AGREEMENTS REACHED IN ONE CIVIL AND ONE DIVORCE SUITS; DISMISSED.

The week in district court has been very light according to Judge A. J. Fires, but a busy week was expected next week when the criminal docket will be heard. Eleven indictments were returned by the grand jury now in session. Other indictments are expected to be returned pending investigations now in progress by the grand jury.

Of the criminal indictments returned two defendants plead guilty Tuesday before Judge Fires, waiving jury trial. Judge Fires assessed his punishment at two years in the penitentiary. Harry Thomas plead guilty to chicken theft, from the premises of W. M. Spitzer, March 16, and was given a one year suspended sentence.

It was announced Wednesday that an agreement has been reached in one civil suit and one divorce suit during the week, and settlements made out of court, necessitating their dismissal from the docket.

Court reporting duties this week have been performed by Ross M. Lambdin of Amarillo who is serving for T. R. Easterling. Easterling suffered injuries in an automobile accident at Lubbock last week and is expected to be absent during most of this term of court.

CLARENDON WINS LIONS ZONE MEET

LIONS CLUBS OF GROUP 3 WILL MEET HERE IN JULY SESSION.

Clarendon Lions attended a zone meeting of the organization in McLean Tuesday evening, and secured the next quarterly meeting of the organization for this city, which will be held at some date in July. The delegation was headed by President J. T. Patman of the local club.

As one number on the entertainment program which followed the banquet and business session, Clarendon presented Lion W. E. Ferrell, who gave a most interesting and mystifying magician's program.

President Patman made the report for the local club, and Lion Caraway nominated Clarendon for the next meeting.

The meeting was held in the basement of the Baptist Church at McLean with President C. O. Greene of the McLean club presiding over the business session in the absence of Lion Patrick, group chairman, who was kept at home by illness.

International Director Fred O. Grimes of Hillsboro represented the International office and delivered the address of the evening, stressing the model plan of club organization and management.

Those attending from Clarendon were President Patman, Odos Caraway, Fred Rathjen, Tom F. Connally, W. E. Ferrell, Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Braswell, Mrs. Caraway and Miss Julia Mae accompanied Mr. Caraway but visited with a daughter and sister, Mrs. Heironimus, North of McLean during the evening.

THE 'MODEL LION' DIRECTOR'S THEME

APRIL FOOL PRANKS LIVENS LUNCHEON HOUR OF THE CLARENDON LIONS TUE.

The Clarendon Lions Club had an unusual honor Tuesday when International Director Fred O. Grimes of Hillsboro, Texas, was the speaker of the occasion. Director Grimes is a past district governor of District "X", Texas, and has long been identified with the activities and leadership of Lionism in the Southwest. He made quite a reputation in 1931, when he directed the Texas Special Train to the International convention at Toronto, and staged a "Texas Night" program that has long been the standard of measurement for such programs.

The program committee used a regular report of the Crippled Children's committee made by Lion Mulkey as the basis for an April Fool prank, this being the first meeting in April, when Lion Connolly proposed that since there was need of further funds for this worthy activity, that the Lions, then and there, contribute one dollar each to the cause. Instant objection was made, Lion Watson pointing out that it was against the rules of the club to make any appeal for funds on the floor of the club, and that no matter how worthy the cause that call was out of order, and he gave expression to a vigorous opposition. Lion Rathjen and Cole quickly and vehemently opposed the proposition and the tension only eased when Lion Connolly arose and said the committee greatly enjoyed the arguments—that the whole proposition was only an "April Fool."

International Director Grimes was introduced and after giving the "low down" on various and sundry delegates from the local club to certain state and International conventions and a jocular way, the Director gave a serious and thoughtful discussion on "The Model Lion" and his duties and obligations to his home community. The discussion followed in a practical way the code of ethics of Lionism and was very impressive. The speaker also voiced his appreciation of the Clarendon Lions Club and its splendid record of activities.

Group Chairman Patrick announced the zone meeting at McLean at seven o'clock in the evening and urged the liberal attendance of the local membership.

Lion Caraway announced as to progress on the tree project for the beautification of the entrance into Clarendon of Highway No. 5, and asked the co-operation of the members in seeing that those interested had a part in the contribution of funds now being solicited for that purpose.

C. S. Eskridge, new band leader, was proposed and elected to membership into the club on recommendation of the membership committee.

