Farmers Are Urged To Sign Contracts

NEWS SPONSORS WARM SPRINGS F. D. ROOSEVELT BIRTHDAY FUND

JAN. 31 DEADLINE COTTON CONTRACT

COUNTY AGENT URGES THAT DONLEY COUNTY FARMERS SIGN CONTRACTS

According to County Agent T. R. Broun the Donley County Cotton Acreage Reduction Contracts for 1934-35 must be signed by January 31, 1934, and he urges that all desiring to enter into this contract with the Federal Government, should do so before that date.

To complete the sign-up before this deadline date will expedite the early mailing of the first $50,000,000.00 to the participating farmers. The Government hopes to start mailing checks early in March. By getting the checks to the farmers at this early date they shall do them a service at a time when financing pressure is very great.

A complete and early sign-up will also relieve the pressure on that part of the crop which the farmers have borrowed, in fact upon all the cotton yet held by them.

The present outlook is for a carry-over of from 10 to 11 million bales on August 1, the time picking starts. Because of the weight of this huge surplus the government is making positive and determined efforts to secure the full percentage of sign-up in this campaign.

LOCAL LIONS ATTEND PANHANDLE MEETING

Sam M. Braswell, International Director, accompanied by Mrs. Braswell and T. D. Nored, President of the local Lions Club attended the District Meeting of Lions Clubs at Panhandle, Texas Tuesday evening. Mr. Braswell was one of the featured speakers on the program, with District Governor Del W. Harrington of El Paso.

From there Mr. and Mrs. Braswell proceeded to Enid, Oklahoma where Lion Braswell was principal speaker on the program of a Group meeting of Oklahoma Lions Clubs Wednesday evening. They will return to Clarendon tonight.

New Voters To Be Honored In Amarillo

Something new and different! Yes sir, that's just what is going to happen. For the first time there is to be a celebration honoring the boys and girls of Amarillo and the surrounding territory who vote for the first time this year. (If they were twenty-one late last year or will be twenty-one during 1934, they are among the honored.)

This meeting is sponsored by the Open Forum Club with the cooperation of the Potter County Federation of Women's Clubs, and will be held at the Municipal Auditorium Friday, January 26th at 7:15 p. m. Their purpose is a revival of the old Greek Custom of holding a celebration for the new voters to make them conscious of their responsibility as citizens. This meeting is to be strictly non-partisan, and there will be a very interesting program.

Following the program each honoree will be presented with a complimentary ticket to the Roseland Dance Palace.

V. W. JONES FAMILY MOVING TO CHILDRESS TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Jones and daughter, are moving to Childress this week, where Mr. Jones will be manager of a Funeral Parlor, owned by himself and Fred Buntin.

Clarendon people are sorry to lose these fine people, but wish them every success in their business.

CWA Bulletin

With the completion and approval of a part of the registrations, CWA work in Donley County will be resumed the latter part of this week. Donley County will be allowed to work a maximum of 327 men which is an unusually large allotment for a county of this size.

Employees on Civil Works projects in rural districts will work 15 hours per week and those in towns and cities will work 24 hours per week. In no case will any one be permitted to work more than the allotted hours. Eligibility for work will be determined through Case Records on each registration; and only those who actually need the work will be given employment.

Last week $5,984.20 was paid in salaries and wages from the Relief and CWA funds combined. This is probably the largest payroll that will be disbursed in Donley County since the new allotment of men can not exceed; and for the past two weeks approximately four hundred men and women have been employed on CWA projects.

Those projects that are now under construction will be completed before new work is started provided they are considered beneficial to the community or town in which they are being carried on.

LIONS HEAR HON. D. W. HARRINGTON

DISTRICT GOVERNOR LIONS INTERNATIONAL SPEAKS TO CLARENDON GROUP

Clarendon Lions were indeed honored Wednesday when District Governor Del W. Harrington, formerly of Clarendon but now of El Paso, found occasion to reminisce. The regular Tuesday luncheon had been postponed in order to accommodate Mr. Harrington's schedule.

Introduced by Lion Patrick, Governor Harrington recalled the days when he and Mr. Patrick had grown up as boys together in Clarendon. The speaker then dwelt briefly but earnestly on the spirit of Lionism as a unified force, promoting the good of all, making for a better world, land and community. It is that spirit which leads a man to seek to help others while helping himself.

The Governor, also, in behalf of Lions International, presented key-member keys to Lions Rathjen and Mulkey.

A feature of the program was a Trumpet Duet, with an encore played by Bandmasters Sandusky of Shamrock and Stephenson of Clarendon, accompanied by Mrs. Powell.

Rev. C. B. Ingram's Son Dies Tuesday

News was received Tuesday that Lane Ingram of Waxahachie, Texas, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Ingram of this city, has passed away at his home. He had been in ill health for some years. Until his illness required him to give it up, he was a Methodist minister.

He was born Nov. 31, 1876 in Blunt County, Alabama, moved to Clarendon when a child and for a few years, managing the laundry.

He is survived by his wife, five sons and five daughters. Burial was this afternoon at two o'clock at Oak Branch, Ellis County, Texas.

Mrs. C. B. Ingram has been down there for some time and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ingram left Wednesday to attend the funeral. The News joins the friends of the family in sympathy over their bereavement.

SEN. TOM CONNALLY GETS CWA ACTION

PROMPT WORK IN WASHINGTON BRINGS ADDITIONAL CWA RELIEF FUNDS

Orders from the Texas Relief headquarters that no more funds were available for the payment of teams and trucks paralyzed hundreds of CWA projects in Texas last week, and here in Donley County had the effect of cutting off most of the local worthwhile projects now in progress and some important ones to come.

So many Donley county projects had to do with highway and street work that the removal of trucks and teams from the payrolls nullified them absolutely.

In alarm over the local situation a telegram was sent to Senator Tom Connally urging that he use his influence to avert this stalemate and Tuesday morning of this week the following reply was received which brings new hope for the local projects for several weeks—maybe longer: Washington, D. C., Jan. 22, 1934 Tom F. Connally:

Telegram received stop Have been working on an urging continuance of Civil Works Relief stop Glad to advise that sufficient funds are available to continue work to February fifteen and that President is making request for additional funds sufficient to carry on work until middle of April or May first stop Am delighted to have been of service

Local citizens are happy over the prompt work of Senator Connally and proud of the administration for their open mindedness on matters of relief so vital to this section.

J. F. (Shorty) Oller and family will leave Clarendon this week for Mt. Hope, Arkansas where they will make their home. We hate to have these folks leave, but we do wish them success in their new home.

E. T. Pope made a business trip to Dallas the fore part of the week.

ATTENTION TO LAND OWNERS AND TENANTS:

We, the County Committee of Donley County Cotton Control Association of Donley County, take this opportunity to notify the farmers of this County and the public at large, that we cannot recommend to the Secretary of Agriculture for acceptance any contract, that is not signed by both landowner and tenant, as provided for in Contract.

Birthday Dance Tuesday Jan. 30th

The voice of President Franklin D. Roosevelt will be heard at the Clarendon Opera House on the evening of Jan. 30th when Clarendon's Birthday Ball for the Warm Springs Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will be held.

The broadcast also will include entertainment by nationally known stage, screen, and radio stars, and will begin about 10:15. Johnnie Beard, local dance impresario, states that all money taken in will be given to the Foundation.

The Clarendon Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club are sponsoring this dance and urge that a large crowd attend and help this worthy cause.

Young Business Man Celebrates Birthday

Dewey Tom Heath, the up and coming young business man of our thriving city, celebrated his fifth birthday last Saturday. In case you didn't happen to know, Dewey Tom is special representative for Liberty, Inc., in our city, and is about the most energetic young man in town. He has a very pleasing personality and it is our surmise that with all his ambition he is really going to get somewhere. At the present, his one big ambition is to be a cowboy, which is really quite all right, but what would happen to all the marvelous sales ability?

Mrs. Parke Chamberlain and daughter, Donita, returned Monday from Los Angeles where they spent the Fall.

TAXES COLLECTED EXCEED YEAR AGO

CITY, COUNTY AND STATE TAXES IN BETTER SHAPE THIS YEAR

Following up the plea in last week's Clarendon News to the tax payers of the Clarendon Independent School District, it seems authentic data concerning the somewhat serious condition as it really is. The response to this plea has not been so very favorable, and February 1st, is drawing dangerously near.

The approximate amount of uncurrent school taxes paid up to date this year is about $7,000. The approximate amount of unpaid current is about $20,000. The approximate amount of delinquencies is about $35,000 making the total sum unpaid amount to about $55,000. The taxes paid up to date this year exceed the amount paid last year at the same period about $5,000.

