MERCHANT WINS CHAMPIONSHIP HILLCROFT INVITATION TOURNEY

DICK COOKE WAS WORTHY FOEMAN

DUDE GENTRY AND PINKEY KERBOW STAY IN THRU SEMI-FINALS

Ira Merchant, 1931 city championship holder, won the championship of the 1933 Hillcroft Invitation Golf Tournament, defeating Dick Cooke 2 up and one to go, in an 18-hole match, played here Tuesday. Cooke had eliminated Pinky Kerbow 4 up and 3 to go.

The second flight winner was E. E. Hickey, of Hedley, not rated too high to start with but who downed in succession Fred Buntin, R. C. Weatherly, Jr., and T. A. Powers, of Estelline, to win the flight, three up and two to go.

Third flight winner was David Hudgins, of Memphis, who took Les Hawkins, of Hedley, to a score of 4 up and three to go.

Consolation winners were: first flight, R. S. Greene, Memphis; second flight, Fred Buntin; third flight, J. W. Coppedge, Estelline; fourth flight, Wood Hindman, McLean.

Championship Flight

1st hole: Cooke's first drive to the right, 250 yds. into rough. Merchant clothed in 240 yds into right side rough; his second lying 3 yds from green. Cooke's second netted about 30 yds. His third chipped 3 yds. past pin. Merchant chipped two yds. past pin. Cooke's 10 ft. putt wobbled and failed. Merchant's 6-ft. putt downed for a win.

2nd hole: Merchant's drive 240 yds, to right, into rough. Cooke's drive 200 yds, to left side. His second was a nice brassy hot, 175 yds slightly out. Merchant's second was a beautiful iron shot, 160 yds to the middle. Merchant's third was a masher, 2 yds from green. Cooke's third was topped, 20 yds short of green. Cooke's fourth, a chip, was one yard past a cup. Merchant's fourth, also a chip, was 4 feet past. Both holed out and halved the hole.

3rd hole: Merchant's drive was straight, but lofty, 175 yds. Cooke's was a clothesline for 215 yds, his best up to this point. Merchant's second was a nice iron shot, 4 yds. short of the green. Cooke took excess turf on his second, and fell two yds short and to the right of green. Cooke's chip, fell 12 feet from the cup, and Merchant's 4 ft. from the cup. Cooke's putt on his slow fourth was a little to the right. Merchant's putt was down for a win. Two up on Cooke.

4th hole: Merchant's tee shot was short of the green. Cooke's was dead to the pin for a birdie, cutting Merchant's lead to one up.

5th hole: Both hooked their tee shots to the left, Merchant 200 and Cooke 240 yds. Both topped the hill on their second shots. Merchant's third landed on the far edge of the green. Cooke missed his 3rd but his 4th was dead to the pin. Merchant's putt ran past, halving the hole.

6th hole: Cooke's tee shot was 5 yds past green. Merchant's was dead to the pin for a birdie and win, again going 2 up.

7th hole: Both had 200 yd drives, but Cooke was slightly in the rough. Cooke's recovery stepped 20 yds short of the green, and left. Merchant sliced his second into the rough at right, 40 yds from the green, but he chipped on, even feet past cup. Cooke chipped dead and his putt was conceded. Merchant's putt was wide, to lose the hole, but still one up.

8th hole: Both had well-hit tee shots, 200 yds, but the wind carried them out on the right. Cooke's second carried too much dirt but was down the middle, 125 yds. Merchant's 2nd was wide to the right, in the rough, but closer to the green and hidden in a clump of weeds. Cooke's third was on, stopping on upper edge

Mrs. Walter Clifford Injured In Collision

Mrs. Walter Clifford was painfully injured Saturday night about 8 o'clock when the car in which she was driving with her baby was struck by a car driven by Richard Ritchie. Mrs. Clifford was rendered unconscious for several hours and it was feared that she had sustained concussion of the brain, but later developments revealed that she was not injured as badly as was feared. Her left arm was also injured. The baby was practically unharmed, receiving only a small cut on the arm.

The accident occurred on the corner near the P. L. Chamberlain home, as Mrs. Clifford was driving onto the pavement, Mr. Ritchie coming down the hill toward town. The Clifford car was struck center on the left side, going on across the street onto the Chamberlain lawn after the impact. It was badly damaged. Mr. Ritchie was not injured, beyond a shaking up, and his car received minor damage on its front end.

ANNUAL RODEO IS BEST HELD HERE

MORE ENTRIES IN EVENTS, BETTER ATTENDANCE THAN PREVIOUS YEARS

Eclipsing in both number of contestants and number of paid admissions all rodeos held here for the past three years, the Fourth Annual Clarendon Rodeo offered a varied and interesting program of events here July 3rd and 4th.

The rodeo was under the management of Messrs. Cleo Norwood, of Goodnight, and Murray Dodson, of McKnight, the 1933 rodeo being the fourth consecutive rodeo at Clarendon with which Mr. Norwood has been identified. The management conducted the rodeo to the complete satisfaction of riders and spectators, and plans are already being laid for a "bigger and better rodeo" here in 1934.

Seventy-five contestants were entered in the events which were held at the Chamberlain farm two miles south of Clarendon, the number greatly exceeding entries in any previous rodeo, as did the attendance on the events.

