DINNER HONORING PUBLIC SERVICES OF ODOS CARAWAY MONDAY

SEVENTY LOCAL CITIZENS JOIN IN HONOR EVENT

HONOR GUEST LURED TO SURPRISE DINNER BY FRIENDS AT ANTRO

"Appreciation is not dead," declared many friends of Odos Caraway last week when close associates planned and kept secret a "Friendship Dinner" honoring the varied public services of that gentleman, staged Monday evening at the Antro Hotel.

Mr. Caraway was kept totally in the dark about the affair all conspiring to keep the news from him, even in his own household, and to J. W. Martin fell the delightful task of bringing the honor guest to the hotel where seventy friends had gathered to do honor and appreciation to him for his long and multitudinous unselfish services for the good of the community.

When the honor guest arrived in charge of Mr. Martin, a reception committee headed by W. H. Patrick took him in tow and introduced him to his happy friends to receive their compliments as he passed down the line to shake their hands. Going into the dining room the spirit of the occasion was further enlivened by singing led by R. E. Drennan, and after an appropriate invocation by the Rev. Robt. S. McKee, the friends and honor guest were seated to a splendid dinner, where good cheer held sway and fellowship was made.

The program was intentionally kept within brief bounds, the whole affair lasting a little over an hour. The speakers spoke from the standpoint of service with Mr. Caraway in several capacities, characterized on the program as "Friendly Pats." O. C. Watson, vice-president of the school board of Clarendon independent School District, gave an interesting and appreciative resume of Mr. Caraway's unusual services as a member of the board and as a promoter of school welfare in this community, praising him particularly for his convictions, frankness and courage.

F. E. Chamberlain next brought the attention of the assembly to Mr. Caraway's effective service as an original member of the County Hospital board of directors, showing his close attention, his humanitarian spirit and his business acumen. Mr. Chamberlain's facetious reference to an incident many years ago when he and the honor guest were enroute to be married elicited much merriment.

A telegram was read from the Camp Fire Girls, expressing their sincere thanks for the many favors and services rendered them since organization, by Mr. Caraway, which telegram was presented to the honor guest for filing among his treasured papers.

The last "friendly pat" was given when W. H. Patrick was introduced to speak on behalf of the public for the services along relief and charity lines to which Mr. Caraway has devoted himself for the past several years, often at the expense of his own affairs. Mr. Patrick covered these activities in a happy way and closed his address by a presentation to the honor guest of a fine easy-chair and foot-rest on behalf of the friends assembled.

Mr. Caraway then did what few could have done under the circumstances, he made a splendid response, in spite of his evident emotions and the surprise of the whole affair. He expressed himself as debtor to Clarendon and Donley County and voiced a warm appreciation for his friends and their little gift. No man could have done better

PRESTON CLARK KILLED WHEN CAR HEADS INTO DITCH

ACCIDENT OCCURS NEAR ASPERMONT, WHERE HE WAS VISITING

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clark of this city were called to Aspermont Sunday morning on news of the instant death of their son, Preston, 19, in a car accident near that place at an early hour Sunday.

Jimmy Chilton carried Mr. and Mrs. Clark down, leaving here at 9 o'clock. He reports the young man was crushed when a car he was driving went over a bridge into a deep canyon. His neck was broken, and it is believed he also was badly injured internally, causing instantaneous death. A companion was seriously injured.

"It seems the young men had been to a dance and had suddenly decided to go to Peacock, several miles distant, to another dance. The hour was after midnight," says Mr. Chilton. "I saw the place where the accident occurred. It was a very narrow bridge over a canyon at the foot of a hill, on which the road curved."

Census Takers Ask For Help

Sup't. H. T. Burton and Principal R. E. Drennan are taking the scholastic census in the Clarendon Independent School District this week and are asking the co-operation of the citizenship generally in reporting any and all children of scholastic age that have been passed by in the census so far. This means money to the local schools and all are asked to help get every child within the age enrolled.

Miss Carrie Davis of Shamrock visited friends here Sunday.

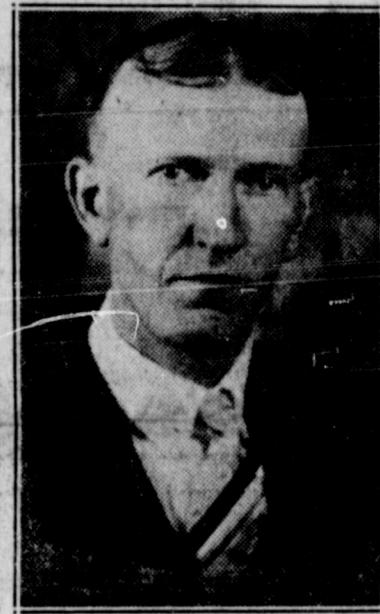

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alderson made a business trip to Quanah Monday afternoon, returning home the same night.

JUDGES NAME CARAWAY CLARENDON'S MOST USE- FUL CITIZEN PAST YEAR

"No serious competition" is the way one of the judges expressed it in speaking of the unanimous decision which named Odos Caraway the winner of the Clarendon News Award for the Most Useful Citizen for 1933.

Mr. Caraway has distinguished himself in recent years for his outstanding work on the board of trustees of the Clarendon Independent School District, member of the Adair Hospital Board, as head of the Relief work in the county, as patron of the Camp Fire Girls, as worker in various civic activities, etc.

The News management is happy over the decision and general expressions of approval are heard on every side, for richly deserved bestowal of the honor. Sam M. Braswell made the presentation of the certificate of award at a general appreciation banquet staged in Mr. Caraway's honor Monday evening at the Antro Hotel.

