A UNITED SENTIMENT

No community proposal in recent years has had more unanimous approval than the recently broached plan of a trade building effort for Clarendon. This unity seems to guarantee the success of whatever plan is adopted, and indicates the early approval of its details.

Clarendon has long held a favorable position as a trade center, but with the rapid turn-over of population in this territory, it is most certainly in order to launch an effort that will contact the new families within a radius of twenty to thirty miles, impressing them with the desirability of buying their clothing and supplies in Clarendon, while recalling the fact to the mind of those who under the pressure of the economic situation in recent years might have strayed elsewhere for even a portion of their necessities.

Clarendon merchants want to serve this entire section—certainly nothing less than the fringes of their rightful territory—and they will soon present a plan which will make it more profitable than usual to spend here for every wanted article. United sentiments bring results.

BUILDING A FRIENDLY ATTITUDE

A few days ago a friend of this writer told of an incident which to us seems to hold food for thought and the framework of a real lesson for all of us. He said that recently he dropped into a hotel in a neighboring state one Sunday and in the lobby noted three or four men evidently all living in that city, having an unusually friendly chat. Soon the party began to disperse and one of the gentlemen came over to where he sat and introduced himself, inquiring if there was any little service he might render, and generally proved himself one of a warm and friendly nature. When our friend made some mention of this unusual friendliness the gentleman said "Well, it may seem a little unusual, and, really, I have not always put myself out to meet strangers, but this year I made a resolve, and that was to be more neighborly and friendly—and I am trying to live up to that resolution."

Nearly all of us have friendly intentions, but this incident points out the lesson that unless we set ourselves to the task, we are likely to make little headway in showing the friendly, neighborly spirit.

To have the proper friendly attitude, we must have intentions—we must build the attitude by daily exercise, such as related above—and there is no time like today to begin such a worthy development of our own lives and characters.

SHALL WE SOVIETIZE?

The newspapers are hearing a lot and the public in general a considerable bit about the Tugwell Bill in Congress. It is being considered seriously. We think it unreasonable and a violation of American ideas of government. It takes away the right of a citizen to a presumption of innocence until proven guilty in the courts. It places in the hands of one man, associated with a small commission, the interpretation of the meaning of each piece of advertising of any food, drug, or cosmetic product. It leaves in the hands of one man the right to determine whether all or any part of the food advertising in America is economically sound or unsound. In other words, it is, in our opinion, the first step toward sovietizing the manufacturing and merchandising business of the country.

Every legitimate purpose intended to be accomplished by the Tugwell Bill can be obtained in a more American way—without penalizing the innocent along with the guilty. Undoubtedly the public has had foisted upon it a great deal of hum-buggery in food, drug, and cosmetic advertising. But there is a straight-forward way to meet this situation, by means of the set-up we already have without a soviet prosecutor, judge, and jury, all the same man.
—Floyd County Hesperian.

BE CAREFUL IN CRITICISM

There are many activities being projected by the present National administration which many of us do not endorse, and many more we do not understand, but this is an epoch in national life when it behooves us all to be very careful of criticism—even constructive criticism.

When you become fearful of the final results of all the quasi-dole systems now in effect in America, remember this—as yet we have no wholesale rioting, bloodshed and destruction of property in this fair land.

We can afford many ugly, threatening expedients, instead of riots and bloodshed.

Let's be careful of our criticisms.

WEAKNESS WHERE STRENGTH IS NEEDED

The unfortunate tragedies which have marked the heroic effort of the army fliers to fly the mails, should bring out very poignant reflection to the nation, and that is that after all our army air service is not what it should be if it is to be the protection of this country when war comes, which God forbid.

There is little question that the next war will depend largely on air craft for offense and defense, and where we now show weakness, we should exhibit greatest strength.

As nauseating as fraudulent air mail contracts are—and we presume there certainly must be some fraud somewhere—they are not half so dangerous to America as the pitiful results so far obtained in efficiency and number of fighting planes received for the millions spent since the world war.

There must be no weakness—no lack of efficient planes in the army and navy service. The personnel cannot be surpassed.

DON'T MORTGAGE HAPPINESS

The years of a man, they say are three score and ten. In terms of life of a redwood tree, an ancient idea or doctrine, or even a middle-aged alligator these seventy years seem very few. It would be wise to be thrifty with them.

The favorite and fashionable indoor sport today is the balancing of budgets. It is done in business, government, and the painful process of making the family income fit the facts in the case. It should be done no less in balancing the years of life against the opportunities of life.

Waste no time, then, which might be spent in the pursuit of happiness, in the work you love or the rest you earn, in finding friendship, in fashioning a faith and philosophy for the lean years at the end of life.

Waste no time in worry which gets nowhere, but confess everything in gray hairs and wrinkles. And don't mortgage present happiness to pay for a future which may never happen.

Don't worry so hard that you forget how to play, nor play so hard that you aren't fit to work. Don't blow off all your steam before fifty and be burned out for twenty years after. Invest wisely in amusement, as you would in stocks and bonds. Don't die too soon, nor live too long.

Balance your budget.—Herald, Harvard, Ill.

No man can tell what the future may bring forth, and small opportunities are often the beginning of great enterprises.

We believe in individualism but when the members of a profession prove that they are unable to protect the public from public sharks operating under the protection of the "ethics" so-called, it is time for somebody to regulate the profession.

Did You Know?

Editor's Note:—In this column the views expressed are those of the author's and do not reflect the editorial opinion of the News editor. It is published solely as a news item.

That broom corn is now selling for one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) a ton.

That labor in a broom factory is paid by piecework. The pay is according to the class of work and ability. Finishers of brooms make from $8.00 to $10.00 a day.

The Blind University of Texas is located at Austin and teaches the blind boys broom making. Probably if we had a broom factory in Clarendon, our more fortunate boys who have eyesight could learn to make brooms.

On a ten year average you will receive more money per acre from broom corn than cotton, and the labor per acre is fifty percent less.

That the Government is going to quit feeding us March 1st. That we would like to know what became of those hams that went away with the hogs. They never returned.

That the small factory movement for Clarendon is on its way. That whisk brooms sell from 25c to 75c so lets make a few in Clarendon.

That we get our cheese from Colorado, our brooms from Okla. our beans from New Mexico, peanuts from Georgia, and our canned tomatoes from Portales, N. M. That it is very nice of us to give our business to our neighbor States, for we will be all right until the Government cuts us off.

That if you boys are satisfied with the condition, it suits me for I have no little children and don't care to leave anything. Just the kind that can get by any old way, but don't want to die in debt, that's all.

That if we wish to get the broom corn and dairy business going the opening of small factories in Clarendon, have our town far mowers meet the real dirt farmers of the county and cooperate with them. Donley County has plenty of them so go out and meet such men as Mr. Poovey, Preach Goldston, the Naylor, Hardings, Mr. Eden, the Bains, and others. You might as well quit whittling a few days and open up a cheese and broom factory.

THREE TESTS OF RELIGION

John 5:39-47.

The man who had been ill for thirty-eight years made a remarkable recovery. It aroused the antagonism to Jesus. What an incident Jesus brings against his enemies: "I know you, that you have not the love of God in you." He has applied three tests to their religion and finds them all failing in each one.

I. Whom Do You Accept As Spiritual Authority? "I am come in my Father's name and ye receive me not, if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." His coming in His Father's name should have opened every heart. They were more interested in what to believe than in whom to believe. In matters of the heart, the soul must answer not to man but to God. Jesus must become for us the Lord of life. Today as it was hundreds of years ago, men do not accept the authority of Christ. They are seeking advice and assistance from those who come in their own names and not the "Truth" as it is presented in Christ's name. All authority has been given unto Him and we should accept His word as final on any subject.

II. What Do You Seek? "How can ye believe which received honor one from another and seek not the honor that cometh from God only." It is a worthy thing to be well pleasing to your community, but it is more worthy to be well pleasing to God. Jesus weighs men's motives as well as their deeds. Man honors material achievements. God honors the spiritual. Which do you seek? Read John 12:42. Gal. 1:10. Rom. 2:29. Many people today will not accept "Truth" and obey "it" because they desire honor from men.

