WELCOME TO CLARENDON

Clarendon welcomes its visitors who will throng its streets here Friday and Saturday on the occasion of its annual 3rd and 4th of July Celebration. The city is trying its best to carry on in a normal way, and the celebration is just another method of showing to the surrounding country that Clarendon believes there is nothing seriously wrong with this section of the country and that good times are coming again.

Join the thousands here Friday and Saturday and laugh and play as you mingle with the crowds. Every citizen should show his independence of worries and financial strains on Independence Day.

"Celebrate with Clarendon," is the slogan. You are welcome and we are glad to see you all.

FIGURES THAT CONFOUND THE ATHEISTS

Atheists are always blatant and boastful about their beliefs that so-called Christianity is on the decline in the world, but they can hardly find comfort in the figures recently released by the American Bible Society which shows that in 1930 over twelve million copies of the Bible were sold and given away, which proves the Bible again the "world's best seller."

The Bible is printed in two hundred and eighty-five languages and dialects and more copies have been distributed since the King James version was authorized than any other book many times over.

Let the atheist consider these figures, the comfort that the Bible brings to its millions of readers, and see if he can honestly assert that Christianity is on the wane.

MERGING CHURCHES

Up in Seattle this week a mighty convocation has been making history as two great churches have come together into one. The Congregational and the Christian Churches of the United States and Canada have effected a merger and thus have become one of the great Protestant bodies of the world, with over a million communicants.

This is another straw that shows the way the wind is blowing, and in these practical days of economy and mergers, we may see still other indications of this spirit among the churches.

There is little reason for so many scores of denominations when the differences are in so many cases, so small. Christian fraternity is gaining and within the next fifty years we are going to see many denominational mergers, and what is hardly possible now, a real Christ-like spirit of co-operation among the denominations that imagine so much now separates them one from the other.

THE LESSON FROM THE CAPONE CASE

Those pessimistic souls who have declared that gangsters and racketeers were so entrenched in this nation that no power could interfere are almost as surprised as Al Capone in his recent indictment and arrest on several thousand counts of violations of income tax and liquor laws.

The federal government has quietly worked on the case for many months and as usual never flushed the game until they had absolute proof of guilt. This will be a lesson to many who rival Capone on a lesser scale, and when the great drive begins on July 15th against the "big boys" of the liquor and racket game, there will be great confusion and lamentations among the gangsters.

Those people who continually cry that the eighteenth amendment cannot be enforced are also due for a rude awakening, for the government is beginning at the top where we believe the pressure should have been put all the time. Get the big boys and the smaller fry will run to cover.

FIFTY CENT WHEAT COMING

It is very probable now that the Federal Farm Board will issue a statement in the next day or so as to its policy in marketing the two hundred millions bushels of wheat it now holds. It is very probable that the board will say that not one bushel will be sold until wheat has advanced to around seventy-five cents, which is not an unreasonable price for wheat.

Fifty cents per bushel for Panhandle wheat is what every producer ought to get within the next few weeks—and if he will hold long enough he will do much better. There ought not to be any hurry in marketing wheat in the Panhandle this year.

LIGHTENING FARM TAXES

John A. Vomacka, Minnesota farmer, wrote his representative in Washington recently: "I pay $306 in taxes on my 208-acre farm. At present price of farm land I am compelled to purchase my farm from the county treasurer once every nine years. In addition I must keep the buildings in repair and insured. I am not really sure whether I am an owner or just a tenant. Think over and see if you can figure out what the future has in store for us."

John Vomacka's problem is not much different from any other farmer's, says Editor Tom Catchcart of the Country Home. The tax burden is becoming unbearably heavy to many, and next year's tax will undoubtedly be larger. How can the farmer's load be lightened?

Of late years, Federal, State and local governments have been enulating each other in constantly increasing expenditures. Mr. Catchcart believes that the time has come to turn the tide in the opposite direction, and insists upon reduced expenditures and reduced taxes.

