

$4,000 Will Be Given FREE To Residents Of Donley And Surrounding Counties

THE CLARENDON NEWS INAUGURATES GREATEST PRIZE-GIVING EVENT EVER DREAMED OF IN PANDHANDLE NEWSPAPERDOM—NOMINATIONS MAY BE MADE NOW AND CAMPAIGNS STARTED.

The Campaign Has Been So Planned That Every Man, Woman, Boy and Girl Participating Will Receive Either a Big Prize or Portion of Gold or Silver. Contestants Outside of Clarendon Have the Same Chance as Those in Town.

Today the Clarendon News inaugurates the most stupendous "Everybody Wins Something" automobile-and-gold gift distribution. Gifts approximating $4,000, including two handsome, speedy automobiles and great bags of gold and silver (containing as high as $200.00) are to be distributed among the men and women, boys and girls in Donley and surrounding counties.

Something Different This is to be a memorable event. It is to be unlike anything ever before attempted here. It is to be a FRIEND MAKING CAMPAIGN.

In addition to the automobiles and the purses of gold and silver, the Clarendon News is making it possible for every man, woman, boy and girl who takes part in this distribution to be a prize winner. "Everybody Wins" is the slogan. And everybody DOES WIN.

That everyone participating in this election may know in advance that "Everybody Wins," the Clarendon News has set aside a sum of money to be paid in commissions. This is over and above the prizes.

Did you ever hear of anything more fair? No, and no one else ever did.

Why Do We Do It? Now, why does the Clarendon News put up $4,000 in gifts? Why does the Clarendon News guarantee every reader who is active in the election, valuable consideration for his and her effort? There are two reasons:

First—This is a FRIEND MAKING ELECTION. Second—Only by conducting a FAIR AND LIBERAL election, with GIFTS OF VALUE TO EVERYONE who participates, will it be possible for the Clarendon News to accomplish its aim.

And what is the Clarendon News aim? How can the Clarendon News afford to give away ABSOLUTELY FREE WITHOUT ONE CENT OF EXPENSE TO ANYONE, more than $4,000.00?

Here's the "How" in this election the Clarendon News hopes to secure more subscriptions—to enlarge its already large list, to secure renewals and to make it easy for those who may be delinquent in their subscriptions to pay up. In this election the Clarendon News hopes to add to its great family of friends. This will be accomplished not alone by the addition of new subscribers, but by the renewal of subscriptions and by the payment of delinquent subscriptions, but by the manner in which this election will, when it is over, be a living advertisement for the Clarendon News. That is the aim.

Of course this election will not pay the Clarendon News immediately in dollars and cents. It would be unreasonable to expect that. Then why, you may ask, do you put up so much money when you know in advance that you cannot get it back from the subscriptions received? And the answer—

Get More Than Money There are things more valuable to a newspaper than money. Subscriptions are more valuable. Subscriptions give a newspaper prestige, power, and enhance the value of its advertising columns.

The Clarendon News is taking its own medicine. It is advertising its advertising patronage and to it is spending money to create subscriptions—spending money to add to create a greater good will. It will not pay the Clarendon News in dollars today. But the effects of this election, the subscribers who will be gained, the friends who will be made, will be of lasting and inestimable benefit. The Clarendon News is simply investing in its future, in the future of Clarendon and this territory. Frankly, in the end, it will profit the Clarendon News.

Circulation Necessary Circulation is absolutely necessary to a newspaper. But it is always an expense. No newspaper ever made money on its subscription list. Your Clarendon News costs the publishers more each year to produce it and deliver it to you than you pay.

However, if by the spending of $4,000 now, the Clarendon News will increase its subscription list to the point where more advertisers will use its columns at a higher rate, to reach a greater number of people, then, in the years to come, this $4,000.00 will be returned time and again to the Clarendon News.

A Business Proposition It is simply a business proposition and sound from every standpoint. No one loses, not even the Clarendon News. In this paper, will not realize the benefits and cash in on them as soon as do our readers who carry on with us in this great gift distribution.

KU KLUX KLAN WILL PARADE IN CLARENDON NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT

According to a letter received at the Clarendon News office through the mails, the Clarendon Ku Klux Klan, No. 165, will parade through the streets of this city next Thursday night, March 2nd, at nine o'clock. The letter asks the News to announce the parade and invite the public generally.

The letter closes as follows: "Dated this the desolate day of the weeping week, in the horrible month, in the year of our Lord, 1922—the year the Owls were so bad."

