Judge Porter Heads M. E. Church Board

At the first meeting of the newly elected board of stewards of the First Methodist Church here Tuesday evening, Judge J. R. Porter was elected to the chairmanship. M. R. Allensworth was elected vice-chairman, and E. Paul Shelton was named secretary-treasurer.

Finance committee appointed for the year was D. R. Davis, Chairman, G. L. Boykin, Homer McElvaney, W. A. Armstrong and Sam M. Braswell. This committee will make suggested assessments to the membership and apportion the names to the various stewards, who, in turn will secure ratification of the member. It is the plan of the board as announced by Chairman Porter to make a strong effort to get each member to pay his assessments in weekly or monthly payments so that salaries and incidental expenses of the church may be met promptly each month.

The new pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth, briefly outlined his plans for the year and pledged his best efforts in carrying on the work of the church. He expressed himself as much pleased by his reception in Clarendon and voiced confidence in a year of great spiritual fellowship and progress for the church.

The second Monday evening in each month was set as the regular meeting for the board.

Dr. T. S. Barcus, presiding elder, preached at the Wellington Methodist Church Sunday. He was accompanied there by Mrs. Barcus.

Legion Officials Complete Plans

Van W. Stewart, of Perryton and Floyd L. Sloan, of Amarillo were here Sunday completing plans for the 18th., District American Legion Convention to be held here December 8-9.

Mr. Stewart is an Executive Committeeman of the organization while Mr. Sloan is post adjutant of the American Legion post of Amarillo.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Sloan.

New Roof Placed On Denver Hotel

The Old Denver Hotel housing the Federal Transit Bureau workers has received a new roof, in making the building habitable for the winter.

The city furnished the material and the work was done by the employees stationed here to do the work on the flood control work Southwest of the city.

FATHERS AND SONS MEET SUCCESSFUL

DR. COLLINS OF CLAREMORE
BRINGS VERY IMPRES-SIVE MESSAGE TO GROUP

The officials of the Father and Son banquet, held Monday evening at the First Christian church, expressed themselves as pleased with the success of the program and attendance this year, which marked the 12th Father and Son banquet held in Clarendon.

According to A. L. Chase there were 215 tickets sold, but more persons attended than could be accommodated.

Judge Sam W. Lowe made an address for the fathers, followed by an address by Nickey Stewart for the sons.

A quartette composed of Wilford Hott, Frank Reid, Vernon Reid and L. H. Earthman entertained with two selections, and Mr. E. O. Bone sang two solos. Both entertainments were thoroughly enjoyed as was a piano solo by Bobbie Leathers.

Honorable mentions were made for various contests conducted. L. W. Chase won the mention for being the oldest father present. He was born in Canaan County, Maine 87 years ago. The youngest father was Snooks Andis. The one having the largest family present was A. O. Yates, with five boys present. J. J. Goldston, who bought thirteen tickets for his 6 boys and five grand sons was not able to be present. Clifford Wallace, the 15 month old son of Ted Williams was the youngest son present. The youngest father with the oldest son was Ben Andis and son Snooks. The oldest father with the youngest son was T. W. Welch and son James Harry.

In the election of officers the new president for next year, Ardis Patman, will represent the sons. The retiring president, Harrison Simpson, this year represented the fathers. Sam Braswell Jr., was elected vice-president, and the new directors are Rufus White and Jimmie Bourland for the sons. Bill Greene and Sloan Baker were elected for the fathers.

Dr. B. Frank Collins of Claremore, Oklahoma, who administered to the group of Boy Scouts in their illness this past summer on their return from Chicago, was the principal speaker, and in his own manner brought a great message to the sons and fathers. He advised the boys that "you can do anything right, if you want to do it." His message was well received, and greatly appreciated.

Dr. Collins addressed the audience as friends, and a part of his speech is as follows: "And I say friends," he said, "for the reason that there has been shown me every courtesy and loyal friendship that any people could have shown an individual. It is indeed a great pleasure to meet friends and when I say friends I mean the same kind of friendship that the old Gentleman said, 'I want a little house by the side of the road and be a friend to man,' that kind of friendship is the kind that I have for you people and I believe is the kind you should have for each other."

THANKSGIVING DAY PROCLAMATION

Surely every citizen of our city and community can find abundant causes for thanksgiving in the material blessings bestowed. Famine has shadowed and does shadow many parts of Our land while our harvests have been fairly plentiful. Let Clarendon, this once torn away from the low and perishing things of the world and let radiate from every human heart the higher, nobler, and the more worthwhile things of life; recognize the Divine government, and in the language of our enthusiastic, energetic, wideawake President, "rededicate and reconsecrate" ourselves to the task of making the world a better place in which to live.

Therefore, I, as Mayor of the City of Clarendon, respectfully request our citizens to observe Thursday, November 29th, 1934 as a holiday, and ask our business men to close their shops and houses for observance of this holiday, and ask the Almighty God for his providential prosperity and care through another year.

J. W. MARTIN, Mayor.

DONLEY COUNTY WORKERS SCHOOL

PROF. EARL JONES ASSIGN-ED TO TEACH FEDERAL SUPPORTED SCHOOL.

Under the plan for Workers Education set up by the Federal government, Prof. Earl Jones has returned from a six weeks' training school at Austin to set up and organize a Workers School in the Clarendon Community, and other communities of Donley county.

Beginning next Monday, Dec. 3rd, Prof. Jones will enroll such adult men and women who desire to pursue studies in any scholastic subject except Mathematics and will hold classes in one of the rooms in the rear of the Latson building. Classes will be held at night, and any subject in which eight persons are enrolled will be taught with the exception listed above.

This school is not for those on relief, only, but is intended for any and all adult men and women who desire to continue their education at no cost.

Prof. Jones was one of the nineteen Texas teachers accepted for this work out of four thousand applicants and is very anxious to have full enrollment early next week, here where he has spent most of his life.

Kids! Write Santa Letters Care News

The News again asks the Kiddies to write their letters to Santa Claus now and not put it off to the last minute. Santa Claus has designated The Clarendon News to be the receiving place for his letters from Clarendon.

He is going to try and please all the Kiddies this year, and he says it is a hard job, the same as he has done in the past years, and if the Kiddies will write him in care of The Clarendon News he will surely be able to know the wishes of little brother or little sister.

As is the usual custom, The News will turn over to Old Santa all the letters it has received. The News wants all the little folks to be happy.

50 Pigs Disbursed To Relief Clients

According to the local relief office, the American Re-fining Properties, owners of a ranch near Ashtola, donated 44 pigs to be disbursed to relief clients who were able to care for them.

E. M. Ozier also donated 6 pigs and Clifford Davis, administrator, stated the pigs had already been disbursed to several clients.

TRANSIT BOYS TO STOP GOBBLES

SEARCH WAS MADE OVER DONLEY COUNTY FOR TURKEYS FOR BOYS.

The boys of the Federal Transit Bureau here will run a race with their stomachs Turkey day in an endeavor to consume 14 turkeys.

The boys say they can stop the gobbles forever on this nice bunch of 14 proud strutters, when they drive them to the execution stump. Of course the boys will be awaiting the usual, welcome "come and getee whilee hot."

