

January 1931 Cream Shipments Higher

Citizens Urged To Pay School Taxes By March 1st

CREAM SHIPMENTS SHOW GREAT GAIN

TOTAL LARGER THAN JANUARY 1929—RECORD YEAR FOR SHIPPING

A surprising feature was found when the shipments of cream for 1931 were secured and compared with the shipment of cream from Clarendon for the months of January of both 1930 and 1929.

A total of 254 cans were shipped by various means to the creameries during the month of January 1931. Of this total, 202 were shipped by express and the figures come to us through courtesy of the local agent, while the balance of 52 cans were carried to Amarillo by truck and the figures are given us through the courtesy of the Andis Brothers.

In 1930, immediately following one of the coldest months in the memory of man in Clarendon, a total of 185 cans were shipped by the various methods then in existence. The preceding year, starting off to a record of production of cream, the shipments were only 210 cans.

To the casual observer this would show that there was an increase of twenty per cent over the best month of January on record and an increase of more than fifty per cent over the shipments of one year ago.

The price paid for the cream by the ultimate consumer is not so high as has been, but this steady income will mean a great deal to the producing public. The start thus given would indicate that Donley County is off to another record year of cream shipments.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

Rev. Robert L. Cowan, D. D., of McKinney, Texas, will conduct special Evangelistic Services at the Presbyterian Church, Feb. 22-March 1. This is part of a simultaneous state-wide revival in which all Presbyterian Churches are joining, using the pastors of churches as the preachers, giving their services voluntarily.

Dr. Cowan came to McKinney several years ago and has made his mark in the state. He is an unusually forceful speaker and will draw large crowds.

DR. BARKER TO BE HERE FEBRUARY 20

NOTED LECTURER TO DELIVER THREE ADDRESSES WHILE IN CITY

Through the workings of the civic clubs of Clarendon, the people of Donley County are to be privileged to hear three addresses delivered by Dr. Charles E. Barker, noted speaker, on a subject that is of vital interest to every boy and girl and to every man and woman in the county. Originally the personal physician to the late William Howard Taft, Dr. Barker has won distinction in the past few years by handling the subjects assigned him. He brings a message that is needed in every home in the community and will be heard here three times during the day of Friday, February 20th. There will be no admission charged for any of the speaking engagements and no collection will be taken at any of his appearances. The civic clubs of the city have sponsored the appearance of the noted speaker here and the entire county is invited to hear him at one of the three speaking hours.

His first appearance here will be at a luncheon held in his honor in the basement of the First Christian Church. At that time he will speak to the assembled group on a subject that will appeal to them and at the same time will be of interest to every-

DENVER PERMITTED TO CHANGE TRAINS

NEW SCHEDULE TO BECOME EFFECTIVE LATTER PART OF MONTH

After some months of argument before the Interstate Commerce Commission by both the officials of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway and the employees and others, the commission granted the road permission to discontinue two trains daily between Amarillo and Dallas. The date for the change has not been made public, but the superintendent of the northern end of the line and all other officials are in Fort Worth making up the time card and will probably announce their change in schedules some time next week.

The schedule will not affect Clarendon a great deal with one exception—that of the present noon train from the south. This will in all probability be discontinued, as will one of the night south bound trains. The evening train for the south will probably arrive here a little earlier than it now does and will reach Fort Worth and Dallas at approximately the same time as does the present train leaving here at 10:47 in the night.

The trains will be speeded up to some extent, and will make all stops instead of only county seat towns and others as has been the case of the late night train. The time of travel from Fort Worth and Dallas to Amarillo may take a little longer, but not by a great many minutes.

Only tentative schedules are available but the standing hours will be published as soon as they become effective.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Naylor and infant daughter returned to their home in Pampa last Sunday evening after a visit here with relatives and friends.

The plates will be cared for by the individual that attends the meeting and it is hoped that as many as 100 will avail themselves of this privilege at the noon hour on Friday.

The High School students of the county are urged to hear the address that he will give at 1:30 on the same afternoon in the college auditorium. Special emphasis is being placed on this address and all students of High School age in the county are asked to take part in this meeting.

At 3:30 in the afternoon Dr. Barker will again speak, this time at the Methodist Church to the women of the county. His subject on this occasion will be "A Mother's Responsibility to Her Daughter."

The final appearance of Dr. Barker will be had in the Methodist Church on the evening of the same day to the men of the county, this time he will speak on the subject: "A Father's Responsibility to His Son."

Poll Tax List Shrinks Greatly

The final figures on the Poll Tax payments of Donley County show that these taxes have shrunk to an alarming extent for the payment period of the past few months. A total of more than 2,600 were issued in the payment period of 1930, and this figure has shrunk to the very small figure of 1,445 when all the details were made public this week.

By precincts, the figures are as follows:

No. 1 Goldston	35
No. 2 Clarendon	375
No. 3 Lelia Lake	163
No. 4 Giles	17
No. 5 Hedley	204
No. 6 Rowe	30
No. 7 Jericho	42
No. 8 Whitefish	20
No. 9 Watkins	10
No. 10 Bray	8
No. 11 Martin	37
No. 12 Wilson	13
No. 13 Skillet	37
No. 14 Smith	14
No. 15 McKnight	33
No. 16 Ashtola	58
No. 17 Naylor	17
No. 18 City Hall	327

TOTAL 1,445

According to reports from the Collector's office, the payment of all taxes was going forward at a nice rate until the passage of the act deferring the payment of the 1930 taxes. The amount paid has not yet been computed and a guess is only tentative at this time.

FORTY DOZEN EGGS REALIZED BY CALL

NEWS' APPEAL FOR EGGS FOR RELIEF BRINGS AN INSTANT RESPONSE

Very surprising to The News staff and to the relief organizations of the town was the instant favor and response the call for contributions of eggs received after last week's issue of the News.

