Drouth Broken In Donley---1.50 Inches GOVERNMENT RELIEF FOR DONLEY CATTLEMEN BEGINS HERE TODAY

BIGGEST NEWS OF THE SEASON

RAINS OVER PANHANDLE AND OKLAHOMA GIVE NEW HOPE TO FARMERS

The biggest news of the season broke Wednesday night in Donley County when rain—glorious rain, long-awaited rain began to fall about nine o'clock and gauged 1.50 inches before early hours of the morning. Clouds still hover around and more rain is in prospect.

The Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma was pretty generally visited by rainfall yesterday and last night and ends one of the longest summer drouths ever recorded in the Southwest.

Here in Donley County crops have held up almost miraculously during the long, drouth since June 13th, under temperatures registering over a hundred for two weeks at a time. The coming of the rain means a good feed crop for this county and a greatly increased cotton production. Young feed will probably make very satisfactory yields, especially with a late frost which some expect.

One of the greatest reliefs, to people of this section, however, is the end of the excessive heat. Breeding temperatures today following the good rains of last night brings smiles and cheer to the faces and hearts of Panhandle

GOVERNOR CALLS SPECIAL SESSION

LEGISLATURE MEETS MON- DAY, AUGUST 27TH TO ISSUE RELIEF BONDS.

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson has issued a call to the Texas legislature to convene in special session at noon August 27 to provide for issuance of additional state bonds for relief.

Relief was the only topic mentioned by the governor in her call. She reserved the customary right, however, to submit such additional subjects as she deemed necessary. The call was issued in conformity with a promise some time ago to convene the legislature immediately after the August 25 primary election.

The legislature will be asked to issue $9,500,000 in relief bonds, the unsold portion of an issue of $20,000,000 authorized last year at a special election.

A group of city and county officials is co-operating with the Texas relief commission officials in preparing recommendations for presentation to the legislature.

It was likely an investigation of the relief commission would be undertaken before action on a bill to issue more bonds. The commission has been widely split on several issues, particularly on selection of a state relief director.

The governor will be asked to submit, it was indicated questions of water conservation, particularly the proposal to develop the Colorado river watershed and complete a $5,000,000 dam in the Colorado near Burnet. A PWA loan has been obtained for the project.

Further extension of the law remitting penalties and interest on delinquent taxes is another topic the governor may be asked to submit. Texas courts have entered varying decisions on validity of the current law and it now is pending in the state supreme court for adjudication. The present law provides the payment of back taxes in installments but its benefits are denied those who failed to make their first payment by June 30, 1934.

Judge Link Is Allred Speaker

Judge W. T. Link, local attorney, spoke Saturday afternoon in Hedley and Memphis in the interests of Jimmy Allred for Governor of Texas.

Good crowds and fair attention was reported at each place and many compliments have been passed on the logical way in which Judge Link presented the cause of the Attorney General.

CWA LABOR FOR HIGHWAY NO. 66

DONLEY COUNTY WORKERS BEING ENROLLED HERE FOR WORK ON GAP.

The CWA offices in Clarendon has been a place of unusual activity since the order came down to re-open the NRS office for the purpose of supplying workers on Highway 66 around Jericho where the gap in paving is to be closed.

Mr. A. H. Baker is in active charge of the NRS enrollment and all those who are interested should make their application through him, or renew any former application now on file.

The McKnight Construction Company was awarded the contract for the unit one construction and work is expected to proceed in the next ten days or two weeks. This concern will be remembered as one having done the construction on Highway 5 from Clarendon to the Armstrong County line West of here.

The launching of this piece of work means the employment of scores of Donley County laborers and the circulation of quite a sum of payroll money during the fall and winter months.

Engineer G. K. Reading with headquarters in Clarendon will have immediate oversight of the contracted work.

Former Resident Dies Tuesday

News has been received here of the death of J. H. Kelly of Cleburne, Texas, on Tuesday, Aug. 21st. Mr. Kelly is a former resident of this city, being one of the surveyors of the present town. He has many friends here who will be sorry to learn of his passing.

His body will be brought here for burial, the services to be Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Citizens Cemetery.

Lee Casey, who underwent a minor operation at the hospital last week, is much improved and was able to be taken home Wednesday morning, however, it will be several weeks before he will be able to resume his duties at the Pastime Theatre.

Election Party May Surprise Us

It may be that the News-Rexall Corner Election party Saturday evening will hold a surprise if plans now in the making work out for securing returns from state races.

Anyway the County returns will be posted just as early as the county boxes are all in, and state news will be given if possible.

HUNTER RALLIES OVER PANHANDLE

PANHANDLE ORGANIZATION BUSY IN LAST WEEK OF CAMPAIGN.

Amarillo, Aug. 22.—The high point in the final week's campaign for Tom F. Hunter in the Panhandle was the large rally held in Amarillo Tuesday night.

Judge John C. Kay of Wichita Falls and H. L. "Jack" Adkins, widely known Amarillo attorney spoke. Judge Kay told the audience what he knew of the personal life of Tom Hunter, and of the respect given him by his home people. He said that the people of Wichita Falls knew Hunter to be honest and sincere in every respect.

Adkins discussed the issues in the present campaign, and pointed to instances where the opposition to Mr. Hunter had attempted to cloud the real issues through misrepresentation and misstatement of facts.

A number of rallies are being held in the Panhandle towns this week by supporters of Hunter, including Shamrock, Clarendon, Miami, Memphis, Silvertown, Tulia, Dimmitt, Hereford, Canyon, Panhandle, and several other points.

"In the final effort of grasping at straws, when they feel themselves slipping the opposition to Tom Hunter are making all kinds of baseless charges," Fred M. Seale, Panhandle campaign manager for Hunter, said today. "One example of that was brought out Sunday when charges were made that one of Mr. Hunter's campaign workers, a former relief employee was responsible for the treatment of the Panhandle on relief in general.

Next Governor?

"This is just another example of such baseless and misleading claims. For weeks and months we have heard the claim that Lawrence Westbrook and Harry L. Hopkins were responsible for the attitude toward the Panhandle in relief matters. But here in the heat of the campaign when Allred and his group are drawing on their imagination for charges, they claim that one man, although he has not been connected with relief headquarters for months, is responsible for the condition just because this man is working for Tom Hunter. During the time in which he has not been connected with the relief commission in any respect the charges were made in a bitter fashion against Westbrook and Hopkins.

"We want to warn the people of this section to beware of any last minute charges against Mr. Hunter, because they will all be baseless and without true foundation."

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Officer and family returned to their home in Tulsa, Okla., Sunday after several weeks visit here with relatives.

Bachelor Degrees To Local Teachers

Canyon, Texas, August 21.—Receiving their Bachelors degrees from the West Texas State Teachers College, McHenry Lane, Roberta La Fon, and Vada M. Waldron of Clarendon will be among the 111 young men and women to graduate on August 23rd.

