BUSINESS FIRMS, HOMES IMPROVED IN CITY CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN

MANY EXPECTED FOR TRADES DAY

RECORD CROWD EXPECTED FOR EVENT; STARTS AT 2 P. M. WEDNESDAY 13.

The third in a series of monthly Trades Day programs will be held in Clarendon, Wednesday, June 13, with over 60 local merchants, members of the Clarendon Trade League, participating.

Inducements offered residents of surrounding communities by local merchants are to be found in the columns of the newspapers, which the business men are using as a medium to draw the crowd on Trades Day.

The program is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock. Details and information concerning prizes may be had by seeing any local merchant who is a member of the Clarendon Trade League.

It is thought that, weather permitting, a record crowd will be here for Wednesday's event.

The first in this series of monthly Trades Days, was held in April.

Be here for this event and meet all your friends.

POTTERS TO OLD SETTLERS REUNION AT SPRINGTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. John Potter and son, Donald, have returned from an Old Settlers Reunion held in Springtown, Texas, Monday of this week.

At this reunion Governor Bill Murray of Oklahoma addressed the group as he was a former resident of that section. Mr. and Mrs. Potter report a most enjoyable time.

Lions, Lambs To Frolic Today On Local Ball Field

If the great historian (we've forgotten his name) that classified the 15 decisive battles of the civilized world were living today, it's more than probable that he'd have a sixteenth conflict to enumerate when the dust, hair and pop bottles stop flying this evening on the local softball diamond.

Maybe today's game, between the Lions and B. & P. W. teams won't be the battle of this century, but we are sure that everyone will agree that it will be the wrangle of this week. Here 'tis.

Place—Local softball grounds Time—6 p. m.

Umpires—H. T. Burton and R. E. Drennan

Rival captains—Carrie Davis, E. R. Andis.

Line-up

B. P. W.	LIONS
Huffman	rf Jenkins
Dawkins	cf Powell
Teat	rs Davis
Perry	2b Rathjen
Donnell	lf Merchant
Lawler	3b Hicks
Smith	1s Mays
Ross	c Douglas
Stephenson	p Watson
Wilkerson	1b Boykin

Reserves, BPW, Walker, Hartzog, Rhodes and Pyle. Lions, Pierce, Braswell, Bugbee, Caraway, Ragland, Goldston, Stalling, Holland, Teer, Carter, Bartlett, Patman, Nored, Powell, Mulkey and Connally.

The age old argument as to which is the weaker sex is to a large degree settled by the list of reserves named above. With only four players on the bench, a squad of meek little lambs will go up against 26 of the growniest kings of beasts that ever roamed this, or for that matter, any jungle. The Lions say "Strength lies in numbers."

Judge S. A. Penix Is Injured Tuesday In Automobile Wreck

Judge S. A. Penix, of Graham, well known in Clarendon, was painfully injured Tuesday night when his car overturned in a ditch at the first crossing east of Lelia Lake.

He was brought to the Adair Hospital by Ben Tom Prewitt and wife, who passed soon after the accident occurred. The extent of his injuries were cuts on his knee and a broken breast bone.

He said that he turned a sharp corner near the crossing and saw, in the middle of the road a car approaching, driven by a woman. In order to avoid colliding with the other machine, he stated that he cut into the ditch, overturning.

Miss Berkeley Ryan returned last Thursday from Waynesboro, Virginia, where she attended Fairfax Hall, to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan.

Russell Will Be In City Friday

Edward K. Russell, of Annona, democratic candidate for governor, will speak in Clarendon, Friday evening, June 8, according to an announcement from his North Texas headquarters at Dallas.

Russell, who in every day life is a farmer, states that one of the aims of his platform is the educating of the farmer in the diversification of crops, the home growing of feed for livestock and the adoption of a live at home program. He endorses the approach of President Roosevelt to the farmers' problems.

Another plank in his platform is his opposition to the repeal of the prohibition amendment of our State Constitution.

Everyone is invited to be on hand to hear his address.

TROOP 38 WILL RECEIVE CHARTER TONIGHT AT 8

C. A. Clark, scout official, will be in Clarendon Thursday night to present a charter to Boy Scout troop No. 38, in the basement of the Methodist Church.

The program is to begin at 8 p. m. and everyone is cordially invited.

Miss Mary Jo Chamberlain is home from Canyon for the summer months.

The lambs retaliate with "Quality, not quantity."

It is the earnest plea of the "umpires" that no one come to the game with murder in their heart nor mud in their eye. "We're gonna call 'em like we see 'em and if you don't see 'em we'll leave 'em up to the arbitration committee, composed of Judges W. T. Link and Ralph Porter," they said.

The finance committee, W. H. Patrick and Fred Chamberlain will pass the hat, and depend on you to "pass the buck." All donations over two-bits will be met with heartfelt thanks. All under that will be met with thanks.

A. L. Chase and Guy Stricklin, serving on the rules committee say that "Ducas of Dewberry" rules will be used and that throwing the ball in front of the runner will not put him out—unless it happens to hit him in the right place.

The riot squad, is composed of G. G. Kemp, Walter Clifford, T. R. Brown, Fred Buntin and T. H. Ellis. "If you need us just holler," one of them said, "but don't holler too loud, we might hear you."

Don't miss this game!

AL COOKE WINS '34 GOLF CROWN

DEFEATS BROTHER DICK IN CLOSE MATCH, GOING 38 HOLES.

Al Cooke defeated his brother Dick, Sunday afternoon on the 38th hole, to cop the 1934 city golf championship, sponsored annually by the Hillcroft Golf Club. By winning the crown this year, Al gains permanent possession of the cup as a three time winner. He was 1930 champion and repeated in 1932.

The championship match, played near par all the way, saw first one of the two finalists and then the other on top, with the issue in doubt until two extra holes were played. A large gallery witnessed this wind-up to one of the most successful tournaments ever played here.

At the end of the first nine holes the loser was 1 up. All led at the end of the 18th with an advantage of 2 up. He held this advantage through the next nine holes, being 2 up at the end of the 31st. Dick birdied 32 and gained one. He squared the match with a par 3 on 33 and halved 34.

Al gained a one stroke advantage on 35 only to see Dick come back and square the count with a beautifully executed play on 36, running the match into extra holes. Both players missed birdie putts on 37 and the match was decided when Dick put his third shot out of bound on 38, while Al came in with a par 5.

Al Cooke had won over Dude Gentry, 2-1 and Dick had defeated A. N. Woods, 3-2, in the semi-finals.