July 3rd Winners
Calf Roping: 1st money, $15, to Chief Bernard, JA Ranch; 2nd money, $10, Ed Gardner, Jericho; 3rd money, $5, Marion (Snooks) Sparks, JA ranch. About 20 contestants.

Goat Roping: 1st money only, $10, to Fontayne Elmore, Goldston. Fifteen contestants.

Steer Roping: 1st money, $10, to Boy Blackwell, JA ranch; 2nd money, $7.50, Keith Stegall, JA ranch; 3rd money, $5, Eph Sheffer. Twenty-four contestants.

SIDELIGHTS on the TOURNAMENT

By H. G. KERBOW

The second flight furnished some of the best golf of the tournament.

E. C. Hickey, of Hedley, for instance, eliminated Fred Buntin, R. C. Weatherly, Jr., and T. A. Powers, of Estelline, in the order named, shooting sub-par golf when necessary to dispose of his opponents.

H. B. ("Speedy") Kerbow also shot a consistent brand of golf to eliminate such players as M. A. Graham, of Pampa, Homer Parsons, of this city, and T. E. Darby of Pampa, the conqueror of Hank Bagby. In spite of powder, etc., Speedy's dogs played out on him, and perhaps lost the final match for him. Bum dogs are tough on a golfer, y'know.

Probably the hardest match was unreel by Homer Parsons and Ross Gee, of Estelline.

These never-say-die men went 25 holes before Parsons eked out a win.

To this columnist Sam Cubine, of McLean, seems to be showing the greatest improvement among the golfers of this section. Sam, with his sunny smile, is always welcome, and Hillcroft feels honored by his frequent visits.

A certain official of the Hillcroft club is beginning to doubt his ability at picking winners.

No less than eight extra-hole matches were played during the two days of the tournament. Carl Parsons and Rufe Greene, of Memphis, played 19 holes in the first round of the first flight. Cooke and Gentry, in the semifinal of the same flight, went 20 holes. And in the first flight consolation Woodley and Glenn played 19 holes. In the second flight came the record-breaker on Hillcroft, 25 holes by Homer Parsons and Ross Gee; Bob Weatherly, Jr., and Sam Cubine, 20 holes. In the third flight, Patman and Hawkins played 22 holes, Connally and Kutch 20 holes, and Kutch and Hawkins 19 holes. Hawkins holing out on the 19th for a birdie.

Low scores that this columnist heard about were Carl Harrison's one over on each of two turns; Dude Gentry's 33; Sam Cubine's one over par on 20 holes; Bob Weatherly's 36-33 on the first round with Cubine, and Weatherly's two 38's on the second round, lost to Hickey's 74. J. T. Patman made an eagle on No. 7 and a birdie on No. 4, and even then came in 2 down to Les Hawkins, so Hawkins must have made low scores too. Tom Connally got two birdies on No. 4, one on No. 1 and one on No. 6; an 85 on each 18-hole match. These are not all the good scores, of course, but just some that we heard about.

W. T. U. To Make Extensive Repairs

Extensive repairs, involving several weeks of work with a large crew of men, will begin about July 15th on the power lines of the West Texas Utilities Company from Clarendon to Quanah, according to information received here this week.

The work will require the rebuilding of line supports on all the poles, similar to that done here a few weeks ago by the company. Prevention of leakage of current from the lines is the principal objective. Radio interference will also be entirely eliminated at all points along the line by correction of the leakage trouble.

During the time the work is under way Clarendon consumers will be supplied with current principally from the local plant, maintained here for emergency work.

The Bible, or some part of it, has now been translated into more than 900 languages.

13-Inning Game Won By Oilers

In an exciting 13-inning baseball game here on the morning of July 4th, the Oilers took the long end of a 13-14 score from the McKnight team. An excellent crowd saw the game on the Junior Hi diamond. No admission was charged, but the end of the ninth inning a hat was passed around for donations for baseball expense, with enough success to pay for one ball, which was appreciated by the players.

The Radney brothers and Clebert McCrary, pitchers, and Raymond Tidwell, catcher, were the Oilers batters. McKnight's catcher and pitcher were both Holland boys. The game was closely contested all the way through and it was anybody's game until Truitt Behrens made the winning run for the Oilers.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS FORMING LEAGUE

FIRST SCHEDULE WILL BE PLAYED NEXT MONDAY; RALPH ANDIS, PRES.

A new twilight soft-ball league to be known as the Sunday School Twilight League was organized here this week, with E. R. Andis as its president. The league will have four teams, one for each of the Presbyterian, Baptist, Christian and Methodist Sunday schools.

Robt. S. McKee will be manager of the Presbyterian team, Clarence Whitlock of the Baptists, Cecil Smith of the Christians and Dennis R. Davis of the Methodists. Practice games have already been called by some of the team managers.

The first game of the schedule will be played next Monday afternoon, but the schedule will not be arranged until tonight (Thursday) when committees from each team will meet for that purpose.

Membership in any team of the league will be dependent on enrollment in the Sunday school represented by the team, and continuance of membership will depend on attendance in Sunday school classes during the league series. It is the belief of the managers that Sunday school attendance will be materially benefited by the plan, and that the fellowship afforded by the contacts between the players will also be very helpful.

ROTARIANS MAY HELP CAMP FIRE

DISCUSSES PROPOSAL OF MEMBER TO AID SUMMER CAMP FOR GIRLS

The proposal of Dr. O. L. Jenkins that the Rotary Club take a hand in assisting the Camp Fire Girls summer camp was the principal feature of the program at the regular Wednesday luncheon at the Clarendon hotel.

