Noted Leader Will Speak Here Tonight BIG CROWD HERE FOR SECOND MONTHLY TRADES DAY WEDNESDAY

FOLKS ALL COME IN AFTERNOON TO ATTEND PROGRAM

CARS JAMMED SOUTH END OF KEARNEY STREET TO GET LOOK IN

One of the best crowds in town this Spring came yesterday (Wednesday) for the second monthly trades day program.

During the forenoon Wednesday hardly a soul was on Kearney street outside the regular order—business men, clerks, grocery salesmen, etc.

Even at the noon hour, only a few folks were seen on the street.

But, by 1 o'clock, the whole scene changed, as by magic. Scores of persons, farmers and their families, suddenly appeared around every corner.

By 1:30, when Homer Mulkey and T. D. Nored drove down the street, announcing the program for the day and the place for it, the sidewalks were literally jammed.

The crowd moved, as one person, toward the south end of the street where Homer Mulkey took charge and acted as master of ceremonies. Cars piled up, so to speak, at that end of town. Folks poured on to the vacant lot south of the Hotel Clarendon. Hundreds of them gathered there long before 2 o'clock when the program started.

Following the program, the crowd merged back into the business section, and many of them availed themselves of the chance to see a good movie at a bargain or purchased supplies for the week, including dry goods, drugs, etc.

It was a most successful Trades Day. The next one is set for June 13th.

CAR REGISTRATION UP 70 PERCENT OVER THIS TIME IN 1933

Austin, Texas, May 16.—Gains established during April in new passenger car registrations in sixteen Texas counties representing all sections of the State were encouraging, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Registrations totaled 5,307 in April against 5,245 in March and 2,914 in April, 1933, gains of 1.2 percent and 82 percent respectively. Registrations during the first four months of the year were 15,839 compared with 9,343 during the corresponding period last year, an increase of nearly 70 per cent.

ZEKE SEZ

Much talk is heard these days of the "boom" in the McLean area of the Panhandle—because of the new "Gray-Wheeler County Hot Spot," as the Pampa Daily News terms the new field. The writer made a trip to McLean the other afternoon just to see, first-hand, what all the excitement was about. We learned, almost at once, that everybody in McLean believes their greatest and most worthwhile citizen is Vestal Smith. "He certainly has done more for our town than any other man in a long time," said Manager Springer of the corner drug store. "If we had a few more men like him we would start going places."

Other business men voiced the same strong conviction of the worth of Vestal Smith and his brothers to the area. Driving on north 10 or 12 miles and east about 3 miles, one comes to the new oil field, lying on both banks of the North fork of the Red River, most of the development being on the south side. There are two well-defined oil boom shack-towns already started in this area—Belco and Keller. Each has its share of cafes, hamburger stands, grocery stores and drug stores, to say nothing of three or four lumber yards in each place. They are about three miles apart, both located on the railroad. At Keller, the two main streets are already well-defined at the old crossroads corner. A comfortable appearing farm house sits back in a grove of trees toward the north, apparently not bothered about all the hustle and bustle of a growing oil-field town. The store buildings are large enough to accommodate large stocks, it appeared. Turning to the left at Keller, you can drive on and on through much of the new development—derrick just started, drilling wells, a couple of small refining plants just recently completed, a pipe-line under construction, storage tanks, hamburger stands, cottages for the workers, sand ridges, mud-holes, dozens of trucks of all kinds, many cars going and coming, another lumber yard or two—all the way back to Belco. In Belco there are several cafes, a drug store, grocery and lumber yards. In front of one tent is a hamburger sign. Farm houses sit back, snug among orchards, in which half grown peaches abound. The foreman on the pipe-line informed us truck-drivers are now getting $5 a day in the field. He also told us operations are on a larger scale toward the east from Keller, where many new locations have just been made. "You reckon there is going to be some development here?" was the foolish question we put to him. "Yeh, I reckon so," he replied in a matter-of-fact tone, not enlightening us one bit as to actual importance of what is going on hereabouts.

Frost Fails To Reach Section But Rain Falls

Although frost was predicted for this section last Tuesday following a 45-degree temperature reading Monday morning, the frost failed to appear and the fruit crop has been saved so far.

Rain, totalling half an inch here and more in other parts of the county, fell throughout this section Sunday night and Monday afternoon, enough to satisfy all demands, it is said.

Cotton planting is the order of the day now with many farmers of the county, according to Bert Mayfield, well-known grower. Corn is up in some places but much corn will be planted around June 1st.

LEGION FOLLIES TO BE PRESENTED HERE ON MAY 29

MEMORIAL DAY ALSO TO BE OBSERVED BY THE VETERANS

"Legion Follies of 1934" will be staged under the auspices of the Aubyn E. Clark post of the Legion on the night of May 29 at the college auditorium, according to an announcement yesterday by Post Commander G. L. Boykin.

The entire post membership is solidly behind this show, which it is hoped will be one of the best ever presented here.

"We will have the best talent in dance and song in the city," says the post commander. "The choruses have been rehearsing for the past month. We also will present a play, in which some of the best talent of the city will take part. The program is expected to be a wow. No one will want to miss the Legion Follies."

Miss Mary Cooke, dancing instructor, is assisting the Legion committee, Ralph Kerbow and Clyde Price. Miss Cooke will present her pupils in several numbers on the program, assuring plenty of choruses.

The publicity committee was announced Tuesday night, at the regular meeting of the post, to include Nugent E. Brown, Barcus Antrobus and Sullivan Cooper. The ticket committee includes Ralph Andis, Cap Morris and J. H. Morris. The ticket sale is expected to get under way at once.

