CLARENDON MAY ENDEAVOR TO SECURE WEST TEXAS A. & M. LOCATION IS UNSURPASSED

CITY'S ENTRY OF THIS CONTEST FOR LOCATION TO BE DISCUSSED AS SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS AT LUNCHEON NEXT TUESDAY—IT IS BELIEVED FINE OFFER CAN BE MADE—NEW SCHOOL WOULD ADD TO CITY'S POPULATION.

If ideal local conditions and unsurpassed natural resources are the principal items of consideration in the location of the new West Texas A. & M. College, then Clarendon's chances of winning out in the contest for that institution, are unequalled anywhere in West Texas. True, we may not be able to offer quite so much in the way of ready money and other "tips" as some of the other contestants, but nobody knows what a legislative locating committee will do any more than a jury will do, therefore the chances of bringing the new state school to Clarendon are very bright.

At the luncheon Tuesday this proposal met with ready response from the business and professional men who were in attendance and it was thought wise to put in some special time and thought on the matter, so it was voted to make the discussion of the proposition a special order of business at the Tuesday luncheon next week. A special effort will be made to bring out a heavy attendance of the business interests of the city, and it goes without saying that a very attractive bid will be made the committee for the location of the new school in the already "Athens of the Panhandle."

There are multitudinous reasons why Clarendon should be selected over competitors over the Panhandle. One of the main reasons is that our soil is of such quality here and our seasons are so uniform that the experimental work of the college could be carried on much more successfully than in other locations. Clarendon is a known town of splendid moral tone and as such would appeal to prospective patrons. The fact that Clarendon College is already established here and is just now on the eye of much greater growth is worth while as an argument for the new school, in that the true college culture is already here and will not have to be created. The Clarendon Public Schools are recognized as among the first rank of the entire state and as such will prove a splendid feeder for the new institution. Another thing is that the location is such that it will be easily accessible to all sections of the Panhandle. It is not an extreme location in any sense of the word. The water here is the best and the purest in the entire section, which in itself is a great drawing card for any school. This soil raises all kinds of fruits as well as farm products, which is much more than can be said for the other competitors for the college.

It is expected that a committee or committees will be selected for the purpose of formulating the offer to be made to the committee representing the state legislature. Some certain tract of land ranging from three hundred to five hundred acres will receive the attention of the local committee, the selection being based upon the proximity to the city and general topography. The city will also be called on to make some offer relating to the water supply together with certain other phases entering into the conveniences of the proposed school.

It is estimated that the school will open with an attendance of from 800 to 1000 pupils, with a resident faculty of forty or fifty and with physical assets of from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000. What this would be worth to Clarendon cannot be calculated in dollars and cents but it would mean an addition to the population of at least two thousand within the first three years.

Five years after the opening of the West Texas A. & M. there is little question that the total enrollment will run in excess of two thousand which will require a faculty and retinue of near one hundred.

Beginning next week Clarendon will be in the race for the West Texas A. & M. and The News is undismayed in saying that every other contestant will feel the weight of the campaign which will be waged openly and above board by this city. The new school is worth any city's efforts and Clarendon will hit the line hard and often until the gong rings down the curtain on the contest.

ELOOD POISON CLAIMS W. R. SLAUGHTER TODAY

The death of W. R. Slaughter occurred early this morning at the local hospital, death being due to blood poisoning, the infection being caused from a bad tooth. Mr. Slaughter was a resident of the south end of the county living near the Left farm. He leaves a wife and several children.

MEMPHIS MAN VISITS TUESDAY LUNCHEON

THIS WEEK'S LUNCHEON WILL ATTENDED—SUBJECT FOR DISCUSSION "NAMING AND NUMBERING CLARENDON'S STREETS AND HOUSES."

"Is Clarendon big enough to lay aside country ways?" was one of the questions asked in Tuesday's discussion of the main subject, "Naming and Numbering Clarendon Streets and Houses."

By mutual consent it was decided to give the matter publicity, talk of it at seasonable occasions, and do all possible to create sentiment until this forward step became a reality. Toastmaster W. H. Foster facetiously inquired "Where's You Gwine, and How's You Gwine to Git That?" Geo. Ryan made a short talk upon the advantages of having the city streets named and the houses numbered and spoke of what had been suggested many years ago by the Civic League in that direction. Secretary Roy B. Moffett was billed to talk on the probable cost of the project and showed according to his calculations the total cost exclusively of the labor of putting up the markers which might be undertaken by the citizenship, would be around $300. Another argument offered by one of the members was that if our city ever asked the government for free mail delivery the marking and numbering must be done as a condition anyway.

After the very excellent "feed," reports of several committees were heard. John T. Sims made a report on the work done on the Brice road and suggested that since so much good work had been done in that section that for the first time in thirty years Clarendon now had an opportunity to secure a good road to Silberton. On motion it was decided that the local committee take the matter up with the Hall and Briscoe county commissioners and endeavor to get a line up for a permanent road through the breaks and over the river.

The nominating committee composed of Homer Mulkey, Sam J. White, Bob Strickland, Dr. Wilder and Sam M. Braswell, appointed to nominate eight candidates for four annual vacancies on the Chamber of Commerce board of directors submitted the following names: Tom F. Connally, Odos Caraway and Harry H. Simer, for re-election, R. A. Long, E. T. Pope, Sam J. White, R. E. Strickland and Jim Adams. In the near future every member of the organization will have the ballot sent him with instructions to vote for four. Under the head of new business it was suggested by Sam M. Braswell that Clarendon enter the contest for the West Texas A. & M. College to be located by the state somewhere in West Texas. On motion this matter will be the special order of business for the luncheon next Tuesday. This proposition is discussed in another column.

Mr. D. H. Arnold one of the old-time citizens of Memphis was present as a guest of one of the members and made a very fraternal talk on the relations which should exist between Clarendon and Memphis. He recalled the early days, recounted the progress of the past twenty years and predicted that much greater progress would yet be ours if we only did our duty. He said that each town could strive for its own interest without real injury to the other and expressed himself as very happy to have been present.

Clarendon's Tuesday luncheon is known far and wide.

CAR SMASHUP ON WEST SECOND—NO FATALITIES

An Essex car belonging to Bill Patman was seen sticking out of an excavation on west second street this (Thursday) morning. The excavation was made for bridge repairs at the only culvert place on that street, which is also the Ozark trail. The car went into the hole shortly after the concert last night, and was being driven by Cap Wetherly accompanied by Will Wiedman and Misses Ruby and Fay Bennett. Miss Fay suffered severe cuts to her face and minor injuries otherwise. Bill was considerably bruised, otherwise the party is none the worse for the accident. Considerable damage was done to the car.

PASTOR CHRISTIAN CHURCH WILL LECTURE AT QUANAH

Rev. Sam J. White, pastor of the local Christian church, will deliver his famous lecture, "Gourds and Brains," at Quanah tonight under the auspices of the Christian Ladies aid of that city. A packed house enjoyed this lecture immensely here a short time ago and there is no question but what the Quanah public will feel the same way about the lecture and the wonderful personality of this gifted man after they hear this lecture.

The End of a Perfect Day

EASTER MUSIC AT CHURCHES PLEASES ALL

NEARLY ALL CHURCHES HOLD SPECIAL SERVICES EASTER IN SPITE OF BAD WEATHER—GOOD ATTENDANCE REPORTED.

Easter was celebrated Sunday in one form or another at all the Clarendon churches despite the fact that a raw north wind punished the attendants to and fro during the day and turned into a light snow about dark.

At the Baptist no special music was prepared but the themes of the services during the day were in keeping with the occasion and Rev. Joe Smith preached two splendid sermons.

The Christian Church had for the Sunday school hour a special program which was deeply impressive of the day. At the preaching hour an Easter anthem was rendered by the choir fitting in happily with Rev. Sam J. White's sermon. At the evening hour a violin solo was featured, Miss Reed of the College presenting one of her pupils for the occasion.

At the Episcopal Church, Bishop E. A. Temple of this diocese preached for the congregation and held baptismal and confirmation services.

Easter was celebrated in a marked manner at the Methodist Church. Under the direction of Dean H. C. Taylor of the music department of Clarendon College, an Easter cantata "The Living Christ" was presented to the duration of some twenty minutes. Music lovers are frank in their declarations that no Easter program of recent years has approached the choral work of the choir in this cantata. Solos by Miss Betts, Mrs. Shultz and Roy Beights were part of the work. The contralto solo of Miss Betts was especially enjoyed and the bass was the outstanding feature of the chorus. Rev. Ferguson preached a most enjoyable and meaty sermon in line with the spirit of the day, as he also did at the evening hour.

At the Presbyterian Church the service was commemorative of the Resurrection and Mr. Foster sang a beautiful and touching solo before his sermon on the Risen Lord. The Church of Christ began its revival Sunday, Elder Mitholland doing his own preaching and with the song service under the direction of Prof. Burt. The services are now in progress.

MEMPHIS COMMANDERY INVITES BRETHREN APRIL 7TH

ORGANIZATION OF FARM BUREAU FEDERATION

FARMERS FAVOR THE IDEA PROPOSED BY THE FARM BUREAU FEDERATION. ORGANIZATION EFFECTED IN HALL COUNTY THIS WEEK.

The organization of a farm bureau in this county has the endorsement of county agent Roy W. Hendrix after making a careful examination of the work being done in other sections.

