Amarillo Meeting Urges Donley Hi-ways

MEMORIAL TO WORLD WAR VETERANS IS LOCAL LEGION'S OBJECTIVE

URGE IMMEDIATE CLOSING OF GAPS

JOINT MEETING AT AMARILLO WEDNESDAY LISTS DONLEY FOR EARLY WORK.

Early construction on fifteen important Panhandle highways was urged in resolutions adopted by a meeting of road enthusiasts from forty Panhandle counties in Amarillo Wednesday afternoon, and Donley's projects on Highways 5 and 88 were included in the preferred list.

Representing Donley county were Judge S. W. Lowe, J. M. Hill, secretary-manager of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, Joe Holland and Chas. Lowry.

Judge W. L. Helton, chairman, Hemphill county; Judge B. C. McCasland, Hall county; Ed Bishop, Dallam county and T. E. Johnson, Potter county, formed the resolutions committee.

The resolutions: "To the Texas Highway Commission and the State Planning Board.

"Whereas, the federal government has appointed a vast sum of monies for the improvement of highways in the United States and there is a huge sum set apart for the Texas Highway system, and,

Whereas, the Panhandle of Texas has many gaps unopened on its federal and state system of highways, and,

"Whereas, in the area named above there is an absolute drought condition prevailing and crops are a total failure and there being no other major industry found in the greater part of that territory, herefore,

"Be it resolved that this body of Panhandle citizens representing some 40 counties, consisting of members of the Chambers of Commerce, commissioners courts and all others interested go on record in a petition to federal and state authorities that the gaps in the federal and state designated highways made and grade crossing eliminations as per attached list be approved for immediate construction.

"Be it further resolved that the state and federal authorities recognize the emergency condition that exists in the territory referred to above and that they give these projects their earnest and immediate attention.

"These resolutions adopted by unanimous vote at mass meeting in Amarillo, Texas, May 1, 1935."

Local Golfers Withdraw from Greenbelt

At a meeting Monday evening of the Hillcroft Golf Club membership, it was voted that the local club should withdraw its membership from the Greenbelt.

In the absence of President Phillips Gentry, Vice-President U. J. Boston presided over the meeting and it was reported general lack of interest and financial reasons resulted in the withdrawal from the Greenbelt.

Interesting matches and local tournaments were planned for the coming summer months by the membership.

CLARENDON LOSES PROMINENT LAWYER

A. T. Cole, prominent lawyer of this city, announced this week that after May 1st, he would no longer practice law in Clarendon but would move his office to Pampa.

Lawyer Cole has been a prominent figure in the Donley county courts since 1901. From July 1st, 1933 until October 1, 1934, Mr. Cole was special United States attorney for prosecution of fraud cases, this being the only time he has relinquished his practice in Clarendon since 1901.

The Cole family will continue to live in Clarendon and Mr. Cole will be with his family and friends on week-ends. The News wishes him success in his new location.

Donley Allotted More Funds for Saving Soil

Donley farmers received further encouragement this week concerning prevention of erosion when the county allotment of 10,000 acres or $1,000.00 was raised to 20,000 acres or $2,000.00 by the Federal plan for the prevention of wind erosion.

After a conference with Parker D. Hanna, agent of the Extension Service for District 1, in which the conditions of Donley farm lands were presented, Donley county received the additional allotment.

DRAINAGE STRUCTURES ARE COMPLETE ON HIWAY NO. 5

According to W. L. Patrick, assistant resident engineer of the highway department, all drainage structures on the new Highway 5 from Clarendon to Hedley are completed.

Small structures were completed by the McKnight Company and large culverts were completed by the Oran Speer Contracting Company on April 23rd.

Grading on the new road will be completed some time next month.

MUSICAL NUMBERS ENJOYED BY LIONS

MASTER KEY FOR OUTSTANDING LION ODDS CARAWAY.

Assisting the program committee composed of Lions Hill, Thomas and Bownds, Lion S. Sanford Eskridge, Clarendon Band Director, presented two members of the band organization to the Lions Club in their regular weekly meeting Tuesday noon at the Antro Hotel.

Billy Walker was presented in a cornet solo with Miss Delphia Bones accompanying on the piano, which was enjoyed to the fullest extent by the membership.

Next Hubert Reavis gave a clarinet solo, with Mrs. Laler Wilkerson accompanying, which proved to the club he was master of the clarinet as well as the cinder track, being an outstanding Panhandle athlete.

Following his musical rendition he was further presented to the club by Lion Drennan, Dean of Clarendon Junior College, in which Reavis was announced the winner of four first place medals at the regional track meet at Canyon last Saturday, although only entering in three places. The fourth medal was for being high point man of the meet. This was received by hearty cheers of the club in enthusiasm for Reavis' athletic ability.

Lions who made the trip to Plainview last Monday and Tuesday to attend the district convention made reports, and commented on the impressions received at the convention.

Eskridge announced he would make a report next week on the West Texas Band Contest to be held at Lubbock, and also announced that because of adverse sandstorms he would further delay public band concerts until rain was received here, although he is planning within the near future Sunday afternoon concerts on the court house lawn.

Lions International "Master Key" plaque number 439 was presented Lion Caraway by the chair in reward for outstanding work done by Caraway in service to Lionism and to his own community.

The program next week will be in charge of Lion Eskridge. Guests present were J. E. Gaston, in charge of highway beautification work in Donley county, and B. P. Brents.

Messames J. Perry King, W. A. Massie, and Ralph Keys motored to Amarillo Wednesday.

HEDLEY MEETING LAUDS GOVERNOR

METHODIST DISTRICT CONFERENCE SUPPORTS LAW ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM.

The 1935 District Conference of Clarendon District Methodists closed at noon Wednesday after a most successful and largely attended two-day session, under the leadership of Dr. T. S. Barcus, presiding elder.

Dr. C. C. Grimes, pastor of the Polk Street Methodist Church of Amarillo brought two inspirational messages Tuesday morning and evening, and Dr. J. W. Story of McLean climaxed the meeting in a touching sermon Wednesday morning.

Reports from the pastors showed a healthy condition over the district, with some marked improvement over 1934. Education in the adult, youth and juvenile departments was shown to be making fine progress over the territory.

The lay activities hour Wednesday morning asked for general observance of Layman's Day, June 9th.

In the resolutions on the state of the church, endorsement of Governor Allred's law enforcement program was given vigorous approval, as was his message urging repeal of race-track gambling, and support of such moral efforts was pledged. In discussion marble machines came in for a large share of condemnation as being schools where the youth is being taught to become gamblers.

Delegates were elected to the annual conference and Clarendon was represented on the delegation by Judge J. R. Porter. Sam M. Braswell was re-elected district lay leader. Mrs. C. A. Burton read the report of the committee on state of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Gentry returned Tuesday from Dallas.

PLAINVIEW HOST TO WTCC MAY 13

ALLRED WILL BE OPENING SPEAKER MAY 13—OTHER GOVERNORS COMING.

Plainview, Texas, April 25.—The 17th general convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is three weeks distant, but the Westex convention group would not realize it if he dropped into Plainview this week. Both the 1935 host city and the WTCC's convention manager, Jed Rix, have their plans going ahead so briskly and smoothly that they could, in a pinch, pull off the big show on a week's notice.