The Camp Fire Girls are planning on a camp at the headquarters near the Clarendon Country Club, to be held at an early date. Some of the girls will not be able to finance the small expense of the camp, and these girls Dr. Jenkins proposed that the Rotarians help. J. C. Estlack also spoke to the same subject.

Rev. W. E. Ferrell entertained the club for several minutes with a demonstration of his unusual skill at card tricks. He has so well trained himself that he can make the cards do unbelievable appearances, with his "customers" looking as closely as they wish. Those who have seen his tricks are unanimous in the opinion that he is "plenty sharp with sleight of hand."

COTTON DEAL IN DOUBT ON CLAIMS

DONLEY COUNTY PER ACRE PRODUCTION CLAIMS EXCEED 5-YEAR AVERAGE

Donley County farmers' offers of cotton acreage for plowing under may not be accepted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, according to warning issued by the department through John R. Edmonds, District Agent of the Extension Service.

A check of over 300 acres offers reveals an average claim of 216 pounds of lint per acre for the 300-odd farms. The actual five-year average, including the 32,000 bale crop of 1928, is only 167 pounds, according to the U. S. Government's cotton statistics.

"Donley county's five year average of 167 pounds per acre is larger than any other county's in this part of the state," said Mr. Edmonds, who mentioned Hall county's average of 142 pounds per acre, Foard county's 120 pounds, Cottle county's 122 pounds, etc., in comparison with Donley's much higher average. "This high average gives Donley county much the advantage over farmers in counties with lower averages," Mr. Edmonds pointed out.

Probability that Donley county's offers of acreage would not be accepted unless the average of all claims is reduced to approximately the five-year average, was Mr. Edmonds' warning to the County Control Committee.

Individual offers will not be considered by the Department. Each county control committee has instructions to total and average all lint production claimed for the acreage offered, and the word has gone out that lint claim averages must be approximately the same as the 5-year average.

That means that Donley county's combined acreage offers will either be accepted or rejected as a whole, and not as individual farms. This makes it imperative that farmers co-operate with their local committees and the county control committee in bringing the average down to the yield per acre for the five-year period in pounds of lint, not in bales of varying weight.

What To Do?

The U. S. Department of Agriculture now has assurance that the desired 10 million acres of cotton to be plowed under will be obtained. Therefore it does not greatly concern it where the cotton may be plowed under. If none is plowed under in Donley county, it will be plowed under in some other county or counties. Donley county farmers are not in position to make anybody do anything. It is squarely up to them and their local committees as to whether Donley county "sits in" when checks for $11 per acre (or what have you) are being sent out by the Department.

Local committees are going to have to call on certain farmers, possibly all of them, to make certain reductions in their lint production claims. They want it understood that they are not doubting any farmer's word. They are only trying to reduce claims to about the same figure as the 5-year average. They earnestly want the farmers to help them in cutting claims sufficiently to insure Donley County's offers being accepted.

They particularly want the farmers who read this to know that this is not idle talk. There is real danger that Donley county's acreage offers may be turned down in bulk.

It is up to all the farmers. Talk it over quietly with your committee, and ask them what you should do. They want you to get all the money you can. But they do not want you to help block everybody from getting any at all. They will advise you fairly.

Cold tea is said to be a much more effective dressing for burns than any kind of oil.

Corner Stone Laid New School Building

The people of the Chamberlain Community celebrated on Independence Day by assembling at the school site and holding a very impressive corner stone laying for their new educational building.

County Sup't Sloan Baker, master of ceremonies, and Rev. W. E. Ferrell, delivered the address and Bible reading. His subject was, "The Beginning and the End." The Bible reading was from Ezra 3:10-13. Horace Reid led the invocation prayer and G. G. Reeves acted as the People's leader in the responsive reading. A. O. Hott, pledged the articles, several newspapers and a Bible in the cornerstone and Speed Brothers, contractors on the job, sealed the small vault.

Mrs. C. R. Skinner read a beautiful tribute to the Bible as the articles were being deposited. After the cornerstone ceremony was concluded, dinner was served in regular picnic fashion, and everybody enjoyed themselves to the limit.

CONDEMNATION SUITS ARE FILED

SOUTH END OF NO. FIVE MAY BE FIRST CONTRACT LET BY DEPARTMENT

Acting under instructions issued to him by the Donley County Commissioners' Court, County Attorney R. Y. King today instituted condemnation proceedings to secure right of way for the north end of Highway No. 5 by filing suits against four property owners. The right of way sought by the condemnation proceedings crosses the properties along a route surveyed and approved by the State Highway Department and the Commissioners' Court, offers made by the Jury of View having been rejected by the owners.

Hearings on the condemnation suits will probably be held next week, as they may be set for hearing within six days after filing of suit, and the commissioners' court desires to hurry completion of right of way deeds as much as possible.

The Jury of View has been working the past week on the purchase of right of way on the south end of the highway, from Hedley to the Hall county line. They report that the property owners are anxious to get the right of way matter concluded and the work is practically completed. Some of the owners offered to give right of way in their eagerness to have the highway work started.

It is possible that the first contract let by the Highway Department will be on the south end, as it has stated that it would start work on the first of the three projects in the county to close up the right-of-way purchase. Donley County is divided into three projects—from Armstrong county line to Clarendon, from Clarendon to Hedley, and from Hedley to the Hall county line.

