

Program Is Complete For Institute Here

Everything Ready For Biggest Election Party Ever Held

County Teachers Will Attend Two-Day Session Prior To Opening of School

HOME-MADE PROGRAM FEATURED

JOHN C. HUTTON WILL FEATURE 1ST DAY WITH OLYMPIC REPORTS

Over one hundred school teachers of Donley County are expected to attend the Annual Teacher's Institute to be held in Clarendon Thursday and Friday, September 1st and 2nd. In the face of present economic conditions the local school authorities in charge of the arrangements have planned an institute which will be without fees. All teachers which may not have had the opportunity to take advantage of the Institute had the regular fee charge been retained this year will now be able to attend and receive the benefits from the sessions scheduled.

Another feature of this year's Institute will be the "home-made" program. In years heretofore widely known school heads from various sections of the country have been brought to Clarendon for the Institute, but this expense will be saved this year as only local talent will be found on the program of the two-day meet. However, the Institute will not be lacking in interest a particle as a constructive program has been arranged and numerous problem meetings are on schedule. Neither will this year's Institute be lacking in features. A splendid musical offering will be dashed throughout the program with readings also attracting the attention of the teachers present. John C. Hutton, athletic coach of Clarendon High School, who has just returned from Los Angeles, California, where he attended the Olympic Games will make a narration of the Olympiad at the afternoon session on Thursday, September 1st.

SPECIAL NUMBERS BY ARTIST FEATURE GREAT REVIVAL CAMPAIGN

Great interest and increasing attendance mark the first week of the revival meeting which is being conducted by the Vawter evangelistic party for the First Christian Church. The big tent has been filled every night and many sit in their cars unable to get in the tent. Tuesday night a delegation of 104 attended from Borger where the Vawter party just closed a meeting with 130 uniting with the church. The Sunday School orchestra accompanied the delegation and gave a short concert for half an hour preceding the service. A large delegation was present also from Memphis on Tuesday night. The members of the Vawter party are proving themselves first-class musicians. It is seldom outside the chautauqua or concert field that one hears music of the quality and variety of that furnished by this party of musical evangelists. Mrs. Vawter has a very pleasing voice and her singing is enjoyed by all. In addition to her work as soloist, Mrs. Vawter is the superintendent of personal work and visitation. She understands her work thoroughly and knows how to do it efficiently. She is now working

OLD SETTLERS PICNIC FRIDAY

OVER FOUR HUNDRED ENJOY ANNUAL OLD SETTLERS PICNIC NEAR HEDLEY

The second annual Donley County Old Settlers Picnic was held according to schedule Friday of last week at the Tom Tate grove Northeast of Hedley.

In the shady hospitable setting of Mr. Tate's grove over four hundred of Donley County pioneers, their families and guests, enjoyed a day of pleasure and relaxation. Pleasure of greeting old friends and exchanging stories of early day experiences, and relaxation from daily labors and the turmoil of campaign year—for there was no politics on this occasion.

W. L. Rains was president of the organization the past year and around eleven o'clock he introduced E. H. Watt of Giles who served as master of ceremonies for the day. Mr. Watt handled the program in a masterful manner and his introductory talk and comment during the short program was full of hospitality and neighborliness of the early days in Donley County.

After all joined in singing American addresses were heard from Judge J. E. Alexander, Judge A. J. Fires and Hon. A. T. Cole, with readings from Mrs. Ruby Bromley and Miss Webb.

Before the program began and after the sumptuous picnic dinner old time music was furnished by some of the prominent fiddlers and guitar seconders of the county, and there was no more appreciated contribution to the success of the occasion than the strains of tunes that bought back early times in this section of Texas.

Donley County was never better represented than at the long improvised tables that groined under the burden of good things to eat—and practically everything brought in the many well-filled baskets was a product of the gardens and farms of the country. As is always the case in this country, there was enough on

Political Speaking Draws Large Crowd

Politics waxed hot in the city last week when speakers for both Mrs. Miram A. Ferguson and Governor Ross S. Sterling pled with Donley voters for their support in the coming primary.

On last Thursday evening the Hon. Jim Hair of San Antonio addressed a good sized crowd from the steps of the court house in behalf of Mrs. Ferguson. He was accorded a good hearing and was cheered at various intervals when he attacked the present administration.