This organization is similar to fruit exchanges of Florida and California, the vegetable exchanges of the eastern states and the dairy exchanges of the western states, except that it takes in a wider scope by including practically everything raised on a farm. This system of co-operation is now in active operation in thirty-eight states and thirty-five counties of Texas alone. The three cardinal principles of the farm bureau appears to be co-operative marketing, legislation and education. The system of marketing will be along the same methods now being used by the California fruit growers. Legislation will be carefully looked after since they claim that both capital and labor is taking a hand in the enactment of laws beneficial to their class while the farmer has been neglected of this important factor to his great detriment. The public will be educated to the better results to be obtained by this organization as to the greater benefits afforded both producer and consumer. Among the more striking statements appearing in the literature sent out from headquarters we find that over three hundred million bales of cotton were sold the past year on the stock exchanges when only a little more than twelve million were produced, resulting in great damage to the farmer by lowering the price. It is proposed to put a stop to gamblers regulating the price of our commodity at least. It is further stated that the voices of three million labor union men and one million representing capital are heard in the legislative halls, fifty million farmers take no active interest in their own behalf at all.

Until the organization of the Farm Bureau Federation, there was no national voice for agriculture in the United States. Farmers had means of interpreting proposed legislation. They had no way of knowing world conditions affecting farm production and distribution. Regarding the tariff, the leaders claim that if the farmer is to pay a tariff duty on what he has to buy, he demands a suitable tariff on what he has to sell. Organizers are working Hall county this week and will no doubt be in this section next week. Speakers will explain the methods and systems and answer the questions propounded at the court house at 2 p. m. Saturday next.

MILL MEN FEEDING OUT BOTH HOGS AND STEERS

The local millers and feed men, Bennett & Sims, have a herd of over two hundred hogs and two hundred and eighty-seven three year old steers in their fattening pens in the northwest part of town. The hogs are being used as a "followup" crop running in the same pens with the steers and will be shipped as soon as fat, as others are being continually added from day to day. The steers will not be shipped before the first of May.

NATURAL GAS TO BE URGED FOR CLARENDON

LOCAL COMMITTEE BUSY IN ARRANGING CLAIMS OF CITY FOR NATURAL GAS. MEMPHIS AND CHILDRESS ASKED TO ASSIST

If plans now on foot can be consummated delegations from Clarendon, Memphis and Childress will go to Amarillo in the next few weeks armed with full data to present the claims of these and intermediate towns for a pipe line to convey natural gas for domestic and commercial use from Amarillo gas field as far east as Childress.

Recently contracts have been made by the gas people to furnish gas to Hereford and Canyon and it is thought that a much more attractive proposition to the company can be outlined in a line to Childress, furnishing the towns of Claude, Goodnight, Clarendon, Lelia Lake, Hedley, Giles, Memphis, Newlin, Estelline and Childress. The business which can be guaranteed at Clarendon, Memphis and Childress will make a very juicy dividend on the investment, and with the smaller towns along the line thrown in there should be no reason why very much difficulty should be encountered in securing the pipe line.

Another item which will feature in the proposed line is that the first company owning a right-of-way for pipe line down the Denver will have a great advantage should other development be made anywhere on the route. If gas in merchantable quantities be found then the company owning the pipe line would be the natural and most economical carrier of the field's product.

The local committee appointed by Pres. Story of the Chamber of Commerce is composed of Geo. A. Ryan, Homer Mulkey, Sam M. Braswell, F. H. Bourland and R. A. Long. Through the Chamber of Commerce's office letters have been sent to the larger towns interested and the trip to Amarillo to confer with the gas company will probably be made in early April. Besides the commercial use of the gas would be used for here in Clarendon, it is estimated that about six hundred domestic customers could be secured in the city.

There is every reason to hope that before many months Clarendon will have all the advantages of the larger cities in so far as gas service goes.

PANHANDLE SECTION LEADS STATE IN CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM THIS YEAR

THE EXCELLENT TYPE OF KIND-HEARTED, NEIGHBORLY GENTLEFOLK THAT CONSTITUTE THE CITIZENSHIP OF THE PANHANDLE BIDS YOU WELCOME TO ASSIST IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THIS GREAT EMPIRE.

Floyd County.

The Floydada school district recently voted on a $90,000 bond issue. The progressives won by a majority of 277 to 98. Floyd county is looking well to her schools and has some nice buildings already with more to follow before the beginning of the next term.

Floyd county farmers are interested in farm by-products as well as many other things that make a country prosperous. One firm of Lockney shipped 29,110 pounds of cream to an Amarillo creamery in less than eight months. The farmers were paid $4,445.34 for this cream. Poultry shipments are commoner all bringing home the bacon every week. Statistics collected by the government shows that the Lockney district ships more poultry and poultry products than any other section of the southwest. A number of farmers pay all their expenses by way of the poultry route and the industry is just in its infancy according to a leading produce dealer of Lockney. Cotton will take a back seat in Floyd county this season. That extra space was planted to small grain, all of which is most promising with a good season in the ground.

Lynn County. Lynn county, situated on the south plains, is doing some road building. Tahoka is doing some street work at the same time. Owing to the character of the country, road building is not expensive in Lynn and that one fact also accounts for the good roads to be found there as compared to some other West-Texas counties.

In order to keep abreast of the road construction work in her portion of the state, the county commissioners in session last week placed orders for a ten-ton Holt Caterpillar tractor and a twelve foot Russell-Mogul grader, a road planer and a dozen drags.

While the road building campaign is going on, the schools of the county are not being neglected by any means. The county school meet was held Friday and Saturday of last week and was participated in by all the schools of the county. The educational work is being looked after by teachers of unqualified success and years of experience.

The biggest thing for Lynn county this season is the poultry and stock show to be pulled off on the 9th of next month. The show will be held at Tahoka and all the folks will be on hand April 9th to do it justice. Over 2000 in prizes will be offered successful contestants. A baby contest will also be held on the same day.

Dallam County. Like other progressive counties in the Panhandle not having good roads, Dallam is doing some road construction work too.

Farmers of Dallam believe in shipping cream and over two hundred gallons of that commodity is handled by one firm alone in Dalhart each month. The small grain acreage has been increased this season and the prospect right now is fine. Chicago parties visited the county of late and with a view of colonizing one hundred Polish families in that section. A deal for acreage in the Andy James ranch is now pending.

Farmers of that section are awakening to the importance of the poultry industry. A recent issue of the Texan is authority for the statement that R. E. Dunn, a farmer residing two miles east of town, provides for all of his family expenses with a few cows and a bunch of chickens. The county will have a fair this fall to which the entire nation is invited. Dallam county folks are progressive and are willing to share the many good things of their county with any who care to come and be one of them.

Deaf Smith County.

Hereford, the metropolis of Deaf Smith county, is naturally the hub. Among the many constructive things on her program, county road work is in the lead. They will also vote school bonds in the spring for another large building to take care of the ever increasing scholastic population. An 18 room hospital was recently purchased by popular subscription. A comfortable tourist camp is in process of construction. Thirty musicians now in training as a supplement to the orchestra. The well eighteen miles north owing to the number making the trip.

CARSON COUNTY CONTINUES IN LIME LIGHT AS OIL FIELD

That Gulf No. 2 well is a paying proposition is generally conceded by oil men in authority to know. Hundreds have made a careful inspection of the well the past week and all reports are most optimistic indeed. Some delay in continuing with drilling operations has been occasioned by having below the casing. This is being slushed out and the casing put down to the bottom of the hole which was about 2970 feet. The oil was standing 160 feet deep in the hole Tuesday of this week and was found in several feet of oil sand on top of gray lime similar to that in which pay wells were found in the Breckenridge district. Leases are soaring anywhere near the well, some selling as high as fifty dollars an acre three miles from the well. Transportation to obtain from the well is being made by an eighteen mile north owing to the number making the trip.

There should be no regrets after the city election Tuesday, provided no one says something in the heat of passion that isn't true or is calculated to hurt some fellowman. When it gets to that state the game isn't worth the candle.

When money isn't plentiful is the time of all times for the spending of money for public utilities, more especially good roads. If Donley County was now spending a half million dollars for hard surfaced roads, giving all the work to county people, 1921 would be a flush year. Think this over.

Considering the present status of the school affairs in Clarendon The News believes that the retiring members of the board should be re-elected. They have all wrought well, they understand the situation and would be hard to replace with profit at this time. It is a job no busy man can well afford to take and no one wants it, but for the public good some must sacrifice their time and efforts.

The movement started to secure natural gas from the Amarillo field for Clarendon, Memphis and Childress is another evidence of the recognition of community interests of the Big Three towns along the Denver. Clarendon already has paving, Childress is paving and Memphis has voted paving. All three towns are now pretty well lined up for electric service. All three towns have water problems of greater or less degree. All three towns need the natural gas for commercial and domestic use, which means cheaper fuel and less dependence on the vagaries of the coal miners and the railroads. It is a hopeful day when three such communities as the three named above join together for the common good. There is little doubt but that the joint representation will receive the most careful consideration at the hands of the gas company and that not many months will elapse before the added conveniences of gas will be ours.