Contracts for Armstrong county's will be let in August, provided right-of-way matters are satisfactorily concluded by that time.

108 COUNTY JURYMEN DRAWN BY COMMISSION

Names of 108 jurymen for county court service for the next six months were drawn Wednesday by the jury commission.

The jury commission is composed of Jake Masterson, Hedley; Clark Cook, Lelia Lake; and O. C. Watson, Clarendon.

Miss Dorothy White left today for Los Angeles, and other California cities, where she will spend six or eight weeks visiting relatives and friends.

RAINFALL VARIES IN DONLEY COUNTY

GOOD RAINS REPORTED TO NORTH, EAST AND SOUTH; ENDS LONG DROUGHT

Rainfall of widely varying amounts fell in the Clarendon territory Wednesday afternoon and night, the area sharing in rains which fell in similar fashion over most of the South Plains country, extending from Childress to Lubbock.

In Clarendon the official rainfall record by Joe Goldston, U. S. weather observer, was .4 inch. A heavy downpour was reported, beginning at the Antrobus hill and extending to within a mile of Lelia Lake, where a very light rain fell. Jericho and Groom received a good rain, as did the Goldston community. John Goldston, northeast of Clarendon about four miles, reported a two and one-half inch rain.

A. E. Benson received reports that the Brice county received a fine rain, as did Silvertown, Turkey and Quitaque. Memphis and Childress received heavy rains.

The rain will be highly beneficial to the feed crops, especially to the older plantings which were beginning to suffer severely. Cotton and the late feed crops had withstood the continued dry and very hot weather in a very satisfactory manner. Temperatures locally have run around 100 degrees for the past two weeks, almost every day.

Hope for additional rainfall is held out by forecasts of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Amarillo, as well as by numerous local independent weather observers. It should be mentioned here that Joe Goldston, official weather observer, stated to a News reporter Tuesday morning that rain would be falling by Wednesday afternoon. It did.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. W. W. BUCK

DIES HERE TUESDAY AFTERNOON; IN POOR HEALTH FOR SEVERAL YEARS

Mrs. Vennie Lee Buck, wife of W. W. Buck, died here Tuesday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johnson. She had been in ill health for some time, but about two weeks ago her condition became serious and she weakened rapidly until the end.

Vennie Lee Baldwin was born May 12, 1885, at Woods, Panola county, Texas. After her marriage to W. W. Buck they came to Donley county to make their home where they lived over 26 years. She is survived by her husband, a son, Ben F. Buck, of Clarendon; Mrs. Sebron Buck, of Memphis; a sister, Mrs. M. E. Thornton, of Clarendon; and five brothers, Henry Baldwin and Joe Baldwin, Teneha, A. Baldwin, Memphis, J. T. Baldwin, Wellington, Chas. Baldwin, Lamesa.

At 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a large audience of sorrowing friends gathered at First Baptist church where funeral services were held by her pastor, Rev. B. N. Shepherd, assisted by Rev. S. R. McClung, of Floydada. The altar and casket were banked with the beautiful floral offerings of friends.

Pallbearers were H. Mulkey, Dave Johnson, W. E. Ray, W. A. Land, A. H. Baker and Buel Sanford. Interment was made in Citizens Cemetery.

Mrs. W. C. Holsford, Pauline Holsford, Mrs. C. W. Cooke, and Mildred Cooke of Mount Pleasant, Tenn., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Black of Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Black of Claude left for their home Tuesday.

During the heated moments of the past few days, we've noticed that it helps the mental attitude to recall those winter days when the thermometer was about 117 degrees lower. It's more helpful, however, to remember that a watched thermometer boils the blood—in summer.

Despite the continuance of the drouth that has parched some sections of the Panhandle and South Plains, Donley county crops are still in good condition, with the exception of early plantings of feed crops. The latter have shown signs of distress.

Feed crops which will be planted where cotton is plowed under, provided rainfall comes during July, should provide ample feed for local needs. The farmers are eager to receive word to proceed with plowing under the offered cotton acreage.

G. L. Boykin, vocational agriculture teacher in active charge of the cotton acreage reduction in the absence of a county farm agent, is confident that Donley county's quota of 21,000 acres of cotton will be exceeded when the last of the offers of acreage are received from local committees.

The average yield of lint cotton per acre in Donley county for the past five years has been 167 pounds. Assuming that the cotton acreage reduction plan will become effective by the tender of the required 10 million acres, the all-cash plan of payment on 21,000 acres in Donley County, at $11 per acre, would mean that $231,000 in cash will be received by the farmers.

If all the farmers chose the cash-and-option plan, it would mean $168,000 in cash and an option on 7,014 bales of cotton—the number of bales presumably removed from production. If the 7,014 bales were sold at 10 cents per pound, the four cents profit to Donley county farmers would add another $140,280 to the $168,000 for a grand total of $308,280.00, of $14.68 per acre for the 21,000 acres.

The farmer who chooses the option plan "may have the cotton sold at such time before May 1, 1934, as he thinks will be his best advantage and bring him the greatest return. He will receive the full difference in any advance in the price above 6 cents per pound." We quote from a leaflet issued by the Department of Agriculture.