Saturday a great crowd assembled in the city to get a glimpse of Col. Erasmus Tack, popular columnist of the Amarillo News-Globe, and hear Judge R. E. Underwood also of Amarillo present the candidacy of Governor Ross S. Sterling in a stirring address from an improvised platform at the intersection of Kearney and Second streets. Gene Howe, Tack, extolled the virtues of the present governor and in spite of the fact that he was only a weather expert he believed the people of the Panhandle would rally to the standard of good government next Saturday.

Judge Underwood made the principal address of the afternoon and gave a clear concise picture of the political situation facing the voters of the state and urged a fair hearing of the records of both candidates before casting their ballot.

Judge A. T. Cole of this city spoke shortly afterwards on the streets in the interest of Mrs. Ferguson.

the tables to feed twice the number, and some smart man even suggested that everybody stay over for supper.

In the afternoon all officers of the association were re-elected for another year, and President Rains announced that the same policies of the organization would be maintained in the coming year—which means the fellowship of the best people in the world and more than enough to eat of the most toothsome products of Donley County, prepared by the best cooks in the world.

LIONS ENJOY A VARIED PROGRAM

VAWTER ARTISTS AND OHIO VISITOR ADD MUCH INTEREST TO LUNCHEON

The members of the Clarendon Lions Club enjoyed a rare treat Tuesday noon when a program consisting of reports, vaudeville acts, music and an inspirational address filled the hour. Following the delicious luncheon Boss Lion Ira Merchant, presiding officer, called for the introduction of the visitors present.

Capt. Chas. Trent, who has just returned from the Texas National Guard encampment at Palacios, was introduced and proceeded to explain the workings of the National Guard to the members and guests present. This information was new to the majority of the group and was well received. Captain Trent also related how the guardsmen survived the costal storm which swept the Gulf cities and Houston. The discipline was fine and the work of the soldiers superb.

The Vawter evangelist party composed of Dr. C. R. L. Vawter, Mrs. Vawter, Billie Reeves and Howard House was introduced with Rev. W. E. Ferrell, Pastor of the First Christian Church. These artists delighted the members with a variety of high class entertainment. Mrs. Vawter and Billie Reeves presented two beautiful whistling duets with Mr. House at the piano.

Howard House won the applause of the assembly with a marvelous crayon drawing, illustrating the composition, "Desert Song." Mrs. Vawter accompanied the artist at the piano and added much to the beauty of the drawing with her rich voice. When the picture was finished Mr. House made a gift of the drawing to the Lions Club. The drawing is being framed and will adorn the wall of the Lions Den at the next meeting.

Boss Lion Merchant then introduced Lion Herman Spencer.

GOVERNORS RACE HOLDS SPOTLIGHT

COUNTY JUDGE, TREASURER, ATTORNEY, COMMISSIONERS TO BE NAMED

The largest crowd ever assembled in Clarendon to watch the returns of an election will be in the city this Saturday night when The Clarendon News stages another of its big Election Parties on the north side of the Douglas & Goldston Drug Co. Possibly never in the history of the county has an election taken the center of the stage as this run-off primary. Even the much talked of "Depression" has been pushed into the background as the precinct, county, district and state races have progressed into a white heat stage. Everybody is interested in the outcome of the election and a great part of the citizens are planning to be in town Saturday night and watch the returns as they are posted on the large election board.

While the major interest of the citizens is centered on the race for governor between Governor Ross S. Sterling and Mrs. M. A. Ferguson the District Judge's race between Judge A. J. Fires and J. H. Templeton is attracting quite a bit of attention but the county races are taking no back seat and offer the county judge, county treasurer, county attorney and the precinct commissioner races as stellar attractions to the voters Saturday.

As has been the custom for the past few years the election returns will be posted as they are received from the county boxes. The first returns, that of the two Clarendon boxes will be posted immediately following the close of the polls at 7 o'clock. State returns will be received throughout the night and posted on the board.

All election judges throughout the county are requested to phone the results of the various precinct boxes to the party headquarters in the J. T. Patman & Son Insurance office at the earliest possible moment. In the Lelia Lake and Hedley boxes the judges are requested to phone in their preliminary vote as soon after the polls close as possible with a final result report as soon as the ballots are counted. This co-operation will be appreciated by every one concerned.

One of the most disgraces in Texas was the unheard-of wrong under the Ferguson administration that all over Texas there could only be obtained by contract expense governor who practiced influence on the wife, and the pardons were sold at so much. KATY BIDS FOR LABOR DAY TRAVEL BY DARING LOW RATES OUT - OF - STATE

Never Before on Holiday Have Rates Been So Low to Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska and Iowa.