COMMITTEES FOR 1934 NAMED BY C. OF C. HEAD

ONE NEW COMMITTEE, TRADES DAY, SETS DATE FOR FIRST SUCH EVENT

President Joe Goldston of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce Wednesday announced his committees for the year. In making the announcement, Mr. Goldston emphasized that the year 1934 will likely be one of the best years Donley County and Clarendon has experienced in the last five years.

Secretary G. L. Boykin added his opinion that 1934 ought to see a number of things accomplished, one of which is a paved highway across the county, another a greater interest in truck growing in the county, and general improvement along all lines.

A new committee that was not in existence the past year is the trades day committee, the personnel of which includes Allen Bryan (chairman), T. D. Nored, Homer Mulkey, Bennett Kerbow and Rhea Couch. This committee has already started active work and has set April 18 as the tentative date for the first of a series of trades days. More details will be announced next week.

The other committees include: membership, Bill Ray (chairman), Ed Teer, H. R. Kerbow and D. R. Davis; agriculture, W. H. Patrick (chairman), W. W. Taylor and E. R. Andis; Highway, Sam Braswell (chairman), T. D. Nored, H. Mulkey and P. B. Gentry, and legislative, C. J. Douglas (chairman), J. D. Swift and A. A. Mayes.

All of these committees are expected to meet in the next few days and organize fully for work.

Dr. C. G. Stricklin and Tom Goldston returned Wednesday night from a fishing trip at Lake Don Martin, in Old Mexico, where they had a wonderful outing and the best of sporting success. The lake is about 130 miles across the border at Eagle Pass, and is said to be a veritable fisherman's paradise.

LEGION BOYS TO BANQUET TONITE AT ANTRO HOTEL

JUDGE JOHN LEE SMITH OF THROCKMORTON WILL BE MAIN SPEAKER

Everything is in readiness for the 15th annual birthday banquet of the American Legion tonight (Thursday) at the Antro Hotel, according to Ralph Andis, chairman of the program committee.

Judge John Lee Smith of Throckmorton, the State Americanization committee chairman, will be the inspirational speaker of the evening. He will be introduced by Post Commander G. L. Boykin.

The birthday dinner will honor the 15 charter members of Aubyn E. Clark post No. 126. Only members of the Legion with 1934 cards will be admitted. It is expected that some fifteen new members will be introduced.

Part of the evening's program will be devoted to the Legion ritual.

It is expected that fully 100 persons will attend the affair. The hour is 7:30.

Most Unique School Of Southwest Located In Donley County; Term At Bairfield Closed Last Friday

One of the most unusual schools ever known and possibly the only one in the Southwest closed last Friday afternoon at 2:30.

This is the Bairfield school, located 10 miles southwest of Clarendon. The teacher for the current year is Miss Zell Rogers, who also had taught two previous terms for the school.

The unusual feature is the fact that only one pupil was enrolled during the entire six and one-half months of the term that closed last Friday.

This pupil is Ida Mae Wiedman, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wiedman. There were other scholastics in the district but several transferred to Clarendon and three more moved away.

So Miss Rogers and Ida Mae met each morning at the little school, located on the Barefield ranch, part of the original "JA" ranch, 130 times during the current year. School opened at 9 and closed at 2:30. An hour was allowed by the teacher for the lunch period. Also there have been two recess periods each of the 130 days.

The building which housed this unique school is a tiny frame structure, the school room measuring 14 by 16 on the inside. In the center is a substantial coal heater. A large 4 by 10 blackboard hangs in the back of the room. Six desks are arranged along either side. Near the blackboard is a shelf on which are exhibited the work of the student. Ida Mae and the teacher also have a work table. On this was a home-made "moving-picture" apparatus, so common in the school room of today. Ida Mae can recite the story told with illustrations on this unique moving picture. She also has a big doll which she kept on her desk.

During recess, she played "ante-over" with her teacher. Last Friday morning, the little girl demonstrated her ability as a third-grader before County Sup't. Sloan Baker, Clarence Bairfield, one of the trustees, and a representative of the News. Her reading was far above the average for a child of this age.

"In fact, she lacks only some work in arithmetic of completing the work of both the second and third this term," said the teacher. "And I am outlining this work so she can do it at home during the vacation period."

Stolen Car Found Through Use Of Amarillo Radio

Sheriff Guy Pierce reports the first car stolen in Donley county in three years time has been recovered in good condition.

Use of the police broadcast at Amarillo brought about recovery of the car stolen last Friday in Clarendon from L. H. Baker of Crowell, a former resident of this city, who was visiting here at the time. Mr. Baker left his car at the curb near the Donley County State Bank during business hours only to find it gone a short time later when he went to get it.

"I had Amarillo to broadcast the license numbers of the car Saturday afternoon," says the Sheriff, "and a few minutes later a man at the Hodcock oil pump station three miles out of Pampa wired the car was standing in the highway at that place. It seems the man had been listening to the broadcast and when he went to check the numbers with the abandoned car he found they were the same."

Sheriff Pierce is rightly proud of the record the county has made in the past three years.

MEMPHIS MAN IS KILLED WHEN CAR STRIKES ANOTHER

BODY THEN BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN RUN OVER BY TRUCK

John A. Wood, well-known 24-year old youth of Memphis, was instantly killed when a car he was driving is alleged to have collided head-on with another car, said by officers to have been occupied by Paul Taylor.

Sheriff Guy Pierce of Clarendon, investigated the accident Sunday morning as it occurred in Donley County, about one mile this side of the pavement.

"Earl Champion, in the car with Wood, was not hurt," says the Sheriff, "but a young lady, named Miss Lois Dell Richardson, who was in Wood's car, suffered a broken collar bone. None of those in Taylor's car were hurt."