Of those who are members of this class, practically all are experienced teachers who already have positions for the coming year. Most of them have attended college in the summer for several years. They come from points as widely separated as Canyon and Houston, Sweetwater, Texas and Tucuman, New Mexico.

After the summer session has ended on August 24, most of the faculty and students will be away vacationing or preparing for the coming year. The fall term of the West Texas State Teachers College will open September 18.

12-CENT COTTON LOAN TO FARMERS

LOANS TO COTTON GROWERS INCREASED FROM 10 TO 12 CENTS FOUND.

President Roosevelt Tuesday ordered the price of cotton pegged at 12 cents a pound.

Mr. Roosevelt said he had instructed the Reconstruction Finance corporation to furnish enough money to the commodity credit corporation to increase loans to cotton producers from 10 cents a pound to 12 cents.

This is not as much as Senator John Bankhead, Democrat, Alabama, co-author of the Bankhead cotton control plan, asked. He wanted 13½ cents a pound loans.

A statement by the president pointed out that the increased loans would enable cotton farmers to hold back their sales for a favorable market rather than flooding the country with cotton at picking time.

Considerable significance also was attached to the president's action inasmuch as it came in the face of a threatened strike in the cotton textile industry.

If the walkout materializes, it was pointed out, mills would be unwilling to take cotton and growers would be faced with unloading it at a loss.

The 12-cent loan price, it was explained, will give cotton farmers an incentive to hold until after the strike is settled.

Agricultural adjustment administration officials said Mr. Roosevelt's order was not an actual case of price fixing. They added however, that no farmer was likely to sell his cotton for less than 12 cents a pound so long as the federal government was willing to lend him that much on his crop.

During the 1933 loan program the cotton price sometimes fell below 10 cents—extent of the government loan—but it usually went back above 10 cents. Most persons believed that was because farmers kept their crops off the market, waiting for a better price.

The president's statement read: "To enable the cotton farmers to market their cotton more nearly as it is required for consumption rather than necessarily at picking time, I have requested the Reconstruction Finance corporation to make funds available to the Commodity Credit corporation that will enable it to increase its lending from 10 to 12 cents a pound on cotton, classing low middling or better, which is and has continuously been in possession of the producer.

"While the commodity corporation is still carrying for the producer about 1,000,000 bales of

MAJOR SIMPSON ALLRED SPEAKER

FORMER CLARENDON MAN ADDRESSES BIG CROWD HERE SATURDAY.

Major E. A. Simpson, Amarillo attorney and formerly of Clarendon, was the speaker here last Saturday afternoon in an open air Allred meeting attended by several hundred farmers and local people. The speaking was from a truck located just North of the Latson building and was presided over by W. P. Cagle, county chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. Major Simpson was introduced by Homer Mulkey, a long-time friend and neighbor.

Major Simpson launched into his address by telling of his childhood friendship for Jimmy Allred and the Allred family down in Montague County, and bore high testimony as to the fine ideals and integrity of the family, where family prayer was held every night—something much neglected in these latter days. He drew a parallel of the careers of Jimmy Allred and his opponent Tom F. Hunter, and showed how sixteen years ago, the former was not too much of a boy to enlist in the service during the World War while the latter devoted his attention to making a fortune under the easy-money conditions of the war period.

The speaker gave quite a bit of attention to the platforms of the two candidates for governor and showed in a conclusive way just why Mr. Hunter was advocating the repeal with all other rich men and big corporations in Texas. His ridicule of the tax plan of Mr. Hunter drew much applause from the audience.

Next Governor?

Mr. Allred's wonderful service to the state as attorney general was recited and the penalties amounting to seven million dollars received from big corporations by his department was given amplification as the speaker accorded highest praise to the young man with such an outstanding record for public service.

Major Simpson is a favorite speaker here, having been captain of the local company of volunteers which made history in the World War, and having achieved distinction as a lawyer both here and at Amarillo. He went from here to Quamah, where he spoke in the interests of Allred Saturday evening.

A light shower fell here Wednesday morning around 10 o'clock. Heavier showers fell in and around Amarillo.

Last year's crop and the cotton producers pool approximately 2,000,000 bales addition, it is worth noting that the still large surplus of cotton will, in all probability show this year a reduction of about 4,500,000 bales from last year."

Hunter Rally Friday Night

A Tom Hunter Rally will be held in Clarendon Friday evening according to announcement of Hunter leaders, with the speaking done by Ennis Favors and John Studer, Pampa attorneys, as announced by the Panhandle headquarters.

The speaking will begin around 8 o'clock and will be held on the streets. Listen for the loud speaker announcement and give these men a hearing.

CANNERY OPENING DATE IS DELAYED

DIFFICULTY WITH EQUIP- MENT FORCES LATER OPENING DATE HERE

Opening of the meat and vegetable cannery under the direction of the local relief agency was delayed this week on account of difficulties that arose in installation of canning equipment.

The cannery is being installed in the Kerbow building just North of the Relief Office and Mrs. J. M. Acord and Mrs. June Taylor have been named supervisors, which guarantees the standard and excellence of the products canned in the Donley County plant. Definite date of opening will be announced a few days later.

All canning will be done according to specifications from the extension service of A. & M. College and will be done on the following percentage:

With Relief Commission furnishing the equipment, cans, and labor and the producer furnishing the products, the Relief will receive on vegetables fifty-five percent of the canned products and the producer will receive forty-five per cent. On meats the relief will receive forty per cent of the canned products and the producer will receive sixty per cent.

School Bus Routes Under Consideration

Two school bus routes out of Clarendon may bring pupils in from nearby school districts for high school and junior college work, if plans now being considered are completed and adopted. A route North tentatively includes Jericho and Goldston, while a South route may include Hudgins and Chamberlain.

A meeting was held Tuesday night at the Court house of the trustees of the four common school districts and the trustees of the Clarendon Independent school district for a preliminary discussion, and another meeting will be held Friday night of this week between representatives of the four common school districts involved and Judge J. R. Porter and Odos Caraway of the local board to try to work out a working basis for the change.

According to Sloan Baker, county superintendent, pupils of high school standing from the Windy Valley district may be transported to Hedley or Leila Lake, as a result of similar negotiations.

The common school districts near Clarendon will have the advantage of high school and two years college if plans are found workable for the operation of motor bus transportation into the local schools.

T. D. Nored and family returned this morning from a short vacation in the mountains of Southern Colorado.

DONLEY QUOTA IS 450 HEAD CATTLE

THREE DAYS BUYING EACH WEEK OF 150 HEAD DAILY IS PLAN.

Beginning Thursday of this week the government agency will buy cattle in Donley County under the relief plan for Texas cattlemen, for three days each week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. For the present 150 cattle per day will be bought by the agency, and the quota of 450 each week will not be increased until the congestion in stockyards of cattle markets of the nation is relieved.