One thing which will make their turkey day menu more enjoyable is the fact that a search was made all over Donley county before the turkeys could be found.

W. M. Patman Wins Turkey Contest

In a contest held last week W. M. Patman, local agent of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company, won a turkey for his efforts.

The contest was called a "Turkey Shoot," and Bill proved to be a good marksman, and has a telegram to prove his ability.

Mrs. J. H. Braswell of Canyon stopped in Clarendon Monday in route from Fort Worth to her home in Canon. Mrs. Braswell will spend the Thanksgiving holiday in Clarendon with her son, Sam Braswell.

Turkey Market Is Good In Donley

According to figures given by a part of the produce houses in Clarendon, turkey raisers received more than $1,396.00 for their turkeys which were marketed for the Thanksgiving market.

The entire amount paid by Clarendon produce dealers was not obtained but it is believed the total would be about $2,000.

LIONS FEATURE THANKSGIVING

LION KING GIVES THANKS-GIVING ADDRESS AT TUESDAY LUNCHEON.

A very instructive and worthwhile Thanksgiving address featured the regular weekly luncheon of the Clarendon Lions Club Tuesday noon at the Antro Hotel. Program Chairman Drennan presented Lion J. Perry King who delivered the address filled with much entertaining and inspirational thought. Lion Cole followed with the point that we of today know nothing of real hardships and called to mind the background of that first Thanksgiving celebrated by the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock, following that terrible first winter when sixty percent of the emigrants had died by privation and exposure. Incidentally Judge Cole had a forbear who filled one of these first graves on those bleak New England shores.

Lion President Patman reported on the Birch entertainment as a benefit to the Crippled Children's fund and when he announced a net to the fund of $53.65 the news was cheered by the membership.

Guests of the day were Messrs. Frank Fry, E. O. Bone, Earl Jones, H. S. Brady, and Revs. E. D. Landreth and Thos. S. Barcus, the latter two having recently moved to Clarendon as pastor and presiding elder of the Methodist Church, respectively. All spoke briefly as to their pleasure at being present for the day.

Mr. Jones spoke on the Federal Workers Education movement and the project he had been assigned to work out here in Donley County. He asked the club's help in providing facilities for the adult classes of workers over sixteen years of age here in the city. These courses are without cost to all persons and only incidentals, such as lights and heat have to be provided through some local source as the classes meet at night.

Lion members present who contributed to the subscription to pay Dr. Collins' expenses here to be the guest speaker of the Father & Sons annual banquet were asked their opinion of what to do with the fund collected since Dr. Collins had refused to accept any remuneration whatever. Lion Mulkey brought the matter up for discussion and it was decided by the contributors that the money should be turned over to the Boys Recreational Center to provide some piece of equipment for the use of the boys of the community and which should be placed there in honor of Dr. Collins as a memorial to his services to the boys and his love and friendship to them.

All Lion members were present except three.

Miss Mattie Rhodes, teacher on the Midway school, will attend the State Teachers Convention in Galveston which convenes Thanksgiving day and lasts through December 1st.

Clifford Davis took Mrs. John Burson and daughter Luree to Dallas Monday, where Miss Luree entered a hospital for medical treatment.

CONTRACTS LET ON ROAD TO MEMPHIS

AMARILLO FIRM GETS CON-TRACT ON PRELIMINARY WORK TO HEDLEY.

News was received in Clarendon Monday that contracts had been awarded for highway construction in Donley county. The work to be done is building three new concrete bridges on Highway 5 between Clarendon and Memphis. Also grading and drainage work.

Construction contracts aggregating $2,032,020 were let or recommended Monday at Austin by the Highway Commission, of which $1,616,890 was national recovery and $415,130 was State money. The projects in Donley county are:

For 13 miles of grading and drainage structures on Highway 5 from Davis street in Clarendon to Hedley; McKnight Company, Amarillo, $54,901.

For 10.9 miles of grading and drainage structures through Hedley to Hall county line on Highway 5; T. M. Brown & Son, Brownwood, $69,046.

Highway No. 5, West and East of Lelia Lake and Bell Creek bridges near Hedley; Oran Speer, Alvord, $21,220.

Another highway project for the Panhandle was in Collingsworth county. For 7.7 miles of concrete on Highway No. 4 from Childress county line to Wellington; Comb & Glade, Wichita Falls, $148,099.

The interesting part of the contracts is that the total amount in contracts let was considerably less than estimated.

Shortage of State funds caused the commission to announce a suspension of definite commitments.

Commissioner W. R. Ely said all the $12,000,000 NRA emergency grant had been allotted and that State funds must be used to match the regular Federal aid construction appropriation under which work probably will start the first of the year. He said it would require approximately 1c of the 2c the department received from gasoline taxes to match Federal grants and that the remainder would be needed for maintenance.

The commission declined to vote an appropriation for the construction of Highway No. 191 from Coleman north but agreed to start work when funds were available. Ely said it intended to complete Highway No. 10 in Comanche and Erath Counties before undertaking any further major construction in Central West Texas.

The commission agreed, however, to recommend to the Bureau of Public Roads that a $36,000 appropriation of NRA funds for paving Neches street in Coleman be diverted to Highway No. 191 north of Coleman.

In commenting on the financial straight Ely said the commission was endeavoring to find funds to complete a few roads in the Panhandle so that section could have an outlet south and east.

Skyrockets Battle Clarendon Broncs

As The News goes to press we were unable to obtain a writeup on the football game played Wednesday at 3:30 at College Field, between the Wellington Skyrockets and the Clarendon Broncs.

Coach J. L. Kerby had promised a thrill to the side lines by putting into execution some new plays which had been doped out to make a winner for the Broncs, against the strong Wellington eleven.

Mrs. Winnie Jo Keen spent the week end in Amarillo visiting friends.

A NEW DEAL FOR THANKSGIVING

Within recent years there has come about in the minds of men a desire for a change—a demand for a New Deal in practically every phase of human activity. This desire and demand has brought many changes and we have now the New Deal in national government with respect to social relations of the people.

At this Thanksgiving period the thought comes to us that perhaps we as a people are ready for a New Deal in our Thanksgiving thinking and attitude. For many years there has been an impersonal, aloof attitude on the part of people generally in the matter of the approach to Thanksgiving Day. There has been little of the sincere lifting of the heart in genuine thankfulness for the good things that have come our way and for the privileges we enjoy. Thanksgiving has, therefore, become rather empty of its original and intended meaning. Family reunions, heavy eating, sports and idleness have been the order of the day, and more people have been thankful for the holiday from labor than truly thankful for their blessings.

In recent reading of the trials and struggles of early Texans just a hundred years ago, there has come this thought to this writer: In the light of hardships and privations of those who laid the foundations of Texas, as we approach the Centennial Year, ought we not to learn just how little we have suffered; ought we not to recognize just how wonderful our present is as compared with the days of 1934-36; ought we not to quit our everlasting wailing about the "depression," about our "hard-times," and rejoice as men and women that we have the privilege of living in such a glorious day as we now enjoy.

