Cotton Will Remain At Inland Points 2 ARRESTED, ONE JAW BROKEN, CARS WRECKED, IN 3 ACCIDENTS

G. W. WITT GETS BROKEN JAW AND MINOR INJURIES

TWO MEN IN NEW CAR RE- LEASED ON BOND AFTER HEARING IN COURT

Fog of last week-end, either directly or indirectly, caused three traffic accidents near Clarendon, as a result of which at least one person was seriously injured and landed in the hospital for emergency treatment, two other persons landed in county jail and others were shaken up when cars turned over.

The most serious accident occurred about 11 o'clock Saturday morning several miles east of town on Highway 5 when a new Plymouth and a Model A Ford suffered a head-on collision.

G. J. Witt of Amarillo has his jawbone broken and severe lacerations to his face. He was driving the Ford and was coming toward town. A woman in the car with him escaped without injury.

When Sheriff Guy Pierce arrived on the scene a short time later he says he found Witt wandering aimlessly about. He brought him to town for medical aid. The officer found the two men who were in the Plymouth in a doctor's office. He reports finding a small quantity of whisky in their wrecked car. Both were arrested and carried to the Court House where charges of driving a car while intoxicated and unlawful transportation were filed. They later were released on $2000 bond following an examining hearing in county court before Judge Sam Love. They will be held to the grand jury. Their names were given as J. O. Jenkins and B. Pottinger, both of Amarillo.

The two wrecked cars were brought to the garage of the Palmer Motor Company where scores of persons viewed them. Both cars suffered heavy damages. The radiator on the new Plymouth was smashed back on to the engine, while the Ford had one front casing blown out and windshield broken as well as damage to the radiator and engine.

Sheriff Pierce's car also was a victim of the fog of Friday night. He and his brother, I. B. Pierce, constable, were returning from a basketball game at Hedley at the time. They had reached a culvert this side of Lelia Lake when they met a car with bright lights and slowed down some. A car from behind, running at a rapid rate, the sheriff says, stuck the officer's car, busted out a left tire and then careened toward the bar-ditch over on the left. The car appeared to hesitate a minute then sped on at the same fast pace, leaving the officers stranded. Mr. W. H. Patrick came along and picked up one of them and a telephone report was put in to officers at Claude. The sheriff had been able to get the first three numbers on the hit and

Lions Director On South Texas Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Braswell left Tuesday morning for an extended visit to several towns in South Texas. Mr. Braswell, as a Director of Lions International, will speak at Group Meetings of Districts "S" and "X", in Wharton, Hillsboro, Galveston, Temple, and Beaumont. Before their return they will go to Chicago, where Lion Braswell will attend a meeting of the Board of International Directors.

ZEKE SEZ

Ed Teer, manager of the Wm. Cameron Lumber Co., was found busy on the job in his capacious office the other morning. Mr. Teer is a nephew of the well-known Claude Teer, member of the Texas State Board of Control at Austin. In fact, Ed has been in and out of Austin many times, he says, and feels very much at home in the Capital City.

Simmons Powell, local Gulf agent, and Otis Jackson, proprietor of the Gulf Service station on the highway two blocks east of Kearney street, combined to take one of the pages on the "Who's Who" page in the News this week and last week. Otis is ably assisted by his father, O. H. Jackson, in meeting the public at their place of business. The elder Mr. Jackson says he has been here only 14 years and not long enough to predict weather conditions.

We walked into Cecil Beach's service station one day this week and met a number of folks. Merely to break the ice, we inquired if anyone in the crowd needed help in making out an income tax report. Several pointed to Carl Pittman as the man we wanted to see. Young Mr. Pittman arose to the situation and gave us his name. We fixed it up, alright.

Cecil Beach was in the 36th Division and spent 11 months overseas. He returned to Wichita after the War and came to Clarendon some three years ago to take over his present business. He says he got in "on the gravy" in the oil fields for a short time after coming back from France, making $15 a day for a while in the Desdemona area.

Vada Carpenter has been in Clarendon some eight years and wouldn't live elsewhere. "Some folks have the idea that a good garage must cut its prices to meet the shade-tree garages," he said, in talking. "Yet they don't expect much from a shade tree garage and are not disappointed when the job shows up bad but they sure cuss and fume when they drive into a good garage and find the cost a little higher than the other place." "Them's our sentiments," Mr. Carpenter. Home industry should be preached at all times and then practiced at least 90 per cent of the time for small towns to survive. And, next to home industry, the better-equipped

$23,000 ALREADY SECURED HERE ON HOME LOAN PLAN

CHECK SHOWS 20 APPLI- CATIONS PENDING; MANY CAN PAY TAXES NOW

A check, made this week by the Clarendon News of the number of home loans effected locally through the Home Owners Loan Corporation shows a total of $23,000 already has been received by property owners here for redeeming their homesteads or extending loans on them.

Judge J. R. Porter, attorney for the corporation, reports twelve of these loans already perfected, of which eight have been refinanced.

"There are some 20 applications now pending," Judge Porter told the News. "We can close one of these loans and get it through in 15 days time. It is a wonderful plan to aid those who are in arrears with their taxes as much as $200 or more. For amounts less than that, it would not be advisable. For instance, one man is asking for a loan of $1052 with which to pay back taxes. The tax rate is 6 percent with an added penalty of one percent for each additional month. Under the Home Loan provisions, the rate of interest is only 5 percent, so you can readily see where it is to your advantage to make one of these loans merely to pay your delinquent taxes."

Payment of the taxes also is a big aid to our schools.

Most of the loans made or pending are for homes but one is for a hotel that is considered, of course, as the owners' homestead.

Henry William, local real estate dealer, is appraiser for the Home Loan corporation.

CORN-ROG COMMITTEE AT LELIA LAKE FEB. 20

Notice has been handed the News that Ed Kinslow and E. S. Ballew will be at Lelia Lake on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 20 and 21, for the purpose of signing up those who wish to enter the corn-hog reduction program.

Interested parties should keep the date in mind, says County Agent T. R. Boun.

Mrs. Fred Wewerka and son, Freddie Martin of El Reno, Okla. arrived Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Wewerka's father, J. W. Martin.

Hollis Leathers spent the past week-end in Dallas visiting friends.

JOE GOLDSTON IS NEW HEAD OF C-C, BOYKIN RENAMED

CIVIC BODY PLANS MEMBER DRIVE AT EARLY DATE; MAKE OTHER PLANS

Joe Goldston, well-known business man of Clarendon, was elevated to the presidency of the Chamber of Commerce at the organization meeting of the board of directors, held on last Friday night at the Antro Hotel.

JOE GOLDSTON

Mr. Goldston succeeds W. E. Ray, head of the organization in 1933.

J. T. Patman was named the new vice-president.

The board unanimously re-elected J. L. Boykin as secretary of the organization for the seventh consecutive year.

President Goldston stated, after the meeting, that the organization is making plans looking toward a movement to get lower gas rates for Clarendon. Plans also were made for the annual membership drive, Mr. Ray being named chairman of a committee for that purpose. He will select his own committee.

The new president also asked the members of the board to make a list of the projects on which they thought the C-C should work during 1934 and to bring them to the next meeting of the board. Meetings will be held once a month.

Other members of the board are: P. B. Gentry, Sam M. Braswell, J. D. Swift and H. R. Kerbow.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knorpp and Misses Katherine and Elgin Patrick were Amarillo visitors Monday.

POPULATION OF CLARENDON GAINS 200 THIS WINTER

LIGHT, TELEPHONE AND WATER USERS SHOW GOOD GAINS RECENTLY

Clarendon has gained at least 200 additional population during the last six months, according to a check made this week by The News.

The records at the office of the West Texas Utilities indicates over 40 new meters over the total at this time a year ago. The local office of the telephone company reports an average gain of about five telephones each month since last September.

City Hall records show a gain of some 40 or more water meters during the same period.

The City Gas company alone of the utilities reports no increase over a year ago but this is attributed to the fact that many households are doing without gas, considering it more of a luxury. Gas users are about equal to last year.

The influx of new people is due to several causes. The real reason is the migration of new people from the eastern portion of the state to West Texas during the past fall. Many who came here as cotton pickers remained either on farms or in towns in this section. Some of those on farms for the past several years moved to town this winter.

C.W.A. work has been one cause contributing to the increase here as in other towns in this part of the state, although it is believed the increase would have taken place regardless of the C.W.A. payrolls.

Cotton ploughup checks, cotton option checks, wheat reduction checks and the prospect of corn-hog reduction checks, all have brought thousands of dollars of new money into Donley County trade channels. This, together with the increase in the price of the fleecy staple, has made business much nearer normal.

During the coming Spring months, business will continually be good as a result. The business man who advertises and goes after new business will get it.

Bill Cooke, who has been seriously ill in a Lubbock hospital for the past month, returned home last week and is much better. Mrs. W. H. Cooke, who is with him, returned also.

Miss Lorena Stegall, who teaches in the El Paso High School underwent an operation recently, but is much better now.

Legion Host To Auxiliary Feb. 20

Members of the American Legion will entertain the membership of the Woman's Auxiliary at the Legion Hall on Tuesday night, Feb. 20th.

A musical program is being prepared for the occasion. Refreshments will be served.

The committee in charge of the affair consists of R. M. Chunn, Joe Holland and C. H. Huffman. All ex-service men and their families are invited.

NO ORDERS HERE TO STOP RELIEF PROGRAM CWA

DIRECTOR BAKER SAYS HIS ORDERS ARE TO CON-TINUE UNLESS NOTIFIED

Local C.W.A. officials see no necessity for immediate alarm over prospects for discontinuance of the CWA work in Clarendon. Relief Director R. A. Baker stated yesterday that he expects to "carry on" if he gets no orders to stop.

The original plan, called for cessation of the program on Feb. 15, which is tonight. Congress is expected to pass a bill this week which will continue the work until May 1. The House of Representatives already has passed the bill and the Senate passed the bill Wednesday.

There are some 320 men on the CWA payrolls here.

STATE SCHOOL OFFICIAL HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

TEACHERS-TRUSTEES GROUP WILL BANQUET AT GIRLS' DORMITORY DINING HALL

Everything is in readiness for the big get-together of the Donley County Teachers-Trustees association to be held Friday night, the 16th, at the Girls' Dormitory dining hall in this city.

The principal address of the evening will be delivered by Bryan Dickson, deputy State Superintendent. His subject will be, "Donley County School Needs."

