"Frolics of 1932" Friday Eve Crippled Children's Benefit

"FROLICS OF 1932" HERE FRIDAY NITE

COLORFUL MUSICAL REVUE SPONSORED BY LIONS FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

"A fine Broadway Musical Show, a low price and for benefit of the most appealing work in the world", is the way President Ira C. Merchant of the Clarendon Lions Club, describes the Crippled Children's benefit to be presented Friday evening at the College Auditorium, under sponsorship of the local Lions Club.

Everybody remembers the sparkling, whirling, liting show the "Scandals of 1932" presented here last March by Mike Hollander and his up-town stars from Amarillo. It was the season's sensation, and the finest show ever presented to a Clarendon audience up to that time. But, here comes Mike with a "bigger and better" show—"Frolics of 1932"—and you know Mike. He never fails and his show this fall has been the sensation of Amarillo, and now he is coming to Clarendon Friday evening intent on setting a new high standard here—until next season.

Here's what Mike writes the editor of The News:

"You can tell them we will put on a dandy show there, altogether different and new from last year, with new faces, new girls and new songs. Some of the numbers we are using have just been released and some we had to get special permission to use."

"Am now using 22 girls instead of about ten like last year, and our routines are clever and equal any of the Companies on the road today."

Never before in the history of Clarendon has there been attempted a production of such magnitude and sparkling stage scenes and costumes as this Broadway show will bring to the people of Clarendon and Donley County.

The "Frolics of 1932" is said by critics to be far superior to any production staged in Amarillo by the Crippled Children's Council in previous years. The local talent has always been a popular attraction for Amarilloans, but the success of this show has prompted the producers to stage the colorful attraction in surrounding communities for the further benefit of the crippled children of the Panhandle country. The members of the troop enjoy the work so greatly that they are especially anxious to come to Clarendon again to play before the local audience.

Mike Hollander, the producer, has had years of experience in some of the largest and most successful Broadway revues and has brought to the people of this country a masterpiece of color music, chorus, dance and novelty

UNION SERVICE WELL ATTENDED

EARLY MORNING THANKSGIVING PROGRAM GREETED BY LARGE CROWD

Those who had doubts about Clarendon people attending the Union Thanksgiving Service last Thursday at so early an hour were pleasantly surprised at the very large attendance that greeted the young people who joined from the several churches of the city to present the program at the Methodist Church. By far the largest attendance to greet a Thanksgiving Service in this city for many, many years, was present to enjoy the program presented under the general direction of Mrs. John M. Bass. The union chorus and orchestra of the young people made an impressive showing as well as the other members of the following program:

Thanksgiving Psalm—Mamie Ferrell.
Old English Thanksgiving Hymn—Read by Nova Cook, organ by Rhodin Chase.
Violin Solo—Elizabeth Kemp, Union Chorus.
Playlet—"The First Thanksgiving"—Characters: Luree Burson, Nell Cook, Jean McDonald, Virginia Wisdom, Robert Green, Bill Wood, Bob McKee.
Clarinet Solo—Hubert Reavis.
Vocal Solo—Mary Lois Hayter, Union Chorus.
Vocal Duet—Frances Fowler, Dorothy Phelps.
Violin Solo—Bob Boston.
Reading—Dorothy Ann Kennedy.
Union Chorus and Orchestra.

numbers which is seldom seen short of first class professional troops.

The "Texas Blue Bonnets" and "The Melody Maids" which won fame in the Crippled Children's Show at Amarillo are ballet groups which will be included in the personnel of the show as will be staged here. It is certain that many a year will pass before a chorus as possessing such a beautiful and dazzling group of charming young women will be seen upon the stage in the vicinity of Clarendon. There will be no skipping of acts due to the limited stage and house equipment and the numbers will be exactly as they were offered the thousands of people who swarmed the huge auditorium in Amarillo night after night last Fall. The entire proceeds will go to the relief of the crippled children of the Panhandle and aside from being the out-standing stage production ever offered the people of Donley County, every one owes his presence to help this worthwhile and humanitarian movement sponsored by the Lions Clubs of this section assisted by a number of other service clubs in Amarillo.

CARLSBAD INVITES ROTARY CLUB

LOCAL ORGANIZATION ASKED TO ATTEND MEETING OF 41st DISTRICT, DEC. 5

Friday's meeting of the Clarendon Rotary Club was featured by the reading of a letter addressed to Dr. O. L. Jenkins, president, inviting the club to attend a meeting of the 41st District of Rotary at Carlsbad, N. M. One of the features of the meeting will be a trip through the famous Carlsbad Cavern and a session held under ground. The date of the convention is Monday, December 5th.

Rotarian J. C. Estlack spoke at length on "good deeds", addressing himself to a particular instance right here in Clarendon, giving praise to the person who performed it.

FORMER PIONEER RESIDENT OF CITY INJURED IN FALL

Friends of Mrs. Rose Van Horn will be sorry to hear of her having a broken hip as the result of a fall sustained on Nov. 13th in her home at 189 South Quincy, Long Beach, California. At the present she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Van Horn was a resident of this section for many years and has many friends here who wish for her a speedy recovery.

INGRAM FAMILY HAS REUNION THANKSGIVING

This Thanksgiving was a happy day for many but it was especially one of thanks and happiness for Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Ingram as it was the first time in twenty seven years that they had had this many of their children together.

Those out-of-town present for the reunion were: Prof. and Mrs. J. M. Gross of Denton, Mrs. Bell Self of Dallas, Mrs. Gilbreath and Mrs. Ray of Abilene, Lane Ingram of Waxahachie, Ralph Ingram of Longview, Washington, and Miss Jessie Ingram of Amarillo.

Mrs. R. A. Chunn had as her guests Thanksgiving Rev. and Mrs. M. M. Chunn and daughter, Effie Jean of Waco, C. B. Chunn of Amarillo, Miss Vesta Frish of Artesia, New Mexico, and L. B. Chunn and family of Antelope Flat.

Mrs. Si Johnson had as her guests Thanksgiving Mrs. Emma Jackson and Mrs. C. V. Jackson of Vigo Park and Mrs. J. E. Burleson of Silverton.

Ertis Hegler, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Roy Trimble and Mr. Trimble, left Monday for Paducah.

Red Cross Sewing Recess in December

The Red Cross Committee asks the News to announce that there will be no sewing during the month of December, but that the room will be open on Tuesday so that those that have garments out may return them then.

A greater part of the garments have been distributed, however, there are a few left for emergency purposes.

The committee is also issuing a call for old clothing, especially coats and shoes. Anyone having either of these and wanting to help the needy, please bring them to the Sewing Room or call the committee of which Mrs. H. T. Burton, Mrs. Cal Merchant, and Mrs. Robert McKee are members.

COMMITTEE PLANS C. OF C. BANQUET

ANNUAL BANQUET OF LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SET FOR JANUARY

The directors of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce have named a committee to take charge of the arrangements of the Annual Banquet for the organization customarily held the early part of the year.