Without being in any sense a prophet The News predicts that one of the largest crowds Clarendon ever saw will be on our streets next Thursday night.

DICK ALLEN HOME ALMOST COMPLETE LOSS BY FIRE

Dick Allen's home was badly damaged by fire Friday morning, and the furniture almost a complete loss, although the house, due to the fine work of the fire department was preserved in a fair condition. The fire was of unknown origin. Mrs. Allen was painfully though not seriously burned about the hands and arms by gasoline.

By the time that the fire truck reached the house, flames were leaping out on all sides of the house, and it seemed that the building could not be saved at all. But the boys did excellent work, and within five minutes the fire was almost smothered. The great need that was made manifest was the need of this city for more fire plugs; it was necessary in fighting this fire to couple the hose to the plug across the street from the White House, so that the hose extended more than two blocks.

News is so complete that it can care for 5,000 readers just as easily as it can care for half that number. And that is the goal—5,000 subscribers—that it hopes to reach as a result of this great gift distribution.

The Gift List

And the gifts? Just what are they? A magnificent big motor car, a BUICK FOUR TOURING CAR, value $1,085.00, purchased from the Odos Caraway Buick Dealer of Clarendon, the Ford Sedan purchased from the Clarendon Motor Co, two bags of gold containing $200.00, and two bags of silver containing $100.00 each, in that most desirable, precious metal; and hundreds of dollars in CASH—a veritable "shower of silver"; and twenty percent CASH commission to every active non-gift winning participant. All this goes to make up the gigantic gift list to be presented absolutely free by the Clarendon News to its friends and readers in just a few weeks.

Then too, in order to insure an equitable distribution, two districts have been made, with special gifts set aside for each district.

Two Districts

District number one is the city of Clarendon. District number two is the territory outside of the city of Clarendon.

There will be one car and 1 set cash prizes for District number 1, and one car 1 set cash prizes for district number two. This assures that participants living farthest from the Clarendon News office will receive gifts as large as participants living in Clarendon. It puts all, irrespective of place of residence, on even terms.

It's Fair and Square

The Clarendon News's plan for this great gift distribution is absolutely FAIR AND SQUARE. Friends and readers of this paper are to determine to whom the gifts are to go. Free votes are deciding factors.

All over this territory, in Clarendon and outside, the Clarendon

LUNCHEONITES REVIEW ACHIEVEMENTS OF C. OF C.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT TUESDAY'S FEED SPEAKS ITSELF AS PLEASED WITH THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

With a good attendance at Tuesday's luncheon, the merits of the Chamber of Commerce were studied, and those present who spoke as sort of casual observances of the work of the Chamber of Commerce expressed satisfaction with the achievements of the organization. Secretary McCordell opened the discussion by saying that everything that had been done during his tenure of office was done with an eye single to the good of Clarendon, and that if things had been done that did not help in this way, then it was an error of the head and not of the heart. He also announced that many of the cards that were sent out asking whether the members of the Chamber of Commerce least year wished to remain members this year on the same basis were being received and of the cards that are returning, the ratio of those favoring a continuance of the organization on the same basis as last year is four to one against. This is a real commendation.

President Long said that a need that he felt was for a greater moral support of the Chamber of Commerce as well as the financial support. It was at this stage that Tom Connally spoke of the achievements of the organization. He declared that in fourteen years of observing such work, the present Chamber of Commerce had functioned longer and accomplished more than all the others put together.

Rev. Foster when called upon, said that he was for Clarendon in whatever from the good movement came along.

Secretary McCordell then stated that the finances of the organization were in good shape, and that the reason that the lights were turned on as they were was that there was some money in the treasury, and the policy of the Chamber of Commerce is to go its limit in giving the people benefits that will add to their comfort and convenience. This benefit and the contributions of the organization to the Public Health work and the support of the band are things that give great evidence of the worth of the Chamber of Commerce.

BANQUET FOR EX-STUDENTS TO BE HERE MARCH 2ND

Arrangements have been completed for the banquet here March 2nd, Independence Day, for the ex-students of the University of Texas. As well as the local alumni of that institution, the ex-students from Collingsworth, Childress and Hall counties will be here. Dr. H. L. Wilder will act as toastmaster and a great time is assured. The program has been arranged in a way to make one feel once more the spirit of the "Old U.", as the old yells and songs will be given often throughout the program. The E. L. orchestra will furnish music for the occasion. The place is the basement of the Christian church and the hour is 8:15.

Miss Lela Rorex, of Panhandle, arrived here Friday morning for a visit with friends.

