Donley County School Situation 'Inventoried'

CASH AND OTHER PRIZES ARE BEING OFFERED WINNERS

RAINFALL IN 1935 IS UNDER NORMAL YEARLY AVERAGE

1.28 INCHES OF PRECIPITATION REGISTERED HERE DURING PAST YEAR.

Light snow flurries the past few days gave Donley County a quarter of an inch of moisture, bringing the total precipitation for the past 12 months to 19.65 inches, .45 inches under the normal yearly average and 2.71 inches short of the 1934 total. Last year's total was 21.78 inches.

Snow began falling at 10:30 p. m. on Monday and continued intermittently throughout the day. By high fall approximately 2 1/2 inches had been recorded by Joe Colleton, local weather observer. Sprinkles of rain the last day or two of the month were too light to be recorded.

Evidence stated that the normal yearly average is about 24.50 inches.

Precipitation during the year to date was as follows:

January, .35; February, .35; March, 1.44; April, .13; May, 6.71; June, .66; July, .71; August, 2.85; September, 1.57; October, .37; November, 2.36; December, .25; total, 19.65.

This was in addition to several contributions of linen by various individuals and clubs, Mr. Douglas reported.

Eugene Worley of Shamrock, youthful state representative from this district, was a visitor in Clarendon Monday of this week.

Rep. Worley states that the most difficult task facing the legislature at the present time is the matter of raising funds to finance payment of the old-age pensions which will be due under the recent amendment to the constitution.

VALUE OF FARM CROPS RAISED

SOUTHERN FARMERS' POCKETED ALMOST DOUBLE AMOUNT OF CASH PAID IN 1934.

Southern farmers pocketed almost twice as much money this year as in 1932.

The agriculture department reports that the farm value of principal crops in the 10 leading cotton states was $1,578,493,000, nearly double the 1932 figure of $847,347,000, and about $17,375,000 ahead of last year.

Cotton farmers, in addition to their crop returns, will receive price adjustment payments this year which the farm administration estimated would total $50,000,000, plus $123,000,000 in rental and benefit checks under the cotton control program.

The 1935 farm value of cotton belt crops increased despite declines in four of the 10 states. The largest advances were made in Texas and Oklahoma.

1935 PROGRESS IN SYSTEM REVIEWED BY SUPT. BAKER

IMPROVEMENTS SHOWN IN VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS OF SCHOOLS.

By SLOAN BAKER
County School Superintendent.

It is well at the beginning of the New Year of 1936 to take an inventory of the school situation. Much progress has been made in the last three years in the forming of a progressive system of education in Donley County. The cooperative spirit of all the patrons, trustees and school faculties in the different school districts in the county has led to the foundation of a plan by which every school child may secure his education in a good school and have the added opportunity of two years college training in Clarendon Junior College.

Due to the Federal Aid for the improvement and beautification of school grounds under 35 different grants to the separate schools of Donley County, our school properties have been kept in excellent condition. Bonds have been voted in other school districts for repairs and new school buildings and teacherages.

Improvements at Sum view this year includes a new roof for the building, steps, and the building bond issue voted by the taxpayers of Sunnyview.

The repainting of the interior of the Giles school last year and general repairs of the equipment things that school up to standard.

Windy Valley school has been repaired, repainted, and roofed under financial aid from federal grants the past two school terms. Beautification of the school ground has also added to the attractiveness of the school plant.

A new garage for the school bus has been built.

Fairview school ground has been enclosed in a new fence. The teacherage has received a new coat of paint. Weather stripping has been put on the windows of the school building and the grounds have been leveled.

Under two federal grants the Goldston school board has bought their school grounds, building, and (Continued on Page Four)

Cotton Checks To Be Mailed On or About January 15

AAA officials in Washington recently announced that initial checks for 1935 cotton subsidy payments probably will be mailed to farmers January 15.

Although there was no set date for mailing the first checks, original plans called for first payments in mid-December. The delay was attributed to technical and clerical reasons.

The AAA has agreed to pay adjustment contract signers the difference between 12 cents a pound and the average price for cotton on the date of sale.

Payments will be made only on cotton sold under producers' individual Bankhead allotments, and may not be more than 2 cents a pound. The subsidy will be paid from the 30 per cent of the gross customs receipts set aside for the AAA. Officials estimated a maximum of $55,000,000 would be needed.

No definite estimate was forthcoming on the amount of the payments now due.

One official said the total might be $30,000,000 or $40,000,000.

Officials estimated that from 35 to 90 per cent of the 1935 crop would be moved to market by the end of December. The price of cotton has averaged between 11 and 12 cents a pound most of this season.

Payments will be made directly to farmers from regional offices in the field, officials said. Each (Continued on Page Eight)

8,685 BALES ARE GINNED TO DATE

COUNTY SHOWS GAIN OF 1,563 BALES OVER LAST YEAR'S CROP.