Clarendon with her 772 scholastics and only two buildings in which to care for their school needs, is now facing a real crisis. Already the children are being forced to attend school in relays in order to accommodate the full number and it requires no great amount of foresight to recognize the fact that this sort of condition is unfair to pupils and teachers and therefore is a great detriment to the school. The mass meeting last week gave many an insight into the true state of the schools affairs and those who had kicked hardest were found to be those who knew least about the matter. Our trustees are doing their very best in the matter, but that is not enough unless the people are willing to give them greater latitude in the matter of finances in providing building equipment and teachers. The bonded indebtedness of the district is only $20,000, which is really no burden on such an able district as ours is. The need of the hour is another bond issue of from $50,000 to $75,000, which would repair the grammar school building properly and provide funds for the erection of another adequate building for the crowded grades. We shouldn't kid ourselves about our great school while at the same time we are refusing to do the things that are obviously needed to make the school really effective. Supt. Nelson is doing the best possible with his faculty, in the best possible style with present facilities and is being recognized over the state as a real school man. The only way to bring our school to the highest development is by supporting it in every known way. We need a tax rate of one dollar on the hundred dollars' valuation. Not that we will need to use the full rate or that the present valuation should be kept up, but that our bonds will have the backing to make them sell readily and at a premium when they are offered. Give the school a square deal.

WHY KEEP ADVERTISING
Advertising is more than a business tonic; it is a business necessity. That is why it is needed all the time. Of all advertising, that which carries with it the greatest waste is what is known as the once in awhile kind. Successful advertisers are the kind that keep it up persistently. They are judged successful because of the resulting success of their business.

Up until four years ago there was a certain soap that was known around the world. It had been the most persistently advertised article offered in the markets of the world during the previous hundred years. From the day this soap was first put on the market in 1812 it was advertised in a small way, but persistently and continuously. For the last 50 years it has been one of the best-advertised products in the world. Then the directors decided that because the factory was selling to capacity, advertising could be discontinued as a useless expense. In less than one year from that time the business of the firm dropped 35 per cent on volume. That soap is again being advertised and we understand it was necessary to spend $5,000,000 in extra publicity, over previous appropriations to get back to normal. This firm was not a "flier" in advertising. Its product had been used for generations and was known in the homes of the world, but it cost its makers $5,000,000 to learn that advertising was as necessary to it as the raw products that enter into its making. The history of merchandising is filled with stories like this, but only a few have found it possible to win back foolishly thrown away.—Editor and Publisher.

At an elimination declamation contest at the High school building Monday afternoon, Fannie Florence Sims won over twelve other girls entitled her to representation in the county meet next Saturday. Orgy Behrens won in a similar contest over five boys. These two champions will represent the seniors in a contest of entrants from all over the county.

PALO DURO NATIONAL PARK MOVEMENT IN PUBLIC EYE

The movement on the part of a few leading citizens of the Panhandle to get a national park established in this section, is again gaining quite a bit of public notice. The proposed park area includes several thousand acres of the scenic Palo Duro canyon located in Randall, Armstrong and Potter counties. This acreage lies mainly in the J A pasture. This movement should meet with the approval of all the Panhandle that this natural scenic phenomena be preserved for the pleasure and profit of future generations. It is planned to ask the government to establish this park on the same basis as Yellowstone, stocking it with game and fish. Having been the natural abode of bear, deer, antelope, buffalo, and no doubt elk in the long ago, these animals would prove their thrift without any special governmental assistance except to see that they were not destroyed by man.

Of the smaller game species, prairie chicken, both kinds of quail and wild turkey would soon become plentiful. The canyon at the above place is most beautiful and rugged. The banks rise to a height of twelve hundred feet with a beautiful green valley below and a meandering stream fed by springs thus assuring living water the year round. Not only would this location appeal to the visitor as a beauty spot, but from a historical standpoint, no portion of the Panhandle has afforded the pages of history more data because of its having been up to the very last, the stronghold of the Red man. Many were the battles when the survival of the fittest was the only law. What would be more interesting than to read from a history of this local section the brave, heroic deeds of the early pioneer safely kept in the handsome inn at the entrance of "Goodnight Park," dedicated to the memory of that sturdy pioneer, Chas. Goodnight?

"Johnnie bought a little pig with money he had earned. He named her Nell and fed her well and lots of tricks she learned. But Nellie grew to be a sow, and piggy quite a few. Then father up and sold them, and kept the money, too. "Johnnie took a little calf as pay for hocking corn. He loved that calf and the calf loved him as sure as you are born. But calfie grew to be a cow, and all good calves do. Then father up and sold her, and kept the money, too. "Now Johnnie loved his little pets but father loved the pelf. So Johnnie left his father's farm and struck out for himself. Said Johnnie: pa, one summer day "I often wonder why Boys don't like life upon the farm 'The City's in their cry. "It always will be strange to me," continued Johnnie's pa, "It only goes to prove, though how ungrateful children are." When Johnnie heard what father said, he gave a bitter laugh. And thought of his empty child hood and of his pig and calf. "We must not overlook the fact that the jingle of the coin, either in possession of or in prospect, furnishes the inspirational music that makes the boy or girl march forward with more alacrity, energy, enthusiasm, and patriotism than all the band music that can be supplied, and that production with a profitable market is more likely to act as a discouragement than as an encouragement. Neither the school nor the other agencies can afford to overlook this fundamental human trait." —From "Thrift," N. E. A.

PRaises CLARENDON'S STREETS

The Herald family drove to Clarendon and back Sunday afternoon. While there we paid a visit to the Clarendon Greenhouses. They have built up a very nice floral business there. The premises are about a mile northeast of the town and they have expanded quite a bit in the past few years. They have a nice business and one that is continually growing. They say that quite a number of Memphis people are now coming their way for plants and flowers. The Clarendon paved streets look fine and are of a splendid quality. It is great benefit to the business section.—Hall Co. Herald.

A car of poultry was shipped out of Clarendon Saturday for eastern markets.

IMPORTANT ITEMS OMITTED FROM WRITEUP LAST WEEK

In our last issue a lot of space was given over to a writeup of the style show. It was our honest intention to do the subject justice in every honorable standpoint. Somehow—we know not why—the firm of Hayer Brothers was not mentioned. The copy became misplaced and we take pleasure in setting that error so far as possible in this article. The firm offered a display of young men's attire in a Hart-Schaffner & Marx and accessories displayed on Herman Bennett.

LITTLE LIFE LINES
"Be quick and take it back again. The article you borrow. And don't postpone that duty plain. To some remote tomorrow. I fear it sounds a little stern. And yet I have the feeling, That borrowing without return, Is most the same as stealing. Our neighbors' goods our needs supply Without a word of fretting, 'Tis wrong to pass such kindness by. And pay it by forgetting. Then take it back what'er you owe, Till all the neighbors are sunny. For friendly hearts, of course you know, Are worth far more than money." —EX.

NOTES FROM THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

Our revival meeting starts off nicely. The crowds are not "great" nor the sermons "stirring." No one has been run over or trodden down in the "great press of the multitude." The "common people hear us gladly." Some of the preachers even. We thank you. Come again. If we do not preach to suit you we will let you do it. That is fair isn't it? If I sought to please men I would not be the servant of Christ—said the great Apostle Paul. Our desire is to do good. I know human nature—partly at least. Every man's way is clean in his own eyes, but God weigheth the spirits, Prov. 16:2. If your religion is so "fragile and frail that you can't bring it out, you had better put it under a glass case, in some secluded spot about your home, and keep it as a kind of relic of antiquity.

Perfect love casts out fear. If you love not your brother whom you have seen, how can you love God whom you have not seen? How are you going to answer brother? Numbers are no evidence of being right scripture or spiritually. Gideon had too many men. The faint hearts stayed at home (like they do now) the few that took the water (as God directed) won the victory. The wealth of a church is not a measure for God likeness, or the Catholic would be the only standard. But to this man will I look even to him that is poor and of contrite spirit and trembleth at my word, Isa. 66:2. The meeting will continue as announced till Sunday night anyway. Come neighbor and feel at home.

Prof. Burt is a splendid and easy singer. You will enjoy the good old songs he sings. Come. THOS. E. MILHOLLAND, Minister Church of Christ.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Donley County—Greeting:
You are Hereby Commanded to summon W. H. RUSSIAN ARCHBISHOP PERFORMS HEROIC ACT

Archbishop Wehiamin, head of the Orthodox Church in Russia, was recently found without food and almost without clothing by American Red Cross workers in that country, according to a report received at Southwestern Division Headquarters in St. Louis. The incident uncovers a story of exceptional heroism and devotion. Archbishop Wehiamin had given away his food supply and clothes to refugees and was suffering keenly when found. He was given a complete new outfit by the Red Cross. Donley County Chapter Publicity.

MEMPHIS PEOPLE WILL OPEN HOMES TO ORPHANS

A large party of orphan children from an orphanage in New York City will be brought to Memphis next week under the direction of the Children's Aid Society. Homes have already been found for most of them and others will be adopted if the local parties are suited upon arrival of the little fellows. A good work that should be emulated in our own little city to the advantage and pleasure of all parties concerned.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH "This May Be Your Church"

"Dinna Gang."
(Spoke sarcastic.)
Dinna gang to kirk
When it rains—
Ye nicht catch
Rheumatic pains.
Bide t' hame,
When it's cauld,
Lest ye dee—
When ye're auld.
The kirk's nae place,
When it's hot.
The folks nicht think
Ye cared a lot.
When it's fine,
Leave the Lord,
Gang a-riddin',
In yer Ford.
Ye like kirk fine,
Believe in God.
But canna gae;
The weather odd.
Ye're no to blame;
It's in ither hands.
But—be sure the Lord,
Understands.

The friends of this church and any who are interested in the preaching of the old time Gospel in simplicity and earnestness and consecration are invited to attend the services now being conducted each night in its building at Second and Kearney streets.