Tom F. Connally was named chairman of the committee and the date will be announced soon, probably for some convenient evening in the first two weeks of 1933.

Ralph Andis, president of the organization for the closing year, said the committee would arrange a unique program and the officers and directors are urging a general participation of the citizenship in the coming event. Secretary-Manager Boykin is compiling his annual report and the volume of accomplishments are said to be surprising under such adverse circumstances.

'ARMY' AND 'NAVY' GAME HERE DEC. 9

WHOLE TOWN AGOG OVER FOOTBALL GAME FOR SWEET CHARITY'S SAKE

Football isn't over in Clarendon for 1932.

"Not by a jugful" say Coaches Stocking and Hutton, and the town is getting all riled up over the battle to be staged here Friday afternoon, Dec. 9th at the college park, by two powerful

LIONS DISCOVER LATENT TALENT

LUNCHEON GROUP IS AMAZED AT ABILITY OF PRESIDENT IRA MERCHANT

And now members of the Clarendon Lions Club have a new and a totally unexpected reverence for their president, Ira Merchant. Long recognized as a young man of above average talents, Lions Tuesday were surprised to hear that their president was a gifted harmonica player—and were still further surprised when the surprised executive received the totally unexpected harmonica and was ordered to play a group of numbers to the surprised audience. He did it and he did it well amid the applause of the club members.

Lion Nored of the major activities committee made a report on a projected football game the proceeds of which to be applied on the Lions Club fund for school assistance, and after discussion it was voted to sponsor a post-season football game among the classes at school for such a benefit. The major activities committee was placed in charge of arrangements, which will be worked out with Coaches Stocking and Hutton of the local schools.

Lion Clyde Douglas reported on the very fine clean-up work now being done under the supervision of the local committee on unemployment relief, and said this work was being spread out to aid just as many Donley County people as possible.

Lion Boykin, reported a series of two month's programs on "Know Texas", there being a program chairman and a specific topic assigned for each meeting through December and January. Lion Rathjen will be in charge of next Tuesday's program and the topic will be "Texas History". Lion Ralph Randal of Panhandle, and group chairman of Lions Group No. 33 was the guest of the day.

teams representing the "Army" and the "Navy".

It's like this: Funds were getting low in the Lions Club School Aid account, and when the chairman of the major activities committee, Lion T. D. Nored, mentioned the matter to the athletic coaches of the school, they volunteered to divide the High School athletics into two teams—Seniors and Sophomores, vs Juniors and Freshmen, and stage one last thrilling battle on the local grounds before the suits were impounded for the season.

So here we go with a battle royal between the "Army" and the "Navy", with separate pep squads, rooting sections, and everything. Members of the Lions Club are being divided into rooters for the two teams, and the rivalry is spreading all over town. Local cits may have differed widely on "Ma" Ferguson and Orville Bullington; they may have had hot words about Roosevelt and Hoover, but that's nothing to compare with the heated rivalry the argument of "Army" vs "Navy" is bringing about here in the old town.

Players on the "Army" squad are: E. Watson, O. Watson, Garmon, Martin, Easterling, Mann, Boles, Nichols, Evans, McCreary, Greene, Word, Whitlock, Hudson, Jackson, Boston, Jackson.

Those representing the "Navy" squad are: McMahon, Cooke, Greene, Watters, O'Neal, Linders, Wilkerson, Smith, Haile, Behrens, Johnston, Headrick, Wood, Benson, Stargel, Bourland, Davis, Barnard.

Next the starting line-ups of these famous teams will be published, with captains, coaches, Pep Squad leaders and all.

As a sample of the uses to which the Lions Club scholastic fund is put, only recently the club installed a blower in the chemical laboratory at the school,

OVER 10,000 BALES GINNED IN DONLEY

OPEN WEATHER HAS GREATLY AIDED GATHERING OF NORMAL CROP HERE

Government reports for Monday, No. 21st, show that Donley County had ginned 9,579 bales up to that date, which has been augmented by more than enough ginnings since that date to bring the totals up above the ten thousand bale mark for this season. Ginnings for the same period last year were just the raise of fifteen thousand bales, but this difference is probably accounted for by the fact that many farmers of the county are not hiring any picking or boll pulling done this fall, being content to gather what the family can in order to save the price of picking to some outsider, this of course, having the effect of slowing up the ginnings.

What is happening in Donley County is taking place in varying degree in other nearby counties according to the figures released by the government on Nov. 21. For comparison, here are some of the figures:

Hall—29,663 as against 31,638 last year; Gray—3,703 as against 5,320 last year; Collingsworth—26,421 as against 33,561 last year; Childress—21,401 as against 22,641 last year.

State totals for the period as 3,449,595 bales as compared with 4,541,685 bales in 1931.

Cotton Man Buried Here Last Saturday

All that was mortal of M. L. Kelly, Jr., well-known cotton broker, was laid to rest here Saturday afternoon, Nov. 26th, in the Citizens Cemetery. Mr. Kelly's death resulted from a fractured vertebra sustained in an auto accident on Monday night previous and the end came Thursday, Nov. 24th in a Pampa Hospital, where he had been taken following the accident.

Mr. Kelly was born at Sherman, Texas, Nov. 15th, 1891, being just a few days past forty-one years of age when his untimely end came. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ada Mae Kelly, a son, Mart Kelly, Jr., and two daughters, Margaret and Madeline, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kelly, Sr., of Dallas; a brother, Edward Kelly of Amarillo; three sisters, Mesdames Dan Rutledge of Elk City Oklahoma; Emory Sager of San Angelo and F. E. Chamberlain of Clarendon.

Through his activities as a cotton buyer and broker, Mr. Kelly had a wide friendship and acquaintance over this section of the state, having operated at Memphis, Clarendon, Amarillo and Pampa in late years. Recently he had been living at Pampa, but had just moved back to Clarendon when the accident occurred.

A member of many years of the Episcopal Church, the funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock from the St. John Baptist Episcopal Church of Clarendon with the Rev. L. L. Swan, reading the impressive ritual. Interment was made in the Citizens Cemetery where a large crowd of friends and relatives followed from the church to pay their last respects to one who had lived among them.

Pall bearers were George A. Ryan, C. H. Bugbee, Wink Adams, W. H. Cooke, Gene Chamberlain and Carl Bennett, Jr.

which was badly needed to make certain experiment work safe and comfortable, and to bring the laboratory up to state requirements. So the benefit game is for a worthy cause, and every citizen is invited to attend this last exhibition of football for the year of 1932. The admission price will be moderate, and the fun immoderate.

ANXIETY FELT HERE FOR DONLEY'S ROAD

PANHANDLE MEN APPEAR AT AUSTIN IN BEHALF OF NEW PROJECTS

Considerable anxiety is being felt in Donley County along with citizens of other Panhandle Counties, over the Ferguson injunction temporarily granted restraining the state highway commission from making any further highway appropriations, which in effect holds up millions of dollars worth of road building projects in the Panhandle, which had been counted heavily on to relieve unemployment in this section.