The School Board, feeling that something must be done, is contemplating the step of applying the ten percent penalty on those who have not paid their taxes by February 1st.

The city taxes have come in to a better extent than the school taxes. The city tax roll is $28,000. Up to date $3,700 has been paid. This amounts to twenty percent of the whole. There is only eight percent left unpaid. The city expects to collect most of this in the next few days. In comparison with last years results this year is about the same. Also a few delinquencies are coming in.

At this time no figures can be given concerning County and State taxes. It can be said, though, that they are coming in better than last year.

There are more car licenses being bought this year than last year. So far five hundred and five have been bought, and this figure will probably be larger by February first.

The tax collector asked that it be announced that the Tax Collector's office will be open all day Sunday for the benefit of those who cannot get to town on any other day.

Clarendon Artist To Paint Museum Murals

CANYON, Jan. 24.—Two Panhandle artists were finally designated today to place two mural paintings in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum here.

This work is being done as a Public Works of Art project, and Dr. John S. Ankeney, director of the Dallas Public Art Gallery, and director of Region 12, came to Canyon this morning to inspect the proposed project and make plans with the artists.

Harold Bugbee of Clarendon and Ben Carlton Mead of Amarillo were designated by him as Class A artists to carry out the project.

On the east wall of Pioneer Hall, Bugbee will place a panel six and one-half feet by fourteen feet, depicting the entrance of Col. Charles Goodnight and his herd of cattle into Palo Duro Canyon. On the west wall opposite, a panel of the same size will be painted by Mead, showing Coronado's entry into the Palo Duro Canyon, 400 years before. The Coronado panel will tell of the coming into use of the horse in the Panhandle of Texas, while the Goodnight panel will suggest the last period in which the horse was supreme.

Six Other Panels Planned
Mr. Bugbee and Mr. Mead have already planned six more panels for the museum walls. These are a picture of pre-pueblo life which will face the main entrance of the building; a panel depicting the life of plains Indians; one showing the Mexican period; another the buffalo hun-

C. Of C. Annual Banquet Tonight

Tonight is the night of the Annual banquet of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, which will begin promptly at seven o'clock at the Antro Hotel. Every one is asked to please be on time. A very interesting and diversified program will be presented.

A large crowd is expected to attend with many visitors from the surrounding towns of the Panhandle such as Amarillo, Pampa, Borger, Memphis, Panhandle.

The main address of the evening will be given by Hon. Walter Cline, President of West Texas Chamber of Commerce from Wichita Falls, Texas. A report of the years activities will be given by G. L. Boykin. During Mr. Boykin's address eleven young ladies from the Junior High School will pass in review, each one representing one of the main accomplishments of the year. The following activities will be represented:

1. School activities.
2. Crop production Loans.
3. Cotton Plow-up Campaign.
4. NRA Organization.
5. RFC and CWA Organizations
6. Trades Day.
7. Highway Development.
8. Publicity.
9. Poultry Show.
10. County Exhibit.
11. Legislation.

R. H. ALEXANDER DIES SUDDENLY

PIONEER DONLEY COUNTY RESIDENT IS BURIED SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Coming as a shock to Clarendon and Donley County citizens was the news that Robert Henry Alexander had died of heart failure at his home, Saturday afternoon at 2:40. He had trouble with his heart on Thursday but had improved and was feeling fine until the fatal attack.

Mr. Alexander was a pioneer resident of the city and county, having lived here the past twenty-three years. He served as Alderman for the city for four years, when Tom F. Connally was Mayor.

He was the son of Jim and Cynthia Bourland Alexander, being born Oct. 1st, 1861 at Blossom Prairie, Lamar County, Texas. At the age of eight he joined the Methodist Church and was a faithful and devout member until his untimely death. In 1891 he married Miss Delia Ryan and to this union were born seven children, six of whom survive their father.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist Church at 2:30 with Rev. E. B. Bowen, assisted by Rev. L. A. Reavis, officiating. Pallbearers included Dave Johnson, S. W. Lowe, Tom F. Connally, W. B. Haile, C. W. Bennett, Sr., and W. B. Upham of McLean.

Besides his wife, the deceased is survived by two sons, Clyde of Amarillo and Earl of Clarendon; four daughters, Mrs. H. K. Edwards of Crowell, Mrs. C. E. Gatlin of Memphis, Tenn., and Misses Lois and Wyifa Lee of this city.

and a fifth the military occupation of the Panhandle, with the coming of permanent settlers as the last panel.

The two panels now being painted are to be completed by February 15, 1934 or as soon thereafter as possible. The six additional panels will be added as soon as conditions allow.

T. D. Nored and Sam M. Braswell attended a Lions Club meeting at Turkey, Texas, Monday evening.

"NON-DANCERS" TO CONTRIBUTE

LOCAL PEOPLE INVITED TO SUPPORT NATIONAL CRIP- PLED CHILDREN'S WORK

All over the United States plans are being laid for public dances to be held on January 30th, honoring the birthday of President Roosevelt, and in benefit of the Warm Springs, Ga., endowment for the rehabilitation of little children rendered helpless by the dread of disease of infantile paralysis.

This movement has taken hold of the public, but there are millions of people who are conscientiously opposed, to the dance, but who are anxious to support so worthy a cause, and are unwilling to be left out of such a good work.

Here in Clarendon the cause is no different; indeed there is a large percent of people who do not care to dance and yet many who would like to contribute sums ranging from fifty cents up to the Warm Springs fund.

The Clarendon News will therefore sponsor the collection and forwarding of a fund from these classes of people, conscientious "non-dancers", those too lazy to dance, and those who fear to risk their "corns" on anybody's dance floor.

So beginning Friday, Jan. 26th, and until February 1st, this fund will be received at The News office, where an accurate record will be kept and the names of all contributors published, when the fund is closed and forwarded to the national headquarters.

If you desire to honor the President's birthday, if you want to add any sum to the Warm Springs endowment fund—if you want to help in the great work of relief and rehabilitation of little crippled children, handicapped by infantile paralysis, bring your contribution to The News, and you will have a part in the great work just as much as those who attend benefit dances in Clarendon and other cities over the nation.

MIDWINTER BAND CONCERT IS ENJOYABLE EVENT

The Sims P. T. A. presented the Clarendon Band and Orchestra under the direction of Gus Stephenson in a midwinter concert last night at the College Auditorium. Mr. Stephenson was assisted by several well known artists of the Panhandle. Robert O. Sandusky, director of the Shamrock band, played a beautiful trumpet solo and aided in the band numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Truax of Memphis contributed much to the program with Mr. Truax playing a violin solo and Mrs. Truax accompanying. Mrs. Powell and Miss Delphia Bones were also able accompanists. Mrs. G. L. Boykin played a beautiful violin solo, and Mr. Stephenson proved his unusual musical abilities with a Clairnet solo.

The following program was rendered quite successfully: Field of Honor, March—McCaughy.

Blue and Gold Overture—McCaughy.

Stepping High, Musical Comedy—White.

Mission of the Rose, Serenade—McCaughy.

Western Spirit, March—McCaughy.

Trombone Toboggan, Smear—Jewel.

Intermission.
Trumpet Solo—Robert O. Sandusky, Shamrock.
Violin Solo—Gus B. Stephenson
Violin Duet—Mr. Truax, and Mrs. Boykin.
Trumpet Trio—Truax, Sandusky, and Stephenson, Accompanists—Mrs. Truax, Mrs. Powell and Delphia Bones.

SCHOOL TAXES NEEDED NOW

In last week's issue of the News we carried a statement and an appeal to the taxpayers of the Clarendon Independent School District. The statement showed a huge deficit in the funds of the school caused by delinquent taxes, and the appeal was for every citizen to make an effort to pay at least a part of his delinquent and current taxes due the school district.

There are many people who could pay their taxes in full if they only would. There are more who could pay a part of their taxes if they only would. There are few who have paid in full.

With this situation facing our schools and the possibility of closing the present session within the next sixty or ninety days, it appears to the News that every citizen in the bounds of the district should make an extra effort to pay into the treasury as much as he owes if possible—certainly a part of his taxes due.

School taxes are needed—sorely needed NOW.

DON'T LET PREJUDICE COST YOU

From reports from over the county there seems to be a hard-headed attitude on the part of some landowners and tenants that bids fair to wreck the government's cotton acreage reduction program for 1934.

It does look like people could get together on an agreeable basis, when to fail to do so means a common loss to both parties and the nation as well.

Suppose enough farmers had held off on the plow-up agreement of 1933 to defeat it. The results would have been costly if not disastrous to landowner, tenant and the whole South.

