CITY COMMISSIONERS REDUCE TAX RATE FROM $1.50 TO $1.45

CITIZENS READY TO CAST VOTES

VOTING STRENGTH OF THE COUNTY GIVEN; RACES TO BE HOTLY CONTESTED

Over one million Democratic voters of 254 counties of Texas will go to the polls Saturday, July 28, for the purpose of qualifying, by their vote two men for the second primary to be held in August. It will be their duty to name their choice for state, district, county and precinct offices. The polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Over all the state politics hold the upper hand this week as far as interest in public matters is concerned. Even the blighting drought is forgotten as citizens await the returns on what promises to be one of the most heated elections ever held within the borders of Texas.

And this year more so than in years past "the eyes of Texas" to a great extent are focused upon the western part of the state. The vote from the Panhandle and West Texas is expected to determine how more than a name race will "turn out."

The voting strength of the 32 counties of the Panhandle is 69,306.

More than the usual amount of interest is being manifested locally in the race for offices in Donley county. The county's voting strength is divided as follows:

Clarendon, precinct 2	548
Clarendon, precinct 18	518
Hedley	417
Lelia Lake	211
McKnight	86
Ashtola	80
Skillet	65
Martin	56
Goldston	49
Bray	38
Giles	34
Rowe	33
Whitefish	28
Naylor	27
Wilson	20
Smith	20
Glenwood	17

Quannah Man To Lead Series Of Meetings Here

It was announced last week by Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian church here, that beginning the first Sunday in August there would be a two week's revival held at the church. Rev. Charles A. Chasteen, minister of the Quannah Christian church, will conduct the series of meetings.

This meeting was scheduled to begin later in the month, but due to the fact that other churches were planning meetings at that time, members of the Christian church, decided to have their meeting two weeks earlier, according to Reverend Ferrell. Reverend Chasteen is said to be an able revivalist and has conducted many successful meetings in the past thirty-two years. It is thought that Rev. Billie Reaves, formerly of the Vawter Evangelistic party will conduct the singing.

Absentees Turn In Many Ballots

One hundred and seventeen absentee votes were cast in Donley county this year, according to County Clerk, W. G. Word, following the close of the voting period Wednesday. Of these 76 were cast in the clerk's office and 41 were mailed in.

Saturday these ballots will be turned over to the election judges at their respective boxes, to be opened when the official count begins. Out of 48 ballots sent out of the county for absentee votes, seven had not been returned when the period ended. Word, however, said that a few of those to whom ballots were mailed had come into the office to vote.

Two of the ballots were mailed to California, two to New Mexico, four to Oklahoma, seven to Colorado and the remainder to Texas points. Of the seven sent to Colorado, four were sent to one city, Drake.

PASTOR MAKES INSPIRING TALK

SAYS ALL ARE CANDIDATES IN RACE OF LIFE; MANY TURN OUT TO HEAR HIM

Delivering a sermon on the "Divine Election," Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian church, addressed a large number of county and precinct candidates last Sunday at the special services held in their honor. In his talk, Reverend Ferrell set forth the aims and purposes of politics, saying, "Politics is the science of social conduct. Politics, properly understood is simply the science of life, the doctrine of the way in which one is to do his duty toward God, his fellow man and country. From the Biblical standpoint it is religion applied to human society."

"An American citizen," said Ferrell, "must do all in his power to perpetuate and protect the civic and religious blessings and institutions which are his, by birthright. It is his duty to love his country and not to divert his actions toward selfish purposes and benefits.

American citizens should respect those in office as leaders of the land and should choose them with great care. The citizens must not neglect to use the ballot, as the sin of not voting is next to the sin of voting the wrong way. It is also the duty of all American citizens to elevate the character of the people, as righteousness exalteth the nation, and there is always a fight on between the forces of right and wrong.

All Christians are candidates for a great reward and office. They are promised the offices of kings, priests and judges. All are running in the great race of life and death will end the campaign. God is voting for the candidate, the Devil against him. Its up to the candidate himself to cast the deciding vote."

In closing, Reverend Ferrell said, "The chief issues of the eternal campaign are righteousness, joy, hope and eternal life, hereafter. God's promises are steadfast and sure, and if you vote right, God will see to it that you get the crown of Life. Vote before the books are closed."

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt are here this week visiting Mrs. Van Zandt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurn. They are enroute to their home in Post, Texas, from Stillwater, where Mr. Van Zandt has been attending summer school.

EVERYTHING SET FOR NEWS PARTY

BEGINNING EARLY SATURDAY EVENING RETURNS WILL BE POSTED.

With the first primary coming up Saturday and politics in Texas at a fever heat, everything is in readiness for the News annual election party. Returns on state, district, county and precinct races will be posted, beginning at about 7:30 Saturday evening, on the large blackboard, which this year, will be in front of Bryan's Clothing Store.

The board, which in former years was erected north of the Douglas-Goldston Drug Store, will be moved around the corner this year on account of Highway No. 5 being routed through the street north of the pharmacy a few months ago. Through the co-operation of Edward Eanes, local radioist there will be loud speaker arrangements to accommodate the gigantic crowd which is expected to come into town from all over Donley county for the event.

Last Friday employees of the News re-vamped and repaired the large board on which the returns will be posted, and the names of the leading candidates in state and county races were posted on it.

Election judges and clerks are again requested to lose no time in telephoning or wiring their returns in.