The preacher visiting in our town and preaching to us is a young man of vigor and at the same time, of deep consecration. You will appreciate his messages to you and will gain in the hearing of them.

You are urged to attend these services—nothing preached but the simple gospel story.

The service will be conducted as usual on the Sabbath coming.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. W. M. Montgomery, superintendent.

Morning service at eleven. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Mr. Hall will preach at both hours, and each night during the following week at seven o'clock.

Come and bring someone with you.

CHAMBERLAIN NEWS

A nice rain fell over our community Sunday night, which was needed mostly for the grass. It was preceded by a rather cool norther considering the winter weather that we were having. We are again having pretty weather it being fair and a cool gentle breeze from the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford from Clarendon spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hunt. Willie Niemtack and wife are the proud parents of a baby girl, being born Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Neely and part of family spent Sunday in the Goldston community with his sister and family, Mrs. Gammons.

Mrs. Gordon Rackly (Dingler) came in Saturday night from Porterville, Texas to be with her mother who is still sick. She is going to stay until she gets to improving. She was transferred from home to the Adair Hospital at Clarendon where she could receive better treatments from the doctor and we hope she will go to improving real soon.

Mrs. Earl Smith's sister, Mrs. Bobo left on the seven fifteen train Sunday evening returning home. She reports a nice visit while here with her.

Miss Eunice Reid spent Friday night with Miss Mamie Dingler.

Miss Ida Mc Smith spent Tuesday night with Miss Mamie Dingler.

Mrs. J. N. Neely spent Tuesday with Mrs. Gordon Rockley.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness, others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but its benefit to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

BAPTISTS REPORT WHERE MONEY GOES

GENERAL DIRECTOR 75-MILLION CAMPAIGN TELLS PURPOSES TO WHICH MILLIONS GIVEN.

EVERY CAUSE IS BENEFITED

State, Home and Foreign Missions, Christian Education, Hospitals, Orphanages, Ministerial Relief Share in Receipts.

DR. L. R. SCARBOROUGH, Chairman Conservation Commission Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

Dr. L. R. Scarborough, who was general director of the Baptist 75-Million Campaign, and who was later elected chairman of the Conservation Commission that is seeking to conserve all the interests of that campaign, has issued a report from the Nashville headquarters showing the various interests that have profited from the $16,551,098.68 collected on campaign pledges up to Dec. 1, 1929.

With its receipts of $2,958,808.97, the Foreign Mission Board has added to its territory five new provinces in China and made the beginning for opening up work in the new fields of Spain, Hungary, Roumania, Jugoslavia, and the Ukraine in Russia; strength in its work in Syria and Palestine, made a beginning in East Africa, added 100 new workers to its force of American missionaries in foreign lands, provided new houses of worship, hospitals, schools, publishing plants and other institutions needed in the prosecution of missionary work. What is of even more importance, in the estimation of Secretary Love, is the completion of many institutions and undertakings that had been held up for lack of funds.

Home Missions Doubles Budget

By reason of the larger receipts from the campaign, the Home Mission Board has been enabled to practically double its annual budget for its work of evangelism, church building, work among the foreigners, Indians and negroes, mountain mission schools, enlistment, and general mission work in Cuba and Panama. The appropriations to evangelism have been practically doubled, those to church building increased between 500 and 600 per cent, those to the mountain schools, forty in number, 100 per cent, and those to the work of evangelizing undeveloped churches, 200 per cent.

In the realm of state missions, which embodies such work as providing missionaries and other special workers for needy fields within the states and aiding weak congregations in the building of houses of worship, the advances made possible by the campaign ranges from 25 to 100 per cent in the eighteen states of the convention territory.

Returns to the Conservation Commission by forty-five of the Baptist institutions of learning which are sharing in the returns from the campaign, show that they have received $2,712,756 so far. Of this sum, $1,540,000 has been expended on improvements, $460,000 has gone to endowment, several hundred thousand dollars in old debts have been wiped out and other improvements are under way.

Ten New Hospitals Provided

Southern Baptists were operating fourteen hospitals when the campaign began, and as a result of the new interest in this work aroused by the campaign ten additional hospitals have been launched. These hospitals have received $1,111,439.45 from the campaign so far, while local communities in which the hospitals are located have subscribed approximately $2,000,000 additional. The hospitals have practically $1,600,000 in improvements under way. The seven Baptist orphanages have likewise come in for much larger support as a result of the campaign. Their receipts from this source being $1,018,798.67. As a result of this income the orphanages have been enabled to make improvements valued at $325,000.

The work of aiding aged preachers is a new one among Southern Baptists as a whole, but as a result of the campaign the Relief and Annuity fund has received $108,148.82 from the campaign and $300,000 from Mr. Love, Sr.

THE EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN

I think that the community has a right to the facts concerning the present conditions of the college and the plans for the campaign that is now being carried on by the Methodist Church throughout the south. The approved askings for Clarendon College to be raised during this campaign is $200,000. Any contribution that may be secured for Clarendon College from those who are not members of the Methodist Church can be directed so as not to be counted on this $200,000.

All monies raised in Clarendon and directed to Clarendon College beyond the regular quota of the church may not be counted in the $200,000. To illustrate, say the quota of this church is $10,000 and $50,000 is raised, only $10,000 of this will be charged to the quota of the college. It is now our plan to raise our quota and enough to liquidate all indebtedness against the College in Clarendon. This will amount to something like $30,000, as we have in round numbers $40,000 in debt unprovided for. I will say that this is the largest obligation that the school has ever had at one time. This was done because of the pressing need for the improvements made and because we were anticipating this campaign. This drive is to be made from the 29th of May to the 5th of June inclusive. The plan of payment is five years but I sincerely hope that we can secure sufficient amount of ready funds to relieve all pressing obligations by early fall. I have secured an office down town which will be opened about the first of May and I hope that every citizen of Clarendon will come to our assistance in wiping out all of our obligations so that the school will not be hampered for the future. This is the first time since I have been here that we have the promise of large and united assistance outside of Clarendon and it behooves us to do our best while we can get some help. The Alumni are planning to put up a gymnasium, the leaders of one of the strongest churches in the Panhandle are seriously considering the endowment of a chair and a number of strong churches in the Panhandle will be called upon to do something special for the school. It is going to be necessary for me to call on some of the strong arm of the community to not only assist in Clarendon but to go outside of Clarendon and help in this work.

I am glad to be able to state that we are having one of the best years in the history of the school and that no school in this country has a more promising future than this one, if sufficient funds can be had to make a forward movement. We hope during the next five years to double its capacity and secure $200,000 for productive endowment. If we can do this, we can double the attendance of out of town pupils, add various courses, and raise it to a degree giving institution. From every viewpoint, there is no citizen of Clarendon who cannot afford to lend this movement his hearty support. I am sure there is no one in the community who understands the general conditions better than I and it would be foolish to say that they were not unusual and trying but certainly it will not remain this way for five years. There are a number of conditions that make it altogether impractical to consider deferring the campaign.

Respectfully yours,
G. S. SLOVER.

PRODUCTION AGAIN HOLDS CHAPTERS' ATTENTION

Reminiscent of the days of the war when the call sounded for surgical dressings are work-room scenes in American Red Cross Chapters today where layettes and refugee garments are being turned out for the underclothed children of Europe's destitute nations.

When the plight of these sufferers became desperate with the coming of the bitter winter months, a call for garments of all kinds was sent to Chapters and during the month of December, 746 Chapters had resumed production and others had indicated their intentions to begin at once. One hundred and sixty-nine of these Chapters engaged actively in production are in the Southwestern Division and during the month of February will produce approximately 7,000 garments.

In addition to this work which is being carried on particularly to clothe the suffering children of Europe, a number of Chapters are doing special pieces of production. The Harris County Chapter at Houston, Texas, reports that its quota of emergency dressing packets are now ready to be dipped in paraffine oil to render them waterproof. The Chairman of Auxiliary

Service at Joplin, Missouri, has reported that there, too, Red Cross workers are busy making emergency dressing packets in accordance with Red Cross specifications.

When the Field Director at Fort Bliss reported that the hospital authorities there were in need of T bandages a call was issued to a number of Texas Chapters. Chapters with headquarters at Beaumont, Terrell, Tulia, Quanah and Hempstead responded so quickly that the Field Director and hospital authorities both were delighted that their shortage was so promptly relieved.

RICKETS DID THIS.

Before this five-year-old Vienna girl was operated upon in the American Convalescent Home her leg was even more horribly deformed from rickets and she was in constant instead of intermittent pain. Now at least her leg is straight again, and by degrees she is returning to walk. Rickets is the aftermath of under-nutrition, and it is to cut down the harrowing prevalence of such disease as this among the children of Europe that eight American relief organizations are making a joint appeal under the name of the European Relief Council for funds to succor the millions that face a winter of horror. They are the American Relief Administration, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

Worth Saving.

The features of this girl portray the finest type of Polish childhood that now lies engulfed in hunger and disease and all their attendant miseries. Relief already administered by America has preserved her beauty and freshness, albeit her eyes betray the suffering she has seen, but literally millions in her own and adjacent countries still have no one to look to but America as another winter of horror closes in upon them. To the end that their prayer may not go unanswered eight leading American relief organizations have banded together in a joint appeal in behalf of Europe's suffering children. They are the American Relief Administration, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. V. C. Kersey, merchant of Hedley, passed through here Tuesday on his way to transact business at his old home at Claude.

John Beverly has been elevated to the position of night watchman in order to keep him off the streets during the day.

