

THREE DONLEY CO. CLUB GIRLS WIN TRIPS TO DALLAS

EXHIBIT HELD IN CLARENDON
LAST SATURDAY DETER-
MINES WINNERS OF FREE
TRIPS TO STATE FAIR AT DALLAS.

The exhibits of the girl's home demonstration clubs, held at the court house Saturday afternoon, under the direction of Miss Trulie Richmond, our home demonstrator, was a big success.

The exhibits were not as large as they have been in previous years, due to the drought. But those who saw the exhibits say they have never seen anything quite so good, as the articles exhibited by the canning and sewing clubs.

These exhibits represented the completed work of the home demonstration clubs of Donley county.

The three individual prize winners winning trips to the Dallas fair, awarded by the woman's clubs, were: Miss Willie Moreland of the Sunny-view community and Miss Cordie Holland of Lelia Lake and Miss Agnes Ayers of Windy Valley. Each of these girls will send their exhibit to the Dallas Fair.

To further encourage the girls club work in the State of Texas co-operating with the United States department of agriculture, the State fair of Texas offers four scholarships valued at $200.00 each to one of the State Colleges for girls, as follows:
1. Best record for first year work.
2. Best record for second year work.
3. Best record for third year work.
4. Best record for fourth year work.

Miss Willie Mae Moreland will send a complete exhibit to the Dallas Fair to try for the scholarship to one of these schools. Miss Moreland hopes to win the scholarship for the best record for third year work.

Ribbons were awarded the first, second and third best exhibits in the poultry, sewing, canning and home improvement departments. Those winning ribbons were:

Poultry—
1st. Lucile Naylor, with Barred Rock.
2nd. Polly Sowell.
3rd. Mary Hodges.
1st. Cordie Holland with Bronze Turkey.

1st. Hattie Riley with Wyandott.
Sewing—
1st. Gladys Holly.
2nd. Cordie Holland.
3rd. Lucile Naylor.

Canning—
1st. Willie Mae Moreland.
2nd. Henrietta Longan.
3rd. Tennie Sligar.

Home Improvement—
1st. Helen Goldston.
2nd. Tennie Sligar.
3rd. Agnes Ayers.

The judges were Misses McCullough and Wilson of the home economics departments of the High School and College respectively and Mr. Nelson of the public schools of Clarendon and Mr. Johnson of Memphis.

No little credit is due Miss Trulie Richmond for the good showing made by the girls of Donley County. We feel sure the efforts of Miss Richmond and the girls will not be forgotten when they take their exhibits to the State Fair of Texas at Dallas next month.

BULL PUPS DEFEAT THE McLEAN HIGH

In a hard fought game last Friday afternoon the second string men of Coach Burton defeated the husky McLean High Eleven by the score of 13-2. Mayfield and Collins were the outstanding stars of the game. The only sensational play came in the early part of the game, when Mayfield raced 66 yards for the first score. Bell crossed the goal line for the second touchdown. L. Wilson was the star for the visitors.

M. M. Nobles and family were among the Clarendon people at the circus in Amarillo Monday.

CLARENDON LADY ROYAL PRINCESS IN DALLAS COURT

MISS ETHEL GENTRY REPRESENTS DUCHY OF CLARENDON IN ROYAL CORONATION OF QUEEN II IN DALLAS PAGEANT, OCT. 14TH.

One of the most brilliant social functions of the Southwest will be the Pageant presented at the Dallas Fair in which among the other representatives of the beauty and culture of the state, Miss Ethel Gentry, representing the duchy of Clarendon will uphold the traditional reputation of Clarendon in that respect.

Once again the pleasure loving eyes of those who follow society in pursuit of entertainment will turn their eyes to Dallas, for the Western Hemisphere will throw the spot light on the Second Annual Dallas Pageant, the night following the day of October Fourteenth, Nineteen Hundred, Twenty-two, when at the magic hour of nine the Coronation of Queen II of Dallas will take place resplendent in a variable flame of glory.

Last year those who attended the Texas Centennial Pageant which commemorated the One Hundred Anniversary of the founding of Texas, as well as formally open the State Fair of Texas and dedicated the new Dallas Stadium, will have some conception of the panorama of beauty that will greet those who are fortunate enough to obtain seats in the New Majestic Theatre, where the Coronation Ceremonies will take place.

Following the Coronation of Her Great and Glorious Majesty, Queen II of Dallas, whose identity is held in the greatest secrecy until the crown is placed upon her head by the attending Prime Ministers, will receive the homage of the International Court, who are making the journey from the nations, States, Cities and Counties of this hemisphere to attend the court festivities which will be given in the Royal City in honor of this great event. Her Highness will be attended by the Dallas Debutantes of the coming season as the Royal Princesses in waiting to the Queen. Two blushing promenades will run from the State Lobby of the Royal Theatre to the great stage where surmounting cascades upon cascades of highly polished onyx steps will be the shimmering, crystal throne resplendent upon a dias of highly polished onyx. On either side of the flight of steps leading to the Imperial Throne, one above the other, will be found the lesser thrones of the Royal Princesses in Waiting to the Sovereign. On the right and left at the bottom of the Royal Steps will be the Court of Honor where the Visiting Royalty will find their thrones according to their rank. All Visiting Royalties are to be announced as they bend low in humility before the Imperial Throne. Back of the Court of Honor massive columns will rise into the heights canopied with draperies of Royal Ermine which will form a cyclorama between the columns dotted and fringed with tails of ermine. Heavy cords of crystal will fasten the heavy folds of ermine from over the Imperial Throne, exposing the Royal Gardens beyond. From the sky of royal blue above, a slender crescent moon set high above countless stars, will radiate over the setting. Many colored spotlights will blend a kaleidoscope of may hues, breaking the snowy whiteness of the ermine amid the setting. A massed chorus will sing the music of the Muses accompanied by the great pipe organ of the Royal Theatre. Chimes will lend enchantment to the compositions of inspired masters as the crown of Dallas is placed upon its fairest head, the one solemn moment attendant to the Court Festivities.

A Ford driven by Miss Salmon was damaged Saturday afternoon when she collided with the big car driven by Jim Adams. The accident occurred on Fourth street, two blocks east of Main street.

The great Byzantine Ballet will be given for the entertainment of the Queen and her International Court Mermaids coming forth in the opalescent hue of the Marine Kingdom will come from the depths of the fountain pool on the first terrace to disport themselves and watch the resplendent spectacle. The entire setting will be of the Imperial Renaissance Motif, lending itself both to the Theatre as a setting and the mode of the coming season dictated by Dame Fashion. Princesses of ravishing beauty will look fairer than ever in graceful shimmering trains attached to well rounded shoulders, with collars of brilliants in harmony with the lengthy Court Gown.