The toastmaster will be George Kavanaugh. Others on the program include: a musical reading by Misses Eunice Johnson and Agatha Taylor; "The Benefit derived from Interscholastic League Activities," Arnold White; county board plans, W. A. Poovey; "Why I Like To Teach," Zell Rogers; selected numbers, by the principals' male quartet; "Possibilities of the School as a Community Builder," M. S. Swinburn; tenor solo, Dennis Smith; reading, Nora Cook; "Conditions,"

C. OF C. GIVEN THIS ASSURANCE BY WASHINGTON

TALLEY CONFIRMS WIRES FROM CONNALLY AND MARVIN JONES

Cotton, held by the Government for Donley county farmers, will not be moved from warehouses at Hedley and Memphis unless conditions become so congested that it is to the interest of the producers to move it to tidewater points where there is more adequate warehouse facilities.

This is the substance of a telegram received in Clarendon Monday by the Chamber of Commerce from Lynn P. Talley, president of the commodity Credit Corporation, with headquarters in Washington.

Farmers and warehousemen in this section had become alarmed for fear all cotton, stored in warehouses of this section, would be moved to seaports for general concentration.

"Due to congestion of warehouses at some points, it has become necessary in order to protect the interests of the producers to move the cotton," Mr. Talley says. "Such movements will be only from warehouses which are congested to such extent that insurance rates are excessively high or where cotton is liable to damage. The movement is not a general concentration of cotton but is only from points where the conditions of storage are bad and will result in considerable saving to producers and protection of their interests."

Telegrams were dispatched by the Chamber of Commerce and several business men of the city last Saturday to Congressman Marvin Jones and Senator Tom Connally protesting what appeared to be a general movement of the farmers' cotton from inland warehouses.

Senator Connally wired as follows:

"Have taken up with Commodity Credit Corporation the matter of cotton at interior compresses and warehouses. Corporation advises there will be no central concentration of cotton but movement will be limited to cases where storage facilities have become congested because of yard storage. Also claim that such congestion increases the insurance rate which must be paid by the cotton producer or borrower. Have been assured that only in such cases will cotton be moved. Am glad to co-operate and shall continue to do so. Regards."

Congressman Marvin Jones replied as follows:

This will acknowledge receipt of your telegram signed jointly by yourselves and others. I can see no reason why these shipments should be made and therefore shall be glad to file your telegram of protest with the officials who are administering these matters. With best wishes, G. G. Reeves, and round table discussion.

Clarendon School Patrons Still Can Save Penalty On Taxes

School taxes in the Clarendon independent district have been paid at a more rapid rate this year than for several years, reports C. C. Powell, tax collector for the district.

The total collected up to Feb. 1 was $15,094 on current taxes and $7,750.64 on delinquent taxes, Mr. Powell says. This is 11 per cent better than collections up to same date a year ago. In other words, about 56 percent of the current taxes were paid. "Patrons of the district have a few more days to pay their school tax before the 6 percent penalty will be added," advises Mr. Powell. "The penalty may be voted on at any time now. Those interested should take note of this fact."

The home loans now being made are helping the schools as property owners must pay their taxes up to date in order to get loans.

Burton Named New Head of The Clarendon Country Club This Week

At the annual membership and stockholders meeting of the Clarendon Country Club held Tuesday night, H. T. Burton, superintendent of the public schools of the city, was elected president of the club for 1934. The meeting was held at the Antro Hotel.

He succeeds C. C. Powell, retiring head of the civic organization.

Odos Caraway was elected as vice-president, succeeding Mr. Burton. F. W. Taylor was elected as secretary, succeeding W. W. Taylor. Dr. Oscar Jenkins was elected treasurer.

Much interest and enthusiasm was shown in the reports made at the meeting and in plans for the new year. Two new members were taken in. They are: Joe Goldston and Miss Mary H. Howran.

HOLIDAY PROCLAMATION

General George Washington was born February 22, 1732, in Westmoreland County, Virginia. No star, no sign foretold his coming, but I believe the God of Heaven led and guided his every step from the cradle to the grave. In wisdom he was great, but in humility greater. In justice he was strong but in compassion stronger. He became a leader of men by being a lover of truth and righteousness. He was Commander-in-Chief of the armies of the Revolution. The first President of this nation, as a General and Statesman he had few equals and no superiors. Washington was loved and adored by his soldiers. It was said of him, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." God of Heaven give us more men like Washington.

Therefore it is befitting that each year we should observe the memory of this great good man.

Now, I as Mayor of the City of Clarendon, Texas, respectfully request that our citizens observe February 22, 1934 as a holiday and request that the business houses whose proprietors deem it expedient close their doors and honor the great hero of Valley Forge.

W. P. CAGLE, Mayor.

National character is the sum total of individual characters. Our real problem is moral and spiritual. There was spiritual decline before there was financial depression. Recovery in America today is the realm of spiritual dynamics, rather than mechanics; in the realm of faith rather than in finance. Integrity and honesty, as sound business principles, must be put above profit. There is one disaster than can overwhelm us . . . the loss of personal integrity. And we need to live simply in order to live nobly.

Dying, Horace Greely exclaimed: "Fame is vapor; popularity is an accident; riches take wings; they who cheer today may curse tomorrow. One thing endures . . . Character."—The Rev. W. L. Y. Davis, in Scouting.

TEXAS CENTENNIAL MAY YET BE SAVED

With the matter being brought before the Texas legislature in a bill in the Senate there appears to be a possibility yet for saving the Centennial for Texas as voted by the citizenship, and so ill-treated by some of those in authority in this state.

The point is that if the Centennial is to be saved at all it must be saved quickly—for the time element is becoming the deciding factor if funds are to be provided.

Texas will have to wait at least fifty years before she could hope to cash in on a celebration, if we should lose this precious opportunity of the one hundredth anniversary of her independence, and even at that a sesqui-centennial could hardly be so successful—and it is a lot harder to spell.

Let's have the Centennial and the progress and development that will come to Texas as a logical result. It's a profitable venture if given only reasonable financial backing.

JUMP THE GUN ON BUILDING COSTS

The long awaited lift in the construction industry began to take tangible form at the end of last year. The Federal Reserve's adjusted index of contracts for November was at the highest point since October, 1931.

The principal impediment to a residential building boom of any moment, is the problem of finance. And that problem is on its way to solution. Private and public agencies have been studying it, and machinery is in motion to loosen money, at lower interest rates, for home construction. When that time comes, it will mean that prices of materials and supplies—which have been advancing slowly for some months—will jump.

It is not an exaggeration to say that the future of residential building is no longer problematical—every sign points to substantial gains. If a word to the wise is sufficient, those who need new and improved housing, will build and repair now, paying less for what will soon cost much more.

THE OUTLOOK FOR 1934

Nineteen thirty-three will go down in history as a year of reconstruction which was plenty tough on most business men, a trifle brighter for the farmers, and much more reassuring for those of the unemployed who have had their backs to the wall for so long.

Nineteen thirty-four should see impressive gains in business of all kinds, the restoration of millions to paying jobs and the further restoration of confidence which was badly battered a year ago.

Credit agencies report wonderful increases in business in the past few months, banks and other financial institutions are on a sound basis, the deposits guarantee law is ready for launching Friday, home loan and farm loan agencies of the government will soon begin pouring in cash at the place where it will do much good, extension of the agricultural relief steps to include most farm products is beginning to improve the agricultural status, and altogether the outlook is asier than could have been contemplated a year ago.

However, the situation is not so bright as to lead one to believe that the depression is all over. A long hard pull remains ahead with each step a laborious tax upon the strength of everyone. It will be necessary for all to proceed with caution and to exercise every ounce of judgement he has. But the main difference is that there is the goal of success in sight now, where hitherto it has been obscured in the mists of doubt.—American, El Reno, Okla.

PAID CIRCULATION

The largest buyers have learned that there is no substitution for newspaper space because of paid circulation. Paid circulation is a guarantee of quality. People who pay for their papers pay for their purchases at the business houses. Their trade is worth while. It is true that direct mail advertising enters homes not reached by the paid circulation mediums, but the homes that have no paid magazines or newspapers do not offer very great markets for merchandise.—Republican, Humbolt, Iowa.

WE'RE SAVED—IF THE ALPHABET LASTS

People of the United States have in the past year gotten used to a multiplicity of governmental agencies and bureaus designated by certain combinations of the alphabet. We've had the NRA, PRA, PWA, CWA, HOLC, RAAC, NRWR, CCC, et cetera.

But all these alphabetical agencies have brought a decided change to the nation, and it appears now that the good old United States is saved if the alphabet is long enough.

As a lad this writer came to the belief that there were too many letters in the alphabet, anyway—but now there may come a time when we should all like to see it with fifty-two characters instead of twenty-six.

MONEY IN THE AIR

One hundred years ago, Daniel Webster, speaking in the Senate, said: "Gold and silver is the money of the constitution; the constitutional standard of value which is established and cannot be overturned; to overturn it would shake the whole system."

The other day Senator Borah said: "This is a profound truth. We ought to bend every energy and utilize all the power available to restore the money of the constitution."

A legion of business men, public officials and economists of all schools of thought, will say amen to that. The strength of the silver movement was shown recently when a bill to relate its value to gold lost by the slimmest possible margin in the Senate—a year ago a similar bill would have been deluged under a wave of Nays. Figuratively speaking, our money is up in the air—and it may be that only gold and silver can bring it to earth again.

PLAYING THE GAME

The true spirit of the time, which should govern the actions of every patriotic American in our war against the depression, which is being so vainly fought, was expressed in one of Bruce Barton's inspirational editorials by a certain man of large affairs who, when asked if he thought things happening to us now was Socialism, exclaimed: "It's all right with me! Under any name or set-up, the game will still be interesting. I make no complaints because it isn't the same game our fathers played. Fix it up in any way that is best for the largest number of players. I will take my chance. All I ask is, just tell me the rules."—Topic, Mt. Dora, Fla.

SMALL INCREASE IN PRICES OF NEW MODEL CHEVROLETS

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Prices on the new 1934 "knee-action" Chevrolet were announced here today by William E. Holler, general sales manager of the company, upon his arrival from Detroit for the New York Automobile show. Prices on the new line of cars are: Five-window coupe, $665; sport coupe with rumble seat, $605; coach, $585; sedan, $645; town-sedan with built-in trunk, $615; sport roadster with rumble seat, $545, and cabriolet with rumble seat, $665. These prices represent an average increase of $70 in list price over the list prices of the 1933 Chevrolet line.

This increase is directly in line with the recent prediction of Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors, that automobile prices for 1934 would advance approximately 15 percent. However, due to cooperation between Chevrolet and its 10,000 dealers, the actual increase in the cost to the purchaser is only 8 percent.

Actually, Mr. Holler points out in his statement, Chevrolet's delivered prices throughout the United States generally, would show an average increase of only 8 percent over the delivered prices which prevailed in 1933. This is made possible by the Chevrolet dealer organization's admirable cooperation with the factory in sharing the factory reduction in profits.