Sign the acreage reduction contract—make a fair agreement with your tenant, with your landlord, or we will all suffer.

Don't let prejudice cost you.

MORE JOY AND PEACE IN 1934

More joy in life and more peace of soul in 1934 can be the part of everybody if they will but order their motives, life and habits in accord with the Divine Plan. This isn't a new remedy—it is the restatement of God's remedy for mankind from the foundation of the world.

One of the best means of attaining this joy and peace is to begin each day with simple devotion—just tune in on the national broadcasting company stations and listen to the Morning Devotions at seven o'clock each morning. This program is arranged by the Federal Council of Churches in America, and brings a short scripture lesson, a prayer and a benediction along with some very superior music by a select chorus. This program will soothe your spirit and smooth out the difficulties of the day, if you will but enter into its spirit.

Joy and peace ought to be our aims in life—not money. Let's have more of both in 1934.

DON'T LET TAXATION BECOME CONFISCATION

An unbiased survey of the governmental achievements of 1933 produces much that is praiseworthy and deserving of the highest respect. Aggressive and daring efforts to bring recovery have been made. In spite of the critical tax situation new jobs have been created and payrolls have increased. Factories are operating again that have been closed for years.

It is probable that the worst phase of the year, so far as industry, property-owners, investors and taxpayers are concerned, is the increase in the public debt—federal, state and local.

A number of political subdivisions have endeavored to "spend themselves into prosperity"—something which can't be done.

The national credit has been maintained—but bonds of a multitude of towns and counties and cities have been thrown onto the bargain counter.

Public officials could adopt no better motto for the new year than "Economy and Efficiency are Essential to Recovery." Nothing would do more to accelerate an upward trend in business than a public policy to keep taxes down, thus relieving the burning fear that in the near future, taxation and confiscation will become one and the same thing.

PAY YOUR POLL TAX THIS WEEK

Just a week now until the deadline on poll tax payments for 1933.

If you expect to be a citizen with full voting privilege in the primaries and elections of 1934 you have just a few days in which to arm yourself with the requisite poll-tax receipt.

Your county, your state and your nation needs your voice in its affairs. If you want to vote for some man or measure; if you want to oppose some man or measure, there is only one effective way to do it.

Get that poll-tax receipt—avoid the last-day rush at the tax collector's window.

HOW TO MAKE TROUBLES MULTIPLY

If the average country newspaper man desired a sure way of making his troubles multiply—and they are too many, now—all he would have to do would be to begin publishing all advance information about the prospective visit of the stork to the community, as do the big city dailies.

Just another instance of how much more wholesome are the local newspapers who strive not for cheap sensation, but for the welfare and progress of the home community and its citizenship.

DEATH ON THE HIGHWAY

Early in 1933, there were fewer automobile accidents than during the same period in 1932.

During the last half of 1933, however, the trend changed. In the year, 30,500 persons were killed—a three and one-half per cent advance over 1932.

The automobile accident toll follows the amount of gasoline used in the country with almost loving exactitude. During the first half of 1933, for example, when gas consumption was 3 per cent below the same period in 1932, there were fewer accidents. During the last half gas use was 2.5 per cent above—and the accident record soared accordingly. The dangerous driver seems to have learned little from the costly experience of the past. He still exaggerates the safety factors of better cars and roads. He still cuts in and out of traffic, still passes on blind curves and hills, still takes a chance to save a second. And he leaves behind him shambles of deaths and injuries and needlessly ruined property.

Everything that mechanical and road engineers can do to make motoring safer, is being done—an extremely small percentage of accidents can be blamed on car failure or poor roads. The accident problem is purely an individual one—resting with each auto owner, and with the authorities who make and enforce traffic ordinances.

In 1933 four states, whose names deserve being recorded on an "Honor Roll", achieved declines in their auto death rate—Illinois, Michigan, Virginia and Wisconsin. Other states should strive to follow them.

Modern Electric Cookery "Seals-In" Vital Health Elements of Foods

In contrast to old-fashioned methods of cookery, the modern Electric Range makes it possible to serve meals of surpassing healthfulness . . . as well as incomparable flavor.

And the reason is simple. With electricity foods are cooked in a minimum amount of water, or entirely in their own juices. The heat is concentrated directly on the bottom of the utensil . . . so the steam rises, condenses on the cool lid, and drops back into the vessel . . . to be used over and over. Thus, all vital food values remain "sealed-in"!

Don't Pour Food-Values Down the Sink

If you're using an old-fashioned method of cookery, the most valuable elements of your foods are going into the sink . . . with the water you pour off vegetables and meats!

For Health, for Convenience, and for Economy you should cook the modern electrical way. Prices and terms . . . right now . . . allow your purchase to fit into the family budget with ease. Ask for a demonstration of modern Electric Cookery . . . Today!

Call us for an individual investigation of your use of electric service, to determine the cost of cooking by electricity in your home. You may be surprised to know that there are many cases where electric cookery actually decreases the total of electric and gas bills.

Don't Kill the Cows; Drink More Milk

Dairy Farm Leader Urges "Milk Month" as Economic and Health Aid

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Dairy farmers would not be forced to kill their cows and adopt other stringent production control measures that have been advocated if the people of the cities would drink more milk and eat more butter and cheese, Charles W. Holman, secretary of the National Cooperative Milk Producers Federation, said today in urging public support of "National Milk Month."

The "National Milk Month" movement, of which Senator Copeland of New York is chairman, was started in Washington, D. C., as a means of cutting down the surplus milk supply, increasing the income of the dairy farmer and helping to restore general purchasing power. From the national capital the movement is spreading to other cities, each of which is setting its own "milk month" period.

Mr. Holman who represents an organization which includes fifty-two of the leading cooperative milk producers' associations in the United States, said it was essential that consumption of bottled, or fluid milk as it is known in the dairy trade, be increased if drastic measures to reduce production are to be avoided.

"During the last four years there has been a steady increase in the total production and for the last three years there has been a decrease in consumption due to employment," Mr. Holman said. "Warehouses are full of cheese, butter, evaporated milk and powdered milk and the price of these products is lower than in years."

"The result of this under-consumption and over-production is that prices have been forced down below anything like a decent income for the farmer. Yet this surplus could easily be overcome by a slight per capita increase in consumption in cities and towns."

"An extra glass of milk a day for each person would quickly wipe out the present surplus and improve the health of those who drink it. The cost to the consumer would be negligible, but the economic effect on the dairy farmer who receives one-fourth of the income of agriculture would be of tremendous importance. The farmers' increased purchasing power would stimulate and improve business generally."

MARTIN

(By Mrs. Jim Baker)

A Bible school is being conducted at the Martin School building by Miss Smith and Miss Tompson. The school began Friday night and will continue until Wednesday night. Quite a number are enjoying these lessons.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Peabody and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peabody of Clarendon Sunday.

The U. G. Pittman family are moving to the Fairview community this week. We are going to miss these folks and hope they will be happy in their new home.

Carl Pittman and family, Mrs. U. G. Pittman and son, Clyde, spent Sunday in the Alvin Pittman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrow entertained a number of their friends with a turkey dinner Sunday. Those to enjoy this feast were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jordan and small son, Mrs. George Kavanaugh, Margaret Sue East-erlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker and children visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Kavanaugh hursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bulman and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wool visited Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Pool Sunday afternoon.

Emily and Henry Davis entertained the young people of the community Saturday night with a farewell party for Clyde and Luther Pittman.

The Community extended its sympathy to Mrs. N. B. Watson in the deaths of her mother and niece. We feel that this double bereavement is sad indeed.

Mrs. Dave Patterson was called to LaFors to help her daughter, Mrs. Horace Wood, care for her two small daughters who have the measles. We hope that they have a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cheatwood of Naylor. Mrs. J. Y. Speir, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hatfield of Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Sutton spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Speir.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Easterling and family visited in the John Turnbow home Saturday night until a late hour enjoying the radio program.

George Kavanaugh took U. G. and Alvin Pittman and two of their brothers of Brice, to the bedside of their brother in East Texas this past week-end. We are glad to report he is much improved.

Harold Hams left for Lubbock Friday where he will attend the Tech for the remainder of the

METHODISTS PREFERRED AT TEXAS UNIVERSITY

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 24.—Of the 6,739 students who attended The University of Texas last year, 5,627 listed themselves as actual members of some one of the various churches, while 876 merely indicated their church preference, according to the report of the registrar, E. J. Mathews. Only 81 did not give any information about their religious beliefs, and 155 stated that they had no church preference.