"For example," he says, "the Government can and should stop wasting hundreds of millions through Farm Board purchases of wheat and cotton. It can and should put a reasonable limit on gifts to veterans. It can and should be thrifty in counties other ways with the taxpayer's money."

But with all this Federal lavishness, it is probably the State and local taxes that the farmer feels most. In many places farmers pay two dollars to three dollars an acre on farm land worth no more than $50 an acre. This is too much, no matter what the price of farm crops is.

Local farm organizations during the coming year are preparing to campaign vigorously against all tax-eating, inefficient duplications in local Government. They will assert that there are too many officials, too many unnecessary units. Probably there are too many counties, too many townships, too many boards and districts. Recently Professor Leiland of the University of Chicago estimated that there are 500,000 separate Government units within the United States, all levying and consuming taxes.

SOLVING WORLD PROBLEMS

President Hoover's call for a one-year moratorium of war debts was the most spectacular of his Administration. It had the effect of arousing the first ray of hope for business and industry since the fall of 1929. The President has the active support of political leaders of all parties and factions, which gives assurance that the United States Congress will be in position to ratify the extension of credit to nations that owe the United States. Right now the European Governments are trying to get together to give their own collection agencies a vacation. The probabilities are that this proposal of President Hoover will work out all right.

SAM LANHAM CAMP OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS IS ABANDONED

With only five veterans left on the active membership of the Sam Lanham Camp No. 1383 of the United States Confederate Veterans a meeting was held October 25th, 1930 whereby the five remaining members voted to disband. Notice was sent to the headquarters at New Orleans and action was completed for the disbandment of the local camp a few weeks ago. Captain R. S. Kimberlain presided at the last meeting and on Monday, June 22nd the record books of the camp were closed, bringing a peaceful end to the Confederate Camp which for thirty years has been active in the life of Clarendon and Donley County.

The minutes of the final meeting which closed the record chapter in the life of the south's hero's is reprinted below.

October 25, 1930
Camp Sam Lanham No. 1383
U. C. V.

Call meeting of the Camp by order of Capt. R. S. Kimberlain at Kerbow's Store at 2:30 p. m. Meeting called to order, Captain Kimberlain in the chair. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved by the Camp.

The following members answered to roll call: Capt. R. S. Kimberlain, Adjutant W. H. Martin, E. B. Harris, T. J. Roberts and Cal Shepherd.

The following motion was made and carried: "There being so few left and they being so old and decreped, that the Camp therefore disband. The Adjutant to notify the headquarters at New Orleans and expect no more dues."

The Camp has on hand some money and the Adjutant instructed for the present to keep the book and funds on hand. There being no other business the Camp adjourned and all went to Alderson's Studio and had a picture made of those present.

W. H. Martin, Adj. The final notations of the disposition of the funds and the record book of the Camp is reproduced in the following.

"I, W. H. Martin, have turned over to the public Library the records of Camp Sam Lanham for public inspection."

"The Camp had on hand when disbanded (amount) which I have taken the liberty of donating to the Red Cross."

W. H. Martin. It was on October 24th, 1931 that a group of veterans met in a called meeting for the purpose of organization. The story is told in the minutes of the initial session.

Meeting called to order by Captain Isaac Smith who explained the object of the meeting, which then went into temporary organization. Upon motion, Captain Smith was elected chairman by unanimous vote. A. M. Beville was called to act as secretary protem.

It was then decided to select a name for this camp. Upon motion, C. C. Cummings was selected as the name of this camp by unanimous vote and the following named officers were selected. "Captain, Isaac Smith; 1st Lieut., T. B. Lovelless; 2nd Lieut., J. G. Tackett; 3rd Lieut., B. T. Lane;

Adjutant, A. Gentry; Chaplain, J. W. Smith; Color Bearer, J. T. Pollard; Color Sergeant, W. H. Brimley.