To the symphony of magnificent golden harps, accentuated by other stringed instruments and typhophones,

CHRISTIAN REVIVAL CLOSES

The revival at the Christian Church lasting two weeks, which was conducted by Rev. A. O. Cooley of Dallas came to a successful close last Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance every service and the house was filled to capacity the last evening. The meeting was a big success from every standpoint, there being forty additions to the church. The one thing that made the meeting the success it was, was the singing under the direction of Mr. Bob McGowan. Much interest was manifested at the beginning which lasted throughout the meeting.

CLARENDON BANKS SHOW LARGE GAIN

TOTAL RESOURCES OF THREE BANKS ARE $1,397,757.75—DEPOSITS ARE GROWING.

Statements of the financial condition of Clarendon Banks in compliance with a call issued Sept. 15, show that all three institutions are in a better condition than they were when last statements were issued June 30.

The combined deposits of the three banks are $1,050,159.57, while the total resources amount to $1,397,757.75. Loans and discounts aggregate $793,708.58.

Deposits and resources show a substantial gain over last statements, when total resources were $1,325,440.63 and deposits were $994,582.82.

A still larger increase is expected to be seen next call, due to the fact that deposits from the sale of farm products is not well under way.

BULLDOGS WIN ANOTHER

Last Saturday afternoon the Bulldogs win their second game of the season by defeating the Pampa High Eleven, 20-0. All the scoring being done in the first half. The light score was due to the fact that second string men were used as soon as the game had been put on ice for the locals. The only feature of the game was the team work of the Bulldogs.

SECRETARY BLANTON HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Secretary W. N. Blanton, of the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce with headquarters at Amarillo, was here Wednesday enroute home from Memphis, where he represented his organization at the annual banquet of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday night. Mr. Blanton stopped off here on official business and expressed himself as thoroughly sold on Clarendon as a progressive little city and complimented her very highly on her cleanly, modern appearance.

Secretary Blanton is proving a wonderful asset to the Panhandle Plains organization, having had much previous experience. He is the man that put the Young Men's Business League of Waco on the map as the most efficient organization of its sort in Texas. He also gave the Weatherford Chamber of Commerce a most able administration. His work is of the highest order and gives promise of bringing the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce to a point only dreamed of in years past.

Mrs. D. O. Stallings was called to Hereford Tuesday night on account of the sudden death of her father, F. H. Britain, aged 60. Mrs. Stallings was accompanied by Mr. Stallings and Miss Fray. They will return here later in the week.

Geo. A. Ryan, Earl Ryan and Harry H. Sitzer motored to Amarillo Wednesday, returning in the evening.

BURTON ATTENDS THE T. J. A. A. MEETING

The Texas Junior College Athletic Association convened at Fort Worth on Saturday, Sept. 23. The session was held at the Westbrook Hotel and was well attended. Coach H. T. Burton represented Clarendon College and reports that a number of important changes were made bearing on the eligibility of players in the Junior conference.

Primary among those effecting Clarendon College was the permission granted to Clarendon and Wayland allowing both schools to play men of more than two year's experience in all senior college and non-conference games. Under the two-year rule, however, both schools will observe the previous requirement when playing any other junior college in the Texas Conference.

The waiving of the two-year rule only benefits Clarendon when playing senior college games. It was pointed out at the conference that because of location both Wayland and Clarendon are compelled to play several other senior colleges and in order that they may compete on equal basis the two-year rule is waived. Only bona-fide students who are carrying full courses are eligible under this new ruling.

The semi-annual convention of the Panhandle Photographers Association met at Memphis, Thursday, and was called to order by President W. D. Orr of Memphis and the minutes were recorded by Secretary C. M. Wilson of Floydada.

Vice-President J. R. Bartlett of this city delivered an address to the members pointing out the advantages of having a ground floor for the photography room. In conclusion Mr. Bartlett extended an invitation to the members to come to Clarendon and see his new studio which has just been completed.

The membership thought so much of Mr. Bartlett's talk that the Association chose Clarendon as the next meeting place, which will be in February at which time the annual election of officers will take place.

This Association includes the photographers of the Panhandle of Texas, South Western Okla., and Eastern New Mexico.

The entire citizen joins Mr. Bartlett in his welcome to the members of the Association in this Spring convention.

One of the largest and most good natured mass meetings that has been brought together since the days of the war, met Tuesday night in the district court room of the court house in this city for the purpose of considering plans for the securing of a proper road system for this county. W. H. Patrick was chairman of the meeting and outlined at the beginning the object of the meeting, urging that everyone give full and free expression on the matter to be discussed.

Talks were made by W. A. SoRelle, Judge Link, M. M. Noble, Hugh Brown, A. L. Chase, Dr. Carroll, W. L. Butler and C. H. Bugbee, Mrs. John T. Sims, John T. Sims, J. T. Patman and others. There were some who thought that a temporary patching-up of the roads was the proper course at this time, but it developed that there was a strong sentiment for a bond issue to carry with it enough funds for building and maintaining a system of roads of permanent nature. There was, of course, a divergence of opinion as to the amount to be expended.

After much discussion a motion was made by J. T. Patman, that it was the sense of the meeting that a movement be started looking to the calling of an election to vote bonds for the building of clay and gravel pike roads on the cardinal highways of the county. This was carried with little opposition. Then on motion of John T. Sims it was ordered that the chairman appoint a committee of five citizens to canvass the cost of roads of this character, look into the matter of federal aid and draw up petitions to the commissioners court asking that an election be ordered for a bond issue as might in their judgment be needed to provide the best system of roads that natural resources and conditions of Donley County warranted. This was carried without opposition.

The chairman asked for time to make the proper selection and as The News goes to press Mr. Patrick authorizes it to submit the following list as the committee appointed:

Chas. H. Bugbee, Chairman; M. M. Noble, Clarendon; J. W. Noel, Hedley; B. G. Smith, Lelia Lake; Odos Caraway, Clarendon.

Thus begins the movement that all lovers of progress and good highways hope will bring to Donley County such roads as our citizenry and civilization deserves and upon which the ultimate growth and development of the county depends.

