Birthday Ball Is Well Attended Here

Near one hundred and seventy-five persons danced to the music of Aaron Hale and his orchestra on Wednesday evening at the Clarendon Opera House, celebrating the 53rd birthday of President Roosevelt.

This benefit ball for the prevention and cure of infantile paralysis was sponsored by the civic clubs and citizens of 5,000 towns last evening.

According to Clyde Price, general chairman for this city, the ticket sales netted a sizeable amount, all of which will be turned to this worthwhile work.

The floor show, directed by Miss Lorraine Patrick, was a song and dance number "The Good Old U. S. A." by Misses Willie Maud Pratt, Dorothy Jae Scoggins, Peggy Taylor, Billy Jo Wilson, Sarah Virginia McGowan and Nellie Grady and accompanied on the piano by Miss Louise Smith.

At ten-thirty, the dancers paused to listen to President Roosevelt's address over a radio installed by the general committee.

Some weeks ago The Clarendon News announced that it would again sponsor the free-will contribution to the Warm Springs Crippled Children's Foundation as it did last year, with special invitation to those who did not care to dance at the President's Birthday Ball, and any others who desire to contribute to this worthy Foundation.

For the convenience of some who have not yet contributed but who have signified their desire to do so, The News will hold this contribution list open until Saturday afternoon of this week, before sending in the funds collected.

If you want to have a part in this work for the benefit of those children blighted by infantile paralysis, bring your contribution in any sum, large or small, to The News and it will be divided 30 percent to the Foundation and 70 percent to local work for the victims of infantile paralysis as asked by the President.

RELIEF CHARGES DENIED BY DAVIS

ANSWERS TO PETITION WITH DATA SHOWING SIGNERS GOT CASH, GROCERIES.

In answer to a petition circulated in Clarendon January 14, and signed by fifty-six persons stating they were not receiving enough relief from the Donley county administration offices, Clifford Davis, administrator for the county replied with statistics presented to the commissioners court stating that forty-four of the petitioners were receiving relief and that of the fifty-six petitioners nine were not on the relief rolls and of the nine, one was a merchant.

The answer was considered so conclusive by the commissioners court that no action was taken on the protest.

Davis said, "this office has been as liberal with relief clients as the FERA laws would allow, in handing out cash as well as groceries delivered to them by local merchants and from the government stock of canned goods in our office stock rooms."

"Also the clients on the rolls have been given employment at different kinds of labor, which helps to furnish subsistence to them and their families," Davis further stated, and added, "this office has grudges against no one and wishes that all destitute families could be adequately provided for, but as there is a limit to the allowances, we must adhere to the FERA laws and regulations."

The statistics presented to the commissioners court showed that forty-four signers of the petition received during December $1,008.85 cash and forty of those received assortments of groceries in addition. During January the forty-four received $601.68 in cash and all but two received an additional allotment of groceries. These figures were up to and including January 17.

The petition was circulated January 14, according to information from the state relief headquarters in Austin, where the petition was sent.

Deputy Warden Warns Season Over

Deputy U. S. Game Warden Chas. Trent has notified the Clarendon News of the recent visit of U. S. Game Warden to investigate alleged reports of shooting migratory water fowl since the close of the season on Jan. 15th.

Mr. Trent asks that local folk keep the law in mind and refrain from any shooting until the next season comes around, and expressed himself as very anxious that no indictments and fines for illegal hunting shall mar the law-abiding records of Donley county.

Good Sale Made On Centennial Coins

The first two coins to reach Clarendon were auctioned off at the theatre a few weeks ago. The coins sell for $1.00.

The date of the master stage hit, "Crazy Politics," has been postponed from Thursday and Friday February 8th and 9th until Thursday and Friday, February 14th and 15th, as Miss Lorraine Patrick, director, contracted a severe case of flu and bronchitis the middle of this week.

The one-hundred members of the cast of this hilarious comedy, which is being sponsored by the St. John's Episcopal Ladies Auxiliary, will be notified the date when Miss Patrick is able to resume rehearsals.

Methodist Meeting Is Closed Sunday Eve

Sunday evening marked the close of the two weeks' revival campaign at the First Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth, doing the preaching. Rev. Joe Strother, pastor of the Dimmitt Methodist Church, assisted with the young people and played the organ or piano. He left Saturday night after the services in order to fill his own pulpit Sunday.

A number were converted and reclaimed, with several candidates for baptism and membership in the church. According to the pastor, the ceremonies of baptism and receiving into the church will be had at the eleven o'clock hour next Sunday morning.

Large crowds were present from time to time to hear the soul-stirring messages of Rev. Landreth, and the prayer services each evening for the men and women were both well attended. The church was greatly revived and zeal strengthened as a result of the effort for the two weeks.

NEW EPISCOPAL RECTOR ASSIGNED

REV. MR. SMITH FORMERLY OF PAMPA BEGINS MINISTRY HERE SUNDAY.

A most cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with them and to meet the new minister.

MANY VISITORS AT LIONS CLUB

VAUGHAN OF PANHANDLE PRESENTS RANDEL CANDIDACY FOR DIST. GOV.

The regular Tuesday luncheon of the Clarendon Lions Club at the Antro Hotel was favored with many visitors, the major portion of them being lawyers, which evoked many exchanges of repartee brought on by local club members who belong to the legal profession. Judge Cole disclosed the reason for so many lawyers being present, saying that it was because "they had no business at home."

Lion Porter Underwood, past president of the Amarillo Lions Club, Judges A. S. Moss and Sam J. Hamilton of Memphis, were among the visitors who responded, as were Dr. Dickey of Memphis, Mr. Lutz of the federal land bank of Houston, Mr. Darlington and Mr. J. C. Rawlings of Shamrock and Mr. Singleton of Amarillo.

Lion Bob Vaughan, Superintendent of schools from Panhandle, was also a guest, and addressed the club in behalf of the candidacy of Lion Ralph Randel of that city, who will be nominated by the Panhandle Lions for the office of District Governor at the annual district convention which convenes in Plainview in late April. Lion Randel was a charter member of the McLean Lions Club as well as a charter member of the Panhandle Lions Club, and is well known here, having attended Clarendon College for several years. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Randel, are citizens of Donley county, being highly respected residents of the Ashtola community.

On motion of Lion Patrick, Lion Vaughan's invitation for the club's endorsement of Lion Randel for district governor, was referred to the board of directors for action.

HIGHWAY IS TO BE RENUMBERED

JOINT EFFORT OF DONLEY AND OTHER COUNTIES FINALLY SUCCESSFUL.

Announcement of the designation of the proposed Clarendon to Turkey highway as an extension of State Highway No. 88, by the state highway department was received here the latter part of last week, much to the general satisfaction of the people of Clarendon and Donley County.