Cotton ginned in Donley County prior to January 1 amounted to 8,685 bales, according to statistics gathered from the 11 gins in the county. This represents a gain of 1,563 bales over the same period for 1934, when 7,122 bales were ginned.

Neighboring counties show enormous gains over last year. Prior to Dec. 13, Childress County had ginned 16,985 bales this year, as compared with 3,401 in 1934; Comingsworth had ginned 14,557 bales this year compared with 5,443 last year, and Hall County had harvested 18,375 bales this season as against 6,260 for 1934.

The average price of middling 7-8 cotton in the designated spot markets on Dec. 27 was 11.6 cents, compared with 11.56 cents (Continued on Page Eight)

Hedley Man Fined On Liquor Charge

WALTER JOHNSON CONVICTED OF SELLING LIQUOR TO A MINOR.

Walter Johnson of Hedley was convicted of selling liquor to a minor, according to Judge Pierce, Donley County sheriff.

Johnson was taken into custody by Sheriff Pierce in Hedley Christmas night, after he had allegedly sold a pint of whiskey to a 17-year-old youth.

The trial was the first to be held in this county under the new liquor law which classifies the offense as a misdemeanor to be tried in county court, and the maximum penalty is a $1,000 fine and one year in jail.

E. McBride Is New Head of E. C. W. Camp At Memphis

E. McBride, formerly of Lamesa, arrived in Memphis this week to take over his duties as head of the Emergency Conservation Work camp, according to word received by The News.

Mr. McBride was technical foreman of the camp at Lamesa before his recent change, and is replacing George E. Hull at the Memphis camp. Mr. Hull will go to Amarillo where he has accepted a position with the regional Soil Conservation Service.

The change is a promotion for both of the men.

Crepe Myrtle Plants Have Arrived Here

The crepe myrtle plants ordered by the Mothers Club, who are sponsoring a beautification drive in the county, to prepare for the Centennial celebration, have arrived and are available at the home of Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, according to County Agent H. M. Breedlove.

The cost of the plants is between 18 and 26 cents, and written instructions for their care accompany each purchase, Breedlove said.

MRS. M. W. MOSLEY HAS EMERGENCY OPERATION

Mrs. M. W. Mosley, formerly of Clarendon, underwent an appendectomy in a Paris, Texas, hospital Friday, Dec. 27, according to information received by The News Tuesday morning. Reports state that her condition is considered satisfactory.

Mr. Mosley was formerly sheriff of Donley County, and the family is well known here. They were visiting in Cooper, Texas, at the time Mrs. Mosley was taken ill, and she was rushed to the hospital for an emergency operation.

RE-ORGANIZATION OF 4-H CLUBS TO BEGIN THIS MONTH

BREEDLOVE SAYS PLANS BEING MADE TO FORM CLUB IN EACH COMMUNITY.

Re-organization of the 4-H Clubs in Donley County will begin this month, County Agent H. M. Breedlove announced Wednesday. The plan is to organize a club in every community of the county. After the clubs have been organized there will be regular monthly meetings and some phase of farming will be discussed at each meeting. It is estimated that there will be approximately 200 boys signed up for this year.

The trip to College Station, Texas, for the purpose of attending the agricultural short course will be made by the Donley County 4-H Clubs again this summer. This will give the boys a chance to look over the experimental stations and scientific farming. The encampment will be held during July when all of the 4-H Clubs in the county will assemble at a centrally located place for a county encampment. This encampment will be held before the trip to College Station.

NEW STATE COTTON BOARD IS CHOSEN

TO HANDLE PROGRAM OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT DURING COMING YEAR.

The appointment of a 1936 state cotton board for Texas was announced recently by H. H. Williamson, Texas extension director, after notification from the cotton section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration at Washington, according to advice from officials at College Station.

The board membership was increased by three, making seven members in all. The increase was designed to provide better geographical representation, Williamson said, because of the size of Texas and widespread cotton production in this state.

Duties of the board are to handle for the coming year the 1936-39 cotton program recently announced by the secretary of agriculture. The board's headquarters will be at College Station.

Members of the board are A. L. Smith of the extension service, chairman; A. M. Bourland, of Wilbarger County; George G. Chance, Burleson County; John Gorham, McLennan County; V. L. Cade, Lubbock County; and Donald O. Cothran, Lamar County.

Cade, Impson and Cothran are the newly appointed members. The other four were reappointed.

Land Says National Pool Is Still Open

The national cotton pool is still open for pooling of both 1934 and 1935 cotton exemption certificates, R. C. Land, cotton adjustment assistant in the county agent's office, said Saturday.

A large number of certificates have already been pooled, he said. No date has been announced for the close.