"Other comrades were enrolled as follows: P. H. Benson, A. J. Barnett, W. H. Baker, J. R. Blacklock, W. R. Bourland, J. F. Cordeiro, W. R. Cole, J. W. Dalton, S. C. Davis, C. Goodnight, W. C. Hightower, J. E. Hillman, J. K. Humphreys, T. P. Hughes, M. H. Hughes, P. D. Hudgins, T. A. Hock, J. F. Journey, W. H. Martin, T. J. Morris, D. J. Murphy, T. N. Naylor, J. C. Phillips, H. B. Catlett, A. J. Rawlings, W. M. Redwine, R. B. Robinson, D. H. Sweeney, J. J. Smith, G. W. Smith, B. J. Valentine, J. L. Wright, E. Woodburn, W. T. White and J. F. Woodward."

Motion to change the name of the Camp was made on August 12, 1902, but there being so few members present action was delayed. It was not until July 3rd, 1903, that "A motion to change the name of the Camp was carried and by unanimous vote it was agreed to name this Camp Sam Lanham No. 1383 U. C. V."

A humorous statement is found in the minutes of the meeting on May 5, 1907. "After the services were over we went down to the photographers and 14 of us stood for a shot, and all came out unharmed save Mr. Homer Mulkey." The Mr. Mulkey referred to is the same Homer Mulkey of the city of Clarendon today, but at that time was owner and manager of the local tin-type portrait emporium.

That the local organization was not one of dry uninteresting business meetings is proven by the minutes of the meeting on July 4th, 1907. "Met at the Presbyterian Church at 9 o'clock a. m. Captain R. S. Kimberlain was in the chair and stated the object of the meeting. Quite a list of names taken for publication. A brief session was held. We marched to the courthouse headed by Molley Bailey's band. There we had our photos taken and thence to the courtroom where we were addressed by A. M. Beville who delivered the welcome address. We then listened to a speech delivered by J. H. Peebles, also W. H. Cooke, J. N. Browning of Amarillo and Col. Shea of Tennessee."

"Then we were told that dinner was ready for us and we lost no time going to see if it was true. Sure we found there a bountiful supply of many good things to eat. We were then taken to the people of Clarendon many thanks and may they live long and prosper much."

"No other business coming before the Camp we formed a line and gave each other a parting handshake—long to be remembered."

One of the most impressive sessions of the Sam Lanham Camp and one in which the loyalty of the veterans to the government of the United States was shown in the minutes of the meeting on May 13, 1908. At that time the nation was in the throes of difficulty with the Mexican government.

"Camp Sam Lanham met in session at H. C. Kerbow's with Captain Kimberlain in the chair. Talk by the Captain on our offering our services to the government in any way that we are able to assist. Adopted a resolution by Captain Kimberlain. "We offer our services to the Governor to do duty on the border or anywhere that we are ordered."

"The resolution is to be handed The Clarendon News for publication and write the same to the Governor."

Scattered throughout the minutes are pleasant and enjoyable all-day entertainments given the veterans by Captain and Mrs. R. S. Kimberlain at their home.

These were all well attended and were high lights in the lives of the Confederates, but the social events did not make up the history of the Camp. On December 30th, 1911, the following meeting was recorded.

"Pursuant to a call by Captain Kimberlain, Camp Sam Lanham met at the court house in a called session. The meeting opened with prayer by the Chaplain, Dr. S. E. Burkhead. Captain Kimberlain explained the object of the meeting was to take some action with reference to the Cotton Tax levied by the United States Government on the South during the war between the States. Speeches were made by H. B. White, Col. Stephens, Capt. A. J. Barnett, Col. Kimberlain and Dr. S. E. Burkhead. Resolutions were adopted by the Camp and same sent to our Senators urging them to use their influence to have the Cotton Tax refunded to the southern states."

It is to spend romantic and interesting hours with the gallant heroes of the Southern cause when one reads of the activities of the Sam Lanham Camp, and it is with a tinge of regret that the numbers of the loyal Confederates are dwindling so steadily. A great work has been accomplished by the comrades of the great conflict, and may their way be made even brighter with the knowledge that from their efforts the greatest nation of the world has sprung and offers them homage, even though Sam Lanham Camp has passed into the glorious realm of the past.

