Mother's Day Celebration Here Sunday

ANNUAL CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN FOR 1935 SET BY CITY COMMISSION

WILL PARADE HERE ON MOTHER'S DAY

OPEN AIR PROGRAM TO FEAT-URE MOTHER'S DAY
CELEBRATION IN CITY.

Arrangements were consummated this week for the Mother's Day Parade which will be held Sunday morning at the courthouse square under the auspices of the local Legion Post and Auxiliary and in connection with the churches of this city.

Under the direction of Chas. S. Eskridge, the band will present a concert from 8 o'clock until 8:40 o'clock.

Master of Ceremonies will be the Reverend E. D. Landreth, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and the Reverend J. Perry King, pastor of the Baptist Church, will deliver the invocation.

Dr. H. E. Nicholson, Deputy Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge and religious and civic worker of Wheeler, will deliver the address for the occasion.

The parade will form at the South side of the courthouse at 9:15 o'clock, led by the American Legion color bearers and followed by the Sons of American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps. Next in succession will be the Methodist Church, Presbyterian Church, Apostolic Church, Church of Christ, First Christian Church, Baptist Church, Episcopal Church and Nazarene Church.

Each church will carry a banner and the program and parade will dismiss in time for Sunday School.

Ralph Andis is program chairman and is assisted by Dick Chunn, R. W. Moore, L. N. Cox, C. B. Morris, H. T. Burton, Legion members; and Mesdames C. B. Morris, O. L. Fink, and Clarence Pipes, Auxiliary members.

$127,000 IN CITY BONDS CANCELLED

$49,000 IN REFUNDING BONDS;
$78,000 WATER WORKS-
SEWER BONDS UNUSED.

In view of the fact that additional improvements on water works in the city of Clarendon is not contemplated within the near future the City Commission has cancelled $49,000 in outstanding refunding bonds of the city and $78,000 in water works and sewer revenue bonds, making a total of $127,000 in all.

In 1929 the city commission voted $100,000 water works and sewer revenue bonds and only $22,000 have been issued for necessary improvements. The city has no further cause at this time for issuing the balance of $78,000, hence the cancellation of the unused portion.

The $49,000 in refunding bonds cancelled were the remainder of the unused portion of an original issue of $75,000 voted in 1929. They were for $1,000 each and to bear five and one-half percent interest due from 1935 to 1965.

The city commission did not deem it necessary to issue further bonds from either of the two funds, thereby causing added expense to the taxpayers, when further improvements were not contemplated.

The city has never defaulted on a bond payment or in interest, stated Mrs. Mae Shaver, city secretary, Tuesday.

Mrs. Haley Ward of Chickasha is making an extended visit here with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Holtzclaw.

Mrs. W. J. Atterbury of Amarillo is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sella Gentry.

W. B. Holtzclaw spent last week in Grandview, Texas, visiting with his sister.

ENGINEER ADVANCES TELLING ARGUMENTS FOR TERRACING IN HOLDING SOIL AND MOISTURE

INTERESTING EXAMPLES AND ARGUMENTS IN REPORT OF ENGINEER ON CLARENDON'S FLOOD CONTROL PROJECT INSPECTION.

Calling attention to some of the fundamentals in saving soil and moisture in the Panhandle, and giving some striking illustrations of results in crop yields where proper terracing has been done in this section, the report of the recent inspection of the Clarendon flood control project by Engineer W. J. Williams of Plainview who drew the original plans, is most timely and illuminating.

Mr. Williams' letter brings much light upon the desirability and effects of terracing, as much for better yields as for water erosion and flood control, and is, in line with the general effort over the Southwest to terrace farm lands as a soil conservation measure. The letter:

Mr. J. W. Martin, Mayor, Clarendon, Texas.
Dear Sir:
I have just returned from a trip to Clarendon and an inspection of the work accomplished on your Flood Control project. I was very agreeably surprised at the progress you have made and I have to say that Mr. Brumley has already gotten more work done than I had expected him to get done this year with the forces available.

The terraces already constructed will relieve the strain on dams and ditches, should you have heavy rains early, over the drainage area you are concerned with, and the greatest benefits will come through these terraces through increased yields from the fields. You are building the terraces high and wide and of a better quality than is ordinarily done.

At the Sour experiment station last year, ten acres of cotton on terraced land produced more yield than a five hundred acre farm near by but not terraced.

Your farmers should realize, however, that terraces left to themselves cannot solve all the farmer's problems. If not kept in repair they will result in damage to the farms by concentrating the force of accumulated waters to weak places, resulting in greater erosion there.

Prevention of soil erosion is not the greatest benefit from the terraces, but by holding the water where it falls, the greater damage from the loss of plant food is prevented.

Park Board Bill Is Passed By Senate

Senator Small's bill, creating the Palo Duro State Park Board to improve Palo Duro Canyon, was passed Tuesday by the Senate.

Senator Small created the bill asking for a special board to administer to the Palo Duro State Park, rather than place the park under the general supervision of the State Parks Board.

The bill met with ready response in the House and Panhandlers were enthusiastic over the bill which would allow the Palo Duro Park closer supervision and quicker development.

Last week, resolutions were drawn up by the Panhandle Press Association which met in Amarillo to the effect that all Panhandlers endorse the bill and a plea was sent to Governor Allred that the bill be passed.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Holtzclaw of Hart, Texas, spent Monday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Holtzclaw.