The conventions of the West Texas Chamber are always heavily attended and full of color, but many events are under way this year to strike a new high note only in attendance and color, but in the work of the convention—in quickly getting to the heart of what West Texas needs most for its prosperity and development and in formulating a program of work calculated to meet those needs. The organization's 1935-36 year will be devoted to carrying out the program laid down as the mandate from the membership at Plainview.

The convention this year will major on Taxation, agriculture and territorial development, all fundamental in the life of West Texas.

The 17th annual convention will open at 10 o'clock on Monday, May 13, in the Plainview municipal auditorium, which was, by the way, built expressly to entertain the same convention 13 years ago, in 1922. Key speaker at the opening session will be Governor Allred.

Local director, Odos Caraway, will attend and other Clarendon people will also be present.

COURT FINISHES WORK MARCH TERM

GRAND JURY FINDS DELINQUENCY IN PARENTAL CONTROL OF YOUTHS.

District court with Judge A. J. Fires presiding was dismissed for the term last Thursday afternoon.

Very few cases were continued to the next term of court in October stated the able jurist, and he was well pleased with the work done this term, in connection with sentences assessed by the jury against participants in thefts which have been prevalent in Donley county for the past several months.

The closing week in court saw very little business transacted in civil cases as most of them had been attended to during the first part of the court term.

The grand jury report as submitted to Judge Fires is as follows: To the Honorable Judge of said Court:

We, your grand jury, duly empanelled for the March Term, A. D. 1935, of the District Court of Donley county, Texas, make to the court the following report of our deliberations:

1. We have been in session eight days; we have examined 104 witnesses before the Grand Jury subpoena and approximately twenty-five witnesses who volunteered to come before us with information. We have pursued the investigation of all matters before us as thoroughly as was possible for us under the means at our hands. We have heretofore returned into court 10 felony bills of indictment. We have herewith returned into court one misdemeanor indictment. We have voted bills of indictment in all cases where we deemed the evidence sufficient to sustain a conviction.

2. We have examined the county jail and find that same is urgently in need of some repairs which are necessary if same is to be safe for the keeping of prisoners. We find the jail in good condition with reference to sanitation and the inmates report that they are well cared for.

3. We find from a study of the cases presented before us that our sheriff, Mr. Pierce, and his deputies have been diligent, faithful and effective in the discharge of their duties and we feel that if peace officers over the state would discharge their duties as our local officers have that crime would be unprofitable and would make little headway in the state. We commend the citizenship of the county for their cooperation given in the enforcement of the laws and for the work done by those called to jury services and we feel that this spirit of cooperation goes a long way toward keeping this a clean county and one free entirely of organized crime.

4. We feel that the time spent in our investigations has shown us that there is a break down in the home life of many of our young people, which is responsible for some of the deplorable conditions we find. It seems that parents should be more careful to know where their sons and daughters are at night and what company they are keeping. A failure to do this presents homes with a shadow and a young and useful life often ruined or at least marred by a tragedy that probably would not have presented itself had the mother and father watched over the unfortunate one more carefully and thoughtfully.

5. We are unable to give a report on the audit of the books of the county for the reason that the report of the auditor is not ready and this, we are informed, will be ready and available for the next Grand Jury.

6. We thank the court for his forbearance, courtesy and interest shown in us and in the enforcement of the law, during our deliberation.

7. We thank the District Clerk, the District and County Attorneys

GREATER PROFITS ON DONLEY FARMS

PRICE CONDITIONS FOR THE YEAR AFFORD A REAL BASIS FOR OPTIMISM.

In a discussion of resources of Donley county, aside from feed and cotton crops, Chamber of Commerce Secretary J. M. Hill stated this week that hogs, cows, and chickens were being raised in Donley at a greater profit and more extensively than ever before.

The underlying reason, according to Secretary Hill, for greater production and profit this year in Donley is due to the fact that Donley farmers are looking ahead, learning new methods of stock farming, and made a fair feed crop last season.

Fat cattle are selling at the present for approximately 12 1-2c per pound, showing a double gain over last year's quotation.

Hogs are bringing 9c per pound on the local market, which is nearly twice the price received for hogs at this time last year.

At the present, there is a scarcity of hogs in the United States and many Donley farmers, realizing this fact, are stocking on brood sows. Donley will restock on hogs quicker than most nearby counties because her farmers were long-sighted and because the majority of Donley farmers have a feed supply sufficient to raise a large hog crop.

More than ever before, the farmers of this county are realizing the value of chickens for ready cash. Many families, it was reported, are paying monthly expenditures with the money received from poultry and eggs.

Egg prices are holding up this spring better than in several years. At the local market, 15c a dozen may be secured for eggs. Cream prices show a steady increase during the past six months, and are higher now than anytime in the past 4 or 5 years.

LIONS PARKWAY IS ASSET TO TOWN

PROJECT NEAR COMPLETION; MUCH INTEREST SHOWN BY DONLEY CITIZENS.

According to Odos Caraway, chairman of the committee to raise funds for the highway beautification project being sponsored by the Lions Club, labor on the twenty-five foot parks, extending from the old Adair place West on Highway 5 to the city limits, is nearing completion.

Recently Mr. Caraway, together with S. M. Braswell, purchased 410 plants for this beautification project from the Bruce Nursery at Alanreed. The total of 110 plants have been donated by Clarendon citizens, and 525 native cedars and tamarix have been secured from creeks and canyons in Donley.

Local clubs and individuals have donated sums which have been doubled in each instance by the Lions Club.

John Gaston, landscape engineer for the State Highway Department, John Vineyard, and Y. E. Rankin, section foreman of the highway department, are in charge of the design, labor and operations.

Mrs. Leland Wallace of Childress visited this week with her sister, Miss Eula Naylor.

and the bailiffs for their assistance during the time we have been in session.

We have completed our deliberations and ask that we be discharged.

Done at Clarendon, Texas, this the 25th day of April, A. D. 1935.

(Signed) J. G. McDougal, Foreman.

Rankin Has Nursery For Planting Project

THE NEWS FEELS THAT HONORABLE MENTION SHOULD BE GIVEN HIGHWAY FOREMAN Y. E. RANKIN FOR THE EXCELLENT MANNER IN WHICH HE HAS MAINTAINED THE LOCAL WAREHOUSE AND FOR THE NURSERY PLANTED THERE RECENTLY BY HIM.

Mr. Rankin has become profoundly interested in highway beautification and has made a great step toward beautifying Donley's highways by planting and tending a nursery on grounds adjoining the warehouse.

Several hundred plants have been gathered from nearby canyons or donated Mr. Rankin, all of which have been planted in the exceptionally fertile ground near the warehouse. Fertile soil and watering facilities available to Mr. Rankin will enable him to cultivate many hearty plants which will be used next year to beautify the highways.

After removing the trees from this unique nursery next year, Mr. Rankin plans to renew the process and raise additional trees and shrubs for the following spring's planting.

The public is invited to visit the warehouse and view the nursery and grounds which have also been beautified.

NIMROD ARTISTS CELEBRATE MAY 1

TIRED BUSINESS MEN DO COLLECTION DAY WORK IN HURRY WEDNESDAY.

Wednesday afternoon saw the absence of several "tired" business men from their usual places behind desks and counters. Usual curiosity ascertained the fact there were two underlying reasons for such absence; collection day and May 1.

