Hiway Department Asks Bids In Donley

BLUE-EAGLE BUYING DRIVE ON IN CLARENDON AND DONLEY COUNTY

HEAVY BUYING IN CITY IS REPORTED

NRA BUYING CAMPAIGN ALREADY UNDERWAY IN CLARENDON AND DONLEY

From observation and inquiry it is apparent that all indications point to progress and coming prosperity in Clarendon and Donley County. Buying and trading is being carried on on a scale unequalled in years. People in this section are also showing their patriotism and faith in their government by eagerly complying with the demands of the NRA. The buying campaign that is sponsored by the NRA has already begun to take effect in Clarendon.

All of the local clothing merchants say that more clothing was sold Saturday than on any other day since 1929.

One firm disclosed the fact that they sold as many as seventeen men's suits on Saturday alone. Farmers are buying stock and a few farming implements. One of the implement merchants stated that quite a few windmills had been purchased.

Many new cars and radios have been bought during the past few days, and these are not being stricken by the depression. All in all, the prospects for the future provide a balm to the heart of a depression stricken world, as evidenced up and down Kearney Street.

TOTS REVUE AT PASTIME FRIDAY

OVER FIFTY LOCAL KIDDIES WILL SCINTILLATE IN VARIED PROGRAM FRIDAY

No entertainment so intriguing to the public as when the tiny tots of the old home community appear before the footlights. This is just what is going to happen Friday evening at the Pastime Theatre, when over fifty of Clarendon's Cutest Children—another variation of "CCC"—will make their bow to the public in the "Tiny tots Revue" sponsored by the same forty Clarendon business firms.

The program is in conjunction with the regular movie schedule of the Pastime, with the presentation of "Big Executive," one of the film sensations of the year. Mrs. Edna Boykin is general director in charge and will have as assistants a number of other local people who know how to work with kiddies.

Here is the list of the Tiny Tots who will make the show one of the big hits of the season: John M. Bass, Jr., Claude McGowan, Carroll Brumley, June McMurry, Bonnie Nell Lamb, Marilyn Maher, Jack Stephenson, Billy Latson, Bobby Stark, Maxine Ellis, Cleo Russell, Cassandra Morris, Muffet Merrell, Jo Ann Smith, Billie Cooke, Phillips Gentry, Jr., Dorothy Kerbow, Rayburn Smith, Jr., Harry and Jerry Kerbow, Dorothy Nell Oller, Chas. Shuford, Bobby Jo LaFon.

NIGHT FOOTBALL AT WELLINGTON

BRONCHOS JOURNEY TO WELLINGTON FOR TUSSELE WITH SKYROCKETS

On Friday night, October 13, Clarendon will play the first conference game of the season with Wellington. The Broncos are eagerly looking forward to the game. They believe that they will win but they know that they cannot do so without playing their best.

It is expected that a large number of the Bronco fans will be in Wellington Friday night to support their team. They realize that the game has possibilities of being very exciting. The game being played at night may have some effect on the Bronco's playing but not enough to cause them to lose the game.

Clarendon has a good chance to win the district championship this year as long as the team does not lose interest or become overconfident. The hardest game will be with McLean on October 20, but this game will be played in Clarendon which is to the Bronco's advantage. Shamrock and Memphis are not as dangerous as McLean. That does not mean though, that these teams will be easy to beat, because in all probability they will not be.

FLOWER SHOW COLORFUL EVENT

LES BEAUX ARTS CLUB SPONSORS SUCCESSFUL SHOW FOR CLARENDON

The Les Beaux Arts Club of Clarendon again scored a success Saturday with its annual Flower Show which the club has sponsored for the past three years.

Although the array of flowers and plants was not as large as usual, the exhibits were very colorful and unique. An unusual but attractive plant was a cactus growing out of a rock pot. Mrs. Charlie Speed and Mrs. Ollie Hommel had some lovely dahlias and canna exhibits.

Biggest news of the Century—The State Highway Department released this morning official advertisement for bids on the grading and drainage of Highway Five from the center of Kearney Street at the bank corner in Clarendon to the Armstrong County line on the West.

Bids will be opened at Austin at 9 a. m. October 23rd, and the scheduled rate of pay for the various kinds of labor is included in the advertisement.

Read the advertisement in The Clarendon News on Page 8—it is official. It arrived just in time to be included in this week's issue.

HOME LOANS TO BE RUSHED ALONG

AMARILLO BRANCH OF LOAN CORPORATION ADDS TO OPERATING STAFF

Clarendon people will be pleased to know that W. I. (Bill) Clifford, formerly of Clarendon and the son of Mrs. W. T. Clifford of this city, is now the assistant to J. C. Anderson, Jr., branch manager of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation at Amarillo.

To speed up operations of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, two additional building appraisers have been added to the staff at this territory. Three more workers have been added to the staff of the central district office to handle the increase in applications for loans on homes.

The two general appraisers added are A. H. Brown, Amarillo, and Edward Lowe, Big Spring. They will work out of the respective cities through the Amarillo office.

Mr. Brown has been a contractor in Amarillo for the past seven years and during that time has built more than 30 homes.

"They were selected because of their ability and knowledge of the value of homes," said J. C. Anderson, Jr., manager of the Amarillo branch.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Lowe will work with J. R. McCauley, general appraiser of Lubbock, and W. D. Cope, Amarillo, chief appraiser.

There are 66 counties in the Amarillo district. Twenty-six will be under the direction of Mr. Brown, 22 under Mr. McCauley, and 18 under Mr. Lowe. Mr. McCauley will work out of Lubbock. The three persons added to the Amarillo branch office staff are W. I. Clifford, assistant to Mr. Anderson, Mrs. Alleta Smith and Mrs. J. R. Crabtree. All are from Amarillo. Persons now working for the corporation in the district office number eight.

"With the addition of five workers, we will be able to handle loans much more rapidly," Mr. Anderson said. "Those wishing loans on their homes should apply at once."

Saturday 28th Is Oct. Trades Day

Saturday, Oct. 28th is the monthly Trades and Dollar Day in Clarendon.

Next week the plans for the unique entertainment will be announced in The Clarendon News and the indications now point to one of the greatest selling events ever staged in this city. Plans include new features of entertainment.

In line with the "Buying Campaign" of the National Recovery Act, local merchants will present a great array of new and needed merchandise in all lines and at prices that will tempt buyers who are beginning now to look about for everything that they need—and they have the money.

Watch out for the announcements and remember the date of the big day is, Saturday, Oct. 28th.

COUNTY TO COMPLETE RIGHT-OF-WAY PAPERS

Judge Lowe has requested The News to notify all landowners who sold right-of-way on Highway five West of Clarendon to call at his office any time after Monday of next week and sign the final papers required by the state, so that payment can be made promptly on all deeds covering right-of-way purchases.