A. C. Hendrix and wife, of Memphis, were business visitors here Monday.

COMMUNITY DINNER IS HIGHLY ENJOYABLE ONE

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY PEOPLE ARE PRESENT AT BIG COMMUNITY FEED IN BASEMENT OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The community dinner Friday in the basement of the Christian Church was a very enjoyable affair with good eats in abundance and an attendance of one hundred and fifty people. At twelve o'clock the crowd began to assemble, and within a few minutes, a long table extended across the large basement of the church was loaded with all kinds of palatable. Capt. Nusbaum and others spoke following the luncheon. Immediately following the lunch, Secretary McCordell read a letter from Secretary Fielder, of the Tulsa Chamber of Commerce, in which the letter told of the wonderful work done in that town by Capt. Nusbaum.

When Capt. Nusbaum was introduced, he began by saying that, although at one time he thought of calling off the community dinner, he was more than glad that it was held. He then complimented the News, saying that it is one of the best weekly sheets that he has ever seen.

He also called attention to the fine churches, to the good pastors, to the Y. M. C. A. and the Live Chamber of Commerce, the good schools and the wide awake superintendent; he then declared that with these wonderful resources, we can make the community just what we want to make it. He then said that here is but one way to make a real community, and that is by loyalty to the home town; this is accomplished by keeping the money at home rather than by ordering goods from the mail order houses.

The captain then laid down the truth that the home is the biggest institution anywhere; he then pledged to be loyal to the home town for sake of the home; declaring that when we are building up the commercial interests, we are building the home.

Everyone went away declaring that the dinner was one of the best and the occasion one of the most enjoyable that they had ever attended.

ANNUAL "GET TOGETHER" BANQUET OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MONDAY NIGHT

Arrangements are being perfected for the annual "get together" banquet of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce which will be held next Monday night in the basement of the Christian Church.

The various committees for the occasion are busy at their respective tasks and it is expected that with the membership, their wives and sweethearts, something like two hundred and fifty guests will be present. Hon. Joe L. Pope, editor of the Amarillo News, and O. V. Vernon, secretary of the Board of City Development, both of Amarillo, will be the out of town speakers for the evening. An orchestra has been secured for the evening and there will be a few addresses by local men along lines of interest for our city.

A general, good time is anticipated as is always the case when loyal citizens meet on the common ground of city development and betterment of local and county conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blankenship of Goodnight were here yesterday.

Homer Fitzgerald, of Booneville, has been here on business this week.

WEEK'S COMMUNITY SERVICE FOR CLARENDON CLOSED WITH SUNDAY EVENING'S LECTURE

INSPIRATIONAL LECTURES AND GOOD MUSIC ARE HIGHLY ENJOYED BY THOSE WHO ATTENDED. THE THEME OF CAPT. NUSBAUM'S LECTURES IS A BETTER COMMUNITY BY HAVING BETTER HOMES, THIS BY LOYALTY TO THE HOME TOWN.

The series of community services took low C with an ease that is known to few bass singers.

Sunday afternoon the captain lectured to men especially although he invited the women to be present, and a large number accepted the invitation. His theme was on the need of strong men in these times as in every age. He said that he did not underestimate the work of the women. For their prayers and their faith is a bulwark to the church; but he declared that the salvation of the world, just as Christ picked twelve men for his apostles and seventy men helpers, depends today on the men. He gave examples today of how the big corporations in seeking the services of the young men finishing at the Universities look into accounts the matter of whether the young man is a Christian, giving preference to the Christian. A fair offering was made at this hour.

At the closing service Sunday evening, one of the largest audiences of the series of meetings was present. Rev. Foster, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, dismissed his members in order that he and his membership might be present at the final service. The lecture of the Capt. Nusbaum, which was a consideration of the various phases of the life of Christ, was a masterpiece. Not only was there evidence of understanding of the Master, but the presentation of the Christ was in a manner that showed the manhood of Jesus.

The services were held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, in the effort to combine the various factions that are pulling different ways instead of working toward the upbuilding of the city in the best way. In a way it seems that as much as might have been accomplished was not realized; but as the fruits of the services are beginning in a small way to be realized, it is seen that more than was thought has been accomplished. It is to be hoped that the earnest efforts of those who really have the interests of Clarendon at heart will do something toward unifying the various factions, and that in the not distant future we shall have a town that is one when it comes to some progressive issue.

One of the most enjoyable of the lectures of Capt. Nusbaum was that Saturday evening on "Music in the Community." Before the lecture local musicians gave a program, orchestra, instrumental, and vocal numbers. Each selection was rendered in fine manner, and the program was well enjoyed.

