Community Party To Be Held Tuesday

Jury of View Meets With Fine Spirit on Right-of-Way

TACTLESS TEXAN WILL BE SPEAKER

GENTRY, AS TOASTMASTER, WILL DIRECT PROGRAM OF LOCAL TALENT

Arrangements are practically complete for the big Community Party and annual meeting of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, which will be held next Tuesday night, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Antro Hotel.

The program committee has arranged a program which will provide a variety of entertainment and will prove enjoyable to all who attend. The committee wishes it to be understood that the occasion will be primarily a community party, in the broadest sense of the term, and not merely of sustaining members of the chamber of commerce. That organization does its work in the interest of the entire citizenship and it is the earnest wish of the program committee that an attendance far larger than regular members be registered at the "party."

Program arrangements were worked out by T. F. Connally, Joe Goldston and J. T. Patman, all of who are especially glad to offer in addition to the excellent line-up of local talent, such speakers as Gene Howe, the "Tactless Texan" of the Amarillo News-Globe, and Judge H. H. Hoover, of Canadian. Judge Hoover is said to be an entertaining speaker, with a rare gift of wit, and rich store of reminiscences from which to draw.

As announced some time ago, a part of the program will be devoted to a memorial tribute to Henry Ansley, who was accidentally killed in an automobile wreck near Tulla, while returning to his home in Amarillo from a tour of speaking dates in behalf of Governor Sterling. The 1933 community party will be the first in ten years that Henry

Community Party on Franklin's Birthday

It is probably just a "happencence" that the Community Party date falls on the 227th anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, who was born (in case you are too tired to figure it out) on Jan. 17, 1706.

Benjamin Franklin is accepted as the American exponent of thrift, which he both preached and practiced. His "Poor Richard's Almanack" was filled with proverbs which taught the value of thrift.

"Little strokes fell great oaks," and "Remember that time is money," and "Plough deep while sluggards sleep," and "Industry gives comfort and plenty and respect," and "If we are industrious we shall never starve," are typical Benjamin Franklin proverbs.

True thrift finds exemplification in the united effort of a citizenship to conserve community resources and promote civic welfare through agencies such as that directly responsible for the Community Party to be held in Clarendon on Benjamin Franklin's birthday.

Just 16 More Days!

This is tax-paying time, and the last date on which taxes may be paid without incurring additional costs will be Jan. 31. And that's just 16 business days away.

There are many who are absolutely unable to pay their taxes, but there are also many who can do so. This latter class is earnestly urged by the collectors to pay their taxes now. It will be a real patriotic service that will be appreciated. There is especially sore need of school tax money. Pay your school taxes, at least.

Faulkner Is Named Postmaster Estelline

Herschel M. Faulkner and Ewell Grundy, of Estelline, passed through Clarendon Monday en route to Amarillo, where Mr. Faulkner went to complete the execution of papers incident to his recent appointment as postmaster at Estelline.

Mr. Faulkner was connected with the bookkeeping department of the Donley County State Bank in 1918-19, and has many friends here who will be glad to learn of his appointment to the Estelline postmastership.

McDOWELL CLUB NAMES DIRECTOR

MISS ANNA MOORES WILL DIRECT CHORUS; GOOD PROGRAM THIS WEEK

An enthusiastic group of McDowell Chorus members met in the ladies parlor of the Methodist church Tuesday evening for a business session and rehearsal.

Miss Anna Moores was unanimously elected to direct the McDowell chorus and all entered into the singing with much enthusiasm. Miss Anna Moores is one of Clarendon's most accomplished musicians, possessing a charming personality, as well as the chorus is expected to accomplish much under her able direction.

A short business session of the chorus will be held at the close of the open program at the club room Saturday evening and the chairman, Mrs. W. A. Clark, Jr., is very anxious that each member of the chorus remain for this meeting.

Lets start the new year right by being faithful to our chorus and helping to keep the work begun. No other club in Clarendon can quite take the place of the McDowell and only co-operation can keep, not only this club, but every club, alive. It is the duty of every member to do his or her part in fulfilling their obligation to this worthwhile organization.

Remember to invite your guests for Saturday evening and be present to enjoy the following program which has been arranged by Miss Barbara Smith and who will act as leader for the evening:

- Topic—Animals In Music.
1. Roll Call—Answered with imitation animal sounds or relation of personal experiences on some animal.
 2. Effects of Music on Wild Animals—Mrs. J. L. McMurtry.
 3. Group of Songs about Animals.
 4. Piano Solo, "A Burro Ride" Dennie—Pauline Shelton.
 5. Gobble Duet (Solo Arrangement) from "The Mascot", Andron—Mrs. O. T. Smith.
 6. Piano Solo, "The Monkeys"—Ethlyn Drennan.
 7. Piano Duet, "The Camel Train"—June McMurtry, Mrs. Elizabeth Powell.
 8. Story, "Dance of the Forest People"—Marion McCanne.
 9. Piano Solo, "Butterfly Etude", Chopin—Mrs. Elizabeth Powell.
 10. Violin Solo, "The Swan", from "Carnival of the Animals", Saint Siens—Joyce Link.
 11. Piano Solo, "Il Corricolo"—Mrs. Hayburn Smith.
- Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. G. L. Boykin and Mrs. Homer Gorman.

Joe Eudy, of Brownfield, arrived in Clarendon Wednesday morning, to inspect some farm land which has been offered in trade for land near Brownfield. Mr. Eudy ran three classified ads in The News, and waving a handful of letters in the face of a News reporter, said, "My ad swamped me with replies."

MANY PROJECTS FROM RFC FUND

ONLY WAGES OF LABOR PAID OUT OF FUNDS BY COM- MITTEE

What the Reconstruction Finance Corporation's work relief funds have meant to the unemployed in Clarendon and in Donley County can best be realized from a recital of the many projects for which funds have been expended in Clarendon. The data was furnished by the committee and covers only those projects which have been carried out in Clarendon, although funds have been disbursed for similar work in various towns and communities in the county.

No money has been paid out by the committee for anything except labor, no materials being bought, nor administration expenses of any kind have been paid for out of the RFC funds. The members of the committee have done all their work without a single penny of compensation for themselves, gladly donating their services in the interest of a fair distribution of work relief among those in greatest need. A total of more than 125 persons, men with families dependent on them, have been given work on the various projects.

The application of these projects to fifteen blocks of city streets has given employment to many needy men, providing badly needed street improvement at reasonable cost. The committee has had no voice in the designation of the streets on which the clay was applied, leaving that

Mrs. W. H. Price and daughter, Shirley, left Tuesday for their home in Pleasanton, Kansas, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Patman.

W. H. Patrick left Wednesday night for Dallas to attend a meeting of the Federal Reserve Board. He will return Friday morning.

J. R. Bartlett Buys Armstrong Grocery

J. R. Bartlett, former citizen of Clarendon, announced Wednesday the completion of a deal in which he purchased the stock and office fixtures of the Armstrong Cash Grocery. On the same day the stock and fixtures were moved to Mr. Bartlett's building, formerly occupied by the "M System" grocery store.

Mr. Bartlett states that he will add a great deal of new merchandise to that bought from Mr. Armstrong and will operate a cash grocery store, selling at the lowest possible prices and giving his customers the utmost in grocery values made possible by buying for cash and selling for cash.

He will be assisted in the store by Carl Allmond, also a former citizen of Clarendon, who has a wide acquaintance in the county and city. Mr. Allmond was formerly in the automobile business here, coming from Childress, his boyhood home. He has had extensive experience in the grocery business, coming to Mr. Bartlett's store from recent employment in the A & P grocery store in Childress.

The many friends of Mr. Bartlett are glad that he has again identified himself with the business life of Clarendon, and wish him every success. Always prominently identified with the community life of Clarendon, Mr. Bartlett's return is being greeted with pleasure by all who know him and his estimable family. He states that while he will not bring his family here to live before the end of the school year, he himself is returning to Clarendon and will devote his time to his new business.

"I shall be very happy to see in the store the many friends of whom I believe I have in Clarendon and Donley county", said Mr. Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Pyle, and Misses Opal Pyle and Norma Rhode drove to Pampa Sunday, where they visited in the home of Mrs. Pyle's nephew, Bill Psalms.

QUALITY HIGH IN POULTRY SHOW

COMPETITION IS HOT IN RED ALLEY AND QUATTLE- BAUM WINS

With a total of 211 birds, representing 14 breeds, the poultry show which was held in Clarendon last Friday and Saturday surpassed the expectations of its promoters, especially in view of the short time which elapsed after its first announcement.

The show, which was staged in the building next to the Clifford & Ray grocery store, attracted a large number of visitors, who were interested, not only in the fine quality of the birds shown, but also in the poultry judging contests.

The judging was done by Dr. Geo. P. Grout, of Panhandle, and A. A. Tampke, of McLean. Both worked together in placing the awards, each having wide reputations as poultry judges. Dr. Grout, who was formerly a member of the Texas A. & M. faculty, is a prominent breeder of fine horses, Guernsey cattle and other live stock, and is also superintendent of schools at Panhandle.