BUSINESS CENSUS WILL BE STARTED IN DISTRICT TODAY

Roy D. Chase, who has been named district supervisor of the census of business of the department of commerce, today announced that enumeration work will start in the 18th Congressional District Jan. 2. He said 51 enumerators will be named within the next few days to make the canvass in this district. The 18th Congressional District includes 28 counties in this section.

EXHIBITORS ARE URGED TO ENTER BIRDS; MUCH INTEREST SHOWN.

Plans for the Donley County Poultry Show, which is being sponsored by the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce and the vocational agriculture department of the Clarendon High School, have been completed and tentative dates have been set for Friday and Saturday, January 10 and 11, according to J. M. Hill, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and vocational agriculture instructor.

The exhibition will be held in the Trent building, next door to the Clarendon Hatchery.

Hill stated that a number of exhibitors have already indicated that they would have their best birds in the show again. He said that entries would be accepted beginning at noon Thursday, Jan. 10, and that judging will begin early Friday afternoon. Exhibitors may check their birds out any time after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Cash prizes will be paid as follows: Singles: First, $1.00; second, 50c. Pens: First, $1.50; second, 75c.

Special merchants' prizes will be awarded to champion birds and pens of the show. These prizes and the donors will be announced next week. Where there is only one entry in a class, second money only will be paid. The above cash prizes will be awarded on S. C. Whites, Leghorns, S. C. Browns, Leghorns, S. Rhode Island Reds, Game Bantams, and Game Bantams.

There will be no premiums on bantams. Chickens only will be exhibited in the show.

Following is the definition of classes:

Cock, male bird 12 months old or older; cockerel, male bird under 12 months of age; hen, female bird 12 months old or older; pullet, female bird under 12 months of age; old pen, cock bird and two hens of the same variety; young pen, cockerel and two pullets of the same variety.

Considerable interest has been evidenced in the forthcoming show, Hill said, and he urged that all persons who are interested enter their birds in the exhibition.

SOCIAL AND POLITICAL CHANGES OF 35 YEARS

Just four years after Bryan made his free silver campaign in 1896, an American prospector went into the hills of Alaska. He stayed there 35 years, and came down the other day only because he was ill.

The hermit was bewildered at the changes he found in Fairbanks, Alaska. It occurs to Bruce Catton, NEA writer, that if the changes in Fairbanks would startle the bearded hermit, "a trip down into the states would absolutely paralyze him."

Disregarding the inventions that he would see for the first time, he would find many political and social changes—and a few similarities:

When the prospector went north, the United States was busy conquering the Philippines; today he would find us equally busy setting the Filipinos free. If he remembered the growing murmur against the trusts back in 1900, he would see today's government feeling very regretful because the supreme court wouldn't let it band the big combinations of industry together in a system designed to restrict output and maintain prices.

Remembering the anti-railroad agitation of the 1900's, he would see the government coming to the rescue of the railroads with millions upon millions of dollars. And then, of course, there would be the AAA for him to think about.

Looking abroad he would see:

England, which he last saw descending on the South African Boers, preparing to wage war to protect the independence of an African nation.

Germany minus its kaiser, with a former house painter ruling more autocratically than the kaiser ever dreamed of ruling.

And when he got all through looking, we wouldn't blame the old prospector a bit if he went back to the Alaskan mountains to stay.—Star-Herald, Scottsbluff, Neb.

FEAR AND INTELLIGENCE RETARD HUMAN RACE

Everywhere, up and down Europe, the fighting men and the fighting machines are gathering. And for what?—if not because every nation is deathly afraid of every other?

It is a tragic commentary on this generation's inability to come to grips with its fundamental problems. In all these warlike countries the basic difficulty is the same—unemployment, stagnant business, the baffling complexities of a society which has learned how to multiply the production of goods, but has hardly begun to learn how to distribute them among its people.

As long as fear rules, the powers must pile up great armies, hold maneuvers on a scale only less expensive than war itself, fill the sky with grimly droning air squadrons, and get the costly gray warships afloat on the seas.

The money, the energy and the devotion that might go to make life easier for millions of people must instead be spent to prepare for death and destruction.

Here is man, arrived at last at the point where every human being in the world could be provided food and shelter and all the comforts and luxuries of modern civilization, with a minimum of properly apportioned labor. He possesses the machinery, every factor necessary to that long visioned goal—except the intelligence to properly use them.—Graphic, Lake Mills, Ia.

SKILLED LABOR WANTED

Men seeking jobs and jobs seeking men, and the two can't get together. The men aren't prepared to fit the jobs.

It is a pathetic condition of everything being out of joint. There are plenty of "educated" and "trained" men, but they are not properly educated and trained for the specific jobs that need men. Those who have education cannot use it. There are 10,000,000 employables between the ages of 18 and 29 who never held a job. Many of these have been through the schools; many have studied in high schools and colleges. They tell the employment manager that they will do anything but they can't name the particular thing they know they can do well.