The Legion also announces plans are under way for observance of Memorial Day on May 30, when the Auxiliary and Legion will hold a joint service at Legion Hall at 10:30 after which a march to the cemetery will be made so that graves of veterans of all wars may be decorated. There are said to be 136 of these graves. The Legion committee on Memorial Day includes: R. Y. King, Joe Holland and T. R. Brown.

OPENS NEW BUSINESS HERE

W. W. Garmon, announces opening of the "Fair Deal Produce" store in old Dunn building, west of city hall.

Mr. Garmon is well known to folks all over Donley County and has many friends among the farmers who wish him success. He will buy cream, poultry, eggs and hides.

Howja Like To Be Stuck Out In Quick-Sand With Dusk Settling Down and Coyotes Howling about You? No Phones, No Help, Miles From All Civilization?

One of the most trying and most exasperating experiences a busy business man can have is to be helplessly delayed on a road by car trouble.

If the car trouble happens on a little-travelled road where no cars pass for hours, it is still more exasperating.

Then, if the victim happens to pick a quick-sand hole in a river bed for the place where his car refuses to go, it is doubly exasperating!

But, suppose you were Manager Homer Mulkey of the Pastime Theatre and got stuck in quick-sand with a heavy car on the edge of the South fork of the Red River, "somewhere north of Hedley," on the opening night of Will Rogers' famous movie, "David Harum," and miles from a telephone or help, with dusk settling down—"million coyotes howling all about you"—and your partner in trouble had been gone two hours—!!!

Well, that is exactly what happened on Thursday afternoon late of last week when Mr. Mulkey and Allen Bryan, members of the trades day committee, attempted to cross the river at that point, coming toward Hedley from the McLean country. They were out distributing circulars and had about an hour's work around the Bray school neighborhood. Then they would reach town long before dark.

"But we ran into a mud-hole just at the point where the road comes into the river bed on the north side and because I took it slow we stuck," says Mr. Mulkey.

"A small car came along, driven by Mr. Watkins. Allen got into the car and went with Mr. Watkins to get some mules which they thought best to use to pull us out.

"It was then that I waited two hours or longer," says the genial Abe. "As dusk slowly settled about me, by myself out there in that wilderness with not

CHECKS ISSUED FOR PAYMENT OF RIGHT OF WAY

STATE AND COUNTY PAY OFF ON HIGHWAY 5 ROUTE EAST

Some sixty-six property owners along the new right-of-way for Highway 5 from Clarendon east to the Hall County line are getting checks this week in payment of said right-of-way, according to a statement issued yesterday by Judge Sam Lowe.

"The State is paying half of the cost, or $8,632.38, with the county paying the same amount," said the judge. "The county, in addition, will have to move about five houses that are on the new right-of-way."

Property owners began to come in Tuesday to get their checks, following Monday's regular meeting of the commissioners' court when enough 5 percent interest bearing warrants of the county were authorized to pay off the county's portion. These warrants are payable January 25, 1935.

Following presentation of a petition from 51 property owners in Precinct No. 11, a stock law election was ordered for that precinct on June 11 with J. D. Wood as the presiding judge.

The court voted $500 to the Adair Hospital, following a report showing need for the funds. A motion was passed, asking Lon Howard to cut a dam now on his property which is said to prevent flood water from following its natural flow, thereby damaging county road and property adjacent on east side of said road. Commissioners Harris, Beverly and Beck voted for the motion, with Commissioners J. L. Hawkins voting against it.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fink of Childress spent the weekend with Mrs. O. L. Fink.

Former Resident Dies In Amarillo

Old-time residents of Clarendon and the Panhandle were saddened by the news that Donald (Uncle Dan) Bell, 77, retired railroad employee had died at his home in Amarillo, last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bell was a resident of this section for many years, moving with his family to Amarillo in 1924. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Marvin Hill, Pauline, Louise, and Rae Bell, all of Amarillo.

The deceased had been with the bridge and building department of the Fort Worth & Denver for the past forty years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Griggs Chapel, conducted by Rev. E. B. Fincher, pastor of the Elwood Presbyterian Church. Interment was in the Llano cemetery, at the side of his wife, who died five years ago.

HEDLEY SCHOOL HEAD IS LIONS CLUB SPEAKER

SUPT. STEELE OF HEDLEY GIVES VIVID SUGGESTIONS FOR AID TO YOUTH

A splendid attendance of the membership of the Clarendon Lions Club at the Tuesday luncheon heard Supt. Steele of the Hedley High School deliver an address full of warm sympathy for the young life of the Nation and suggestive of ways and means for giving aid and direction to their proper development through the medium of the service club. Supt. Steele urged that more competitive events for the school pupils in various lines sponsored by clubs such as the Lions, placing just as much emphasis upon literary contests as upon athletic. Mr. Steele is a former Lion and also a former Kiwanian, which with his experience as a school executive gives him a well-rounded viewpoint in problems dealing with the youth of today.

Lion Ralph Andis reported on the progress of matching a baseball game with the B. & P. W. Club, presenting a tentative lineup which would be acceptable to the ladies. Full announcement will be made later.

At the suggestion of Lion Link, Lion Porter told a South Carolina story dealing with the spectacle of a racking ox to cart as a lively means of transportation. This will probably be investigated still further.

The Antro Hotel was voted as the permanent meeting place for the Club under present arrangements.

Judge Del Harrington of El Paso was in Clarendon today visiting friends and attending to business matters relative to Lions Club work in this section, as he is District Governor. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Floyd of Amarillo.

Soft Ball Fans Get Plenty For Time This Week

By Rev. W. E. Ferrell

Soft ball fans of the city have been entertained with some real fast ball playing during the past week, and the interest manifested in the teams has been very keen.

