Farm Bureau Schedules Annual Chicken Barbecue

Holly Wood, president of the Donley County Farm Bureau announced today that the annual chicken barbecue for the Farm Bureau will be held at Lelia Lake school house on the evening of July 30th at 5 p. m.

This is a county-wide barbecue and all persons are invited, regardless of whether they are Farm Bureau members or not.

Mr. Wood stated that the board of directors would meet this week to make final plans for the barbecue and all persons would be notified next week where to leave their chickens. Each person will be required to leave one-half chicken per person at one of the designated places and then the Farm Bureau will furnish all the rest of the food. Mr. Wood says that a good program is being planned for the annual occasion and that a big feed is planned for the barbecue. Watch your Leader next week for the final plans of the barbecue.

LOCAL BANKS SHOW GOOD FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Compared with the last bank call in April, the three local banks show a much better statement in this issue of the Leader with a total of $4,657,429.96 on deposit. This shows an increase of over two hundred thousand dollars, the total being $4,473,744.70 on April 12th.

The statements also show an increase in loans over the same period of time with the present total $1,349,274.08 compared with $1,330,136.25 on April 12th.

The local banks usually show their highest totals around the first of the year after most of the crops have been gathered, and their records are exceptionally good for this time of the year showing a more stable trend in business in general.

COUNTY AGENT GIVES FORMULA FOR KILLING VEGETABLE INSECTS

Most vegetable insects can be controlled by the use of Cube and sulphur mixtures. Insects on squash, cucumbers, beans and tomatoes can be controlled by using a mixture of one part of Cube to five parts of dusting sulphur. The mixture will easily wash off of the vegetables and is not so dangerous to use as other types of poison for the control of insects.

H. M. Breedlove, county agent, says that he has had many calls in the past week for the above information and that most of the powders mentioned above can be secured at your local drug stores. Breedlove also advises that when those tomato plants begin to look wilted and the leaves turn brown, to mix one cupful of 5-10-5 commercial fertilizer with one gallon of water and pour about one cupful to the plant. This will give the plant an added boost and with some watering will respond very quickly to the fertilizer. This solution can be used on other vegetables, Breedlove advises.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore and Jack were in Floydada last week on business. They also visited their daughter Jacqueline Moore at Hereford.

Born Monday, in Memphis hospital, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maxey of this city.

SCHOOL TAX ELECTION CARRIES OVER TWO TO ONE

The school tax election carried by better than a two to one majority last Saturday with a sizeable number of votes being cast. The total number of votes cast was 247. There were 169 votes for the tax issue and 77 votes against and one mutilated ballot.

The election called for an increase in the tax rate from $1.00 to $1.50 on the $100 valuation. Under the present state law it has been explained that this measure would benefit the schools and not raise the amount of taxes now being paid by taxpayers in this school district.

It was further understood by the writer that a request would be made to the board of equalization to reduce the property valuation in relation to the present tax rate whereby the taxes would remain at the present level. It has been explained that the local schools would gain over $10,000 much needed dollars under the new set-up.

GENERAL PERSHING DIES EARLY THIS MORNING

It was Gen. Pershing who pleaded for a total surrender of Germany rather than an armistice. He stated that another war soon was inevitable unless a total surrender was demanded and brought into effect. He lived to see his prediction come true.

NEWSPRINT GETTING SHORTER

PAY UP YOUR SUB

This is the last appeal to delinquent subscribers to pay up your subscription before your name is removed from the mailing list. This appeal pertains to those who really want the Leader to keep coming as we are receiving orders for new subscriptions each week and in order to be able to place these new names on the list we will have to make arrangements which means that all delinquent subscribers will be removed from the list. Newsprint is getting shorter instead of better and we sure want to take care of our present subscribers first and still be able to publish the Leader each week on the supply of newsprint we are now receiving. If you don't pay up this week and your name is removed from the list we may not be able to place your name on the list again in the near future.

A large number of subscribers have paid up the past two weeks and we wish each of you would check the date on your paper and see if it is correct and report any error immediately as we will be unable to correct the error after a certain period of time elapses. The cost of the Leader is $2.50 in the county and $3.00 per year outside of the county. The first figure to the right of your name designates the month and the last figure the year that your subscription expires.

So far we have been able to hold our own here in the Leader plant but the future is not too bright. We would like to re-print a couple of items from the Panhandle Publisher so that you might know the condition of neighboring publications, for it looks like we all may be in the same boat before long as the big dailies are paying black market prices and getting more than their share of the newsprint.