Just as work was to commence in earnest on the detailed survey and purchase of right-of-way through the county, the order came as a damper on the hopes of day laborers without steady employment, farmers and business interests in Donley County and there is much anxiety as the final order of the court of civil appeals at Austin is awaited, which will refuse the injunction or made it permanent.

A delegation of Amarillo and Panhandle citizens have been to Austin the past week in the hope of assisting in unravelling the tangle, so that this section of Texas may have the benefits of some $4,000,000 in highway construction so badly needed in the Panhandle, and to carry through the thousands of people who have no income during the non-productive months between wheat and cotton harvests. T. E. Johnson, editor of the Amarillo Daily News, writing from Austin reviews the situation as follows:

"Mr. Ferguson told a committee from Amarillo and other Panhandle cities who conferred with him today that the department already has obligated itself several million dollars beyond its income now in sight. He said it was impossible for him to favor any new contracts in the Panhandle or any other sections of the state in view of the deficit which he contends now exists.

"Mr. Ferguson told the committee, however, that as soon as Mrs. Ferguson becomes governor a check of the funds made, if there is any money for new construction he will favor letting contracts for the immediate building of gaps in the main highway now serving the Panhandle. He said he would not approve any building anywhere unless there are ample funds in sight.

"Appearing with the committee were J. H. McCracken and Julius Doenfield, Ferguson leaders of Amarillo, who argued for a continuation of road construction on the main highways leading into Amarillo in order that these roads might be connected up and

BRO. FERGUSON'S FINGERS ITCH

Those who know the characteristics of Jim Ferguson are not surprised at the early manifestations of his intent in making a personal enterprise of the state highway matters via the injunction route. This only bears out the statement of The News along in the campaign that Jim had rather control state highway contracts than to handle any other department of government down at Austin. That's where the big money is.

The fact that the Panhandle section was about to receive its just share of highway construction, the fact that hundreds of unemployed were depending on road work for bread and meat this winter and spring, has no effect on a statesman (?) like Ferguson, who cares nothing for such things if only he may have the handling of the contracts.

The hope is, of course, that his temporary injunction secured on unwarranted and libelous grounds will be promptly voided and vacated by a fair and unprejudiced court in the hearing Saturday, and that justice to the Panhandle and bread and meat for the needy will yet be accomplished.

A COACH WITH BACKBONE

In the face of those who proclaim that football coaches have no other standards than the "win regardless" idea, Coach Barksdale over at Canyon has proven that there are men in the coaching game who have backbone and who dare to lose in order to maintain a principle.

When three of his best backfield men broke training rules on the eve of a sectional championship game with McLean, Coach Barksdale sent in three substitute backs, and the change contributed much to the lopsided score by which his team lost.

The fact that he knew the petty gamblers and the fire-eating fans would resent his action, heaping the blame on his head rather than the players, further denotes the backbone of the coach and entitles him to the respect and acclaim of lovers of clean, controlled sports in our schools all over Texas.

Being cut up with a razor in the hands of one held largely responsible for inducing the players to break rules, still further sets out the opposition with which any coach is beset if he honestly and conscientiously attempts to keep football on a high plane and demands that certain standards be maintained by those who are in process of education.

BUSINESS LEADERS ON WAR DEBT PROBLEM

The statement of opinion by a special committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce as to what would be the fair and wise solution of the war debts problem was termed a business man's viewpoint. The names of the business leaders that were signed to the statement made it unmistakably that, and consequently a highly significant contribution to the discussions of the momentous question.

The suggestion gains force from the fact that the opinion of this committee of leaders is shared by a very considerable body of public opinion. If there are to be further negotiations with the debtor nations for adjustment of their obligations, the solution must not throw the burden on the taxpayers of America, but should involve such ordered reduction in armaments and such new economic agreements as will facilitate world trade, and thus hasten the hour of recovery.

This business man's suggestion is well timed and may serve to stimulate public opinion and to crystallize it in advance of the date on which the debt installments are due. Public opinion will have much to do with whatever final settlement of the problem is made.—Dallas Journal.

THOSE WHO DON'T VOTE FOR PRESIDENT

Although the official count of Texas votes in the general election isn't complete and won't be for several weeks, enough figures are available to reveal a peculiar state of affairs.

The total vote for governor as tabulated to date was 806,875, which is about 98,000 more than was recorded for presidential electors. Complete returns probably will show that there were about 100,000 who voted for governor, but who scratched all of the electoral tickets.

There was a great many voters who did that in 1928, but the discrepancy in that year is easily explained. There were many Democrats who didn't like Smith but who just couldn't bring themselves to vote for Mr. Hoover. No such plausible explanation is available this year, as between Governor Roosevelt and Mr. Hoover.

One explanation that probably will be offered, and that is as good as any, is that ardent prohibitionists could not bring themselves to vote for either of the major party candidates because of the wetness of their platforms and the wet views of the candidates themselves. Pending a better explanation, that one must suffice.—Wichita Falls Daily Times.

JUST ANOTHER SILLY "WET" CLAIM

Dr. Irving Fisher, Yale University economist, says: "The idea that the liquor business creates something economically is on a par with the idea of an undertaker who complained that the pure milk committee in his town had ruined his trade in babies' funerals."

NOT BY BREAD ALONE

"Man Shall Not Live by Bread Alone."

What Jesus was making clear was that materialism could not be made the anchor by which life is secured. The mere getting and having and using money for money's sake or for the sake of material aggrandizement could not be made the desideratum of life. Why not? Because materialism has in it no power to save. It cannot even save itself. It is a transient, temporary thing. It is here today, gone tomorrow; chaff which the wind drives away.

If ever the world had a grim demonstration of this truth it has had it since 1929. Millions of men today know that man shall not and cannot live by bread alone. They have tried it and failed. Vast wealth and fortunes, vast industries and deeply entrenched power have failed; crumbled into dust. We have seen men fall from heights from which it seemed impossible for them ever to fall. We have seen fortunes collapse that appeared impregnable. We have seen industries and institutions go down that had been regarded as all but indestructible.

Now it is well to note that Jesus did not say "man shall not live by bread," but added the word "alone," which surely we are to understand as indicating no condemnation of money or material things in their proper place. Nowhere in his ministry did Jesus ever inveigh against the proper possession and use of money. Rather He taught that it could be sanctified. The lesson simply is: That men dare not make money their god. That is precisely what the Apostle Paul meant when he said, "The love of money is the root of all evil." The predominant, pre-eminent, inordinate love of money. Of course, money can be made and is made a tremendous power for good.

But this first part of the statement—"Men shall not live by bread alone"—is the negative side of it. What shall he live by? "By every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God," is the rest of the passage that is too often overlooked—giving God a better chance to run His world.

Most thinking people are beginning to realize that the lesson to be learned from this horrible period of world-wide depression is a spiritual lesson; exactly the lesson that was laid down 1900 years ago in this passage we have quoted from the Master of men. It need not be considered obtrusive if secular publications give expression to these thoughts. They are not to be confined to the pulpit or to purely religious institutions or teachers. Sunday manners are no good unless they are carried on over as Monday to Saturday morals.—Public Service Magazine.