Thursday evening, the Methodists and Highway boys played a fast and furious game in which the Methodist won by 12 to 10. Friday afternoon, the Presbyterians and Baptists No. 6 had the field, with the Presbyterians carrying away the big end of a 12 to 3 score.

Monday was a day of action. Baptist No. 7 and Highway were to play but, due to some unforeseen circumstances, the Baptist boys failed to appear, with the result players were picked from the crowd to help out. The game resulted in a tie. By a mistake on the part of the score-keeper, the game closed with the Baptists thinking they had one run to the good.

Tuesday afternoon, the Methodist and Christian teams met in a battle. For a time, the Methodist had the lead. The Christians made a rally in the fifth inning, when they ran in 8 scores, but the Methodist boys came back with blood in their eyes and won the game to the tune of 18 to 12.

Wednesday afternoon, the fans witnessed one of the fastest and hardest fought games of the season. The Presbyterians and Highway boys put up a real battle and, not until the last inning, could one decide which was winning. Final score, at the close of the seventh inning, was Presbyterians 8, Highway boys, 9.

The Legion and the Baptists meet Friday evening.

Walter Cline, whose name and story has filled front pages all over Texas this week in his work as retiring president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and his speech at San Angelo Tuesday when he "traded the relief set-up over the coals," so to speak, will be in Clarendon tonight to deliver the commencement address to the graduates of the Junior College.

Mr. Cline will be introduced by Sam M. Braswell, Dean W. A. Clark Jr., will preside. The program will be held at the College auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. Mr. Braswell will deliver the main address tomorrow (Friday) night for the high school graduation exercises, to be held at the Methodist church. Supt. H. T. Burton will introduce the speaker on this occasion.

On the program this evening, Dean Clark will present the class to whom Fred E. Chamberlain, president of the board, will present the diplomas.

At the high school exercises tomorrow night, O. C. Watson will present the diplomas to the 42 graduates.

The junior high school will have its graduation exercises tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock in the Junior high auditorium, according to Principal R. E. Drennan.

Rev. Robert S. McKee will deliver the address.

Judge Lowe To Deliver Address To Hedley Grads

Annual commencement week for the Hedley schools will begin next Sunday night with the baccalaureate sermon to be preached by Rev. E. D. Landreth, pastor of the Memphis Methodist church.

Judge Sam Lowe of this city will deliver the commencement address on Thursday night, May 24th, at the high school auditorium. He will be introduced by Supt. S. R. Steele of Hedley.

The class of graduates this year at Hedley totals 22, according to Supt. Steele.

CLARENDON SENDS DELEGATES TO THE BAPTIST CONVENTION

Delegates from the Baptist church of Clarendon to the Baptist convention, which opened in Fort Worth yesterday, include Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lowe as the official delegates and Mrs. B. N. Shepherd, Miss Jessie Cook and G. W. Antrobus.

Mr. Antrobus left last Friday morning for Fort Worth, as he intended to attend a Bible school which was conducted for several days previous to the opening of the big convention. He will remain throughout week.

The others left here Sunday. They are expected to return Sunday night or Monday, the convention being due to close on Sunday evening.

He had only recently gone to Stephenville to visit a daughter, Mrs. C. W. Williams. The two sons and their families left Wednesday go to be at the bedside of their parent who was seriously ill then.

Mrs. Stricklin, wife of the deceased, died about a year ago. He will be buried beside her in the old family cemetery near Stephenville, services to be held Friday.

HIGH TARIFF BRINGS UNEMPLOYMENT AND LOWER COTTON PRICES TO THE SOUTH

So much public interest is in the strangle-hold of so-called recovery policies of the federal government, that only a small minority sees the one immovable mountain in the road of real recovery and progress for the South, which is without question the high tariff policies inherited from the Republican administration and still generally in effect. We cannot expect a wiping out of unemployment in the South until the causes of unemployment are removed—we cannot expect economic conditions to approach a normal level until we have a foreign demand for our cotton—we cannot expect our foreign cotton markets to be open to us again until tariffs are lowered so that European nations will feel inclined to trade with us again. Incidentally, the war debts are also bound up in the matter, and as we have declared time and time again, the penalty of keeping the war debts on our books is costing us more than they are worth, and a quick settlement on some fair basis will be money to the United States and profitable commerce to our citizenship. Surely, these obvious facts should percolate into the "brain trust" at Washington before many weeks, and if not, ruthless pressure from the South should be brought to bear in no uncertain manner.

Hon. Peter Molyneux in the Texas Weekly concludes a splendid illuminating article on this very problem in the last issue of that interesting periodical as follows:

"The high tariff policy will no longer work for the United States. It causes unemployment by destroying the market for American goods abroad. It has always placed producers of export commodities at a disadvantage by compelling them to pay high tariff prices for everything they buy, while selling their own product at world prices. Now it adds insult to injury, so to speak, because it not only attempts to maintain high domestic prices for tariff protected commodities, but it debases the prices of the producer of export commodities by destroying his market altogether. How long will it take the American people to discover this?"

EDUCATOR LOOKS AT LIQUOR HABIT

Dr. Joy E. Morgan, editor of the Journal of the National Education Association, says: "The cause of abstinence is getting ready for a great new growth. People are beginning to see what liquor drinking means. Just now the liquor tide is running strong. Those people who shift about with every changing fad are easy victims to this new form of commercial exploitation. But there is another group of young men and women who have too much self-respect to fall victims to such a destructive and wasteful habit. They will keep themselves clean and strong. And out of their courage and strength and independence will come the leadership of tomorrow. During many years in public life I have had an opportunity to watch the careers of many men. I have never known a drinking man who would not have been stronger without the habit. If there was ever a time when America needed to be sober, that time is now. The men and women who refuse to drink will have clearer heads than their fellows. They will see better and act more wisely, and just as surely as tomorrow's sun they will go farthest and get the best places. Self-discipline still remains the price of achievement and progress."