Jimmie Gillentine in the Hereford Brand, April 22:

"This issue of The Brand comes to you through the grace of God and The Spearman Reporter. Furthermore, if our newsprint, slated to arrive April 17, doesn't get here pretty soon you may not even get a Brand next week.

Van W. Stewart, publisher of the Ochiltree County Herald, tells his readers of the great increase in costs of newsprint production as follows:

"Editor & Publisher" reports that newspapers are now paying 50 percent more to publish today than they did in 1945 and the leveling off process is still not in sight. Newsprint and ink are an estimated 90 per cent higher than three years ago, with other raw materials increasing proportionately. Composing room costs have increased 69 per cent; photo-engraving departments, 63 per cent; press rooms, 49 per cent; stero-type departments, 71 per cent; advertising, 48 per cent, and circulation departments, 35 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Martin and son Jimmy left Tuesday for their home at Gasville, Ark. by way of Dallas to visit friends.

INSECTS & GERMS TO DIE IN DEADLY DDT FOG

Through the courtesy of the City of Pampa and in cooperation with the City Officials of Clarendon, all streets or alleys will be sprayed with 5 per cent DDT Fog next week, according to an announcement made Saturday by Ray Salmon of the Pampa City Health Department.

Salmon and an operator, expect to arrive in Clarendon July 21st and work will get underway immediately. Approximately 4 hours is expected to complete the job of spraying all streets or alleys in the city of Clarendon, giving complete coverage to the area within the city.

The DDT and Lethane preparation forms a fine mist under 2000 degrees of heat and terrific air pressure, becoming a dry fog as it leaves the huge atomizer.

The spray makes a spectacular fog as it rolls in the air and on occasion has been mistaken for smoke. The preparation is absolutely harmless to warm blooded animals, vegetation and even clothes hanging outside are perfectly safe.

Citizens Requested To Leave Doors and Windows Open

All proprietors of business and professional establishments as well as home owners are requested to leave windows and doors open as the spray is harmless from all angles and if not allowed to penetrate into all buildings the purpose of the spray will be defeated.

Launched as a new idea in a few places last year, the movement has gained momentum, particularly in view of optimistic insect control reports from places where the plan has been tried.

This year's effort is an enthusiastic aftermath of last year's intensive clean-up practiced in many towns where DDT spray was used effectively in combatting insects. During last year's epidemic of infantile paralysis in some parts of the state not one polio case was reported within city limits of towns sprayed.

The equipment to be used in Clarendon is owned by the City of Pampa and as a friendly gesture toward smaller towns in the Pampa trade area the Pampa City Commissioners are sending the equipment here next Wednesday, in cooperation with the City Commissioners of Clarendon, at a minimum cost.

This is a public service offered by the City Officials of Clarendon to the business and residential areas, without cost, and all citizens are urged to follow the instructions to the letter, to insure that their stores and homes are efficiently treated and out of consideration for our fellow-citizens who will not receive the full benefit if all doors and windows are not left open.

COL. THOMPSON—ABLE PUBLIC OFFICIAL

A well-deserved tribute was paid one of the state's most outstanding citizens when Col. Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, was honor guest at a dinner at River Crest Country Club Tuesday night.

The dinner, given by a group of Fort Worth business and professional men, was in recognition of 46 years of unselfish public service of an unusually high order which Colonel Thompson has rendered as a member of regulatory body which supervises both the oil and gas industry and all of the state's common carriers.

Colonel Thompson became a member of the Railroad Commission in 1932 when he was appointed by Governor Sterling to fill the vacancy created when former Governor Neff resigned to accept the presidency of Baylor University. In the intervening years Colonel Thompson has done many things to earn the gratitude and lasting respect of the people of Texas, perhaps the most important of which has been his consistent and aggressive efforts toward conservation of our oil and gas resources.

The great East Texas oil field was just being developed when Colonel Thompson became a member of the commission. Chaos reigned in the area and it had been under martial law. Colonel Thompson moved in and took over control of oil production in the field the day the militia moved out. Through many months of bitter controversy he and his colleagues on the commission brought order out of the chaos. Today the Etas Texas field, one of the greatest in the world, stands as a monument to Colonel Thompson's war on waste and his campaign for orderly production and pressure maintenance.

Experts originally estimated the field's potential at one billion barrels; it already has produced 2,600,000,000 barrels and is still going strong, yielding 316,000 barrels daily with practically no decline in bottom hole pressures. The conservation lessons learned in those trying days in East Texas since have been applied to each of the 104,000 wells in the more than 1,200 other oil fields in the state. What this conservation program has meant to Texas in the past, and will continue to mean in the future, is almost beyond calculation.