Short of Homes For Conference

Committees are working this week in an endeavor to secure the required number of homes for the ministers and delegates to the Annual Conference of the Methodist Church which convenes here Wednesday evening, Nov. 8th. Other churches of the city are coming to the assistance of the Methodists and it is hoped that the goal will be in sight. Something like one hundred more homes were needed at the last check-up.

Under the plan of entertainment, bed and breakfast is solicited from Clarendon homes for the duration of the conference. From Wednesday night through Sunday. Noon and evening meals are provided for by a fund for that purpose.

If you can take two, four or six delegates phone Rev. E. B. Bowen, Methodist pastor or call Sam M. Braswell at the News office.

Local Men Attend Odd Fellows Meeting

Monday evening of this week a number of Clarendon Odd Fellows motored to Pampa to attend a lodge meeting where nine candidates were given degrees in a big open-air program.

Those in attendance were Jack Bailey, W. A. Lanham, G. A. Little, E. H. Behrens, C. R. Gamblin, Homer Taylor and G. A. Lindsey.

CIVIL DOCKET IN DISTRICT COURT

ROUTINE CASES MARK CIVIL SETTINGS FOR FALL TERM OF COURT

When Judge Fires opens the October term of District Court in Donley County he will hardly find more than the usual routine of the title clearance, foreclosures, divorces, damages, etc.

District Court has been a tame affair in Donley County for some time and unless the grand jury turns up unexpected indictments, it will likely be so again. Donley County has a splendid record as the home of a law-abiding citizenry. Following is the civil docket: Mandy I. Ming vs Archie R. Ming, divorce.

Mrs. Nellie Kuteman Heitman vs G. J. Heitman, divorce. Jewel Gladys McCaskill vs Gravin McCaskill, divorce. Ona Taylor Tatum vs Henry G. Tatum, divorce. Katherine Stark vs Merlin C. Stark, divorce.

57 MORE COTTON CHECKS RECEIVED

$17,274 ADDED TO DONLEY'S TOTAL RECEIPTS FIRST OF THE WEEK

When County Agent T. R. Broun received another shipment of government checks to Donley County farmers for cotton plowed under, the first of the week, it was found to contain 57 checks in the sum of $17,274.

Adding this latest shipment to those already received and Donley County has received so far 664 checks totalling the great sum of $185,000,360.

According to the original figures the county has yet to receive some fifty thousand dollars in settlement for all the cotton plowed up by Donley farmers.

This money added to the fair sum that is coming to cotton growers here from the sale of their staple is bringing quite a different situation all over the county and conditions are brightening every day. While the feed crop has been shortened noticeably by the recent dry weather the county will raise enough feed for its own use. All in all, 1933 is proving to be a much better year than last.

Clifford & Ray In Their New Quarters

Clifford and Ray are occupying their new quarters on Kearney Street, having moved to the building just north of Lee's Cafe and directly across from The News Office, Monday afternoon, night and Tuesday morning. They are well situated in their new home and have just about gotten everything adjusted and running smoothly.

Coming as a surprise, this firm has left a stock of groceries in their old location for the remainder of the year and Mr. Alvin Landers is in charge. This will be a strictly cash house and will maintain no delivery service.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Swift, Mrs. J. Roy Bartlett, and J. R. Bartlett, Jr., went to Memphis Tuesday to see Mr. Swift's and Mrs. Bartlett's mother, Mrs. Fred Swift, who has been ill.

PANHANDLE TO GET NEARLY 5 MILLION

17 PANHANDLE COUNTIES GRANTED SPECIAL RELIEF IN HUGH ROAD FUND

The government yesterday, handed out nearly $13,000,000 to Texas today to relieve unemployment and for the more imperative needs of those in the drought areas.

The public works administration and the federal relief administrations pointed in granting the state $8,900,000 for emergency road work in 17 counties of the Panhandle, six in the midland area—both drought-hit areas—and in three storm counties of the Lower Rio Grande valley.

Meanwhile, the public works board made grants and loans totaling $2,600,000 for the Pecos river dam project and $1,430,000 to the city of San Antonio for a sewer system. It likewise granted $2,400,000 to Longview to aid in construction of a public school building.

Approval of the emergency road program ran to $33,144,000 the total sum to be spent by the government on highway work in Texas. The bureau of public roads has allocated $24,244,024 for its employment-building program in Texas and that campaign will not be affected by the drought and storm program.

Counties in which will be spent today's big road fund, of which the public works administration made available $2,670,000 and the federal relief administration the remainder, were: Panhandle, Dallam, Hartley, Oldham, Deaf Smith, Sherman, Moore, Hansford, Hutchinson, Carson, Ochiltree, Roberts, Randall, Potter, Armstrong, Lipscomb, Hemphill and Gray. Midland area: Borden, Midland, Martin, Andrews, Ector and Howard.

Storm area: Hidalgo, Willacy and Cameron.

In addition, it was learned authoritatively, other counties may be added to the list if the state relief administration so recommends. Of the total allotment, the bulk of about $5,000,000 will go to the Panhandle although an official division was not made.

Misses Lorraine and Elgin Patrick spent Sunday in Amarillo.

"NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY"

In accord with the NRA Blue Eagle movement Clarendon and Donley County people are asked to buy the things they would have been buying the last three years, if it hadn't been for the fear complex and an actual shortage of money.

Of course, we are aware of the fact that there are some people who can not afford to do any special buying at this time. But they are very much in the minority. Most families in Clarendon and Donley County can make at least some extra purchases.

The object will be to convince such persons that it will be to their interest to buy now the things that under ordinary circumstances they would have bought in recent years. Bear in mind that just a little more spending by each family in Clarendon and vicinity will make all the difference in the world to the business interests of this city.

It should be borne in mind that this is a nation-wide movement to stimulate buying between now and the end of the year. This means that our local merchants are not only going to profit by the campaign but the rural section will be helped, too, because increased business in the cities and towns is bound to create a heavier demand for the things the farmer has to sell.

NRA headquarters in Washington are getting reports of tremendous enthusiasm for the drive. In numerous places, mass meetings of the business men have been held, definite plans have been mapped out, committees appointed and the work is getting under way in real American go-getter fashion. The increased business momentum which started with the Blue Eagle drive is now being accelerated. We know that Donley County is not going to lag behind.

What is outstanding at this time is that it really is a matter of local self interest to get into this prosperity parade.

Stallings Raises Wonder Tomatoes

A few days ago D. O. Stallings presented the News editor with a large Ox-Heart tomato raised at his home place here in Clarendon. The tomato was larger than the ordinary tea-cup and of an extra fine texture meat and flavor. Mr. Stallings has gathered over eighty tomatoes from one great plant this year and says there are still many more to mature before frost.

NEGROES ARRESTED FOR GAMBLING SATURDAY NIGHT

On Saturday night, October 7th, Sheriff Pierce arrested thirteen negroes for playing poker. He took them to jail for about an hour, then turned them loose, telling them that if he caught them again he would double the charges.