SPORTS SLANTS

By Sam Braswell, Jr.

Tomorrow night the fire works for the Fourth of July celebration here will be set off in the form of a street dance with an old time square dance contest thrown in for good measure. It is expected that everybody and their dog will be present for the evening festivities and as usual the proverbial good time "will be had by all." The dance will be absolutely free and prizes will be given to the best three sets of square dancers in the contest. But the Thursday night street frolic is only a starter to the varied entertainment offered the visitors of Clarendon during the next two days.

Friday morning the preliminary auto races, featuring a varied assortment of junk cars, will be staged at the college park beginning at 9 o'clock. Immediately following these will be the first round elimination in the baseball tournament to determine the championship team in this section of the country. Then comes the shades of the wild west with an afternoon filled with rodeo activities featuring all the sport of the old frontier.

Saturday will see the finals in the Junk car races, baseball tourney and the finals in the rodeo events. Just what more could the people of this country wish in the way of entertainment. Clarendon has it all, so let's all take it in this week end.

And don't forget the wrestling match between Paul Rod, the clever Indian, and Dutch Mantell, veteran of hundreds of mat encounters, on Thursday evening. The bout between Mantell and Rod will be pushed for the lions share of the interest by the preliminary match between Denis Davis and Jack Jones, local mat artists. These boys have both had plenty of grappling experience and are far above the average for first class wrestling sense and ability. Jones will enter the ring Thursday night with a weight advantage of some 15 pounds, but the Davis fans are confident the gas-man's condition and speed will more than offset the poundage handicap. Should Davis accomplish the feat of pinning the local druggist's shoulders to the mat it will be for the first time in the history of his experience. During the six years spent in Ohio where he wrestled in Y. M. C. A. circles, where he held the championship of the state of Ohio.

We believe this baseball tourney will be a fine event. Teams have entered from Antelope Flat, Giles, Goldston and Clarendon. Right now the dope favors the Goldston club, but the Clarendon and Antelope Flat mines are capable of throwing reverses into anybody's team. Very little is known of the Giles team, although reports show that they have a strong team and may be the dark horse of the tournament. Anyway let's all come out and watch the teams battle for the $50 prize.

Well, it is just about time for another world's championship prize fight, and tomorrow night at Cleveland will see the scrap between Max Schmeling, title-holder, and W. L. (Young) Stribling. We believe the fight will be a first class bout, and will be a direct difference with the past several championship fights. In our opinion we will venture to state that it will compare with the Dempsey-Firpo fight several years ago in the matter of aggressiveness from both contestants. Both of the lads are young and each possess a fighting heart. Both the champion and the challenger are the type that will come boring in each evening the fight to the other.

Schmeling although winning the title while on his back in the ring after receiving one of Sharkey's favorite foul punches, was by no means hurt from the early battering from the gloves of the Boston "Gob." At the time of Sharkey's foul Schmeling had just begun to bore to the sailor. It was his plan to let him wear himself down and then to take up the offensive and do some pounding on his own hook. This was just what had been done, Sharkey had carried the fight with his most furious punches, but Schmeling had weathered the storm with not a mark of the gloves throughout the first three rounds. In the fourth Schmeling started coming in with a bewildering assortment of blows, and in a moment of despair Sharkey landed his foul—the only blow which hurt the courageous German throughout the fight.

Stribling on the other hand is a finished boxer, but also carries a wallop which has laid many of the best heavyweights in the "bude for a length of time sufficient for several of the Dempsey-Tunney "long counts." Strib started in the game when still in high school and has fought in practically every weight division of the fight game. He has won over 100 fights via the knockout route. In recent months he has stepped a lot of his boxing and wrestling tactics and has supplemented the same sudden attacks which carried him through many hard scraps in his early career. He can sock and he can absorb the terrific punches of the other fighters—a combination that is hard to beat. The Georgian is always a good trainer and the condition of both boys should be just about right when they face each other across the ring in the Cleveland arena.