Fifty and Fit

A MAN is as old—or as young—as his organs.
At fifty, you can be in your prime.
Why go along with "fairly good health" when you might be enjoying—gor you haven't felt for years?
There's a simple little thing anyone can do to keep the vital organs stimulated, and feel fit all the time. People don't realize how sluggish they've grown until they've tried it. The stimulant that will stir your system to new life is Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. It will make a most amazing difference in many ways.
This famous doctor's prescription is a delicious syrup made with fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. It starts its good work with the first spoonful. That's all you need to drive away the dullness and headache of a bilious spell, and rid the system of that slow poison that saps your strength. It's better than a tonic for tired bowels, and unlike habit-forming laxatives you can take it freely or give it to any child. And it isn't expensive.

Get some syrup pepsin today, and take a little tonight. Don't wait until you're sick to give your system this wonderful help. You can avoid those spells of biliousness or constipation. A spoonful every now and then is better than constant worry about the condition of your bowels, or fear of auto-intoxication as you grow older. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin protects the system. All druggists keep this preparation.

CHURCHES

"SAVING THE WORLD"
John 17

The whole world is the object of saving benediction, but of benediction through the means and ministry of a chosen few. "I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me," but for them, in order that the world, through them, may be blessed and saved.

Now this is a vital doctrine, the choosing of some for the benediction of the whole. "I pray for those that the world may believe." The chosen are not called into a sphere of exclusion, but to a function of transmission. They are not chosen to privilege, but to service; not to the secret hoarding of blessings, but to its wide distribution. Christians are not circles, but centers, heat centers for radiating gracious influence to remote circumstances, that under its warming and softening ministry, "the world may believe," in the Son of God. That is the way of the Master. He will work upon the frozen streams and rivers of the world by raising the general temperature. He seeks to increase the fervor of those who are his own, and through the pure an intense flame of their seal, to create an atmosphere in which the hard frozen indifference of the world shall be melted into wonder, into tender inquisition, that on the cold altar of the heart may be kindled fire of spiritual devotion.

The followers of Christ are to drive the two fold persuasion of the Master's prayer into the hearts of the world. First, that Christ was really sent, that what He said was true, and secondly, that we are loved by Him that the Christ-life is the life of blessedness. It is His desire that all of the world believe in Him and trust Him with their souls. It is also His desire that His followers be capable workers for Him, that the world through them might be saved.

Sunday morning we will discuss this subject, "SAVING THE WORLD", from several different angles and would like for all of the fellows of Christ in this community to be present. Sunday evening at seven o'clock, the Ladies Missionary Society will present a play, "Renewing the Flame." This will be an inspiration to those who desire to help save the world.—W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

"RENEWING THE FLAME"
(Play to be given by Ladies Missionary Society)
The Ladies Missionary Society of the First Christian Church will present "Renewing the Flame," a missionary playlet, next Sunday evening at seven o'clock. There are seventeen characters in the cast and represent many of the prominent types of Christians and their attitude toward the work of the church. Along with the play, several soul-inspiring songs will be sung and the whole program will ring with the challenge, for a more consecrated Christian service and more loyalty to the Church and its program.

that as many persons as possible be given employment. If the court sustains the Ferguson injunction there will be no further contracts awarded until after Mrs. Ferguson goes in office, if then. "Should the injunction be thrown out by the courts, the way will be cleared for all projects now on the Panhandle schedule, and, according to Judge Ely, the work will be awarded in small contracts in order to get as many construction companies as possible on the job. His motive for this plan is to make possible the completion of all new projects by June 30 in order that the $7,000,000 in emergency federal aid may be used.

"He estimated today that probably 3,000 additional men will be given employment by reason of the contracts now up for letting and that many more will be put to work if contracts scheduled to be awarded in December and January are not blocked.

"As to the department's money, Judge Ely, as well as Attorney General Alfred and the auditors, says Mr. Ferguson's charges are absurd and ridiculous. "Mr. Ely says the department has $7,000,000 on hand now, that it can pay for all projects now under construction, pay for those it has received bids on today, finance all others which are scheduled to be let in December and January, and close its fiscal year in August with a balance of $3,000,000.

CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT FOR WEST TEXAS PRODUCE

The West Texas Produce is now operating under the management of E. V. Fite from Hollis, Okla. Mr. Fite has had many years experience in the operating of Produce and Cream Stations and has made some very good market connections.

Mr. Fite states that he will offer the farmers of Donley County the highest market price obtainable and also give expert service. He also advises the farmers to begin preparing their turkeys for the Christmas market which opens early next week.

Willis Ready returned Monday from Hollis, Oklahoma.

Claude Pyle of Memphis was in Clarendon last Thursday.

Mrs. Charlie Trent, Mrs. Beatrice O'Neal, and Mrs. R. Wilkerson and children spent the week end in Seymour, Texas, as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Drew.

expended are $7,000,000 in emergency aid plus the regular federal aid coming to Texas, all of which will be started in time for its completion on or before the end of June.

"The Ferguson suit has brought delegations to Austin from every section of the state. Judge Ely and the friends of the highway department see in the suit a move by Mr. Ferguson to get control of the department. They believe he wants to place himself in a trading position in order that he may offer to withdraw his suit if certain concessions are made to him. Judge Ely and D. K. Martin, the two hold-over members of the highway commission, are declaring to the public that they do not intend to make any compromise and that they will stay on the job and carry out their plans regardless of Mr. Ferguson's attempt to remove them from office.

"Senator Clint Small of Amarillo has been in conference repeatedly with the commissioners for two days and promises them he will lead the fight in the Senate to prevent any legislation which might hamper the department or give its control to the new administration.

"Mr. Ferguson was most courteous to the Panhandle delegation, conferring with them for almost an hour, but would not commit himself beyond the promise that if funds are available the important projects in the Panhandle will get immediate attention when the new administration takes office.

"He is staking his whole case against the highway department on the belief that it is without the necessary funds to complete the roads under contract and build any new ones, and for that reason insists that there must be a cessation of work until the department "catches up" with its money.

"He said he did not propose to interfere in any way with federal aid for Texas and would not protest the building of roads which can be financed entirely out of federal funds. He said he saw no reason why some of the gaps in the main roads which deserve emergency consideration could not be built out of these funds alone.

"Judge Ely said it would be impossible to utilize the funds in this manner because the contracts for all work must be awarded by the state and that so long as the injunction is in effect no contracts of any nature can be awarded. The dissolution of the injunction must be rendered, he said, if the work is to be continued."

SPORTS

SPORT SPUTTERS
BY O. C. WATSON, JR.

The Bronchos ended their '32 football season Thanksgiving when they trounced the Sanger Indians 32-0, and gave Sanger their second defeat in three years. However the Sanger boys lost they played the most sportsman like football that has been played in Clarendon for many years. The third string, who will soon be Bronchos showed much power, both in the line and backfield.