Meredith Gentry beat Ira Merchant 1 up to win the consolation round in the championship flight.

Wesley Knorpp carried off honors in the second flight by virtue of his 3-2 win over Otis Jackson. Knorpp defeated Hank Bagby and Jackson downed Alex Cooke to win their way into the finals.

In the third flight, Joe Jackson won over Bennett, Kerbow, 5-4 after the finalists had defeated Milas Little and George Carter, respectively in the semi-finals.

Garland Woods was the fourth flight winner, defeating Billie Cooke, 3-2. Woods beat Joe Goldston and Cooke defeated Carroll Knorpp in the semi-finals.

Much interest was manifested in this year's tournament both by the contestants and "sweaters."

According to members the source was in excellent shape for the event and some say that it is in better shape now than it has been for a long time. Nollie Simmons, caretaker, is to be commended for his excellent work in keeping the links up.

Forced Landing Field Near Here

An emergency field for United States mail planes, has been situated one mile east of Clarendon, it was announced Wednesday. It is on the Peebles place and was leased through a deal made several days ago.

L. H. Luckey, of Love Field, Dallas, was here this week and put a "wind-sock" on the field. The field is to be used for landing when inclement weather makes it impossible for the planes to fly on into Amarillo, the end of their run on the Brownsville to Amarillo route.

Flying on this route was resumed June 1 after a discontinuance of a few months following the controversy over who should fly the mail.

Bailey Talks To Good Crowd Here

Declaring that the major problem confronting the representatives of the people today was that of enacting legislation to put eleven million unemployed to work, Joe W. Bailey, Jr., candidate for the United States Senate, spoke to a fair sized crowd here Friday in a street address.

Bailey, the present congressman-at-large, rapped the acreage and production cuts program, stating that instead of asking the farmer to reduce his yield, the government should encourage them to plant more.

He promised the assemblage that if elected he would do all in his power to bring about the breaking down of the excessive tariff imposed on foreign imports. "If we make it next to impossible for them to find a market for their goods here, they may be expected to do the same about our exports," the speaker said.

Bailey closed his tour of the Panhandle in a talk at Berger Saturday night and Sunday left for Washington in order to be present to make a personal fight against the Ickes Oil Control Bill now before the House Committee for consideration.

He has been greeted by enthusiastic crowds throughout his West Texas campaign.

NEW PASTOR IS LIONS SPEAKER

SPEAKER AT LIONS LUNCHEON DECLARES HIMSELF IN FAVOR SHORT TALKS

J. Perry King, recently instituted pastor of the First Baptist church here, was the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Clarendon Lions' Club, Tuesday noon.

Reverend King, introduced by Dr. A. W. Hicks, who was in charge of the program, advanced some sound logic, relating to the respective values of short and long speeches, in his talk. He said that in his opinion, a good after dinner speaker was one who knew when to cease talking.

He further illustrated his point by making his address a short one, but not until after he had impressed, undoubtedly every one present, with his vibrant personality and speaking ability.

A round table discussion was held concerning the ball game to be played today, (Thursday) between the Lions and the Business and Professional Women. It was decided to take a free will offering at the game, which will be applied to the crippled children's fund.

E. R. Andis, captain of the Lion squad, read a list of the players to be used in the conflict with the ladies.

Arthur Chase Jr., played a piano solo, as part of the program put on by Doctor Hicks. It was announced that Homer Mulkey would have charge of the entertainment at the meeting next week.

In the absence of President T. D. Nored, who was attending the State Lions Convention in Mineral Wells, J. T. Patman presided.

Mike Stricklin, Bill Word, and George Chamberlain left last week for Beaver, New Mexico, where they will "dig for gold" and fish in the streams this summer.

Mrs. George Ragland and son returned here Tuesday after a visit with a relative in the Wichita Falls country for the past two weeks.

ALLRED SCORES IN SPEECH HERE

LARGE CROWD APPLAUDS VERBAL ATTACK ON VARIOUS MEASURES

Undoubtedly one of the most popular men to ever toss a hat in the political ring of Texas, James V. Allred, democratic candidate for governor, spoke here Saturday to a large crowd, assembled north of the Antro Hotel. He was introduced by J. C. Estlack, who in turn was introduced by W. P. Oagle.

Banging into his talk with a scathing attack on the allegations of his opponents that he was too young to "wear the governor's breeches," Allred cited instances in American history where young men have safely and sanely piloted the ship of state through troubled waters.

"I am more than willing," the speaker said, "to take the responsibility for mistakes made by young men holding public office, if the old heads will assume responsibilities for the errors committed by their ilk."

Allred passed over the tax issue lightly, saying that time did not allow him to explain his stand on the matter, except that he advocates drastic reductions in the present rates, which is, by the way, at this time, the highest the state constitution will allow.

State Needs Leaders

"This state needs leadership," he stated. "It needs to get away from the 'isms' that have held the upper hand for so many years. It needs to elect a governor rather than to defeat a candidate."

The candidate for governor attacked the pardon system by saying that it should be a duty of the pardon board to free the 'enemies of society' if they must be set loose to continue their depredations. "The freeing of the Barrow brothers cost the lives of twelve citizens," the speaker declared.

He outlined his seven point proposal for the regulation of the state utility concerns, saying that this was one of the major problems confronting the tax payers today. Some of the high lights of his proposal are, the granting of sufficient power to the state to wash out the watered stock of some of these companies, the subjecting of all of them to state regulation and the granting of more lenient rights to cities to set up their own public utility concerns.

Too Many Jokers in Deck

"My opponents have been promising you a 'new deal,' Allred went on. "There can be no 'new deal' until there's a new dealer and a new deck. There are too many jokers in the o' pack. Too many jokers, dealt by

William McCraw Will Speak Here

William McCraw, Dallas, democratic candidate for the office of Attorney-General, will fill a speaking engagement in Clarendon Friday, according to word received here from his office Wednesday.

McCraw, present district attorney of Dallas county is a native of Tarrant county and is reputed to be one of the best political campaigners the state has ever seen. Incidentally in all his political career he has never had to be in a run-off.

Following his talk here, McCraw will be in Berger and Pampa and will spend Sunday in Amarillo, campaigning there extensively Monday.

Hedley Minister Is Absolved In Fatal Accident

An unavoidable accident caused the death of Mrs. C. A. Cargill of Wichita Falls. She was injured Monday shortly before noon as she crossed the Iowa Park highway near Wichita Falls and was struck by an automobile being driven by Rev. A. V. Hendricks, Methodist minister of Hedley, Texas.