The largest number of adherents, both in actual membership and by preference, belonged to the Methodist Church, the registrar's report indicated. A total of 1,735 students were members of this denomination and an additional 245 gave it as their preference. The Baptist Church had 1,161 members in the student body and 172 students preferred it to their denominations.

Presbyterians came next in order with 788 actual members and 108 who preferred that church. Other religious denominations represented in the student body

WARNS TEXAS AGAINST MEASLES EPIDEMIC

AUSTIN, Texas, January 23.—Measles is again prevalent in Texas, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. After the epidemic of this disease last year, it was thought there would not be so many cases this year, but the numbers of reports received leads Dr. Brown to warn against the needless exposure of children to measles.

Special care is required during the convalescent period. Complications at this stage, with end results of kidney trouble or impairment of sight or hearing, can easily take command. Obviously, everything should be done to avoid such a possibility.

Contrary to the foolish notion of many parents, it should be quite unnecessary for children to contract this disease. Youngsters, especially in tender years, can easily be kept from measles contacts, that is, if parents of measles victims fully realize their

New Oriental Features for 1934 Fair

The glamour, the mystery, the beauty of the Orient will be shown at the 1934 Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago more extensively than it has ever been known in this country before. The Chinese government is sparing no effort in its rehabilitation of its buildings and exhibits, and along with the new and modern China will be seen the charm and beauty of old Cathay, as pictured above.

Did You Know?

By Fred Hardie

Editor's Note:—In this column the views expressed are those of the author's and do not reflect the editorial opinion of the News editor. It is published solely as a news item.

That America has had, within the past fourteen years, the greatest increase in crime of any civilized nation. America in the past year has had 12,000 murders, 3,000 kidnappings, 5,000 robberies, 4,000 burglaries. The cost to the people of racketeering in shake-down, pay-off, and court costs is appalling.

That it costs the States and Federal Government more to enforce criminal laws than it does to maintain the standing army and the schools. These conditions will continue until the people wake up to the fact that they are the Government and not the Pay-off System.

That the following laws and organizations, supposedly for crime prevention have been enacted in the past twenty years: The Prohibition law, the Harrison Narcotic Law, the Habitual Criminal Law, the Anti-Saloon League, the Klu Klux Klan, Women Suffrage, Bigger Court houses and Jails, Better Schools and Larger Churches.

That my remedy for this awful condition is home teaching, better environment, education of the folly of crime, put the high-powered crooked politician out of office, get the people to think for themselves and not to follow the crowd unless the crowd is traveling in the right direction.

Force will not, of itself, accomplish morality. Education on morality will accomplish it.

That I have always known that we had a brilliant bunch of fellows in the Senate. They have just passed the Liquor Regulation Law in Washington, D. C. and you can drink all you want, but you must do it sitting down. Anything to do away with the brass railing or the much abused saloon. Look up the word "saloon" in your dictionary. Just pull up your chair and have one on me. The chair makes the party pledge good.

A bank is the place to do banking; a Drug Store with a competent registered druggist, is the place to buy drugs; get your saw and hammer at the hardware store, and if you drink do that in a BAR, equipped for the purpose from an experienced bartender. All people who served liquor should be licensed.

That Nevada is the last stand for freedom. They are selling whiskey under the old saloon or bar system. It has always been the most liberal state in the union, with less crime. Have you ever read of a bank robbery or kidnapping in Nevada, or even a dastardly murder? Think it over.

That I worked for Tex Richard in Goldfield, Nevada in 1905 and '06. The county was not organized, the town was unincorporated, the population in 1906 was 40,000. Our law enforcement officers consisted of one constable who weighed 125 pounds and went unarmed, and a justice of the peace.

In Richard's house, called "The Northern," there was a bank roll of one hundred thousand dollars. Fifty thousand dollars was always in sight. Thirty-five thousand in gold was the purse for the Nelson-Yank fight and this set on the bar unguarded for three months. No one molested it. Nelson won the fight and got the purse.

Knickerbocker, a Methodist minister, also a personal friend of mine, who I think now has charge of a church in Houston, was in Goldfield during all of its boom days and he discovered mining property known as the Knickerbocker Hill, however, he never got in what is called the "pay dirt."

Tex Richard and Riley Grannon, a very noted racerorse man, opened a place in the new mining town, Rohide, Nevada. Grannon died a few days after he came there and as there was no church the body was placed in the dance hall. Knickerbocker preached the elegy to Riley Grannon's body in that dance hall and to my notion it was the greatest oration ever uttered.

The discoverer of Goldfield was a saloon man, George Windfield. He started life as a cowboy, opened a tent saloon in Tonapaug, developed the Mohawk Mine in Goldfield, one of the richest gold mines since Comstock at Verge City, Nevada. George Windfield became a business associate of the then U. S. Senator Nixon. At Nixon's death, Winfield took over the Nixon banks and has done more for the state and its people than any one person.

Believe It or Not!
I sold whiskey thirty years. I have only had one fight and that was not in a Bar. It was on a farm in Panola County with a farmer who tried to cheat me in the weight of cotton. I had picked at 35c a hundred. He loaded the pee at the steelyards with lead. If you know anything about steelyard pees.

obligation not only to their own child, but to other children also. It is a regrettable fact that so many adults view the isolation of the so-called minor ailments with indifference. Nothing is further from the facts. The isolation not only keeps people in, but keeps others out. Its sole purpose is to reduce the possibility of contagion to a minimum.

More cooperation on the part of citizens in this connection undoubtedly would result in less measles with their accompanying devastating efforts. The next time measles is prevalent in your locality, weigh well the attitude you assume both toward the disease and the quarantine against it. Conceivably, it may save your child's life. The State law requires all cases kept out of school 21 days.

Les Beaux Arts Celebrate Seventh Birthday With Luncheon Saturday

One of the most attractive social events of the winter season was the celebration of the Seventh Anniversary of the founding of the local Les Beaux Arts Club, with a lovely luncheon at the J. W. Evans home on Saturday with Misses Anna Moeres, Elon Aiken, Mesdames Charlie Trent and J. W. Evans, hostesses for the occasion.

The club colors of gold and white were uniquely carried out in the house and table decorations. Small white birthday cakes with seven gold candles made attractive center pieces for each table, with the place cards being unique floral designs of gold and white.

Following the sumptuous luncheon, games of forty-two and bridge were played. The prize for high score was cut by Mrs. J. D. Swift.

Among those present were Miss Mary Howren, Mrs. J. D. Stocking, Mrs. T. H. Peebles, Mrs. Homer Glascoe, Mrs. F. L. Bourland, Mrs. U. J. Boston, Mrs. W. W. Taylor, Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain, Mrs. J. D. Swift, Mrs. J. H. Morris, Mrs. Cap Morris, Mrs. W. H. Patrick, Mrs. Ira Merchant, and Mrs. Cal Merchant.

Mothers Club

"Parents Have Rights Too" was the main subject discussed at the Mothers Club meeting on Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. J. D. Swift, with Mrs. Henry Tombs and Mrs. Swift, hostesses.

Mrs. Walter Clifford was leader of the program and gave a splendid talk on the above subject. The roll call was answered by each member giving the fault most prevalent in her child. Others appearing on the program included Anna Moeres Swift and Jimmy Boykin.

At the close of the meeting, a salad course was served. The next meeting will be Feb. 2nd, at the J. R. Bartlett home, with Mrs. Ted Williams and Mrs. Bartlett hostesses.

Young Matrons Class

Mrs. Nathan Cox and Mrs. Walter Hutchins were hostesses to a social meeting of the Young Matrons' Harmony Class, at the home of Mrs. Cox Tuesday.

After a short business meeting games of forty-two were played the remainder of the afternoon. Present to enjoy this were:

Mesdames E. P. Shelton, C. W. Bennett, Jr., Charles Bairfield, Lucian Bones, W. A. Clark, Jr., C. W. Galloway, Virie Hurlington, Roy Ingram, Homer McElvany, Claude McGowan, Lester Schull, Fred Russell, members; and Misses Eula and Ina Naylor, guests.

Contract Club In Session

Mrs. Sam Dyer was charming hostess to members of her Contract Bridge Club and a few friends on Saturday afternoon, at her home.

Three rubbers of contract were played after which a delectable plate luncheon was served. Attending were:

Mrs. Carroll Knorpp, Mrs. T. H. Ellis, Mrs. Meade Haile, and Mrs. Thos. E. Bugbee, guests; Miss Mary Cooke, Miss Lorraine Patrick, Mrs. Ira Merchant, Mrs. Phillips Gentry, Mrs. Meredith Gentry, and Mrs. Selden Bagby, club members.