The Bronchos have had a very successful season, however, they did not win any district honors. Out of nine games the Bronchos have won six games and lost three, they have rolled up a total of 186 points to opponents 68; Hollis, Oklahoma being the only team that was able to hold the Bronchos from crossing their goal line, and have since won the Southwestern championship of Oklahoma, which is quite an honor.

Monday afternoon the Bronchos hung up the moleskin and football was bade goodbye until next year.

Basketball suits were issued Monday and the boys are getting in shape to meet the Pampa Harvesters Friday night in Pampa. So far the boys look good and I believe will have a winning team this year.

Letter men from last year who reported for practice were: Martin, center; O'Neal, guard; C. Hudson, guard; W. Hudson, forward; O. C. Watson, forward; and P. Green, forward. Other good material is Blocker, Bolles, Walker, Merrit, Whitlock, E. Watson, McCrary, Linder, Nichols, Gorman, and Holtzclaw.

Next week Sport Sputters will have a surprise, can you guess what it will be?

Mrs. W. T. White and Mrs. Stephenson of Hedley, and Mrs. Jewell Foster of Childress spent Thanksgiving in the F. A. White home.

Messrs Dick and Monty Ritchie left Wednesday night for Dallas for an extended visit.

Miss Sprague Honored

Miss Betty Sprague of Oklahoma City, was honor guest at an informal buffet supper when Mr. and Mrs. Ira Merchant entertained at their home, Saturday evening.

The buffet table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with blue tapers in gold holders which were attractively arranged.

Guests for the evening included: Misses Betty Sprague, the honoree and Lorraine Patrick; Messrs Henry Johnson, Dick Ritchie, Lloyd Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stegall.

Mrs. L. S. Bagby Is Hostess

An affair which added much to the week's social activities was a bridge and forty-two party given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. L. S. Bagby at her lovely home.

The entertaining rooms were made attractive by the arrangement of the potted plants. Games of bridge and forty-two were enjoyed with Mesdames Simmons Powell, Eva Rhode, and Miss Norma Rhode being fortunate in the cut at each table.

At the conclusion of the games the guests were served a delectable afternoon luncheon. Those attending were: Mrs. Bennet Kerbow, Mrs. Bill Greene, Mrs. Eva Rhode, Mrs. J. T. Patman, Mrs. A. A. Mayes, Mr. J. G. Sherman, Miss Norma Rhode, Mrs. U. J. Boston, Mrs. Simmons Powell, Mrs. Seldon Bagby, Mrs. W. A. Clark, Jr., and Mrs. C. T. McMurry.

Pathfinder Club Entertained

The Pathfinder Club met last Friday afternoon in the club rooms, Mrs. B. G. Smith and Mrs. Paul Shelton entertaining.

After the business hour Mrs. R. Y. King directed an interesting and instructive program on health. Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Sr., and Mrs. A. T. Cole assisted Mrs. King.

After the usual social hour nice refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kirtley Entertain With Bridge

Entertaining for members of their evening bridge club, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kirtley were cordial host and hostess on Thursday evening at their home.

Games of bridge were played in the attractively decorated living room. Earl Alexander was awarded the prize for high score at the conclusion of the games.

A delicious salad course was served to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Teer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stocking, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alexander, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kirtley.

1930 Good Will Club

With Mrs. Henry Shoffit as hostess, the 1930 Good Will Club met Thursday afternoon in her home.

A Thanksgiving program was given in which several of the members participated. In the business meeting plans were made to entertain the husbands of the members at a "42" party Thursday night, at Mrs. Will Johnson's.

After a delightful afternoon, dainty refreshments were served to: Mesdames Si Johnson, Will Johnson, Don Martin, Fred Russell, Lucian Bones and C. R. Gamblin, club members.

Invited guests included Mrs. Emma Jackson and Mrs. C. V. Jackson of Vigo Park, and Mrs. J. E. Burleson of Silvertown.

Young Matrons Harmony Class Have Social

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Paul Shelton was charming hostess to members of the Young Matrons Harmony Class.

After a short business session, forty-two was played the remainder of the afternoon. Delectable refreshments were served by the hostess to: Mesdames Barcus Antrobus, Fred Mahyer, Tom Goldston, Nathan Cox, Bob McGowan, Carl Bennett, Jr., Walter Hutchen, O. C. Watson, C. W. Galloway, Paul Schull, Blanche Oden, Ben Andis, Clinton Frygley, Homer McElvaney, and B. F. Kirtley.

Missis Mary Jo Chamberlain and Obie Crabtree spent the week end with their parents.

1926 Book Club

With Mrs. Edith Ballew and Mrs. Virginia Bryan as hostesses, members of the 1926 Book Club met in the Club Room Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Eunice Buntin was leader of the program which consisted of a book review by Mrs. Ruby Bromley of "The Shadow of Silver Tip" by George Baxter.

In the business meeting there was a discussion of the Book Club Tea, which is to be given Tuesday, Dec. 6th and the party to be given Dec. 20th by the club.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

"42" Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Greene were genial host and hostess to members of their "42" Club and a few guests last Thursday evening, when they entertained with a Turkey Dinner at their home.

After the sumptuous dinner had been consumed, games of forty-two were enjoyed the remainder of the evening.

Club members attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Bennet Kerbow, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Patman, Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Boston, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons Powell, Mr. M. M. Noble, Mrs. Eva Rhode, and Mrs. B. G. Smith.

Guests were: Misses Rhoda, Helen, and Julia Wiedman, Norma Rhode, Opal Pyle, Mantie Graves, and Mrs. L. S. Bagby.

MacDowell Chorus

In the business meeting held at the club room Monday afternoon, members of the MacDowell Chorus accepted with regret the resignation of Mr. Sam M. Braswell, who has been director of this chorus for the past year and a half.

Much pleasure has been derived by the members from the association with Mr. Braswell and they are very grateful to him for the time and energy spent with them.

The Chorus will meet in the parlors of the Methodist Church on next Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for their weekly rehearsal, at which time Mr. Robert Cope will direct. It is the wish of the President that a large number will be present. A short business session will be held at this time also.

"42" Party Given By Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Andis

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Andis entertained several of their friends last Thursday evening with six tables of Forty-two at their home.

The Thanksgiving motif was attractively carried out in the tallies and favors much to the delight of the guests.

After an enjoyable evening dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Couch, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bounds, Mr. and Mrs. U. Z. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Putman, Mr. and Mrs. Leck Goldston, and Miss Ethel Lawson of Lubbock.

PRESBYTERIAN BAZAAR

The Ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold their annual bazaar, Saturday, December 2nd, in the basement of the church, and cordially invited the support of the public. At 11:30 Saturday they will serve a Chicken Pie Dinner for 35c. This feature is in addition to their Bazaar, apron sale and food market. Come, enjoy the dinner and make your selections of gifts and food. (48c)

MARTIN H. D. C. TO MEET

On Thursday, December 8th the Martin Home Demonstration Club will meet with Mrs. J. E. Baker. Every member is urged to attend as very important matters are to come before the club before the close of the year.

ALATHEARN CLASS IN MEET

The Alathearn Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church held a business meeting at the church on November 30th, with thirteen members and three associate members present.