There are indications that re-action against the President's industrial recovery act is setting in. Here and there writers are beginning to challenge the "communistic" trend they see in it. Notable among them is Alfred E. Smith, who in his magazine, The New Outlook, brands it as communistic. Mr. Smith was sorely disappointed when the Chicago convention failed to nominate him as the standard-bearer for the Democratic party. He has not been in sympathy with the administration, despite the widely-heralded handshaking and hatchet-burying gesture. But the average American citizen feels no regret over the choice of the Chicago convention. The wildest imagination could scarcely conceive Al Smith's having commanded national and industrial respect to the extent President Roosevelt has. And the average American citizen feels a resentment at any snapping at the President's heels at this particular time.

It is too early to pass judgement on that phase of the Industrial Recovery Act relating to control of the unfair competition. There is uneasiness manifest regarding application of the proposed "codes of practice," designed to eliminate unfair competition. There are some who see in it the elimination of the small operator. But after all the question comes back to the fact that no one has been happy over things as they are. There is general harmony of opinion over the good effect that the cotton acreage reduction plan will have on the farmer's condition. The backbone of the plan is the removal of cotton farmer's unfair competition with each other in the production of too much cotton. A workable plan for the control of all other kinds of production so that all production shall be profitable could not fail to be beneficial to the country as a whole. The sensible thing is to throw no obstacles in the way of trying out aplan that its proponents frankly admit is an experiment at betterment. It will not be permanent unless it works.

"Let's be frank in saying that the United States of America seeks the kind of dollar which a generation hence will have the same purchasing and debt-paying power as the dollar value we hope to attain in the near future," President Roosevelt told the World Economic Conference at London last Monday

He was talking directly to France, Belgium, Switzerland, Holland, Italy and Poland. The first four of these nations have remained on the gold standard. The last two are off the free gold standard, but are maintaining the gold parity of their currencies. These nations have insisted on consideration by the conference of monetary stabilization in order to protect this gold standard situation from the decline of the American dollar.

The President's insistence that the conference tackle the problem of restoring world trade before making experiments with monetary stabilization may result in the collapse of the conference. Restoration of world trade can not be accomplished until barriers in the shape of the highest tariff walls in the history of the world are reduced to the point where they were before the World War, when world commerce was practically free and unrestricted. Some observers are saying that the United States is not quite ready for the aid World Conference agreements might bring. It has its home program to set into motion first. Therefore postponement of the Conference until fall is likely.

The present Smoot-Hawley tariff structure, called a monstrosity by many economists, is at once an asset and a liability to the United States. It puts the United States on the spot as one of the world's offenders, but it places it in admirable position to do some trading with the rest of the world whose high tariffs have strangled world trade.

After an agreement has been reached on the removal of obstacles to international trade, there will be time enough for agreement on monetary matters. The President knows that rising prices brought on by frankly inflationary measures will be beneficial to domestic trade. The mere prospect of "managed" inflation has already brought $1 wheat, 10-cent cotton and 50-cent corn, and there is a distinctly perceptible belief that business is on the up-and-up.

"If every voter in Texas who is at heart a friend of prohibition will vote on August 26 against the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, Texas will ratify it repeal," is the word which comes from the recent convention at Austin. The statement is prompted by the fear that too many such voters will go to the polls, believing the cause lost anyway, in the face of the successive ratification of repeal by sixteen of the States.

For a friend of prohibition to fail to vote for such a reason amounts to desertion. A large percentage of those who will vote on the question know nothing of the conditions which repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment will bring back. Thinkers will not be deceived by assertions that its repeal will not bring old conditions "back", and that the restored liquor traffic will be "under control." The United States knew nothing in the pre-Volstead days of what lack of control means compared to what it will find out if the Eighteenth Amendment is repealed.

Intoxication was defined by law prior to the Eighteenth Amendment as capable of being produced by beverages containing "one-half of one per cent alcohol." Conclusive tests have established that this percentage of alcohol will slow down the action of the brain two-fifths of a second. In other words, the brain takes two-fifths of a second longer to give its orders to the muscles. Consider what that means when collision of automobiles on highways is threatened. Consider what it means when beer containing 3.2 per cent alcohol is made available to auto drivers, whose drinking is supposed to bring multiplied millions of dollars revenue to national, state, county and city government.

A NATIONAL NUISANCE

Quite a lot of crusading has been done with a view to doing away with the barricades of billboards which mar the beauty of our natural scenery, but in spite of some progress made here and there, the billboard is still an outstanding national nuisance.

If this nuisance is ever to be effectively abated it must be done through convincing advertisers that their part in perpetuating it is bad business for them. Appeals to sentiment and love of the beautiful are generally futile.

State, county and city authorities can aid in the movement very materially, however, but it is often difficult to spur them to action. An example of commendable activity in the fight against ugliness is seen in Georgia, where the commissioners of Fulton County, Atlanta is situated, ordered removal of all signs and boards along the highways within their jurisdiction. The measure who sponsored this measure

"There is a proper place for everything, including advertising. Our highways are designed to give tourists and Atlanta motorists the most beautiful scenery possible, but that scenery is being ruined by the ever increasing number of billboards and signs."

This is true for every county in America where the encroachments of the "outdoor advertiser" have been permitted to have unrestricted sway. Billboards in locations which render them offensive are irritating to the public, without benefit to the concerns which pay for them with the mistaken idea that they are building business good will.

Set not your loaf in till the oven is hot.