As she crossed the pavement she ran into the path of the automobile and driver, was unable to avoid the accident. He was absolved of blame in the accident in a court of inquiry held shortly after the accident before a Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Hendricks, accompanied by his wife and two children and Misses Bordie Gilliam, Jewell Everett, and Martha Sue Noel, all of Hedley were enroute to an Epworth League meeting in Abilene. Each person testified in a court of inquiry held immediately after the accident.

Cooking School Closes Friday

The three day cooking school closed Friday, reporting a good attendance throughout. The demonstrations were conducted by Miss Zella Allen, food expert, and the affair was sponsored by the West Texas Utilities Company.

Practical demonstrations in both the preparing and serving of food were given by Miss Allen who worked from an electrically equipped kitchen, in the basement of the First Christian church.

Miss Allen left following the close of the school here, for a few days visit at her home in Graham, Texas. She stated that she expected to conduct several cooking schools in the vicinity of Graham during the next few weeks.

Palmer Bros. Will Present Matinee Friday, Next Week

"These Thirty Years," a nine reel feature moving picture show will be presented at the Pastime Theatre, as a matinee, Friday afternoon, June 15, under the auspices of the Palmer Motor Co., local Ford dealers.

The film, produced by the Ford Motor Company is full of action, thrills, romance and valuable information, according to its sponsors.

Free tickets to the matinee may be had by calling for them at the local Ford dealers. The coming of this feature was announced by the Palmer Brothers a few weeks ago.

Rain Totaling 1.45 Inches Falls Here

A beneficial rain, totaling about 1.45 inches fell here Sunday evening and night. Beginning with a slow drizzle about 9 o'clock, the rain was falling in the form of a steady downpour by 10 p. m.

Although this recent downfall will make the weeds grow in gargantuan proportions, it is helpful to the farmer in that it soaks some much needed moisture into the ground.

As one farmer said Wednesday, "I'd rather fight weeds and have a good crop than to see a clean one burn up."

BUSINESS MEN IN CLEAN UP DRIVE

LOWE'S STORE, TWO BANKS, RE-MODELED AND RE-PAINTED IN CAMPAIGN

In accordance with the city-wide clean-up campaign, recently proclaimed by Mayor Martin, several business establishments as well as residences in Clarendon, have caught the spirit and are re-modeling, painting and cleaning up.

Lowe's Grocery Store has recently undergone a complete re-modeling and repainting and has also installed new fixtures throughout. Everything is finished in a spotless white and adds much to the appearance of this progressive food market.

In celebration of their improvements, the management will "throw" a party Thursday evening at which time all are invited to attend. Plate lunches and coffee will be served and groceries will be given away.

The First National Bank, for the past two weeks, has been taking on coats of paint and adds further to the bright clean aspect that the city is assuming.

Another establishment that is "painting up," is the Donley County Bank, which is being improved this week.

These business leaders are to be commended for the progressive spirit, manifested in this clean-up drive. An attractive city will entice travelers to stay around longer and will accomplish a world of good by arousing the envy of, and spurring neighboring towns, on to city beautiful drives.

Methodists On Top Of Loop As First Half Ends

The first half of the local softball season closed this week, with the first game of the second division scheduled to be played Monday, June 11.

The Methodist team finished the first half at the top of the loop, with five victories and no defeats.

In the closing game of the second half, the Legion broke into the win column, by virtue of their 12 to 4 win over the Christian ten. In winning this game the Legion boys turned the cellar over to the Baptist team, No. 6.

A close race seems to be on tap for the second half, with every team out determined to destroy the perfect record displayed by the first division winner.

Following is the final standing for the first half:

Club	W	L	Pct.
Methodist	5	0	1000
Presbyterian	4	2	668
Highway	2	2	500
Baptist No. 7	1	1	500
Christian	2	4	333
Legion	1	3	250

The schedule for June follows: Monday, June 11, Baptist vs. Presbyterians; June 12, Legion vs. Christians; June 13, Highway vs. Methodist; June 14, Christian vs. Highway; June 15, Presbyterian vs. Legion.

ALL PANHANDLE SHOULD JOIN IN

When the Paloduro Park is thrown open with all its colorful wonders on July 4th it should be the occasion of a Panhandle-wide gathering for jubilee and celebration.

For many years there have been sincere souls in every county who have labored and dreamed of the accomplishment of a great regional or national park in the Paloduro Canyon, and at last their efforts are in progress of reward.

Frankly, one of the blessings of the depression has been the building of a good road into and the opening up of the Paloduro as a wonder playground for Texas and all the other states of the Union. Had it not been for the Citizens Conservation Camps and federal recovery projects we would have been yet without any tangible progress on the Park. But now the first steps in the opening of the Wonder Canyon have been accomplished and Paloduro Park is destined to become one of the great and famous recreation centers of the Southwest.

Lets make it a great All-Panhandle event. Let's bring together in the first week of July the most all-inclusive gathering of Panhandle citizens ever known and with the common purpose of celebrating the official opening of our own alluring playground, and the better acquainting of ourselves with the possibilities of Paloduro Park—our greatest natural asset, outside of the abundant fertility of our soil.

AS INDUSTRIES ORGANIZE

Among other valuable fruits of the depression which could be listed should be mentioned the activities of the industries in eliminating many of the undesirable cut-throat competition practices and the causing of the business and industrial men who have been bitter enemies to get together and work out their mutual problems in a sane way.

The other night the printers and publishers of Canadian county met to consider their problems. Several un-economic practices will be eliminated as a result and in future meetings many steps will be taken to advance the standing of the industry in the county. And yet printers and publishers have had the name of being the most independent and tractable class of hombres on earth. The announcement that the president had signed the newspaper code regulating industry turned the trick.

In most other lines a similar spirit of co-operation is being born and is doing much in the elimination of unfair practices. It is a slow process and there are usually a few outlaws in each industry who make the task more difficult. However, the day of rugged individualism is really passing and the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker are all learning that despite the fact that their competitors may have horns, cloven feet and spiked tails, there is much to be gained by congregating with them occasionally for the general good of the craft.

The fruits of adversity are not always bitter.—American, El Reno, Okla.