The Record-News of Monday morning reported Wood's body was thrown in the path of a truck moving behind his car and it is "believed the wheels of the truck passed over his body." His skull was crushed and his body broken. The truck did not stop and it was believed the driver was not aware his truck had run over the body.

Funeral services for Wood were held Sunday afternoon in Memphis.

Donley Schools Thanked For Fund To Warm Springs

County Sup't. Sloan Baker has just received notice from Keith Morgan, treasurer of the national committee for the Birthday Ball for the President, acknowledging receipt of the donation made by 13 rural schools of Donley County.

"This is to acknowledge with many thanks and sincere appreciation your donation to the president's Birthday Fund which will shortly be turned over to him by the National Committee. We are using this economical method of acknowledgement so that as much as possible of your donation will be available for the fight against infantile paralysis."

The rural schools donating include: Giles, Smith, McKnight, Bray, Fairview, Jericho, Martin, Chamberlain, Hudgins, Windy Valley, Midway, Sunny View and White Fish.

25 MORE CONTRACTS LOOKED FOR BEFORE CAMPAIGN CLOSES TONIGHT

The corn-hog reduction campaign in Donley County ends today.

It has been a highly successful campaign, members of the county committee reported this morning.

A group meeting of all the committees was called for this morning in the office of County Agent T. R. Broun. Several of the "higher-ups" in the Extension Service from A. & M. College were expected here by noon.

"We have 198 contracts signed and turned in now," Burt Mayfield reported at 10 o'clock this morning. "We expect at least 25 more by the time all reports are in today."

This is fully 25 more than had been hoped for a week ago. Many farmers failed to sign because of the fact they wish to put part of their idle cotton land in corn this year.

John Hermesmeier is president of the county corn-hog reduction association, which has put over the campaign, begun six weeks ago.

Rev. C. B. Ingram Buried Wednesday

One of the finest examples of consistent Christian character and activity is with us no more. Rev. C. B. Ingram died at his home in Clarendon after a lingering illness, Tuesday morning, March 13th, and was laid to rest in the Citizens Cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

"Brother" Ingram as he was familiarly called, was born in Blount County, Ala., Oct. 1st, 1852, and was 81 years, 5 months and 12 days old at the time of his death. In early manhood he married Miss Martha Armstrong, who was his faithful companion throughout all these years, and who now survives him. To this happy union was born five sons and five daughters, all living except the eldest son, Lane, who died some six weeks ago in Ellis County, Texas; Mrs. J. M. Gross, Denton, Texas; Mrs. O. C. Gilbreth of Hawley; Mrs. J. J. Self, Dallas; Mrs. C. E. Morgett, Monahan; and Miss Jessie Ingram now teaching in Amarillo.

The sons are Ralph Ingram, Longview, Wash.; John and Cliff Ingram of Los Angeles, Calif.; Roy Ingram of Clarendon.

Brother Ingram was converted in early childhood and joined the Methodist Church, of which he was a devoted member for life. He began church work as a young man, serving as Sunday school teacher, Sunday school superintendent, exhorter and local preacher. Coming to Donley county some twenty years ago, his chief vocation was in carrying the gospel to the out-of-way places and there are few school-houses within fifty miles of Clarendon where he has not preached or held meetings. He never missed an opportunity to speak to friends or strangers about salvation, and he drove "Old Gray" to distant appointments and ministrations up until the beginning of the present winter. He loved all people, whether Methodists or not, and worked with other denominations with the same simple earnestness that marked his passion for souls throughout his life. He never amassed much of this world's goods, but he walked with the rich and poor alike, and was rich in his own Christian experience and fellowship.

A DANGEROUS PROPOSAL

Senator Clint C. Small, speaking before the Amarillo Lions Club this week offered one very good proposal in respect to the legislature of Texas, and then one which we believe to be fraught with danger to the welfare of the state.

Senator Small declared for a four-year term for the legislature, and advanced arguments which are convincing as to the desirability of the longer term. But when he went further and advocated an amendment to the constitution preventing the calling of special sessions of the legislature in election years, The News believes he sponsored a proposal dangerous to the welfare of Texas and Texans.

Admitting all the political horseplay that usually makes the headlines in special sessions in election years, we feel that to ban the assembly of the lawmakers in spite of any emergency that might demand their attention just because it happened to be in election year, is one of the most dangerous proposals we have heard advanced in a season all too full of fantastic governmental nostrums.

APPRECIATION IS NOT DEAD

Every person in public life has seasons when they secretly suffer over the attacks and criticisms always the portion of those who serve unselfishly in the public welfare. They often come to believe that appreciation is dead, and that the whole human race is heartlessly selfish and cruel.

No doubt Odos Caraway of our city felt something of the sort in the past several years, and yet on Monday when seventy of his fellow-townsmen gathered enthusiastically to do him honor and show their appreciation they only gave outward demonstration of the thought of the heart, proving again that man seldom shows his innermost appreciations.

Appreciation is not dead, but it behooves us all to be more ready to show to the living our honor and appreciation for their good deeds while they are yet among us. Realizing a happier world depends upon just such reforms.

DEATH CLAIMS A GREAT PLAINSMAN

When death suddenly claimed Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College at Abilene early this week, one of the truly great characters of West Texas passed from a life of brilliant activities and service to take his place in history.

Dr. Hunt was easily one of the finest platform speakers in the Southwest, he had served his church largely as a pastor, and this section of the state markedly as an educator. He never flinched from a battle for better morals and a higher citizenship and his influence will be sorely missed in Texas.

Peace to the ashes of this great Plainsman—this Nobleman of West Texas.