It is a serious situation and the remedy cannot be applied immediately. Mistakes of long standing will have to be corrected. A proposal has been made that manufacturers and other industrialists revive the apprentice system. That may help.

Certainly the whole system of education needs careful inspection and readjustment. Conditions change rapidly. Employment managers complain that even those trained in vocational schools are unsuitable because they are taught "tricks of the trade" that now are obsolete.

Evidently there are problems on which the industrialists and the educators should work together.—Evening News, Southridge, Mass.

Advice is cheap—experience is costly. By the same token experience is a better teacher than advice. Yet advice, gained from practical experience, is worth considering. The only trouble is that the experience of one man might not be the experience of another under exactly similar circumstances. So much depends on the qualities of men. Don't laugh at advice—nor yet accept it unconditionally. It may be good or bad—and you alone are the one responsible for weighing its merits as it applies to your particular case.

A DEBTOR PARTNERSHIP

A large eastern insurance company has just sent to its agents an explanation of the plan it expects to adopt in the future in the matter of farm mortgages, together with the reasons therefor.

Briefly, the company will hereafter give the mortgagor a chance to enter into a three-part partnership agreement, whereby the company assumes some sort of supervision to see that the farm is properly taken care of, and in return grants the privilege of skipping a payment of principal and interest any year when the price of corn on the Chicago market is below 51 cents per bushel.

The company in question recognizes that forced foreclosure, such as we have had too many of in the past, are bad for the insurance company as well as the farmer, so the company is willing to enter into this sort of partnership agreement.

Perhaps it represents a new era of relationship between debtor and creditor. There are times when the debtor does not want any interference with his business on the part of the creditor, but it is safe to assume that in most farm mortgages such an arrangement as is above referred to would be to the advantage of both parties.

Another thing: In agreeing to waive the annual payment on a mortgage any time the price of corn on the Chicago market is less than 51 cents this large eastern insurance company is admitting that the farmer should have at least that much money for his corn. An admission of that kind may be a long step in better understanding between the industrial east and the agricultural middle west.—Sac Sun, Sac City, Ia.

CONFIDENCE BUILDS

Confidence builds and improves a community, lack of it destroys communities. Distrust is a destructive element that eats into the very vitals of community life, whereas trust in one another is the only foundation on which towns and cities can build for the future.

Confidence is but one element of co-operation. Of course, no co-operation would be possible without the utmost confidence in one another. The people of this community could not be expected to patronize local merchants if they did not trust them, if they did not believe they were getting value received.

"Trust men and they will be true to you; treat them greatly and they will show themselves great."

Thus wrote Emerson, the great essayist, many years ago, and the life hasn't changed much since then. No community can build for a greater and larger future if distrust is the ruling element in the community. We must have faith in one another—a faith, a confidence that is substantial enough to stand a hard jolt now and then and still be strong.

If you find evidence of something that shakes your confidence, don't conclude that this is the predominating spirit of the community. Just look about you and you will be able to find ample reason for your confidence to be strengthened and restored.—Tribune, Lewiston, S. Dak.

"GOOD ENOUGH" DOESN'T WIN PRIZES

Did you ever stop to think that your "good enough" work never wins prizes?

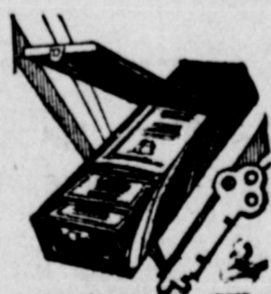

Winners of races, of prize awards, of high honors in any field, are the men who do their best from start to finish—who concentrate on excelling.

The world's worth-while rewards only go to those who do their jobs better than most people.

IS CLARENDON COLLEGE WORTH WHAT IT COSTS

There is perhaps a question in the minds of some of the patrons of the Clarendon Junior College district as to whether the school is worth the money spent upon it. Below are some data taken from the 1934 year book of the southern association of colleges and secondary schools of the Panhandle and South Plains which belong to this association.

In 1934, Clarendon High School had 52 graduates with 41 entering college; Amarillo High School had 321 graduates with 127 entering college; Canyon High School had 41 graduates with 28 entering college; Lubbock High School had 245 graduates with 138 entering college; West Texas State Teachers College training school had 30 with 23 entering college. There is a college in the town where each of these high schools is located.

Schools of the association not located in college towns had the following number of graduates in 1934 with the number listed who entered college. Hereford had 57 graduates with 15 entering college; Borger, 70 graduates with 11 entering college; Claude, 31 graduates with 11 entering college; Dalhart, 57 graduates with 14 entering college; Farwell, 11 graduates with 7 entering college; LeFors, 9 graduates with 3 entering college; McLean, 42 graduates with 23 entering college; Mobeetie, 30 graduates with 7 entering college; Miami, 17 graduates with 3 entering college; Pampa, 116 graduates with 25 entering college; Panhandle, 40 graduates with 9 entering college; Perryton, 59 graduates with 10 entering college; Quanah, 68 graduates with 16 entering college; Shamrock, 46 graduates with 9 entering college; Tahoka, 29 graduates with 19 entering college.