Both dates with references to a calendar mean the same, but when deciphered by one having knowledge of the "bamboo" fishing pole means "the day."

Clyde Douglas was working busily behind the counter trying to finish up the day's work in one-fourth day so he could take advantage of the opening of the fishing season. H. T. Burton walking down the street with eyes on the pavement, was perhaps muttering to himself that if school were out he would probably get a chance to enjoy the day from the banks of some lovely, heretofore selected stream.

Ira Merchant was busy all over town trying to find someone who would accompany him on a casting expedition, yet retain the secret of the spot for "all time to come."

May 1 would not be complete without Chester Williams, sponsor of the petition recently circulated to delay opening of the fishing season another month, giving great thought to the delays at Austin which made necessary probable enactment of a bill regulating the local fishing season for the next year instead of this year.

Tom Connally was not seen on the streets so it is not known if he slipped off to one of his many secret streams or attended the Methodist Quarterly meeting at Hedley, Wednesday.

Corn-Hog Checks Received Tuesday

COUNTY AGENT H. M. BREEDLOVE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK THAT 209 CORN-HOG CHECKS TOTALING $7,428.76 WERE RECEIVED TUESDAY AT THE LOCAL FARM OFFICE.

Two hundred of the checks received were 3rd payments while nine were 2nd payment checks.

Producers having checks in the county agent's office will be mailed a card to that effect.

DESIGN CONTEST IN LEGION MEMORIAL

LOCAL POST OFFERS CASH PRIZES FOR WAR MEMORIAL DESIGNS.

As the outgrowth of a long considered plan to construct a monument in memorial of World War soldiers, the local post of the American Legion have devised a plan by which the citizens of this community may have part in designing a suitable memorial.

In order to obtain the largest possible number of ideas they are announcing a competition in which any citizen of Donley county, regardless of age, may submit a design for the project.

One may select any design for the memorial and the rules governing are as follows:

1. Location of Memorial. A. The southeast quarter of the lawn of the court house square or

B. The City Park near the Junior High School or

C. Any other public property in Clarendon.

2. The design may be as large or small as the contestant desires.

3. The drawings may be made in ink, pencil, charcoal, water color, or any other medium the designer may choose, but must be drawn on sheets of paper not larger than 24 inches by 36 inches.

A plan as well as an elevation (front view) is desired. But any kind of drawing expressing a suitable plan will be accepted.

The drawing may be as elaborate or as simple as one desires.

4. This competition is open to all the people of the country and especially to school children of all ages. Parents should encourage their children to compete as an undiscovered artist may be in any home.

The designs submitted to the committee will be judged for merit of idea and not on perfection of drawing. This contest is not for experienced draftsmen or artists, but for anyone who can express an idea in the form of a drawing that can be understood by the average person.

The judges' decisions will depend solely upon the idea expressed.

5. All drawings must be received on or before May 16th and may be delivered to H. R. Kerbow at H. C. Kerbow & Sons Furniture Store or to Chas. Lowry at the office of the West Texas Utilities.

All drawings become the property of the A.E.C.P. of the American Legion and none will be returned. The Legion reserves the right to use in whole or in part any drawing submitted.

6. The name of the contestant should be written on the back of the drawing.

7. A public exhibition of drawings will be held in the Legion Hall May 18th at which time the judges decision will be given and prizes awarded to the first three winning designers.

The prizes will be $5.00, $3.00, and $2.00.

College Men Visit Donley Fossil Beds

Dr. Albert Wood, professor of Columbia University and Theodore Venard, graduate of Princeton University, visited Monday at the fossil beds near Glennwood school house in Donley county.

Dr. Wood and Mr. Venard were on their way to California, and stopped off here to view the fossil beds after having heard of the vast importance the local fields have contributed to the various fossil collections over the United States to colleges and museums. They were favorably impressed with the work as being done by relief labor.

They were conducted over the location by Will Chamberlain who is in charge of the operations.

Haskell Kemp spent Monday in Pampa.

INSANITY AND LIABILITY

After many year's observation of the oft-times cheating of the penalties of crime by the guilty through the simple defense of insanity, we have come to the conclusion that there are certain light degrees of insanity, even when existant, that should not be regarded in carrying out the full penalties assessed for the crime.

Here in Texas it is too easy for some young moron to deliberately choose a life of selfish licentiousness, and greed, and then when follows the natural result of crime, to slip out of penalty by claiming insanity, temporary or in a lesser degree. Being confined to some state institution for the mentally deranged, they show improvement in a few months and are released to the same freedom as enjoyed by any citizen.

In the despicable murder of his honored father and mother, the young Pierson will likely claim insanity, but a casual study of the case would show this young criminal to have led himself into a state where he could coolly commit the horrible crime.

We could be wrong about it, of course, but it would have a salutary effect if this young fellow and his kind, be given the extreme penalty of the law regardless of claims to insanity, which few if any believe. Let the law exact its penalty and there will be fewer insane almost by magic.

CHARACTERISTIC OF MR. HINES

The daily press last week carried a story that Chairman Harry Hines of the state highway department was asking the sum of one hundred million dollars from federal recovery funds for the launching of a great highway program for Texas, basing his liberal askings on the need for employment in Texas and the necessity for the highways in the Texas Centennial year.

This is characteristic of Mr. Hines in his own business endeavors and is another indication that Governor Allred appointed the best man in Texas for the job, when he decided to leave the veteran Judge Ely off the board.

Texas is behind Mr. Hines in his request for the hundred million dollars and there is no governmental agency in the whole United States so efficiently capable of spending that huge sum for the good of the whole people than the Texas highway department.

We sincerely hope that Mr. Hines is successful in his quest of larger funds and that Donley County sees not only the completion of Highway 5 through this and Armstrong Counties, but also the construction of the gap in newly designated 88 from this point to Turkey, and the hard-surfacing of this highway North to Pampa.

HE DESERVES A BETTER SALARY

A county superintendent in a neighboring county asked every teacher at the county institute who took their local paper to hold up their hands and only six responded. The superintendent expressed great surprise and said: "You don't spend a dollar a year with those papers, yet you expect them to print free of charge notices of all institutes, insert long programs, expect them to advertise you, thus assisting you to climb the ladder to better positions and better salaries, without one cent in return."—Rochester Reporter.

WORLD'S WETTEST SPOT

One of nature's curious freaks is found on the Island of Kauai in the Hawaiian group. On one side of a mighty cliff is a desert while on the other is found what is claimed to be the wettest spot in the world with an annual rainfall of 40 feet. This heavy precipitation is believed to be caused by the cliff which faces incoming warm trade winds, and pushes them up into the high cool atmosphere where they condense and fall as rain.—The Pathfinder.

WHAT OF YOUR NAME?

Once we heard a lady, in a public address, urge young men to safeguard their names, pointing out to them that it belonged not to them alone but to all others, widely scattered, who bore it.

In everyday life we have frequent occasions to meet new faces, and unconsciously, we judge the stranger by the name he bears. Later, perhaps, we revise the initial valuation, but for a time, the worth of the name he bears justifies or condemns the unknown man.

The other day a lawyer in Castro County told us an interesting occurrence which illustrates the statements made above. Two strangers walked into the lawyer's office, discussing a matter, and before leaving turned it over to him for attention. As the lawyer required a retainer in advance, he suggested to them that they make inquiries as to his reputation.

