PER MEN FROM HEART KAS ENJOY CONVENTION

Regular meetings planned for the purpose of strengthening and assistance in the development of the county.

Gorman and Wendell Mayes smiled us a welcome. John Gorman, seeing that we were a little fatigued, gave us an introduction to the Maid of Brownwood, and doggone and inspirational, makes an old newspaper man forget shop worries, bill collectors and C. O. D. shipments—Brownwood Beautiful.

So right here we rise to a point of order to tell the folks that Brownwood's lake has been returned in first class condition, while to us it did seem to have a good coat of sun tan, possibly acquired down there in those South Texas rice fields, but otherwise, it was no different to what it was when we saw it last.

Joe B. Pouns in the Coleman Democrat-Voice:

Newspaper men and women from over this section of the state came in for quite a bit of humorous criticism at the Heart of Texas Press Association meeting in Brownwood last week-end.

And to prove to the visiting members of the Fourth Estate that Lake Brownwood is again filled, the Brownwood newspaper men carried the visitors for a boat ride on the lake.

Most all kinds of boats were seen in operation on that large body of water. The sail boats, to our mind, are the prettiest although not nearly as safe as the cabin boat we used in our ride from the docks to the Federal government CCC camp.

Much work has been done at the Lake Brownwood park by the CCC boys and the park should draw many persons to it as a place of recreation during the next few years. In reality, the lake is about as near to Rising Star, Cross Plains and Coleman as it is to Brownwood, but since the people of Brownwood have to pay the taxes for its upkeep, we suppose the other towns will allow Brownwood to claim it.

M. S. Sellers, in the Rising Star Record:

The meeting was called to order Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the roof auditorium of the Hotel Brownwood, by President Jack Scott, publisher of the Cross Plains Review. A very flattering welcome address was made by Wendell Mayes, president of the Brownwood chamber of commerce, and publisher of the Brownwood Banner.

John H. McLaughy, in the Morning News:

Saturday we attended the Heart of Texas Press meet in Brownwood. A nice program was enjoyed and the Brownwood editors and printers treated the press boys royally.

Personally, not being in the class with Doc Sellers of Rising Star and Jack Scott of Cross Plains, gollyficially speaking, we took the boat ride on Lake Brownwood and looked over the CCC camp located there. After some 10 minutes of boat riding and hill climbing we arrived at the camp, and the editors gave it the once over.

The CCC camp is being used to build a beautiful State park, and when completed will be one of the show places of West Texas.

E. C. Lowe in the Lometa Reporter:

We Santa Fe-ed up to Brownwood Saturday to attend the Heart of Texas Press association meeting. They pulled a big dance Friday night, but we did not go up to that, as back in our early newspaper work we wore our right foot off up half to the knee pedaling a foot power Pearl press, and are unable to "shake a light fantastic toe."

There was a good program Saturday morning, which was attended by some 40 or 50 newspaper men of this section of the state. A nice luncheon was served us, after which we were escorted to Lake Brownwood for a motor boat ride and visit to the CCC camp.

And by the way, the president of the Chamber of Commerce, in no uncertain terms, made this statement: "Last summer when we loaned our lake out, every paper in this section of the state had something to say about it, but now since we have gotten it back, none of you have mentioned it, and we

LOW PERCENTAGE OF FAULTS FOUND IN SAFETY ZONE

A remarkably small percentage of defects was found in cars inspected during the five-day safety lane conducted here recently. Only 867 defects were found in the 3,743 cars which went through the lane. Inspections were made on lights, brakes, steering gear, horn and other details.

Safety lanes have been recently conducted in El Paso, San Angelo, Cisco, Coleman, Eastland, Ranger and Brownwood. In some of the places where the lane was conducted it was found that 75 percent of the automobiles were defective.

Inspector J. B. Draper of Abilene, who conducted the safety lane, commended the motoring public of Brownwood for their cooperation in the work. He was pleased with the manner in which the people of the city entered into the campaign, saying that they were anxious to find any defects in their automobiles and tried to do all in their power to assist the patrolmen in their work.

He also expressed the thanks of the department to officers and enlisted men of Company A for their cooperation and for the work done by guardsmen in assisting patrolmen during the campaign. He spoke highly of the Boy Scouts and said that they had also been a great help.

"I want to thank the local police department for their wholehearted cooperation, the citizens as a whole, the membership of the Lions Club, Mr. McKay, Mr. Daugherty, Lieutenants Albert Hoffman and Tom Wilkinson of the national guard, as well as the scout officials and others.

Officers conducting the safety lane included Inspector Draper and Privates Bradford and Posey of San Angelo, Myers and Daniels of Eastland, Barr and Thompson of Abilene, and Bruce and Finkies of Brownwood.

MAKING Smart CLOTHES

The redingote is just about the smartest thing you can wear for Spring — and just about the most practical because the coat, if you choose your color carefully, can be worn over your other dresses and the dress can be worn early under your heavier coats.