DONLEY COMMISSIONERS IN REGULAR SESSION OCT. 9

Routine matters engaged the attention of the Commissioners Court when it convened Monday, October 9. The quarterly reports of the county and district clerks were checked and approved. County bills were also approved.

PANHANDLE FARM LANDS DRAW ATTENTION

One of the most encouraging signs of the return of confidence in America is the increased interest in farm lands. Here in the Panhandle there is on every hand evidence of growing demand for farms, probably in greater ratio than in any other section of the Southwest.

Prosperity will return to the Panhandle in the same order as the present administration plans of recovery in prices of farm products succeeds. As the movement in farm lands accelerates, so will the general progress of the Panhandle be effected.

There is no better farming land in the world than right here in the Panhandle and it is worthy of all the attention and advertising it gets.

PANHANDLE NEWSPAPERS SCORE AGAIN

For the first time, the State Fair of Texas conducted this year contests for the Texas newspapers, and true to tradition two Panhandle papers won the highest honors in the two events. The Dalhart Texan, conducted by Editor John L. McCarty, won the award for the most outstanding edition in the daily field; while the Wellington Leader, edited by Deskins Wells, took off the honors for the best column entered.

You've got to hand it to these Panhandle newspapers. They are breezy and aggressive in their excellence and it is a habit of theirs to win in contests they enter. The reason is, of course, that there is personality and ability in their management.

Hats off to John McCarty! "Banzai" to Deskins Wells!

GLARING INGRATITUDE

For many years the great majority of metropolitan daily papers have advocated the repeal of the 18th amendment. The "wets" saying that the dailies recorded accurately the situation in the nation and the "drys" charging that the situation was distorted and colored to meet the needs of a campaign of deception and undermining of the prohibition laws.

When beer was legalized there appeared in all the city papers and many of the small ones that would accept it, a great array of beer advertising. The brewers were paying off—it seemed—their debt to the supporting newspapers. But after the first day the volume dropped to zero or thereabouts. There has been hardly any beer advertising since that first big splurge.

Have the brewers forgotten their great debt to the beer-advocating newspapers?

Or has the sales been so disappointing that the advertising expense couldn't be maintained?

Or has the American people been so educated away from the use of beer and intoxicants that no amount of legality and ballhoo can bring the business again to the level of respectability?

Be that as it may, there is evidence of a glaring ingratitude on the part of the brewers toward the big newspapers, who, more than any other agency brought beer back to this country.

TEXAS DEMANDS THE CENTENNIAL

The Texas legislature is considering plans for the Texas Centennial authorized under the amendment to the state constitution last year, and there is much interest in the several plans advocated.

One plan is to name some Texas city and concentrate on a huge project showing the development of the state in every line of endeavor for the past hundred years. Another plan is to organize a sort of scheduled celebration in various cities of Texas, matching finances with money locally raised and carrying on almost a full year.

The first plan naturally comes under the fire of certain municipalities who know that their chances of being designated are rather slim. The second plan draws the opposition of citizens all over the state who fear that the Centennial celebration might be spread so thinly over the state that it would prove no real drawing card to the nation. There is basis for both objections.

The News feels that it is very necessary just now to keep the main objective in view. By their votes in large majority the people demanded a Centennial. Texas are firm in their belief that 1936 is the time to stage an attraction that will draw the eyes of the nation and the world to the superior and varied advantages of our great undeveloped commonwealth, and they will not brook petty jealousies and bickerings that defeat the project.

Texas demands the Centennial and the legislature will have to answer for it. A generous and broad plan of celebration is not adopted with sufficient funds to guarantee its success.

TEMPERANCE PROGRAM HASN'T STARTED YET

Most prominent in the campaign of the repealists against the 18th amendment has been the loud promises of a "temperance campaign," which they declared would be more effective than any prohibition laws.

Well, now, let's see; with every state favoring repeal of those voting so far, there hasn't been any movement that we have heard on the part of any repealists anywhere to set up any kind of temperance instruction.

The daily press is full of stories of arrests for drunkenness, terrible accidents brought on by drunken driving, etc., and yet those promised "temperance lectures" staged by the proponents of legalized liquor haven't begun. We wonder when they will begin.

KEEP YOUR FIRE "INSIDE YOUR STOVE"

Thousands of people will find it difficult to keep warm this winter, but others will overdo the heating proposition—their stoves or heating plants will set their houses on fire. The colder months bring an increase in fire losses.

According to the records of the National Board of Fire Underwriters for 1931, defective chimneys and flues accounted for a fire loss of 26 million dollars; hot ashes, coals and open fires 6 1/2 million dollars; and stoves, furnaces, boilers and their pipes 24 1/2 millions—a total of over 57 million dollars—actually 11 per cent of the annual total from all causes.

Specifications for installing a safe chimney, heating plant or stove are usually found in city building codes or may be obtained from your insurance agent.

In the main, chimneys should be solidly constructed from the ground up and should contain flues made of fire clay. The heating units themselves and the pipes should be set up at a safe distance from all burnable material.

Make certain that the stove or furnace, chimney and smoke pipes are cleared of soot. Remove worn, broken or rusted equipment. Protect beams with sheet asbestos.

Use your own good common sense in operating the equipment, don't permit stoves or furnaces to become overheated, and don't put hot ashes into wooden boxes or cartons—a metal container is safer. All open fires should be carefully screened.

Aside from the destruction of property resulting from fires, it is estimated that 10,000 persons lose their lives in fires each year. This aspect alone is sufficient cause for greater care to prevent fires from heating plants.

THE BUYER'S DRIVE GETS UNDER WAY

Government officials and NRA leaders in metropolitan centers make much of the campaign beginning this week to induce a buyer's drive all over the nation.

Down here in the Panhandle of Texas there has been only one thing holding back a buyer's drive for two years, now—just the lack of funds. But for two weeks now we have seen the pinch of impecuniosity loosen and presto—the buyer's were again present and active.

If in all its plans to inject the golden stream of money into the veins of a half-dead commerce, the government is able to force a fair price for farm and ranch products, there will be no need to labor prodigiously to drive the buyer into activity. He is waiting for one thing only—the money with which to buy. He needs everything, and he is buying.

When people buy they are buyers. That's what they are doing and that's what they are.

It is said that members of the Senate consumed 500 aspirin tablets at the expense of the taxpayers during the past year. But just think how many aspirin tablets the taxpayers had to consume because of the Senate.

ASSERTS NRA WILL CHANGE METHODS OF ADVERTISING

CHICAGO. — Merchants and manufacturers must advertise more and in a new way, according to Maj. A. Heath Onthank, chief of the cost control division of NRA, in an address before a convention of the Direct Mail Advertising Association. He said that as a result of the setting up and enforcement of standard cost-accounting systems by industries, and the likelihood that through their governing boards industries will prohibit members selling below their own costs, the price factor, which has been "almost the sole determinant," will be supplanted by other factors of more importance. "The good old-fashioned selling factors of quality, service, and salesmanship will again have a real influence," he declared, and added: "It is safe to state that there will be a large increase in all advertising. It will be necessary to tell the revised sales story of quality and service in addition to the hackneyed theme of price. Advertising will change in both appeal and kind. Copy standards may change to reach new markets with the most productive message."