III. What Do You Believe? "For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?" How can we expect to believe him, unless we believe the truth concerning Him? We need faith in a person in order to have faith in his words. Christ fulfilled the highest ideals of the past.

IV. Apply These Tests To Your Religion. Love to and for God is determined by them. Are we willing to let the Bible be our guide in our religious life? —W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

Authentic Diary of a Clarendon World War Veteran

Editor's note—This is the beginning of an authentic diary, one of the very, very few ever kept by an American soldier in the late World War. This man enlisted at Wichita Falls, trained with the Fifth Engineers of the Seventh Division at Corpus Christi 60 days, from May 20 to July 20, 1918. Outfit reached Camp Merritt, New Jersey, July 25th. Left there on the 28th.
By No. 1124222
(This number is taken from his dog-tag, worn throughout the War.)

Hoboken (New Jersey port)—We left Camp Merritt at 3 a. m. today, with all equipment. Hiked to the Hudson River, about six miles away. Beautiful rolling timbered country. Ate dry beef sandwiches for breakfast. Water piped from a spring, was cold and fine. Waited until river steamer came for us. Loaded on for Hoboken. Lined up for coffee. Can of coffee gave out. I am mad. As we travelled down the river bank, beautiful scenery and buildings on both sides of the river greeted us. Landed at docks for ocean steamer. Red Cross gave us a cup of coffee and fine cookies. One Red Cross lady lectured our captain and told him she pitied us soldiers under him as he first refused to let us have the coffee and cookies. After her lecture, he permitted us to have the refreshments.

July 29 and 30—On detail loading our ship. Put to sea in the afternoon of the 31st.
August 1st, 2nd and 3rd—Deadly sea-sick. Lay on anchor rope. Could hardly move. Salt spray coming through hatchway upon me. Some buddies helped me to my bunk on the 3rd. Could not sleep in the crowded bunk. All the sleep I can get is to lean somewhere where I can get the fresh air and sleep like a horse. Boat is crowded so much. Dark nights on sea. No lights at all to be seen in convoy of nine ships and one battle cruiser. Weather very good until morning of Aug. 6th, then began to be storming. Night of the 5th a buddy and myself stole out on top deck among the mast rigging to try and find a place we could sleep. Officers found us and ordered us back into the ship. That night a storm came and waves washed our top deck. Three buddies in the convoy washed overboard.

Aug. 6th, 7th and 8th—Very rough and stormy seas. Sick as ever again. Two destroyers with us.

Aug. 9th and 10th—On guard duty on ship. Some guard took my beautiful gun and left me his. Seas reasonably calm. Too dark to see anything of the rest of the convoy except a faint outline of the nearest ships.

Aug. 11th, Sunday morning—Attracted by German submarine. Exciting times for several minutes. Destroyers gave battle, laying down smoke-screen to shield us, at same time dropping depth bombs. Reported German sub sunk. I could see oil on surface of water.

Aug. 11th, at night—Did not try to sleep. Worked in kitchen all night on ship. 14 destroyers came to us.

Aug. 12th—Daybreak. Can see the near. I certainly hope it is 8:30 a. m.—Landed in Brest, France Disembarked and marched three miles up steep hills Sand-fiches for breakfast. No coffee. Pitched shelter halves in small damp valley.

Aug. 13th—In camp. (To be continued next week. Watch and read this diary You'll like it.)

Library Notes

By MRS. C. A. BURTON

We are very happy to have "Bonfire" by Dorothy Cranfield as one of our new accessories. The New York Herald Tribune says of it, "The finest of her several fine novels." The Philadelphia Ledger says, "Her most distinguished novel," while the New Republic says, "Her most richly felt and finely written novel." It is the story of a Vermont village, and also a dramatic modern novel of loves and marriage. Against a background of quiet mountains, upland pastures, and shaded village streets in their quiet, simple beauty, the stirring drama of living is laid out, complete and vivid. All the village people play their part in it; the fiery young doctor, impatient of traditions and conventions; the eager, sweet lovingly ardent young girl who loves him; old Miss Bessie reveling in tradition and gossip and salty jokes; deaf Miss Gussie with her silent, unshared store of wisdom. Liplée the primitive beauty from the mountain; genteel Mr. Stewart, with his antiques, his afternoon teas and his withered heart.

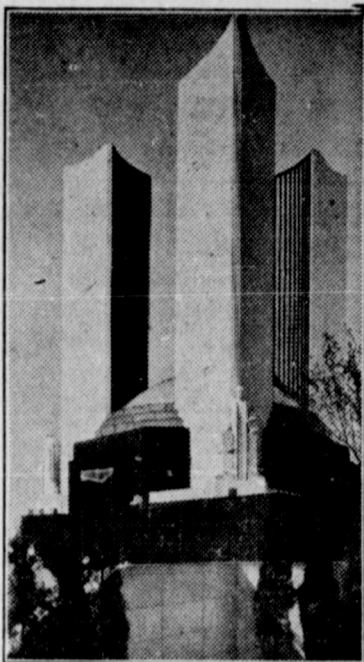

Clara G. Stillman, a rather fine literary critic, says of it: "Dorothy Cranfield's Vermont Village is a microcosm in which the destinies of human beings clash and interweave in the shocking and incalculable way of life everywhere." The novel deals with a gossip of widely different people, recognizable at once as real, in a cross section of their lives as they blindly reach upon ravaged, or healed, but always each other, and are warped, profoundly changed by early influences, by love, ambition or resentment, by frustrations, by physical and spiritual deficiencies or triumphs. Some are only onlookers, but even onlookers have power. The story has roots and native character; it has both a regional and a general truth and beauty."

Dorothy Cranfield's family came to America in 1636, moved to Vermont in 1764, and have owned land there ever since. Her father was an educator—a college professor, and president of more than one State University. Dorothy Cranfield's education has been cosmopolitan, but always at rock bottom American. In 1907 she married John R. Fisher and they went to live on one of the Cranfield farms at Arlington, Vermont. Traveling much, especially in Europe, it is in Vermont that she has done practically all her writing. "The Bent Twig," and "The Brimming Cup" are both stories of Vermont village and rural life. William Lyon Phelps said of the later, "an honest record of a successful marriage." I am grateful for a truly American novel. "Understood Betsy" is a delightful story for girls. "The Deepening Stream" a story of intense sustained interest; while "Her Son's Wife" is a keen psychological study, with every day conditions for its background. All of these are on our shelves.

One of the vices of age is curiosity, and its visible form is an interrogation point.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Slaton Mahaffey, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eanes, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Andis, Mr. and Mrs. Gaither, Mr. and Mrs. Nelse Robinson, Mrs. Harlin, Mrs. C. E. Beach, Miss Mattie Rhodes, Marjorie Harlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lamberson, Ernest Lamberson, Lavern Lamberson, Leslie Perking, and Floyd Derrick. Cake and hot chocolate was served. All departed wishing the newly weds a long, happy life.

Federal Towers

Visitors to the 1933 Century of Progress, who return to Chicago to see the new and enlarged Exposition of 1934, will marvel at the changes new colorings and new lighting effects have made in the imposing towers of the Federal Building, the towers representing the three branches of the national government—legislative, administrative and judicial. Not only the towers, but the entire building is being repainted in new and attractive colors, and many of the exhibits are being changed and enlarged.

ASHTOLA SCHOOL NEWS

The Log Of A Pirate

The Ashtola Pirate Crew met in council on Wednesday night, with every active member in his place. D. W. Tomlinson was passed upon by a clear ballot, and will be invited next Wednesday night in regular meeting. New plans for spring activities were mapped out.

The Pirates and our sister are soon to attempt the production of an operetta, "The Pastry Cook and the Pirates," a rather ambitious undertaking, however, we are fortunate in having some exceptional musical talent in our school.

Strange to say, the usual six-week exams we are having to undergo this week are not the bug-a-boo they might be if we had been less studious these past weeks.

A great interest is being shown in Interscholastic League work this year. We are planning to have entries in most all the literary and athletic events.