THE COTTON DEAL IS IN DANGER IN DONLEY COUNTY

The UNITED STATES DEPT OF AGRICULTURE, through its State Representative, has warned Donley County Farmers that their . . .

Per-Acre Production Claims Are AVERAGING TOO HIGH!

READ THIS: 318 Donley County Farmers claim an average of 216 pounds of lint per acre. The 5-year average for Donley County (including 1928 when the county ginned 32,000 bales) was 167 pounds of lint per acre. It is important to realize that Hall county's 5-year average was 142 pounds, Foard county's 120 pounds, etc., and that Donley County has the . . .

Highest 5-Year Average In This Section

Your local committees know that there are many high producing farms in the county. They are not questioning the word of any farmer. BUT the U. S. DEPT of AGRICULTURE has warned them that Donley County's lint claims per acre MUST average approximately 167 pounds per acre. It is in position to say "must," as it now has assurance of ample acreage for the plow under program. And it . . .

WILL LEAVE DONLEY COUNTY OUT

. . . unless the county average comes down from the present too-high figure. Don't make the mistake of thinking that the Department will consider your individual offer. IT WILL ACCEPT THE COUNTY AS A WHOLE—OR IT WILL REJECT IT AS A WHOLE. Don't let your over-eagerness block the deal. Remember that 167 pounds per acre will mean about a third of a million dollars to Donley County farmers!

Let Your Committee Advise You, If They Say You Are Too High

If they think so, it will be because they are comparing claims against averages—not doubting your word, but only trying to get Donley County in on the Cotton DEAL. Meet them in a friendly attitude—they deserve it. They get nothing for their work except your appreciation.

"HOW TO USE THE BIBLE"

The Bible is God's inspired word. When compared with the Book of books, the best of this world's literature pales into nothingness. The Word of God is the only source from which we may learn what conversion is and how it can be brought about. It is the book that contains the plan of salvation, and the program of Christ's church. This book, and not creeds of churches, or the interpretations of commentators, should be our sole standard of appeal in religious matters. Error proceeds from man, but never from God. His word is absolutely infallible. We should learn to use the Bible more and help you with this problem we suggest.

1. Study to know what for and to who meach book of the Bible was written.
2. Set apart at least fifteen to thirty minutes a day for studying the Bible. Even this little will be grand in its results.
3. If possible, commit at least one verse to memory each day. In this way you will soon have your mind well stored with precious truth.
4. Believe every word of the Bible and not merely that which may seem reasonable and which you can fully understand.
5. Do not be satisfied with a mere reading of the sacred word; but seek to fathom it's deeper meaning, in the light of it's teachings.

Study how to use the Bible for the conversion and strengthening of others, and how to teach the great truths, remembering that God has revealed His desires and plans in this book and no other outside information is needed. The Bible contains the instructions on the plan of Salvation and we have no right to change, modify or alter any of them. The great curse among the followers of God today is the division caused by departing from God's plans and commandments. The Bible shows how to become a Christian, nothing more nor less. It divided the human race into two groups, the Christians and sinners, the saved and unsaved.

7. Learn to look on the Bible as a precious treasure, and regard it as the "lamp to your feet, and a light to your path."

Sunday morning our subject will be: "The Wonderful Christ." Sunday night it will be: "The Ark." Come study these Bible subjects with us.—W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

CLIFFORD & RAY HAVE FOUND "TREASURE ISLAND"

"An island in an ocean of floor space, bearing heavy crops of delicious fruits and vegetables" is the way poetic Walter Clifford describes the new vegetable display fixtures which he has installed in their grocery store. They invite the public to call and see it.

The latest development in the principle of keeping vegetables from drying out by means of a fine spray, that "Treasure Island" fixture's spray heads produce a spray so fine as to be a vapor. Messrs. Clifford and Ray are highly pleased with the new display stand, which not only provides for vegetables, but for fruits, etc. It occupies the center of the building. Other fixtures have also been re-arranged for more attractive appearance.

In these days of national and world-readjustment every reserve of hope, faith, and courage are required to enable each of us to swim against the strong tides of life's demands. KANGAROO COURT TRIES NEWLYWED

CHARGE ALLEGED GIRL WAS DECEIVED INTO TAKING WRIGHT NAME

Early last Saturday morning Sheriff Guy Pierce lodged in the Donley county jail, on complaint sworn to by Fair Dealings, a person stated to be one Guy Wrong, who the complaint recited "calls himself Guy Wright." Bond in the amount of a half-bushel of apples was made by Forrest McCracken and the prisoner was released on cognizance, the trial being set for 1:00 p. m. the same day.

Believing that the defendant would jump his bond, the bondsmen withdrew his guarantee shortly before the hour of trial, and four special deputies were appointed to recapture the defendant. He was observed going into the courthouse and the chase began, finally ending with the defendant again a prisoner, with his shirt almost torn off and County Clerk W. G. Word's breeches torn across the knee to his great mental and financial discomfort.

At 1:00 o'clock the case was heard before the 993rd District Kangaroo Court, with Chief Justice Hubert Day presiding and Lawyer Evans Chew King serving as Prosecutem. Judge Missing Link misrepresented the defendant. The trial opened with examination of the defendant who captured the sympathies of the audience by his innocent and boyish appearance, their sympathy being increased by the evident rough handling he had endured.