MAKING TEXAS LAWS CONFORM TO NRA ACT

Special To The Clarendon News AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 26.—Legislation to bring the statutes of Texas in line with President Roosevelt's NRA program—held the center of the stage last week with hearings before the committee of the whole in the senate.

Regarded as the most intricate and delicate legal problem of the session, indications now are that in principle and in wording the Woodward-Bradley bill will be finally adopted by the tw ohouses.

Senator Walter C. Woodward, veteran senate leader and chairman of the committee on civil jurisprudence, is the author of the bill. By common consent the task was delegated to him in advance of the session because of his position on the committee and his record as a distinguished lawyer.

The bills pay full loyalty to the belief of Texas that her anti-trust laws are wise and righteous. It merely suspends the penalties for their violation whatever such violation can be shown to be in consequence of obedience to the federal laws under the National Recovery program. In other words the bill is true to Texas principles but fully cooperative with the New Deal and the NRA.

Senator Woodward's sound handling of the difficult matter has again served to call attention to his legal ability and he is being daily importuned to become a candidate for governor or attorney general. Thus far he has reached no decision. However it is more than probable than when he has protected the anti-trust principle of the state from injury and at the same time in this bill, as passed, has devised a way for Texas to cooperate with President Roosevelt, he will find a demand for his candidacy for higher office which he will not be justified in resisting.

Dr. Kendall of the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., had discovered the chemical structure of the hormone of the suprarenal cortex gland. If any reader wants to make some of the stuff, here is the Kendall formula: "The mono-ether of epinephrine and beta-methyl-beta-ethyl dihydroxypropionic acid, combined as an ester with the phenol group of beta-o-hydroxyphenyl-beta, hydroxypropionaldehyde."

Many thousands will regret the passing of Ring Lardner, famed humorist and short story writer, which occurred a few days ago. He made his early reputation as a sports writer and is credited with revolutionizing that phase of newspaper reporting. According to his own statement he was born in Niles, Mich., on March 6, 1885, during a "Have-a-Baby Week."

PIONEERS THEME OF HARRINGTON

LIONS CLUB HEARS "DAD" HARRINGTON TUESDAY AND PLANS MINSTREL

Beginning on their new schedule of a quarter after twelve, the Clarendon Lions Club Tuesday started off with a song-fest under the leadership of Lion Boykin.

With President Nored in the chair the weekly roll-call of the members was held and each Lion was required to answer to his name by giving his weight, with a fine threatened if he missed it over half a pound. Nearly all the membership proved to be in need of reducing exercise with the exception of Lion Caraway and Lioness Rhoda Wiedman.

The subject of an entertainment this fall for the benefit of the Crippled Children's Fund was discussed and the matter was referred to the major activities committee headed by Lion J. T. Patman, with the general feeling that another local minstrel under the direction of Lion Boykin should be presented at some suitable date.

M. R. Allensworth of the Donley County State Bank was a guest of Lion Bartlett and spoke briefly to the club complimenting them upon their civic and humanitarian work.

Program Chairman Dremman presented Frank "Dad" Harrington who addressed the club on its ideals and offered a beautiful tribute to the pioneers of this section, which is reproduced elsewhere in these columns.

Just before closing Lion Porter, who has just returned from Austin, spoke to the club on the great seal of Texas, its origin and history. The first seal was the head of a dog with a collar decorated with beads and with a wreath about it. A motto, "Try me", was at the top and underneath was the letter "H".

The story is that when the secretary of President Houston of the Republic of Texas came to him with certain papers to be sealed with the great seal of Texas, the first President pulled a gold cuff-button from his cuff and impressed it in the wafer of wax with the impression as described above. This served as the official seal until Mrs. Houston later designed the present seal, the five-pointed Lone Star, which has served republic and state since that date. Several documents sealed with the dog-head seal are on display in the museum at Austin.

Fred Rathjen and J. W. Martin made a business trip to Hollis, Oklahoma Wednesday.

Clarendon Hilderbrand of Amarillo visited his mother, Mrs. Kate Hilderbrand Monday of this week. Mrs. Hilderbrand has been very ill but is better at this time.

Mrs. A. Phillips of Wichita Falls was here over the week-end to see her sister, Mrs. Kate Hilderbrand.

Mrs. Glenn White of Menard and Mrs. Sam McCarroll of San Angelo were visitors in the F. A. White home over the week-end.

Misses Rhoda and Julia Wiedman were Miami visitors Sunday.

Mrs. C. L. Gregg of Amarillo visited the past week in the Fred Patching home.

TRIBUTE TO PIONEERS BY "DAD" HARRINGTON

Mr. Toastmaster, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Lions Club: I thank you for this honor.

Recently I heard a compliment from one friend to another and I pass it on to you—"Hello Bill, you walk like a man with a purpose."

"Gentlemen, you walk like men with a purpose; you act like men with a purpose; you partake of fine food like men with two purposes—the first is self evident, the second, it may be surmised you going to make a fine speech.

May you be rich in opportunity; successful in endeavor and wealthy in achievement as o'er life's sea you drop the golden nuggets of Faith, Hope and Charity, whose beneficent waves roll on and on to the eternal shores of achievement and everlasting fruition.

Shall we pay respect to the old pioneers? Those who had the faith and vision, the determination, regardless of discouragements in raising capital, to press onward.

The men who promoted the F. W. D. C. Ry. from Fort Worth in about 1875 were told by some prominent bankers that men, who would think of building a railroad into a desert, were insane or in their dotage. That of the very few farmers or stock men in the Panhandle they had read in the New York Tribune that it is 75 miles from his front gate to his door step; that it is 90 miles from his horse corral to his south fence; that the Kiwas and Cheyennes were holding the best part of the country for buffalo range.

That in one community it is over 100 miles to the county seat; and that this judicial district covers an area of about one fifth the total square miles in the state of New York. That Texas area is over 262,000 square miles; that the Indians would have plenty of room in which to hunt buffalo for another 100 years. "No gentlemen, no money on that promotion." How short sighted they were for in less than 20 years the desert began to blossom as the rose and there was produced a sturdy, honest intelligent citizenship, which has no peer.

May we thank the Pioneer and pay him tribute today for his faith and foresight. May we pay homage to this, our wonderful state of Texas, the greatest political survey of the earth's surface. May you gentlemen of the Lions club be complimented in your fruitful and successful efforts to lead all into harmonious business and social relations to the edification and profit of all citizens.

As we perceive a bright and shining light in comparison with the former inhabitants of this country—who believe it a sacrilege to disturb the virgin soil of the prairies and taught that the Great Spirit would have men refrain from an attempt to increase its productive qualities; that the height of poetical emotion was hidden in their verdant valleys and the crystal streams of their hills.