We are counting on our Pirate and Pirate Crews acquitting themselves creditably in the annual Class B tournament at Hedley this coming week-end. Of course we would like very much to win in each division but our motto is, "Sportsmanship, then Victory."

The tournament will conclude the basketball season this year and we are looking forward to beginning the baseball practice.

We take a great pride in our new work-shop, and with the hundred dollars which the state has granted us for additional equipment, we hope to accomplish great things. Our barbers are doing excellent work and keep busy, the mechanics turned out a first class paint job on a Chevrolet Coupe, and have several other jobs contracted. The paint is blown on with a gun, and satisfaction guaranteed. The expense to the owner including paint runs about $5.00.

A hot-bed has been constructed from which we hope to get some early plants. In the blacksmith department, some expert workmen are being developed in sharpening sweeps. Several articles of furniture were repaired and repainted last week. The tailors did quite a volume of work this past week. Regular cleaning days are Tuesdays and Thursdays. Prices on suits are 25c; trousers, 10c; and dresses 20c.

The Ashtola Pirate Crew wishes to extend greetings to our brother Pirates throughout this section.

To control a man a woman must first control herself.

OIL BOOTLEGGERS on the RUN!

Sinclair dealers here drive out oil bootleggers with New TAMPER-PROOF cans

Do you want some other motorist's crankcase drainings poured into your engine when you've ordered a reputable brand of motor oil? Are you satisfied with an inferior oil when you've paid good money for a high quality product?

Some authorities estimate that as much as 25% of all motor oil sold today is "bootleg" — cheap, shoddy stuff masquerading as some famous brand. Many devices have been invented to defeat it—but none so bootleg-proof as that now adopted by Sinclair dealers here—the new Sinclair Tamper-Proof Motor Oil can. These cans are refinery-sealed either with Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, "mellowed 80 million years", or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil, "mellowed a hundred million years". In serving you, the Sinclair dealer opens them before your eyes—smashing the empty can beyond all repair. You can't help getting the Sinclair Motor Oil you asked for—as pure and free from contamination as when it was refined.

Ask for Sinclair Opaline and Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oils in the Tamper-Proof cans. This service costs you nothing extra.

Interscholastic League Announces Change In Group

CANYON Feb. 28.—W. E. Lockhart, Director General of Region No. 1, Texas Interscholastic League is calling the attention of all schools of the Panhandle to the new organization of the Texas Interscholastic League which converts old districts of this section into several new districts with centers at Amarillo, Childress, Lubbock and Pampa. This plan is being tried for the first time in 1934.

Mr. Lockhart states that as a general rule the winners in each of the districts come to Canyon to compete in the Regional Meet on April 20 and 21. The regional Director goes on to say:

"A few exceptions to the above should be noted. There will be no district or county contests in Art, the students in each school may enter the Regional contests direct. There are no county contests in Typewriting, but there will be district contests; and the best five typists in each district will enter the regional meet.

"In Basketball, each District must determine its championship not later than February 24; and then the winning teams, four in number, come to Canyon for a Regional elimination on March 2 and 3. This tournament will be conducted on a "Double-elimination" basis, requiring two defeats to put a team out of the tournament, before reaching the finals.

There is an entirely new plan this year in Essay Writing. The writers must attend each meet from County to Regional and actually write their essays in the contest. This is regular—the winners in the County entering the District, and the district winners entering the Regional Meet.

"In the One-Act Play contest the "Double-elimination plan will also be used, the cast from Childress playing against Pampa; the one from Lubbock playing against Amarillo; then losers play losers and winners playing winners, etc., until the Regional Championship cast is determined and entered in the State Meet. This tournament will be held in Canyon on April 20 and 21. Correspondence should be addressed to Mr. C. W. Batchelder, Canyon.

LUBBOCK'S HOMESTEAD COLONY PLAN APPROVED

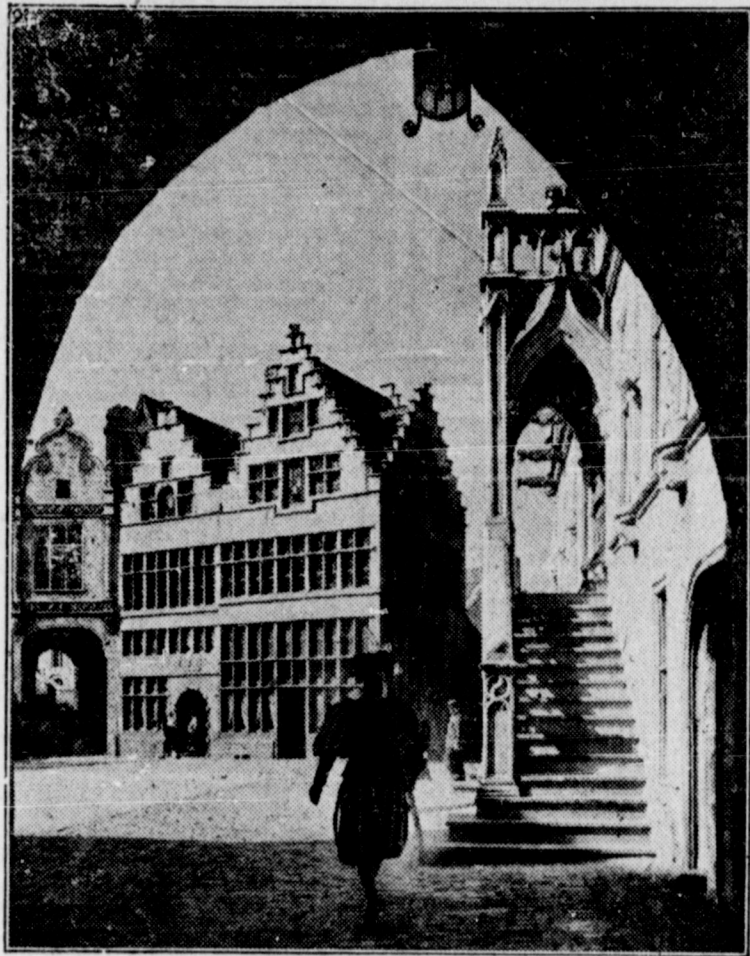

Lubbock, Texas.—Approval of the Texas Rural Community homestead colony to be established near Lubbock has recently been given by the board of directors, according to Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological College and member of the board. This is to be the largest homestead colony in the state, to be made up of 100 families who will settle on 40 acres each.

A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, presented the proposed brief and application to the board. Dean A. H. Leidigh, Prof. W. L. Stangel, and Dr. J. O. Ellsworth, all of Texas Technological College, together with Don Jones, superintendent of the state agricultural experiment station of Lubbock, P. T. Montfort, county agent, and Miss Hazel Brantley, home demonstration agent, were instrumental in drawing the plans and carrying out the work of introducing the plan.

This is one of five to be operated in the state. Others are at Woodlake, Nacogdoches, Mexia and Wichita Falls. "Present indications are that this one will be established near Roptsville, 22 miles southwest of Lubbock," President Knapp stated.

Mrs. H. K. Thompson of Trinity county will be supervisor of the project. Cooperative work in canning and meat curing, in addition to farming, will be done. A small acreage of each farm will be devoted to irrigating vegetables. Each tract is to have two mules, one cow, two meat hogs and 50 hens. Suitable dwellings connected with water, sewage, gas, and electricity are to be constructed. Poultry houses, storage houses, garage, and wash room are to be on each farm to complete the

Inspiration for the New Midway

A radically different Midway will welcome the visitors to the 1934 Century of Progress at Chicago, and the inspiration for it was the beautiful and picturesque Belgian Village of the 1933 exposition, a bit of which is shown above. Along the 1934 Midway will be villages of many nations, including England, Russia, Spain, New England, Germany, Switzerland, Ireland, and several others. building requirements. This is an experiment in relief measures and is to provide for selected families of farm experience who are not at the present time on farms and are out of employment.

Each homesteader is to buy the tracts, valued at about $3,500 complete, payable in small installments extending over 20 years. Cash income is to be derived from planting a certain amount of cotton, engaging in hog raising, dairying, or poultry raising.