"Delivered prices," said Mr. Holler, "are what the public is interested in because it represents the cost of an automobile standing in front of the purchaser's home. List, or advertised prices, are the prices f. o. b. the factory."

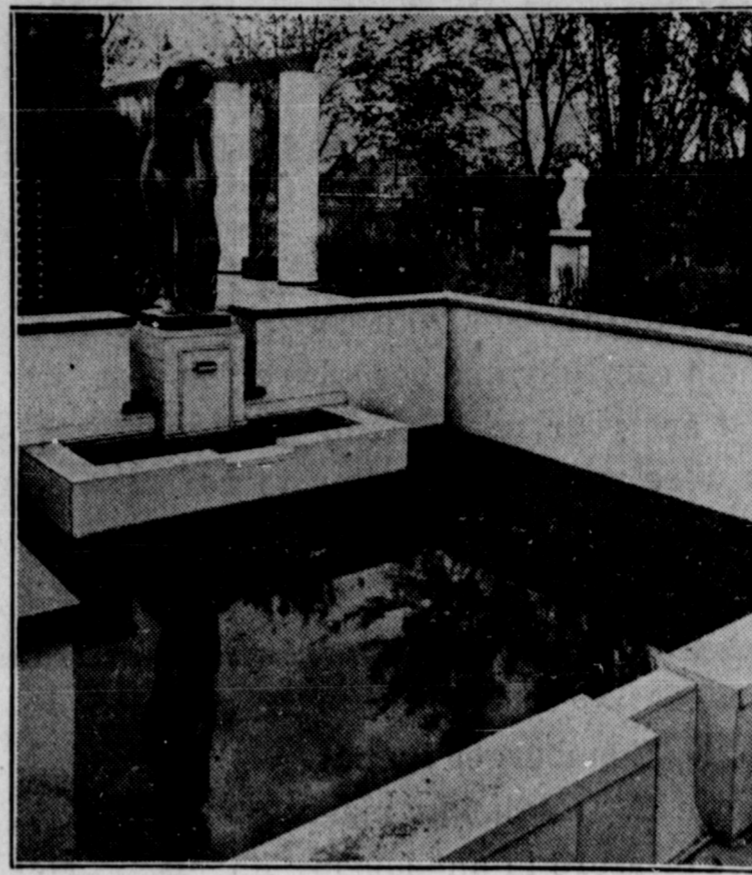

"It is particularly fitting at this time, when the buying public is constantly being reminded to carefully weigh values before making any purchase, to emphasize delivered rather than list prices. Naturally, delivered prices will vary in various parts of the country, due to the difference in freight charges alone, but the average delivered price will show an increase of approximately 8 percent."

Citing the decided increases in material and labor costs during the past few months, together with the long list of improvements on the 1934 cars, as factors necessitating the price increase, Mr. Holler said: "I cannot emphasize too strongly the appreciation of Chevrolet officials toward our 10,000 dealers for their splendid cooperation in making possible the low delivered prices of the new 1934 Chevrolet."

An 80-acre field that cost $5 in cash and six days hard labor to terrace several years ago, has been worth at least $2 more per acre each year since, F. A. Burnett of Young county has reported to the county agent.

A Restful Spot for the 1934 Fair

Much is being done to enhance the beauty of A Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago for 1934. Included in these plans are those made for a large number of beautiful and quiet rest places. Pictured above is one of these many places which is located in the American Sanitary Exhibit, a corner in a quiet garden where visitors, when they wish, can get away from the crowds.

Moves Office To Downstairs Floor

Announcement was made this week of the removal of his office from upstairs in the Goldston Building of W. M. Patman, local representative of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company, to the J. T. Patman & Son office downstairs.

In his new location, Mr. Bill Patman will be better prepared to service his man policy-holders. He has been selling Southwestern insurance for eight years and has many good substantial policy holders. He says he is always glad to offer this famous service.

The Southwestern Life is running a Spring schedule of advertising in the Clarendon News at this time, one of which is in this issue.

Bill Patman has never failed to make "the club" every year since he has been with this company for both himself and his wife. Every year they get a nice trip as guests of the company. Bill always makes the company pay for his Thanksgiving turkey, in a contest each fall. He has won several cash prizes which the company offers as a bonus for a certain amount of business.

The Southwestern is strictly a Texas company. They register every policy with the Commissioner of Insurance at Austin and put approved security for the legal reserve on these policies, which Mr. Patman says is the best protection the policyholders can secure.

Did You Know?

By Fred Hardie

That Clarendon is a very desirable place to live. Nice climatic conditions, paved streets, good schools and churches, all necessary utilities, good citizenship, and all advantages necessary for a small town.

Did you know its only resources for a money crop is cotton? We ginned in Donley County last year (a bumper cotton season) about 15,000 bales. The average cotton yield in cotton growing counties is 5,000 bales.

That Clarendon's property value has decreased 75 percent in the past four years. That the tax rate is even greater than four years ago. That the Equalization Board seems to think that it only requires revaluation of property that has been rendered for more than it would sell for to get the budget. Good men but wrong.

The way to get the money is to devise some means by which rents may be collected and that business may be operated at a profit.

Here are the plans and specifications for this payroll. Plant 5,000 acres of broom corn in Donley County and open a broom factory in Clarendon. Plant 3,000 acres of peanuts and 3,000 acres of pinto beans. Stimulate the Dairy business and open a cheese factory in Clarendon. These factories will employ 50 men and women at $250.00 to $300.00 per and all the Texas Panhandle.

The only alibi for this is that it is hard times everywhere. Well, if the whole country had the smallpox, would you want it or would you vaccinate?

This movement can be accom-

You will find no vacant store rooms in the towns that have these resources. Clarendon has passed the Boley Stage. We can also raise 15,000 bales of cotton along with the crops I have mentioned.

on the bum at the bank, I am ready to try and remedy the condition that is my condition and is the condition of 70 per cent of the property owners in Clarendon. I for one am willing to put the cards on the table. You just can't hide poverty and I've got plenty of it. I have made five trips across this continent and I have never been in a town of this size that had no payroll that was not "a blowed up sucker."

Ice is the only thing we manufacture and the ice season is short at that. They employ two men the year around and extra men during the season, so Clarendon has four employed men in its factory industry.

Here's Quickest, Simplest Way to Stop a Cold

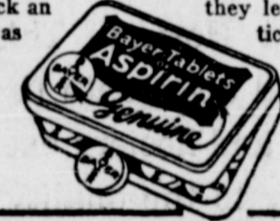

- 1. Take 2 Bayer Aspirin Tablets. 2. Drink full glass of water. Repeat treatment in 2 hours. 3. If throat is sore, crush Aspirin Tablets in a half glass of water and gargle according to directions in box.

Almost Instant Relief

in this Way

It is recognized as the QUICKEST, safest, surest way to treat a cold. For it will check an ordinary cold almost as fast as you caught it.

Ask your doctor about this. And when you buy, see that you get the real BAYER Aspirin Tablets. They dissolve almost instantly. And thus work almost instantly when you take them. And for a gargle, Genuine BAYER Aspirin Tablets dissolve so completely they leave no irritating particles. Get a box or 12 tablets or a bottle of 24 or 100 at any drug store.

A sack of planting seed—Cotton, Sorghum or Small Grains—bearing this Official Tag is the purchaser's assurance of a QUALITY product produced by a REPUTABLE concern QUALIFIED under State Laws as a REGISTERED Plant Breeder or CERTIFIED Seed Grower.

Registered INSURANCE Southwestern Life Gives You EXTRA Protection

Just as the REGISTERED and CERTIFIED Tag shown above means PROTECTION to the grower of Cotton and other crops, so does the following CERTIFICATE, which is attached to every Southwestern Life Policy mean PROTECTION to the Policyholder:

"THIS POLICY IS REGISTERED, AND APPROVED SECURITIES EQUAL IN VALUE TO THE LEGAL RESERVE HEREON ARE HELD IN TRUST BY THE COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS."

And, in addition to its required legal reserves actually on deposit with the State of Texas, Southwestern Life now holds, for the extra protection of its policyholders, $6,597,248.40 of Capital and Surplus Funds.

SOUTHWESTERN LIFE DOES NOT OWE ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY OR OTHER FINANCIAL INSTITUTION

Just as the State Department of Agriculture advises: "Know the QUALITY of the Seed You Sow"; so does your good judgment suggest: "Know the QUALITY of the Policy You Buy." FARM PRICE OF HOGS AND FAIR EXCHANGE VALUE

IN the pre-war period (1910-14) the farm price of $7.24 per hundredweight and the fair exchange value were one and the same. When prices at the farm are again high enough to give live hogs the same purchasing power they had in the pre-war period, then they will be equal to the fair exchange value of hogs. Fair exchange value at any given time is the amount (represented in the cartoon by black pigs) which represents what hogs have to bring in order to give them the pre-war purchasing power with respect to prices of commodities farmers buy. Largely because of a lack of balance between supply and demand, hog prices since the World War have averaged the fair exchange value only in one year (1926) when it happened that the size of the hog crop was considerably decreased. In 1932 the farm price of hogs averaged only $3.47 per hundredweight, but as the prices of commodities farmers buy averaged a little higher than their pre-war level, the fair exchange value in 1932 was proportionately higher, or $7.75 per hundredweight. The disparity, therefore, was $4.28 per hundredweight. Adjustment of hog production under the Agricultural Adjustment Act in 1934 will help wipe out this disparity and again restore hog prices to the fair exchange value.

MARTIN

(By Mrs. Jim Baker)

Sunday School was fairly well attended Sunday morning and all stayed for services conducted by Rev. Williams. Let's don't let our Sunday School die. Every one come and do your part and help us keep it going.

We are glad to report that Earl Shannon is rapidly recovering from pneumonia. Mrs. Jim Baker took her Sunday School Class of Intermediate girls to call on Earl Shannon for a short time Sunday afternoon then from there they went on a kodaking party. Those to enjoy this outing were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker, Clarice Jones, Freda Helton, Margaret Easterling.

Mrs. Ed Hodge had a rather serious accident Saturday when she slipped and fell from her front porch. She has been confined to her bed since then. Those to call to see her Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Pool, Mr. and Mrs. George Bulman, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Talley and Mr. and Mrs. Atkins Mace.

Mr. and Mrs. Pool were pleasant callers in the J. E. Baker home Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Kavanaugh entertained the following pupils with a theatre party in Memphis Friday night: Johnnie LaFon, Louise Patterson, Ella Mae Sullivan, Winston Wood and Margaret Sue Easterling. These pupils were kind enough to help Mrs. Kavanaugh with her teaching when she was ill Tuesday morning.