The visitor said this was unnecessary. The lawyer then asked them who had sent them to his office. The answer was "No one." The curiosity of the lawyer having been aroused, he asked them the reason for their visit to him, when so many others were available. The answer surprised him.

One of the visitors said: "I was in the army and served under Capt. . . . He was a fine man, straight as they make them. I saw you had the same name and I decided to come to you."—Castro County News.

NO SAHARA IN DUST AREAS

Despite the Saharalike atmosphere they created, the spectacular Western dust storms of 1934 and 1935 are not a sign that part of the United States is turning into a vast permanent desert, according to Dr. J. W. Humphreys, of the Weather Bureau. The appearance on this continent of an expanse of unproductive, drifting sand like that of the Eastern Hemisphere, Dr. Humphreys says, would call for a complete change in climate on the order of the one that, centuries ago, gave northern Africa its great desert. That change occurred through countless ages as the Europe of today slowly emerged from the ice cap which, for other countless ages, had covered it. With the ice melting beneath their northern range, the air currents that govern the earth's weather were shunted into new paths, altering Africa's climate.

But no such climatic change is imminent in North America, Dr. Humphreys points out, so long as the frozen north remains frozen. Probably the ice there will melt some day but he doesn't think it will happen for at least 5,000 or possibly 10,000 years. But unless it rains in the meantime, he warns that the dust storms may continue until the season of strong gales ends, which is commonly about June 1.

A common belief is that these dust storms are a new hazard to the welfare of our country. But dust storms in the United States are nothing new. The West has always had them. However, until the last two years they have been more or less local.—The Pathfinder.

Two Lines That Mean A Lot

THE two lines shown in this chart have had a lot to do with the way people live. The mountain in the upper half represents the time when, during the war, many everyday necessities of life had to be considered as luxuries. Since then, the cost of living has come down, but it is now rising again. It has shot up considerably in the past two years.

The other line tells a different story. According to statistics, the cost of electricity has been going down for years. It is 31% lower today than it was before the war. It is 11% lower than in 1929. It is the only price group that has steadily declined.

When power plants were small and isolated, service was expensive and inefficient. When they were linked together in different sections by the holding company, they could draw upon skilled central management and adequate financial support for expansion. Then they grew fast and charged less.

These plants have 21 million customers who pay bills averaging less than $3 a month. These customers have 13 million radios, 5 million electric refrigerators, and 2 million electric ranges, in addition to laundry machines, electric irons, and scores of other electrically operated devices which contribute so much to comfort and convenience. These plants, too, pay a quarter of a billion dollars in taxes every year; yet their rates for all classes of service are lower than the rates of municipal plants, largely tax-free.

LIBRARY NOTES
(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Have you read "Good-Bye, Mr. Chips" by James Hilton? If so, then I am recalling to you a beautiful memory. If not, then you have the possibility of a delightful experience.

The little book—you can read it in an hour—was published last June. There were two reprintings within the month, and one each month for the remainder of the year, with it still being a "best seller." William Lyon Phelps in reviewing it in Schibner's said, "If I am the means of you reading it, I shall receive your gratitude." Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews says, "The loveliest new writing that has been done in years," while Margaret Ayer Barnes says, "It is charming and tender and humorous."

"Dickens would have loved Mr. Chips," comments the New York Sun, and The New Yorker says, "A tiny catch-in-the-throat story—in its way perfectly done." The Chicago Daily News says, "A rarely beautiful book." The Cincinnati Enquirer, "There is about it the feeling of something quietly delightful, very near and very elusive."

Alexander Woolcott had this to say when first he read it: "Let me be the first to tell you that there has just been published in this country a tender and gentle story as warming to the heart and as nourishing to the spirit as any I can remember. Like 'Ethan Trome,' it is one of those unclassifiable works which lie in the untrodden domain between the short story and the novel, and it strikes certain cords which have not been plucked in just its way since that day when, for the last time and for all time, Colonel Newcome said 'Adsum.' I refer to 'Good-Bye, Mr. Chips' by James Hilton. It is a public duty and no small pleasure to pass the word along from house to house when anyone gives the world something as deeply satisfying as this."

Mr. Chipping came to Brookfield, an English school in 1870, and there he remained for sixty-three years—a Junior Master in this school for boys, growing less shy, more mellow, more tolerant, more humorous and more beloved by these boys whose lives he touched so closely, and to whom he became "Mr. Chips." Very tender and sweet is the brief story of Kathie, the girl wife, who made the world all over for him in the one brief year that she was with him. Then he lived only for the school—it became his world. To it he gave all his loyalty and devotion. With the Boston Transcript we would say, "An utterly charming little story."

Two new books given us by the Mother's Self Culture Club are "The Valiant Wife" by Margaret Wilson, and "The Panorama of Modern Literature"—selections from thirty-one authors. These are the first two of the list this club plans to place in the library. The others will probably be children's books—which we sorely need and shall greatly appreciate.

JERICO
(By Mrs. R. C. Weatherly, Jr)

E. Hunt of Jericho, has lately sent us "Cancer: Its Proper Treatment and Cure." And Mr. and Mrs. Harris who have this week moved to Oklahoma brought us about forty volumes. While many of them are text books, on various subjects, they are usable texts. Besides these there are quite a few of general fiction which we shall enjoy having. We very greatly appreciate the kindness of these our friends.

The Stitch and Chatter Club was entertained Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. F. Henry.

Sewing furnished diversion for the evening, after which dainty refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake were served to the following: Mesdames I. E. Osborne, John F. Lill, E. R. Reeves, Herbert Hunt, Roy Brown, Elmer Ashmead, C. H. George, Robert Weatherly, and the hostess.

DE LAUREL BEVILLE GAINS FAME AS AMATEUR ACTRESS

De Laurel Beville, former Clarendon girl, has gained renown at her home in San Antonio for recent dramatization of Widow Cagle, the lead role in Lula Volmer's mountain drama "Sun Up," presented on March 25th by the San Antonio Little Theatre.

The play was under the direction of Frank Beckwith, who came directly to San Antonio from New York where he has directed and acted there with the Hedgerow Theatre.

Miss Beville has studied in some of the best dramatic schools of the United States and is a graduate of the School of Speech of Northwestern University.

Quoting the San Antonio Evening News in regard to Miss Beville, we find the following praise: "Heading an excellent cast was De Laurel Beville as Widow Cagle. A newcomer to the Little Theatre plays, Miss Beville is no newcomer to amateur drama and she proved it last night. Her extensive experience in all phases of dramatic work stood her in good stead in the role of the brusque, uneducated mountain woman. Miss Beville held the audience to absolute silence in her big scenes, and many were the brimming eyes in the darkened house during the last act and the close of the second."

"An actress billed as De Laurel Beville did the widow with an expertness almost foreign to the amateur stage" was the comment Jeff Davis of the San Antonio Light made in behalf of Miss Beville.

Memphis—"It pays to plant standard varieties of grain sorghum," Bob Ewen, Hall county 4-H club boy, told James A. Jackson, county agricultural agent, after comparing the yield and net return from two acres planted to Standard dwarf milo maize with that of two other acres.