NEW NO. 5 ROUTE TO HEDLEY OPENED

ENTIRE ROUTE TO HALL COUNTY LINE EXPECTED TO BE OPENED SOON.

Resident Engineer G. K. Reading of the State Highway Department announced that the new grading from the railroad crossing East of town to Hedley was opened Tuesday for traffic.

The recent rain was sufficient to allow traffic on the new right-of-way.

Engineer Reading said that the remainder of the new highway, which would include the distance from Hedley to Memphis, would be opened to the public by July 1st.

MRS. H. B. KERBOW PROVERB WINNER

ROBERT NICHOLS WINS SECOND;
CHESTER WILLIAMS,
THIRD, IN NEWS CONTEST

Mrs. Bennett Kerbow won the first prize of $5.00 in The Clarendon News Proverb Contest, which closed April 30th, by scoring a perfect one hundred percent. Robert Nichols was a close second and wins the $3.00 prize; Chester Williams won the third prize of $2.00, and all three may receive the waiting checks by calling at The News office.

Many entries in the contest made creditable scores, but in so keen a competition it required perfect or a shade under perfect to be included in the six which engaged the attention of the judges for final awards.

Correct answers to the illustrated proverbs as furnished by the syndicate which prepared them are: "Absence makes the heart grow fonder," "A guilty conscience needs no accuser," "Strike while the iron is hot."

People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones." "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." "Business before pleasure." Only Mrs. Kerbow's entry was perfect in every detail.

Judges making the final survey of the close contestants were Mesdames W. C. Stewart, B. P. Brents, and Sam M. Braswell.

The News has been urged to put on another Proverb Contest at some later date and will probably do so, although no plans are made at the present time. Hearty response to the one just closed indicates that another would be even more satisfactory.

FT. WORTH & DENVER HAS AIR CONDITIONING SYSTEM

According to D. F. Wadsworth, agent for the Ft. Worth & Denver City Railway Co., the passenger trains operating through Clarendon have been equipped with air-conditioning devices which make riding more of a pleasure during the hot summer weather.

Tests have been conducted by this company for several months with the improved air-conditioning system, and on May 1 began operation on all their passenger trains the modern convenience for the benefit of the traveling public.

Ragland Appointed To I.O.O.F. Office

A commission has been received by George E. Ragland, naming him District Deputy Grand Master in the I. O. O. F. Lodge for Childress, Hall, Collingsworth and Donley counties.

The appointment was made by Texas Grand Master R. C. Cowan and is quite an honor, and only comes after years of faithful work in the organization.

TEXAS CITIZENS TO VOTE ON REPEAL OF DRY LAW IN AUGUST 24TH ELECTION

GOVERNOR ALLRED INDICATES SPECIAL SESSION
WILL BE NECESSARY FOR CONTROL PLAN IF REPEAL IS VOTED—CLOSE BATTLE EXPECTED.

After sixteen years of prohibition, Texans will vote on the repeal of the dry law August 24. At the general election of November, 1936, a little more than a year later, the voters will determine whether the state shall have a monopoly system with state stores.

Both branches of the Legislature last Wednesday gave overwhelmingly decisive votes in favor of adopting the plan of submission of two constitutional amendments. As a safeguard against any threat of nullification of its work, the conference committee asked for three separate votes on its proposals—first on the conference report as a whole, then on Senate joint resolution 3-A, the so-called monopoly amendment to be voted on in 1936, and finally on Senate joint resolution 3 to be voted on August 24, next.

The Senate voted, 28 to 1, on the conference report. The House vote was 116 to 19. After all three propositions had been voted on both branches voted to reconsider and table so that the question of prohibition repeal has passed from the legislative stage and now is before the voters. Submission of constitutional amendments require no approving signature of the Governor.

In the Senate a motion to return the resolution to conference promptly was tabled. In the House a motion by J. Bryan Bradbury to delay action until Thursday and print the report in the Journal was as promptly turned down. Bradbury said that "the drys have been licked on this proposition" and Leonard Westfall told advocates of a monopoly system on the conference committee that they had been shot below the belt.

"Don't you know that after next August there will be a saloon on every street corner," he exclaimed, "and that they will be powerfully entrenched and will try to defeat the monopoly amendment."

Alfred Petsch, as spokesman for the monopolists on the committee, denied that there would be any such effect.

Generally, drys and anti-alike were in agreement that the compromise effected by the conference committee was the fairest play of submission that could have been devised.

R. Emmett Morse, author of the straight repeal resolution in the House, and George Moffett, leader of the drys, both appealed to members to vote affirmatively on all three propositions as a matter of fairness. The drys insisted that the monopoly resolution be voted on first, notwithstanding that the election is called for a later date.

The House voted 128 to 8 for the monopoly plan and 123 to 14 for straight repeal.

Only a minimum amount of time was used in the Senate to obtain the adoption of the conference report, though four different votes were taken. Clint C. Small alone voted against the entire report. Then the Senate voted 25 to 4 to submit the Senate monopoly plan at the 1936 general election, followed by a vote of 26 to 2 on submitting straight repeal August 24. Hornsby, Sulak, Small and Van Zandt voted against straight repeal.