R. H. Muir, long-time cattleman of the Panhandle is appraiser for the Donley and Armstrong counties and will work the first three days of the week in Armstrong and the latter three days in Donley. Dr. C. Cherry is the veterinarian assigned to the two counties and will be scheduled as is the appraiser.

Cattle not accepted for purchase by the government will be killed on order of the veterinarian according to rule promulgated, and the owner will be paid a certain sum under the order. Here in Donley County it is hoped that nearly every animal brought in for sale will pass the test and accepted for shipment.

Cattle condemned and killed by the federal government on farms must be either burned or buried

BAPTIST REVIVAL ATTRACTS CROWD

REVIVAL CAMPAIGN OFF TO GOOD START WITH IN- CREASING INTEREST

The revival campaign of the First Baptist Church which begun here Sunday is attracting community-wide interest and showing religious power according to Rev. J. Perry King, the pastor.

Evangelist C. Y. Dossy arrived here Monday and is bringing some very fine gospel messages. You will want to hear the following subjects discussed. Beginning Thursday evening they are: "The End of The World and the Opening of God's Books;" Friday night, "Where Are The Dead?;" Saturday night, "Three Things To Remember About a Woman;" Sunday morning, "Prepare to Meet Thy God;" Sunday night, "The Unpardonable Sin;" Monday night, "The Home;" Tuesday night, "Why Spend Another Night With The Frogs?;" Wednesday night, "Hell Fenced In."

Rev. King says: "This meeting is being held on behalf of and in the interest of those who are lost and need a Savior. We are urgently asking the Christian people to make way for such ones. If needs be work in their place, stay at home for them, do anything that is right to get the min here services.

"We wish to again extend a cordial and urgent invitation to all the citizenship in and around Clarendon to take advantage of this opportunity of deepening your spiritual life and making your relationship to God more real to yourself and helpful to others."

The open air tabernacle which now has a seating capacity of 615 is being increased to 1000 in the expectation of that many in attendance at every evening service the remaining days of this week and throughout next week.

The music is under the direction of Mr. Earthman and the singing of the chorus and accompaniment of the instruments is already a very inspiring part of the services.

ASKS LAW AGAINST FOMENTING REVOLUTION

Millions of true-blue Americans believe this country has been too liberal with those who enjoy the privileges of our citizenship only to advocate revolution and overthrow of our government. They believe that the time has come to put an end to such hugging of adders to our bosom, and it became a matter of main importance in the recent International Convention of Lions Clubs at Grand Rapids, Michigan last month, when a ringing resolution asking for a law making it a crime to advocate or promote the overthrow of this government was passed without a dissenting vote. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, many insidious influence are at work in this and other countries to overthrow representative government by force or violence, and these destructive and radical influences are being felt in the very foundation of our American life—our educational institutions, therefore be it

"Resolved: That Lions International undertake a program to counteract these influences and enlighten our American citizenship and to construct and build the time-honored ruggedness of our American forefathers; and that Lions International urge a law making it a crime to advocate or promote the overthrow of our government, or any of the several governments, by force or violence, or to advocate or condone murder, assassination or terrorism."

Lions Clubs stand in the forefront of service clubs pledged to American ideals and institutions and with her 80,000 members pledged to the motto "Liberty, Intelligence, Our Nations Safety," and working for the passage of such a protective law, we choose to believe the day of the ranting terrorist in America is about at an end.

ALLRED A WORTHY CANDIDATE

The News has consistently supported Jimmy Allred for Governor of Texas and in this final week we take some pride in the evident growth of his strength over the state as those who lost the candidate preferred in the first primary have faced the choice between Allred and Hunter as good citizens and without resentment against the winner of the first round.

Mr. Allred has conducted the same open, vigorous, hearty campaign that has made him the greatest vote-getter in Texas political life for the past ten years, and has proven his poise by steering clear of the pitfalls of public utterance so fatal to a man of the type of his opponent, who has almost daily made such flagrant errors in what he has said and what he has claimed that he has been on continual defense. Texas voters are quick to detect this lack of poise and wisdom in any public man and defeat is the answer always given.

Mr. Hunter has failed to show evidences of personal poise, logical reasoning or political acumen. has allowed undesirable support to entangle his whole campaign and seems likely to receive a withering defeat at the polls Saturday.

Texas is going to reward a capable, honest and hard-working servant of the people Saturday when she elects Jimmy Allred governor of the state by a majority well up toward the hundred thousand mark.

TEXAS CENSUS TOPS SIX MILLIONS

As another boost for the Texas Centennial which is now on its way to ultimate success the United States bureau of census last week issued an estimate which gave Texas a population of 6,073,000, as compared with 5,824,715 on April 1, 1930.

It is a national item worthy of wide notoriety that Texas has within less than one hundred years grown from a few scattering thousands to a round six millions in population with wealth amassed apace.

All over the nation thousands are beginning to plan now a visit to Texas and her Centennial celebration in 1936, which is the greatest opportunity the state has ever had and means the dawning of a new day and tempo in growth and advancement.

THAT GOODNIGHT RANCH HOUSE LOCATION

With the building of the Paloduro State Park has come a discussion as to the original site of the old original Goodnight ranch house, or the "Old Home Ranch" as it was called. A Mr. Beard made a statement some weeks ago that the site of the original Goodnight home was just down on the floor of the canyon where the present Paloduro Park improvements have been made, which would be the establishment of a landmark worthwhile if it were only authentic.

Several weeks back Mayor J. W. Martin of Clarendon, a long-time associate of Col. Goodnight and early day ranch hand, declared that Mr. Beard was in error, and gave his version of the real location of the first Goodnight home.

In this week's issue of The News is carried a story dictated to Cleo Hubbard, foster son of Col. Goodnight, by Col. Goodnight himself, and a casual reading will convince any inquirer that Mr. Beard's location is in error and that Mayor Martin is borne out in his memory of the correct and authentic site of the historical old home.

The News feels that Mayor Martin has made a valuable contribution to the authentic history of the Panhandle in which nothing is so desirable as the truth.

OUR GUESS FOR SATURDAY

If the Clarendon News can guess again without stirring up a hornet's nest among the fraternity we are going to guess the winners in the state races as follows:

- For Governor—Hon. James V. Allred.
- For Lieutenant Governor—Hon. Walter F. Woodul.
- For Attorney General—Hon. Walter Woodward.
- For Railroad Commissioner—Hon. Lon A. Smith.
- For Associate Justice, Supreme Court—Judge Hal S. Lattimore.

AN OLD SAYING AND TRUE

The Dalhart Texan devoted some space the other day to a discussion of those folks who get so peaved with a newspaper over some political stand or policy, and in advising moderation closes as follows:

"However, as a general rule, remember this and check it carefully. When you agree with a newspaper and its news policy the paper is fair and the editor a fine fellow, but when you disagree, as a general rule, the same paper is unfair and the same editor is not so hot. That is an old newspaper saying which as a general rule, works out."