Mr. Tampke is teacher of vocational agriculture in the McLean schools, and brought with him a delegation of boys, including the boys who were shown in the Large R. I. Red Class. Entries of Rhode Island Reds made up the largest class in the show, the 82 birds creating hot competition. E. V. Quattlebaum, veteran Red breeder, captured most of the Red awards, including four grand championships. The poultry judges complimented the high quality apparent throughout the Red class, one of them stating that "it was a better Red show than was staged at the last Tri-State poultry show."

The 211 birds shown by 32 exhibitors, included 82 Rhode Island Reds, 29 Buff Orpingtons, 24 Cornish Games, 13 Banded Plymouth Rocks, 10 Light Bra-

Legion Changes Its Meeting to Monday

According to the request of the program committee of the Community Party that the night of Tuesday, Jan. 17, be kept open for the Party, Post Commander H. Ralph Kerbow announces to the members of Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion that the Post will have its regular meeting Monday night, Jan. 16, instead of Tuesday.

The Community Party committee appreciates very much the change of meeting date made by the Legionnaires.

LIONS CLUB HEARS CHILD AID REPORT

BOY IS FITTED WITH GLASS- ES TO CORRECT CROSSED EYES

Following up action taken recently by the Lions Club, Homer Mulkey, member of the Blind and Crippled Children's committee went to Amarillo last week with the little fellow whose eyes are so badly crossed as to threaten blindness, accompanied by his father. He also took a little girl with him who is under treatment here. The father also accompanied them.

He reported that the specialist to whom the little boy was taken, after three separate examinations, expressed belief that properly fitted glasses would correct his eye trouble. The glasses were purchased by the Lions Club and strong hopes are entertained for the complete recovery of normal eyesight.

The crippled girl's limb was placed in another cast, the surgeon reporting that the necessary treatment was about half completed. In this case the father has been able to finance the necessary expense, the Lions club committee furnishing transportation.

Another case was reported to the club, a little child who has never been able to walk, due to a badly deformed foot and leg, having to crawl all the time. The Amarillo surgeon is especially anxious to try to correct this child's trouble and the Lions Club's committee will follow this case through. It is believed that a complete cure can be effected.

After discussion of the subject, the club voted to hold a minstrel show at the earliest possible date. The question arising as to whether musical talent of high enough order could be selected from the club membership, it was settled following Lion W. H. Patrick's positive declaration that if certain members of the club "who couldn't carry a tune in a sack could be induced to make an effort to sing, their efforts would prove to be the hit of the show."

G. L. Boykin was named as producer of the minstrel and is being greatly annoyed by the importunities of Lions who are ambitious to be the "hit of the show." Fred Rathjen queered his chances by his unashamed confession that "if there's any memorizing to be done, it won't be me," and, of course, songs have to be memorized, at least in a minstrel show. If anybody has a set of "Roth's Memory Course," or any other good text, Fred might be induced to consider its purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rodgers, of Texline, visited Monday with their friends, Mrs. Cap Lane and Mrs. Joe Cluck. Mrs. Rodgers was formerly Miss Josephine Pounds and lived here for a number of years with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pounds, later moving to their present home at Texline. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers were on their way home from Jacksboro, where they spent the holidays with his parents.

OWNERS SEE NEED OF CONSTRUCTION

HIGHWAY WORK WOULD GIVE EMPLOYMENT TO MANY MEN

That the owners of property along the location designated for Highway No. 5, by Federal and State highway engineers, are anxious to see the actual highway construction begun, is indicated by the results of the first few days of work done by the Jury of View.

The Jury of View is composed of W. T. Hayter and Tom F. Connally, of Clarendon; A. B. Bynum of Lelia Lake; M. M. Noble of Goldston; and T. C. Johnson, of Giles. They met Monday for the purpose of organizing, electing Tom F. Connally as chairman, and W. H. Hayter, secretary.

"The committee is gratified over the fine spirit of co-operation among owners of property along the designated location," said Mr. Connally. "They are exhibiting a most commendable appreciation of the immediate good results which the earliest possible construction work would bring about. They realize that as soon as the work of the Jury of View is completed, the highway will be ready for the construction of the highway structure contracts. This work could not be begun at a time when it could be of greater benefit than right now," Mr. Connally said.

"The friendly and entirely reasonable attitude shown so far," he added, "indicates that property owners believe that the Jury of View is disposed to give each of them a square deal and they have no desire to place obstacles in the way of the earliest possible completion of the Jury's work, so that their neighbors may benefit by the highway construction work."

Song Rehearsal for Community Party

As Community singing will be an important feature of the Community Party which will be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 17, at the Antro Hotel, rehearsal of the songs which will be used will be held Sunday afternoon, 4:30 o'clock, at the First Baptist church.

The singing will be under the direction of Sam M. Braswell, and the program committee urges that all singers who can attend the Community Party be present for the one rehearsal which will be held as announced. The rehearsal will assure the success of this part of the program and add greatly to its enjoyment by the guests. Remember the time and place—Sunday afternoon, 4:30 o'clock, at the First Baptist Church.

U. S. Army to Enlist 25 Men at Amarillo

For the benefit of unemployed men whose circumstances are such that they could enlist in the U. S. Army, The News is glad to publish the following letter, received this week from Sergeant Ooch Thomas, of the U. S. Army Recruiting Station at Amarillo, Room 339, Post Office Building.

Sergeant Thomas writes: "This office has received authority to enlist twenty-five men for station Infantry, Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyoming. We can accept any men between the ages of 18 and 30 who are in good physical condition and who can furnish necessary character references."

Cousin Minnie started in to reform her husband, but she couldn't do it, so now she is trying to reform the world.

Former President Calvin Coolidge is gone—the last ex-president of the United States. Few of us can appreciate the terrific draft made on physical energy by the responsibilities of the chief executive of 120 million people. Other former presidents have lived to a ripe age than did Mr. Coolidge, but none of them have lived long enough to observe the work of many successors. Mr. Coolidge's death is much more than a loss to his family. It is a distinct loss to the ranks of elder statesmen, whose mature counsel is always needed by people whose very numbers and divergent interest set up a real need of the wisdom which is ripened by age and accumulated experience.

COMMENDABLE DELAY IN CONGRESS

Congress makes haste slowly. Sometimes slowness to take action results in just criticism of the ponderous law-making body. But no such criticism need be made because congress is not rushing toward repeal of the 18th amendment.

Sanity is nowhere more needed than in congress. Decisions made there affect the whole nation. Mistakes once made can with difficulty be corrected. It is wholly inconsistent for those who accuse the country of rushing into prohibition to insist that the prohibition laws be suspended after brief debate.

Those of us old enough to remember old-time liquor, even hazily, know the evils of the open saloon. We remember the reeling men on the streets, the insults given women, the danger of being forced to protect oneself with force against a man bereft of his judgement. We remember the greed of the saloon keepers and brewers in seeking to build up their list of victims by enticing boys into their dives. We remember their political ambitions, their defiance of law abiding citizens. Rush back to such conditions? Never!

Today the young women of the country demand, and largely get, equality. The high school girl wishes the same rules as her brother and her mother's chum—no more, no less. Shall the girls and young women be subjected to the temptations of the saloon and all the saloon crowds stand for?

We have no illusions about the shortcomings of prohibition enforcement, especially in eastern states. But this admission only magnifies the enormity of the problem of dealing with the liquor question. It proves our point that this is no time for haste. Outright repeal of the 18th amendment would in no way solve the problem. Taxes on liquor would be offset by declining tax revenue from other sources, including the soft drink and milk business. Liquor would not put any more money in the hands of most laboring men, but would merely transfer it from one business to another.

Bootlegging is a problem. The saloon and the wealth that went with the old-time liquor traffic constituted a problem. Any so-called solution which does not avoid these problems is not a solution. The liquor question can wait until the people have been given jobs, bread, equitable shares in the national income.—Pampa Daily News.

MIGHT HELP TO MAKE TAXATION HURT

One need not be an advocate of the general sales tax to appreciate that it would have one desirable effect: It would make taxation hurt. It would give every citizen, regardless of income, a new understanding of the gigantic cost of the government.

All of us pay taxes. But comparatively few of us pay them directly—and a great many persons who pay indirect taxes think they are escaping taxation altogether.

We pay a tax when we cook and eat a meal, turn on the light, attend a movie, buy clothes, go for a ride, or do almost anything else. These taxes may be concealed in the cost of necessities and pleasures, but they are there nevertheless.

No business can pick money from bushes—every cost of operation, whether it be labor, supplies or taxes, must be passed on to the customer.

If more of us felt taxes directly, the chance for really obtaining economical and efficient government would be tremendously improved.

If the sales tax comes, government extravagance and expansion will have again added to the cost of the things we buy—and when it hurts all the people, they may then demand a lower cost of government.

