling on the protest matter from the U. S. G. A. Our ignorance that such a ruling had been received must be pardoned. Almost everyone is familiar with the question: A player more than 30 yards from the hole removed a ball carton from the fairway. His opponent protested under Rule 12 and was awarded the hole. Here's the decision of the U. S. G. A. rules committee, approved by the executive committee: "A had a right to remove the carton from the line

Romance of Wood Carving Shown In World's Fair Exhibit of Locomotives

The most outstanding and truly remarkable exhibit ever to visit the city of Clarendon was viewed by hundreds of local folks last Friday and Saturday when the romance of the steam locomotive, from the first steam kettle type which failed to run until the present day multi-wheel drive super-power engines. These models, seventeen in all, were the result of unending patience and determination, and are masterpieces of Ernest Warther, master carver, and twentieth-century marvel.

The miniature locomotives are made entirely of wood, ivory and mother of pearl. There was no metal nor paint on any of the models, yet they were exact reproductions as to color and mechanical working parts. Every minute detail of the steam engines has been carved by Mr. Warther according to blue prints furnished by the locomotive works on a scale of one-half inch to one foot. Every wheel, every steam pipe, every chain, every rivet, every everything is found on the models. To make them more realistic and to show the working parts each model is running with its cylinders and intricate parts moving exactly as the factory made locomotives. In the large model there are 7,500 parts which required one year and five months to carve and assemble. The entire exhibit required the carver ten years of his leisure hours to complete. The exhibit is not complete and will not be finished until October when the carver will add three more large models to the collection which will bring the total to twenty and will end the steam engine romance as there are no other models which have been built to date.

Working in the steel mills of Ohio, Mr. Warther handled usually 30,000 pounds of steel each day running a cutter, then after 10 hours at this job he would come to his little workshop by the side of the pretty little brook and relax while whittling his models. Sometimes he would become so wrapt up in his hobby all sense of time would leave the master carver and he would work through the early hours of morning until time to report to work at the mill. He had no schooling and had no knowledge of locomotives. However, the steam monsters fascinated him and the stories of the early romance of the engines started him on the road which has led him to fame and fortune. Building the first models from pictures and stories of the steam models he built his first few engines. Later the locomotive foundries furnished him blue prints of each succeeding edition and the funnel shaped smokestack engine which pioneered the continent was replaced with later models through the famous N. Y. Central "999", which holds the world's speed record until the late 16 wheel drive locomotives followed in correct order.

The exhibit was shown by Fred Warther and manager F. C. Ford. This is the first trip through Texas for the exhibit which will end its tour at the World's Fair at Chicago in 1933.

All the leading manufacturers have inspected the models and declare them to be perfect reproductions of famous locomotives to every detail.

More Ways Than One To Make The Farm Pay

The farmer of a few years ago had just one idea—to plant a crop and get his profit on the harvest from that one crop. Modern methods have shown that there are more ways than one to make a farm profitable. Diversified farming has come to stay. Cows and chickens add their share to the farmer's income. Are you making the most of your opportunities?

FORMER CLARENDON GIRL NOTED IN WT PUBLICATION

Friends of Miss Nancy Graham will be pleased to read the following article clipped from the West Texas Teachers' College publication, "The Prairie", which concerns her. It was found in the column of the paper entitled, "Who's Who in W. T. High."

"She's a bonnie lassie Who is far from haem; She's jolly and industrious— She lives up to her name.

One of the most popular members of the class of '22 is Nancy Graham, from McGregor, Texas, niece of Miss Edna Graham of the College Mathematics Department.

She entered W. T. High School last summer, and she is taking six subjects now in order to graduate in the spring after three years and one summer of high school work. Nancy takes a prominent part in senior class activities. In addition to being secretary of her class, she was senior campaign manager in the high school celebrity contest, was recently voted the "cutest" and most talented member of the class. She has been chosen for a role in the senior play to be given soon. Among her other extra-curricular activities are chorus work and teaching a girls' Sunday School class at the Methodist church.