NO FRIEND HAS TO AGREE

More and more man is realizing that deep friendship does not depend upon agreement in thought, habit and attitude. This is one of the prized evidences of a progress in the civilization of mankind, and is one that we should appreciate and nourish.

These days all of us have friends with whom we seriously disagree about hundreds of matters, and yet the most foolish man alive is the man who cannot take the enjoyments of friendship and pass lightly those points of disagreement.

One who makes complete agreement the requisite of friendship is a relic of an age which has passed on. His lingering here can bring no happiness to himself or his fellows.

A POPULAR RECONCILIATION

Will Rogers, that national factotum extraordinary, has added further to his laurels in engineering a reconciliation between President Roosevelt and Col. Lindbergh, which arose over the protest of Lindy against the cancellation of commercial airmail contracts.

Whatever may be the shade of opinion on this controversial subject, all will applaud the reconciliation between two such popular favorites as FDR and Lindy, for each needs the friendship and co-operation of the other.

Big men know the need for speedy reconciliations of all misunderstandings. The little ones don't—and can't.

GIVE PAYROLL BUILDERS FAIR DEAL

Whom does the railroad problem effect?

In addition to railway investors, employes and the traveling and shipping public, depression among the railroads adversely affects one of our greatest industries—railroad equipment and supplies—made up of 3,500 companies. This industry has plants in 650 cities and towns in 38 states, which in normal times employ more than 1,000,000 persons. They are heavy taxpayers, and are among the best customers of other great industries.

Where, between 1925 and 1929, railroad purchases averaged $1,700,000,000 a year, they were less than $450,000,000 in 1933—a drop of 75 per cent. Making locomotives and cars practically disappeared, the decline being approximately 99 per cent.

The railroads' plight consists of various diverse factors—largely over-regulation and extreme taxation, at a time when unregulated, government subsidized competitors were taking their business. That situation has cost the nation hundreds of thousands of jobs—deprived industries of one of their best markets—and made bad times worse.

Thinking persons are solidly behind legislation that will give railroads a fair break.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE

The birth of every child is accompanied by happy and confident planning for its future. Parents study every detail of raising, of environment, of education.

An education stands out most important of all. The world of today is intensely competitive—both for business and individuals. The place for the untrained and unskilled worker grows steadily smaller. This is the age of the specialist and the expert, whose education has prepared him to do one thing well.

The actual cash value of education was computed some years ago in a thorough-going survey. It was found that the average untrained boy goes to work at the age of 14. He reaches his maximum income of about $1,700 at the age of 40. By the time he is sixty he has earned $64,000.

The average high school graduate reaches a maximum income of $2,800 at 50. His total earnings, at sixty, are $88,000.

The average college graduate is earning $6,000 to $8,000 a year at 60. His total earnings are $160,000 to $200,000—three times that of the untrained worker.

There are four cardinal points in advice to office aspirant, according to a veteran in Congress. The four don'ts to everyone anticipating running for office are: 'Don't run against an old man, don't run against a young man, don't run against a cripple, never commit yourself.' —Waxahachie Light.

Looks as if the line of least resistance would have worn out long ago because of the hard usage it receives. —Grapevine Sun.

No, but juniper oil, buchu leaves leg pains, getting up nights and

"A New Deal"

To The Voters of the City
Of Clarendon:

After much deliberation, and some solicitation, we, the undersigned, hereby offer our names as candidates for City Commissioners of the City of Clarendon, the coming election in April.

We are making this race for the following reasons: We want to give the people of Clarendon some relief from the present excessive Tax rate an exorbitant water rate, high Gas, Utilities and Phone rates, also a rather expensive City Administration.

If elected, we promise our best efforts to secure a reduction in all of the above charges.

If elected, we promise, without reservation, that we WILL reduce the Tax rate, we will reduce the Water rate; and most positively will reduce the expense of the City Administration.

We will balance the budget, by cutting the budge and not by increasing the Taxes.

We think these savings can be had without impairing the best interests of the city.

This is our platform, if you favor it, and believe we can accomplish it, your vote will be appreciated.

HARRY C. BRUMLEY
TOM F. CONNALLY.

Beaux Arts Sponsors Art Exhibit Today

This afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock at the club room, the Les Beaux Arts Club sponsored an exhibit of the paintings of Mrs. Amy Miers Jackson of Amarillo.

The exhibit was varied. Here was found some of the etchings which put the artist on the front pages of art magazines in Paris. This is the only painting, "Gypsy Slum" which was selected as the best work done in the Chicago Art Institute last summer and which brought much publicity to Mrs. Jackson at the Century of Progress. There were also pen and ink sketches, water colors and block prints of many varieties.

In keeping with the Western atmosphere are the Mexican and Indian block prints and the Indian etchings done at "The First American."

During the past year, when plans for the Chicago Fair were under way, the Texas Fine Arts Assn. asked outstanding Texas artists to contribute in forming an exhibit to be sent to the Century of Progress. An exhibit was held in Austin, at which time, "Chartre Washwoman," a colour etching done by Amy Miers Jackson was considered the most beautiful etching at the exhibit.

Mrs. Jackson has sketched on four different continents, in twelve different countries and in over half of the states of the union, so it was with a great deal of pleasure that the Les Beaux Arts sponsored this exhibit of Mrs. Jackson's work.

Interscholastic Meet Draws Interest of Many Students

PALO DURO

The Palo Duro Literary Society met Wednesday, March 7, to study the lives and works of three outstanding Texas writers. Ardis Patman discussed the life of J. Frank Dobie, and Geraldine Pratt read several selections from "Coronado's Children" Dobie's most famous book. The life of the poet, Karl Wilson Baker, was given by Vera Noland, and Bill Word read a poem from "Voices of the Southwest," a collection of Mrs. Baker's most important poems. The life of the third author, Donald Joseph, was given by Mike Stricklin, and was followed by readings from "Joseph's October Child."