If repeal should win this year, it can not be set aside by the 1936 election. The only difference would be that if the voters decide in favor of State monopoly it will require the Legislature to prohibit the sale of liquor for private profit except for medical, mechanical or scientific purposes. If straight repeal stays in force it will be required of the Legislature that it regulate the sale of liquor and it may provide for a state store system if a majority favors such action. In either event the open saloon will be barred.

It would be possible, though improbable, for this session of the Legislature to pass an enabling act to license and regulate the sale of liquor if repeal is voted August 24. The Legislature also would have authority to decide at a special session if the issue is submitted to Gov. James V. Allred whether to license sale or to set up a system of state stores. Whatever the outcome of the election and legislative enactments, prohibition would return to the status of prohibition days when local option was in effect. In counties and precincts that were dry by vote of a majority prohibition still would be in force and liquor could return only after an election and defeat as a local option measure.

CLEAN-UP WEEK HERE MAY 20TH

CITY COMMISSIONERS ASK
ALL TO COOPERATE; TO HAUL TRASH FREE.

The annual city clean-up week will begin this year on May 20th, according to the city commission.

With the first of spring weather, the city dads execute a plan long in existence in this city by asking everyone to cooperate in cleaning up their premises as a means of city beautification.

The city truck will gather up all tin cans and rubbish that will not burn if placed in a street or alley where the truck can drive up beside it.

Dirt, paper, and cleaning from the cow and hog lot will not be hauled.

DOG TAGS FOR TRANSIENT CAMP MASCOOTS DONATED

According to W. H. (Pop) Herndon, supervisor of the Transient Camp, three dog tags were donated to the camp by the city officials and the pound man for use on their three mascots.

The boys were very proud to receive the tags for their mascots as they are very fond of them, and the three dollars saved in buying the tags means quite a lot to the boys, for their pay is small.

The News has been asked to convey the thanks of the entire camp to the city officials for their kind deed.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Murrell and little daughter, Muffett, left Sunday for Dallas where they will visit for a week.

Miss Marie Thornton spent the week-end in Amarillo visiting friends and relatives.

FOUR TO ATTEND W.T.C.C. SESSION

CLARENDON DELEGATES TO VOTE FOR AMARILLO IN SELECTION CONTEST.

Chamber of Commerce Secretary J. M. Hill and director Odos Caraway, together with S. M. Braswell and A. L. Chase of the Highway committee, will attend the seventeenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce when it convenes in Plainview Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Four cities, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Amarillo and Brownwood, have entered the contest for next year's convention city, and it is reported Clarendon delegates will cast their vote for Amarillo.

The convention will open at 10 o'clock Monday morning in the Plainview municipal auditorium and Governor Allred will deliver the cardinal address for the opening session.

Wichita Falls, according to reports, will send delegates on a special train in an effort to win the convention city contest, while Amarillo plans to send one of the largest organized groups of delegates and visitors, arriving at the convention city with a large motorcade.

Brownwood is also planning a large motorcade and will have a strong, well organized group carrying at least 100 Fort Worth in Plainview. A special train, business men, is expected at the convention.

As the West Texas Chamber of Commerce was formed in Fort Worth 17 years ago, that city will put up a fight this year for the convention.

Robt. E. Hurn of Henrietta is in this city visiting an aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs. J. H. Hurn.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

The News desires to extend hearty felicitations to the Memphis Democrat on the completion of its first year as a daily newspaper. Last Sunday marked the milestone and the Democrat staff celebrated by issuing a sixty-four page edition full of up-to-the-minute telegraph and local news, community progress notes and a fine list of display advertising, much of it complimentary of the occasion and anniversary.

May the Democrat grow in power and prestige to the accompaniment of an increasing volume of national and local advertising patronage.

STATESMANSHIP SHOULD TRANSCEND POLITICS

On April 19, United States Senator McNary of Oregon said: "What the country needs more than anything else is rest, reassurance and confidence. All would profit by this happy eventuality."

Speaking at the recent Founder's Day Exercises of the University of Virginia, Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State under President Wilson, said: "The American people will insist, with Jefferson and Wilson, that their national government shall be content with its constitutional role as arbiter of just and definite laws, proceeding from the people and enacted by their duly elected representatives."

These statements differ only superficially—each of them reflects the growing weariness of American people, of all parties and classes, with experiments and "self serving" political schemes which are actually retarding, rather than advancing, recovery.

RETURNING CONFIDENCE ABOUNDS

Rain and snow over the Southwest the past week-end varying from a quarter-inch to three inches moisture seems to have been the signal to release bottled-up confidence for better crops and business in 1935.

The fact is that nearly every line of business has had increase in volume in a greater or lesser degree for the early months of the year, and nearly everyone needed only general moisture to display a strong confidence for the year's totals that would go far to its realization. Confidence has been one of the lacking elements of business recovery for the past two or three years, and its return should be hailed with enthusiasm in every quarter.

General moisture, general confidence, followed by more general rains, cannot fail to mean better business over the Southwest.

There is a tradition that when the locust trees bloom in profusion a heavy crop yield follows. Few of us have ever seen more profuse locust blossoms than in the past few weeks.

Confidence, tradition and all, point to a great crop year in Donley County.