JUST PLAIN GREED

Certain great manufacturing concerns are strenuously opposed to "government interference in private business," as they put it. They want the government to step out and allow them to run industry to suit themselves. If our industrial czars were sane and honest enough to conduct their business affairs on a basis of fairness to both manufacturer and consumer there would be no necessity for the government to step in and enforce regulatory action. But they are not. The one great object with them is to profiteer at the expense of the consumer, and his can only be done by charging abnormal prices which the public can ill afford to pay.

Government knows this, and is endeavoring to find a solution that will be fair and just to all parties concerned. No such action can be expected from industry as long as government allows the czars a free hand.

It may even become necessary for the government to fix uniform prices on all articles of consumption, if the men engaged in such business cannot curb their insane desire to profiteer.—Democrat-Tribune, Carmi, Ill.

TAXES FROM LIQUOR

Recent figures on the amount of taxation which the states and the Federal Government received from beer and liquor during the first year of legal beer and the four months of legal liquor are given at $236,782,116. The Government's share is estimated at something over $137,000,000. The pre-repeal estimates of repealer varied from one to five billion dollars.

History shows many examples of taxing a people until they repudiate tax obligations.

CRIME LEGISLATION

Quick passage in the lower house of Congress of the major part of the Attorney General's anticrime program foreshadows adoption in the near future. With the exception of transferring to Federal jurisdiction certain classifications of crimes, now difficult to handle through States by reason of the limitations imposed on authority at boundaries, the entire plan submitted by Mr. Cummings does not interfere materially with any existing rights of the State. Even if it did, however, public sentiment is rapidly crystallizing into the belief that the Nation would be the gainer, if greater authority in the pursuit and prosecution of criminals were concentrated in Federal hands.

The country is interested in the unique action which seeks to make kidnapping a capital Federal offense, if the victim is carried across a State border. Had this been in effect last year, the Urschel kidnapers would all have been executed and the latest Bremer kidnaper to escape would have had no opportunity of the sort. Few crimes, if any, exceed this atrocious one in meeting the death penalty. The type of low and cunning mentality which uses kidnapping as a source of profit has no place in a sunlit world and needs to be hastened out of it. Publicity given recent kidnappings has stirred emulation even among women and schoolboys. When these are given the salutary lesson of a kidnaper executed, imitation will become scarcer.

In all of the arguments that have attended the last weeks of the congressional session, the anticrime program renews the note of harmony and finds the country as well as the lawmakers cheering the Administration's war on its most serious problem.—Dallas News.

TIME TO RENOVIZE AGAIN

Last spring a good many American communities inaugurated renovation campaigns, during which local citizens were urged to have their property inspected, and make necessary and valuable additions, alterations and repairs.

The campaign provided thousands of jobs. It spent money through a hundred major industries. Essential improvements were obtained at a fraction of what they would have cost a few years earlier.

This spring and summer should see additional campaigns of the same order. The need for employment is almost as great as it was a year ago. The construction industry is still lagging behind business in general.

That peeling paint—the leaky roof—that ancient wiring which presents a constant fire hazard—that outmoded heating plant—that old plumbing—that rickety garage—those cracked steps—now is the time to fix and change them. It doesn't matter whether you have ten dollars to spend or ten thousand—in either case you are doing your bit to spur recovery, and you are getting bargain values.

Some sort of change is needed if our colleges are to fill the place they should fill in our national life.

Every individual is entitled to work, rest and recreation. Life is balanced when all three factors are controlled.

Capital is still hopeful that the day will come when it can sit up and take interest.

Goldston School Notes (By Mrs. Jim Baker)

The faculty for another year has been completed. There will be two new teachers in the system another year. Mr. Jimmie Millsap has been chosen principal to fill Mr. Gatewood's place, and Miss Bera Lambert of Alba, Texas has been selected for the sixth and seventh grade teacher. The teachers who are staying are Miss Willie Mae Blanks, the primary teacher, and Mrs. Orville Smith, the intermediate teacher.

Mr. Gatewood was re-elected but he received a larger school; therefore, he will not teach here another year. His school is in Wheeler county.

On Monday at the chapel period Miss Blanks and her pupils gave a very interesting health program. Miss Blanks seems to be teaching her pupils the proper health habits through play and as many other avenues of approach that she has available. Next Monday morning Mrs. Smith and her pupils will present a program of some type that will be beneficial to the participants and the hearers. We cordially invite the patrons to be present at each of these chapel programs.

Oh! Boy! but did Ashtola beat us in baseball last Friday. Well, the score was 4 to 1 in their favor; however, at that it was a good game. We don't have any alibi other than that they just beat us. They are coming here Friday of this week. We are looking forward to a wonderful game with them. You patrons come out and see the boys play and give them some encouragement. Don't think just because we have lost one game that we do not have a good team. Remember that we were playing against a good team last Friday.

Dickson Urges School Folk to Attend Meeting

District Deputy Superintendent Bryan Dickson of Childress this week wrote County Supt. Sloan Baker, again urging attendance on the part of school people of this county at the general meeting to be held for the district at Paducah Saturday, May 19th.

The letter reads in part: "As you have already noted from the program which you were sent last week, L. A. Woods, state superintendent, will make the principal address. His talk will deal chiefly with the plans which are for continuing the program of education in Texas that he inaugurated a year ago.