Colonel Thompson's conservation efforts have not been confined to Texas. He was one of the organizers and authors of the Interstate Oil Compact, now adhered to by 21 oil producing states. He is widely recognized as one of the best informed men in the nation on all phases of oil business, as was evidenced in 1937 when he was sent as President Roosevelt's personal representative to the World Petroleum Congress in Paris.

Texas, the largest oil producing state in the Union, is fortunate in having a man of Colonel Thompson's ability who is willing to devote his talents to public service at a decided financial disadvantage to himself. A lawyer by profession, he could make much more money in private practice, but he is happy in what he is doing and derives more satisfaction from public service than in mere money making.

Texas have an opportunity in the forthcoming Democratic primary to retain the services of this distinguished citizen for another six-year term. It is hardly conceivable that the voters would fail to take advantage of such an opportunity. — Star-Telegram, July 8, 1948.

Claude Morgan of Amarillo has just returned home after spending his vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morgan.

Mrs. Tom Sullivan and son Jimmy left Saturday for Berthard, Colorado, where she will visit with her daughter.

Next time the wife uses our razor for sharpening a pencil we're going to remember that powder puffs make fine shoe shiners.

Life is full of ups and downs. But the most difficult of all is keeping appearances up and expending down.

THE DONLEY COUNTY LEADER

IMPORTANCE OF RAILROAD COMMISSION STRESSED BY W. J. (BILL) MURRAY

"Every Texan has a pocketbook interest in the railroad commission", according to Commissioner William J. (Bill) Murray, who is a candidate to fill the unexpired term vacated by Governor Jester. "Oil and gas with its tremendous contribution to the Texas tax structure, as well as the transportation utilities, supply needed funds which are turned into benefits for our people. Because of the importance of these industries to the State of Texas the railroad commission is constantly guarding the public interest but also acts as a fair and equitable rate adjusting body so that private industry finds it advantageous to invest its capital in Texas", said Murray.

W. J. (Bill) MURRAY

Murray, who was appointed by Governor Jester to fill his unexpired term, has been a railroad commissioner since January 1947 and is a candidate for the remaining two years of the unexpired term.

Texans who know Murray and his fine record as a public servant are enthusiastically in favor of keeping him in his present office. They point out that he is the first petroleum engineer ever to serve on the commission. During the late war he served as conservation engineer for five Gulf Coast States under the Petroleum Administration for War. As a youngster he grew up in the oil fields of Texas as the son of a rig builder father. He lived in many boom towns and saw, at first hand, the waste so frequent in boom and bust fields. Early in life he developed a desire to study oil production and find ways to reduce the waste then so prevalent.

Now 33, Murray is a ruling elder of Austin's University Presbyterian Church and has long been active in Boy Scout work. In 1939 he married Emma Jo Newton and the couple now have three young daughters—Jo Anna, Marsha and Janice. At present Murray, with other members of the Texas Railroad Commission, is working on the biggest problem ever to confront the commission. The demand for oil in the United States has reached an all time peak which is taxing the present known oil reserves of the state. The commission is seeking ways and means to expand new sources of the black gold as well as to conserve known reserves so that the demand for oil can be met without permanent injury to the State of Texas.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Your credit is always good when you start to borrow trouble.

You don't have to go far to find fault. Provided you are of a type who would make the actions of all others to conform to the opinions of your own. And they are probably mostly wrong, as judged by your associations.

The cat with nine lives has nothing on the radio listener. Listening to the alleged songs so often, the hearer is murdered many, many times before reaching for the little knob that is a relief.

Those who run into debt often come crawling out.

Money can be lost in more ways than won.

Santa Claus is the only man who pays any attention to silk stockings when they are empty.

If ever a law is passed permitting only the mentally capable to vote, it will also eliminate a lot of candidates.

Three little words—Anticipation, Vacation, Recuperation.

Looking back into the old days one comes to the conclusion that the reason divorces were so seldom resorted to was that men kept their wives well babied and barefooted. The only liberty she had was to wait on the table when company was present. She took orders from the "head of the household," did no talking and ate any scraps that might have been left. Of course you remember seeing those barbarous households if you are fifty years old. Not all were that way, but far too many. And yet some folks tell me that the world is no better than fifty years ago and steadily getting worse. No such a thing! Women are just being recognized as human beings the same as men.

The Veterans Administration reminds veterans that July 31 is the last day for reinstatement of lapsed National Service Life Insurance on a "comparative health" basis.