The designation followed after a hearing held in Austin on Jan. 18th, when Donley and Hall counties were joined by Gray, Motley, Dickens, Nolan and Valverde, in a plea for the joining up of a direct North and South highway from the Panhandle to the Rio Grande at Del Rio, in what is likely to be a great international route from Canada to the Isthmus of Panama.

Following quickly on the designation of the new road, the commissioners court of Hall county passed an order Saturday for the purchase of the right-of-way from the Donley county line to Turkey, and Tuesday the Donley county court passed a similar order for the right-of-way from Clarendon to the Hall county line near Brice.

These orders completed the requirements for the designation since the official order of the highway department reads: It is ordered by the Commission that State Highway No. 88 be extended from Clarendon in Donley county to Turkey in Hall county, on condition that counties traversed by such highway will furnish not less than 100 ft. right-of-way on location to be approved by the State-Highway Engineer."

The department has not yet announced the new numbers of the North and South route, but it is likely that No. 88 will be changed to No. 18.

No definite date is available for the beginning of construction of the new road, but after the permanent location is made by the department, it is likely that much of the labor in setting back fences and grading will be done with relief labor in Donley and Hall counties.

This new road will mean much to Clarendon and Donley county and it is hoped that not too much time will elapse before it can be constructed.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Antrobus left Tuesday morning for Long Beach and other points of interest in Southern California. Before returning to Clarendon, they will go by boat through the Panama Canal to New York City.

John McClellan of Ashtola spent Monday in town visiting his mother, Mrs. D. L. McClellan.

Mrs. Mary Bairfield and Haskell Kemp motored to Amarillo Monday afternoon.

DELINQUENT TAX LAW IS EXPLAINED

1933 TAXES MUST BE PAID BY MARCH 15 TO ESCAPE PENALTIES.

Joe Bownds, tax assessor-Collector for Donley county is in receipt of a letter from the state comptroller which is explanatory of the dates when tax payments become delinquent, and also penalties which are inflicted for non-payment by the time specified.

The letter is as follows: You are, therefore, authorized to collect delinquent taxes for 1933 and prior years without penalty or interest until and including March 15th, 1935. After that date the penalty will be as follows:

March 16th to March 31st 2 per cent; April 3 per cent; May 4 per cent; June 5 per cent. After June 30, 1935, the penalty will be 8 per cent, together with 6 per cent annual interest.

Penalties in 1934 taxes beginning February 1, 1935, except in cases where one-half of the taxes were paid prior to November 30, 1934, will be as follows: February 1 per cent; March 2 per cent; April 3 per cent; May 4 per cent; June 5 per cent. After June 30th, 1935, the penalty will be 8 per cent, together with 6 per cent annual interest.

FEW PARDONS, FEWER PAROLES

Texas has had an over-production of pardons and clemencies in recent years and with it has grown up a larger criminal class, with resultant damage to the social order.

With the coming to power of Governor Allred, there has been every evidence of pardons growing extremely scarce, and with hardly any paroles at all, and an immediate disposition to cancel every parole where the holder has fallen afoul of the law since release from prison.

There is hardly a citizen of Texas who is not heartily in accord with the change Governor Allred has wrought in the executive attitude in this respect and there is a growing sentiment that law breakers must pay the penalty when they are convicted in this state. This is going to discourage law breaking and be a great aid to our courts in enforcing the laws now on our statute books.

Stuart A. McCorkle, former faculty member of the University of Texas, writing in the late issue of the Southwestern Social Science Quarterly, reviews the constitutional and legal regulations on the power of clemency in Texas, and concurs with Governor Allred's announced policy of placing the burden of clemencies on a non-partisan board.

"Texas is one of the few states today placing almost complete pardoning power in the hands of her Governor," Mr. McCorkle said. "This is a relic of kingship retained from ancient days."

"The Board of Pardons and Paroles cannot be said to share the clemency power of the Governor; it is only an agency created to make the inquiries requisite for an intelligent exercise of the power. The power itself rests with the chief executive. Pardons, paroles and furloughs have been granted all too frequently without an investigation by the board. And when it has been consulted, its advice has often been disregarded."

PROGRESS—SLOW BUT SURE

In the matter of modern highways Donley County is making progress—slow, but sure.

After many years' struggle the county is about to see Highway 5 paved with the newest and best type of hard-surfacing from border to border. Just recently, after a concerted effort with neighboring counties State Highway No. 88, has been extended from Clarendon to Turkey by designation, and eventually this much needed route will be constructed at a saving of seventeen miles between these points.

Progress is bound up eternally with transportation and communication and after what seemed a long night, the day-break of a better day is seen in the East insofar as Donley County is concerned.

Progress? Yes—slow but sure.

FINE BOYS VS FINE HORSES

The advocates of legalized horse racing gambling are loud in their praise of the plan because the State is given a "rake-off" which is set aside to buy stallions and jacks for farming communities. Well, if that is such a good plan, why not license pool halls, saloons, bull and cock fighting. Our guess is the solid, thoughtful farmers and other good citizens of Texas are not going to stand for the deal the legislature gave them when the horse racing law was put over. The farmers are not asking race track gamblers to buy their breeding stock. Watch the propaganda that is being sent out. You just can't stand for that law and expect your boys to go untrampled with the gambling mania. Better raise fine boys than fine horses. The 100 percent unanimous condemnation of race track gambling by the merchants of Dallas, backed up by every newspaper in Dallas, is certainly evidence sufficient to wake up the people who have not gone wholly over to the worship of the almighty dollar, regardless.—McKinney Examiner.

"PRINTER OF UDELL'S" DIES

George W. Taylor, 65, owner of the Arma (Kansas) Record, but better known as the principal character in one of Harold Bell Wright's better known books, "That Printer of Udell's" died at his Arma home recently. He had been in ill health for three years.

Born in Sweden, New York, in 1865, Taylor operated shops in New York, Kansas City and in western Kansas before moving to Pittsburg two years ago. It was while publishing a small newspaper at Pittsburg, Kansas, that Wright, then a Christian minister there, became acquainted with Taylor and later used him as the printer in the book, the scene of which was laid in Pittsburg. Taylor purchased the Arma paper 19 years ago.

The author of "That Printer of Udell's"—Harold Bell Wright, has made for himself and family his dreamed of earthly paradise. This ideal retreat, near the beautiful city of Escondido in Escondido Valley near the adjacent Vista District and Rancho Santa Fe, isn't designed for a show place but is the exponent of a nature-lover's idea of real living—of one who is a friend of beast and bird and therefore knows the way to the hearts and souls of his fellow men.—The Earth

SUN AND MOON

The sun in 1935 will present its greatest show of eclipses witnessed on the earth in 130 years. Professor Alfred H. Joy, secretary of the Carnegie Institution's Mount Wilson Observatory, said recently the sun and moon together, will offer seven eclipses, the largest number possible in any one year.

The moon will pass between the sun and earth five times and the moon will be in the earth's shadow twice.