ALPHA DELTA PSI

The Alpha Delta Psi Literary Society met Wednesday, March 7, 1934. This was perhaps the most enjoyable program of the year as debating proved to be interesting to the society members. The first debate concerned the following statement, "A T Model Ford is more appropriate than a Packard for lovers in June." It was debated by Wanda Mayfield and Elizabeth Dunn. Wanda took the affirmative; Elizabeth took the negative. The affirmative won. The question for the other debate was "Will Roger's humor is detrimental rather than helpful to the people of America." Bob Goodson was the winner with his defense of the affirmative. John R. Ragland debated the negative. These debates consisted of many witty statements and the rebutals were extremely interesting. Another amusing feature of the program was the impersonating of some of the teachers. Charles Walker impersonated Mr. Clark; Elizabeth Dunn impersonated Mrs. Clark; and Oleta Camp impersonated Miss Headrick. The group guessed who the different impersonations represented. After a short business transaction, the Society adjourned.

SENIOR REPORT

The Seniors had a meeting after dinner last Tuesday to discuss a picnic for Friday. Although the majority of the class voted to have the picnic it was not decided definitely whether they would have it or not. The usual question of adequate transportation stood in the way, so Mr. Stocking appointed a committee consisting of George

MRS. POWELL PRESENTS EARLY SPRING RECITAL

Mrs. Powell presented her piano pupils in an early Spring Recital Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, assisted by two dancing pupils of Miss Mary Cooke.

The program started with several solos and duets by Mrs. Powell's younger pupils, the first number being a duet, "Quick Step" by Naomi and Carl Morris. Billie Thornberry then played a solo, "My Regiment," which was followed by another solo, "Butterfly Chase," by Naomi Morris. The duet, "Progress March," was played by Glenna Deal and Mrs. Powell, the next solo being "Bicycle Galop" by Carl Morris. Phillips Gentry and Billie Cooke then played a duet of Sousa's March, "Kansas Wildcats." Jean Piercy played two numbers, Arabasque and Ballade; the next selection, which was a duet, "Come To School," was by Carl Morris and Billie Thornberry. At this point in the program, variety was added by the presentation of two of Miss Mary Cooke's youngest dancing pupils, Manley Bryan and Beverly Gray Stricklin. Manley gave a very realistic version of the "Wooden Soldier," complete with the gun and everything necessary to a little soldier; Beverly Gray gave a little Japanese dance, "Japanese Baby," and was dressed for the occasion in a red kimono and carried a bright Japanese umbrella. These numbers were enjoyed immensely by the audience, and Mrs. Powell wishes to thank Miss Cooke and Mrs. Bryan, who accompanied the two dances at the piano.

The second portion of the musical program was opened with the quartette, "Metropolitan Dance," by June McMurtry, Ethlyn Drennan, Maxine Ellis, and Jean Piercy. "The Cossacks" was Phillips Gentry's solo, and it was followed by two delightful solos by June McMurtry, "Tis Raining" and "Scherzo." The next two solos, "In Knightly Days" and "Dream Fancies" were played by Billie Cooke and Virginia Williams respectively. Delphia Bones and Louise Smith played a duet, "Waltz" by Carl Bohn; this number was followed by another "Waltz," by Godard, by Dorothy Powell. Arthur Chase continued with a solo, "Majesty of the Deep"; Louise Smith played the lovely composition, "Butterfly." The program ended with a quartet, "Dance of the Winds," by Dorothy Powell, Anna Moores Swift, Arthur Chase, and Mrs. Powell.

Wayne Estlack, Jack Latson, and David McCleskey to try to find a truck. Emma Ruth Burkett went to Amarillo last Sunday.

LOCAL EDITOR SPEAKS ON JOURNALISM

The high school students were favored with an excellent talk by Sam M. Braswell upon the subject of journalism, at the assembly period Monday afternoon.

Mr. Braswell first told part of the history of journalism and printing, showing the power and importance of that industry. He next gave two general classes into which journalism is divided, first the business, circulation, and news department; and second the so-called "country" journalism. Mr. Braswell classified himself as being a "country" editor. There being no departments in this type of journalism, the work ranges from setting type to writing news articles, was the definition given country journalism by Mr. Braswell. The speaker, talking of the advantages and disadvantages of journalism, said that what a person received financially from this profession was largely due to his ability, but that if a person is looking for variety and a vocation filled with human interest journalism would certainly supply both. In conclusion, Mr. Braswell said that if a person takes up the vocation of journalism, she should do it with the idea of rendering public service.

JUNIOR HIGH SPORTS

The Junior High pupils have all been working hard for the County meet.

The track boys are working out at the College Park every evening. The play ground boys and girls are working and hoping to win. All who are not on the team do their part in boosting.

The volley-ball girls do not take much interest in other activities. They are going to do their very best to bring home the volley-ball championship at the County Meet next week.

The declaimers are working every day on their declamations. They are all improving wonderfully.

The teachers are splendid helpers. They are giving all of their spare time to the activities of the Interscholastic League.

Mr. Jackson was out of school the first part of the week on account of sickness. Mrs. Jackson took his place as typing and shorthand teacher during this time.

C. H. S. GIRLS HAVE BOXING BOUT FRIDAY

The most spectacular sports event of the season occurred last Friday during noon hour, when several of our athletic girls participated in a few rounds of the most unusual boxing that has ever been seen on the campus.