Capt. Nusbaum not only spoke of the value of music as a recreation, but gave many examples of where cities had come to be great community centers through the work of the musical organizations of the town, such as choruses, orchestras, and bands. His conceptions of music was pleasing, this perhaps due to the fact that he is a soloist of no mean ability.

Two numbers that the captain sang were called for time and again; they were "Old Black Joe" and "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep." Each of them gave him fine display of his resonant bass voice, and he

TRUTH ABOUT WASHINGTON AND HATCHET STORY NOW RELATED; WEEMS WROTE

The George Washington hatchet story has become a joke. One rarely hears it referred to except in terms of hilarity. But it is one of a very few stories that have come down to us concerning the youth of Washington and it is not in all respects unworthy either of credence or respect.

The original little hatchet story comes to us from the pen of Rev. Masin L. Weems, a friend of Washington, and for a time rector of Pohick Church, where Washington attended. He wrote several books, the most famous of which is his "Life of Washington." The first edition was a pamphlet of 82 pages, which appeared in 1800, very shortly after the death of Washington. It grew into a sizable little book of 244 pages. It ran through 40 or more editions.

Weems was the friend not only of the Washington family, but also of the Lees and other noted Virginia people. The title-page of his book bears this testimonial from General Lee: "Light Horse Harry" of the Revolutionary army, the intimate friend of Washington.

"The author has treated this great subject with admirable success in a new way. He turns all the actions of Washington to the encouragement of virtue, by a careful application of numerous exemplifications drawn from the conduct of the founder of our republic from his earliest life."

That is virtually to say that General Lee and other intimate friends of Washington admired this stilted old biography for the very qualities which have caused us to ridicule it.

It is interesting to peruse the story of the little hatchet precisely as Parson Weems wrote it. Having related how the father of George was very careful to train him in habits of truthfulness, with classic parallel references to Ulysses and Telemachus, he says:

"This, you'll say, was sowing good seed!—Yes, it was; and the crop, thank God, was as I believe it ever will be, where a man acts the true parent, that as, the guardian angel, by his child.

The following anecdote is a case in point. It is too valuable to be lost, and too true to be doubted; for it was communicated to me by the same excellent lady to whom I am indebted for the last.

"When George," said she, "was about six years old, he was made the wealthy master of a hatchet, of which, like most little boys, he was constantly going about chopping everything that came in his way.

"One day, in the garden, where he often amused himself hacking his mother's pen-sticks, he unluckily tried the edge of his hatchet on the body of a beautiful young English cherry tree, which he barked so terribly that I don't believe the tree ever got the better of it. The next morning, the old gentleman flung out what had befallen his tree, which, by the way, was a great favorite, and came into the house; and with much warmth asked for the mischievous author, declaring at the same time, that he would not have taken five guineas for it.

"Presently George and his hatchet made their appearance. George, said his father, 'do you know who killed that beautiful cherry tree yonder in the garden?'

This was a tough question; and George staggered under it for a moment; but quickly recovering himself; and looking at his father with the sweet face of youth, brightened with the inexpressible charm of all conquering truth, he bravely cried out—'I can't tell a lie, pa; you know I can't tell a lie, pa; you it with my hatchet.'

"Run to my arms, you dearest boy," cried his father in transports run to my arms; glad am I, George, that you killed my tree; for you have paid me a thousand fold. Such an act of heroism in my son is worth more than a thousand trees, though blossomed with silver, and their fruits of purest gold."

Parson Weems obtained this story from an old lady, whose life-long acquaintance with Washington gave her access to facts of his early life, and whose reputation for truthfulness was unchallenged.

Weems did not invent the story, and neither did his informant. This story rested on some basis of fact. It is not likely that it came down without exaggeration, but when you have made all possible deduction, what have you left? A father, training his boy to be truthful, and the boy, having done a wrong act and being tempted to seek refuge in falsehood, bravely telling the truth, and his father commending his truthfulness instead of punishing the boy.

So, after we have had our little laugh at Parson Weems and his highly colored narrative, I am disposed to say that the little hatchet story is still a good one to tell to American boys.—William E. Barton.

TEXAS EXES TO CELEBRATE INDEPENDENCE DAY, MARCH 2

Austin, Texas, Feb. 20.—Unusual preparations are being made this year by former students of the University of Texas for the celebration of Texas Independence Day, March 2, with social gatherings and evening banquets. This practice on the part of men and women who received instruction at the University has been observed during the last several years, and there are now few towns and cities not only in Texas but in other parts of the United States and even foreign countries where two or more former students may be that the annual event is not celebrated in this way.