Before considering a sales tax, however, or any other new and increased taxation, public officials would do well to remember that in seeking office at recent state and national elections, they, one and all, stressed the need for economy in public affairs, reduced taxation and, in a number of instances, promised a 25 per cent cut in the cost of government.

The people will be slow to consent to new and added taxes and it will be an ill-advised program that attempts to force such burdens on them unless pre-election promises for reduced cost of government have been kept.—Industrial News Review.

FOR SIXTEEN YEARS

Sixteen years ago a McLennan county landlord brought suit in district court for $350 in rentals due him. The defendant had guaranteed payment of the rent, the tenant later going bankrupt.

Recently, for the fifth time, the case was reversed and remanded by the state supreme court. Presumably it will be tried again. Attorneys' fees and court costs now amount to a much larger sum than the $350 originally asked.

The public has no direct concern in the case. Only in an academic sense has it an indirect concern. Yet it must pay a large part of the expense of this ridiculous proceeding.—Wichita Daily Times.

PASSAGE OF SALES TAX PROBABLE

"The man on the street," casual inquiry here and there seems to indicate, is not at all unfavorable to a general sales tax as a means of meeting a very critical tax income situation. The plan has met general approval for two major reasons: first, it appeals to the average citizen as a reasonable tax. As Jim Ferguson aptly puts it, "If you haven't got anything, the sales tax won't hurt you, and if you're prosperous you ought to be willing to give up a little."

The other reason is that a neighbor state, Mississippi, has proven that the plan works. That state's sale tax was enacted in the face of vigorous opposition, although strongly championed by its governor. Revenues for 1932 are expected to surpass the wildest hopes of the bill's advocates by almost a quarter-million dollars, yielding over $1,500,000.00. The sales tax being urged for Texas has, therefore, the merit of being "a plan that works."

Jim Ferguson, as spokesman for the incoming governor, views the sales tax as the only real solution of the financial problems of Texas. His views on the subject seem full of commonsense and their expression has relieved much uneasiness in the camp of the proponents of the general sales tax. It appears that the passage of a sales tax by the Texas Legislature is very likely.

YEAR-ROUND GARDEN ACHIEVEMENT

A total of 72,956 pounds of vegetables valued at $2,446.84 was produced in twenty-eight 4-H club girls' demonstration gardens in Dallas county this year, and 500 garden cooperators whose goal was to plant three vegetables, one of which was to be a new vegetable to each girl, produced 51,832 pounds valued at $2,002.73. These same girls planted 294 new vegetables which they tried to learn to eat, according to the report of Alpha Lynn, assistant home demonstration agent.

In addition to the production and the use of vegetables fresh, 11,466 quarts of vegetables and fruits valued at $2,489.46 were canned by the girls, thus making a total value of $7,039.03.

As a means of checking up on the year's work each garden demonstrator compiled records for her club and made a poster showing pounds produced and value of demonstration garden, pounds produced and value of cooperators' gardens, canning in quarts and value, and total of garden work for the year. In their 4-H club tours, all club girls visited a garden demonstration where the garden was shown and explained by the demonstrator and the club report given.

WINTER PLOTS A WICKED CRIME

THE VICTIMS: Those Motors Using Ordinary Oil that Drains Away from Heated Working Surfaces.

THE TIME: Those Cold Starting Minutes While Precious Motor Parts Must Run Dry at Warming Speed Until Oil is Pumped from Below.

GET THE "hidden quart" in time

THE QUART THAT STAYS UP IN YOUR MOTOR AND NEVER DRAINS AWAY

CONOCO

The Germ Process (exclusive Conoco patent) imparts to this motor oil that peculiar ability to penetrate and combine with metal surfaces. Of the first filling about one quart will "hide" itself up in your motor's precious working parts. This hidden quart never drains away. It becomes a part of the motor itself; worth its weight in gold.

The One Oil that Gives You Perfect Protection for Winter's Worst Days Ahead

Drip! trickle! drip! through long night hours, ordinary oil drains away. When the pump quits, ordinary oil quits, leaving the motor's parts high and dry. You touch the starter. The motor roars. The pump strains at the sluggish oil. It is only a few minutes till circulation is completed. But, in the meantime, working surfaces only partly lubricated are in contact, while the motor makes three to five thousand revolutions. This causes 50% of all motor wear.

Prevent this loss. Choose not merely a quick oil, but an oil that never leaves. Choose the oil with the "hidden quart" that penetrates and combines with the metal surfaces of the motor itself. In the emergency of an empty crankcase, users have driven many miles, without damage, on this "hidden quart" alone. This proves that your motor need never suffer while waiting upon the pump. Don't remain in doubt. Drain and refill with the "hidden quart oil today.

Mrs. Forest Grant and Mrs. Milo Dotson and children of Dahlart visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bullard, the latter part of the week.

Rev. C. Q. Herndon and family left Thursday for Tyler where they will make their future home.

Vinson Irons and Milford Allen returned early this week from a trip to Lubbock.

Mrs. W. A. Tomlinson shopped in Amarillo Tuesday.

Mel Maberry of Estelline spent Thursday here in the home of his brother, J. L. Maberry.

Arthur Crites and John Harber left Sunday for a visit with relatives at Granbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reid and family spent the week end in Amarillo.

Mrs. B. J. Leathers was called to Clarendon Saturday by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Holland.

Joe Stavenhagen and family have moved to Clarendon where Mrs. Stavenhagen will be a student in Clarendon College.

Toy Maberry and family, of Estelline, moved Saturday to a farm west of town and owned by his father, Mel Maberry.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cook and daughters and Miss Jessie Tomlinson spent Sunday with his father at Goodnight.

Kim Day, of Dallas, bought the Cafe operated by A. N. Stavenhagen and will be in charge after Tuesday of this week.

Noel Knox left Monday for Adrain where he has accepted a position.

Mrs. Earl Alderson of Clarendon and Misses Layma Taylor and Eula Bess Hill honored Mrs. Rice Batson, the recent bride, in the spacious home of Mrs. J. C. Christal, with a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon. The guests assembled for games of bridge until Bobbie Leathers, as a messenger boy, brought a special delivery package for Mrs. Batson. The package unfolded many beautiful and useful gifts for the honoree. After the gifts had been displayed and admired, delicious refreshments of date loaf, topped with whipped cream and nuts, and coffee were served to Mesdames Albert Tomlinson, D. M. Cook, S. R. Tomlinson, E. R. Myers, Robert Weatherly, Bascom Webb, Lon Howard, J. C. Christal, B. J. Leathers, Quin Aten, D. E. Leathers, W. V. Thomasson, H. R. King, Guy Taylor, S. S. Roberts, and Mrs. Bob Roberts and Mrs. Gus Roscoe of Memphis, the honoree Mrs. Batson and Misses Taylor, Hill, Garland and Mrs. Alderson.

The Home Builders Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. C. L. Cook Friday afternoon, January 6th. After the business meeting and election of new officers for the coming year, the class honored Mrs. Sallie Noble with a gift shower. Those present were: Mrs. B. J. Leathers, Mrs. E. L. Lewis, Johnston, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Van Mrs. Goodrich, Mrs. Joe E. Knox, Mrs. D. E. Leathers, the honoree Mrs. Noble, and hostess

Mrs. Cook.

Mrs. J. D. Cook came Monday for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Tomlinson.

The Lelia Lake Zebras journeyed to Ashtola Thursday evening. From beginning to end there was a strong defense game for both teams. This held the scores down. When the final whistle blew the scores were tied. Reynolds of Lelia Lake was high point man. The tie will be played off next week.

What a day! What a day, was last Thursday when Lelia High School journeyed to Ashtola for a game of basketball. The first score was made when Anna Belle twirled the ball into the goal. From then on the Lelia Lake girls fell in line, and the scores piled up. The game ended with the score 20 to 7 in our favor. We are proud of this game, and hoping that Ashtola will visit us soon.

MEN'S CLASS IS IN CONTEST WITH LADIES

The "Come As You Are." Men's Bible Class, moved into their new class room last Sunday morning. The teacher of this class, Rev. W. E. Ferrell, the minister of the First Christian Church, reported that there were twenty-five men present. He invites all men, who are not connected with Bible School work to come out and join this class and to help them put across a program for Christ and righteousness.
The class is in a contest now with the ladies' Dorcas Class and they feel sure of winning an evening's entertainment and supper, but as the contest is just starting they feel that there is much work to be done. The contest now stands, Ladies' Class 160 points, Men's Class 250 points.