"A. A. Bullock, director of rural aid, will discuss the various angles of the rural aid law affecting salary, transportation and tuition aid.

"Supt. Sam Z. Hall of Spur will explain the organization and administration of his schools and the service which he is rendering the people of a wide rural area in his territory."

Trustees are particularly urged to attend this meeting.

"A Little Shaking"

"I think it meet, as long as I am in his tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance." II. Pet. 1:13.

Not long ago, I wound my watch before retiring, as most men do; but to my astonishment, when I looked at it the next morning it had stopped. When I put it to my ear, there was not a sound. Doing the next thing one usually does, I shook it and immediately it began to tick, the hands moved and it ran until the main spring was exhausted. What the trouble was I had wound the spring too tight, and all it needed was a little shaking. As soon as the master wheel received momentum it started the mechanism and the watch fulfilled the purpose for which it was made—it kept time.

Is it not true that frequently in life we become so "wound up" in our self-seeking, so engrossed in getting, that we fail to fulfill the real mission of our life, and it takes a little shaking to arouse us?

Shaking comes in various forms and in many ways. I. Sometimes it is a spell of sickness. Bent on gaining our goal, whatever it may be, we neglect our bodies, and sickness comes to remind us that should we achieve our ambition and lose our health so that we cannot enjoy what we have attained, we have gained nothing, but rather lost.

II. Sometimes it is financial reverses. In our eagerness to acquire gold, at times we resort to practices which dull the voice of conscience, then comes disaster to remind us that though we "gain the whole world and lose our soul, it profiteth us nothing."

III. Sometimes it is sorrow. Blinded by selfishness and having lost sympathy and understanding we close our eyes to the needs of those around us; then comes sorrow to soften our hearts and stir the better self to action.

So should it be your lot to pass through a period of unpleasant experiences, interpret them as being friendly counselors, stirring you so that you will be aware of the true mission of your life. Do not grumble at a little shaking. Thank God for it.

LONGVIEW MAN SEEKS GENERAL LAND OFFICE JOB

Walter E. Jones

Read the endorsement given him by his home paper, The Longview Daily News, of date, March 11, 1934.

"Rarely does Gregg County have the opportunity of supporting one of its own citizens for a State office. This year, however, it will have the chance of helping a man who calls Longview home, and who has always been prominently identified with the civic, educational and religious affairs of the community.

Walter E. Jones is eminently qualified to fill the post to which he aspires: State Land Commissioner. He is a licensed surveyor and an accredited lawyer. Both qualifications are of paramount importance. As county surveyor during the early stages of the oil development, and as an engineer actively engaged in the field for the last two years, he has been in position to make himself conversant with the land problems not only of Gregg County but of every county in the state. He has had occasion to go to Austin many times in the interest of land matters, and about each visit he learned more about the duties of the department which he now seeks to supervise.

Mr. Jones is asking for elevation to the post on his own merits. He is inherently honest, capable and efficient. He is equipped to handle the affairs of the office creditably to himself and to the state. His Gregg County friends are in position to assist him in the fulfillment of his ambition, and many of them have already rallied to his support."

MY POLICIES WILL BE:

- 1. Honesty, promptness, efficiency and fair dealings. 2. A strenuous effort to recover for the public schools every possible acre of State land. 3. A thorough investigation of all existing public land contracts with a view to straightening out all discrepancies, irregularities and illegalities. 4. I shall select my assistants with a view to having all parts of the State represented in the Land Office. 5. I shall cooperate fully with the other departments of the State Government, and with other people who have business with the Land Office.

Walter E. Jones.

The local church is at present without a pastor and the board is now seeking one.

Corn-Hog Program To Save Farmer Till Exports Improve

The limitation of American imports of lard into Germany to 40 percent of the average imports of 1931-33, recently imposed by that nation, will reduce lard exports to Germany to 65,000,000 pounds this year compared to 126,000,000 pounds in 1933, according to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. This is another reason that the corn-hog reduction program is needed until international trade picks up again, they say.

The Administration also points out that England continues to limit the volume of imports of pork products by means of periodical quotas. The United States' exports of bacon, hams and shoulders to the United Kingdom in 1933 were 56 percent under the 1926-1930 average. European countries continue to encourage hog production at home. The American Government, however, is exploring all possibilities for re-opening the world market for hog products. In the meantime the corn-hog program is counted on to tide American farmers over this trying period.

ALANREED MAN BUILDS SMALL PLANE BY SELF

Alanreed, May 16—(Special to the NEWS)—This little city is fast becoming air-minded!

The reason—a home-manufactured airplane is now being exhibited here by M. O. Stapp, local garage proprietor. Stapp built the ship entirely by himself without outside aid, using a model A Ford motor for the power. He says the ship will cruise around 80 miles per hour, following a test flight made by Pilot Gus Irwin of Pampa. Irwin says the job responds perfectly. The wing-spread is 28 feet, four inches. It is a two-place job.

Stapp has secured Government license No. 11,986 for his plane, and hopes to barnstorm some with it this summer, on Sundays.

Texas Musical Program At Club

A musical program consisting entirely of selections by Texas composers was given at the last meeting before this fall, of the 1926 Book Club, Tuesday afternoon, at the club room.

Yellow and green comprised the color scheme with only native Texas flowers and plants being used in the decorations.

About fifty were present for one of the most enjoyable programs of the year. Edna Boykin played one of Carl Venth's violin compositions; Virginia Bryan interpreted R. Deane Shure's "Yes-terglow," a poem of Grace Nell Crowells was read by Jennie Dale Porter, who also read a poem written by Mr. Porter's mother, Mrs. H. C. Brumley did a chalk drawing of Texas Bluebonnets, that was unusually good. Mrs. Lalar Wilkerson sang two songs of Mrs. H. H. Chambers, who is Mrs. Boykin's sister.