By Wednesday morning of this week forty dozen eggs had been received at The News office and twenty dozen had been distributed among needy families of this community.

Donley County citizens from rural homes miles away had happily contributed surplus eggs and were glad of the opportunity to aid in helping those in straitened circumstances, while the people listed among the recipients were very thankful of the aid to their food supply.

The fact that eggs are bringing only eight cents per dozen on the market, lower than for the past twenty years, causes the farmer to feel that he had rather direct his surplus eggs to a worthy cause than to accept the pitiful price now offered.

Bring in your eggs, The News will see that they go where they are really needed in this community.

Donors up to Wednesday were:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO URGE HIGHWAY

HEDLEY AND CLARENDON MEN WILL WORK JOINTLY FOR EARLY ACTION

On invitation of the Hedley Commercial Club, the highway committee of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce attended the regular luncheon and meeting of the former at Hedley Tuesday evening. In addition to the committee there were a few other Clarendon men present. The party headed by A. L. Chase, chairman of the committee, was W. C. Stewart, F. W. Rathjen, Homer Mulkey, Sam M. Brasswell, T. D. Nored, Odos Caraway and Holman Kennedy.

Chas. Lowery, President of the Hedley Organization presided at the meeting and after a very bountiful dinner at the Cooper Hotel, discussion was held on the highway situation in Donley County. After a lengthy session the Hedley Commercial Club voted to name a committee to look after their interests and work jointly with the Clarendon highway committee to make an effort to secure a few minor adjustments on the proposed routing of Highway No. 5 through the county, and to urge the commissioners court to complete its part of the contract with the state highway department in the matter of providing right-of-way.

The meeting also heard a report of the completion of the road south from Hedley to the county line and plans for securing the co-operation of Hall County in opening the route up to Lakeview.

The consensus of opinion at the meeting seemed to be that each town was to work out its problems of designation of the route with the highway department with the aid of the other, and a splendid spirit of co-operation was manifest in the gathering.

SECRECY SHROUDS HEDLEY SHOOTING

A man arrested in connection with a shooting affray near Hedley Monday afternoon was released Wednesday under bond of $100. He is charged with aggravated assault. A woman, also taken in custody Monday, is free under an appearance bond of $500. The sheriff declined to reveal their names.

A statement in regard to the shooting was made Wednesday afternoon by J. D. Latta, Amarillo, to Sheriff Guy Pierce of Clarendon at St. Anthony's hospital, where Latta is a patient, his left arm broken by a bullet. Latta described the shooting as "an accident." Further than that Pierce declined to divulge the contents of the statement.

Doc Clay of Hedley was also wounded by the bullet which struck Latta. Latta and Clay were occupying a car and the slug shattered the windshield Clay suffering cuts about the face from the flying glass. Clay Tuesday paid a fine for intoxication, Pierce said.

MRS. R. WILKERSON PAINFULLY SCALDED

News readers will be sorry to learn of a painful accident to Mrs. R. Wilkerson, who suffered scalding of her lower limbs Wednesday night when a boiler of boiling water was overturned at her apartment in Suverton, where she has been teaching for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Wilkerson hurried to Suverton when notified, accompanied by a Clarendon physician and brought Mrs. Wilkerson home, arriving here about five o'clock this morning and she is resting as easily as possible under the circumstances.

"Womanless Wedding" Is Coming

Next Tuesday evening at the College Auditorium, the Clarendon P. T. A.'s will present the ever new "Womanless Wedding" as a benefit to the treasury of that organization, and a most brilliant array of the male talent of the city will appear in the production.

Not since the last appearance of this spectacular extravaganza has the public had the opportunity to laugh itself sick at the ungainly and elephantine antics of some of its most prominent citizens. Think of the fun in store when H. T. Burton comes floating in as the zephyr-like bride to be joined in bliss to the half-pint groom, Judge J. R. Porter. Think of the flower girls, featuring James Smith and Phifer Estlack; think of the bridesmaids, McHenry Lane and Pete Montgomery; think of—oh, well, you'll just have to come and see to get the full picture of the evening's monstrosity of fun and frolic.

The curtain will rise at seven-thirty, and already there is such general interest in the worthy cause and in the entertainment of the evening that everybody will eat an early supper and rush up the hill to get seats, for a "sell-out" is assured, at the popular prices.

Misses Athlyn Taylor and Agnes Caraway from Groom and Pampa respectively spent the week end here with home folks.

KIDDIES MILK FUND GETS DISTANT HELP

J. W. MARTIN ON WINTER VACATION SENDS CHECK FROM SEATTLE, WASH.

An appeal strong enough to get results thousands of miles from Clarendon is a pretty fair appeal, even if it was a loyal Clarendon citizen who answered all the way from Seattle, Washington. Mr. J. W. Martin read of the Kiddies Milk Fund being carried on through the columns of The Clarendon News, and this week we received a letter with check enclosed and among other things Mr. Martin wrote, his commendation of the plan. "A worthy cause, let the good work go on", is the way his letter closes.

Balance reported last week $ 5.61

Total $13.61

With between two hundred and forty and three hundred quarts of milk being delivered to the needy children of the Clarendon community now the bills for February service will be somewhere between $25 and $30, so if we are to avoid a deficit in the fund when bill paying time comes there will be need of at least as much again money as now in the fund.

If you have a spare dollar or two for a worthy cause The News will guarantee that it will go in the proper channels and will see that you get credit for it if you desire. The dairy people are selling The Fund milk at ten cents per quart, which is very generous on their part.

BAPTISTS ENJOY FINE MEETING HERE TUESDAY

The Worker's Meeting of the Panhandle Baptist Association which was held here Tuesday of this week was one of the best that has been held in some time. The attendance was curtailed to some extent by inclement weather but before the day had passed, a large number of the churches in the district were represented. The enthusiasm ran high and the meeting was voted a success by all those who attended and took some part in the services.