CHICAGO SUBURBS VOTE DRY

Five leading suburbs of Chicago voted on April 3 against proposals to sell liquor in their districts. Evanston, headquarters of the W. C. T. U. and home of Northwestern University, voted three to one against opening saloons. Other suburbs gave even larger ratios against the sale of liquors. Oak Park, known as the "largest village in the world," voted four to one dry; Winnetka, ten to one; River Forest, fifteen to one; and Glencoe, fashionable residence section, went dry by a three-to-one vote.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN DRY

The deans of the University of Wisconsin have announced that the regulations against the use of liquor in that institution will remain in force. The dean of men, Mr. Scott H. Goodnight, said: "Students have no business with liquor. They have a conception that prohibition was put across by some fanatics and the W. C. T. U. This wasn't true at all. The liquor interests had become so brazen in the corruption of legislatures, in their bribery and general lawlessness, that the whole American people rose up in revolt and put prohibition into effect."

"Bargains" produced at the expense of human misery are nothing short of wolves in sheep's clothing.

Why do organized minorities run things? Simply because the majority has not sense enough to organize.

NOT SO BAD

Dropping off a precipice is easy and the fall is fast and furious: climbing to the top again is slow and tedious. We plunged into this economic earthquake almost overnight, and if we regain a solid footing again, it will have to come slow and easy, like inching a big weight along.

Frequently some pessimistic and impatient soul is heard to say that "no matter what comes out of Washington, we're no better off than we were." Here are a few facts that refute this statement:

Factory sales of automobiles in this country during the first nine months of this year totaled 1,672,767 units of which 1,398,903 were passenger cars. This compares with a total for the same period last year of 1,155,066 units of which 966,119 were passenger cars.

The General Electric Company has added 7,600 employees to its payrolls since March 1, and total annual payroll rate is $17,000,000 greater than it was on that date.

Railway carloading for many leading carriers for the week ended October 21, have reached a new high mark for the year.

Employment figures show an increase, likewise payrolls, indicating that manufacturing concerns have added considerably more workers during the month.

The gain in deposits of reserve member banks throughout the country for the week ending October 21, total nearly $150,000,000.

We may as well make up our mind to be content with a long hard pull, and the work will seem lighter if we whistle a lively tune instead of humming a dirge.—Record, Statesville, N. Carolina.

SPEAKING ABOUT ADVERTISING

Harking back, we recall another pertinent remark on advertising recently made by Spencer Huffman: "To be consistent, the man who stops advertising when sales are hard to get should disconnect a couple of spark plugs when his car starts up a hill." Now is the time to advertise.

In spite of the disparity between the smallest and the largest of American newspapers, the publisher of the small country weekly need not be overawed by the size of his metropolitan rival. The local newspaper has a place in the life of its community which the great dailies can not usurp if the local publisher is alive to his opportunities and makes the most of them. Now, as always, the hometown newspaper is the best and cleanest exponent of constructive journalism.

The broad, general rule is that a man is about as big as the things that make him mad.

"REMEMBER GIRLS .. I must leave at 4 to cook supper ..."

"Goodness, Evelyn," says Rose, "when will you ever make up your mind to get an Electric Range? We girls also have to have 6:30 suppers, but it's no problem at all with automatic cooking. We just put the entire meal in the oven before going out, set the clock control, and supper is being cooked while we play. The same control automatically turns off the current when the cooking process should stop, and the insulated oven retains sufficient heat to keep the food tender and piping hot to serve when we want it."

"Don't say you can't afford one. Really, it's so economical. Costs less than a penny per person, per meal, to operate, and you can buy one on a small down payment and easy terms. I wouldn't be without one, would you girls?"

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule ... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

For some weeks the library has been opening four days a week instead of three—Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 3:30 o'clock to 5:30, and all afternoon on Saturdays. The extra afternoon's opening has proved quite helpful and our readers have shown their appreciation of it by making it a busy afternoon. May is such a busy month, with schools closing, examinations and commencement, that there is usually a decrease in the number of books taken out, but in spite of all this, there were 1467 books checked out last month, and there has been the usual renewed interest in reading since the closing of schools, with many summer memberships—three months for 25c.

A few new books have been given us lately which were greatly appreciated, and we have the promise of others. We are always in "a state of amiable receptivity" in regard to books. Those given us were:

"The Heart of the Hills," and "The Trail of The Lonesome Pine" by John Fox, Jr., and "The Golden Woman" by Ridgwell Cullum, from Miss Ruth Burkett. "Blue Anchor Inn" by Edward B. Morris, and "The Miller of Old Church," by Ellen Glasgow, from Mrs. J. T. Wilson; "A Book of Stories" given by little Elise Norwood; and "The Enchanted Hill" by Pete B. Kyne, from Mrs. Dan Dean.

Book lovers watch with interest for the prize winning books of the year, there being quite a number of much sought prizes offered. The Pulitzer Prize winners for 1934 are as follows: Novel, "Lamb in His Bosom," Caroline Miller; Drama, "Men in White," Sidney Kingsley; History, "The People's Choice," Herbert Agar; Biography, "John Hay," Tyler Dennett; Poetry, "Collected Verse," Robert Hillyer.

An American Author, Samuel Rogers, is the winner of the third Atlantic Novel Prize of $10,000, offered jointly by the Atlantic Monthly Press and Little, Brown and Co. The novel is "Dusk at the Grove." It will be published in book form in August.

The Metro Goldwyn-Mayer Co. has been denied the privilege of filming in China Pearl Buck's "The Good Earth." The Nankin government intimated that the story, portraying the primitive customs of uneducated Chinese was prejudicial to the dignity of the Chinese. But you will remember that all authorities on Chinese life and habits say it is a very true picture. This book as well as its sequel "Sons," is still very much in demand by our readers. We will have Pearl Buck's "The Mother" in our next list of new books.

One of our late accessions is a collection of essays by the noted English writer, Christopher Morley, entitled "Off The Deep End." One of the comments on the collection says, "The title is derived from the fact that the author deals, in part at least, with ideas and notions in which we are all out of our depth." The author himself says of it, in true Morley phraseology:

"Perhaps you can regard it as a prismatic spectrum showing up the various wave lengths and gassy combustions of a hard working intelligence." But in spite of these rather formidable comments on a book for summer reading, you will find in it some good crime stories, some interesting episodes of travel, and much of the author's subtle and characteristic humor.

Blaring Bands Mark Opening Of World Fair

Chicago, May 26. — Blaring bands and marching troops swung down the avenue of flags today in the gay and gala premiere of the 1934 World's Fair.

Thousands lined the main artery of a Century of Progress Exposition as the colorful procession proceeded to the Lagoon Theatre to hear addresses of welcome from city, state and fair officials.