Mrs. Grimes, wife of Director Grimes, Mrs. Braswell, Clarendon, and Mr. Kennedy of Amarillo were introduced as guests.

On roll call for the day the Lions were required to answer to their favorite pie. The conservatives with "apple" as their choice seemed to have a bit edge of the voting, although mince, and pumpkin had large choice.

Lion Patrick introduced a resolution endorsing the action of Governor Allred in his recent use of Texas Rangers in stamping out open liquor and gambling where local officers were not enforcing the laws, pledging the governor the support of good citizens in his move for ridding Texas of crime. This was unanimously adopted.

HIGHWAY PLAN TO BE PUSHED

BEAUTIFICATION OF NO. 5 AT WEST ENTRANCE TO CITY IS ON.

Over a year ago the Clarendon Lions Club, in connection with the City of Clarendon, sponsored the landscaping and beautification of the right-of-way on Highway 5 entering the city from the West. The city had bought fifty feet additional to the hundred feet right-of-way required, and the plan was worked out in connection with the state highway department, whose landscaping engineer, John Gaston, drew the plans.

During the past week a committee has been active in soliciting contributions from the citizenship to buy trees and shrubs for the project, the Lions Club having offered to match dollar for dollar whatever sum raised. The relief office and the city force are both co-operating in the work, and with the purchase and receipt of trees and shrubs the remaining selection will be planted in the coming week. Last year the Lions made a start by setting out the first two hundred trees, of the thousand contemplated under the plan.

When the title to the small triangle left on the right-of-way at the old Adair town house, is received the club in conjunction with Les Beaux Arts Club, will install a representative native cacti garden with background of native shrubs, which should be among the most attractive points of the beautification plan.

The major activities committee of the Lions Club composed of Mess. Odos Caraway, A. L. Chase and Sam M. Braswell, is in charge of the details of the project which they hope to complete except for minor items this year.

ELECTION OF COUNTY AND LOCAL TRUSTEES SATURDAY

Election for county trustee at large and a county board member from Precincts 2 and 3 will be held next Saturday, April 6th.

H. T. Burton and O. L. Jacobs are certified as candidates for Precinct 2; Claude Nash and W. P. Howard are certified as candidates from Precinct 3; and W. A. Poovey is certified as candidate for county trustee at large to be voted on by the common school districts.

Besides the election for the county board, there will be an election held in every common school and independent district for local trustees.

CITY BOOKS WILL BE AUDITED MONDAY 8th

According to City Commissioner, Tom Connally, Dempsey A. Wynne & Co., certified accountants of Amarillo, will be in Clarendon Monday morning to audit the city books.

Dempsey A. Wynne has audited the city books for the past nine years, according to Mrs. Mae Shaver, city secretary.

Membership into the club on recommendation of the membership committee.

Mrs. Grimes, wife of Director Grimes, Mrs. Braswell, Clarendon, and Mr. Kennedy of Amarillo were introduced as guests.

On roll call for the day the Lions were required to answer to their favorite pie. The conservatives with "apple" as their choice seemed to have a bit edge of the voting, although mince, and pumpkin had large choice.

Lion Patrick introduced a resolution endorsing the action of Governor Allred in his recent use of Texas Rangers in stamping out open liquor and gambling where local officers were not enforcing the laws, pledging the governor the support of good citizens in his move for ridding Texas of crime. This was unanimously adopted.

HARBORING CRIMINALS TOO PREVALENT

The ordinary citizen speaks out boldly about a person who harbors criminals, or aids and abets their lawless acts, yet there is a sense in which many otherwise honorable and upright people are just as guilty as these they condemn.

We refer to the folks who condemn the Governor and Adjutant General of Texas in their recent effective use of Texas Rangers in stamping out open liquor selling and defiant gambling dens over the state in places where the local officers are supine or helpless in the face of lawless elements powerfully entrenched.

Newspapers and citizens who throw stumbling blocks in the way of law and order by loud criticisms of the Governor, and tirades against the destruction of gambling and liquor paraphernalia, are guilty of harboring criminals and extending their lawless hold on our state which is already burdened by the high cost of criminality, not to mention the greater drain upon the public morals.

Cry down the person who stands against the interests of Texas citizenship by thus aligning themselves with the criminal element greatly multiplied under legalized gambling at the race track, and sections of the state where no effort is being made to curb liquor.

Back the Governor and do it frankly and openly.