Before August 1, an eligible veteran may reinstate any amount of term insurance—from $1,000 to $10,000 in multiples of $500—regardless of the length of time it has been lapsed, and usually without a physical examination. He need only fill out a simple application form, in which he certifies that his health is as good as when the policy lapsed, and pay premiums for two months.

The privilege of reinstating on this basis will be available after July 31 only to veterans whose policies have been lapsed for less than three months. Where the period of lapse is three months or longer, the veteran will be required to take a physical examination and qualify as an insurable risk, VA said.

Veterans carrying National Service Life Insurance term policies will be able to renew them for an additional five years upon expiration of the present term period, under Public Law 838 passed by the last Congress.

Term insurance taken out before January 1, 1946, carries a term period of eight years from date of issue. Policies issued after that date are for a five year term.

The first NSLI policies were issued to men in service in October, 1940. Therefore, the first term periods would have begun to expire in October of this year. Those who renew their term insurance will pay a higher premium than their old rate because of increased age. Veterans may convert their term insurance to permanent types of insurance whenever they desire.

PRESIDENT—F. C. Bolton, executive vice-president and dean of the college, has been named as the fifteenth President of the A&M College of Texas, effective Sept. 1. Affectionately known as "the grand old man of Texas A&M," he has devoted 38 years of his life to service of the institution, to which he came in 1909.

SPORTSMEN'S SHOW IS YEAR-ROUND EXHIBIT

Turning a fondness for outdoor sports into an indoor hobby that in turn became a traveling exhibit is the neat trick turned by Albert Saddler, an electrician in the Gambrinus, O., steel mill of The Timken Roller Bearing Company.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Saddler started his collection with a model rifle and from there it just grew. In little over a year the exhibit of some 200 miniature pieces, ranging from game animals to rifles and a frying pan, has grown out of the hobby stage and into a collection that is in constant demand by schools, churches and sportsmen's gatherings.

Included in the display are models of game birds and animals, some in their natural surroundings, guns which are fired by using match-heads as ammunition, casting and fishing equipment, a tent cooking utensils, a hunter and even a game warden, with badge.

Vet's Family On Rocks; Wife Wins $2,000 Story Contest

Two thousand dollars isn't all the money in the world, but when you and your war veteran husband have just gone on the rocks in a venture financed by a GI loan, have a young son to support, and very little income, it seems just about as unattainable as all the money ever issued. But Fortune reserved her most dazzling smile for Mrs. Barbara Turner of Bridgton, Maine, by dropping a $2,000 check in her lap just when the Turner fortunes were at their lowest ebb.

Not only that, but the check itself was a virtual assurance that the lucrative life of a successful writer lies ahead for the comely Mrs. Turner. It happened this way.

Last March Cosmopolitan magazine launched a Dark Goddess contest, offering a top prize of $2,000 for the best short story inspired by a rather enigmatic illustration in the magazine. Entries were to be in by June 1, 1948. Approximately 6,000 manuscripts were submitted by aspiring writers from every state in this country, every country in Europe, from South Africa, South America, Canada, Egypt, India and China.

On June 12 the editors of Cosmopolitan agreed that they could not choose between two stories, one submitted by Mrs. Turner, and one by Pendleton Hogan, a professional writer of Washington, D. C. They decided each should get a $2,000 award.

Mrs. Turner was busily engaged in her Bridgton home on a rainy June afternoon writing another of the countless manuscripts which always came back with a rejection slip, when her telephone rang. It was a long-distance call from Dale Emson, fiction editor of Cosmopolitan, advising her she had won the $2,000 prize. "I wh-what?" she gasped when she was told she had won the prize. Then after another series of gasps between visions of paid-up bills at the local stores, with something left over in the Turner bank account, she exclaimed: "I'm overwhelmed."

And well she might have been for her entry in the contest was merely another desperate shot-in-the-dark trying to sell a magazine story at which she had failed consistently for years. When she recovered herself sufficiently to talk coherently, she said: "I am still in a terrific daze from learning I won the Dark Goddess contest. My husband and I recently lost our shirts in a resort and hotel venture financed by a G. I. loan. He has been trying to pull us up by our bootstraps as a representative of a farm equipment wholesaler but the going has been tough. The prize money will erase the red ink from the Turner ledgers, but more important is the fact that winning the prize has given me the confidence to go on writing, and I'm certain I will be a success."