The first witness was Sheriff Guy Pierce, who underwent the leading of the prosecutem testified to the state of mind of the defendant for days and weeks prior to his mysterious disappearance, the testimony indicating that the sheriff believed the defendant was "nerfs" about something or other and about which he seemed reluctant to talk. Cross examination by Judge M. Link succeeded in securing a virtual admission from the sheriff that the defendant was "off balance" and by his own act had sentenced himself to sufficient punishment.

The next witness was S. W. Lowe, who seemed eager to testify against the defendant. But his testimony was likewise cleverly appropriated by the defense—so much so that the charges, as recited in the complaint, were sidetracked for consideration of the question, "Has the defendant already sufficiently sentenced himself?" The complaint recited that "One Guy Wrong, who calls himself Guy Wright, on or about the 25th day of June, 1933, did then and there wilfully and intentionally deceive and induce one Moezel Alden to change her name from the said Alden to Mrs. Wright, when in truth and in fact the name which she has assumed is Mrs. Guy Wrong, and then did then and there wilfully and intentionally induce the said Moezel Alden to leave her home in Arkansas and return to Texas to her material disadvantage."

The complaint also alleged that the defendant, in going to Ark. in search of a bride had acted against the best interests of the ladies of Donley county "when he had used good judgment, courage and energy he could have and should have been able to find a suitable lady in Texas, or Oklahoma either."

Marvin Land was called to the witness stand, and it was brought out that he had also married an Arkansas bride. At the conclusion of his testimony, which was highly favorable to the defense's effort to establish the fact that the defendant had already sentenced himself to sufficient servitude, the prosecutem announced that he would like to "rest", and the trial came to a close.

Some sympathetic soul suggested that a fund ought to be raised to purchase the defendant a new shirt, which was promptly done, after which the remnant of a shirt which he wore was torn from him bit by bit, leaving him nothing but a pair of cuffs. How did the defendant take the proceedings? Like the good sport that he is—with the smile that won the heart and hand of the girl from Arkansas.

"ATHLETE'S FOOT" IS SAME AS "RING-WORM"

Austin, Texas, June 22.—A common disease, popularly known as Athlete's Foot, is due to a little mold-like growth or fungus. When this appears on any part of the body it is called ringworm. This fungus thrives best where there is moisture and warmth.

To have Athlete's Foot, you must get the infection from some one else directly or, more commonly, indirectly. The most common place to get the infection are around shower rooms, baths or bath houses, locker rooms, gymnasias and other places used by the public, where persons go barefoot. It is probable that at least one-half of all adults suffer from it at some time.

An individual affected with ringworm of the feet, or Athlete's Foot, should be most scrupulous about having his own towels and soap; and his socks, slippers and shoes should be worn by no one else. The use of light canvas slippers in dressing rooms would probably result in a decrease in this disease.

It has frequently been noted that those going to the seashore and exposing themselves to the sun and salt water often recover in a short time. This observation has led to the use of ultraviolet light, and, under medical supervision, this remedy is often of great aid. Infected stockings, shoes and slippers should not be

WHEAT ACREAGE REDUCTION PLAN

DETAILS OF THREE-YEAR CONTROL OF WHEAT PRODUCTION EXPLAINED

An extra 30 cents per bushel is in store this fall for Texas wheat growers for that part of their crop that goes into domestic human consumption in the United States if the domestic allotment plan of the Agricultural Adjustment Act works out satisfactorily, says O. B. Martin, director of Texas A. & M. College Extension Service.

"On the other hand", says Mr. Martin, "by the plans tentatively announced Texas growers would have to reduce their acreages an average of 25 per cent in order to participate in the benefits if a 20 per cent reduction is ordered. In some counties growers might have to reduce acreage by as much as 50 per cent to receive benefits. This is due to the fact that the five year acreage averages on which state and county allotments are based is not as high in Texas as the three-year acreage average on which the individual farm allotment is based.

As planned by the Administration, signers of contracts would organize local county wheat production control associations which would handle the relief through direct contact with regional wheat offices. It is proposed to meet the local expense of administration in the counties by levies on farmers' benefits, estimated to amount to an average the country over worm. The Texas State Department of Health urges everyone having this disease to visit their doctor and continue treatment until pronounced cured.

of about 2 cents per bushel. The plan in brief consists of the grower signing a three-year contract to reduce acreage as directed by the Administration and to farm the remaining wheat acres in a workmanlike manner, in return for which the farmer would be paid each fall 30 cents per bushel for the portion of the expected crop that is estimated will go into domestic human consumption.

Crop Insurance Of vital interest to Texans is the crop insurance feature which provides that payments will be made if the farmer fulfills his part of the contract even though the crop is destroyed by hail, wind, drought or insects.

On the other hand, a farmer must contract this year or in the succeeding two years would result in the Government declaring the advanced payments a lien against future crops.

The plan stands now farmers who have grown wheat one and two years would have to reckon their acreage on a three year average which would virtually being protested by Texas and eliminate them. This provision is being protested by Texas and other states where new settlers have opened up farms.

"The plan for the relief of the wheat farmer is in a formative stage and may be modified later

THE USEFUL HOBO

In the minds of most persons, the terms hobo, tramp and bum have practically the same meaning. But this idea is wrong, according to M. Leinen, agent for a large New York employment company, who declares that he has hired as many as 133,000 hobo for railroad work in a single year, and says they were "a fine bunch of men."