WE NEED THE FAIR AND STOCK SHOW

Donley County's need for a county fair and a stock show has been growing more apparent with the recent activity in 4-H projects among the lads with their pig clubs and their calf clubs.

The county agent and the teacher of agriculture in the local schools have joined forces in creating and promoting interest in these fine branches of animal husbandry among the youths of our rural and semi-rural districts and the fair and the stock show are but logical results of county effort.

For years we have needed a county fair for the work of the women's home demonstration groups, but the urge and leadership have been at a low ebb for the past four or five years. As the general situation seems to brighten it is to be hoped that this lack of facilities for exhibition and competition will be remedied.

Give a thought to the practical plans for launching a county fair and the stock show for our producers and growers, young and old.

FEEDING PREJUDICES

Most of us who consider ourselves broadminded are anything but that. Otherwise, how can we account for the fact that we are seldom interested in reading "the other side" of any question.

We read almost exclusive such books, periodicals and newspapers as we know in advance will generally coincide with our own views. Few Republicans subscribe for a red-hot Democratic newspaper, or vice versa. People take church papers only of their own denomination. Capitalists take few labor papers, and laboring men would hardly look at one that reflects the capitalistic viewpoint.

In other words, we all have more or less confirmed opinions on nearly all important subjects and do not admit that there may be some virtue in the opposite view.

As a recent writer has said, "The only facts we can tolerate are those we already know." We read, not really to learn anything new, but for the purpose of confirming ourselves in our present beliefs and prejudices.—Register-Herald, Pine Plains, New York.

Want your home town to go ahead? Then take hold and do a little pulling ahead yourself. Want your home town business to keep your home people well employed? Then give that business your full support by buying your supplies at home. Want your business to grow—Then better demonstrate to the public, through advertising, that its good service deserves such growth.

REWINDING THE WEST

Agricultural experts are probably overstating the damage done by sandstorms when they assert that large areas have been made useless for crop-growing or grazing purposes for a century or more. Possibly the Washington farm specialists are not familiar with the changeable West, which may wear the aspect of desolation one day and that of paradise the next. Yet there is no doubt that the present drought and windstorms have brought conclusive proof that man, in his exploitation of soil resources of the easily tilled Western prairies, has gone too far in removing the covering which nature provided. Something must be done to correct the mistake.

The tearing up of the grass cover of the expansive, semi-arid plains was an easy process but the kind that is likely to develop problems. Nature has a way of striking back. Farmers who settled in the West were mostly from timbered or semitimbered regions. They could not be expected to foresee the unfortunate results of their industry. One wonders also whether the agricultural experts are not making another mistake by trying to plant forests on the plains. Are they not like the farmers, thinking in terms of practices applicable to the timbered regions? Nature provided a grass covering, not timber, for the West.

If, instead of spending a vast amount for an experiment in tree-growing on the plains, the Government would put the expenditure into a rehabilitation program that included replacing of grass covering, and would work out a program of crop rotation for cultivated land calculated to protect soil, much earlier results could be expected than can be anticipated from tree-growing.

This will be against the dictates of nature and subject to the possible handicaps of shifting plans, as administrations at Washington change. The West can be revon and now is the time to start, but the best method will be one that gives due consideration to nature's original process.—Dallas News.

SAFETY AWAY FROM HOME

The family of a prominent motor car and airplane manufacturer, has been sent to England to save its members from the threats of kidnapers. The attention of the lowest denizens of the underworld had been shown in a number of averted attempts in recent months and it is said to have been on the advice of police that the manufacturer sent his family out of the country for protection.

There is a lot to think about in that situation. It contains a compliment for England, where people of all degrees are safe, but nothing pleasing to Americans in its intimation that persons of any means are increasingly unsafe in the United States.

The worst phase of the American crime problem is dramatized in this flight of a family from home to seek safety among strangers.—Journal-World, Lawrence, Kansas.

After talking all day to anyone who will listen to them, many people complain there is no free speech any longer.

Conoco Uses Newspaper Ads As Posters On Trucks During Campaign

One of the most unusual and dramatic ways ever conceived to exploit the use of newspaper advertising has been adopted by the Continental Oil Company. A novel contest has been inaugurated whereby during the coming Spring months cars and trucks will be seen on the streets and highways of some forty states plastered in hodge-podge compelling fashion with reprints of Continental's newspaper advertisements.