An interesting program was presented after which dainty refreshments were served.

PIANO AND SPEECH ARTS RECITAL WELL RECEIVED

The recital given at the College Auditorium on Tuesday evening, by the pupils of Mrs. Elizabeth Clayton Powell and Mrs. Rita Foster Stocking, was well received by an appreciative audience. The piano pupils played with artistic finish and the readers appeared well poised, all showing careful training.

There will be a Christmas recital in which the children will appear in costume. Watch for later announcement.

MRS. FRED BUNTIN NOW HAS EMBALMER'S LICENSE

Mrs. Fred Buntin returned Sunday from Dallas where she completed a course in embalming, and passed the state board, winning her license as qualified embalmer. Mrs. Buntin will have charge of ladies and children's cases for the Buntin Funeral Parlor here, which adds to the service of that efficient local institution.

Roy Guffy of Baird, Texas, was a visitor here last week.

A. J. Smith Is Much Improved

Late reports from the hospital bedside of A. J. Smith, who was forced to undergo a second operation at the Adair Hospital last week, are that the young man is much better and early recovery is now anticipated by his physician, family and friends.

NEWS EDITOR ATTENDS INDIAN THANKSGIVING

In company with Mrs. Braswell, the News editor drove to Mountain View, Oklahoma, Thanksgiving morning in time to attend a Thanksgiving service at the Rainy Mountain Mission Church to the Kiowa Indians. The real object of the trip, however, was to attend a wedding of Miss Emily King, daughter of the Missionary to Mr. Robt. Parker of Tulsa, which followed the Thanksgiving service at the church.

This Mission church was established over forty years ago under the sponsorship of Chief Big Tree of the Kiowa tribe, whose wife, Omebo, was the first convert. Gotebo, a brother of Omebo, was the second convert and Big Tree, himself was the third. This Mission is under direction of the Northern Baptist Mission board, and Rev. Mr. King has been missionary among Oklahoma tribes for thirty years.

It was most interesting to hear the Kiowas sing hymns in their own tongue, to hear their prayers, and to hear the sermon interpreted as the missionary preached. The church is a neat brick structure and has a Kiowa membership of 340.

The Kiowa men and women were much interested in the white wedding ceremony, which was explained to them by the interpreter. They said they felt it quite an honor to have the wedding in their church, and the whole Kiowa congregation filed past the bride and groom to shake hands and offer their silent congratulations at the conclusion of the ceremony. The Kiowas seemed especially interested in the placing of the ring on the hand of the bride.

The day was most interesting and one could not help being impressed with the simple and intent of the Christianized Kiowas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bass and family spent Thanksgiving Day in Memphis.

METHODIST CHOR WILL HOLD PRACTICE AT 6:30

On account of other attractions in town, the weekly choir practice at the Methodist Church will be held thirty minutes early Friday evening. All choir members are asked to come at 6:30, with dismissal promised in time for other engagements.

Sam M. Braswell, Director.

ANNOUNCING OPENING OF SANITARY MARKET

Vestal Mosley, owner of the new Sanitary Market announces that he is now open for business and is occupying the building two doors from the Clarendon News.

The Sanitary Market specializes in Strictly Fresh Fruits and Vegetables from the Rio Grande Valley of Texas. The management operates and runs their own truck to and from the Valley and selects only the very choicest fruits and vegetables from that region.

The public is invited to come in and view the splendid array of these choice products of the Rio Grande. Mr. Mosley states that Special Prices will be offered on everything.

Boys Offered Best Stories

Bad times are good times for magazine readers, according to the editor of youth's favorite magazine, THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION. More people are writing than ever before, he states, and finer adventures, more gripping yarns, more downright reading thrills are due the magazine subscriber than ever in history.

THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION in 1933 will be loaded from cover to cover with great experiences. For adventure, the reader will travel with the Royal Canadian Mounted through forests and mountains, penetrate to the military posts of Borneo; ride with cavalry in India, plunge into the Amazon jungle.

There'll be character-building stories of the professions, of school and college life. There'll be articles on sports, travel and science, that take boys to the Orient, that explain the mysteries of ocean liners and air transports. There'll be stories that satisfy the boy's wholesale appetite for fun and thrill, and his keen desire to learn.

The AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION costs just $2.00 a year or $3.00 for three years. In other words, when you subscribe for three years, the magazine's savings enable them to give you a subscription for only a dollar a year! It's the ideal gift for that boy you're interested in, be he son, nephew, neighbor, cousin or son of your business associate. And an attractive gift card bearing your name will go to him if you request it. Send your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 West Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Service on your subscription will start with the issue you specify.

Mrs. T. G. Stargel and daughter Jean, of Amarillo, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Antrobus.

Mrs. L. T. Spencer and daughter, Mary, of Dallas spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her brother, J. H. Hurn and family.

Mr. Bob Hunt of Canyon was a Clarendon visitor Thanksgiving Day.

EDITOR OF SCHOOL PAGE UNDERWENT OPERATION

Bill Word, Editor of "Along The Broncho Range", underwent an operation for appendicitis at the County Hospital in Amarillo Monday morning. The operation was very successful and the patient is reported as resting nicely. The members of the Broncho staff wish to express their hopes for a rapid recovery. Bill's place as editor has been filled by Assistant Editor, Jo Ella Stewart, who will continue to manage the page until Bill's health is such as will enable him to resume his duties.

SENIORS WIN CLASS FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Seniors won the Class Football Championship without a struggle. Their rivals, the Juniors could not get enough boys to make a team while the Seniors had about twenty-two members on their squad. However, we do not doubt but that the Seniors would have won if any games had been played. This shows that you just can not beat those Seniors.

BILLY GREENE ENTERTAINS

On Saturday night, November 26, Billy Greene entertained with a dance at the parish house. Music was furnished by Rhodin Chase and Hubert Reavis. The chaperones were the host's mother Mrs. W. G. Greene, and Rev. and Mrs. L. L. Swan. Those present were: Misses Jean Bourland, Pauline Sanford, Marjorie White, Elizabeth Kemp, Eugenia Nolan, Travis Dyer, Dorothy Jo Ryan, Carroll Holder, Geraldine Pratt, Ruth Hartzog, Emma Lee Johnston, Evelyn Murphy, and Jo Ella Stewart.

Messrs Mike Stricklin, Alex K. Cooke, Lloyd Benson, Lloyd Martin, Carroll Hudson, Clayton Powell, Hollis Leathers, Byrum Haile, Roy Stargel, Johnny Blocker, Paul Greene, Alfred McMurtry, Elery Watson, Willard Hudson, Bill Word, Willard Skelton, Price Whitlock, Arthur Davis, Lawrence Whitlock, Arthur Chase, Harry McCracken, Ardis Patman, and the host, Billy Greene.

Gilbert Williams, tamale vendor, of Tulsa, Okla., who was robbed of his tamales and lantern recently, couldn't describe the robber, but suggested to police, "Look for a man with garlic breath."