John A. Lomax, secretary of the Ex-Students Association, has addressed a letter to former students of the University residing in more than 200 towns of Texas, requesting them to get together on Independence Day in observance of that important event in Texas history and commemorate the days that they spent at their alma mater. It is expected, Mr. Lomax says, that these student celebrations will be more widespread this year than ever before. He made the statement that last year former students of the University got together in social fellowship in many of the larger cities of the United States, including New York, Los Angeles, Columbus, Ohio, Chicago, Pittsburg and Boston. This year other cities are to be represented in this manner among them being San Francisco where there is a considerable group of former University students. There are many of these men and women also living in Tampico where last year a March former students was held.

LITTLE LIFE LINES

"Come Out of Yourself"
Don't live like a hermit inside yourself—

Forgetting, forgotten of men;
There's something in life besides piling the self—

Come out in the sunlight again!
Though money is something to help you along,

It isn't as good as a smile;
There's health in a laugh, there's wealth in a song—

Come out of yourself for awhile!
The fellow who lives in his own little soul

And never comes out of his shell,
May gather a million, may garner a roll,

But what is the good in a cell?
Why lock yourself up in the prison of pride

And, when you have come to the end,

Have no one to care that you live or you died,
Because you had never a friend?

Come out of yourself and step into the sun,
Come out of the gloom of the cloud;

Come out of yourself and get into the fun
And walk in the midst of the crowd.

For troubles, like mushrooms, will grow in the dark,
But they can't stand the glow of the day—

The perfume of roses, the song of the lark,

Are waiting just over the way.
The world may go wrong and be freighted with care,

Misfortune may handle you ill,
But still there are plenty your troubles to share

And give you a lift on the hill,
If you have forgotten fraternal delights,

Your lips have forgotten to smile,
Here's something to cheer you, to set you to rights,—

Come out of yourself for awhile!
—Douglas Mallock.

How the Territory Is Divided

District No. 1, shall comprise of all the territory inside the corporate limits of the town of Clarendon.
District No. 2, shall comprise of all the territory out side of the corporate limits of Clarendon.

One Car and One Complete Set of Cash Prizes Must Go to Each District.

Contestants are not limited to their own districts, however, in soliciting votes or subscription. Every active contestant in every district is guaranteed a cash prize or one of the two cars.

The Plan in Brief

The object of this distribution is twofold—primarily to increase the already large subscription lists of the News, to collect subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford our friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit, and in a big way, through their spare time, during the next few weeks. So, it is a plan that works both ways and to the ultimate good of all concerned.
In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most valuable and attractive list of prizes ever offered by a local newspaper in this section of the country has been made ready for distribution among those who participate most heartily. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success.
There will be no "double vote" offers, extra votes or any other inducement whatsoever inaugurated during this competition. Neither will there be any long-term subscriptions accepted. The plan of the campaign is straightforward and simple and is fully outlined in this announcement.
Let it be understood at the very outset that this is no "leaky" nor "popularity" contest but a strictly legitimate contest of petitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and boys and girls, and one in which no element of chance enters.

HOW TO ENTER THE ELECTION

The first step, in order to become a candidate and compete for a prize, is to clip the nomination coupon appearing in this issue; fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to the campaign department of the News. This coupon entitles you or the person you might wish to nominate, to 5,000 FREE votes. These votes are given you as a starter, and speed you on your way to win. Only one such nomination coupon will be accepted for each candidate.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED

The next step is to call on or write the campaign department for a free working outfit (consisting of a special receipt book, sample copies of the paper and other information relative to launching an active campaign.)
Thus equipped, you have left to go to your friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them clip all the free coupons from their papers or pay up a subscription to the News through you. THAT'S ALL THERE IS TO IT. However, you will never win anything unless you make the start, and while it will not be a very difficult matter to capture one of the big prizes, nevertheless you should start at once. You must plan out your campaign the same as any successful business man plans out his work for a season, and above everything else let no one discourage you, but stick to the finish. Anything worth having is worth striving for. A few short weeks and you may be riding in your own automobile.

It takes votes to win, and votes are secured in two ways: First, by clipping the coupons appearing in each issue of the News. Begin by gathering them now. After a short time these coupons will be reduced to a lesser number of votes. The only restriction placed on coupons is that they must be deposited at the campaign department of the News on or before the expiration date printed thereon. Get your friends saving these coupons for you—they all count.
The other, and faster, way to get votes is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to the News. On each subscription turned in a certain number of votes are issued, the number varying according to the amount paid and during which "period" same are received at the campaign department (see schedule of votes elsewhere). So, you see, the more subscriptions you secure the more votes you can get and the better your chances are to capture the grand capital prize.