HEDLEY IS WINNER OF COUNTY FINALS

LELIA LAKE IS RUNNER-UP IN BASKETBALL MEET. CLARENDON OUT EARLY

One of the most successful basketball tournaments that has been held in this county was staged last Friday and Saturday at Hedley in the splendid auditorium of the school of that city with the host city's five artists of the maple floor coming out on top with the honor of having won the meet from a field of ten starting teams. Lelia Lake was beaten out by the Owls in the finals, while the Clarendon Bronchos lost to the basket looping Owls in the semi-final match played Saturday morning by a score of 22 to 29. In this game the Bronchos led practically the entire game only to see their slim margin vanish in the closing minutes of the game as Hedley once more showed their superiority over the local cagers as they have done with a monotonous degree of consistency in the past number of years.

In the first round McKnight defeated Goldston; Clarendon Junior High School won from Chamberlain, Lelia Lake copped the honors from Windy Valley; Clarendon High School won their start from Ashtola as Hedley took the Smith team for a ride.

In the second round of games Clarendon Junior High defeated the McKnight boys; Lelia Lake drew a bye and Clarendon High School lost to Hedley. The only third round game found the Lelia Lake boys going at top speed and they handed the local Juniors a one way ticket home to the tune of 31 to 13. In the final contest the plucky Lelia Lake team battled valiantly but were defeated by the more experienced Hedley Owls, who by virtue of their victory will represent Donley County in the district meet later in the season. The score of the final game was Hedley 20 Lelia Lake 11.

Brilliant playing was seen in many of the games with Shaw from Lelia Lake, Watkins of Hedley, and Andis of Clarendon being given their due share of the limelight for attention as stellar players. High point men were not recorded although it is practically a known fact that the individual honors lay between Shaw of Lelia Lake and Watkins of Hedley, who were far in the lead at the finals.

The School Board fully realizes the situation with reference to the depression that exists all over the country and have cut all school expenses to the lowest possible minimum, however it is going to be absolutely necessary that all taxes due the school be paid in order that the school remain open for the balance of the term now in session. We therefore, as a Board working for the best interest of the school, call upon you for the payment of your 1930 taxes."

RAIN WELCOMED OVER WEEK END

Rainfall registering three quarters of an inch in the city and shading to a shower in the western part of the county was received gratefully here over the past week end. The fall was heavier in the south and eastern parts of the county, some sections receiving quite a bit more than was received in the territory immediately adjacent to Clarendon. The fall east of the city gradually shaded off until at the county line there was only a light shower.

In this connection it might be of interest to the people of this section to know the amount of rainfall received here in the year 1930. As is well known, this was a year of unprecedented drought, although a total of 20.31 inches of rain was received and registered by the local weather reporter. The fall was so distributed that it was not received when it was most needed although the grand total was much higher than would be expected from the returns received.

By months, the fall is as follows: January, .68; February, .18; March, 1.92; April, 1.38; May, 4.04; June, 1.87; July, .60; August, 1.87; September, .50; October, 6.70; November, .47 and December, 1.10. The total for the year amounts to 20.31 as registered in Clarendon, while other sections of the county received more.

CITY SCHOOLS ASK TAX PAYMENT NOW

DEFERMENT OF STATE AND COUNTY TAX NOT EFFEC- TIVE ON SCHOOL TAX

Payment of the 1930 taxes for the Clarendon Independent School District is being asked in a letter mailed to all delinquent taxpayers as of Monday of this week. This letter was produced at the request of the school board and asks that this tax be paid before March first to keep this from going delinquent. The letter is self-explanatory and is reproduced herewith for the benefit of the schools of the city, who need the assistance that will be given by the receipt of the 1930 tax money.

The State of Texas has recently passed a bill deferring the payment of State and County taxes until October 15, 1931. The law does not effect the payment of Independent School District taxes, and therefore all taxes due and unpaid to the Clarendon Independent School District become delinquent on February 1, 1931.

The School Board for the Clarendon Independent School District met in called session on February 4th on account of the conflicting reports put out before the first day of February regarding the time of payment of taxes and an order was made extending the time of payment of the 1930 school taxes to March 1, 1931 before the penalty of 10 per cent would take effect. The order applies only to 1930 school taxes due the Clarendon Independent School District. This arrangement will give all those that have not heretofore paid the school taxes an opportunity to pay and avoid the penalty of 10 per cent.

"The School Board fully realizes the situation with reference to the depression that exists all over the country and have cut all school expenses to the lowest possible minimum, however it is going to be absolutely necessary that all taxes due the school be paid in order that the school remain open for the balance of the term now in session. We therefore, as a Board working for the best interest of the school, call upon you for the payment of your 1930 taxes."

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET FRIDAY

FIVE COUNTY ASSOCIATION TO BE GUESTS OF LO- CALLS IN MEETING

The members of the Five County Medical Association, composed of physicians in the counties of Childress, Collingsworth, Donley, Hall and Wheeler, will be in this city Friday of this week as the guests of the local members of this organization. The program will start with the luncheon at the noon hour, at which time the medicals will lunch with the Rotarians at their usual luncheon hour. The business session of the body will be started immediately on the conclusion of the noon meal.

The program has been arranged and will include an address from Dr. R. S. Killough of Amarillo, who will address the gathering on "How to Handle Common Conditions of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat as Found in General Practice." Dr. B. L. Jenkins is also listed to fill a place on the program, he being assigned the subject of Anomalous Menstruation. These two papers, with the discussion that will follow from the general body of the meeting, will comprise the greater portion of the program for this meeting.