Ed McAdams and Dick Shaffer inspected the Gulf well north of Panhandle Sunday reporting that it looked like the real thing.

Mrs. Mat Bennett and son Herman and daughters, Ruby and Jewel, were in Goodnight Monday to attend the funeral of Miss Roach.

Mrs. J. H. Evans returned from Vernon Wednesday where she had visited her daughter, Mrs. Lena Earls, who is ill with typhoid fever.

Jack, the two and a half year old son of J. J. Justis of Goodnight died of a complication of diseases Friday night and was buried Saturday.

Jack Hutson and family of Goodnight were in town a short while Tuesday after which they went to Alameda to visit relatives and friends.

W. P. Blabe visited with his old friend, H. W. Kelley at Vernon over Sunday. Mr. Kelley was formerly in the planing mill business here.

Hon. A. T. Cole, who has been confined to his home from illness for the past several weeks, is again able to greet his many friends on the street.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood of Alameda came over Tuesday to take passage over the Denver for Mineral Wells to visit a relative who is ill at that point.

Miss Aileen Evans was a passenger on the Denver today on her way to Vernon to be with her sister Mrs. Lena Earls, who is seriously ill from fever.

C. C. Cope returned the first of the week from Waco where he represented the local lodge of Odd Fellows at the grand lodge session. Mr. Cope states that the visiting brethren were royally entertained and went home feeling prouder of the order than ever.

A. A. Mayes and family spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Mangum, Oklahoma. Mr. Mayes reports small crops looking fine in that section.

Carl Parsons made a trip to Weatherford the last of the week returning home Monday. Carl reports plenty of moisture and some to spare in that section.

S. A. Andrew who has been spending some time at Mineral Wells for his health, is expected home Saturday to assume his old position with the People's Pharmacy.

Chas. Ferguson, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. N. N. Ferguson, spent the week end with home folks. Charley is a student of S. M. U. this term where he is making a good record.

Miss Vera White, who has been making her home in Wichita Falls for the past several months, returned to her home here the last of the week for a visit with home folks.

E. W. Grogan had business in Wichita Falls the first of the week. Miss Pauline Ozier spent the week end with homefolks returning to S. M. U. to resume her studies Monday.

Walter Darlington, president of the loan company of that name with headquarters in Kansas City, was here for a few days the last of the week and looked after business for his firm.

L. C. Parker had business in Wichita Falls the first of the week. Hon. R. H. Beville had legal business in Wichita Falls and Ft. Worth the fore part of the week returning home Tuesday.

Friends wondered why the springy step of our erstwhile friend J. D. Swift for a few days, but it is all clear now, a son arrived at his home on St. Patrick's day. Congratulations, J. D.

Rodney Baldwin has taken up a soldier homestead near Taos, New Mexico and will match a five month's siege for three years against a bonus that he will win off Uncle Sam a 640 tract.

J. R. Cox was a member of a fishing party to Lelia Lake Tuesday—while he does not know the weight of a fish caught, he can tell the exact weight of the fish that dropped back in the pond.

J. T. Mace of Hedley, a patient at the local hospital for the past two weeks, is showing some improvement. He suffered an attack of appendicitis some time ago and was brot here for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Walker will make their home in Amarillo in the future, their household effects having gone on Monday of this week. Mr. Walker has accepted a position with a battery company there.

Frank Mace constructed a lily pond in the yard of Dick Allen the past week that is an unusual ornament for this town. No doubt others will follow suit as this style of yard beautifiers in a variety here.

Stillman Evans, staff correspondent of the Star Telegram, spent Saturday in Clarendon. Mr. Evans is among the best writers of the southwest in his line and a jolly good fellow with it and has many friends in the Panhandle who enjoy his personal visits very much.

H. E. Woiland of Waco, representing a large overall factory of that city and said to be the largest in the south, called on the drygoods trade Wednesday. This firm's output is made direct from the raw product being spun, dyed and made into garments under the same roof.

M. McMillian has about completed arrangements for suitable quarters in Childers for the establishment of airless tire headquarters. He expects to move his family down there just as soon as he can obtain a house.

Fred Rathjen was called to Canadian Monday on account of the death of a relative, Fred Herman Rathjen, of that city. The deceased was a highly respected citizen of the Panhandle where he has made his home for more than forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyons of McLane were shopping with local merchants Tuesday of this week.

Rev. Clappitt is making an inspection tour of New Mexico possibly to take advantage of a homestead in the new soldier allotment if suited.

A. N. McCordell, who with Mrs. McCordell, is making his home at Kemp Kort, Wichita Falls, resents the statement made in our last issue as to his making his home there in the future. He will return here soon and so informs the News that his friends may not be misled into thinking that he has passed up the best town in the Panhandle.

PANHANDLE COUNTIES LEAD IN HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

At this time the Panhandle section of the Lone Star state is taking the lead in highway construction. J. G. Lott, division engineer for the State Highway department recently made an inspection of the work of his district and is very optimistic over the work that is going on. The counties of Randall, Lamb, Lubbock and Crosby of the Panhandle are now in the midst of a road building campaign with work in actual progress. Under the Caprock, the counties of Scurry, Fisher, Dickens and Ford are building roads. Donley and Garza counties are to have some road building this coming summer if matters work out according to the wishes of the citizens.

Floyd county has disposed of her road building machinery to R. C. Covington who has taken the contract to construct and keep the roads in repair for so much per mile. A meeting of the commissioners and county judges of Floyd and Briscoe counties was held last week at the county line after making an inspection of the road situation. Provisions were cooked at the meeting place and a picnic had as they discussed the road building problems of the two counties. The Lockney Beacon, in speaking of the matter in a recent issue said: "This writup would not be complete without a word as to efficiency and fine constructive work being done by Judge W. B. Clark. Judge Clark is thoroughly familiar with Floyd county financial conditions, and knows just how to handle them to the best advantage. He is progressive and conservative, a believer in good roads and the limit only our ability to pay for."

Friends wondered why the springy step of our erstwhile friend J. D. Swift for a few days, but it is all clear now, a son arrived at his home on St. Patrick's day. Congratulations, J. D.

BOOSTERS AT PARSON HOME TUESDAY NIGHT

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Loyal Boosters class was held at the W. J. Parsons home Tuesday night. The attendance was good and enthusiasm up to the standard maintained by this class at all their meetings. Many good talks were made by both christian and sinner alike. These meetings are unique in that members and visitors each feel free to speak. The devotional part of the program was led by sister Mulkey and Lloyd Blackwell, Rev. White, the pastor of the Christian church, discussed the lesson at length and answered the questions for the class. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Parsons, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Jones. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Glass.

FIRST OF SENIOR RECITALS BEGIN AT THE COLLEGE

The first of a series of senior recitals from the fine arts department of Clarendon College is scheduled for Monday night, April 4th, at seven o'clock if the time doesn't change—if it does then at eight o'clock.

Dean H. C. Taylor presents Miss Fray Stallings as senior in piano, while the expression class is represented by Miss Mary Tomlinson.

Miss Fray Stallings has been a student of Clarendon College for some four or five years and during the entire time has been a leader of whatever music class she has been a member. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Stallings of this city and has had the pleasure of studying under three directors of music at the college. Mr. Taylor is enthusiastic over the work Miss Fray has done and predicts a very bright musical future for her.

Miss Mary Tomlinson has also been a student in Clarendon College for a number of years and is one of the most promising seniors the expression department has ever graduated. She lives with her parents at Lelia Lake.

The News is happy to reproduce the joint program as follows:

Reading (a) The Water Mill—Dudley. (b) Music on the Rappahannock—Somerville. Musical accomp. Miss Josephine Pounds. (c) Aunt Sophronia Taber at the Opera—West.

Piano (a) Nocturne—Trassin. (b) Scherzo et Choral—Dubois.

Reading (a) The Swan Song—

R. Q. Murphy and R. L. Scott of Wellington were business visitors in our city the last of the week and reported farming operations beginning in that section.

Old U. Tellem sez,

"Speaking of billiard balls, the hair tonic R. A. Long Drug Company sells will make hair grow on 'em. 'I have too much dignity to intimate that my head has any relation with a billiard ball, but this hair tonic made my thin growth thicker. I can really find enough to part' now. 'You can benefit by my experience. 'U tell 'em Oujia; I'm bored."

COUNTY SCHOOL MEET PROGRAM FOR SATURDAY

THE COUNTY SCHOOL MEET TO BE HELD HERE SATURDAY PROMISES TO ECLIPSE ANYTHING EVER BEFORE ATTEMPTED IN THAT WORK.

The county school meet that is scheduled to be held here Saturday next, April 2nd, promises to be the biggest event of its kind ever held in Donley county. Hundreds of visitors will be present to do honor to the efforts of the younger generation and their enthusiastic teachers. Each school district will be well represented and many visitors will be present from out of the county points. Educators of note from other counties will also be present to gather notes and mingle professionally with educators of our county.

The exhibits of this meet will surpass those of the past in both quality and number. Each school is vying with the other in both particulars in proportion to their school population.

The athletic program is more varied than in former years and has far more entrants. This feature alone will draw a large crowd to the grounds for America's leading sporting games. The exhibits will be placed in the high school building and the outdoor athletic contests will be held on the grounds north of the building.

Every preparation has been made that this event may prove profitable alike to parents, pupils, teachers and interested spectators. One may always get a fair idea of the work being done in the schools of the country from the quality of the exhibits shown at the county meet.