Texans, let's have a New Deal in Thanksgiving as we approach the Centennial Period. Let this New Deal give us a New Attitude and a New Thankfulness toward the great Ruler of the Universe who has so bountifully blessed us.

Let us be Thankful because we are burdened with overwhelming reasons for Thankfulness. Let us rejoice for the multitude of comforts and pleasures that are ours. Let us reach a new Attitude and a new Altitude of Thankfulness toward a Generous and Merciful Father whose riches abound to usward.

Lord, Give us a New Deal in Thanksgiving in this year 1934.

CLARENDON HONORED ITSELF

When the people of Clarendon honored Dr. B. F. Collins of Claremore, Okla., this week by having him and his wife here as guests of the community for the Annual Fatner and Sons Banquet and other social affairs, they honored themselves.

Gratitude is not too common in these busy and hectic days, and when a people rise up and give a general exhibition of that virtue as was demonstrated here this week, it is a healthful sign—a heartening sign—of a superior civic consciousness.

Clarendon, out of gratitude for Samaritan services performed on behalf of our Boy Scouts by Dr. and Mrs. Collins, united to give them honor.

In so doing Clarendon honored itself.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

I renew my pledge to the cause of public education. We must perfect some painful economies in government, but not at the expense of our school systems. The public schools should be permitted to hold at least the state revenue they now have, with such increases as a well rounded educational program demands and the financial condition of the state will permit. I am opposed to crippling in any wise the present scope of work or activities of any of our state institutions of higher learning.—James V. Allred.

Everybody knows that the vast net-work of highly technical rules of evidence and procedure which prevails in this country serves to tangle justice in the name of form. It is a disgrace to our profession. It is a disgrace to our law, and a disgrace to our institutions.—Elihu Root.

ALL TEXAS REJOICES WITH DONLEY

From every section of Texas comes editorial expression of satisfaction and approval of the letting of contracts for work on Highway No. 5 through Donley County which is the beginning of the final successful campaign in realizing a modern paved highway through our county and the closing of one of the most dreaded and disappointing gaps in this great artery of travel from the Gulf to Colorado.

Distances have become indeed small in recent years, and whereas a few years back hardly one person in a hundred in distant parts of the state knew of the gap in Highway 5 in Donley and Armstrong Counties, now it is so generally known and dreaded that the people of Orange, of Galveston, of Brownsville and of deep East Texas are rejoicing with nearly as much enthusiasm over our good fortune in contracts for closing the gaps, as we are.

All Texas rejoices with Donley in this most important improvement and triumph over difficulties.

DO YOU NEED A CHURCH?

Church attendance has been on the decline. Statistics reveal that only 30 per cent of the membership attends church services. That is not a heartening disclosure in a period when morals and spiritual values are needed by a people grasping for social, economic and moral relief.

Church attendance fluctuates with economic conditions. When prosperity is on the wing, individuals feel less the need of relying on things spiritually. They gloat in their self reliance. When depression hits the nation and men are burdened with responsibilities and hardships, they turn to spiritual values for encouragement and sustenance. Such is the record of church attendance.

The world has undergone great changes. History is in the throes of revision. We toppled from the heights to the depth and our civilization is floundering. Its permanency depends upon man's support of moral and spiritual values. Character, integrity and the Golden Rule are still more valuable than gold, armies and private gain.

This is not a sermon. It is a fact. The permanency of civilization depends upon man's acceptance of moral and character values. President Roosevelt recognized this truth when he invited the nation to go to church Loyalty Sunday, October 7. Merle Thorpe, editor of Nation's Business, says there is good reason for turning to the church today, for "disorder in the outer world has brought disorder to the spirit of man."

Our economic recovery is tied in with moral recovery. They will go hand in hand. When men recognize the rights of others, when they respect integrity, when they live moral lives, when they live the Golden Rule, the World will lose its troubles. The church is in the business of building character; man is at the task of building prosperity. Man needs the church, the church needs man.

If you go to sleep in church, you are not qualified to criticize the sermon.

A nickle isn't supposed to be as good as a dollar, but it goes to church more often.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Some books never grow old—they have a perennial interest. Such a book is "The Half-Back," by Ralph Henry Barbour. It was published in 1899, has averaged a printing a year for more than thirty years, and is still in steady demand.

As one writer has pointed out, "Football, as it was played when 'The Half-Back' was written, would scarcely be recognized if seen today. And yet, so fundamentally attuned to boy life and the boy heart is this tale of school activities and athletics that the reader, his interest compelled, brushes aside the elements of time and the game regulations of yesterday."

The author, Ralph Henry Barbour, was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts, in 1870, of a puritanical type of Colonial and Revolutionary stock. His father died when he was twelve. His mother was an artist of considerable talent, and from her the son inherited the artistic temperament.

For some years he did newspaper work in Boston, then in Denver. The call of the great open spaces of the west was so strong that he went out into western Colorado and ranched for four years where he says he pounded out an occasional short story on a decrepit typewriter.

In the latter city he says he succeeded in tearing himself away from newspapers, ending a career in which he had served as "leg-man, court reporter, literary editor, columnist, correspondent, rewrite man, cartoonist, and city editor."

Barbour has been called "the dean of sport story writers for boys." His books have been favorites with two generations of grown Americans, and are now being read by a third.

Barbour has been married to a lady who corrects my spelling, reads my proofs, beats me at tennis and doesn't mind it when I tramp sand into the house. Although at the age of sixty-four, I seem to have arrived at nowhere in particular, the journey has been on the whole very pleasant.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By Minnie F. Cunningham Extension Service Editor

A specially prepared bed in which she systematically roots cuttings; the use of native shrubs; a definite plan for landscaping the farmstead; and the expenditure of $3 together with some sure enough work has given Mrs. B. F. Curry, home demonstration club member of Matagorda county a lovely yard.

When asked what he thought about the government cotton adjustment program, J. B. Anderson operating a 1,200 acre farm west of Brookshire in Waller county answered, "I have 11 tenants on the farm and every one of them has paid up in full this fall and is out of debt, and I give the cotton control program credit for the improved conditions and financial circumstances of the tenants on my farm as well as myself."

RED CROSS AGENCIES SAFEGUARD HEALTH

First Aid, Life Saving, Nursing Care, Promote Health and Safety

Five outstanding services make up the health-conservation program of the American Red Cross, according to the annual report just issued in Washington. These services are first aid and life saving, which together have trained more than a million persons; nursing, with an active enrollment of 36,133 registered nurses; Public Health Nursing, conducted by 7500 nurses in 424 chapters last year; and Home Hygiene, which has taught more than 700,000 men and women simple ways of caring for the sick at home.

"The achievements of the Red Cross in public health nursing place it among the leaders in this field," said James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations. "This service was organized in 1919 to meet needs developed by the World War and the ravages of the flu epidemic which in 1918-1919 took so great a toll of life."

"Since that time Red Cross nursing services have been pioneers in more than one half of the counties in the United States. Many services we established were taken over later by civic, state and federal agencies, and the Red Cross continues to establish services in other new fields. Red Cross nurses made more than a million visits to patients last year, and 629,925 children in schools were inspected.