Citizens who are expected to bring the roped off square are urged to co-operate with employees of the local newspaper office, and help to make this party a success, by remaining orderly and confining their celebrating to cheers.

The party this year is made possible through the co-operation of the following people with the Clarendon News: Douglas-Goldston Drug Store, Goldston Bros., Bryan Clothing Co., and Edward Eanes.

Come early stay late and have a good time, is our cordial invitation to all!

DONLEY ON FOR DROUGHT RELIEF

TELEGRAM FROM SENATOR CONNALLY ADVISES THAT COUNTY IS ON PROGRAM.

Donley county has been designated for secondary drought relief, according to a telegram received by the News Saturday, from Senator Tom Connally.

This means that Donley county residents will be eligible for the benefits available for secondary drought areas, which consists chiefly of the privilege of shipping livestock out to other areas, or of shipping feed into the county at greatly reduced rates.

Announcement of the designation of Donley for secondary drought relief came as a surprise to everyone here. Due to this prevalent belief that the county was in good condition, no local effort had been made to secure the appropriation as far as could be ascertained.

It is considered possible that a state man has been making a survey of some of the counties in this section, with the view of acquiring drought relief for them.

Senator Connally's telegram merely stated: "Pleased to advise Donley county has been designated for secondary drought relief. Kindly notify interested parties. Glad to be of service. Tom Connally, United States Senator."

-Telling You-

In the issue of the News for July 5, Editor Braswell answered, through his editorial columns, the denunciation pronounced upon this newspaper by T. E. Johnson, editor of the Amarillo Globe News, because it did not support Senator Clint Small for governor. Johnson stated that Small was the man who made possible the $15,000 appropriation for the purchase of right-of-way for Highway 5 through this county.

In his editorial, Braswell said in part: "Now T. E. we'll make you the following proposition—if you'll get a letter from Judge Ely, who was chairman of the commission when Donley got authorization of $15,000—not $10,000—appropriation for purchase of right-of-way that Senator Small 'INITIATED AND SECURED' the appropriation we'll print it in a double column box, black-face type right on the front page."

Wednesday evening two supporters of Senator Small brought into this office the photostatic plate of a telegram, signed by Judge Ely, saying that Small appeared before the commission and requested the appropriation. The telegram appears in a paid advertisement on Page 8, after local supporters decided not to run it on the front page, because of an article written by one who has more than a passing interest in the affairs of this office, and which this writer said must appear before the telegram could be printed on this page.

Wednesday evening, the writer of this column wired Mr. Braswell, at that time in Franklin, Ind., asking him what to do with the submitted telegram. Following is the answer:

CHALLENGE SPECIFIED INITIATION AND SECUREMENT DONLEY LOAN FOR RIGHT OF WAY PURCHASE STOP MERE PROOF OF HIS APPEARANCE BEFORE COMMISSION AFTER MOVEMENT STARTED DOES NOT MEAN ANYTHING STOP SENATOR SMALL PROBABLY ACTED ON REQUEST CERTAINLY NOT HIS OWN INITIATIVE STOP QUOTE CHALLENGE AND LET PEOPLE DECIDE IF MET.

Sam M. Braswell. Now for the members of both parties who will be likely to criticize the way in which the foregoing statement and the telegram is run. In the editor's absence we are at the helm of this newspaper. We quoted our employer as he requested in his challenge of the proof by wire. For the manner in which the remainder of it appears the writer alone is responsible—and in the words of Patrick Henry, "if this be treason," etc.

It looks to us like John Dilling-er just orter stayed home and looked at the family album instead of yielding to that impulse of seeing a moving picture show.

NEW METHOD IS OFFERED NEEDY

COUNTY RELIEF DIRECTOR SAYS THAT THOSE ON ROLL TO HELP SELVES.

According to R. A. Baker, Donley county relief director, one of the most important phases of relief work for several months to come will be that of rehabilitating the people now on relief rolls. It is the plan of the Donley county relief office to secure the lease of all vacant farm houses in the county and approximately ten acres of adjoining land to each house. The families that are now being helped through the local office will then be moved into these farm homes. There they may be able to have their own cows, chickens, hogs and gardens and become self supporting. They will not be allowed to market any of the products grown.

Baker said, "If there are any land owners in Donley county with vacant houses on their places, and who are interested in leasing the same with approximately ten acres of land to the Texas Relief Commission, they are requested to see me at the local office."

It was the relief director's statement that the Texas Relief commission plans to pay for the leases by buying materials and making the necessary repairs on the vacant houses to put them in livable shape.

Plans for community work centers throughout the county are also in the offing, according to Baker and any community desirous of having one constructed is asked to get in touch with the local office. The relief commission will furnish the labor and part of the materials of these work centers. They are to be used, following construction, by the inhabitants of those communities in which they are erected. "The chief aim of the relief program from now on will be for those on the relief rolls to help themselves," Baker said.

SMALL, ALLRED BACKERS CLASH

POLITICAL SPEAKING TURN-ED INTO HEATED DEBATE HERE SATURDAY.

Politics held sway in Clarendon at the corner of Kearney and Second streets Saturday for more than an hour as the respective qualities and faults of two of the leading candidates for governor were discussed by their banner carriers. First one faction and then another was represented on the improvised platform before a large crowd, which booed and cheered alternately. The fireworks started when Gene Howe, publisher of the Amarillo News-Globe, and affectionately known in this section as "Old Tack" spoke in the behalf of State Senator Clint Small's candidacy for the governorship. He was introduced by Homer Mulkey, as were others who spoke for the Panhandle senator.