It will be noted from the above statistics that Clarendon has a higher percentage entering college than any other high school located in a college town and a very much larger per cent than towns where no college is located. If you will study these figures carefully, you will be convinced that Clarendon Junior College is worth many times as much as it costs.

Incidentally, the cost to the tax payers of junior college district (the district includes Clarendon independent district and eight surrounding common school districts) is in round numbers about six thousand dollars. It costs on an average about $600 to send a pupil away to college for nine months; therefore the 41 students of the graduating class of last year would have spent away from home $24,000 this year. Then, if we count the 95 pupils who are in Clarendon Junior College this year at $600 per pupil, it would cost 57,000 dollars. You may figure out for yourself what the college is saving the patrons each year. Is it worth the price?

Clarendon High School on Southern Association List

Supt. H. T. Burton received the following information in a letter of December 12 from Mr. J. W. O'Brien, director of supervision, state department of education and chairman of the Texas committee of the southern association of colleges and secondary schools:

"I am very pleased to inform you that the southern association of colleges and secondary schools in its annual meeting at Louisville, Kentucky, December 2-4, voted to retain your high school on the southern association list."

Out of a total of more than 1000 four-year high schools in the state of Texas, only 215 were included on the association's list, so the patrons of the local school should be able to understand the importance of this news. The advantage of holding membership in this association lies in the fact that the graduate of any high school that meets its requirements is entitled to enter any college or university in the South without having to take an entrance examination. Since this association has an agreement with all of the other similar associations in the United States, the graduate of the local high school is actually able to enter any institution in the entire country without taking the entrance exams.

PALO DURO

The members of the Palo Duro enjoyed an excellent Christmas program followed by a Monte Carlo party at the home of Anna Moores Swift, Wednesday, December 18.

The program was opened with an amusing Christmas musical reading by Rosalyn Bass, who was accompanied at the piano by Arthur Chase. Following this, a vocal trio including Wilma DeSmith, Hulda Jo Cautchen, and Louise Smith sang an amusing Christmas song. Miss Hall then very effectively told a Christmas story entitled, "Once Upon a Time."

After the program, the Palo Durans adjourned to the home of Anna Moores Swift where they spent the remainder of the evening playing chuc-a-luck and other exciting card games.

Delicious punch was served during the evening to Misses Cynthia Mae Eller, Mary Frances Dewey, Dorothy Powell, Nellie Grady, Mary Frances Powell, Rosalyn Bass, Sarah Virginia McGowan, Willie Glenn Parten, Bita Mae Hall, and the hostess, Anna Moores Swift, and Messrs. Lowell LaFon, Ardis Patman, Harold McDaniel, Sam Barrow, and Arthur Chase.

ASTOUNDING "LIFT" IN SINCLAIR H-C,

Local Motorists Tell Sinclair Dealers

When you buy gasoline you buy liquid power. And power is measured by engineers in terms of lifting. A single gallon of Sinclair H-C Gasoline has the potential energy to lift 99 million pounds one foot. Putting that into a power picture we say one gallon of H-C could lift a 40-ton Brontosaurus 1/4 mile.

In automobile road tests Sinclair H-C Gasoline gave 15% to 20% more smooth power and from 1 to 3 more miles per gallon—compared to 12 other well-known gasolines!

Your neighborhood Sinclair dealer will tell you what local motorists are saying about H-C's astounding "lift"—what it means in extra power for their cars. Ask him!

Safety Campaign Is Started by Pontiac

Over 300,000 Pontiac owners throughout the United States are participating in a nationwide campaign in the interest of safety and the reduction of accidents on the roads and highways, according to L. K. Marshall, general service manager of Pontiac Motor Co.

"A direct appeal was made recently by over 3,500 dealers to all Pontiac owners regardless of the age of their cars to co-operate in an effort to promote safe driving during the coming winter months," said Mr. Marshall. "The co-operation of both dealers and owners has been the best we ever have had, and is an indication that motorists really are interested in safe driving and the reduction of accidents.

"Our campaign is simply the old story of getting the car ready for winter. But it is dressed up in such a way that its safety appeal struck a sympathetic note in the minds of the owners. And they responded.

"Over 300,000 of them are bringing their cars to our dealers to have their brakes put in shape; lamp bulbs replaced and headlamps adjusted; steering gears made right; and carburetors, distributors, batteries and electrical systems put in order so that motors will respond properly to acceleration. Thousands of heaters and windshield defrosters were installed.