The administrator of the colony is to determine the major crops to be grown, selecting those which he deems most profitable. Additional income may be secured from such home industries as weaving, meat curing, livestock feeding, home canning, dairy manufacturing, and poultry production.

ART STUDENT WILL HAVE CHANCE SPRING CONTESTS

CANYON.—For the first time in its history, the Texas Interscholastic League is giving students of art a chance in the regional contests, and such students from 45 counties will compete against each other at Canyon on April 20 and 21.

Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the art department of the West Texas State Teachers College, will direct the art contests. She announces to contestants that any member school may enter one contestant in each of three events which are, to draw in charcoal a group of still life objects; to paint in color, with any medium, a group of still life objects, and to model in clay, wax, soap, or other material an animal or figure, the nature of which will be given out only at the hour of the contest.

Schools entering contestants should notify Miss Robinson, giving names of its contestants and events to be entered by April 14. Students will furnish their own materials, except easels and drawing boards.

The winners of the regional contests will be entitled to enter the State Meet at Austin, May 3, 4, 5.

GROCERS MEET HIGHER COSTS WITH ECONOMIES

DES MOINES.—"Grocers throughout the country are decidedly more optimistic than they were a few months ago," said Charles H. Janssen, secretary of the National Retail Grocers Association, here to attend a convention of Iowa grocers. "Secretaries of State associations in the east, west, central west, and far west all report the same uplift in business. Undoubtedly the NRA and other Federal agencies have vastly stimulated all business and grocers naturally got their share." Janssen, who is also chairman of the national food and grocery distributors' code authority, declared "they have responded widely and freely to the wage and labor sections of the NRA, which mean increased overhead expenses varying from 6% to as high as 30 percent," and added: "Already much of the loss formerly occasioned by the unfavorable competitive conditions has been definitely eliminated."

J. M. Acord, well-known dairyman, estimates he has given away an average of 100 quarts of milk every month for the last three years. "You talk about helping the poor," he exclaimed. "I have given milk to many families that had children who needed the milk when I knew I would never get any pay for it. In one case, I even loaned a man a cow so he could have milk for his children. Yes, I also gave him some feed for the cow. He came to me and said he had to have feed, so I gave it to him. That was a fine cow, too. Yes, I have helped and I don't begrudge it."

Library Notes

By MRS. C. A. BURTON

We are very happy to have "Bonfire" by Dorothy Cranfield as one of our new accessories. The New York Herald Tribune says of it, "The finest of her several fine novels." The Philadelphia Ledger says, "Her most distinguished novel," while the New Republic says, "Her most richly felt and finely written novel." It is the story of a Vermont village, and also a dramatic modern novel of loves and marriage. Against a background of quiet mountains, upland pastures, and shaded village streets in their quiet, simple beauty, the stirring drama of living is laid out, complete and vivid. All the village people play their part in it; the fiery young doctor, impatient of traditions and conventions; the eager, sweet, touchingly ardent young girl who loves him; old Miss Bessie reveling in tradition and gossip and salty jokes; deaf Miss Gussie with her silent, unshared store of wisdom. Lipler the primitive beauty from the mountain; genteel Mr. Stewart, with his antiques, his afternoon teas and his withered heart.

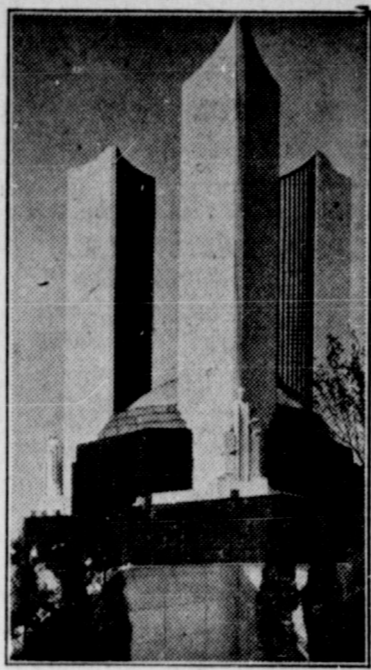

Clara G. Stillman, a rather fine literary critic, says of it: "Dorothy Cranfield's Vermont Village is a microcosm in which the destinies of human beings clash and interweave in the shocking and incalculable way of life everywhere." The novel deals with a gossip of widely different people, recognizable at once as real, in a cross section of their lives as they blindly reach upon ravaged, or healed, but always each other, and are warped, profoundly changed by early influences, by love, ambition or resentment, by frustrations, by physical and spiritual deficiencies or triumphs. Some are only on-lookers, but even on-lookers have power. The story has roots and native character; it has both a regional and a general truth and beauty."

Dorothy Cranfield's family came to America in 1636, moved to Vermont in 1764, and have owned land there ever since. Her father was an educator—a college professor, and president of more than one State University. Dorothy Cranfield's education has been cosmopolitan, but always at rock bottom American. In 1907 she married John R. Fisher and they went to live on one of the Cranfield farms at Arlington, Vermont. Traveling much, especially in Europe, it is in Vermont that she has done practically all her writing. "The Bent Twig," and "The Brimming Cup" are both stories of Vermont village and rural life. William Lyon Phelps said of the later, "an honest record of a successful marriage." I am grateful for a truly American novel. "Understood Betsy" is a delightful story for girls. "The Deepening Stream" a story of intense sustained interest; while "Her Son's Wife" is a keen psychological study, with every day conditions for its background. All of these are on our shelves.

One of the vices of age is curiosity, and its visible form is an interrogation point.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Slaton Mahaffey, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eanes, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Andis, Mr. and Mrs. Gaither, Mr. and Mrs. Nelse Robinson, Mrs. Harlin, Mrs. C. E. Beach, Miss Mattie Rhodes, Marjorie Harlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lamberson, Ernest Lamberson, Lavern Lamberson, Leslie Perking, and Floyd Derrick. Cake and hot chocolate was served. All departed wishing the newly weds a long, happy life.

Federal Towers

Visitors to the 1933 Century of Progress, who return to Chicago to see the new and enlarged Exposition of 1934, will marvel at the changes new colorings and new lighting effects have made in the imposing towers of the Federal Building, the towers representing the three branches of the national government—legislative, administrative and judicial. Not only the towers, but the entire building is being repainted in new and attractive colors, and many of the exhibits are being changed and enlarged.

ASHTOLA SCHOOL NEWS

The Log Of A Pirate

The Ashtola Pirate Crew met in council on Wednesday night, with every active member in his place. D. W. Tomlinson was passed upon by a clear ballot, and will be invited next Wednesday night in regular meeting. New plans for spring activities were mapped out.

The Pirates and our sister are soon to attempt the production of an operetta, "The Pastry Cook and the Pirates," a rather ambitious undertaking, however, we are fortunate in having some exceptional musical talent in our school.

Strange to say, the usual six-week exams we are having to undergo this week are not the bug-a-boo they might be if we had been less studious these past weeks.

A great interest is being shown in Interscholastic League work this year. We are planning to have entries in most all the literary and athletic events.

We are counting on our Pirate and Pirate Crews acquitting themselves creditably in the annual Class B tournament at Hedley this coming week-end. Of course we would like very much to win in each division but our motto is, "Sportsmanship, then Victory."

The tournament will conclude the basketball season this year and we are looking forward to beginning the baseball practice.

We take a great pride in our new work-shop, and with the hundred dollars which the state has granted us for additional equipment, we hope to accomplish great things. Our barbers are doing excellent work and keep busy, the mechanics turned out a first class paint job on a Chevrolet Coupe, and have several other jobs contracted. The paint is blown on with a gun, and satisfaction guaranteed. The expense to the owner including paint runs about $5.00.

A hot-bed has been constructed from which we hope to get some early plants. In the blacksmith department, some expert workmen are being developed in sharpening sweeps. Several articles of furniture were repaired and repainted last week. The tailors did quite a volume of work this past week. Regular cleaning days are Tuesdays and Thursdays. Prices on suits are 25c; trousers, 10c; and dresses 20c.

The Ashtola Pirate Crew wishes to extend greetings to our brother Pirates throughout this section.

To control a man a woman must first control herself.