"FILL, DRAW, BEAR"

Text: "And Jesus said unto them, Fill, Draw and Bear the waterpots," etc.—John 2:7, 8.
I. "Fill." We should fill our hearts and minds, and our very lives with the love and knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We can fill them by a careful study of the life and works and teachings of Jesus. We can fill them also by a careful observance of the ways and workings of God as seen in nature. We can fill them also by a study of the lives of great religious leaders, especially those whose history is recorded in the New Testament. But a vital personal experience is necessary to fill a life fully.
II. "Draw." Having filled the life full, we are to draw from that source of supply in order to assist in the work of evangelizing the world. We are to draw upon this source which we have filled and not upon some other source. Lives should be so filled that they shall be as rivers of living waters, and it is from these rivers we are to draw in our endeavors to propagate the kingdom.
III. "Bear." We are then to bear the good news to others. The beauty of the Sea of Galilee is that it takes and it gives, the deadness of the Dead Sea is that it takes in, and does not give out. So the life that takes in and does not give out is as dead as the Dead Sea. The Christian life is not complete until it has drawn out of the source and has

School Notes

From over the County

By SLOAN BAKER, County Superintendent

When our great Democracy shall have outgrown its child era of inexpensive and crude experiment and become sane and wise; when the children of America are rated as the nations most valuable asset, its chief source of undeveloped power, and it's most fruitful field for unlimited investment; when love shall have become the law of life and service, the test and measure of greatness, then will this truth be universally recognized: Those who train and inspire and mold the young are the real Leaders of the people—the Makers and Builders of the nation.—Henry Louis Smith.

The teachers of Donley County Schools are to be commended on the way they are conducting the schools in the face of difficulties. Patrons of the schools are co-operating and aiding the teacher to carry on a successful school program. There seems to be a greater interest among the pupils as shown by the increased attendance in the County Schools.

Mr. Ed Boliver of the Hedley Informer, was an office visitor Monday. Mr. Boliver is in favor of everything that is for the good of the schools.

Mrs. C. T. McMurtry paid the interscholastic League dues for White Fish schools.

Chamberlain Trustees were busy this week changing the water supply and improving to meet state aid requirements.

Mr. Allen of Sunnyview reported that Miss Sada Gray and Mrs. Anna B. Ballew were conducting a very successful school.

Mr. Tom Messer of McKnight was in Clarendon buying fixtures for the school water system.

The County Available Fund was appointed to the County schools this week. Some tax money was also deposited to the credit of the different districts.

The County schools will have a number of good basket ball teams this year. Martin, Hudgins, Chamberlain, Ashtola, Windy Valley, Bray, Goldston and Lelia Lake all have good prospects. Competition for the County Championship will be keen this year.

Mr. E. H. Estlack reports a large attendance at Fairview. He given it to others. To fill and draw occasionally for ourselves, is not truly Christian, we become so only when we draw and bear to others. We are to bear the gospel message with our own lips, and by the living of a life consistent with the teachings of Jesus.

Patrick Henry, State Evangelist, of the Texas Christian Missionary Society will be with us next Lord's Day to assist us in our installation services and to bring messages that will help us to help others.—W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

expects to develop a basket ball team out there of new material which has just enrolled.

Mrs. Whitt says her school work is progressing nicely at Pleasant Valley.

The County Board of Trustees composed of Mr. O. L. Jacobs, Mrs. W. L. Pickering, Mr. Bailey, Mr. E. L. Lewis and Mr. H. T. Burton will meet Thursday at 1:00 p. m.

Miss Call and Miss Bailey of Ashtola secured a supply of new supplementary readers for their pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Kavanaugh and Mrs. Jim Baker report that the seating capacity of the new Martin school is being taxed by the enlarged enrollment.

Mr. Frank Behringer and Miss Whit replenished a supply of new books for the enlarged enrollment at Hudgins.

The faculty at Windy Valley, Mr. Dillard, Miss Johnson, and Miss Taylor, report an excellent school in that district.

The Box Supper at Skillet netted the school a nice sum for athletic equipment.

Mr. Howard of Bray says, "pies still sell." A pie supper increased their athletic fund by $25.00.

Miss Ruth Dunn of Glenwood is enthusiastic over the way her school work is progressing.

The C. S. (County Superintendent) will be out of the office visiting schools Monday afternoon, all day Tuesday, all day Thursday, and Friday morning. His office days will be Monday afternoon, Wednesday all day, Friday afternoon and Saturday all day. This is for the convenience of those who wish to visit the office.

This is the first attempt at County School News. Let's make it better next time. Leave any items of interest to the schools at the C. S.'s office.

McLEAN BOYS EXPERTS AT POULTRY JUDGING

Wilburn Lynch, of McLean, who took highest honors in the poultry judging contest held here during the Poultry Show, "knew his chickens"—not just one breed, but all of the popular varieties.

In the examination, consisting of fifty questions on disqualifications, defects and normal characteristics of several varieties of poultry, he made a perfect grade, giving correct answers on each of the questions, receiving 150 points out of a possible 150.

He followed this performance up with a score of 270 points out of a possible 300 in scoring six pens of different varieties of birds, making a total score of 420 points out of a possible 450.

A. L. Howard, another McLean boy, made 135 points on his examination and 270 on scoring the birds, for a total of 405 points, giving him second place. G. A. Mahler, of Claude, won third place, with 380 points; Raymond Seagle, of Panhandle, fourth place, with 374 points, and Leon Davis, of Claude, and Hampton Byrd, of Panhandle, tied for fifth place, with scores of 373 points.

The Road To Better Health

By DR. WILLIAM J. SCHOLES

Within the last year much that is of value has been added to our knowledge of scarlet fever. Drs. George F. and Gladys H. Dick of Chicago seem to have shown that a certain kind of streptococcus is the germ which causes this disease. It is present in the throat of those who have scarlet fever and gives off a poison (toxin) which is absorbed into the system.

The discovery of the germ which is the cause of the infectious diseases is of tremendous value. It leads to a study of the characteristics of the germ and the means by which it is conveyed from one person to another. In some instances, tests for susceptibility, methods of immunizing the individual against the disease, and even curative measures, have resulted from such a discovery.

The Dick Test
One of the positive results of the study of streptococcus of scarlet fever is a skin test for susceptibility. This is known as the Dick test, and consists in the injecting of a minute amount of the toxin of the streptococcus into the skin. Within a few hours an area of redness appears at the point of injection in those who are susceptible. Experiments with the test seem to show that it is about as reliable as the Schick test for diphtheria, which it resembles.

Pursuing their studies still further, Drs. Dick have attempted to work out a method of immunizing those who are found to be susceptible. They seem to have met with considerable success. They inject small amounts of toxin at intervals of about 5 days, somewhat similar to the way in which toxin-antitoxin is given to prevent diphtheria.

While these things may still be considered in the experimental stage, their perfection is only a matter of time. They will enable us to prevent a disease which, besides being dangerous in itself, often gives rise to kidney and heart disease in children.

Facts are easily accepted if they do not conflict with our preconceived notions.

ARMSTRONG APPRECIATES PATRONAGE OF CLARENDON

W. A. Armstrong, whose stock of groceries and fixtures were purchased this week by J. Roy Bartlett and removed to his building next to the Postoffice, expressed to a News reporter his sincere appreciation of the patronage which has been accorded him during his four years of business in Clarendon. He announced no plans for the immediate future, other than giving attention to collection of accounts due him.

FINDS BOTH SISTER AND HUSBAND ARE QUITE ILL

A postcard from G. W. Antrobus, who is at the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Kate Hardeman, and her husband, states that he does not think either of them will recover. He left here last Saturday morning after receiving advice that his sister was not expected to live, and found her husband also ill when he arrived there Monday.

Mr. Antrobus said that he encountered heavy rains throughout his trip and expressed his best wishes for a fine "community party."

A UTILITY PRAISED

Continuing a custom which has been followed for some time, an Alabama public utility recently paid its taxes several weeks before they were due, in order to aid the schools of the state which were in desperate need of funds. Commenting on the occurrence, the Selma Times-Journal said:

"We want to pay tribute to the generosity and public spirit of the Alabama Power Company in paying its taxes two and three months before they are due, to relieve the pressure on the state and the schools in their present financial plight. The power company has previously advanced $700,000 and is now paying $950,000, constituting payment in full."

Naturally the payment of $1,650,000 two or three months ahead of time involved a considerable loss in interest on the part of the company, but its officials have an interest in the welfare of the state and its schools, and voluntarily made this sacrifice, thereby setting a fine example in good citizenship.

WILL PAY TO PATCH UP THE HEN HOUSE

At the present price of eggs a good hen house will enable a flock of 100 hens to pay their owner at least $10 to $15 more this winter than they could if kept in a poor house, says E. N. Holmgreen, poultry husbandman in the Extension Service at Texas A. and M. College. He bases it on records of hundreds of demonstration flocks supervised by county and home demonstration agents last winter. These show that well housed hens laid two and one-third more eggs per month than birds in poor houses, even though the winter was mild. If the weather is severe this winter the difference may be expected to be greater, he says.

"It is not necessary to go to a lot of expense to build a comfortable new house," Mr. Holmgreen states. "As a rule a farmer can make the old one conform to good practices with little cash outlay. There are five winter housing essentials every poultryman should observe. First, whatever the size and shape of house it should be dry and protected from cold drafts. Second, there should be 2 1/2 feet of space allowed each hen in the house. Third, there should be 9 inches of roosting space per bird for the light breeds, and 10 to 11 inches for the heavier breeds. Fourth, mash troughs should be kept full and in the houses convenient to the hens, with 1 foot of double side provided for each 10 hens. Fifth, water should be provided in enough vessels that hens do not have to wait in line. Water should be kept from freezing if possible. Warming the drinking water helps to keep up production during bad cold spells."