"Elect a man," Howe said, "that is from this section of the country and you can't go wrong." He told of Small's stand on matters of vital interest to the citizens of Texas and of the votes the Amarillo candidate is reputed to be gaining daily, not only in the Panhandle, but the entire state as well. "Tack" was followed by Ross B. Rogers, mayor of Amarillo who further waxed oratorical on the qualifications of Clint Small.

Still Look For Cotton Checks

Just as the loyal wife of a wayfaring sailor stands on the rock ribbed coast and strains her eyes trying to catch a glimpse of the returning bark that bears her husband, so have the county agent and helpers been looking for the Donley county farmers' cotton reduction checks for the past two weeks.

Each day the incoming mail is hastily sorted in an attempt to find those slips which will prove such a god-send and good news to the farmers in this section. Several checks have been received by the local office for distribution to tillers of the soil in other counties, but as yet, none for the Donleyites.

Asked by a representative of the News when they really looked for the checks, one of the officials in the office answered, "When we see them coming."

WATSON TALKS ON LION'S CODE

DISCUSSES PURPOSES OF CLUB, CODE OF ETHICS; MAKES INSPIRING TALK.

At the weekly noon-day luncheon of the Lions Club, Tuesday noon, Lion O. C. Watson, as the main speaker refreshed the memories of the small representation present, by reviewing the Lions objects and Code of Ethics and then in telling what a Lion was. Lion Watson made an inspiring talk, which was well received by all those present.

"Any organization, worthy of the name," Watson said, "must have a foundation. I don't mean a platform such as a political one which in many cases is broken as soon as the exponent of it takes office, but one that is strictly adhered to by every member of that organization.

"Down through the centuries," the speaker went on, "ever since the strife between Cain and Abel, men have been possessed by selfishness. Because of this, the Creator, on Mount Ainal, handed down to Moses the code of thence, destined to be a guiding principle in the centuries to follow. A guiding principle that had as its theme the Golden Rule, and as its prime purpose, unselfishness.

The objects of a Lions Club are as follows: First, to promote the theory and practice of good government and good citizenship; second, to take an active interest in the civic, commercial, social and moral welfare of the community; third, to unite the members in the bonds of friendship, good fellowship and mutual understanding; fourth, to provide a forum for the full and free discussion of all matters of public interest, partisan politics and sectarian religion alone excepted; fifth, to encourage efficiency and promote high ethical standards in business and professions; provided that no club shall hold out as one of its objects financial benefits to its members."

The Lions Code of Ethics was given by Watson, as follows: First, to show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service; second, to seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect less because of unfair advantage taken, or because of questionable acts on my part; third, to remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or cus-

CITY TAX RATE CUT FIVE CENTS

CITY COMMISSIONERS SET NEW RATE AT $1.45 IN MEETING LAST WEEK.

In accordance with their slashing of the expenses of city government since their term of office began last April, city commissioners, H. C. Brunley and Tom F. Connally lowered the city tax rate 5 cents at a commissioners' meeting Saturday night. The reduction was made to $1.45, the old rate being $1.50, which had been in effect for the past two years. Three years ago, in 1931, the rate was $1.31.

This reduction was made possible, according to one of the commissioners interviewed Wednesday, through the drastic cutting of city expenses, which has marked their tenure of office.

By reducing the expenses they have not had to use tax money for the general fund, it was revealed.

The various departments of the city of Clarendon are to be complimented for the efficient and economical way in which they are carrying on the affairs of the city.

Revival To Begin, Church of Christ

It was announced Thursday, that a revival meeting will be held at the Clarendon Church of Christ, beginning, Friday, Aug. 3 and continuing until Sunday evening, August 12.

The meeting will be conducted by Elder Fred McClung, of Florence, Alabama. Elder McClung is well known throughout the Southern states as an excellent revivalist and is old in experience in the field of the gospel.

It was said that the local church will be well supplied with fans, assuring comfort for the large crowds expected to attend the series of meetings.

All are cordially invited to come and hear Elder McClung. Mrs. R. J. McGowan, and daughter, Fannie, are visiting friends and relatives in Lelia Lake this week.

Rainfall Dispels Scorching Heat In This Section

Scattered rains throughout the Panhandle the first part of the week broke the heat wave which had held sway for the past few weeks and relieved, to some extent, the drought. Some sections reported good rains, while others had only light showers.

In Clarendon there was only a light shower Monday evening, the precipitation being only .06. This proved a welcome relief from the heat, however, tumbling the thermometer down to a maximum of 94 for the day as compared to 101 the day before. Tuesday and Wednesday the temperature hovered back up around the 100 mark, with little if any relief in sight.

Perhaps, the best rain of the day fell at Hedley, that city reporting three-quarters of an inch Monday afternoon. About .13 inch fell at Giles. Hedley's rain extended 10 miles north and at least three or four miles south. Water flowed over the highway between Giles and Hedley at several places and a number of cotton fields had puddles of water in them.

A TICKET DEDICATED TO GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Several have requested The News to submit a good, safe, constructive ticket for state offices in the Democratic Primary, Saturday, July 28th. This we have endeavored to do according to our best judgment, with the advice that each and every reader study the list and convince himself or herself as to the merits of the candidates named. It is not our purpose to dictate to anyone as to their choice, as we would resent any dictation from anybody, anywhere. So read the list, study the merits of the men named and make up your own mind as to how you should vote. This country will remain free and our institutions will be safe just so long as the majority of voters give intelligent attention and sincere, honest choice in the voting for public officials best suited and equipped by character and training for public trust. Here is the list:

United States Senator—Hon. Tom Connally, candidate for re-election for his second term. Tom Connally has made an impressive record and is regarded as one of the brainiest advisors of the present administration. His ability and integrity are unquestioned.