Coach Rate 1c Per Mile; Sept. 12 Return Limit

Only Slightly Higher in Pullmans; Good on Crack Trains Carrying Air-Cooled Diners

The ever-audacious M.K.T. Railroad has just sprung its latest sensation in rail rates upon a grateful and enthusiastic public. Almost weekly, all summer long, this railroad, with a series of brilliant and sensational coups in travel bargains, has been winning people to the habit of going places and seeing things, and doing it by rail.

Now in addition to extremely low rates within Texas borders, Katy announces, for Labor Day, the master stroke of all. On September 2, 3, 4 and 5, tickets will be on sale from Texas to all points in Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Minnesota, on the basis of 60 percent of the one-way fare. This means travel at about 1c per mile, or 30c on the dollar. These extremely low rates are good only in coaches. But those wishing to ride in pullmans can do so at only slightly higher rates, plus the charge of the berth.

The attractions are myriad; Minnesota with its cool northwoods and lakes; Chicago, with its vacation advantages of Lake Michigan; its boat excursions, its big league ball games and a chance to see the World's Fair in the making. St. Louis, Kansas City and other points also hold interest for many.

Tickets are good on all Katy trains, including the famous Katy Bluebonnet and Texas Special, carrying luxurious air-cooled diners, with meals at reasonable prices. Returning passengers must reach original starting point before midnight, September 12. On adult coach tickets baggage up to 100 pounds may be checked, and the full baggage allowance on tickets good in sleeper.

Railroad officials assure the public that ample extra equipment will be added to serve the crowds in comfort, but urge early reservations to facilitate train movements. Phone now, if you expect to go. For full details see Local Katy Ticket Office, or write J. P. Hennies, Jr., Passenger Traffic Manager, Dallas, Texas.—Adv.

TO THE VOTERS OF DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS:

There has been some circulars distributed over this county, which, I think regrettable to the party distributing them. The undersigned happens to know that Judge Fires has had nothing to do with any of them, and has attempted to stop the original one. Otherwise, he takes no notice.

I desire to state that in the four years Judge Fires has been on the bench, eight terms of court, in civil suits the lawyers and litigants have submitted every case to Judge Fires except two; one of them was appealed, was appealed by the undersigned, and it was affirmed.

Of all criminal cases tried before Judge Fires there has been two reversals; one, the Dunwoodie case, because the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed itself. Judge Fires held the Dunwoodie indictment good because the Court of Criminal Appeals at that time held it good. It later changed its opinion and it automatically reversed the Dunwoodie case. But one other criminal case has been reversed. This is a record of more than ninety nine and one half per cent of affirmances. Eighty five per cent of affirmances is the highest record of any preceding judge of this district. The jury fees under Judge Fires for an equal number of cases tried have been nearly a thousand dollars per year less than under any other judge of this district.

With reference to the Wyatt circular distributed around Estelline by a Mr. Wyatt—Judge Fires sent three of his friends to Wyatt as soon as he learned the circular was out, to request Wyatt to stop. It was a matter between Wyatt and Judge Templeton. The undersigned has seen one of the Wyatt circulars which reflects in some measure on Judge Templeton. The niece of Mr. Wyatt made the identical charges to the writer in the presence of Judge Templeton. Judge Templeton did not deny them.

I say this that the truth may be known:

Respectfully,

A. T. COLE.

Those who enjoyed this affair were: Miss Athlyn Taylor, the honoree, Misses Anna Moores, Lotta Bourland, Katherine Patrick, Merv Jo Chamberlain, Lorraine Patrick, Mildred Martin, and Mesdames Walter Taylor, Eva Rhodes, A. Monday afternoon Miss Helen Martin, Miss Mildred Martin, and Mrs. Forest Taylor entertained for Miss Taylor at the Episcopal Parish house with a lovely Bridge party. Baskets of garden flowers consisting of dahlias, snapdragons and zinnias made the room very attractive. During the games the guests were served delicious punch, which was very refreshing. At the conclusion of the games Miss Taylor was presented with a lovely gift. Mrs. Floyd Lumpkin was awarded the High score and the High at each table, received a prize, which in turn was presented to the honoree with their best wishes. A color scheme of pastel shades was predominant in the delicious refreshments which followed. Those present included Mesdames Walter Taylor, Floyd Lumpkin, Roy Beverly, Penelope Ellis, Odos Caraway, Ione Ellis, Clarence Miller, Roy Ingram, A. L. Chase, Carl Bennett, Jr., Ira Merchant, P. B. Gentry, J. L. McMurtry, Sam Braswell, Jr., C. C. Powell, J. E. Teer, O. L. Jenkins, Basil Kirtley, Carl Merchant, W. M. Pitman, and Misses Anna Moores, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Lotta Bourland, Katherine Patrick, Lorraine Patrick, Mary Stocking, Jean Bourland, Dorothy McCanne, Norma Rhodes, and the honoree, Athlyn Taylor. Weeks, Miss Winifred Weeks, Claude, Texas.