EARLY START MEANS EASY FINISH

The advantages of an early start are manifest. Not only do you have the full time in which to secure the winning votes, but now and up to and including March 25th, you will receive the maximum schedule of votes on subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.
Don't lose valuable time waiting to "see what the other fellow is going to do" but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it.

Rules and Regulations

- 1—Any reputable man, woman or child residing in Clarendon or surrounding territory, is eligible to enter this election and compete for a prize. Nominations may be made at any time during the election.
- 2—No employee or near relative of any employee in the Clarendon News is eligible to enter this distribution. The News reserves the right to reject any nominations.
- 3—The winners of the prizes will be decided by their accumulated votes, said votes being represented by ballots issued on subscriptions, and by coupons clipped from the paper.
- 4—Candidates are not confined to their own particular district or community in which to secure votes and subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in this section; or, for that matter, anywhere in the state or United States.
- 5—Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Candidates will be allowed to collect subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions and votes will be issued on both alike.
- 6—Votes are free. It costs the subscriber nothing extra to vote for their favorite. Subscribers should ask for votes when paying their subscriptions.
- 7—Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the election department must represent subscription.
- 8—Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw from the race his or her votes will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.
- 9—Any collusion on the part of candidates to nullify competition, or any other combination or arrangement or effort to the detriment of candidates or his newspaper will not be tolerated. Any candidate or candidate entering into or taking part in such an agreement, arrangement or effort, will forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.
- 10—Any ballots issued on subscriptions may be held in reserve and voted at the discretion of the candidate. The printed coupons appearing from week to week in the paper must be voted before the expiration date appearing thereon.
- 11—In the event of a tie for any one of the prizes, a prize identical in value will be given each being contestant.
- 12—No statement or promise made by any solicitor, agent, candidate varying from the rules and statements published through the columns of this newspaper will be recognized by the publisher.
- 13—In case of typographical or other error, it is understood that neither the publisher nor the campaign manager shall be held responsible, except for the necessary correction upon the same.
- 14—Every candidate is an authorized agent of the News and as such may collect subscription payments from present as well as new subscribers.
- 15—Extensions of subscriptions will receive votes according to the vote schedule in effect when the first subscription was paid.
- 16—It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all monies collected and that they will remit such amounts in full at frequent intervals or on demand to the campaign department.
- 17—There will be several big prizes awarded, besides a 20 percent cash commission to all ACTIVE non-prize winners, but it is distinctly understood that in the event ANY candidate becomes inactive, failing to make a weekly cash report of two yearly subscriptions he or she will, at the discretion of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to a prize or a commission.
- 18—To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of prizes, the race will be brought to a close under "sealed ballot" system, and will be under the personal supervision of two or more judges selected from the Advisory Board. During the last few days of the election, the box—locked and sealed—will repose in the vaults of a local bank, where candidates and their friends will deposit their final collections and reserve votes. And not until the race has been declared closed will the seals be broken, the box unlocked, and the judges begin the final count. In this way, no one, not even the campaign manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.
- 19—The News reserves the right to amend or add to the rules of this election if necessary for the protection of the interests of both the candidates and this newspaper. The right is also reserved to increase and add to the list of prizes.
- 20—The News guarantees fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise, the decision of the management will be absolute and final.
- 21—Campaign opens tomorrow morning—closing April 22nd.
- 22—In accepting nomination candidates agree to abide by above conditions.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON

JOSEPH H. CHOATE

Revolutionary periods produce, if they do not create, men of genius whom the exigencies of the times demand. Whether they are bred out of the conditions which create the revolution, or always exist in every community, waiting for the supreme summons to call them forth, seems little to the purpose to inquire. The appointed hour strikes and the man appears.

In the subsequent making of the new nation, which the success of Washington and his companions-in-arms at last rendered possible, there appeared a considerable body of statesmen, trained in political discussion, tried by seven years of war, aroused by the four years of anarchy and that succeeded, whose combined wisdom and foresight framed the Constitution of the United States, and set in motion the government which it called into being, in a way that today challenges the admiration and approval of all thinking men. Foremost among these intellectual brilliancy, individual force, constructive capacity, and personal influence was Alexander Hamilton.