T. D. Hobart of Pampa was a business visitor in Clarendon Tuesday of this week.

AID IN SOLVING A PROBLEM

Next week the service clubs of Clarendon are jointly bringing Dr. Chas. E. Barker to this community for a series of addresses on the general subject of parental relationship to children. These addresses are financed by the clubs and no admission or collections will be taken in the audiences who greet the speaker.

One of the most difficult problems facing the parent is the proper approach to the boy or girl on those intimate sex questions which should be a part of their education as they grow into adolescence and maturity. Many are so deterred by its seeming difficulty that no effort to teach the child is made at all, and often he gets the information in an altogether vulgar and distorted way and many times from vicious sources.

Dr. Barker's appearance before Donley County men and women is to aid in the solving of this important problem, and The News is glad that his services have been secured. Any aid on this neglected part of education is well worth all its costs.

A NEGLECTED SUBJECT AND A COSTLY NEGLECT

Reports recently issued by the Fire Insurance Commissioner of Texas shows that the losses from fire in this state during the year just past probably mounted to the stupendous figure of over seventeen million dollars. The only accurate records are those on fire losses to insured property which amounted to over eleven and a half million dollars, but unofficial estimates may place the total loss at almost twice that figure.

From the report on insured losses over six million dollars were from fires that were "preventable", and if the uninsured losses are proportionately preventable Texas may be said to have paid for her carelessness to the tune of ten million dollars in 1930—and in a year when that sum would have been the difference in economic success and failure.

With these accusing facts before us, every citizen ought to set about to put his own premises in order so that no fire loss in 1931 could be chargeable to his neglect or carelessness. The unavoidable fire toll is enough. Let's do our part to save the millions that might be prevented with a little care and effort.

THE TWO-CENT RAILWAY FARE

From the development of the past few months there is beginning to dawn a hope that soon the traveling public is to enjoy a two-cent per mile fare from the railways and the bus lines.

Several specific instances are on record where the two-cent rate has been granted to railway and bus lines, and it is the hope of people generally that this rate will soon become the accepted standard.

When the two-cent fare is with us, maybe then we can get an adjustment with the pullman company so that the surtax may be taken off and a small reduction on upper and lower berths secured.

Every auto is a competitor of the rail and bus lines, and they are beginning to realize it.

TAMMANY FAILS IN THE METHODIST CHURCH

Smarting under the hammer blows dealt its whisky-soaked policies and candidate two years ago by Bishop Cannon of the Methodist Church the evil hand of Tammany has sought in two vicious attempts to embarrass his influence and stop his voice, but have failed in both attacks.

True, they used tools in the Methodist Church—they are adepts in that art—but their money and their unholy pressure from such sources failed, and Bishop Cannon now goes to regain his health and strength and hopes to be ready to unveil their political rotteness in the coming effort to again name a reeking wet as the Democratic standard bearer in 1932.

Tammany fails in the Methodist Church and the insult is that it even dared attempt to influence the councils of any church.

The generally accepted wage of one dollar and a half per day for ordinary day labor is doing two things for the country. It is the means for many to become self-sustaining and it weeds out those who try to live on charity. Charity is right only for those unable to work and for those whom peculiar circumstances have placed in the bread line temporarily.

A Visit to an Old Religious Fire Rite Amid Ancient Tahitian Surroundings

By LUCY SALAMANCA

I had gone up into the district of Peru and was walking along the road that runs to Tautira, Tehura at my side. A party of laughing, merry girls, barefooted and breathless, came running toward us.

"Leave us not so soon, Luci," said one of them. "Remain yet a few days and you shall go with us to see the Umuti."

"And tahua will walk over the fiery furnace," said Tani, "By the old til in the Valley. You will let us come for you?"

Now the "tahua" I knew to be a sorcerer and I heard of this ancient rite of walking unharmed across a fiery surface. I read of this incomprehensible immunity to fire in many books. I knew of the magic. But I had never seen a performance of the Umuti.

"You will come for me," I told them and waving me a cherry farewell they paddled off down the road.

On the appointed night my Tahitian friends called at our hut and Tehura and I started off with them up the glen. Thru a beautiful forest we went where wild oranges and lemons towered majestically above our heads. Mosses and ferns spread green before us and wild orchids grew in great profusion. Twisted mape-trees writhed about us. On a level eminence, lined with these tortured trees, the oven had been built, at the direction of the tahua. Faggots of purau wood and trunks of the mape-tree and on the trunks had been laid lumps of lava and stones. The oven had been lighted three days before the ceremony and the waves of heat from its flat surface smote our cheeks as we made our way up the hill, at the side of groups of young Tahitian maids and youths. Tehura had brought along a mouth organ which she played in a spirited fashion and there had been much singing and dancing along the way we had come.

The pit was a mass of glowing stones and flames were leaping up between them. The people of the village sat and squatted about the oven some fifty feet distant, while within his tiny hut the tahua was still at prayer. In the midst of a hushed silence he came slowly forth. He wore about his hips a white pareau and his head was crowned with leaves. He held a wand of the same leaves in his hand. Near the fiery furnace he stopped his measured tread and chanted a Tahitian prayer. Then he mounted the red hot oven. Without flinching, looking neither to right nor left he strode across it, while I could make out the heat rays radiating and quivering about his naked legs. Deliberately he turned at the oven's edge and made his way back, and when he reached the end he raised his wand and signed the spectators to follow. Barefooted, and with out uttering a single word they strode after him across the heated stones.

"Fariu! Return!" he ordered them at the edge of the oven and obediently they made their way back over the umu. A youth disobeyed a law of umuti and looked down. He stumbled, groped, fell and the length of his leg was burned. The others did not heed him but passed uninjured across the umu. As the tahua signed the people to disperse, he made his way to his hut, solemnly and sedately, and quite uninjured despite the dreadful journey he had taken.