CLASS POEM

Dear Class of nineteen thirty-two, Cheer up, and do not be so blue For soon we'll know just where we stand, Let's hope not here with books in hand. Now hark, while I acrostic make, "Class Poem", "Teachers", for the sake Of rhyme and measure, for they say A poem must be found that way. C—Classes we must not cut at all Or else on tests we are sure to fall. L—Long hours of toil we may dislike, We'd much prefer a picnic hike. A—Attention, Action, Alertness, Aim, These we must have should we win fame. S, S—S, S for Sacrifice and Strife, To be with us along through life. P—Perplexity may oft befall, And doubt obscure our souls withal. O—Omission's sins we may commit, And fail at reason's feet to sit. E—Examinations we must meet In after life if we compete. M—Marks high or low will be our fate, As we are trained in our estate. T—is for teachers tried and true Through all the years we'll think of you, E—is for early—dare not be late Or will demerits be our fate. Or Algebra which so many fear, A—for arithmetic so drear, C—the correction of mistakes, Oh, no one knows the time it takes. H—stands for help you give each one, Sandstorms sometimes, but often sun. E—for each talk throughout four years Which we'll recall with smiles and tears. R—for rules to guide and measure Our very best that we may treasure. S—Success that comes from efforts made, With hearts and spirits unafraid.

In spite of being overworked however, Nancy keeps her disposition and is always agreeable. Her life's ambition, she says is to be an old maid and teach mathematics or public speaking; however, neither accounts for her casual interest in home economics.

Mrs. Manley Ozier was a delegate to the Woman's Federated club meeting in Canadian last week. She returned to her home on Thursday.

COLLEGE DAY PICNIC

On Friday, April 29th, the College had its annual picnic. Although the students did not get to go to Carlsbad Cavern as they had hoped, they had a very good time at M. E. Bell's Ranch. They met at the College at eight o'clock Friday morning where the truck furnished by Byrum Haile was waiting for them. Every thing was ready and they left by eight forty-five o'clock. Due to the heavy load on the truck it was nearly ten o'clock when they reached the ranch.

It was an ideal day for a picnic and spring-like, and some of the boys took advantage of this and went swimming. The rest of the boys and the girls tore around over the hills like a bunch of wild horses turned loose. By the time the delicious dinner was ready everybody was hungry enough to eat the truck. After everybody had eaten all he could hold the students scattered again. They were, however, in a much tamer frame of mind, for the dinner along with the aid of the sunshine made nearly every one hunt 'he shade. Signs of life began to appear again about an hour after dinner, and continued until time to come home. It was quite a laughable matter for an outsider to see the somewhat scarlet complexion that returned from that picnic. To listen to the general talks the next day, one knew that a great many jars of cold cream had been used the night before.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton and Mr. Stocking were the chaperons on the picnic. They seemed to enjoy it as much as the students. Mr. Burton spent the day trying to catch a few bass while Mr. Stocking stood on the hill and threw rocks at a stump out in the lake.

MISS LAUREE BURSON ENTERTAINS PICNICERS

On Friday night, April 29, Miss Lauree Burson entertained the College-day picnickers with a dance in her home. Nearly everyone that went on the picnic came to the dance, and ended that memorial day in full swing. Everybody seemed happy even if all did look as if they were blushing. The punch was delicious and several bowls full disappeared in a very short time. The music was excellent and the tired feet that had climbed many a hill lost their tiredness and began to move about in quite a gay manner. Time seemed to stop until about twelve-thirty when everybody decided to call it a day and go home.

Little Miss Nancy Ann Hall, mark of Shamrock, returned to her home on Wednesday of last week after having spent several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buntin.

Palo Duro Literary Society

Although the rain and wind played havoc with many a plan for Wednesday evening, the Palo Duro program was well attended. Concluding on the night of April 27, its fourth and most popular year, the Palo Duro Literary Society well exemplifies its motto: "Pep, Push, Personality."

On the roll book of the year of 1932 are listed 24 names, of which 15 are new members. Approximately two-thirds of the membership will be reinstated next year, and in this way, true elements of Palo Duro Spirit can be passed on to those succeeding.

As the time comes when the society is to be divided, there comes the reading of the inevitable crystal. This is what Jean Bourland says the globe revealed to her.