SENIOR CLASS RECEIVED RINGS LAST MONDAY

The Senior Class Rings arrived on Monday of this week. The rings have a square black set with the torch of knowledge in gold upon it. On the torch of knowledge is a scroll on which "Clarendon" is inscribed. The letters "H" and "S" stand for High School. On either side of the set are the numerals 19 and 33. The class was given a free ring. The important question of who should receive this gift was decided by lot. The names of all the Seniors were placed in a hat from which Mr. Carver drew the name of the lucky person. As the class waited for their president, Alfred McMurtry, to read the name, there was an air of tenseness in the room. Then "Alexander Kay Cooke", read Alfred. Here and there was heard a sigh of disappointment, but Alex could hardly restrain his joy. He is to be congratulated on his good luck.

A member of the Junior Class, Jennie Franklin, underwent an appendicitis operation Monday. Although she has been a member of the class only a short time, her presence has been greatly missed.

CAMPUS CHATTER

It seems that everyone had a grand Thanksgiving, what with our winning the ball game Thursday afternoon and all; and Fred Bourland was telling us something about that old Scotch football yell—you know, "Get that quarterback."

Did you know that Mr. Clark is just "plumb haywire" about using slang. One of Clarendon's old gridiron favorites was in the game Thursday giving all the fans an unexpected thrill in the person of "Handsome" Benson.

The mob on the sidelines almost got out of control last Thursday when the Benson and Nichols "Colts" were put in the last quarter of the game. If we know anything about it, the future prospects for the district championship don't look so bad for Clarendon; and maybe you think that Hollis Evans isn't going to give that "adorable little halfback" of this season a run for the favor of the "blondes."

Kenneth and Barbara are evidently "that way" about each other. See the first year Chemistry class for detailed information. Leroy Leathers, the up and coming young Chemist, concocts the strangest mixtures in Chemistry class. In another year or two, he'll be telling the U. S. Navy how they should make smoke screens.

PROGRESS OF HOME ECONOMICS CLASS

The boys' class of the Home Economics Department has been progressing very nicely the past few weeks. The boys are planning meals for themselves, checking on their height and weight, and selecting diets in proportion to their height and weight. They are also learning how to select a balanced meal from a hotel menu card. Miss Morgan has announced that food preparations will begin next week in this class.

During such perilous times as the World War, France did not find it necessary to close her schools in order to have more revenue with which to buy war munitions. Are we, here in Texas going to allow a little thing like the so-called depression force us to hoist the white flag and compromise, at the expense of the children, by closing the schools?—G. G.

BRONCS DEFEAT SANGER 32 TO 0

The Clarendon Broncs defeated the Sanger High School football team 32 to 0 here Thanksgiving Day. The Broncs gained their stride in the latter part of the first quarter to completely route the Sanger eleven throughout the entire game. The entire Broncho squad saw action in the fray. The first quarter was a nip and tuck affair until Hudson on a basket pass dashed thirty-five yards to start the scoring of the Broncs. In about the middle of the second quarter E. Watson on a spread formation plunged the line for the needed five yards, then kicked the extra point to make the score 13 to 0. The Broncs received the kickoff and after a series of passes and line plays Whitlock plucked the remaining two yards for the third score of the game. In the third quarter Greene intercepted a pass Caves to Mundowsky on the thirty-two yard line. On the eighth play Whitlock ploughed the remaining two yards for the fourth score of the game. Again in the fourth quarter the Broncs received the ball on their 20 yard line and advanced down the field with Bolles scoring as the final whistle sounded.

The starting Lineups were:

Clarendon	C	Sanger
Watters	RG	Spratt
McMahan	LG	Pritchett
Benson	RT	Newton
Cooke	LT	Ganzer
Greene	LE	Allred
Martin	RE	Roane
O. C. Watson	RE	Mundkowsky
Bolles	Q	Caves
Whitlock	RH	Chestnut
Hudson	LH	Batis
Watson	F	Brewer

Sanger substitutions: Cornell, Avery, Newton. Clarendon substitutions: Haile, Easterling, Mann, O'Neal, Linders, McCrary, P. Greene, Jackson, Davis, Garmon, Brady, Bernard, Holtzclaw, Tidwell, Jackson, Nichols, Evans, Smith, Hendrick, Boston, Word.

The outstanding players for Sanger were: Caves, Brewer, Batis, and Mundkowsky; for the Broncs: Hudson, Whitlock, Watson, Bolles, Martin, and Watters

Alpha Delta Psi Literary Society met Wednesday evening November 23, to enjoy a delightful program. Those who contributed were: George McCleskey, "Current Happenings"; Harold Phelps, "What Governor Roosevelt Reads"; Virginia Wisdom, "Story of Thanksgiving"; Barbara Smith, Short Story; Delphia Bones, Piano Solo.

AGRICULTURE NOTES

The First Year Agriculture class spent last week studying the elements of soil and how to maintain its fertility. This study is very important because it means success to a farmer who keeps his farm in good condition. The methods the class has been studying are crop rotation, strip cropping, terracing, legumes, and low crops. Future work will be on terracing, fertilizing, and testing soil for different mineral and acids.

SHOULD GIVE FATHER A BREAK

It's Dad who writes the checks for Mother's Day celebrations and all other celebrations, too. On the first of the month he is the most important member of the household. But the fact is generally forgotten on the second. Why not hand his a flower, some time, along with the "please remit"? The idea is suggested by Rev. W. W. Rose, of the First Universalist Church, Lynn, Mass. It is chiefly the father's fault, writes Mr. Rose in his church paper, that he is lost in the shuffle: "He is content to stand in the background. "He is inclined to be silent. "We take him for granted in human society, even as we take salt for granted in the daily provender. And like salt he savors the whole. "Father works at the commonplace task of earning a living, supporting a family, discharging his duties, laboring along quietly six days in the week, standing between his dependents and the world.

"He shoulders the responsibility of rent and taxes.

"He works himself to death that his wife and children may be assured of comfort and independence.

"He is not often the scholar or the dreamer.

"He is not often the pathfinder or the pioneer; nor the rebel.

"He belongs with the hundreds of thousands who dare not revolt—at least publicly.

"He has given hostages to fortune, as Francis Bacon once said. He knows it. But he doesn't care.

UVALDE, Texas.—Realizing the success of this year's sale of Christmas Seals is more imperative, perhaps, than it has ever been before, Vice-President-elect John N. Garner opened the 25th annual campaign in Texas by making the first purchase, with his nine-year-old granddaughter, Genevieve Garner, having the honor of making the first sale.

Relative to this important work, Mr. Garner had this to say in part: "Knowing the great work done by the tuberculosis organizations of the United States during the past quarter of a century, through whose efforts the saving of thousands of lives every citizen is accomplished, I urge every citizen to make his contribution, large or small, through the purchase of Christmas Seals. I know of no more worthy cause than the support of the annual Seal Sale, through which the work of these organizations is made possible." The records of the Texas Tuberculosis Association show that Mr. Garner has purchased Christmas Seals annually for many years.