Governor—James V. Allred, brilliant young Attorney General and champion of the masses.

Lieutenant-Governor—Walter F. Woodul, Senator from Houston and one of the ablest men of the upper house.

Attorney General—Walter Woodward, State Senator from Coleman and son of Judge Woodward, one of the great District Judges of West Texas.

State Comptroller—George H. Shepherd, of Sweetwater. Present incumbent with a very splendid record behind him.

State Treasurer—Charlie Lockhart, present incumbent and a West Texan, who has more than made good in office.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—L. A. Wood, present incumbent and certainly entitled to another term.

Commissioner of Agriculture—Fred W. Davis, of Austin, who formerly held this office and made a very fine record.

Land Commissioner—Walter E. Jones of Longview. An able attorney of East Texas and thoroughly competent in every respect.

Railroad Commissioner—Lon A. Smith, present incumbent, with years experience in dealing with the problems so important in this office.

Associate Justice, Supreme Court—Hal S. Lattimore of Fort Worth. A jurist of unusual ability, competent in every way to fill this office.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO NEWS ELECTION PARTY

Following our usual custom The Clarendon News has arranged with certain other progressive firms for a County-wide Election Party, Saturday night, July 28, and the reports on the election will begin just as soon as the counting is released.

Everybody in Donley County is invited to come. The street will be roped off and a loud speaker will broadcast the reports as they come in on county and state offices. It will be a big, good-natured crowd, and the winners will rejoice, while the losers will smile as they find the verdict has gone against them.

Come to the News' Annual Election Party, July 28th, beginning about 7:30 or 8:00 o'clock.

TO THE TAXPAYER

If the taxpayer would vote for those men, to state public office, whose private lives show them honest, careful, thrifty, efficient, we would not be burdened with such fearful taxes. When the taxpayers vote for township and village officials, they do usually vote for such men, and the taxes in these units have been reduced.—Standard, Fairfax, Minn.

IT HAS KEPT FAITH

While country papers have been suffering financial difficulties the past few years, and in ninety-five per cent of the cases surviving them, there has been a distinct improvement in the quality of news and editorial service. No line of business, probably, has kept faith with its customers as courageously as the weekly press.—Wisconsin Press.

LOOK ABOVE FOR AMAZING PROOF

ONE by one, the old ways of making tires and tubes are being discarded. Goodrich, the oldest tire manufacturer, has pioneered new trouble-proof products that eliminate most of the present day motoring hazards. One of these amazing new products is a tube that doesn't rip or tear . . . even when it is run flat at a puncture! And here's proof. Goodrich made a lot of special tubes. One half of each tube was made of the new Gold and Black construction. The other half of the best old-style compound. Then they put them on cars and purposely ran them flat. The old-style construction was torn to shreds. Ripped and cut to pieces in less than a mile. Yet the Gold and Black half was sound and unharmed by this terrific punishment. Here's positive proof that this new tube is many, many times tougher . . . that it will resist chafing and rim cutting . . . that it will not weaken and burst. And here's the big news! You pay no more for Goodrich Gold and Black Tubes. Come in today. Ask for the new Goodrich Silvertown Gold and Black Tube!

ALLRED SPEAKS IN SCHULENBERG

PLACES CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM OF ADVANCEMENT BEFORE HIS AUDIENCE.

Schulenberg, Texas, July 25—(Spi)—Attorney General James V. Allred placed his constructive program of advancement in Texas government before citizens of Schulenberg here Wednesday night.

He played special interests and big corporations for standing in the way of progress in state government. "The people of Texas could want no better endorsement of my candidacy than the statement recently made by Brig. Gen. Jacob Wolters that he is against 'that young whippersnapper'". Allred said.

He exhibited a newspaper clipping in which General Wolters announced he would resign as commander of the Texas National Guard if Allred is elected. Wolters was quoted as saying: "I have served under many governors I disliked, but I cannot countenance saluting that young whippersnapper, Jimmie Allred. I will resign instead."

"Do you know who General Wolters is?" Allred demanded. "He's the chief lobbyist for the Texas Oil Company. That ought to explain it. You may remember that General Wolters made a study of the sales tax, and then announced it would be a fine thing for the people of Texas." Oh yes, he meant it would be a fine thing for the company he lobbies for and for all of the rest of the big corporations," Allred said.

"I promise you this. When I am governor, General Wolters is either going to keep his promise and resign or I am going to call a court marshal and have him reduced to a buck private in the rear ranks."

"In the past two weeks I have been made the target of the most bitter attacks ever aimed at a candidate for governor. I have supplied documentary evidence and other proof to smash every charge that has been brought against me."

"I am not in this race to vilify my opponents or attempt to discredit any man. My purpose is to tell the people about the program I have drawn which I believe will materially advance our government and bring needed relief to the public," Attorney General Allred declared.

He urged re-organization of the state police system and reform of the court system to make justice swifter and criminals fewer; a practical, business-like plan for the equalization of taxes; laws to end corrupt lobbying and to end the practice of some legislators of receiving pay from special corporations when they are supposed to be representing the people.