"Bill Word and Wilma Hukel—a dancing team in a medicine show. Clyde Slavin carrying on Cobb's business—a business crippled by no small number of factors. Eunice Johnson—a teacher with spectacles and everything. Roberta LaFon—manager for a Home for Prevention of Cruelty to Old Maids—mates; Virginia Wisdom and Hazel Gilbert. Dorothy Jo Taylor—trying to convince Ziegfeld what he's missing. Winford Gattis selling caramels for the free prizes. Joyce Link and Buck McKinney living happily in Brice Heights. Pauline Sanford, basking in Busy Bee Cafe. Bill Word, veterinary interne in Dr. Sho-foot's Hospital. Lucile Andis, sales lady for real flannels. Sila Franklin, proprietor of lunch stand. Nola Gordon, editor of new Whiz Bang entitled "Say Have You Heard This One?" Jonnie Latson, on the national S. P. C. A. committee. Pauline Shelton, occupant of cell 49 in home for those who are mentally deficient. Josephine Murphy and Ruth Donnell, acrobats in Barnum & Bailey's 4 Ring Circus. Jean, Herself, and Mike Stricklin, happily divorced and living in Honolulu and Australia respectively. Celebrating its last meeting of this school year, Mrs. McMurtry, mother of Palo Duro president, has invited the society to a barn dance to be given at the ranch on Friday night, May 6. The prospect thrills everyone from the janitor to the Sponsor. Thank you, mother 'Prexy'; we will all be there!

SENIOR CLASS NIGHT

Although the audience at the Senior Class Night program was not as large as the Seniors expected, the program was carried out in a great fashion. Lu McClellan and Kenneth Brown wanted to sing so badly that they could not wait for the class once or twice in the class song but they both compensated for their mistakes before the program was over. All of the program was very interesting and entertaining, but George Bourland's statistics, Kenneth Brown's prophecy, and Lu McClellan's Monologue took the first honors. George's statistics were the summary for the different answers to the 75 questions answered by the members of the Senior Class. Kenneth Brown imitated Floyd Gibbons in making the class prophecy and disclosed some very peculiar features for the Seniors. Lu gave a monologue, "He Thinks He Studies". Judging from the numerous laughs and the applause Lu received, everyone enjoyed it, but especially did Lois Wallace, as she sat there gazing up at Lu with those Big Blue Eyes.

The members of the class deserve a great deal of credit for their program but they could not have attained the success they did without the worthy help of the sponsors, Miss Houren and Miss Wiedman. The Seniors wish to take advantage of this opportunity to tell the public and the sponsors how much they appreciate Miss Howren's and Miss Wiedman's untiring efforts to make this class the best one that has ever graduated from Clarendon High School.

HOME ECONOMICS

The girls of the first and second year Clothing Classes will this week end have an exhibit in Green's Dry Goods Store. The first year girls will have a display of cotton goods. The second year girls will display dresses made of silk. Toys and games suitable for children of this age will be provided. Refreshments of ice cream cones will be served.

JUNIOR REPORT

Mr. Patton made the joyous announcement on Tuesday afternoon, when the Juniors Assembled in their room. The Juniors are to decorate the church for the Seniors' Baccalaureate Sermon. The Juniors were finally reconciled when they were told that the coming Juniors of '33 would decorate for them. Mr. Patton asked the pupils to see if their mothers have any pot flowers that they would kindly lend for this celebration.

The Juniors have big hopes and they plan to do plenty when they are the Seniors. Mrs. U. J. Boston and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry returned on Thursday from Canadian where they attended the meeting of the District Federation of Women's Clubs.

SOPHOMORE REPORT

A rumor has been in the air that the Sophomore class has ceased to exist. But we are. We have the privilege of saying we have the largest class. We hope next year as Juniors we may out number the other classes. Sophomore days are gone for most of us, but they are certainly not forgotten, nor will they be for many years.