Mr. Sam Rundell is building a nice little bugaloo on his farm that he purchased from the Bugbee Estate in the early fall. The new house is just across the road west of Jim Pool's home.

We are glad to have the Clyde Easterling family move into our community. They have moved on the Elba Ballew farm just west of the J. H. Easterling farm. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peabody and baby spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Will Peabody. Mrs. Cattlett spent Friday with Mrs. J. E. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Goodman and family visited Carl Barker and family of Ashtola Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Easterling, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Powell and Mrs. Guy Sibley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Barker. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wood and family of LaFors spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Turnbow, Royce and Ralph Shannon spent Sunday afternoon in the Dave Patterson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrow had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Kavanaugh joined them in the afternoon.

Luther Hall has returned home after visiting his parents in Clarendon the past week. His little baby brother who has been very ill is much better.

The young bronc riders of the community staged a rodeo at George Bulman's Sunday afternoon. Henry Davis seems to have been the only one who could ride his mount. Roy Morrow sustained a pretty badly bruised and skinned leg and Fred Easterling came out second best with his bronc.

An average labor income of $22.00 per boy was made by the 168 Van Zandt county 4-H club boys who made reports to the county agent of their demonstrations in better farming for 1933.

NAYLOR

(By Mrs. Richmond Bowlin)

The singing at the school house Sunday night was very much enjoyed and we had many visitors, come again we enjoyed having you with us.

Mrs. Carl Bain of Berger visited Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Jane Espy, her sister, Mrs. Farris, who is here from Fort Worth went home with her for a short visit.

Mrs. A. O. Hefner spent Tuesday with Mrs. Clark Alexander. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Eanes and two daughters of Chamberlain spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eanes.

Tommy Pierce and Sidney Naylor of Midway were guests Sunday of Lesley Pickering.

Mr. and Mrs. Verna Lusk of Clarendon visited the lady's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hefner Wednesday night. They also were out Sunday for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hefner called on Miss Minnie Lou and Ava Naylor Sunday evening.

Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Estlack were called Monday to the bedside of Mrs. Estlack's brother, who is very ill at Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hefner, also Mr. and Mrs. Carl Naylor visited in the Morrison home Tuesday. Mr. Morrison is quite ill.

Commissioner G. W. Beck is now having some much needed road work done. We folks are sure glad to have it done.

Mrs. Walter Johnson and children returned Monday from an extended visit to relatives at Chillicothe.

Little Sidney Rhea Beach is spending this week with his grand parents. Mr. and Mrs. Rich Bowlin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hefner are enjoying a nice new radio and A. E. Tidrow has a brand new lister.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carnes have moved to Shamrock. We are sorry to have them go but wish for them the best in their new home.

Mmes T. L. Naylor, Pierce and John Chamberlain of Midway and Mrs. Carl Naylor visited Wednesday with Mrs. A. O. Hefner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Adams visited Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow.

The cost of furnishing a steady milk flow from his dairy cows was $1.02 per ton for 80 tons of seeded ribbon cane buried in a trench silo. Dr. J. G. Daniels, dairy demonstrator at Gilmer, has reported to the county agent, "My two trench silos are worth more than any other improvement on my farm," he says.

A New Business Era

We are undoubtedly arriving at a period of reviving business, and this Bank recognizes the fact that the welfare of this institution is closely identified with the welfare of its customers. It is now more thoroughly necessary than ever before for people to identify themselves with a strong conservatively-managed bank with ample resources.

All was quiet in the Beach apartment in the Latson building until about 11 o'clock Monday when a crowd marched in singing "Happy Birthday to You" which reminded H. Beach, Sr. and Mrs. C. E. (Dollie) Beach of their birthday. Those who gathered around the well filled tables at noon were: Mr. and Mrs. Gaither, Mr. and Mrs. Longan, Mrs. J. M. Potter, Mrs. Nelse Robinson, Misses Thelma Robinson, Marjorie Harlin, Tom Corder, J. C. Longan and the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Beach and H. Beach. They reminded us they were not having any more birthday, but if they still live there we will march down the same hall at the same time singing the same song. We wondered if Mrs. Thomas Kirby of Jericho remembered the same day several years ago when she had just such a surprise for Mrs. Mahaffey.

Miss Helen Goldston visited Miss Lopez Whitt Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Johnson spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson. Hubert has a very sore hand and had gone in to see a Doctor. We hope he will have no further trouble with his hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Riley spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Longan, J. C. Longan and Miss Thelma Robinson, all enjoyed a delicious dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meaders, Miss Katie Meaders, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meaders and children, Mr. and Mrs. Thomason, all were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Williams Sunday.

STATE OFFICER OFFERS INFLUENZA WARNING

Influenza, while not of such prevalence as last year, is still occurring frequently enough to cause alarm, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

In its present form, its symptoms may range from a common cold to high fever, backache, and prostration. However, pneumonia as a complication represents the real hazard. And, as is well known, pneumonia is an exceedingly dangerous foe. The remedy is bed upon the first appearance of a cold, and remaining there

SUNNY VIEW

By Mrs. A. M. Lanham

Farmers enjoyed a nice shower Friday but would like to see a fine rain.

Mrs. A. M. Lanham who has been ill for several months is not improving very fast.

Mrs. Millard Starks, Mrs. Heckle Starks and Mrs. Neal Bogard and children called on Mrs. A. M. Lanham Tuesday.

Miss Ruby Peabody spent Sunday with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Riley and daughter, Katherine called in the A. M. Lanham home Wednesday. Mrs. Z. O. Batson of Memphis took suddenly ill Sunday while visiting in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roberts.

Misses Ida and Etta Harned were pleasant visitors in the A. M. Lanham home Wednesday eve. Mr. and Mrs. Heckle Starks, Mrs. Millard Starks, Mrs. Neal Bogard and daughter, Dorothy Jean, were Amarillo visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bogard and children, Mr. and Mrs. Heckle Starks were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Starks.

Mrs. Clarence Peabody called on Mrs. A. M. Lanham Sunday morning.

Misses Orene and Ina Riley spent the week end with home folks.

Mrs. M. Starks spent Monday evening in the A. M. Lanham home.

until advised by the physician that one can safely get out of it. Everyone should realize that in its mildest form influenza can easily become a very serious matter. Of course, prevention is better than cure. While influenza seems to be no respecter of persons, the careful observance of a few common rules will materially strengthen one's resistance to an attack. Some of these rules are:

Infosar as possible, avoid intimate contact with members of the family who have colds or influenza.

Keep the feet dry.

THE GREAT CHOICE

Text: "No man can serve two Masters." Matt. 6:24.

Many years ago, the Master Teacher said: "Ye cannot serve God and mammon." The wise man builds upon the rock, the foolish upon the sands. They that be wise shall shine with the glory of God, brighter than the stars. The foolish shine with the glory of gold. The wise enter into the narrow way of life, the foolish into the broad way of death. The wise take no anxious thought for the morrow, the foolish make every provision for earthly things.

I. There can be no real compromise between good and evil, no third or neutral position regarding moral questions. He that is not for Christ is against Him. Everyone must choose as Moses did, who chose rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season. Joshua cried out: "Choose you this day whom ye shall serve," and Elijah exclaimed, "How long halt ye between two opinions?" We must decide which road we will take up the rugged Hill Difficulty or down the gilded path to ruin and death eternal. II. If we follow him whose footsteps were stained with blood upon Calvary, we shall reach the realm of light; while always downward is the night that knows no morning. "For what shall it profit man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?"

Wash the hands thoroughly before meals. Avoid unnecessary fatigue. See that your alimentary system is regular and active.

The Master Teacher, God's Son, said: "That a house divided against itself could not stand." We know from observation that this is true. We are either working for Christ or against Him, we cannot divide our time, influence and money and remain true to Him who gave Himself for us. There is no neutral ground, we choose between Him and Satan.

III. There is always the war of right against wrong, going on. We are called to stand by our colors and fight for the right. Delay in making the proper choice is dangerous, so while you yet have time decide to serve God and fight against sin. Decide to live a righteous life and use your influence to fight unrighteousness. We cannot occupy a neutral position.—W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church Clarendon, Texas.

El Paso dairymen are efficient, the county agent claims. With the F. E. canning plant running short of cutters only one dairyman could be found with cull cows, and he could furnish but two animals.

FEWER BUSINESS FAILURES SHOW IMPROVED CONDITION

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 23.—Only 25 business firms failed in Texas during December, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. His number compared with 27 in November and 39 in December, 1932, shows a decline of 7 per cent and 40 per cent respectively. For the entire year of 1933 failures totaled 484 against 911 in 1932, a drop of 47 per cent.
Liabilities of the bankrupt firms, totaling $403,000, were 13 per cent less than the $464,000 in November and 11 per cent below the $453,000 in December, 1932. Liabilities for the entire year totaled $11,714,000 against $19,741,000 in 1932, a drop of 41 per cent.

Boy Scout Work Stressed in Talks At Lions Meeting

The weekly meeting of the Clarendon Lions Club, at Caraway's Cafe, was featured by a most able and interesting talk on Boy Scout week by Scout Harold McDaniel, according to a report by Secretary Robert S. McKee.

The program dwelt on Boy Scout activities, Lion Drinnan also making a talk on the work. Scout Nicky Stewart delighted the group with a saxophone solo. Full reports from each committee were asked by Lion President Nored. Vice-President Patman reported the directors had voted to continue the "Leograph," weekly bulletin edited by Rev. W. E. Ferrell. A committee from the club will assist him.

Mr. Patman also discussed the proposed marker for Old Clarendon, which matter was referred to the major activities committee for consideration. Former Lion M. M. Noble was a guest. Lion Connally was welcomed back into the club.

INTER-RACIAL PROGRAM

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

The Inter-Racial Program put on by the Henderson Chapel Colored M. E. Church was well attended last Friday night.

The outstanding object of the meeting was to promote a better understanding of the problems of the White Negro races. The members of Henderson Chapel furnished the songs for the program and they consisted of "Negro Spirituals, Jubilants, and Spiritualistic Songs."

The speakers from the white race, representing the churches of Clarendon and their subjects were as follows: Rev. W. E. Ferrell, of the First Christian Church, "The Church and Race Relationship." Ms. R. S. McKee, of the Presbyterian Church, "Presbyterianism and its Work Among the Negroes." Prof. W. A. Clark, Jr., "The Board of Education and its Contribution toward the Negro." Mrs. C. A. Burton, "Methodism and Paine College," Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor of First M. E. Church, "Abraham Lincoln."