As a fitting climax to the parties honoring Miss Taylor, Mrs. Ira Merchant and Mrs. Keith Stegall were hostesses to a Buffet Supper on Tuesday evening at the Cal Merchant home. After all the guests had assembled the hostesses presented the honoree with an appropriate gift. They were then shown to the dining room where a beautiful table awaited them. A handsome spider-lace cloth covered the table. In the center, an artistic bouquet of buttonhole zinnias and forget-me-nots was in a bowl and on either side tall, blue tapers in gold candle sticks. Chicken salad, sandwiches, iced tea and individual blueberry pies, made the supper a complete success. The rest of the evening was spent in light conversation.

When the guests departed they did so reluctantly and assuring the hostess of a perfectly delightful evening. The guests were Misses Athlyn Taylor, Marialyse Stocking, Katherine Patrick, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Mildred Martin, Helen Martin, Lorraine Patrick, Lotta Bourland, Dorothy McCanne, and Mesdames Walter Taylor, P. ## Kieuwa Troop Enjoys Kid Party

The Kieuwa Troop of the Camp Fire Girls enjoyed a slumberless night Thursday, August 18, when Willie Maude Pratt, Peggy Taylor and La Verne McMurtry entertained the troop with a "Kid" Slumber Party at the home of La Verne McMurtry.

About 7:30 o'clock the guests began to gather with their short dresses and dolls. All kinds of kid games were played which reminded the troop of the good ole days when they were kids. June McMurtry captured the prize for being the best dressed kid. Dancing and other games were enjoyed until a late hour when ice cold watermelon was served. The guests then retired for the night. A lovely breakfast was served next morning to the following:

THE TEMPLE BUILT BY GOD, THE HOUSE IN WHICH I LIVE

VII—The Doors of the House, The Nose
Text—Psa. 115:6

The body is a marvel, the product of the mind and love of God. We have spoken of two other doors in this house and I am to tell you today of another door, the nose. The nose is more important than we sometimes think. If you will look at yourself in the mirror, you will see that it is the most prominent thing about the face.

This door in your face is like the ears, both external and internal. The external nose is what you see. It has channels and passageways into the interior of the house and these passageways convey messages to the brain. The nose is both the organ of smell and of breathing air into the lungs.

Our text is speaking of idols. These carved noses of idols were of no use. The nose may be suggestive of bad manners. Sir Walter Scott once rebuked his own daughter for turning up her nose at something. To turn up your nose is to treat a thing with contempt. We should treat nothing with contempt but sin and wickedness. Jesus did not treat with scorn the unclean leper, nor even the wayward woman of Samaria.

The body is holy, and every part of it is honorable, when put to the right use. The nose may not only be prominent to look at, but precious to care for, and use to the honor of God. When we are asked to present our bodies, it means our whole bodies, every member of the body alive, controlled, disciplined, and turned to the highest and truest use. We should pray God to give us clear minds, keen eyes, sharp ears, sensitive and useful noses, such as shall be kept and used to our good and also in the service of God.

Many people turn up their noses and show contempt for God and His Work. They would rather enjoy the pleasures of this world for a season than to obey God and inherit the blessings of eternal life. These people will be judged by the same gospel that they are now scorning and will be punished for their disobedience. We are conducting an Evangelistic meeting that people might learn more about God and His program. Arrange to meet with us.—W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

SHOW MANY MODELS

Many new model automobiles will be shown at the 1932 State Fair of Texas Automobile Show, according to officials of the Dallas Automotive Trades Association, sponsors of the show each year. Practically every kind of automobile made will be shown. The 1931 automobile show was the most successful ever held at the State Fair of Texas both from display and sales standpoint. Officials expect and even more successful showing during the 1932 State Fair.