Not since 1805 will the sun's rays be partially blotted from the earth so many times. It will be the second time of five solar eclipses in one year since 1255, and there will not be another such number until 2485.

There have been seven eclipses in several years before, but always in a four-three combination.

And here is the rub for the 1936 show: Only two eclipses will be visible over the United States. Professor Joy said a partial eclipse of the sun will be visible over the United States next February 3rd. A total eclipse of the moon will be visible over the entire United States July 16th.—The Earth

A little Chinese girl was carrying a chubby boy on her back. "Is he heavy?" somebody asked. "No," was the reply, "he is my brother." There are duties which are pleasures, there are tasks carried through with a right good will, there are deprivations and hardships cheerfully endured. And all because there is enthusiasm or affection, idealism or devotion, patriotism or consecration in the toil or hardship.

ROAD PROGRAM IS SUMMARIZED

GIB GILCHRIST GIVES FIGURES ON AMOUNT OF HIGHWAY WORK PAST YEAR.

Austin.—During 1934 there were several acts of legislation which affected this department. The second called session of the 43rd legislature fixed a new registration year beginning April 1 and continuing through March 31 of the next succeeding calendar year. The regular session of the 43rd legislature enacted legislation whereby license plates formerly purchased under competitive bidding should be made in the Texas penitentiary, and the 1935 plates are being made in accordance with the law. The registration of motor vehicles has shown an increase of approximately 4.67 per cent over 1933.

House bill 393 of the 73rd congress, known as the Hayden-Cartright bill, was passed June 18, 1934 and provided for an additional national recovery allotment to the states for highway construction amounting to $200,000,000. Texas' allotment under this act amounts to $12,291,253 and up to and including December 20, 1934, contracts totaling $3,439,909.39 had been let with additional contracts, estimated to cost $790,000.00 advertised for letting December 31, 1934.

Funds Must Be Matched
Under the terms of the Hayden-Cartright bill the states revert to the former basis of federal aid beginning with the federal fiscal year, 1935-1936 and in each of the federal fiscal years ending June 30, 1936, and 1937, Texas' allotment will be approximately $7,500,000 each year. These amounts, however, must be matched dollar for dollar with state funds.

Since the fiscal year ends August 31 and the biennial report is issued as of that date as required by law, the only figures available are for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1934.

During that fiscal year a summary of all construction contracts let follows:

	Miles	Amount
Concrete and small drainage structures	1,209.63	$10,717,464.42
Gravel, caliche, shell, ect, surface	141.36	765,184.18
Asphalt surface	88.56	8,610,907.25
Grading and brick	231.30	6,435,539.17
Major structures		4,407,637.32
Totals	2,270.85	$30,934,786.34

FARM POND ASSOCIATION TO HEAR FINNELL SPEAK

Amarillo.—Irvin R. Buchannan, Perryton, a leader in the Great Plains Farm Pond and Terracing Ass'n., announces that H. H. Finnell, Dalhart, regional director of the Dalhart Wind Erosion Control project, the only wind control project in the nation, will be invited to speak at the Farm Pond meeting in Amarillo Feb. 8.

Other eminent soil and farm specialists are being invited including W. C. Bentley, College Station, extension service expert and terracing specialist; C. M. Evans, Marshall, head of the rural rehabilitation of Southwest states; J. R. Evans, station foreman of the experiment station at Goodwell, Okla.; J. B. Keely, chief engineer of the Texas Relief Commission; W. H. McFeeters, FERA engineer and extension engineer of A. & M. College, Stillwater, Okla.

Holding the moisture where it falls to insure maximum crop results and creation of small farm ponds to induce rain, thus preventing another disastrous dry spell are aims said the idea is fostered by some of the best U. S. minds.

Three Coke county livestock cooperators are trying out new methods of storing feed. Two of them are using trench silos but with the feed put up in different methods. Mr. Roe Williams of Bronte, Texas, cut his feed before filling the silo while Mr. Chester Kiker, also of Bronte, has filled his silo with bundle feed. Mr. Fred Roe of Robert Lee has gone in for the saving of Russian thistles on his ranch by making large stacks of it. So far the feed is keeping in good shape.

Keeping records on her garden enables Annie Piewitz, Fort Bend county 4-H club girl, to report for 1934 that her seeds and plants cost $5.39; that her family consumed 568 pounds of fresh vegetables valued at $46.08; and that she canned 38 quarts of food from the garden which were valued at $7.00.

BANKS AIDING HOUSING PLAN

Bankers Head Local Committees and National Association Officers Organize Country-Wide Assistance

NEW YORK.—Within eight weeks of the inauguration of the home modernizing and repair campaign, loans made by banks and other leading institutions were running at the rate of over $30,000,000 a month, says "Banking," published by the American Bankers Association. For every dollar put out in the way of loans, the building trades reported from two to five dollars in cash contracts as a result of the campaign, it adds.

"At the end of the first week in October, 6,714 commercial banks and 1,345 other loan institutions had made contracts with the Government under the loan guaranty or loan insurance provisions of the law to cover their advances," it says. "About 400 banks a week were coming into the system."

The Federal Housing Administration has divided the country into districts, each being covered by a regional or district director and with him is associated a liaison officer of the American Bankers Association and a similar officer representing the United States Building and Loan Association League. On each community committee there is at least one outstanding banker or financier to act as treasurer in raising money and carrying on the financial work of the local organization. In many of the local organizations bankers head the entire movement and are largely responsible for the success of the local campaign. A leading part has also been taken by local industrialists and merchants.

Bank Resources in the Movement
The 6,714 commercial banks which had been brought into the housing campaign by formal agreement with the Government had resources of $34,250,000,000, or roughly 78 per cent of the total resources of all commercial banks in the United States.

Robert V. Fleming, of Washington, D. C., the first vice president of the association, has been in charge of the work of that organization in bringing the support of bankers throughout the country to the Federal Housing Administration's repair and modernization program.

"The National Housing Act did not create a new Government lending agency but rather established a policy whereby private lending agencies were enabled to make loans to worthy borrowers which were guaranteed by the Government to take the place of the endorsement of collateral which banks would otherwise have had to require before accepting paper of this type," Mr. Fleming has said.

"I am most hopeful that the banks of the country will recognize the principle involved in this legislation and I feel sure they will cooperate to the best of their ability toward the success of this movement, which should greatly assist in the employment of labor, the consumption of materials and in putting idle funds to work."

BANKERS' GROUP BACK BANK ADS.

New Service to Promote Bank Advertising in Newspapers

The American Bankers Association's Advertising Department, under the direct supervision of the general executive officers, has prepared, at the headquarters in New York City, an informative newspaper advertising series for the use of member banks in the association to aid them in developing in their own communities better general public understanding regarding banking. R. S. Hecht, President of the association has announced.