Young Ewen harvested one and one-half tons of heads from the two acres of milo maize and 1934 pounds of heads from the other two acres. The milo maize gave a net return per acre of $18.72 while the net return from the other was only $8.14 per acre.

President, Highly Optimistic, Says Recovery Is Near for All

Washington, April 28.—Sound-inf a new note of optimism. President Roosevelt Sunday night outlined his work relief program to the Nation in a speech pledging no sectional and no political distinctions in distributing the $4,000,000,000 (billions) fund.

Speaking from the oval room of the White House in his seventh radio fireside chat, the President said: "Never since my inauguration in March, 1933, have I felt so unmistakable the atmosphere of recovery."

He summoned all citizens to keep a watchful eye that the work program should be the most efficient and cleanest example of public enterprise the world ever has seen, and laid down a six-pronged diagram of principles to govern the spending in his work program. Then Mr. Roosevelt enumerated a series of legislative proposals he expects Congress to enact at this session. Topping this list was his economic security legislation, which already has been passed by the House.

The principles that he laid down to govern the allotment of money from the relief were:

"The projects should be useful. Projects shall be of a nature that a considerable proportion of the money spent will go into wages for labor.

"Projects which promise ultimate return to the Federal Treasury of a considerable proportion of the costs will be sought.

"In all cases projects must be of a character to give employment to those on relief rolls.

"Projects must be allocated to localities or relief areas in relation to the number of workers on relief rolls in those areas.

Mr. Roosevelt sketched the machinery he had set up to carry the division of applications and on the work, saying he expected information to sift the applications, whence they would go to the allotment division for a further sifting and allocation of the money.

States Ask Federal Government To Cease Taxing Motor Fuel

Legislatures of 21 states, as indicated by shading on the map, have adopted memorials demanding that the federal government end the duplicating federal tax on gasoline June 30th, 1935.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — State governments are asking the Federal government to get out of the gasoline tax field and to stay out! Memorials adopted by legislatures of 21 states call for elimination of the duplicating federal tax upon gasoline at the legal expiration date June 30 next. Elimination has been recommended also by the Senate Finance Committee and by other Congressional committees. State objection to the tax is based largely upon the fact that it invades a state tax field and handicaps state efforts to finance highways. Revenue from the Federal levy never has been earmarked for roads. The Federal gasoline tax cost consumers more than $170,000,000 in 1934 alone. Since 1917 highway users have paid in this, and other special additional Federal taxes, a total of $1,723,780,555. The Federal government's regular road expenditures have been only $1,259,222,497. Efforts of state governments to eliminate the Federal tax have been aided by nearly 250 organizations representing millions of taxpayers. They have adopted resolutions and appealed to individual Congressmen to end this tax June 30 next.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dyer were genial host and hostess Thursday evening to the members of the Night Club.

Iris and other garden flowers artistically decorated the entertaining rooms.

A lovely two-course dinner was served by the hostess and the evening was spent in playing games of auction bridge in which Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Bagby were high score winners.

Participating were Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Merchant, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, Mrs. Don Grady, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Couch Entertain Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Couch entertained Thursday evening for the members of their forty-two club.

Three tables enjoyed games until a late hour when the hostess served an ice course using a color note of pink and white.

Members present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Andis, Mr. and Mrs. Van Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Warren, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Galoway, and Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Couch.

"Federation" Studied By Pathfinder Club

Mesdames R. E. Drennan and Ed Dishman were hostesses Friday afternoon at the Club Rooms to members of the Pathfinder Club.

"Federation" was the subject of the program and Mrs. B. L. Jenkins was leader.

The first topic, "Birth and Growth of Seventh District" was given by the leader, as well as was "Objectives of the Seventh District," a paper prepared by Mrs. Clyde Douglas.

Mrs. Fred Rathjen, incoming president and delegate to the Seventh District Convention held recently at Plainview, gave an interesting report of activities recounted at the convention.

O. Henry's short story, "Girl," told by Mrs. A. T. Cole and a duet, "Caprice" by Brahms, played by Mrs. Allen Bryan and Mrs. John Bass, completed the afternoon program.

A delicious refreshment course was served by the hostess to Mrs. L. E. Thompson, guest, and to club members.

Ladies Auxiliaries

Mrs. W. M. Montgomery was hostess to the members of the Presbyterian Auxiliary when they met Wednesday afternoon for a business meeting.

Twelve members attended and following the business meeting, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in quilting.

Wednesday being the first meeting of the month of the Christian Ladies Aid, the Bible study program was reserved for the next meeting and a mission program was enjoyed. Proceeding the lesson and program, the members engaged in quilting.

Mrs. F. C. Johnson, vice-president, presided over the business meeting in the absence of the president.

Mission work in Japan was studied by the Aid and Mrs. J. R. Tucker led the program. Mesdames W. E. Ferrell, Eva Humphery, and G. A. Anderson assisted.

An interesting playlette further illustrating the mission work in Japan was given by Mesdames Roy Clampitt and E. C. Herd.

Eight members and Mrs. Guy Wright, guest, attended the meeting.

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Society met in a joint circle meeting Wednesday at the church in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. W. Simpson presided over the business meeting which consisted of reports from various active committees.

The Reverend J. Perry King, pastor, conducted the Bible lesson taken from First Samuel, 20th verse, and Second Samuel, 19th verse.

Ten members attended.

Mr. Bowlin Honored On Birthday Thursday

Richmond Bowlin was pleasantly surprised Thursday when a group of his friends gathered at his home in the Naylor community to assist Mr. Bowlin in the celebration of his birthday.

After jovial conversation, his three granddaughters, Letha Marie Bowlin, Betty Nell Whitfield, and Ora Lee Whitfield, and one grandson, Sidney Rhea Beach, presented the honor guest with a three-tiered angle food cake, glowing with eighty six candles.

As Mr. Will Chamberlain celebrated his birthday on the same date as Mr. Bowlin, a cake, appropriately decorated with a miniature replica of the Donley County Courthouse, was also presented him.

A red wagon, filled to the top with gifts for Mr. Bowlin, was then presented by the four grandchildren. After these had been opened and admired and greeting cards read, Mrs. Bowlin, assisted by Mrs. Herb Whitfield, served a sumptuous dinner buffet style. The birthday cake was cut in the late evening, and the guests departed wishing Mr. Bowlin a life in coming years as useful and happy as in the past years.

Honoring Mr. Bowlin were Misses Hazel Whitfield, Betty Nell Whitfield, Ora Lee Whitfield, Minnie Naylor, Ava Naylor, Letha Marie Bowlin, and Mesdames Herbert Whitfield, Floyd Crofford, John Chamberlain, and Messrs. Sidney Rhea Beach, Herbert Whitfield, Jr., Will Chamberlain, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bain, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hefner, Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Bowlin, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Quattlebaum, and Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Bowlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Douglas and family visited in Dallas over the week-end with Mr. Douglas' mother.

Mrs. Jim Morris has been removed to her home after receiving medical treatment at the Adair Hospital.

Birthday Party Treat for Kiddies

Mrs. W. M. Herndon honored her daughter, Billie Louise, Thursday afternoon on the occasion of her fourth birthday with a lovely party.

The hostess presented the little guests with balloons as favors, and little Miss Billie Louise was honored by her friends with many gifts.

The afternoon was spent in playing games, telling stories, and contests conducted by the hostess.