Mr. Leinen describes the difference between the three classes mentioned somewhat as follows: A hobo is a traveling worker; a tramp is a traveling non-worker; a bum is a stationary non-worker. While the three intermingle in the large cities during the winter, and the classes are not strictly defined, when the opportunity comes the hobo is willing to work, while the others are not. Hoboes travel from place to place seeking seasonal employment, such as harvesting, railroad and other construction work, as common laborers, so they fill a real place in the country's economic system. While they are not always exemplary in morals and conduct, they are honest and industrious, as a rule.

And they have a sense of pride as well. The hobo wants to be known as a hobo, and he is insulted when called a tramp or a bum.

The Moral Of The Tale Teacher (waning her pupils against catching cold): "I had a little brother seven years old, and one day he took his new sled out in the snow. He caught pneumonia and three days later he died."

of green. Merchant's recovery 3rd crossed the fairway into the rough. His 4th out-shot stopped short and he conceded the hole, squaring the match.

9th hole: Cooke hooked his tee shot to left. Merchant was good, slightly to the right. Cooke's second, a recovery, was good for 150 yards, as was also Merchant's. Cooke's 3rd was 15 yds short of green, and Merchant's 3rd was 3 yds short. Cooke's fourth, a chip, was seven feet short. Merchant holed out from off the green for a win, going one up.

10th hole: Merchant hooked his tee shot to the bunker at left. Cooke's was down the middle 200 yds. Merchant, although having a difficult lie, recovered nicely on his 2nd. Cooke's 2nd was 4 yds short of the green. Merchant's approach was just off the green. Cooke's chip was dead, Merchant's chip was short, losing the hole and squaring the match.

11th hole: Cooke's drive was 250 yards down the middle. Merchant's 260 yds into the rough on the left. Cooke's second was 250 yds down the middle; Merchant topped his second but it rolled 100 yds. Merchant's 3rd was hole high, 10 feet from green. Cooke's 3rd was hole high one yd from green. Merchant chipped dead. Cooke did the same, to halve the hole.

12th hole: Cooke topped his tee shot getting only 140 yds. Merchant's tee shot was carried out by a strong cross wind at the 200-yd mark. Cooke's second was high and the wind carried it out hole high 50 yds from green. Merchant's 2nd from the rough was a beautiful recovery and landed just off the edge of green. Cooke's 3rd, a recovery, due to misjudging the strong wind, carried over the green. His 4th was a chip, 4 feet from the cup. Merchant's 3rd was a chip which almost holed out for a birdie. Cooke conceded, going 1 down.

13th hole: Merchant's T shot was on far edge of green. Cooke was across and into trap. Cooke's recovery was across and off the green. His third, a chip, was dead, but he conceded the hole, going two down.

14th hole: Merchant was down the middle for 250 yds. Cooke sliced to the rough for 225 yds. Cooke's 2nd, a recovery, was excellent, good for 200 yds. Merchant's 2nd, a brassie, was also good for 225 yds. Cooke's 3rd was on, 8 feet from cup. Merchant's

3rd was also on, 18 inches from cup. Cooke's putt was by, going 3 down.

15th hole: Merchant's T shot was to the left. Merchant's 2nd, a chip, was 12 feet short of cup. Cooke's second, a chip, was 5 feet from and to the side of cup. Merchant's putt was down for par, as was Cooke's, halving the hole.

16th hole: Merchant topped his drive, getting only 150 yds. Cooke was down the middle for 210. Merchant's 2nd, a brassie, was hooked to the left into the rough. Cooke topped his 2nd but the overspin carried him to the 350 yd mark. Merchant's 3rd, an out from the rough and 50 yds from the green, was on and 7 feet from the cup. Cooke's 3rd was on, 14 feet from the cup. Cooke's putt was down for a par. Merchant's putt was hard and rimmed the cup, losing the hole but still being 2 up.

17th hole: Cooke's drive was down the middle for 200 yds. Merchant's was 240 yds and 15 yds to left in the rough. Cooke's 2nd was a beautiful brassie, 200 yds down the middle. Merchant sliced his 2nd into the rough to the right for 200 yds. Cooke's pitch was 12 feet from the cup with a side-slope. Merchant's pitch from the right was 10 feet short, with a similar lie. Cooke's putt ran by the cup—and the match was over, 2 up and one to go.

Plan Larger Rodeo

As already indicated, a rodeo on a much larger and much better advertised scale is being planned for 1934. One of the oldest "cow towns" in the Panhandle country, and surrounded by many of the early ranches, Clarendon is the logical location for an important annual rodeo.

How important a rodeo may become to even a small city is proven by the Stamford rodeo, with over 22,000 paid admissions this year and an estimated crowd of 35,000 visitors to the city, which had a population in 1930 of 4,095. Many business men have been heard to express the belief that Clarendon should take active steps toward the development of a rodeo which will be an attraction for a radius of 300 miles around it.

Messrs. Norwood and Dodson express themselves as highly gratified over the rodeo, especially in view of the very short time available for its advertising. They believe that their plans to attend, and rodeo fans likewise, a rodeo can be staged which will be outstanding in its interest and attendance.

Not So Dumb

One of the psychology students visiting at Howard Asylum, noticed one of the inmates wheeling a wheelbarrow upside down.

"That's not the way to push that thing," the visitor said, "You've got it upside down."

"Oh, have I?" answered the lunatic. "Well, I used to push it the other way and they put bricks in it."