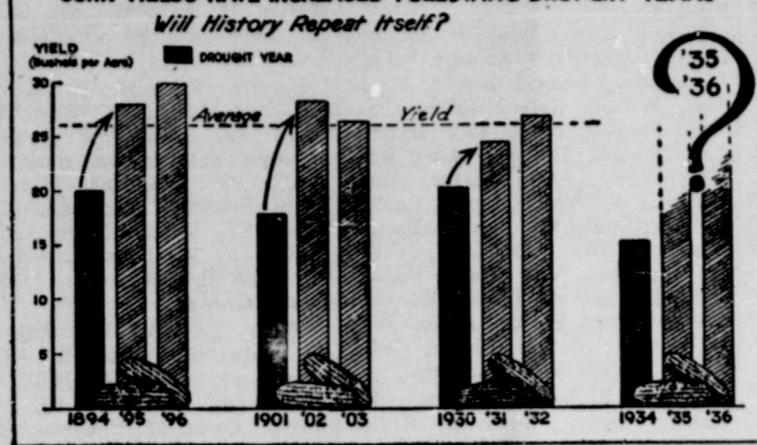

"The underlying theme of this advertising is that sound banking is based on helpful human relations and that it has a unity of interest with the people of its community which binds them together with a common purpose," he said.

"We are confident that if a clear understanding of this is brought home to the people in all our banking communities, it will go far in restoring the public confidence which good banking deserves. A bank in which people deservedly believe is doubly safe. It is to the public interest for the people to have confidence in their banks."

"We feel that bank advertising has a special public duty to perform in this connection under existing conditions. The copy which will be supplied in the service we have developed will not only aid the individual bank in promoting the use of its own facilities but is also aimed to bring about with the aid of newspaper advertising a clearer public viewpoint regarding its essential place in the life of its community."

Mr. Hecht emphasized in regard to the new advertising facilities being offered to the members of the association that it is not a profit making venture.

CORN YIELDS HAVE INCREASED FOLLOWING DROUGHT YEARS

A STUDY of the past reveals that corn yields have a pronounced tendency to return to normal or better following seasons of abnormally dry weather. As indicated by the shaded columns in the above graph, the production per acre after the three severe drought years of 1894, 1901, and 1930 rose from a low average of about 19.5 bushels to approximately the normal United States annual average of about 26 bushels per acre. The yield of both barley and oats also was higher in two out of the three seasons following years of unusual drought.

The reasonable expectation in 1935, therefore, is normal or near normal corn yields. This fact has an important bearing on corn planting intentions for the coming spring. Material adjustments in cattle and hog numbers since a year ago have lowered corn requirements to such an extent that even the average acreage of recent years would produce, at normal yields, a burdensome surplus of corn.

Under the 1935 production adjustment contract, being offered by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, corn-hog farmers will have an opportunity to control acreage in keeping with these reduced requirements and the expectation of a normal yield per acre.

Marvin Jones Offers Substitute Plan for Cotton Acre Control

Hon. Marvin Jones, congressman from this district, has announced against the continuance of the Bankhead control law, having been put forward the plan of paying the cotton producer a bonus on the cotton manufactured in the United States. The balance of the crop would be sold by the farmer in the world markets at world prices, be what they may.

It is reported Jones sent petitions to this section, asking the farmers to sign the same, the petitioners condemning the Bankhead law and favoring the bonus plan as proposed by himself. It is not known how the farmers have reacted to this petition. Doubtless the plan will be pushed after the cotton raisers vote on the retention of the Bankhead measure.

The plan of Congressman Jones is similar to the present control law, in that each cotton farmer would be assigned a certain number of bales he could produce and receive the bonus from the government. The remainder of his crop would be sold on the world market. To reach the number of bales each farmer could produce officials of the agricultural department would make an estimate of the number of bales used in the United States.

After this, officials in each state and county would apportion that number among the farmers, doubtless according to acreage planted in cotton. If the farmer wanted to plant a large acreage he would have notice that a certain amount of his cotton would be sold on the world market. This condition might be an incentive to reduce the acreage to something near what this country would consume. Doubtless a processing tax would be levied to pay the bonus.

The same scheme has been tried in the United States at other times and with other products. That plan was used almost 40 years ago to give assistance to the sugar growers in Louisiana, also that sugar beet growers were given a trial under a similar law. But according to results at that time the law did not prove satisfactory. But it is very possible the mistakes of that time would be avoided now and the plan could be made workable.

But in the end the success of any plan depends upon the farmer. If he can be satisfied that he is getting a fair deal, that his neighbor is not getting more than he, or that farmers in one state are not receiving a greater advantage of the law than the other, then the farmer will be satisfied.

Most of the complaint against the Bankhead law or the voluntary reduction law, is that some farmers were penalized while others were given the best of the deal. One can talk with the farmers of any community and he will hear that complaint voiced. True or not, we do not know. But doubtless the same criticism would appear under any law, as it is impossible for any set of men to satisfy a large number of people.

Congressman Jones is expected to push his proposal at the coming session of congress, and as he is chairman of the powerful agricultural committee he will have great weight in shaping future legislation as it effects farmers, either in the north or south.

GAS RACKETEERS DUE FOR CLAMPS

STATE COMPTROLLER TO START DRIVE FOR TAXES DUE TEXAS.

Austin, January 30.—Gasoline racketeers in the boundary counties, who haul motor fuel into Texas by night from Oklahoma, Louisiana or New Mexico and pay no tax on it to Texas highways or schools, are marked for extermination by Comptroller George H. Sheppard.

"First blood" in his enforcement drive was drawn recently at Perryton, in Ochiltree county on the northern fring of the Panhandle, where a motor fuel dealer was convicted of selling tax-free gasoline, hauled from Oklahoma under cover of darkness, to farmers for six cents a gallon. The dealer was fined a minimum of $100, and two other charges against him still are pending in district court.

Since this test-case was finished, numerous other boundary dealers have remitted voluntarily the state's four cents per gallon tax on gasoline bought under similar circumstances. One check covered taxes due on more than 1,700 gallons of gasoline.

The comptroller said Oklahoma tax authorities are giving full cooperation in the campaign, providing documents and witnesses.

Meanwhile the enforcement staff of some 70 persons is "bearing down" against other types of violators, Mr. Sheppard said, and has been responsible for 18 court actions in widely scattered sections.

Gregg county, in the East Texas as oil field, saw one conviction and four more indictments. One dealer in Dallas and another in

At The First Baptist Church

There is always Worship—Fellowship—Service

Now is exactly the time for one to be faithful to God and loyal to his church. "The time demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and willing hands." He who serves God for wages only will serve the devil for a raise. Are you for your church or against it? Which way does your example vote? You say you love your church. What does your neighbor think? "By their fruits ye shall know them," said Christ himself, who is the head of the church. Suppose all should follow your example and let the church die; what organization would take its place? Compare what the church is doing for you, your children, your neighborhood, with what you are doing for your church and see if you are satisfied. You need a church; the church needs you. So you begin next Sunday to make your church the kind of church you think Clarendon ought to have. Formulate an ideal of what a good church member ought to be and be that ideal yourself. Swat the swatter, knock the knocker, kick the kicker and boost the booster of your church and see if she does not grow in your estimation.