A birthday cake, with a color scheme of blue and white, gleamed with candles and centered the dining table where the guests were served ice cream and cake.

Honoring Miss Billie Louise were little Misses Wilda Faye Ingram, June Attebury, Phillis Ray Ingram, Delene Blair, Johnnie Lorene Johnson, Loeta Carlisle, Imogene Sloan, Frankie Garrison, and Masters Harry Edward Blair, James Wesley Palmer, Billy Davis, Don Wilkerson, Eugene Sloan, and Charles Stidham.

Giles Teacher Honored

Misses Aleen McCants, Pauline McCants, and Mrs. O. E. Ranson entertained with a four o'clock tea Sunday afternoon at their home in Giles honoring Professor and Mrs. Baker, who have tendered their resignation to the Giles School Board.

E. H. Watt, expressing the regrets of the entire community at the leaving of these highly esteemed citizens, spoke on "Ties of Friendship."

Sloan Baker, County Superintendent paid high tribute to Professor Baker and his ability as a teacher and character builder with beautiful and well-chosen words.

Miss Aleen McCants spoke of the cooperation Professor Baker had rendered the school and community.

Calling during the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker of this city, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ranson, Mesdames J. D. McCants, E. M. Glass, and Misses Mildred Baker, Lila Beth Ranson, Aleen McCants, Pauline McCants, and Messrs. Otho Meredith, Herbert Foster, and Jack Ranson.

B. & P. W. Members Attend Club Meet

Five members of the local Business and Professional Women's Club attended the Seventh Annual Conference of District One of the Texas Federation of B. & P. W. Clubs held Saturday and Sunday at Shamrock.

Mrs. Ruth Teat, local delegate, together with Misses Mantie Graves, club president, Norma Rhodes, Julia Mae Caraway, and Ruth Hartzo, attended the two-day session.

Delegates from the sixteen towns in this district registered Saturday at the Reynolds Hotel and an Irish banquet, given Saturday evening at the Methodist Church, was the formal opening of the conference. Miss Jennie Fay Stinnett, director of District One, had charge of the opening and Mrs. Faye S. Gordon, president of the Texas Federation of B. & P. W. Clubs gave the cardinal address of the evening.

Sunday morning, the session was opened with a breakfast at the American Legion Hut. Miss Clara Lee Sheemaker, State Membership Chairman, had charge of the program, which was followed by a special services at the Methodist Church.

At the Chuck Wagon Luncheon, given at noon Sunday at the Cole Creek Country Club, Miss Blanche McComb, First Vice-President of the Texas Federation of B. & P. W. Clubs, interestingly spoke on "Pioneer Days of Texas Federation."

Led by the high-flying Hubert Reavis, the Clarendon Junior College track team, composed of F. L. Behrens, David McCleskey, and Sam King, won third place in the Great Plains meet at Canyon last Saturday. These four boys amassed a total of 23 points by their ability to win most everything they entered. Reavis also brought home further honors by being high point man of the meet with 17 points. Rankin won the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.4, the 220-yard low hurdles in 26, the hundred yard dash in 10.1, broad jump with a leap of 20 ft. 6 in. F. L. Behrens almost turned the tables on Reavis in the high hurdles winning a close second place in 15.5. F. L. also won third in the low hurdles. David McCleskey led the boys around the track in the 440, but yielded to fourth place in the last few yards of the straight-away. The time was 52.1 in this race. Sam King ran the half mile, but didn't get there soon enough to place. Royce Turnbow crawled over the fence just as the call for the low hurdle men in the high school division was made, and incidentally almost beat Compton of Mobeetie in that race. Buttercup was beaten by a scant few inches in this race and did mighty well.

Spring football training is well under way at present in spite of the sandstorms. Soc predicts a mighty good team for 1946 from the looks of the youngsters reporting for spring training. If there is any truth in the saying that there is strength in numbers, then Clarendon ought to have a mighty fine team next year as there are about 50 or 90 reporting to Coach Kerby and Greer Cottingham every afternoon.

Peek-A-Boo

The boys and girls who participated in Class Night activities were dressed in especially attractive spring clothes, the girls wearing the latest pastel and white frocks and the boys sporting dark and grey suits. Pig Greene, who willed Senior properties to the Juniors, wore a blue crocheted dress. Beatrice Gorman delivered the prophecy in a white dress and a bright plaid jacket. Eloise Hill gave the class history and wore a coral pink boucle suit. Pete Powell, class pianist who appeared on program, was attired in a classy brown net frock. These were the highlights of fashion, and a pleasant sight was when all the Senior girls stood on the stage to sing "Alma Mater."

Since Mr. Drennan shooed all loafing students out of the halls last week, the study hall and library are taking on a tired appearance and the halls look rested.

Robert Nichols sagaciously remarks: "The illicit form of amusement is the uncorking good time."

Peeks in the study hall: Allen Patman with his eyes squeezed tight and a soiled copy of memory work in his hand—Pauline Carlile draped over Helen Risley's desk to relay a bit of gossip picked up somewhere—Avis Lee lamenting to the gang that she has to make the valedictory address—James Welch muttering over his Algebra problems—Ruth Tucker noisily covering books—Keith Swinburne counting paper wads on the ceiling.

At the recent convention of college deans, and old head said that twenty years ago students "bellyached" and today they "griped."

And then there was the one about the freshman at Harvard who, upon seeing the announcement on the bulletin board, "Dates for English Examinations," remarked that it was getting so a man couldn't go stag to anything.—The Prairie.

The Home Economics department of the University of Alabama recently graduated its first male.—The Prairie.

Miss Jessie Ingram of Amarillo spent the Easter holidays in Clarendon with her mother, Mrs. C. B. Ingram.

Avis Lee McElvany, Eloise Hill Win Scholastic Honors

The senior sponsors, Miss Marie Thornton and Mr. Glenn Allison announced Monday that Avis Lee McElvany will be Valedictorian and Eloise Hill, Salutatorian of the graduating class of 1935. Avis Lee's average for the full four years of high school work (excepting the last six weeks of this year, which could not possibly affect the total averages more than a small fraction of a point) is 92.16, and Eloise's is 91.11.

Avis Lee McElvany was born in Prague, Oklahoma, and attended school there until she had finished the fourth grade. She then lived in McLean during one school year, after which she moved here and has been one of the most consistently good students in the local school system since that time. She was Valedictorian of her graduating class in Junior High, and she entered high school with an excellent record, which she has kept clear during her high school work. She is well liked by all her acquaintances and is very popular in her own group on account of her good humor, ready wit, and pleasing personality.

Eloise Hill was born in Casa Grande, Arizona, but when she was very young her parents moved to the vicinity of Clarendon, where they have remained for the past thirteen years. Eloise entered school at Brice at the unusual young age of four years, which accounts for her finishing high school at the age of fifteen. She has attended school at Brice, Goldsboro, Memphis, Floydada and Clarendon, having attended Clarendon schools most of the time from the sixth grade up to the present time. She is attractive, has many friends, and is devoted to her school work, placing it above other less important things. However, she does have a number of outside activities in which she is very interested.

COLLEGE AND SENIOR DAY PLANS COMPLETE

The members of the senior class and the two college classes have completed plans for the annual picnic which will be held jointly by the two groups this year. As was announced some time ago the picnickers will leave at eight-thirty Friday morning on trucks with Dripping Springs as their destination, where they will spend the entire day.