Tahitian youths stepped forward and threw split wood upon the stones. They were the trunks of banana trees and upon them were placed young pigs and yams and taro, which the natives covered with breadfruit leaves, and earth, to retain the oven's heat. Yet I had witnessed such an inexplicable demonstration of power over fire, of immunity, of whatever it was that had made that demonstration possible. I concluded that it must be some form of hypnotism practiced, perhaps by the tahua. But how could I know? I was an insignificant little American, looking for someone to write about and mine—like the Six Hundred's—was "not to reason why."

Meanwhile much merriment was in progress. Tehura's mouth organ was giving forth lilting tunes. Chants and imenes filled the night air. The solemnity of the Umuti seemed to have fallen from the merry crowd.

The tahua did not, however reappear. We partook of the young pig, the baked yams, the steamed meats and fruits and all but myself seemed to have forgotten quite entirely the mystic rite so recently enacted before us.

As for myself, I confess it took on the proportions of a miracle in my eyes. But the merry villagers and my lustrous Tehura were not troubled by conjectures. To them the tahua had simply performed an ancient rite, despite the fact that every missionary on the island regarded the Umuti as deviltry, an evil thing to be avoided by all good Christians.

Jack Carroll of Akron, Ohio, and William Martin of Philadelphia, received only fifty cents each as a reward for returning a pocket-book which contained $1,500.

Forcing children to eat spinach or other foods which they do not like is not good for them, as the feeling of repulsion which they experience hinders digestion.

Electricity Assures Dependable Refrigeration

To SAFELY preserve perishable foodstuffs—to protect them from spoilage or bacteria infection—a method of refrigeration which will maintain a constant temperature of less than fifty degrees is a vital necessity. In no other way can you be sure that the foods you are serving are safe beyond the shadow of a doubt.

Electric Refrigeration is as certain as Electricity itself. Regardless of where you are, dependable and efficient electric service guarantees the constant low temperature advocated by leading medical and food authorities. MAGICIAN HAS FINE SHOWING

Despite the fact that there were a number of other attractions in the city on last Thursday evening, R. E. (Bob) Clark of Amarillo, showed to a fair audience in the College Auditorium. Mr. Clark was brought here by the Fellowship Club of the Presbyterian Church and was presented to the public by this group. He had a fine group of tricks and held his audience nicely with the display made on the evening of his appearance here. He was especially adept at card tricks, having a number that were quite mystifying to those watching him.

The class netted a small sum from the evening's performance, and the entertainer of the evening will be enabled to continue his course of study in Amarillo Junior College.

Marriage License was issued Tuesday of this week to Cecil Mills and Miss Mamie Bowling of the Hedley community.

FAMOUS PIANIST TO BE HEARD IN AMARILLO FEB. 20.

Paderewski, the greatest pianist of all time will arrive in Amarillo on Feb. 20 in his special car and will appear at the Amarillo Auditorium that night at 8:15 under auspices of Emil F. Myers of the Amarillo College of Music.

"The Superb" de lux car of the Pullman Company has the distinction of being Paderewski's home sometime for six months at a stretch. Whenever news comes that the pianist is returning to the United States, this car is overhauled, manicured and redecorated inside and out.

Unlike most musicians Paderewski does not favor hotels when he is on tour. When he has played his last encore and made his last bow in each town, he prefers to return to his own fire-side—even if that fireside is only an electric heater on a railroad train.

The car is as nearly as possible the appointments of a home—his piano, his books, comfortable chairs and attractive hangings. It has its own lighting and heating system so that it can be sidetracked without losing any of the comforts. It is connected by telephone with each city where Paderewski stops for a concert. It has a special chef and accommodations for the pianist's entourage of eight people.

Paderewski travels in his private car as a matter of convenience. He likes his one big meal a day late at night after the concert. To get a good hot freshly prepared meal at a hotel at midnight is next to impossible.

Those who toured with him tell of how in the evening when the car is sidetracked he will start playing. Out side his window a brakeman stops and listens, then an engineer, then other yard employees until a fair sized group is standing silently beside the car, listening with rapt attention to the wonderful music.

On concert days Paderewski retires to his stateroom at five o'clock to rest and concentrate. He emerges from his retirement dressed for the performance, but never eats before going on the stage. His dinner comes after the concert.

Traveling with him on this tour are Mme. Paderewski, her secretary, Miss Helen Lieke; Tour manager, Lawrence Fitzgerald, Eldon Joubert, who looks after the transportation and takes care of the pianos, Larcel, the valet-masseur whose task it is to look after the master's physical condition and clothes. Two pullman porters and a special chef complete the party.

Tickets for Paderewski's concert in Amarillo are selling rapidly with the house about two-thirds sold out at this time. Those desiring seats should place their order early as indications are the house will sell out, according to Emil F. Myers who is in charge of the sale.

Jack Merchant spent the week end here from Amarillo.

Revs. W. M. Murrell, W. R. McPherson, C. B. Ingram, G. H. Gattis and W. Joshua Knoy of Lelia Lake were in McLean Monday of this week attending an educational meeting of laymen and pastors.

Clarendon Men Go To Pampa Meeting

Monday of this week a party of Clarendon motored to Pampa to attend the monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Panhandle of Texas, Inc. Those in the party were G. L. Boykin, O. C. Watson, H. J. Edington and Sam M. Braswell.

The Pampa Chamber of Commerce was host to the visitors in a luncheon in the basement of the Pampa Methodist Church, and Roy McMillan, president of the host organization presided. Talks were made by Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon, President of the West Texas State Teachers College; Wilbur Hawk, President of the Tri-State Fair and Amarillo Fat Stock Show; and Sam M. Braswell, President of the Panhandle of Texas, Inc.

After the luncheon a business session was held in the new Pampa city hall, and the budget for the year 1931 was adopted on recommendation of Dr. J. A. Hill, chairman of the finance committee. Howard Ferguson, General Manager of the organization presented the financial report of the operations in 1930 and explained the details of the new advertising plans for 1931.