AL MORRAH SHRINE CLUB BANQUET IS ATTENDED BY 121

The Al Morrah Shrine Club banquet at Memphis Thursday night was attended by 121 persons. J. H. Reed, president of the club, acted as toastmaster. Noble Sam M. Braswell delivered the invocation. Nobles R. R. Swift and Frank R. Jamison were the principal speakers of the evening. Noble Jamison urged the club to ever exemplify the doctrine of the Panhandle and urged them to continue their work for the betterment of Khiva Temple.

J. V. Leak, who will be the ring candidate from Al Morrah at the spring ceremonial of Khiva Shrine at Amarillo made a talk with reference to his campaign and his campaign manager, Noble J. B. Moss outlined the plans of the campaign. Musical selections were rendered by an orchestra composed of Stroup, Kittinger, Jet Fore, Frank Fore and Mrs. Milam, by the ukulele girls who were Genevieve Morgan, Versa Odom, Louis Imogene Morgan and Louis McGee, and an octette composed of Nobles Arnold, Walker, Read, McKelvy Lewis, Noel, Lindsey, Neely with Mrs. Shelley at the piano. This octette sang several original songs most of which had reference to Khiva Temple.

Memphis Shriners will carry twenty novices and a drum corp to the next ceremonial at Amarillo. The Clarendon News editor who was an invited guest of the club, bespoke the felicitations of the Clarendon Shrine Club to the Nobles of Al Morrah and assured Novice Leake that his claims would meet with general favor in Clarendon when he should attempt to win that diamond ring at Amarillo on May 26th.

TOMATOES REACH PERFECTION IN DONLEY COUNTY SOIL

That Donley county soil is ideal for tomatoes growing has long been known even by the oldest settlers. Never has that toothsome garden fruit disappointed the planter. Since the farmers of this section have little to market at the tomato ripening period, county agent Roy W. Hendrix, will encourage tomato growing in quantity this season.

This variety of fruit will not produce above the caprock. It is also a failure farther east. If local plantings should be made, the producers would have a wide open market from Childress to Amarillo. Their nearest competitors would be the irrigated belt of Portales, New Mexico. Surely local planters could put tomatoes in Amarillo as cheaply as the other fellows who would have a much longer haul. Those who are interested in this new project should confer with Mr. Hendrix at once.

LAD SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN STRUCK BY CAR

Little Nat Perrine, Jr., of about two and a half years, was seriously injured at the family home near Hedley Friday when a car driven by his father struck him with full force breaking three ribs and otherwise inflicting serious injury. The lad was rushed to the local hospital where portions of the ribs were removed. The patient is doing nicely at this time and his rapid recovery is inevitable.

ADVISES FARMERS TO WEAR OLD CLOTHES AND TO STRIKE

Everybody advises the farmer about how he should run his business. Perhaps it is in order for a farmer to tell what he proposes to do. Like the great majority of farmers, I went my full limit to produce during the war, because I thought the world was destitute and needy. My Government, controlled by my own political party, conducted a propaganda to stimulate production which I believed in and relied upon. I thought that its great power would be used to finance and protect me, and the market for my products. It never occurred to me that it would be employed to demoralize my markets, and that beat down the prices of my products.

I would have been far better off—in fact, I would have been on "easy street" if I had not produced a pound of grain, or of meat, or of cotton. I produced volume without reference to cost, and used for that purpose all of the strength, both mental and financial. I have lost money every year during the last six years. I see no hope for improvement until the general public—the consumers—realize that the cost of their living can not be less than the cost of production plus a reasonable profit to the producer. They will not realize that fact this year not next nor until there is an absolute and certain shortage, and maybe not until famine stares them in the face. The Democratic party, which is largely a Southern institution, stands for cheap living without reference to the cost of production. Its demand is always for cheaper cost of living; never for a fair price for the products of the farm.

SILVEY RESIDENCE BURNED EARLY MONDAY EVENING

The home of Supt. W. R. Silvey and family in this city was destroyed by fire Monday evening, when fire of unknown origin was discovered after it had been burning for some time, and had gained such headway that it was impossible to control.

The fire is thought to have originated in the kitchen or back porch, but when discovered by members of the Silvey family, had burned through to the second floor and flames were licking through the roof on the south side of the building. The alarm was turned in and the fire truck responded as soon as possible owing to the slippery condition of the street from recent rain and snow, but the blaze had gone beyond control by the time the fire department arrived upon the scene. No water was available in the immediate vicinity and the chemical tanks carried on the truck were unequal to the occasion.

Much of the furniture on the first floor of the residence was saved, but furniture, together with wearing apparel up-stairs were a total loss.

Prof. Silvey had only owned the residence a few months, having purchased it from W. W. Henry, and spent a considerable sum repairing and remodeling. The loss was partially covered with insurance.

The many friends of the family extend sincere sympathy in this misfortune.—Pampa News.

SOUTHERN FARMER WILL HAVE TARIFF PROTECTION

A meeting will be held in Jacksonville, Florida next week as the first of a series of meetings to be held in each of the southern states by the Tariff association preparatory to a tariff hearing granted the association for April 18 and 19th at Washington. It is the purpose of the association to have the products of the southern farmer on the new tariff list that he may have equal protection along with his northern neighbor. Governor Lee M. Russell of Mississippi will preside over the series of meetings to be held.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The superintendent of the baby division, Mrs. G. M. Richards with the assistance of other members of the society entertained the mothers and babies at the church last Thursday afternoon.

There was a very impressive program, the children marched in order led by two little girls carrying a pretty banner. Two splendid readings were given by Irene Bowland and Mattie Parker, then little Howard McMillan and John Blocker told Bible stories as well as many grown-ups could have done.

After this the children opened their "mite boxes" which offering, as was carefully explained to them, is used for the kindergarten work of our church, in places where the children are not so fortunate as the Bible folks of this city.

Mrs. S. T. Sayre and Mrs. Sam Borex each gave a few minutes talk about "What the children meant to them." Mrs. Richards turned with happy anticipation, (tfc)

FORMER CLARENDON TEACHER DIED AT CLOVIS SATURDAY

Miss Frances Roach, a member of the local school faculty four years ago, passed away at Clovis, New Mexico Saturday, her death being due to appendicitis. The body was buried to Goodnight for burial, where she formerly made her home and where a brother, George Roach and mother and other relatives reside. Rev. Storey of Amarillo officiated at the burial ceremony Monday, many local people coming from here to pay their respects to the talented young lady. Miss Roach taught two terms in Clarendon's public school and was doing similar work at Clovis up until her death.

Many floral offerings were in evidence and a large concourse of people from many out of town places joined in the procession to the cemetery. Two cars were necessary to transport the floral offerings of friends.

J. C. Rawlins of Shamrock was over the last of the week.

PEARL WHITE

Pearl White made good in her first picture at the Pastime this week, this being her first picture to be shown here. She was greeted with enthusiasm by a large audience which is evidence that she can make good in serial. Theatre goers will look forward to her return with happy anticipation, (tfc)

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no hawking, sneezing, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay sick and miserable.

To the Building Public

There is a report being circulated around town that our cement is not good stuff. We are selling at the present, MONARCH PORTLAND CEMENT, made in Humboldt, Kansas, we have sold since we put in our yard here last August approximately 10,000 sacks of this cement and every customer has complimented us on it being so much better than the Texas cement. No one has ever had any better cement here than this, and no one has ever had any as good unless it was the same brand.

About last September we received 1080 sacks of another brand of cement. We found after having sold about a hundred sacks that this cement was not good, we refused to sell any more, shipped what we had back, and refunded the money for every sack we had sold and are not going to handle any more of this brand.

Any report that might come to your hearing about this cement not being good is absolutely false, and has no foundation what ever, and is not being circulated by any one that has used a sack of it. We absolutely guarantee it to be good, and when mixed properly if it fails we have the money waiting to take it up. And we are this way about everything we sell, it must be right, or we will make it right. We have moved here and put up good substantial improvements, and we will always be here to back up what we say.

We want your business on a basis of selling the best for as little as possible.

ADDS JOINT SESSION IS JOY TO ALL

ADDS AND ORTHONIANS MEET FOR THE BEST TIME SINCE THE RECEPTION

Last Tuesday night the Adds and Orthonians met in their hall to have another one of those once-a-term good times.

Did they have it? Conscientious, yes! From the very first singing of the Purple and ing. (throat splitting) fifteen White to the last soul thrillers for Adds, the evening was one of pure joy.

Time being limited the program was necessarily shorter than usual, but it was enjoyed no less on account of its brevity. Andrew Smalley played with remarkable ability for one so young, a horn solo that won an encore. Jack Cagle came next with an essay (?) on the “Green Back,” that was at once unique and amusing. Hearty applause gave attestation to the fact that the quartet, “Whispering Hope” by the Orthonian girls, Martin, Boud, Brummett and Burrell was much appreciated. Inez Christian with characteristic clever interpretation, recounted the escapades of “William Henry” in a way that kept her hearers constantly laughing. Perhaps the real “hit” of the program was Bera Bowden’s characterization of “Aune Jemima.” The old negro mammy’s views on woman’s rights were right up to now, and they received the manifested approval of all the “gentle sex” present. Next, the Adds and their visitors witnessed the marriage of Miss Jimmy Miller to Mr. Alvin Osborn. Rev. Orion Carter officiated in a truly capable manner, and, although the frightened groom got his responses a trifle mixed, the knot was finally tied in a manner satisfactory to all present. Coming next, Monteith Warren stirred every Add with his earnest emphatic talk centering about the theme “Once an Add, always an Add.”