The college boys have challenged the seniors to a baseball game on picnic day and no doubt a lively contest will ensue. With Dean Drennan along to act as umpire, the ever-scheming college lads shouldn't do too much cheating.

Class Night Big Success

The annual Senior Class Night Friday, April 26, was one of the most successful in the past few years. Bob Word, senior president, announced each of the many successful features of the program. The Class Will, Prophecy, Statistics, and History were all very well prepared and given, and the vocal and instrumental solos were executed unusually well. Following the key oration and reply, the program was concluded with the singing of the traditional Class Alma Mater song to the tune of "On the Road to Mandalay" by the girls of the senior class.

Thursday evening, May 23, some definite knowledge about each has been obtained.

School Grieved at Death of Ex-Student

As the Broncho Range goes to press word is received of the death of Miss Marie Underwood, former student of Clarendon High School, which occurred April 30 at Dallas. She had been ill for some time it is reported.

Palo Duro Society Visits Troublesome

The members of the Palo Duro Society enjoyed a picnic at Troublesome Canyon Wednesday, April 24. After a considerable amount of debate as to whether or not to call it off on account of the dust storm, it finally became clear that the Palo Durans' desires were not to be thwarted by a little dust, so the members and their guests set out in automobiles at about six-thirty p. m.

On arriving at the canyon, the cars were deserted and the group walked about a mile upstream to the waterfall. Because of the growing darkness, it was not possible to do much exploring, so the food was spread out and soon devoured by the hungry Palo Durans, and soon afterward they began to trek back to the cars.

Upon arriving in town a number of the picnickers gathered at the home of Geraldine Pratt, where dancing and card playing were enjoyed by everyone.

La Verne McMurtry, Tillie Pratt, Mary Frances Powell, and Price Whitlock were the guests invited by the society members. Miss Hall and Miss Headrick were the chaperones of the picnic.

Misses Powels Entertain

Dorothy and Mary Frances Powell entertained a number of their friends with a formal dance last Saturday evening. Arriving at about nine o'clock, the guests enjoyed dancing to the piano and playing of Louise Smith, ping-pong, and cards until about midnight. Delicious grape punch was available during the entire course of the dance. The house was decorated with large baskets of Iris.

Those present at this enjoyable affair were Misses La Verne McMurtry, Tillie Pratt, Anna Moores

Graduate Goes Hat Hunting

Oh, here's this business of graduation coming up. When we were in Junior High our mothers bought hats and things for us, but now I'm seventeen I want to choose my own, although I don't have time for it. Well, there are only four stores in town that have hats, so I don't have far to go—one consolation to my new shoes and the feet in them. I must remember to get a hat that will go with my baccalaureate outfit—it's blue—why there's a ducky model about the shade of the skirt—the blouse is a little off color I remember. I'll go in. Yes, it does fit okay. How much? Just fine? Well, I shouldn't have spent so much of my allowance on those new fangled gloves, I guess—I have only two-fifty. Guess I'll try the bargain counter. Uh! These are rather small sizes. No blues but a dingy white might do. That all you have? Yes, in inexpensive ones I see. No, Miss Berry thinks a tam wouldn't do. It's a dignified dress.

I'll toddle across the street and shop their hat racks. That's a keen sailor on the dummy in the window. Of course my dress isn't sailor type, but I might sew some navy braid on the sleeves. Hope their tags haven't been marked up, too. Why, there goes that snobby senior I cook with. I bet she's hunting a graduation bonnet, too. I'll short-cut around this corner and beat her up the steps. O o o o o!! Never mind, lady, I just fell up a few steps in my hurry. I'm disgusted with hat-hunting; say clerkie, have me a hat made to order that will match this scrape. If it costs more than two-fifty, send the bill to dad.

What's the use of losing weight trying to get a headdress that won't be noticed among twenty-six others, next Sunday.

A BANK'S STRENGTH

Banking strength is the combination of, a sound ratio of assets to liabilities, capital sensibly invested and a conservative policy of skilled management.

True banking strength is none of these things alone, yet all of them.

No single attribute alone makes for financial impregnability. That results, rather, from a fusing of them into the structure, direction and operation of a given bank.

CAPEHART NOTIFIES NEWS OF DEATH OF OLD-TIMER

In a recent letter to the Editor from Jim Capehart of Los Angeles, California, Mr. Capehart reports the death of W. T. Brinley, resident of this city in 1887.

The deceased was killed in a car accident at Willcox, Arizona, last July 9th.

Mr. Brinley had many friends among the old-timers of this county and upon moving to this city, learned telegraphy under Geo. F. Morgan, agent at that time. Together with Mr. Capehart, he attended the first school that was taught in Clarendon in 1888 when Mrs. Hecox was principal.

In further statement, Mr. Capehart wrote that he and his family were in fine health and closed with a wish for health, happiness, and prosperity for all his friends in this city.

CHURCH CHATS

"The Supreme Goal of Christian Service"

"The name of Jesus was magnified." Acts 19:17.

This statement how the New Testament Church thought of its mission. Too often we glorify ourselves, our particular organization or our inferior ambitions, and miss the supreme goal of Christian service.

The words of our text, reveal the right attitude toward Christ. "Magnify" signifies worship. "Oh, magnify the Lord with me, let us exalt his name together." What is the Magnificat but just such adoring worship.

This should be the spirit of our worship and service. Somebody will receive the praise, for human beings are hero worshipers, and praise is cometime comforting as well as inspiring. But who is worthy? Who inspires us, saves us, directs us, and energizes us? Surely our Lord who blesses us in his service. Therefore give the praise unto Him. There is danger that we forget this. Some would adopt His teachings and forget the Teacher. But it does not take long to prove that the principles of Jesus are only a dream without his power to make them real and practical. Jesus is his gospel, and to him must be given the glory and honor. Therefore, it is the duty of the Christian to hold up Jesus, for it is only in discipleship of the Spirit that we shall receive living demonstration of his matchless power.

This text expresses our hope for the world. Business, politics, reform, club life, and a host of other activities claim our attention, but let us not forget, the name of Jesus must be magnified. There are other names rivals for a brief day, and many are deceived, but Christ is Lord of all. Test your Christianity by this measure, is the name of Christ being magnified? Submit your own life to this test and let the world see the glory of His majesty.

A Christian is one who makes it easier for others to believe in God. Christians are living witnesses of Christ and His gospel, then be sure that everything you do will magnify Christ and bring Him glory.

FOR FULL MOTOR PROTECTION

Modern cars must have oil with extra oiliness

THE development since 1931 of motors of 80 to 180 horsepower has brought about correspondingly increased bearing pressures and crankcase temperatures. Motor manufacturers have turned to new alloy metals of extra strength and durability to meet these new conditions.

For full protection of such motors, you must have oil with enough extra oiliness and film strength to get safe lubrication under extreme pressure and heat.

Yet motor oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength now than they had ten years ago. Some oils have less, because over-refining to eliminate carbon and sludge has robbed them of oiliness and film strength.

There is one exception—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. It, too, is free from carbon and sludge troubles, as its users know after millions of trouble-free miles of driving. But more important, Almen and Timken machine tests prove it has more oiliness and 2 to 4 times the film strength of any straight mineral oil! That added oiliness and film strength protect your motor under all conditions.