Mrs. Barbara Turner

JAMES P. HART VISITS IN CLARENDON WEDNESDAY

James P. Hart, Associate Justice of the Texas Supreme Court, visited in Clarendon yesterday in the interest of his candidacy. Judge Hart, a native of Travis County, is seeking his first elective term on the Court. He was appointed last year to fill a vacancy.

Because of Court duties at Austin, Judge Hart said, he has not been able to devote full time to campaigning. However, he is attempting to meet as many people as he can before the July 24 Democratic Primary.

This is his first race for a State office, Judge Hart said he is basing his candidacy on his 20 years of legal experience as a practicing attorney, district attorney, special district judge, assistant attorney general and Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

Although he has no political platform, Judge Hart is stressing these points in his campaign: complete impartiality; sincere devotion to the State and Federal Constitutions; proper respect for all branches of the government; a determination to make the law conform to "simple justice and

THE FIRST STEP—PLANNING—IS IMPORTANT. BUT IN LIVING AS IN GARDENING, THERE IS MUCH WORK TO BE DONE BETWEEN THE PLANNING AND THE ACCOMPLISHMENT. WE SET A GOAL FOR THE FUTURE SECURITY OF OUR FAMILY THROUGH LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS, BUT TO REACH THAT GOAL TAKES WORK, SELF-DENIAL AND DETERMINATION.

RECRUITING TEAM COMPOSED OF MEMBERS 11th AIRBORNE DIVISION

Amarillo, Texas will play host to a special recruiting team composed of members of the 11th Airborne Division and the 1st Cavalry Division on July 14-15, 1948, it was learned this week from Capt. Eugene Saffold, Commanding Officer of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station at 12 Post Office Bldg., Amarillo, Texas. Veterans of the 11th Airborne Division point proudly to the record the Division attained during World War II.

Known as "The Angels", the 11th Airborne Division was originally the 11th Infantry Division in World War I. It was reactivated in February, 1943 under Airborne Command and stationed at Camp Polk, La., participating in the Louisiana maneuvers in 1944 and finally going overseas as a unit to the Southwest Pacific in April 1944.

The Division went into action as ground troops on 18 November 1944, landing at Leyte; followed by an amphibious landing at Luzon, 60 miles from Manila, on 26 January 1945.

The first combat parachute jump was made by the Division on 3 February 1945 to a ridge near the Manila Hotel annex. By the middle of February the 11th had reached the Manila Polo Club and Division patrols contacted the 1st Cavalry Division.

After the surrender by the Japanese Government, the 11th was assigned occupation duties and is currently stationed in Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Rundell came up from Marlin Saturday, spending the weekend visiting relatives and friends and attending business matters. Lon states that his health is improving, for which his many friends will be glad, and some day he hopes to move back to "Texas."

PELOWIN!
Out the CORNERS
by Uncle Zeb

Last week when I received my first copy of the weekly papers I was so aggravated with the Linotype operators. I was sure that I had been misquoted. But when I received the other papers I had made the same statement in all of them, so I had to confess that it was my one-fingered typewriter. Anyway, I meant to say "I CAN'T harvest sorry wheat, take unfriendly criticism, and write good stories, at the same time." The way I said it sounded like some of these candidates that are running for the Senate.

Why doesn't anyone except Truman want to be the Democratic candidate for President? Why don't we have a whole flock of outstanding men wanting to be President out of the Democratic party? Why have we been a One Man party for so long? It is going to be our ruin if, as a party, we don't get away from it. Anyway, the Democrats have let their political goose fall from the frying pan into the skillet, and Mr. Eisenhower was too smart a man to risk burning his hands to save it. I guess if we have to live for four years on a Hoover diet, and sleep on a Republican platform, it would be worth it in order to give the Democrats a chance to clean house, take a bath, and get acquainted with their Southern fore-fathers again. I hope someone bowls me out for saying all these mean things about my Grandfather's party. God bless America, and help us Democrats.

Guess it is not my old car that has changed so much. Guess it is just me. Anyway, ten years ago I was proud of the little job.

The reason Lady Luck doesn't help most of us anymore than she does, is because we spend so much of our time expecting her to help us.

So far, I haven't received much worth while information about South Dakota. One man said "Years ago most everyone left there, and he didn't want to be the one to go up there and find out why." Another said "It was a land of Milk and Honey, fish and pheasants, and what have you". Anyway, I am still begging for some information on South Dakota. Still wanting to know whether Johnson or Stevenson is in the lead in the Panhandle.

Everyone is expecting a good wheat crop next year, and why not? Isn't that our reputation "The best next year's country in the world". I bet I do get 'Bawled Out' over this week's column. Anyway, I like the whole world and everybody in it.