The event was opened with a battle between the two Virginias, Virginia Cluck and Sarah Virginia McGowan. This was followed by the big thrill of the day, a bout between Ruth Tucker and Imogene Pitts, in which all of the fancy swings that have made Imogene such a good tennis player were of little avail against the opposition which she was up against. The last event was an exchange of blows between Rosalyn Bass and Lovie Beavers, which became so tough that they had to be separated in order to prevent a bloody nose.

The fight was witnessed by practically everyone in the high school, including Miss Harris and Miss Howren, who had special ringside seats in the office windows. Innumerable shouts for a bout between these two teachers resulted only in wasted breath.

Personal Flashes

Avis Lee McElvany, Tillie Pratt, and Laverne McMurtry went to Amarillo last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. McElvany, where they saw two shows, "Havana Widows" at the Paramount Theatre, and "A Man's Castle" at the Mission.

Margaret Blackwell and "Izzie" Wright spent the week-end at the McClellan camp on the JA Ranch.

Miss Howren motored to the Paloduro Canyon with Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan last Sunday afternoon.

Evelyn Murphey was greatly surprised and thrilled on her birthday last Monday when she received a "birthday greeting" telegram from Berkley Ryan who is in school at Fairfax Hall in Waynesboro, Virginia.

Eugenia Noland, Martha Jean and Byrum Halle spent Saturday with Johnny Blocker at the Blocker ranch, horse-back riding.

STUDENTS AND EXSTUDENTS TO HAVE BANQUET FRIDAY

The College students are expecting to have a royal time Friday night at the Anstro. A parade of fashions before unacquainted in Clarendon will be seen that night. Organdies will be modeled, celebrating the on-coming season. An array of taffetas, crepes, and other fashionable materials will be seen. A little bird told me that evening gowns, afternoon dresses, sport dresses, and even pajamas will be worn. A blossoming of black, greys, teals, and maybe reds, greens, and purples will be found among the males of the congregation. Everyone come and have the swellest time of your life.

Three physicians succeeded in saving the life of 5-year-old Walter Keenes of Chicago who drank from his father's gin bottle hidden in a trunk.

The County Interscholastic League Meet will be held in Clarendon Friday and Saturday, March 23 and 24. The Clarendon contestants in the league activities are getting ready for these dates, on which it will be decided whether or not they will be able to go to the district meet. Preparations are being completed in all the phases of this work, Debate, Declamation, Tennis, Track, Volley Ball, Spelling, Typing, etc., and the teachers in charge of each of these activities hope to have a winning team. Robert Nichols and Georg Chamberlain, both members of the Senior Class of 1934, have been selected to represent the high school in boys' debating at the County Meet. These boys are now working on the delivery of their main speeches and studying methods of refutation; they

Editorials

Most students think that the running of the school newspaper is completely detached from them, and that the entire burden should be placed on the shoulders of the reporters and the editor; in fact, the only time that most pupils think about the school paper is when they are reading it. They do not realize that they should do more than read the paper to show their school patriotism; the mere reading of the finished paper does not indicate a very great degree of school loyalty. However helping to make it a success by writing articles, submitting news, or typing articles, is a great accommodation to those who have to get out the paper every week. It would be possible to have a bulging paper every week if everyone who knows any news would only submit it himself without first being asked. The reporters, of course, ask everybody that they can for news, but it is impossible for them to see everybody in the school, and that is the only way they can possibly get all the news. Therefore, if you have had a party or dance, have gone some place, know something that would be amusing or interesting to the student body, please report it to Miss Headrick, the Editor, Assistant Editor, or any of the reporters; it will be appreciated.

INTRODUCTIONS

The cries that seem to come from all modern throats are, "How shall we introduce?" and "What shall we say when we are introduced?"

The broad general rule to remember is that the most important name is mentioned first. A young person is introduced to an elder person; an unmarried woman (ages and positions being the same) to a married lady; and a man is always introduced to a woman.

The last case being: "Miss Smith, may I present Mr. Jones." A good response to this introduction is, "How do you do, Miss Smith."

When gentlemen are introduced to each other, they always shake hands.

A lady needs only to smile and bow slightly. It is her place to offer to shake hands, if she chooses.

In taking leave of a person whom you have just met and have found agreeable, it is a proper leave taking to say, "Good bye, I hope I shall see you again soon," or "I am very glad to have met you." The other person answers, "Thank you" or "I hope so too."—East Texan.

TWO TYPING STUDENTS TURN COMMERCIAL

Two of the first year typing students, Robert Nichols and Christine Lambkin, are already putting their knowledge of typing to a commercial use. They are typing both Junior and Senior English memory work for fifteen cents a copy. The large ads they have written on the blackboards of the Junior and Senior rooms have proved that advertising brings results, for they have received so many orders that it is about to become necessary to hire another typist in order to fill them all.

Thousands have Ended their Bowel Worries by taking this advice!

Can constipation be safely relieved? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say the many thousands who have followed their advice and know.

You are not likely to cure your constipation with salts, pills, tablets, or any of the habit-forming cathartics. But you can correct this condition by gentle regulation with a suitable liquid laxative.

THE LIQUID TEST:
First: select a properly prepared liquid laxative. Second: take the dose you find suited to your system. Third: gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving of their own accord.

Simple, isn't it? And it works! The right liquid laxative brings thorough bowel action without using force. An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as in the case of mineral drugs.

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. The case can be measured, and the action controlled. Pills and tablets containing drugs of violent action are hard on the bowels.

If there are children in your household, don't give them any form of laxative, but use a healthful, helpful preparation like Syrup Pepsin. Its very taste will tell you it is wholesome, and agreeable to the stomach. Delightful taste, and delightful action; there is no discomfort at the time, or after. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, all ready to take.

have their main speeches prepared. Practice debates with Goodnight, Memphis, and possibly McLean have been arranged for the debaters.