COUNTY AGENT ON THE JOB

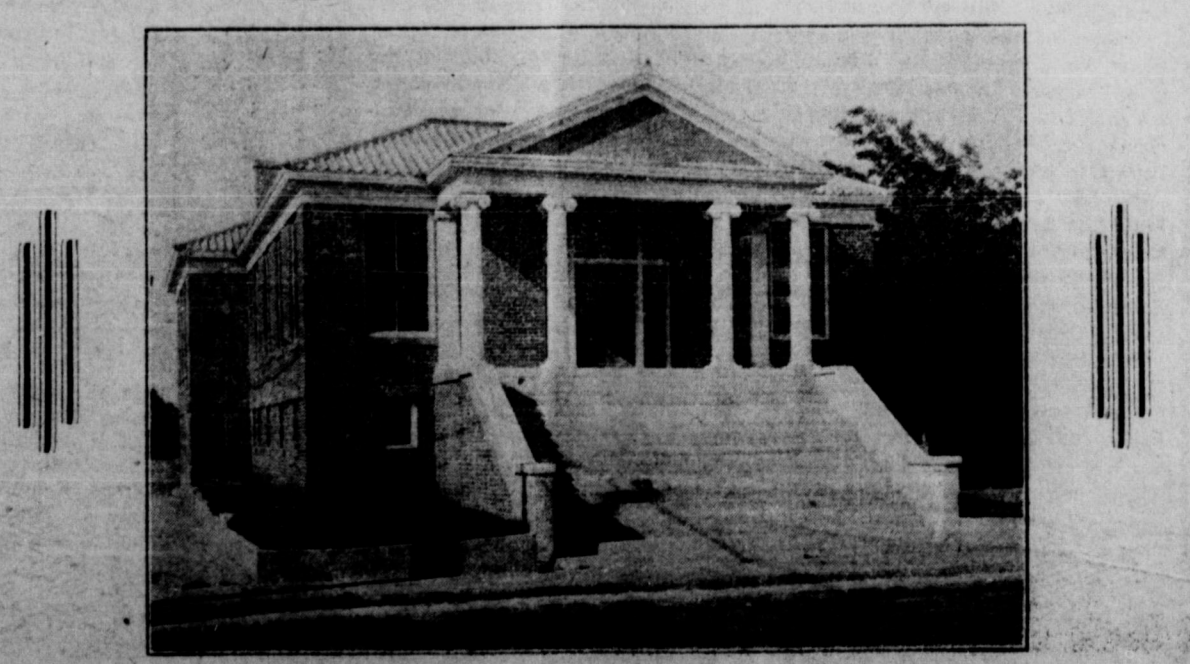

Mr. G. W. Harris of Mobeetie who has been appointed as county agent for Donley County has arrived and is already at work. He is well prepared and is planning to continue the good work begun by Mr. Hendrix. Mr. Harris is a graduate of Texas A. & M. College having received his B. S. Degree in June. He is well acquainted with our Panhandle conditions, having lived here a number of years, and has made three crops in Wheeler county.

He will begin work with the Boy's Clubs next week, and will be glad to meet all to whom he may be of service as soon as possible.

We are glad to welcome Mr. Harris to our midst and bespeak for him the hearty support and co-operation that was given Mr. Hendrix.

Miss Marion Letts has just returned from Louisville, Ky., where she has been visiting during the summer.

Mrs. S. H. Condon returned the first of the week from a visit with relatives in Hereford.

The Clarendon Y. M. C. A. opened September 17th with appropriate ceremonies, is now under the capable guidance and leadership of E. L. Hughes, secretary. It might be of interest to note at this place that Clarendon is the smallest city in the United States with a Y. M. C. A. in actual operation.

DELIVERANCE AMID TRIALS

When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee; when thou walkest through the fire thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.—Isaiah 43:2.

The coming of bleak November weather will put a stop to two pests now preying on Texas—dengue fever and party fusionists.

Clarendon is setting the pace in the Panhandle as a cotton market and much staple from sections that ordinarily haul and market in other towns is coming here. Like "trade follows the flag," cotton comes to the best market.

A number of the fraternity of editors over the state have tendered congratulations to the News editor on his election to the presidency of the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce at the annual convention in Amarillo last week. Boys, we thank you for them kind words, but to save any of you hitting us up for a loan, we want it understood that there is no salary attached to the job. To the fraternity of the Panhandle-Plains section we ask your generous sympathy and support to the general work of the organization and Secretary-Manager Blanton assuring you that when there is any paid publicity to be sent out you will "get yours." The office of the organization has a large and comprehensive program mapped out for the ensuing year and to our mind there is not one item of the program that is not important in the rapid development of our section.

While we have never had much sympathy for the Republican party, yet we have never wished them the ill-luck to be pestered by a bunch of political parasites and thugs like those who are now trying to lead formerly good Democrats over into their camp. But, since they carry their own punishment with them—so be it.

Cotton in Donley County is really a "money crop" this season. Twenty-five hundred bales will go far toward keeping business near normal levels and again proclaiming to the world that Donley County never made a crop failure. There is no county in Texas with any thing like the agricultural record of our own. Tell it to the world.

Going around the country now is a sort of vandalism that ought to be stamped out by the mighty tread of public sentiment. It is the mutilating of advertising signs and bill boards. Recently in and around Clarendon there has been some of this sort of low-down petty meanness, and the ones who are guilty ought to be made to feel the weight of public scorn. When business people spend their good money to put out advertising matter it ought to be as safe ten miles from town as in their own show windows. The guilty are subject to a fine under the state law, and law-breaking must be put under the ban.

Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the Normal at Canyon, made a very striking address at the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce convention at Amarillo, on the needs of the Texas educational system, and among other things declared that the state institutions need this year, $40,000,000 for permanent improvements. He further said that if property in Texas now escaping taxation could be made to pay its proportion of tax that the ordinary tax-payer could have his taxes reduced fifty percent and all the money necessary for schools and other needs of the government would be amply provided for. This is a doctrine that many people in Texas have known and advocated for years and should be so brought home to the masses that it shall be made a platform demand, bringing to justice the untaxed millions of the rich man and relieving the burdens that beset those of less fortunate circumstances. Texas should not lack for funds to properly build and maintain her schools and eleemosynary institutions when simple justice in taxation would settle the difficulty for all times. Dr. Hill is right.

Ben Smith, rapid-fire editor of the Lockney Beacon, takes about a half column of his good paper to call us to account for proposing a junior A. & M.—a branch of the school at Bryan—for West Texas. Now Ben, old dear, you have got us dead wrong. Maybe our statement might have been ambiguous, but we don't believe it was, and the Lockney Beacon paper stands any firmer for our just con, nor any other Panhandle newspapers in the matter of a full-fledged A. & M. college, than does the Clarendon News. Now, Ben, read the following statement that recently appeared in The Clarendon News, and see if you don't think we are entirely orthodox from the standpoint of Panhandle theology:

When the Clarendon News says it stands for a West Texas A. & M., it does not mean that it would be satisfied with an agricultural department added to any other state institution in West Texas. There is being some selfish work done to add such a department to the Normal at Canyon, but such an addition would be a subversion of the justice of the matter and would leave our section with less than half a loaf when we deserve the whole loaf. Stand for the West Texas A. & M., but stand for a real institution which in after years will compare favorably with its older sister at College Station. The only way our ideal West Texas A. & M. would be "junior," would be in the matter of age—and that situation is growing worse every day justice is delayed.