Donley Persons Are Featured in Review

Canyon, August 22.—The fifth annual Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Review which will be off the press within the next week, will be of particular interest to the residents of Clarendon and Donley County.

The cover page is designated by Harold D. Bugbee and shows the old Bugbee ranch for many years the home of Colonel Thomas S. Bugbee and the birthplace of Mrs. W. H. Patrick. The Review contains a sketch of Colonel Bugbee's life. The location of old Fort Elliott and experiences of surveyors in the early days of the Panhandle are related by T. D. Hobart of Pampa and W. S. Mabry, his associate of more than forty-five years ago, who now lives at Salam, Ala.

Judge J. C. Paul tells of early days in Carson county and many names familiar in Donley County are mentioned.

Dr. W. C. Holden of Lubbock and J. E. Haley, former field secretary of the Historical Society, now of Austin are contributors.

Lee Gilmore of Turkey and a graduate student of the West Texas State Teachers College writes a short sketch of the Milliron Ranch in Hall and Childress counties.

The Review which has been edited by Professor L. F. Sheffy contains a complete list of the donors to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum Fund and a complete list of organization. Every member of the Historical Society will receive a copy of the Review and others may be had for $1.00 each.

Things are looking up. Coach Frank Stocking popped up in the city this week so indications point to the opening of a school and with it of course a bit of football. We are all mighty glad to have Frank back in the immediate locality and about next Wednesday our old friend John Eutton will roll into the fair metropolis which boasts the 1931 District gridiron champions and Cap Rock Golf League champions to make their residence for the school term.

Frank has been employed at Cleburne this summer and has been doing a considerable amount of thinking about the approaching football campaign. He also attended the Tech coaching school at Lubbock several weeks ago and picked up a number of valuable pointers which will be incorporated into the Broncho's performance this season. The coach is highly optimistic over the prospects for another powerful and winning eleven this fall and is greatly pleased with the excellence of the College Park gridiron.

Welcome back, Frank, and also the other teachers. It is good to have the old faces again on the streets.

The Bronchos will be one of the best dressed eleven of the Panhandle this year, being equipped with new togs throughout. The fans will no doubt take a great liking to the new jerseys this season. In place of the old striped jerseys this year's model will be featured in dark maroon jerseys with white shoulder and wrist strips with a large white block numeral on the back. New pants and maroon helmets, if available, will complete the ensemble. Classy warm-up jerseys will also add to the outfit of each Broncho. At least the champions will be the utmost in style and appearance each Friday this Fall.

The first call for candidates for the eleven will not be sounded until school opens, which is a good thing, in spite of the urge from various quarters to open training immediately. In a number of schools training has already started, but there is a great drawback to the plan this season which heretofore has never entered into the practice before. This year a rule has been placed into effect which prevents any team from engaging in a football game, whether it be for practice or not, prior to September 30th. Which means the players on those teams which have already started practice must endure the tedious training routine for a whole month before even having a chance to get into a hard practice game, and any one who has ever played the game knows that after two weeks the players become more and more restless to feel the thick of a real contest. Let's not burn the players out before the season starts.

The Bronchos will probably consume an entire week after school starts working the kinks out of their stiff muscles and regaining their lost wind and endurance, before being issued uniforms. Even then the team will have eighteen days for which to whip the ragged spots into a machine capable of a fair exhibition of gridiron warfare.

Well sir, they tell me the Auburn E. Clark Post of the American Legion has already started their candidates training for the next Olympic games. Last Thursday evening the Legionnaires, their ladies and several invited guests enjoyed some of the classiest races ever staged in this section of the country. Whether it was a whack or two from a belt in the hands of a person in the immediate vicinity to the rear of the persons referred to or whether it was the low of running, made very little difference because the winner usually didn't wait to argue over the cause. Such speed must be deserved.

And this week Clarendon has scored another victory in the sports world as a result of the Hillcroft golfers' 20-4 victory over Childress there last Sunday. The win Sunday clinched the championship of the Cap Rock

Golf League for the local club which will be presented in the near future with a beautiful loving cup. It was a great finish to a successful campaign throughout the summer for the Clarendon players who suffered only one set-back during the Cap Rock League schedule. Shamrock rallied gamely towards the last of the campaign, but the swift pace of the locals in the final tilts more than made up the slack and sent them crashing through to first place.

Aggies play the Tech Matadors. . . I can hardly wait until the first football game, and you can't either. . . there's nothing else to say.