1926 Book Club

The members of the 1926 Book Club gathered in the Woman's Club Room on Tuesday Jan. 16th for a very interesting program.

Zell Tomb was leader with the subject being "Selected Short Stories for 1933." Among those appearing on the program were Beatrice Antrobus, Mildred Martin, and Zell Tomb. In the business meeting Thelma Bennett was welcomed in as a new member.

At the close of the program Joyce Clark and Luma Smith served dainty refreshments.

For dressing well a whole year on $17.35, Mrs. O. L. Howard, wardrobe demonstrator for Oak Home Demonstration Club in Ellis County, gives credit to careful planning and the use of a foundation pattern.

Legion Auxiliary Entertains

The American Legion Auxiliary of Clarendon entertained the Legion members with a lovely party at the Club Room Tuesday evening.

Music was furnished throughout the evening by E. R. Aycock, Lloyd Griffin, and J. W. David. The main form of entertainment however, was games of forty-two, which was thoroughly enjoyed by about sixty people.

Mrs. Anderson Is Hostess

The Clarendon Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. G. A. Anderson on Friday afternoon with a good attendance.

Mrs. J. C. Estlack presided in the absence of the president and plans for the annual club party were discussed. This is to be held Friday, Feb. 2nd, at the Club Room.

During the social meeting, the club was shown several hooked and braided rugs that Mrs. Anderson had made. These were lovely indeed.

A delectable plate luncheon was served to Mrs. J. D. McAdams, Mrs. J. E. Baker and Miss Julia Hahn, guests; and Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Major Hudson, Mrs. M. W. Mosley, Mrs. C. R. Gamblin, Mrs. Ed Speed, Mrs. N. M. Lawler, Mrs. H. L. Brady, Mrs. T. R. Brown, Mrs. A. L. Chase, Mrs. J. C. Estlack, Mrs. A. H. Baker, Mrs. H. J. Edington, Mrs. J. A. Tomb, Mrs. M. T. Crabtree, Mrs. C. D. McDowell, Mrs. Lonnie Hahn and Master Alfred Hahn, members.

B. P. R.'s Meet

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burton were cordial host and hostess to members of the B. P. R. Club and friends, when they entertained Thursday evening with a dinner and forty-two party.

Pretty bouquets of sweetpeas centered the tables where the guests were seated. Following the delectable dinner, games of forty-two were played with Mr. Joe Goldston winning high score prize and Mr. Porter winning the low.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Drennan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goldston, and Mrs. Paul Shelton. Members were Mr. Fred Rathjen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Boykin, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Braswell.

Jr. Beaux Arts

With Mrs. Durwood Skelton and Miss Luree Burson as hostesses, the Junior Beaux Arts Club met at the Club Room, Wednesday, Jan. 17th.

Miss Eloise Roach, head of the Foreign Languages Department at the College, discussed "Mexican Literature, Arts and Music," illustrating with several souvenirs brought from that country. Miss Joyce Link favored the group with a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Delphia Bones.

Missionary Circles

All of the Missionary Circles of the Methodist Church held an all day meeting at the church Wednesday.

Rev. F. M. Neal To Conduct Revival Here

The Committee appointed by the Board of Stewards, of the Methodist Church to work with the Pastor in planning for the revival meeting this spring, announces that they have arranged with Rev. F. M. Neal of Amarillo to conduct a meeting here beginning the second Sunday in April.

Rev. Neal is one of the general Evangelists of the Methodist Church and has given his entire time for twenty-five years to this work. He has held meetings during that time in 18 states and there has been 35,000 professions under his ministry. Two years ago he held a series of unusually successful meetings in three of the leading churches of Atlanta, Ga. The Committee and Pastor feel that they are fortunate in securing him for the meeting this year.

CLARENDON LIONS McLEAN GROUP MEETING

Tuesday noon, T. D. Nored, President of the Clarendon Lions Club, accompanied by Homer Mulkey and Sam M. Braswell, International Director, attended a Group meeting of Lions Clubs at McLean, Texas.

Del W. Harrington, of El Paso, who is District Governor of this section, was present and made a splendid address. President Nored gave the local club report and it was by far the best given in comparison to objectives sponsored and work accomplished.

The Donley County Farmer's Credit Readjustment Committee has been appointed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and consists of J. F. Jones, C. W. Bennett, Sr., G. J. Teel, Jerome Stocking, and Dr. B. L. Jenkins, the latter being chairman.

The function of this committee is to deal with farm mortgages and the reduction of principal and interest. The board operates with the idea to aid the distressed farmer who is about to lose his farm. Any farmer interested may see any member of this committee and get his particular case worked out.

This group are striving to support the ideas of the New Deal in particular reference to the distressed farm owner.

nesday, with about forty-five present.

Mrs. S. I. Seago, District Secretary and Mrs. Slover, Zone leader, both of Memphis, were present and gave good talks.

DWARFS

(By Druella Mayo)

Dwarfs are unusually small human beings. From the very early times, dwarfs have received great attention from the world. Ancient kings paid large sums to obtain dwarfs as attendants. In the days of Pharaohs expeditions were sent into the interior of Africa to procure dwarfs from among the Okla tribe of pygmies. The Romans valued dwarfs very highly and sometimes adopted means to stunt the growth of children. Julia the niece of Augustus, was attended by two dwarfs, each twenty-eight inches in height. The most famous dwarfs of recent times was Gen. Tom Thumb who was supposed to have been a celebrity at the Round Table of King Arthur. There still exists in Central Africa several races of dwarfs perfectly formed. Among white races, the dwarfs are usually small because of bodily deformity.

COUNTY COMMITTEE NAMED FOR READJUSTMENT HERE

The Donley County Farmer's Credit Readjustment Committee has been appointed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and consists of J. F. Jones, C. W. Bennett, Sr., G. J. Teel, Jerome Stocking, and Dr. B. L. Jenkins, the latter being chairman.

The function of this committee is to deal with farm mortgages and the reduction of principal and interest. The board operates with the idea to aid the distressed farmer who is about to lose his farm. Any farmer interested may see any member of this committee and get his particular case worked out.

This group are striving to support the ideas of the New Deal in particular reference to the distressed farm owner.

IMPROVEMENT

(By ARTHUR CHASE)

One of the best habits that anyone can cultivate is that of constantly trying to improve himself in whatever he may set out to do. No matter what anyone is doing, whether it is playing tennis, taking part in track, or laboring over his school studies, the most important thing is to try to improve. There are only a few who are good enough at any task that they do not need to try to improve. In it. The average person has to start out doing his best and gradually work up to his goal; when that goal is reached, it should be placed even higher. If more people would realize this, there would not be half as much discouragement and down-heartedness.

Thinking along this line, Mr. Stocking has offered two track shoes, one gold and one silver, to the two boys who show the greatest improvement in track between now and the time of the Interscholastic League meet. This is really an excellent idea for it gives everyone an equal chance to obtain one of the shoes; it also offers temptation to every track man to put out the effort necessary to improve himself. If the rewards were offered merely to the winners in the track meet, they would be placed far out of reach of the average track man, so consequently, the man would lose a great deal of interest in track.

Not only should one think of becoming more proficient in certain sports and studies, but he should try to improve himself both physically and mentally by taking part in them. For example, the greatest advantage in going into debate or declamation should not be merely the honor of winning first prize, but more to learn to be able to think and talk before an audience without having that queer shaking sensation in the knees; likewise, in track and tennis, first consideration should be given not only to coming in first in the 100 yard dash in track, or winning the county championship in tennis, but more to improving oneself physically.

Only a few can be county, district, or state champions in sports, and only a few can make high grades in school, but everyone can do his best to improve himself, and if this habit is cultivated while in school, it will be of the greatest importance when in business in later life.

The library officials have been conducting a book drive. Many have responded with good books and Magazines but any school campaign cannot be successful unless the whole school is behind it. The student body and school organizations should assist in this book drive. Each class should contribute the price of a new book, and each literary society, Camp Fire troop, and Boy Scout patrol should donate a useful book from the treasury. I heard O. C. Watson burst forth in melodious murmurings. As I drew near, I heard him singing about "The Old Spinning Wheel in the Valley." I suppose he also sings "Just an Echo in the Parlor."

I attended the play at Ashtola last week. A student and an ex-student of our school really did good acting. Mary Frances Dewey

Abohahanta Camp Fire Girls

The Abohahanta Camp Fire Troop met Tuesday, January 16, at the home of Frances Fowler. The house was called to order and some new members were taken into the troop. After having discussed a few business matters, a delightful program was rendered. Delectable refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned until the following Tuesday at the Garmon home.