George Paddy, the motley nominee for U. S. Senator, talks about "hooded hoodlums." If there is anybody who is qualified to talk about hoodlums, it is George. He has proven himself an expert along the line of leading hoodlums in the days gone by. Some five years ago he put himself at the head of a parade of hoodlums, while a member of the legislature, and paraded through the streets of Austin, carrying banners and jeering. Crossing the capitol grounds, George led his hoodlums and when in front of the windows of the governor's office, he and his hoodlums hooted and jeered and "made faces" at the duly elected and qualified governor of Texas. He was at the time an officer of Texas sworn to uphold the constitution and laws, and to assist in the enforcement of the law. He may try to excuse himself by saying he did not like the governor. Be this as it may, he should have observed the law until the governor was removed. He is not only a hoodlum, but is the captain and chief of hoodlums. Hoodlums have nothing to do with hoodlums. A hoodlum is a hoodlum, whether he is hooded or not. The plain, law-abiding people of Texas will never vote for a hoodlum like George Paddy and his motley crew.—Hall County Herald.

When Sam Braswell bought the Clarendon News, he bought a good plant and a good paper in a splendid town. He has added to the original plant and increased the quality of the News until today, there is not a better equipped plant on the Plains. Sam has just added an Autocaster and will in the future illustrate his ads and news items with the very latest cuts and show pictures of all the celebrities. Sam is going to keep on spending his money for plant until he will be broke and will not be able to pay for that "Sam" sea feed in Galveston next summer, which Lee Rountree has been bluffing for.—Richardson Echo.

"DAD'S ALL RIGHT"

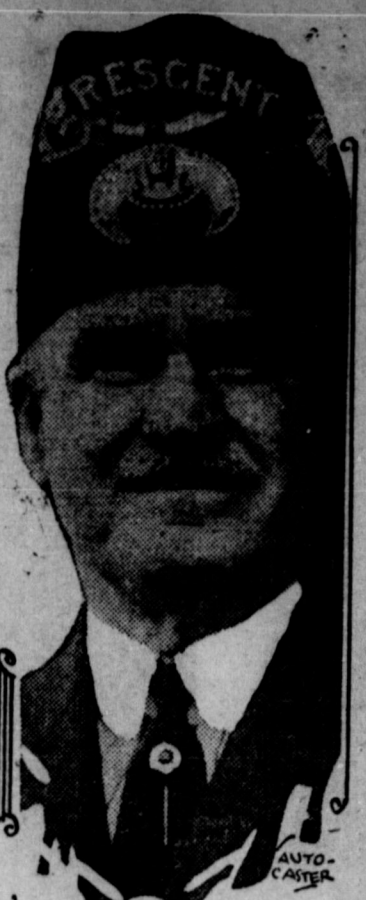

The Hillsboro Mirror recently printed a little story of a boy's confidence in, and devotion to his father, that is refreshing as it is beautiful. The story, briefly, is this:

A gentleman who has been a prominent official of Hill county, was walking along a road when he was overtaken by a young man driving a gravel wagon, and was asked to ride. He accepted the invitation. He did not recognize the driver, but was known to him and when the young man told him his name, the man knew him at once as the son of an old friend. He knew that this old friend had recently suffered severe financial reverses, and he asked the son how his father was getting along. "Oh, Dad's all right. You know he lost a lot of money, but we children are behind Dad, and we are coming back. We are strong for Dad and we are staying with him. That's why I am driving this team this summer."

The man riding with the son said that the speaker's eyes lit up and he held his head back with a sense of pride when he said, "Oh, Dad's all right. We are strong for him."

It isn't hard to believe that a father with a sonlike that is "all right." When Dad has sons and daughters who are glad to "stand behind" him when reverse and misfortunes and sorrows come, you can safely count that he is all right. If he hadn't been, his sons wouldn't be willing to drive gravel wagons to help meet his financial obligations. It can be counted as certain that the father of a son like that has "stood by" his children in the right way. He has taught them properly, and he has led the way as he pointed out the right path to take along life's journey.

Imperial Potentate

James McCandless, Imperial Potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, was greeted by fifty thousand nobles from all parts of the U. S. when he appeared at the annual conclave at Atlantic City.

"Dad's all right." How many a father who has struggled and toiled and saved to give his children advantages, would think all his sacrifice well made if he could hear his son say that, and see his eyes light up with pride at the thought of Dad? How many a father would be happy beyond expression to know that if he lost all he had of houses and lands and stocks and money, that his sons would be glad to come to his relief, and proudly tell him that they were going to "stand behind" until he "came back?" Aye, how many a father would be glad to give all he had in this world if thereby he could change his sons from selfish, indifferent ungrateful children into loving offspring who were ready under any circumstance to say, "Oh, Dad's all right. We are strong for Dad."

Fathers who are themselves ungrateful; fathers who do not show their sons by their own conduct that they are "all right;" fathers who had rather foolishly indulge their children in hurtful practices and unhealthful pleasures than to make associates of them; fathers who are grasping, selfish, indifferent, faithless fathers—these can never expect to hear their sons say, "Oh, Dad's all right. We are strong for Dad." A father with sons like this one has treasure greater than any material wealth.—Brenham News.

PIONEER OF PANHANDLE DIES AT AMARILLO MONDAY

J. H. Hammer, age 83, Confederate veteran, Panhandle pioneer, for years editor of the Claude News and one of the greatest characters associated with the upbuilding and development of the Panhandle and West Texas, died Monday night, at 10:15 at the family residence 1914 Fillmore street. Mr. Hammer came to the Panhandle in 1890. He spent the greater part of his life here at Claude where he edited the Claude News, moving to Amarillo only three weeks ago with his wife and their daughter, Miss Laura V. Hammer.

For forty years before coming to Texas Mr. Hammer was associated with the Commercial Appeal, Memphis, Tennessee, in various capacities. The family was away from the Panhandle seven years after settling in Claude in 1890, moving to Waco for that period, but came back to Claude where they took a leading part in the building of the county site of Armstrong county.