"Large Majority For Allred" Says Fischer

"Unquestionably, Attorney General James V. Allred is far in the lead in his race for the Democratic nomination for governor, and his strength is gathering momentum as the runoff campaign draws to a close," said L. M. Fischer, Amarillo attorney Monday upon his return from Austin.

"Reports received at State Headquarters from all over Texas indicate that Mr. Allred, who carried 113 counties in the First Primary against five opponents, will poll a large majority over Mr. Hunter next Saturday. There is a pronounced general trend in favor of Mr. Allred, which is daily gaining momentum."

"This noticeable widespread trend is due, in the main to four things: First, the attempt of certain of the defeated candidates to deliver to Mr. Hunter those who supported them in the Primary, lock, stock and barrel, without their consultation or request; Second, the open support by Jim Ferguson of Mr. Hunter; Third, that Mr. Hunter has put himself in a ridiculous position in proposing the abolition of the state ad valorem tax and the substitution thereof of a 'blended' tax, and the abolition of certain elective offices, the duties of which are to be performed by appointees of the governor; and, Fourth, the further the campaign goes the more the people realize that on the basis of common fairness Mr. Allred is entitled to their vote because of the unselfish, faithful and efficient service that he has rendered the state during the last four years as Attorney General," said Mr. Fischer.

Horses Return To 1934 State Fair

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 22.—The return of the horse, the jack, the jennet, and the mule to Texas is best evidenced in the increased interest in horses and the large number which will be on exhibit, will be shown in the Charity Horse Show, will be raced on the track and will be auctioned off at a sale—all of this at the 1934 State Fair of Texas. More than 2,000 head of horses will be included in these various activities at the 48th State Fair.

Premiums in the horse classes have been increased in some instances.

There will be a complete exhibit of all kinds of horses in the stalls at the State Fair throughout the 16 days of exposition. More than 1,000 fine horses will be housed in the racing stalls and will be participating in the seven daily events for 19 days—the race meet extends one week beyond the regular dates of the exposition. Horses which will participate in the Charity Horse Show on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 19, 20 and 21, will also be on exhibit during the exposition.

One of the big events in the return of the horse to popularity will be the auction sale to be held on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19 and 20. Draft horses, race horses, show and saddle horses, brood mares, weanlings and colts will go to the high bidder. This sale is being held by the State Fair of Texas, with the co-operation of J. E. McDonald, Texas Agricultural Commissioner; the Saddle and Bridle Club of Texas, and the racing division of the State Fair of Texas. Officials in charge hope to make it one of the biggest horse sales ever held in the South at any time.

LON SMITH'S CANDIDACY ENDORSED

The Pampa Daily News unhesitatingly endorses the candidacy of Lon A. Smith for reelection to the Texas Railroad Commission.

Mr. Smith's integrity and experience have certainly qualified him for the office he holds. If there is any good reason for retiring him in one of the most crucial periods in the history of the industries regulated by the commission, it has not appeared in the current campaign. Indeed, the many phases of the Commission's jurisdiction are so important right now that some extraordinary circumstances would be necessary to justify removal of Mr. Smith.

The oil business, however important, is only one phase of the commission's activities. Mr. Smith's opponent is seeking to make the oil industry the only campaign issue. While calling attention to the name of the Railroad Commission and citing its duties to transportation and utility regulation, Commissioner Smith seems willing enough to talk about oil.

It is charged—and Smith's opponent has not yet successfully denied—that Smith is being bitterly opposed by the "hot oil" interests of East Texas, which if given their way would wreck the industry and steal the birthright of Texas people. The connections of John Pundt are not such as to arouse confidence in his ability and his platform. A vote for Lon Smith is a safe vote at a time when safety is the keynote of Texas oil regulation. A vote for his opponent is a leap in the dark and a possible surrender to the forces which have fought regulations with every resource.—Pampa Daily News.

Allred Wins Suit For Recovery of State Oil Lands

Austin, Aug. 15.—Decision in favor of the state was announced Tuesday by Judge J. D. Moore, 98th district court of Travis County, in a suit brought by Attorney General James V. Allred, seeking recovery of 103 acres of oil land in the Tom Ball field about 25 miles northeast of Houston, in Harris County.

Trial of the case, styled State of Texas vs. Humble Oil and Refining company et al, began July 23, last. Attorney General Allred contended the land was vacant, unsurveyed public free school land. Judge Moore upheld this contention and further held that 41 acres of the land was subject to sale under preference rights to occupants who had been in possession of the land, such sales being with a reservation of the minerals in favor of the permanent school fund. Oil and gas leases executed on the 41 acres of land will be with one-half of the bonuses, rentals and royalties going to the permanent school fund.

The court ruled that the Humble Oil and Refining company and the Texas company, the two principal defendants in the case, were corporations and could not purchase land and that the remaining 62 acres of land was subject to mineral lease at a price to be fixed by the state land commissioner with a reservation of a one-eighth royalty in favor of the permanent school fund.

Duck Season 30 Days; Oct. 26 To December 30th

Texas duck hunters this season will be allowed to shoot fewer days, but these days will be spread over a longer period than in the past, according to new federal hunting regulations announced Tuesday by the bureau of biological survey at Washington.

The season was shortened to 30 days and in the various states shooting will be allowed only on certain days of the week. Texas regulations will allow the hunter to shoot waterfowl, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe and coot on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays from October 26 to Dec. 30.

The Oklahoma season will extend from Oct. 20 to Dec. 24 and shooting will be allowed on Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays only. The 30-day maximum was set because of the decreasing number of waterfowl.

Daily bag limits were reduced from eight to five and possession limits from 16 to 10 on canvas-back, redhead, eider duck, green-wing teal, cinnamon teal, shoveler and gadwall ducks, "because of the critical status" of these species.

The Associated Press dispatch announcing the 30-day season for Texas and the nation did not come as a surprise, for the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission already had recommended to the federal authorities precisely the same regulations for Texas as were issued Tuesday, according to Curtis Harper, superintendent of the state fish hatchery at Diversion lake.

Mr. Harper called attention to the fact that duck, brant and goose hunters this year must secure the federal duck stamp even though they hunt in their home counties. The stamps sell for $1.

SHAMROCK MINISTER SHOWERED FRIDAY NIGHT

Rev. Billy Reaves, Minister of the First Christian Church of Shamrock, who conducted the singing for the Evangelistic Meeting of the First Christian Church here, was given a pantry shower last Friday night.

At the close of the meeting, the members of the church surprised the minister and gathered at the parsonage here, bringing with them many jars, glasses and cans of fruits, meats and sweets. About thirty took part in this affair and all enjoyed it very much.