In addition to the circulation of ten million that Continental Oil Company gets for its advertising by using 1,363 daily and weekly newspapers, Continental's advertisements through this unique stunt will do double duty this Spring.

The unique appearance of Continental cars and trucks not only serves to call attention to the Conoco campaign now running in newspapers, but also reminds Conoco salesmen of the tremendous number of car owners who read about Conoco products throughout the year in their newspapers.

It is estimated that more than 3,000 cars and trucks will participate in the stunt. Aside from these company-owned and operated vehicles, it is expected that a good percentage of the 22,000 Conoco dealers will likewise participate.

Continental is one of the country's largest users of newspaper advertising and gives this medium a large share of the credit in achieving an increase of 60.4 percent in sales of Conoco germ processed motor oil since April, 1934.

Continental this year is celebrating its sixtieth anniversary. It began operations in Ogden, Utah, in 1875. From small distributor of Kerosene and lubricants long before the advent of the motor car it has grown into one of the nation's leading oil companies.

Primary Room

Tuesday, Mason Cole was wearing a red ribbon that he won on his declamation. He entered the sub-junior division. We're glad you did, Mason. Ara Paulk, sub-junior declaimer and U. G. Swinney, tiny-tot story teller, didn't get a ribbon, but we're mighty proud of them anyway. They spoke well, and we hope that they have better luck next time.

Last Thursday we went to see the train wreck in Lelia Lake.

On Monday, April Fool Day, we went to Clarendon to the track meet, then to Chamberlain in the afternoon. We had a nice time playing with them. Tuesday, though, we wished that Mrs. Batson hadn't played in the fat and lean ball game. Even if she was sore, we're glad she was on the winning side.

DR. C. G. STRICKLIN RETURNS FROM FISHING TRIP

Dr. Guy Stricklin returned Wednesday night from a two weeks fishing trip at Port Isabel, Aransas Pass and Corpus Christi. According to a Port Isabel paper who referred to the Panhandle, as a visitor from the Panhandle, seven large drum, each of which weigh from 40 to 60 pounds, were caught by the doctor in the Port Isabel channel.

The doctor reports having caught at least thirty of these large fish and also stingray, weighing from 150 to 175 pounds. Dr. Stricklin shipped a box of speckled trout, each weighing from two to six pounds, back to Clarendon.

The local fisherman reports having made a good catch of sheephead and red fish, together with one shark, weighing 100 pounds.

Before landscaping their home, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wright of Brooks county enclosed it with small limbs pruned from athol trees cut 12 inches long. These stakes were driven into the ground making an inexpensive but perfectly satisfactory enclosure for the under part of the house and a background for foundation planting around the house.

Mr. Alexander states he will hold an auction sale at his place of business West of the Antro Hotel every Saturday afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock, and if the weather is bad it will be held the first pretty day following.

He is using The Clarendon News to tell the people of his wonderful bargains and extends an invitation for everyone to see his stock.

A BANK'S STRENGTH

Banking strength is the combination of, a sound ratio of assets to liabilities, capital sensibly invested and a conservative policy of skilled management.

True banking strength is none of these things alone, yet all of them.

No single attribute alone makes for financial impregnability. That results, rather, from a fusing of them into the structure, direction and operation of a given bank.

CLARENDON'S MAYOR IS "OLD TIMER" WHO KNOWS

Johnny Martin, better known as "Uncle Johnny" was re-elected Tuesday to the office of Mayor of Clarendon. Mayor Martin had no opponent and received not a single vote of opposition.

Mayor Martin embarked on his second term as mayor of this city by remarking: "We, the city dads, Brumley and Connally and myself, are not going to undertake to please everyone. We are going to do what is right regardless of opposition."

Here, Uncle Johnny was interrupted to be told that what he was saying might not look so well in print. "You know," the party continued, "the reader can't see that smile that's on your face."

"We have not," the mayor continued, "made any definite plans for the year's program. We expect, however, to continue our work of flood control, alley work, street work, and continue our work on the present gas proposition. In short, we expect to continue in practically the same manner as we have filled our offices in the past year."

In reply to the question of how long he had been in the Panhandle, Mayor Martin said, "Since 1887, and if time could make a man know what a town needs, I guess I should qualify."

"I'm not much to talk to reporters," concluded Mayor Martin with the pleasing grin that won him the name of 'Uncle' throughout the city, and as he re-lighted his cigar and sauntered out of the City Hall.