Very satisfactory work has been accomplished this year by the debating club. Those who entered the work show much interest in the timely subject, "Resolved, That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British System of Radio Control and Operation."

The Clarendon typing team of two for the Interscholastic League has not been selected yet, since Clarendon will not have any competition in the County Meet.

The local elimination for Declamation was held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The contestants for the County Meet in both the Senior and Junior groups were chosen.

Miss Harris has chosen two spelling teams, and from these two teams will be selected the single team to represent Clarendon in the County Meet next week.

The athletic contestants of the Interscholastic League work are also rapidly becoming prepared for the County meet next week. The volley-ball girls have been having several practice games with the schools surrounding Clarendon.

The tennis participants have not been definitely selected as yet; however, everyone who plays tennis is doing his best to be one of those selected to represent Clarendon in the doubles and singles, boys and girls.

Notes From A Convenient Cuff (By The Inquiring Reporter)

Theatre-goers are going to be pleasantly surprised to hear that "Bolero," starring that excitingly different personality George Raft and the blonde loveliness of Carole Lombard will be here Monday after Easter.

I promised youse guys and gals the lowdown on the Carnival Ball next Friday night. Here goes—"Wagon Wheels," "Got the Jitters," a Phil Harris tune, "Shelter in a Shower," Lullaby in Blue, and "Wrong Side of the Fence."

making faces at each other now. A romance I hated to see die, because they were a cute couple. Charlie Murphy and that cute little Kelly girl are holding hands. Charley has done himself proud; she's one of the cutest little tricks in town.

Every once in a while something upsets my usually placid disposition. Right now it is a fierce objection to staying indoors. I want frevently to stay outdoors all the time.

I have a Sociology theme to write so I must stop this enjoyable but senseless quabble. See you at the Carnival Ball after the Banquet.

VACATION (IN BED)

(By Mary Frances Dewey) Vacation in the midst of the school term? Sure, plenty of it! Probably more than some of these favored students desired.

The first few days in this fairland are not so tough. A peachy book, nice visitors wishing pleasant dreams (if there is any such thing when Mother Nature paints the entire body so becomingly, for spring).

The long hours and hours of restless, discontent waiting, wondering, and bemoaning! The clock ticks slowly, the floors creak, the wind is dreadful to the sense, everyone is unbearable, and the mirror sings a doleful ditty at the beautiful spectacle presented.

What will I do about my Shorthand and Geometry?—Ohmighosh, how I'll have to sweat blood to catch up—great heavens! Look at the water stains on the ceiling—believe I could write a book someday about them—I wish she'd keep the curtains pulled and make them quit being so rowdy—Mmm; that picture looks absolutely lopsided—it makes me nervous, too—the wall paper on the ceiling is getting old—probably fall on some one before He'd notice it though—mom doesn't read to be as much as she should—more than likely forgets that I exist—wonder if I'll never be able to see again—will my face never clear up—what if these beauty spots stay on me for life—they might, now there was—Oh, my body feels like a rasp—I'll bet Blank gets caught cheating someday—hope she does—Mr. Blank is a grouch—Miss Blank is better, has more understanding about gum—mom said I could get up tomorrow—better act well or she'll change her mind.

Back to school, at last, with a new enthusiasm, a more experienced expression, colored glasses, and loving thoughts—until some wise-cracker yells: "Hi, measles."

SCOUT NEWS

At the regular indoor meeting on March 9 the President of the local Court of Honor gave the Scouts a talk on a good turn they are planning to do. It was announced that the meeting time had been changed to 7:30 so that our S. M. would have more time.

Mr. Day has an idea that when school is out some of the older boys and he will hike to Canyon. The plan is to carry all necessary equipment with you. Advancement and Scouting will be the main requirements. Scouts from all Clarendon Troops are eligible.

A number of Clarendon Scouts are planning to go to Council Camp in New Mexico. We suggest that they get a bear box and paint it red outside and white inside. Then when your patrol goes to camp each member will have a screaming red box under his bed to impress the tent inspectors. These boxes may be locked and they provide plenty of room for personal equipment.

Carroll Hudson and Hollis Leathers took care of the new Scouts last meeting. The Lion Patrol of the new troop have already made their tent while the four patrols in Troop 37, which have been organized for over a year, have neglected to make Patrol totems. There is no reason why there should not be four totems at the next meeting of Troop 37.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

The Junior High School news is just about played out as far as social activities and school room gossip is concerned. It seems as though it has been forgotten that there ever was such a thing as social activities. There are seldom any parties or social gatherings of any kind, anymore. Even the school-room gossip has failed me. All that is heard is the student's talk about the County Meet. Of course, we are glad everyone is taking such an interest in the Interscholastic League, but it is certainly hard on the Junior High Reporter. I guess the authorities decided they would help the sports editor out a little.

Each tick of the clock brings the eighth grade students a little nearer to graduation and the sixth and seventh a little nearer to promotion. Here's hoping we all make it. The English teacher is doing her best to get the outside reading finished before the hustle and bustle that always take place about graduation time. The Spanish students are beginning to wake up and realize it is getting near graduation and they had better start working before it is too late. The elimination for declaiming will take place this afternoon. I wonder who will win? After living with his wife for 58 years, Samuel P. Dewald of Peru, Ind., has filed suit for a divorce.

A male quartet composed of R. E. Drennan, Sam M. Braswell, G. L. Boykin, and T. D. Nored presented a number and responded to a request for "Sweet Adeline" as a diversion of the evening.