Belt of Trees May Assist In Drouth of 1964

Washington, Aug. 22.—That 1,300-mile belt of trees the administration intends to plant may reach maturity just in time for the next big drouth.

Experts figure that the trees, millions of them, will be grown in about 30 years. This present dry period in the Northwest has taken between 25 and 30 years to build up its water shortage and since wet and dry spells have a habit of running in cycles, the next dry period may set in around 1964.

The trees, however, will begin to be of some use as wind breaks and water conservers a few years after planting, as soon as they have reached a height of five or six feet, the forest service figures. It will take 10 years to plant them all. Preparatory work is under way.

The foresters feel certain the plan will work and that the trees will grow because it's been done before. Though this will be the largest shelter belt in history, the idea is at least 60 years old. Shelter belts were planted that long ago on the steppes of Southern Russia, where conditions are similar to the American prairies. They worked well.

The belts were planted as protection against the "black dust storms" similar to the dust storms of this summer in the west. They reduced wind velocity between the tree belts 35 per cent in summer and 20 per cent in winter. Evaporation of moisture between strips, as contracted with open steppes, was cut down 30 per cent, and grain yields in a typical dry year were a quarter ton per acre greater in the sheltered areas than outside.

LOCAL WOMAN IMPROVING FOLLOWING CAR ACCIDENT

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong is improving at her home, following a car accident in which she was injured, on Tuesday, Aug. 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong were enroute to Plainview to see Mrs. Armstrong's mother, when they collided with a truck. Mr. Armstrong escaped without injury, but Mrs. Armstrong suffered several cuts on the head and arms.

CLARENDON HOME OWNERS CAN GET CASH FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Today any property owner in the nation can go to an approved financial institution and ask for credit from $100 to $2,000 for housing improvements. If the credit is approved the financial institution will provide him with the money for modernizing, by the terms of the Modernization Credit Plan under the National Housing Act.

Many national banks, state banks, trust companies, industrial banks, finance companies and building and loan associations in all sections of the nation have been approved as agencies for extending credit. These institutions are now ready to have property owners come to them for credit. Likewise manufacturers, distributors and retailers are desirous of attracting attention to their products and services.

The better Housing Program is in no sense a temporary project. It was drafted with the intention of bringing about reconstruction of American property, and involves a program to last over a period of years.

Miss Alice Homel of Dallas is here this week visiting her brothers, W. O. and Frank Hommel and families.

TEXAS GETS FINE RATING IN FIRST U. S. TEST

Austin, Texas, Aug. 21.—For the first time in the history of Texas, the United States Bureau of the Census has published the Texas birth rate along with that of the other states in the Union. Last year 107,924 births were registered with the Texas State Department of Health.

Texas, in comparison with the larger states, ranked first in birth rate, 17.9 per thousand of population; third in number of births filed; and fifth in population. This is the first time comparisons could be made between all the states and Texas is proud of her showing in this first test.

The registration of births is valuable to the individual in that a birth certificate may be necessary to—secure passports, prove school age, prove citizenship, prove right to vote, prove legal age for marriage, prove age for military service, prove right to hold public office, prove right to property inherited, prove qualification for jury service, prove age under child labor laws, prove nationality in foreign countries, determine the birth rate in state, counties and cities, establish proof for pensions, insurance, compensation, etc.

Additional Loans For Drouth Area

Advices received from Washington today permit additional advances to farmers in the drought areas for the purchase of winter seed wheat, rye or barley, or for summer fallowing, or both, according to Mr. Charles W. Sherrill, Regional Manager of the Emergency Crop Loan Office of Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Sherrill states that in no case can a borrower obtain a loan for the purchase of winter seed wheat, rye or barley in excess of $400.00 or an aggregate from the 1934 Emergency Crop Loan fund exceeding $750.00.

As an explanation, a borrower who has received a crop loan of $250.00 and a wheat loan of $200.00 will be eligible for an additional wheat loan of $200.00 if located in the drought area. If the borrower has received a wheat loan of $400.00, he will not be entitled to an additional loan to assist him in the planting and cultivating of his wheat crop.

The time for making loans for summer fallowing and for the purchase of seed wheat has been extended to September 15, 1934.

CATALOG DEMAND HITS NEW RECORD, REPORTS 1934 TRI-STATE FAIR

Demand for catalogs of the Tri-State Fair, to be held in Amarillo, September 15-22, is the largest in the history of the exposition.

While only 11 years old, the Tri-State Fair has grown into the second largest exposition in Texas.

The exposition serves the Panhandle-Plains, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

The Fair Association, headed this year by Wilbur C. Hawk, is guaranteeing more than $15,000 in cash premiums.

Requests for the 1934 catalog, listing prizes offered in every department, have been received from several states by O. L. "Ted" Taylor, secretary-manager. Copies are sent postpaid to anyone interested enough to ask for them.

Daily attendance at the "free gate" exposition runs as high as 60,000.

Besides the exhibits, including some entered by Uncle Sam, the association this year offers many entertainment fetures.

ALLRED SENSES WIN SATURDAY

COLLAPSE OF HUNTER "BANDWAGON" INDICATED BY REPORTS

Austin, Texas, Aug. 22.—James V. Allred, backed by a tremendous public sentiment that widens daily, brought his progressive campaign for state betterment to the Texas capital tonight.

Thousands of persons welcomed him to Woodridge Park here, applauding his program for lifting Texas "out of a rut" and onto the highway of President Roosevelt's recovery plans.

The ringing approval given Allred's demand that Texas elect an "ungoverned governor," his support of President Roosevelt, and his denunciation of "politicians that barter votes for power," caused his campaign aides to predict that Tom Hunter's dictatorial schemes will be buried under an avalanche of Allred votes next Saturday.

The prediction was supported by thousands of letters and telegrams, written by citizens in every position in life, which poured into Allred's campaign headquarters here. The messages applauded Allred's decisive and constructive positions on vital public problems, and told of the collapse of the Hunter "bandwagon."

Hunter's fumbling on his stand for a sales tax; his effort to revise the tax program of Texas to further burden the masses while relieving the taxes on himself, his own oil corporation, and on other oil companies; his "two-timing" the people of Texas by running dry in North Texas and wet in South Texas; and his dangerous proposals that would wreck the public school system of the state if carried out—all of these were blamed for the collapse of Hunter's support.

"My oil man opponent is frantic and on the run," Allred said here. "He is stooping to all kinds of thing in an effort to retrieve himself. It is getting ludicrous, silly and foolish. He is fearful that the verdict of Texas voters will be against the politicians and big oil companies who have controlled this state too long, against his own selfish political schemes.

"I am asking the support of every man and woman who voted for C. C. McDonald or any other of my opponents in the first primary, in a united drive for the betterment of our government. But I am not going to C. C. McDonald, to Jim Ferguson, or to any boss and ask them to deliver these votes like Tom Hunter did," Attorney General Allred declared.