Friends of Mrs. C. A. Hicks will be pleased to know she is in Los Angeles, Calif., spending the winter. She and Mr. Hicks are visiting their children, Vada and Condron.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE AT ASHTOLA FEB. 25TH

The Second Quarterly Conference of the Clarendon Circuit will convene in Ashtola on Sunday, Feb. 25th, with an all day meeting.

There will be preaching at eleven o'clock in the morning and the conference meeting immediately afterwards. The public is cordially invited to attend, especially the stewards from the other parts of the circuit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Douglas and sons left the first of the week for Dallas where Mr. Douglas attended a Convention of Rexall Dealers.

SOCIETY

LORRAINE PATRICK, Editor

Mrs. Bill Wickline Complimented

Mrs. Bill Wickline, who before her marriage recently was Miss Lucille Andis, was honored at two lovely social affairs the past week.

Wholly informal but truly delightful was the lovely dinner party given by Miss Dorothy Jo Taylor on Saturday evening.

The table was attractively decorated for the occasion and following the sumptuous repast, the honoree was presented with a lovely gift from the guests.

Besides Mrs. Wickline, those present included Misses Pauline Sanford, Carroll Holder, Jean Bourland, Elizabeth Kemp, and Melba Dell Warner.

Mrs. Ira Merchant entertained with a Linen Shower complimenting Mrs. Wickline, Monday evening.

After the guests were assembled, the honor guest was led to the dining table where many lovely and useful gifts awaited her. After each had been opened and admired, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to:

Misses Jean Bourland, Carroll Holder, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Pauline Sanford, Elizabeth Kemp, Josephine Murphy, Vera Noland, JoElla Stewart, Mrs. Byrum Haile, and the honoree, Mrs. Bill Wickline.

Bluebonnet Club

Numbering among the many enjoyable social functions of the past week was the Bridge-Luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. C. G. Stricklin, at her home.

The Valentine motif was prevalent in the house and table decorations. The guests were seated at the dining table for the sumptuous luncheon which preceded the games of bridge.

A bouquet of red sweetpeas in a gold bowl centered the table while tall red tapers burned on either side in gold holders. Dainty ladies dressed in red dresses adorned the placecards and nut-cups.

In the games of bridge, Mrs. C. T. McMurtry was winner of the high score prize and Mrs. A. R. Letts of the consolation cut.

Among those attending were Mrs. James Trent, guests; Mrs. J. L. McMurtry, Mrs. George Ryan, Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain, Mrs. A. R. Letts, Mrs. C. C. Powell, Mrs. C. T. McMurtry and Mrs. W. H. Patrick, members.

Mrs. M. T. Crabtree Hostess To Club

Eleven members of the Friendship Club were present for a regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. T. Crabtree.

After some weeks absence the president, Mrs. C. R. Skinner was back in her place and presided over the meeting. Mrs. J. D. Stocking read the Scripture Lesson.

After a most enjoyable afternoon, dainty refreshments were served to: Mesdames J. A. Meaders, M. E. Thornton, J. A. Tomb, H. Tyree, C. R. Skinner, J. A. Rowland, J. E. Mongole, J. D. Stocking, J. L. Allison, and Miss Katie Meaders.

Kill Kare Klub

The members of the Kill Kare Kneedle Klub gathered in the attractive home of Mrs. M. L. Stricklin Thursday for a very enjoyable afternoon.

After an afternoon in which the guests engaged in needle work and pleasant conversation, delicious refreshments were served.

St. John Chapter

Meeting in the home of Mrs. Phillips Gentry, the St. John Chapter of the Episcopal Church held a business meeting to discuss plans for the spring, Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 7th.

The president opened the meeting by reading the creed and prayers. Following this plans were made for a Box Supper to be held at the Parish House in the near future.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess served refreshments to seven members and three guests.

Recent Bride and Groom Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Byrum Haile were honor guests at a Miscellaneous Shower on Wednesday evening, when Mrs. G. G. Kemp and daughter, Miss Elizabeth entertained at their home.

As the guests entered they were registered in an attractive Bride's Book. When all had arrived, several games and contests were played. The most unique was the Rolling Pin Contest in which each person drew their idea of the best way to use a rolling pin. Marjorie White won the prize, a rolling pin, and presented it to Mrs. Haile.

During the evening Mrs. John M. Bass and Rosalyn Bass played several music selections. Little Miss Sammy Jo Lowe and Master Neal Ellis pulled a small red wagon loaded and overflowing with gifts into the room and presented it to Mr. and Mrs. Haile.

After the gifts had been inspected, refreshments were served to: Misses Heroise Burrell, Ruth Hartzog, Pauline Sanford, Jean Bourland, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Carroll Holder, Mary Howren, Joyce Link, Sammy Jo Lowe, Eugenia Noland, Evelynne Murphy, Vera Noland, JoElla Stewart, Marjorie White, Dorothy Jo Ryan, Rosalyn Bass.

Mesdames U. J. Boston, Nadine Tucker, Ruth Walling, Linnie Cauthen, H. K. Leathers, Verdie Harrington, Bill Wickline, Meale Haile, S. W. Lowe, Joe Cluck, John M. Bass.

Messrs. Kenneth Brown, Hollis Leathers, John Blocker, Neal Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Haile, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Blocker, and the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Byrum Haile.

Pathfinder Club

The members of the Pathfinder Club met in the club room Friday afternoon to hear three of John Galworthy's novels discussed.

The leader, Miss Marie Thornton, told of the author's life and gave a brief review of his novel, "Maid In Waiting." Following this Mrs. A. T. Cole gave a splendid synopsis of "Flowering Wilderness," after which Miss Thornton told the story of "One More River." These three novels are about one English family and are a very interesting study of English life. A round-table discussion was held after the program in which Galworthy's creed as revealed in his works was commented on by the hostesses, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry and Miss Temple Harris, served.

Forty-Two Party

Tuesday evening, a group of friends were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell at their home, with a forty-two party. The games were interrupted at nine o'clock when the crowd listened to the Seth Parker program. At the conclusion of the games, Mrs. Si Johnson and Harlo Stephenson were found to be winners of the high score and Miss Ina Naylor of the low.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the tallies and plate luncheon, which was enjoyed by: Misses Ina, Eula and Lou Naylor, Neil Cook, Mrs. Si Johnson, Mr. Elbon Naylor.

Mothers Club

Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Bones, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cook, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Don Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harlo Stephenson, and Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Yates.

The Mothers' Self Culture Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Bartlett with Mrs. Ted Williams and Mrs. Bartlett, hostesses.

Mrs. Oscar Jenkins was the leader of the program on Recipes. Others appearing on the program were Mesdames W. C. McDonald, Ted Williams, W. M. Patman, Clyde Douglas, G. E. Norwood, J. R. Porter, J. H. Howze and C. G. Galloway.

Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Joe Cluck and Mrs. S. W. Lowe. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the study.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Howze, Friday, Feb. 23rd.

Robert Sandusky of Shamrock was a Clarendon visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bugbee Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Bugbee were cordial host and hostess to a number of their friends when they entertained Saturday evening, at their ranch home near Goodnight.

There were various forms of entertainment with no one type being predominant. Later in the evening a delectable buffet supper was thoroughly enjoyed by:

Misses Mae Bennett, Elgin Patrick, Katherine Patrick, Lorraine Patrick, Messrs. John Bugbee, Carl Allmond of Childress, Harold Bugbee, Ed Foxhall of Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Merchant, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Knorrp, Mr. and Mrs. Selden Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Trent, Mr. and Mrs. Parke Chamberlain, and Mr. and Mrs. Houston Bell.

Younger Set Party

Miss Maxine Ellis was hostess to a group of the younger set when she entertained with a lovely party Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Ellis.

Several games and contests were played and some of the crowd danced. The old game of "Post Office" was revived but when they called for their mail, they received Valentines.

After a most enjoyable evening, punch, sandwiches, and cake were served. Present were Phoebe Ann Buntin, Ethlyn Drennan, Margaret and Lalar Belle Wilkerson, Mildred Atteberry, Louise Tucker, Kathleen Ryan, Edith Shelton, Jean and Ruth McDonald, Louise Wool, Jane Kerbow, Gene Teat, Dorothy Nell Baker, Jo Word, Dorothy Kerbow, Frances Grady, June McMurtry.

Billie Cooke, Jelly McGowan, Homer Tucker, Ray Palmer, Phillips Gentry II, Rayburn Smith, John Bass, Oscar Butler, and Freddie Chamberlain.

Miss Lotta Bourland Hostess To Club

Thursday afternoon, Miss Lotta Bourland was charming hostess to members of her afternoon bridge club and invited guests, when she entertained with a lovely party.

In the games of auction bridge which formed the entertainment for the afternoon, awards for high score went to Mrs. Earl Alexander for guests and to Miss Mildred Martin for club members.

After the games, the hostess served a delectable salad course to Mrs. Keith Stegall and Mrs. Earl Alexander, guests.

Mrs. Floyd Lumpkin, Mrs. Charlie Trent, Mrs. Basil Kirtley, Mrs. Forest Taylor, Mrs. Frank Stocking, and Miss Mildred Martin, members.

Les Beaux Arts

"American Art Under the Revolutionary Period" was the subject for discussion at the Les Beaux Arts Club Saturday afternoon, at the Club Room.

Miss Temple Harris was leader of the program and discussed "Fine Influences." Mrs. L. L. Swan gave a resume of the works of Benjamin West, John S. Copley, and John Trumbull.

In the business meeting, Mrs. U. J. Boston was elected to club membership.

Ladies Aid

The Ladies Aid of the First Christian Church held its weekly meeting Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. H. Mulkey hostess.

Mrs. F. A. White, vice-president, opened the meeting and presided. After a short business session, Mrs. J. D. McAdams, devotional leader, led the reading and discussion of the Scripture lesson.

At the close of the study, the hostess served ten members.

OLD JUPE MAY COME BACK FOR REAL VISIT

Weather reports at press time indicated another "spell" this week-end.

The forecast for the Panhandle was "cloudy and colder for Friday."

Over last week-end the weatherman tempted us with a little rain and a little snow before the skies cleared Sunday, which was followed by four days of summery temperatures.

Farmers in the Brice section report about half an inch of rain last Friday, J. F. Hunt of Jericho, on the other hand, says they got no moisture to "speak of" and need rain badly on wheat.

BANQUET TUESDAY IS BIG SUCCESS

OVER 200 ATTEND SECOND ANNUAL BANQUET BY B. & P. W. CLUB OF CITY

The second Mother and Daughter banquet in Clarendon was held on Tuesday evening of this week at the Lions Den, under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The maximum seating capacity of the hall was sold prior to the evening and several who had secured tickets were unable to obtain admittance. Over two hundred people were present.