Mrs. James Bain Honor Guest

Mrs. James Bain, recent bride, was named honor guest at a lovely miscellaneous shower given Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Regan Bain.

The jumbled-word contest prize was won by Mrs. Phil Couch, who completed a list of essentials for the bride's home. Mrs. U. Z. Patterson won the second prize, a doll dressed as a bride, for completing a wedding contest with names of flowers.

The hostess chose a unique way of presenting the gifts, having blind-folded the honor guest and requesting that she jump over a pan of water which had been placed on the floor. When the bride removed the blind, the water had been removed and in its place was a basket of lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served to the honor guest, Mrs. James Bain, and Mesdames Dea Crites, U. Z. Patterson, Leroy Tidrow, Walter Wilson, U. T. Dever, Stella Hill, Arlie Wood, Dick Bain, Phil Couch, Rhea Couch, R. L. Bain and Misses Pauline Atteberry, Delma Hill and Mae Devers.

Those sending gifts were Mesdames Irene Mitchell, Gordon Lane, C. L. Knight, George Norwood and Ted Williams.

Legion Auxiliary Meeting

The Auxiliary of the American Legion had a call meeting Monday at the Club Rooms.

Mrs. O. L. Fink, president, presided over the meeting, and Mrs. C. A. Burton gave an interesting talk on the centennial.

During the business session, the Auxiliary voted to assist in financing the Son's of the Legionnaires Bugle Corp.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Entertain

The Presbyterian Auxiliary entertained the members of the church on Wednesday evening with a social in the church basement.

Mrs. A. L. Chase was general chairman of the social, and Mrs. Melvin Cook assisted in arranging the entertainment.

A lovely supper was served at seven o'clock to fifty members, and a variety of 'kid' games and forty-two offered diversion following the supper. The remainder of the evening was spent in group singing of old plantation favorites, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Howze, Mrs. W. G. Word and Mrs. R. S. McKee.

Mrs. Maher Honors Young Daughter

Mrs. Edith Maher honored her daughter, Marilyn, on the occasion of her eighth birthday with a party on Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Antrobus.

Lovely gifts were presented the little honor guest, and the afternoon was spent in playing games and contests, in which Miss Helen Porter received the prize.

The table where the guests were served jello molded into hearts and topped with whip cream, was laid in lace over red. A lovely white and red cake, decorated with valentines and beaming with eight candles, was used as a centerpiece and red tapers in red holders completed the lovely decorations. Valentines were given the little guests as favors.

Honoring little Miss Maher on her birthday were Misses Jean Stargel of Amarillo, Helen Porter, Marilyn Bartlett, Wanda Ray Jackson, and Masters Carl Bennett, III, George Watson, and Carl Parsons, Jr.

Pathfinder Reception Celebrates 24th Anniversary of Club Friday

The most brilliant social of the year was the black and white tea given Friday afternoon from three until five o'clock at the home of Mrs. U. J. Boston and marking the twenty-fourth anniversary of the Pathfinder Club, Clarendon's oldest study club.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. U. J. Boston, gowning in an attractive tea frock of red crepe with gold accessories; the club president, Mrs. Tom Goldston, attired in a dinner frock of green transparent velvet with rhinestone clips; and the incoming president, Mrs. Fred Rathjen, wearing a frock of black satin.

Mrs. J. W. Evans presided over the book where the guests registered the first hour, and Mrs. A. T. Cole assumed the duties during the second hour. Jonquills centered the table where the guests registered.

White imported linen covered the dining table, and three-tier black and white candelabra on reflectors with two tapers centered by a black taper added unusual charm to the dining room. The centerpiece was of silver and white fruit with beautifully arranged leaves of black and glistening in a black and white bowl on a reflector. A white and silver favor on a black glazed leaf was presented each guest.

Beautifully arranged bouquets of pink Columbia roses and rose buds enhanced the beauty of the entertaining room.

Presiding over the silver coffee and tea services at the table the first hour were Mesdames William Gray and Sella Gentry. Mrs. Gray wore a black tea gown of lace, and Mrs. Gentry was gowning in a black afternoon dress of file crepe with the necking edged in white.

Broncs Possess Conference Lead

The Clarendon High Bronchos handed the Goodnight basketball team a hard defeat, here Friday night, giving the Bronchos the conference lead. The Goodnight loopers were not strong enough on the defense to check the Bronchos' attack. Led by Carpenter and Reid the locals ran up 37 points to the visitor's 21. Buchanan starred on the defense for the Bronchos.

The Goodnight lassies reversed the tables to take a hard fought game from the Bronchoettes by a ten point margin.

The Bronchos defeated the Lelia Lake basketball team here Wednesday night, 39-13. Taking the lead at the starting whistle, the Bronchos coasted to an easy victory.

The starting lineups:
Clarendon Lelia Lake
Self F Gerner
Morgan F Cruse
Ralls C Jones
Ramphy G Brown
Nichols G Peninger
Bullard G Self

In the second game the Clarendon girls lost a hard fought game to Lelia Lake 37-25. Morgan was high point for Clarendon and Gerner led the Lelia attack with nine field goals.

The lineups:
Clarendon Lelia Lake
Buchanan C Reeves
Duckett G Nobles
Cook G Howard
Reed F Allen
Carpenter F Floyd

The Clarendon Junior College basketball team journeyed to Canyon last Friday night where they fell an easy victim to the West Texas Frosh quintet by a score of 67 to 31. Stargel was high point man for the locals, garnering 13 markers.

Those making the trip were: Stargel, McCauley, Cottingham, King, Lrons, Behrens, McKee, Stewart, Lovell, Watson, Gregg, and Scott.

Cheerful Chatter

The style of suckers has changed. When a bunch of students who were valuable sucker fans protested against the bulky, golf-ball suckers because they made corns in the mouth, a new supply was ordered. Now a new flat variety of sweets on a stick is being seen in the fashionable mouths around school.

Have you heard about the big hurry Dorothy Phelps got in last Tuesday? When she saw David McClesky approaching, she pushed Harold Hams off a bench in her eagerness to escape the campus eat shop.

The librarian, to save steps in walking outside the cage to sharpen her pencils correctly, has wasted a thousand grams or so of good energy in struggling to operate the pencil sharpener left handed and backwards from the inside of the fence.

About the most interesting hobby the Chatterer has heard of is that of Delphia Bones, who collects elephants. She has about thirty miniature elephants made

RELATIVES!