ONE OUT OF THREE

Who are your three best friends? Fix their names in your mind. Tell yourself that, at the present appalling rate of motor accidents, one of these friends is likely, sometime in future, to be killed or seriously injured in an automobile crash. Your own chance of being killed or dangerously hurt in an auto accident has mounted so rapidly that it's now one to three. One to three! Think of it! Are there 30 boys and girls in your geometry class? If so, current statistics tell us no less than ten of them are headed for the hospital or a morgue. And we're sorry to report, the very boys who are reading this editorial—boys of 18 and under—cause far more driving accidents than older people. Let's do something about it. 1934 was the worst year in history, with 36,000 deaths. But 1935 will be what we make it. When you drive a car, remember that most accidents come from too much speed. Remember, too, that driving after dark is twice as dangerous as driving in daylight. When you're on foot, obey traffic signals. If you cross against the light, your chance of getting hit is three times as great as if you'd waited. If you cross in the middle of the street, your chance of injury is twice as great as if you'd gone to the street intersection. Remember—the safe way is the quickest way.—American Boy.

AMARILLO LAUNCHES PANHANDLE INSTITUTION

As the big feature of the Panhandle Press Convention in Amarillo last week the local entertainment committee, headed by Wesley Izzard, accomplished news handler of the News-Globe staff, a gridiron banquet was staged Friday evening, with the announced purpose of making it an annual affair for the Panhandle territory.

The gridiron features of the evening were of an unusually high order and showed long hours of hard study and work to produce the skits in a tempo which guaranteed the successful presentation of the clever lines, wherein celebrities, mostly from Amarillo, were good naturedly roasted and laughed at. There wasn't an under-the-belt blow in the entire evening and the great and near-great of Amarillo and the Press were portrayed in all their pet idiosyncracies and foibles to the huge delight of the banquetees.

Besides the Panhandle Press members there were many from Amarillo and nearby towns, and the plan is to bring in Panhandle-minded citizens in increasing numbers from year to year.

The Annual Gridiron Banquet, to our mind will serve a very worthwhile purpose in the Panhandle, and we predict for it a great future. It does us all good to develop a sense of humor, and an occasional laugh at ourselves will prove the basis of better understanding and appreciation.

May the Annual Gridiron Banquet grow in attendance and leavening influence. No greater success could be hoped for it by its founders.

A DEBT TO THE CHURCH

There are those who criticize the churches, calling them narrow, provincial and intolerant. Occasionally, upon certain matters, it has looked like the religious leaders were inclined just a little too far, and just a little too indifferent to the fact that good men might disagree with them without deserving the scorn and contumely of church members.

With all this in mind, however, few of us ever appreciate the great debt that the average community owes to the church. Aside from the religious teaching and beliefs, which might possibly prosper without the church but through some other organization, it is a fact that without the work of the church in the past years this would hardly be a decent place in which to live.

The influence of the church has been great. Through altering the attitude of men and women it has caused them to go out into the world and set up new standards. It has made possible the protection of wealth. It has made the lives of men and women safe. It has restrained mankind from all manner of evil. Without its curb, which holds back every member of society to some extent, this would be a shameless place, a blot on the face of the earth.

Those who are prone to criticize the church and to harp on its faults seldom investigate far enough to know that earnest leaders of church activity are also alert to the reforms that the churches require. If the average critic of the church would subject his or her life to the same clear eyed scrutiny that sincere church leaders give the workings of their organization the improvement that would result would be marked.—Castro County News.

LIBRARY NOTES
(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Perhaps no book by a Texas author since Dorothy Scarborough's "The Wind" has attracted so much attention as "Whatsoever" by Daniel Soot. By some it has received unqualified praise, by others unqualified condemnation.

The scene of the story is a farming community near Ft. Worth, and it is suggested that the Urschel kidnaping probably provided the plot. The story is told by Aunt Em, the good angel of the community, who blunders into the nest of the gangsters and saves the life of John Bruce, a wealthy banker. Tom Bairdly, a handsome dare-devil fellow, head of the gang, and Gussis, teacher of the school, figure prominently in the story.

The masterpieces of literature continue to be filmed. Lately Darryl Zanuck, a movie producer, arrived in New York with the films of "Les Miserables" and "Cardinal Richelieu" which represented a year's work and a value of $1,500,000.

A Texas author recently died in a contest sponsored by the Doubleday-Doran-Story Magazine. This was Edward Anderson with the story "Hungry Men." The other story was "Not For Heaven" by Dorothy McCleary.

J. B. Priestley who is known to our readers through "The Good Companions" and "Angel Pavement" has recently presented two new plays: "Deep in Moonlight" is being tried out in the provinces while "Cornelius" will be presented in London.

Christopher Morley is editing the 1936 edition of "Bartlett's Familiar Quotations." The first edition was published in 1855. We have the last edition on our shelves.

The News is grateful for the business obtained for its advertisers through wide circulation in the Clarendon trade territory.

work properly, both on an emergency and on a permanent basis. It will be expected that the farmers will cooperate in doing the work and in such other ways as they may be in a position to assist, but provisions will be made to do the task in a proper way. The CCC camps will also assist in carrying out the program.