Superstitious?

There are some who believe that Friday is a most unlucky day. And then there are many who believe that 13 is a very unlucky number.

If you are among the many who believe both Friday and 13 are unlucky, you had better watch your step this week, because Friday falls on the 13th, or the 13th falls on Friday, coming like a pair of bad luck twins. Oh, oh, oh, ain't this a world?

If the big bankers don't loosen up some gold pretty soon, a lot of us may have to go back to the wampum standard.

Mr. and Mrs. Odos Caraway Entertain

One of the truly lovely parties of the week was the entertaining of the 500 Club with a Turkey Dinner last Thursday evening, at the spacious and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Odos Caraway.

The guests were seated at two large tables, which were centered with attractive fruit centerpieces. At the conclusion of the sumptuous dinner Five Hundred was played the remainder of the evening with Mrs. Fred Chamberlain winning high score for the ladies and Mr. John Sims, Sr., high for the men. Mrs. Charles Bugbee was fortunate in cut for consolation, as was Mr. John Blocker.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMurtry, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry, Mrs. L. S. Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. John Sims, Sr., Mr. A. L. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. John Blocker, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bugbee.

Recent Bride Honored

Honoring Mrs. Rice Batson, who before her marriage on Christmas Eve was Miss Wilma King, Misses Eula Bess Hill, Layma Taylor, and Mrs. Earl Alderson entertained with a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Christal in Lelia Lake.

After several games of bridge, Master Bobbie Leathers came in with a huge Special Delivery Package, which contained many useful and attractive gifts for the honoree. After each had been opened and admired, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to:

Mesdames H. K. Leathers, Quin Aten, H. R. King, S. S. Roberts, Bascom Webb, E. R. Myers, Robert Weatherly, Jr., B. J. Leathers, Albert Tomlinson, D. M. Cook, S. R. Tomlinson, Lon Howard, J. C. Christal, W. V. Thomasson, Guy Taylor, Mrs. Guy Rascoe and Mrs. Bob Roberts of Memphis, and the honoree, Mrs. Batson.

Mrs. Cooke Hostess to 1922 Bridge Club

Another most truly lovely social affair of the week was the party given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Cooke for members of the 1922 Bridge Club, at her home.

On arrival the guests found tables arranged for the games and playing began soon afterwards with Mrs. L. S. Bagby high for club members and Mrs. W. J. Lewis high for guests. Mrs. Odos Caraway was fortunate in the cut for consolation. Each received an attractive gift.

When served a delectable two course afternoon luncheon, the guests were seated at two tables, each being centered with a pretty bouquet of sweet peas.

Enjoying this hospitality were: Mrs. W. J. Lewis, Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain, and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain, guests.

Mrs. Sella Gentry, Mrs. W. H. Martin, Mrs. L. S. Bagby, Mrs. L. L. Swan, Mrs. C. H. Bugbee, Mrs. T. H. Ellis, Mrs. John Sims, Sr., Mrs. A. R. Letts, and Mrs. Odos Caraway, club members.

Mrs. Nored Honored

Mrs. T. D. Nored was delightfully surprised when members of the 1930 Good Will Club gathered at her home Tuesday afternoon to lunch, bringing with them dishes filled to the brim with good eats.

After they had partaken of the delicious luncheon, they spent the remainder of the afternoon helping Mrs. Nored piece a quilt.

Attending were: Mrs. L. D. Carlisle, Mrs. Melvin Cook, Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. Claude Gamblin, Mrs. Dick Bain, Mrs. Fred Russell, and Mrs. Blanche Oden.

Friendship Club

The members of the Friendship Club and a few invited guests spent a delightful afternoon Tuesday, when Mrs. J. D. Stocking entertained at her home.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Skinner and Mrs. Allison read a Scripture Lesson. After a short business session, there was a distribution of the Pollyanna packages and

Sims P. T. A. In Session

A large group of Parent-Teacher workers gathered in the band room at the Central Ward School building Thursday afternoon where they were delightfully entertained for fifteen minutes by the Clarendon Junior Band under the direction of Mr. Gus Stevenson. Mrs. John Bass and her music pupils added several numbers to the program. Mrs. Bass also gave an interesting and instructive talk on "The Value of Music in the Home and School."

B. & P. W. Officers Are Named

The Business and Professional Women's Club held its annual election of officers at its meeting in the club rooms Tuesday evening.

These officers will take charge the first of July and are as follows: Carrie Davis, President; Opal Pyle, 1st Vice-President; Beatrice Antrobus, 2nd Vice-President; Etta Harned, Corresponding Secretary; Fannie Perry, Recording Secretary; and Julia Mae Caraway, Treasurer.

The club is planning to sponsor a Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet sometime this spring, the date to be announced later.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess, Lela Lamons and Helen Wiedman.

Contract Club

Numbered among the attractive social affairs of the week was the entertaining of the Contract Club by Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain on Monday afternoon at her lovely home.

Games of contract bridge were enjoyed throughout the afternoon with a delicious two course afternoon luncheon being served to: Mrs. W. J. Lewis of Dallas, and Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain, guests; and Mrs. Phillips Gentry, Miss Mary Cooke, Mrs. Sam Dyer, Mrs. Ira Merchant, Mrs. Selden Bagby, and Mrs. Meredith Gentry club members.

1912 Needle Club Entertained

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Anna Hall was hostess to the 1912 Needle Club at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Baird.

During the business session Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Sr., was elected President for the coming year with Mrs. Homer Glascoe as Secretary and Treasurer. Many new ideas were discussed and commented on and the ladies spent an enjoyable afternoon.

Club members present were: Mesdames W. H. Martin, Sella Gentry, A. R. Letts, Homer Glascoe, Ann Hasty, L. S. Bagby, H. C. Kerbow, C. W. Taylor, A. A. Mayes, B. L. Jenkins, Sr., and J. T. Patman.

Miss Mary Howren, Miss Mae Bennett, and Mrs. Matt Bennett were the invited guests.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Episcopal Auxiliary Meets

Mrs. C. G. Stricklin entertained the Episcopal Auxiliary Wednesday afternoon at the Parish House.

In the business meeting Mrs. L. L. Swan and Mrs. W. H. Patrick were elected delegates to the annual Church Convocation, which will be held in Abilene January 22, 23, and 24.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing for the local Red Cross and twenty-five garments were completed.

1930 Needle Club Elects Officers

Mrs. St. Johnson was cordial hostess to members of the 1930 Good Will Club last Thursday afternoon at her home.

During the business meeting officers for the year were elected and many interesting plans made. Mrs. Melvin Cook was elected President, Mrs. Blanche Oden Vice-President, Mrs. Fred Russell Secretary, Mrs. Claude Gamblin, Treasurer, and Mrs. Lucian Bones Reporter.

Win-One Class Social

The ladies of the Win-One Sunday School Class of the Methodist Church delightfully entertained their husbands with a party at the Club Room, Monday evening.

Progressive Forty-Two was played at ten tables until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served to the following:

Mrs. E. B. Bowen, Mrs. R. C. Weatherly, Mrs. John Blocker, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Connally, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Van Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Holder, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. King, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Broun, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Stallings, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Story, Mrs. Gussie Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Nored, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kerbow, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Meaders, Mr. M. M. Noble, Mrs. B. G. Smith, Mrs. O. T. Smith, Mrs. Eva Rhode, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry and Miss Katie Meaders.

Chamberlain H. D. C.

The Chamberlain Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Willie Hearne Thursday, January 5, with twelve members and one visitor present. Plans for the year were discussed; each member has to give a demonstration of some kind during the year. All the ladies of the community are invited to attend all these meetings. Next meeting will be with Mrs. O. B. Rumpy Thursday, January 19.

Mrs. Ruddell Is Hostess

Mrs. Harry Ruddell was charming hostess to members of her bridge club on Monday afternoon, at her home.

Games of bridge were enjoyed throughout the afternoon, with Mrs. Fred Buntin winning high score, after which a delectable salad course was served by the hostess to: Mrs. U. J. Boston, Mrs. Bill Greene, Mrs. H. B. Kerbow, Mrs. C. C. Powell, Mrs. Fred Rathjen, Mrs. Eva Rhode, Mrs. D. O. Stallings, Mrs. J. G. Sherman, Mrs. W. W. Taylor, Mrs. Nathan Cox, Mrs. Claud McGowan, and Mrs. Fred Buntin.

Mother's Club

On January 6th, Mrs. Clyde Douglas was hostess to the Mother's Club at the Womans' Club Room.

Mrs. J. R. Porter was leader of the program and gave a splendid discussion of the 14th and 15th chapters of Child Psychology. Mrs. Fred Buntin talked on "Cultivating Truthfulness" and Mrs. Cap Morris on "Turning Children into Boys and Girls."