Miss Norma Rhode, with characteristic charm, acted as Toastmistress, and after invocation spoken by Mrs. W. C. Stewart, a unique program contrasting the mother and daughter of the Gay 90's with the mother and daughter of today began with the singing of "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," songs of yesterday, with Miss Anna Moores leading and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry at the piano.

Fond memories of yesterday were recalled as wee Myrne McDonald, sang "Mother is my Sweetheart."

A clever sketch was given wherein Mrs. W. B. Sims and Miss Carroll Holder, represented the mother and daughter of the Gay 90's, and the mother and daughter of today, were presented by Mrs. R. S. McKee and Miss Marjorie White.

Miss Dorothy Kerbow, accompanied by Miss June McMurtry, was enthusiastically received in a violin solo "Leberslied" by Fritz Kreisler, responding to an encore with "Shadow Waltz." Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner of Claude, a pioneer mother of the Panhandle, a trail-blazer for women in thinking and activity, spoke upon the subject "The Privileges and Responsibilities of the Modern Girl." She paid beautiful and loving tribute to "The Mothers of the Yesterdays."

Mrs. Warner stressed the fact that the girl of today has a greater outlook upon life than the girl of any other generation, and urged the girl not to be afraid to accept every new opportunity offered her, concluding with the challenge that every new opportunity and every new privilege brings added responsibilities and she admonished the girl of today to use caution and discretion in her use of the freedom accorded her lest by misuse of it she break faith with the Mothers of Yesterday whose untiring efforts and many sacrifices paved the way for her toward a larger and more useful life than was their privilege to enjoy.

Among those present three generations were represented in Mrs. H. C. Kerbow, Mrs. Don Grady and her daughter, Zona Pat. The youngest mother present was Mrs. Snooks Andis, whose six-months old daughter was the youngest daughter present. Among the mothers present was Mrs. Linnie Cauthen who is the mother of five daughters, four of whom were present; and Mrs. W. C. McDonald, Mrs. W. W. Taylor and Mrs. Fred Wiedman is each the mother of four daughters.

Mrs. Fred Wewerka, (nee Miss Leta Verne Martin) of El Reno, Oklahoma, was the greatest distance from home, other out-of-town guests being Mrs. B. L. Welford of Lella Lake, Mrs. Lillie Belle McClure of Claude, and her little daughter, Corinne, Mrs. Alexander of Wellington, mother of Mrs. C. E. Bairfield, and Mrs. H. E. Westmoreland of Amarillo, daughter of Mrs. Tom Connally, all of whom were introduced.

The Mother and Daughter Banquet is sponsored annually by the Business and Professional Women's Club, and the unparalleled success of the banquet this year is due to the capable management of Miss Julia Mae Caraway who served as general chairman, ably assisted by the following committees: Program—Mantle Graves, Mrs. J. T. Patman and Mrs. Sam M. Braswell; Menu and Arrangements—Rhoda Wiedman, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry and Mrs. Nadine Haile Tucker; Decorations—Lotta Bourland, Fannie Perry and Ruth Tucker; Tickets—Annie Ruth Johnsey, Sarah Virginia McGowan and Mrs. T. D. Nored; and Printing and Publicity—Norma Rhode and Katherine Stark.

The following committee was appointed for next year: Mrs. Ruth Teat, Mrs. C. C. Powell, Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Misses Sara Virginia McGowan and Geraldine Pratt.

Mrs. F. C. Johnson returned Saturday from a visit with friends and relatives at Wichita Falls.

Kicuawa Camp Fire

The Kicuawa Camp Fire troop had their regular meeting in the club room last Wednesday. The troop sold tickets for the mother and daughter banquet. They are planning a display of the ceremonial gowns soon, and will probably meet some time next week to work on them. They will meet again Wednesday.

Abohahanta Troop

The Abohahanta Camp Fire Troop met Tuesday at the home of Frances Sanford in a business meeting. The president called the house to order and a few business matters were discussed. The following program was then rendered:

- Reading—Grace Hardie.
Vocal solo—Hulda Cauthen.
Piano solo—Beatrice Gorman.
Reading—Eloise Hill.
Mammy Moon—Assembly.
Piano solo—Dorothea Watson.
After enjoyable refreshments were served, the meeting was adjourned until the following Tuesday when Ruth Hedgpech will be hostess at the Hill residence.

ALPHA DELTA PSI

A study of modern poets and their work was of great benefit to the Alpha Delta Literary Society members at the last meeting, Feb. 7.

The life and works of Carl Sandburg, a writer of free verse, were given by Wanda Mayfield. The works of Sara Teasdale, who wrote lyrical poetry, were discussed by Thayer Acord. Mr. Jackson gave some enlightenment in regard to the waste of the industrial world by giving a synopsis of the "Tragedy of Waste" by Stuart Chase. John Ragland discussed the poetry of Edna St. Vincent Millay and mentioned some of her latest sonnets.

The new program committee consisting of Edna Blair, Helen Lawler, and Thayer Acord was selected by the President. A lengthy discussion of a social was a part of the program in which every member participated. A party in honor of Washington's birthday was planned. A great deal of pleasure is anticipated by the society members.

The Lowdown

After a long and somewhat erratic absence your subterranean snooper secures time to shed the sunlight on Campus misbehaviors.

T. Jeff Mann has lately learned that life can have "Pitt" falls. Could it be Imogene's tennis game that he fell for?

Speaking of falling for tennis games, Vivacious Eugenia Noland has developed a collapsible vertebrae due to her various falls resulting from vigorous tennis playing.

Delbert Linders slipped into school Monday after a hard Sunday and shocked the students of History 123 by the signs of rouge on his shirt. Suddenly turning sleuths, the sagacious students speedily secured statistics. She is short, judging from the height of the rouge on Delbert's shirt, and a brunette as the rouge was for brunettes. Delbert's "savior-faire" and synthetic modesty prohibited him from disclosing the name of the brunette maid.

The Boy Scouts surely look stunning in their suits. Marty and O. C. haven't bought their suits yet due to a "shortage" on them.

J. R. Bartlett thinks schools should be maintained to educate our presidents. Wonder why J. R. is pursuing an education—to succeed Franklin D.?

Fighting: One round with Bill Fitzgerald. Easy knockout for Watson in first round.

Track: 120 High Hurdles (1 minute 5 seconds). High point man at district.

Now Ladies and gentlemen, you can't beat a record like that. A vote for O. C. Watson is a vote for a school of the students for the students, and last but not least by the students.

I thank you, Ryder J. Walker, Billy Walker, Campaign Mgr. Don't forget to vote for La Verne Lott.

Junior High News

The Junior High Students are busy getting ready for the interscholastic league. Of course everybody is going at it in a big way as we Junior High students always do. You all know we never slight anything. The students are not the only ones who are up hustling and bustling around. Teachers have to do some of it themselves to keep up with the students, and when you are doing that you are doing something. You might think we are conceited, but if you don't believe us, try to keep up with us some day. I am sure you would be convinced.

We have already received the spelling lists and the spellers are on their way to a big victory. Those entering declamation are raiding the library and book room for suitable literature. Literature is not the only thing we are working on; we have started tennis, playground ball, and volley ball. The tennis courts are occupied morning, noon, and night. The girls play their first game of the season in playground ball this afternoon with the South Ward.

Those who saw the play presented by Junior High will admit that the play was very good, I am sure. Don't you think we have some real talent? We took in $22.15. The proceeds will be used for playground equipment. Then we will start some real practicing.

Notes From A Convenient Cuff

(By the Inquiring Reporter)

That orchidaceous little tune, "Orchids in the Moonlight," with the Tamale lilt has got me humming again. "Flying Down To Rio," that glittering musicale, has introduced a new series of tunes, all seemingly perverted to the Spanish time.

Watch for these new dance tunes, "The Carico," a spick tune from "Flying Down To Rio," "I Is Quittin' Saturday," from Phil Harris Melody Cruise, every Friday night, and "Doin' the Uptown Lowdown," a Harlemite of the first water.

I know the most gorgeous bit of tsh, tsh! but worse luck I can't reveal my knowledge to youse guys and gals.

Every Sunday night my radio is heated to the music of Ozzie Nelson whose taste runs to the Harlem variety of "lowdown" tunes.

I have noticed with my roving eye, (Ben Turpin, to you) members of the younger social set up at our municipal waxed floor and they seem to enjoy the dances very much. With the variety of really good dance bands we have had lately I can't blame them.

Kathy Brush of "Night Club," has done another short for Cosmopolitan which I unhesitatingly recommend for all readers who like brilliant wit and a real knowledge of New York and the New Yorkers.

FLASH—A little inside dope on your future entertainment has just come to me in the form of the news that Ralph Emerson and his Kansas City Recording Orchestra will grace our municipality in a Pre-Washington's Birthday Dance, Feb. 20th, featuring a novelty trio and a real live crooner. Imagine my dears—a Real Live Crooner!

The Senior Play

Almost any night the past week one might have found a group of Seniors gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Stocking to practice on the Senior play, "The Last Ballot." The cast displays some unusual talent. The characters are very enthusiastic over their parts and are getting along quite nicely except for Grandpa, who is having a hard time being deaf instead of dumb. The play will be given in the college auditorium Tuesday night, February 27.

Juniors

The Juniors aren't a bit conceited, but they know they are really good. As every one has heard, the high school is voting on the most popular boy and girl and "Heavy" Whitlock and Sarah Virginia McGowen are to be in the final run off. The Juniors are proud of their representatives and feel that they stand a good chance of being elected.

The Juniors have had no business meetings this week, but they have not been sleeping on the job. His is the fifth week, and

Rev. McKee Is Heard Thursday Afternoon

The high school students listened to a very good talk by Rev. R. S. McKee upon the subject of patriotism at the regular assembly period Thursday afternoon.

Mr. McKee defined patriotism as love of country, and he then gave four ways in which we can show our patriotism of our love of our country. First, whatever will contribute to the welfare of this country, namely, honesty, observance of the law, and uprightness. Second, preparation by education so that we may vote intelligently, since it is through the exercise of the right of franchise that we control our government. Third, seeking to promote good citizenship through schools, the home, and the church. And fourth, maintenance of the right relations with our fellow man.

Scout News By The Scout Scribe

The last Scout meeting was devoted to practicing the things that were to be done at Pampa. Some more suckers and I were up at 5:20 again Saturday morning. We met at Mr. Brady's Store. Several of the mothers had time or took time to go. Miss Stewart was the unofficial mascot until we got to Pampa.

Troop 37 was the first troop to arrive so we were the first in the parade. I bet Washington and his men at Valley Forge had nothing on us that day, for I have never been colder.