Do you have a relative in school? Several students can boast a retinue of brothers, sisters, cousins or other kinfolk that attend classes in the same building with them. Vivian Taylor has a sister, Dorothy Jo Taylor, and three cousins, Madalyn Taylor, Ardis Patman, and R. A. Beverly for schoolday companions. Another large group of kin is boasted by Rosa Lee Grady, who has a sister, Nellie, a brother, Ralph, and two cousins, Charlie Murphy and Jack Bell.

Miss Howren has in her math classes among other students, two nephews and one niece, Bob, Charlie, and Peggy Word. Curtis Thomas of the Junior class has an aunt, Edna Thomas, who is a sophomore and who is younger than her niece.

Three members of one Riley family are attending high school and college this year. They are Orene, Ina, and Glenn Riley.

Milford Allen and his uncle, Sherman Irons from Lelia Lake, attend several college classes together. Anna Moores Swift has two cousins to watch after, namely James Bartlett and T. J. Mann. LaVerne McMurtry and Pat Slavin are cousins, too.

Mr. Drennan and Athlyn Drennan claim the relationship of cousins. Harold Hams and Doolittle Baker are also cousins.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

The more athletic girls from our Alma Mater may be seen on the campus almost every day at noon playing a rather odd form of baseball, thereby endangering the lives of the rest of us who stand by and watch the proceedings. It would be advisable for all car owners in the vicinity to install their cars with bullet-proof glass or take some precautions.

Seen: The Four Musketeers discussing heatedly the mysterious absence of their "Cavaliers" for the usual Saturday night spree. He thinks the character sketches which appear weekly on our most honorable school page are very interesting; more! more!

The ancient Ford, seen parked lately in the most inconspicuous place, seems to appeal to the shall I say, primitive in several of our girls. They were seen fighting with some of the opposite sex over its possession. Alas! The dominating males won, but there'll come a day! ! !

Although the Chatterer and Very Personal write swell columns, they should not aggravate poor Socrates. He means well, poor thing!

ALPHA DELTA PSI

The Alpha Delta Psi Society met Monday night for the purpose of electing new officers and enjoying a little get together in the form of a tacky party. Of course the election of officers was the first event of the evening and was carried out very quickly by the use of the secret ballot. Since all officers were nominated last week, that formality was dispensed with. The officers for the Spring semester are Homer Estlack, re-elected president; Wanda Mayfield, vice president; Christine Lamkin, secretary-treasurer; Harold Hams, reporter; Thayer Acord, re-elected sargent-at-arms; and Rosa Lee Grady, publicity agent.

After the party had been in full swing for an hour or so, punch and cookies were served (rather every man for himself) for those who have exerted themselves playing ping pong, jingletide-o, dominoes, or such. In all about twenty-eight members and visitors were present to cut capers and celebrate the first social of the new semester. After things quieted down a bit, two judges were appointed to select the tackiest boy and girl; after some discussion they picked Thayer Acord and Wilma Dee Smith as the worst all around examples of tackiness. Thayer received for his trouble a nice sand bucket and shovel, while Wilma Dee was given a baby doll with pacifier attached.

An announcement to members not present is that the Alpha Delta Society will meet on Monday nights at seven fifteen of different compositions.

Jack Latson, J. T. Hicks, and Mrs. J. T. Hicks, the former Miss Nerrine Smith, are the latest additions to the list of junior college students.

Books and People In the Library

In an interview with Miss Parton, school librarian, your reporter learned a number of interesting facts concerning the most popular books and magazines of the library and the most ardent readers to be found within its confines.

Among the boys of both high school and college Masefield's "Jim Davis" is an ever popular book; it can seldom be found upon the library shelves. Apparently the most popular book among high school girls is "To Have and to Hold," by Mary Johnston. One of the new books, which was only recently received, "Queen Victoria," has also enjoyed great popularity among students of both high school and college. "Parnassus on Wheels" and "The Haunted Bookshop" by Christopher Morley, for their distinctive styles, have been acclaimed the most amusing books that many college freshmen have read.

If you judge the intellectual tastes of students by the type of magazine they read, you might possibly come to the conclusion that their tastes are not as a rule quite as high as they should be. If you inspect the magazine rack, you will probably observe that the pages of "Harper's," "The Forum," "The Atlantic," and other literary magazines are comparatively clean and unsoiled, indicating a minimum of usage; on the other hand, if you have the desire to read a "Popular Mechanics," "Collier's," or an "American Boy," you will probably be unable to read them, for constant over-use always leaves its mark on these popular, though not very literary magazines. However, there are several of the better class of magazines that have large numbers of enthusiastic readers, perhaps the most popular being "The Reader's Digest."

To many students, the library is intended to serve only as a momentary stopping place, but there are a number who spend all of their spare hours there. Ruth Davis, college freshman from Lelia Lake and Madalyn Taylor and Winfred Hott from the high school take endurance prizes for remaining in the library during their off periods. R. A. Beverly also spends a great deal of his spare time reading magazines of all types and descriptions. But John Howard Gilbert is more discriminating in his tastes. He must have "Time" before he can be completely satisfied.

Junior High and South Ward News

Miss Waldron and Mrs. Headrick are decorating their rooms for Valentine's Day. Mrs. Headrick's room is also making a study of the flag. Miss Stevens has a regular Arctic circle in her room in the form of an Eskimo display. She has the igloos which look very realistic and many other fascinating details. The fourth and fifth grades are working on a P. T. A. play. Miss Aiken is organizing a base ball team for the County Meet. We are all expecting great things of them.

Reverend Strother of Dimmit and Reverend Landreth, Pastor of the local Methodist Church, gave a most delightful and refreshing entertainment at Junior High Friday. Reverend Landreth kept the audience in an uproar with his amusing jokes. Following this, we sang a few songs. Then Mr. Landreth led us in prayer. After Reverend Strother was introduced, he gave us a few comical piano selections, explaining them as they played. We were glad to have both visitors and hope to be favored by their presence many more times.

Unusual Assembly Program Thursday

After the opening songs, "Old Black Joe," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" were sung Thursday, Mr. Drennan introduced the speaker, the Reverend Mr. Landreth, pastor of the Methodist Church. Mr. Landreth told two amusing jokes; he then said that as he had only one chapel talk, he would save that and let Mr. Joe Strother, Methodist pastor from Dirrit, Texas, entertain us.

Mr. Strother told an interesting and amusing story in piano music about a boy named "Bill." It seemed that Bill wanted very much to be a musician but he knew only one tune, "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight." Bill could adapt this tune to any occasion which arose whether it was for funeral, wedding, recital, or church. He became a very noted pianist, but he always played his one tune: "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight." After the applause following this delightful number had died down, the entertainer, with the aid of the piano, painted a desert scene and told of an amusing incident between a man and a lion, that happened there. For an encore Mr. Strother told an animal story that took place on the same desert.

The students are looking forward to Rev. Landreth's "Chapel Talk." We only wish that Mr. Strother was spending longer time in Clarendon so that he could give us another such delightful program as was rendered on Thursday.