The Junior Les Beaux Arts Club entertained the 1926 Book Club, the Business and Professional Women, the Pathfinder Club, the Senior Les Beaux Arts Club, and the Mother's Club at the Club Rooms Wednesday afternoon, May 9th.

Mr. Floyd Studer of Amarillo and Canyon gave an interesting lecture on archaeology. Mr. Studer was introduced by Dean W. A. Clark, Jr.

As an introduction to his lecture, the speaker gave a brief talk on the Panhandle Plains Museum for which he has done much research work. His lecture dealt primarily with the Panhandle Indian. As a resume of his lecture, he compared Indian art with modernistic art, Indian agriculture with modern farming, Indian smoke signals with the modern radio minus the static, and pointed out the sincerity of the Indian religion to show that the Indian was not a savage but had, in a degree, become highly civilized.

After Mr. Studer's interesting and diverting lecture, refreshments were served to about seventy guests. Hostesses for the afternoon were Misses Jean Bourland, Carroll Holder, Joyce Link, and Joella Stewart.

Mrs. Elizabeth Powell, music teacher of this city, will teach at her home in Amarillo this summer, returning to Clarendon this fall.

Jack Frye, born in Wheeler County some 28 or 30 years ago, and resident of Clarendon for some years, during which time he attended school here and then practiced chiropractic here for a time, is now vice-president in charge of the Commercial Air Line of Los Angeles, set a new record for cross-country flying of the mail Sunday.

Frye flew a "Northrup Gamma" plane from Los Angeles to Newark, N. J., in 11 hours and 27 minutes time, the first trans-continental trip made by T. W. A. since it resumed flying the mails under a new post office contract.

T. M. (Flo) Pyle says Jack Frye is one of the "squares, fairest and most likable fellows he ever met."

"He lived at my house several years while he was in Clarendon," says Mr. Pyle. "He left here about ten years ago for Los Angeles where he went to work in a cafe. He and his brother, Don, soon purchased an old airplane and learned to fly. Jack's rise after that was rapid. He soon rose to his present position and I am mighty glad he has made good. He has asked me and my wife to make a trip with him sometime from Amarillo to Los Angeles. I took a 75-mile flight with him once at Amarillo."

The ship carried 355 pounds of mail and 85 pounds of express. Jack had flown a previous record from Los Angeles to Newark in 13 hours, 2 minutes elapsed flying time, back on Feb. 19th.

WITT TO OPEN HIS CAMPAIGN FRIDAY NIGHT

BELTON, Texas, May 16.—The boys in the famous old Whitehorse band of Belton are shining up their horns. Next Friday they will welcome a great Central Texas crowd and salute a native son, Edgar Witt, who has accepted an invitation to come back to formally open his campaign for Governor.

Friday night Witt will speak in the park a block west of the Bell County courthouse. This hustling on the bank of Nolan creek is the scene of many historical political gatherings.

Where the Austin-north highway goes through town a banner already invites travelers to and from the capital to be in Belton for the launching of the gubernatorial campaign of Witt, whose current service as Lieutenant Governor follows filling the office of Senator from the Thirtieth District as long as he is asked it.

WHITEFISH

(By Vida D. Byerly)

The pie supper and Good-will visit of McLean's Chamber of Commerce was quite successful and much enjoyed by all present. A large number of the candidates running for offices in Donley county were with us also. So altogether the meeting was a "get-together meeting."

The McLean Chamber of Commerce brought their Minstrel show and band. The Minstrel is an excellent piece of negro comedy, and was well played by all characters. The members of the band, the cast, members of the Chamber of Commerce and a number of McLean visitors all contributed to the sale of the pies. The candidates also did their part when the bidding started.

The audience was the largest we have had in a long while. There were visitors from Glenwood, Skillet and Alanreed, as well as from McLean and Clarendon. Our community came forth "full force."

The candidates present were Judge Love, Sheriff Guy Pierce, District Clerk, Walker Lane.

The community singing was honored Sunday night with a visit from a Snyder, Oklahoma, singing team. They are in McLean holding a two weeks singing school at the Church of God.

All members of the team are excellent singers and musicians and may possibly be asked to hold a school here.

Misses Lulu May Dinkle and Bobby Crisp and Billie Crisp, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fern Davenport.

Friday night supper guests in the Euloe Crisp home were Mr. and Mrs. Dee Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Fern Davenport.

Little Miss Pearlina Sprouse of New Mexico who has been visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Turner, for the past three months returned to her home Sunday. She was accompanied as far as Amarillo by Mr. D. W. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Turner and daughter, Lorene. She boarded the train for her home town. She attended the Whitefish school and will be greatly missed by her classmates.

There is a great deal of talk afloat about a Whitefish baseball team. Last year was the first one in a number of years that Whitefish has not had a good ball team. There are several of their old players who will play this year and with new ones that have come in we ought to have a very good team.

In Austin's colony in Texas, mechanics and men of capital received additional privileges in proportion to their capacity to be useful.

Mrs. Earl Alexander left Sunday for Fort Worth, where she will visit friends for a few days.

City Oil Salesmen See Conoco Movies

Adventures of a typical American family on a motor vacation trip under the guidance of the Conoco Travel Bureau and unusual views of some of the nation's topnotch scenic regions were highlights of a motion picture program Monday night which attracted approximately 63 members of Continental Oil Company's local marketing group to a special meeting at the Antro Hotel.