"Car manufacturers are building safe automobiles today and rightly their responsibility ceases when the car becomes the property of the motorist. However, Pontiac, along with a number of other manufacturers believe in following out the familiar Biblical adage of being their 'brother's keeper'. They are doing everything they can to help their owners continue to be safe drivers. "There is no one who would stalled a new oil heating system and repainted the inside of the building last year. A large pony shed was built this year.

Transportation

In 1933 only one school bus was operating in the county, which was in the Giles district. Now over 700 of the pupils in Donley County ride to school in 13 modern school buses. This transportation system set up under the supervision of the county board and county superintendent has made possible the lowering of classification of the rural schools, so the teachers could have more time to teach the fewer classes, and for the high school child to finish in one of the three excellent accredited high schools, at Hedley, Lelia Lake, or Clarendon. An added attendance in Clarendon Junior College of 23 students over last year attests to the manner in which the pupils of the rural communities are taking advantage of the opportunity to attend the Clarendon Junior College because of the new transportation system.

Fair. This same chorus will sing with the other choruses of the state at the Texas Centennial next June 13 at Dallas.

Standardization

The lowering of the classification will enable Ashtola, Goldston, Midway, Martin, Bray and Chamberlain schools to be standardized this year. Standardized achievement test will be given in all the schools. Credits from these standardized schools will be accepted by the accredited high schools without examination of the pupil.

County Trustees-Teachers Association

The formation of the Rural Trustees-Teachers Association has led to a better understanding of school problems and the working out of a more progressive school program of education through cooperation with the Donley County Board of Trustees. The recently formed Donley County Teachers Association shows another forward step taken by the teachers of this county. Extension classes in curriculum study are well attended. Teachers attend summer schools. Trustees study school problems. Donley County patrons are joining the pupils of Donley County the best educational opportunities possible.

equipment up to the requirements for a standardized school. A new addition to the school grounds has been purchased. A new garage has been built.

Joricho had the honor of receiving the second grant of federal money in the state for repair of school building. The building was roofed, interior painted throughout, and new equipment installed. Playground equipment was repaired.

An entire overhauling of the building at Smith, interior painting, installation of inside water supply, and building of new playground equipment with filling of the school grounds, has brought this school plant up to standard. Two federal grants aided in this improvement.

Trees have been planted, the grounds raised by the application of caliche, and the school building has been repaired at Bray and a new water system installed under federal assistance. Also a new bus garage and an addition to the teacherage has been built.

Watkins trustees built a new cistern, and refinished the inside of the school building. A new heating system was also installed.

The consolidation of two schools, Hackberry and Pleasant Valley, resulted in the building of a new school house at Midway, which is modern in every respect. A new windmill and pony shed also have been built. A new four-room teacherage adds to the completeness of the school plant.

Whitefish school plant has been kept in excellent repairs from local district funds.

Under a federal grant the trustees of Skillet school were able to build terraces north of the school yard and fill in around the school building so as to turn the drainage off of the school play grounds. Tennis courts and playground equipment have been built.

Ashtola school, with federal help, supplemented by local finance roofed their building, repainted the interior of the class rooms, repapered the teacherage, built a new bus garage, and built new playground equipment. A new brick school plant was built in Martin district in 1932, modern equipment being installed. Recently new playground equipment has been added.

Bairfield trustees completely overhauled the school building last year, putting on a new roof and painting the inside and outside of the building.

Chamberlain school was built in 1933 after the old building was destroyed by fire. A four-room brick school plant and auditorium in which up-to-date equipment was placed gives Chamberlain a modern school plant. A four-room brick teacherage was built at the same time.

The patrons of Hudgins school voted a bond for an addition to the school plant this year. A large stage with excellent stage equipment was installed. Under federal grant the trustees had already improved the water system and papered the four-room teacherage.

McKnight school secured the first federal grant for repairs in the state of Texas. Shade trees and flowers have been planted on the school grounds. A new teacherage also adds to the school plant. It is the only school which has a community auditorium separate from the school plant. The trustees of Glenwood in-

Here's to you for a most happy 1936 and may The Clarendon News ever be news.

1935 shall cluster as a halo of joy to the going down of life's sun.

Now, as the New Year comes up out of the radiant east, born in the glow of the Star of Bethlehem, may we renew our efforts at helpfulness. May we especially voice our best cheer for the little children and the aged; for the orphan and the underprivileged; for the poor and needy; for the afflicted and the unfortunate; for the lonely and the discouraged; for the derelict and the unfriended. May we be experts at doing good to all and giving hurt to none.