Where is there more poetical motion or emotion, if you please, than in the movements of clean, sweet-faced children as they skip and play to school, with their visions of innocence and the bright eyes of faith undimmed and unafraid? What sweeter music to the ear of the parent, as he may be depressed and weary, than the voice of childhood?

The Pie Supper sponsored by the Midway Literary Society at the new Midway Schoolhouse Friday night was a gala affair, also a grand success.

The society wishes to thank all those attending and making the supper a success and to invite all to come to Sunday School and Literary Society.

JUST A BIT OF EVERYTHING

I placed the contribution box in Miss Headrick's room. But I feel rather like Mother Hubbard—when I go there, the Contribution box was bare. I was really disappointed in the success of this project; next week, I hope to find several good articles in the box. I am reluctant to give up an idea that I believe is good and I think to have a contribution box is a good idea.

There have been several new additions to our staff in the past two weeks. Arthur Chase has accepted the position as assistant editor of the Broncho Range. If Marjorie White becomes too personal in asking you where you have been, just excuse her as she is personal reporter for the school. Vera Noland records the gay activities of the elite of the school in her society reports. Robert Nichols has replaced Wilma Dee Smith as assembly reporter. Wilma Dee's schedule prevented her to continue with her reports. If ever you have an idea, Wilma Dee, remember the contribution box. As Maurice McGowan quit school, Pauline Carley was elected Sophomore reporter. I thought I had best explain least the reader think we were trying to include the names of all the students in the staff.

Friday during the sixth period the whistle was blown for a fire drill. The record time of fifty-eight seconds still remains unbroken.

For the first time this year, the building was heated Monday. Heretofore, the school has been heated at a much earlier date. I believe this is a record breaking school year!

I've heard no more of our school orchestra. Our high school needs an orchestra, and with enough enthusiasm over the plan, it will succeed. We certainly have enough students talented in music to successfully organize an orchestra.

At the first of the year suggestions were made concerning a Glee Club. Mrs. Powell graciously offered her assistance, but, again, we failed through lack of enthusiasm rather than lack of talent. Why shouldn't we have a good school orchestra and glee club? Ask yourself the question and, then make an effort to see both things accomplished.

Heavy Whitlock was heard to remark that he was going to Childress Thursday to the dance. He also remarked that he had a tux. Wonder who he "took" it from.

"Beat Wellington"

During this week, every blackboard in the school has been plastered with the slogan, "Beat Wellington." The Bronchos will do their best to make it come true; however, it will not be so easy for them if they are greeted by a pep squad of half a dozen members and an empty Clarendon section. The game will probably be at night, making it more interesting for the spectators, as well as for the Bronchos, who are unused to night games. You can rest assured that it won't be a waste of time or money, for if it is at all possible, get your car, load on some pep squad girls, and celebrate the end of the six weeks exams by seeing the Bronchos' first out-of-town game of the season.

BRONCOS MEET WELLINGTON SKYROCKETS FRIDAY NIGHT

The Clarendon Bronchos will meet the Wellington Skyrockets Friday night at Wellington. This will not only be the first conference game of the season for the Bronchos, but will be the first night game. The Bronchos can beat the Skyrockets provided they do their best, but the team must not get the idea that it will be easy because it might get fooled.

All of the boys on the Bronco squad are looking forward to the game eagerly and with a great deal of enthusiasm and it might be stated here that the fans are equally as anxious for Friday to come. From all indications there will be an unusually large number of people to go from Clarendon.

The Bronchos have picked up a great deal in their practice and workout which is a good sign that the coming game means something to them. They are realizing that slow games and championships do not team up very well. Bronchos very seldom fall their old school and everybody knows that they will not do so now.

Come on students. Go to Wellington and show the Bronchos what you think of them. The Bronchos are going to fight for C. H. S. and Clarendon. Let's go and yell for the Bronchos and help them win.

ALPHA DELTA PSI

Members and guests of the Alpha Delta Psi Literary Society, accompanied by their sponsor, Mr. Jackson, congregated at the famous Troublesome Canyon Wednesday night to roast weiners, rolls, and bacon over an improvised camp fire. The group first assembled at the school building and there boarded cars for the camp site, a clearing among cedars just north of the roaring falls.

The main event of the evening was soon prepared for. Coaxing an unwilling fire to burn was the job of Helen Rodgers and Thayer Acord; this was accomplished by the expert coaching of Jack Hayes. Sergeant Linder was called into action to furnish wood for the fire; and his ever-ready companion, Garland Wood, proved an invaluable assistant. A few persons' happy spirits reacted with the splendid air and the effects of a pale moon. The camp was turned into an Indian village; curdling war whoops swept the air, and Louise Smith ventured to perform a weird dance around the fire. When the last load of Chiefs and Squaws arrived, the "cats" were arranged upon a convenient up-turned feed trough; and a horde of knife-owners invaded the bushes to secure roasting sticks. Ask any member if he knows how many hot dogs he ate. After all the bacon had sizzled away and the pickles and soda pop had disappeared, thoughtful Bob Goodson brought up a troughful of bananas and oranges. Although Edna does not eat bananas, I think she secured one for Lloyd amid the scramble. After these delicious courses, I should say that no Alpha Deltan is now underweight.

The remainder of the evening was spent by sitting around the campfire, and some of Nomadic instinct explored nearby hills, ravines, and prairies. When the party was ready to return to town, it was discovered that one Chevrolet chose to sink in the quicksand near the falls. About an hour was spent in vain pushing and pulling before the stubborn automobile agreed to come out.

A happy, very weary group, climbed the rocky hill, reminiscing the good time just experienced, and still thinking of that

TALKERS SUBJECT OF REV. FERRELL

"The lips of a fool will swallow up himself," taken from Ecclesiastes 10:12, was the text used by the Reverend W. E. Ferrell in high school assembly Tuesday, October 10. In the development of his text, Rev. Ferrell discussed three types of present day fools who swallow themselves with their lips. There is the braggart, who talks about himself; the gossip, who talks about others when they are not present; the liar, who tells untrue things to the injury of others. From Mr. Ferrell's talk, the high school students derived a much needed lesson for these types of talkers still exist and are to be found even among our own student body. That improvement in conversation will be seen as a result of this earnest instruction is certain.

SOCIETY

Getting Childish?

A group of girls, arrayed in short, short dresses met at the McElvany home Friday afternoon at five o'clock to celebrate the birthdays of Tillie and Avis Lee. After many games such as "Drop the Handkerchief" were enjoyed, the announcement was made that a foot race was to be the next feature. Accordingly everyone got ready to run, but, to the amazement of each, a tape line was brought out and each one had her feet measured. Rosalyn, dressed in bright blue, won the prize, a green necklace. Sarah won the "kid" prize, but it was decided that she was very selfish with her red stick of candy. Some of the outstanding features were: Francis' continuous yells, Vivian's Aubrey (dog), Dorothy Fay's bow, Eloise's doll, Virginia's parties, the hostesses' greetings, and the boyish togs of Hulda and Dorothea. Finally the lovely refreshments were served, the serving of which meant only one cup of punch spilled. Everyone followed her mother's advice and reported a nice time. Don't tell anyone, but I think Mrs. McElvany and Mrs. Bigger were glad.