Major General R. D. Keehn, grand marshal of the parade, led the extensive parade down Michigan boulevard. The picturesque black horse troop, regiments of infantry, and cavalry tramped behind him as an escort to Governor Henry Horner, of Illinois, Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago, President Rufus Dawes of the fair and other dignitaries.

A beaming sun shone upon the audience assembled in the crescent-shaped amphitheater when the speakers appeared on the stage of the Lagoon Theatre.

"Chicago stands at the doorway of another epochal event in its civic history," Mayor Kelly told auditors who had registered from every state in the union. "This year's fair is repeated by request and is a still more gigantic spectacle than last year's exposition.

"There is no question but conditions are better from an economic viewpoint." We should praise God that we have a leader of such worth at the head of our government, President Roosevelt, through his wisdom and will-to-do, has piloted us a long way out of our difficulties. I pause to pay grateful respects to him. "When President Roosevelt, through a talking picture, opens this Century of Progress, he is opening an event which will be reflected throughout the world. This project is so big that every individual will feel directly or indirectly, its part in further increasing our prosperity and advancement."

Rufus Dawes extended a welcome and called attention to the feat of Colonel Roscoe Turner in establishing a new record for a flight between Pittsburg and Chicago. He had greeted the famous pilot a few hours earlier upon the completion of his 430-mile flight in one hour and 44 minutes.

The 20,566 patrons who had passed through the gates at noon scattered through the 82 miles of exhibits to inspect the wonders artists and artisans and $43,000,000 had wrought. They found the magic of carefully blended colors had transformed the futuristic structures from a roccoco array of architectural titles into a huge patchwork of beauty. They happened upon villages transplanted from foreign lands to Chicago's great front yard.

Contract Signer Makes More Money Than Non-Signer

College Station—Whether the hog processing tax comes out of the farmer or out of the consumer, the farmer who signed a corn-hog contract makes considerably more money than the one who did not sign, declares E. M. Roggenbrecht, swine specialist at Texas A. and M. College. He bases this statement on the contract benefits and on the current price of hogs.

Take two farmers each having four sows and marketing an average of 40 hogs of 200-pound weight each year. One signed the hog contract, the other did not. The one who signed will make $84 more than the one who did not, assuming the current Fort Worth market price of $3.30 per hundred.

The non-signer farmer, forgetting transportation and marketing costs, would receive $6.60 per head for his 40 hogs or $264. The farmer who signed the contract would reduce his market hogs by 10 head and would sell 30 hogs. At $3.30 per hundred he would receive for those 200-pounders $198. In addition he will receive through the year $5 per head for his 30 market hogs, or a total of $150. His total hog income would be $348 or $84 more than that received by the non-signer. This would be subject, of course, to a small deduction to take care of the local cost of his county corn-hog production control association in administering the program.

"The fact is," says Mr. Roggenbrecht, "that the hog reduction program, at present hog prices, means a net increase to the farmer who is cooperating of about 30 percent. What prices would have been had the reduction not been made by one and one-half million farmers over the United States no one can tell. When consumer demand is lively it is probable that the processing tax will come out of the consumer. When the market drags as at present it is likely coming out of the producers' hog prices. Even so, the cooperating farmer is making more money than the addition he is helping the United States to cut production to fit demand just as manufacturers do. In the long run this means more favorable prices to all."

Cotton Contract Cuts Were The Rule Not The Exception

College Station—Cutting cotton adjustment contracts was the rule and not the exception in Texas and everywhere else, according to the State Cotton Review Board. The farmer who feels badly that his first figures giving average five-year production were not accepted by the Board, and were reduced by the county committee to put them in line with the county allotment, may feel better if he knows that nearly all farmers took similar cuts.

When all the cotton production figures put by farmers into their contracts were added up it was found that they ran over the county allotment by a rough average of 20 percent, the Board states. In some counties the over-run went more than 40 percent.

This does not mean that farmers were dishonest in giving their production figures, the Board says, but that farmers had no way of knowing exactly what they had produced for five years. Production figures were of necessity estimates based largely on memory. The same was true of acreage figures. A farmer assumed he had 100 100 acres in a field but it might have been 90 acres or 110 acres if actually measured.

On the other hand, the Bureau of Crop Estimates knows with great accuracy the total bales produced in Texas every year. The average of this for five years became the Texas allotment. This was apportioned out among counties on the basis of local ginnings, cross county ginnings taken into account. It was imperative if there was to be a cotton program at all, that the total cotton production given by farmers in their contracts added to that of non-signers not exceed the known State total. That is why cuts were necessary, the Board explains.

Mrs. Cliffie Allen Heath and son, John Allen Heath of Houston arrived Monday to spend the summer in Clarendon. They are staying at the Clarendon Hotel.

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding service Thursday morning at eight-thirty, when Miss Mary Isabel Baley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Baley, and S. A. Cousins, son of Mrs. J. W. Story of McLean, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents. The groom's step-father, Rev. J. W. Story officiated with the ring ceremony.

Baskets of pink roses, ferns and larkspur of pastel shades adorned the room.

The bride wore a white organ-die, with shirred sleeves and a pink velvet sash and carried a bridal bouquet of pink rosebuds, sweetpeas and baby breath.

Mrs. Wynne Collier sang the prenuptial solo, "I Love You Truly," and Helen Baley, sister of the bride, played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin's opera.

Mrs. Cousins is a graduate of Clarendon High School and attended Baylor University at Waco. She taught at several schools in this county, but for the past four years has taught in the McLean High School.

The groom is a graduate of McLean High School and Texas Tech at Lubbock. He is connected with the Phillips Petroleum Company at McLean, where the young couple will make their home.

A Bride's Book was passed to the guests and they were requested to put down a "helpful hint" for every day of the week. Later Pauline Sanford and Myrtle Ingram, dressed as Sunbonnet girls, presented the honoree with the gifts. These were opened by Miss Baley and admired by everyone present.

"The Flame Of Remembrance"

It is hoped that Memorial Day will always be precious to the people of this country. But most precious of all Memorial Days should be those few remaining anniversaries on which the comrades in arms of those whose deeds we commemorate and whose graves we decorate still walk before our eyes, and still speak to us.

Beneath the Arc de Triumphe at the head of the Champs Elysees in Paris burns by night and day a flame of fire. Over the grave of the unknown soldier of France it blazes.

At the threshold of Westminster Abbey, where the illustrious dead of the British Empire lie, is the grave of Great Britain's unknown hero.