As we pass from the Old Year to the New, let us make a faithful inventory of all the higher values of life, even as we make such inventory of life's temporal affairs. Let us leave to the past all lingering asperities and bitter memories; all ugly jealousies and ungenerous competitions; all unreasoning prejudices and uncharitable judgments. Let us discard all worthless luggage, and replace our highest and best to the supreme things, as we face the unknown days and demands awaiting us. Thus God shall supply all your needs according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Regular services at the Baptist Church Sunday. Your presence is always a delight to our hearts.

J. Perry King, Pastor.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Although the editor spoiled my plea for Christmas gifts by holding my notes till Christmas was over, yet in spite of this a few gifts of books have come to us, and a few gifts of subscriptions were made. The Book Club gave us a little group of children's books, and Mr. Lamb from near Jericho brought us several books for boys and girls, all of which were very much appreciated. We are always so happy to be remembered in this way—at any time of the year.

One of the most discussed books in Texas during the last few months has been "The Texas Rangers" by Walter Prescott Webb of the State University faculty. It is said to be both exciting and authentic. And now we are told that Paramount has acquired an option on the screen rights for the book which assures a thrilling picture soon.

One of the promised literary attractions for 1936 is to be a masterpiece of modern Chinese literature to be published by the Vanguard Press. It is a novel called "Twilight" by Mao Tun, the leading Chinese novelist of the century.

For the last few years when we think of China, particularly of literary China, we think of Pearl Buck. In November of this year she was awarded the William Dean Howells medal given every fifth year by the American Academy of Arts and Letters in recognition of the most distinguished work of American fiction during the intervening period. The award was given her for "The Good Earth," her Pulitzer Prize winner in 1931. This William Dean Howells medal has been awarded only twice before; in 1930 to Willa Cather, and in 1925 to Mary E. Wilkins Freeman. Our readers are still enjoying Pearl Buck's trilogy, "The Good Earth," "Sons" and "The House Divided."

I'm sure we were all interested to notice the account not long ago of the fact that Romer Grey, scenario writer, son of Zane Grey, had married his father's secretary, Miss Wilma Morris of Kentucky. They were married in Phoenix, Arizona. The very name "Arizona" suggests Zane Grey. The article also stated that the son was at work adapting two of his father's novels for production by Paramount.

DuBose Hayward has gone to Hervey Allen's orange grove near Holly Island to Frances Frost who is also finishing a novel. We might remark here that Hervey Allen's "Anthony Adverse" continues to be near the tip in the list of best sellers.

Booth Tarkington visited Philadelphia recently, and discovered in an old house a perfect Jacobean room. He bought it and had the entire room moved to his home in Kennebunkport, Maine. Then he had another wing added to his house to provide a place for the new room.

At an auction in New York recently Charles Lamb's autograph manuscript of "The Old Benches of the Inner Temple" brought $7,500; one of the five known autograph manuscripts of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Francis Scott Key brought $5,000; a first edition copy of James Fenimore Cooper's "The Last of the Mohicans" brought $3,100; while a manuscript by Robert Fulton setting forth his claims in the invention of the steamboat brought $1200.

Marc Connelly, author of "Green Pastures," was re-elected president of the Author's League of America at the annual meeting in New York in November.

Emil Ludwig, the noted German biographer, is in America on a lecture tour. He predicts a European war in 1940.

Ted Lewis and Orchestra Head Cast in "Here Comes the Band"

Ted Lewis, high-hatted troubadour and his merry mad musicians, who have established innumerable all time box office records on their recent tour of the nation's theaters, come to the screen in a blaze of glory in "Here Comes the Band."

Romance is set to melody and mirth rides high on wings of song in this love story set to music, which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer produces as one of its most elaborate extravaganzas, and which comes Wednesday and Thursday to the Pastime Theater.

One of the most unusual musical features ever attempted in motion pictures is the courtroom sequence, where singing cowboys from the plains, negro spirituals from below the Mason and Dixon line, hill-billies from the Ozarks, and other singers of American folk songs join in a vocal presentation to establish the rightful ownership of a song, "Headin' Home," the key number of the picture, written by Herbert Stothart with lyrics by Ned Washington.

This number is expected to establish a definite American musical motif of the current period.

Other outstanding musical numbers in the picture include "Roll Along Prairie Moon" by Ted Florigo, Albert Von Tilzer and Harry Macpherson; the big production number, "You're My Thrill," by Lane and Washington, in which Ted Lewis sings with "Spanky" McFarland, "Our Gang" child comedian; and Ted Lewis' specialties, such as "Me and My Shadow," "When My Baby Smiles," "Wear a Hat With a Silver Lining" and others. A full symphony orchestra accompanies the musical numbers.

The story of "Here Comes the Band" starts with the end of the war, with Lewis playing a regimental band-master who goes into civilian life and becomes a noted orchestra conductor. Others in the band go into various walks of life, but on Armistice Day they get together.

A boy writes a great song, which is stolen by a publisher. The girl who loves him, the musician who has faith in him, and the old army band, get together and offer musical evidence in court that proves his ownership to the number.