The Adds were delighted to have with them on this occasion may visitors, including members of the faculty. Speeches from a number of the visitors gave expression to appreciation of the work the society is doing and the influence it has created.

Following these speeches which served to renew resolution on the part of every Add to make his society count more than ever, the house was adjourned for a social hour. Since the enjoyment could last only until nine, the refreshment committee began serving delicious jello and wafers almost immediately. Right in the midst of this, a slight disturbance at the other end of the hall brought about a rush of Adds to the door, where fifteen lusty rahs were given, just by way of “show in ‘em how,” you know!

By a few minutes after nine, the hall had begun to clear of happy Adds and Orthonians who now had one more never-to-be forgotten time established in their memories as a relic of the year ‘21.

LADIES GIVE LUNCHEON TO THE KNIGHTS

KNIGHT REGALED IN COLORS ENTERTAINED BY COSTUMED LADIES OF OBLIVION

Monday evening, the 21st, Knights of Oblivion were banqueted by the fair ladies of the same order at the Bon confectiory. The usual “eclat” attendant upon K. O. functions was prevalent, the principal feature being the colonial setting provided by the management of the Bon Ton. The ladies were decked out in true colonial costumes made of the K. O. colors—black and gold.

The entertainment began with a theatre party at the Pastime, after which the scene changed to the Bon Ton, where everything possible had been done to house the joyful occasion. The ladies had been done in a manner befitting the Ladies’ taste. The rear of the Bon Ton was curtained off for the use of the revelers, a maze of black and gold transformed the palace to a K. O. heaven, music lulled the senses, and a handsome array of good things, to eat added to the general optimism. A delightful program was presented by some of the ladies. Miss Alice Mulkey gave a most satisfying address of welcome, after which the ladies rendered a composition henceforward to be known as the K. O. song. A prophecy—without which no one but an expert can deliver—was given by Miss Jessie Glynn Daugherty. Her first sentence gave promise of some genuine information to follow, and not a word was missed by her audience. The future of the different Knights and Ladies were laid bare in a few minutes, to the joy or consternation of each, as it was to happen. The whole group took part in a song, before giving “rahs” for the Ladies and others. It was getting to be high time to leave the joyous Bon Ton hall, and soon the colonial ladies and hooded knights were ushered off into darkness.

THE SOPHOMORES HAVE HEARTY GOOD TIME

SATURDAY EVENING’S RECEPTION, THE FIRST OF THE YEAR FOR SOPHS.

The Sophomores of 1920-21 are determined to try a little of anything that the juniors attempt, so they followed suit by having an entertainment last Saturday evening at the home of Gordon Bain, a sophomore.

The entertainment began about seven o’clock with mirth prevalent which is a true characteristic of a loyal “Soph.” Progressive conversation was engaged in until the guests were well acquainted, and then a very interesting program was rendered by the talented members of the Sophomore class.

A helpful and interesting history of the class was given by Orion Carter. Pauline Alexander and Orion Sharp recited some humorous readings which blended in well with the cheerful attitude of all who were present. John Thompson, Phil Walker and William Craig sang a trio which expressed the sentiments of a “Soph.” (I will not divide my nice, rich, ripe, red strawberry short cake with my neighbor when his is gone.) The future prospects of the class was read by Jake English. After the program was rendered brick ice cream in Sophomore colors was served. Then an interesting social spent. Tables were accessible to those who desired to play forty-two fench or dominoes.

At the arrival of ten o’clock the crowd departed for their homes with thankful hearts that they were Sophomores and rejoicing with the thought that one year from them they would be enjoying junior privileges.

BAPTISTS ATTEND BACKWARD PARTY

The Sunday school class to which belongs the greater number of the institutions decided to celebrate coming Easter by means of a backward party, Friday evening. Invitations in Chaucerian handwriting were sent out. A mirror solved the problem and the good, concealed by such an uncouth handwriting, was immediately disclosed to many a troubled brain.

The whole group was dressed backward, some of them even had the shoes upon their little feet interchanged, and after bidding goodnight, the backward march was made to and into the backdoor. Only two things failed to be backward, the good time plus the pleasing refreshments, in spite of the fact that an annoying incident at first promised to make the latter backward, but the difficulty was quickly overcome. Games and impersonations went on with slight recession until the adjourning was finally accomplished about ten o’clock.

It was unanimously felt that a touch of “Baptism” may be highly appreciable, even in a Methodist institution.

PAN HALL IS CROWDED BY ENTHUSIASTIC MEMBERS ON THURSDAY EVENING.

On Thursday evening, the Pan boys met in one of the most enthusiastic sessions of the entire year. The true Pan spirit, which is always in evidence, was doubly manifest in the songs of the evening. The boys verily raised the roof, following the leadership of the director, Roy Beights.

The house was called to order by President Lewis. After the roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read by Secretary Norcross, the devotional exercise was conducted by Chaplain Sharp. The following program was rendered: Reading, “The Men That Won’t Fit In,” by Chester Skeen. Chester’s talent as a reader was plainly seen. His ability as an entertainer made his place on the program the more important. Earl Clements, the C. C. boy who always sees the sunny side of life, without exceptions, entertained the audience for quite a while with practical jokes. They were high class, merely showing the humorous side of life, as it is manifested every day. Roger Hearne did himself credit, and highly entertained his hearers by reading “Her Folks and His’n.” Roger’s impersonation of the old man was accurate. At that time the Pan quartet sang “Smile a Little Bit,” being called on for an encore, they sang the chorus of “Down in Dixie.” An interesting feature of the evening was the debate which followed the quartet. The following question was discussed: Resolved that the state institutions of higher learning offer greater inducements to students, than the denominational colleges. The affirmative was represented by Avis Maples, Ed Verner, and Colin McClaren. The negative was discussed by Ruskin Hankins, Nelson Smelser and Gordon Wilson. After hearing interesting argument on both sides, the judges rendered the decision in favor of the negative.

After disposing of several items of business, the society adjourned to meet again in regular session, Thursday evening, March 31, 1921.

ADKISSONIANS ON THEIR CHAPEL DAY

The Add-Orthonians took over chapel period Thursday and favored the faithful chapel students with a very pleasing program, including a reading by Inez Christian, which caused much amusement and received merited applause. This excellent reading was followed by a girl’s quartette, Cleora Brummett, Lelia Burrell, Josephine Pounds and Helen Martin, singing “When Life Is Brightest.” The Orthonians are to be congratulated for the splendid singing of their representative quartet. A piano solo by Jack SoRelle completed the pleasant program.

FANS ARE PLEASED BY NINE’S WORK

Down town fans are uniting with college enthusiasts in saying that Clarendon College has what promises to be the peak in C. C.’s baseball world up to ‘22. Especially since reviewing the fourteen inning tie with the Irishmen, during the last twelve innings of which Shamrock did not score a run, and the practice game with the town men last week, in which the Green and White lads shut out their town brothers in a 1 to 0, nine inning game, played in an hour and fifteen minutes, the fans express approval for the splendid work, shown by Burten’s nine.

The infield is showing up strikingly well. There is a noted absence of errors in fielding the ball and the swift and accurate pegging of Noble, Verner and Doshier is a decided improvement over anything the last year’s club put out. The outfield is also developing and with a little hard practice will pair with the smooth infield in making a strong combination.

The team has not yet struck its stride in batting however. Much blame for this is placed on the lateness of the arrival of bats in town. Many of the men who are known to be good hitters have not as yet showed up so well, but this week’s practice is expected to bring them out in old form.

Plant a small home orchard. There is room on every farm for a small orchard. Plant a list of varieties that will supply the family with fruit throughout the season. This will prove to be the best investment that you can make of the farm. It will supply the family with wholesome food throughout the year.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rashes, pimples and ring worm. It never fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

STUDENTS ATTEND RALLY AT PASTIME THEATRE—EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT SLOVER.

Sunday afternoon, March 20, the first of a series of rally meetings was held at the Pastime Theatre at 3:00 o’clock. The purpose of the meeting was to lay before the people of Clarendon the work of the educational campaign for southern Methodist schools, and Clarendon in particular.

Almost the entire student body was present, with yells and songs befitting the occasion. Dr. Slover in a clear, concise way outlined the work of the campaign for Clarendon College.

We must have 500,000 within the next five years,” to enable Clarendon College to retain her standard as a Junior College and to place her in a position to become a degree giving institution.

$200,000 of the fund will be used to finance immediate needs of the college. A science hall, gymnasium, etc., and the remaining $300,000 will be used for endowments.

Dr. Slover made very plain the fact that this work can be carried out, and it certainly will be, if the people of Clarendon get it on their hearts as he has.

Following Dr. Slover’s address Bro. Ferguson and business men of the town, Hayter, Connally and Chamberlain made short speeches. They established the fact that the college is Clarendon’s biggest asset and that this campaign for its growth and development will assuredly gain the cooperation of all Clarendon citizens.

The meeting was a great success from the standpoint of getting the interest of the people and the students centered on the line of attack. The next rally, to be held in the near future, will undoubtedly be attended by a number sufficient to fill the Pastime to its capacity.