At Arlington we have interred the unrecognized and unrecognizable remains of the unknown soldier of the United States of America.

On Memorial Day we lay wreaths on the graves of multitudes of men and women who gave their lives for the common good. In this generation it is not the personal glory of kings and emperors, won by unflinching sacrifices and slaughter of millions of people that this day memorializes, but it is the courage and sacrifices of the common soldier that receives homage.

Contempt for the greed, pride and false philosophy that have caused most of the wars, but all honor and praise to the idealism, bravery and self-abnegation of the men and to the men themselves who gave their lives for the cause that they believed to be just and right.

How shall we best keep our covenant with our dead? By adopting the program which the radical, bolshevist and the unbeliever are thrusting upon us I hardly think so. For that implies the overturning from their ancient foundations of our homes, our schools, our churches and our laws. Rather let us be up and quit ourselves like men and repair the breaches in the foundation of the ancient institutions upon which it has pleased God to build nations which endure. Let us live to promote the things for which our heroes died. Thus we show our appreciation to those who have passed on before us.

W. E. Ferrill, Minister First Christian Church, Clarendon.

Data On State History Given In Late Survey

Austin, Texas, June 6.—A wealth of historical data pertaining to the early days of Texas has been made available for general use by the State Historical Survey, under the sponsorship of The University of Texas. The survey has investigated the historical resources of fifteen Texas towns and cities representing as many regional divisions of the State. Employment was furnished to more than 250 persons in the various local projects, with supervision being given gratis by accomplished students in the field of history and social science, according to J. Evetts Haley, State director of the survey.

"We feel that the results are a worthwhile permanent contribution to the life, literature and history of the State," Mr. Haley said. Perhaps the largest division of the historical research survey was that of the indexing of historical references in a large number of early Texas newspapers. Transcriptions of a large quantity of historical material of which only one copy is available were made. In all cases results of the investigations have been kept in the local libraries and duplicate sets of indexes and carbon copies of transcriptions have been placed in the University of Texas library.

The work generally was classified as follows: The cataloguing of newspaper files and local libraries; the indexing of newspapers and early Texas books for historical material; the transcription of manuscript documents of historic significance; the mounting of Spanish archives pertaining to the history of Texas; the cataloguing and filing of manuscript collections in the archives of The University of Texas; and the preparation of a cumulative index to sketches of Texas biography from the earliest history of the State to the present time.

"The University of Texas sponsored this State project, and the results of the work gravitated to its library and archives," Mr. Haley said. "Check lists of all newspaper files in the various localities under survey were prepared. Approximately five hundred thousand specific references were prepared in card index form to the historical information found within the newspapers, of which 284 volumes falling within the period 1829-1934 were indexed.

"Approximately fifteen thousand pages of manuscript material, such as diaries, reminiscences, memoirs, and early institutional records were transcribed. More than ten thousand clippings of significance were mounted, filed, and indexed. Approximately one thousand pages of the Bexar archives for 1803 were translated from Spanish to English and typed while a great mass of manuscript material was sorted and filed for permanent safekeeping in the archives of the University. A catalogue to the fifteen thousand volumes of newspapers in the library of the University was almost completed, and some three hundred and fifty books pertaining to the history of Texas were indexed for more convenient usage."

GABLE AND COLBERT ARE TEAMED FOR FIRST TIME

Well, another swell, bang-up picture has dropped in our midst. It is Columbia's "It Happened One Night," a charming, human, believing story, with charming, human, believable characters, which will be shown at the Pastime Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, June 11-12.

The thing gallops right along, kicking up its heels in cheerful, frisky joie de vivre, and the audience gallops right along with it. There's not a dull moment, in spite of the fact that it runs a good two hours.

It is comedy with a kick, drama with a punch, and the picture is served with acting and direction that hit a new high all their own.

Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert have the parts of their lives. He is a newspaper man who helps her to escape from her father who is bent upon preventing her marriage to a young bouncer. On their hitch hike from Miami to New York, they fall in love with each other. Neither Gable nor Colbert seem to do any acting. They just amble joyfully through the picture, being utterly natural and devastatingly human. And they and the picture are blessed with lines that do nothing but sparkle. There isn't a dull line of dialogue

Charme' The Cream For This Climate

Beauty has never been known to go off the Gold Standard since the dawn of civilization, and every woman owes it to herself and to her friends to be lovely. Attractiveness is within the reach of every woman.

It is interesting to note that less than 5 percent of the people in the United States live in the arid regions of the Southwest, and that cosmetics balanced exclusively for use in our West Texas dry climate have been presented to its discriminating women for the first time in Charme' Dry Climate Cosmetics. (Pronounced Shar-may')

Scientists for the past five years have been carrying on extensive research work in developing Charme' and they have presented to us many interesting conclusions as to the correct method in caring for the skin in an arid climate. They have found that Orris Root used in many face powders is responsible for over 10 percent of the perennial Hay Fever in West Texas. Orris Root is a perfume fixative commonly used in many face powders.

They have pointed out that dry or cake rouge in which Plaster of Paris or Barium Sulphate is used as a base is drying to the skin and may cause permanent enlargement of the pores as evidence by the red dots often seen in women's cheeks. They recommend the use of a cream rouge with an oil base.

They recognize stimulation of blood circulation as the only permanent means of eliminating wrinkles and rebuilding broken down tissues. Many wrinkles, sagging muscles and lines are caused by improper and insufficient blood circulation and over-drying of the oil from the glands of the skin.

The Charme' Emulsified Cleansing Cream is made by a special process of emulsification in which the oil globules are broken up and made tiny enough to readily penetrate into the pores of the skin, cleansing, lubricating and enriching it.

Charme' was first introduced to women of the Southwest in January 1933 at the bottom of the depression and its strides have been so rapid until today you will find Charme' selling on more exclusive cosmetic counters from El Paso to Clarendon than any other exclusive cosmetic line now on the market.

Charme' sales this year over last year have shown more than a 100 percent increase and it is expected that within a few years Charme' will be merchandised extensively throughout the Middle Western states.

Formal Dedication Of Palo Duro State Park Begins July 4

Formal dedication of Palo Duro State Park, 25 miles southeast of Amarillo, will be marked with a five-day celebration, beginning July 4, Major E. A. Kingsley, park superintendent, announced.

Panhandle park boosters and the state and national park officials are aiming to make the occasion of the formal park opening the greatest outdoor festival ever staged in this section.