When planning a redingote, choose a very amusing, gay print for your dress and for the coat, a rather conservative color, that echoes at the same time one of the colors in the dress. This coat, you will notice, is made to be worn with the new "soft sleeve" dress. The coat has just a little fullness above the wrist which will take care of the fullness of sleeves beneath without mussing them. We suggest that the dress be made of silk and the coat of a light-weight wool which tailors well.

This is a Butterick pattern which you can purchase at your local department store.

Lucas Explains Purpose Of Trip

H. G. Lucas of Brownwood and W. R. Chambers of May, Brown county's representatives in the delegation of Texas farmers which left for Washington Sunday to express their approval of the AAA, boarded the special train at Fort Worth Sunday which was to carry delegates from West and North Texas counties.

Mr. Lucas, as president of the Texas Agricultural Association, was in charge of the West and North Texas train. Other trains were made up at San Antonio and Houston, and all were to meet at Longview Junction.

In commenting on the purpose of the trip Mr. Lucas said:

"We go to Washington to thank the administration for what it has done for the farmer. For the first time in the history of our country, a national administration has attempted to give the farmer justice.

"Benefits from the AAA," he went on, "have not been gifts to the farmer. The administration simply has sought to give the farmer the protection and benefits that industry and labor have had all along from protective tariff.

Agriculture in the past has had it in the neck—both ways. The farmer has had to pay off when he bought manufactured goods and stand a loss when he sold his products in competition with the world. Under the AAA, he is beginning to get justice."

While in Washington Mr. Lucas acted as toastmaster at a Texas dinner given Tuesday night. The delegation of Texas farmers gathered for a "testimonial dinner" at the close of the day's program. Secretary Wallace, Chairman Jones of the House Agriculture Committee and a number of other notable were introduced to the visitors.

JERSEY DAIRY HERD GIVEN HIGH RATING IN CLASSIFICATION

"Benedictine's Ruler," prize Jersey bull that heads the herd at Shelton Bros. Dairy Farm, is the first bull in Texas and the second in the South to be rated a "Superior Sire."

The entire Jersey herd classified well and was praised by Mr. Ridgeway. Three of the younger cows classified "excellent," scoring between 91 and 92 points.

Approximately 100 dairymen and visitors from eight or ten counties attended the classification and were served barbecue at noon as guests of the dairy.

Four of the Shelton herd have been given the "Gold Medal" award of the Jersey association. To attain this distinction, a cow must produce 700 pounds of butter fat in 365 days.

Most of the Shelton herd has been sired by Benedictine's Ruler, one of the finest Jersey bulls in America. To be rated a Superior Sire, a bull's progeny must produce more than 600 pounds of butter fat in one year.

Teachers were present with members of their classes. Dairymen from a number of nearby counties were present.

Sensational Tire Hunt Finished By Noted Detective

One of the most unusual and spectacular surveys ever conducted by an American manufacturer has just come to an end in New York City with the arrival there, following a two-months "tire hunt," of Joseph A. Faurot, one time Deputy Police Commissioner of that city and the man who first used fingerprints as evidence in an American courtroom.

News of Faurot's sensational search for the evidence from one coast to the other has just reached Safety Tire and Battery Company, local Goodyear tire dealers.

Setting out from New York with James Cannon, ace Manhattan newspaper man, who had just completed work on the Hauptmann case for his afternoon daily, Faurot visited parking lots, gas stations, garages and back yards from New York to San Francisco and into Winston-Salem, North Carolina, to Detroit.

"I have been gathering evidence for a long time," Faurot stated on his return to New York. "I guess I have worked on every kind of case that comes into a big police department's jurisdiction. But never have I seen a clearer case than that in favor of the 'G-3.' My notes contain cold facts I gathered in Whitesville, W. Va., Kansas City, Mo., Royal Oak, Mich., Albuquerque, N. M.—and hundreds of other places. I say they are cold facts. That's the truth. Every leaf out of my notebook shows satisfaction in the ownership of G-3's."

It has been estimated that there are still approximately 6,000,000 slaves in the world.

There is a large amount of room available in the Texas Confederate veterans home at present, according to a letter received by County Judge A. E. Nabors from the superintendent of the home.

perintendent of the home, E. L. Hardin. Hardin asked Judge Nabors to inquire and find whether any Confederate veterans in this county would like to be admitted to the home.

The letter in part: "Since the old veterans here are passing away so rapidly and we have a lot of extra room, we feel that you are in position to know the condition of those in your county who are unable to care for themselves and are dependent upon relatives or friends, and thought perhaps you could be instrumental in bringing them to this home where they will be given all the comforts of life in their declining days, to which they are so justly entitled."

Judge Nabors said that if any veterans in the county want detailed information regarding entrance to the home, living conditions and wished to enter the home he will be glad to supply all the necessary data and do all he can to assist them.