Mr. Hammer spent four years in the Confederate Army, being wounded in the battle of Fort Donaldson. He moved to Amarillo August 31, 1922 and with his family, Mrs. Hammer and only daughter, Laura, spent three weeks in their new home at 1914 Fillmore street. Interment will be held Friday in the family lot at the Claude Cemetery at 2 p. m., the funeral service being held at the cemetery under the direction of the Claude Lodge of A. F. & A. M., Mr. Hammer having been a Mason for sixty years. Pall bearers at the house in Amarillo are H. A. Nobles, A. G. Stanley, J. R. Gaut, Louis Anthony, S. E. Fish, F. R. Jamison, W. P. Martin, H. S. Bishop and Howard Trigg. At Claude the following Masons will serve as pall bearers: E. C. Cayton, Dr. W. A. Carol, J. D. Woodburn, Jim Christian, J. E. Phillips, Robert Campbell, Bates Walker and Landon Doak. No services will be held at the residence. The procession will leave the house at 12 noon.—Amarillo Tribune.

Mrs. Burrs of Provo, Utah is visiting with her brother, N. S. Percival. Mr. Burrs was manager of the J. A. Ranch some 25 or 30 years ago and will be remembered by all the old timers of this country.

Ironized Yeast Brings Marvelous Beauty to Skin
Science Now Proves How Complexion is Quickly Beautified Through the Blood
There is nothing in the world today which is producing such a sensation as this simple discovery! Pick out anyone who has healthy rosy cheeks and a ravishingly beautiful complexion, and you have picked out an individual whose blood is rich with vitamins-and-iron. This "Ironized Yeast," "Ironized Yeast," is now being used by thousands of men and women with startling, yet perfectly natural, results. It gives you yeast-vitamins-ironized, containing iron in the form in which it exists in the human body. It is not a mere mixture of yeast and iron, but is yeast ironized, which is a substance all by itself. Sufferers, that great beauty robber, gives way to a lily-purity which nothing else on earth can produce. Pimples, blackheads, spots, eruptions? They become practically an impossibility! Rosy cheeks, firmer and younger-looking skin, rose-petal purity, velvety softness—all natural! Imagine such a skin further beautified by your favorite cream and powder. To think of it is lovely. To have it, a modern miracle! Begin taking Ironized Yeast today. There is only one Ironized Yeast in the world, sold by all druggists at $1.00 a package. Each package contains 60 tablets, each tablet is sealed. They never lose their power. ATTD only by Ironized Yeast Co., Atlanta, Ga. Get ready to be supremely happy.

A MILLION INHABITANTS
The Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce in the convention here this week endorsed a plan for the organization of a "Million Inhabitants Club."
The crying demand in the Panhandle for many years has been for greater population. Possibly this club can be the beginning of a great constructive movement to bring people by the hundreds to the Panhandle.
For several years widely informed persons have declared that the Panhandle needs a large crop production bringing about a volume of business that few persons in the Panhandle can conceive.
Dallas and Tarrant counties have far more population than there is in the entire Panhandle today. With more than 30 counties in the Panhandle, it is no idle dream to prophesy that this region can have a million inhabitants. The speed with which it is populated will depend largely upon the effort put forth by the residents of the Panhandle.
Crop failures are fewer in the Panhandle than in most other sections. Donley county has boasted for years that it has not had a complete crop failure. Dallam county people are well pleased with the crops this year despite the dry weather. Other counties have suffered somewhat from the drouth, but few reports of downright pessimism are reaching Amarillo.
That million population will come to the Panhandle. A great agricultural development will speed it up. Natural gas and oil will help a great extent. Agriculture will mean a steady and permanent growth. The farmer who invests in the Panhandle has a sure proposition. Let us bring farmers by the thousands to the Panhandle.
Success to the "Million Inhabitants Club."—Amarillo News.
Miss Mildred Martin left Friday morning for Amarillo to be at the bedside of her friend, Miss Kerriek Warner, of Claude, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

UNCLE SAM HOLDS NEARLY ALL GOLD OF ENTIRE WORLD
Uncle Sam is gold poor! He has so much of the yellow metal that it is disturbing the trade balance of the world, and handicapping business.
That today is the view expressed by a high administration official. The worst possible thing that could happen to this country now would be for Great Britain to make a large payment on its debt in gold, in view of this official.
Such a payment would give the United States so much gold that it would destroy the gold standard. Other nations, if they abandoned the gold standard, would be in the position of the small boy who won all the marbles in the neighborhood. The other boys took up "tops" as their game and the marble winner's trophies were useless to him.
Uncle Sam, because he has so much gold, is getting into the situation that Switzerland found itself before the war. Switzerland's misfortune was that its money was too good. Exchange rates were so strongly in Switzerland's favor as to impose actual difficulties in business transactions.
Harry Sitrer spent Friday and Saturday in Amarillo.

"Come on, Alice, you know Mother said we are going to have Kellogg's Corn Flakes for lunch. And that's the kind I like to eat about a whole box of, because they ain't tough to eat! Come on an' hurry up!"

Kellogg's Corn Flakes

are a taste thrill at meals or any time

That's because Kellogg's Corn Flakes are so deliciously flavored—the Kellogg flavor that is known all over the civilized world! You, as well as the little folks, can eat great bowlsful of Kellogg's Corn Flakes day after day—and each sunny-brown, crispy, crunchy spoonful thrills the taste as though it was the first!

Put Kellogg's in comparison with imitation corn flakes! Kellogg's Corn Flakes are never tough or leathery or hard to eat! They are all-time crisp, all-time good! Don't miss such enjoyment!

Insist upon Kellogg's in the RED and GREEN package that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes! NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!

ANDERSON RETURNS THANKS TO KU KLUX

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Anderson say that the report that the Ku Klux Klan always make their appearance and donations in a public manner so that they may get the wide publicity is certainly not the rule with the Clarendon Klan, as evidenced by their having received through the mails a letter from the local body enclosing $50.00 in currency. The donation was occasioned by the recent loss of the Anderson home and contents by fire and the letter reads as follows:

Mr. O. S. Anderson, Clarendon, Texas, Dear Sir:—

We hand you herewith $50.00 in currency, to assist you by reason of your recent loss of your home and contents by fire.

It is our wish to be helpful always, and you have our sympathy in your loss.

We stand for the best interests of our community, and for helpfulness to one another.

Very truly yours, Clarendon Klan No. 165, Clarendon, Texas.

In interview with the News editor Mr. Anderson had the following to say: "Mrs. Anderson and myself want to thank the good people of Clarendon one and all, for their help and many articles given us that we so much needed after our loss. We certainly appreciate all these helps and especially the liberal donation of the K. K. K. We are proud to feel that there are so many friends who are ready to come to our aid when help is so badly needed. We will appreciate it if The News will carry this message to the people of this community."