The tragical death of Hamilton has done much to embalm his name in the memory of his countrymen. Great as he was, he was not great enough to rise above the barbarous and brutal theory and practice of that age, which sanctioned and compelled a resort to the duel as the honorable mode of settling personal disputes, but to which the cruel sacrifice of his precious life put an end, at least in the northern states. Still in the very prime of his own life, at the age of forty-seven, in the midst of a great career of usefulness, crowned with all the laurels which his grateful country could bestow, he was called to meet his own untimely fate. He accepted the challenge, forced upon him by his most dangerous and unscrupulous political adversary, with whom he had had many bitter contests, and who was at last determined to be rid of him. One glorious July morning on the heights of West Point, overlooking the Hudson they met for the last and mortal combat. Hamilton fell fatally wounded at the first shot of his adversary, having fired his own pistol in the air, and so unhappily and unworthily ended the life of one of the noblest, manliest, and most useful men of whom we have any record—the trusted friend and companion of Washington—and one of the best gifts of God to the nation which they labored together to found.

basing cement is a mixture of marble dust from Vermont, whiting from Ohio, shellac from India, and pine resin from Georgia.—Public Service.

A little consideration of the materials that enter into the making of lamps would be a revelation to the large majority of lamp users. California, Colorado, Nevada and South Dakota lead in production of tungsten ore, the important material of which the filament of that modern electric lamp is made.

First, there is the filament of tungsten, then the glass bulb into which enter silica, soda, nitre from Chile, potash, manganese from Russia, arsenic, borax, feldspar, lead, aluminum, cryolite from Greenland, cobalt from Canada. The base of the lamp is made of copper and zinc from Utah and Missouri, while the

$4,000 PRIZES TO BE AWARDED ED CITIZENS OF DONLEY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES

News has hundreds of friends—real friends. They stand ready to help. Every reader who would share in this great gift giving will find the ground well broken for him and for her. The way is made easy. You will readily understand the whole plan once you read the Clarendon News. "Everybody Wins Something" automobile-and-gold gift distribution announcement elsewhere in this issue.

Costs You Nothing

The Clarendon News bears the expense. There is not one cent for you to spend. Your time is your own. You can win by simply devoting a part of your spare time. It will be easy, you will find, to be the recipient of a Clarendon News gift.

Now, at the outset, there are some things to be made clear. Because there have been "subscriptions contests" held in the past the Clarendon News wants to make everything clear, to know that you really do understand that the Clarendon News plan is different. All cards are laid right on the table. Everything is fair, square and above board.

Everybody Wins Something

In some "contests" there have been contestants who have really worked for nothing. One or two big prizes have been given and these went to the first and second contestants—all others were left to hold the sack. In the Clarendon News gift distribution "Everybody can win something." You win either an automobile, $200.00 in gold, or one of the purses of $100.00 or you win the cash commissions as detailed in the add.

In this election you can, in your spare time, earn more in the next few weeks than the average family man earns in a whole year. You can earn more than the average man saves in many years. You absolutely increase your earning power—and you do it in your spare time.

Cash Prizes

Perhaps you already have a car—in which case you may cash your prize and expend the money in travel or a nucleus for an education, or a home of your own. Everyone has use for cash. And over $1,000.00 is not to be passed up lightly.

Over $1,000.00 is pretty good money to add to your present income for your spare moments during the next few weeks—moments that otherwise would be lost.

How long would it take you to save enough money out of your earnings to purchase a car of this value or one of the other big gifts awaiting you in this gift distribution? Figure it out for yourself. You will readily see the opportunities that participation in this distribution affords.

Work in Spare Time

Very little time is required of you to win. You have the time, plenty of it. An hour a day spent among your neighbors and friends for the Clarendon News is sufficient to win the biggest gift in the list. You have the time. Really, your spare time—a few minutes at the noon hour, a few minutes of an evening—is worth more to you these next few weeks than any full time employment you could imagine. Yet it is but a side issue—a spare time proposition. Nothing more. There is no sentiment about it. To earn money honorably is desirable. The money and the big, handsome, speedy cars are now provided. It is here for you.

There is one thing, tho, that is certain. There is absolutely no way you can secure one of these gifts—either car or cash—except by votes. There are but two ways you can get votes. One is by collecting the free vote coupons which appear in each issue of the News. The other is by securing subscriptions or renewals.

You Can't Buy Votes

No votes will be sold. There is absolutely no way you can secure votes except for coupons or subscriptions. You are not to spend one cent yourself. You are to get your friends to save coupons and to secure subscriptions and renewals. Coupons and subscriptions will win, and these two alone.