A story is told by Frank Stocking of the uncanny ability of Frank Carrideo to make a football do everything but talk. The former Notre Dame All-American quarterback was one of the reasons why Tech's Coaching School was so successful, and he didn't mind demonstrating the qualities which made him the hero of three Notre Dame teams.

The story goes that while drills were being carried on one afternoon Carrideo was called on to give a demonstration of kicking, a part of the game he has always excelled. The Mick star instructed a man to run to a certain point on the field and the punt was so accurate the player caught the ball at the named point. He would tell the coaches his kick would bounce to the left, the right, straight up, backwards or forwards and it never failed. No wonder he was able to hold Northwestern on their own one yard line for an entire quarter two years ago.

CARS

MODERN refinements in motor car design, such as free-wheeling, rubber motor and chassis insulation and vibration dampers have brought quieter-running cars.

ARE

WHY NOT quieter tires? The screech and hum and sing of noisy tires produces nerve fatigue, a real driving hazard. Tire hum often spoils a beautiful trip across country.

QUIETER

THIS NOISE is due to air traps in the tread design. Tire engineers have worked on this problem for years. And at last a tire has been designed that is free from air traps.

SO

IT'S THE NEW Goodrich Safety Silvertown, the Safest Tire Ever Built and the quietest tire on the road. The silent running of this new Silvertown has been proved by the accoustimeter test.

ARE

IN THE Burgess sound laboratory, the noise made by various tires was measured with an electrical ear. The new Silvertown surpassed all other tires in giving silent speed.

SILVERTOWNS

AND THIS SAME Silvertown gives you a better grip on the road, better control of your car, more anti-skid mileage and greater protection against blow-outs than other tires.

MELLOWED 80 MILLION YEARS

While brutes grew coats of mail in OKLAHOMA

MILLIONS of years ago Nature buried in Oklahoma certain priceless complex chemical compounds. Ages went by—long ages which saw the rise and fall of life in strange forms. And little by little, heat and pressure began to have its effect. Cambro-Ordovician crude oil was in the making! Today the drills of Sinclair oil men have bitten deep into the soil of Oklahoma and tapped this treasure trove. Piped to the great Sinclair refineries and carefully refined and blended, Cambro-Ordovician crude oil becomes Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, a product resulting from man's exhaustive care and Nature's 80 million years of priceless treatment. Man's part in producing Opaline is all-important. In order that you shall have full value for your money, Sinclair not only de-waxes Opaline—it goes one step further and removes the non-lubricating petroleum jelly by chilling the oil down to as low as 60° F. below zero. An extra step taken by few refiners besides Sinclair!

Have the nearest Sinclair dealer change your oil to Sinclair Opaline according to the Sinclair Law of Lubrication Index. Notice how quietly your engine runs. Then, at the next draining period examine the used Opaline. Observe how it still holds its rich lubricating body—how little oil has been used up!

REMEMBER: Sinclair offers you your choice—Sinclair Opaline, made from the oldest Mid-continent crudes, or Sinclair Pennsylvania, made from the costliest Pennsylvania grade crude.

The periods in life when one can be carefree are limited. Childhood is one of those periods, and rightfully so,—an inheritance due all. Other periods of carefreeness seldom materialize, except through an individual's own planning and consistent work to that end. Relief from financial worries brings a sense of carefreeness which well repays one for the effort made to save and to have, as hundreds of depositors in our saving department will testify.

Bits of WASHINGTON'S Current Comment

Perhaps the most interesting Washington item of the week, and certainly a far-reaching one, is Secretary Stimson's speech touching upon the attitude of the United States in regard to outlawing war. The Kellogg pact provides for consultation among its signatories as a means for averting conflicts at arms, and what Mr. Stimson said, in substance, was that the United States expected the signers to live up to their agreement; that concerted moral suasion ought to be brought to bear upon violators of the Kellogg treaty; and that this country would recognize no settlement growing out of war. The Manchurian difficulty was cited as an example, but responsibility was not assigned definitely to either of the combatants in the Far East. Japan, though not specifically condemned, has taken offense, and "interprets" the remarks of Secretary Stimson as directed against her. The Secretary did not shoot his arrow at any clearly defined mark. Others will not be careful, and will be inclined to answer Japan's protest with the observation that "Suspicion haunts the guilty mind. The thief doth fear each bush an officer."