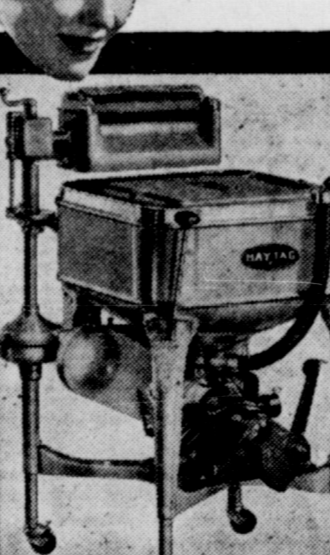

In the meantime, an allowance of ten cents per acre has been made for the purchase of oil and gas for emergency listing. In order that there may be no misunderstanding, it should be made clear that this is no part of either the emergency or the long-range soil erosion program. It is an extra allotment, and was made immediately available out of a small balance of old drouth relief funds. It was made available through the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, and was intended as a stop-gap until such time as the emergency and regular funds can be allotted.

I am writing this to make it clear that this small allowance is no part of either the emergency or the regular program, which will be handled by the Soil Erosion Service on a well-rounded basis.

Triangle Motif Is Distinctly Western

Truly Western is the adopted plan of beautifying the triangle left where the new highway bends North four block West of Kearney Street, which is a part of the general parkway project of the Lions Club, assisted by other clubs and citizens.

In the main the plot will be given to cacti, and the first consignment was transplanted yesterday under the supervision of Rev. Robt. S. McKee and Charles Lowry, who have the work in charge. Cacti and tesajillo brought from the JA pastures furnished the first transplantings, and other varieties will be gathered all the way from Carsbad, N. M., to the Canadian River country North of Amarillo, as well as down around Post.

Tourists on Highway 5 will have opportunity of seeing one of the finest collections and assortments of cacti and native shrubs to be found in the Southwest in the little triangle which will catch their interest as they pass this way, and the whole parkway project is due to give the city some very favorable publicity as a community where originality is mixed with culture and love of beauty.

Peek-A-Boo

By PEEK
As the memory work season draws to a close, a notice on the bulletin board voices a last desperate effort to get rid of extra copies of verses. Headquarters in the office.
What college boy on the picnic last Friday, because he couldn't keep up with his date, allied himself to two other dames?
Peeks before the last bell: Micky Ferrell explaining fully why she is wearing colored glasses—Marty Kelly reading the dedication behind the water fountain—Nicky Stewart reciting rhymes to write in a green autograph book—Reba Nichols primping, as usual—Eugenia phoning for an address for Dorothy Jo—seniors tucking in envelopes on graduation announcements.
LaVerne McMurtry, neither a senior nor a college student, enjoyed the picnic immensely, although she's sore over it. She was granted the privilege of the

Seniors And College Students Have Joint Picnic Friday

In spite of inclement weather, the joint picnic of the seniors and college students, Friday, May 3, was one that will long be remembered as most enjoyable. Leaving at about nine o'clock a. m., the little caravan consisting of two trucks, the Ashtola school bus, and Mr. Drennan's automobile, set out upon the forty mile journey to Dripping Springs. The sky was filled with clouds and the temperature was falling, but the picknickers were packed so tightly on the trucks and wrapped so well in heavy clothes that they did not mind the cold—very much.

After a short stop-over in Claude, during which everyone fled for the cafes for warmth and nourishment, the group reached the canyon at about eleven o'clock. Several large fires were built in the sheltered location of the springs and in the Camp Warner mess hall. After standing before the fires for five or ten minutes, and still feeling slightly chilled, everybody decided that the best way to get warm was to exercise a little, so the remainder of the morning was spent in hiking to the canyon, and climbing its steep slopes.

At noon the two groups gathered at the mess hall to enjoy almost every imaginable kind of good picnic food. After it had all been devoured, many of the picknickers continued their exploration of the beautiful rocky canyons, but a large number, in order to secure for themselves a seat in the warm closed bus, sat there until two-thirty, which was the announced time of departure. Hardly had the home-bound trip begun when it started to sleet and rain slowly. Although those who rode on the trucks may have gotten a trifle wet, their spirits were not dampened. The bus had to stop in Claude on account of a flat tire, but the trucks made the entire trip without mishap, arriving in Clarendon at about four-thirty.

Students Misname Library Books

Distributing six thousand books to two hundred and fifty high schools and college students is no joke, thinks Miss Willie Glenn Parten, the librarian, but many amusing incidents connected with book titles have occurred this year. For instance, a history student who was instructed to read "The Riddle of the Rhine" recently applied at the desk for "The Surprise of the Rhine." That favorite Economics reference, "100,000,000 Guinea Pigs" has been called for as twenty million, hundred thousand, two hundred million, and various other numbers.

A high school girl seriously asked for "The Girl with a Limb Lost" one time and another student wanted "In a Garden" and was issued "Enoch Arden." "The Legion of Sleepy Hollow" has been requested of the librarian several times, and a college student slipped up with asking for Byron's "Prisoner of Chilo." Wanting one of Scott's novels, another student asked for "A City of Two Tales."

The most confusing demand received from a young student who dreamily told Miss Parten who wanted that blue book that counted two points that he read last term.
The "Reader's Guide," an index of magazines, and the "Reader's Digest," a concise review of magazine articles published monthly and the most popular periodicals in our library, are often mistaken for each other.