"This campaign will be over in a few days. I have tried sincerely to tell the people the facts about the conditions of their government, and I believe that my program is constructive and forward-looking as well as conservative," Attorney General Allred said.

He will go to Wichita Falls Saturday to cast his vote, and spend the week-end with his wife and two small children there.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 3

Due to the fact that some of you do not know me well and also because I've heard some comment on my youthful appearance, I want to tell you a little about myself.

I am a farmer, 34 years old, married and have two children. I have lived in Donley county since 1904.

I have tried to see and talk to each of you individually and if I've missed anyone I did not, of course do it intentionally. If you feel that I can make you a competent county commissioner, I will appreciate your support in the primary election next Saturday. Thank you.

Worley Backers In City Tuesday

A motoreade, consisting of eight cars, each one loaded with Eugene Worley supporters, visited Clarendon Tuesday about noon and remained here two hours, during which time the Shamrock band aided by several of the local band members played a few numbers. Worley, who is candidate for representative from the 122nd. district spoke briefly in front of the Parker Variety store. He was introduced by Guy Hill, also of Shamrock.

The contingent of Worley boosters arrived here from Hedley after having visited Wellington and Quail earlier in the day. From here they went to McKnight and then to Shamrock. Trips were made Monday to Pampa and other cities north of Shamrock.

Among the citizens of Shamrock who were in the party, was Albert Coats, publisher of the Daily Texas in that city. While here he paid the News office a visit.

Department Store Sales On Increase

Austin, Texas, July 25.—Sales in Texas department stores during June made a very favorable showing in comparison with the corresponding month of last year, although there was the usual seasonal decline from May to June, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Reports from 93 retail establishments covering all sections of the State show an average increase of 24 per cent in dollar sales in comparison with June last year, and for the first of the year, average sales were 28.4 per cent above the corresponding period in 1933, the bureau's report said. The seasonal decline from May to June was about equal to the average of the preceding seven years, or nearly 16 per cent.

Another favorable feature of the current retail situation in Texas pertains to collections of outstanding accounts. During June 36 per cent of these accounts were collected, compared with 30.3 per cent in June, 1933.

"Why They Don't Go To Church"

Excuse making is one of the oldest arts of men. For over six thousand years men have tried to justify themselves regarding religious affairs by making excuses. Do you know the origin of excuse making? You will find it way back in Eden. When Adam had sinned, he tried to excuse himself. "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree and I did eat." He tried to lay the blame on God, Eve tried to lay the blame on the serpent; and down to the present time, men and women begin to make excuses when they are questioned about church attendance and other religious activities.

An unknown author express the thought in the following verses: Some stay at home because it's cold,

And some because it's hot,
And some because they are getting old,
And some because they are not.

Some stay at home to entertain,
And some to cook the dinners,
And some because they are good enough,
And some because they're sinners.

Some stay away because their hat,
The milliner has not finished,
And some because their liking,
For the minister has diminished.

Some stay away because their clothes,
Are looking old and shabby;
And because their special type,
Of piety is "flabby."

Some stay at home because they have,
A farm and lots of stock,
And therefore cannot spare the time,
To gather with God's flock.

Some stay away because their beaux
Care nothing for the church;
And some because their special friend,
Has left them in the lurch.

And some declare they don't enjoy,
The singing of the choir;
And others 'cause their fellow sinners,
Aroused their wrathful ire.

Some stay at home because they say,
The weather's cold or tough;
And some to vent a little spleen,
Because they've got a "huff."

Some stay away because they've long
In single harness tarried,
And some because, as they protest,
They're settled down and married.

Some keep from church because they find,
The members "cold and funny"
Who never clasp them by the Records, Old Land Agency Found

Austin, Texas, July 25.—Records of a land agency which has operated in Texas since 1847 have come to the attention of Mrs. M. A. Hatcher, archivist at The University of Texas, and already hand,

Unless they're after money.

And some bewail with pious face,
"The worldliness and sin
That find lodgement in the church,
Keeps them from entering in.

Alas! Alas! Excuses grow,
To drive our thoughts from God,
And turn us from the house of prayer,

And the path our Saviour trod.
—From "Girlhood Days."

Friends how many of the above excuses have you offered or made trying to justify yourself. Not one of the excuses will stand or be accepted by the Heavenly Father on that day when you must appear before Him to give an account of your life and actions. He has left you without excuse, (Rom. 1:20, 2:1). An excuse that is not an excuse is a lie, and God will punish all liars. In this day of new deals and square deals, we plead with you to give God a square deal and He will give you a square deal with many blessings. Make up your minds now to attend church services and stop fooling yourself.

W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

a bloc of these documents covering the decade of the seventies have been deposited in the University Library. The papers are the property of the Lawrence family, and consist of letters and documents relating to lands owned and handled by the late J. W. Lawrence, who, with his son, was in the land business at Austin for many years. The agency had business connections not only with Texas and the United States, but also with Canada, Europe and South American countries. The complete set of records, now in the possession of Mr. Lawrence's son, extended from 1847 to 1934.

The collection of land records was presented to the University through the courtesy of Mrs. Stuart McGregor of Dallas, granddaughter of J. W. Lawrence. Both Mr. and Mrs. McGregor are graduates of the University. The records were of course kept in handwriting, done with a fine pen in Spencerian script on exceptionally high grade paper. The form of the letters is unique in the light of modern business correspondence. Short or medium length epistles are written on the left side of the sheet only, the page being divided into two sections. Most of the letters bear the signature of J. W. Lawrence himself, founder of the land agency.