At the conclusion of the program dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Joe Goldston was a guest for the afternoon.

The next meeting will be Jan. 20th with Mrs. T. H. Ellis as hostess.

THE MOTHER'S SELF CULTURE CLUB will meet January 20th with Mrs. C. B. Morris at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. T. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Allen announce the birth of a seven-pound daughter, Jo Ann, on Monday.

Eastern Star Banquet

Members of the Eastern Star Lodge celebrated their Thirty-Fourth Anniversary on Tuesday evening when they entertained with a banquet and Womanless Wedding at the Masonic Hall.

The banquet tables were made attractive with small potted plants. Gales of laughter were heard as the Womanless Wedding got under way. And was Ralph Kerbow a "Blushing Bride" or was he. It was a very clever performance and everyone thoroughly enjoyed it. About seventy-five attended.

St. John's Chapter Has Business Meeting

Meeting for the first time in several weeks, members of the St. John's Chapter, Episcopal Church, held a business meeting in the home of Mrs. Meade Haile, Wednesday afternoon at which time plans were discussed for a George Washington Dance on February 22nd, which will be sponsored by this group. Mrs. Charlie Trent was elected Vice-President for the coming year.

At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments and a social hour were enjoyed.

FOUR GENERATIONS VISIT TURKEY SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. George Garrison and their little daughter, Frankie, and C. A. Bryan, visited Sunday in the home of Regan Bryan, at Turkey. Four generations were represented in the party: Mr. Bryan, Mrs. Hittlock, Mrs. Garrison and little Frankie Garrison. Mr. Bryan is 83 years old, while the youngest of the four is only three years old.

NAYLOR

Our folks are still killing hogs. Every farm has plenty of meat and bread for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fields and sons, of Amarillo, spent Sunday with the lady's sisters, Misses Naylor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow and children spent Sunday at Lelia Lake guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Crites.

Perry Tunnell of Pleasant Valley visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nich Bowlin Sunday.

Two showers for the newly weds have occurred in Naylor the past week, one Tuesday night and one Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bain receiving both. Their many friends from Hedley coming out Tuesday night and friends at home visited them Saturday night, each time the popular couple received nice gifts.

Our school is now full as all the boys and girls are in their place and doing good work.

Mrs. Richmond Bowlin spent Friday at Memphis.

W. M. Pickering is making two trips a week to Amarillo with his sweet potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Naylor of Hackberry spent Sunday with their cousins Misses Minnie, Lou, and Ava Naylor.

We are having Spring weather. Almost ready to plant garden, that is the way we feel. Yet we remember it is January.

A. M. Smith of Plainview was here the first part of the week for a visit with his son, Mr. O. T. Smith and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knopp arrived home Tuesday from a vacation spent in Long Beach, California.

MRS. O. L. JENKINS GIVES DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Jenkins gave a dance at their home Friday night, January 6, in honor of Lawrence Bourland, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Charles Bourland, of Pampa, Texas, who were visiting here. A large number of young people were there. Dancing to good radio music was enjoyed very much. A large jig-saw puzzle was put out on the dining room table for those who wished to rest from dancing awhile. About eleven o'clock sandwiches, cake, stuffed celery, pickles, and coffee were served. These delicious refreshments helped to put even more life into the party which lasted until nearly one o'clock.

Palo Duro Literary Society

The society has not met for the last two weeks because of the necessity of staying at home and studying for examinations, but it will meet on regular meeting night next week. Every member is urged to be there for two reasons; first, officers for the last semester will be elected, and to do this right every member should be present to do his part; second, the last semester of school has begun, and to have a good society the interest and spirit should be revived.

BASKET BALL SEASON IS OPEN

The Clarendon Basketball season is opened for good now, and there seems to be an unusual amount of interest in the game this year. Two games have already been played. One game with White Deer was played. White Deer was victor by two points. The score was 22 to 20. Another game was played with Panhandle in which Panhandle was also the victor. The score of this game was 33 to 13. This should not discourage the boys though, because it is the beginning of the season for them.

Those coming out are Lawrence Whitlock, Walter Gorman, Robert Nichols, Johnny Blocker, Paul Green, Lloyd Martin, Elerly Watson, Byrum Halle, Carrol Hudson, and Willard Hudson.

All of the students in College join in sending their profound sympathy to Jack Draffen, who was burned so severely when a phosphorous experiment exploded in his face, and every one hopes that he will recover rapidly and soon rejoin his friends and classmates at school.

COLLEGE BIOLOGY CLASS

Lately a new and very interesting phase in the study of biology has appeared. Mr. Clark, the teacher, has suggested that the members of the class get a project to work on. This is not compulsory, however. The nature of these projects consist of such things as dissecting a small animal, such as a cat, and then mounting his skeleton. Some have chosen to work on birds. All of this is to be done outside of class period.

PRESS CLUB

At the last Press Club meeting very few members were present. Perhaps that was due to the Physical Ed. class that comes every afternoon after school. Every member is urged to remember that the club will meet in Miss Headrick's room on the afternoon that they are notified by the editor. The meeting will not start until after all Physical Ed. is over.

This club is in the interest of the school paper, and since the paper demands a certain amount of interest on the part of the students, the members are asked to always, if possible, attend the meetings. All students who are not members are extended a cordial invitation to join.

CHEWING GUM

(By ELIZABETH DUNN)

In all chewing gum kingdom each flavor has its place. The dull thud with which the teeth fall into the gum or the difficulty in urging the jaws to meet through the gum give away one's deepest secret—the price of the precious mouthful of deliciousness. Some chewers, mostly the amateurs, chew with mouth wide open to fling the delicate scent of spearmint, juicy fruit, dentyne, or teaberry to the four winds so that everyone may know, or at least guess at, the social standing of the chewer. The more professional chewers, however, wise in the art of graciously giving themselves away, keep their mouths shut while they wallow the perfumed wad in their mouths until they find the exact person upon whom to bestow their accomplishments. The small school boy or school girl does not have so much to lavish on this much desired asset, so to them a large penny stick of "Oh Boy" or a huge roll of blow gum serves the purpose, for not yet have they learned to distinguish themselves from the next door neighbor by the flavor of the gum they chew.

I do not know what would happen to this world if chewing gum went out of style. Certainly every one wants to be in style, yet chewing gum is so useful to all members of the family, from little Agnes, who could not possibly cut teeth without gum, to grandfather, who sits thoughtfully before the fire on winter evenings and chews into his gum a part of his tongue as well as memories. What do you suppose would happen to the school child if eaten meal if Wrigley's Spearmint and workers after a hurried stint were not available at every store? More than likely indigestion would get the upper hand, and the physicians over the country would have a flourishing practice. Day dreamers would find their dreams incomplete if the chasms could not be spanned by a draw bridge of gum, reaching from the mouth to the finger tips, at the end of an outstretched arm. Possibly the first advance toward friendship between the small, neighbor boy and little Sally was a stick of chewing gum poked through the fence with a "Like it?" I once knew a boy who came to school at least twice a week with a new addition to his now stale wad of "toothache reliever". After the from her gum, the small boy has debutante has chewed the flavor chewed Oh Boy until it falls to pieces, or Grandfather's tongue is thoroughly mixed with his gum, it is not yet ready to be stuck under the table or left to the gold fish. Mother can find a hole in the slop bucket or some other utensil in which the gum can be put to use. So once more the great wad does its duty toward mankind. Let's all pray together that if God sees fit to take this much needed article from us, He will also see fit to give us a proper substitute for it.

SPORTS

SPORT SPUTTERS

BY O. C. WATSON, JR.

The Bronchos have started their basketball season alright, but the bad part about it they have met three defeats, at the hands of Panhandle, White Deer, and Hedley.

It seems the Bronchos have no ambition to play. They show this by the way they get around on the court, and by the way they practice and train. Also, no one being interested in the game, knocks it in the head some.

Congratulations, Hedley, you have got a nice little basketball team, and most of the team play sportsmanship ball with the exception of your star player and he don't know what a sport is. However, I wish you luck and hope you win the district.

See, what did I tell you? I told you S. M. U. was coming out with a strong team this year and they sure showed power by defeating T. C. U. Saturday, Texas also showed up well. Marx my word, S. M. U. will win the Southwest Cage Championship this year.

Bits Of WASHINGTON'S Current Comment

Action by the United States on the foreign debt business seems to have approached something like a standstill. The President and the President-elect express a desire to get to the root of the matter, and do something about it, but though both have their eye upon the same destination, it is to be suspected that they propose to reach that destination by different paths.

ALL PANHANDLE INTERESTED IN VANITIES SHOW

AMARILLO.—The whole Panhandle is going to help Amarillo open the 1933 theatrical season when the ninth edition of Earl Carroll's Vanities comes to the Municipal Auditorium for two performances on Saturday, Jan. 21.

Although the show date is still considerably more than a week away, orders for tickets are pouring in, many of them from over the Panhandle.