Delegates began coming in last night and today's trains are bringing scores. Local leaders say the attendance is normal in spite of business conditions and a most interesting meeting is in prospect.

Full account of the convention will appear in next week's issue of The News.

OIL SITUATION LOOKING UP

The oil situation in Donley county is looking up considerably lately and some of these days we may wake up with an oil field right at our door.

The Grogan well is drilling right along, and from what we can learn are drilling in very favorable looking formation. Those who have this well in charge are not giving out any information, but they are drilling every day.

The rig for the Lelia Lake well is being put in place and actual drilling will start at an early date.

Buck Creek has been down for a short time, but we understand that financial arrangements have been made for the completion of this well to contract depth, 3,500 feet if necessary. They have encountered several nice showings of oil and some gas in this well, and the Oklahoma people who are financing this well are very sanguine over the prospects and feel almost sure that they will get a good producer there. They are down about 2,200 feet.

Watson and associates who contemplate drilling a well a little north east of Hedley have already dug the slush pit and it is claimed that active operations will begin in a short time.

One significant fact, is that several of the larger companies have acquired acreage in the north east part of Donley county, some of the big ones buying land in fee.

There are other contemplated activities but at this time we are not at liberty to make the matter public.

There appears to be more interest under the cap rock at this time than there has ever been. The big boys are looking about us.

OFFICERS MAKE HAUL

Sheriff J. H. Rutherford assisted by City Marshal Mr. Shoffet, arrested J. H. Powell of Claude when he parked his car at the Ford garage Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock.

Five gallons of white corn whiskey was taken by the officers and both whiskey and car was confiscated.

Mr. Powell asserts that he bought the liquor in Amarillo and that it was for his personal use.

The defendant is charged with the transportation and unlawful possession of spirituous liquor. He is also charged with trying to bribe an officer. He waived an examining trial and his bond has been set by Judge Lewis in the amount of $1,500.00.

The whiskey was taken to the office of Judge Lewis and the Judge stated that he had had more callers Tuesday morning than any day since he had been in office.

An argument was started in Mr. Lewis's office shortly before noon by officers over who would have possession of the happy fluid.

Mr. Powell's trial is set for January 8th, 1923.

THOMAS E. WATSON OF GEORGIA DEAD

Washington, Sept. 26.—United States Senator Thomas E. Watson of Georgia, died suddenly at his home here early today. Death was said to be due to an acute attack of asthma, from which he had suffered recurrently for some years.

Although failing health had interrupted Senator Watson's attendance at the Senate sessions frequently in the last several months, he was in his seat Friday when the Senate adjourned and his friends believed that he was then showing improvement. He was stricken suddenly after dinner last night and passed away shortly after 3 o'clock this morning. He was sixty-six years of age.

Members of the Senator's family and a number of close friends were at his bedside when the end came.

DISAPPEARANCE OF AMARILLO DAIRYMAN IS STILL A MYSTERY

Whereabouts of Arthur E. Stinson, Amarillo dairyman, missing since Monday night remains a mystery, although a dozen posses of searchers, approximating 350 men have scoured the country all day Wednesday. The searchers, late Wednesday afternoon had progressed as far north as the Canadian River east to Washburn, and south as far as the Burk school house.

Every ravine, creek, draw, field and prairie throughout this territory has been minutely searched.

Stinson left his home Monday night in his automobile, presumably to feed his hogs, penned a few hundred yards from the Stinson dairy, near the Great West Mill & Elevator Company's plant, two miles east of Amarillo. His failure to return Tuesday morning caused an immediate search, and his automobile was located east of the hog pens, near the Rock Island Crossing.

Blood stains on the car seat gave rise to the belief that foul play might have resulted, and further evidence of blood on the gates of the stock pens strengthened that opinion.

Many theories have been advanced and the rumor that Stinson had been seen in the business section of Amarillo at late as 11 o'clock Monday night was proven groundless before the searching party left Wednesday morning.

Another report that he was seen Monday night at the Crystal Cafe on Taylor Street failed, when it was said that the party was Bert Stinson, a brother of the missing man.

A night watchman at the Great West Mill is said to have heard an automobile engine running Monday night about 7:30 or 8 o'clock near the hog pens. It is said that the engine ran for fifteen or twenty minutes and then the car was seen to leave the pens at an apparent high rate of speed, going to the railroad where it was located the next morning.

One of the most hopeful opinions expressed Wednesday was that he had probably left town of his own accord, and it has been suggested that he might have boarded the circus trains which were leaving Amarillo Monday night.

Search for the missing man is still in progress, and will be continued until the surrounding country has been completely covered, the Sheriff's and police departments announced. —Amarillo Tribune.

Panther fans are mourning the loss of the Dixie championship to the Mobile Bears, who came from behind a two game defeat and won the last four games of the series in a wonderful display of heady baseball. The Bears tangle up with Tulsa, Western League champs, in a series beginning Friday and many Panther fans are pulling for the Bears to mop up on the Oklahoma oil kings.

COLLEGE PARENT TEACHERS

The Clarendon College Parent Teachers Association will hold its first regular business session in the domestic science hall at the girl's dormitory Monday, October 3rd at 3:30 o'clock. At this meeting the year books will be distributed to members. All are urged to be present. All new faculty members and patrons of the college are cordially invited to come and join. Wherever possible it is urged that last year's associate members become active members as the programs for this year's study include topics no parent or teacher can well afford to miss.

The reception given by the College Parent Teachers to the college faculty and patrons on last week was indeed an enjoyable occasion. About one hundred guests were in attendance. The following splendid program was first rendered:

Violin Solo, "Moses Fantasie"—Beulah Dunn.
Reading, "Aunt Hazel's First Beau"—Mary Tomlinson.

Vocal Solo, "Mother's Dearest,"—Beulah Dunn.
Play, "Ashes of Ross"—D'Laural

Beville.
Piano Solo, "Cantique d'Amour"—Paul Edward Allen.

Misses Tomlinson and Beville are both graduates of expression from Clarendon College and are well known to Clarendon people, also Miss Beville graduated the past year from Southwestern University, and on this occasion did credit to her alma Maters. Miss Dunn is head of the violin and voice department of Clarendon College this year. Her renditions were enthusiastically received. Professor Allen proved himself a capable artist and received a hearty encore.

Following this program were short peppy speeches on "The Parent-Teachers Association," by Dr. Slover, Rev. Henson, Mr. Patrick and Miss Vaughn. Then refreshments, consisting of cream and cake were served and everyone enjoyed a social hour.