"I have nothing personal against either Mr. McDonald or Mr. Ferguson. But I say now that I had rather be defeated for office than to be under obligation to James E. Ferguson or any other politician for my election. Intelligent men and women who voted for Mr. McDonald in the first primary will resent this effort to trade them out as if they were sheep.

"Tom Hunter says he will be under no obligations to Jim Ferguson, yet he admits that he solicited Jim's support and asked him to deliver McDonald's vote, lock, stock and barrel.

"If Jim does that for him, and he does not feel under any obligations to Jim, then he is the biggest ingrate that ever loomed in Texas politics.

"We must have an 'ungoverned governor,'" Allred continued. "The type of leadership Texas selects next Saturday will largely determine whether we sink or swim.

"Relief must be provided for our suffering farmers and unemployed laborers. Progress has been made under President Roosevelt's program in some branches of business, but there are today nearly a million people on the state relief rolls, with the added horrors of a devastating drought, economic security is still our vital program."

Allred then reviewed his proposals for state participation in President Roosevelt's plans for old-age pensions and unemployment insurance; for a re-distribution of tax burdens; for law enforcement and court reforms; for child welfare and rehabilitation; for a greater school system that will provide rural children the same opportunities as given children in large cities; for adequate utility regulation; for safeguarding the rights of labor; for the unabated construction of modern highways; for reforestation, advancement of home ownership, and industrial development to absorb the state's unemployed.

Attorney General Allred will speak Thursday in Lockhart, New Braunfels, and San Antonio before swinging back into North Texas for addresses at Cooper, Sulphur Springs, and Greenville on the final day of the current campaign for governor.

CITY ENTERTAINS RODEO THROUGHS

PROMOTORS AND PARTICIPANTS ALL PLEASED WITH STROUD RODEO.

"Leonard Stroud is a real Rodeo King and is the man for us when it comes to staging an honest-to-goodness, old time rousing rodeo of thrills" is the way local promoters and Clarendon people generally express themselves about the Leonard Stroud Rodeo which drew great crowds and thrilled them all Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Top hands from ranges in several states and professional rodeo performers turned in sensational performances in the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce rodeo championship events here Saturday.

More than 100 cowhands paid entry fees to entitle them to compete for the liberal prizes offered in the rodeo events.

During the days of the rodeo, Clarendon was host to great crowds of visitors. Special motion picture programs, a tent theatre and an open air dance pavilion provided additional entertainment for the three days.

James DeArmon, was the most consistent prize winner of the rodeo and he placed in practically every event.

Fast times were recorded in the calf roping Saturday. Buddy Ellis, of San Jon, roped his animal in 15 seconds, but he was eligible to participate only for the day prize money. Bob Swofford, Castle Rock, Colo., used only 16 seconds, while Bud Standefer tied a calf in 17 seconds.

Swofford won Friday and was second in the finals. Ed Clifton, Clarendon, won the calf roping championship. Standefer, who is from Olton, was third.

De Armon won the bronc riding, with Frank Martz, Midland, second, and Joe Whiteman, of Clarksville, third.

Odell Bitsell, of Odell, captured first honors in the bulldogging, with Joe Whiteman, second, and Roy Mayes, Memphis, third.

DeArmon won the steer riding, and Duron Stockton took second. Joe Rock, Fort Worth, took third money.

Features of the rodeo performances were roping and riding tricks by Leonard and Mayme Stroud. Two famous rodeo clowns "Tin Horn Hank" Keenan and Grady Smith vied for the laughter and applause of the crowd, which was estimated at 800.

Joe Goldston, president of the chamber of commerce, and G. L. Boykin, secretary, had charge of the rodeo arrangements. Cleo Woods and Murray Dodson, of the chamber rodeo committee, assisted.

LETTERS from Our Readers

Readers of The Clarendon News are urged and requested to use this department where views of any subject, aside from religion, may be discussed. Slanderous and libelous statements of any nature will be rejected. Each letter should be confined to 500 words, because of the need of space for other local news and in order to take care of advertising patronage. If letters are not printed the week received they will be held over and used at a later date.—EDITOR'S NOTE.

Hundreds of letters are being written to World War Veterans by Alvin F. Jones, veteran and Houston newspaper man, relative to the Governor's race, copy of which follows:

Houston, Texas,
August 14, 1934.

Dear "Buddy":

"Somewhere in Texas"—when our company was threatened with invasion by a ruthless enemy—a mere boy, yet in his teens, who had left a humble home to make his way in life, seeking to acquire an education under impoverished conditions, heeded the call, "to arms" laid down his books and enlisted in the U. S. Navy. That was "Jimmie" Allred.

Somewhere else in Texas, a man just entering the prime of life, 28, flaunted defiance in the face of patriotism, disregarded the bugle call—"fall in"—and the fluttering "stars and stripes" as they beckoned the manhood of our nation to follow the colors, chose to ensconce himself in the luxuries of home life, while he heaped up his fortune as an oil man, profiting by the war in which millions of others were pouring out their life blood in defense of their country.

That was Tom Hunter. When "the boys came marching home" crowned with victory, the young man renewed his courageous fight for success, and in seeking employment, was referred to the wealthy oil man, where after long waiting, he was graciously (?) admitted into the "sanctuary" only to be told "I have nothing for you."

As time passed, we find that young man of giant intellect and undaunted courage, pressing forward and upward through years of faithful service to our state and humanity, until now he stands in the forefront, fighting the people's battles for right principals.

His political antagonist is that same big oil man, who dwells in a palatial $75,000 home on which, together with his oil wells and other holdings, he is seeking exemption from taxation, along with others who count their wealth by millions, proposing instead a sales tax.

Allred, a man of experience in state affairs, whose record is an open book of unsurpassed achievements on which there is not a single blotch of betrayed confidence, unfaithfulness or inefficiency.

Hunter, inexperienced in state government or public service, with no achievements to which he can point, except his personal fortunes and a previous political defeat for the same high office he is again seeking.

Allred, advocating a constructive program for state government "of the people, for the people and by the people," the enactment of legislation to meet crying needs of drouth-stricken farmers, the unemployed and suffering poor generally.

Hunter, advocating wild, visionary ideas of disrupting state government by taking many important elective offices out of the hands of the people and placing the duties of such offices within the power of a "Hitler," to occupy the governor's seat as dictator over the people of Texas.

Which shall we choose, if we want security in State government and real relief from the burdens which now weigh so heavily upon the people who need relief, let's put our patriotism into action again in FULL FORCE and elect James V. Allred governor of Texas.

"Pass the word down the line."
Your "Buddy" in service,
Alvin F. Jones.