METHODIST CHOIR TREATED BY WOMAN’S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Last Friday night director Taylor announced to the choir before practice started that the women of the Missionary Society would have a “little party,” down in the reception room for them, after they had worked awhile. Needless to say that choir worked. When eight o’clock came, some fifty or sixty people hastened to the reception room, where they were cordially greeted by Mrs. Ferguson and several of her co-workers. Delicious ice cream and cake were served, and there is no doubt about it, that choir felt more than repaid for all their trying practicing. After giving fifteen rahs for the Missionary Society and Bro. Ferguson, for their lovely treat, the choir members betook themselves to their work again, with much better results, director Taylor said, than he had gotten from them before.

THE TELEPHONE

I am the telephone. When I am not broke I am in the hands of a receiver. I have a mouthpiece, but unlike women, I never use it. Fellows use me to break dates with girls, and girls use me to break said dates. Husbands call up their wives over me. I never go out anywhere but sometimes the company takes me out, it all depends whether you pay your bill or not. I am not a bee, but I often buzz in your ear. I am the bell of the town, and while I do not wear jewelry, I often get rings. Whether I do things or not, a lot of people nail me to the wall; and I like music, but the only music I hear is chin music. I get all the popular airs, and the most popular one is hot air.—Swiped.

FACULTY CLUB

Mesdames Taylor and Stallings entertained the Faculty Club at the home of the latter on Tuesday afternoon. In spite of dark, weepy skies, all was bright and cheerful within and the afternoon was spent very pleasantly in conversation and with fancy work. Dainty refreshments consisting of salad, olives, sandwiches, coffee, cherry tarts and mints were served. The faculty departed, barely in time for five-thirty o’clock dinner, thanking their hostesses for a delightful afternoon.

TRAFFIC MATTERS INTERESTS SHIPPERS OF PANHANDLE

Hamlin Palmer, has just returned from an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing at St. Louis which lasted seven days. In the beginning this matter involved advanced rates which had been published to Texas common points, from St. Louis, etc., advanced differential rates in the Panhandle in connection with mileage scales from Oklahoma, and advanced mileage scales from Mississippi crossings to Texas and between states in Southwestern territory. In other words, the Texas common point adjustment and the Panhandle situation were seriously threatened. Early in the proceedings the common point rates proposed were withdrawn by the carriers and later they also withdrew the differential proposition, which practically eliminated the Panhandle from the situation. Mr. Palmer, however, succeeded in getting into the record a general protest against the application of differentials in connection with mileage scales in this territory.

Mr. Stinnett of Amarillo left Sunday for Washington, where he has arranged for an informal hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission in behalf of emergency rates on cattle for the spring pasture movement. This proposition was originated by Mr. Stinnett at the February meeting of the Livestock Buyers and Sellers, and he has secured such data and support as to feel confident of getting the emergency reductions desired.

Colonel W. L. Butler, proprietor of Lakereast hog farm, of Lelia Lake, is in town today for the purpose of crying the sale at the Langford farm.

PIONEER ENJOYS VISIT AND SIGHTS OF NEW ERA

E. Leach, who came to this section of the Panhandle in the early seventies and lived here for a number of years, is again visiting here from his home at Wichita Falls. Mr. Leach has some interesting facts to relate about Indians and buffalo inhabiting this section when he landed here to carve a home from the wild west. His supplies came from Dodge City, Kansas and Demmon and Sherman, Texas. Neighbors were few and far between but what they lacked in quantity, they made up in quality. Mr. Leach is visiting in relatives at the Brunley ranch and expects to spend some little time here before returning home in order to get a chance at all the old timers.

PERSONAL ENDORSEMENTS AID RED CROSS IN TEXAS COUNTY

Publicity of a helpful sort is being given the Red Cross in Kaufman County, Texas, by prominent citizens of Terrell, expressing their approval of the Red Cross Nursing Service through the daily papers. In a recent issue three gentians of that community published a signed article in which the importance of caring for children's teeth was stressed. The article continued by showing how the Red Cross nurse in that community through regular examination of children is able to detect defective teeth. Moreover she educates children in the use of the toothbrush and in the need for dental care. The December report in this county shows extensive Red Cross activity. Fifteen ex-service men and their families, eight disabled men not yet discharged, and 17 civilian families were given material relief; old clothes were collected and fresh meat, donated by one of the local merchants, were distributed among the needy; four dozen bandages made by the women of this community were sent to the hospital at Ft. Bliss. During this same month six Junior Auxiliaries were established in the schools of the county. The Public Health Nurse reported 92 official visits, 150 school pupils treated, three health talks, two examined, seven community cases poster exhibits and eight educational moving pictures films shown. From Donkey County Chapter Publicity.

SCHOOL ENTHUSIASTS MEET MONDAY NIGHT

At the request of the school board, a number of patrons and others interested in the welfare of our public schools met with the board at the high school auditorium Monday night to discuss the housing problem. It appears that greater room space is necessary for the next term. Three rooms more are in use this season than last. There is no boom of any kind on and even at that the extra room facilities are most urgently needed. John T. Sims, president of the school board, presided over the meeting. A general discussion was entered into by a number of speakers and it appears from a straw vote taken of those present, that bonds should be voted for another building that appearing as the only effective remedy for the dilemma facing this town. The problem was discussed by both patrons and members of the board, all of whom agreed to a unit that a new building was the only solution to the matter.

MEMPHIS COMMANDERY, K. T. EASTER SERVICE SUNDAY

As per announcement, the Sir Knights of Memphis Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 50, held a special Easter service, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at the Methodist Church in that city. Sir Knights and their families from Childress, Wellington, Clarendon and intermediate points were to have been present but the cold, disagreeable weather prevented their attendance in any considerable numbers. Sir Knights Tom F. Connally, and Sam M. Braswell attended from Clarendon, accompanied by Mrs. Braswell and Sam, Jr., and Miss Myrta Houk. After the service the Knights and ladies repaired to the Masonic Hall, where an informal program of orchestra music, readings and songs was enjoyed. Mr. Connally was called on for a short talk representing the visitors, responding in his usual apt manner. Mr. and Mrs. Braswell sang a duet. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was had despite the weather.

CAMERON LUMBER COMPANY WILL ERECT NEW BUILDINGS

In keeping with their policy in other towns and cities, the local branch of the Cameron lumber company will receive some deserved attention with the coming of early summer. The head officials have had some form of improvement in mind for some time due to increased business and the increase in the size of the town.

The lots south of the yard have been purchased from Mrs. Emma Terrell and the buildings sold to C. W. Ryan, who is moving them to his farm in the east suburbs. This will enable the company to have double the present room acreage and also to have a south front.

From what can be gathered from meager information, it is the plan of the company to begin in early summer the erection of brick shed room and a faced brick office building in which will be incorporated a face for the better grades of materials usually kept by a firm of this kind, including paints, oil varnishes, doors, windows and other materials. The size or dimensions could not be learned as Elmer Adams, local manager, had not been informed just yet what the building programme will consist of in detail.

TEXAS PAPER MILL TO START

That production of cotton linters pulp will begin in the new mill at Commerce, Texas, within the next thirty days is the statement made in an interview here by George W. Lull, president of Trinity Paper Mills Company of Dallas.

"The plant is practically completed," he said, "and will have an approximate capacity of twenty tons of pulp per day. The pulp prepared there will be shipped to eastern markets for the present, but in the near future we will be able to turn paper out as a finished product from Dallas in our fifty ton paper mill, plans for which already have been completed, and which will give employment to several hundred men, as a large number of whom will be classed as unskilled laborers. The Dallas mill will specialize in the manufacture of writing, tissue, blotting, book and news print paper and through a saving of from 30 to 50 per cent on freight, we hope to materially reduce the cost of these commodities."

Mr. Lull is president and general manager of the new mill and J. Y. Webb, secretary and treasurer.

ORR VALUES RESEARCH HIGHLY

President J. T. Orr of the Farm Bureau of Texas, in his address at the annual meeting of the Texas Bankers-Farmers Conference, made the following significant statement:

"Right at this point, I want to give due credit to this great institution, the Texas A & M College, for showing me light on the subject of the relative prosperity of farming under the two systems—the one having no co-ordination with scientific progress nor co-operation with these charged with distribution—the other having all this. I have often thought and recently have said that if the great teachings of the Extension Service of this College could have come to me, as it is now coming to every farmer in this state, when I made my first crop instead of after I had made more than twenty crops, I might have saved my family many years of fruitless toil and many nights of restless sleep."

"I know just how the average man regards the information which comes from the agricultural colleges and experiment stations, because for ten years I personally refused to give them any consideration whatsoever; but that was my misfortune. The greatest single blessing which could come to the farmers of Texas would be to so open the mind of the average farmer, that he could see the great benefits to be derived from the information proceeding from this institution."

Geo. E. Rice of the commercial department of the Star Telegram was a business visitor in our city Saturday on his way to the new oil field of Carson county.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Patterson, who have been spending the winter at San Antonio, have returned home.

Advertising in the Country Weekly

Advertising in the country weekly is the most valuable advertising in the world. Expert advertisers say it is not only the most valuable, but the most scientific advertising in the world. Advertising in the magazines has to be general for the reason that the average magazine that you receive today was set in type several weeks ago, and the advertising copy was prepared several weeks before that. This means that advertisers in magazines have to anticipate conditions several weeks in advance of the time the copy is prepared.

This is not so with advertising in the country weekly, for the country weekly has the advantage over the magazine in that the weekly circulates in a comparatively small territory and the name of the merchant or the business man who is selling the goods can be placed in the advertisement. This is impossible in magazine advertising, which covers sometimes the whole nation.

The weekly newspaper also is considered the best advertising medium in the world by expert advertisers for the reason that it has more intimate association with the family than a magazine or a daily newspaper.