Mrs. Guy Pierce, who was operated on Saturday at the Adair Hospital for appendicitis, is reported improving rapidly.

Mrs. S. W. Lowe returned Sunday from Dallas where she has been at the bedside of her father for one month. Mr. Aiken is reported somewhat better.

Senior Personalities

Billy Johnson is an energetic blond senior who likes to read and is a generally good student. He had a part in the annual senior play given in March. Bill is quite a popular young man with girls in school, and his current worry is Peggy Taylor.

Wilson Kutch played tackle on the Broncho football squad last Fall. Outside of school activities he is interested in Boy Scouting and the municipal band in which he plays the bass horn. In the senior play Wilson played perfectly the part of lazy detective from headquarters.

Georgia Lutz is a blonde of medium size who has many friends in the senior class of which she is a member. Georgia is a brilliant student and always has her name on the honor roll. She is dependable and efficient, possesses a splendid character and an enviable reputation—on more can be said of any person.

Avis Lee McElvany is known as the most original person in the senior class. She is characterized by her red hair and outstanding personality, and her ability to have corking good times in Physics and Home Ec classes. She was on the first team in the spelling contest and writes the column "Very Personal" for the school page.

Velma Morgan is an attractive, plump senior girl who has light, naturally hair and big blue eyes. Her best real seems to be Cleo Eanes, with whom she is seen almost continually. Velma has a pleasant personality and many friends. Her favorite sport is volleyball.

Lowell LaFon is a tall graceful, bashful boy who is not bad looking, according to the feminine student body. He has dark, curly hair and is an ardent tennis fan. He appeared in the senior play recently, and his favorite study is mastering the typewriter.

Sarah Virginia McGowen is a personable senior girl who likes athletics and amusements. She is a tennis fan and enjoys dances and parties. Sarah had a part in the senior play and performed nicely. She has lots of friends in all classes because of her friendliness. She intends to go to college next year.

Dora Lucille Piercey had attended school here for years, although her home is on the JA Ranch, where she likes to spend week-ends. She likes Home Ec, has many friends, and is noted for entertaining them in her town home and at the ranch. Dora Lucille is one of the most attractive girls in the class—so sophisticated, well dressed and friendly.

Socrates of Sports

A rare type of sportmanship was exhibited at the tennis matches during the recent county meet. Certain college men displayed their loyalty to the Clarendon schools by generously booing our girls' doubles team throughout their final match. Without any doubt the Clarendon girls were playing a far superior brand of tennis than their opponents until said gentlemen became so chivalrous as to give the Bronx Cheer to the home town team. Not that these boys should change their affiliation to the school that they are attending or not because our girls lost, but to think that strong, able bodied men would boo a defenseless girl. Socrates noticed that all the ragging was limited entirely to the girls' court. Too, a donkey can bray.

Clarendon easily defeated Hedley in the track and field meet, despite Soc's gloomy predictions. Hedley had only one man to show and that was Mr. Jones. The S. S. picks out this boy to win both the District and Regional in his events. He is a fine runner. Other highlights and statelites of the meet were: The display of remarkable speed and endurance of Noble—of Lelia Lake winning the three dashes in the rural division. The 12-yard running high jump won in about twenty seconds in the rural division. Turnbow's failure to capture five or nine first places. Butler and Lane winning the half and mile runs respectively. Holtzclaw's 440, closely followed by Baxter. Greene's winning the throw of the shot was thirty-six feet and

Local Schools Win Honors During Interscholastic Meet

In spite of the dust storm Saturday, the County Interscholastic League Meet was well attended and aroused an unusually great amount of interest. The events that were scheduled for Saturday had to be postponed until Monday, which turned out to be an ideal day for the track meet. It is unnecessary to give a complete list of all the winners in the Meet in this portion of the paper, but we will give those winners who attended the local schools.

The Junior High School had three first place winners in Decamation. Homer Tucker won in the Senior group, while Ethyl Drennan and Junior Swift won in the Junior divisions. Among the Senior High contestants, Rosalyn Bass and R. W. Bingham won second place in their respective groups.

The high school contestants in Spelling, Avis Lee McElvany and Maxine Oiler both had perfect papers entitling them not only to participate in the District Meet, but also to receive Certificates of Award from the State.