One person thinks the man who spent "Two Years Behind the Mask" must have had an exciting time. A sophomore apt to lengthen his words any possible way once asked for the "Golden Bug." The keepers of the library are thankful, at least, that students do not have to write titles of books they want, because it is easier to guess at sounds than spelling.

holiday because she is president of next year's senior class. Athlyn Drennan is wearing a pair of toeless sandals that are stylishly different—they are red checked gingham.

Edna Thomas is the most recent victim of the measles, and she is taking her bad luck pretty hard, according to the last report.

Nine of the fifteen college graduates have not attended school out of Donley county, according to the inventory taken not long ago. Five of the graduates were born in Clarendon. Is this not an unusual record?

"Texas Centennial" Is Stressed At Assembly By Mrs. J. D. Stocking

The subject of the assembly program Thursday afternoon, May 2, was the Texas Centennial. After the group singing of "Beautiful Texas," the speaker of the day, Mrs. J. D. Stocking, was introduced.

Her subject was "Old Clarendon." Beginning with a few remarks about the historical background of Texas and the importance of a Centennial celebration, she soon narrowed her subject to the Pahandle of Texas, telling of the expulsion of the Indians from this region, and lastly began a detailed description of early life in old Clarendon, of the difficulties encountered by the pioneer settlers, and of the rewards they won for their efforts. Recounting numerous anecdotes as she went along, Mrs. Stocking traced the development of old Clarendon from its beginning in 1872 on the banks of the Salt Fork of the Red River until the time of its removal to the present site near the railroad, telling the students of a number of buildings now standing in Clarendon that were moved here from the old town.

The student body and faculty of the school appreciated Mrs. Stocking's speech very much, and it has caused a great increase of interest in the Centennial movement in the school. The speech has reminded the students that Clarendon has a history just as interesting as that of many of the older towns of South Texas.

ALPHA DELTA PSI

A large number of Alpha Deltas assembled Monday evening, May 6, for the last formal meeting of this school term and one of the best programs presented this year was enjoyed. Roll call was answered by each person with his plans for the summer. Nellie Grady gave an interesting talk on filling the dull spots of vacation, basing her remarks on an article in the Scholastic magazine.

After Louise Smith played a brief piano interlude, a clever skit that gave a view of the present Alpha Deltas ten years from today, was presented by Wilma Dee Smith and Wanda Mayfield. The concluding feature was a humorous debate on the subject, "Resolved, that a model-T Ford is more suitable for making love than a buggy." Robert Nichols and Sam Barrow took the main issues of the argument, and the decision was awarded in favor of the buggy.

For the summer, Mary Francis Powell was unanimously elected president, and George Wayne Estlack was chosen for secretary. Plans for a picnic next Monday afternoon were discussed, and the group is eagerly looking forward to this last gathering of Alpha Deltas.

Softball Fans Here May See Fine Sport

Softball fans in Clarendon are due to see some exciting competition on the short diamond again this summer according to plans now in the making. For the past several years softball has brought exercise and recreation to scores of players and fans in this city, and there is lots of enthusiasm here for making the summer months of 1935 the best season yet for player and fans, alike.

The Lions Club has appointed a committee headed by J. M. Hill of the Chamber of Commerce to take steps at once to put a team in the field and to do other preliminary work for launching a softball league immediately on the closing of school. Ralph Andis, former president of the softball league, is cooperating with Mr. Hill and as soon as convenient a meeting will be called of representatives of the various churches and groups desiring to enter a team in the competition, for the formation of the organization to arrange schedules, set the rules, and conduct of the season in general.

Recreational leaders in the various churches and other groups interested should begin now to build up their team and management, so that when the general meeting is called all will have representation present to give Clarendon the best softball sport she ever enjoyed during the coming hot months.

SONG SLIPS

She promised to be his "Old Faithful," but "She Done Him Wrong," and said "It Ain't No Sin."
The Four Musketeers seem to still have "The Memphis Blues," and think that "St. Louis Woman" is the cause of their trouble. However, "Love is Just Around the Corner" and who knows, perhaps they will find it on "The Isle of Capris."

It is rumored that a certain prominent young couple will soon be singing "Mr. and Mrs. Is the Name."

Say, "Sweetie Pie," "What's the Reason I'm Not Pleasing You?" I've already said "Fare-Thee-Well, Annabel" because "The Object of My Affections" is you. So "Stay As Sweet As You Are" and you'll be "Okay Toots."

It's naturally "One Night of Love" when there's a "Blue Moon" and the trees are "Whispering."

"I Hate Myself for Being So Mean to You," "Sophisticated Lady," but "You Are Lovely to Look At."

"When My Ship Comes In," we'll have a carload of Song Slips by we-uns for you.

Very Personal

Heavens! First the Class Night and then Senior Day it over. Next will be Baccalaureate day which means that the girls will all need another new dress. Eloise Hill went to Amarillo Monday in order to get herself one, and on arriving home took the measles. I had always thought that was a baby's disease, but at that it may be all right for her to have that disease. She and Rose Ada Reid, two of the smartest girls in the senior room, are both just fifteen. That, my friends, is a very tender age at which to receive a diploma.