"Red Cross courses in home hygiene and care of the sick are especially important in times of depression, because they teach families to maintain hygienic conditions in their homes and to recognize symptoms of illness early enough to prevent serious consequences.

"Our courses in first aid have been instrumental in saving lives of the injured; in safeguarding the accident victim until the physician arrives, and in reducing time lost by workers in factories, mines and other industries. We are also giving the course extensively to police and fire departments throughout the country, and to state highway patrols."

Everyone is invited to join the Red Cross during the annual membership roll call which continues from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, to have a part in the health program and the other humanitarian services of the Red Cross.

Fires on Morro Castle and At Nome Alaska, Received Help of Red Cross Workers

A number of tragic and unusual disasters have recently called for Red Cross relief.

Included in them have been a flood in Kentucky, following a series of cloudbursts in August; epidemics of disease which threatened several sections, including some caused by drought conditions. Red Cross workers found much to do for the survivors of the Morro Castle fire and for those engaged in rescue work; and Red Cross relief went by airplane to Alaska when the famous old gold camp, Nome, burned in September.

An Army of Goodwill

When members of the Junior Red Cross learned that school-books had been destroyed in the Kentucky floods last August they gave $100 from the National Children's Fund to buy new textbooks for use in the schools. The maximum membership for the Junior Red Cross last year was 7,350,280, an increase over the previous year of more than 250,000. They carry on civic and service programs in their own communities which each year bring comfort and pleasure to thousands of needy and unfortunate people. An international friendship is built up through correspondence with Junior Red Cross members in foreign countries.

TEXAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

No. 2. The Founding of Fort Davis

On October 3, 1854, United States soldiers, searching for a "water route" to the Far West, marched up Limpia Canyon into the center of the Davis Mountains in the Big Bend country of Texas, and Fort Davis was officially founded on October 7, according to records of the War Department. The mountains were thick with Mesquero Apache Indians, and travel was difficult, but this big Fort made settlement of the mile-high region possible. Its work done, the Indians safely on a New Mexico reservation, Fort Davis was abandoned in 1891. Its charming ruins, some of the most extensive in Texas, may still be seen within a stone's throw of the little city of Fort Davis which now stands beneath the forbidding cliffs of the Davis Mountains. The lower picture, taken in 1886, shows the fort in its prime, while above is a most excellent photo of the officers who were stationed there at that time. (Texas News Photos.)

WINDY VALLEY SCHOOL NEWS

Windy Valley is installing a laboratory for general science. The eighth grade will be very glad when they get it built, for they are having to experiment with very crude implements.

Martin is going to have the stinging convention next Sunday. We want everyone to go, and help Windy Valley get it next time.

The seventh grade is going to make a Thanksgiving poster this week. The eighth grade is still ahead of us in our clippings, but we will catch them before long. There are not many pupils in cold weather.

Intermediate Incidents Rodie Lee Russel stacks boxes, school to day, because of the old magazines, books, papers, and "junk" on her desk so high that we wonder just what she does to keep them from tumbling over.

We have been studying the lives of some noted writers whose birthdays are in this month, namely, Louisa Mae Alcott and Robert Louis Stevenson.

Louise Skiner is the youngest pupil in our room and she still speaks in "bab language" now and then, especially when she becomes a little perplexed. The other day she was having difficulty with some of her work and she piped out, "Weel, Miss Baley, I know where 'em is, but I just can't learn what 'em are."

THANKSGIVING SHOULD BE OFFERED FOR OUR HEALTH

Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, has asked all citizens of Texas to give some thought to health, both personal and public, on this Thanksgiving Day. The original Thanksgiving was held by the Colonies for the purpose of giving thanks for their health.

Great advances in the treatment and prevention of disease have been made since that first Thanksgiving. Yellow fever, plague, and cholera have practically ceased to exist. Smallpox, diphtheria, and typhoid can be eliminated as a cause of death if a person will have himself and children immunized. Malaria and many other diseases can be controlled if the public would demand that the government furnish such protection.

Due to the advancement in knowledge of disease, concerning its prevention and cure, fifteen years have been added to the expectation of life. This means that a child born now can be expected to live fifteen years longer than he would if he had been born fifty years ago.

We have a great deal more to be thankful for now, even with a depression, than did our Pilgrim forefathers; so let each one in his Thanksgiving pledge to assist in furthering the work being done to improve health conditions in Texas.

Mrs. Jimmy Moore left Wednesday morning for Carroll, Texas where she will attend a family reunion during the Thanksgiving holidays.

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING

By B. Powell.

Some ducks fly south, and some sly north; but what we want to know is just how many are flying around this part of the Panhandle. Are we going to have this winter a wholesale slaughter of ducks, or, are we going to give them a fair and impartial trial? This writer hopes that wild game will not be promiscuously slaughtered.

We like to eat duck! The effects of the little cold spell we had the past week-end has resulted in predictions aplenty. Some say we are in for a severe winter, with plenty of snow, and others say we will have a mild winter with practically no snow. Well, all we can say is that one guess is as good as another. We hope that Old Man Weather does put a good moisture in the farm and ranch lands, for the winter.

It has been brought to our attention that the number of people who are riding horseback has doubled over the number twenty years ago. In view of the number of back seat drivers we are surprised at this announcement, yet proud of the fact that there are those who have faith in 'ol' dobbie. It is reported there are 500,000 persons riding horseback at the present time.

Well, it looks as if the Bronchos didn't want to wind up the schedule with a defeat, so they got out there and fought... and did they fight... they did, for a score of 7-0. That was a good windup for the year, and we are proud of the kicking Bronchos for doing just that. More power to you next year.

We were rather amused last Friday after the game when the Clarendon Pep squad was parading down town after the victory. The LeFors Pep squad didn't seem to enjoy the antics of the local girls so much, and one of them while still sitting in the LeFors bus said, "I'll bet that is the first game they ever won"...

This writer wishes to apologize to Judge Sam W. Lowe for stating last week he had gold mining interests in New Mexico. We were called to hand for that statement. However, he did accompany other persons who had real estate interests in New Mexico, but the gold has not been discovered... yet. County Attorney R. Y. King is hoping that in his diggings we will run across a great big nugget. King has already planned just how he is going to dig his allotted 48x10 feet mine shaft. He contracted with the Government sometime ago to dig that much dirt out of the ground, on his twenty acre 'ranch,' which he so affectionately refers to as the 'lease.'

With all due respects to the Judge's integrity and knowledge of New Mexico mining territory we make the above correction. He does not own mining interests in that or any other state. However, we cannot be inclined at this time to print his desires about obtaining property for 'lease.' I had rather not say that he does hope to get a lease on a 'ranch,' and maybe bordering on King's 'Lease.'

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Large congregations greeted the new pastor at both the services last Sunday, and we were pleased with the splendid reception given the pastor and his family, and with the general good spirit that prevails in the Church. We hope that more and more of the members of the Church, together with others who will worship with us, may find their way to the place of worship next Sunday. No sermon subjects are being announced this week, but we shall try to exalt Christ and proclaim a Gospel that will be helpful to all.

CHRISTIANS TO HAVE THANKSGIVING DINNER

The members of the First Christian Church will have a joint Thanksgiving dinner Thursday in the basement of the church.