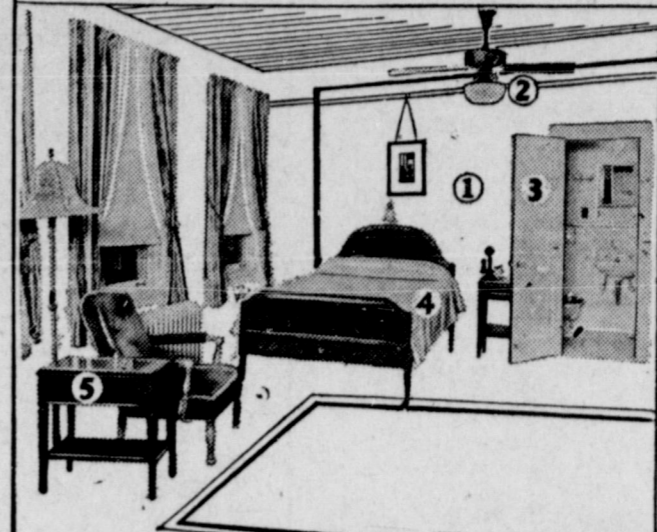

A cheery woman is the salt of the earth, and a jolly man the spice thereof.

Do you want some other motorist's crankcase drainings poured into your engine when you've ordered a reputable brand of motor oil? Are you satisfied with an inferior oil when you've paid good money for a high quality product?

Some authorities estimate that as much as 25% of all motor oil sold today is "bootleg" — cheap, shoddy stuff masquerading as some famous brand. Many devices have been invented to defeat it—but none so bootleg-proof as that now adopted by Sinclair dealers here—the new Sinclair Tamper-Proof Motor Oil can. These cans are refinery-sealed either with Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, "mellowed 80 million years", or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil, "mellowed a hundred million years". In serving you, the Sinclair dealer opens them before your eyes—smashing the empty can beyond all repair. You can't help getting the Sinclair Motor Oil you asked for—as pure and free from contamination as when it was refined.

"Secretaries of State associations in the east, west, central west, and far west all report the same uplift in business. Undoubtedly the NRA and other Federal agencies have vastly stimulated all business and grocers naturally got their share." Janssen, who is also chairman of the national food and grocery distributors' code authority, declared "they have responded widely and freely to the wage and labor sections of the NRA, which mean increased overhead expenses varying from 6 1/2 to as high as 30 percent," and added: "Already much of the loss formerly occasioned by the unfavorable competitive conditions has been definitely eliminated."

J. M. Acord, well-known dairyman, estimates he has given away an average of 100 quarts of milk every month for the last three years. "You talk about helping the poor," he exclaimed. "I have given milk to many families that had children who needed the milk when I knew I would never get any pay for it. In one case, I even loaned a man a cow so he could have milk for his children. Yes, I also gave him some feed for the cow. He came to me and said he had to have feed, so I gave it to him. That was a fine cow, too. Yes, I have helped and I don't begrudge it."

little daughter went to Frost this past week-end to attend the wedding of Belden English, Mrs. Kavanaugh's youngest brother. Rev. English of Berger accompanied them to perform the ceremony for his brother. They were in a big rain storm down there. They brought some mud back with them to prove it to us.

Miss Della Wood spent Sunday with her brother, J. D. Wood and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall and little son of Stratford and Mrs. Carl Naylor and two children of the Naylor community were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker Sunday.

NAYLOR

(By Mrs. Richmond Bowlin)

The Literary Club presented a program Friday night, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bain and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eanes. It was a fine program and well presented and very much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shares of Ashtola visited last week with old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pickering.

Mrs. Carl Naylor and two small children are visiting this week at Stratford, guests of her sister, Mrs. Carl Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Crites of Chamberlain spent Sunday with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow.

Sunday marked the annual birthday dinner of Naylor's three best men, Messrs A. O. Hefner, W. M. Pickering, and Lesley Pickering, with Mrs. Pickering hostess at the Pickering home. The following guests enjoyed a grand dinner: Messrs A. O. Hefner, W. M. Pickering, Lesley Pickering, honorees; Mrs. A. O. Hefner, Lloyd Hefner, Miss Lettrous Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Verna Lusk, of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Barton and Russell Barton of "JA" Ranch, Mrs. A.

Story Of Club's Efforts To Mark Old Town Spreads

Here is a story that has been sent out to the press of this section by the News and which has been copied in many of our neighbor papers the past week.

CLARENDON, Tex.—The Clarendon Lions Club has started a movement to erect a permanent marker on the site of "Old Clarendon," which was located at a point about four miles north of the present city. The old town

O. Hefner will be hostess in 1935. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Proctor and two foster children of Childress spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow, the lady's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pickering attended the shower given Mr. and Mrs. Longan, at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelse Robinson, Monday night at Midway.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tidrow left Tuesday for Fort Worth to meet Mr. and Mrs. Hurst, who are moving from Cooper to near Clarendon. Mrs. Hurst will be remembered as Miss Louise Tidrow.

At this writing J. W. Mann is quite ill.

was probably the first white settlement in the Panhandle. Today nothing remains there except a fast-fading cemetery, according to President T. D. Nored of the Lions Club.

As a historic feature, the club is planning to put an iron fence around the old graveyard," he said. "This will be in addition to some kind of permanent marker. It is thought the cemetery was on ground that was deeded for that purpose, so it will be easy to set it aside.

The old graveyard today is in the center of a pasture. W. H. Patrick, president of the First National Bank of Clarendon, recalls that one Lon Waksfield, driver of a mail hack from Clarendon to Quitaque in the early eighties, is buried there. Waksfield was killed by one Bob Adams who afterwards was sentenced to 50 years in prison for murder.

BAND TO PLAY OVER RADIO AT AMARILLO STOCK SHOW

Pre-Nuptial Parties For Bride-Elect

A miscellaneous shower was given Monday evening for Miss Elizabeth Kemp, by several of her friends at the W. C. Stewart home.

Several piano selections were played by Miss Delphia Bones and Bobby Leathers, while Misses Carroll Holder, Jean Bourland, and Mrs. Byrum Haile sang a vocal duo.

Blue was the predominant color used in the decorations. A hugh bluebird hovered over a nest filled with many lovely gifts. The honoree was presented with a poem all about bluebirds which directed her to the nest of presents. After those had been opened and admired the honoree thanked the donors in her charming manner.

Among those present were Misses Gertrude Shepherd, Ida and Etta Harned, Delphia Bones, Elizabeth Dunn, Geraldine Pratt, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Carroll Holder, Jean Bourland, Pauline Sanford, Lotta Bourland, JoElla Stewart, Gwendolyn Couch, the honoree, Elizabeth Kemp.

Mesdames Mollie E. Gray, W. A. Land, M. E. Thornton, M. W. Mosley, J. T. Warren, Lott Kimbriel, A. T. Cole, T. J. Mann, B. N. Shepherd, Linnie Cauthen, Cap Lane, Ben Buck, T. M. Couch, A. W. Simpson, H. K. Leathers, Major Hudson, Ben Hill, B. L. Jenkins, Sr., C. W. Taylor, W. A. Massie, H. W. Melton, J. R. Cox, H. C. Brumley, W. B. Sims, Eva Draffen, George McCleskey, Leck Goldston, Byrum Haile, G. G. Kemp, W. B. Holtzclaw, Rhea Couch, Gordon Lane, and Mice Lightsey of Chillicothe, Texas.

Misses Dorothy Jo Taylor and Jean Bourland were charming hostesses to a lovely dance Friday evening, at the Frank Bourland home, complimenting Miss Kemp and the groom-elect, Sam Cauthen.

During the evening a buffet supper was thoroughly enjoyed. Pink and silver, the bride's chosen colors, were used in the table decorations. Mrs. Byrum Haile gave a toast to the groom and Glenn Allison to the bride.

To enjoy this were Miss Elizabeth Kemp and Sam Cauthen, the honor guests, Miss JoElla Stewart, Roy Stargel, Miss Carroll Holder, Bill Word, Miss Pauline Sanford, Steve Green, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Fred Bourland, Jean Bourland, Mike Stricklin, and Mr. and Mrs. Byrum Haile.