W. E. Carmichael had as his guests Sunday his brother and wife of Borger.

Very Personal

Several students who were looking for Dumb Cluck last week could not find her. The reason was that she was hiding behind the big dictionary and they could not see her.

I guess Dorothy Phelps will not be very anxious to slap some one again soon. During a certain class one day last week, she slapped Charlie for some reason or other. Both of them spent the remainder of the period in the study hall.

Incidentally Pat Slavin was sent out of the same class for knocking Led Jay out of his seat. Can't you take it, Led? D. L. Baker is going to school here once more and has taken up his studies in the Junior class. If he continues to grow, he can soon be called "half-pint."

Sarah Virginia has been wearing a very chic pair of house-shoes to all of her classes this past week. She emphatically denies the rumor that she is trying to set a new vogue, with the one-word explanation, "blisters." "Can You Guess" has certainly started a lot of comments. This shows that the Clarendon High School and College students are really interested in the school page.

Last week I overheard a girl sighing and remarking that she wished some one would give her some advice. Well, that gave me an idea. Why not start a column of Advice to Advice-seekers or Comfort to the Lovelorn?

ANTELOPE SCHOOL TO GIVE PLAY FEB. 8TH AT MIDWAY

The Antelope Flat Literary Society will present "The Little Clodhopper," a three-act comedy, at the Midway school on Friday night, February 8th.

This comedy was sponsored by the Literary society at Antelope Flat on Wednesday, January 16th and it was so greatly enjoyed that the cast decided to present this hilarious, entertaining comedy at Midway.

The main characters are as follows:

Judy Elliott, the little clodhopper, Edith Waldrop, Septimus Green, the bookseller, Patrick Salmon, Miss Juliaetta Bean, the old maid, Mrs. Oscar Bullcock, Oecy Gump, her hired man, Grant Barclay, Mrs. Chiggerson, Boggis, the widow, Henrietta Edgins, George Chiggerson, her sister, Ansel Barton, and Chariman Carter, the vampire actress, Lottie Durham.

The little clodhopper, a motherless girl, who stays at the porch-house in Splintersville, Missouri, since her father deserted her twelve years before, is to inherit some money. Of this, she does not know, but Mrs. Chiggerson-Boggis, the ex-matron at the poor house receives a letter from Mr. Elliott in Texas telling of his fortune, and he, being an invalid can not come for his daughter. Judy does not know of this letter, so the ex-matron takes the girl to her home in Chicago where she intends for Judy to marry her son, George, so she and her son might live on Judy's money; but when George's sweetheart, Chariman, and the bookseller friend of Judy's appear on the scene and upsets Mrs. Chiggerson-Boggis' plans, she then plans to pass Chariman, who is now George's wife, as Judy when the supposed Mr. Elliott comes. Septimus Green, the bookseller detective again upset her plans. During this time Juliaetta Bean, a maiden lady who owns a boarding house in Splintersville, and Oecy Gump, her hired man whom she thinks "the cutest thing," are married and move to the city where Oecy becomes a policeman and befriends Judy. These two furnish their part of the amusement. The guests of the boarding house also contribute fun in the first act.

Because the work done by the farm demonstration agent in terracing proved so valuable to farmers in Montgomery county, the County Court has employed a terracing assistant for a period of 50 days and invested in a crawler type of tractor and a grader to be used only in terracing.

NEWSPAPER STORIES IN CHINESE PRESS

Judge S. W. Lowe got a letter several days ago from an old friend, J. Walton Moore, now in China, but formerly in Hall county and fairly well known here in Clarendon. Mr. Moore enclosed some clippings from an English paper in China with the following literal translations from Chinese newspapers, which are comical to read:

The Chief of Public Safety Bureau, Mr. Chang Kwei Wen, in order to advise the thief who has not been discovered to repent of their bad and cruel conduct during the time of winter-defense, has shot two thieves the day before yesterday. Yesterday they have published out a notification to the people that they have arrested two thieves, named Wang Shao Hsuen and Yuan Ta Hung, and some booty in the West Beach. During questioning of Wang Shao Hsuen he confessed that he has been arrested by the said bureau three years ago and has been put in the prison of Fushan District Court for more than two years for his bad conduct. He has been released in the month of May of last year. But account of he has severely injured his elder brother, Wang Shao San, has been arrested by the Bureau again which pronounced that he must be punished by the Bureau with one year in prison. On 9th of last month he has regained liberty as the punishment was finished. After he left the prison he has joined Yuan Ta Hung who was a robber to steal things in Chefoo. According to Yuan Ta Hung's verbal deposition he was a robber before and he has been put in the prison for eight years after he was arrested by the Fushan District Court. He has been released by the court on the 6th of last month and then connected with Wang Shao Hsueh to steal four times within ten days after they left the prison. For this Mr. Chang Kwei Wen was very angry and presented a petition to the Commander-in-Chief, General Han Fu Ku, to ask permission to put them to death. The reply was that they should shoot them in Chefoo in order to protect the social peace. After Chief Chang received this instruction he notified the policemen to take out them from the prison and had them shot on the West Executive Ground."

"There was an employee of the Hsu Hsing Restaurant, situated on West Tai Ping Street, named Chou, a native of Wentung Hsien, of the age of Twenty or more. He is a faithful employee to his manager. Unexpectedly he has been very ill of a dangerous disease and died as no remedy could heal him. After the manager dispatched a man to send a message to Chou's family they have put the dead body in a coffin and engaged some body to send same to his native place. While Chou's parents and wife received this unfortunate message they were wept nearly dead. Chou married with his wife just three years. Before her husband's dead body returned she has jumped into a well to commit suicide. Yesterday according to a message from Wentung Hsien that there were many noblemen of the hsien to mourn for the virtuous woman during her funeral."

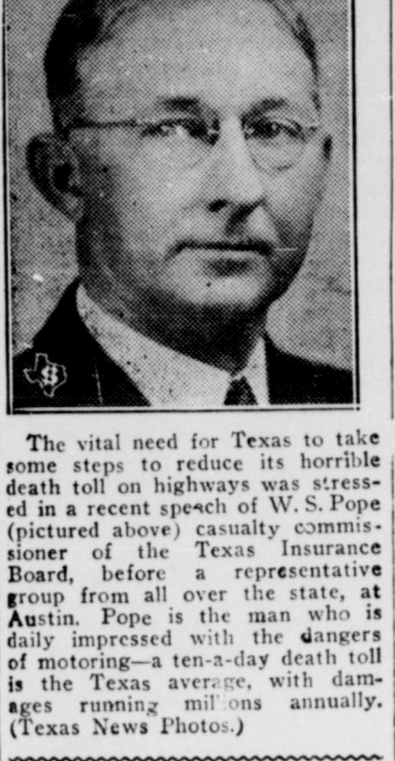

Wellington.—Shade trees can be had for range cattle says Paul E. Starr of Collingsworth county who has 300 young cottonwood trees growing in his pasture, according to John O. Stovall, farm demonstration agent. Early in the spring of 1934 Mr. Starr located level contours on the slopes of his range pastures with the help of the farm demonstration agent, plowed up the sod, and made terraces. These terraces held the water that had been rushing down off the hillside and disappearing in gyp holes or sinks. Mr. Starr then planted small cottonwood trees about 60 feet apart and about six feet back from the terraces on the upper side holding the water. None of the trees received any moisture except by rainfall.