Just before closing an unscheduled and unexpected feature of the program was disclosed, when the toastmaster, Sam M. Braswell, speaking on behalf of the Clarendon News presented the News' Most Useful Citizen Award for 1933 to Mr. Caraway, which was enthusiastically applauded by those present.

Many personal expressions of appreciation to Mr. Caraway were voiced after the banqueters left the table and one of the sincerest, happiest and most to-be-remembered affairs in the history of the community was at an end.

Those present were:

Other members of the school board include: J. W. Kent and Mr. Wiedman, father of the only pupil. There are only five property owners in the district, the Bairfield ranch, the Kent ranch, the Taylor ranch, part of the "JA" ranch and the Armstrong farm, the latter being the only place that raises any cotton in this district.

This entire district is on land that was part of the original "JA" ranch, explained Mr. Bairfield. "We have always had several pupils each term until this one."

And those ranch folks mean to continue their school another year. They reason it thusly: they pay the taxes, all except the $16 per capita from the State, so why shouldn't they have a school if they do have to pay a teacher $80 per month to teach one pupil. All individualism in America is not yet dead!

C. B. Ingram—

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and relatives were there to do honor to this good man. Tributes were paid Bro. Ingram by Rev. A. V. Hendricks of Hedley, and the pastor Rev. E. B. Bowen. Mrs. Ray Hundley, of Denton, granddaughter of the deceased sang beautifully "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." A splendid floral offering gave mute testimony of the love and esteem in which Brother Ingram was held.

In the Citizens Cemetery was laid to rest the last remains of this veteran servant of his God, and while the community mourns for a season, yet life in every community he has touched is richer and sweeter by his having passed this way.

Pallbearers were: J. H. Hurn, Marvin Smith, W. A. Armstrong, C. E. Griggs, E. M. Ozier and W. E. Hardin.

editorials, topics of the day, business magazines, history and such. Then he is interested in aviation. "Wouldn't it be fine to be a pilot on one of those air-mail lines?" he asks.

In the Alanreed High School paper, called "The Longhorn News," appears a news story, illustrative of the times: Two negro women discussing present conditions. One of them remarked: "It shuah is too bad, ain't it, dat dis heah depression had to come jes' when times is so hard."

R. E. Paige, superintendent, and J. William Dillard, principal, of the Alanreed School were in Clarendon last Saturday. Mr. Paige, incidentally, was one of the "original 13"! That is he was one of thirteen who were awarded degrees by the Clarendon

Twin Girls Born To Walls Family; They Win Prizes

One of the best things we have seen in sometime was the interest taken in the recent idea to award a number of substantial prizes to the first baby born in March.

In the big display ad, announcing this proposal, it was stated plainly that, in order to qualify, the certificate showing birth and time should be brought at once to the office of the Clarendon News. Although at least two instances are reported of infants born before the winner, the first birth certificate to come in was of the physician who reported twins born to Mr. and Mrs. Walls of this city.

So the prize goes to the twin baby girls in the Walls home. Their names are: Sidney Jaynell and Patsy Vernell.

Manager Frank White of the Clarendon Hatchery, who had inserted a proviso in his ad that "if it's twins, we'll give 100 baby chicks and 100 pounds of Purina feed," was the first to announce he had paid off. The chicks were delivered to the home of Patsy Vernell and Sidney Jaynell on Tuesday. So the little ad cost Mr. White in dollars and cents but he got a great deal of pleasure in paying off.

Other merchants who offered prizes included: Douglas-Goldston drug company, Rathjen's shoe store, Greene Dry Goods store, Alderson's studio, and Heath Furniture company.

Congratulations are extended the twins and Mr. and Mrs. Walls, the proud parents.

Rev. M. M. Beavers, presiding elder of this district, attended the funeral of Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College, Tuesday at Abilene.

only year degrees were conferred by that institution. Bill Dillard is well-known here as he was raised in this city and still makes it his home. Mr. Paige says Alanreed will get some affiliation credits this year as a result of meeting requirements during the past two years. Seven teachers are employed, the minimum required for affiliation. Plans are now under way to get a $10,000 gymnasium, one of the business men of Alanreed having donated the old bank building for that purpose. The building will be torn down and the material used for the gym. Application has been made for $2000 worth of CWA labor with which to construct the new gym. As the project has been duly approved, it is believed it will go through without any trouble, except possibly a little delay.

G. G. Reeves, in town Saturday, reports he put his son, Jack, on the job Saturday afternoon. Jack is doing his first plowing with a lister. After he had run the lister a few rounds, he declared, with emphasis: "Dad, I believe this is the most important industry there is." Jack is 12 years of age.

Club Indorses Protest Against Bankhead Bill

Indorsement of the move being sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce against the Bankhead bill, now before Congress, was given by the Clarendon Lions Club at their regular luncheon period Tuesday at noon.

The protest is being pushed because the bill would effect drought-stricken areas, it was noted in a letter from the West Texas regional body, adversely since the average for a 5-year period would include the bad years of 1930 and 1931.

J. T. Patman, chairman of the major activities committee of the Lions club, asked the club to indorse a movement locally to buy a 50-acre tract for the Boy Scouts of Donley County, this tract to provide a swimming pool and other facilities for the Scouts. O. C. Watson made an appeal for support of this movement. Mr. Patman was asked to contact other organizations in the city to learn their attitude toward helping such a movement.

President Nored announced the board of directors has decided to award a prize of $3.50 in the form of a month's dues to the member who submits the best editorial or essay on the subject, "What Lionism Means to Me and My Town." Any member of the club is eligible and the winning essay will be carried to the district convention in Colorado City next month for competing in a contest there.

A good attendance marked Tuesday's meeting of the club. Two visitors were present, being M. M. Noble and Dr. T. H. Ellis.