Recent Bride Is Showered

Mrs. Lloyd W. Johnson, who before her marriage July 1st was Miss Edna Blair, was honored with a surprise shower of miscellaneous gifts on Thursday, July 19, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. O. D. Leisberg and Mrs. C. L. Knight were joint hostess at the Leisberg home.

A color scheme in yellow and complimentary colors were used, with native sunflowers artistically decorating the entire house.

WALLER SAID TO BE MAN FOR JOB

CAMPAIGN MANAGER PREDICTS EASY VICTORY FOR TREASURER ASPIRANT.

Austin, Texas, July 26—Predicting a good majority in the first primary, Richard Hudson, campaign manager for Dennis Waller, candidate for State Treasurer, declared Mr. Waller would win without a run-off.

"First, the record of the present incumbent has become well known all over Texas through our campaign literature. He has lost the state much money by accepting worthless securities. Nearly two million dollars in state money has been tied up in 'busted banks' without drawing a cent of interest for many months now.

"Second, George B. Terrell, nee Baker, has forsaken the name of his father and mother for a political office and is attempting to perpetrate upon the people of Texas the greatest political fraud ever known. But Jefferson Baker, as he was born, will die a political death on July 28, 1934.

"Mr. Waller is conducting a fine campaign; he is unusually well qualified for the position; he is favorably known all over Texas. And so I do not feel I am making a political boast, nor over-estimating the thing when I state that Dennis Waller will win for State Treasurer in the first primary."

Dallas Well Known For Manufacture Of Artificial Limbs

That Dallas has become widely known for the development and manufacture of artificial limbs and braces is an industrial development almost as odd as that Akron, remote from the sources of rubber and cotton, should have become known, everywhere, for its production of automobile tires.

Out of the studies and experiments which D. E. Hedgecock began nearly forty years ago, in an effort to develop an artificial limb for his own use, which would be better than the heavy, awkward appliances of those early days, has grown the Hedgecock Artificial Limb & Brace Company which, in Dallas, is manufacturing limbs and braces of a unique type that now has come into use over the whole country.

Mr. Hedgecock who, aided by his wife, still heads the business which bears his name, smiles as he tells how some one remarked to him recently that there didn't seem to be as many people without arms and legs as there used to be.

"Second, George B. Terrell, nee Baker, has forsaken the name of his father and mother for a political office and is attempting to perpetrate upon the people of Texas the greatest political fraud ever known. But Jefferson Baker, as he was born, will die a political death on July 28, 1934.

A PRACTICAL LAWYER

John H. Sharp

John H. Sharp of Ellis County, candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed Judge Thomas B. Greenwood, who will not seek re-election.

He is now a member of the Supreme Court Commission. He has filled this position with honor and distinction. He will deeply appreciate your support.

Born and reared in Robertson County; educated in the public schools of Texas and Southwest-ern University at Georgetown, Texas, where he graduated.

Moved to Ellis County, where for more than 25 years was engaged in the active practice of law in all its branches.

Was appointed a member of the Supreme Court Commission by the Governor in 1929.

In 1930 the law was changed making the Commission appointive by the Supreme Court, and under this law he was reappointed for a six-year term.

His experience as a lawyer and his services as a judge peculiarly fit him for a Justice of the Court. He seeks promotion.

Reginald—But I asked you, darling, to keep our engagement a secret.

Clara—I couldn't help it. That hateful Ethel said the reason I wasn't married was that no man had ever been fool enough to propose to me. So I told her that you had.

J. R. (DICK) BAIN IN A STATEMENT

ASKS VOTERS TO INVESTIGATE ANY RUMORS THAT THEY MAY HEAR.

To the Voters of Donley County: It is my desire to meet personally every voter in Donley county, but my time is limited and I also have to make a living for my family while conducting this campaign, and since I am not sure of seeing all of you, I take this means of explaining a few things which I think you should know.

I am a native of Wise county, Texas, where I was born in 1897. Our family moved to Donley county 2 1/2 years later and this has been our home since. I was reared on the farm and a little ranch work along with farming. I married in 1919, bought a farm and have been a taxpayer since that date.

Electad a county commissioner in 1927, it was my pleasure to serve the people of Donley county in that capacity four years. For the past three years I have been engaged in the filling station and gasoline business meeting with some success for which my family and I are truly grateful to the many friends and customers who have made this success possible.

I truly appreciate the support given me in my race for sheriff four years ago. You are invited to search my record for honesty and fair dealing because it is upon that basis that I am making the race for sheriff at this time. I am in no way obligated to any person or persons. If elected I can and will do my best to perform the duties of the office fairly and impartially toward every one.

Should you hear any rumors against my interests, I only ask that you investigate them thoroughly before arriving at a decision. You know the American people like fair play and a square deal, and I know you do too in Donley county. Political rumor is a cheap form of fraud to defeat a deserving candidate where-ever used.

Every effort will be put forth to see each voter between now and July 28th. In the event that I do not, I shall be grateful for your support and influence: just the same, and please bear in mind there has been every effort made to assure you if my continued intention of residing in your county helping in every manner possible to show a high sense of appreciation for every favor shown me and mine in off years as well as the political years.

Thank you one and all, I am respectfully yours. (Pol. Adv.) J. R. (Dick) Bain

There are some things we refuse to do to sell a car

There are some things we refuse to do to sell a car. We like sales, but fair-dealing and the confidence of our customers are desirable too.