Kill Kare Klub

Washington Party

Numbering among the many delightful social affairs of the past week was the entertaining of the Kill Kare Kneadle Klub, by Mrs. M. W. Mosley, on Thursday afternoon.

After a short business session, a most enjoyable afternoon was spent with doing fancy needle work and engaging in pleasant conversation. Delectable refreshments, carrying out the Washington Birthday motif, were served by the hostess in the late afternoon.

To enjoy this were Miss JoElla Stewart and Mrs. T. J. Mann, guests; and Mrs. H. C. Brumley, Mrs. Joe Cluck, Mrs. Eva Draffen, Mrs. W. A. Massie, Mrs. Buel Sanford, Mrs. W. B. Sims, Mrs. W. C. Stewart, and Misses Ida and Etta Harned, members.

B.&P.W. Club Hears Interesting Talk

Fred Rathjen, prominent business man of this city, spoke to the Business and Professional Woman's Club Tuesday evening on "International Relations." This is a subject on which Mr. Rathjen is well versed and he gave a splendid talk.

In the business meeting, plans for National Business and Professional Woman's Week, which will be from March 12th to 17th, were discussed.

Rhoda Wiedman was leader of the program for the evening and Gwendolyn Couch and Julia Wiedman were hostesses.

Among those present were Beatrice Antrobus, Ruth Harris, Layma Taylor, Annie Ruth Johnson, Lotta Bourland, Lela Lamons, Norma Rhode, Opal Pyle, Mantie Graves, Lottie Lane, Fannie Perry, Helen Wiedman, and Zell Rogers.

Miss Nettie Sims Weds J. E. Crabtree

Miss Nettie Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Sims, Sr., and J. Edley Crabtree were quietly married Wednesday evening, Feb. 21st. The ceremony was performed at the San Jacinto Methodist parsonage in Amarillo, Texas.

Both young people are members of prominent Clarendon pioneer families. The bride is a graduate of C. H. S. and attended Southwestern and Southern Methodist Universities.

Mr. Crabtree is the son of Mrs. M. T. Crabtree and a graduate of C. H. S. and Texas A. & M. College at Bryan.

At present they are residing at the Tomb apartments in the east part of town.

Bridal Couple Honored

Among the many lovely courtesies extended Mr. and Mrs. J. Edley Crabtree was the Buffet Supper given by Mrs. Crabtree's sister, Mrs. Louie Merrill and Mr. Merrill on Saturday evening, at their home at Ashtola.

The color scheme used in the attractive table decorations and courses were green and white. An elaborately decorated Bride's Cake of white centered the table, while on each side tall white tapered tapers in silver holders tied with bows of green tulle. Mrs. M. H. Rhodes presided at the silver coffee service. Following the sumptuous repast, the bride cut and served the delicious cake. An informal and most enjoyable evening was spent.

Those present were Misses Muffet Merrill, Cassandra Morris, Mary Cooke, Lorraine Patrick, Master James Morris, Mesdames M. T. Crabtree, Lanham Ball of Amarillo, John O. Mabery of Sayre, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sims, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. John Sims, Jr., of Pampa, Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Rhodes, and the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edley Crabtree.

Lovely Party

A lovely party was given Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Clarence Piercy, with Mesdames Joe Ritter, Si Johnson and Clarence Piercy, hostesses for the occasion.

A most enjoyable evening was spent in playing games of forty-two and bridge, with delectable refreshments being served to:

Misses Lucille and Isabelle Wright, Dore, Lucille, and Jean Piercy, and Mesdames Guy Wright, Guy Pierce, Hubert Brown, Jimmie Moore, Charlie Johnnie Beard, Ernest Hunt, E. Rhoer, Ralph Grady, Lu McClellan, Roy Beverly, M. W. Mosley, C. L. Knight, Fred Russell, Johnnie Beard, Ernest Hunt, E. C. Herd, Edna Lott, Walter Lows, Roy Trimble, and Steve Hunter.

Mrs. L. B. Gerner of Dallas is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. A. Eddings this week.

Farewell Party For Mr. and Mrs. Haile

Mr. and Mrs. Meade Haile, who left Friday morning for Dimmitt, Texas, where they will be located, were honor guests at a farewell Party Thursday evening at the Parks Cramberlain home when Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Merchant, and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain entertained.

A delectable buffet supper was a feature of the evenings entertainment. The table was arranged in a most attractive manner, with four tall tapers as a centerpiece and casting a soft glow over the pretty setting.

Among those present were Misses Josephine Murphy, Betty Walker, Wylfa Lee Alexander, Lois Alexander, Margaret Kelly, Lorraine Patrick, Mary Cooke, Elgin Patrick, Mrs. John O. Maberry; Messrs Bill Taylor, R. A. Baker, J. P. Rhode, Winford Gattis, Paul Greene, Ed Foxhall, Winks Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Trent, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stegall, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knorpp, Mr. and Mrs. Bus Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Selden Bagby and the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Meade Haile.

Pathfinder Club

"The Power of the Bible" was the main topic up for discussion at the meeting of the Pathfinder Club, Friday afternoon at the Woman's Club Room.

Mrs. J. T. Patman was leader for the afternoon and the following program was given.

- I. The Spread of the Gospel in Heathen Lands—Mrs. James Trent.
 - II. Inspiration of the Bible Teaching.
 1. Understanding—Mrs. W. C. Stewart.
 2. Development of the Personality—Mrs. C. A. Burton.
 3. Spiritual Virtues—Mrs. C. J. Douglas.
 4. Sorrow—Mrs. J. T. Patman.
- Following the study, dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. R. Porter and Miss Marie Thornton. Guests for the afternoon included Miss Mary Howren and Mrs. J. H. Howze.

Mrs. Edgar Britain Is Hostess

Entertaining in the home of her mother, Mrs. O. L. Fink, Mrs. Edgar Britain of Jacksonville, Texas, was hostess to a group of friends, Tuesday evening.

A Buffet Supper was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests preceding the games of bridge. Attending were:

Misses Wylfa Lee Alexander, Lois Alexander, Elgin Patrick, Josephine Murphy, Julia Mae Caraway, Betty Walker, Mrs. Bus Bell, Mrs. Joe Bownds, Mrs. Nadine Tucker, and Mrs. O. L. Fink.

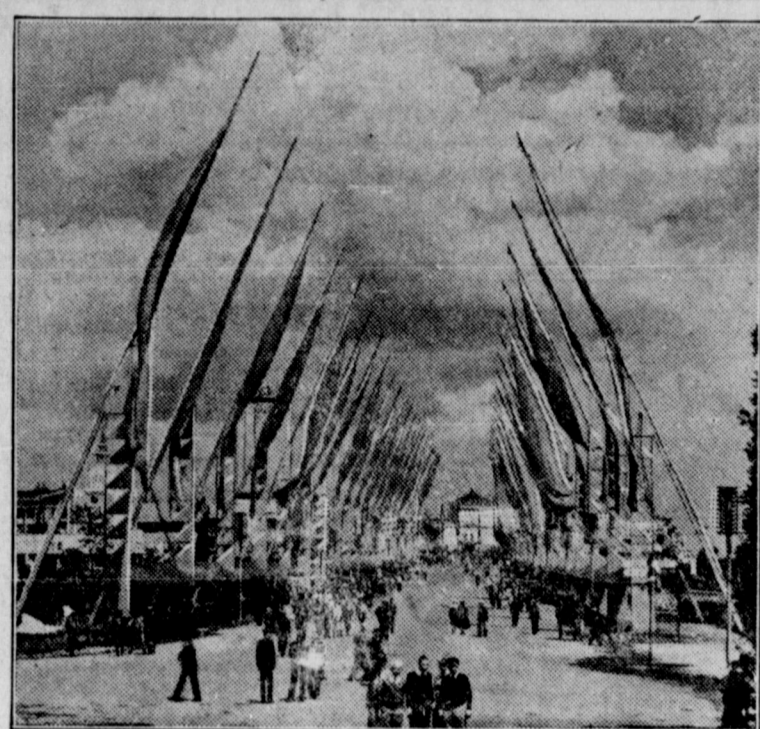

Ladies Aid

Mrs. Clarence Pipes was hostess to the Ladies Aid of the Christian Church Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Ferrell opened the meeting with a prayer and the devotional, which was the 1st and 2nd Chapters of Hebrews.