Beatrice Garmon won first place in Essay Writing. It will be remembered that she won first in this event at the District Meet in Pampa last year.

The three typing contestants whom Mr. Kerby entered won the first three places in the contest. They were Eloise Hill, Viola Barker and Johnny Lott.

Wilfred Hotz received first award in Extemporaneous Speaking.

The results of the tennis matches and track and field events will be found in the column, "Socrates of Sports." The officials have not yet figured out the averages to decide which school had the highest grade in the Meet. The winners in the County Meet will be entered in the District Meet at Pampa next Friday and Saturday.

A few inches. The Clarendon relay team gaining a full lap on the last place team. The closeness of the junior 100-yard dash which was won by Beaty Hillman. The defeat of the high school volleyball team by Junior High School.

Students Subjects of Law Experiment

The student body of the college was called into assembly the third period last Wednesday for some vague, unknown purpose. After the group had gathered, Mr. Drennan announced that the students were to take some sort of a test, the exact type of which still being somewhat vague. Then it happened without warning. Mr. Allison, wearing a most vicious facial expression, Mr. Kerby with about three students rushed through the auditorium. Shots were fired; a few murderous words were uttered, and the perfectly tame students and teachers who had so suddenly turned criminal disappeared behind the stage before the startled and frightened, (though few of them would admit it) students had the slightest idea of what had happened.

After the fireworks were over, Mr. Kerby announced that each student was to write his own individual opinion of what had happened. Tell how many took part in the so-called murder, describe them, give their names, tell how many guns there were, how many shots were fired, by whom, etc., etc. By the time he had finished this announcement, everyone had collected enough of his few remaining wits to realize that the whole thing was an age-old experiment for Mr. Kerby's Law class, to determine how much witnesses can see and remember when taken by surprise. The data from this experiment has not been entirely compiled at this time, but Mr. Kerby reports that some of the papers he has already graded show a very fertile imagination on the part of some of the students. The results of this somewhat hair-raising experiment will probably be printed in next week's Broncho Range.

Mysterious Mike Moseys Around

The college students say May the third will be College Day. At least that is the day picked for the picnic.—The Alpha Deltas say that Troublesome is the coolest spot on earth after ten bells. They should know for it seems that their first spring picnic was a "howling success."—The track meet proved one thing very clearly and that is that Jones is a small chunk of lightning with

May Third Is Set As College Day

Mr. Burton, a man with experience of over a quarter of a century with reference to picnics, presided over the meeting of college students Tuesday morning in the senior room. President Bill Walker broached the subject of annual College Day, and appointed two committees to take care of food for the picnic, appropriation of expenses, and transportation.

A controversy over what place to have the picnic arose and after much discussion a vote was taken. Dripping Springs was the choice of a majority, and May third was selected as the most convenient date.

College Day is the event looked forward to each year by the college group. The school board and officials have granted this day, the date to be chosen by the students, as a holiday once each year. Formerly these occasions have been very enjoyable, with most of the students participating in a congenial picnic and outing at some attractive picnic ground.

Last year the girls and boys piled on a truck in spite of rain and journeyed to Bell's Ranch where a full day of canoeing, kodaking, exploring, swimming and playing was enjoyed. This year Mr. Drennan urges that every person enter into this holiday with the proper spirit and go to Dripping Springs for a day of relaxation and fun.

track shoes on. He would run the famous Fred Reid a good race we believe.—The way Word took the hurdles was a pleasure to see. With some more coaching he should go somewhere.—The track at Puddle City drew the interest of the Clarendon students so much that some of the classes were short. The Sociology class was nearly one hundred percent present.—"Can You Guess" has vanity and is a Senior, for that crack that it would be repetition of "Senior Personalities" to write the column of "Can You Guess" provokes it. There are four more classes other than the Seniors to pick material from so why repeat any of the characterizations? Never-the-less the "Senior Personalities" are good.

—Wee Willie says that "Poseys" gave him the hay fever in the worst way. There are numerous reasons for the trouble, too, it seems, and that is "Goodnight."—The bus driver and "H" seem to be very tickled over some scrape they have experienced lately. From the very strange phrases uttered and the gestures made by them the event must have been very amusing indeed.

—Not so long ago some crack was made in this column about someone being put on the spot (X) in the fair city of Goodnight by a couple of dames. The fair ones referred to as "dames" nearly put ye writer on the aforementioned spot. Ye scribe offers his apologies with his fingers crossed.—April Fool is past and Spring is here, for John McCauley was seen writing an "Ode to Spring."