Sarah McGowan Entertains

Miss Sarah Virginia McGowan proved a delightful hostess last Friday night when she entertained a number of her friends at her home.

Dancing, bridge, pool, and other amusements were enjoyed until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served to the following: Dorothy Powell, Mary Frances Powell, Nellie Grady, Rosa Lee Grady, Helen Louise Green, Virginia Cluck, Anna Moores Swift, Vivian Taylor, Francis Sanford, Willie Maude Pratt, La Verne McMurtry, Avis Lee McElvaney, Peggy Word, Rosalyn Bass, Dorothea Watson, Sarah Virginia McGowan, and Messrs Arthur Chase, Walter Brady, George Wayne, Etalack, Lawrence Whitlock, Harold Daniels, Willard Hudson, Bob Work, Bobby Boston, Nickey Stewart, Harry McCracken, Houston Gattis, Jack Latson, Kenneth Sherman, Carroll Hudson, Sam Barrow, Harold Oatis, Drew Wilkerson, Billy Walker, Aubrey Brady.

ATHLETIC NEWS

(Truett Holtzclad and Orville Dodson)

Clarendon Junior High Played Ashtola Friday afternoon and Clarendon was defeated by a score of 25-12. The boys played a good game and both teams showed good sportsmanship.

Monday afternoon Martin visited our Gym. Martin was defeated by 20 points, the score being 29-9.

Another game will be played with Midway Tuesday and every one is welcome to attend it.

Andrew Ferguson of Hull, Eng., who died at 98, had read a chapter in the Bible daily for 90 years.

acted her part like an old trooper and as for Snookey McClellan, I need say nothing because he has demonstrated his ability as an actor several times in plays given here.

Willie Vineyard has enrolled in college. The students are glad to have Willie's enrollment, for Willie has what it takes to be a success in any school.

Literary work for the Interscholastic League started Monday. A large number of students are showing this year that they really wish to derive something out of the league work for the enrollment is debating, declaiming, and essay is larger than in several years.

Sloan Baker Speaks To Students Monday

The high school students were favored by having Sloan Baker, the County Superintendent, speak to them on Monday at the regular assembly period. "Vision" was the subject which Mr. Baker discussed. He told of Joan of Arc and how being led by many visions she ran away from home and finally as a result of her following these visions she was able to save her country. The speaker applied this to modern life, stating that to accomplish big things and to become a success we must have visions of great things and follow them.

Junior High Report

Here we are again from Jr. High. Not much is happening now, and news is scarce, but just the same we are live wires, everyone of us, and are all working for higher grades and larger honor roll this period. With everyone full of determination and with the aid and advice of ever-willing teachers, I'm sure we will win. Be sure and watch us closely.

Our student body enjoyed a very splendid chapel service Monday afternoon. The singing was led by Miss Frances Fowler, a member of the freshman class. Wednesday we will have chapel again. The singing will be led by Truett Holtzclad, also of the freshman class. Everybody is looking forward to that day because we are going to be honored with a sermon from J. D. Swift Jr., of the seventh grade.

One of the members of our faculty, Mrs. Goodner was greatly honored with a visit from her sister, Mrs. Upshaw of Amarillo.

To Tom Goodner who is shut in on account of sickness:

Hello, Tommy Goodner,
We hear you're feeling bad.
So we Jr.'s thought we'd write a line,
And try to make you glad.
It's awfully hard to stay indoors.
And lie upon your cot
For we were little once, you know,
And we have not forgot
How mad we got to see the others having so much fun,
And all we got was nasty
medicine,
All day 'till setting sun.
But those are Doctor's orders,
And you bet he knows his bizz.
So be a man, and take it all,
And never stop to quizz,
For he will make you well again,
And you can run and shout.
All the Juniors will give a yell,
"Oh, look, there's Tommy out."

Personal Flashes

Misses Vera Noland, Evelyne Murphy, Eugenia Noland, and Jo Ella Stewart attended the play Wednesday at Ashtola.

Misses Eugenia Noland and Vera Noland visited in Amarillo Sunday.

Miss Audrey Lofland of Memphis visited Dorothy Jo Ryan this week.

Rev. W. E. Ferrell Speaks Thursday

Speaking upon the subject of banking, spiritually, Rev. W. E. Ferrell delivered a very beneficial message to the high school on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Ferrell gave the illustration of how many people lose fortunes through bank failures, and then stated that we should lay up treasures where they cannot be destroyed or quoted the words of Jesus, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither wrath nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal."

The speaker stressed the fact that we should put first things first, and that with God we should seek Him first. Mr. Ferrell then closed by saying that it was acceptable to make a fortune in the right manner but not at the expense of others, and that we should use our time, our talent, and influence to lay up treasures in Heaven.

PALO DURO

Outstanding characters in fiction was the subject of the program presented at the meeting of the Palo Duro Literary Society last week. Mike Stricklin discussed Don Juan, the Spanish character, who is known principally as a lover. Following this, the club was favored with a Spanish song by Peggy Word and Laverne McMurtry. Eloise Roach gave brief characterization of Faust and Hamlet but emphasized especially Don Quixote. These four characters were selected as representative of all the more important characters in literature. Bill Word sang a selection from a German Opera. Whimsical characters was the topic discussed by Jean Bourland.

Caught with a bogus railway ticket Thomas Ferrar of London chewed it to a pulp and swallowed Shelton, Mrs. David Johnson, Mrs. J. D. Stocking, Mrs. J. G. Sherman, Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Mrs. W. O. Hommel, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry, Mrs. R. L. Bigger, Mrs. W. H. Patrick, Mrs. Cap Morris, W. A. Clark, Jr.

The Magazines and books which they have donated are greatly appreciated.

Scouts Have Court Of Honor

Friday night about twenty boys were before the court of honor. I have never heard a greater variety of questions asked, nor as many. You might know that those boys feel that they truly earned their badges.

There was a most appreciative and interested audience. Two of the Court of Honor members were unable to attend, but a yen that there will be some action on the business discussed.

One of the proudest boys in town is Lenwood Betts, who was made Jr. Assistant Scout-master and First Class Scout by the court. As time and tests go on, more 1 year old Scouts will be made Jr. Assistants.

While we are being proud, there is no reason for not doing it up brown. Troop 37 won the Roosevelt award that we told you about. It is to be presented at Pampa on Feb. 10.

Scoutingly yours,
Troop 37, Clarendon.

ALPHA DELTA PSI

The Alpha Delta Literary Society met Wednesday night, Jan. 17. Twenty members were present. A rather short program was given, as there was a long business meeting.

"Letters of an Unwise Son" was given by Oleta Camp. Kenneth Brown discussed an interesting article, "After Repeal, What?" Elizabeth Dunn read "Books by the Roadside" from the "Atlantic Monthly." Delphia Bones selected a society song and presented it to the group. Every member was over-anxious to learn the song.

The most interesting thing was the election of new officers. Bob Goodson seemed to take a great pleasure in this. The following officers were elected: President, Harold Phelps; Vice-President, Delphia Bones; Secretary, Helen Lawler; Reporter, Oleta Camp; Sergeant-at-Arms, Homer Estlack; Critic, Elizabeth Dunn.

Kenneth Brown was elected Chairman of the entertainment committee. Jack Hayes, Mildred Tummell, and Louise Smith were chosen as the program committee. The society was very glad to have John R. Ragland as a new member. Membership is increasing and everybody can look forward to a better society this term.

Joseph McKay of Evanston, Ill. honor student in high school, has admitted the robbery of 70 homes. Among those robbed were homes of teachers he disliked.

Notes From A Convenient Cuff

(By The Inquiring Reporter)

The tyro (Editor to you) scooped my story. I thought my hobby which is centered around a swine christened "Emmett" was exclusive copy for my "colyum" for this week, but what's done can't be undone so I'll have to bore all ye olde readers with my usual line of gab. But if I may say so my swine is one of the most beautiful of the species I have ever seen. "You must come up 'n see him sometime"

Of the five thousand dances given for the benefit of Roosevelt's Warm Springs Georgia, project we are to have one here January 30, featuring "Humpty" Hampton's Syncopaters who specialize in playing all the newer pieces including "Old Spinning Wheel," "My Old Man," and many others. They have a pianist Happy "Hap" to you who seems to be a future Vincent Lopez. An interesting sidelight on this pianist is the fact that "Hap" uses banjo music instead of piano music. For the benefit of children inflicted with infantile paralysis may I suggest, even plead with you, to come and have a good time.

I have just struggled through G. B. Shaw's "Saint Joan," and the impression I got was the peculiarly gross mis-conception of all the ideals of society and the pungent satire which could originate only from the pen of a naturally pessimistic old man. However, the play is quite good.