Gallery of Art of Washington, D. C., during the Celebration. This is the first time that these famous portraits have been gathered under one roof.

Abroad, seventy-eight counties have participated in the Bicentennial Celebration. This was a spontaneous movement, without official invitation from our Government.

Twenty-six foreign cities have named streets, parks and squares for George Washington. In Germany alone four cities have renamed thoroughfares for George Washington.

The Government of Poland issued a special stamp in honor of the Bicentennial Celebration.

In Vienna a new municipal apartment house was named after George Washington.

The above includes but a few of the highlights of the Celebration. In every state, city and town in America, commemorative observances were held. Plays and pageants were produced, Bicentennial trees were planted, contests were conducted, meetings and parades were held.

The United States Bicentennial Commission in Washington hopes to gather all the reports of Bicentennial events from all over the world. Those responsible for these events should send complete reports immediately to the Commission. These will be published in Memorial Volumes of the Cele-

A Warning To Motorists!

By DR. WILLIAM J. SCHOLLES

All of the deaths caused by automobiles are not due to reckless driving or to "jay" walking. Each year a large number of people lose their lives by poisoning from automobile exhaust gas. Many people who know that illuminating gas and coal gas are dangerous, seem to be unaware of the dangers of inhaling automobile exhaust gas.

The story of most of these tragedies is essentially the same. The victim has gone into the garage—usually a one or two-car private garage—and started the motor of his car. He has neglected to open the doors of the garage. He has remained in the closed, unventilated garage for a few minutes tinkering with the car while the motor was running. In the meantime the concentration of carbon monoxide in the air has been increasing to dangerous proportions.

Now carbon monoxide gas can not be seen. It has no odor or taste. One does not know that it is getting a poisonous dose until symptoms of poisoning develop. And these symptoms are perhaps not long in developing. They are headache, dizziness, difficult breathing, a feeling of sickness at the stomach. If one heeds the symptoms and gets out of doors while he is still able to, he may soon recover. If he ignores the warning symptoms, he may soon become unconscious. It seems likely, that in many instances, unconsciousness must have occurred so rapidly that the victim did not have time to escape.

First aid to victims of gas poisoning consists in immediate removal to the fresh air and in giving artificial respiration, such as is given to persons who have drowned. The patient should be covered with a blanket in order to avoid chilling. A physician should be called, as additional treatment for the after-effects of the poisoning is often necessary.

The way to avoid poisoning from automobile exhaust gas is to insure a plentiful supply of fresh air by opening the doors of the garage before starting the motor. (Copyright, 1932, by The Bonnet-Brown Corporation, Chicago)

HAS PRINTED 76,000,000 BIBLES

An American Bible Society official states that 825,000,000 Bibles have been printed, and that since the Vulgate edition was printed by Gutenberg between 1450 and 1455 the Bible has doubtless been on the press somewhere almost continuously.

Bible House has printed the Bible in sixty-nine different languages, a total of 76,000,000 copies in seventy years. Most of the volumes, including many in obscure dialects, are printed in the United States.

Chester Williams, who is a Senior in Texas Tech, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams.

It is said that, in an Asiatic country, the only distinction between the descendants of kings and the common herd is that those of regal descent are permitted to have as many steps as they wish, leading to their houses. More civilized lands including America, have something to learn upon the subject of how far class distinction should be permitted to go.

THE CLOSE OF THE BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

The world-wide George Washington Bicentennial Celebration was brought to an official close yesterday with Thanksgiving services in the churches in honor of the Father of His Country. The United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission reports that Thanksgiving services were held by the churches of all denominations in every city in America and in the large cities abroad.

For the past nine months, since February 22, millions of people in all corners of the world have participated in what was the greatest celebration of history in honor of a National hero.

The United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission is now busily engaged compiling detailed records of the Celebration. While these cannot be available for several months, the highlights of the celebration are here set down.

Active work of the Commission, with President Hoover as Chairman and Congressman Sol Bloom as Associate Director, began some two and a half years ago. Plans were mapped out for a nation-wide and world-wide celebration and not for a world's fair or a geographically centralized event.

Cooperative Bicentennial Commissions were appointed in every State, city and practically every town of America. Besides, committees were appointed among civic, fraternal and religious bodies as well as in the schools.

More than 700,000 separate and distinct Bicentennial Commissions and committees functioned actively during the Celebration period.

A conservative estimate by the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission claims that more than one million different Bicentennial Celebration programs took place during this nine months period.

The United States Commission has distributed, without charge, more than 12 million pieces of literature in assisting local committees. Historical pamphlets, plays and pageants, music, educational pamphlets, etc., have been published and distributed from the Commission's headquarters in Washington.

Nation-wide educational contests, in the elementary schools, high schools and institutions of higher learning have been conducted by the Commission. More than two million American boys and girls have participated in these contests.

The Commission has distributed to the schools of America more than one million large-size lithographed copies of the Gilbert Stuart Athenaeum portrait of George Washington.

Every library in America received a copy of the Commission's special flag chart showing all the flags used in the Revolution. Every Post Office has received a large poster of Wakefield, Washington's birthplace.

More than one million copies of the George M. Cohan song, "Father of the Land We Love" were distributed. This song was written for the Commission by Mr. Cohan as his personal tribute to our First President.

A special Bicentennial quarter dollar was minted and put in general circulation. A special medal was also minted which the Commission awards for meritorious service in connection with the Celebration.

Our Post Office issued a series of twelve George Washington stamps to commemorate the Celebration.

The Definitive Writings of George Washington are now being compiled and published. This is the most comprehensive undertaking on George Washington ever attempted. Twenty five volumes will be required to complete this work.

Wakefield, the birthplace of George Washington, has been restored and turned over to the Government as a national shrine.

More than thirty million George Washington memorial trees have been planted since February 22.

The Commission collected practically all of the famous George Washington portraits which have been exhibited in the Corcoran

Conoco Travel Bus Visits City

WHAT is more logical than a travel bureau that does some traveling itself? Such is the conviction of Continental Oil Company, which recently sent this completely equipped bus out to tour the highways and byways of America for the purpose of giving first hand assistance to motor vacationists, and to help coordinate the work of the hundreds of branches of the Conoco Travel Bureau. The bus and its personnel visited this city recently.

SUNNY VIEW

Neal Bogard, Millard Starks and Heckle Starks butchered 10 fat hogs Monday.

Miss Sada Gray and Mrs. Donald Ballew entertained their pupils and their parents and other guests with games for the little folks and 42 for the older folks Thursday night. At the close of the entertainment cake, hot coffee and hot chocolate was served to all present. All had an enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Clayton had as guests for dinner Thanksgiving their children, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Norman and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cornelius and children of Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Naylor and son, Mr. and Mrs. Slaton Mahaffey and children of Pleasant Valley and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spann and family of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roberts spent Sunday at Memphis with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Womack and their mother, Mrs. J. H. Roberts who is visiting in Memphis.

Mrs. Roy Morgan and children and her brother, LeRoy Brame, called on Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brame Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Reed drove over to Wellington and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Singletary.