Contract has been signed between Leonard Stroud, world famous rodeo rider and promoter, for five afternoon rodeo performances and evening entertainments.

Pageant Planned A pageant is being written for the park opening, it was announced.

There are 20 wild bucking horses in the canyon at present, and Fred Marshall, who has charge of them, reported that Stroud had asked to lease them in addition to his regular string in order to make the Palo Duro rodeo the biggest event possible.

Stoud is bringing a company of 20 Indian performers as well, according to Mr. Marshall.

Speaking Program Since the state and sectional political races will be nearing the home stretch by the Fourth of July, the park authorities are expected to arrange several speaking programs for the numerous candidates.

Letters have been sent to all chamber of commerce organizations in the Panhandle area inviting them to assist in staging the big affair.

High state officials in addition to the park leaders will be invited to participate in the dedication activities.

145-000 Retain Jobs Under Hour-cut Plan

Washington, May 30.—Temporary limitation of machine hours in cotton textile mills to not more than 75 percent of maximum was approved by National Recovery Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, by reducing hours or days in each week, but is not permitted for any entire week. This requirement maintains on the industry's pay rolls all regular employees, including the 145,000 new workers that have been taken on under the code. Even before the depression, it was the custom of many mills to close entirely during the slack summer season. The curtailment, beginning June 4, will be for 12 weeks, except as to the rayon weaving branch, in which it will continue for 8 weeks for synthetic yarn staples and only 4 weeks for synthetic yarn dress goods. All single-shift mills are expected from the provisions of the order, which for the most part are small plants, as are certain groups in a relatively favorable statistical position. General Johnson's action is supported by the strongly prevailing opinion of the industry, based on a careful survey by the code authority.

Texas Farmers Get 75 Million Thru FCA Loans

Washington, May 27.—Texas farmers have received more than $75,000,000 in farm mortgage loans from the Farm Credit Administration of Houston during the first year of its existence, according to figures made public here today by the FCA.

The Administration Sunday concludes the first twelve months of its operations to aid financially depressed farmers throughout the country.

The $75,000,000 loaned by the Houston Administration from May 27, 1933, to May 27, 1934, is more than 15 times as much as was loaned by the Federal Land Bank of Houston during the entire year of 1932.

Loans previously made by the land bank and other farm aid organizations in Texas, which were taken over by the FCA when it was established, totaled approximately $225,000,000, making the aggregate of outstanding farm loans in the Lone Star State more than $300,000,000.

Figures show that more than 97 per cent of the $75,000,000 loaned during the last 12 months has been used by farmers to refinance already existing and pressing debts.

By this refinancing, farmers have been able to consolidate their debts and discharge urgent claims of commercial banks, insurance companies, mortgage lenders and retired farmers. Interest payments on these refinanced debts have averaged from one to two per cent lower since the federal government replaced private interests as creditor.

The highest interest rate charged on land bank and commissioner's loans is five per cent, and on many loans it is but four and one-half per cent, as compared to rates ranging from six to 10 per cent formerly paid.

"WHAT IS A CHRISTIAN?"

Often we hear the question asked, "What is a Christian?" It is to help you answer this question that we are writing this chat.

A Christian, according to the New Testament is one who, having heard the gospel believes in Christ, repents, and is baptized into Christ's name, rising to walk in newness of life. A Christian occupies a lofty position in Christ. The apostle Paul terms it "the high calling." To the Christian, the Lord Jesus Christ is the perfect Exemplar and his words, laws and commandments are above all other words, laws or commandments.

In becoming a Christian one becomes a member of the body of Christ, the Church. It is impossible to be a Christian and not be a member of the Church. We often hear people say they are Christians but are not affiliated with the church. We hear people speak of others who are Christians, and are not church members. This cannot be. A Christian is a church member, and a member of the Church is a Christian. It is not enough to desire to be a Christian or Church member, one must put into practice the teachings of Christ and obey His commands. It is not enough for a foreigner to desire citizenship with the United States. He must come into this country, live here, obey the laws and be naturalized. It is not enough for a man to desire to wed the woman of his choice. He must follow his desires by securing a permit or license and having the ceremony performed. There are but two classes of people according to the Bible, the righteous and the unrighteous, the saint and the sinner, the Christian and the unbeliever. To become a Christian one must desire to be a citizen of God's Kingdom, the church, and then obey the laws of that kingdom and be naturalized.

A Christian is called upon to refrain from evil and actively engage himself in service for Christ. Such a life cannot be lived without encountering opposition and experiencing many trials, yet the true Christian is undaunted amid the fiercest conflict. How can a person claim to be a Christian, when he uses all of his time and talent for the things of the world and never renders service according to Christ's commands or plans? —W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon.

Tires have been on the winning cars in the gruelling Indianapolis 500-Mile Race FOR 15 CONSECUTIVE YEARS

EVERY winner in the 500-Mile Indianapolis Race — the most gruelling tire test in the world — drove to victory on Firestone High Speed Tires. What a tribute to the Extra Strength, Extra Safety, and Blowout Protection of Firestone Tires!

Race drivers know tire construction. They know that heat generated by friction inside the cotton cords that make up the body of the tire, is the greatest enemy of tire life. These men will not risk their lives and chance of victory on any but Firestone Tires, because they know the high stretch cords in every Firestone Tire are protected from friction and heat by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Gum-Dipping is the exclusive Firestone Process which soaks the high stretch cords in liquid rubber and saturates and coats the millions of fibers inside the cords, counteracting destructive friction and heat. Gum-Dipping provides greater adhesion not only between the plies that compose the body of the tire, but between the Gum-Dipped cord body and the tread.

Just as automobile manufacturers have used the Indianapolis Speedway — the greatest testing laboratory in the world — for the development of greater power and speed in automobiles, so have Firestone chemists and engineers kept pace with these exacting demands. If your tires are thin and smooth — drive in today and equip your car with new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934, with deeper, thicker, flatter, and wider non-skid tread, more and tougher rubber, more traction, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Remember, the racing speeds of yesterday are becoming the road speeds of today, and in Firestone High Speed Tires there is Greater Strength — Greater Safety — and Greater Blowout Protection than in any tire made.

THE ADHESION TEST

Note how the rubber in a Firestone Tire clings to the high stretch Gum-Dipped cords. This greater adhesion and strength is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Note how the rubber in an ordinary tire pulls away from the cords that have not been soaked and insulated with rubber. This causes friction and heat within the cords, resulting in separation.