The dinner which is to be served "family style" and all the members of the church and friends who would like to attend are invited to be present and to bring a covered dish.

Dinner will be served at one o'clock and an interesting after dinner program has been arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stewart were visitors in Brice Sunday afternoon.

BRONCS DEFEAT CLAUDE MUSTANGS

CLARENDON ELEVEN WINS IN SECOND HALF BY SCORE OF 7-0.

The Clarendon High School Bronchos defeated the Claude High School Mustangs at Claude on November 23, by a score of 7 to 0. The game was hard fought from start to finish, but the blocking of both teams was poor. Claude ran through the Clarendon line for several long gains but their offense failed when they reached the Bronchos twenty yard line. The Bronchos penetrated the Claude twenty-yard line several times but were unable to furnish the punch to put the ball over for the touchdowns.

The score came in the second half, with the wind to the Bronchos' back. After several neat gains through the Mustang line, Greene faked a plunge to the left but passed the ball to a back behind the line, who in turn passed to Martin who ran around right end and 35 yards to cross the goal line untouched. Greene converted the extra point from placement.

All of the seniors who have been out all season were allowed a few minutes of play in this game. All of the Bronchos played a pretty good defensive game, with Strawn getting several tackles behind the Claude line, going in from a position back of the defensive line.

There is always Worship—Fellowship—Service

This is Thanksgiving week again, and I want to join with the President, the Governors of the different states, and the Mayors of the many cities and towns, in calling the peoples attention to that great grace gratitude which ought to radiate from every human heart.

This is not a new day nor a new doctrine, but a duty which has been sadly neglected by all people. The acknowledgement of favors received is not only kind and courteous, but just and honorable. On November the eleventh, to the delight of all of our hearts, we love and honor, and praise, and thank the soldiers who fought for us in the World War. Shall we do less on Thanksgiving Day for Him who is the author and finisher of our faith and the giver of all good gifts to men?

Thanksgiving Day calls for the recognition of the divine government. On this day we renew our loyalty and express our gratitude to the beneficent Father for another year of providential prosperity and care. Abundant causes for Thanksgiving are found in the material blessings bestowed. While famine has shadowed some lands, and does shadow some parts of our own country, our harvests have been comparatively good. No malignant plague has scourged our people; no great catastrophe in nature has fallen upon us. Surely we ought to let the golden gate of speech swing wide open and be vocal with the music and praise of Thanksgiving. Too many of us have lock-jaw when prayer and praise are in order.

Loftier than all other benefits are the spiritual blessings bestowed by the Divine One on our churches this year. It has been a good year with all our churches. We are joining in a community wide service Thursday morning at ten-thirty at the Baptist Church to carry out the scriptural admonition given by David in the one hundredth Psalm: "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him and bless his name. For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations."

"THE GOOD CONFESSION"

Acts 8:37.

I. THE ORIGIN.

When Jesus began to preach, men formed various opinions of Him. Some said that He is a prophet; others called Him an impostor; while a few believed Him to be the Messiah. Naturally a line was closely drawn between His friends and His enemies. The Jews used the confession of Christ as a challenge (John 9:22). Christ accepted this test and placed His approval on it (Matt. 10:32-33.) Thus the confession naturally served to distinguish the followers of Christ from His enemies. In the conversation at Caesarea-Philippi (Matt. 16:13-20), the Master puts the question directly to His disciples. Peter immediately answered, "Thou art the Christ the Son of the living God." The entire system of Christianity is embraced in this statement.

II. THE SIGNIFICANCE.

It is a brief statement of the system of Christianity. It is all embracing—the only thing a man needs to believe to be saved. Everything from the dawn of creation pointed forward to the Christ; Everything since His coming points back to Him. He is the center of Christianity, as the sun is the center of the solar system.

III. HOW THE CONFESSION IS MADE.

"With the mouth, confession is made unto salvation." (Rom. 10:9-10). It is not made with a nod of the head, nor by visiting the sick, nor by feeding the poor, but with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation, Matt. 16:15; Acts 7:37. It is to be made before witnesses. I. Tim. 6:12-13. Those who make the good confession before men will be confessed by Christ, (Matt. 10:32-33.)

IV. THE PLACE OF CONFESSION.

Confession was always made before baptism. It was the test of the fitness of the candidate for baptism. It is the oath of allegiance that must be made before a person can enter the army of Jesus Christ. The New Testament shows that making the good confession is very important, (Acts 7:37; Matt. 10:32-33; Rom. 10:9-10). This confession will be universal, (Phil. 2:9-11), and will mean salvation or condemnation to mankind. We should all be willing to make this confession, for our own good, for the influence upon others, and for the good of the Master. Will you please God by accepting His Son as your personal Saviour and confessing and serving Him faithfully? Next lesson, "Facts About Baptism." W. E. Ferrell, Minister First Christian Church Clarendon.

BIRCH PROGRAM MYSTERY AND FUN

MAKES GOOD HIS CHALLENGE TO ESCAPE FROM BOX IN FEW SECONDS.

The Birch magical show presented to Clarendon by the Lions Club for the benefit of the crippled children's fund was very successful financially for the fund. The total receipts for both matinee and evening performances was in excess of $150.00, of which a substantial sum went to the crippled children's fund.

The program was successful too, from a standpoint of entertainment, for the grown-ups as well as the children enjoyed the tricks of magic, and the xylophone selections played by Miss Mabel Sperry.

The disappearance tricks given by Birch were so mystifying that those who attended are still trying to solve the manner in which they were performed.

From Brazos county comes this story of improved farm conditions—a farmer leaning against a bank building said to C. L. Benson, "County Agent, I have been owing this bank five years and this is the first fall I've been able to pay out."

PAMPA CAR FOUND NEAR CLARENDON

THIEF ABANDONS CARE EIGHT MILES NORTH OF CLARENDON SATURDAY NIGHT

The Ford V-8 coach owned by Frank Keim of Pampa, and stolen from in front of the Schneider Hotel there early Saturday afternoon, was found about eight miles north of Clarendon late Saturday night, after a farmer had driven the thief to Clarendon for gas.

The man told the farmer that he had to go to Clarendon and get money before he could purchase gasoline. The farmer left him in Clarendon but when he returned to his home, found the car still parked by the side of the road. Sheriff Guy Pierce was notified and he identified the car by the description sent out by Pampa police soon after the theft had been reported.

The thief smashed the lock on the steering rod and wired around the lock to start the car. Police of Pampa are at a loss to know whether the man was a professional or whether he just wanted to get out of the city.

Messrs. H. T. Burton, E. O. Bone, McHenry Lane, and R. E. Drennan will attend a teachers' convention in Galveston this week-end.

"Art" was the subject of the most interesting program. Mrs. Cap Morris explained the need of the study of art in the public school, and Mrs. Carl Bennett gave an interesting talk, the subject of which was "Art in the home." "Pictures Suitable for the Home" was the concluding topic which was discussed by Mrs. Tom Murphy. Master Jimmy Frank Heath delighted the mothers and their guests by singing a solo.