stration has ceased in the capital, but its echoes have not entirely died away. A sturdy soul, who retreated as far as Chicago, bought a $5 auto, returned to carry on a single-handed warfare, and was jailed for driving without tags. The son of one of the marchers, worn by malnutrition, has received his bonus of eternal rest and freedom from troubles of this world, at a local hospital, after a life of 12 weeks duration. The Treasury is asking for bids for cleaning and grading the camp site. The dust of the city is filling the foot prints of the marchers. The creeping grass is covering the places where the bonus men scarred the soil; but it cannot cover the regrets that remain, regrets that stern necessity left no course open save to send the veterans away empty-handed, regrets that so fair a movement should have ended in anarchy, riot and uproar. The Department of Justice is quoted as stating that although its appropriation has been cut, it cannot cover the discharging of help necessary. The retaining of the old time force in one governmental department will have no great effect upon the prosperity of the workers of the whole land, but an example, the plan adopted is worth following. There are few enterprises in which a discharge of help cannot be mitigated, to some degree, at least, and present indications are that the filling of jobs, rather than the vacating of them, is the promise of the future. The report that Texas has been called upon to endure loss of life and destruction of property in a windstorm, revives in the mind the recollection that something of this kind has happened before. The Texans remember what it was. Those who did not suffer directly or indirectly have forgotten the other fellow's troubles. For the enlightenment of such it may be observed that perhaps they are thinking of the Galveston tornado of September 8, 1900, wherein six thousand perished.

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde drops a good word when he says: "We have heard a lot of the man alleged to have been forgotten by the Government, but we have had little discussion of the man who has forgotten his Government."

ing out an organization that will no doubt prove very effective. Billy Reaves understands how to get people to sing. He is one of the most successful song leaders in the evangelistic field today. His specialty is his work with the children's chorus. He has about fifty children who are training every morning and will sing frequently throughout the meeting. Howard House is a very fine pianist and crayon artist. Perhaps the most popular feature of the meeting is his work illustrating songs. Every night he draws a beautiful picture in many brilliant colors, illustrating some song while it is being sung.

The sermons by Dr. C. R. L. Vawter are understandable and true to the Bible. His illustrations are all taken from life and show that he understands human nature and can portray it, sometimes in an amusing way.

Sunday night at 7:15 there will be the first of a series of free, sacred concerts. The program will last half an hour and will be followed immediately by the regular revival service.

TO THE VOTERS OF DONLEY COUNTY

In the second primary as well as the first I have frequently stated my opinions regarding affairs of the county and ask your consideration only upon merits that these statements may possess. My manner of conducting my campaign is also well known. I have not appealed nor attempted to appeal to prejudice of any one for I do not believe it recommends nor qualifies any one for public office.

Your vote is respectfully asked for. In doing so I believe I can render the county a service free of any influence except my conception of right. If elected I have no other motive to give the county the best thought and attention possible for me to give. As to campaign promises I do not think much of them if made to attract votes. I cannot promise what I would or would not do for I do not know what may come before the county but I promise to exercise the best judgment I have in dealing with or disposing of any matter concerning the tax payers of Donley County.

Hoping that I have been understood during the seven months since I announced for this office and also hoping that our neighborly and business relationships have been such as to merit confidence I repeat my solicitation of your support on Saturday of this week for the office of County Judge of Donley County.

Respectfully,
S. W. LOWE.

FESTIVAL DAY CELEBRATION PLANNED FOR AUGUST 31

All members and their families are most cordially invited and urged to attend the Festival Day Celebration Wednesday evening, August 31st at 7 o'clock at the Masonic Hall. Every one is expected to bring a basket lunch.

Each of these were taken up in three stages, that of the athlete's philosophy, the business life philosophy of the individual, and the philosophy of the service club member.

New committees for the year were read by the Boss Lion who stated that these together with a financial statement of the club would be distributed at the next meeting of the club.

LEGION HOST AT BARBECUE

LEGIIONNAIRES AND FAMILIES ENJOY ANNUAL PARTY THURSDAY EVENING

Members of the Aubyn E. Clark Post, American Legion, with their ladies and children enjoyed the annual barbecue and party last Thursday evening at Sandy Camp in the J. A. Pasture.

Near a hundred were present, many being absent on account of vacations and other reasons, and all enjoyed greatly the recreation and barbecue lunch of the evening. Many availed themselves of bathing in the Deep Sandy pool, and some of the acrobatic diving by certain members was noteworthy.