With a company of 100 members traveling by a special train of ten cars, the Vanities is expected to be the most elaborate musical revue ever brought to Amarillo. It will be a guaranteed show, says Wilbur C. Hawk, who booked the Vanities for the benefit of the Tri-State Fair.

In his principal comedians Mr. Carroll has the material for royal good humor and he makes excellent use of Al Trahan, who has just returned to this country from a tour of the European capitals and his command performance for King George in London. He has also staged Mitchell and Durant in various comedy sketches which give full scope to the hilarious and ridiculous antics of this pair of vigorous acrobatic comedians.

The song hits include "Have A Heart," and "It's Great to be in Love," which were popular on Broadway last season, and "My Darling," "Masquerade" and "I Guess I'll Have To Change My Plans," now current and popular in New York.

All kinds of dancing from the super buck and wing to the most exquisite modern ballet alternate with the fast and picturesque ensemble dances.

The entire production was staged by and under the personal direction of Earl Carroll.

Mail orders for tickets may be addressed to Mr. Hawk, care of the News-Globe. A stamped envelope for return of the tickets should be enclosed with the remittance. Matinee prices are only 83 cents, $1.10, $1.65 and $2.20. Night prices are $1.10, $1.65, $2.20, $2.75 and $3.30. All these prices include tax.

FRIENDLY ADVERTISING

Illustrating the present trend of good will advertising, a plan adopted by a railroad in the South is interesting.

Recognizing the important function of the local station agent, through whom most patrons of the road have their only contact with the management and its policies, the new advertising seeks to bring the agent in closer touch with his community.

This is done in a quarter-page space in the local paper, with a picture of the agent and a little sketch of his services with the road, accompanied with reading matter explaining how he may be of greater service in advertising the public concerning their traveling and shipping problems.

This is in line with the policy of many retail stores, which include pictures of their leading salespeople in their advertising

This Kind of Stock Pays Good Dividend

This is the story of a turkey hen and the dividends she paid to her owner in less than a year: Miss Katie Meaders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meaders, who live near Clarendon, bought a turkey hen for $2.00.

The turkey laid 43 eggs, which were set under chicken hens, 39 little turkeys ("poults," as the turkey-wise call them) were hatched and 37 brought to market age. If there was nothing else to say, this story would be worth while for the fact that such a fine percentage of the eggs eventually became marketable turkeys.

But there's the further interesting fact that 26 of the turkeys were sold for $40.70 in cash. Of the number sold, 12 were sold at the current market price of 11 cents per pound; fourteen were sold at $1.00 for the hens and $1.25 for the toms. The family ate one of the turkeys, and Miss Meaders has ten stock turkeys left. But the turkey hen, whose story this is, was not content with her accomplishments. She was set on 25 guinea eggs, hatched 20 and raised 19, which were sold for 25 cents each. All in all, she paid her owner a nice dividend on the year's operation.

from time to time. There is something about this kind of advertising which compels attention, for nothing in the world is more interesting than people, particularly local people.

Intimate, friendly advertising is to a great extent taking the place of the bombastic, exaggerated style so prevalent a few years ago. The new method is more pleasing and interesting—hence more profitable to the advertiser.

tions. "I fed the little turkeys on corn bread and soured milk, with no water at all until they were ten days old," said Miss Meaders. "After they were five or six days old I began feeding them young, tender locust leaves as green food, all they wanted, taking the leaves to them fresh each time. I took cornbread or milk to them. And how they did like those locust leaves. I continued to feed them sour milk until they were ready for market. They were turned out on free range, with their chicken hen mothers, after they were about 15 days old," said Miss Meaders. "I expect to set eggs from at least six turkey hens next year and believe they will pay me a nice profit on the labor and time I devote to them," she added.

A. L. Chase Attends Funeral Judge McKoy

A. L. Chase returned Tuesday from Cleburne, where he drove to attend the funeral of his lifelong friend, Judge W. D. McKoy, 70, who died Sunday morning at his home in Ft. Worth, where he had lived since 1922.

Judge McKoy was tax and right-of-way agent for the Ft. Worth and Denver Railway Company, a post which he had held for many years. He was widely known throughout the state and his funeral was attended by a great many friends from far and near. Funeral services were held at the Episcopal church in Cleburne, Judge McKoy's former home. Pallbearers were all officials of the Ft. Worth and Denver railway, including Gen. John A. Hulen, Judge J. H. Barwise, J. D. Farrington, J. M. Youngblood, W. C. Logan, W. O. Hamilton, H. H. Durston and M. A. Spainer.

Ed C. Boliver, genial skipper of the Hedley Informer, and his wife, visited relatives in Clarendon Monday.

George L. Green, American Railway Express agent here, returned Tuesday morning from a week-end visit with his mother and brother at Dallas.

D. B. Pope, Sr., of Quanah, and Lee Pope, of Memphis, were visitors here Tuesday.

Advertisement for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Text: "A World's Record MORE than three thousand births without a single loss of either mother or child! That is the official Platt County record of Dr. W. B. Caldwell, in fifty years' family practise in Illinois. No wonder mothers have such entire confidence in giving little ones Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin! If you have a baby, you have constant need of this wonderful preparation of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs. A child who gets this gentle stimulant for the stomach, liver and bowels is always healthier. It keeps children's delicate systems from clogging. It will overcome the most stubborn condition of constipation. It builds them up, and is nothing like the strong cathartics that sap their strength and energy. A coated tongue or bad breath is the signal for a spoonful of Syrup Pepsin. Children take it readily, for it is really delicious in flavor. Taste it! Take Syrup Pepsin yourself, when sluggish or bilious, or you are troubled with sick headaches and no appetite. Take some for several days when run-down, and see how it picks you up. It is a prescription preparation which every drug store has ready; in big bottles, just ask an 'where for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin."

Ansley has missed, but the high esteem in which he was held will be fittingly expressed by those who gather without his presence this year.

A popular feature of recent Community Parties has been the singing of familiar songs by the entire audience. This will be repeated this year, again under the direction of Sam M. Braswell.

Phillips B. Gentry will act as toastmaster and will direct the program which, in addition to the features already mentioned, will include short talks by local men.

Program Toastmaster, P. B. Gentry. Music, by Community Chorus. Invocation, Rev. Robt. S. McKee. Turkey dinner—with "trimmings".

Tribute to the memory of Henry Ansley, with a short talk by the toastmaster, introducing the speaker, Gene Howe ("The Tactless Texan"), of Amarillo. Silent Tribute, all standing. Song, "Farewell To Thee".

"The Dairy and Poultry Industry, as a part of the farming program of Donley County", by G. L. Boykin.

"The Cattle Industry in the Panhandle, Then and Now", by Judge H. E. Hoover, of Canadian. Son, "Juanita".

"Constructive work of the West Texas C. of C., with special reference to its part in securing the RFC funds for the unemployed of our county," by Odos Caraway.

"Our schools as a factor in building a better citizenship for Donley County," by Dean W. A. Clark, of Clarendon Junior College.

responsibility to the City Commission, who also furnished the necessary equipment for finishing the work. The committee supplied the men for the work and paid their wages.

Other projects for which labor cost, only, was paid out of the RFC funds include: lowering water mains on two streets which were being clay-treated; fencing and cleaning up grounds at the sewage disposal plant; cleaning off and building up lot east of city hall; cleaning up grounds and fertilizing shrubs at the hospital; cleaning up school grounds and ball park; building protective fence south of grade school; cleaning Odd Fellows cemetery, Catholic cemetery and Citizens cemetery; building up all sunken graves with new dirt; raising water tank at Citizens cemetery; building tool house at Citizens cemetery; using old material; laying gravel road inside Citizens cemetery; cleaning up all city property; hauling all trash and cans out of all alleys in town; weeds cut all over town and in alleys to prevent possible fire damage; repair work in Junior College and all ward schools; paying wages to deserving and needy women for sewing materials furnished by other sources.

The committee which is handling the RFC funds is composed of Odos Caraway, who is the representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Texas through which organization the funds are allocated to West Texas counties, the West Texas C. of C. being responsible to the Governor and he to the President of the U. S.; H. T. Burton, chairman of the United Charities; Homer Hulkey, chairman of the Donley County Red Cross; and Clyde J. Douglas, who is secretary-treasurer of the committee.

This committee sits in meetings with the City Commission and with the United Charities and advises with them at all times on the proper and just expenditure of the funds. Under present conditions, the work which has been done by labor paid out of the RFC funds, would simply have gone undone except for the funds, awaiting the return of better times, and more than 125 men, who have been enabled to earn a little money, would have been deprived of the relief which the funds have afforded.

hams, 7 Speckled Sussex, 6 Red Leghorns, 7 Jersey White Giants, 3 Anconas, 1 Langshan, 11 Bantams, 11 White Leghorns, 5 Brown Leghorns and 2 Shaw-Neck Games.

Several breeders made sales of surplus stock, and a number of orders were booked for hatching eggs to be delivered at a later date. One breeder reported over $30 in sales.