If there is anyone who imagines he or she can enter and carry away a big gift by spending money, he or she is advised now to stay out. Unless you want to compete in the same fair and square manner in which the Clarendon News puts on this great gift distribution, save your energy for some other plan.

All On Even Terms

Nothing but straight-out, honest, methods will be tolerated. If you are in earnest, if you will devote an hour a day of your spare time to this work, if you are ready to compete on even terms with everyone else, and if you want to assure yourself of some real money or the big car—then you want to participate in this distribution of gifts.

More Votes at Start

In order to absolutely eliminate any possible chance of anyone "buying" his or her way to victory, the Clarendon News is giving more votes at the start than at the finish. As the campaign progresses, the voting power of both coupons and subscriptions diminish until finally they are worth less than half their present value. The final week is of the least concern, for votes then count so little. The first weeks are the weeks that count, the weeks when coupons and subscriptions count the most.

"The early bird catches the worm." It is advisable to start early. It pays to be able to make up your mind quickly. Votes are greater and easier to get at the start.

Start Early—It Pays

You can get more coupons and more subscriptions at the start than you can when many candidates are out after them. At the start the whole field is yours. What you get early you get easily. And the early coupons and subscriptions count up faster—the votes are bigger. The first weeks are the best.

Make up your mind NOW. Enter NOW. Everybody can win. YOU CAN.

The More—The Easier

The more candidates entered, the easier it is for you to secure the car or the purse of gold or one of the big cash awards. How is that, you ask? It is like this:— If there are only two candidates running for the office of sheriff of Donley county, the winning candidate must have over half of all the votes cast in order to win. But if there are five candidates seeking election, as sheriff, the winning candidate need only have more votes than any of the other four. In other words, victory comes to the winner with far less votes when five are running than when two are running. Yet the total votes cast in each instance may be the same.

Votes Alone Win

Remember this: The biggest prize as big as it is, has nothing to do with the number of votes required to win it. Only so many votes will be cast. It makes no difference whether the total vote is 100,000 or one million. The car goes goes to the candidate with the most votes. All he or she has to do is to have more votes than any other candidate.

Because the gift list is so extraordinary, so big, it is probable someone will imagine that it will take "an awful lot of votes to win." With a reasonable list of candidates in this election just a few good subscriptions can win the biggest gift. When this election is over everyone will be surprised at the small number of votes required to be the recipient of gifts. Then those without courage will say, "Why, if I had only known how few votes it took, I could have done that." Then it will be too late.

Profitable—Enjoyable

"Electioneering" in the Clarendon News election will be most enjoyable to enter as well as profitable work. And it will PAY YOU BIG.

Decide now. Make up your mind to enter. Win. Earn real money. Earn more money in the next few weeks than you ever earned before in like time. Enter. Get in. You can win. Everybody can win out.

Cut out or tear out the nomination blank in this issue of the Clarendon News. Write in your name, your address, and, if you have a telephone, your telephone number. Mail or bring your nomination to the Clarendon News office. That is the first step. That starts you off with 5,000 votes.

Nomination may be made by anyone for anyone. A nomination is a nomination. A friend can nominate you. You can nominate a friend. But only one nomination counts for each entry. No one is barred. Men, women, boys and girls are all eligible. Make the start. Let's go.

Short And Snappy

This campaign will not be a long drawn out affair of several months duration. It extends over a period of only a few weeks. It closes April 22nd, 1922. Think of securing in about eight short weeks, gifts that would ordinarily require months, yes, even years, of self denying and saving to acquire—and these are given to you for your spare time and a little interest in helping the Clarendon News to enlarge its subscription list.

Information and Assistance In order to give everyone who participates in this great campaign the greatest possible assistance and to properly handle the circulation so that each new subscriber will get his paper properly, to avoid confusion, the Clarendon News has secured the services of a circulation manager. He is thoroughly experienced in this line of work. It will give his entire time and attention to those who desire to take part in this gift distribution. If there is anything you want to know about this election, anything you do not understand, call and see him, or telephone him.

The Clarendon News office will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. each day. You will always find the circulation manager here. Put him to work for you. He will be glad to help. Telephone him if you wish. Phone No. 66. If you prefer, a representative of The Clarendon News will call and explain just how to go about winning the gift of your choice if you request it.

FOR SALE—Half section farm near McLean, also five mules, three of them coming four, real good mare mules, for sale at a bargain. Will sell mules on fall time with approved note. J. O. Quattlebaum, Clarendon, Texas. (8c)