THE NEW Firestone AIR BALLOON FOR 1934

The new Firestone Air Balloon for 1934 embodies all the improvements in the new Firestone High Speed Tire. The lower air pressure provides maximum traction and riding comfort. Gum-Dipping safety-locks the cords, providing 30 to 40% greater deflection and blowout protection.

Get 1935 low-slung style by equipping your car today with these new tires and wheels in colors to match your car.

ed," was the statement of the speaker in opening his discussion of this phase of the present lamentable situation existing at the state capitol. He explained that the lobby law, as it now stands, states that no person shall attempt to bribe a congressman. This does not apply to the governor and other members of the legislature. "Now what," Allred asked, "are we going to do about a law like that?"

Attacks Lobbyism

Ripples of applause greeted his fiery attack on the 'lobbyism' condition. He produced a questionnaire that had been sent out by a corporation to its representatives in various congressional districts over the state. The questionnaire, among other queries, asked the church and lodge affiliations of the solons on whom information was desired. "Why, Allred asked, 'do they want to know the names of the congressman's intimate friends and the ages of his children if any. Why do they want to know whether or not they imbibe in intoxicating liquor or if they have any pet hobbies. You did not ask the same men those questions when you sent them to the state capitol or put forth their best efforts for the welfare of you and yours."

"If elected to the governorship, my first message will demand the legislating of the strictest lobby law that can be permitted in the State of Texas," Allred promised his listeners.

Raps Court Procedure

"One of the most pernicious laws on the statutes of the state today," the speaker said "is the one pertaining to court procedure. The postponement of trials because one of the lawyers in the case happens to be in session at Austin, costs you tax payers money. In the majority of these cases postponement is purposely brought about to the advantage of the corporations concerned, by the employment of a legislative lawyer. Many times when the trial is called and he is present he does nothing but sit around, smoke a pipe and raise objections."

"The dismissal of the big oil suits, blamed on me by my opponents was brought about in this way. They were held up until the NRA was enacted, taking the place of the anti-trust laws. The same opponents say nothing of the money I have gotten out of the big oil companies and put in the state coffers to the benefit of the public schools of the state."

Should File Statements

"I believe," he said that to show the people they are 'playing square' members of the state legislature should file sworn statements, giving the names of concerns and individuals they have worked for prior and during their term."

Allred told his audience that the corporations of the state and their cohorts were 'howling' for someone strong enough to defeat him in the coming election.

"They know," he said, "that I live in no mansion, erected through retainer fees. I live in a modest rented house on a side street in Austin, on a street that is filled with children, dogs and tricycles, a street where a lobbyist never shows his face."

The popularity of Allred was attested to by the mass that crowded around him following his talk, eager to shake the hand of the man whom they feel sure will be the next governor of this state.

Following his talk here he motored to Amarillo where he made a broadcasted address Saturday night.

Old-Timers Of Clarendon At Pampa's Rally

Nineteen of the 650 Panhandle Pioneers who registered at Pampa last week-end for the Centennial and Pioneers' Roundup were from Clarendon. Of the 650, about 250 came to this section of the country before 1880.

A like celebration was held in 1932 when a few hundred more registered than this year, mute testimony to the fact that the grim reaper is rapidly thinning the ranks of the pioneers.

F. A. White, of this city was one of the earliest settlers that was present. The register showed, White came to the Panhandle in 1874, and Mrs. White, who was also at Pampa settled here six years later, in 1880.

Those from Clarendon and the year they came to this section of the state were: Mrs. J. B. Baird, 1887; M. E. Bell, 1881; Mrs. Julia Beverly, 1887; W. H. Corbin, 1890; W. C. Caldwell, 1885; Mrs. A. T. Cole, 1881; Mrs. H. C. Coffee, 1887; W. F. Fleming, 1880; J. E. Humphrey, 1886; Mrs. Annie Hall, 1883; Charlie Johnson, 1889;

George Lutz, 1890; Cal Merchant, 1887; Mrs. Cal Merchant, 1890; W. A. Massie, 1881; Mrs. W. A. Massie, 1881; J. E. Mongole, 1890; F. A. White, 1874; Mrs. F. A. White, 1880.

J. H. Ayres, Pampa, was the earliest settler present, according to the register. He came to the Panhandle in 1863, during the Civil War.

Daily Vacation Bible School Is In Session Here

It was announced this week that beginning Wednesday, June 6, a Daily Vacation Bible school would be held on South Main street, under the tent where the revival meeting is now in progress. It will continue two weeks.

Sessions will be held from 8 a. m. to 11 a. m., every day except Saturday. Three efficient teachers will have charge of the classes and everyone between the ages of five and sixteen is encouraged to attend.

The school will consist of studying the simple stories of the Bible and singing choruses. It was announced that no doctrine would be taught.

A commendation exercise will be held at the close of the school at which time diplomas will be awarded to those who have completed the course.

"Train a child in the ways he should go when he is older he will not depart from it. Parents we are interested in your children. Get behind us and help us put the school over," said the sponsor of the project.

Kennedy Davis To Clinic Wednesday For Examination

Kennedy Davis, who was critically injured in a car wreck, near Jericho, two weeks ago, will be taken to the Carroll-Driver Hospital, in Dallas, Wednesday night, according to a report received at the News office Wednesday afternoon.

Young Davis who suffered a broken back, as well as other injuries, has not shown much improvement and is being taken to the Dallas clinic for an extensive examination.

He will be accompanied by Mrs. R. Y. King, special nurse, and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stidham, of Little Rock, Ark.

Legion "Follies" To Make Hedley

"The 1934 Legion Follies," presented here Tuesday, May 29, will play at Hedley Friday night, according to the Legion directors. The curtain will rise on the opening number at 8:30 in the high school auditorium there.

A few changes have been made in the program that was presented to an appreciative crowd here last week. The male quartet will not go to Hedley and two new numbers have been added, an accordion solo, played by Mrs. Steve Hunter and a specialty tap dance by Mary Cooke and Betty Walker. Martha Jeanne Haile will probably sing a song in addition to her regular number.

Many from here have signified their intentions of making the trip to our neighboring town to attend the second showing of the "Follies."

Mrs. W. W. Garmon and daughters, Willie Anna and Beatrice left Tuesday for Austin, where Willie Anna will attend summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McCune left Wednesday for Wichita Falls for an extended visit.

Leon O. Lewis is back home again after spending the last two weeks in Canyon and Amarillo. Mrs. R. A. Chamberlain has as her guests, her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Browder and children of Fort Worth.