Kenneth Sherman Entertains

Kenneth Sherman entertained a number of his friends at his home last night with a dance.

Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when delightful refreshments were served to the following:

Popular Seventh Grade Student Entertains

Miss Kathleen Ryan entertained a satisfying banquet that was served. Everyone that went on outing hopes that many more such occasions will come to pass in the life of the Society during 1933-34.

Sophomores Get Down To Business

The sophomores are really getting down to business, though you couldn't tell it by looking. They are having six weeks exams and are they hard? They often wonder if teachers have a speck of human kindness. Judging by the questions on exams they do not possess such a quality. One reason for the sudden wave of studying which has come over us, is what the parents will say about the report cards. We are really the most outstanding class in high school. All of the other class members are so hopelessly in love they just can't think. A few of the Sophomores have become victims of the dreaded disease of love, but we have strong constitutions and don't act so sappy about it. Any of the teachers will back me up in saying we are remarkable for making zeros.

PALO DURO

Wednesday night the Palo Duro Literary Society met in their society room at seven-thirty. Each member answered roll call with a suggestion for future programs.

Marjorie White rendered the first number on program. She played "Under a Blanket of Blue" which received such an applause that she was forced to play an encore.

Mike Strickland read an interesting short story. Bill Word gave a talk on "Scientist Lengthens Man's Life" from the Literary Digest. The concluding number on the program was jokes by J. R. Bartlett.

her friends with a party on her thirteenth birthday last Monday night at her home. A program was carried out by each one drawing a number, which represented the number of his part on the program. Tap dances, readings, and piano solos were contributed. Each one guessed at the number of beans in a jar, the prize being won by Jane Kerbow.

After many other games, cookies and ice cream were served to Ethlyn Drennan, Jane Kerbow, Dorothy Kerbow, Louise Tucker, Jean Teat, Phoebe Ann Buntin, Ruezell Ryan, and Jelly McGowan, Ray Palmer, Billy Cooke, Homer Tucker, Durwood McCracken, John M. Bass, Oscar Butler, and the hostess, Kathleen Ryan.

PRESS CLUBBERS DISCUSS LEADS

For the second time this present school term, the Press Club met on Thursday afternoon, October 5, in Room 20. The attendance was highly satisfactory, and the interest shown in the work for the afternoon indicated the willingness of the members of the club to improve the composition of their reports and other articles.

President Bill Word presided over the meeting and gave instructions in regard to the form of the lead, a very important feature of the news article. The president explained the requirements of the lead, illustrating his explanations with leads on the blackboard. At the close of the period, reporters in the Club practiced writing leads for reports of their particular organizations.

Further information concerning the composition of the news article will be given at the next meeting of the club.

Personal Flashes

Our students do like to travel, and the further the better. So—Hollis Leathers and Paul Greene honored the City of Lelia Lake with their presence last week. Paul, the old business fellow himself, had to see a fellow about a horse, while Hollis visited his relatives.

Fred Bourland and Dorothy Jo Taylor motored to Lorenzo Sunday. They report that outside a flat tire their trip was enjoyable.

Heavy Whitlock, Bob Work, Elery Watson, and our two coaches, Mr. Hutton and Mr. Stocking, were present for the Childress and Wellington football game in Childress last Friday night.

We thought George Chamberlain had something wrong with his head, and now we know it, for George went to Amarillo last week to have some work done on his head. Who knows, perhaps it's Konkus of the Bonkus.

For six years Herbert Rupe of Bucyrus, O., has been living within 18 miles of the sisters for whom he has been searching for 20 years.

Authority can be conferred upon you, but not wisdom. It has to be earned.

Aggie Students Turn Destructive

The Agriculture department seems to be a good place to tear up things—DoLittle Baker is getting so large he is breaking down all the chairs. Nobles can't balance himself on a chair. Andy Harp swears he is the best mathematician in the class when it comes to calculating profits on cotton. Margaret Blackwell has moved up on the front row. I suppose she thinks she will be teacher's pet. Heavy has to show the class how to tie knots. We will unwrap our rag dolls Wednesday to see whether or not our corn has sprouted. Cotton grading and marketing seems to be getting more attention at the present.

Juniors, Vote For A Picnic

The Juniors had a short meeting last Thursday to vote for a picnic Friday. Only a few voted in favor of the picnic, the others having engagements for Friday. President Whitlock seems to be in the mood for a picnic or party. How about it, Juniors?

PEP SQUAD STUNT AT WELLINGTON

The Pep Squad met Monday to discuss the chances of going to Wellington Friday. However, the odds seem against the squad as only one car is available to transport some thirty-five peppers to Wellington. If sufficient ways are secured, the squad plans to have a stunt during the half. Everyone has his uniform and the squad is especially anxious to attend Friday's game to "show off."

Help us get to the Wellington game and we will make you feel as proud of the squad with their new suits and their natural tendency toward being peppy as you are the football team.

from those monotonous boring tales of the handsome, blond explorer, who by some uncanny power meets the beautiful girl beset by savages. The descriptive power of these men is beautifully different.

The new local daily sponsored by the institution's football mentor is becoming increasingly popular. I admire anyone with the initiative to put anything over.

Pipe smoking is becoming quite the thing on the campus. I have noticed innumerable boys with queer, strained looks on their faces and new pipes of varying sizes protruding from their pockets. The veteran smokers of the fragrant weed can be told immediately by the look of content on their faces and one thumb blackened by the process of packing the glowing weed into their pipes.

The new English slack fad is steadily increasing in its number of admirers. In juxtaposition with this fad comes the seakinks, suedes, and rough footwear for men. The man-about-town's topcoat this fall will be a drape of tweed or loose woven material.

The teacher of Sociology 213 has an awful habit of using French phrases and words that a person of highest intelligence would have only the faintest glimmering of their meaning, much less a group of college students. The Clarendon representatives at N. M. I. are making the football squad and are the Clarendon lads who were not so fortunate proud of "Owl" and "Milk Ear." And why not? Boys with the spirit and grit of these guys are worthy of anybody's pride. Congratulations, you fathers and mothers of these local lads. All Clarendon is proud of your sons.

Keeping up with the latest news I learned from a secret source that the genius of financial engineering intends to pay for his Senior ring with earnings from his labor in the fields of white on week-ends. Here's wishing him luck.