Fights Auto Deaths

The vital need for Texas to take some steps to reduce its horrible death toll on highways was stressed in a recent speech of W. S. Pope (pictured above) casualty commissioner of the Texas Insurance Board, before a representative group from all over the state, at Austin. Pope is the man who is daily impressed with the dangers of motoring—a ten-a-day death toll in the Texas average, with damages running millions annually. (Texas News Photos.)

THAT "AUSPICES BUG"

Again the "auspices bug" has appeared in Cisco. And again the good women and men of this city have been induced to put on a local talent entertainment—not so much for the benefit of a local organization, as purported—but for the benefit of outside promoters. The promoters generally get the lion's share of the proceeds, while the local men and women are worked to put on the show.

O Professor, I believe they called the entertainment recently staged here for the benefit of the local Eastern Star chapter. And, by the way, it was indeed a creditable entertainment, but hardly worth the time, labor and trouble, as the chapter's share of the proceeds were twenty-three dollars and a few cents, I am told. The gross proceeds being $127, but there was plenty expense—as there always are in such cases—as was expected. The promoters are entitled to compensation for their services, of course, but what has always been a mystery to me why will local people become inoculated by the "auspices bug?" His bite is never satisfactory, as the share that is diverted to the local organization is never in keeping with the time and trouble devoted to these entertainments. It would be cheaper for the players to go down in their pockets and make a donation outright, from the financial angle.

Until this last "auspices" entertainment we had begun to be lulled into an assurance that they were no longer in flower, but we were mistaken, but we hope this has cured the people of propagating the bug in this community. And from expressions from some of the leaders of the Eastern Star chapter we believe they will be slow to listen to the promoter when they come around with their glowing tale of the financial possibilities of the next "auspices" show.—Cisco Citizen-Free Press.

U. S. CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION WARNS AGAINST MISLEADING INFORMATION

Washington, D. C.—The United States Civil Service Commission says that numerous letters received at its office from different parts of the country indicate that misleading information is being given to the public by agents of some of the corresponding schools which give instruction in preparation for civil service examinations.

To guard against the loss of money paid for tuition of this kind the Civil Service Commission informs the public as follows:

No one can promise appointments to positions for which the United States Civil Service Commission holds examinations. The claim that such assurance can be given brands the person making it as a fraud.

Information regarding examinations for the United States Civil Service may be obtained from the boards of United States Civil Service Examiners. There is such a board in each community which has a post office of the first or the second class. In nearly all cities the civil service board is located at the post office.

Before paying money for tuition, or signing a contract, it is advisable to make inquiry concerning the prospect of examinations. There is reason to believe that agents of some schools deceive the public as to the probability of early examinations.

No school has advance information regarding the need for employees or the probability of examinations.

Sweetwater, Texas.—Various kinds of sacks have been utilized by Mrs. A. B. Lewis of Nolan county in improving her bedroom, according to Miss Fontilla Johnson, home demonstration agent. Paper sacks were used to reinforce the corners of the room to keep the paper from splitting. Feed sacks and sugar sacks were used for canvas, while feed sacks were also dyed and used for curtains. Gunny sacks dyed with walnut hulls were made into a braided rug, and feed and sugar sacks were used in making dresser scarfs. At a total cost of about $13 the room was papered, all the woodwork was painted, and some of the furniture was refinished.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH MAKES IMPROVEMENTS

The members of the First Christian Church have been busy for the past few weeks, trying to eradicate all of the marks and damages done by the fall flood, which filled their basement. New walls and partitions have been built and installed. The whole basement has undergone a change with many improvements having been made.

The interior decoration and painting has been under the supervision of the Minister, W. E. Ferrell. He reports that the job is about completed. The walls are now wearing a new coat of Roman Ivory, while the ceiling is finished with light ivory. All the wood work has also received a new coat of stain and varnish. With these improvements completed, the members of the church feel that they have one of the best basements, complete with Bible Class rooms, dining room and kitchen in the city.

With the color scheme so restful and pleasing to the eyes, they feel that all visitors and members will enjoy the meetings and services that are to be conducted in this unit of the church in the near future.

Football Coaches In

Three New Positions

Of interest to the football fans of Clarendon and the Panhandle is the announcements yesterday from two universities and one Panhandle high school concerning changes in the coaching departments for the coming grid-iron season.

The board of trustees of Southern Methodist University of Dallas announced Madison (Matty) Bell, assistant coach during the past season, will direct the destinies of the Mustangs for the next three years. Matty, who has seen service as head coach at T. C. U. and Texas A. & M., replaces Ray Morrison who has accepted the offer of his alma mater, Vanderbilt University, as head coach. It is a tough spot for Matty but nothing new for him as it will be remembered he followed Dana X. Bible at Argyle, and he is certain to enjoy better support from the exes at SMU than was accorded him at A. & M. where all were hostile from the very start. He will have fair material for his initial Pony machine next fall, and we wish him all the success due him as he carries on the famed aerial circus of the nation's grid game.

The second announcement comes from Abilene where the Hardin-Simmons University Board announces Frank Kimbrough of the Amarillo Junior College will succeed Les Cranfill as head football coach of the Cowboys on a year-to-year basis. It is a wise move on the part of the Abilene institution and we believe Frank will bring back a large part of the prestige lost by Cowboy elevens of the past several years. Kimbrough is one of the most promising young coaches in the field and will give Simmons a colorful and fighting football machine. Amarillo College has made no move as yet to replace the departing Kimbrough, but his successor will find his place difficult to hold.

The third announcement which is of much interest to local fans comes from the Pampa High School who has signed Harry Phillips, late of the School of Mines at El Paso and former University of Texas star, as line mentor for the Harvesters. Phillips replaces Argus Fox, and will prove a fine addition to the Pampa staff. The writer is familiar with the new coach and his ability while at the University of Texas, and is certain that the Harvesters will be a greatly improved machine in the race next fall. It is our guess that within a short time Harry Phillips will be head coach of the Harvesters and then the Pampa entry will go quite a way in the state race in place of being the yearly disappointment to their followers as in the past. Good luck, Harry.

Another team which will show improvement will be the Wichita Falls Coyotes who will boast a new line coach in Curtis Beatty, another University of Texas star and teammate of Phillips.