The speculation as to the outcome of the match is a little in the favor of the challenger and we pick the American fighter to recover the lost crown for the U. S., but which ever way it goes the battle promises to be sensational and is likely to go down in the fight history along with the encounters of such fight masters as Sullivan, Corbett, Fitzsimmons, Jeffries and Dempsey.

Congratulations to our college chum and fraternity brother, Colmon Barnhill of Amarillo, who won the Amarillo tennis tournament last Sunday at that city. Colmon is a tennis player of no mean ability and is one of the Longhorn's best at the University of Texas. He has a splendid game embodying the necessary fundamentals which have made such stars as Wilmer Allison, Berkeley Bell, Bruce Barnes and Karl Kamrath. Colmon is one of the finest fellows it has ever been our privilege to meet and be associated with. He is a gentleman of the highest type American manhood, and bids fair to go far in his chosen life's work as a lawyer. Congratulations "Barney" and many more successes.

No little credit is due P. B. Gentry for his work in insuring the success of the rodeo performances. He has given of his time and energy in unselfish quantities during the past two weeks and his labors will no doubt be rewarded with the best rodeo show of this section of the country.

WHY HE WENT CRAZY

This story, with various modifications, has been doing duty for a good while, but for the benefit of those who have not chanced to run across it we tell it again. It concerns an inmate of a lunatic asylum, who on being asked by a visitor how he got that way, replied:

"I all started when I married a widow with a grown-up daughter. Then my father being a widower, married the daughter. That made (my step-daughter my step-mother, and my father became my step-son; my wife also became the mother-in-law of her father-in-law."

was the grandson of my wife, he was also my grandson.

"Then my wife and I had a son. My father's wife is my son's half-sister and also his grandmother. Now it is easy to see that my father became my step-son by marrying my step-daughter. Therefore, being my father's father, I am my own grandfather—"