Poultry Judging Contest

A feature of the show was the poultry judging contest in which teams, of three boys each, from McLean, Panhandle, Claude and Conway participated, the winning teams being placed in the order named. While 12 boys took part in the team contests, a total of 20 took the examinations in poultry judging, which constituted a part of each team's score.

In addition to taking the examination, each team scored six pens of birds, the possible score, including examinations, being 450 points per team member, or a total team score of 1,350 points.

The McLean team scored 1,163 points; the Claude team, 1,144 points; the Panhandle team, 1,061 points and the Conway team, 957 points.

The Claude team was composed of Leon Davis, G. A. Mahler and Glenn Corbin. The Panhandle team members were Belmont Seagle, Hampton Byrd and Sherman Best; the Conway team, D. B. Thomas, John Ingram and Melvin Calligham.

Out of courtesy to the visiting boys, no team of local boys was entered in the judging contests, this being the prevailing custom.

Extra Prizes Offered In addition to the premiums donated by local business men, as published last week the following were later added: Whitlock's Barber Shop, $2.50 barber work; Lowe's Grocery, 1 gallon Kill-O-Mite; Holland Bros., inner tube.

G. L. Boykin, general manager of the show, was ably assisted by the members of both the vocational agriculture classes, all of whom helped in checking in and cooping the birds on Friday. On Saturday the judges were assisted all day by Howard Gilbert, Bobby Wilson, Jesse Cornell, Andrew Harp, Bob Word and Joe Montgomery.

Both the poultry show management and all the breeders who exhibited their birds appreciate deeply the cash and merchandise donations of Clarendon business men which made such a high-class show possible.

Superstition rules many people of the world, even in such a common practice as washing clothes. Morocco's women are sure that clothes washed on Tuesday will shrink, and that Saturday's washing soils faster. Rumanian's housewives, on the contrary, wash Saturdays, but are sure their suds would turn to blood if they should attempt to wash on Good Friday. English peasants say a death will occur soon in the family if anyone makes this most tragic of all our religious anniversaries her washday.

Russians believe that if they wash clothes at Whitsuntide much-feared water spirits will show their displeasure. On the Isle of Skye, it is said that if a man dies and his family does not wash his clothes, the ghost of a woman will appear and do it for him. That would be a washday even easier than those in our rightly equipped homes, but there is no record of any "Skye-ites" ever putting the superstition to the test.

The Nowtompatimin Troop of the Camp Fire Girls met on Wednesday, 11th, at the Jr. High, with 7 girls and their guardian present. They discussed what "C. F." meant, and plans for a candy sale to be held Saturday at the Jitney-Jungle grocery store.

LAST OF THE 600

Although the famous charge of the Light Brigade at Balaklava, immortalized by Tennyson, occurred 78 years ago, on October 25, 1854, the last survivor of that "gallant six hundred" died only recently.

He was Edwin Hughes, a sergeant major, who until his death received assistance from a special fund raised for veterans of that heroic charge, which was an incident of the Crimean war in which Turkey, with aid from England, France and Sardinia, defeated Russia.

The Light Brigade, composed of 673 British cavalrymen, charged the Russian field artillery over a distance of a mile and a half, losing 247 men and 497 horses in

TEXAS

"Texas occupies all of the continent of North America except a small part set aside for the United States, Canada and Mexico. Texas owns the north half of the Rio Grande, one of the few rivers in the world with one bank wet and the other dry. Texas is bounded on the north by 25 or 30 states, on the east by all the oceans except the Pacific, on the south by the Gulf of Mexico and South America, and on the west by the Pacific Ocean and the rest of the world. Underneath Texas they have at this writing been down only 8,000

20 minutes. They cut down many of the Russian gunners, but were forced to retreat in disorder. Their dashing exploit raised the morale of the allies, however, and diminished that of the Russians.

A few days later, at the battle of Inkerman on November 5, 8,000 British held 50,000 Russians at bay in a hand to hand conflict, until the French arrived and routed the enemy. Then, after a year's siege, during which the allies suffered untold hardships, the great fort of Sevastopol was evacuated by the Russians and the war was ended. It was during this siege that Florence Nightingale organized the first nursing system in military hospitals.

Thus, while the charge of the Light Brigade was unsuccessful, it was a moral victory which probably turned the tide of war against the forces of the Czar. It was a stirring memory that Edwin Hughes carried with him during his long life.

FALSE CONFESSIONS

While there is no doubt that a large percentage of murderers and other criminals escape the punishment they deserve, the number of innocent persons who are convicted, some of whom are put to death, is perhaps greater than is generally supposed.

This is true even among those who confess to the crimes with which they are charged, particularly in cases where confessions are extorted through "third degree" methods. Several cases were cited by Robert Cantwell of the Chicago bar recently, including the following:

In the Boone case in Vermont, two brothers confessed to a murder, but the man supposed to have been murdered showed up later, alive and well. In Illinois, three Tipton brothers confessed to murdering a man named Frisher, and witnesses testified to having seen the dead body, yet Frisher turned up alive. In the same state a man named Turner was sentenced to death, but secured a new trial and before the second trial could be held the alleged victim returned.

These are only three out of a large number of similar cases cases cited by Mr. Cantwell, who declares that he has authentic records of no less than 129 persons who confessed and were executed for murders, although their supposed victims were found to be alive afterwards.

This is not intended as a plea for laxity in bringing the guilty to justice, but it serves to show the great responsibility which rests upon juries and judges, as well as to emphasize the unreliability of circumstantial evidence, even when accompanied by a confession of guilt, in some cases. It particularly illustrates the frightful injustice of lynching under any circumstances.

feet or so for oil, and up in the air Texas has in Guadalupe Peak, 9,500 feet above sea level, the highest hill in the United States east of the Rockies.

"Texas is so big that the people in Brownville call the Dallas people Yankees, and the citizens of El Paso speak of the residents of Texarkana as being 'effete Easterners'. It is farther from El Paso to Texarkana than it is from Chicago to New York, and Texarkana is closer to Milwaukee by airplane than it is to El Paso. (Try this on your Rand-McNally.) The United States with Texas left out would look like a three-legged Boston Terrier.

"The chief occupation of the people of Texas is to try to keep from making all the money in the world, and at that the wealth of Texas increased 539 per cent between 1900 and 1927. At one time Texas was so wild that not even the law of gravitation was obeyed, and the chief pursuit of the Texans was Indians and Mexicans, but now it is crop records and oil production. It is so healthful in Texas that out in Eastland a horned frog lived 30 years sealed in a cornerstone without food, air or water.

"Texans are so proud of the Lone Star State that they cannot sleep at night. If a Texan's head should be opened the map of the State would be found on his brain. The word 'Texans' is of Indian origin and means 'Friends,' and the Texas people are that way yet unless you take a slam at their State. If your front gate is not at least 18 miles from your front door, you do not belong to society as constituted in Texas. Down on the King ranch the front gate is 150 miles from the front porch and the owner is thinking of moving the house back so as not to be annoyed by passing automobiles. Other Texas landlords have whole mountain ranges on their ranches, and one Texan has 40 miles of navigable river on his farm. If the proportion of cultivated land in Texas were the same as in Illinois, the value of Texas crops would equal that of the other 47 states combined. If all the people of the United States were to move to Texas, it still would be no more densely populated than is Massachusetts. Texas has land enough to supply every man, woman and child in the whole world a tract 20x200 feet, and have enough left over for all the armies of the world to march around five abreast. "To move the Texas corn crop would take a string of box cars longer than the distance between New York and San Francisco. If the 1,500,000 tons of sulphur mined in Texas annually were in the hands of his Satanic Majesty, they would solve his fuel problem. If all the cotton grown in Texas were baled and built into a stairway, it would reach the Pearly Gates. If the 255,557,000 barrels of oil produced in Texas in 1928 were made into gasoline, it would run a well known make of light car throughout eternity. If all the hogs of Texas were one hog, he could dig the Panama Canal in three roots and one grunt. If all the Texas steers were one STEER, he could stand with his front feet in the Gulf of Mexico and his hind feet in Hudson Bay, with his horns punch holes in the moon, and with his tail brush the mist off the Aurora Borealis."

A plant for turning out forged American passports has been discovered across the Atlantic. Things may not be going so well in the United States, but if Europeans are eager to take a chance, those already on the ground ought to be willing to take the same chance. Or perhaps some enterprising but none too scrupulous Yankee might embark upon the business of providing domestic calamity-howlers with cut rate papers that would land them easily on the other side. The only difficulty about the scheme is that the expatriated pessimists would soon be back.

Japan says that she will pull out of a well-known peace agreement if not given her way in Manchuria. More than one school boys has had to look wistfully at the heart progress of a ball game, in which he had stated at the start that he would not play unless he could bat. To change the figure of speech, Japan probably is the chronic sinner in the international village, always ready for repentance and willing to be purged of sin when the next revival comes along.

We didn't realize how much the paper in the front room had faded until our wife took down the big picture of her brother Joe after he lost his fortune.

Our complaint is that while prosperity is undoubtedly just around the corner it keeps walking too fast for the pursuers.