Much credit for the success of the reception is due to Mesdames Shawver, Slover, Patrick and Powell. The association also extends to Mr. Braswell sincere thanks for the program furnished for the occasion.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP

HENRY CABOT LODGE

Assuming that good citizenship necessarily implies service of some sort to the state, the country, or the public, it must be understood, of course, that such service may vary widely in amount or in degree. The man and woman who have a family of children, educate them, bring them up honorably and well, teaching them to love their country, are good citizens, and deserving well of the republic. The man, who, in order to care for his family and give his children a fair start in life, labors honestly and diligently at his trade, profession, or business, and who casts his vote conscientiously at all elections, adds to the strength as well as to the material prosperity of the country, and thus fulfills some of the primary and most important duties of good citizenship.

No man can hope to be a useful citizen in the broadest sense, in the United States, unless he takes a continuous and intelligent interest in politics and a full share, not only in the elections, but also in the primary operations which determine the choice of candidates. For this everyone has time enough, and if he says that he has not, it is because he is indifferent when he ought to be intensely and constantly interested. If he follows public affairs from day to day, and thus informed, acts with his friends and those who think as he does at the caucus and the polls, he will meet his influence fully felt and will meet completely the test of good citizenship.

It is not essential to take office.

The Clarendon News' Americanization series

(Editor's Note—The articles appearing in the above space from week to week are taken from "Americanization" by Elewood Griscorn, Jr. This excellent volume, which is a collection of articles upon the general theme of patriotism and good citizenship, is presented to the schools of Texas by the Bodies of Scottish Rite Masonry in Texas.

ALL FOR EACH—EACH FOR ALL

Picking up an issue of The Texaco Star, I notice the expression "All for Each—Each for All," and after studying it in my mind I think that it is wonderful. How many of us know the true meaning of it? Each employe is a member of our large Texaco family, no matter what line of work he does. Take yourself for instance: when you do your daily work you are "Each for All," in other words, you are doing your bit for the rest of us by doing your daily work; and in turn we do our part of "All for Each" by doing our daily work.

Do not feel ill will toward the man over you because you think that he makes it hard for you. Do not knock him to the big boss, with a feeling that you will get his job. For if such a thing should happen you would never profit by it. Help him by doing as he tells you to the best of your ability. Always boost him to the big boss. Help him to rise higher. When he gets his promotion, then the vacancy may be left to you. In this way you have helped him and yourself up the same ladder. Help every member of our vast Texaco family, as they are helping you, all the time.

Stick by the golden rule. Speaking of the golden rule brings to my mind a happening which I shall never forget. It happened between two men whom I shall name Bill and John. Bill and John were very good friends, but held different theories. Bill loved the golden rule, which is, "Do unto others as you would that others should do unto you." But John had a rule of his own. John's rule was a part of the golden rule, but he had omitted the most important part of it. John's rule was, "Do unto others as others do unto me." Now John's rule may seem all right to some of us. I must say that a great many have adopted and followed John's rule, which is wrong, and I will explain why. I am not going to explain Bill's and John's argument to you, but I am going to tell you what I think about it.

But it would be well if every man could have, for a short period, some experience in the actual work of government in his city, state, or nation, even if he has no intention of following a political career. Such an experience does more to broaden a man's knowledge of the difficulties of public administration than anything else. It helps him to understand how he can practically attain that which he thinks is best for the state, and, most important of all, it enables him to act with other men, and to judge justly those who are doing the work of public life.

It is essential that every man who desires to be a useful citizen should not only take part in moulding public sentiment, in selecting candidates, and in winning elections for the party or the cause in which he believes, but he should also be familiar with the character, abilities, and records of the men who must be the instruments by which the policies are to be carried out and the government administered. There are many ways, therefore, in which men may benefit and aid their fellowmen, and serve the state in which they live, but it is open to all men alike to help to govern the country and direct its course along the passing years. In the performance of this duty, any man can attain to good citizenship of the highest usefulness. It is not too much to say that our success as a nation depends upon the useful citizen who act intelligently and effectively in politics.

Bill was the smarter man of the two. Bill liked John and desired that they should remain friends. But he saw that their rules were different, so he tried to think of a way to get around this difficulty. He planned and studied, and at last he came to this conclusion, "Now, as my rule is 'Do unto others as I would that others should do unto me,' and John's rule is 'Do unto others as others do unto me,' if I live up to my rule and do unto John as I would that John should do unto me, I am sure John will live up to his rule, and do unto me as I do unto him." So Bill tried his plan, and it worked, and they were from then on the best of friends.

If you have a very good friend and one of you follows Bill's rule and the other John's rule, then in time your friendship may be staunch, but where would you get if both of you followed John's rule? The best way is to follow Bill's rule, and make Bills out of your friends instead of Johns.

When you do a thing do not feel that you are doing it for someone else; you may be helping some one else but you are helping yourself more than anyone.

Do not envy the other fellow because you think that he thinks that he is better than you. But follow Bill's rule, and help him as you want him to help you.

Remember that "All for Each—Each for All" has an awful big meaning; and that if you are for him, he is bound to be for you. Even if he is not a Bill he will at least be a John, and if you are a Bill and he a John, he will soon see that it is best to be a Bill.

In this way you can act your part of Each for All, and at the same time bring him in on a part of All for Each. Let every one of us show the rest of us that we are Each for All.

By every one's being Each for All we will be All for Each.—J. J. Brown, San Antonio, Texas.

HATS OFF TO THE RETAILER

We might call it "accessibility of retail merchandise; yet that is scarcely the term needed.

But surely some word or phrase is called for to describe the manner in which the typical retail merchant of the United States gives the American buying public just what it wants when it wants it.

The job is always done, and is invariably well done. But what sort of job is it, and how huge a job it is nobody stops to think and few—even among retail merchant themselves—fully appreciate.

Here, let us say, is a retail store—department or dry goods store, or specialty shop. The merchant who conducts it has spent many thousands—in not a few instances millions—in assembling merchandise so various in character that he has to hire hundreds, oftentimes thousands, of experts to keep track of it.

And there, somewhere outside of his store—within a radius measuring from one hundred yards to one hundred miles—is his public, a public that seldom knows what it wants until it wants it; then has to be reminded that it wants it, and then, like as not, is ready to go into a tantrum and some other store unless it gets it on the spot and on the minute.

It is not enough, it is amusingly far from enough, that the merchant shall have those myriad items of merchandise so accessible that any salesperson, at any instant, can reach out a hand and pass it over to the customer. That is merely the kindergartening of accessibility in the relation of the goods to the public.