Midway (By Mrs. P. H. Longan)

Bro. McKee filled his regular appointment. Everyone enjoyed the sermon as usual. There were 63 present at Sunday School.

We are glad to report Mrs. Lee Ursey better. She was rushed to the hospital Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson are keeping the children—the baby being only 20 days old.

Mrs. Snooks Andis and baby, Latetra Ann, also Mr. Wilson and two sons, Bobbie and Max, were callers in the Longan home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goldston visited Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Clayton and son Thomas, were callers in the Longan home Friday morning.

Mrs. S. T. Clayton was pretty badly burned about the face and arms, one foot badly burned, Sunday morning when a glass jug bursted in which she was pouring boiling water for drinking purposes. She is resting easier today (Monday).

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Longan and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Longan spent Sunday in the Potter home.

We extend sympathy to the children of W. T. Wiley. It was our pleasure to have Mr. Wiley for a neighbor 24 years ago. Night and day, he and his wife were ever ready to lend a helping hand in sickness or in any way. He leaves many friends in and around Clarendon, who mourns his going.

Jeff Potter, postmaster at Tullia, visited his brother, John Potter here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs Moseley called on Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Odos Naylor spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Slaton Mahaffey.

Miss Katie Meaders entertained her Sunday School class with a party Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Allen spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Longan and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Longan called to see Kennedy in the late afternoon. Kennedy is getting to be quite a checker player. He beat Mr. Longan in a game, and likes to play. So some of you good checker players come to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Morris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Morris, spent Monday in the Longan home. The day was spent in drying apples. The men played some dominoes. Mr. and Mrs. Travis Reeves came up for the afternoon.

W. K. Davis had the misfortune of finding one of his work horses dead in the lot one morning this last week.

It is still very dry. We are wondering how the few peas, melons and roasting ears ever made it through. Some have grown without one bit of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meaders visited relatives in Crowell last week. They will visit relatives in Colorado before returning home.

Our school will open next Monday. We are glad to have Miss Rhodes and Mr. Smith with us again for another year. They will return from Canyon where they have been in summer school the last of this week.

"Sing What They L"

Says Gladys Swarthout
Fame Heightens Her
Ambition To Please
All Listeners

An immense repertoire and amazing memory for songs have helped Gladys Swarthout to accomplish the thing she considers of greatest importance for a singer—to include light or popular numbers that are "desert for the audience." When she reached peaks of world fame, she was still as anxious to include songs in every program that everyone would enjoy. The Firestone summer series of Garden Concerts in which she appears each Monday, brings out in a delightful way her unusual ability to sing songs fitting to the occasion and the season.

The program for Monday, August 13, with Miss Swarthout, the vocal ensemble and William Daly's orchestra at 8:30 P.M., E.D.S.T. over the N.B.C. Red Network, is as follows: "Of Dry Those Tears," (ensemble); "Russian Lullaby," (orchestra); "Estrellita," (Gladys Swarthout); "Make Believe," (Margaret Speaks, soprano, and Fred Hufsmith, tenor); "With a Song in My Heart," (Margaret Speaks); "To Spring," (orchestra); "Oh Lovely Night," (Gladys Swarthout); "Pagan Love Song," (quartet).

TEXAS RELIEF DIRECTOR WARNS AGAINST POLITICS

Austin, August 22.—State Relief Director Adam R. Johnson today re-emphasized his position of strict neutrality in the run-off campaigns for political offices and appealed to relief clients all over Texas as to vote for "whomever you please."

Indicating his attitude toward politics, Johnson issued the following statement:

"Before the July primary I urged voters on relief rolls to vote their honest convictions and warned employees of the state relief commission not to take sides in political races.

"Today, officials of the National Emergency Council at Washington, D. C., notified me that they have received complaints about political activity in Texas. "I wish therefore to reiterate that politics has no place in the Texas relief organization and that no man need sell his birthright for a mess of pottage. The relief commission at its last meeting granted me authority to suspend any employee taking sides in campaigns and I intend to exercise this authority if occasion demands.

"I have instructed field representatives to inform county administrators of our attitude all over the state and I again urge the million relief clients in Texas to vote for whomever you please."

Miss Margaret Milam returned to her home in Memphis after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Teer.

Mrs. Lawrence Watson and son of McLean visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hinkle.

"Conditions of Salvation"

"II: The Inspiration of the Bible" In dealing with the general subject of salvation, we learn that it is a gift of God and that God requires us to obey His commands and instructions if we receive this gift. Salvation depends on doing or obeying God's will, and His will is revealed in the Bible. (Matt. 7:21-23.)

The Bible is God's inspired word. (Read II. Tim. 3:16,17; II. Pet. 1:20-21). Without the Bible nothing would be known of a Saviour. In the Old Testament the approach of Christ is gloriously predicted, but in the New Testament He appears as our living, loving Lord. Without the Bible, men would not know how to come to Him, or how to live acceptably in God's sight. "Belief cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God, (Rom. 10:17.)

The Bible, and not the creeds of churches or interpretations of commentators, should be our sole standard of appeal in religious matters. Error proceeds from man, but never from God. His word is absolutely infallible. "To the law and to the testimony; if they speak not according to his word, it is because they have no light in them" (Isa. 8:20). The Bible should be our guide—a lamp unto our feet, a light to our path. There is a Bible because there is a God and there is only one Bible, because there is only one God.

We believe that God inspired the writers of old to write the things that He desired and to reveal His plan of salvation, and that no man or body of men have the right or authority to change by addition or subtraction any of His sayings, laws or commands. The religious confusion of today has been caused by people making changes to suit their way of thinking. We believe if the conditions as laid down in the New Testament were sufficient for the salvation of souls, church government and instructions for Christian living during the first century, that they are sufficient today. If the Scriptures revealed the plan of salvation then, why not abide by them now. We believe that the Bible is inspired of God and reveals His will and desire, and that we must go back to the Scriptures for the description of the church, the terms of salvation, and the divine plan of redemption. Let us be fair with God and study His way, using the Bible as our text book.

The next lesson "The Way Revealed."

Fair To Exhibit Best Drouth Crops

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 16.—Results of many years of experimental work in drouth resisting crops will be one of the principal features of the farm show at the 48th annual exposition, State Fair of Texas, it has been announced here by J. A. Moore, superintendent of agriculture, who has been working with officials of Texas A. & M. College and other agricultural agencies and the state in gathering exhibits.

Special preparation of the soil, special drouth resisting seeds, and special means of cultivating are necessary for these crops and all of these methods and results thereof will be shown in the State Fair Agricultural Show. One feature of this method of farming will be an exhibit of corn where under the terrible drouth conditions the farmer raise a thirty-five bushel corn crop, while his neighbors corn across the road was a total failure.

Agricultural agencies of Texas have been experimenting with such crops for several years, but the 1934 season has provided the first real test for them and the results will be exhibited for the first time at the fair, opening Saturday, Oct. 6, and extending through Sunday, Oct. 21.