Shortly after seven o'clock the call of "come and get it" was heard and all gathered in line near the truck where barbecue, pickles, onions, bread, salad, pie and cake was rapidly dispensed by the skillful hands of those in charge. There was plenty of coffee and lemonade, with watermelons to finish on, and seated about on the grass the party enjoyed hugely the beautiful spread, and there was plenty left when all were filled.

Then came recreational games reminiscent of training camp days, with the spectators seeming to enjoy them more than some who took part in them. "Hot Tail" was the first and chiefest sport, and some visitors and others who participated, have agreed after due deliberation that the game was properly named. There was even a suspicion in the minds of some, that somebody must have framed up on them, but that must have been an erroneous idea. Then followed wrestling, mounted rooster fighting and sack races with the kiddies also taking a hand.

The party broke up shortly after nine o'clock and another annual party and splendid mingling of Legionnaires and their families was added to the history of the local post.

Two Reasons Why the Vawter Revival Is So Popular

The two young men pictured here are two more reasons why the Vawter Revival Party is making such a great success in the current campaign in the city. COMMUNITY SERVICE COMMITTEE IN CHARGE OF FRIDAY PROGRAM

Rev. W. E. Ferrell, former member of the Clarendon Rotary Club, appeared in a come-back role before his old mates and proved the hit of the day's program last Friday at the regular luncheon of the local Rotary Club.

A letter was read by Rotary Secretary, Arch Dyer, from the office of Rotary International which contained the confirmation of Proxy M. K. Brown at the International Convention.

D. R. Davis had charge of the program and introduced Rev. W. E. Ferrell who in turn made a most interesting and sparkling address on club service work. He stated he could readily see the great good they were doing for

DUNCAN SAYS:-

In my race for State Representative of the 122nd District I wish to contrast my position with that of my opponent in matters pertaining to the same.

My opponent is running as the "Collingsworth County Farmer". I am not running as a candidate of any class but expect to represent the farmer, the stockman, the laborer and the business man. Class legislation is dangerous, as illustrated by the twenty-four farmer members of the last legislature voting for the law that requires farmers to buy a license to drive their own truck.

My opponent says he "Favors" economy and tax reduction, but does not say how he will achieve that end. In my address to the citizens of Gray County in Pampa on August 3rd, a copy of it having been distributed among you, I pointed out the cost and expense of the several bureaus and departments of the State of Texas and told how the same could be reduced. It is my purpose not to follow but to lead.

The kind of representation that the people of this district are demanding requires a knowledge of the legal department of our government and of legislative procedure. I possess that knowledge.

I invite you to join with the other thousands who will vote for me next Saturday giving me a majority that any one would be proud to work for.

Respectfully,

Ivy E. Duncan

UNEQUAL REGULATION IN TRANSPORTATION CAUSES DISORDER AND CONFUSION

The instability, confusion and disorder which unrestrained truck transportation has brought about is responsible in large measure for much of the distress in which all business finds itself today. Texas has moved to find a remedy and all concerned in the welfare of this state and its institutions should cooperate in the effort to restore stability and order to our transportation systems.

The Texas Railroads, in these advertisements, have endeavored to place before the people of this state some of the reasons why, the existing laws, regulating motor transportation, should be upheld and enforced.

1. The railroads are necessary for the successful marketing of the enormous production of this state, which is used and consumed in every other state in the union.

Uniform, published, non-discriminatory transportation service rates are essential to the orderly conduct and welfare of business.

Unregulated truck transportation inevitably results in discriminatory charges and practices, rebating, unfair and unbusinesslike competitive methods, bringing about losses and commercial insecurity.

The wholesaler, jobber, retailer and local merchant suffer from the unfair competition of truckers and peddlers who, for the most part, are non-residents, pay no taxes and contribute nothing to the community welfare.

The farmer and agricultural producer must have at his command facilities adequate to transport crops and produce which move long distances in large volume, at low cost, by rail.

2. The railroads build and maintain their own roadways, pay heavy taxes for the support of state and municipal governments and institutions, and expend millions of dollars for payrolls, materials and supplies. Railroad workers are substantial citizens, home owners, and valued members of their communities.

3. Rail transportation is the most efficient and economical in existence for the movement of traffic in volume by land.

4. Texas highways belong to the people and are built and maintained at heavy cost. Their use for commercial purposes is a privilege, not a right. They should be kept safe for general use and not prematurely destroyed by heavy trucks.

5. The stability, security and orderly conduct of business require reasonable control and regulation of all transportation agencies.