There are hundreds of experts trained with infinite pains and drawing high salaries, whose office it is so to display the goods that the pub-

FIRST NEWSPAPER ON PLAINS PUBLISHED AT PANHANDLE

Panhandle, September 18.—The first newspaper ever published on the Staked Plains of Texas, was the Panhandle Herald, under date of July 22, 1887. A copy of this paper now hangs in a durable frame in the Panhandle Bank, which bank, by the way, was established less than a year afterwards, and was the first banking institution on the Plains of Texas.

The editor of the paper was H. H. Brooks. It is a four-page, six-column paper, with two pages of "home print" and two pages ready print. Only two other newspapers were at this time being published in all this great northwestern portion of the State, soon after to become famous as the "Panhandle of Texas," these were: "The Mobeetic Panhandle" and the "Clarendon Panhandle News." From the reading of this old relic, it is learned that this town's name was first "Carson City," and that mail was received out of Clarendon, according to the following excerpt:

"The directors of the Santa Fe Company have named this place Panhandle. The citizens met on Tuesday and ratified their action. Hereafter all mail intended for this city should not be addressed to Carson City, but to Panhandle, Carson County, via Clarendon, Texas.

lic simply can't help knowing it wants them, and wants them right away. There are even trade journals that exist for no purpose other than to keep these experts in constant touch with the new and impressive ideas that develop along display lines. The displays are vitalized by the wax figures made by firms, here and abroad that employ sculptors whose skill puts to the blush, for naturalness, the conceptions of ancient Greece with a few primary colors used to make pallid marble simulate Diana in her maiden bloom and Venus in her seductiveness. The lay figures one sees in skillfully dressed store windows nowadays can assume almost any posture and have ascended from the transcendently beautiful to realism in portraiture of living, human, truly pretty girls. And all of this intensely sincere art is nothing more than one sidelight on the modern significance of the words "accessibility of merchandise."

Does the public suspect that, when the thermometer drops towards freezing, it ought to get woolen underwear or fur outer wear? It used to, in the days when Grandma knit her own and Grandpa brought down the coon that was fated to be his winter cap. Now the public would probably walk slap into January blizzards attired in its sheerest summer logs and its Palm Beaches if the stores' advertising departments failed to watch the calendar, and in due time prior to its need, tell it the wondrous story of underwear for health and furs for comfort and fashion.

There is no joke about it. Store service to the public has so developed in efficiency, in perfect adaptation to the ever changing needs of the American people, that the public has learned to relinquish its sentinelship of the seasons to its store experts, who represent the acme of accessibility in point of time just as the display experts represent that acme in point of place and manner.

And every community takes this perfection of service as the veriest routine and stands ready to resent, by abstention from buying, the slightest dereliction on the part of the men and women to whom it looks for its caretaking.

We can get some faint echo of what would happen to us tomorrow morning if we will imagine, just for a minute or so, how crazy this world of ours would wag were all of this modern accessibility suddenly to vanish and we were called on to knit our own stockings and petticoats instead of merely diverting ourselves with new sweaters, and if we had to make tracks for the old persimmon hollow in hopes of finding an urgently necessary coon.—Business.

AMERICANS ON TURKISH FRONT

Uncle Sam shakes a positive head and says we will not be drawn into the European tangle caused by Turk victories over the Greeks and the massacre at Smyrna. MASONIC OFFICIALS TO VISIT AMARILLO

Panhandle Masons will convene in Amarillo October 5 for the purpose of organizing the Third Masonic District Masonic Service Association of Texas.

Grand Master Johnson of Texas Masons, will be present, as well as Wilbur Keith, executive secretary for Texas, in charge of Masonic Service Association work. Mr. Keith will also bring with him one of the official lecturers of Texas, who will deliver to the Masons one of the series of lectures prepared by the Masonic Service Association of America.

The Masonic Service Association is an organization, which has for its purpose, the education of Masons, along the lines of relief and charity. There are also lectures pertaining to the Brotherhood of Man, the Fatherhood of God, and the Upbuilding of Public School System.

The Association also provides relief in the time of disaster, either national or local. During the late war Masons were denied the privilege of sending an organization of relief to Europe because they had no national organization—this condition no longer exists, as the Masonic Service Association provides such an organization, and the Amarillo District, State of Texas, will be a cog in this great machine.

This meeting will be held at 7 o'clock on the above date, in the Central Presbyterian Church of Amarillo. All masons from entered appreciate up are urged to be present. It will be a rare treat to all Masons who attend.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

October 2nd to 9th

By Executive Proclamation of the President Harding and the Governors of every State in our union, Oct. 2nd to 9th is designated as Fire Prevention Week.

THE FIRE WASTE

has become a National Menace until all thoughtful people are endeavoring to grow a proper sentiment against this waste by educating the people against Carelessness which takes yearly such a great loss of

Life and Property

Remember that all property lost by Fire is an economic world loss for it is forever gone and Insurance rates are based upon

Loss and Expense

Hence the importance of reducing the losses from either Carelessness or Incendiarism.

And we urge our people before putting up stoves to be sure that all pipes are properly jointed and wired with proper sized metal board under stove. Grow habits of carefulness and help develop sentiment against incendiarism. The old adage "That an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is doubly true.

MARKET YOUR COTTON IN CLARENDON

The fact that the market in Clarendon has been better than other towns nearby is evidenced by the fact that nearly 400 more bales of cotton have been sold here, than have been ginned by local gins.

At noon Tuesday there had been 767 bales ginned by the local gins, at this same time there had been 1175 bales put in the cotton yard here. The farmers have gotten a fair price for their cotton to date and we believe they have received a better price than the farmers of some other places. The average price received for cotton marketed at Clarendon this season is 19.74. Cotton sold as high as 20 cents Tuesday. Cotton seed brought $30.00 per ton the same day. We know it to be a fact that this is $5.00 and $6.00 more per ton than the farmers are getting at other places not far distant.

Bring your cotton and seed to Clarendon where the highest prices are paid for all farm products.

CLARENDON BAND RE-ORGANIZED MONDAY

At a meeting Monday evening, plans were set forth that resulted in the organizing of the Clarendon Band. Officers were elected as follows: C. H. Dean, President; Wallace Weatherly, Manager; Carl Bennett, Secretary-Treasurer. Dues to the amount of twenty-five cents per month were levied on each of the members for the buying of music and for the general upkeep of the organization. As an additional incentive for the members to be on time for the practice a fine of ten cents will be collected from each member who is more than five minutes late without a legal excuse, legality of the excuses to be determined by the director.

The band will be under the direction of Mr. J. B. Annis, who has had quite a bit of experience along that line and who will do his best to make the band a going proposition.