A number of the city's leading business men, not connected with this Company's activities, were also on hand as a result of an invitation by A. L. Chase, local representative for Conoco, and Chas. S. Richie, commander of the huge Travel Bureau bus which rolled in Monday afternoon carrying the new Conoco talking pictures and a number of officers of the marketing division covering this area.

The Conoco Travel Bureau, Richie explained, has grown, in four years' time, from a small branch serving a few hundred people to the largest free travel service in America. It was founded by Continental in response to the demands of motor vacationists and everyday travelers who wish to be certain they are taking direct, trouble-free routes to their destinations and yet see the most interesting sights found in the country they journey through.

Some idea of the popularity the Bureau has attained may be secured from the number of motorists served during 1933. During this period 196,415 groups of every state, as well as Mexico and every Canadian province. Of the total, 59,000 groups were routed into or through Texas, and, in addition, the 16,500 groups living within the state were given assistance. Included in the latter figure were 39 groups from this city.

Conoco division officers accompanying Ritchie were T. H. Joyce, Divisional Representative; Ed Fleming, District Superintendent; M. A. Naylor, District Superintendent and R. H. Robinson, Operator.

The Conoco bus is equipped with loud speakers which make it possible to broadcast radio and phonograph music, as well as announcements made by the bus commander, for almost a mile in any direction.

Free Conoco Travel Bureau service is available to all readers of Clarendon News, and may be secured by writing direct to the Conoco Travel Bureau, Denver, Colorado, or filling out special application cards distributed by all Conoco service stations and dealers.

MORE ROUGH FEED AND PASTURE IN NEW DEAL FARMING

COLLEGE STATION—Increased acreages of rough feed and pasture crops at the expense of cultivated crops is the desire of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration according to advices coming constantly to the Texas A and M College Extension Service. Such a shift will help reduce cash crop production which is being attempted all along the line, and will over both the output and the cost of producing meat, milk, and wool. This will also conserve soil fertility and reduce erosion, it is pointed out.

It is not good business for farmers to produce to the limit of the land's capacity when the market does not want all the product. It is not always true that intensive cultivation of the soil is necessarily efficient. It does not always pay to strive for the last possible bushel of grain or the last possible pound of milk. Less intensive methods which reduce volume but also reduce cost of production are needed now.

More pasture and rough feed is a program adapted to Texas, extension service workers say, and they point to thousands of farm demonstrations where this has been shown. If Texas will stick to cotton for its main cash crop, live at home, and for livestock balance go in more for pastures and roughness in the form of bundles, hay and silage, it will have the basis for a sound program which will fit the New Deal in agriculture, declares O. B. Martin, director. He would add to this the growing line of farm and home manufactures to complete the foundation for a desirable future rural Texas.

Faster Service Inaugurated by Denver Railroad

Effective at midnight Saturday night, a new and much faster schedule goes into effect on the Denver lines, according to a statement furnished the News by D. F. Wadsworth, local agent.

Much faster service will bring little change, however, in time of arrival and departure of passenger trains in Clarendon, with one train coming in at same old hour. This is Train No. 1 which arrives here from the south at 6:08 p. m.

Train No. 7, which has been arriving at 6:17 a. m. will arrive at 6:32 a. m., 15 minutes later, under the new schedule. This train leaves Fort Worth an hour later and makes up the full hour by the time it reaches Amarillo.

Train No. 8, southbound, arrives here, after Saturday midnight, at 11:01 p. m., whereas it arrives under the old schedule at 11:35 p. m. This is a difference of 34 minutes.

Train No. 2, southbound, will arrive at 12:20 p. m., whereas it arrives now at 12:40 p. m. This train will be in here 20 minutes earlier each day after Saturday midnight.

Effective also on May 20, Trains No. 7 and No. 8 will go all the way through to Houston. You can leave here at 11:01 p. m. under the new schedule and arrive in Houston the next day at 1:50 p. m. You will be able to leave Houston at 4 p. m. and arrive in Clarendon the next morning at 6:32 o'clock. It is a distance of 536 miles. Herebefore, through tickets could not be sold to Houston from here. Layovers were necessary in Fort Worth or Dallas.

Mr. Wadsworth calls attention to the fact that the Denver system pays a total of $21,500 in taxes for all purposes in Donley county whereas the revenue (annual) for the office here is only about $100,000, showing payment of about one dollar out of every five income to local taxes. The payroll here is around $1500 monthly, all of which is spent in Clarendon.

Mr. Wadsworth is agent and first truck operator at the depot here. Frank Johnson is truck No. 2 operator and J. H. Howell is truck No. 3 operator.

Just as well been in Africa. Wonder what it would be like to live way off from civilization! It is bound to be hell for a fellow until he got used to it. By George, I wish I was out of this darned place."

Such thoughts ran through Mr. Mulkey's mind during those long hours out there in the river bed, with the coyotes continually howling in his ears.

"I sure got restless and finally I wrote a note and left it on top of the circulars and started walking north to Commissioner Beck's home, which I knew was about 3 1/2 miles north. I thought he would have a phone, I only walked two and one-half miles before I came to a house where they informed me Mr. Beck had no phone, so I turned and trudged back, through all that sandy road. Boy, it was disheartening."

Allen says: "Mr. Watkins and I hitched his mules to a wagon and started back to the river and the car. I took us two and one-half hours by the time we got to his home, about four miles, and back in the wagon. We had an extra mule. But, more luck. Just as we got into the river, the wagon got off the beaten track and the wheels went down in soft sand. Then the mules began bogging, as Mr. Watkins tried to get them to pull us out. Two of the mules went down belly deep and the third one got across one of the others. It was a mess."

Homer adds: "We then unhitched the mules and took them to the back end of the wagon and tried to pull out that way. But the wagon wouldn't budge. I had just gotten back from my long hike to the north of the river.