For one thing, we refuse to poison any one's mind against another make of car. We know what our car is and what it will do, and we are ready to tell you about that.

We have done our utmost to encourage intelligent buying of motor cars by showing purchasers how to protect their own interests.

We refuse to keep dinning in your ears that the Ford V-8 is the best, most economical, lowest priced car. That is claimed for several cars. Obviously it cannot be true of all. There comes a point where claims and adjectives and all advertising hysteria disappears in its own fog.

Personally, I prefer facts. We say the Ford V-8 is the best car we have ever made.

We say that our 8-cylinder car is as economical to operate as any lower number of cylinders.

We say that we have always been known as the makers of good cars and that the many good, well-balanced qualities of our present car place it at the head of our line to date.

Any one wishing to do business with us on these principles will find our word and the quality of our product to be A-1. What we say about economy, operation and durability will stand good anywhere.

PURYEAR COMES BACK AT CRITICS

ANSWERS ALL OF OPPONENTS' QUESTIONS IN FOLLOWING STATEMENT.

In talking to the people of the district, John Puryear has the following to say:

"In answering my opponents criticism, in regard to questioning teachers and other state employees, the law only carried out the constitution and that they can't be asked what denomination they belong to. That is taking denominationalism out of state jobs and school jobs and not as my opponents are representing.

As to the automobile registration, we had a Bill reducing it to $3.00 and one to $5.00 and one cutting it one-third. The one-third reduction passed the House but was killed in the Senate.

As to old soldiers pension, this Bill also is being misrepresented as it was only to cut off some of the widows and get the fund to where the vets could get their money, which they are not now able to do since there are 1,800 vets and 8,000 widows on the role and we are collecting constitutional limit of seven cents on the dollar. Why spend millions of dollars to have cotton classifiers when the man who buys will only buy on his own judgment. This move would only create more political jobs and cost many dollars.

As to young members in the Legislature attending Texas U., they are never present when needed and seldom knows what goes on. We gave the school fund $19.00 per capita but since the fund was $5.00 in red, the State Board set the per capita at $16.00 and at the end of this year, we should have only a $2.00 deficit and then be able to pay $17.00 next year. I am for school apportionment on attendance and we tried to pass that but East Texas did not want it, therefore we could not pass it.

We cut Government expenses $13,200,000.00 and would have lowered the ad valorem some but the general fund was $19,000,000.00 in red when I went into office, which now is only $4,000,000.00.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

"Within This Present" by Margaret Ayer Barnes has been a best seller since its publication last October, and has sold through six editions, as well as having been selected for filming by Universal with Morgant Sullivan in the role of Sally Sewall.

The author won the Pulitzer prize in 1931 with the story "Years of Grace." Besides these two books she has written two others, "Prevailing Winds," and "Westward Passage," the last of which we have on our shelves.

"Within This Present" is a story of Chicago—a chronicle of the Sewalls, a wealthy Chicago banking family, through two generations, beginning with the eve of the war. The story opens with the celebration of Grandma Sewall's seventieth birthday, and details the family fortunes through the disasters of the last recent years up to the inauguration of the "New Deal." The Boston Transcript says of the story, "Mrs. Barnes has seldom written a better scene than the one between Sally and her grandmother in which that incredibly old lady infuses courage into her granddaughter. The story begins with a note of foreboding, but it ends with a note of courage. And this is as it should be, since it is a story of Chicago, which in a century of existence became one that would have tax farmers one dollar on each bale of cotton as long as it stayed on statute.

I was co-author of Sour Gas Bill and amended it to apply to sweet gas which gave some money to men that never got a thing for their gas, I was co-author of the Bill the dock on a bale of cotton so it can't be docked unless weighing less than 400 lbs.

I fought for a moratorium for farmers and home owners since we had to give the banks and insurance companies one.

Who will fight to hold taxes down most? A man who pays quite a few taxes or one who pays none? As Representative, I have handled millions of dollars of taxpayers money. Why not select a man who has made a reasonable success of his own business rather than one who has not made a success of his business.

one of the greatest cities if the world, coming from a wooden city that was swept up in flames, but whose citizens, gay and undaunted, rose to build a greater city from its ashes.

Grandma Sewall reminisces at the dinner on her seventieth birthday—and with her you live through the tragedy and the comedy of the great fire—and you sense the indomitable courage which made the Chicago of today possible. You feel like clapping when she answers a criticism by saying, "It's my city—the place where I was born and grew up and lived. I belong to it and it belongs to me." The Sewalls were bankers—had been since the time when the father watched the fire creeping near the bank when he was a clerk, and went through the night to help save its treasures—all except Uncle Lambert who was Rector of Saint George's church, but who showed the family fortunes and whose salary was only a small part of what he spent in his luxurious home and life.

Family ties were very strong with the Sewalls and the four homes were within a stone's throw of each other in this lovely lakeshore suburb as was that of Alan MacLeod, the shrewd Scotch business associate and close friend whose son, Alan, and daughter Rose, were always a part of a Sewall gathering.

The simple elegancies and refinements of living that are a part of the security and ease of those who have always known great wealth marked all their lives. Harvard, Yale, a select girls' school on the Hudson—home-comings, the ebb and flow of the social whirl—and then the war, with its business upheavals, its shifting social values, its hasty marriages, its agonizing separations, its readjustments when all is over—Alan and Sally whose beautiful marriage on the eve of departure became almost a drama through the long nightmare of war time—one almost lives it all, so vividly is it told, yet so simply.