Miss Marie Thornton visited with friends over the week-end in Throckmorton, Texas.

Students Are April Fooled

All high school and college students succeeded in enjoying All Fool's Day last Monday, although a dull day was predicted by most classes. On the morning of April 1, a small percent of students were absent without excuse—playing hookey, in other words, and some were allowed to skip classes to prepare for the track meet to be held at ten o'clock. Mr. Drennan and Mr. Burton assured the other restless boys and girls that they had to stay indoors in obedience to the verdict of the school board. But at ten o'clock, just before the beginning of the track events, Mr. Drennan announced "April Fool" and dismissed classes until 1 p. m. A large crowd attended the meet and very few pranks were played.

The school is certainly proud of its full-of-pep little boys who raced and jumped away with honors last Monday—Jelly McGowan and Beatty Hillman got an enviable collection of ribbons.

While a certain fellow was taking music lessons last Friday afternoon, Vivian Taylor, Peggy Word, and the Powell sisters drove his car down the hill and forgot to return until late.

PEEK-A-BOO

By PEEK
Here comes a new column, peek-a-booing at you. If you don't want your name in scandalous lights, keep out of peaking distance with your mischief.

The main drag last Sunday afternoon was a veritable college advertisement—several guys from out of town decided that if that kind of femmes go to Clarendon College, it must be a good school. Two cars of young ladies in attractive outfits promenaded with strange boys until far into the dusk, and perhaps further, for they weren't noticed at church.

At the track meet there was certainly a galaxy of dresses, from the boys' grief trunks to summer suits, and in the girl's division, anything from white trousers to purple silk. One attractive costume, however, was worn by Dorothy Fae Scroggins, who was dressed in a striped sport dress with a novel sunback arrangement.

HABITS

Do you have a peculiar, annoying, amusing, or otherwise habit? There are plenty of characteristic habits scattered through the mob of students in our halls that are interesting to observe. John McCauley's incurable vanity calls for a frequent combing of his slick brown hair with his personal pink comb.

Nickey Stewart has an odd habit of lapsing into Scotch dialect—origin and reason unaccounted for.

Orville Dodson has a nervous habit of scraping his feet on the floor when called upon to recite before the English class.

Hazel Self and Royce Turnbow have a habit of meeting in certain corners at particular hours—queer how Hazel's red hair resembles Royce's.

Dorothy Jo Ryan has a habit of examining wrappers on candy before she buys it. If the confection is made by Paul's, Dorothy Jo grabs it for a souvenir with significance.

SOPHOMORE SALLIES

The sandstorms are still with us it seems. Mr. Allison said in an Algebra class during a recent sandstorm that those who stay at home are sandstorm softies.

The mumps has struck the Sophs. Pat Slavin was out all last week with the pest. As yet none else have succumbed.

Durward McCracken declares he was not playing hookey week before last. He was down at the junior high most of the time, but he has only two of his classes down there.

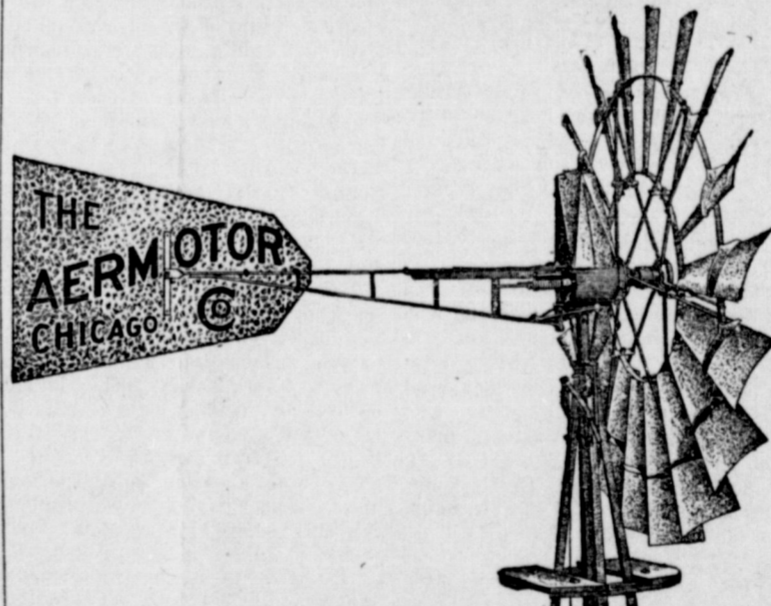

Monday several Soph girls were sorely disappointed when they couldn't go to the track meet, especially when someone they were interested in was going to participate.