Funny incidents in class were well illustrated a few days past when Sylvia Floyd informed the Professor of Sociology that she was afraid of snakes because of the reputation they had.

Some people always get the Cobb. See you all Tuesday at the charity ball.

LOSELY linked with winter life in Canada is the enjoyment of a multiplicity of outdoor sports which can be adapted to one's inclination and capability; as a spectator or participant the individual may taste their joys to the full. The tinkle of sleigh bells, the ring of skates, the clash of sticks in play, joyous shouts, cheery laughter, all are music to the lover of winter sports. One forgets depression while gliding along on skis, tramping on snowshoes through snow-decked woods, skating on smooth ice sheets or speeding with breath-taking swoops down the toboggan slides.

Steadiness and skill are tested on the curling rinks, excitement is rampant at the hockey games, and on Dog Derby day one naturally follows the crowd. In contrast, golf and other summer sports may be enjoyed during winter in areas along the Pacific coast. The general inclination is to spend one's vacation when the days are long and warm. The National Parks of Canada of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa, a government service which supplies information to intending visitors to that country, reports that there appears to be an ever-growing tendency to enjoy outdoor life during the winter season, and that a few days' relaxation when the weather is cold and bracing is now considered as conducive to the recreative side of health and well-being as is the usual summer vacation. Weather has much to do with the enjoyment of summer sports but with those of winter it is almost a negligible factor. All the winter sport enthusiasts seek for is plenty of snow and a thermometer which flirts with the zero mark. It is an agreeable surprise to discover on one's first experience of a Canadian winter that the temperature is not only bearable but pleasant, that extremely cold days are the exception, and that the clear crisp air and brilliant sunshine amid splendid natural scenery add exhilaration to healthful exercise.

the founding of a college in a little town on the windswept prairie—the very first building around which centered the love and loyalty of the people of the town—the gradual growth of the institution, from the planting of the first trees on the prairie campus to the new buildings grouped about "Old Central"—and inextricably interwoven with all the story of one woman. "Miss Bishop."

We meet her first on the rainy morning which greets the opening of the "College" as she trudges in from the muddy walks and dissipates the gloomy formality which envelops the little group of strange boys and girls gathered there by her own eager enthusiasm and joy in the possibility of "going to college." She loves it all from that day and on through the fifty years which follow to the end of the story. Her graduation with the first class is climaxed by an offer of a position as teacher of Grammar—Which she gratefully accepts—while she waits for the coming of the one man of her dreams. Always in her heart is the thought of a home and family of her own. In the meanwhile she pours the eager joy of living—and knowing—into the lives of the boys and girls who come in increasing numbers to this charming group—one carries away some vivid pictures. The one man comes, but tragedy comes also, and Ella Bishop still pours her life into the lives about her. The old time commencement, the changing standards of education, the introduction of modern thought and life all form a part of every school. But the dominant interest remains in the life of "Miss Bishop" as it reaches its triumphant climax. Bess Streeter Aldrich was born in Cedar Falls, Iowa, in 1881, of pioneer ancestry. Her grandfather was representative in the first Iowa Legislature. She was educated in the schools of Iowa, including the State Teachers College, and began teaching. She met her husband, Captain C. S. Aldrich, recently returned from the Spanish-American War. They were married in Cedar Falls, and after two years in Tipton, Iowa, they moved to Elmwood, Nebraska, where he was banker and lawyer, and where he died in 1925. Mrs. Aldrich still lives here with her four children—three sons and one daughter. She says her first prize short story for the Ladies Home Journal in 1911 was written "While the baby had her nap." Her husband's helpful interest in her writing was an inspiration until his death. The Philadelphia Public Ledger says of Bess Streeter Aldrich, "You will go far before you find another writer who has spread so much sunshine through the ranks of readers."

And a few new books again, as follows: "Gordon Keith"—Thomas Nelson Page. "Within The Law"—Bayard Veller. "The Wandering Jew"—2 volumes—Eugene Sue. "The Call of the Canyon"—Zane Grey. Library Notes By MRS. C. A. BURTON

A new book by Bess Streeter Aldrich is a real event to the reading public since the days of "A Lantern In Her Hand" and its sequel "A White Bird Flying." Therefore the coming of "Miss Bishop" has been hailed with eager enthusiasm, nor have her friends been disappointed. There is the same intense human interest, the same heart appeal. The setting is the same, the midwest in the 1870's. It is the story of Verne Johnston 85, Boyd Allison 85, Lettie Wardlow 85, Allie Lee Otto 85, Ruth Karnes 85.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor. The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after. Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. R. A.

CONNALLY URGES HOME LOAN BONDS

ADVOCATE CHANGES BY CONGRESS TO BRING AID TO EQUITY HOLDERS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—A gleam of hope for millions of small home owners threatened with foreclosure, who have heretofore not been eligible for aid from the Home Owner's Loan Corporation, because holders of their mortgages refused to accept the Home Loan bonds, was seen here today in the statement of Senator Tom Connally (D), of Texas, member of the powerful Senate Finance Committee, that he will advocate passage of amendments to the Home Loan Act, liberalizing its terms and tending to create a stable market for its bonds.

Sen. Connally worked for the passage of the original Home Loan Bank Act, and Home Owner's Loan Act which is empowered to issue bonds to take up home mortgages. The Owners United States Government guarantees the interest, but not the principal, upon these bonds, and for this reason, many mortgage-holders have declined to accept the bonds.

"It appears that the small home owners of the nation cannot realize the fullest benefits from this legislation until Congress has liberalized its terms, so as to make the bonds readily saleable, so that they will be acceptable to all mortgage holders. Patriotic individuals and corporations throughout the country have already accepted millions of dollars worth of the bonds, and hundreds of thousands of small homes have been saved from foreclosure as a result. But the bonds must be made universally acceptable, so that every small home owner in the United States, who faces the loss of his property, which often represents the savings of a lifetime of toil and struggle, may take advantage of the liberal amortization terms offered by the Home Owners Loan Corporation in refinancing such properties. I am extremely hopeful that the Congress, at the present session may devise suitable legislation to accomplish such an extension of the benefits of the original Act, and I shall give my support in the Senate to whatever practical and sound legislation may be submitted with that end in view."

Latest reports here show that in Senator Connally's home state, Texas, loans have been made by the Home Owner's Loan Corporation on 1,830 individual small homes, totaling $4,556,660.59, while thousands of additional applications for loans are in process of examination by the bank officials.

Paloduro State Park Meeting At Canyon

CANYON, Jan. 20.—Points of interest in the Palo Duro State Park will be given suitable names of historical and romantic significance when the plans of State Board Chairman D. E. Colp of San Antonio are carried out.

Judge Colp was in Canyon today, accompanied by G. E. Naason representing the National Park Service, and both were in conference with the committee charged with the responsibility of selecting suitable names for points of interest within the park.

Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon heads this committee, and working with her will be Miss Margaret Seward of Amarillo, Dr. Kenneth Chapman of Santa Fe, J. Everts Haley of Austin, Floyd Studer and T. E. Johnson of Amarillo, and C. W. Warwick of Canyon.

An associate committee is composed of L. F. Sheffy, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Burl Ellison, and Col. Edward R. Copper, all of Canyon.

Guy Carlander of Amarillo is associated with the committee as map maker, and has in the course of preparation a comprehensive map of that section of the Palo Duro Canyon which is embraced in the park.

Mr. Naason, speaking for the National Park Service, said today, "It is not our job to improve or build a park. It's already here. It is our job to make it accessible to the people and to help them to see and understand its beauty."