Exam Week

The high school students are having their first exams of the year this week. The Seniors are skeptical, the Juniors are doubtful, but the Sophomores are positively flustered. The Seniors gather their last minute knowledge secretly; a Senior's dignity will not permit him to openly admit that he is not well versed in such trivial subjects as Physics, History, and English Literature. The Juniors are beginning to doubt the actual benefits of examinations, yet they remain studious with few indications. But the poor Sophs are positively confused. Rumor has it that the majority of the Sophs are burning the candles low and are arising at the crack of dawn this week. At about seven-thirty, the Sophs approach the door of Alma Mater, square their shoulders, heave a sigh synonymous to "I guess it's all in a life time," and continue to the Sophomore room. Chaos rules in the Soph room; every Soph is asking numerous questions but to no avail. The bell rings and the realization that the "die is cast" sweeps the class. Arising, they walk down the entire hall with head in book and stumbling right and left on the toes of the Juniors and Seniors.

Students, if anyone has an old grudge against a Soph, it would be best if he were to relieve the terse feeling by calling the Soph a chump this week; the Soph would be too absorbed in Algebra, Civics, and English to even become offended.

Camp Fire Girls Enjoy Hayride

The Kicuwa Camp Fire girls had their first hayride on the evening of Oct. 4. They enjoyed eating weenies and buns, and later toasted marshmallows. After playing games and running each other through the belt line, everyone was ready to make the homeward trip. When they arrived in town, the girls drove down Main street singing their Camp Fire songs. This ended a most pleasant hayride.

CHRISTINE STRODER HEAD OF MUSIC DEPARTMENT AT BAYLOR

The friends and acquaintances of Miss Christine Stroder, piano teacher in Clarendon during the years 1930 and 1932, will be interested to know that she is head of the music department in Baylor University this year. Miss Stroder has received her Bachelor of Music degree from the Chicago Musical College. Miss Stroder has also studied music under the renowned musician, Edward Col- lines.

Junior High Report

There have been two reporters selected from both the sixth and the seventh grades to get reports from their grades. The girls selected from the seventh grade the report for the grade are Dorothy Kerbow and Gene Teat. Those from the sixth are June McMurtry and Betty Lou Gilbert. Those girls are asked to hand their report in to the Jr. High reporter every Monday morning in order that the report for the school paper may be ready by Tuesday.

There was a very good assembly program Thursday, put on by the pupils of the Jr. High. The program consisted of a piano solo by June McMurtry, a reading by John M. Bass, and a duet by Homer Tucker and Frances Fowler. This program was a surprise to everyone, even the performers, as Mr. Drennan told them what they were to do when it came time to do it. Everyone performed nicely and no one refused who was asked to take part. The school was proud of the spirit of the performers.

The students of Junior High are very glad to have Imogene Ensey back and hope that she will not find the work hard after being out of school so long.

Durward McCracken is a hater of publicity but a lover of bicycle riding, especially when he is accompanied by Miss Lalar Bell Wilkerson.

The pupils of the eighth grade are very proud to have a writer in their midst. Monday, when William Sullivan was asked to read the theme he had written on the subject "Before Daylight on a Ranch," the pupils were very surprised to hear such a good western story flowing from the lips of the author. One would think he was reading a part from one of Zane Grey's books, but he will assure you that it was very original.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade pupils have found their work to be interesting this week because Miss Price has been giving several tests and because Mr. Lane has ordered Arithmetic books. Everyone has nearly worked his head off trying to get even one night's rest.

Sixth Grade

Blue Monday, nothing to look forward to, but plenty to look back on. Five weeks of hard work in a new school, but at least it brings back pleasant memories to know that much is over. Plenty of sorrow comes to the one that thinks of the months to come.

The sixth grade had a new pupil yesterday. His name is Troy Moore, and everybody feels sorry for him because he is coming in just in time for the six weeks tests.

South Ward Activities

In the first grade, Mrs. Headrick and Miss Waldron are teaching their pupils good health habits by encouraging them to follow the ten health rules. A chart in the form of a ten petal flower is used to score the pupils. As a rule is observed, a petal of the flower is colored. This week, the first grade has replaced their chart by books; heretofore, they have studied only from charts.

Miss Stevens, instructor for the second grade, has her pupils working on Indian projects and animal books this week. Each day in the second grade a play is staged by a selected group of students. The writer of this article was fortunate to attend one of the plays given by Miss Stevens' room. The play was derived from the reading lesson. After the reading lesson is finished, Miss Stevens selects a pupil to dramatize it. The chosen pupil in turn selects her cast and gives each his lines. The play which was attended was entitled "Wee Robin". Dorothy Ann Kennedy was director of the playlet. Dorothy Ann told the story while the characters acted it. Little Juanita Carlyle portrayed the North Wind howling capriciously through the forest in search of Wee Robin. Mary Nell Keys enacted Wee Robin's part; Wee Robin, however, found Mr. North Wind too great a competitor for him so he flew Southward until Spring. Mary Frances Phelps successfully doubled as Jack Frost and Wee Robin's animal friends.

Miss Fox's section of the second grade is also dramatizing their reading lessons. This section is carrying out the unit system in animals and Indians correlated with art, English, and reading. This unit of study will continue through November.

Mrs. Ben Pruitt, instructor of the third grade, has devised an interesting method to study arithmetic. One side of the room is improvised as a grocery store. Toy money is used to purchase

Library Notes

By MRS. C. A. BURTON

"The Gray Dawn" by Stewart Edward White will prove to be an entertaining story to those who are interested in the romance of the great west. It is the story of San Francisco, and the story opens in 1882, only three years after the great gold rush. What San Francisco was at the time may be judged from a description of its daily paper given on the first page of the story as follows: "It consisted of four large pages. The outside page was filled solidly with short eight or ten line advertisements, the second page gradually vouchsafed a single column of news items; the third page warmed to a column of editorial and another of news; all the rest of the space on these and the entire fourth page was crowded close with short advertisements. They told of the arrival of ships, the consignment of goods, the movement of real estate, the sales of stock, but mainly of auctions." And the man who sat reading this paper was a powerful and respected public figure. As this would indicate, the characters are many and varied and all typical of the time and place. Chief among them are Milton Keith, a young lawyer from Baltimore, and his wife.

The spirit of adventure permeates the very atmosphere—the glamor of gold, the excitement of the search, the lure of the gambler's den, the wild night life with its drinking and carousing, and through it all the gradual emergence of law and order through the efforts of the few who even then had a vision of the city that is to be—all these are vividly portrayed in the story. One follows the struggle, the step-by-step gain, the character development of many in the fight which shows the submergence of selfish ends for the common good—and is thrilled at the spirit which dominated these pioneers who brought civilization to our commodities such as talem, cocoa, oats, and baking powders. Miss Edgar Mae Mongole's section of the third grade has organized a unique educational club. The club is called "The Good Citizenship Club." Clyde Benton Douglas is president and Annie Ree Porter is vice-president. Bobby Jo LaFon is secretary. The club had its first meeting Monday. Mrs. McKee told the club an interesting story on honesty. Mr. Drennan will have charge of the program next week and will lecture on cleanliness. A fruit project has been the study of the class for the past several weeks. Due to unusual interest aroused in ants through study of their habits, this grade has been making a study of ants in the nature class.