In spite of the rain and cold weather, all of the seniors report that they had a grand time last Friday, and it is unanimously agreed that the food, though plentiful, was delicious. It was for this very purpose that Helen Louise Green, La Verne McMurtry, Sarah Virginia McGowen, Peggy Taylor, and Avis Lee McElvany labored late Thursday night and early Friday morning making sandwiches enough to feed thirty-five hungry seniors.

Did you know that a player for almost any instrument can be found in the senior class? The instruments played rank from the harmonica and mandolin to the piano and trombone.

JUNIORS AND SOPHOMORES ARE PLANNING A PICNIC

The Junior and Sophomore classes are both planning spring picnics for the afternoon of Friday, May 10.

The juniors are planning to spend the afternoon in Troublesome Canyon where they will be conveyed by truck.

The sophomores had a class meeting last Monday to make plans and appoint committees for their picnic. After much discussion it was decided that Word's Ranch was the most favorable location for the outing.

O. C. Watson spent Thursday in Pampa.

Mrs. W. H. Price and little daughter, Shirley, of Marion, Illinois, arrived in Clarendon Thursday for a visit of two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Patman.

MRS. EDNA BOAZ DIES IN WHITESBORO HOME

Cecil Boaz and has since resided in Whitesboro.

CHURCH CHATS

"WHY MOTHERS"

There is a proverb which says, "God could not be everywhere; so he made mothers." This is not good theology, but it does convey a noble interpretation of the function of motherhood. The divine care for human lives has no better symbol than the unremitting attention which a true mother gives her children. There is profound pathos in the lives of those little ones whose parents delegate their most sacred duties to hirelings.

Nurses and governesses can never be satisfactory substitutes for mothers. There is no substitute for a mother's love and care. It is impossible for others to render the personal touches, to kiss away the tears, to give the needed advice and train up children as God would have them trained. One of the greatest responsibilities resting upon the shoulders and hearts of the American people, is the task leading our children to honor God, to keep his commandments and walk in His ways. True parents are God's living representatives here on earth. They, by their kindness, affection, love, and service, teach many wonderful lessons about God and His eternal watchfulness and interest concerning humanity.

A woman who is a mother only in the sense that she has given birth to children is a libel on the holiest office conferred on her

Maytag Official On United States Tour

Fred Maytag II, grandson of the founder of the 42 year old Maytag Company, washing machine manufacturers at Newton, Iowa, is visiting Maytag dealers, managers and salesmen in Texas in an extended tour of Texas and the United States. He will be in Texas throughout the remainder of the month of May and possibly part of June.

"The name 'Maytag' associated with washing machines is really the name of the family manufacturing the product and not a trade name, believed by many to be intended as a symbol to denote 'May-Day' or a new freedom from wash day drudgery," explained Mr. Holland, District manager of the Maytag organization.

Fred Maytag II, is following the footsteps of his father, Mr. E. H. Maytag, who is president of The Maytag Company, and that of his grandfather, Mr. F. Maytag.

The shrinking from motherhood, which characterizes so many women of our time is not only a mark of selfishness; it is also an evidence of an inferior judgment about the way to be happy. They also forget the first commandment ever given to the human family in the Garden of Eden. God said, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it." (Gen. 1:28). No one can ever find happiness by neglecting or disobeying God's laws and commandments. There is no substitute for obedience. Felicity belongs only to those women who frankly accept the natural terms of wifehood, and by bearing and nourishing children according to God's plan and arrangements. Mothers are God's greatest helpers.

W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Texas.

L. Maytag, who at the age of 77 is still active in the concern and has often visited the Texas Maytag organization also.

After graduating from Culver Military Academy and Wisconsin University, Fred Maytag II at the age of 23 made an extended tour around the world, which included a month of big game hunting in the jungles of Ceylon and also a tour into the interior of China, where he was lost to outside communication for several weeks.

Upon returning to the United States he joined the Maytag Company and is fast becoming acquainted with the immense Maytag organization by visiting its dealers in the various states. Between visits he has produced and edited a film depicting the making of the Maytag Aluminum Washer, which was shown to the Maytag organization in this vicinity at a group meeting held at Childress on May 7th.

At The First Baptist Church

There is always Worship—Fellowship—Service

Next Sunday will be Mother's Day in Clarendon, Donley county, Texas, and around the world. "One never knows

How far a word of kindness goes;

One never sees

How far a smile of friendship flees.

Down through the years

The deed forgotten reappears."

The idea of Mother's Day originated with Miss Ann Jarvis, of Philadelphia. Her mother died on May 9th, 1906. On that anniversary 1907 she had her friends with her and expressed the wish that a day might be set aside to the memory of all mothers. Before the next anniversary of her mother's death, many people and organizations became interested in the cause, and the second Sunday in May was designated as Mother's Day. President Wilson issued the first proclamation calling upon the American people to observe the second Sunday in May as a day to make the mothers of the land happy, and to commemorate the memories made sacred by those mothers who have departed to the better world. We are happy that Clarendon is joining in this national holiday, dedicated to the best mother in all the world, your mother.

It may be that what you say or do Sunday will not set in motion a great national movement, but it will make glad a heart that hungers for love and mean as much to your mother as if you had given her the whole world. If she is living do not forget her, if she is not reverence her memory by doing something nice for some other mother.

E. D. Landreth, Pastor Sunday night at 8 o'clock the pastor will bring a message of special interest to the young people on the topic, "What May Christian Young People Do?" This subject was announced several weeks ago but was deferred because of inclement weather, but in spite of weather or anything else, the pastor will discuss this topic Sunday night.