Beautiful Virginia Bruce, following a series of outstanding portrayals in many recent M-G-M pictures, plays the heroine and Harry Stockwell, one of American's foremost baritones, is the singing hero. Stockwell, prior to joining the film colony, scored in the New York musical hit "As Thousands Cheer" and Earl Carroll's "Vanities," and won a national reputation on the radio with Paul Whiteman.

Ted Healy and Nat Pendleton keep up their feud, with the

Farmers in Childress Section Pay $3.6 Per Cent of Loans

When A Merchant Is Fooling Himself

The merchant who is not advertising and who observes that his competitor is not advertising either, is fooling himself if he believes that competitive advertising is not hurting him.

Newspapers from neighboring towns come into his town every day. Some of his potential customers read them, and note the advertising messages they carry. Unless the home merchant is meeting this competition with similar advertising, he is losing business that he should have. If he doesn't think so, he is kidding himself, and the longer he kids himself the more business he will lose.

A certain amount of business will come to a town regardless of the efforts put forth by merchants. But there isn't enough business of this kind to make any town a good business town. It is the business that may come to a town or go to a competing town, depending upon the type of merchants in the two towns, that keeps a business institution out of the red.

Business recovery for one town may mean business recession for a neighboring town. Which kind of town are you, Mr. MERCHANT, going to do business in, in the future?

CONSISTENT, CONSTRUCTIVE ADVERTISING PROVIDES THE ANSWER!

In "Their Home Paper" of course—

WOMAN

She's an angel in truth, a demon in fiction. A woman's the greatest of all contradictions. She's afraid of a cockroach; she'll scream at a mouse, she'll tackle a husband as big as a house. She'll take him for better, she'll take him for worse, she'll split his head open and then be his nurse. And when he is well and can get out of bed, she'll pick up a brick to throw at his head. She's faithful, deceitful, keen sighted and blind. She's crafty, she's simple, she's cruel, she's her king, she'll make him her cast a man down, she'll make him her king, she'll make him her clown. You fancy she's this, but you find she is that, for she'll play like a kitten and scratch you like a cat. There's no one on earth, who can half understand, how peculiar they are, like a meek, married man.—Hoot Britten.

Two little boys were talking about the president. One of them said: "My father thinks he has done a lot of good."

The other boy replied: "Oh, I don't know—he hasn't closed the schools yet."

Cotton Checks To—

Officials said forms and blank contracts for the 1936-1939 cotton adjustment program are being prepared and sent to the field, and that the contract sign-up campaign for next year should begin about January 15.

Several officials indicated they expected the supreme court to rule on constitutionality of the AAA before the sign-up campaign was opened formally. In the event the adjustment act is upheld, it was said, the AAA would be set to launch an active campaign immediately.

Williams Tells—

(Continued from Page One) this one source alone! That is an awful lot of money, and one can readily realize that it has been of inestimable benefit, not only to the farmers themselves, but to every business that is represented in the county.

We will leave the pros and cons of the manner in which the present administration is running this much-talked about government of ours to someone better qualified than ourselves to comment upon, but we still feel that this is the one administration that we have had that has given the farmer a break. And it has been generally understood that the farmer, and the farming sections, were well due a break of some sort.

Anyway, whether we like the way the government is being run or not, and whether we approve of the control plans being operated by the AAA, the fact remains that we received very nearly a half million dollars that might otherwise not have been forthcoming. And that's something!

Good Place To Be Popular—

And speaking of the popularity of the present administration brings to mind a story appearing in a newspaper recently. It seems that President Roosevelt, while traveling on a train a short while back, engaged the negro porter in a conversation.

"How am I doing, George?" or words to that effect. "What do people think of me?"

"Well, suh," the porter replied, "they's an awful lot of fussin' and grumblin' goin' on in the Pullmans—but they's all for you in the day coaches."

And, from all indications, that is a very apt description of how things stand. And Mr. Roosevelt can reflect with pleasure that there are a lot more people in the "day coaches" than there are in the "Pullmans."

Lily Fons in a moment of relaxation, wearing a casually smart walking costume consisting of woolen sweater, slacks, and shoes with built-up heels. Famed for her beauty as well as her lovely soprano voice, she makes good use of her dainty size two and one-half feet in a daily ramble with Panouche, her pet pup. From her head to her modish heels, she is well-fitted to reign as America's most popular star. Radio, movies, grand opera—Lily takes them all in her stride.

THIS 'FORGER' IS IMMUNE—Pretty Louise Polk Wilson, related to the two former presidents whose names she bears, of the General Land Office, might be called a professional forger, but fortunately it is all legal as President Roosevelt has authorized her to sign his name on patents. She is the only person authorized to sign the president's name and has done so about 11,000 times.