I, A. H. Reneau, do hereby swear that the above statement is correct.

Furthermore

The above statement in which Worley admits a lobbyist offered to give—and finally lent him money, shows that the Lobbyists, Special Interests and Utilities are afraid to have HONEST FARMERS and men like John Puryear in the Legislature.

CITY BETTERMENT IS LIONS THEME

TREES, SCHOOLS, CO-OPERATION, EDUCATION ARE ITEMS SUGGESTED.

Under the direction of Judge J. R. Porter, the program of the Clarendon Lions Club Tuesday at the Antro Hotel was given over to a discussion of "What Clarendon Needs to Make it a Better Town in Which to Live," as presented by several members.

Lion Fred Rathjen led off with a plea for a movement to restore Clarendon to her early day leadership in the Panhandle as a city of Trees, and outlined ideas for a city-wide effort to replace old, rotten, gnarled trees with some uniform trees best suited to this altitude and climate.

Lion Caraway followed with a discussion of the needs of a better school system here in Clarendon which can be brought about only by a studied and united effort among the citizenship. He expressed his great gratitude to the schools here and urged that this membership give the schools their best thought and labor to bring the city schools up to an even higher standard of excellence.

Lion Braswell was next with a brief discussion of the need of co-operation if the town is to make the progress it should. He said the town was not any longer a young man's town, but was growing too conservative as most heads of local businesses were more conservative than they were ten or fifteen years ago; that this condition was proven over and over again by the lack of general co-operation on any movement launched for the community, and called upon all alike to fight against this self-satisfied tendency.

Lion Douglas brought a message on the educational needs of Clarendon urging co-operation in the payment of taxes, in supporting the school board, the faculty and every movement that might mean a greater and more efficient school system. He called attention to the annual school budget hearing next Saturday night and said it was the duty of the citizen to be present and take an active interested part in the adoption of the budget for the coming school year.

OUR FIRST ENTRANCE INTO THE PALO DURO CANYON

By C. Goodnight as dictated to his foster son, Cleo Hubbard of Goodnight, Texas.

Our first entrance into the Palo Duro Canyon was in November, 1872. We then made our entrance by way of the old Comanche trail between the junction of the Canyon Cito Blanco and the main Palo Duro Canyon. It took us about a half a day to work the cattle down this narrow and ragged trail. We then took the wagon to pieces and carried it down piece by piece on the mules. We had about six months rations and much corn. This was also carried down on the mules. The canyon being narrow at this place prevented any buffaloes from being there. Hence, grass and water were found there in abundance and the cattle ran at their own sweet will. The portage (getting supplies and cattle down in the canyon) was over after two days.

We then started the herd down the canyon. As the canyon widened the buffalo increased 'til finally by the time we arrived at the upper end of the wider valley (which has since been known at the "Old Home Ranch") we supposed we had ahead of us ten thousand buffaloes. Myself, Leigh R. Dyer and an Englishman named Hughes (son of the great Hughes of England) were the buffalo drivers.

Such a sight was probably never seen before and certainly will never be seen again. The red dust arising in clouds, while the tramp of the buffalo made a great noise. The tremendous echo of the canyon, the uprooting and crashing of the scrub cedars made one of the grandest sights that I have ever seen. If the buffaloes did not come down off the mountain sides that were near us, we simply sent a sharp-shooter ball among them. A nearby shot would cause an instant stampede, making kindling wood of the small cedars as they came.

These buffaloes were moved down the canyon some fifteen miles giving ourselves room and grass for our sixteen hundred cattle. There we put on a herd line from the mouth of Turkey Creek and held them back, turning every day from eight hundred to fifteen hundred buffalo. This line was kept up about a year, until the herd was reduced by slaughter, by the buffalo hunters and then the line was not necessary.

At this time there was not an entrance into the canyon, except a few Indian and buffalo trails, for sixty miles; or until opposite the mouth of the Tule, where McKenzie entered with his army to fight the Indians in 1874.

In 1877 it was necessary to bring more supplies from Colorado, and prepare on a larger scale, to start the Adair and Goodnight herd. We left Pueblo with four loaded wagons, with a hundred of the best blooded Durham bulls that I could buy in Colorado. This bull herd caused much amusement and glee amongst their drivers, as to how I was going to raise a herd of cattle from a herd of bulls, knowing I had plenty with the herd below.

With this outfit we left all marks and traces of civilization at what is known as the Cimaron

Plaza, on the dry Cimaron River on the east end of the Raton Mountains, in New Mexico, striking south by east til we struck the Canadian River, about forty miles above the present town of Tascosa. From there we crossed over to the upper Palo Duro, coming more south by east leaving the canyon to the south and right of our course til we were opposite the "Old Home Ranch." The hundred bulls mentioned were put into the canyon out of the way where they would need no headers, and all hands were put to road building, each day building as far as we could, keeping all the outfit within rifle range. The third day we reached the Mesa, which overlooked the entire canyon, the large park below us held some thousand or fifteen hundred buffalo grazing peacefully at sundown.

The night that followed I shall never forget. As you probably know, the volume of sound from a large herd of buffalo is very great. It being mating season, the sound was great indeed with numerous stampedes making it appear to be very close. Mrs. Goodnight, not being accustomed to such scenes, became greatly alarmed, saying they would run over the wagon. I utterly failed in convincing her that the herd was miles away. It began to rain, the down-pour was terrific and the lightning a blaze of light, immense, with thousands of flashes on the wagon sheet. To pacify her, while knowing it would be useless, I got up and made a great fire with dry cedars, assuring her that buffaloes would be easier turned by a light than by a calvary regiment.

This was the first road ever made in the Palo Duro Canyon. It would not have been practicable for automobiles. The real road building from top to bottom with its many curves was about four miles, and it remained shut from this time until civilization reached the country. The first woman who entered the canyon after my wife were squaws with Quannah's band, when he entered the canyon and a treaty was made with them.

with the next 24 hours, it was announced Wednesday by County Agent Broun. If the carcasses are buried it must be under at least 30 inches of dirt.

Cattle so killed may be used by the owner at home but none of the meat may be sold or given away. The owner may skin the carcasses and sell the hides to partially pay for the cost of burial or burning.

No payment will be made by the government for the cattle thus killed until the carcasses have been properly disposed of. Several complaints have been made that farmers are allowing carcasses to remain lying on the ground and an inspector will check up in each instance before any payment is made.

Lack of stock water at the cattle pens in East Clarendon has caused some difficulty but County Agent Broun announces that water will be running in the pens by Saturday, so the buying will proceed as scheduled.

H. H. Fitzgerald, David Johnson, Thad Rogers, Paul Schull and Rudolph Wiedman returned Friday from several days fishing at Eagle Nest Lake and other points in Northern New Mexico.