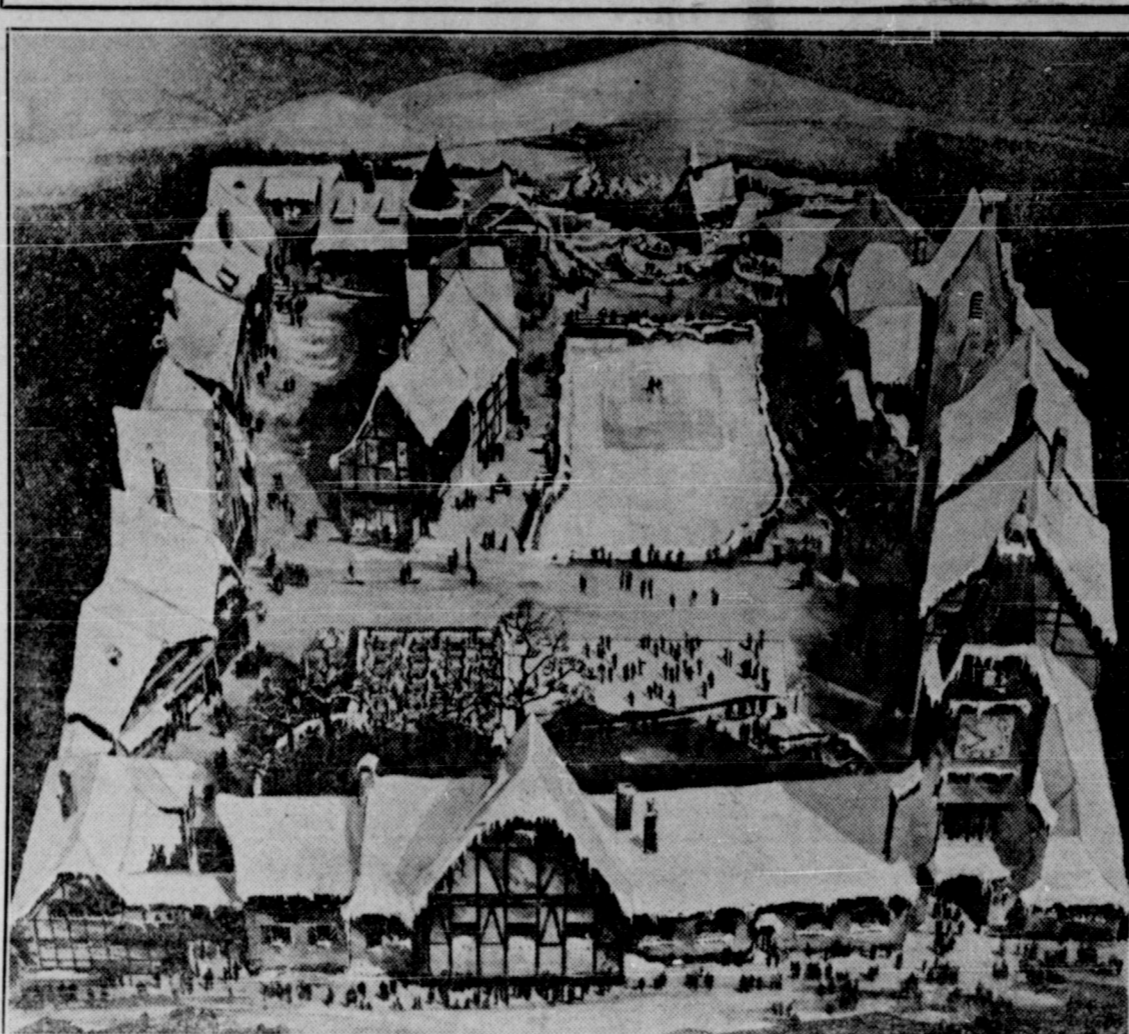

State Park Board Chairman Colp said, "The Palo Duro Canyon is the only inverted mountain in the world. The people of Texas have a wonderful possession here," and Col. Goppock who has only recently come to the Palo Duro C. C. Camp as its commanding officer declared that the drive from rim to rim across the Palo Duro Canyon was the most attractive ten miles that he had seen in all his travels.

Members of the committee were agreed that names of beauty and significance should be given to objects in the park. These names will be chosen from Spanish, Indian, and English names and so far as possible each one will have a real historical significance and will add to the romantic interest in the park.

mons and family and Mr. Swafford and family moved to Goldston, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. McDonald moved to Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. Nesly Veazy went to his father's farm, Mr. Patterson and family moved to Spade Flat where he had bought a farm, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons moved to where Mr. Patterson lived, J. A. Stewart and family went to Mr. Caraway's place.

Mrs. Mixon's mother who has been with her during her illness returned to her home at Brice last Sunday.

German Black Forest Village

Visitors to the new 1934 World's Fair at Chicago, which opens June first of this year, will be able to walk into a typical village of the Black Forest region of Germany. Its picturesque buildings will be covered with a heavy fall of synthetic snow, and from the eaves will hang glass icicles. In the village will be a large, artificially cooled, ice skating rink. There will be German restaurants, typical in appearance and food of the Black Forest section. All of it, more than an acre in extent, will be brilliantly flood lighted at night. This is but one of the many new features to be seen at the 1934 World's Fair.

Tenant Is Benefited By Cotton Contract

The tenant farmer, along with the landlord, is benefited by the operations of the cotton adjustment program, now being put into effect throughout the South.

Tenants who pay cash rental to landlords, or those who are known as managing share tenants, furnishing their own work stock, equipment and labor in operating a farm, are eligible along with their landlords to sign contracts, as are any other producers, and thus may share in the distribution of the rental and parity payments offered by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Share tenants or croppers also are expected to receive their proportionate part of the parity payments to be made on cotton produced and sold.

In addition share croppers are protected in the contract to such an extent that all reductions in acreage are to be made ratably among the tenants on a farm.

In other words, it is not expected that a landlord will produce all of his cotton on the land farmed by one or more tenants and thus deprive another tenant of the opportunity of growing some cotton.

"It is expected that the landlords of the South will maintain as nearly as possible the normal number of tenants and other employees and will permit tenants to live in their houses on the farm, rent free, for the years 1934 and 1935," says Cully A. Cobb, head of the cotton section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

"It is our purpose that the acreage reduction campaign shall not upset the usual good feeling prevailing between share croppers and their landlords. We feel that landlords will have definite understandings with their tenants so that no hardship will be placed on any one tenant through the operations of the adjustment program."

Mr. Cobb also points out that the tenant will share in the better price to be received for cotton by reason of the acreage reduction and will have the use of the contracted acres on which to raise his home supplies. Even though a tenant reduces his acreage for 1934 by 40 percent, the better price received for the cotton grown on the smaller acreage is expected to bring him a greater total income for his share of the crop. As a result of these provisions, the tenant on Southern cotton farms should be eager to cooperate with his landlord in making the reduction program successful, Cobb says.

Joseph McKay of Evanston, Ill., honor student in high school, has admitted the robbery of 70 homes. Among those robbed were homes of teachers he disliked.

ROY BEVERLY OUT FOR COMMISSIONER RE-ELECTION

Roy Beverly, present County Commissioner for Precinct No. 2, has authorized the News to announce his candidacy for re-election.

Mr. Beverly says he has put in a lot of time on the road work of Donley County and feels largely responsible for the highway work accomplished thus far. He appreciates the office and if the voters of Precinct No. 2 see fit to accord him a third term, he will endeavor to show his thanks by a continuance of careful attention to the details of the county and precinct affairs.

He asks that serious consideration be given his name when you go to the polls in July and August. See his name in the announcement column.

R. SMITH ASKS RE-ELECTION AS PUBLIC WEIGHER

The News is authorized to carry the announcement of Rayburn Smith of this city for re-election to the office of Public Weigher of Precinct 2. The candidacy of Mr. Smith is subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July and August, and he solicits the support and influence of his friends for this re-election.

Mr. Smith has been Public Weigher for several years and has proved competent in every way in this office.

HOW TO DETECT BAD FROM GOOD MONEY

Popular Mechanics: Counterfeit money may be detected easily, in the opinion of the United States secret service, if you know what to look for. The surest way is by careful examination of all currency for defects. Genuine paper for small currency has fine curly segments of red and blue silk scattered throughout the surface. The larger-size paper currency, which the present small note displaced, has two lines of silk on either side of the portrait. In the small bills, that is, small in size and not in denomination, the seal and serial numbers are printed in these colors: blue for silver-certificates, yellow for gold-certificates, red for United States bank notes, and green for Federal reserve notes. The denominations of each note is indicated by the portrait on the face and the embellishment on the back. The portrait chart provides: for $1 bill, portrait of Washington; $2 bill, Jefferson; $5 bill, Lincoln; $10 note, Hamilton; $20 note, Jackson; $50 note, Grant; $100 note, Franklin; $500 note, McKinley; $1,000 note, Cleveland; $5,000 note, Madison; and $10,000 note, Chase. The check letter is always used in describing counterfeits. If not correct, the currency is bogus. The check letter is found inside the panel in the lower right hand corner on the face of each note. Besides it is the plate number in small numerals. The letters and numbers are not to be confounded with letters preceding and following the color-printed serial numbers. Check letters on genuine currency run from A to L. They are synchronized on all but national bank notes, with the serial numbers. By dividing the entire serial number by six the remainder will indicate the check letter. If the remainder is one, for example, the check letter is A or G.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for the kind deeds and help they showed us in the death of our sweet darling baby, Joy Maye, and also Brother Shepherd for the message he delivered. May the richest blessings fall on all of you is our prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Holman,
Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Holman.