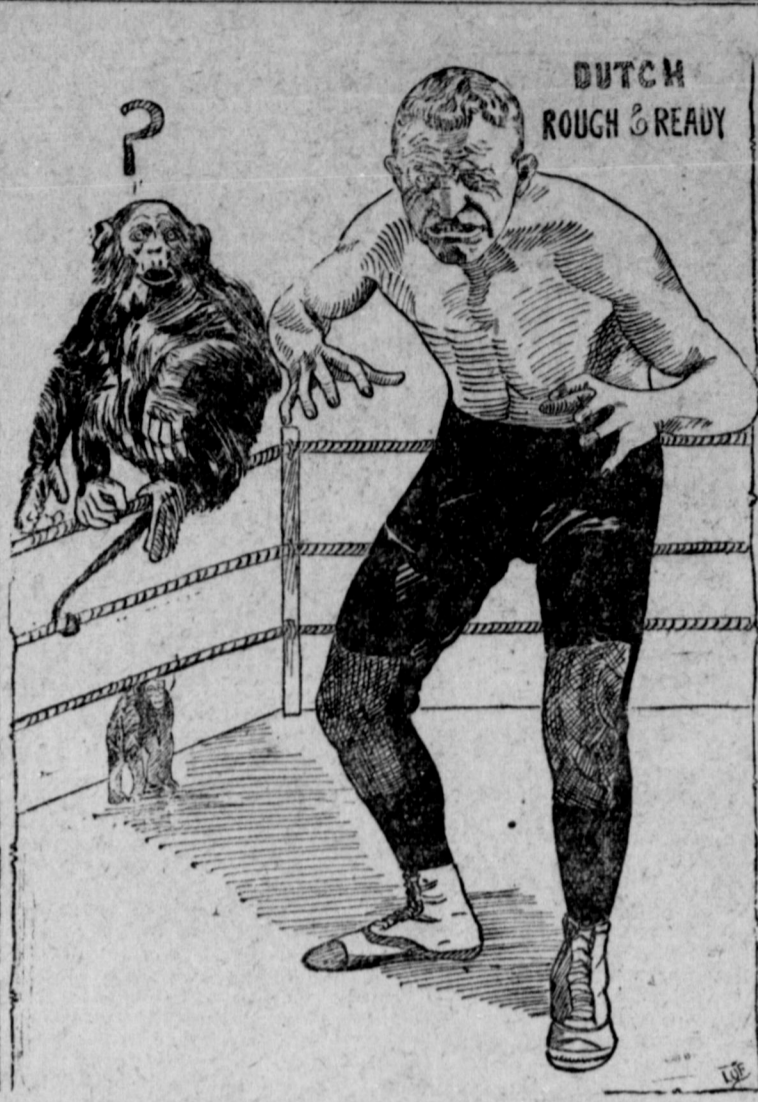

The visitor stopped the lunatic at this point, thoroughly satisfied as to why he went crazy.

C. M. T. C. OPENS TOMORROW AT FORT SILL, OKLAHOMA

July 2, 1931 will witness the opening of the annual Citizens Military Training Camp at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. To this camp will come some nine hundred young men of Oklahoma and Northern Texas for thirty days instruction in the Military duties of American citizens.

During the course of the camp, students will be addressed by prominent men of the state. Mr. Carl Hoover, editor of the Oklahoma City News, will speak on "Citizenship" July 4th. It is hoped that Governor Murray may visit the camp at a later date.

The 1st Battalion, 38th Infantry is acting as the parent organization and will be in general supervision of the camp. The instruction for the period July 5th to July 13th will be conducted by reserve officers of the 380th Infantry, Lieut. Col. Charles W. Mason of Oklahoma City commanding. For the period July 14th to July 22nd, reserve officers of the 378th Infantry, Col. Charles West of Oklahoma City commanding, will be in charge.

TO MEET RODRIGUEZ TOMORROW EVE

Each day of the camp promises to be instructive and entertaining. Schedules call for military training during the morning, while the afternoons and evenings will be devoted to athletics and ceremonies.

The camp site is prepared. Tents are up and athletic fields laid out. In fact everything is in readiness for the opening of camp at reveille which will be sounded at 5:30 a. m. July 2, 1931.

DEMONSTRATOR URGES CANNING WHEAT NOW

A recent bulletin issued from A. & M. College gives a recipe for canning wheat for future use when time is to be saved and a nutritious food is to be prepared for use. The recipe is a standard recipe and is urged to be used since we are in the wheat belt. The recipe: Clean and wash wheat thoroughly. Soak over night in twice the amount of water as wheat used. Next morning drain and wash wheat again to remove some of the dark brown color. Cover with hot water and boil for five minutes, stirring constantly. Fill No. 1 cans with 9 oz. of wheat. Add 1/2 teaspoon of salt and cover with water in which wheat was boiled. Seal while hot and process No. 1 cans for 30 minutes at 15 pounds pressure. Fill No. 2 cans with 17 oz. drained wheat, add 1 teaspoon salt, cover with water in which wheat was boiled. Seal and process for 40 minutes at 15 pounds pressure.

Remove from cooker and place in cold water. When cool, clean, dry, label and store. NOTE: It is much easier to get wheat cleaned at the mill. Suggestion Regarding Use 1. Whole wheat may be substituted for rice or macaroni, and served with meats, and gravy. 2. Whole wheat may be added to soups as a substitute for rice or macaroni. 3. Use any good rice pudding recipe substituting amount of wheat for rice and make a delicious dessert. 4. For a breakfast food add a little water, cook 4 or 5 minutes and serve with whole milk and stewed or fresh fruit.