The March meeting of the executive board will be held in Amarillo in early March during the Fat Stock Show on a date to be announced later.

THOMPSON GETS FIVE YEAR PRISON SENTENCE

Vernon, Texas, Feb. 10—Emmett Thompson was found guilty of murder without malice by a jury in Forty-sixth District Court Wednesday morning and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. The verdict was returned by the jury at 11:45 a. m. after the case in which Thompson was charged with murder in the death of Homer Crabtree near LeFors last November had occupied the court for more than two weeks.

Thompson sat calmly at the defense counsel table as the jury filed in and showed no emotion after the verdict was read. He did not rise or attempt to speak to anyone until J. V. Leak of the defense staff of attorneys conferred with him. Although several members of the defendant's family have been in the courtroom throughout the trial, none was with him when he was brought in after the Court had been notified the jury was ready to report, and none was present when the verdict was read.

Defense attorneys were undecided this afternoon as to whether or not Thompson would ask for a new trial or appeal. Attorneys here stated that a conference would be held before announcing the decision.

J. S. Ulm of the city of Amarillo was a business visitor here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Naylor and son from Quanah spent Saturday night and Sunday in the city visiting relatives.

Lions To Distribute Old Magazines

Under a plan worked out by the major activities committee of the Clarendon Lions Club, Chairman A. L. Chase announces that the club will appreciate the donation of used standard magazines which will be distributed to the rural schools of Donley County in co-operation with the county superintendent.

Citizens of Clarendon are invited to bring their standard magazines, suitable for collateral reading in the schools, to Rathen's Shoe Store, where they will be apportioned and delivered to the common schools of Donley County.

The committee will receive only such magazines as are considered of a standard grade and certainly no one would think of giving reading matter of any other sort to the school children of the county. Where this plan has been used the parents of the children have in many instances become regular readers as well.

Each month the committee of Lions will see that the month's supply goes out to the schools according to their enrollment.

ICELAND

Iceland's Allting, "the oldest parliament in the world", is expected to vote for the nation's entry into the League of Nations this year, according to a dispatch in L'Europe Nouvelle. This country is the only one in Western Europe that has not yet joined the League.

The vote for membership was urged last year at the time of the ceremonies commemorating the thousandth anniversary of the Allting, but the government was loath to disturb the harmony of the national fete by parliamentary dissension. Such a vote will be an affirmation of the island's total independence.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS SET 1931 PROGRAM

MANY ACTIVITIES AND STUDIES LISTED IN WORK FOR YEAR

Miss Lorena Steagall, Sponsor of the Camp Fire Girls Movement in Clarendon has released the following schedule of studies and activities for the coming year which will be followed by the three troops now active in this community:

Donley Cotton Is 3,000 Bales Short

The preliminary report of cotton ginned in the state of Texas prior to January 16th, 1931 shows the crop for the state less than 100,000 bales more than for the year 1929 preceding. The figures for the entire state for the just ending as compared with the year 1929 shows the crop for 1930 to be 3,853,599 bales, while the crop for 1929 is 3,758,359 bales.

In the counties immediately adjacent to Donley, the figures are more startling than would appear from the totals of the state. The effects of the drought are to be seen here as in no other portion of the report and counties with a normal crop of near 80,000 bales have been cut to almost nothing.

BUILDING RESOURCES IN ALASKA

An animal that disappeared about 80 years ago from the Territory of Alaska will be reestablished there if the efforts of the government prove successful. It is the musk oxen, "the most truly Arctic" of all large mammals in North America, according to the Biological Survey.

Musk oxen resemble small buffalo. The meat, when properly dressed, at the right time of year, is palatable and nourishing, somewhat similar to beef and buffalo meat.

Remains of musk oxen have been found in several Alaskan localities, and some natives say that their grandfathers killed the animals for food. However, no authentic record exists to show that these beasts were ever seen by Europeans.

Donley County School Trustees

The list appended hereto will be of interest to those of the city who have occasion to deal with the various schools of the county in any manner. The list comes to The News through the courtesy of the County Superintendent, Mrs. Nora McMurtry, and is correct to date. Preserve the list for future reference, it will save you much time and trouble in locating the officials of the schools of the county.

WILL BE, WITH MRS. V. V. JOHNSTON

February 19th. Our basketball boys attended the tournament at Hedley, but were lost in the shuffle so far as the championship is concerned, yet they played a good game and we are proud of them. The score between them and Clarendon Junior High was eighteen to twenty-two in favor of the latter. There are no better losers than Chamberlain boys. They return to their work full of pep and with no regrets for their having entered the contest.

PROPHECY OF THE PALO DURIANS

By Nola Gordon
As I was walking down the streets in Bombay, I saw a sign which read, "Come in and see yours and your friends future and present life."

Wishing to find novelty I walked in and who should I see but Rosemary Hurn in the waiting-room.

We decided to go into the room and see whatever might be seen together.

We walked into a room with nothing in it but drapes and a small table. At the table sat a small, wrinkled old man, dressed in the fashion of the Indians and peering into a crystal ball.

This scene faded out and suddenly we heard shouts and a loud noise, the scene was Chicago. The old man passed his hand across the crystal and we saw a huge laboratory and who should be working there at one of the desks but Clyde Slavins.

The crystal moved and we knew to make the banquet an enjoyable and memorable occasion.

that something was going to happen. What should it be but that we were back in old Clarendon. The main street flashed on and right in the old spot stood the Rexall Drug Store now owned by Tony Watson.

Lights flicked on and off—was it Broadway? Yes, and who should we see billed as ballet dancers for that night but Virginia Wisdom, Hazel Gilbert and Wylfa Alexander.