Sunday morning, let us all, of every church and of no church, join with the American Legion in the mammoth assembly and parade and go to Sunday School and church somewhere in honor of our mothers and her God. The Methodists expect to be in the parade and we invite all who will to attend our services on that day.

The sermon Sunday morning, 10:50 o'clock, will be brought by Doctor T. S. Barcus, Presiding Elder. The choir will render appropriate music. We expect a great day.

Do You Remember Way Back When? FROM OUR EARLY FILES

From the Files of May 8, 1919 Along with a headline on page one announcing that allied peace terms had been handed the Germans and were pronounced justly severe; there was a story telling of a visit to the city of a "Baby Tank." The tank was brought to Clarendon to stimulate interest in the Liberty Loan drive for the county quota of $171,300. Under the direction of Engineer Caraway and the paving foreman the work necessary in preparation for the street paving has been begun. Wednesday the work of removing the trees from

Kearney street was undertaken by a crew of men and one of the distinguishing landmarks of our city is now almost a thing of the past as The News goes to press. On last Wednesday the representatives from the Clarendon High School left for Austin to attend the Interscholastic League Meet on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of May. Our representatives were Leon Lewis and Oswald Coleman in debate and Thelma Parsons in junior girls declamation. Miss Myrta Houk, Oma Griggs and Supt. Stocking accompanied the contestants. Cooling of Cream In Farm Homes

By Byron A. Bassel
State Department of Agriculture
J. E. McDonald, Commissioner

The cooling of cream immediately after separation is one of the most important steps that the dairy farmer can take in getting a high quality product on the market. No matter how scrupulously clean a producer might be in handling milk and cream there are invariably sufficient microorganisms present to cause souring and odors, if they are allowed to grow. Everyone knows that bacteria or germs grow better at high temperatures up to a certain point than they do at lower. The best temperature for their growth is around 100 degrees Fahrenheit, or body temperature, and the closer they approach this degree of warmth the faster they multiply, and the more harm they do. However, around 50 degrees Fahrenheit, which is fairly cool, they grow very slowly and consequently cannot do as much damage towards decomposing the cream. Because of the fact that these germs grow so much more rapidly at higher temperatures than they do at lower, it is important and necessary that the cream be cooled down as low as possible as soon as it is separated, and held at that temperature until the time it is delivered.

Whenever ice is available and the volume is sufficient to warrant the use of same, we quite naturally recommend this procedure; however, in the case of most cream producers the volume is so small that this expense would not be justified, and, for that reason, we recommend the use of a small cooling tank made from an ordinary barrel and set in between the pump, or windmill, and the stock watering tank. With this arrangement a continuous flow of water through the tank is gained, but inasmuch as the outlet pipe flows into the stock tank there is no loss of water. There should be two cans contained in the tank; one, a storage can for holding the cream after it is cooled, and the other for cooling the fresh cream. Warm cream should never be mixed with cool cream because when this is done, the entire lot of cream is warmed up and the bacteria multiply faster causing decomposition of the cream in one way or another. The fresh cream should first be cooled down, then mixed with the already cooled cream, and the entire lot vigorously stirred. Details on the construction and set up of this inexpensive and practical cooling tank can be obtained by writing the State Department of Agriculture in Austin.

Where the above described tank is not practical, we recommend the use of the wet sack around the cream can. Every one is familiar with this method of cooling and by this means it is possible to obtain a difference of 10 or 15 degrees in temperature, in many cases that a good product, instead of a bad one, will reach the market.

Cream, no matter how it is cooled, should be stirred thoroughly at least four times a day, and also each time a batch is added to your holding can. Frequent stirring of the cream during storage prevents the formation of lumps or of a leathery surface on the cream, which makes accurate sampling and therefore accurate tests difficult to obtain. Frequent and vigorous stirring also means that the cooling process will be hastened considerably.

will appear in this paper in the near future and will deal with the production of high quality milk and cream.

Vega—More than 3,000 acres of land in Oldham county were terraced during the past winter in an effort to prevent wind erosion, according to J. F. Ford, county agricultural agent. Other methods of control consisted of listing, drilling and plowing. Continued crop destruction by wind erosion constitutes one of the major problems of agricultural interests in this section of Texas. In many instances this year's wheat crops which are underlaid by sufficient moisture to carry.

Lion Eskridge gave a brief resume of the recent band contests at Lubbock, and pointed out the benefits of band work in the school, declaring that no Texas city has the latent talent and opportunity to make such notable progress in public school music to exceed Clarendon. He urged the putting into the city school system this dominant work so necessary to the proper teaching of the "Three C's"—Culture, Citizenship and Character, which has become more important than the former "three R's" in education. Visitors for the day included W. D. Van London, divisional highway engineer, of Amarillo, and John Gaston, landscape engineer for the department. Mr. Van London took occasion to praise the work of the Clarendon Lions in sponsoring the beautifying of the parkway entrance to the city from the West on Highway 5, declaring that Clarendon was due to receive much good in advertising from this impressive entrance to the town. Mr. Gaston also thanked the club and local citizenship generally for cooperation in the landscape plans for the parkway and wayside parks on Highway 5 throughout the county.