The Aid is planning to hold a Saturday Market this week at the M System store.

The Avenue of Flags

Millions of visitors to A Century of Progress in 1933 who entered the Exposition grounds through the Twelfth Street gates received their first impression of the Fair through the Avenue of Flags. Framed by fluttering banners and beautifully green foliage was the imposing entrance of the Hall of Science, and flanking the Avenue were the Administration Building, Sears Roebuck Building, and the buildings of Italy, Sweden and Czechoslovakia. The Avenue of Flags will again be a feature of the 1934 exposition, but its colorings will be more brilliant than ever and new lighting effects will make it even more of a fairland at night than it was in 1933.

Young Matrons Harmony Class

Mrs. M. R. Allensworth and Mrs. Lester Schull were hostesses to a social meeting of the Young Matrons Harmony Class, at the home of Mrs. Allensworth Tuesday afternoon.

After a short business meeting games of 42 were enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon.

Those present were: Mesdames E. P. Shelton, C. W. Bennett Jr., Chas. Bairfield, W. A. Clark Jr., C. W. Galloway, O. C. Watson, Walter Hutchins, Fred Buntin, Frank Turrentine, C. B. Jackson, L. F. Bones Jr., Alex Hale, and Claude McGowen, members; Mrs. J. E. Crabtree, Mrs. E. B. Bowen, and Mrs. Ralph Porter, guests.

Contract Club With Mrs. Bagby

Mrs. Selden Bagby was gracious hostess to the Contract Club Saturday afternoon when she entertained with a lovely party at her home.

As is the usual custom, there was more chattering than bridge playing, but everyone present had a most enjoyable time. Following the games, a delicious salad course was served.

Those present included Mrs. Carroll Knorpp and Mrs. John O. Maberry, invited guests; and Mrs. Phillips Gentry, Mrs. Ira Merchants, Mrs. Sam Dyer, Mrs. Meredith Gentry, Miss Mary Cooke, and Miss Lorraine Patrick club members.

Arthur Chase, where the music of Hubert Reavis and Mrs. Hunter was enjoyed until midnight. Those who did not dance remained at the Dormitory where they were entertained by various games.

Junior Report

Last week was quite eventful in the Juniors' opinion. They saw for their first time the wonders of the Junior and Senior Banquet. It was really a great success, and everyone enjoyed it. The girls were all looking very pretty, but rather uncomfortable, in their bright-colored evening gowns. The dance also went over big.

Then besides having the festivities, the Juniors worked, because it was time for six weeks tests again and those tests really amounted to something. Such questions! Now they giggle and bear their anxiety as best they can, waiting patiently for their reports.

Scout News

(By the Scout Scribe)

The Scouts of troop 37 went on a hike on Feb. 22nd. It was the first real hike that the troop has had this year. Our hike ended at the site of Old Clarendon where a number of souvenirs were collected; one of them was an old plow point that had all the marks of being old.

Our first Jr. Assistant S. M. and another tenderfoot left part of their equipment in a sand hole about three miles south of the river.

After arriving at the old graveyard the Patrol Leader of patrol two found his lunch messed up with half a dozen eggs. The most humorous thing that I have observed about these hikes is that the more advanced Scouts get their fires going quicker and their lunches done sooner and then visit everyone else.

When everyone had finally finished eating, our S. M. took most of the troop over to see the old town. There's something about those shacks and that old well that reminds us of the men that made this part of the state. After admiring the site very much, it was decided that it would make a good camping place. Among other things it is a good distance from Clarendon and with a camp near the old Townsite could be preserved for those of the future that might be interested in it.

At the last Court of Honor there were a number of First Class and some Second Class Scouts up for badges.

The old First Class were up for their three Merit Badges. The first class badges that the Scouts got last time were about one-third as large as they have been.

Troop 37 has purchased some Scouter pins for those that are interested in Scouting and wish some identification.

At present it is certain that some other organization will sponsor a troop of Scouts in Clarendon. One of the benefits would be that the Scouts and Leaders could study each other. Then there would be more rivalry between the Scouts.

Student Employment

Seven students of C. J. C. are to profit by President Roosevelt's New Deal to the extent of thirty cents an hour for jobs which will be given worthy students who must have assistance or leave college.

Various kinds of jobs are being provided on the campus for these students. Office work and library work of all kinds will be offered the girls and work on the campus around the building will furnish employment for the boys.

A number of students have already been placed tentatively in positions at the College. Mr. W. A. Clarke is receiving the applications.

The government has set aside about $5,000,000 to assist students in colleges which meet the approval of the state and national educational departments. Our College met with the requirements of both state and federal educational systems. Mr. Clarke received definite instructions last week to employ seven students in this work. Four girls and three boys were given positions.

The government has been assisting various classes of people and educators are very grateful that the government has seen fit to assist thousands of boys and girls who are struggling to make their way through the col-thing over 400,000 new cars were sold in the United States. During that same six months about 1,400,000 used cars were sold. Do you see the point? Where is the market for the low-priced car? In the list of those who bought used cars, to be sure, Henry Ford used to sell a million new Fords a year. Now all the car manufacturers put together sell hardly that many. What we need is a car that will retail for $300. It could be built for $98 cost to the manufacturer. That is what the old Model cost Henry Ford. The new $300 car could have speed by lengthening the bore. Many so-called 'extras' now put on cars could be left off and the driver would never know the difference. That would keep the cost down. If Ford does not see the point, he and his son will lose their entire fortune in another 10 years time. They have lost 125 million in the last three years in their fool-hardy attempt to get into the high-price field abandoning the field where they made their millions. Henry Ford knows about as much about putting out a society car as I know about astronomy."

When the snow began falling Tuesday afternoon, Secretary G. L. Boykin of the Chamber of Commerce was seen hurrying down the street—presumably to get the board of directors together for the purpose of sending "Old Tack" at Amarillo a telegram, informing the latter moisture was falling at last.

One of the best singers heard by the Lions Club in a long time—in fact, one of the real artists of this section—was the appearance of Master Allan Bryan. That little fellow surely knows his songs.

Bill, the boy with the broad smile down, at Caraway's Cafe, summarizes it thusly: "No matter what part of the counter at which I am standing, that is the spot a coffee customer will grab when he comes in for a drink. If some customer happens to walk out, and I haven't had a chance to remove his dishes, that is the place a new customer will always seat himself. Can't figure it out, except curiosity. Every customer is curious to see what the other fellow ate and size it up by what is left on the other man's plate. However, I like that. It is when a fellow deliberately picks the other end of the counter from me that it is not so good. People will also sit down at a table where some one else has just finished eating. It's all in life, you know." Bill certainly learns people by waiting on them and giving them

G. G. Reeves donated half a mutton to the Masonic barbecue on last Friday. At that rate, Mr. Reeves, you will have to have many sheep at home to supply all the barbecues and picnics that will occur between now and the July primary.

We have at last found an ex-service man who kept a diary for the entire duration of the World War, including 35 days on the Front. We are going to try to publish the best part of the diary. Watch for it. It will run under the man's serial number.

ber, which is taken from his dog-tag. Yes, he is very much alive and lives in Clarendon now. We consider the diary very reliable.

Price Morris tells us that he was one of the first boys to go overseas during the War. He has a real story to tell of his life over there. By the way, Price is now pushing those new Stewart-Warner radios. And he is selling some of them, too. Read his ad in the News.

Joe Holland was wondering, just wondering, the other day if a fellow remembers much about his own wedding—long years after it is over.

It is rumored, hereabouts, that certain candidates for office in Donley county are sending money to Fort Worth printing shops for candidate cards. Just this gentle hint, Mister Candidate—so you expect Fort Worth printers to support you this coming July with their votes and influence? If so, we will apologize for referring to the matter. We know 95 percent of the candidates for public office here will remain loyal to the home-town printshops. And we hope the other 5 percent will do likewise.