Things become quiet again and quite a different picture presents itself. We saw a school room and at one end stood Ruth Donnell pointing her finger and beginning "Now listen children—"

For awhile nothing appeared and we wondered if some of our dear old Palo Durians were missing—but wait! the surface of the crystal is being filled with another picture. It is the picture of an immense curtained stage and W. D. Bryson stands before his celebrated symphony orchestra.

Last but not least was the final picture presented to us. A big publishing house flashed into view where Miss Ineva Headrick's latest book was being published.

The marvelous but super-natural crystal flickered for a moment, grew dimmer, and finally faded into the darkness of the surroundings. The old man sat as if in a stupor and we knew that we had just witnessed a remarkable scene of magic.

We quietly retired and left the house so that we could recover from the air of mystification that hung about us as a shroud.

SENIOR CLASS BUSY ON COMMENCEMENT PLANS

Through the years Senior activities have been of the greatest importance not only to the class itself but to the entire school and community. We, the Senior Class of 1931, hope we meet with the expectations of everyone.

BRONCHOLETTES DOWN HEDLEY SEXTET 26 TO 23—MEMPHIS CYCLONETTES NEXT

What a game! From the time it started until the final whistle blew it was anybody's game. Hedley led the score throughout three quarters of the contest, and at the end of the third period had a lead of 21 to 17, but!!! those powerful Maroon and White Broncholettes had a confidential huddle and came back determined to win.

This was the best game of the season and the crowd was in an uproar throughout the game. It was fast and well called. This was the second time this year that the two teams have met, the Hedley Owlettes winning the first encounter. With this victory the Broncholettes marked up their second victory over the Hedley sextet in the last six or seven years. The supreme test of the local sweethearts of the chalked court will be held at the local gymnasium this Thursday night when the Broncholettes play hosts to the Memphis Cyclonettes in what is expected to provide the best and most interesting entertainment offered the local cage enthusiasts thus far this season.

C. H. S.

So far, we are progressing nicely—we have had our pictures made and headed the honor roll. We have already begun plans for commencement and the Senior play. What more would you expect of seniors?

Alpha Delta Psi News

The Alpha Delta Psi met in another very interesting meeting last Wednesday night. The annual inter-society banquet was again the topic for discussion. The arrangements have all been made for this affair Wednesday night, the 18th.

The program committee, Ruth Dunn, Bessie Lee Jackson and Nova Cook will act as the entertainment committee. Those to see about the decorations are Mary Slater, Eugene Estlack, Lorene Hayes. Delicious refreshments were served after the following program was rendered: Short Story, Helen Slater. Saxophone Solo, James Smith. Critic's Report, Mrs. Clark.

Tri-State Track Meet

There was a track meet in a certain town, and all our boys were there. They were nervously pacing up and down with an anxious and impatient air.

Then they were all lined up for the start. Each runner quickly knelt to his mark with trembling knees and hammering heart, as I heard a spectator remark. But when at last the gun went "bang," and the smoke rose in a puff, they all rose up and away they sprang, but they weren't quite fast enough.

They were beaten to the post by the fastest men from all parts of three states, but like good sports, and with a grin they calmly accepted their fates.

Columbus

Columbus thought that the earth was round. So he went to the wearer of the royal crown. He said, "If you'll give me a little money I'll prove this to you, though it may sound funny".

They told the Admiral that he was wrong. But Columbus said, "Sail on and on". And then one night they saw a light. And soon the mainland was in sight.

Columbus stepped out on the land. Without the aid of a helping hand. For this he thanked his lucky star. And named his find San Salvador.

AG CLASSES RUN TERRACE LINES

The Agriculture classes under Mr. Bairfield have been busy the last few weeks running terrace lines for the farmers around over the county. At present we have run about 10,000 yards of lines and have done a small part of the real work of building the terraces.

The local department has entered a contest in which here are about five schools contesting in the greatest amount of lines run. The winner of the contest will be awarded a new Texas Terracer.

The Future Farmers Chapter will be busy for the next few weeks rehearsing for the minstrel which will be presented about the first of March. This performance of the old time black faced minstrel promises to be very amusing and has a very good cast. We are hoping the people will all be out to hear the lively skit. The proceeds will go to defraying the expenses of the agricultural teams to several poultry and dairy judging contests.

The Pirates Code

We are very glad to report that Mrs. Thomas has recovered and is now able to resume her teaching duties.

Las Paratas played a game of basket ball Wednesday with the Eli girls, who were victorious.

The Antelope All Stars came over Thursday to play basketball with the Pirates, but the Pirates had disbanded the basket ball team and are now playing baseball. They began practicing last week, and they have good prospects for a winning team. Let's see the community back the team and help the Pirates be as successful in baseball as they were in basketball.

Because of the smallpox in our neighboring communities, quite a number of the school students have been vaccinated the last two weeks.

The Pirates and Las Paratas have begun practicing on a play entitled "The Wild Cat's Bay" which is to be presented in four or five weeks.

Miss Mixon spent the week end in Goldston visiting her brother, Claude.

The student body and faculty are very busy now, because of the work they are doing for preparation for the Interscholastic League meet.

Miss Guthrie is in charge of indoor baseball and the junior spelling class, while Miss Watters is sponsoring the senior spelling and Tiny Tot Story Telling. Mrs. Thomas is working up some splendid declamations. We have plenty of material, so there is no reason why we shouldn't make a big carry off at the meet.

ROTARIANS ASKED TO GIVE BOYS JOBS

A. T. COLE ADDRESSES CLUB ON PROBLEM OF IDLE YOUNG MEN AND BOYS

Rotarian A. T. Cole impressed the members of the Rotary Club with an address here last Friday when he spoke on the subject of the Boy problem. Idleness was given as the cause for the greater part of the trouble with boys at the present time and urged the Rotary Club to give their boys a job if they would prevent the growth of the criminal wave that is apparently sweeping the nation.