On Wednesday afternoon, assembly was conducted by the fourth grade. The program consisted of piano solos and readings. The fifth grade football team is rapidly learning the art of the game under the coaching of Mr. Lane. Dan Boston and Donald Nored are captains of the two fifth grade teams. I should say they were certainly evenly matched as every game that has been played thus far was a tie. The thirty minutes devoted to physical education serves as practice period for the two teams. A play, to be presented by the South Ward and Junior High pupils, entitled "Too Many Maskers," will be given in the near future to provide play ground equipment for both schools.

Bits Of WASHINGTON'S Current Comment

In some quarters, there seems to be a decline in the reaction to the N.R.A. program. In this connection, note that emphasis is laid on the word "program," and not on the movement itself. The N. R. A. entered the field as a broadly new thing, and prodigious efforts have been made to popularize it, to explain it, and to educate the public up to it. Those efforts appear to have been successful, but they are no longer attractive. It will be recalled that it was supposed at first that the Civil War would be over in ninety days, or something like that, but four bloody years preceded peace. Napoleon was thought to be a man who held the destiny of France in his hand, for early determination, but destiny turned out to be a far-distant milestone. Every movement has to pass through a period which Kipling calls the tumult and the shouting. The N.R.A. is moving through, or perhaps has passed that stage. It has been "put over" so far as popularization is concerned. Now comes the long and more trying time of trial, experiment, alteration and adoption. Having set our hand to the plow, it is no likely that we shall turn back, but insofar as both Federal Administration and the public are concerned, the day of speech-making and parade belongs to the past. All hands have before them the serious business of doing the plowing.

That the public has turned its eye on the actual economic working of the Act in practical operation, is evident from the newspaper reports of a speech delivered by a high official in the American Federation of Labor. He sees, as beneficial results of the measure, a large number of men re-employed, an increase great Empire of the West.

Besides "The Gray Dawn" we have "The Claim Jumpers," "The Blazed Trail," "The Forest," "The Riverman," "The Pass," and "Gold" by Stewart Edward White. From their titles you see that all deal with some phase of Western life—all filled with heroic struggle and splendid achievement.

The City Library has never served a larger number of students than at the present time and we are so very glad to be able to do so. Remember that we are open three afternoons a week—on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 4 to 5:30 o'clock and from 2 to 6 on Saturdays—and that our membership fee is so small that any one can afford it even in depression times.

in buying power, and the obligation of child labor. On the other hand, he warns that when the prices of commodities rise, wages often remain at a stand-still. In every branch and phase of hiring or service, coordinate problems will inject themselves as time passes. The satisfactory and complete solution of those problems will be the real test of the NRA, and the solution lies almost completely in the future.

In former days, the most important concern of a busy Hawaiian was keeping his balance on a surf board, or dodging coconuts as they fell to the ground. Just now, the particular country mentions has more than four thousand government workers, and no money with which to pay their wages. Probably some of the Hawaiians, especially the old-timers, are sick of the they could slip away to some whole business, and wish that place where there is nothing more troublesome than surf boards and coconut trees. In that, they are not very different from the rest of us. A good many centuries ago, the prophet Jeremiah said: "Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people and go from them!" But history records that Jeremiah remained on the job. The Hawaiians and the balance of the weary world will have to do likewise.

A Washington woman who had broken a saucer, wished to buy a cup to match it. A crockery dealer had a saucer, but no corresponding cup, and the rules of the house forbade the selling of anything short of a complete cup and saucer pair. She offered to make the merchant a present of her cup, and then buy the cup and saucer from him, but her offer was not accepted. It is said that the Federal authorities are trying to get rid of red tape. If one may be permitted to use a mixed figure of speech, red tape is something that has a firm as that of the Washington foundation in the capital city as monument. The present administrative forces may accomplish much. Subsequent administrations, Democratic or Republican, may add to the store of useful accomplishment, but that anyone can free the city of red tape is something that none but the most optimistic can believe.

Out in Oklahoma, an alleged kidnaper flies to the place of his trial. This undoubtedly promotes the speedy administration of justice, but if he had cut up his didoes in the days of the vigilance committees, his feet would have been clear of the ground by this time in a different and more uncomfortable way.

A regret of the mistakes of yesterday must not blind us to the tasks of today.

"Thank Goodness, Jim,

COLD WEATHER NEVER DELAYS US!"

Ann: "Betty would be late on our first air trip, but as usual when it gets cold, it's to be expected." Jim: "You mean that temperature actually has an effect on her promptness?" Ann: "Yes, she is very prompt ordinarily—it's a case of car trouble in cold weather. Bill doesn't see that the difficulty is in his choice of gas and oil." Jim: "Well, Ann, you couldn't expect everybody to buy Conoco, could you?" Ann: "If everyone knew how Conoco oil and gasoline protect both you and your motor against the difficulties of cold weather driving they would!" Jim: "Guess I'd better get Bill on the phone and see what the delay is!" Ann: "Please do!"

Betty: "We had the most awful time, Ann! We were ready to leave in plenty of time, but when Bill tried to get the motor started, it wouldn't budge. After running down the battery he rolled the car out of the garage and got some one to push it till it started—and just in time. The car just doesn't seem to work right." Ann: "It isn't the car, Betty, it's the oil and gas Bill buys. Why don't you tell him to get Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and Conoco Bronze Gasoline—they are more economical and have cold weather performance that gives us instant starting and 'Hidden Quart' protection." Betty: "I'm sold!—and Bill will be too just as soon as I get to him!"

CONOCO at the sign of the Red Triangle

Full motor protection, especially in cold motor starting, can be found only in Conoco Germ Processed (Paraffin Base) Motor Oil because the penetrative oiliness, called "The Hidden Quart" stays up in your motor and never drains away. Instant Starting and Lightning Pick-up can best be obtained with Conoco Bronze Gasoline, and without sacrifice of Long Mileage, Greater Power and Anti-Knock advantages. For cold weather starting it cannot be excelled.

Fined $120 And Cost In Cotton Theft Case

A man by the the name of Jerry Tarter was arrested for stealing cotton Monday night, Oct. 9th. He was charged with loading near 1000-lbs. of cotton on a truck from a wagon left in the field by E. H. Behrens. Behrens had been to Pampa to an Odd Fellows meeting and on returning about one-thirty a. m. passed the wagon and noticed that cotton was scattered on the ground around the wagon. On reaching the house he was told by his wife that she had seen a car stop over at the wagon some time before. Behrens got in touch with Sheriff Pierce and they tracked the truck to a farm in the Windy Valley district. They found Tarter there, and upon arresting him he confessed, and the cotton was recovered.
He was tried before Judge Lowe Tuesday morning, found guilty and fined $120 and costs of the case.
Mr. Behrens is very complimentary of the prompt and efficient work of Sheriff Pierce, and asked The News to quote him as advising Donley Citizens to call the Sheriff immediately after discovering any theft or other infraction of the law, as promptness has a lot to do with the rounding up of offenders.