We met an estimable gentleman the other morning—Mr. J. H. Hunt. Mr. Hunt admits he is now a farmer by profession but also admits he was once a "tramp printer," or least had those inclinations. Mr. Hunt was interested in an article in last week's Saturday Evening Post which described the old-time tramp printer—now almost as extinct as the celebrated dodo. The old-time tramp printer was a "jack at all trades," including the ability of doffing his printer's apron and donning a split-tail coat and ascending the church pulpit where he could deliver as firm a temperance lecture as ever man heard. Given a few "shots" of a certain refreshing drink of those olden days, the better the lecture would be.

By the way, Mr. Hunt believes, as many of us are coming to believe and realize, that the farmer of the year 1934 is showing a tendency to stay out of debt and thus keep Old Man Depression from staging a quick comeback. "There are many farmers today who have paid out of debt and who will make this year's crop without going in debt," he says. "This argues well for the future. Business will feel the effect still more next fall."

By the way, Earl Alderson says his low prices on pictures, as advertised in the News last week, brought in some new business last Saturday. After all, it pays to advertise, doesn't it? It's an old story but it takes some merchants a long time to learn it.

O. C. Watson Jr. led a group of the senior class of the Clarendon High School down to the Lions Club Tuesday where three of the cast of the senior play pit on a real "sample" of what customers saw Tuesday night when they attended the play presentation. O. C. Jr. certainly made a "hit" with the members of the club, particularly so when he "struck" them for the purpose of buying a ticket to the show.

Members of the Donley County Teacher-Trustees association certainly know now who is their "sport model," according to stories being told around County Supt. Baker's office last Saturday. Outsiders may not know but the "insiders" know aplenty, according to George Kavanagh.

LUNATIC

In walker Sheriff Guy Pierce, City Marshal Flop Pyle and two other officers. They walked to the side of the old man and Mr. Pierce started to put handcuffs on him. The old man remonstrated, but the official snapped the handcuffs on him and led him out with the remark to the rest of us the man was an insane person who had escaped from his guard after they arrived in town.

Sheriff Pierce later reported the incident thusly: "A deputy Sheriff from Amarillo came to my office and asked me to help him nab an escaped lunatic. It seems the man had already been adjudged insane and the officer was on his way to the insane hospital at Wichita Falls with him. As they entered Clarendon, the old man turned around and bit the officer's finger. I think it was his index finger but am not sure of that. Anyhow, the insane man jumped from the car as the officer slowed it down. Then the prisoner escaped down the street. The officer came to me for help. You know the rest of the story."

Community-Wide Effort Puts Up New Teacherage In Week's Time

One of the best community efforts coming to the attention of the News recently is the work of the Midway School district in putting up a 4-room teacherage, home for its teachers, this week.

"We expect to complete the job in a week's time," declared Slaton Mahaffey, member of the local school board. "Every man and boy in the district has volunteered his help in putting over the job in such a short space of time."

County Sup't. Sloan Baker was also drafted for one day's work on the job.

"I'll have to put in that full day too," declared the county school head. "There's no way to get out of it." Fifteen men and boys were on the job at Midway Wednesday morning. They were pouring the concrete for the foundation then, it having been too cold Monday and Tuesday for this work.

Principal Dennis Smith also was "in the harness" with the rest of the men and boys. All labor on the job is being donated. John Waters, carpenter, is superintendent on contract. Nelse Robinson is doing the hauling. None of the school's fund is being touched on this job.

"It's a real effort," said Mr. Baker. "Other communities can well follow the example being set by Midway."

ALAN REED WANTS BOOSTER TRIP TO THEIR COMMUNITY

PRINCIPAL OF SCHOOL WRITES IN TO INVITE BUSINESS MEN OUT

One of the first mails following issuance of the News last week brought a letter to Homer Mulkey, local business man and trades days booster, inviting him and all other local business men to visit Alanreed school at any time.

The letter was from J. Wm. Dillard, principal of the Alanreed school, who is well known here. "I noticed in this week's issue of the Clarendon News where the business men of Clarendon are sponsoring a trades day movement," reads his letter. "I do not know by what means you intend to advertise these days, but if your program is to make booster trips, let me make the following suggestion in regard to the Alanreed community: 'The majority of the people from these three communities go to McLean and Pampa to do their trading, and there has been practically no effort to gain the friendship of this territory. 'Let me suggest that you make a date with us for sometime in the near future, bring your band and some sort of entertainment, and we will give you full opportunity to advertise your town and special occasions.' Mr. Mulkey is on the C. of C. trades day committee and certainly will keep this letter in mind in making plans and programs, he says.

To Demonstrate Use Of Pneumatic Tires on Tractor Monday

A demonstration on the use of pneumatic Firestone tires, with only 12 pounds of air in them, will be made on the R. W. Moore farm in the Chamberlain community next Monday at noon, according to announcement yesterday by Ollie Hommel, local Firestone dealer. A tractor, equipped with the tires, will be used for this demonstration. The demonstration will be put on by L. B. Sloneker, district representative from the Oklahoma City office of the Firestone company. Mr. Sloneker spent a couple of

Why Doctors Favor a Liquid Laxative

A doctor will tell you that the careless use of strong laxatives may do more harm than good. Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys. Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you needn't take a "double dose" a day or two later.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gently helps the average person's bowels back to regularity. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is little "convenience" in any cathartic which is taken so frequently, you must carry it with you, wherever you go!

Its very taste tells you Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is wholesome. A delightful taste, and delightful action. Safe for expectant mothers, and children. All druggists, ready for use, in big bottles. Member N. R. A.

112 Masons Attend Banquet Here On Last Friday Night

One of the best-attended affairs held in Masonic circles of the Panhandle in months was the Washington birthday banquet at the Masonic Hall on last Friday night, when representatives of 19 lodges registered.

Following an appetizing barbecue feed, served by Frank Whitlock and his corps of helpers, the Master Mason's lodge was opened by the worshipful master.

Addresses were delivered by Judge Clark of Shamrock. District Deputy H. E. Nicholson of Wheeler, Prof. R. E. Drennan of Clarendon, Lee Nowlin of Hedley and others. Judge Clark captivated the group with his oratory. It is said by those who heard him that Mr. Drennan delivered one of the best talks ever heard from that gentleman. Mr. Nowlin spoke on the life of Sam Houston.

A total of 112 persons were fed. Mr. Whitlock was assisted on his committee by William Green and T. M. Shaver. The Menu included mutton and beef barbecue, pickles, pie, potatoes, salad and coffee, served from Caraway's Cafe.

The lodges represented included: Amarillo, Memphis, Hedley, Goodnight, McLean, Shamrock, Wheeler Claude and Wichita Falls.

P. A. Buntin of Clarendon was introduced as the oldest Mason present. Mr. Buntin has been a Mason for 62 years. He was one of the charter members of the local lodge.

Vital Statistics Give Population Gain To County

A total of 58 deaths occurred within Donley County during the year 1933, according to a report compiled this week by Justice of the Peace Hubert Day.

Of the total, two died as the result of murder, one from suicide, five from accidents and the rest from disease or old age. Seventeen diseases contributed to these deaths.

Justice Day calls attention to the fact that there were 167 births in Donley county during the year, which shows an increase in the county's population of 109 as compared with the population of January 1, 1933.

The tabulation shows 10 deaths attributed to heart failure, seven to inflammation of the kidneys, six to senility (old age), four to cancer, three to hemorrhage of the brain, two to complications of influenza, two to heart and bladder complication, two to pellagra, and one each to inflammation of the brain, blood poison, intestinal influenza, acute abdominal infection, pneumonia, pleurisy, bright's disease and tuberculosis. Five still births are included, also one "unknown cause" death.

Is Castor Oil A Bladder Laxative?

No, but juniper oil, buchu leaves, etc., is. Use it to drive out impurities and excess acids that cause the irritation which results in getting up nights, bladder weakness, leg pains, backache and burning. Juniper oil, buchu leaves, etc., is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder laxative. Use a regular 25c box. If not satisfied your druggist will return your money. You are bound to feel better after this flushing and you get your regular sleep.