W. C. Alexander was in charge of the program for the day and took delight in asking questions of Rotarian Cope, many concerning the mechanical refrigeration unit for which Rotarian Cope is a salesman. The member in question appeared to be quite sold on the idea of his sort of refrigeration and would not trip himself up by revealing the name of the machine he was selling.

Rotarian Cole was another victim of the questioning, answering a number of questions concerning laws of the land that are applied to every day life and actions.

Report was heard on the meeting with the Memphis Rotarians the early part of the week and announcement was made of the basketball tournament at Hedley.

The coming of Dr. Barker was announced by B. L. Jenkins who urged the Rotarians to attend the lectures given by this gentleman while he is in the city.

PRESBYTERIANS IMPROVE GARAGE AT PASTOR'S HOME

For the past several days workmen have been busily engaged in tearing away the building formerly used as a garage at the home of the Presbyterian pastor in this city and are planning to utilize this material in the construction of a newer and more compact structure on another location on the lot. The work is being done by the men of the church, they contributing the work in order to secure the improvement. The building will be completed and ready for use by the latter part of this week unless hindered by some outside influence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrison returned last Sunday evening from Dallas, where they had been for a visit with the mother of Mrs. Morrison.

NEW PROJECT TO START THIS WEEK

MAGAZINES FOR USE OF RURAL SCHOOLS IS OBJECT OF LIONS

The latest project to be undertaken by the Lions will be started this week with the Major Activities Committee of the organization in charge. All members of the club were asked to gather what magazines they had on hand, bring them to the place of business of Lion Rathjen, where they would be sorted and stamped and left for the schools to secure as they visited the city. Other citizens of the city will be asked to join in the movement until all magazines are secured that are needed.

Lion Watson reported for the committee in charge of the case of Mr. Houdashell, stating that examination given after the operation last week showed that the man in question would have two perfectly good eyes after the second operation had healed.

Another trip to Amarillo for a final examination will be made about the first of March, at which time the work will be finished insofar as this particular case is concerned.

Lion Watson also stated that the committee would prepare a letter of appreciation of the doctors who have so kindly helped in the cases carried to them and that this would be presented at the next luncheon.

The state convention was announced for April 27th and 28th and a committee on the delegation was promised for the next week.

The appearance of Dr. Barker here on February 20th was again announced, together with the time and place of his appearances before the public here.

Lion McKee reported that the rock pile at the City Park was greatly augmented by the work of last Tuesday and Wednesday, but that the committee was making an attempt to secure further assistance in getting the broken rock hauled to the city this week.

Guests for the day were introduced as Rev. Joshua Knoy of Lella Lake, J. W. Owens of Clarendon and Arthur L. Carnahan of Amarillo.

The meeting of the Hedley Commercial Club on Tuesday evening and the invitation for the Highway Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and as many other visitors was announced and an interested attendance was asked.

A short report was made on the egg depot started last week, statement being that some thirty-five dozen eggs had been received to Tuesday noon and that a considerable balance was left on hand to be distributed.

Lion Mulkey stated that the work on the Ball Park was progressing nicely with a sum approximately $131.00 having been spent for labor. He also stated that calls on the Goodfellows fund had almost entirely been stopped since this work had started.

The resignation of Lion Bill Murrell was again presented to the club when he learned that his place had been taken last Tuesday by Lion Bennett Kerbow. The resignation was refused and the statement was made that the Lion should have been here and then the office would not have been left to other hands.

Adjournment as usual.

CLARENDON OPERATORS IN ASSOCIATED MAGAZINE

The current issue of "The Mouth-Piece", the magazine issued by the Associated Telephone Utilities System at regular intervals contains the photographs of the chief operator and the assistants as they were banqueted at the close of a campaign for more business. The other photograph appearing in the magazine is that of Mrs. Mary Naylor and Miss Lala Lamon as they were discussing ways and means for enlarging the number of telephones in the Clarendon system.

REVIVAL MEETING

The Methodist people of Lella Lake, under the leadership of their pastor, Rev. W. Joshua Knoy will begin a revival meeting in the Methodist Church Thursday evening, February 19th at 7:00 p. m. Dr. W. R. McPherson, pastor of the Methodist Church Clarendon, will assist the local pastor. The entire religious forces are invited to co-operate.

BAPTIST CHURCH ANNOUNCES EDUCATIONAL REVIVAL

February 22-28 has been set aside by the Baptist Church as the time for a Church Educational Revival.

Mr. Walter Jackson, Educational Director of the Abilene Baptist Church is to lead the revival. Mr. Jackson is one of the foremost religious educational leaders in Texas. The local Baptist authorities feel that they are indeed fortunate in securing Mr. Jackson to lead in this effort to put the educational work of the church on a more efficient plane. Mr. Jackson will conduct a workshop period each morning, an inspirational service between the two study periods each night and teach the class in the Sunday School Manual.

Other classes will be taught by local people—Trail Makers in other Lands for the Juniors, Intermediate B. Y. P. U. Manual for the intermediates, Seven Laws of Teaching, The People Called Baptists for Seniors and Adults.

MEAT CAR BROKEN—MUCH MEAT STOLEN TUESDAY EVE

The seal was broken and quite a large quantity of meat was stolen from a car left here late Tuesday evening by the fast freight arriving here late in the day. Practically all of the stores and markets of the city were affected by the break and some other towns further up the line. The extent of the loss was not learned, but it is thought to amount to a considerable figure.

Forecasting the Spring Mode in Printzess Coat Fashions

The first advanced Spring Coat fashions are here. They're delightful styles in clever new form-fitting silhouettes in fascinating fabrics that are different and immensely interesting. You'll want one, of course, if you are going south, and if you are not, you'll not be able to resist their lure. With spring just around the corner, keep your eye on these Printzess coat fashions. In regular or petite fittings. And the prices are surprisingly low.