Texas Corn-Hog Applications Equal Number of 1934 Contracts

College Station.—Texas is the first state in the United States to report as many corn-hog applications signed this year as contracts signed in 1934, according to E. M. The First "Alloyed Oil" —for better lubrication of today's high-speed, alloy-steel motors!

YOUR MOTOR is built of parts made of special alloy metals. Car manufacturers and metallurgists worked together to produce metal alloys strong and durable enough to withstand the greatly increased pressures and temperatures of the modern motor. Oils, too, must withstand these pressures and temperatures and they must have extra oiliness and film strength to do it. Yet oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength than they had ten years ago. And many new refining methods now used to make oils free from carbon and sludge have lowered instead of increased oiliness and film strength! Continental, pioneering as it has pioneered for 60 years, has developed the first alloyed oil—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil! It is custom-made for high-speed, alloy-steel motors. It has 2 to 4 times the film strength of straight mineral oil, as tests on the Timken machine have proved! It has more oiliness than any oil has naturally. It penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, forming a permanent lubricating film—the "Hidden Quart". It is a pure, clean oil, free from carbon and sludge troubles. It gives extraordinary mileage as well as motor protection, as proved by the Indianapolis Destruction Test. Say "O.K.—Drain"—fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and you will have the finest lubrication you can buy!

Proverb Contest Is In Last of Series

The proverb contest being conducted by The Clarendon News this week enters into the last lap of the contest, with printing of the fourth proverb. There are six in the complete series.

Enthusiasm is being expressed on all sides by those announcing their intentions to win the capital prize of $5.00. Of course all can't win, but everyone has a chance to be THE WINNER.

The Proverb Contest is simple, easy, educational and interesting. It is simple in that hidden words are not to be searched for. Get the brain working and all of a sudden out comes the solution. The rules are not intended to eliminate anyone (except the employees and families connected with The News force) therefore everyone is invited to participate.

KNIGHT'S DAIRY DISTRIBUTOR NEW HEALTH DRINK

Milk and Citrus fruit juices have long been associated as essentials of the diet, recommended by dieticians and health authorities generally.

Few realize how closely these two items of public well-being are allied in preparation and distribution.

One of the outstanding business successes has been the rapid growth of the sale and distribution of Bireley's Orangeade which is prepared, bottled and delivered by milk dealers throughout the country.

Mr. C. L. Knight of Knight's Dairy, distributor of Bireley's Orangeade in Clarendon has selected The Clarendon News to carry an advertising campaign on Bireley's Orangeade. Mr. Knight states that the advertising manager of Bireley's in California has recommended newspaper advertising as the best medium for acquainting the public with Bireley's Orangeade.

This real fruit beverage is distributed by over a thousand milk dealers in that many cities. The majority of these have used newspaper advertising and feel that it has played a large part in increasing the sale of Bireley's Orangeade to such an extent that at this time it is the largest selling fruit beverage.

According to Mr. Knight of Knight's Dairy, citrus fruit juices and milk have many things in common. Both are semi-perishable, both must be handled by refrigeration and with care; because of this Bireley's originated and developed the dairy production and distribution for their product. The handling of Bireley's Orangeade with the same care as is used in the handling of milk has made possible the retention of the natural flavor and full value of the orange. The same equipment is used to prepare and bottle this product as is used in the handling of the milk.

The orange juice from which Bireley's Orangeade is made is extracted from selected oranges of standard quality at the Bireley plant in Southern California. Special equipment, operating under immaculately sanitary conditions, makes it only a matter of moments from the time the juice is taken from the fruit until it is packed in hermetically sealed, enamel lined tins ready for shipment. No artificial flavoring or preservatives are used. Lemon juice is also added in order to give the beverage a delicious tang.

Mr. Knight states that the real fruit beverage is delivered to the home and stores in quarts and is also sold by markets—such as Piggly-Wiggly, Lowe's, Castleberry's, Shelton & Sanford, "M" System will handle this beverage in pints, quarts or individual bottles.