"So we unhitched the mules again and each of us took a mule and started walking, going back toward Mr. Watkins' home, leaving the wagon in the quick-sand as well as the car a short distance away."

Allen says, "After dark had come on, although we could see our trail pretty well, often we would stumble into a hole in the rut, washed out by recent rains. We sent Homer across to the school house, Bray, while Mr. Watkins and I led his mules back to his place and got his car again. Mrs. Watkins gave us a half cake and we put it on the back seat of the car while we drove on to the home of Jess Stiles, a mile from Mr. Watkins. While in the house, the dogs ate up the cake.

"Mr. Stiles has a phone, so I called Clarendon for help. Finally got T. D. Nored on the phone and he got Casey to come with him. I told him we would be at the Bray school."

It was seriously near midnight now! "T. D. was a long time getting there! We found out later he couldn't find the right road to Bray. He came back to Clarendon, waked Sheriff Pierce to learn how to get there!" says Homer.

"Yes, we finally got in!" he was asked.

"Oh, yes, we sent Elmer Palmer after it the next morning. He pulled it in with his wrecker."

"And, oh yes, we paid the farmer with his mules six dollars for his trouble. And we don't know yet what Palmer is going to charge us!"

But, back in McLean, they will tell you about the new "boom" believed underway. "We haven't a single room left in town. Rents are going up. All our vacant business houses are leased. Some of the tenants haven't gotten in yet but they are coming. Most of us are afraid to make a move though for fear our boom might blow up for some unknown reason. We learn by experience. When we had a little boom a few years ago, we built houses and soon found them vacant on our hands. That is why no new building has started yet in McLean. "But the indications are the town will have to wake up Shamrock is filled to the limit with new people. Others are going to Pampa for accommodations. If any Clarendon citizen wants a pleasant view of a busy section, he ought to ride over to the new "hot spot" in oil circles of the Panhandle. It will give you new life just to see what is going on over there. Oh yes, we were told by the druggist of an 80-acre lease selling the other day for $80,000 cash—site of which is just to the south of the present development. The Smith Bros. well is called the "sensation" of the field. It was followed by the Skelly Co. No. 1 derrick last week—another 5000-barrel producer. Both are sensations and not far apart. There has been gas there all the while. Don't crowd up, folks. "Come on in, the water is fine."

Henry Williams has been back from Mineral Wells two or three weeks now. He went down there for a week's "inspiration," he says. "Wonderful place to get ideas," he confided to us. The other day we asked him if he knew of any real estate transaction locally. "No, but we are going to have some real soon, just wait—they will start buying real estate soon. A real investment—is money sent for old Mother Earth."

One of the most interesting buses to come to this city in weeks was that big Conoco travel bus which visited the city Monday and Monday night, stopping with A. L. Chase, local Conoco agent, and his retail dealers. The bus made the Main Drag a number of times. Its loud speaker arrangement attracted everyone in town. The musical program put on by Mr. Richie, bus manager, was very fine. But the ride in that fine, luxurious coach, finer than the private coach of a railroad executive of the old days, is what delighted a score or more persons who were fortunate enough to be asked to take a ride. Bruno Robinson, driver of the big bus, incidentally told us that in all their travels over the country they are not allowed to pick up a single individual, except Conoco dealers and employees, for rides of any kind or distance. Most of the time they are not bothered by bums as the big bus looks so much like a commercial bus.

Manager Chase can congratulate himself on bringing this travel bus to this city as they brought along a picture show, giving in detail the service they offer to public and retail dealer alike, which was worth a lot in inspiration to those who saw it. The show was put on in the Antro Hotel dining room and the public was invited. A good crowd was there, including many business men and teachers and others.

Sheriff Guy Pierce received his new sub-machine gun last Monday morning. He immediately set about getting ammunition and found only one box in Clarendon. He went to Amarillo and got more, so he is ready now for Clyde Barrow or any other desperado who might happen this way. Incidentally, the Sheriff has a special high speed on his car and can make 100 miles an hour with it, if necessary. "But there is little danger of my driving that fast," he smiled.

Another member of the trades day committee, Rhea Couch, thinks the crowd was smaller yesterday than it was on the first trades day. In fact, he says he is sure Homer Mulkey is wrong in estimating the crowd as greater than the first one.

Trades Day this week attracted more attention possibly than the first one, a month ago. While the crowd was about the same, more interest had been manifested in this trades day than in the first one. More people knew about it. Consequently, more of them participated in the program for the day. As the months go by, more interest will be shown each month.

The crowd at the trades day program yesterday is estimated by many to have been larger than the crowd here for the first one, a month ago. Announcement was made of the third trades day, to be held here June 13th. Secretary Homer Mulkey of the executive committee says he is immensely pleased with the results in crowd and interest. "It was a big surprise—to see the number who came Wednesday," he declared.

P. T. A. PLAN ROUND-UP FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

The Sims Parent-Teachers Association of this city is planning a Round-Up of all school children who will attend the city schools this fall. The doctors and dentists of Clarendon have very kindly donated their services in this campaign for the children's health. On Tuesday afternoon of next week, from one to five o'clock the doctors and dentists will examine free all the school children. Different members of the Ass'n. will be in the offices to fill out cards and help in any way. Other members have donated their cars and will call for the children at any time. If you will call either Mrs. C. B. Morris at 385 or Mrs. J. H. Morris, 182R, they can give you any information concerning this you may desire.

In the Constitution of Texas it is specified that "The Legislature shall not have the right to levy taxes or impose burdens upon the people except to raise revenue sufficient for the economical administration of the government."