The program that the executive, Mr. Clark—not Dean—had prepared was on that anyone interested in Scouting should have heard. In Scouting there is the idea that the Scouts today are the government of tomorrow. In representing this idea a young man dressed as Uncle Sam stood with his hand on a Scout's shoulder and delivered a long talk on how Scouts make better citizens. The best part of the program was when troop 37 was presented with the Roosevelt Award.

The present President of the United States of America has been actively connected with Scouting for over twelve years.

everybody is trying to cram for the tests next week. The Junior-Senior Banquet is still the main topic under discussion and the date is gradually crawling closer.

Bit of the Far East for 1934 Exposition

In the extensive rebuilding and elaboration of the Japanese government buildings and exhibits for the 1934 Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago the added attractiveness of the gardens is to play a prominent part. So much that is new in the gardens, the buildings and the exhibits will be shown that the 1933 visitors will not recognize the complete exhibit as one they saw last year. The above picture shows a small corner of the gardens that are being radically made over for the 1934 Fair.

Tuesday Harold McDaniel and Nickey Stewart were guests of the Lions Club. Incidentally guests are expected to make a speech and these scouts spoke on Scouting. There is no reason why the Lions should not sponsor a troop. There are plenty of boys and plenty of men for leaders. Here's hoping.

C.W.A. To Help Stpdnts

Lubbock, Texas.—Application has been filed by Texas Technological College officials for an allotment of the $5,000,000 fund provided by the Civil Works Administration to help students stay in school, according to President Bradford Knapp.

Jobs will be available to 10 per cent of the student body, based on the enrollment of Oct. 15, 1933. Of this number, 75 per cent will be old students and 25 per cent new students. Regular college wage scales will be used with students working a sufficient number of hours to make $15 monthly.

Another Cellar Fills Up

Perryton.—Mrs. W. G. Yeary, pantry demonstrator for New Hope Home Demonstration Club canned 503 quarts of vegetables and fruits for her family of four. She stored 100 pounds of pumpkins and has plenty of turnips and cabbage stored for all winter. She also has enough winter greens growing to last until spring, according to the report of Miss Dyora Crowder, home demonstration agent of Ochiltree county. Mrs. Yeary improved her pantry (cellar) by digging out the dirt shelves, one on each side, and building shelves across the back to store her products on. She also papered her cellar with newspapers to make it lighter. The total cost of the remodeling was 10 cents for nails, as she used scrap lumber for her shelves.

ADVICE TO THE SOCIALLY INCLINED

Refusals of invitations and acceptances of them require written replies in the social world. Our school is a social world within itself and the same rule applies to it.

Social events are occasions prepared for the enjoyment and development of every member of the student body, and it is sheer rudeness on the part of the student to ignore them completely. It is to ignore them completely.

If a literary society member finds it impossible to attend society, the sponsor should be notified. If students cannot accept the invitation to the class parties and dances, they should be equally courteous in submitting their refusal as they would for an invitation outside of school.

The date for the Junior-Senior Banquet is Feb. 22. All Juniors and Seniors should look forward to that date for a good time. If the students expect the banquet to be enjoyable, it will be.

The school has accredited her students with enough intelligence to choose for themselves the activities they wish to attend. They may prove their worthiness of such a compliment by more carefully considering each invitation, written or unwritten, before declining it.

INCREASE IN ENROLLMENT

The enrollment of the Clarendon schools this month has exceeded even the scholastic census. The enrollment for the South Ward this month reached a total of 362 pupils. Junior high is the alma mater of 212 students, and the high school records show 182 students enrolled. This makes a total of 756 white students in the public schools of Clarendon and together with the 31 colored students complete records show 787 students attending school in town this month. The scholastic census for Clarendon is only 757. Forty-nine new pupils have been enrolled since the first of January.

Were this rapid increase in enrollment to continue for the next three months, Clarendon might find her facilities inadequate for such a large number of students.

POPULARITY CAMPAIGN

A heated campaign is being carried on in high school to determine the most popular boy and girl in Clarendon. Sarah Virginia McGowen, "Heavy" Whitlock, La Verne Lott and O. C. Watson, Jr., are the candidates. Each candidate has a manager. A letter published this week on the bulletin board by the influential campaign manager, Ryder Walker, is printed below.

"Vote for O. C. Watson, most popular boy in C. H. S."

Mr. Watson says: "My life is an open book for the students of C. H. S. I have been here seven years and feel well qualified for the honor I am a Senior of the class of 1933-34, the best in the west."

Age: 23? Football: Seven years. Basketball: Seven years.

TO ORGANIZE FOR GREATER BUYING POWER

THROUGH their county corn-hog control associations, American farmers can follow the pathway to increased purchasing power for corn and hogs. Under the corn-hog reduction plan, they can organize to control production and they will receive the full benefits for their efforts. Although the Agricultural Adjustment Administration is charged by law with the responsibility of directing the corn-hog reduction program, the actual sign-up of contracts and the local administration will be in the hands of the corn-hog control associations which will be organized in major corn-producing counties by contract signers. Each farmer who signs a reduction contract becomes a member of the association and is entitled to a vote in its affairs. The Board of Directors of the County Corn-Hog Control Association will be composed of representatives from the various communities within the county, elected by contracting producers, themselves. Each community a permanent committee of three to five members will be elected by farmers.

We met another new citizen in Clarendon this week. He is Bob Webster, over at Buntin's funeral home, a young man of parts. Bob was transferred here recently from Estelline, where Mr. Buntin also owns a funeral home. He says he is delighted with Clarendon people and feels he is fortunate in being able to live here.

And we ran into Lee Meers one day this week. He has been Frank White's right hand man at the latter's place of business for several years and is well known in Donley county. Meers and the writer came back on the same troop train from New York (Camp Mills) to Camp Travis, at San Antonio, where both of us received our discharges. Lee says he recalls working in the mess-hall (baggage car) one day on that trip.

One of the hardest working young business men of Clarendon is Barcus Antrobus, proprietor and manager of the Antro Hotel. He also is partner in the hardware business operated under the name of "Watson and Antrobus".

Another of the newcomers to Clarendon is Dr. A. W. Hicks, dental surgeon, with offices in the Goldston building. Dr. Hicks is a graduate of Baylor Dental College at Dallas. He is not a stranger to Clarendon as his father resides at Memphis. This young gentleman has all the prerequisites of a successful career in his profession, for which we wish him.

"Hootus" Ray, valued employe of Hommel's service station and tire store, believes he will soon get a free trip to Europe aboard a vessel on which his brother, Vernon Ray, is the wireless operator. Vernon writes him that he can get him a job on the ship whereby he will be able to work his way across and back.

We met and became acquainted with Judge W. T. Link on a visit to his office the other afternoon. Judge Link was partly reared at Stamford to which town his father moved in the early years of the present century. He has been a resident of Clarendon some 20 years and has served Donley county as judge for several terms. Judge Link, by the way, was "initiated" into the Lions Club on Tuesday of last week.

In talking with Fred Russell at his meat market we learned that a little want ad recently inserted in the Clarendon News really brought him big returns. He advertised he was equipped for grinding sausage. Mr. Russell tells us he was surprised at the big response to that little ad. He received as much as 600 pounds a day for a while which he put through his sausage mill. A hint to the wise. Insert one of the little want ads in The News and see the result for yourselves.

We ran into Judge Porter's office the other afternoon. In two minutes time, we found out he once attended Texas University—about the time of the late war. In further discussion, we found out he is the same Ralph Porter who used to room in old "B" Hall, boys dormitory at Texas U. at the same time we roomed on the second floor of said domicile. Those were great old days. Further discussion brought out that Judge Porter was back in "State" after the war and finished in the law department, then came to Clarendon where he has resided since that time. Glad to know you again, Judge Ralph. This is a small world after all.

Billy Ralph Andis, 9-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Andis is getting along fine. Billy Ralph was seriously injured in an accident with his bicycle some two weeks ago.

U. J. Boston returned on last Friday night from a trip with his brother, Pearl Boston of Pampa, to Jackson, Tenn., New Orleans, and other points enroute. Mr. Boston says they had a wonderful trip and met only one person they had known hitherto. He says the size of the East Texas oil field, from Longview to Gladewater, was a big surprise and that traffic was heavier there than at any other point. Mr. Boston also reports it rained on them all the way from Alexandria, La., back to Fort Worth. They spent one night in Tyler and marvelled at the growth of that city.

- "Spilt Music"—Ruby M. Ayers
- "Gentle Julia"—Booth Tarkington.
- "Sex and Youth"—Sherwood Edly.
- "Everyday Play for Children"—Carolyn Sherwin Bailey.
- "All Kneeling"—Annie Parrish.

You see a large number of these are by authors whose books have already been enjoyed from the library. In addition to these four have been given us as follows: By Mrs. Van Knox, "Iron Heart" by William McLeod Raine; By Harry Miller—"Three Oz Books" by L. Frank Baum; "The Patchwork girls of Oz"; "The Tin Woodman of Oz"; and "The Magic of Oz." Our little folks will be delighted with these.

Since this week the entire Nation will be celebrating Lincoln's birthday, I decided to review briefly the outstanding Lincoln story in our literature, "A Man For the Ages" by Irving Bacheller. The title of the book comes from the statement made by Secretary Stanton as he stood by Lincoln's bedside and watched him close his eyes for the last time—"Now he belongs to the ages." And time has proved this true. With the passing of time has come a truer estimate of his character, a truer appreciation of his greatness.

The story begins with a letter dated 1915, purported to have been written from a hospital in France by a wounded soldier to his aged grandfather, recalling the grandfather's many reminiscences of Lincoln, and suggesting that together they write them into a Lincoln story when he comes home. He says, he "wants to give the world its first full view of the heart and soul of Lincoln"—that people read biography or history rarely save in the schools—"so let us try only to tell the moving story as you have told it to me, with Lincoln striding across the scene or taking the center of the stage just as he was wont to do in your recollection of him." From this background Bacheller has drawn his story. Around Lincoln he has placed a great cast of characters—sturdy pioneers, men and women, young and old, black and white, rough and gentle, wayward and upright—and among them Lincoln walks slowly, steadily out of the obscurity of his boyhood and early manhood into the great white light which surrounds him as a "Man for the Ages." Very realistically is portrayed the pioneer life into which Lincoln was born and in which he spent a large part of his life. He comes first into the story as the lank, lean clerk in the country store, selling sorghum and bacon, and entertaining the customers with his shrewd wit and unusual knowledge—reading everything obtainable from Shakespeare and Burns to a volume of Blackstone's Commentaries found in a barrel of rubbish. Later comes the tender, pathetic story of his love for Ann Rutledge and of her death. Events move rapidly, events of national importance, and Lincoln moves with them. Step by step we see him as he develops from the crude frontier lad into the Statesman who directs the affairs of his nation in a great crisis—but always the good neighbor, the sympathetic friend, the kindly crusader, the champion of the oppressed. The beautiful ending of the story is of a quartet of negroes, as his life ebbs away on April 14, 1865, singing near his home, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, Comin' for to Carry Me Home."