ANCESTOR WORSHIP

Honoring if parents or other worthy forbears is most commendable, but the extremes to which some people carry their pride of ancestry is somewhat amusing. We see many worthless offspring from high-class parentage, while on the other hand many persons born in obscurity have made notable success in life. The divine right of kings was founded on the ancestry, usually beginning with some political or military upstart. The American "400" was founded on the wealth of shrewd, uncouth traders and schemers of the early days. While the fetish of ancestry is still worshipped by many, it is becoming out of date and nowadays a man must amount to something in his own right if he would be held in high esteem. As a recent writer has well said: "Humanity's sense of justice would be outraged if descendants of a criminal justly hanged, say, three hundred years ago, should still lie under the infamy of that ancestor. Why, then, should glory attach to the worthless descendant of a hero?"

'PIONEER HALL' IS CHOSEN FOR NEW MUSEUM NAME

CANYON, June 29.—"Pioneer Hall" was selected by the directors of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society as the name of the new museum building of the organization. The building will be erected on the campus of the West Texas State Teachers College, and work on it will be begun soon after the first of September according to announcement by the officers of the organization. L. F. Sheffy, field secretary, was authorized to continue his work of collecting funds until the full $25,000 has been subscribed in order to meet the appropriation made by the legislature and approved by Governor Sterling.

Directors present Tuesday were: T. D. Hobart, of Pampa, president of the society; H. E. Hoover of Canadian, chairman of the building committee; W. H. Patrick of Clarendon; Horace M. Russell of Amarillo; and J. A. Hill of Canyon. L. F. Sheffy, Miss Tennessee Malone, Clyde W. Warwick of Canyon, and W. T. Wilks of Pampa attended the meeting with the directors. The annual edition of the magazine will be published under the guarantee of Mr. Hoover, Mr. Hobart, Mr. Russell and Henry Ansley. Mr. Sheffy will edit the edition. Mr. Hill announced that the board of regents had appointed John E. Hill of Amarillo and Fred Martin of Fort Worth to cooperate with the directors of the association in making plans for the building and supervising its construction.

Mr. Sheffy reported that nearly $16,000 has been subscribed which he believed could be collected at once. Notices will be sent to all subscribers urging immediate payment.—Amarillo News.

Mrs. Frances Sarzynski of Bridgeport, Conn., testified in her divorce suit that she was forced to sleep in a chicken coop to escape the wrath of her husband.

CANADIAN IS DRY FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

For the first time in the memory of old-timers, the Canadian is dry. For the first time, the treacherous quick sands are blowing, and the water has ceased flowing down this noted old river. There are a few pools of water here and there, but the stream which has flowed down its sandy bed for all these years is dried up until it has ceased flowing. No one is able to explain it, as it is the first time it has happened, according to those who have spent their entire lives in the Panhandle. Of course there is no way of knowing how long it will remain dry—it may be for a few hours, and it may be for a longer time. But the mystery is, why did it dry up so suddenly? That is what everyone is wondering.—Morse Monitor.

An unusual collision occurred on the Great Northern railway in Minnesota a few days ago, when the crack limited train Empire Builder, running at full speed, collided with a tornado. All eleven Pullmans composing the train were lifted into the air and strewn along the right of way, only the locomotive remaining on the tracks. One man was killed and twenty or more were hurt out of 119 passengers on board.

Dr. C. G. Stricklin Dr. M. L. Stricklin Physicians and Surgeons Goldston Building

An illustration of the art of playing safe comes from Kansas City, where a strange lunch room customer casually asked the proprietor whether he would fight if someone held him up, and received this reply: "No sir; I'd put up my hands." The customer then said, "That's sensible; stick 'em up," and robbed the restaurant man of $7. The name and fame of that erratic but brilliant character, William Sidney Porter, whose incomparable short stories were written under the pen name of "O. Henry," has been further immortalized in a biography recently published. Many of his best stories were written during his three years in the Ohio penitentiary, served for irregularities as a bank clerk; his biographer estimate his daily consumption of whiskey in later life at two quarts; he died in 1910 at the age of 48. A trifle odd is the discovery that Clara Bow and John Gilbert are on the payroll of a tobacco manufacturing plant at Louisville, Ky. Stranger still is the fact that the tobacco factory Clara, like her movie-talkie namesake, is red-headed.