But life has changed, even character seems to have changed—the things that were of greatest value no longer seem valuable at all—then there is the hectic feverish business life of '29—and the depression.

Big business totters—and the Sewall fortunes after the all night conference comes the necessity to tell Granny that the Bank—their bank, one of the strongest in Chicago, this one founded by her husband after the Great

BRINGING LIFE SAVING EXPERT HERE TO ASSIST IN INSTRUCTIONS.

According to Lorena Stogall, chairman of the Life Saving Service of the local Red Cross chapter, A. T. McCue, representative of the organization's Midwestern Area Headquarters at St. Louis, will arrive here August 1 to assist the chapter in its efforts to reduce the hazards of aquatics. During this visit the swimming expert will qualify new Life Saving examiners and give tests to local swimmers who already have successfully completed the rigid Red Cross examiner's course. Each year these examiners spread their knowledge of water safety methods to many others with the aim of holding casualties to a minimum.

In announcing the visit of McCue, the Life Saving chairman called attention to the appalling death toll from drowning. Each year, he said, about 7,400 persons are drowned. These fatalities exceed by hundreds the number of lives lost in steam railway accidents and explosions combined.

"In spite of the forward strides the National Red Cross has made in life saving," he added, "the annual loss of life from drowning continues to be staggering. The death rate from this cause climbed seven percent between 1920 and 1930 because in more recent years additional millions have answered the call

Judge L. M. Fischer, also of Amarillo, introduced by Judge W. T. Link, Allred man, in shouting the praises of the present attorney-general, advanced the information that Clint Small would not carry Potter, his home county. After more oratory on the accomplishments of the youngest candidate for the state's ranking position, all of which received applause from the crowd, made up mostly of "Allredites." Judge Fischer surrendered the back end of the truck to the next speaker.

Howe then arose, with fire in his eyes, and in ringing words of silver-tongued oratory that could be heard at both extremes of Kearney street, bet Judge Fischer a new automobile against the hole in a doughnut that Small would carry Potter county. As "Old Tack" stood on the truck bed and emphasized his words with gestures reminiscent of the political orators of olden days, gone was the air of tenderness which has endeared him, through his column to the many brave drouth-stricken citizens of the Panhandle. In its place was an air of resentment, brought on because a speaker had dared to declare that Small would not receive most of the votes in the county of which Amarillo is the hub.

Following Howe's second address, Ray Johnson, Amarillo attorney, took the stand to add to "Tack's" statements. Many more qualities of the Amarillo candidate were brought to light in Johnson's talk.

When Johnson had finished, a local Allred backer mounted the "stump" and took a vote by popular acclamation. Calling the candidate's names out one by one, he asked the crowd how they were going to vote. Hunter, Hughes, Witt and McDonald were merely granted for. Small received a few "ayes." Then the name of Jimmie Allred was mentioned. The audience braced itself. Hands went over ears. And then with shouts that shook the usually sedate town of Clarendon from one city limit to the other, the crowd went wild. As old "Tack" said in his column, "the crowd was 90 per cent Allred."

After the vote the crowd dispersed, having been witness for over an hour to a display of fireworks that would have put any Chinese celebration to shame.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crabtree, of Chickasha, Oklahoma, arrived in Clarendon recently for a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Pierce.

of the surf, lake or pool. The worst of it is that the majority of the deaths are avoidable and generally can be traced to lack of knowledge on the part of the victim. Aside from the tragedies involved, drowning, which is the second most important cause of accidental death among men and boys, is extremely costly to industry.

The wage loss, medical expense and overhead insurance cost involved in accidental deaths and injuries in 1932 exceeded two billion dollars.

"Each year the accidental casualty list in America is much longer than the list of casualties this nation's armed forces suffered throughout the World War.

The Red Cross is meeting the challenge of drowning and through its chapters and trained staff is offering its Life Saving service without depriving swimmers of the zest and thrill in water sports."

Sal, the gal down on Sully wants to know something else. Says she's heard that the city tax rate has been reduced 5 cents. "Now," squalls Sal, the magazine advertisements tell us what to buy with the money we save on Blisterine tooth paste, but who is going to tell us what to do with the nickel we save on the tax?"

"Tack the Tactless Texan" of the Amarillo News-Globe considers it strange that Clarendon and Donley county does not line up with the metropolis of the Panhandle in things political, as so many other fair cities of West Texas have done. Well all we can say is that since the time of man it has been nature for certain progressive people to rebel. The people of Donley county are progressive. We are a playful bunch and will engage in an innocent game of "Ring around the Rosebush" or "Flying Dutchman" but just don't have any hankering to play "Follow the Leader." That is unless were the leader.

While the writer of this column has never made any predictions on anything we don't think it would be out of order for us to print below just the way we think they'll finish in the state's most important race; And here it is: Allred; Small; Hunter; McDonald; Hughes and Witt.

We hear so many candidates when they are speaking say, "I'd go on and explain this and that but time will not permit." And then we all say to ourselves, "Good ol' time."

And that reminds us of a news item we read some time ago in which a leading scientist said there was no such thing as time. Wonder if he ever tried to catch a 4:29 train at 4:30?

And when Sal, of Sully street fame, heard of those daring souls who were going to ascend up into the stratosphere in their ship, she whined, "Well I don't know where this here stratosphere is but I do know that this country always is meddling around and poking its nose into some foreign countrys business."