Germ Processing—adding concentrated oily essence to highly-refined oil—gives other valuable advantages. Because Germ Processed Oil penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, a "Hidden Quart" stays up in your motor and cuts down starting-period wear. Germ Processed Oil gives longer mileage with greater motor protection, as proved by the famous Indianapolis Destruction Test.

Say "O.K.—Drain"—fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and get full motor protection!

From the diary of a couple who had a grand time—

"The Conoco Travel Bureau at Denver sent us a complete plan of our trip—everything we needed and all of it free."

"There were road maps of every state with road conditions and best routes marked, and booklets about scenic and historic points. Hotel and camp directories, too."

"Friendly Conoco service wherever we stopped made it a grand trip, too. You can apply at any Conoco station for this free Travel Bureau service."

C. I. A. Board and Room Fee Increase

Denton, Texas.—Due to rising prices, the board of regents of Texas State College for Women (CIA) voted to increase the charge of room and board for the nine months session beginning September 1935 from $200 to $220 in the regular college dormitories. This increased price will also apply to Smith-Carroll dormitory where the charge will be raised from $150 to $170.

K. W. Donman of Lufkin was re-elected president of the board for the year. Other officers were re-elected as follows: R. H. Hoffman, Jr., Denton, vice-president; Mrs. James M. Loving, Austin, secretary.

Donley Has Rain—But Last May 1st

Five inch downpour ends drouth in Donley area; flood waters run down main street of city, read the headlines of the Clarendon News last May 3rd.

The drouth last year, then the longest of recent years, was broken by the five inch downpour on May 1st. For a period of seven hours, Donley county was drenched with heavy downfall.

The rain started at 6 o'clock the afternoon of May 1st and continued until 1 o'clock in the morning. The entire plains area received sufficient moisture.

FOUR FARMERS TO WIND EROSION BILL GOTO CAPITAL 15TH PASSED BY HOUSE

DONLEY COUNTY TO JOIN NATION IN PLEADING FOR AAA PROGRAM.

Members of all local committees of the AAA program met Tuesday morning in the court house and voted to send a delegation from Donley county to Washington in regard to keeping the processing tax and holding the present adjustment program as it is.

The committee will be composed of E. L. Lewis, chairman of the cotton committee; R. T. Drannel, wheat committeeman; Bert Mayfield, chairman of the corn-hog committee and Earnest Lamb, representative of the corn-hog committee. The three will represent Donley at the Nation's capital on May 14th and 15th.

It has been stated that practically every county in the state will be represented at this first big rise of the farmers to preserve their rights.

A special train will leave Texas at this date for Washington, but the Donley county delegation will accompany Mr. Mayfield in his car.

During the past three years the national Government has made its first real attempt to place agriculture on an equal footing with industry. This is being done through benefits and parity payments to farmers on the products they produce to offset the high protective tariff industry has enjoyed for more than fifty years.

Special interests, it has been stated, are fighting the whole program by attempting to kill the processing taxes, and by preventing the passage of a group of AAA amendments, designed to improve and strengthen the program.

Over $88,000,000 has been paid to Texas farmers as rentals and benefit payments in the past two years. All of these funds, as well as the funds for the $630,000,000 that has been paid farmers in the United States, have come from the processing taxes. The abolishment of these taxes means the destruction of the Agricultural Adjustment program.

Choir Broadcast and Program Successful

Reception was clearer than could be expected despite weather conditions Sunday afternoon when the Clarendon Methodist Choir broadcast from the Amarillo Hotel at 3:30 o'clock with an excerpt from the cantata, Wildermere's "The Living Christ," presented at the local church Easter Sunday.

Twenty members were present to broadcast and the program was announced by S. M. Braswell, director of the local choir.

Following the afternoon broadcast, the choir filled an invitation of long standing to sing at the Dimmitt Methodist Church.

Preceding the evening's program, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dean entertained the Clarendon visitors with a buffet supper at their home.

A large crowd was in attendance to hear the cantata which was presented in full on the Dimmitt program. Reverend Joe Strother, pastor of the Dimmitt church, read the scripture.

The Clarendon delegation reports a successful trip despite weather conditions.

Mrs. George Ryan and Mrs. Sella Gentry returned Wednesday night from New Orleans where they visited Miss Berkeley Ryan, who is enrolled in Newcomb College.

H. K. STANFIELD INTRODUCES BILL TO BENEFIT DROUH STRICKEN WEST.

Representative H. K. Stanfield has introduced and passed by unanimous vote in the Texas House of Representatives a bill which has for its purpose the setting up of a method of forming Wind Erosion Conservation Districts by counties.

Representative Stanfield states: "Wind erosion caused by air currents and wind, which has become so destructive in certain parts of the state, especially in the Panhandle, has recently received national attention.

"This bill provides for the calling of an election by the Commissioners Court of any county upon petition presented to them signed by fifty resident land owners of any county. The county then votes on the question of forming a Wind Erosion Conservation District in that county.

"In order to finance this work, among other things, the bill provides that the Commissioners Court may use not to exceed twenty percent of the motor license fees and part, or all, of the road and bridge fund, if necessary, this provision being optional with the county and the Commissioners Court.

"The bill carries other provisions proposed for the purpose of making effective the control of wind erosion caused by wind and air currents, and sets up the Commissioners Court as the authority to administer the provisions of this law in any county which votes to become a Wind Erosion Conservation District."

Smith Bros. Well Makes 5,000 Barrels

The sensation among oil news for the week, the Smith Bros. No. 1 Sitter promises to be Wheeler county's largest oil well after testing more than 5,000 barrels the first day of the five-day commission test Sunday. Report on the second day was not available but was slightly less, local oil men said.

The new well flowed 1,418 barrels the first three hours after it was drilled in Sunday, at an approximate depth of 2,540 feet.

The well is located in the northeast corner of the west half of the northwest quarter of section 33, block 24, in proven territory. Several large producers are in the same area but none of them came in for as great initial production.

Pay was located below the 2,450 mark and several million cubic feet of gas was found with the oil.

O. H. JACKSON REPORTED SERIOUSLY ILL TODAY

O. H. Jackson was taken seriously ill Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock and is suffering a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Jackson returned Sunday from Mineral Wells where he had been for several weeks receiving treatment. Upon returning to his home, his condition showed marked improvement and it was thought that he would experience fine health thereafter.

As The News goes to press, there is no definite change reported in his condition which has been serious since suffering the stroke early yesterday.

Mrs. A. Holmberg of Dumont is visiting this week with her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Landreth.

Marie Underwood Dies in Dallas

Clarendon citizens were grieved to learn of the death Tuesday of Marie Underwood, former Clarendon girl and resident of Donley all her life until leaving this climate a year ago due to ill health.

The deceased passed away at the Dallas home of her father, Roy Underwood, at ten o'clock Tuesday night.

Marie Underwood attended Clarendon High School and endeared herself to the student body and faculty. She was a popular student and a leader of many school activities.

While attending Clarendon High School, Marie made her home with Mr. and Mrs. George Norwood and during the years she resided in Lelia Lake, she lived with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Camp.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at Dallas. Homer Estlack and Miss Oleta Camp will be among Clarendon friends to attend funeral services.