A social hour followed the program. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mesdames Jo Goldston, Harry Brumley, J. T. Patman, Allan Bryan, and Miss Frances Tatum, guests, and to nineteen members.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker Host and Hostess

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker were cordial host and hostess to the Jolly Group Club Tuesday evening at their home.

After a series of forty-two games, dainty refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bownds, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bain, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donaghey of Trenton, Texas and Miss Annie Mae Donaghey of Wellington were visitors of Miss Marie Thornton Saturday evening.

Chamberlain Club Has Turkey Dinner

The Chamberlain Home Demonstration Club entertained their husbands and children Thursday evening with a Thanksgiving dinner at the Chamberlain school house.

The bounteous dinner was placed on banquet tables decorated with autumn leaves and flowers with a large turkey as a centerpiece, and the dinner was served buffet style.

The guests opened the interesting after-dinner program by singing "America," and Mrs. Harley Skinner led in prayer. "The Origin of Thanksgiving" was beautifully told by Miss Filora Wilson. The pupils of Miss Agatha Taylor gave a playette which was followed by a reading by Miss Eunice Johnson. "Why We Celebrate Thanksgiving" was the concluding number which was given by Mrs. E. V. Cooper.

The next meeting of the Club will be on December 6th in the home of Mrs. Frank Ried.

Marilyn Sawyer Honored

Mrs. Forest Sawyer complimented her daughter, Marilyn, on her tenth birthday Friday with a party at their lovely country home.

Games and contests made the afternoon an enjoyable one for the children, the hostess presented each guest with a toy horn.

A beautiful white cake decorated with pink and green and beaming with ten green candles was presented the honor guest. The color scheme of pink and green was repeated in the table decorations and in the refreshments.

Those helping little Miss Sawyer celebrate her tenth birthday were Misses Bobby Jo Lafon, Naomi Morris, Margaret Fay Wadsworth, Charlotte Ann Tomb, Betty Jo Bain, Nelda Sue Burton, Annie Ree Porter, Cassandra Morris, and Roxie Lawler, and Messrs. Carl Morris, Jimmy Lumpkin, and Clyde Benton Douglas.

The Sons of Leginnaires have been collecting the discarded toys which have been turned over to relief clients for repairing, and which will be distributed during the Christmas holidays.

NEW SMITH BROS. WELL TO BE BIG PRODUCER

Another big producer in the McLean field seems promised for Smith Bros., with the bringing in of a third well this week-end. The well did 50 to 60 barrels an hour before it was shut down for storage and to cement the pipe. There is an estimated 20,000,000 feet of gas.

The well is in the northwest corner of the west half, southeast quarter of section 49. The total depth is 2,540. The other two producers in the same section are in the northwest quarter.

Returning Tuesday to Clarendon from a two-weeks visit in Mineral Wells, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weewerka of El Reno, Oklahoma will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Weewerka's father, Mayor John Martin.

C. M. J. C. Students Are Thankful

Say, did you know that Thanksgiving is here again? Well it is. And believe it or not, many of these students of dear old C. M. J. C. have much to be thankful for. Alex says he is thankful for his tremendously large feet. (The quecker to leave school, my dears!) As for Jean Bourland, she just must be thankful for that beloved typewriter she uses at school. It always types just what she wants written. Can another such typewriter be found? George Wayne is thankful that he has learned the art of sleeping! At any rate, he has become a greater master of this art than any of his classmates. And what an honor! Hollis is thankful for his ability to remember. Especially for his ability to remember when his classes begin. Talk about remembering when classes begin! Kenneth Bain can be thankful that he does not have a class the first period. If he did, I am afraid he would never get there. I heard Vera Noland say she was thankful that accounting class met only four times a week. That made one less bottle of ink to spill. So much for these students' gratitude. I dare say everyone will welcome Thanksgiving holidays. It is not so much the thought of no more school for the week, but the anticipation of a sumptuous dinner which is built around a big turkey gobbler who has lost his gobble!

Very Personal

The fever heat of the high school students has lowered to below normal. They finished their six weeks tests and are waiting with very little impatience for their reports cards. Little Harold McDaniel was walking with his mother through their garden the other day. She showed him where some mint was growing. He sniffed the air and said, "Oh, mother, I smell chewing gum." Spearment is his favorite kind, because, as he says, it doesn't lose its flavor when it is parked on the bed post overnight. Methinks Wee Willie should change the name of his column from "Wee Willie Wonders" to "Wee Willie Wagers." The seniors have a new old pupil, Peggy Taylor, who graduated with this class from the eighth grade, has joined the class again. A few days ago in an English IV class, a girl was asked to read a certain sentence. She read her sentence, using the names Browns and Smith. The teacher thought that the names could be improved upon and asked several others to read their sentences. Each replied that he had used the names Jones, Smith or Brown. After almost everyone acknowledged using one of these names, a particularly shrewd scholar dodged the issue by using two pronouns instead. This shows that the proper name section of the English students' vocabularies is quite limited. Miss Headrick enjoys grading themes, but she finds some of the sentences quite puzzling. On a six weeks exam paper the following sentence appeared: "The requisite and talkative woman was her mother." She has not yet decided what the sentence meant.

JUNIOR HIGH AND SOUTH WARD NEWS

All the rooms with the exception of the fifth grades are having Thanksgiving plays. Every room is decorated with some touch of Thanksgiving. Pumpkins are seen most. Miss Mongole's room has a lovely display of Indian rugs and vases drawn by the pupils. It may interest you to know that her room is keeping up a correspondence with a fourth grade in Green River, Wyoming. A collection of leaves found near Clarendon is her room project. (A very lovely one, too.)

Home Economic Girls To Sponsor Baby Show Dec. 12

The home economic girls are very busy these days, for they are planning a baby show to be held on December 12, at 4:00 P. M. at the home ec rooms in the dormitory. Any child from one to four years is eligible to enter for the fee of thirty-five cents. They plan to give four first prizes to the winner in each of the contests. The children will be judged on the basis of healthful bodies, general appearance, and behavior. The judging will be done by either doctors or nurses. In addition to the show there will be an interesting program. The money made from this show will be used for redecorating the department. The girls expect to buy draperies and all kinds of repair material. Since the rooms have not been done over in several years, this project will prove quite beneficial to the home ec students.

Kerby Proposes Basketball Tourney

Starting on the afternoon of December 3, and lasting until the Christmas holidays, there will be a class basketball tournament between the various classes of the senior high school and junior college. Each class is to organize two teams which will meet in the first round of the tournament; the defeated team from each class will serve as substitutes for the winning team in future games. The class directors are: sophomores, Jess Corneli; juniors, Paul Greene; seniors, Frank Holtzclaw; college fish, Robert Nichols; college sophs, Greer Cottingham. After the first round is completed between the A and B teams of each class, the college fish will tackle a strong senior team; the college seniors will play the high school juniors, while the sophs draw a by for the second round. Coach J. L. Kerby is general director and is responsible for the movement.