BOYS CLUB

Captains named their clubs and field ready for action at the appointed time and place. After all this had been cared for Judge J. R. Porter related one of the many interesting and dangerous experiences of "Big Foot" Wallace with the Indians on the old El Paso trail. It was a most entertaining story and already the youngsters are clamoring for the return of the attorney-story teller in the near future with another of the Wallace-Indian stories. The meeting was turned over to Ralph Kerbow and Clyde Price who guided the boys through a number of army calisthenics. Mr. Price acting in the capacity of instructor proved to be very capable and had the lads lagging for a rest following about 30 minutes of strenuous exercises. Following the retirement of the Colors the youngsters adjourned to meet on the playground Tuesday afternoon. The entire public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these playground ball games and see the work of the boys movement and the results being obtained by it.

FRANK WHITLOCK REPORTS ON FINE BEAUTY SCHOOL

Frank Whitlock, one of the most proficient beauty parlor operators in West Texas, is loud in his praise for the Morrison Beauty School conducted by faculty representatives at Lubbock on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Mr. Whitlock stated to The News representative that it was the most thorough and best conducted school he has ever attended. The instruction was far above the average for such beauty culture schools. The local operator is hopeful that other beauty schools will be held in the Panhandle with the same type of instruction. Other beauty operators attending the school with Mr. Whitlock, included Nadine Haile and Mrs. Mitchell. More than 300 beauty parlor operators from over West Texas attended the school.

Mrs. O. L. McClellan returned to her home in our city on Saturday after an absence of several months spent with her daughter in New York City.

MRS. J. H. REEVES DIES TUESDAY EVE

Mrs. J. H. Reeves, affectionately known to her many friends as "Grandmother" Reeves, slipped away last Thursday afternoon at her home here and was buried in the Citizen's Cemetery Saturday afternoon.

She was born Nancy Richardson January 20, 1846 at Marietta, Mississippi. She became a Christian at an early age and united with the Baptist Church, and served it through her long and useful life.

Miss Richardson was married to Mr. Joseph Harvey Reeves Dec. 24, 1868 and to this happy union there were born nine children, four of who preceded their mother in death. The children left to mourn the passing of the deceased are K. D. Reeves, Stanley, N. M.; Mrs. W. W. Wimberly, Midland, Texas; Mrs. W. O. Brown, San Benito, Texas; Mrs. C. E. Donnell, Canyon; and Mrs. Bruce Jago, Los Angeles, Cal. Besides these there are 23 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren, three brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Reeves has lived in Clarendon for more than a quarter of a century and during that time has been a guiding influence to large numbers of persons coming into contact with her wonderful disposition.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church Saturday afternoon with the Rev. B. N. Shonherd conducting.

Hidden away in Mrs. Reeves' "Sacred Harp" song book the following poem was found which guided the life of the deceased. We shape ourselves the joy or fear

Of which the coming life is made. And fill our future's atmosphere With sunshine or with shade. The tissue of the life to be We weave with colors all our own, And in the field of Destiny We reap as we have sown.—

SUPER-BALLOON TIRES ATTRACT ATTENTION HERE

The first of the new super-balloon tires with specially built wheels were received Monday morning by the City Garage and since then they have been the center of attraction with numbers of interested citizens taking the opportunity to stop by and inspect the over grown road cushions.

REV. W. E. FERRELL AND FAMILY RETURN TO CITY

Rev. W. E. Ferrell and family returned to Clarendon Monday evening where they will make their future home and he will resume the pastorate of the First Christian Church. The family has been living in South Carolina since their removal from this place something like one year ago. The Christian congregation has been without the services of a pastor since Rev. Ferrell moved away and when they found it was possible to regain the popular pastor little time was lost in recalling him.

The family is comfortably situated in the Christian parsonage and are meeting their many friends there. Clarendon is happy to have these fine folks again as citizens and the warmest welcome is extended them on their return. Rev. Ferrell will fill the pulpit at both the Sunday morning and evening services.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere and deep appreciation to the neighbors and friends for the kind and sympathetic help during the dark hours which robbed us of our loved one, Mrs. J. H. Reeves. That such friends and sympathy may ease your burden in your time of trouble is our hope and prayer. Mrs. W. W. Wimberly Mrs. W. O. Brannon Mrs. Chas. Donnell Mrs. W. B. Jago K. D. Reeves.