Other splendid Lincoln stories which we have in the Library are "The Father" by Kathrine Holland Brown, and "Forever Free" and "With Malice Toward None" by Honore Willis Morrow.

METHODIST BOARD MAKE FINANCE PLANS

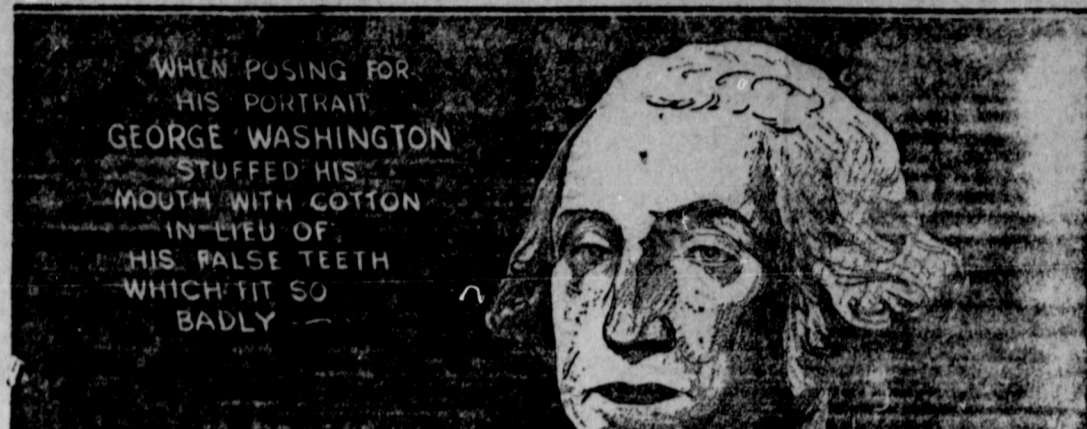

Plans for a 3-Sunday "special" to augment the treasury for local running expenses of the First Methodist church were made at a meeting of the board of stewards Monday night, according to Chairman G. L. Boykin.

The members are urged to use the envelope system.

Mr. W. C. Stewart handed us the following as his answer to his ad on the "Who's Who" page. We think it so good we reproduce it here: "Last fall I advertised cold weather was just around the corner. It hasn't arrived but better times have arrived. Now is the time to buy. Come in and let's talk it over." That's the sort of approach to make. Better times are here. There is not one who will gainsay such a statement at this time. Business men are finding it out more and more as they tell the folks what they have to sell. And the best medium, by far, is the home paper.

OIL FIRM DOES THE HONEST ACT; PAYS OLD DEBT

SEVERAL MONTHS AFTER PARTIES RECEIPT IN FULL CHECK RECEIVED

There is one man, and at least six of his associates in an oil pool, who believe in the inherent honesty of at least one oil company.

This man is Henry Williams, well-known real estate dealer of Clarendon.

Mr. Williams, a few days ago, received a check for $119.09 from the Champlin Refining Company of Enid, Oklahoma.

Nothing unusual about a check. But there is something unusual about receipt of this check at this time.

Final settlement on the E. F. Bryan lease pool was made last October, at which time Mr. Williams and six other Clarendon citizens, all partners in the pool, signed papers receipting in full for their part of the payments due them for sale of 50 acres in the Bryan lease some years ago.

"In other words," says Mr. Williams, "We had been paid a total of some $87,000 for that 50-acre lease, of which $50,000 was cash and the balance oil. We knew we had received our last penny in the matter and thus gave our receipt in full."

So when the oil company checked back their books and found they still owed about $120 they promptly mailed the check which they could have saved had they wished to be forgetful in the matter.

"There is plenty of honesty among oil people," declares Mr. Williams.

DEPUTY COLLECTOR TO BE HERE MARCH 15

The following notice has been received by The News:

"For the convenience of those persons who are required by law to file federal income tax returns, a deputy collector will be at the post office in Clarendon from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. on March 15 to assist taxpayers in filing their returns.

"No charge will be made for this service. The matter of filing income tax returns should be given immediate attention by all taxpayers who are due to file returns in order to avoid penalty and interest.

Calendar year 1933 returns shall be filed not later than March 15, 1934, with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer resides or has his principal place of business."

Signed by W. A. Thomas, as collector, by his deputy, Ralph Kenniston.

METHODIST CHOR BEGINNS CANTATA WORK FOR EASTER

LOCAL CHOR WILL RESUME PRESENTATION OF EASTER PROGRAM

After a lapse of one year, the Choir of the Clarendon Methodist Church will present an Easter Cantata this Spring as has been their custom over the years.

Work was begun Friday night of last week and will proceed with increasing vigor until presentation on Easter Sunday, April 1st, when the work will be presented at the evening hour at the Methodist Church with an augmented roster and added accompaniment.

The work to be produced is Fred B. Holton's "Life Eternal", and is a most pleasing assembly of soli for the various parts as well as choruses of unusual excellence.

Miss Delphia Bones is the organist, and Mrs. G. L. Boykin, advanced pupils, and Mr. Hubert Reavis string and reed accompanists. Mr. Sam M. Braswell is the director.

In addition to the cantata, the choir will also present "Unfold Ye Portals" by Gounod.

Boxing, Basketball Here Tuesday Nite

The largest crowd that has been in attendance at the Junior High Gym this season witnessed a rather novel evening of entertainment, Tuesday.

The first thing on the card was a boxing match between "Terrible Luke" Word and "Tiger" Butler. Word weighing 145 and Butler 140.

There was some rather fast glove slinging. The first round was a draw, but in the last round "Terrible Luke" had a slight edge.

The next match was a heavy-weight bout between "King Kong" Behrens (185 lbs.) and "Frankenstein" Merritt (174 lbs) Merritt held his own in the first round, but in the next and last round all the honors went to Behrens. He had the reach on Merritt and handled the gloves a little better.

The feature bout of the evening was a middle-weight bout between "Carideo" Holtzclaw and "One Lick" Watson. "Carideo" weighed out at 155 and "One Lick" at 172. If there was any difference Watson had the edge in the first, but the fight would be called a draw.

Then the Clarendon Independents and the Claude Independents played one of the fastest most exciting basketball games witnessed in Clarendon in many moons.

The first half C. Stargel and R. Stargel probably did the best goal pitching for the Clarendon and Turner and Deaton did the best work for Claude.

The last half had more fast, peppy playing than the first. Isham came into the honors for Clarendon with Bowen doing some fair playing.

One of the novel points of this game was the fact that at

Here's Chance For Cotton Farmer To Diversify Crops

To the cotton farmer who has already reduced his cotton acreage by diversifying with other crops and livestock in previous years, and who feels the Government cotton program is unfair to him, the corn-hog contract may offer interesting possibilities, says T. R. Broun, county agent.

Suppose a farmer changed from an all-cotton farm system to half cotton and half feed a few years ago. He milks cows, feeds hogs and raises chickens for a steady year 'round living, and takes his cotton money in the fall for paying the bigger bills. He makes the same percentage reduction in his 1934 cotton crop as the neighbor who still plants nearly the whole farm to cotton, but he will receive only half as much in the way of a Government cotton benefit check.

In many such instances it works out that the diversified farmer may sign a corn-hog contract to reduce corn acreage or hog production or both, and receive Government benefit checks that will total just as much or even more than those received by the all-cotton farmer. In addition the diversified farmer is in a much better position than the all-cotton farmer to use the extra feed which the farm can grow under the terms of the cotton and corn-hog contracts.

The corn-hog contract is open to every farmer in the county who produces a surplus of either corn or hogs and who can otherwise qualify, the county agent points out. The rush of the cotton campaign makes a farm-to-farm canvass of farmers in the interest of the corn-hog program an impossibility, but men who end of the first half the two teams were tied at 16-16 and at the end of the game they were tied at 33-33, just practically double the score at the end of the first half.

TEXAS SOLON IS VINDICATED BY NEW MONEY PLAN

Connally's "Honest Money" Program, Blocked by Republicans, Successful Under Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Jan. —The outstanding success which has been achieved by the Roosevelt administration through the use of the "managed currency" weapon in the battle against depression, has brought profound joy to the heart of Senator Tom Connally, (D) of Texas, one of the administration advisors who helped to frame and pass the legislation making it possible.

Not even President Roosevelt himself has been more gratified by the success of the Government's policy of buying gold, setting a price from time to time that will adjust the value of the dollar to commodity levels, than the brilliant Texan, who, as a member of the Senate Finance Committee has been on the "inside" since the gold-buying program was inaugurated.

The reason for Sen. Connally's rejoicing is that his scholarly and analytical presentation of the "managed currency" plan, which he urged the Senate to adopt during the last days of the Hoover administration, when he introduced his famous "Senate Bill 1111," almost exactly paralleling the Roosevelt monetary policy, has been fully justified in actual practice. Despite the criticism of Republican conservatives, then in power in Congress, who prevented passage of Senator Connally's plan, his keen analysis of the financial situation, presented in the Senate last winter, has proved correct in almost every detail under the "new deal."

A managed currency which would preserve for all time an "honest dollar" was the object of Senator Connally's proposal. The Texas senator outlined his plan to the Senate just a year ago, in January. When Congress met in special session, he introduced his plan, he suggests.

PIONEER CITIZEN DIES SATURDAY

W. H. MARTIN, WHO CAME TO CLARENDON IN 1900, BURIED IN AMARILLO

Funeral services for William Henry Martin, pioneer citizen of Clarendon and Donley County were held Monday in Amarillo, Texas, at ten o'clock by Rev. Father Lehive, at the Cathedral. Interment was in the Llano cemetery.

Mr. Martin was born August 23, 1845 at Pontotoc, Miss. At the age of sixteen he volunteered in the Confederate Army and served three years. In 1888 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Hofstetter and to this union one daughter was born.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin came to Clarendon in 1900 and have been residents ever since. For many years he was a dry goods merchant, until his health failed. The deceased is survived by his wife, daughter, Mrs. Bob Younger of Amarillo, and two aunts, Mrs. C. Pinson and Miss Lusia Duke of Memphis, Tenn.

Palbearers were H. B. Kerbow, Odos Caraway, F. E. Chamberlain, John Bugbee, E. A. Ford, and H. E. Westmoreland.

When the Roosevelt administration began its "new deal," the Connally currency program was practically adopted in toto, and with the powerful backing of the administration, it was put into effect with the signal success which has already brought a definite halt to the downward trend of depression and raised the prices of leading farm commodities, some as much as 100 per cent.