Alpha Delta Psi

Rainy weather prevented many members from attending the regular meeting of the Alpha Delta Psi last Tuesday night, but those present enjoyed an unusual program. Later a heated argument between the much publicized president and other members was brought up, with the result of postponing the debate until a meeting of a majority of members. It is suggested that since the two Literary Societies of Clarendon are unable to work up any exciting rivalry, the Alpha Delta Psi may divide and provide competition enough for a good fight among themselves. The program arranged presented Ruby Dell Scoggins in two entertaining piano numbers, Doris Cassle with an amusing reading, Bill Walker and his trumpet, and T. J. Mann in a talk on the wiles of winning football. The annual play has been indefinitely postponed, but the production with the announced cast will probably take place next spring.

Mrs. Prewitt's caterpillars have eaten their skins and are ready for a "long winter's sleep." Each of her pupils has an individual leaf collection which he has mounted. When we stepped into Miss Steven's room and behold! there was a whole Indian village and a white settlement, too. The pupils has made the wigwams and figures. There is a river, also, with the braves in their canoes going to the Thanksgiving feast. The fourth grade is going to have a play at assembly in Miss Aiken's room Wednesday. The fifth grades will be the audience. Miss Aiken's room has some artistic Thanksgiving posters, too. In the Junior High a program is being planned for Wednesday. A joyous Thanksgiving to all.

Socrates of Sports

Are football players dumbells? This seems to be the general impression among the people of our nation, but when facts are uncovered we find that this is a wrong and unjust attitude. To determine this, the S. S. took the grades of the boys in the Senior class of our own high school. Soc found that the average grade of the boy who does not play football to be 76, while the grade of the football player was 74. The two points difference is not enough for determining factors on either side of the question. This average, while perhaps not applicable to all races, should be good enough to stop the rumor that football players are of lower mentality than their classmates. As the two averages are almost the same, it seems that football does not hinder the scholastic ability of our students. Perhaps it might be of interest to our readers to know that we have some first class athletes on our faculty. Who would suppose that Dean R. E. Drennan could lose his dignity long enough to win the 100 yard dash? However, that wouldn't be so bad as it only took him 10 seconds according to reports. The Dean ran for dear old Tullia High and for other institutions after he left high school. It is said that he was beaten only one time on the 100, and was plenty good on the broad jump and 60 yard dash. H. T. Burton, or Coach Burton, has coached many a football team, but has never played football, strange as it seems. The Supt. was a cracker-jack basketball player, making the varsity at Baylor U. one year. Coach J. L. Kerby hails from Weatherford Hi. and Texas U., where he exhibited his football wares. By the time you read this the Bronchos will have defeated the Wellington Skyrocks by a score of 6-0. See how right I am.

Passing compliments is out of my line, but to be truly honest about it don't you think last week's Broncho Range was much better than any that have been printed before. True, the others were good, but it seems that this edition was an exceptionally good one. Socrates gives us the sport's news like Graham McNamee, while Cheerful Chatter and Very Personal keep the page well supplied with general comment and news. The other contributions make the page one to be proud of. Mike and I sometimes threaten to cease our meaningless chatter and sarcasm, we seem so outclassed by some of the writers, but I suppose we will stray and fight it out until tossed out, since we have begun. Now, I don't like to razz a writer of a column too much, but dear Cheerful, gaze at the third paragraph in your column and read carefully. It seems that a qualifying word should be inserted somewhere in that paragraph. In the first paragraph you said the Bronchos had never played a better game; if you had said never a better defensive game I would agree at once. If the Bronchos had had an offensive play like the sparkling defense they put up, they would have defeated LeFors about 21 to 0.

Between the lads from Puddle City, and the lassies from Ashtola you so, the Clarendon dames have to put on the pressure to hold their own. The boys are allus casting eyes, notes, and glances toward the fair lassies of Ashtola. Perhaps it will turn out in the long run with the Puddle City fellows taking Clarendon's girls while Ashtola gets Clarendon's boys. The poor fel-

Wee Willie Wonders

What are the Clarendon boys to do? Certain Memphis guys, it seems, are copping their girls. Wanda Mayfield and Bonnie Hardin journeyed to Hedley Saturday. lows from Chamberlain may be the deciding factor in this mad scramble after all, who can say.

Cheerful Chatter

The Chatterer believes Wee Willie is getting smart as well as starting an argument. In one of his columns, he asked if the Chatterer lived in a house with green shutters and if her telephone number was 256. In another column he proved he could not take it, flatly refusing to argue with the Chatterer. Just because the Chatterer did not, in her writing, tell him whether she lived in a house with green shutters or whether her telephone number was 256, but merely told him she would not give him her address, he has become angry and tried to get her told. Willie, you may say anything to the Chatterer in your column you wish or you may ask any person who knows anything at all, who the Chatterer is and fling your humiliating words in her face. My identity is well known. My column may not be a great literary work, but I am not ashamed of it. A dashing young maiden has returned to Clarendon, and the Clarendon boys are taking their eyes from Ashtola girls long enough to look at her several times after which procedure they usually start thinking of some place where she might want to go. Speaking of new pupils, many of the "Romeos" are casting glances not altogether cursory at the new "Fields." The Chatterer believes that all brunettes will be blonding their hair. They say men prefer blonds but marry brunettes; who wants to get married anyway? When a couple begins marriage plans before they finish high school, something or somebody usually breaks into their plans in some way. A Junior told me that in English class Miss Thornton was casually discussing the article that compared our students with some movie stars. It was decided by all class that an important omission had been made: no Clarendon person resembles a star more than David McClesky, whose double is Stan Laurel.

Students Enter Essay Contest

A letter from an Amarillo newspaper received by the English department last week invites the high school, college, and grade students of Clarendon to participate in an essay contest sponsored by the National Housing Act authorities. Rules for entering the contest and material for composing an essay on the benefits to be derived from the new construction phase of the Act were included in the announcement. A suggestion given by the contest editor is to tell of the many advantages of better home life on the Plains as a result of improved housing conditions. It is probable that a luncheon will be given for the contestants in Amarillo on December 22, the date set for announcing the winners. A special award will be given the school having the largest number of entries. Students wishing to enter the contest should apply to their English instructors and obtain material from the high school library. Dorothy Fae Scoggins, Tillie Pratt, Heavy Whitlock, and Price Whitlock were in Memphis Sunday afternoon.

Pallo Duro

The members of the Palo Duro Society were entertained with a brief program Tuesday evening, November 20, in their room in the dormitory. After the customary roll call and reading of the minutes, Marjorie White, a former Palo Duro, entertained with a medley of popular selections at the piano. The Palo Duro sponsor, Miss Hall, then read an unusually interesting short mystery story, "The Second Step," which was taken from a recent copy of a popular magazine. Those who were present at the meeting are still worrying their heads off trying to figure out the queer conclusion of this story. REPORT CARDS TO BE HANDED OUT THIS WEEK The report cards of the senior high school, the junior high school and the south ward school will be given out Wednesday of this week. We are asking the parents to look over your child's card and if the report is not satisfactory try to find out what is wrong. Each child will get his or her report card so there is no excuse

A True Thanksgiving
Just as the Early Colonists of this Country were the more thankful for their good fortune because they suffered so many hardships, we today, have a chance to feel something of their spirit of Thanksgiving. Most of us have many things to be thankful for, and they are the more appreciated because of the trying years we have passed through and the future toward which we are all striving. In commemoration of Thanksgiving Day, November 29, our doors will be closed. We are thankful to you for the generous patronage you have given us.

Severe Winter Due Soon, Motorists Warned

OFFICIAL warning from the American Automobile Association, coupled with U. S. Weather Bureau predictions that this winter will be the severest in years, is being broadcast to motorists throughout the country.

"Groaning starters, sputtering carburetors, steaming motors, emergency trucks changing batteries, and tow trucks hauling cars away for a thaw-out" is the picture painted by the A.A.A. in its reminder to automobile owners that prompt preparation for winter driving will save them untold expense and annoyance.

"Many car owners await the first radio or newspaper report of freezing weather before giving any attention to the car in the way of preparing it for cold weather," the A.A.A. points out. "Then they rush to the nearest filling station, drain off some water, and fill the radiator with an anti-freeze preparation.

"Little or no attention is given to loose connections and small leaks in the cooling system. This often results in waste of the anti-freeze mixture through seepage, and the motorist finds his car frozen at a time when it is most needed." Procedure advised by the best automotive engineers is as follows:

1. Give the cooling system a thorough flushing to remove all scale and rust. The water hose should be disconnected and cleaned with a washing solution, one preferably containing soda.
2. Tighten all parts of the cooling system, with particular attention to hose connections, gaskets, expansion plates, drain cocks, pump packing, grease cups and fittings on the water pump. The radiator should be inspected for leaks, and necessary repairs made.

3. Use a standard anti-freeze solution, preferably of the permanent type. Motorists are especially warned against "permanent" anti-freezes which are not permanent. These boil away and leave the car unprotected later when an extra-cold spell arrives. The best permanent anti-freeze is the only safe one, and is by far the cheapest in terms of protection, and therefore of money investment.

The above map shows when the first freezing weather is normally due in different sections as indicated by U. S. Weather Bureau averages. This year, however, freezing temperatures are arriving in many parts of the country far in advance of these dates.

HELPS WHOLE FAMILIES

Attention, MOTHERS, to what every doctor knows to be a fact, and what they say to avoid

If you have children who are occasionally constipated, you should know this.

If you are "not yourself" because of a constipated condition, don't blame it on your blood condition, or your age, but first try this treatment that safely relieves sluggishness in children or adults.

The Proper Treatment
You can't safely relieve the bowels with any medicine if you can't regulate the dose. To regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative.

When necessary to repeat, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition at any age.

A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of such natural laxative elements as senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing

BE CAREFUL

- IF any laxative is dipetic (makes you thirsty).
- IF it affects your appetite.
- IF you need more today than the first time you took it.
- IF it drains the system (by too watery a movement).
- IF a bad "burning" is felt.
- IF there is severe griping.

herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drug store. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better overnight. The children will like it, too; Syrup Pepsin has a delightful taste.

If you will risk sixty cents to discover the safe, pleasant action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

Congressmen Investigating Gas Waste

This picture was taken at the Cargray "stripping plant" near White Deer, Texas, when the Congressional Oil Inquiry Committee, headed by Congressman William P. Cole, Jr., of Maryland, visited the Panhandle of Texas to investigate the waste of natural gas in the Panhandle oil fields. Declaring Panhandle gas wastage is "staggering to the imagination," Secretary of Interior Harold Ickes told the A.P.I. convention in Dallas that this must stop. The two pipes in the picture above daily allow wastage of 200,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas, approximately twice the daily consumption of the entire State of Texas. From this gas approximately one-third of a gallon of gasoline is extracted per 1,000 feet. The men in the picture are the Congressional Committee and oil men. (Texas News Photos.)

Whooping Cough Is Dreaded Disease

Austin, Texas, Nov. 28.—"There is no other communicable disease as dangerous as whooping cough to the very young, and there is no other disease causing an equal amount of suffering of which parents show such an unaccountable disregard, not only for the safety of their own little ones, but also for the lives of the neighbor's children," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. "There is no natural immunity against this disease during the first six months of life as there is against measles. It is at this age that whooping cough strikes its hardest blow and over 50 per cent of the deaths occurring in children are under one year of age. The disease is usually transmitted by direct contact with the secretions of the mouth or nose, and only a very short exposure is required to contract the infection. Handkerchiefs, drinking cups and toys may transmit the infection. "The infection is communicable from the appearance of the first symptoms and is most contagious at this early period when the nature of the affection can only be suspected. The incubation period is commonly seven days. A slight fever, running of the nose and a cough make their appearance so gradually and insidious that a diagnosis is practically impossible unless a history of exposure is obtained. When the "whoop" appears there is no mistaking the disease. If there is whooping cough in your community keep other children away from your little children and keep your children at home. Call your physician early. Isolation of all cases for at least two weeks from the development of the characteristic cough should be rigidly enforced."

Approximately 1200 acres of fall gardens will be planted in Texas as relief projects as rains permit, it was announced today by A. C. Allen, director of production of the Texas Relief commission.

"Friends when I received your invitation to be present at this great meeting for the purpose of addressing you, I was undecided as to what subject I would talk about, remembering so kindly the Boy Scouts of your city and community, I could not refrain from paying a tribute to them. For a little better than 29 years I have been a member of my profession and for the past few years I have been in close contact with Boy Scouts but no troop of Boy Scouts has ever impressed me more favorably than that troop that I met on the banks of the Verdigris river in the state of Oklahoma. It made me think and know that the training of these boys had been something out of the ordinary.

"I leave with you this thought: I expect to pass through this life but once. If there is anything good that I can do or any kindness that I can show, let me do it now—let me not defer it until tomorrow, for tomorrow is only a vision and yesterday is only a dream, but today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope."

"Look therefore to this day."

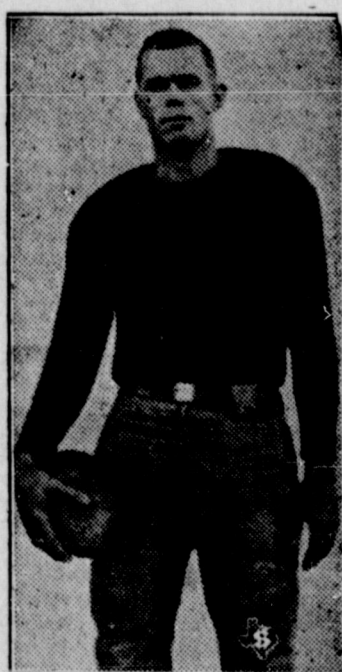

In token of the boys appreciation of Dr. Collins' services rendered them during their illness, and in being the speaker at their banquet, they presented him with a beautiful pen and pencil set. Dr. Collins received it with very sincere and beautiful words of thanks.

Dr. B. L. Jenkins made the presentation speech, in a very appropriate manner.

Selecting the best seed, preparing a good seed bed and good cultivation enabled A. A. Moseley, farming in the eastern part of Marion county, to defeat the drouth. He harvested 23 bushels of corn to the acre on eight acres and made 17 bales of cotton on 38 acres.
